SAYE WOMAN FROM SEA

The Occupants of Sail Boat From Watery Grave.

CAPTAIN DONALDSON A HERO.

Rescue Woman First, Her Husband and Company Next, and Themselves Last. Displayed Seamanlike Behavior.

Only their bravery and coolness saved a party of local fishermen from a watery grave, while trying to rescue a woman and three companions from a sail boat which had run them down, Sunday

The party consisting of thirteen men in the motor boat "Dick" anchored off Sea Breeze Beach, Staten Island. Suddenly the "Minnie H." a 54 foot sail boat which put off from Perth Amboy, was seen heading directly for the "Dick." The fog horn of the Dick" was sounded, but the captain of the." Minnie H." lost control of his boat as the centerboard of his boat was not down. Hence the "Minnie H." crashed into the "Dick."

The boom of the sail boat swept over the cabin of the motor boat knocking off the flag mast and all the lights on the boat. At this time Captain Donald-son of the "Dick" was trying to stave off the "Minnie H." but owing to the rough sea and the high winds failed, and was knocked overboard. Jack Sell and George Johnson were also hit by the boom and fell into the bottom of their boat. The force of the tide was so great that Captain Donaldson was carried underneath the motor boat. The party then threw life preservers to him and he was hauled on board.

At this point the sail boat capsized. The party on the "Dick" first rescued Mrs. Whitworth and then the men on board the "Minnie H." Captain Whitworth refused to leave his boat until it was made fast to the "Dick" and towed into shore. Captain Whitworth has sailed the "Minnie H." for 29 years and this is his first accident of any account.

The members of the party Captain Donaldson, Chester Moffett, pilot; J. H. Wells, R. C. Miller, John Sell, Carl Sell, Samuel Knapp, all of Westfield, George Johnson, of Plainfield and four men from Newark.

Although the fishing party behave like brave men and seamen, they still regard themselves as the Lemon Fishing Club and are asking themselves, who is the Jonah? J. H. Wells caught a jewel in the form of a four pound toad bait taken on board there helped to steady their nerves later in the day. All told the party got 23 fish.

Mayor Alpers Requests That Lawn Sprinklers be Retired for Present Owing to Drouth.

Owing to the continued complaints about the water company shutting off present scarcity of water in town a STANDARD representative had an interview with Mayor Alpers and Councilman Afficek last evening. Mr. Alpers gave a copy of a letter from Mr. Bergen which is self explanatory.

My Deur Alpers—I enclose clipping from the Newark Evening News containing a copy of a proclamation issued by the Mayors of Plainfield and North Plainfield, this morning. The proclamation was the outcome of a conference at Plainfield lust evening between the free committee of the Council and myself.
The waste of water during these hot days is simply appalling and must not be continued. Notices and warnings by the water company seem to have no effect.

the water company seem to have no effect.

I informed the committee last evening in Plainfield, that if the proclamation should not be obeyed the Company would pay the salaries of special officers, if appointed by the city, to enforce it.

I think it imperative that you should issue a similar proclamation in Westfield and publish it in the STANDARD, which. I believe, goes to press on Friday.

The company will rebate one-half the amount paid by citizens for the use of hose and sprinklers during the current year in Westfield, so that they cannot clain that the company has kept their money and not rendered the service for which they have paid.

Yours very truly,

FRANK BERGEN.

Both Mayor Alpers and Mr. Affieck

Both Mayor Alpers and Mr. Affleck denied that they are in league with the water company, assome of their detract ors have asserted. Said Mr. Alpers. "We are facing a great scarcity of water, and it is becoming necessary for the officials and people of Westfield to aid the water company in trying to stave off the present crisis." The Mayor added, "We are not standing up for the water company, but we must do something for our own protection." Mr. Affick said "The water company is unable to deliver the goods, but we should do our

MR. WATKINS SUGGESTS WAY OF CONSERVING WATER SUPPLY

I notice there is a great hullabaloo being made by Frank Bergen and his Plainfield-Union Water Co, re garding the amount of water Westfield citizens should use for lawn purposes. The fact is, that a Westfield citizen the water at different times and the paying the outrageously high prices asked for water, should be allowed to might treat Mr. Frank Bergen's letter, use all the water necessary and at a time to suit his convenience.

The fact is that you Westfield people against an unforeseen snag.

Instead of Frank Bergen kicking about the amount of water legitimately used for lawn purposes he should have his representative, Thomas Dowd, (whose name appeared so much in print in last week's STANDARD and other papers), spend some of his time looking Broad street so as to show a force of after leaky fire hydrants, thousands of gallons of water now going to waste could be saved. To my knowledge one hydrant at the corner of the Boulevard and Washington street has been leaking for over one month and hundreds of gallons of water have daily been going down the gutter to the Grove street brook.

Let Mr. Bergen put Dowd on the job of saving water that is being wasted and have him spend less time riding around hunting for trouble from those who use a lawn sprinkler two or three minutes over time.

Mr. Editor, the people will wake up some day and Westfield will have its own water supply. It's got to come and now is the time.

LOW WATER PRESSURE.

Mr. Hohenstein Suggests Caution in Use of Water During Dry Season.

Westfield, N. J., July 27th, 1910. On several occasions during the pas few weeks my attention has been called to the lack of sufficient water pressure during the early evening in different sections of our town. Realizing the seriousness of this condition in the event of fire, I have made some inquiry about the matter. I have been informed at the office of the Water Company that any lack of water pressure is wholly due to the excessive waste of water. At the present time water is being pumped at the rate of 165 gallons to every person in town. Seventy-five gullons a day per capita is considered by water supply authorities to be a very generous supply.

If these figures are true there is evidently a great waste of water going on. As we have six or seven weeks of summer weather to go through, on the score of public safety, I appeal to the good judgment of our people to discontinue this waste at their own homes, and discourage the practice at the home of others.

Respectfully: R. F. HOHENSTEIN, Chairman Fire Committee

the History and Inadequacy of Present Supply.

That Are Contracted For, And That Now It Is Up To Them.

Editor STANDARD:

If the citizens of Westfield were not up against a serious water problem we in your last issue, as a joke, or as evidence that the Union Water Co. had run

Many of our residents will remember the water meeting held in Love's Hall the night before the town election to decide on municipal water. We also remember that Mr. Bergen was present at that meeting as a representative of the Water Co.

We also remember that in the display of the force of water the previous afternoon the pipes were plugged on East water which they were not able to deliver and never have delivered.

The Water Co. then admitted,

1st. That the force of water which they had displayed (and which fooled many of our people) would be diminished after the plug was removed and the water was passing through the mains to supply the towns east of us, including Elizabeth.

2nd. That the force would be further reduced by running through a six inch lateral one block away from the main.

3rd. That a still further reduction of force would take place running two blocks away from the main through a six inch and then a four inch lateral.

The whole falacious claim of the Union Water Co. was so shown up at that meeting that at the election the next day the Union Water Co. could only muster 53 votes to allow them to lay their pipes through our streets. The old residents know the rest of the story.

To come down to the present aspect of the waterquestion. We have bought our water. We have paid for its de-livery. Do we get it? No! Well, what re you going to do about it?

if we buy goods of a merchant and he finds he has sold us what he cannot deliver, he makes a frank statement and offers to refund our money. Do we get this from the Union Water Co.? Not They come like a beggar and ask us to take less than we have bought.

The word "lavish" isn't a good answer from Mr. Bergen. They have our money and don't propose to deliver the goods. He knew that the towns in this section were growing rapidly when he asked us for a franchise. He knew at that time that the water in Elizabeth was not adequate, and he frankly admitted that Westfield would have less force of water when the main was extended to Elizabeth.

He has known that Westfield's growth was at the rate of doubling its population in seven or eight years.

He has now, no doubt, heard that municipal water is again agitated in Westfield, and he is prepared to offer us another coating of water salve such as he has applied to our water wounds for the last sixteen years.

Mr. Bergen now promises that he will recommend an extension of pipes, etc.; that he expects that they will have additional supply at Netherwood, etc. the present strain. What is to be done about it? water corporation will not get us money's worth.

No matter what the voters decide to do in the future, there is a critical problem facing the town at this moment. Future supplies of water don't help the present case. Hence it would seem that the sensible thing to do is for all good citizens to use every effort to conserve the present supply. The best current year.

The water company, on the supply the town with water. Even though the water company has inflicted wrongs on the town, it seems juncture. The water company is in will he be in the performance of his a predicament. The corporation cannot deliver the goods.

Since the furnishing of water is a business proposition, and since it is requiring more water every year to supply Westfield, the future problem will be to find a means of stetting the goods, so urgently need. Miss Dorothy L. Piske. ed, delivered. It must be possible, in the future to find a more abundant source of water for the town. But this will not avert the present crisis. Although there is no compolation in the matter, it seems fair St. Mark's avenue, Sunday. for all to be saving in the use of water at present. " ,

The water company have re in this fashion. The complaints are founded on real grievances. West-field is really suffering from a dnesn't it rain? Why searcity of worters. At present, in certain parts of the town, and at certain times of the day, if a fire should break out, our efficient body of firemen would be greatly handicapped by the present low pressure. Certainly, Rome, would burn. Likewise there is a feeling, even among those who do not drink water, that they should be able to get sufficient water to take a bath at any hour of the day or night. Limitation Modified INDER an amendment to the New York insurance laws, the legislation of four years ago restricting the new business of the New York Life to $150,000,000 has been modified. The Company is allowed to write a larger amount provided its expenses are under the rate fixed by the State. As the New York Life expense rate in 1909 was THE LOWEST OF ALL COMPANIES, it is allowed to write new business this year up to about $165,000.000.

Between Ourselves

"I don't seem to notice the heat when I shop at your store" said an Elizabeth woman the other day. "Everyone seems so busy and there's so much going on all the while that, somehow or other, I seem to forget that it is hot."

We thought this was most COMPLIMENTARY and we told the customer so, too.

Now we don't claim that our store is an ICE BOX in the summer time or that it is any cooler than any other big, modern shop with good, high ceilings, broad aisles and plenty of electric fans, but we DO claim that this is an INTERESTING summer store and we DO try to make it so thoroughly WORTH WHILE to come here these hot days, that it is exactly as the Elizabeth woman said "YOU SEEM TO FORGET THAT IT IS HOT."

With all the excessively hot weather of the past few weeks we are just rounding out the BIGGEST and BUSIEST July in all our seventeen years of store keeping in the "INDUSTRIAL CITY" and we want to state right here-emphatically too-that we're going to keep things humming for the NEXT THIRTY DAYS as they never hummed before, at this time of the year.

Ladies' World.

Excellent fletion is provided for the greater part of the August number of the Ladies' World, which has just reached us. The place of honor is given to a novelette by Anne Story Allen, who has written too seldom of late years. It is called Poppy and Her Aunt Lucie, and is full of quiet humor, while carrying the inevitable love interest to a happy conclusion. Imogen Clark has a delicious child story adults, one of the best we have read for many a day, in Margery Represents the Family: Annie Hamilton Donnell has a rather unusual theme in The Peters Pudding; and there are the concluding installments of The Fall and the Rebuilding and a Garden enchanted. A collector narrates more humorous adyentures in search of old furniture, which have the merit of being absolutely true. Few women know how much the Government is prepared to do to aid the housewife, so everyone should read the paper on the subject by Mary Hamilton Talbott; and equally helpful Stationery—W. E. "The Strollers" at Olympic Park.

"The Strollers," the successful musical comedy by Harry B. Smith and Ludwig Englander, will be given at Olympic Park, Newark, for the first time by the Aborn comic opera company next week. Francis Wilson first made this opera a Broadway favorite. Robert Lett succeeded Francis Wilson in the stellar role, and was so popular that the above company has retained Mr. Lett, Other members of the cast are Jas. McElhern. Harry Hormeon, Prince Adolar, May Bonton, Chas. H. Bowers, Dorothy Webb, Florence Rother. The Olympic Park out-door entertainment for next week includes Billy Weiss, in a novelty punching act, the Armenian Brothers, comedy contortionists and trapese artists, and Roberti's trained beam, monkeys and dogs.

H. L. Fink Orders 150 Automobiles.

Hiram L. Fink, the automobile man, is very busy these days. In spite of his endless work in connection with repairing, storing and renting automobiles Mr. Fink managed to get to Philadel phia, recently, where he placed an order for 150 of the new 1911 models of the Elmore valveless two-cycle machines. The increasing popularity of the Elmore brought about this move on Mr. Fink's part. They will arrive at the garage, 135 Elm street, within a couple of weeks where Mr. Fink will be ready to demon strate them. The tax question is the principal local problem. The system of fixing the ratables and defining the individual tax long after the town budget has been adopted is in itself inconsistent, expenditures against the budget being made before the taxes are collected necessitating anticipating what should come into the treasury by the proceeds, in discount, from a string of certificates of indebtedness. The entire present plan is a hand down from almost colonial days when the idea was that the farmer, having sold his crops, had his cider boiled, a couple of dressed hogs hanging in the cellar and the stock and family guarded against the winter of cold and inactivity, could best meet his share of the little tribute needed to meet the public debts arranged for on the previous spring town-meeting day. With the growth of the community and the changes in conditions the old plan has become more and more of a missit. The fairness to the individual in his rate is removed from being a problem where the individual will state reasonably what his possessions are worth. As the tax system is state universal there is quite some official machinery to the operation at present which would require considerable regearing to permit of the establishing of the expenditure requirements and the tax levy at the same time with a possible further benefit to the municipalities and the tax payers in fixing the final date, when all taxes must be paid or suffer a possibly, somewhat removed from Christmas and New Year
