RAPS FOR THE BOSSES

Lloyd Thompson Roundly Scores the Miracle of the Democratic Leaders in this State.

THREW THEIR GOOD CHANCES AWAY

Never Have Accepted Opportunities—Dr.

Wilson's Record—Issues of Campaign Clearly Set Forth.

Lloyd Thompson got at the vitals of the State campaign issues at a big meeting at Summit, Monday night. He roundly scored the Democratic bosses and gave a clear resume showing the distinction between Republican rule and Democratic miracle in the state.

Mr. Thompson said in part: We should only be deceiving ourselves if we did not admit that this year New Jersey Democracy has made the boldest and best bid for power that it has made at any time in the fifteen years since it was driven from control. Knowing that the same men are still in control of the Democratic organization that controlled it when the people drove it in

CHILDREN'S COUNTRY HOME IN GOOD FINANCIAL CONDITION.

Annual Meeting Featured by Interesting Play by Children.

The annual meeting of the Children's Country Home Association was held in the Presbyterian Parish House last Saturday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. V. O. Barrie. A scripture selection read and prayer offered by Rev. Dr. Stans.

The annual reports were read and accepted, that of the Recording Secretary Mrs. Edwin Shields, of the Corresponding Secretary Mrs. Stratton Halstead and of the Treasurer, Mrs. J. S. Parrie. The report of the Treasurer showed the receipts of the year, including the offering of the Young Ladies Auxiliary for permanent improvements, to have been $2845.31 and the expenditures $2616.44. Balance in the general fund $228.87.

The Treasurer also reported the gift from Dr. Cates of another bond of $1000—the interest to be used in providing ice cream and cake for the children in the Home on Festival Days. This makes the Endowment Fund as given by Dr. Cates $2000—but the interest is only available for specific purposes. Not to be used for the support of the Home.

The report of the Treasurer is not as favorable as in former years and the Reserve Fund had to be called upon for $200. This was reported as "borrowed" and it is hoped that the receipts of the present year will be much larger than those of the past and that the Managers will be able to return to the Reserve Fund the amount borrowed.

The reports of the Young Women's Auxiliary were exceedingly interesting. That of their secretary showed much interest on the part of the members, meetings well attended, good work done in visiting and entertaining the children and having sole charge of the Sunday

REPUBLICANS ENTHUSE.

Big Attendance of Committee at Office of Assemblyman Thompson.

A joint meeting of the Republican Executive Committee and the Ward Auxiliary Committees, to make final preparations for Tuesday's election, was held last night at the office of Assemblyman Thompson. In spite of the heavy rainstorm, over fifty were present. Charles N. Coddling presided and spoke on the State issues, as did also Charles H. Donnan. Hon. Lloyd Thompson spoke on the issues in State, county and town. It was a most enthusiastic meeting. There was applause when the speakers told of the record of Republican rule, and explained that the same men who had corrupted the State under Democratic rule, were the leaders in the Democratic party to-day and the ones to whom Dr. Wilson must look for guidance if elected Governor.

Mr. Coddling said that the sentiment for Dr. Wilson hereabouts was due to the fact that the new-comers to New Jersey did not understand what Democratic rule had been in New Jersey. He felt confident that Vivian Lewis would be elected. The tide he said was turning in favor of the Republican candidate every day.

"Mayor" Floyd was roundly cheered when mention was made of his manly and straightforward campaign declaration. His opponent's "special election" argument was ridiculed as being illegal.

After the meeting refreshments were served and everyone went home resolved to work hard for the Republican ticket.

ELECTION RETURNS.

By courtesy of Mr. James E. Graps, the election returns, for which special arrangements have been made by the STANDARD, will be received at the office of the Westfield Real Estate Company. It is expected that the earliest returns will not be forthcoming until about 7:30 o'clock. From that time on messages will be received from all parts of the State. The result of the election in Connecticut, New York and other parts of the country will also be forwarded by bulletin. Particular attention will be given to the results locally, and in this Congressional District, and the Governorship contest.

—William J. Simpson and family, of Broad street, have moved to New York.

—The little daughter of R. P. Grant is ill at her home in Westfield, suffering with diphtheria.

—Henry Vann has been entertaining David Dickinson at his camp in the Adirondacks. Both returned home this week.

LIVELY CONTESTS ANTICIPATED AT THE POLLS IN TUESDAY'S ELECTION.

Leaders of Both of the Parties Anticipate a Close Contest for the Governorship.

MR. FLOYD IS LOCAL FAVORITE.

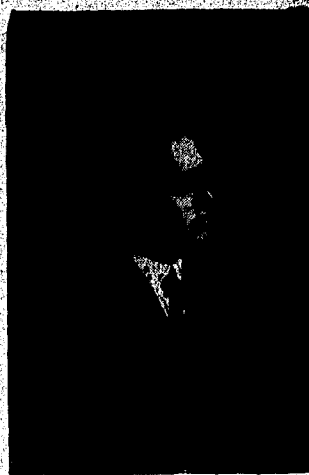

The Republican Nominee for Mayor Will Win on His Record, 'Tis Thought—Contest for Clerkship and Council.

Election Day will be here next Tuesday, and from early morning until late at night the voters will be busy expressing their opinion as to who shall administer the affairs of Town and State. From many view points, the coming election will be the most interesting held for years. The result in the State is not a foregone conclusion; the battle-scarred warriors of the two great political parties and Vivian M. Lewis, the Republican, and Dr. Wilson, the Democratic nominee, feel certain of victory. Neither side is expecting a landslide, and every indication points to a very narrow margin of majority for the winner. The commoner sentiment in the near vicinity of New York is pro-Wilson; but it is agreed that the determining factor in the contest will be the labor vote. Republicans are confident that this will be for Mr. Lewis, who is a good vote-getter with the laboring man because of his pleasing personality and his evident sincerity of purpose. With the result of the election somewhat of a problem, it is quite possible that Mr. Lewis may poll a surprisingly large vote. He is not opposed personally. But the desire for a change has had a psychological effect on the independent vote, which may or may not count against Mr. Lewis. Both parties are agreed that the candidates are worthy, and, this being true, the desire for a change on the part of many, it is prophesied will be overcome by the confidence which Mr. Lewis has inspired in his courage and ability to be an independent and fearless chief executive. To be sure it is this same confidence in Dr. Wilson, and his ability as a campaigner that has inspired the Democrats to hope for victory. The Republicans, on the other hand, claim that experience is proof of ability, and the party in power, with a leader of recognized qualifications, should and will have the preference with the voters. The sentiment in south and middle New Jersey, it is declared, is solidly pro-Lewis, which is an indication of a close vote, even should the Wilson vote meet the expectations of his followers in Hudson, Union and Essex. Francis is counted upon to give her favorite son, Mr. Lewis, a very large vote, and counties in the south of the state it is thought will do likewise.

The Local Election.

The local election, too, promises to be interesting. The contest between Edward D. Floyd and J. Austin Dennis is the main topic of conversation, and the consensus of opinion is that Mr. Floyd will be elected by a substantial majority. It is felt that Mr. Floyd, who has served the Town for so many years as councilman from the First Ward, and as a member of many important committees, is deserving of a substantial endorsement by the voters. He is a good administrator, independent in his views and admirably well qualified for the position which he seeks. Mr. Dennis, the Democratic candidate, is a member of the Board of Education and has his work cut out for him on that body. It is felt by many that he cannot forsake the duties of the latter post in this crisis in local educational affairs, and for him to attempt to do both, would be imposing unnecessary burdens upon him. Why, in the circumstances, should it be necessary to increase Mr. Dennis' public duties, when an experienced man stands ready to serve the Town as Mayor, is a question not easily answered by the supporters of Mr. Dennis. Westfield is a Republican town, but politics is not a chief factor in the local election. Mr. Floyd has been a good public servant, and for what he has done, the voters, it is thought, will be thankful by giving him a substantial majority.

The town Clerkship contest between Charles Clark and John McCormick will be of interest. Mr. Clark has been a resident of Westfield all his life, and a local business man for many years. He is well known and liked. If McCormick is elected, and there are indications that he will be, he will give all of his time to the duties of the office. Mr. McCormick is known as a hustler. He has exceptional ability in detail work, and an enthusiasm for it. As a campaigner he has nerve and energy. Those who know him will see justly to his pluck and energy. The contest between him and Mr. Clark will be watched with interest. Both have supporters and a hard-fought battle is anticipated. The Ward contests will be earnestly carried on. In the First Ward Mr. Henry W. Evans, Republican, will be pitted against Mr. John Darsh, Democrat. Mr. Evans is a young man of sound business training. He is deeply interested in Westfield and its growth, and his friends are working hard to elect him. Mr. Darsh is a veteran business man and one of the town's large property owners. Mr. Darsh is said to have accepted the nomination reluctantly. The sentiment in the ward is strongly in favor of Mr. Evans. In the Second Ward every effort is being made to secure the election of Mr.

Woodrow Wilson and the Bosses

A Presentation of Some Plain Facts for the Consideration of the Independent Voters of New Jersey.

Doctor Woodrow Wilson, former President of Princeton University, now Democratic candidate for Governor of New Jersey, in his speech at St. Peter's Hall, Jersey City, said: "Some gentlemen on this platform can tell you more specifically than I can that I did not seek the nomination for Governor."

Doctor Woodrow Wilson, former President of Princeton University, now Democratic candidate for Governor of New Jersey, said in his speech at Taylor's Opera House, Trenton, October 3: "Now the beautiful part of the situation, so far as I am concerned, is that I have not been told that anybody was responsible for my nomination. If anybody did bring it about, I am glad to say I did not know who it was."

Alfred N. Dalrymple, Chairman of the Republican County Committee of Essex County, in a statement made before the County Committee, following Dr. Wilson's assertion that he did not know who nominated him said: "Early in July this year there was a conference in the summer home of Dr. Wilson at Lyme, Conn. There were present at that conference a number of gentlemen who represented some of the largest special interests in this country. The Democratic nomination for Governor of New Jersey was offered to Dr. Wilson at that time and Dr. Wilson was assured that if he would accept the nomination the men present would work for his nomination as a candidate for President or Vice-President in 1912. Dr. Wilson accepted the terms offered and allowed his name to be used."

Dr. Wilson, upon being confronted with Mr. Dalrymple's statement, said that he "had never heard of such a thing" (as the conference).

Richard V. Lindabury, some days after Dr. Wilson's denial, presided at a meeting in Somerville, at which he introduced Dr. Wilson as follows: "I was one of a party of gentlemen, Democrats, who waited upon the man who has since become the candidate, who reported to him that there was a time now in this State for a great public service to be performed. * * * Two weeks afterwards he announced to us that if the solemn thinking people of the party would call him to the candidacy of Governor he would not feel he had a right to refuse it. So it was we got our candidate."

Everyone who knows anything about the State of New Jersey knows that Richard V. Lindabury is one of the greatest corporation and trust attorneys in the State, possibly representing more "special interests" than any other lawyer in the State. Mr. Lindabury did not state who the other "gentlemen Democrats" were who attended the conference which made the promises to Dr. Wilson. Nor did he state what "special interests" were represented at the conference and who, besides himself, represented them.

Dr. Wilson said in his recent reply to the questions of George L. Record that the existence of the boss system is notorious; that it is bipartisan; that he hates it as thoroughly as he understands it, and that if elected no boss will control him.

Leaving aside Dr. Wilson's denials as to who nominated him, the facts can be verified by the public prints that at the Democratic State Convention at Trenton the proceedings were engineered by James Smith, jr., of Newark; George Harvey, President of Harper & Brother, a publishing concern in New York City owned by J. Pierpont Morgan; "Jim" Nugent, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, aided and abetted by such men as William Thompson, the famous Duke of Gloucester; Robert Davis, the redoubtable Democratic boss of Hudson County, and "Charlie" Gallagher, the Mercer County agent of former Senator Smith.

It is well known by the Democrats of New Jersey that Eugene Kinkead, a Congressman from Hudson County; James Nugent and others, for several weeks prior to the Democratic State Convention, acted as former Senator Smith's special agents to go about the State and whip into line the Democratic leaders of the various counties for the candidacy of Dr. Woodrow Wilson.

It is a political custom in New Jersey, so long observed that it amounts almost to a law, that the party nominee for Governor selects his own campaign manager. Mr. Lewis, the Republican candidate, selected the Hon. Frank O. Briggs, of Trenton, as his manager. Mr. Wilson either selected or acquiesced in the selection of "Jim" Nugent as his campaign manager, and Nugent has toured the State with him, and has been ever at his elbow ready with advice and counsel.

Dr. Wilson was asked by George Record in his recent letter if there was any movement in the Democratic party that corresponded to the progressive movement in the Republican party. Dr. Wilson's reply was evasive, but he did say that he regarded his own nomination as a reform movement in the Democratic party. And Dr. Wilson made this statement in spite of the unavoidable inference that he must either discredit his own reputed high intelligence or have a remarkably short memory if he does not understand or recall that his own nomination was planned and accomplished by James Smith, jr., "Bob" Davis, "Jim" Nugent, "Billy" Thompson, George Harvey, and "Charlie" Gallagher.

If Dr. Wilson is fit to be leader of the Democratic party in New Jersey he must be acquainted with the recent history of that party. He must know that a group of men have been for years endeavoring to break the power of the Democratic machine headed by Smith, Nugent, Thompson, et al. He must know that Mayor Otto Wyden, of Jersey City, has been openly fighting that machine. He must know that Senator George Siler, of Middlesex County, has for two years back been preaching the anti-boss doctrine. He must know that Senator Gebhardt, of Hudson County, has been doing the same thing, and that Frank Katzenbach, of Trenton, three years ago the Democratic candidate for Governor, has been openly allied with the movement that has been trying to destroy the Democratic machine.

Dr. Wilson must know now, else he discredits his intelligence, that everyone of these men in the Democratic State Convention opposed the nomination of Woodrow Wilson. Even from Mercer County, the home of Princeton University, every delegate to the Democratic State Convention opposed the nomination of Woodrow Wilson. From the Borough of Princeton, in which Dr. Wilson resides, every delegate to the Democratic State Convention opposed the nomination of Dr. Wilson. There was not a man from Dr. Wilson's home county, or even from his home town, to nominate him.

At this same Democratic State Convention, according to the newspapers, James Smith, jr., reigned supreme. Planks in the platform were made or adjusted to suit the judgment of George Harvey, who sat in a box with Senator Smith, while the delegates of William Harvey, the Sheriff of Essex County, representing the most important opposition to boss rule elected to the convention, kept from entering the opera house where the convention was held by that effective influence of the Democratic "bosses" known as physical force.

Dr. Wilson is now appealing to the independent element of the voters of New Jersey for their support of his candidacy in spite of the fact, absolutely known to everyone interested in New Jersey politics and New Jersey government, that his nomination was brought about by the dictates of the old, discredited Democratic bosses, and opposed by every man at the Democratic State Convention whose name has been connected in any way with the improvement of political conditions in the Democratic party.

When is Dr. Wilson to break away from the "boss" system he says he hates as thoroughly as he understands it? Did he accept his nomination at the hands of this discredited Democratic "gang"? Is his campaign being financed and managed by these people?

And is it to be credited that, if he succeeds in his Candidacy, the morning after election he will open the doors of his office to these Men who have nominated him and managed his Campaign and say "Good-by, I am through with you?"

LIVELY CONTEST IS EXPECTED AT POLLS

Alfred A. Moser, the Republican candidate for the one year term. Mr. Moser has a reputation as a careful and successful business man. He is one of the best insurance adjusters in the business, and his work, in all parts of the county, has given him a practical knowledge of men and affairs. It is the consensus of opinion in his ward, that Mr. Moser is the right man for the right place, and the voters will turn out to elect him. Mr. Moser is opposed by Chas. E. Burtin.

Councilman Robert F. Hohenstein is again the Democratic candidate for the two-year term. He is opposed by Martin Snyder, Republican and local business man. Mr. Hohenstein has been in the Council many years and is Chairman of the Fire Committee. He has a reputation for getting things done for his ward and for the town; and his opponents realize that he has a hard fight on his hands to defeat him. Mr. Snyder is making a strong bid for votes, however, and is confident that he will make a good showing against "Fighting Bob."

In the Third Ward, Fred M. Brush, the Republican No-License League candidate is opposed by Edwin Oswald, Democrat. Both candidates are hustling for votes and the prospects are that there will be a good contest at the polls. Mr. Brush has recently declared to the Republican Executive Committee of his ward that he is working for the success of the Republican ticket and this will doubtless have an effect on his chances for election, as it was at first reported that Mr. Brush was working against other Republican nominees. The Republicans are out to elect Mr. Brush.

Over in the Fourth Ward, George Brown, Republican, and Robert DeCamp, Democrat, are contesting for councilmanic honors. Both are hard workers and have a good following. Republicans over there are out for Mr. Brown since he declared for the party ticket, and the Democrats are putting their best foot forward to overcome a nominal Republican majority. Mr. Brown is a good business man and a public spirited citizen. It is felt that he will make a valuable member of council and every effort is being made to secure his election.

There is no contest for the office of Collector and Tax Assessor, Addison H. Clark and John M. C. Marsh, Democrats, being unopposed.

REPUBLICAN NOMINEES ARE SURE WINNERS IN FREEHOLDER CONTEST

Charles A. Smith Has Fine Record—The Democratic Nominee.

There is every indication that Westfield will give the Republican nominees for Freeholder, Charles A. Smith and Joseph Perry, a large majority over their Democratic rivals, J. Raymond Lambert and John G. TenEycke.

Mr. Smith has a splendid record of accomplishment on the County Board, having served for six years in that body. He is at present serving on the Public Ground and Buildings Committee; Auditing Committee; chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, and chairman of Special Committee on the Home and School for Juvenile Delinquents. He is Charles A. Smith is a member of the Board of Education, in which capacity he has done much for the Town of Westfield. Mr. Smith is regarded by his colleagues as one of the most aggressive and conscientious members of the Board. He enjoys the respect and esteem of the people of Westfield, and is certain of their endorsement at the polls.

Mr. Joseph Perry, although not so well known as Mr. Smith, has served a term on the Board of Freeholders very commendably. He is a hard worker and has a good record. Mr. Perry has done good service this fall on the Special Ballot Box Committee.

The Democratic nominees are local business men. John G. TenEycke, Mr. Perry's opponent, has been a hard worker for the Westfield Riding and Driving Club, having been instrumental in securing the best horses in the state for meets on the local track. He is a hustler and popular, and his friends and the Democratic organization are working for him.

Mr. Lambert, who opposes Mr. Smith, is a young man who is ambitious to succeed in politics. He has the support of the local Democrats and hopes to make a good showing against his popular and experienced opponent.

James N. Worl, Republican, and Edwin R. Collins, Democrat, are the opposing nominees for Justice of the Peace.

Says the Irreverent Student, "Liberty is a thing we modern people abuse," observed our friend, the Student. "The Puritans, now, always carried guns to church, and yet I can't find that one of 'em ever shot a preacher."

Both Told Wrong Course. "This would be a better world," says the Philosopher of Folly, "if the man who has been married one year would talk less about it, and the man who has been married ten years would talk more about it."

MUCH INTEREST IN RESULT OF CONGRESSIONAL CONTEST.

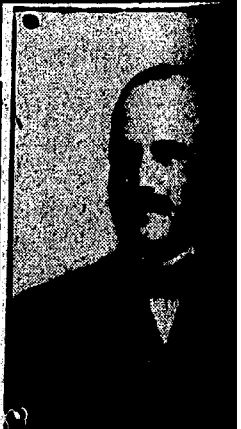

The Two Bills, Ruyon and Tuttle, Conducting Heart-to-Heart Campaign.

The campaign for the election of a Congressman in the Fifth Congressional District (Union, Morris and Warren Counties) to succeed Charles M. Fawcett, has a peculiar interest this year, because two men, of opposite political views but of similar and pleasing traits of character, are arrayed against each other, Judge William M. Ruyon, of Plainfield, on the Republican side, and William E. Tuttle, Jr., of Westfield, on the Democratic side.

Both Judge Ruyon and Mr. Tuttle are good vote getters. They are "good miners" as to speak; and their political differences have not been exploited so much from the rostrum as from the "confidential heart-to-heart talks" with the people of the district.

"Bills" Ruyon is a lawyer and politician and is very popular in his home town. "Bills" Tuttle is a business man and a politician and very popular in his home town. In fact, the area of their personal popularity is determined by the amount of territory they can cover—and both have been very busy in this campaign. "Plainfield Bill" has been on the road; "Westfield Bill" has been on the road;—for business reasons.

The records of both men are well known to the people at large. Personally they stand for the best politics in their respective parties—and are known affirmatively to the question, "Are you a Democrat?" by being chairman of the Union County Democratic Committee; the other answers affirmatively to the question, "Are you a Republican?" by being elected City Judge of his home town without opposition and for as long as he wants it—which is until January

Wm. E. Tuttle, Jr. Dem. Nominee for Congress last year. Then he was a college dean, William E. Tuttle, Jr. is a progressive politician in Congress.

As to the result of the election, the odds against Judge Ruyon, in his election is something of a party man, as is the case with Mr. Tuttle.

But aside from this popularity and the fact that Ruyon is a Republican working for the Democratic ticket, the result of the election is something of a party man, as is the case with Mr. Tuttle.

Both men are good vote getters. They are "good miners" as to speak; and their political differences have not been exploited so much from the rostrum as from the "confidential heart-to-heart talks" with the people of the district.

CUBS GETTING READY.

Westfield Aggregation Has N. Y. Giants Batting Record—Next Year's Contests.

The Westfield Cubs, the town's new ball team, will again be under the management of Manager MacDonall, who is working hard putting together a team that is going to hold its own with all this coming season. Contracts have been sent to the following players: D. Green, F. Douglas, H. Robades, B. Hines, R. Foust, J. Cerero, B. Colagan, A. Hunt, W. Quigley, G. Young, W. Bress. Robades has returned his signed.

On October 8 Robades pitched a ten inning game for the Rosville A. A. of S. L., against the fast Cartorets, winning the game by the score of 3 to 2, striking out 25 men.

George Young will be a big help to the team as he is a first class hitter and a fair fielder. He will be used at third base.

The Cubs this last season had the same batting average as the N. Y. Giants in 1909, who were second to Pittsburgh.

The Cubs won't play any home games at all this coming year, opening with the Maplewood F. C. at Maplewood on April 28. The probable line-up will be: Colagan 1b; Quigley 2b; Young 3b; Hunt ss; Hines 1f; Cerero cf; Foust rf; Douglas c; Robades p.

While Wilcox won the batting honors Quigley made the most hits, and Douglas stole 21 bases and Quigley 10. Hines made the record stealing 7 in 5 games. Maxwell was the weakest hitter but his fielding made up for it. Douglas played in more games than any other player on the team. The averages are as follows, men in more than four games.

A MISCELLANEOUS PARTY.

A Unique Affair Held at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Becker.

Mr. and Mrs. Becker were pleasantly surprised at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Kathryn Johnson, on North avenue, last Saturday night. The newly married couple had not the slightest impression that a party was to be held in their honor and the surprise was successful and complete in every detail. Games of a wide variety which have always proved attractive to the young people and possessing an undeniable charm were indulged in. Some of these games were remarkably unique and extremely ludicrous, yet they only added to the joy of those whose every delight is in participating. Songs were sung in a manner highly commendable; piano solos were rendered, some artistically, and they were applauded by those who appreciate good music and never fail to express their appreciation.

Time passed rapidly and midnight came quickly, but the guests were unanimously of the opinion that an abrupt termination of the evening's fun would not be acceptable, so the party continued two hours later.

Refreshments were served and Mrs. Edward Johnson, of Roselle, cut the wedding cake. Everything eatable was delicious and the guests were appreciative of the dainties spread before them.

Mr. and Mrs. Becker received many costly and useful presents and their joy which was obviously inexpressible more than compensated the donors of the gifts.

The bride and groom received hearty congratulations and all present expressed the hope for a continuance of their marital happiness.

HALLOWEEN PARTY.

I. O. S. Members Fittingly Celebrate Annual Event at Home of President.

The ever popular Halloween was celebrated in a fitting manner Monday night, at the residence of the President, Mr. George T. Cruttenden, on Highland avenue.

The ball was started rolling by the old standard—ducking for apples. Mrs. Harold Thompson and Miss Roselle Smith showed how it ought to be done, and Messrs. Bogert, Ungerer and Tuttle proved apt pupils.

In the clothes pin race the "all ladies" team met defeat at the hands of a team led by Mr. Bogert, composed of the members, assisted by Mrs. Cruttenden and Mrs. Condit.

Every one was anxious to try his or her luck in the "Lucy Month Candles Blowing Contest" and see what the future had in store. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Harlen did not fancy any particular month, being contented with trying to blow down the brick fire place.

Mrs. Bogert, on the other hand, assisted by friends and members of the immediate family, selected six out of the twelve months as lucky.

In the "Rice Race" A. D. Tuttle won, though his lead over Mrs. Harlen was very slight.

A. D. Tuttle was also successful in the "bottle balancing contest," after a number of trials. C. E. Kimball was the only other member who accomplished this difficult feat.

In the "hoon race" there were many entries, but Seymour Ferris was an easy winner, though C. E. Kimball made a remarkably high score.

The aviation meet was declared a dead heat between Messrs. Moody (Wright machine) and Kimball (Blériot) with Moody winning finally owing to an accident to the running gear of Kimball's machine. Mrs. Harlen was the winner among the lady entrants. Mr. Ferris won the duration contest. In the altitude flights no official awards were made, though many indoor records were broken.

Refreshments consisting of nuts and cheese and lettuce sandwiches, fruit salad, macaplan ice cream, fancy cakes, coffee, cider, fruit and nut wafers, bon bon and fruit were served.

Dancing, with Mrs. Hegeman at the piano, and soap bubble contests, occupied the attention of the party until 11 o'clock.

Prizes were awarded for each individual contest, and appropriate souvenirs were provided for all.

Though this event was held, as is customary, at the home of the President Mr. Cruttenden's illness prevented his being on hand throughout the entire evening, and consequently the arrangements for the evening's entertainment, as originally planned for by the President were carried out by Mrs. Cruttenden and Mrs. F. P. Condit.

In deference to Mr. Cruttenden's indisposition, the evening's festivities terminated much earlier than had originally been planned.

There were present: Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Condit, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Harlen, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. H. Moody, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Ungerer, Mrs. Wm. J. Bogert, Mrs. Carrie Hegeman, Miss Roselle Smith, and Messrs. W. B. Toucey, W. J. Bogert, Jr., Seymour Ferris, John McCormick and A. D. Tuttle.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL CHORAL CLUB FORMED TO GIVE ORATORIO.

Combined Chorus of Schools Will Sing Haydn's "The Creation."

Because of the demand of pupils below the High School for a musical organization of their own, the Grammar School Choral Club has been organized with the following officers:

President, Charles Sisserson; secretary, Helen Gladwin; treasurer, Clifford Ewing; librarian, Edith M. Halstead; committee on management, Philip Hyer, James Halsted, Donald Pearsall, Dorothy Ganzel.

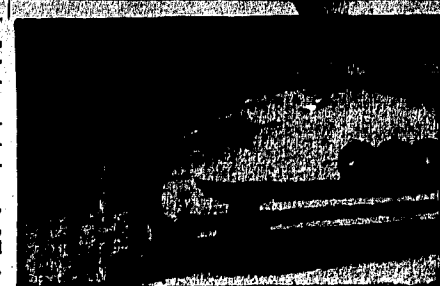

The Choral Club has a membership of 175 and rehearsals will be held on Thursday afternoons from 3:15 to 4:15 o'clock.

An interesting feature of the work of the musical department of the schools this year will be the rendition of Haydn's Oratorio, "The Creation," by the combined choruses of the schools, the High School Glee Club and the Grammar School Choral Club, in all 205 voices.

Much enthusiasm is being shown by pupils and parents in this important musical. Children are spending time with their music, and training in the art of understanding and appreciating music is thus being acquired which will prove invaluable in later years.

Members of the teaching force of the schools will sing in the oratorio, and if not all, at least the important solo parts, will be sung. A full announcement will be made later.

The stories of Wagner's operas are being studied by the Grammar School Department, and recitals will be given illustrating the subject with music upon each of the operas studied. The school pianola will be used and some of the best known choruses will be sung by the school. All of the work is under the direction of Miss Bray, the head of the musical department of the local schools.

A Vote for the Combination Plan

Is a Vote for Solid Comfort

Party organizations are an established fact because experience has taught that only by co-operation, united, effort can permanent progress come. The party which stands for the best in government is the party that keeps on the top.

In business, too, it is necessary to secure an effective organization. There must be co-operation, united effort, so that the most be obtained for the business man and the customer. That business is certain to be endorsed by the people which gives satisfaction in service, goods and price.

The Windfeldt Combination Meat, Grocery and Vegetable Market is giving satisfaction. Hence any buyer who patronizes our store is voting to make his family happy and comfortable.

WHY?

Because the Combination Plan is the product of the times. It is a highly centralized method of doing business. There is one main head, under which are many different departments, each so organized that prompt service, minimum expense and cost and the best goods in the market are provided. The customer gets what he wants when he wants it—and is satisfied.

If you are not a customer, start now and patronize

MODEL ELECTION TO BE HELD IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS, MONDAY.

"Coming Citizens" to Decide Issues of State and Congressional Campaign.

Practical politics, or training the coming citizens how to vote intelligently, will be demonstrated at the local public schools next Monday during the time usually given to chapel exercises. Then a model election will be held, covering only the Governor and Congressional issues.

These model elections are being held in schools all over the State this year and will hereafter be an annual custom. The object is to train the students in methods of procedure—registration, registry lists, etc.—to know the important issues advanced by both parties in the campaign and to form therefrom an unprejudiced opinion as to the merits of each; and to understand the methods of balloting, etc.

The students are taking a lively interest in the election; the issues are being carefully studied and as a result after school hours many a lively debate takes place between the Lewisites and Wilsonites. Judge Runyon and "Billie" Tuttle have their champions, too.

The local ticket will not be considered at all in the school election.

High School vs. Leal.

To-morrow afternoon at Recreation Park the High School football team will play the Leal team of Plainfield. The two teams seem evenly matched and a good game is expected.

On Tuesday, Election Day, another interesting game will be played at the Park. The High School will again line up against the local Knickerbocker team, and the school boys are confident of winning because of their experience and many new plays which they have not tried before. The game will start at 10:30 and a large crowd is desired by the management. Come out and support your team.

DELICATE OPERATION SAVES THE LIFE OF WESTFIELD EMPLOYEE.

Ulcerous Growth Removed by Dr. Laird From Neck of Ernest Schwabe.

Ernest Schwabe, of Roselle, an employee of W. W. Mooney's Hotel, on North avenue, is seriously ill at his home as the result of a small ulceration on the back of his neck, near the spine, which developed into a carbuncle. Schwabe was operated upon by Dr. George Laird and an assistant this week, and it was at first feared that he would not live through the ordeal. By the most careful medical treatment, however, the delicate operation of removing the poisonous growth from around the spinal cord was performed successfully and Schwabe's recovery is thought to be only a matter of time.

Schwabe thought that the small sore was merely a pimple at first, but it bothered him considerably and soon became very much inflamed. Frightened at its rapid spread he sought medical aid. Dr. Laird at once declared that an operation was necessary in order to save Schwabe's life.

CHILDREN'S COUNTRY HOME IN GOOD FINANCIAL CONDITION.

School work at the Home. That of their Treasurer showed their receipts from all sources to have been $1532.82, their expenditures to have been $1439.32. The net result of the Kirmes so well planned and splendidly carried out was $93.50. From the balance of two years there is now in their treasury $320.99 and this sum they hope to increase to $1000 with which to endow a bed in the Home. These reports of the Young Ladies Auxiliary were received with thanks and congratulations.

The following were re-elected Managers: Mrs. V. O. Burtis, Mrs. A. E. Decker, Mrs. John Platt, Mrs. H. W.

Evans, Mrs. Alex. McL. Rowland, Mrs. David Stanley and Mrs. C. M. Tremaine. Mrs. H. C. Lockwood was elected a manager in place of Mrs. A. N. Pierson; advisory board, J. O. Clark, H. E. Knight, E. A. Merrill, John Platt and Dr. J. J. Savitz.

The managers will elect their own officers. The present officers are: President, Mrs. V. O. Burtis; vice-president, Miss Emma L. Bridges; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Stratton Halstead; recording secretary, Mrs. Edwin Sheild; treasurer, Mrs. Joseph S. Ferris.

After the formal adjournment of the Association, the children, who when at the Home in the summer had given a little entertainment to the Physicians and Managers, repeated it with great enjoyment for themselves and pleasure to the large company present. During an intermission it was stated that giving the entertainment in the Home at the Home the children had expressed a great desire to repeat it, and might make a gift in money to the Home they loved so well and that done so much for them. The managers therefore had arranged for the coming from Newark to be present at the annual meeting to repeat their entertainment, and had decided to for a silver collection, in the Home, that the first entry in the books of the Treasurer for the new year might be the offering of the children of the Home through their work in this entertainment.

The silver collection amounted to twenty-nine dollars and the children were made very very happy by response to their efforts.

The Mayoralty Contest.

While it is a foregone conclusion that the people of the Town will not turn down a public servant of the proved ability of Mr. Edward D. Floyd, there is an issue in the Mayoralty contest which ought to be called to the attention of the voters.

Mr. Floyd has served in the Council for a number of years, having been re-elected by his constituents in the First Ward without opposition. He is a member of important committees and as chairman of the Police Committee helped to build the local force up to its present high standard of efficiency. He, therefore, has a thorough knowledge of local conditions and an insight into present and future problems, upon the correct solution of which depends the future civic development of Westfield. Moreover, Mr. Floyd is a practical business man, and in addition to his experience as a public servant, he has a wide knowledge of men and of methods. He has tact, understanding and a pleasing personality, qualities essential in a presiding officer who is called upon to arbitrate many questions of public import such as will arise in the next few years.

On the other hand, Mr. J. A. Dennis, Mr. Floyd's opponent, has not been active in public life, outside of his work as member of the School Board—a position, which, at this crisis in our educational affairs, deserves all the attention which he can possibly give to it—for a number of years, and is, therefore, not in close touch with local conditions. His abilities as an administrator are not so marked as Mr. Floyd's, nor is he so well known in the community.

In the circumstances, there is no reason worthy of the name for the election of Mr. Dennis. The preferences of the community are with the tried public servant. To defeat Mr. Floyd after what he has done for Westfield would be a rebuff to public-spirited citizens who serve without reward for the good of the town. The people of Westfield, though they sometimes censure, are, upon final analysis, grateful for public service, and no amount of private electioneering can persuade them to defeat a good citizen in authority for the sake of placing a man of opposite political views in power, particularly when the opponent happens to be a Democrat in a Republican constituency.

Mr. Floyd will be elected Mayor of Westfield because he deserves the endorsement of his fellow townsmen.

The Campaign of 1910.

The Republican party makes its appeal for votes at the coming election along broad and progressive lines. The ticket which it has placed in the field is equal to the task of carrying out every plank in the party platform—and more. Vivian M. Lewis, the Republican nominee for Governor has exhibited in this campaign courage, frankness, simplicity and sincerity that have unquestionably won for him the respect of all and the votes of many who were inclined to support his opponent. As the campaign draws to a close Mr. Lewis is gaining strength with the independent voter, who is coming to realize his qualities of leadership and his singleness of purpose. Mr. Lewis has one ambition, to be Governor of the State of New Jersey, in name and in deed. The campaign has put him in a position to realize his ideals if elected Governor. The tide is turning. In a campaign that has been a model for decency and fair play much has been accomplished for the State of New Jersey. Mr. Lewis being as able as his opponent, Dr. Wilson, and having had more practical experience in statescraft, there is every reason to believe that the people of New Jersey will give him, and the party of progress which he represents, a vote of confidence at the coming election.

The Assembly.

Lloyd Thompson, of Westfield, is the nominee of his party for member of the General Assembly from Union County. Mr. Thompson has served one term in the lower house with credit to himself and the constituency which he represents.

A man of the aggressive, constructive type, Mr. Thompson has sought for practical achievements in practical ways. He has worked quietly, thoroughly, and with confidence. One of his abilities is found in his record, a part of which is to be found on another page of this paper.

It is certain that Mr. Thompson will be elected with his other colleagues, Messrs. Schwartz and Meisel, because the people of Union County, and particularly Westfield, as regards Mr. Thompson, are pleased with the work of their representatives in the legislature.

Bill's Predilection.

It's dead easy
Says Bill Peaseley,
Cogitatin' all the while—
I've a compound predilection
Many a vote in this election
Will be captured by a "smile."

We note that the venerable Professor So-and-so is out with a fullness of polished swear words calculated to wipe college football off the earth. Wager he has never seen a football game; and, probably, has not heard of automobile racing.

Merely as a matter of curiosity, we would like to know where that citizen carries his civic pride who didn't register because his wife forgot to remind him of it.

The day after election some people will discover the hole in the political doughnut.

We note the absence of "confident predictions" in this campaign; which is not to say that the "I-told-you-so" persuasion will not be doing a rushing business after election.

After the vote is counted, of course, Uncle Bill Peaseley will locate that part of the anatomy known as the ballot.

Fortunately "political news" is to tie the rescue this week.

Can't somebody start something beside the press agent.

Now for the Yale-Princeton, Yale-Harvard classics!

Next, after this, comes Thanksgiving.

Thank you, Uncle Alfred.

Voters of the Second Ward.

Voters of the Second Ward should exercise caution in preparing their ballots for voting. Mr. Alfred A. Meier is the Republican candidate for the ONE YEAR TERM. A vote for him for the two year term is A VOTE THROWN AWAY.

In Praise of Angling.

We may say of angling, as Dr. Boteler said of strawberries, "Doubtless God could have made a better berry, but doubtless God never did." And so, if I might be judge, God never did make a more calm, quiet, innocent recreation than angling.—Isaac Walton, "The Complete Angler."

Use of Natural Gas.

During the last three years there has been a fairly steady increase in the quantity of natural gas used in this country for domestic purposes, a decrease in the quantity used for manufacturing purposes, and an increase in the average price.

Abyssinia a Rich Country.

While in the valleys of Abyssinia are grown sugar cane, cotton, rubber and other tropical plants, the uplands have excellent pastures and corn fields, such as may be found in England.

Drink It Standing.

Here's to the ones who are glad to have been brought on the world's stage, who are joyous in the playing of their part well, and who will be happy to go when the curtain falls.—Judge.

His Claim to Consideration.

"I've noticed," says the Philosopher of Polly, "that a man can always command respectful attention in a middle-aged crowd by stating that when he went to school they used McGuffey's readers."

Gladstone's Great Mind.

In his "Life of Gladstone," Lord Morley somewhere notes that Mr. Gladstone affirmed that he did not remember ever to have been at a loss for a word.

Sleeps in English Churchyard. Eliza Yale, from whom the cottage in New Haven took its name, sleeps in the graveyard at Wrexham church, near Chester, England.

Buy Furs and Fur Coats Now & Save Ten to Twenty Per Cent.

Whether you mean to buy furs at this store or elsewhere, buy at once. There is a scarcity of certain skins, and just as surely as we place duplicate orders we will be compelled to pay an advance of from ten to twenty per cent. We foresaw the present conditions of the fur market many months ago, and prepared accordingly. The result is we are better equipped today than any store in Newark, both as to assortments and values. We bought more furs this season than ever before in the history of our store, and, having bought more furs, we naturally expect to sell more. We quote below a few specimen values, but the only way to appreciate the extent of this stock, and its superiority over other stocks, is to visit the department and examine the goods personally. It is superfluous for us to add that nothing but the best and choicest skins ever find a resting place in our fur department.

RAPS FOR THE BOSSES.

score of years. If it had, it would know its own bosses when it sees them and drive them from control before trying to make an issue of the alleged bossism in the party of their opponents. Tear this classic gown from Democracy and you will find a lean and hungry form, longing once more to feed and fatten at public expense. Whose are the names dominant in Democracy in New Jersey to-day? Smith, Davis, Nugent, "Billy" Thompson. What new leadership has the party developed to justify its appeal for a return to power? Is Dr. Wilson a leader? What political principle has he ever enunciated and represented other than that of free trade? What political idea or governmental policy has he evolved or stood for heretofore that entitles him to be recognized as a political leader—a statesman? Leaders are men of initiative and activity in the particular field in which they seek or attain leadership. Dr. Wilson's activity in the political affairs of New Jersey, or any other state, has yet to see the anniversary of its first birthday. His initiative is largely limited to the boldness with which he has adopted the principles of progressive Republicanism, which he admits in his own speeches are the principles for which his Republican opponent stands, and seeks to be elected Governor upon a Democratic ticket. To whom will Dr. Wilson go for advice concerning the more than five hundred appointments to be made by the Governor of New Jersey during his term? Dr. Wilson says he does not even know who nominated him. If so, he is the only man in New Jersey entitled to that distinction. Will such innocence serve him to know any better the men he will be asked to appoint to office? Grant that Dr. Wilson is a great educator and can translate with ease a Greek tragedy, is he really able to appreciate the American tragedy of a workingman without work, with a family without food? It would appear not; for Dr. Wilson—like another famous Dr. Wilson, also a college president, the author of a tariff bill which most of us recall—is a free trader, and you know what free trade means to the American workingman. Remember too, that the sum and substance of the Wilson candidacy for the Governorship of New Jersey is to use the office as a stepping-stone to the presidency. How much Dr. Wilson—intellectually, at least, an aristocrat—appreciates the tragedy of the empty dinner pail, is further evidenced by his scathing denunciation of labor unionism in addresses before Chautauqua audiences and college commencement audiences several years ago when he aspired to no political office and had no cause to consider the votes of labor. I submit that the thoughts he expressed on these occasions represent his sincere convictions upon the subject, and not the things he now says upon the platform to the contrary, when the vote of the workingman can largely affect his chances of success. It is of little avail to call loudly at this time for the enactment of a workingman's compensation act, a law which will enable an injured employee to receive immediately a fixed sum for a given injury received in the course of his employment without resort to the tedious processes of law. That cannot make the workingman believe that Dr. Wilson is, and always has been, the friend of labor. It is true that the workingman wants and ought to have compensation for injuries received in industrial employment, but he wants first to be assured of the employment, and he cannot consistently support a man who has in such positive terms denied the right of the workingman to organize to get employment. Of what use is it to be solicitous about the workingman's arms and legs and at the same time to be utterly indifferent to the needs of his stomach? College presidents have to deal with many abstract theories and very little with concrete applications. New Jersey is a great industrial state. Its Governor has practical problems to solve. The fact that a man can compose a comedy in Latin is no assurance that he may not also make a comedy of the Governorship.

It is almost inconceivable that those citizens of New Jersey who remember the disgraceful conditions under Democratic rule years ago, and who have witnessed for fifteen years the steady progress of the state under Republicanism, with its freedom from scandal of any sort, its sound financial management, its adaptation of old principles to new conditions in the social, economic and political life, its ability to generate within itself new life, to be inspired with new ideas, to enact those ideas into law and keep up with the times—it is almost incredible, I repeat, that Jersey men who recall all this would vote to-day a ticket that would mean a return of the old times, the old crowd, and the old conditions. The danger lies in this fact: That since those days there have moved into our northern counties thousands upon thousands of people who were not here under Democratic rule and consequently do not feel the disgrace we felt. These are the ones relied upon by the Democratic managers to turn the state over to them. These newer voters are without the strong impressions of Democratic misrule that cause the rest of us to desire so urgently a continuance of Republican administration, and these are the people who must be shown what the election of Dr. Wilson means; that Democrats depend upon his candidacy to re-establish the old regime—not with him a part of it, to be sure, but with him as the means of pulling the rest of them through; with the hope possibly of gaining the legislature and electing a Democratic United States Senator in the person of James Smith, Jr., and with the opportunity of so redistricting the Congressional territories of the state as to lessen the number of Republican Congressmen from New Jersey for the next ten years. It is not enough to tell us that Dr. Wilson is better than his associates; he is only put in to sweeten the dose; a little sugar may make poison easier to swallow, but it cannot prevent the fatal result. Grover Cleveland was once said to be better than his party, and under the inspiration of the success of his presidential candidacy Democracy gained control of the legislature and enacted the Wilson Bill, which Mr. Cleveland said was the product of perfidy and dishonor. If you doubt what Democracy would do in this state, if returned to power, you need not go back fifteen years; go only three. In the New Jersey Assembly of 1907 there was a Democratic majority. One would think that after twelve years of exile the party would have had time to reform a little. They organized the House of Assembly with their own officers, and then followed such an outrageous exhibition of Democratic bossism, openly defiant legislation, and such absolute control of the speaker himself by one James Nugent, that some of the patriotic Democrats of the House openly revolted and joined in electing a Republican member as temporary Speaker to bring some semblance of order out of the riotous and chaotic conditions that existed. To vote for a change for the sake of a change is a dangerous experiment. The people did that nationally in 1892 and you recall the disastrous result. It may happen again. Republicanism has not gone backward; it has advanced with the times and will keep up with the times. It has not required defeat to give it new ideas. It evolves them and gives them the force of law while it rules. It does not put them forward merely in campaign times. The Republican candidate for Governor, Vivian M. Lewis, stands, by his opponent's admission, for the same thing that the Democratic candidate personally claims to represent, and the record of Mr. Lewis is admitted to be unimpeachable. He is familiar with the practical conditions of the State by reason of his long service in responsible public positions, and is thoroughly capable of administering the government with success and distinction. Republicans have the opportunity next Tuesday of coupling the duty they owe to the State with the loyalty they owe to their party by voting for Vivian M. Lewis for Governor.

Cough syrups cannot do this. It is a constitutional tonic body builder to do the work properly—care you to stay cured. VINOL is the remedy you need.

Miss Margaret Corbin, of Glen Elder, Wis., writes: "After trying several remedies for a bad cough and cold without effect, I was asked to try VINOL. It did like magic. It cured my cold, cough and I gained in health and weight. I consider VINOL the most useful tonic and invigorant I ever used."

We cannot stop that cough with VINOL—our delicious cod liver oil and iron tonic—which is made out of oil—we will not charge a cent for the medicine you take. This seems like a pretty fair proposition—and ought to be so. Don't you think so? With understanding we ask you to try a bottle of VINOL.

COLLECTION CRANKS.

Prof. Peaseley's Philosophy Regarding People With Fads.

When Prof. Peaseley shot off steam at his trouble extenuator mill last Saturday night he dropped into the STANDARD office to enquire if we had any green ink left over from our Easter number that he might have to use in dropping a few lines to an old friend of his in Ireland. As the needful was being scraped from the press rollers for him he explained to us why, in his opinion, the STANDARD was patriotic and truly American to the core.

1st. It blows itself up in the face for what it believes to be right.

2nd. It never waves the WHITE flag of surrender.

3rd. It removes that BLUE feeling William was not rushed with business last week, everybody seemed to be full of Easter cheer, or moving, or spring cleaning or quinine so they couldn't get around to see him. His best case brought a handsome fee however to equalize the stringent market. One of our most popular townsmen came to Bill to seek some consolation from the malady prevalent in his family, for collecting things. The lament ran thus:

"I don't know what has entered their minds, every morning when I leave the house I have half a dozen instructions to perform something to appease the hunger and curiosity of my collection crazed family. Wife has the antique furniture fad; parlor now so full of bric-a-brac you can can hardly stir without danger of a downfall from some jee-jaw hailing from Senegambia, or a thingumbob from Afghanistan or a dingus from Singapore; the hall way is cluttered with an Egyptian mummy, there is a pair of cavalry sabres crossed on the wall capped by a canteen, and I expect every visitor thoroughly believes I draw a pension. Mother is busy piling up the dining room and library with a grandfather's clock, a spinning wheel, sun dial, brass candle sticks and all that sort of puritanical, colonial, witchcraft reminding junk. Bessie is collecting silk scraps to make a crazy quilt. Why I paid a dollar and a quarter for a four-in-hand tie the other day to wear Easter, put it carefully away in my dressing case, when I looked for it the Advance Club meeting night it had disappeared—crazy quilt. Susie knows a lady who knows another lady who has a friend in Newark who is trying to get free admission to an old lady's home for a friend of a friend of her's way out West somewhere when she gets a million cancelled stamps. I don't know how many people are interested in that poor old lady but if there are half a dozen as energetic as Bessie in her behalf she will eventually get there that is if she doesn't die before the full million is reached. Fred is collecting all kinds of stamps, domestic and foreign, he has lost his appetite and talks in his sleep. Johnny stopped collecting cigarette pictures when I whipped him, now he spends his time out of school, standing round the depot sorting the numbers of the locomotives as they go through. Grace is collecting souvenir spoons. I stir my tea with a Salem spoon, with a witch astride of a broom moulded on the handle; the oat meal is scooped with a Seattle spoon. The sugar spoon is from Detroit and there are others with their local mould from Augusta, Maine to San Diego, California. Mother-in-law has a collection of black cats and so on through the entire family. Practical things are neglected, the dust collects on the parlor carpet, the kitchen girl collects her wages and leaves and I can scarcely collect my thoughts."

Bill believed that the poor man really deserved pity rather than advice but as he was paid for advice and not for pity he assured his careworn client that this collection craze was an hereditary notion that was plainly observable in his phreological appearance; he was tinged with the same fad, he had collected an interesting family and had collected the esteem of the entire Westfield community. Collecting things must be considered as a natural connection with a thrifty disposition. Truly this bric-a-brac and antique furniture is pleasing to the artistic eye even if it be painful to the pocket book; collecting cancelled stamps is for a worthy purpose and is not near so expensive as if the sought for million were to be uncanceled; the boy in hoarding foreign stamps is using merely a kindergarten method of studying geography and history. Measured all up there is some merit in this family trouble; their minds must be occupied. "Start in collecting something yourself, for instance, the money that is due you and your own trouble collecting will make the fad general and help you to forget the eccentricities of the rest of the family."

The teachers of the Westfield schools are making occasional visits to schools in other parts of the State for the purpose of comparing the work done elsewhere with that done here. They show that Westfield, as a "model" school compares favorably with the best, and is superior to most of the schools of its size in the State.

Fines Aggregating $45 Paid for Violation of Ordinances.

Herbert C. McVoy was fined $25 by Recorder Toucey, Tuesday morning for violation of the plumbing ordinance. Mr. McVoy pleaded guilty to the charge preferred by Health Officer Carney, of plumbing a house without filing application and securing a permit. The fine was paid.

Joseph Iannaccone, of North street, was also fined $20 for dumping sewage on a lot adjoining his home in violation of the health ordinance. This charge was also preferred by the Health Officer. Iannaccone paid the fine.

Uncle Alfred Finds a Barrel of Cement.

Uncle Alfred Pearson, the Potluck and the author of many a tale, advises us that he has another married near his place on the Hilltop at Monmouth. He will be remembered that Uncle Alfred recently discovered a three-barrel of cement which he sold to a man who was more freakish and, as he said, what he wants, he has found it. Uncle Alfred will give shingles on the proposed garage at the Potluck Palace (to be completed in 1920) that his latest find is a barrel of cement which he sold to him from New York. He is just to see if it "looked good" and this is proof of his good left optic gazed upon a glass deep down in the tiny pocket grabbed for it; caught it in right hand; held it firmly in house; seized a glass; up! you are—captured.

And so it is, other symptoms of kidney trouble. That is just where the trouble is. You must cure these troubles or they may lead to diabetes or other diseases. The best remedy to use is Kidney Pills. It cures all the troubles caused by weak or diseased kidneys. Residents of this vicinity are testifying to permanent cures.

Albert Naylor, 119 E. Broadway, Plainfield, N. J., says: "Some ago I was afflicted with a bad back, the small of my back and it darted through me when I lifted. I was finally told that Kidney Pills were a sure cure and troubles and procuring a cure. I took them. The troubles of this remedy had me in good shape. ## A vote for WILLIAM N. RUNYON IS A VOTE FOR PROGRESSIVE REPUBLICANISM.

Those who know Judge Runyon well, speak in highest terms of his qualities of mind and heart: he is conscientious, courageous and considerate in his dealings with men and principles. In public life he is always found fighting on the side of right. In private life, he has endeared himself to his friends for his loyalty. A man's personal qualifications have much to do with his performance of public responsibilities. Judge Runyon is the republican nominee for Congress from the Fifth Congressional District. The coming years of the administration of President Taft, will be fraught with grave problems of government, upon the correct solution of which depends the continued progress of the nation.

President Taft is winning the confidence of the American people in a period of political interest and dissatisfaction. The President is making an appeal to the best men in his party, urging them to come to his aid in a critical hour. They are coming! The people are with him and his co-workers. There is a demand for the Taft way of doing things. All this goes to emphasize the importance of electing a Republican Congressman from the Fifth Congressional District – a Taft man.

Judge William N. Runyon is that man. He stands for Taft and progressive Republicanism. The issue in this congressional campaign is clearly defined. It is but fair to give the President an opportunity to work out his comprehensive and progressive plan of National administration. This cannot be accomplished by electing men of opposite political views, who will tie the hands of the President for the sake of party success in 1912; but by the election of such manly Republicans as William N. Runyon.

Death, the Comforter.

There are a great many miseries which nothing but death can give relief to. It puts an end to the sorrows of the afflicted and oppressed; it sets the prisoners at liberty; it dries up the tears of the widows and fatherless; it eases the complaints of the hungry and naked; it tames the proud tyrants, and puts an end to all our labors. And the contemplation of it supports men under their present adversities, especially when they have a prospect of a better life after this.

Apple Trees in Tubs.

In Germany dwarf standard pear and apple trees about four feet tall and pyramidal in form are grown in small tubs for decoration. The trees bear from ten to 30 pears or apples which, when nourished with muriate of potash, are highly colored and effective both in the blossom and the fruit.—Helen Rutherford Ely in Scribner's.

Great Mystery Solved.

How many hairpins does a woman use when doing her hair? The hairpin editor of the Globe has investigated and makes this report: She uses just as many as she has. If she has only two hairpins she makes her hair stay up with two, but if she has 20 in the top bureau drawer she uses all of them.—Atchison Globe.

Why We Live On.

What a lot of frauds we are. Many a man is living on because he hates to have the world learn that his pearl studs are bogus, his gold dinner set plated, his watch a Waterbury, his dress suit a hand-me-down and his bank account all.—New York Telegram.

Marry Young, She Says.

An Ohio girl who, at the age of 19, has had three husbands, advises every young woman to marry some good man as soon as she can. The Ohio lady's husbands must have been good enough to make fair settlements out of court.—Chicago Record-Herald.

The First Requisite.

Tom (vainly showing his pen)—"I say, Jack, suppose you intended to invite a young lady to go to the theater, how would you begin?" Jack—"I'd begin by paying my watch for the price of the tickets, that's how."—Boston Transcript.

Youthful Philosophy.

A small boy declared his intention of being "cute good" next winter. "I ain't no use to try in the summer, 'cause mother will tell me not to go bathing at Fisher's, and a feller's got to do something for good every time."—

Dry Reading.

"No one meets such various kinds of people as we do," said a librarian. "You see that little old man over there? He is going through the encyclopedias, one volume at a time. He comes in every day and begins where he left off the day before. He has read through an entire set and is beginning another. Pretty dry reading, some of it, one would say."

Keeping Cut Flowers.

Cut flowers will last fresh much longer if, before putting them in water, the stem is split up about an inch. Maidenhair fern will last fresh for a long time if, when gathered, the stems are inserted in boiling water and left until the water is cold before using.

Proof of Devotion.

"Before we were married," said Mr. Neekton, "I showed my affection for Henrietta by serenading her." "I suppose you neglect such attentions now." "Yes. I show my affection now by respecting her desire that I shall not try to sing."

Osceola.

Assistant—"Absolutely nothing doing in the news line to-day." Editor—"Very well. Put a pair of trousers on the office cat, photograph him, and we'll run a special on the oldest survivor of one of the Indian wars."—Puck.

Wall of a Postmist.

"You can't fool a beggar with bad money," says the Philosopher of Folly. "The deaf and dumb beggar rings it to see if it has the right sound, and the blind beggar looks for the mint mark."

Fast Worth Remembering.

Keep burnishing your shield. It is true our own mental outlook does seem to color things, and the gayer you expect them to be, the gayer they are.

Stature Matched His Intellect.

Thackeray was six feet two inches in height, and Sir H. W. Lucy says the great novelist wore a 7½-inch hat, beating Dickens and John Bright by a half half inch.

Make Life Too Humdrum.

"I don't believe in early marriages," says the Philosopher of Folly. "After you get married there's no excitement to look forward to but death."

Optimist Defined.

An optimist is a fellow who remarks, when the stick is three inches deep in the water, that it's too weather overhead.

What Good Government Has Done For West

On Tuesday next the citizens of Westfield will be called upon to choose men to run the Town Government of Westfield. The faithful and patriotic citizens desire, of course, that their choice shall be wise and conservative, and in the interests of a sound and business-like administration of local affairs. These reasons emphasize in the local case the general principle, first upon the qualifications of men and second upon their fitness for the office as controlled by experience. In the past ten years, Westfield has not doubled its population, and coincident with this rapid growth have come broad and substantial public improvements. The projects of government have been many, but the interests of the people have been conserved, policy of broad economy looking to the growth and need. Expenditures have been necessary, for public sentiment in Westfield has always been on the side of public improvement. And the rapid increase in valuation demonstrated convincingly the wisdom of these public expenditures.

From 1900 to 1910, the Proper Valuations of Westfield have increased from $1,805,000 to $7,052,343.00 nearly seven fold.

The following table is of the utmost interest as showing the remarkable extent of the improvements constructed in the Town of Westfield during the past seven years.

Street Improvements in Westfield from 1903 to 1910

Sidewalks flagged.....	15.87 m
Curbs set.....	5.07 m
Curbs re-set.....	.50 m
Crosswalks.....	.90 m
Brick gutters.....	1.50 m
Concrete curb and gutters.....	1.00 m
Culverts.....	.20 m
Lateral sewers.....	.18 m
Outlet sewers.....	2.28 m
Macadam streets.....	6.50 m
Tarvia macadam.....	.25 m

During these years of achievement, the faire of the Town of Westfield have been earned by Republican administrations. Successively, has borne the burdens of government cheerfully and with a pure single to the interests of the greater Westfield. Under these conditions it is evident that the citizens of Westfield endorse local republican ticket, and continue most qualified to serve, whose past experience gives them a practical knowledge of conditions as they are, and, upon this basis, are able to conserve the interests of the town by a careful, broadly economic, patriotic administration of every department of local government.
