G. DUKE IS VENGEFUL

Insists That He'll Build His Split House and Then Will Move Away from Here.

HE WILL SELL LOT AT COST.

But There Seems to Be a Stagnation of $4,000 in Purchase Price According to Mrs. Duke's Version.

A temporary truce has been established in the controversy between William Duke and Charles Duke, of 401 South Avenue, which was instigated by the latter's threat to erect two houses in that fine residential section and rent them to negro and Italian families.

The story which was printed exclusively in last week's issue of THE STANDARD created quite a stir among residents and property owners in the Walnut street section, which is affected by the threatened invasion of "tenements" and indignations are now being which may terminate in the purchase of the land owned by Duke, on which he proposes to erect the houses, and thus end the squabble.

It was learned yesterday that a number of Walnut street residents have made overtures to Duke for the purchase of the land. This is said to have been met with favor on the part of Duke, who has agreed to delay his proposed building operations for a period of two weeks pending a sale. That the property is likely to be purchased from Duke is made evident by a statement made by Adam Hoffman to a STANDARD representative, to the effect that he had previously offered to purchase the land at the price paid for it by Duke and also reimburse him for the expense already expended in siting in the property and piping the land.

If talk counts for anything, Duke will go ahead and erect the two "tenements" if the Walnut street property owners fail to come forward and buy his two 50-foot lots. In the absence of Mr. Duke, a STANDARD man found Mrs. Duke in a talkative mood at her home.

"Mr. Duke has plans already prepared to build two three-story buildings to rent to Italians if he fails to sell the land," said Mrs. Duke. "Each of the houses will cost $5,000 and will contain four cold water apartments, which will bring an income of $75 monthly for each house. This will make a splendid investment and it will make no difference to us as we expect to remove back to Elizabeth on May 1."

"We are honest people and we do not want to live in a town and be treated in the way we have been. I'll be glad when the time comes to shake the dust of Westfield off my feet and I don't want to over put steps in the town again."

Mrs. Duke stated further that her husband purchased the property with a $5,000 restriction clause. According to her statement the original intention of her husband was to erect a dwelling to rent in the neighborhood of $7,500 or $8,000 while the frame covered about the pipes laid by her husband to drain off the water.

"Cold water apartments are profitable investments," added Mrs. Duke, "and we have already three Italian families who are willing to rent apartments in the dwellings if they are erected. Several negro families have also applied for quarters."

Mrs. Duke also said that her husband paid $5,000 for the land and that he is willing to sell it exactly for the same price he paid for it.

Despite the statements made by Mrs. Duke, it is generally understood that Duke paid $5,000 for the land and that the restrictive clause stipulated that only houses to accommodate one family could be erected on the property.

Edith Harris Scott Here.

CITIZENS ENTHUSIASTIC

Local Professional and Business Men Think a Celebration Will Be a Good Thing for Town.

ALL WANT TO "PUSH IT ALONG."

Many Suggestions Offered, One for Mammoth Street Parade in Which All Shall Take Part.

"Bully good idea. Push it along."

That's the common opinion among local merchants, professional men and citizens of all classes as regards the proposed civic celebration and town carnival to be held on July 4, 1911.

All citizens who have voiced their sentiments on the matter are unanimous in declaring that such a celebration would surely be the red letter in the history of Westfield as well as being a big advertisement for the town.

Among those who speak enthusiastically about the scheme are Mayor Albert, Mayor-elect Dennis, Congressman-elect Tuttle, Assemblyman Thompson, A. B. Beasfield and others. Members of the Fire Department, also the Mammoth Firemen's Association, are laying plans to push the idea through.

The committee of the Board of Trade, which was appointed to sound the pulse of the local citizenry in reference to the proposed celebration, convened in the Town Hall yesterday morning.

The following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That it is the sense of this committee that a commemorative celebration is feasible and commendable, and that the secretary of the committee be authorized to invite the Merchants Association, Fire Department and Mammoth Firemen to appoint five of its representatives to confer with this committee as to the plan and scope of the celebration on the evening of January 20, in the Town Hall.

In addition to the parade feature it is also proposed to have trotting races and a carnival of sport at the Fair, across Delving park.

Stunts of features have been suggested to individual members of the Board of Trade committee who inaugurated the movement. One of the suggestions calls for a mammoth street parade to be participated in by the firemen and all fraternal organizations in Union County. It is also proposed to have the public school children participate in a pageant of a spectacular character.

It is understood that members of the Junior O. U. A. M. are heartily in favor of the idea and that Central Council will discuss the matter at its next meeting. Opinions expressed by some citizens follow:

Congressman-elect Wm. E. Tuttle, Jr.—"It has been a long time since Westfield had a big celebration and I believe the proposed carnival at Westfield would be productive of much good to the town."

Mayor A. L. Albert—"Citizens of all classes are for the celebration and it's bound to be a go. Big thing, sure enough."

Lloyd Thompson—"It will be of distinct advantage to the town. Push it along."

School Superintendent J. J. Savits—"It's a splendid idea and I have no doubt but that it will be popular with the merchants and business men of the town."

Tax Collector A. E. Clark—"First fact first. The plan should be put through as such a celebration means much to Westfield."

Councilman James G. Cony—"Big thing indeed. Such an enterprise will put Westfield in line for promotion not only in Union County but also in the State."

COLLECTOR CLARK BUSY.

$10,000 OF $100,000 Due Town From Taxpayers, Now in Hand.

Although Tax Collector A. E. Clark is a month behind time in issuing tax bills owing to the death of Tax Assessor Henry C. Piller, more than $10,000 has been paid in the town's coffers to date. The total taxes receivable is about $100,000, representing an increase of about $5,000 over last year.

Collector Clark's task consists of sending out between 5,000 and 6,000 bills and by tomorrow night the work will have been virtually completed. Between 500 and 600 bills were sent out Wednesday and Thursday.

Taxpayers are given until December 30 to settle. All unpaid bills after that date are subject to 10 per cent. interest and costs.

Collector Clark is also busy on details for the sale of properties for unpaid taxes which is advertised to be held in the town hall on December 30.

THE SCHOOLS' PLIGHT.

Board of Education in Dilemma as to How to Provide for influx Sure to Come in Spring.

PRESENT ENROLLMENT NOW 1321.

And Officials Think It Will Reach 1400 by March—Primary and Grammar Grades Suffer Most.

Because of the increased enrollment and the congested conditions prevailing in the public schools, especially in the primary and grammar departments, the members of the school board are much distressed over the proposition to furnish accommodations for one hundred more pupils which are expected in the spring.

The total enrollment to date is 1321 pupils or twenty-five more than at this time last year; the spring influx is expected to bring the total enrollment up to the 1400 mark, and not forgetting J. J. Savits and the officials of the school board are in a dilemma as to the development of means whereby the newcomers can be accommodated.

The increase in the enrollment this year is equally distributed but the biggest congestion is in the primary department. In the Prospect school the congestion is so great that there is not ample seating desk accommodation for all of the pupils; in all of the classrooms two to five pupils are obliged to sit on chairs.

The grammar departments are also taxed to their capacity, all of the fifth grade pupils being compelled to occupy six classrooms in the Washington building, and two in the McKinley school.

Similar conditions prevail in the Lincoln school. Because of the overcrowded conditions the school board has been obliged to utilize the auditorium of the McKinley school for the primary and kindergarten grades, notwithstanding the fact that the Presbyterian chapel accommodates a kindergarten class of forty-five. The latter class has a larger enrollment than ever before owing to the fact that the school was brought nearer to the homes of the pupils.

The High School department is comfortably filled but there is a need of more recitation rooms. At present the library is being utilized for the overflow.

School Notes.

Pupils in the manual training department are reported to be doing better work than ever this year. In addition to the curriculum in force last year the pupils of this department have grasped the art of sharpening their own tools.

The Palmer system of fire-armed penmanship is proving popular in the grammar grades. The pupils are displaying unusual interest in the new system which was introduced last year.

The Abundant Association will hold its annual meeting to-night in the auditorium of the Washington school. After the business session an informal dance will be held.

The schools closed on Wednesday for the Thanksgiving holiday and will reopen on Monday morning.

Fell Off Wagon; Bruke Collar Bone.

Falling off the tailboard of a wagon on which he was riding while on his way to school on Monday afternoon resulted in a fractured collar bone for Paul, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Deane of West Broad street. As young Deane fell in the street he was picked up and carried to his home by friends of the family. Dr. G. S. Laird was summoned and reset the broken bone. Although the injury is not of a serious nature the lad will be confined to his home for several weeks.

Run Auto Into Front Porch.

Loosing control of his large automobile while entering his front yard on last Sunday, F. F. McClintock, of Carlton avenue, had an exciting experience in which his machine and porch of his residence were considerably damaged.

For some unknown reason the brake of the auto refused to operate properly when Mr. McClintock started into the yard. The machine "chugged" and pulled violently and before the driver could get it under control it had backed up a high embankment and collided with the porch, demolishing a portion of the siding and tearing up a part of the floor.

A NEW POST OFFICE?

Congressman-Elect Tuttle Declares That He Will Make This Object at Capital.

BUILDING MAY COST $100,000.

And to Be Centrally Located—Great Need For Better Local Facilities. Make Plan Very Popular.

A new and modern post office building is now in sight for Westfield. After years of strenuous agitation for improved postal facilities it is almost an assured fact that the present inadequate quarters will be supplanted by a commodious building which will not alone reflect credit to Uncle Sam, but also on the town.

Congressman-elect William E. Tuttle, Jr., while he has not fully outlined his congressional plans, stated to a STANDARD representative yesterday, that it is his intention to use his utmost influence with members of congress and the post office department to have erected here a suitable building to be used for post office purposes.

Mr. Tuttle in making this announcement declared that it is a difficult task in obtaining appropriations for public buildings in the smaller towns and cities but that is the goal that he is going to make a stride for, and he appears to be confident of success.

It is the general idea that a suitable building could be erected in the central part of the town at a cost not to exceed $100,000. Mr. Tuttle, although he has never before served in Congress, enjoys the distinction of being highly thought of by his fellow colleagues from this State and he will undoubtedly receive their united support in his efforts to obtain his point.

Just what plans Mr. Tuttle expects to pursue are not yet known, but it is a certainty that he will be "Johnny on the spot" at the proper time. Mr. Tuttle promises more information on the subject after he takes his seat in Congress.

"Increased business has caused Westfield to outgrow its present post office facilities," said Mr. Tuttle. "I don't want to criticize the present postal administration for its failure to give our town an up-to-date post office, but the present office is overcrowded and totally inadequate for the needs of the business interests of the town, and an improvement in conditions is really needed. I am determined to do all in my power to better the local service and I believe my efforts will be successful."

The declaration of Mr. Tuttle will no doubt be hailed with delight by local business men and citizens in general, as for several years the Board of Trade and other organizations have been conducting a relentless, but unsuccessful campaign, for better post office facilities.

Mr. Tuttle will be in Washington on December 7 and 8 for the purpose of attending the sessions of the Waterways Commission. In conjunction with this business he will also attend a conference of the national Democratic legislators from this State.

Sentiment Strong for Martine.

The tide is changing in favor of "Farmer Orator" James E. Martine in the fight for the U. S. Senatorship among the Democrats, according to the views of Congressman-elect William E. Tuttle, Jr. Mr. Tuttle also entertains the opinion that the honor will come to the Plainfielder.

"Jim Martine is an honest and square man and the Democratic party owes it to him," is the way Mr. Tuttle expressed himself on the situation.

Change in C. & P. R. Train Service.

Two changes in the Jersey City timetable in trains going eastward will become effective on Monday according to an announcement made by the railroad officials. The train now leaving for New York at 7:30 a. m. will leave eight minutes earlier or at 7:22 a. m., and the train now leaving here at 8:10 a. m. has been put forward one minute, or at 8:09 a. m.

Firemen on Inspection.

Westfield's gallant fire fighters were inspected at the headquarters on Thursday and everything was found to be in good and open style. In the absence of Commissioner E. F. Robinson, the inspection was conducted by Commissioner A. J. Whelan of the fire department.

NO LIGHT CONTRACT.

Action, It Is Reported, Will Not Be Taken Until the New Council Takes Office.

CONTRACTING CO. THREATEN SUIT.

But Engineer Vars Declares Their Work Incomplete and Matter Referred to Attorney Oliver—Routine Business.

Failure on the part of the Town Council to consider in public the matter of placing a new lighting contract with the Public Service Corporation at the regular meeting of that body on Monday night, gives rise to the rumor that nothing definite will be done this year, and that the matter will be passed on to the 1911 Council.

Three representatives of the Public Service people were present, including H. P. Chandler, of Elizabeth, and to all appearances they were prepared to clinch a three year contract at the three dollar advance had the Town Fathers displayed any signs of willingness to act. Before the meeting the P. S. C. men and the Councilmen held an informal conference, but the result of the session was not made public.

There is a possible chance that the matter may come up for discussion on next Tuesday night, to which date the Council adjourned, but the general impression is that the matter of making a contract or readjusting the proposal of the P. S. C., will be placed on the shoulders of the incoming Council.

It took the Council just thirty minutes to act on several old matters and transact a batch of routine business. A communication was presented from Berkley C. Austin, attorney for the Union County Contracting Company, requesting the Council to remit the balance due on the disputed bill for street improvements amounting to about $700. Attorney Austin intimated in his letter that suit would be instituted against the Town if payment of the bill is further delayed.

A communication was also read from Town Engineer A. W. Vars, which informed the Council that all of the work had not yet been completed. The matter was referred to Town Attorney Paul Q. Oliver.

Another temporary permit was granted to the Public Service Corporation, lease of the United Electric Company, to construct about seventy-five poles and string wires thereon in different sections of the Town. The permit was given on the same conditions as previous ones of its nature, with the understanding that the permit would not effect the outcome of the suit between the Town and the Corporation which is now pending in the Court of Chancery.

Acting as attorney for Fanny Kross and Adele Jurgenson, Randolph Perkins, in a communication, informed the Council that they were willing to pay the overdue taxes on property owned by them on South Broad street, which was recently bought in by the Town, at a tax sale, provided the interest charges were remitted. This matter was also referred to Town Attorney Oliver.

A petition headed by Frank Pierce asked Council to have more electric lights placed on Chestnut street, between Mountain avenue and Broad street. The petition was granted. The lighting committee was also authorized to place a light on the northwest corner of Elm street and North avenue.

The fire committee was also empowered to place a fire hydrant at Embree Crescent, the understanding being that the property owners bear the expense and remit by January 1; a sewer permit was also granted A. B. Hutchinson.

Tax Collector A. H. Clark reported tax collections for November amounting to $5,349.06; Town Treasurer Walter Darby's report for November showed receipts of $38,979.53; disbursements, $25,358.18, and a balance of $13,621.35. Recorder Tomcey reported $100 collected in fines during the month.

On a motion by Councilman Middle-ditch, Treasurer Darby was authorized to draw a warrant of $800 for the Library Fund.

A Charming Girl.

The greatest charm in a young girl is her simplicity, and by simplicity one does not mean stupidity. The charm of real simplicity is an entire absence of boldness, cynicism and assumed worldly wisdom, so often met with in the modern girl. Absolute candor and sincerity are the attributes of true simplicity, and they are characteristics which invariably attract men when choosing their future wives.—Home Notes.

Russian Proverbs on Wives.

"Love your wife like your soul, and beat her like your carpet." This is a Russian proverb. Another of the same spirit: "Not long beat the hump from a loved one's thump." Wives have undoubtedly been subjected to much ill-treatment in Russia, where most husbands have always held to the opinion that "Liberty spells a good wife." Some Russian proverbs are cynical as to the delights of matrimony, and most married men know how to say "Wed once, wed always."

Should Mr. Morris insist on and is returned a loss, it is high in the neighborhood should the recount show that elected the expense would be the County.

DROWNED IN FRONT OF FIRE TRUCK TO SAVE BOY'S LIFE.

Dobrowski Pulls Young Irving Out of Narrow Way—His Narrow Escape.

John Dobrowski, the porter at the Jersey Central depot, entered the here-dition on Tuesday, when at the risk of seriously injuring himself, he plunged in front of the speedy Black and Lumber train, while the operator was turning the corner of North avenue and Elm street, grabbed Frank Irving, Jr., by the collar and yanked the lad out of the way of the horses and saved him from injury on the sidewalk.

Just as Dobrowski had performed his yeoman act and was trying to save himself, the gallant rescuer slipped and fell. He was on the ground only an instant when one of the front wheels of one of the horses bumped his form and pushed him toward the curb and out of harm's way. A white brown which Dobrowski carried in his hip pocket proved an armor of salvation, for it was the brush that cushioned the blow of the blow from the horse's head, and Dobrowski was able to escape, minus any bruises or broken bones.

The rescue was effected at about one o'clock as the operator was responding to an alarm caused by a small fire in a pile of rubbish in the workshop of K.
 Stemann's studio at 341 East Broad street. By the time the fireman arrived on the scene Mr. Stemann succeeded in extinguishing the flames with several pails of water. A quantity of photographic plates, valued at $25, were destroyed. A lighted cigarette thrown in the pile of rubbish is believed to have caused the fire.

 tics. In a short time Caroline Fiddle Ball's studio will be filled with statuary.

 will hold a regular meeting in Odd Fellows Hall Tuesday night.

Westfield Lodge, Independent Order of Free masons to give. At an enthusiastic meeting on Monday several candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the order.

Court Protectors, Independent Order of Foresters, will hold a regular meeting on Monday night. Several candidates are to be initiated. District Deputy A. H. Jones is also expected to be present.

Members of Atlas Lodge, No. 125, F.
 & A. M., on Monday night listened to an interesting historical talk on Masonry by George W. Cross. There was a big turnout of members and the lecture was largely enjoyed.

Updeworth Lodge No. 20, A. O. U. W., enjoyed a visitation from Grand Master Workman John G. Clapper on Tuesday night. Mr. Clapper was accompanied by Grand Workman J. W. A. Sauermade, of Plainfield. Mr. Clapper gave an interesting talk in which he depicted the increase in the growth of the order in various parts of New Jersey. An address was also made by Mr. Sauermade and members of the local lodge.

A big time is anticipated by members of Westfield Camp, No. 28, W. O. W., to-night when a supper and entertainment will be held in Odd Fellows Hall.
 The social committee has arranged an excellent program. One of the speakers will be Benjamin W. Hand, of Orange.
 The latter is well known here, as before his removal to Orange, he was engaged in the sewing machine business on Broad street. Officers for the coming year will also be nominated.

Supt. Baris Report.

That a vast amount of money is expended in New Jersey for the maintenance of its public schools is shown in the annual report of County Superintendent of Schools J. J. Baris which was issued to-day. Union county last year expended a total of $71,000.00 for the education of its children.

In the list of expenditures nearly half a million dollars was paid for teachers salaries, the amount being $420,411.13; a total of $891,007.70 was expended for new buildings, and $110,007.00 was expended for the enlargement and repairing of school houses. The balance in the hands of municipal collectors is $688,074.50. The amount received from state appropriations was $205,000.00.

Mayor-Elect Dennis' Attendance Record.

If records count for anything, in Mayor-elect J. A. Dennis, Westfield will have an official who will always be "on the job."

When Mr. Dennis assumes the mayoralty chair on January 1, he will do so with a splendid public record back of him. For a period of five years Mr.
 Dennis was a member of the township committee and during that time he enjoyed the distinction of being absent at only one session.

To All Householders and Store Keepers

You and the general public are hereby warned that the Board of Health will take steps for the prevention of anyone responsible for the mixing of garbage or soil with refuse or rubbish. This provision is in direct violation of Section 6 of Ordinance No. 11 governing the control of the accumulation and disposal of garbage in the Town of Westfield.

By order of the BOARD OF HEALTH.

Don't Play With Fire

A COMMON caution to children but also good for grown men and women. You are playing with fire when you insure your property without carefully selecting the company which promises to protect you against loss. Companies differ just like individuals. Why take chances when, at no extra cost, safety can be had by simply saying to us, when your insurance expires, "Give me a policy in the Standard."

The "Standard" is the best known fire insurance company in America. For a century it has promptly paid every loss, the aggregate now amounting to more than $184,000,000. Its reputation for fairness is unassailable. Its resources are never in danger from the hidden risks of stock speculation, because invested only in the safest securities. One hundred years of life and growth have demonstrated its able management and unshaken standing. You are not playing with fire when you ask for the "Standard."

GLIMPSES OF HISTORIC WESTFIELD

From Notes Prepared by Frederick S. Taggart and Read at Historical Reception to Dr. and Mrs. Loomis at Congregational Church, November 15.
1881.

In 1651, Mattano, Lenape Chief, sold to Augustus Harman, a Dutchman, a large tract of land including Westfield.
18 years later the same Indians sold the same land to Bailey and others and delivered the goods.

Real Estate Item.

In 1651 the price of Westfield land (choice locations) was ten (10) acres 1 cent.
In 1664 (18 years later) the official reports show that 12 cents per acre was the prevailing price.
An advance of 12,000 per cent in 13 years.

1664.

Charles II King of England, granted all of New Jersey to his brother James, Duke of York.

James sold it to Lord Berkley and Sir George Carteret. They named this section of the country "Elizabethtown" in honor of Lady Elizabeth Carteret. And the State they named "New Jersey" to commemorate acts of valor performed by Carteret in the Island of Jersey.

October 26, 1664.

John Bailey, Daniel Denton and Luke Watson purchased the Elizabethtown Tract (including Westfield) from Mattano, Manawarne and Conaconcom of the Lenape Tribe. The price was 50 shillings for a hundred acre lot.

Scotch Plains was settled in 1684.

Springfield became a distinct form of government in 1703.

New Providence became a separate government in 1794. It was then called "Turkey."

Rahway became a separate government in 1804.

Plainfield (the infant) in 1847.

1720.

Westfield was settled by English about 1720.

The first settlement was on the mountain, and James Badgley and Peter Wilcox were probably the first settlers.

Names of very early settlers:

Acken	Davis	Hole	Ross	Badgley
Denman	Lambert	Spinnage	Baker	Dunham
Littell	Scudder	Bryant	Frazer	Ludlam
Tucker	Brooks	Frost	Meeker	Terry
Crane	Gunning	Miller	Williams	Clark
Hendrix	Marsh	Woodruff	Craig	Hinds
Mills	Wilcox	Yeomans	Cory	High
Pierson	Connet	Hetfield	Robinson.

Presbyterian Church.

The Presbyterian Church was founded in 1780. The first meetings were held in a log house standing on or near the site of Mr. J. E.
Brewer's house. The people were called to worship by the beating of a drum.

In 1735 the first Church edifice was erected near the present building. It had no steeple and the bell was hung in a tree. It was enlarged in 1788 and a belfry was added. At this time the Church property consisted of 300 acres of land, extending from Broad street to Walnut street and from Elm street to Chestnut street.

In 1802 a new church was erected near the present site and remained until 1862 when the present edifice was erected.

In June 1777, while the British occupied Westfield they became enraged at the loss of a cannon and stole the church bell and carried it to Staten Island. It was recognized by Mr. William Clark and Mr.
Amariah Clark, and after the war was recovered and brought back. The story of the bell has been disputed but there is ample evidence that it is true.

The complete list of pastors is as follows:

Nathaniel Hubbell	1730-1740.	James H. Hunting	1832-1849.
John Grant	1750-1758.	E. B. Edgar	1850-1873.
Benjamin Woodruff	1850-1860.	Alex. McKelvey	1873-1876.
Thomas Picton	1805-1818.	William H. Gill	1878-1882.
Alexander Frazer	1818-1826.	Newton W. Cadwell	1882-1903.
Edwin Holt	1827.	W. Irving Steans	1903.
Beth Williston	1830-1831.

In very early times this locality was known as the West Fields of Elizabethtown. Cranford was then called Crane's Ford, because of a ford in the Rahway River near Crane's house.

January 28, 1782.

James Morgan (American soldier) was "hung till he was dead" for the murder of Rev. James Caldwell of Springfield, whose wife was killed at the burning of Springfield by the British on June 23, 1777.

The Supreme Court of the State of New Jersey once sat in this town.
This was in the January Term of 1782 and was so held rather than in Newark, because the trial of James Morgan, a militia man of the New Jersey militia, who had shot and killed Rev. James Caldwell of Connecticut Farms (the famous "Giv'm Watts," Caldwell) was considered likely to arouse feeling in Newark or Elizabeth, where the shooting took place, and the session of court broken up by British and Tories who hated Caldwell.

The Court sat in the old Presbyterian Church, then erected on the site of the present one. Judge Symmes presided and was assisted by Judge Burnett. Morgan was arraigned for murder and was defended by Colonel DeHart of Morristown. A jury was drawn, John Crane and David Esher, Westfield men, being challenged. A partial list of the jurors, some of them the ancestors of present day Westfielders, is as follows: Benjamin Meeker, David Ross, Aaron Woodruff, John Ryno and Caleb Maxwell.

The jury found the defendant guilty and he was sentenced to be hanged on January 29th, 1782. He was then confined in irons in a house in Westfield occupied by William Scudder.

Morgan's grave was made in the northwest corner of the Presbyterian graveyard, away from all other graves and he was shown his grave by the Sheriff before execution. After prayers said in the church, Morgan was led to the place of execution, a hill still called Morgan's Hill on Broad street just this side of Fairview Cemetery, also termed Gallows Hill. Troops accompanied the prisoner, the company of infantry being led by Capt. John Scudder, of Westfield.

Although the day was cloudy and the old report says "there was no execution of justice."

COWARD ARCH PROP SHOE

COWARD EXTENSION SHOE

Made by James S. Coward in his custom department for the past 25 years.

The Coward Arch Prop Shoe, originated, developed and perfected by James S. Coward, is the oldest —the most comfortable and alleviative shoe discovered—for the relief and remedy of falling weak ankles and "flat-foot."

This Coward Arch Prop Shoe, conforms to the bony structure of the foot and its correct, anatomical principles, a most corrective measure, which are of immediate increasing and lasting benefit to the wearer.

The Coward Shoe

Probably no improvement in remedial shoe construction has been more widely copied and imitated, than this footstructure, originated by James S. Coward.

The Coward Extension Shoe is of peculiar value in advanced cases of falling arch, and for stout people who are troubled with such or similar weakness.

NOTE—An orthopedic expert, after a careful examination, will usually recommend the use of this shoe, as it is the only shoe that will correct the defect and prevent further injury to the foot.

THE MAIL POUCH.

Prof. Pansley Takes a Day Off and Cleans Up His Correspondence.

Bill, the Professor, wore his spring overcoat and a bad bursting smile as he stopped in to inform us the other day that his dollar a dose mail business was filling in his spare time quite profitably. He has fixed Tuesday of each week for attending to this department. Last Tuesday he closed his office to clients and opened his ten days accumulation of letters and dollars. The letters came from all parts of the compass and the dollars all went into the Westfield National Bank to the credit of the Professor's already fat balance. The enquiries touched upon all sorts of matters from grave to gay, from the sublime to the ridiculous but the dollars touched the liveliest.

The following is only a sample of what Bill waded through:

- 1—"What is a guinea hen good for?"—Nothing, except to make a long prolonged and continued noise at four o'clock in the morning.
- 2—"Don't you think the country is going to the dogs?"—No, the dogs are going to the dogs.
- 3—"How should I go to the World's Fair?"—Go in a parlor car by all means; you will have the money to pay for the luxury going, coming back it may be different.
- 4—"What is your opinion of a Doubting Thomas?"—He will grease a lie as large as an egg to swallow it whole and strain at a truth no bigger than an apple seed.
- 5—"Does it pay to be vain?"—Vanity is the only capital some people possess; should they lose it they would be dependent upon charity.
- 6—"What is meant by organic trouble?"—It is a disease that attacks the inwards of the hand organ every time the Italian grinder churns "St. Patrick's Day in the Morning."

the Italian grinder churns "St. Patrick's Day in the Morning."

7—"What is good for a cold in the head?"—Drive it into your feet.

8—"How can I pay a debt of gratitude?"—Go hunting for somebody who wants a slight favor.

9—"How can I become a great man?"—By being small in matters of finance.

10—"I have serious intentions of starting a paper in Roselle; would you consider an offer from me for your services as editor?"—If the attack is really acute it is serious enough to necessitate your consulting a reliable physician; when you are through with the physician you may see me.

11—"What makes hens lay eggs?"—Because they can't lay tricks.

12—"Why did Eve eat the apple?"—Because peaches were not ripe.

13—"I am deeply in love."—Advice is thrown away on people in love; your dollar is returned. Ask something material.

14—"How can I keep a servant girl?"—Nail her trunk to the floor and hand her your full week's salary every Saturday night.

15—"Who invented work?"—The inventor of work is unknown as no monument was ever erected to his memory.

These few samples illustrate the confidence the public at large has in Bill's ability. Of course those detailed are only such as touched upon trivial matters or generalities. Solicitations as to family troubles and personal matters William could not consistently make use of.

Among the mail bureau matter there was one letter which Bill preserved and intends to cherish; it is a pipin and read thusly:

"Prof. Pansley:
Dear Sir: Enclosed please find your fee in trolley transfers. I do not sign my real name as I am so well known I cannot afford to have my foolishness advertised. Tell me quick the secret of providing for a rainy day. If your receipt is as good as your average philosophy you will, in enlightening me, remove quite a burden from my mind." The reply was:

Dear Sir:

Too many men are in the soup financially when the rainy day comes, as it invariably comes to all, simply because they have allowed their good nature to satisfy the wants of their unfortunate acquaintances to the extent of neglecting themselves. My advice is simple and comes bitterly from me because I know too well how hard it is to swallow the medicine. To prepare yourself for a rainy day:

1. Never let anybody owe you.
  2. Never owe anybody.
- No other ingredients are necessary. Live up to this receipt religiously and the rainy day when it comes will find you under your own umbrella, wearing your own rubber boots and your own rain coat.

Yours professionally,

"Regeneration of Aunt Mary."

After one of the most successful engagements at Terry's Theatre, London, where she appeared for three months continuously, Miss Robinson returns to America to continue that success and will appear at Plainfield Theatre on Friday evening, Nov. 25 presenting the most famous comedy and more famous actress. She is undoubtedly the best in developing eccentric characters and stands absolutely alone in her special characterizations, and is considered to be the foremost comedienne in America. In the rendition of "Aunt Mary" she is admirable. The supporting company is far above the average in every way, and Mr. L. S. Siro has furnished special scenery and elaborate setting for this most successful comedy.

Keep posted on what is happening in Westfield by reading "The Standard." It contains all the news.

The Ladies' World.

Knitted and crocheted booties are the conventional foot covering for the long-skirted baby but with the shortening of the skirts there is a wide range of little shoes, slippers and moccasins from which to make choice. Both shapes and materials are various. The little shoe cut upon the model of a regular grown-up shoe arranged to lace through eyelets or provided with a flap for buttoning, made of white pique and quite unornamented, are pretty. The same model in sheer French lawn, daintily embroidered and made over pink silk, are the daintiest things imaginable, though they make no appeal to the intensely practical mind. All are fashionable.—"Talks on Dressmaking," in the Ladies' World for December.

MAKES RAPID HEADWAY.

Add This Fact to Your Store of Knowledge.

Kidney disease advances so rapidly that many a person is firmly in its grasp before aware of its progress. Prompt attention should be given the slightest symptom of kidney disorder. If there is a dull pain in the back, headaches, dizzy spells or a tired, worn-out feeling, or if the urine is dark, foul-smelling, irregular and attended with pain, procure a good kidney remedy at once.

Your townspeople recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Read the statement of this Westfield citizen.

W. L. Randall, 60 Central St., Westfield, N. J., says: "My back troubled me for a long time and there was a constant pain through my loins, which seemed to grow worse daily. I tried many remedies in an effort to find relief, but was not successful until a friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a box at Fratchey's Pharmacy and since using them, I have been enjoying excellent health. I shall always recommend Doan's Kidney Pills when an opportunity occurs."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McLure Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The first real trouble a new bride has is trying to keep her wedding ring on while she washes the dishes.

Pride deserves a fall when a mother gets the ancestry boasting habit ahead of bragging about her children.

It is a mean man who gets rid of a pestering insurance agent by sacking him on to the man he dislikes.

You can't scare a tightwad by telling him that we are all headed for a place where pocket-books are prohibited.

A fat man deserves to be good natured because there is so much more of him for pleasantry to spread over.

A woman may be clumsy about driving carpet tacks but she can hit the head every time in driving a bargain.

Get rid of the idea that a suitable Christmas present for a bald headed man would be a silver backed hair brush.

The hardest thing for the man with a new automobile is to remember not to say "Whoo!" when it acts skittish.

Now we have tolerated the hobble skirt won't anybody please create a fashion that will help a woman to talk slower.

A grouch is the person who would refuse to swallow a grain of geniality even if he knew it was a sure cure for his affliction.

A girl believes she is able to conduct her own love affairs just about the time when the rest of the family attempts to engineer them.

The grouch picks up his own troubles, those of other people and troubles that wouldn't fasten themselves to anything or anybody.

When it comes to charity there are plenty of people who are willing to throw in a few words of encouragement in lieu of a cash contribution.

Plenty of successful men get the credit for being self-made when their foundations were laid by others even if it were merely influence or pull.

One of the men who had some enjoyment in the late political race explains that it is quite a problem to get in touch with the people without being touched.

Many a man past forty would like to renew his acquaintance with the appetite he once had over a breakfast of fried oysters from the menu of his own expediency.

OBITUARY.

James R. Perine

After an illness that dated since last summer when he was stricken at Belmar with heart trouble, James R. Perine, the father of Deputy State Comptroller of New York Edward T. Perine, died at the latter's home on last Saturday. Mr. Perine was attacked with the malady that caused his death while visiting a sister at the seashore. He was removed to his son's home in this town where he was confined to his bed a big part of the time before his death.

The funeral service was conducted from his late residence on Monday afternoon. In charge of the service was the Rev. C. J. Greenwood, pastor of the First Baptist church, assisted by the Rev. Dr. W. I. Stearns, of the First Presbyterian church. Both pastors paid splendid tributes to the character of the deceased. Interment was made in Evergreen Cemetery.

Mr. Perine was one of the veteran temperance reformers in New Jersey and was the last surviving charter member of the Howell Division No. 97 Sons of Temperance, Plainfield. In July, 1909, Mr. Perine was elected grand chaplain of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance, and in 1917 he was chosen grand and worthy patriarch of the order and as such officer visited many sections of the state.

Mr. Perine was one of the pioneer merchants of Plainfield and in the early days of that city he conducted a stationery store. Later he removed to Brooklyn where he resided for several years prior to coming here to make his home with his son. At the time of his death he was a deacon of the Hanson Place Baptist church of that city.

Mr. Perine's father, Joseph Perine, was a prominent contractor in Plainfield in the '60s and '70s. An older brother, George E. Perine, was a noted steel plate engraver. Mrs. J. R. Gemin, of Belmar is a surviving sister.

William S. Worl

Just as he sat down to eat his Thanksgiving dinner J. N. Worl, the local real estate operator, received a telegram informing him of the death of his brother, William S. Worl, which occurred in St. Vincent's hospital early Thursday morning. The remains were brought here to-day and arrangements for the funeral service and interment will be made later.

Mr. Worl was a native of Philadelphia, and was 74 years of age. He was an electrical engineer of prominence and enjoyed the distinction with his brother of receiving the special grant from Congress in 1907 to lay the first Atlantic cable.

Two years ago Mr. Worl came to Westfield seeking to benefit his health and resided here seven months.

Sophie B. Marshburn

Mrs. Sophie B. Marshburn died Wednesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Bower, Brookwood Place. Mrs. Marshburn was 67 years of age and is survived by six sons, Gustave Marshburn. Funeral services will be held at her late residence, 280 Park street, Saturday morning at 9:30; interment at Luther cemetery, Brooklyn.

CEREMONY AT THE CHURCH.

And Reception at the Home, Tuesday Night, Made Memorable by Wedding Anniversary of the Bride's Parents.

Society's first autumnal wedding was celebrated on Tuesday evening in the old First Presbyterian Church when Miss Bertha May Fink, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram L. Fink, of 209 East Walnut street, was united in marriage to John Howard McLaughlin, principal of the McKinley public school. The ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. W. I. Stearns, pastor of the church, in the presence of more than six hundred guests from this town, Plainfield, Cranford, Newark, New York, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and other places.

It was one of the most brilliant weddings of the year and the solemnization of the ceremony at the church was followed by a reception to the bride couple at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding was also noteworthy because the occasion also marked the thirty-third anniversary of the marriage of the bride's parents.

The ceremony was performed along side of a bower of ferns and palms, while the decorations at the reception consisted of roses and carnations of various hues intermingled with a profusion of ferns and palms.

Magnificent gifts were exchanged by members of the bridal party. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a pearl diamond pendant and the bride's token to the bridegroom was a pearl and diamond studded scarf pin. The gift of the bride to the maid of honor was an amethyst heart; the bridesmaids received gold brooches; and gold bar pins were received by the little flower girls. Pearl and diamond scarf pins were the gifts of the bridegroom to his attendants.

Attired in a gown of white marquise over white satin with hand embroidered and pearl trimmings and daintiness lace, and wearing a veil fastened by a spray of orange blossoms, the bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her father. Preceding them in the procession were the ushers, bridesmaids, the maid of honor and the flower girls. At the altar the party were met by the bridegroom and the best man who had entered from another door. In her entry and departure from the church the bride carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

During the procession to the altar, Mrs. Harry Taylor, played selections from the Lohengrin wedding march and at the completion of the ceremony the bridal party retraced their steps from the church to the inspiring air of Mendelssohn's march. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Miss Julia Frances Fink. She was charmingly gowned, in blue crepe de chene and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

There were four bridesmaids: Miss Edna L. Fink, a sister of the bride; Miss Natalie R. Brainerd, of this town; Miss Emily Banyon, of Plainfield, and Miss Belle Harris, of Newark. Two wore gowns of blue silk not over blue satin and two were attired in creations of pink silk not over pink satin. All carried bouquets of pink carnations.

The flower girls were Frances Pencheon, a cousin of the bride, and Caroline Darby. They were prettily gowned in pink and white gowns with blue ribbon trimmings and carried ribbon decked baskets of carnations.

Curtis McLaughlin, of Harrisburg, a brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man and the ushers were Raymond Smith, Ralph Barry and Russell Hall, of this town and Charles Springstead, of Albany.

At the reception Mrs. Fink, the mother of the bride received the guests. In a gown of black sequined trimmed with jet. During the festivities dainty refreshments were served and music was furnished by an orchestra directed by Harry Weston, of Roselle.

The bridal couple received a large array of costly and useful presents from their large circle of friends. In the midst of the festivities they departed for Philadelphia and on Wednesday morning left that city on a two week's honeymoon.

In the midst of the showers of congratulations on Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin, the bride's parents were also the recipients of many kind greetings at the home reception between of the fact of the evening being the thirty-third anniversary of their wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Fink were also married in the Presbyterian Church; the date of their wedding being November 22, 1877. Mrs. Fink was formerly Miss Clark, daughter of the late Stewart Clark, of Mountain avenue, and the officiating clergyman was the Rev. Mr. McKelvey, who had served some years ago, the latter being the father of the Rev. Dr. W. I. Stearns, who is pastor of the church.

THANKSGIVING IN SCHOOLS.

Appropriate Programs Given by Pupils to Celebrate the Day.

Thanksgiving was observed in an appropriate way in the public schools on Wednesday. Pupils in all grades voiced the spirit of the holiday in song and story. The decorations were in harmony with the occasion and consisted chiefly of the display of Old Glory and profusions of autumn blossoms.

At the Washington school an attractive program was presented under the direction of Miss Mahel E. Bray, supervisor of music. The stellar attraction on the program was an oratorio depicting the four seasons, spring, summer, autumn and winter, by four pupils, Philip Koyen, Clifford Ewing, Daniel Boyle and Harold Gettman. The program follows:

Youth And Age

Though leaves are many, the root is one;
Through all the tyrannies of my youth
I swayed the leaves and flowers in the sun;
Now I may wither into the truth.
