'STUDY HALL' PLAN

Dr. Savitz Advises Board of Education of Experiment Which May Become Part of Program.

SCHOOL HOURS MAY BE CHANGED.

Strong Likelihood of Revision to Old Plan of Six Hours a Day Instead of Present Half Session.

Members of the Board of Education expressed themselves as highly gratified after hearing Dr. J. J. Savitz report on the remarkable results obtained in the first month's trial of the "Study Hall" which was inaugurated in the Washington school November 1. The "Study Hall" is for the benefit of pupils who are "not up" in all of their studies. After the day's work is completed they have the privilege of returning to school in the afternoon to receive the assistance of special teachers in the branch of study in which they are deficient.

Before adopting the plan Dr. Savitz, in completing an investigation on the standing of High school pupils, discovered that fifty-five students were deficient in one or more studies; as the result of the work in the "Study Hall" last month the number was reduced to twenty-two, or more than one-half. The compensation shows the advantage and benefits to be derived from the "Study Hall Treatment."

Dr. Savitz in his remarks to the Board declared that it is his belief that pupils can gain more by studying in school in the company of teachers than they can at home, where they are apt to lose sight of their school duties for sports and other pastimes.

Under present conditions High school pupils begin their studies at 8:30 a. m., which continues until 1:10 p. m., exclusive of the regular recess period.

In view of Dr. Savitz report of the success of the "Study Hall" it is not at all unlikely that next year the old six hour scale may be adopted in the High School, i. e. 9 a. m. to 12 o'clock and 1 o'clock to 4 o'clock. It appears to be the sentiment of the Board that High school pupils have too much spare time on their hands, a part of which should be devoted to study in the classroom.

"The school is no place to encourage idleness among pupils," says Dr. Savitz, and judging by expressions by the Board members, the latter also entertain the same opinion.

During the discussion it was mentioned that a majority of the pupils are willing to rush off to play or attend basketball games during the afternoon, while on the other hand they were unwilling to do any "studying." To this Mr. Losse acquiesced by saying:

"Basket ball is all right in its place, but too much of it is N. G."

Woman's Club Meeting.

The Woman's Club met Monday afternoon with the President, Mrs. Tabby, in the chair. The studies of Elizabethan Literature were continued. Mrs. Newcomb read the first paper, a most interesting account of John Webster, dramatist, and a sketch of his most important work, the Duchess of Malfi.

Mrs. Newcomb was followed by Mr. Alfred Best who sang three beautiful songs, Mother's Mine, Bonds of Love and Gains. Mr. Best responded to prolonged applause with an encore.

Mrs. Sanborn then read a delightful paper, explaining the work and life of the famous literary person and friend Job Francis Beaumont and John Fletcher. A sketch of their well-known work "Philaster" was given, with readings from the text.

Mr. Best again sang, giving three songs in German and kindly responding again to great applause with "Songs of Araby." A rising vote of thanks was given Mr. Best for the great pleasure he afforded the members of the Woman's Club.

Announcement was made of the Christmas meeting. It will not be a program for children this year.

Miss Scott Entertained.

Miss Edith Harris Scott who was greeted by an appreciative audience in the brough at Mountmaine on last Friday night was the guest of honor at a musicale given in her honor on last Sunday night by Mrs. Charles Beardsall at Mountmaine. At Friday night's recital Miss Scott was ably accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Frank H. Smith.

The Sunday World series of local fire department photos was completed last Sunday. It will be followed during next Sunday, December 11th, with a set of gold band and pictures.

CORPORATIONS' TAXES.

Westfield Resolves $8,245.12 From Big Concerns Doing Business Within the Town.

P. & G. THE LARGEST CONTRIBUTOR.

Cranford Gas Light Co. Next-Telephone Company Discontinued With Assessment and Appeals to County Board.

Westfield's income on corporation and franchise taxes for the year 1910 will reach the total of $8,245.12. Out of this sum the corporation taxes amount to $4,455.55, and the sum derived from franchise taxes, which are also paid by the corporations, represent a total of $3,789.57.

The Public Service is the largest contributor to the town treasury, that company's share being $4,755.70 or more than half of the total amount received from the various corporations. For its property, the company is taxed $2,010.33, and its share of the franchise tax is $2,665.04. The property taxes receivable from the corporations are as follows:

Public Service Corporation (United Electric Company), $355.12; Public Service (railway), $1,705.68; Cranford Gas Light Company, $255.44; New York Telephone Company, $574.45; Union Water Company, $1,155.44; Western Union Telegraph Company, $74.99; Northeastern Telegraph Company, $9.35.

The franchise taxes receivable are as follows: Public Service Corporation (railway), $5,064.65; Public Service (United Electric), $255.55; Cranford Gas Light Company, $255.44; Plainfield-Union Water Company, $475.16; New York Telephone Company, $565.36.

It became known this week that the New York Telephone Company is dissatisfied with the assessment of $30,719 made on its property by Assessor Marsh. The company appealed to the Union County Board of Taxation for a reduction and the case may be adjourned by the board today.

The objection of the company came as a surprise, in view of the fact that the assessment this year is identically the same as fixed in 1909, and when was paid without a murmur. It is understood that the company will endeavor to get the county board to reduce the assessment to $25,000.

The total property assessments against the corporations as fixed by Assessor Marsh aggregated $225,400.19, divided as follows:

Public Service, $100,899.75; Cranford Gas Light, $11,109.64; New York Telephone, $30,719; Union Water, $61,691.80; Western Union, $,000; Northeastern Telegraph, $500.

HEALTH BOARD DEMANDS CLEANER TROLLEY CARS.

Acting on a suggestion by Inspector Andrew Carney, Jr. the Board of Health, at a meeting on Friday night, decided to appeal to the Public Service Corporation for cleaner trolley cars. Mr. Carney contended that little care is exercised by the company's employees toward keeping the interior of the cars in spick and span shape. Inspector Carney will take the matter up with Superintendent George Lehr.

Dr. J. E. Harrison referred to the condition of some of the streets and sidewalks on which work has recently been done. He declared that the contractors in charge of new work should be compelled to leave the streets in good shape. Under present conditions he declared that there are numerous danger spots that should be eliminated.

The garbage collecting firm of Tolson and Gaffney was notified to suspend business until they took out a license. The firm claims that that they purchased the business of George Peterson, and were working under the latter's license. Peterson, however, informed the Board that he had not disposed of his business.

The garbage permit of Nell Nelson was transferred to Michael Brisco. Inspector Carney in his report showed improvement in general conditions during the month. A number of latrines were inspected and conditions found O. K. He also reported that a number of property holders on Spring street are connecting their houses with sewer.

Forty-four plumbing permits were issued during the month. The Board also decided to take up the matter of requiring plumbers to furnish bonds at the January meeting.

The Board expended during the past year a total of $1,000; the receipts for permits was $400, the total amount being expended from taxation funds being $600.

Formation was granted the Board of Education to use other for filling in the vacant school site on Stanley Oval. They were also given of members to be held in December.

ELECTION ON DEC. 22.

School Board Fixes Earliest Possible Date to Vote on Proposed Bond Issue.

LECTURE APPROPRIATION GRANTED.

Miss Tabbs Engaged as Latin Teacher—Medical Examiner Sinclair's Monthly Report—Other Business.

Thursday, December 22, is the date set for the next school election. The Board of Education at its meeting on Tuesday night decided on this date and made other arrangements to conduct the election. As in the previous election the polls will be open from three to nine o'clock. Notices of the election were posted in conspicuous places about town yesterday by District Clerk Webster.

According to the resolutions authorizing the election officers will be asked to vote on two propositions: One to issue bonds to the extent of $25,000 for the purpose of erecting an addition to the Washington school building; the other to raise $25,000 bonds, to build the proposed Stanley avenue school. Of the latter amount $15,000 is required for the purchase of the land and $10,000 for building purposes. The election committee consists of Messrs. Dennis, Egol and Graps.

Considerable routine business was transacted. Acting on the suggestion of Superintendent J. J. Savitz, $75 was appropriated from the teacher's fund, for the purpose of conducting lectures for the benefit of the pupils.

The matter of fire drills was discussed. It was voted to dispense with the drills during the cold weather. Dr. Egol, chairman of the Building and Grounds Committee, reported that there is no need of fire engines in any of the school buildings. The District Clerk was authorized to borrow $1,000 for current expenses.

Dr. Sinclair in his report as medical examiner informed the Board that he had made 118 examinations among pupils last month. Out of this number of cases 95 should be rectified said Dr. Sinclair.

Dr. Egol reported that there is need for improvement in different heating apparatuses. Several minor repairs will be made and it is possible a new heating system will be recommended for next year. Miss Tabbs was engaged to teach Latin for the remainder of the school year. Messrs. Graps and Dempsey were appointed members of the Manual Training Committee and Mr. Perkins was named as a member of the Finance Committee.

The Board adjourned until Friday night, December 23. In addition to nothing on the result of the school election, which will take place on the previous day, the budget for 1911 will also be discussed.

CIVIC PROBLEMS.

Problems of local government will furnish a theme for discussion at the next meeting of the Westfield Board of Trade to be held on Thursday, January 19. Among the speakers who will discuss the subject at this meeting are Mayor Augustus L. Alpers and Mayor-elect J. Allison Dennis.

The meeting will be the first of a series of meetings in which civic affairs will be discussed by prominent citizens as arranged at the meeting of the Board last month. The committee appointed to arrange the meetings consists of Town Attorney Paul Q. Oliver, Arthur N. Pierson and Clifford E. Pearson. The public is invited to attend all of the meetings.

SCHOOL Supt. J. J. SAVITZ ON MANUAL TRAINING.

In an address at a meeting of the Union County School Principals' Association at Scotch Plains on last Friday, County Superintendent of Schools J. J. Savitz urged that special stress be emphasized in manual training departments of county schools.

Mr. Savitz referred to the emphasis placed upon the subject of manual training by the State School Department, calling attention to the generous appropriation for its maintenance and showing how easily this phase of education can be made available to all of the schools of the county by the combination of several districts for the employment of a special teacher for shop work and by the utilization of the drawing teachers for class room work in the subject.

Dr. Savitz also emphasized the desirability of acquainting pupils with the industrial processes in operation in the vicinity by means of carefully conducted visits to manufacturing and shops, and the necessity of familiarizing students with social geography conditions by means of excursions.

TO BUY TOWN HALL.

Ordinance to that Effect Passed on First Reading at Regular Council Meeting Monday Night.

PURCHASE PRICE FIXED AT $20,000

Which on 4-1-2 Per Cent Interest Bearing Bonds Will be Cheaper than Paying Rent.

Westfield will begin the New Year as the owner of its own Town Hall. The way was paved for the purchase of the building now owned by Hon. Lloyd Thompson, and for which the town pays an annual rent of $900, by the Town Council at its regular meeting on Tuesday night when an ordinance was passed on its first reading calling for an issue of $20,000 in bonds to make the purchase.

It is stipulated in the ordinance that the bonds will become payable at the Westfield Trust Company on December 31, 1940. The bonds will bear 4 1/2 per cent interest, and will be twenty in number, the denomination of each being $1,000.

The action of the Council providing for a bond issue to purchase the hall is generally regarded as a splendid investment from a financial point of view. It represents a saving of $25,000, when it is taken into consideration that the town voted at a special election two years ago, to expend $75,000 for a site and erecting a municipal building.

The expense involved in carrying the $20,000 bond issue is considerably less than the rental charge; within thirty years it is figured by real estate experts, that the land on which the hall is situated will be worth close to the purchase price. This appears quite possible as recent sales of real estate in the vicinity of the Methodist church and on Broad street were made at rates ranging from $20 to $300 per foot. On the present basis of purchase of the property the cost of the land on Prospect street, which is only a short distance from Broad street, is about $40 per foot.

The ordinance governing the salaries of town officers was also amended whereby the stipends of town attorney and recorder will be increased. The salary of attorney was boosted from $200 to $300, and the salary of recorder raised from $200 to $300.

The salary as fixed for town attorney is stipulated to cover office work while he is to receive additional compensation for extra work.

The ordinance providing for $10,000 bonds to be known as north main sewer bonds, and $40,000 bonds, to be known as street, sidewalk and sewer bonds were passed upon second and final readings.

A communication was received from The New York Telephone Company notifying the Council that the company had plans to erect nine poles to be used jointly by that company and the Public Service Corporation.

The letter provoked a mild discussion in which Town Attorney Oliver informed the Councilmen that all poles erected by the company must be for its sole use and not to be used by the P. S. C. Town Clerk Thompson was instructed to notify the company to this effect.

A number of protests were received from residents relative to the Town laying sidewalks on New street. The letters were from M. T. Townley, Edward S. Welch, Carrie Hart and Miriam H. Miller. A permit was issued to James E. Gann to lay a sidewalk on Kimball avenue, between Enclid and Harrison.

On the recommendation of Councilman Floyd, special policemen Dorsey, Marchant and Traynor were advanced to "regulars" and Edward Nelson, recently of Dover, was appointed as a special officer.

The Council also ratified the contract between the Town and W. G. Peckham for the grading of Highland avenue. The fire committee was authorized to have a fire hydrant placed on Highland avenue near the residence of Mr. Coyne. Councilman Davis reported plans for the installation of fourteen more electric lights in different sections of the town.

A communication was received from Percy Smith and Sidney Cook making application for a license to conduct a moving picture theatre at the Gale club house on Elm street. The application will be acted on at the next meeting of the Council. Robert Mueller withdrew his application made at a previous meeting for a lunch house.

Mrs. Henrietta Simpson has returned to her home in Terrytown after visiting her son, Mr. F. B. Simpson, at Westfield avenue.

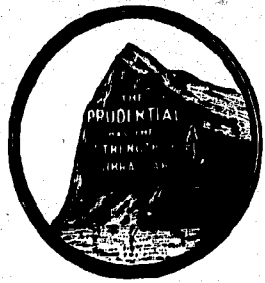

At a meeting of the trustees of United Baptist church it was voted to offer a reward of $50 for the arrest and conviction of the person guilty of trespassing on the church property.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Spurrman, of Scotch avenue, received many congratulations from their friends and neighbors last Sunday, the occasion being the twentieth anniversary of their marriage.

When the case against E. W. York of Scotch, charged with trespassing was called before Judge Taylor on Tuesday morning it was discovered that the warrant was issued for the wrong man. Instead of Mr. York, the man charged with the crime was Mr. York of Scotch, who was charged with a crime.

Friends of Miss Mabelle E. Beck, daughter of Julius Beck, of Downer St., received a pleasant surprise in the announcement of her marriage to Adrian O. Murray, of Elizabeth. The ceremony was performed on November 5th, by the Rev. Dr. J. T. Lewis, in the Church of Transfiguration, New York. The wedding was celebrated on quiet lines owing to the recent death of one of the bridegroom's relatives. On New Year's Day Mr. and Mrs. Murray will begin house-keeping on Morris avenue, Elizabeth.

WESTFIELD AUTO SPEEDER "PINCHED" IN NEWARK.

Fredericks Told Judge He Was on Way To Sunday School and Escaped.

Auto speeding is pardonable in Newark when the person is making haste to escape being late for Sunday school. That is what Judge Hahn decreed when George Fredericks, of this town, appeared in a Newark court, following his arrest for auto speeding. Fredericks explained to the Judge that he was on his way to Sunday school and sentence was suspended.

The infraction of the law was witnessed by Motorcycle Patrolman Franks, who took Fredericks in custody. According to the testimony offered by the officer at the hearing, Fredericks was driving his automobile on Clinton avenue at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour. The cop also declared that Fredericks failed to slacken his speed when warned.

Fredericks was apprehended by the officer in a merry chase the Westfielder led the latter on Elizabeth avenue. In court Fredericks told the Judge that he was on his way to Sunday school. It was 2:30 o'clock when he approached a trolley car in front of him and it was then that he began speeding in order to pass the car.

HE KNEW J. M. C.

Aaron Chandler Renews Friendship of 40 Years Ago with Veteran Assessor.

After an absence from town of nearly forty years Aaron Chandler surprised a number of the old time residents yesterday by his presence on Broad street. As Mr. Chandler expressed himself as he gazed on the improvements and growth two score of years had brought about, "I was almost lost until I ran into Johnny Marsh, and it was not until then did I realize I was back in the old town again."

Mr. Chandler and "J. M. C." met on Broad street near the post office and each recognized the other without formal introductions. There was a happy hand shaking and which was followed by a two-hour chat in which the pioneer incidents of old times were rehearsed. Another old friend that Mr. Chandler met while here was William Dawes one of the veteran members of the local fire department. Both worked together as masons in the olden days.

While here Mr. Chandler told some friends and new acquaintances of his acquaintanceship with John D. Rockefeller, the Standard Oil King and the richest man in the world. That was about thirty years ago in the oil fields in the vicinity of Salamanca, N. Y. Chandler at that time was employed by a man who disposed of second handed barrels to the oil well operators in northwestern Pennsylvania and southwestern New York, Rockefeller being one of his customers.

In those days, according to Chandler, John D. was credited with having only a limited capital, and he was obliged to pay spot cash for his barrels. The orders from his boss were:

"Never to unload any barrels for Mr. Rockefeller without getting your money beforehand." Chandler delivered barrels to Rockefeller for about a year and he declares that John D. was one of the shrewdest business men he ever came in contact with. "He was great at making bargains at cut figures," said Chandler.

A greater part of Mr. Chandler's active days were spent in working at his trade of mason and bricklayer. Although seventy-one years of age he is still active on his feet and he declared that he is able to lay 2,800 brick in eight hours. Mr. Chandler said if there are any "Doubting Thomases" he is willing to back up his claims by betting $50 on himself. There were no takers in sight.

Before he acquired the mason trade, Chandler was employed as a driver by the company that operated the old stage coach line between New Brunswick and Bound Brook about fifty years ago. During his life he was thrifty and put his savings with the result that he has a nice little bank account which keeps the wolf away from his door the rest of his days. Just now Chandler is living at a boarding house in Plainfield.

THE STORM OF '82

Aaron Grant Tells About Time We Westfielders Were Snowed in for Four Days.

The descent of the miniature Niagara on Westfield and vicinity on Tuesday resulted in Aaron F. Grant, of Westfield avenue, switching his machine back to January 1892 when Westfield was hit by a snowstorm, not even the great blizzard of 1898, took place.

According to Mr. Grant it started snow on Saturday and it continued without abatement until Wednesday. The snow fell in driving sheets such velocity that persons were unable to discern trees, barns, houses or objects through the window panes.

When the snow ceased there was fences in sight and it was with difficulty that the pathways and ways were cleared. The snow did not melt away until April and was continuous sleighing from April that month.

There was little inconvenience caused by the storm of this week. The plowing on the part of the P. & O. and the snow plows in connection clearing the tracks resulted in practically no delay in trolley traffic.

The citizens also responded to the occasion by cleaning their sidewalks promptly and Chief of Police O'Connell was not obliged to enforce the law compelling residents to clear the sidewalks of their abode.

Fine Officers at Plainfield Theatre.

"The Wearing of the Green," a dramatic Irish drama, with Fife O'Connell as the celebrated Irish singer, was the leading role, in a musical production at Plainfield Theatre, Monday, Tuesday and night, December 5, 6 and 7. The locale of "The Wearing of the Green" is laid in Ireland and the audience back to the time when high treason to King James II. The plot of the play hinges on the fact that Fife O'Connell who replaced the old singer at a concert hall, many adventures he wins the love of his listeners and in direct contrast to the popular idiom of the day, "The Wearing of the Green" becomes the popular idiom of the day and wins the girl of his choice. The play is supported by a distinguished cast which includes Marie Quinlan, Phyllis Baker, J. P. Rice, Wm. T. Sheehan and others.

GLIMPSES OF HISTORIC WESTFIELD

From Notes Prepared by Members and Friends of the Congregational Church, and read at the Historical Reception to Dr. and Mrs. Loomis, November 15.

Episcopal Church.

St. Paul's Church was organized in 1867. Services were held, for some time, in the residence of Rev. P. E. Coe, on Broad street on the site of the present library building. The hall of the residence was used for a chapel and the stairs of ten used for seats. On November 17, 1869, it was "Resolved that the rector is requested to procure necessary fuel and lights for the chapel and to reimburse himself out of the collections." It was then known as Grace Church.

In 1870 the congregation refused longer to meet for worship under such conditions and the entire congregation withdrew. The next place of worship was in the Prospect Street School Building where services were conducted by William R. Earle, a perpetual deacon. They shortly afterwards purchased a plot at the foot of Clark street and erected a place of worship called Christ Church with Rev. G. M. Bradley Rector. In 1847 the Bishop of the Diocese recognized the practically defunct "Grace Church" as the official church to which most of the congregation returned.

The land upon which the present edifice stands was donated by the Rev. Mr. Coe. The corner stone was laid November 4, 1874. The church was opened for worship March 31, 1875.

Methodist Church.

The first Methodist services in Westfield were held under the shade trees on the lawn of C. A. Leveridge. Services were conducted by Rev. William Perry of Plainfield. On March 27, 1850, the society was formally organized and a Board of Trustees elected. On October 27, 1851, John M. Clark donated a site for the church 75x120 feet, where the present edifice stands. The corner stone of this church was laid November 7, 1851, and the church was dedicated December 20, 1853. An extension was added in 1861. The first Sunday school was organized June 10, 1853, with seven teachers and thirty scholars. On May 20, 1877, the present structure was completed. The fine bell was donated by Mrs. Mary Ann Burhans in 1886, and the clock was presented by the Mapes family. A fine new church is now being erected.

The Library.

On May 3, 1873, the "Every Saturday Book Club" was organized by women. In October 1876 the books numbered 200. On February 17, 1877, the "Every Saturday Circulating Library" was opened to the public in the Prospect Street School Building. In March 1878 its name was changed to Westfield Public Library. In 1905 Andrew Carnegie gave $10,000 for the building, if the Town would furnish the site and expend 10% of the cost of the building per year for maintenance. A red hot special election followed on April 11, 1905. The vote stood 385 in favor—201 against.

The corner stone of the present building was laid June 9, 1906. In 1909 Mr. Carnegie gave $5,000 to enlarge the building.

"A landmark of interest was the little old red brick school house long since taken down—about 1870. It was located on Mountain avenue next to the cemetery and opposite the Presbyterian Church. Up stairs was a large room which the church people used for their weekly prayer meetings. Down stairs was the school room." Opposite the school house and directly in front of the "Presbyterian Church" was the town common, where the children played and the out door celebrations were held.

Congregational Church.

The Congregational Church was the outcome of a meeting held in the old Lyceum Building May 22, 1880. The organizers were then members of the Presbyterian Church. Services were held in Lyceum Hall under the pastorate of Rev. H. Neill, who became the first pastor on January 19, 1881. During his pastorate plans were made for building a permanent church. The present site was chosen and a building erected. One hundred dollar bonds to the amount of $2,000 were issued to cover the cost of land and building. Since then the structure has been added to a number of times and additional land purchased for future needs.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH FROTHOLDERS OF UNION COUNTY.

Official.

The adjourned meeting of the Union County Board of Frotholders was held November 18, 1910, at 2.30 P.M.

Roll call showed the following members present: Director Cady, Frotholders Adams, Crane, Dady, Drane, Garrison, Grimes, Hall, Hayland, Jones, Krom, Meisel, Perry, Randolph, Smith, Thompson, and Wilber.

Absent—Jones, Martin and Smith—3. On motion of Frotholder Wilber the reading of the minutes of the meeting of November 3 was dispensed with.

COMMUNICATIONS.

John N. Cady, Director of the Board of Frotholders, Newark, New Jersey.

My Dear Sir—Confirming our verbal acquaintance of the Washington avenue and Edgar road education, Union county, on October 18, 1910, I hereby notify you and, through you, the Board of Church Frotholders of Union county, that the said road has been completed to our entire satisfaction and is therefore accepted upon the part of the State.

Very truly yours,

FREDERICK GILKYSON,

Commissioner.

On motion of Frotholder Smith received and placed on file.

Hon. Benjamin King, clerk of the board of Frotholders, Union county New Jersey.

Dear Mr. King—We are in receipt of communication of November 4 and desire to thank you and the Board of Frotholders for their prompt and just action in the matter brought before them, concerning St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Our doors are always open to the worthy poor of Union county and any recommendation from a Frotholder will receive prompt and respectful attention, but you can see the injustice of this case, in that a physician sent the patient to a specialist for his opinion; the hospital up to this time, never entered into the case at all; then when it came to the part of the hospital, the patient took a private room of his own free will. Then after all debts were incurred a letter from a Frotholder was brought forth.

As business men, we know you will agree with us, that if they intended to take advantage of this kind, they should have brought their letter at first, and then made arrangements accordingly, a method which certainly would have been just as agreeable to us.

Thanking you again we remain

Gratefully yours,

BOARD OF MANAGERS,

ST. ELIZABETH HOSPITAL.

On motion of Frotholder Wilber received and placed on file.

COMMITTEE REPORT.

Gentlemen—Subjct to confirmation of this board, I have closed negotiations with P. J. Ryan for the purchase of 33 Rahway avenue, the last of the three buildings in Rahway avenue now owned by the county, and which this board at its last meeting instructed the County Attorney to bring condemnation proceedings to acquire for the sum of $5,000.

Very truly yours,

N. E. LEAVITT,

County Collector.

On motion of Frotholder Jones received and placed on file.

NEW BUSINESS.

By Frotholder Kromes: Resolved, That the County Collector be and he hereby is authorized to pay to the owner of the premises, 33 Rahway avenue in the city of Elizabeth, the sum of five thousand five hundred dollars, upon the receipt of a deed from said owner to the Board of Church Frotholders of the County of Union, for said premises; said premises to be purchased by the county for said price subject to the taxes for the year 1910, further.

Resolved, That the County Attorney proceed with the search of the title to said premises at once. Further.

Resolved, That the matter of the disposition of the buildings on the premises in Rahway avenue be referred to the Committee on Public Grounds and Buildings with power to sell them.

Frotholder Smith moved the adoption of the resolution, which on roll call was unanimously adopted.

The Town Hall Proposition.

The proposition of Mr. Lloyd Thompson upon which initial and favorable action was taken at the meeting of Council Monday night, and by which, if finally carried, the Town of Westfield will acquire its present headquarters for a Town Hall for the nominal sum of $20,000, is viewed by all who know local real estate values as a money-saver for the tax payers. By the purchase of the property at this price, the Town secures a building specially planned by the present owner for municipal purposes and so constructed that suitable additions can be made whenever need arises. Furthermore, the economy of the purchase is evident from the following:

The Town now pays the owner $995 per year for rent. If the property is bought the interest on $20,000 at 4½ per cent will be $900; or a net saving of $95 per year.

Mr. Thompson has invested in the present building $15,000, covering all additions and improvements. He values the land at $5,000. He paid $2,000 for the land (a low figure even at that time) in 1908. Mr. Thompson was offered $3,000 for the property in less than six weeks after he bought it. Property values have increased nearly 300 per cent on Broad (from $200 to $300 per foot, present values) on nearby streets in ten years. It is probable that in the market today Mr. Thompson could get considerably more than $5,000 for this land, which has a depth of 180 and a frontage of 80 feet; approximately $62 per front foot valuations.

It will also be remembered that the Town not long since obtained an option on the purchase of the Gale property on Elm street, on which the STANDARD Building has since been built, at $100 per foot. It is but fair to estimate that the Thompson lot is worth at least as much if not more per front foot than the Gale lot, or $8,000. Here then is a saving to the Town of $3,000 in land; not to mention the increasing benefits which future land values in our business district will bring. Thirty years hence or by the time the bonds shall have matured, the land alone will be worth the purchase price of the building and land, or $20,000. Another item of economy whereby the Town is again the beneficiary. The money devoted to sinking fund purposes, by which the bonds are paid upon maturity is loanable at 5 per cent. Enough money will be raised in this way to meet about 20 per cent of the principal on the bonds.

In 1908 the citizens voted to give the Council the authority to lease bonds, and the Council passed an ordinance to authorize the purchase of the property.

land and the building of a Town Hall thereon. There is a difference here of $55,000 in the sum authorized and the sum to be expended for Town Hall purposes. Furthermore the purchase of the Thompson building at $20,000 will serve as a positive check to the expenditure of a maximum of $100,000 for a municipal building as authorized at the special election held in 1908.

From every point of view the proposition to purchase the Thompson building is fair and it is doubtful if a better proposition has ever been or will be offered to the Tax Payers. The Council is wise in taking prompt and favorable action upon it.

Christmas Shopping.

We used to remember our families and friends about Christmas time, and, incidentally forget about the tired and overworked clerks, most of them young girls, who stood behind the counter from early morning until late at night to supply the wants of countless Christmas buyers. But within recent years we have become mindful of the needs of the toilers, the humanity in us has been awakened, so we make it our pleasant duty to buy our Christmas gifts during the first two weeks in December—this that the amount of shopping may be more evenly distributed over the comparatively short period devoted to that purpose, and that, thereby, the clerks may not be taxed to the limit, and sometimes beyond the limit of their endurance.

This is to serve as a gentle reminder to the Christmas shoppers of Westfield. You will be doing the girls behind the counters a kindness if you shop now.

STATE TROOPS COMING FOR BIG CELEBRATION.

Efforts to Be Made to Have a Regiment of Militia for Parade.

Miss Westfield is preparing to put on her "Old Gray Bonnet" for the carnival of gaiety which will reign here on July 1, 2, 3 and 4, the suggested dates for the big 1911 celebration. Nearly everybody has caught the fever and is getting "in the swim." Without doubt it will be one of the most elaborate civic demonstrations in the history of central New Jersey; at any rate it will surely eclipse the Westfield centennial observance held in 1904 when the town was ablaze with enthusiasm.

Suggestions are being received by the board by the temporary committee of the Board of Trade which started the ball a-rolling. One of the latest, is the idea of having a regiment or more of state militia in the parade. This idea is one of the popular ones and efforts will be made to obtain assistance from Governor-elect Wilson, and other state officials in this direction, at the proper time.

The Westfield Driving Club at its annual meeting in January, will consider plans for the part that organization will play in the celebration. It is almost certain that the club will desire to hold a three-day trotting meet, on Saturday, July 1, Monday, July 3 and Tuesday, July 4. If this action is taken the program is sure to attract the presence of a large number of horsemen and their families from various sections of the state.

All of the local fraternal organizations are also getting in line and there is little doubt but that each organization will do its share toward affording the program, especially by taking a part in the procession. The committees are also planning to have a parade and they are sure to take an active part in the plans of the program.

Dr. A. W. ...

Methodist church, is one of the interested citizens. Dr. Hayes is strong for the picturesque end of the parade and suggests that special efforts be made toward securing a large representation of citizens to march in masque and grotesque costumes.

Mendelssohn Glee Club of Elizabeth.

A concert of unusual merit is to be given at the Methodist Church on Thursday evening, December 15th when the Mendelssohn Glee Club, of Elizabeth will be heard for the first time in Westfield. The Glee Club which now has a membership of about forty has been giving subscription concerts in Elizabeth for the past six years and has come to be recognized as the best organization of its kind in this part of the State.

The concert to be given in Westfield is one of the coarse given under the auspices of the Men's League of the Methodist Church. Extra tickets may however be obtained at the regular price of fifty cents.

OBTUARY.

Mrs. Annie France.

The funeral services of Mrs. Annie France was conducted in Holy Trinity Catholic Church on Tuesday morning when Father Boyer celebrated requiem mass. Mrs. France, who was the wife of Owen France, of Prospect Heights, died on Saturday, following a brief illness from pneumonia. She was thirty-nine years of age and is survived by a husband and four children.

Mrs. Catharine Alpers.

Mrs. Catharine Alpers, aged 82 years, the mother of Mayor Augustus L. Alpers, died at her home, 218 West Dudley avenue, on Tuesday morning following an illness of nearly two weeks. Death was due to pneumonia following an attack of bronchitis that developed on Thanksgiving day, a few hours after Mrs. Alpers had enjoyed dinner with members of her family.

The funeral service was conducted at her late home yesterday afternoon by the Rev. Dr. S. L. Loomis, pastor of the Congregational Church, of which Mrs. Alpers was a charter member. There was a large attendance of friends of the deceased, and in the course of his remarks, Dr. Loomis referred feelingly to the Christian life of the departed and her faithful service to her church. The remains were taken to Brooklyn today for burial in Greenwood cemetery.

Mrs. Alpers was beloved and respected in a large circle of friends in town. For years she was one of the most zealous workers in the congregation and Sunday school of the Congregational church.

All during her life, until her last illness, Mrs. Alpers has enjoyed remarkably good health. When she was stricken on Thanksgiving Day, the members of her family had hopes of her recovery, but she was unable to combat with the disease that resulted in death.

Before coming to Westfield, Mrs. Alpers was a member of the Rev. T. DeWitt Talmadge's church in Brooklyn. In addition to taking a big interest in local church and charitable affairs, Mrs. Alpers was a close student of civic affairs. Several years ago she gained the distinction of being the first woman in Westfield to vote at a school election. Mrs. Alpers was also a lover of nature and much of her time was spent in frequenting the beauty spots in and around Westfield.

Mrs. Alpers was a native of New York and came to Westfield to reside in 1876. She is survived by five children, four sons and one daughter. Two sons, William J. and Augustus L. and the daughter, Miss Nellie C. reside here, and Martin E. resides in Dover and George W. in Brooklyn. She was the widow of Martin Alpers, of Brooklyn, who died in 1905, and was the mother of nine children.

A SHATTERED SIMILE.

Prof. Peaseley Prescribes Some Millionaire Medicine and a Few Tramp Antidotes.

The interest in Prof. Peaseley's Sorrow Subduer Shop is accumulating faster than the interest on a seven per cent farm mortgage. Bill had made preparations to go fishing last Tuesday but his mail matter for that day precluded that pleasure. Among the many epistles that demanded his scientific solution was the following written in a plain, unvarnished fashion which, while it was minus the regulation fee and the writer's name, bore so unmistakably the characteristics of a superior woman's pure and unselfish innocence that he determined to answer it.

Westfield, N. J., May 1, 1893.

Prof. Peaseley:

Your ability in settling troublesome questions induces me to ask you how to prevent the manufacture of millionaires. The carving of our millionaires produces a great many chips called tramps which are very troublesome to house keepers. Hoping you will be able to deal with the problem as successfully as you have with former ones I remain,

Yours very truly,

U. C. C."

Bill scratched the clearing on his dome of thought, opened the faucet of his think tank and presently the liquid logic reached his pen and spread itself hastily over several sheets of paper thusly:

"My Dear U. C. C.:

Why should we be strangers? You are a student of human nature, true an undergraduate, but several laps ahead in the right direction. Your attempt at philosophy is a beautiful specimen of a tassel with rhetoric, it sounds sweet but to make it effective it needs pruning or Spring cleaning. It seems a shame to shatter such a sentimental simile, but the facts are millionaires are not manufactured, neither are they carved, hence the tramp is not made of waste material or your chip simile. Millionaires and tramps are born the distinguishing difference being the one is born busy the other born—tired. Were simile to illustrate a millionaire it would properly be in this fashion: A human magnet strong in executive ability, tempered with the heat of determined ambition, chilled with sternness and regard for self, not only attracting but pulling everything and everybody toward him and holding all he attracts. I have never had any serious intentions of becoming a millionaire simply because the obtaining of the necessary attributes has always been beyond my reach. It may be desirable to be a millionaire but my finer sensibilities would fit the distinction of having just sufficient wealth to allow me to elevate my nose above a few of my acquaintances.

Perhaps this same desire for wealth is contagious, even among some of our best families, as I have often heard of its existence since I originated the idea. People acquire wealth in many ways, other than by serving one term as a member of the New Jersey legislature or by publishing a newspaper.

The way of getting wealth does not matter to the man who wants it in a hurry. It is much easier to avoid the affliction of wealth than is ordinarily supposed. The following rules if rigidly adhered to will positively prevent the possibility of prosperity:

1. Do all your store trading on the credit system; it has the advantage of your ordering ad libitum without worrying yourself that sometime the storeman will want his money.
2. Keep in line with your neighbor. He may not be able to afford his display but don't be behind him in anything.
3. If good business or an increase in salary will swell your income spread it out accordingly on your living expenses.
4. Buy lots of things you don't need.

5. Trust to verbal agreements.
6. Favor a friend without security.
7. Overrich the conceit that your ability and intelligence surpasses that of your superiors.

Now for the philosophical pills of prosperity:

1. Adapt yourself to circumstances.
2. Never spend money for what you don't need.
3. Always count your change.
4. Exact the last penny that is your due.
5. If you are a subordinate do your task with a feeling that if you don't do it well someone else will be given the opportunity. This serves to make you indispensable.
6. Never allow other people's afflictions or short comings to inconvenience you.
7. Never borrow or lend without security.

And now for the tramp: Every man who is shiftless, lazy and contented as long as his appetite is satisfied is of the tramp species. Being a tramp is a condition brought about by the absence of tact, judgement, stamina or ambition. Adam bore the distinction of being the original millionaire and the original tramp. Adam could not stand prosperity. There are lots of tramps who mingle in society, there are tramp printers, tramp barbers and many other varieties down to the pure, unadulterated article the tramp who does the country on the trucks of trains or on foot.

Beware of the tramp. He is the victim of his soul rooted business. In the dull lexicon of trampdom there is no such word as 'work' as applied to honest toil. Work to the tramp means work people, pay upon their pity. There is no relief from the infection of tramps, like the rum question we can agitate, agitate—and we still have the rum—and the tramp. There are no good tramps consequently tramps are no good. Give your old clothes to the Missionary Society, your spare food to the neighbor's hens, tell your girl to hurl a flat iron at the first tramp who comes to your back door, hang a shot gun from your front chamber window, clip your dog's ears to make him savage and see that he is kept hungry. All these precautions will tend to acquaint the tramps of your antipathy to them and in time induce them to avoid your premises.

Yours professionally,

A CORROBORATION

Of Interest to Westfield Readers.

For months Westfield citizens have seen in these columns enthusiastic praise of Doan's Kidney Pills, by residents of this locality.

Would these prominent people recommend a remedy that had not proven reliable?

Would they confirm their statements after years had elapsed if personal experience had not shown the remedy to be worthy of endorsement?

No stronger proof of merit can be had than cures that have stood the test of time.

The following statement should carry conviction to the mind of every Westfield reader.

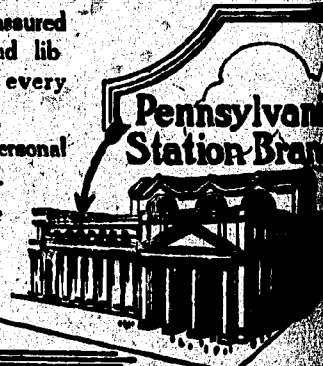

William Schwartz, 10 E. Scott Place, Elizabeth, N. J., says: "I was a victim of kidney complaint for some time. My back was very weak and ached in tensely, especially after I had contracted a cold or was exposed to damp weather. I often felt as if I could not endure the pains in my head and an annoying kidney weakness distressed me night and day. Physicians' medicines did not help me and when I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a supply. After using about three boxes my kidneys were restored to a normal condition and the pains in my back were removed."

THE TEST OF TIME.

On June 30, 1908, Mr. Schwartz said: "I have had no occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills since 1905. I am still as strong in my praise of this remedy as

A NEW ORGANIZATION.

Reverend at the Westfield Casino—A Successful Beginning.

Westfield can now boast of another social organization. A number of young men of this town have formed a society entitled the Young American Social Club and have secured a room in the Westfield Casino for their rendezvous. The regular weekly business meeting takes place every Friday evening at which meeting subjects of vital import are discussed and commented upon. The start made by this club has been an auspicious one and augurs well for its future success.

It is expected that a strong hockey five will carry its colors on the ice this winter and next year it is predicted that a baseball team of no mean calibre will represent it on the diamond. They have already the nucleus of a powerful baseball team and all that is needed is a little practice to bring the players into their old time form. Basketball will not be played this season as a hall suitable for that purpose cannot be obtained.

Money is essential in all club enterprises; hence, it has been deemed expedient to hold a raffle which will take place on December 23. Tickets are now on sale by the club members and can be secured from them. Other unique affairs will take place in the near future and will be announced by this paper from time to time.

Last Saturday night was "Judy's night" and a number of their girl friends were present to make the occasion memorable. Songs were sung by the members who displayed great vocal power. While those who manipulated the ivory keys on the piano showed a facility in playing that was truly remarkable. The tone expression was lucid and evoked great applause. At a late hour refreshments were served and shortly after the meeting adjourned.

The officers of this enterprising organization are as follows: Percy Welch, president; Robert Walker, treasurer; Robert Eller, secretary.

MINOR LEAGUE CLUBS ARE AFTER GEORGE ORTLEB.

Local Boy's Splendid 1910 Record Attracts the Attention of Baseball Scouts.

George Ortleb's brilliant pitching for the Bound Brook ball club last season has attracted the attention of several managers of minor league clubs and it is possible that "Our George" may blossom out as a full fledged leaguer next season.

Ortleb has already received offers to sign with the Lawrence club of the New England League and with the York club of the Tri State League. Ortieb has delayed putting his John Hancock to a contract as it is possible that Hal Chase, the perfect first anchor and manager of the New York Americans may give the local boy a trying out on the southern training trip of the Yankees.

With a big supply of speed and perfect control over a large assortment of curves Ortieb is rated as one of the fastest semi-professional twirlers in the metropolitan district. It was due to his splendid work last season with Bound Brook that the Somerset county aggregation was enabled to complete the season with an enviable record.

In addition to playing at Bound Brook, Ortieb last season also played on the Ironides and the National Tarnverins in the Newark City League.

LOTS DONE IN THE LOCAL TENPIN WORLD.

Unless the Westfield Casino quintet takes a brace in their pinning the locals will be doomed to occupy the cellar when the Fraternal League championship closes. At the present the locals are in last place with five victories and ten defeats. The leaders in the contest are the Moose bowlers of Plainfield, newcomers in the league. They have eleven wins and four defeats, a splendid advantage over the Knights of Columbus, who are in second place with six wins and three defeats.

The main topic of conversation in local bowling circles is the feat performed last week by A. E. Snyder who won the prize ball with a score of 174. Everybody was surprised including Mr. Snyder. The latter is enjoying a good laugh over the fact that his opponents lost their "nerve" when the time came to toe the scratch in the final game for the guerdon.

George Ortieb is banging the pins over at a merry clip and so is Tom Willard.

The locals will tackle the Plainfield Moose, the league leaders to-night at Plainfield.

Queen City Moose Five Wins the Odd Game in a Tame Series.

Westfield pin knights visited Campbell's alleys at Plainfield on Friday night and lost the odd game in a Fraternal League series to the Queen City Moose quintet. It was not until the final game the locals registered a victory over their opponents, the score being 679 to 734. Plainfield annexed the first and second games in comparatively easy style. In the initial clash they overwhelmed the Casino athletes 678 to 773 while they annexed the second contest by a score of 684 to 623.

C. Ortieb executed the spectacular pinning for Westfield. Beginning with a lowly 148 mark in the first game he registered tallies of 205 in the second and third contests. The scores:

Elected Key Captain.

Robert F. Keyes was selected as captain for Westfield's football season for 1911. The election of Keyes was unanimous at a meeting of the eleven last Friday night. Mr. Snyder will coach the players again next season.

DEFEAT FOR WESTFIELD HIGH.

Knickerbocker's Lower School of Schoolboy Quintet in First Basketball Game.

The speedy Knickerbocker basketball quintet began its season auspiciously by defeating Westfield High by the score of 20 to 18 in the auditorium last Friday night. Debutant the former High School star exhibited crickety form and it was largely due to his efforts that the "Knicks" rolled up the victorious score.

As a result of its defeat the school team has been putting in some strenuous practice during the week and they expect to display better form to-morrow night when they clash with the Hottin High five of Elizabeth.

The Knickerbockers led all the way in the contest but that did not dampen the enthusiasm of the High School cohorts who encouraged their favorites along with constant cheering. The lineup:

Westfield High—P. Keeler, L. Meyer, forwards; Underwood, center; S. Bush and W. Hinson, guards.
Knickerbockers—R. Cherry, E. Bush, forwards; G. Delatour, center; F. Traynor, H. Parker, guards.
Referee, Roy Snyder; umpire, C. D. Loney; timers, R. Ravitz, S. Ross.

maintained the year 'round with generous stocks of all sorts of playthings, is greatly enlarged for the holiday season so as to give widest scope to the display of marvelous playthings that so closely imitate the real. Every type of airplane, all sorts of steam trains, with complete railroad equipment—bridges, signals, stations, turn-tables, water towers—everything —and automobiles—racers, limousines; and trolley cars, electric engines, dynamos. Oh! ever so many things—so many of them, in fact, that we cannot begin to tell you about them. Equally fascinating to the little ones are the toy animals—the horses, cows, sheep, dogs, down to Noah's Ark full of sorts of animals—and the wagons, carts and sleds—they are all here in seemingly endless variety.

The long, loud and lucifer sermon seems to have languished.

The skeptic is a man who won't accept sense until he sounds it.

A woman is a world beater at making a bundle of a few facts and attaching significance to it.

In picking out the cats at a table d'hôte dinner, supposedly French, consider carefully: German proprietor, Hungarian orchestra with an Italian leader, Swiss waiter and African cook; nothing French but the language on the menu.

It has never been explicitly explained why a woman will tie a nickel in a knot in her handkerchief that she has to untie with her teeth when she only needs street car fare and will run around a circle of department store shopping with a wad of bills, home here, and toilet paraphernalia jammed into a hand natchel with a clasp that is a secure map only for a weak thief.
