Foreword

It is particularly fitting in such a turbulent era to pause and review the more pleasant activities and pictures of the seasons which have just gone by. To this end, to all our fellow workers and to our classmates we present this Twentieth Issue of the Weather Vane Annual.

D E D I C

To a man whose sincerest interest is deeply concerned with the continued welfare of the school, Mr. Brose Thompson, we appreciatively dedicate this Twentieth Issue of the WEATHER VANE ANNUAL.

A T I O N

MR. BROSE THOMPSON

"How much money did the Community Fair make?" Ask Mr. Thompson, he'll know. Somewhere in his files he'll have the figures carefully recorded. "Brose, the Branch Bank," as Mr. Thompson calls himself, is the general school accountant and financier. Soon, as he is taking extension courses, Mr. Thompson expects to become a Certified Public Accountant.

Tending the accumulation of pennies for his Sunday School Class as a child, little Brose, with his natural love of accuracy, found that it was fun to keep records; but anyone who knows Mr. Thompson realizes that he is something more than a human adding machine. Take his homeroom, for instance. The open bag of "slick" butter scotch circlets on his desk is meant for them. Also his lively youngsters, Butch and Jackie, think that "Bo," with his time out for fun, is the best possible Daddy.

One of our versatile dedicatee's sons, sturdy little Butch, threw baseballs twenty-eight feet when he was only two years old. Probably he inherits that arm from his father, who used to play several sports professionally.

In talking over financial problems with Mr. Thompson, we could not help letting other troubles leak out, and it wasn't long before he became known among us for his friendly willingness to talk anything over.

Mr. Thompson's general advice to all students is, "Take one course in every fundamental field of learning. It will prepare a basis for you to build on."

Class of 1941

WILLIAM H. WARNER

We, the Class of 1941, wish to express our sincerest gratitude and deepest appreciation for his untiring efforts in our behalf, for his inspiring leadership, and for his genuine and practical advice in all of our class functions, to our class adviser, Mr. William H. Warner.

With the arrival of June 21, the senior class of 1941 bids farewell to Westfield High School, taking memories and leaving ones that will not soon be forgotten. Many different personalities and interests go to make up this group. Some are scholars; some, athletes; many are both. Scientists, romanticists, egoists, altruists, all form a unit, the Class of '41. This class is perhaps most renowned for its friendliness, for everyone desires to be on good terms with everyone else. The class excels in every form of athletics; and in scholarship, too, it compares favorably with the high standards set by other graduating classes. The members do, it must be admitted, enjoy having a good time a bit too much for their own good. Still, the philosophy of enjoying life while they can is not such a bad one. Class President, Jim Kane; Vice-President, Jack Rogers; Secretary, Jackie Clark; and Treasurer, Jim Wilcox, together with Committee Chairmen Edward Wittke, Joan McCarthy, Murray Parizeau, Ruth Barker, and Ellen Leet, have done their best to make this a most successful year.

INTO THE FUTURE

PHYSICS STUDENT

SADIE HAWKINS' DAY

RED CROSS VOLUNTEER

BETTY AITCHISON

Forum Club (2, 3); Mask and Mime (3, 4);
French Club (2, 3, 4); Latin Club (2, 3, 4);
Annual.

Here's a girl with both pep and personality. Although she worries constantly, she has a cheerful smile for every occasion. It's easy to see why she can keep such a large collection of friends. Betty, the possessor of that curly brown hair, is always on the move. Our official trip-goer proves efficient in everything she undertakes.

ANTHONY ALVANUS

National Honor Society (4); Annual Staff (4);
Academic Committee (4, 3, 2).

Anthony, whose engaging grin lights up an otherwise serious face, works hard at everything he undertakes, whether he is helping the land of his ancestors, the glorious Greeks, or typing for the yearbook. Before tests, one can hear him injecting a little knowledge into less studious brethren in 101 to preserve their fine record.

EVELYN ANDRESEN

Choir (2, 3, 4); Glee Club (2, 3); Correspondence Committee (4).

A tall blonde and an outstanding commercial student is "Evie," whose motto, "I'll do it," typifies her attitude toward school and things in general. Besides being a very important member of the choir and glee club, Evelyn is a demon speed-skater who has won first prize at Lake Telemark, where the ice is by no means the only winter attraction.

SHIRLEY AUSTER

French Club (2, 3, 4); Mask and Mime (2, 3);
Gym Program (2, 3, 4); Red Cross Council (4); Athletic Council (4); Art Club (Secretary 4).

Shirley, of Gay Nineties renown, is what is known as a really "swell" person. She is active in sports and can always be relied upon to "stir up" some excitement. Shirley is attractive and natural and she'll make a perfect nurse, for she inspires confidence in others.

VIRGINIA ANGELL

Latin Club (2); French Club (2, 3, Secretary 4); Gym Program (2, 3); Community Fair (2, 4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); Forum (2, 3, 4); Annual (4).

Our calm, sweet "Ginnie" just won't let herself get disturbed. "Gin," who has black hair and sparkling blue eyes, is an excellent French student. Her spare time is spent working at Howard Johnson's, playing in a swing band, and pursuing camera shy seniors.

MIRIAM AVERY

Modern Dance (3, 4); Forum (Pres. 4); Writers' Club (Pres. 4); Annual (Co-Editor 4); Yearbook Photography (2, 3, 4); Weather Vane (4).

If you are suddenly startled out of a reverie by a humorous or ingenious remark, you may be sure "Mew" is its originator. She pops up, cheerful, co-operative, and sincere, filling all jobs to perfection. Even though busy, she always has time to be friendly.

DONALD BAAKE

Football (2, 3, 4); Track (3, 4); Swimming (2, 3); Spanish Club (3, 4); Athletic Council (4).

Whenever "Lenny" can't be found at home, it's a safe bet that he can be reached at a certain house on East Broad Street. His interest in varied sports is evidenced by participation in football, track, and swimming. A recent satisfaction to Don is his rejuvenated "Chevy" with the tinkling bell and female passengers.

MARIAN BAILEY

Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Junior Prom Committee (3); French Club (2, 3); Weather Vane (2, 3, 4); Ring Committee (2); Red Cross Council (3, 4).

Commonly known as "Manny," she is the girl with a "Wee Bonnie Baker" voice but a full-sized personality. This clever little maid has penned many an amazing piece of literature. We suspect that it's "Manny's" infectious giggle that attracts all the uniforms.

ALICE BAKER

Spanish Club (2); Community Fair (2); Typing Committee (4); Vocational Club (4); Annual.

Her petite bloneness, her elfin grin, and her fine sense of humor make Alice welcome in any group, especially at roller skating rinks and movies where she spends most of her leisure time. Her ambition is to become another Sonja Henie on roller skates. Alice's major job has been keeping track of 101's wanderers.

BARBARA BARNES

French Club (2); Correspondence Committee (3, 4); Basketball (3); Mask and Mime (4); Hockey (4); Dual Sports (3, 4); Annual.

This girl with her distinctive long blonde bob is a gracious hostess who shares her fine collection of records with her many friends. An ardent hockey fan, Barbara can answer all your questions on the "Rangers" and even corresponds with famous players. Barbara migrates to Canada in the summer.

RUTH BARKER

French Club (2, 3, 4); Mask and Mime (3, 4); Latin Club (3, 4); Red Cross (2, 3); G. A. C. (4); National Honor Society (4); Annual (4).

A sunny personality with hair to match makes Ruthie, who is always having fun, everybody's friend. We surely like her. Although her big interest is girls' sports, she takes an active part in every sort of extra-curricular activity and still maintains high scholastic standing.

JOSEPHINE BARRANCO

S. A. T. Drive (2, 3, 4); Spanish Club (3, 4); Mask and Mime (2); Hi's Eye (Assistant Editor 2, 3, 4); National Honor Society; French Club (2); Annual.

The epitome of pep and personality, "Jody" is a grand person. Although much of her time is spent in the journalism room, she receives excellent marks in all subjects. She's a real worker; that's why the hard task of becoming a reporter appeals to her.

JEAN BARRETT

Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); French Club (2, 3, 4); Writers' Club (4); Chorus (4); Red Cross (4).

Musician, choir member, painter, Jean typifies the artist. Her blue eyes are more often than not lost in dreams. Yet with this dreaminess and the tendency to lose herself she combines a directly opposite trait, an untiring energy for work. Her sweet disposition and her willingness to assume responsibility will always make Jean welcome.

NANCY BASS

Cheer Squad (2, 3); G. A. C. (2); Mask and Mime (2, 3); French Club (2, 3).

Nancy's big melting brown eyes are the envy of everyone. Her friendly, natural personality makes Nancy one of our most attractive girls. Indeed, the activities of several Hi-Y meetings have been interrupted because of the ardor of her rival admirers. Last winter "Bassie" showed considerable interest in the progress of the swimming team.

FREDERICK BAUMANN

Catalyst Club (2, 3, 4); Slide Rule Club (4); German Club (2, 3, 4); Band (2, 3, 4).

It takes a big man to support a tuba, much less blow it, and Fred is the man who can do it. Other hobbies are photography and gas model building. An exceptionally polite and amicable fellow, Fred is always ready to do one a favor and is one of the truest friends a boy can have.

LENORE BEARDSLEE

French Club (2); Spanish Club (2, 3); Red Cross Council (2, 3, 4); Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); Girls' Gym Program (2, 3, 4); Annual (4); S. A. T. (2, 3, 4).

"Nene" is that trim blonde who exhibits bright hankies as a note of accent to her becoming clothes and offers abundance of friendliness to all. One source of sunshine in her life, besides Farragut uniforms, is her inexhaustible supply of puns—and oh, what puns!

MIRIAM BEATTYS

German Evening (2, 3, 4); Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); French Club (2); Library Council (2, 3, 4); Modern Dance (2, 3); Girls' Sports (3, 4); Play Cast.

As "Moonyeen" in our senior play, Miriam really showed her dramatic ability. This sunny blonde has other abilities, too, for she won first prize in the American Legion contest. Major interests are modern dancing and Ed. Charming even when angry is our "little pink rose."

WILLIAM BOHANNON

Writers' Club (4); Slide Rule Club (2) Catalyst Club (3, 4); Guidance Committee (4); Community Fair (2, 4); National Honor Society.

This loquacious lad adds mirth to all his classes. Bill is the mathematical "whiz" who astounds us both with his radical theories and his revolts in literature. In spite of his business enterprises and Scout activities, his scholastic diligence keeps him in the "brain trust."

ANITA BOHL

Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); German Department (2, 3, 4); Girls' Gym Program (2, 3, 4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4).

One of our cutest and best-liked seniors, Anita is known for her radiant personality and quiet ways. She is ready to try anything once and can be counted on to add to the fun. Success or failure, Nita manages to smile, even when she makes a low score in bowling.

MARIE BONSALE

Mask and Mime (2).

Smiling "Bonny," who is especially easy to live with and is very thoughtful of others, is also a Rainbow Girl. This trim little lass with every curl in place has done some modeling and would like to do more. Strange though it may seem, "Bonny" is anxiously awaiting the time when it will be possible for her to commute to New York.

WARREN BOWDEN

Band (3, Pres. 4); French Club (2, Treas. 3, 4); Literary Club (Treas. 4); Catalyst Club (Vice-Pres. 4); Slide Rule Club (3); Football (4).

Without fanfare Warren accomplishes a great deal. Musician, meteorologist, naturalist, executive, he seems to excel in many fields. Although serious and dignified on the platform and in the homeroom, he lets off steam in the physics lab. He's an all around good fellow.

MILDRED BOXILL

Latin Club (4); Writers' Club (4); Weather Vane (4); Choir (4); Annual Staff (4); National Honor Society.

From her quietly precise speech to her love for her pussy, Mehitabel, Mildred is essentially English. Although we have always recognized her as an opera enthusiast, we are pleasantly surprised to discover that Mildred herself sings in a lovely soprano voice. Mildred is one important reason why this year-book is.

MARGUERITE BONSALE

Glee Club (2); Art Club (2, 4); Mask and Mime (2, 4).

Marguerite's distinctive personality and charming giggle have won her many friends both in and out of school. Besides this she is an excellent artist whose posters are very justly famed. A prominent member of the Plainfield Rainbow Girls, "Bunny," as she is called by her friends, has helped to enliven the school considerably during her three-year stay.

LEWIS BORNKESSEL

Weather Vane (3, 4); Junior Band (2); Annual (4).

Lewis, who very rarely says a word, can speak authoritatively about art, for he possesses great artistic ability. He has often proved this by his work on linoleum blocks, as an indispensable member of the Weather Vane Staff for the past two years. His posters have won prizes for many years. Point Pleasant and sailing claim Lewis every summer.

GEORGE BREITFELLER

Indoor Track (2, 3, 4); Outdoor Track (2, 3, 4); Wrestling (3, W4); Athletic Council (4); Archaeological Society (2, 3).

George proved that you don't have to be a giant to win a letter in W. H. S. A stellar performer on the wrestling team and a speed demon on the track, he is athletic for his size. An authority on all sports, George predicts the pennant winners before the season begins.

BARBARA BRITTON

National Honor Society; Spanish Club (2, 3, 4); French Club (2, 3); Literary Club (3, 4); Guidance Committee (4); Red Cross Council (4); Annual.

Barb's unlimited energy makes life exciting for her friends as well as herself. Beneath her "kidding" and joking is a girl to whom many look for leadership and turn for aid. Few take so sincere an interest in others. Around her friendship and happiness grow.

JERRY BROWN

Intramural Basketball (3); Homeroom Treasurer (4).

Jerry graduated after mid-years and is now employed in the Westfield Trust Company. His favorite hobby is flying, since he is an aviation enthusiast and already has his student pilot license. Back on terra firma in his ever present Ford, he brings welcome relief to many a weary traveler. With his good humor and friendly grin Jerry can't fail to go far.

FLORENCE BROWNING

Glee Club (2, 4); Choir (2, 4); Chorus (2, 4); Correspondence Committee (4); Literary Club (4); Gym Program (2, 4); Annual (4); Candy Committee (4).

W. H. S. is fortunate in having a fine girl like Florence back with us again. Although she is one of our half-pints, Florence has plenty of pep and personality. Many of her after school hours are spent driving around in her smooth (?) yellow collapsible.

BETTY BRYAN

Red Cross Council (2, 3, 4); G. A. C. (2, 4); Cheer Squad (3, 4); Junior Auxiliary (2, 3, Pres. 4); Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4).

"Come on team, let's fight!" That's our "bouncing Bet" you hear cheering Westfield on with every inch of her never failing energy. As the charming president of the Junior Aux., as the sincere friend of everybody, and as the witty participant in any activity, Betty will be remembered by all.

JEAN BULL

Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Forum (2, 3, Sec. 4); French Club (2, 3, 4); Latin Club (2, 3, 4); Literary Club (4).

Best known for her humorous remarks and snail's pace, Jean is an outstanding member of the Mask and Mime and Forum Clubs and many other activities. The antics of Mademoiselle Bull, who just doesn't seem to know the meaning of the word "hurry," continually distress Mr. Gesner in French class.

ROBERT BUTCHER

Weather Vane (2, 3, 4); Cheer Leader (2, 3, Captain 4); Red Cross Council (2, 3); Mask and Mime Play (4); Track (2, 3, 4); Slide Rule Club (4).

"Butch" is that fellow around whom many school activities rotate. Being popular with the faculty and the students, Bob assumes many varied responsibilities. A "sharp" dresser and "killer" dancer, he is definitely a person who impresses women. In fact, every day is Ladies' Day with him.

ROBERT CALKINS

Swimming (W2); Football (3); Hi-Y (3, 4).

Bob knows all there is to be known about wood working and machine tools. He has put his valuable practical knowledge to work in decorating the Gym for Hi-Y dances and various other school affairs. An especially ardent swing fan, Bob has ingeniously constructed his own record player and is often seen with a portable radio in study periods.

BETTY MAE CARLTON

Choir (2, 3, 4); Glee Club (2, 3, 4).

Betty Mae, an indispensable member of the choir and the glee club during all her three years in high school, has quietly but surely found herself a secure and permanent niche in our school life. Although Betty is perhaps better known to commercial students than to other pupils, her unobtrusive helpfulness and her broad and cheering smile have brought her many friends.

RUTH CARTER

G. A. C. (2); Art Club (2); Mask and Mime (2, 3); Modern Dance (Captain 3, Manager 4); Literary Club (4); Spanish Club (4).

Ziping down the street in the family Buick is Jinny's favorite pastime. Many weary scholars have been thankful for her succor. Indeed, everyone knows her democratic manner, her readiness to help the other fellow. Mix these qualities with a mania for telling jokes and you have Jinny, a grand companion.

NANCY BYCK

Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Forum (3, 4); Catalyst Club (3, 4); French Club (3, 4); Annual (4); Modern Dance (2, 3, 4); Gym Program (2, 3, 4).

With those impish eyes twinkling at us we forgive Nancy anything. Whether Nance is discussing politics, dissecting worms, or composing and executing dances, she knows what she is about. Nancy can't decide whether to be a ballet artist, a bacteriologist or a farmer's wife.

DORIS CASAN

To say that "Dora" is a dancer is putting it mildly. She is the girl with a sixth sense for rhythm. Anyone of her dancing pupils will testify that having Doris as a toe teacher is fun. Doris is also a real "trouper" in the radio world and has tapped many times before the "mike." Some day we are sure that "Dora" will be the great dancer she is now becoming.

BERNICE CLARK

"Bunny" is one of our more lively seniors. She is full of fun and rarin' to do almost anything. Never left out of the current "goings on" because of her unfailing energy and vigor, Bernice is seldom seen without her patient escort, "Jerry." Polite and dark-haired, Bernice came to Westfield from Metuchen in her junior year and was surely our very great gain and Metuchen's great loss.

JOHN COLEMAN

Football (W2, 3); Basketball (W2, W3); Baseball (W2, W3).

"J. C." will be remembered for his activities on the gridiron, diamond, and basketball court of W. H. S. Who could forget his speed and endurance in basketball, football, or baseball? Always known as a stylish dresser, Johnnie prides himself on his green pants and bright ties. Although his education was discontinued last March, he was back in the harness this September.

JANE COLLINS

Red Cross Council (2, 3); Latin Club (3, 4); Mask and Mime (4); Athletic Committee (4); Girls' Athletics (2, 3, 4); Gym Program (2, 3, 4).

Jane, one of our ready participants in girls' athletics, has a cheerful smile for all. Her smile very often goes the way of "Lennie" in the blue Chevrolet. Respected as a good sport and loyal friend, Jane is well known, too, for her wisecracks and sense of humor.

TED CONOVER

Football (2, 3, W4); Wrestling (3, Captain W4); Track (2, 3, 4); Athletic Council (4).

Tossing Mr. Adams around is one of Ted's diversions, for he is our heavyweight wrestler. He played more football than any other chap on the team, so he rates praise from Mr. Duncan. Apparently the only place where Ted lacks aggressiveness is the social field where he continually eludes designing females.

JACQUELINE CLARKE

French Club (2, 3, 4); Mask and Mime (3, 4); Red Cross Council (4); Senior Play Cast (4); Gym Program (3, 4); Class Secretary (4).

Our secretary works because she wants to and is enthusiastic about everything. With her black hair and violet eyes, Jackie made a perfect "Kathleen" in our play. "Sure an' it's the Irish in me," explains Jackie in her ready brogue. Whatever it is, Jackie, we're for it!

WALTER COON

Band (2, 3); Community Fair (4).

"Walt" is the likable young fellow who is identified by his trumpet and his Buick. He is very fond of cowboy movies and long trips through the South. He is also the live-wire of the chemistry lab and one of Miss Hemphill's favorite Spanish students. Walter has been working toward Rutgers, and it is rumored that he will become an M. D.

CLIFTON CORBETT

French Club (2, 3, 4); Band (2, 3, Vice-Pres. 4); Latin Club (2); Choir (3); Catalyst Club (3, Treas. 4); Literary Club (4); Senior Play (B. M. 4).

"Cliff" gained recognition as first trumpet player in the band. As business manager of our play, he displayed executive ability. He employed his spare time tooting his trumpet and delving into "ham" radio. Many's the girl who would trade her eyes for his big blue ones.

MALCOLM CORDUAN

Community Fair (2); S. A. T. Drive (2).

"Mac," our part-time sailor, supplements his nautical knowledge with a thorough understanding of all firearms and weapons. Modern pistols, old rifles, swords, and shells are in "Mac's" collection. One of the skillful few who dare to play with the "rip-saw," Malcolm is often seen around the shop. By the way, Malcolm, we'd all like to know the joke.

JOY COWIE

Band (2, 3, 4); Gym Program (2); Community Fair (2); Hockey (2).

The tittering twittering of the flute or the soaring strains of the piccolo as well as the melodic tunes of the piano remind us of Joy. As a leading member of the band, Joy has cheered the heart of many a draftee departing for service at Camp Dix. Besides being talkative and very amiable, Joy possesses an entrancing giggle.

LEMUEL CRICKENBERGER

Basketball (2); Vocational Club (4).

Lem, who can speak both high and low, thanks to Miss Johnson, is quite a basketball enthusiast and player. Brushing back his blond hair and blushing furiously, Lemuel DeWitt will admit that a certain junior does possess attractions. "Si" in the family tradition has carried the mail bags for Uncle Sam from time to time and may make this his life's work.

JOHN CUNNINGHAM

Nominating Committee (2); Intramural Baseball (2, 3); Intramural Basketball (3); National Honor Society.

Jack or "Cutty" as he is called, is a dark Scot straight from Renfrew who loves to argue with almost anyone about almost anything. John is a sports fan whose skill as a ping-pong player is equalled only by his excellence in his school work. He is among those at the top.

DOROTHY DARLING

Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); French Club (3, 4); Baseball (4); Guidance Committee (4); Girls' Sports (2, 3).

Dottie's charming personality makes friends for her wherever she goes. Often seen riding around in her "Olds," Dottie is usually on her way to the Club for a set of tennis. This gay young girl usually spends her summers at Basin Harbor, but we wonder whether she "ken" stand it now.

CONNIE DEAN

French Club (2, 3, 4); Latin Club (2, 3, 4); Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Literary Club (3, V. Pres. 4); Girl Reserves (4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); Senior Play Cast.

Smooth looking, with wicked, long fingernails and oodles of hand-knit sweaters, Connie has a passion for collecting the hearts of unsuspecting underclassmen. She receives fan mail, too! Glamorous Connie's cooperative spirit and artistic ability will surely carry her far wherever she goes.

GEORGE DEAN

George, "Dizzy Dean," (no relation to the baseball star), spends a major portion of his active life at a gas station trying to start his "flivver," one of Mr. Ford's famous "Model A's." When despite all his skill, he occasionally fails, George never lacks a ride. Even through the worst of these trials, George manages to keep smiling and talking. One of "Dizzy's" greatest skills is putting oil filters on cars. Ask "Sonny" Coon.

RUTH DEMPSEY

Community Fair (2, 4); Spanish Club (3, 4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Gym Program (2, 3, 4).

Dividing her time between Scotch Plains and Westfield, Dempie is kept busy. Besides these interests she has skating and skiing and journalism to take up her time. This curly-haired lass has a sunny smile that endears her to all her friends. She is a great help in time of trouble.

LOIS DU PUY

Glee Club (2); Finance Committee (3, 4); Spanish Club (4); G. A. C. (2); Community Fair (4); Swimming Club (2).

"Dupy" can best be described by the term super personality. This peppy senior, known for her humorous and timely remarks, can be seen any afternoon driving around in her green 41 "Olds" with a group of friends. A favorite with both girls and fellows, "Dup" is popular wherever she goes.

RICHARD DINZL

Catalyst Club (3, 4); Annual Photography (2, 3, 4).

With camera and light meter in hand, our "flash" photographer covers school events in the best photographic technique. However, photography is not the only field in which Richard has become a school necessity, for he is one of the few able to coax amplifying systems into action, and he alone understands the intricacies of recording cheer practices and choirs.

CELEE EASON

Intramural Basketball (2, 3).

Behind that seemingly lazy, impassive countenance lurks an alert and sharp brain. Celee has quite a reputation as a golfer, and his shooting eye in our "cracker box" basketball court is unerring. Even though he seems to be almost asleep at times, his friends say he is a fellow worth knowing. Celee also has a reputation for politeness and amiability.

ANNE EDWARDS

Literary Club (4); Swimming Team (4); Mask and Mime (3).

Anne, who came into town last year in her old jalopy, "Snake Hips," from "way out West in California," has since become the center of many activities. Giggling, "gabbing," and being ready to try anything once are "Red's" specialties. Justly famed for her hospitality, willingness to help, and cheery hello, Anne is also a very enthusiastic horse and dog lover.

JANET EHLEN

French Club (3, 4); Art Club (3); Gym Program (4); Red Cross Council (4).

Our fashion artist is known for her keen sense of humor and gay laugh as well as for talent for drawing. Janet, a veritable mermaid, spends her winters skating on the water and her summers swimming in it. Willingness to help and cheerfulness have made Janet a favorite with the faculty and her many friends.

GRACE EMMONS

Hockey (2, 3, Mgr. 4); Basketball (2, 3, 4); Volley Ball (2, 3, 4); Baseball (2, 3, 4); G. A. C. (4); Spring Sports (2, 3).

Our graceful County Champion speed skater is just as active on terra firma as she is on ice. Grace is often seen riding with a carload of girls in her "Studey." Except for her one weakness "down South," Gracie is a perpetual man-hater. If you want a descriptive nick-name ask Gracie.

HERB EPSTEIN

Indoor Track (2, 3); Latin Club (3); Slide Rule Club (4); Forum (4); Catalyst Club (4); Community Fair (4); Junior Prom Committee (3); Civic Committee (2).

Herb, who seldom refuses a bet on any subject, is the neatly dressed boy who can be found sleeping in Mr. Thompson's economics class. He has a ready grin, and is popular with everyone, especially Brooklyn fans. Look for him in Cranford.

JACK ENNIS

Slide Rule Club (2, 3, Vice-Pres. 4); Catalyst Club (3, 4); Track (3, W4); Cheer Squad (2, 3, W4); Red Cross Council (2, 3); Annual (4); Community Fair (4).

Jack finds school life rewarding. His scholastic record and feats as a tracks'er and a cheer leader bear out this truth. Beating the hides takes up his spare time, but he hasn't yet come into the big time. His cheery smile, set off by very blond hair, impresses us all.

NANCY ESTWICK

Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Latin Club (2); Spanish Club (4); Red Cross Council (2).

Whenever you want a ride anywhere, Nancy is ready, willing, and able to give it to you in her tan Plymouth coupe. She's been a definite asset to the dramatic department and has given splendid performances in each year of high school. She always has a good word for everyone and knits like a professional.

ALFRED EVANS

Baseball (2, 3, 4); Basketball (2, 3, 4); Academic Committee (3); Athletic Council (2, 4).

"Railroad" is the ace of the W. H. S. pitching staff. Between pitches, he listens to his collection of Benny Goodman records. He is conscientious about his studies, but was obliged to take a vacation, a "measly" one. His willingness to help and friendliness to others guarantee him a successful career in the future.

ELIZABETH EVERT

Gym Program (2, 3, 4); Junior Aux. (3, 4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4).

With her gay infectious laughter and sparkling personality, "Libby" is one of our best-known seniors. This brunette possessor of beautiful brown eyes, incidentally, is always well dressed and finds a great attraction in swimming meets. A grand sport, "Lib" takes a great deal of teasing and accepts her numerous nicknames with a smile. Happy landings, "Lib."

WILLIAM EVERT

Track (3, 4); Finance Committee (3); Red Cross Council (2); Athletic Council (2).

Although many students receive the title, Bill is one of the few who really deserve to be called witty. His large supply of jokes may be called upon to enliven any dull moments in every class of which he is a member. A flashy driver and track star, Bill is admired by all his classmates.

DAVID EWING

Intramural Baseball (2, 3, 4); Intramural Basketball (2, 3).

Dave is described by his friends as "the ideal type to be a writer of advice to the love-lorn column." This interesting appellation is due merely (we hope) to Dave's willingness to take on almost any task, a quality which makes him a sought-after co-operator. Dave is also esteemed for his neat dress and pleasing manner.

MIRIAM FETZER

Cheer Squad (2, 3, 4); French Club (2); Mask and Mime (2, 3); Hockey (2, 3, 4); Dual Sports (2, 3, 4).

"Meum," one of our most popular seniors, who displayed her pep and never-failing enthusiasm as co-captain of the cheer squad this year, is an authority on methods of getting up. Incidentally, if you give "Meum" a Vic and Glenn Miller's "Nearness of You," she'll be quite content.

MARY ELLA FLETCHER

Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Writers' Club (3, 4); Literary Club (4); French Club (3); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4).

"Marty," whose soulful blue eyes seem always to be seeing fairies and gnomes, has been with us off and on since her sophomore year, alternating between here and Buffalo. From a propensity for taking walks in the rain, have developed delicate stories and poems, revealing Mary's artistic temperament.

BETTY FOWLER

Glee Club (2, 3, 4); Hockey (2, 3); Photoplay Club (2, 3, 4); Red Cross Council (2, 3); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4).

Characteristically, Betty is very quiet and unobtrusive about her liking for tennis. Few people know it, but she is an ice-hockey enthusiast as well as a tennis fan. She prefers the New York Rangers. Indeed, many sports claim Betty's attention. However, she also enjoys singing in the Glee Club.

GILDA GALIZIA

Community Fair (2); G. A. C. (2); Basketball (2, 4).

"Gil," the "shorty" of the senior class, is not only an ardent movie fan, but also an excellent dancer. Her varied interests include digging in her garden in summer (for she is a real outdoor girl) and swimming, basketball, and tennis. Gilda's attractive black hair and super-abundant energy attract friends just as honey attracts clusters of flies.

TOM GARTLAND

Latin Club (Treas., 3); Baseball (3); Community Fair (4); Basketball (4).

Fourth period speech class shows Tom to be one of Miss Johnson's pet worries, for "dead pan" Tom delights in giving impromptu speeches on his non-existent word collection. As a basketball player, Tom has been a leader in the intramurals this winter. Typically Tom wrote his senior essay on "Wild Elephant Hunting in Africa."

CHARLES GIBBS

Basketball Manager (2, 3, W4); Mask and Mime (3, 4); Junior Prom Committee; Band (2, 3); Community Fair (4).

This young swing fan and expert drummer is still looking forward to the day when his ancient model "T" Ford will run again. He has a good collection of the autographs of famous swing musicians and is best known to his classmates as the senior manager of our basketball team.

EDWARD FROMM

Band (2, 3, 4); German Evening (3); Community Fair (2, 4); Senior Play (2, 3, 4); Latin Club (2).

"Cyclops" has won innumerable friends with his long hair and jovial sense of humor. Definitely the class musician, Ed is at home on trombone or bass, and is an ardent swing critic. Living as he pleases, in a world of "hot licks" and lemon cokes without ice, Ed enjoys life as only a musician can.

BILL GARDNER

Catalyst Club (3); Latin Club (2, 3, Treas. 4); Band (2, 3, 4); Orchestra (4); Slide Rule Club (3, 4); Academic Committee (2, 4).

Bill's ambition is to bowl a 200 game. Although short in stature, he can blow a trumpet with the best of them. His marks show his interest in school work, and he plans to attend Rutgers. An ardent baseball fan, Bill pulls for the Giants.

DORIS GIVAN

Modern Dancing (3, 4); Fencing (4).

"Givie," one of 41's most talented artists is well liked and has a gift for making friends easily. Gay and attractive, Doris is a competent typist and her skillful fingers have typed many pages for the Weather Vane. She is interested in office work but studies art outside of school as well as inside. Her wide range of interests is evidence of her pep and vitality.

JAMES GRAVES

James is a bad person to get in an argument with if you intend to win. Nevertheless he is a wonderful friend and he always has a beaming smile. His energetic combination of a sharp wit and fun-loving spirit make him welcome in any group. His friends know Jim as "Joe" since that's what he calls others. Sports to "Joe" are most important and he has the spirit for them. Best of luck, Jim!

ED GLENN

Track (2, 3); Art Club (2, 3); Slide Rule Club (2, 3); Boys' Athletic Council (3); Community Fair (4).

Our chief Hi's Eye snooper helps out at any time with a cheery, "Oh, sure, I'll do it." Ed plays gypsy music on the guitar, curries mules, digs swimming pools, and talks to Miriam between times. Ed has certainly proved a most amiable and interesting addition from the South.

HENRY GORDON

Hi-Y (4); Mask and Mime (2, 3, Council 4); Slide Rule Club (4); Football (Mgr. 2, 3, 4); Senior Play (3, 4).

"Hank," our popular "hardworking" football manager, has also been a backstage mainstay of the Mask and Mime Club for the past three years. An ace-high bluffer, he can get more done with less work than anyone we know. "Hank" is Annapolis bound, we hope, and we know he'll be a success there.

BILL GRAHAM

Mask and Mime (4); Senior Play (Stage Manager 4); Community Fair (2, 4); Annual.

Bill, the master woodworker, is the energetic young fellow who is seen buzzing around W. H. S. in a Ford called "Bessie." It is rumored that he has a passion for long trips and that he can take his car apart, put it together again, and find that it works almost as well as ever.

BOB GREENE

Slide Rule Club (4).

Bob is one of these big, jovial fellows always ready for fun. His friends claim that he may usually be found in some traffic court. It is true that Bob does seem to possess all the necessary qualities for a first rate race-track driver. Few people know of Bob's skill as a bowler although much of his time is spent at the bowling alley.

LAURA HACH

French Club (2, 3); Mask and Mime (3, 4); Library Council (3).

Peaches and cream blend to make Laura's skin the envy of her feminine classmates. Among her accomplishments are knitting, dancing, and music. Though Laura seldom sings in public, she possesses one of the loveliest voices in the senior class. That she is also an actress whose aplomb is exceptional was demonstrated in 191 when she assumed the role of Maria.

JANET HAMILTON

French Club (4); Gym Program (4); Annual (4); Volley Ball (4).

A newcomer to Westfield, Janet has speedily become popular with those who know her. She is a good student and her sophisticated wit makes her piles of fun. In addition to many other interests she likes dancing and "smooth" music. Although she is missed in Rhode Island, she has made a place for herself in Westfield and we think she belongs here.

JERE HANSON

Cheer Squad (2, 3, Co-captain 4); Senior Play Cast (4); Finance Committee (4); Mask and Mime (2, Council 3, 4); Track (2, W3, W4); Hi-Y (3, 4); Football (4).

Jere, the flashy man with the flashy clothes, is also quite the flash on the cinders and has almost invariably come through with those tallies which carry the Blue and White over the top. Stag or drag, Jere is always the life of the party—popular too.

BETH HARDIE

French Club (2, 3, 4); Mask and Mime (3, 4); Forum (3).

She is dark and slim, with a friendly smile for everyone she meets. Beth can usually be found handling the "props" for the Mask and Mime productions and other school programs. She has proved herself an able and co-operative property manager. Beth loves swing music and follows all the orchestras. At capturing masculine hearts, her ability is noted.

BERNICE HALL

Mask and Mime (2, 4); French Club (2, 3, 4); Latin Club (2).

Five feet two inches of personality and charm help make this little senior one of the grandest girls to know. Although she doesn't like chemistry, she is determined to become a nurse, and is preparing for such a career. "Niece" spends most of her summer in Dover. She enjoys swimming, and lately turns up everywhere driving her car.

BRUCE HARGAN

Intramural Baseball (2); Community Fair (4).

Bruce's pet enthusiasm is his nifty little sail boat, "Star-Dust," which he handles with the art of a master boatman. According to "Caboose" there is no better way to spend the summer than sailing around the bay. We hear that Bruce has had experience running a store, too. Spanish class finds Bruce on the "dormir-ing" side, but that's just Spanish.

ALICE HARKRADER

Red Cross (2, 3, 4); Mask and Mime (3, 4); French Club (2, 3); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); G. A. C. (2, 3, 4).

If you ever want a good white cake, see 'Ozzie.' This pretty girl with naturally wavy hair is noted for dependability and thoroughness in carrying out any kind of job. Whenever it snows, she is sure to be seen on some local hill, for skiing claims most of her interest.

RUTH HEFELE

Choir (2, 3, 4); Glee Club (2, 3, 4); Academic Committee (2); Photoplay Club (4).

"Ruthie's" motto, "Better later than never," illustrates perfectly her easy-going rather procrastinating disposition. Swimming is her favorite sport although roller-skating claims much of her spare time. This ardent movie fan is noted for her sweet soprano voice which must often be employed in singing lullabies to her charming young niece and nephew.

CAROL HENRY

Cheer Squad (2, 3, 4); G. A. C. (3); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); Mask and Mime (2, 3); Latin Club (3, 4); Athletic Committee (3).

Being "sugar and spice and everything nice," pretty Carol is a favorite with both boys and girls. Known to all as a cheer leader, she graced the squad with her charms and ability. We know Carol will be successful at Skidmore, for she possesses the knack of making people like her.

MIRIAM HERDER

Latin Club (2, 3, 4); Band (2, 3); Photoplay Club (4).

One of the smallest members of our class, Miriam is nevertheless an accomplished clarinet player in the W. H. S. band. Although school work does not fascinate her, she cannot complain of her marks. In addition to growing lemon trees from seeds and having a fondness for writing on gloomy subjects, the movies and roller skating claim much of Miriam's time and interest.

RICHARD HARRIS

Latin Club (2); Spanish Club (2); S. A. T. (4).

Dick's suave features and tall figure place him in the ranks of the good-looking seniors. He is the owner and driver of one of the "smoothest" cars in the possession of a high school student, and you may be sure Dick doesn't often drive in it alone. Geniality is one of the qualities which make Dick a popular boy.

ROBERT HEWISON

Robert is known to his best friends as "Slugger." This is another inaccurate appellation as Bob is very neat in his dress and is fond of attractive clothes. Bob is an advocate of permanent steam-heating, loves the summer's warmth and dislikes the cold snow of winter. Bob's main ambition in life is not unique, but it indicates his sensible attitude toward life. He wants to get a good job and keep it!

FLOYD HEWITT

Floyd is one of those lucky persons of such an amicable nature that no one can help liking him, and he is rarely seen except when smiling and cracking jokes. In school Floyd, who is a bit of a day-dreamer, often has a far-away look in his eyes that means he is thinking of hunting and fishing. Floyd is a member of the loyal order of "doodlers," folks who make funny marks on a piece of paper.

BETSY ANN HOLDEN

Community Fair (2, 4); Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); French Club (2, 3, 4); Literary Club (3); Senior Play (4); Gym Program (2, 3, 4); Annual (4).

Betsy Ann, with her grand sense of humor and clever jokes, is good company to have around at all times. Among her numerous interests are ice skating and dancing. Her winning personality and sincerity have gained her many very good friends.

FRANCIS HILL

Football (2).

With a smoldering soldering iron and a freakish maze of circuits, "Franny" can be found in the midst of his paradise, pursuing his hobby of amateur radio. Francis aspires to become a full-fledged radio "ham" as a step toward his future vocation. Always in a hurry is Francis, whose blue eyes, dancing ability, and sense of humor are the envy of the girls.

ROBERT HILL

Annual (Business Manager 4); Forum (3, 4).

Bob is one of the really indefatigable seniors who help to make teachers' lives less miserable. He really attends strictly to business. Outside of school he is extremely active in dramatics and church work. Recently it has been discovered that Bob is the possessor of a fine baritone voice of extensive range which he intends to cultivate. Business advising will be his vocation; music, his avocation.

HARRY HOLCOMB

Football (2, 3, W4); Track (2, 3, 4); Weather Vane (2, 3, Editor-in-Chief 4); Literary Club (3, Pres. 4); Senior Play Cast (4).

A cheerful funster and punster, who likes a good time and usually has it, Harry is an editor, actor, football star, and all around good fellow. Vitalis finds a walking testimonial in "well-groomed-hair" Harry. We hope for success for our personality boy, Holcomb.

WALTER HOWARTH

Basketball (2, 3); Intramural Baseball (3).

Walter, for obscure reasons better known to his friends as "Mush," is a tall blond boy with a strong pitching arm which he used to bring his team, the "Spitfires," to victory in the intramural contest. This stentorian-voiced lad has proved himself a true and loyal friend on many occasions, and is already a successful business man.

HARRY HUNT

Baseball (2, 3, 4); Archaeological Society (Pres. 4); Academic Committee (4); Intramural Basketball (2, 3).

Harry has made himself a most valuable member of our class by undertaking all those necessary but disagreeable tasks others refuse. Notable was his work this year on the efficient sales-promotion of our Senior Play. Harry enjoys sports, and although not a star athlete can always be relied upon.

MIRIAM HUNTER

Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Athletics (2, 3, 4); Literary Club (3, 4); Chairman Senior Play Publicity; Hi's Eye; Annual.

This effervescent, good-natured member of our class is very outstanding in many activities, enjoys all sports, and is one of our best students. Miriam loves her dog, chocolate-chip cookies, and health food. Her only real desire is to be on something other than publicity committees.

MARGARET HUSSON

Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Red Cross Council (2, 3, Vice-Pres. 4); Band (3, 4); Gym Program (2, 3, 4); North Jersey Field Hockey (3, 4); Junior Prom.

Despite many club activities, Peg is one of the few people who may be classified as an all-around sportswoman. Starring in hockey, she has made the North Jersey Honorary Hockey Team. During football season Peg could be seen marching with the band as bell-player.

ROBERT INGRAHAM

Basketball (3); Guidance Committee (4); Community Fair (4); Intramural Sports (3, 4).

Bob, one of our most ardent supporters of intramural sports, participates most actively in basketball, and is really a "super-swisher." Laughing Boy, as he is called, is the lanky individual seen rambling about W. H. S. with a railroad cap perched on his head. During the "Kane for President" movement Bob was one of Jim's most sincere backers.

RUTHANNE HYSLIP

S. A. T. (2); Music Festival (3, 4); Choir (2, 3, 4).

Possessor of a sweet soprano voice and an ability to play the piano well, Ruthanne is an accomplished member of the music department. However, the arts do not claim all of her attention, for she has many other interests, including church work. Just ask her to quote something from the Bible; she'll do it with no effort at all.

FRANK IRVING

Latin Club (4); Catalyst Club (Sec. 4); Finance Committee (3); Indoor Track (3, 4); Outdoor Track (3, 4).

Frank's nature is quiet and unassuming; but when the surface is scratched, a ready wit and smile burst forth. An authority on guns and dogs, he is also a qualified adviser to the "lovelorn." With his excellent marks, we're sure he'll make out in Harvard next year.

MARY ISOLDI

Community Fair (2); Spanish Club (2); Vocational Club (4).

Quietness, unfailing dependability and trustworthiness are words that Mary's friends use to describe her. She never denies a request for aid no matter how busy she is with her many activities and goes to any extreme to keep a promise. Mary's dark hair and bright smile, as well as her helpfulness, have made her very popular with her classmates.

MARION JENKINS

Mask and Mime (3, 4); French Club (3, 4); Latin Club (3, 4); Writers' Club (Secretary 4); National Honor Society; Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4).

A sunny Chicagoan from the shores of Lake Michigan, Marion in the two years since she came here has managed to enter enthusiastically into almost every school activity, maintaining high marks all the while. We can't imagine a good play without her able prompting.

FRANK JONES

Football (2, 3); Track (2, 3, 4); Athletic Council (2, 3); Hi's-Eye (2, 3, Editor-in-Chief 4).

Frank is one track manager that doesn't just sit around and he is our best "miler." He is known by everyone for his persevering work on the Hi's Eye and the Social Committee of De Molay. Much of the credit for the success of the Senior Day Dance is due to our altruistic friend, Frank.

JIM KANE

President (4); Football (2, W3, W4); Basketball (W2, W3, W4); Track (2, W3, W4); Athletic Council; Hi-Y (Vice-Pres. 4).

"Jim," better known as "Fritz Kuhn," is one of our class's leading citizens. An outstanding figure in everything he undertakes, his time is divided between his duties as class president and captain of both football and basketball teams. One can usually find Jim riding around in his well-filled green convertible.

VIRGINIA KELCEY

Red Cross Council (2, 3, 4); French Club (2, 3); Spanish Club (3, 4); Gym Program (3, 4); Mask and Mime (3, Sec. 4); Jr. Aux. (4).

"Ginny" is a girl who is liked by all for her genuine interest in everyone and everything. Not only is she handy with her needle, but she also draws pictures of her classmates with finesse. New and glamorous bangs are Ginny's much-envied possession this year.

WALTER KELLY

Collectors' Club (2, 3); Swimming (3, 4); Intramural Basketball (3); Track (4).

Tall, quiet Walter Kelly is well known, liked, and admired throughout Westfield High School not only because of his fine swimming ability in the 100 and 220-yard free-style, but also because of his constant amiability and general good-will towards all. "He can't do a thing" with the unruly locks which enhance his rugged features.

HARRY KLINGER

Football (2); Track (3); Latin Club (2); Literary Club (4).

Harry is one of our air-minded seniors who hopes to make aviation his life's work. His ability to play the accordion like a master is well known as is his friendly personality. This hard and loyal worker is also noted for his speed at sports. The best wishes from everyone for success in his career go to Harry.

JOSEPHINE LANZA

Baseball (4).

Josephine, known as "Pep" to her friends, is small of form with masses of black, glossy hair and a winning smile. "Pep" is a baseball enthusiast and is a regular on Friday nights at the roller skating rink. If one is looking for an excellent friend and a good jitterbug, he will have to seek no farther, for Josephine possesses the desired qualities and more.

TOM LA ROE

Red Cross Council (3); Football (3); Slide Rule Club (2, 3, 4); Hi-Y (4); Baseball (2, 3, Mgr. 4); Football (Mgr. 2).

Tom, dealer in renovated autos, is an experienced mechanic. His activities, however, are not limited to one field. As baseball manager his abilities have been proved. At present Drexel attracts Tom. His high scholarship achievements, ever-present good humor, and ability for making friends will lead Tom to success.

JOHN LEE

Typing Committee (Chairman 4); Intramural Baseball; Basketball (2, 3).

John is the one you always see whizzing around the halls because he's forever in a hurry to get somewhere. He's a skillful woodworker and a boy who gives his best to every sport he tries. If you're ever looking for John, he's pretty sure to be at a gas station on 29 any afternoon.

JOHN LEACH

Track Team (W3, W4); Archaeological Society (4); Guidance Committee (4).

Jack, whose specialty we are told is twisting wires—and a profitable specialty it is—has made a name for himself as an outstanding track star. Off the track a grand sense of humor and a perpetual laugh have done much to win him many devoted friends. Jack's favorite spot for recreation is Newark.

ELLEN LEET

Forum (3, 4); Chairman Guidance Committee (4); Girls' Sports (3); Latin Club (2, 3); French Club (2).

A quiet, sincere manner and a cheerful word for all denote Ellen Leet. Her dependability and co-operative spirit have made her popular with everyone. Not only in classes but also in outside activities, Ellen is outstanding. If you want to hear her talk, ask her about books or Maine.

HENRIETTA LEON

French Club (2, 3, 4); Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Red Cross Council (2, 3, 4); Choir (4); Correspondence Committee (4); Gym Program (4).

With "dark eyes" as her theme, tall stately Henrietta has pursued her successful high school career. "Etta's" outstanding talents are in the musical field, for she is an excellent singer as well as an accomplished pianist. "Putting" in her green Ford is "Etta's" favorite sport.

NORMAN LEY

Swimming (2, 3, 4); Prom Chairman (3); Slide Rule Club (3, Sec.-Treas. 4); Wrestling (3); Academic Committee (3); Chairman S. A. T. (4); Hi-Y (3, Sec. 4).

"Normone," whose fine job as prom chairman proved his worth, has begun to receive the recognition due him. Norm actively participates in the Hi-Y, Y. M. C. A., and Senior Scouting programs. Swimming is his favorite sport, and his favorite pastime is rendering Rachmaninoff on the keyboard.

FRANCES LOESCH

Cheer Squad (2, 3, 4); Jr. Aux. (4); G. A. C. (3); Weather Vane (2, 3, 4); Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4).

Everyone who knows Fran, of the contagious laugh, will agree that she has the kind of personality that makes friends for her in a minute. Her regular attendance at dances may be due to dancing talent, but is mostly due to Fran's popularity with boys as well as girls.

HOWARD LOUNSBERY

Football (2, 3); Baseball (2); Track (2); Wrestling (4); Band (4); Orchestra (4).

Although "Huch" is rather obscure in W. H. S., our Krupa enthusiast is well known as the Jimmy Lynch of Westfield. He may be found almost any afternoon hurrying around the Electric and Gift Shop. But the Gift Shop isn't "Huck's" only habitat, for when not there he is sure to be at a certain Cape Cod cottage.

WILLIAM LEWIS

Junior Band (3); Correspondence Committee (4).

"Louie" is one of our leading advocates of "Le Jazz Hot," having gained an enviable knowledge of the leading swing bands and "hot" soloists of today. A large collection of records and a drum set, on which he practices diligently, are his most prized possessions. His other interests are centered around Boy Scout work, "jive" talk, and his family's new car.

LOUIS LITTLETON

Football (2, 3); Swimming (3, 4); Catalyst Club (3, 4); Spanish Club (3, Pres. 4); Track (3).

Lou, our physics master, can claim other attributes besides brains. His wonderful sense of humor has won him many friends; maybe that is why he is such a favorite on the swimming team. With all this, he is sure to get the most out of life. Good luck at Annapolis, Lou.

BARBARA LUESSENHOP

National Honor Society (4); G. A. C. (4); Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Annual (4); Red Cross (2, 3, 4); Latin Club (Sec. 3); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4).

Lovely hair, smooth appearance, and beautiful clothes make you think of friendly "Barb" in a second. Besides "B. L." can Lindy and is the official teacher for all her pals. If you want a lesson, see her and she'll make you a dancing star in no time.

BARBARA MASON

Mask and Mime (2, 3, President (4); French Club (2, 3); Latin Club (3); Red Cross Council (2, 3, 4); G.A.C. (2); Girls' Athletics (2, 3, 4).

We all recognize "Maisie" as one of our most dependable and likeable seniors. No half-done job for our Mask and Mime president. Barb is an able sportswoman too. Her latest swimming accomplishment is the "Back Jack." Barbara will always be an indispensable help.

BRYCE MacDONALD

National Honor Society; Football (Mgr. 4); Catalyst Club (3, 4); Slide Rule Club (3, Pres. 4); Weather Vane (2, 3, Bus. Mgr. 4); Prom Committee (3).

"Mac Duff's" report card attests his proficiency in his studies, and his classmates recognize his efficiency in other fields. Though he professes to be an uncompromising woman-hater, we think a bonnie lassie will catch him some day. Even his "chalk-screaming" will not deter her.

SHIRLEY MAGZEN

Mask and Mime (2); Art Club (2); Music Festival (3); Guidance Committee (4); Girls' Gym Program (4); Modern Dancing (4).

Truly Shirley is the life of the party. Her abounding good spirits and her dancing of the conga, waltz, or rhumba—at all of which she is expert—help to make her a tremendous success wherever she goes. Noted as a "fixer-upper" of broken hearts, Shirley is famous for her dimples.

EDITH MARSH

Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); Mask and Mime (4); Latin Club (2, 3, 4); Annual (4); French Club (2, 3); Forum Club (4); Correspondence Committee (4).

Happy-go-lucky Edie always sees the bright side of things and by her perennial gaiety and charming manner, she captivates all. Her capacity for work, well done, seems to be unending, whether it be towards academic aims, or towards accomplishment in other fields.

ROBERT MATTERN

Catalyst Club (2, 3, 4); German Evening (2, 3); Community Fair (2, 4); Slide Rule Club (2, 3, 4); Forum (2, 3, 4).

Christies, stem turns, gelandesprung, nothing is too difficult for our ski enthusiast. When there is no snow, Bob may be found pushing his way through the underbrush in the Watchung Mountains on one of his numerous hikes. Bob's readiness for hard work will carry him far in his engineering career.

JOAN McCARTHY

Spanish Club (2, 3, Vice-Pres. 4); Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Red Cross Council (3, 4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); Correspondence Committee (Chairman 4).

This pretty curly-haired brunette ought to go to Sun Valley, via Colorado of course, for she is never so much at home as on skis and has "mining interests." She will long be remembered for her fearless driving and her calmness in emergencies.

JEAN McMANIGAL

Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Senior Play Cast; French Club (2, 3, 4); Girls' Gym Program (2, 3, 4); Literary Club (4); Red Cross Council (2, 3, 4).

"Peppy" and "cute" are the two adjectives to best describe this diminutive senior. Popular with both sexes, "Mac" charms one and all by her powers of speech and her tricky clothes. One of our most recent discoveries was that this artistically gifted girl could act.

JANET MENSCHING

German Evening (3, 4); Red Cross (4); Mask and Mime (4).

My, what a lot of personality is rolled up into tiny "Mensch" of the piquant face and sparkling eyes! As she was active in Rahway High School, we gladly welcomed her to W. H. S. in her junior year. With a perpetually merry disposition, Janet made many friends. An authority on the American language, "Mensch" can use the latest Sub-Delese.

ROLF MICHAELIS

German Evening (2, 3).

All those who know Rolf find him to be a friendly person, always willing to lend a helping hand. He is an active member of the "Y," and is able to play a fine game of ping-pong. Because of a great love of horses, Rolf likes to spend much of his spare time riding with the 102nd Cavalry. He has a good scholastic average.

DORIS McEVOY

National Honor Society; Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Weather Vane (2, 3, 4); Athletic Committee (2, 3, Vice-Pres. 4); Literary Club (Secretary 4); Annual.

Vitality and versatility are the two adjectives to apply to Doris, who is a fine student, a competent designer, an outstanding hockey player, and a girl who really knows how to handle a bowling ball. This loquacious miss loves convertibles, "Star Dust," and lemon soda.

LORRELL MILTON

Track (3, 4); Football (2).

"Blue," one of our finer track stars, also possesses the ability to converse intelligently on many political problems. He came to W. H. S. in 1939 and has made himself quite a name in everything he has undertaken. Always polite, Lorrell is a hard worker as well as a sharp dresser. We admire him for his good humor and his desire to continue his education in sociology.

BETTE MITCHELL

Cheer Leader (4); French Club (2, 3, 4); Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Senior Play Committee; Swimming (2, 3, 4).

Often with a sparkle in her eye, she's also often "up to something." However, she is very dependable and a willing worker. A natural athlete, she excels in badminton, fencing, and swimming. Enthusiasm and friendliness make her liked by many, and her piano playing enlivens many a get-together.

RUTH MOWERY

Mask and Mime (4); Academic Committee (2, 3, 4); Guidance Committee (4); Modern Dance (2, 3, 4); Gym Program (2, 3, 4); Spanish Club (3, 4).

Here is a girl who, although she appears to be rather quiet to some, has a keen sense of humor and loves a good time. We wonder why she blows the horn of her little gray Plymouth whenever she passes the Westfield Electrical and Gift Shop.

VIRGINIA MULFORD

Hockey (2, 3); Basketball (2); Badminton (2); G. A. C. (2, Sec. 3); Gym Program (2, 3); French Club (2, 3).

"Ginny" is one of those girls that "flies high" and waits for the "Mailman." She is well known for her discriminating selection of clothes which everyone envies. Ginny is seen often behind the wheel of a tan Chrysler. Perhaps her charming appearance led a certain musician to ask for her picture.

GERTRUDE MULLEN

Latin Club (2, 3, 4); Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); French Club (2); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); Girls' Gym Program (2, 3, 4).

Effervescent "Gertie," with the constant giggle, is the spirit of fun both in W. H. S. and at Point Pleasant. Everyone who knows her loves her for her unaffected ways, good-naturedness, and hearty "hello." A good sailor, she nevertheless manages to be becalmed or get into sudden storms.

PHYLLIS MORTON

Spanish Club (3, Secretary 4); Mask and Mime (4); French Club (3, 4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); G. A. C. (4); Gym Program (2, 3, 4); Guidance Committee (4).

An able student and a considerate friend, "Phil" pulls her weight in every enterprise. She has that far from common virtue, dependability, and lucky is the organization for which she chooses to work. It is said that Phyllis blushes when you mention station wagons.

GRACE MURPHY

French Club (2, 3); Mask and Mime (3, 4); Latin Club (2, 3, 4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); Weather Vane (3, 4); Girls' Gym Program (3); Annual.

A Cape Cod enthusiast, "Murph" is the girl with the cute pug nose and twinkling Irish eyes. Good natured and sweet of personality, Gracie has made her friendship valued by many. Although not a book-worm, she is never satisfied with a less than perfect lesson.

BARBARA MURRAY

French Club (3); Mask and Mime (2, 3); Prom Committee (3); Latin Club (3, 4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); G. A. C. (2); Junior Auxiliary (Sec. 4).

Never a dull moment when Barbara appears on the scene. Whenever she's not wielding a knitting needle, she's on an athletic field or dance floor somewhere. Although she's outstanding in school activities, "Barb" finds time for her job as secretary of the Junior Auxiliary.

ROBERT NAETHING

Football (2, 3, W4); Basketball (2, 3); Golf (2, W3, W4); Hi-Y (3, 4); Slide Rule Club (4).

Bob, one of our best linemen in this year's football team, is the opposite of one of Coach Duncan's famous "namby-pambies." Besides playing football, he has won his letter as a golfer. A captain in the Senior Play Ticket Drive, Bob set an enviable sales record. His '33 De Soto transports both boys and girls.

ROBERT NELSON

Spanish Club (2, 3); French Club (2, 3); Hi-Y (3, 4); Tennis (3); Golf (2, 4); Athletic Council (4).

"Charlie T.," "The Wreck," "Bones," all these names refer to this fair-haired Scandinavian. Bob participates in various extra-curricular activities and is the responsible secretary for the White Chapter of the Hi-Y Club. He is a good sport and bears the brunt of a great many practical jokes with a smile.

WALTER NICHOLS

Wrestling (3, W4); Band (3); Executive Committee (4).

Walt is one of Mr. Adams' best "grunt and groan" boys. He has wrestled on the first team all year and he has made an excellent record. As a physics student, Walt is definitely terrific. He guarantees to blow up any apparatus in ten minutes. It is said that drummer boy Walter is also a terror on the hockey field.

BETTY NICHOLSON

French Club (3, 4); Writers' Club (4); Literary Club (3, 4); Academic Committee (4); Volley Ball (4); Girls' Gym Program (4).

Voila! The "divine average" of the senior class. This modest self-appellation is Betty's favorite title, but it hardly does justice to her outstanding writing talent and never failing dependability. It is reported that "Nicky's" pleasant amiability remains unruffled until the first derogatory word about England.

HUGH OGBURN

Basketball (2, 3, W4); Catalyst Club (3, 4); Hi-Y (3, 4); Annual (Co-Editor); Tennis (W2, W3, W4); German Evening (3); Weather Vane (2, 3, 4).

An outstanding tennis player and a fine basketball player, "Oggy" manages to top his numerous activities with an admirable scholastic record. His camera has supplied many of the "lovelorn" with snaps of the "beloved." Never argue with him about chemistry, he is usually right.

VINCENT OLIVERIE

Baseball (2, 3, 4).

Vincent is one of the Class of 1941's popular music connoisseurs, and he comes close to Krupa on the drums. He is one of those fellows that can get along with anyone, and he is generous with his assistance. One of the "Giants'" most loyal fans, he will talk baseball at any time. Keeping busy is his motto, and he always manages to do just that.

MURRAY PARIZEAU

Football (3, W4); Track (3, 4); Hi-Y (3, 4); Spanish Club (3, 4); Boys' Athletic Committee (Chairman 4); Senior Play.

One of Canada's greater gifts to the United States, Murray has won fame as the senior Beau Brummell. He has proved his versatility by being a football hero, a track star, and a Senior Play Romeo. He is also the center of admiration of lots of underclassmen—or should we say women?

MAVIS PARKER

Mask and Mime (3, 4); Latin Club (2); French Club (4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); Girls' Gym Program (2, 3, 4).

When you want to learn the newest dances, see Mavis, for she not only knows them, but performs them with the greatest of ease. She has a beautiful voice and seems to be quite talented in everything in the musical field. We love her peruke and her rosy red cheeks.

WILLIAM PEDEN

Swimming (2, 3, 4); Track (2, 3, 4).

A prominent member of the swimming team, Bill seems to be rather fond of W. H. S.—at least he has so far been reluctant to leave it. He spends much of his time either in or pushing Byron's "Model A." Bill's sense of humor should help him go far in the world.

BILL PEEK

Band (2, 3, 4); Orchestra (2, 3, 4); Golf (3, Manager 4); Latin Club (3); Swimming (2); Weather Vane (2, 3, 4); Hi's-Eye (2, 3); Senior Play Cast.

Bill, one of the class musicians, actors, and journalists, is renowned for his subtle and, on occasion, rather deep humor. Among his current interests is Betty (no special one). He knows Bettys in Westfield, Summit, and Beach Haven. Though young, he seems to get around.

SHERMAN PERRY

Football (2, 3); Swimming (2, 3); Golf Manager (2, 3, W4); Latin Club (2).

"Sharmone" is another of Westfield High's sharp dressers. His large tan Chrysler, known as the Ambulance, is usually filled with his friends. He has been manager of the golf squad, and is adept at tennis and swimming. He is also famous for his pilgrimages to Muhlenberg Hospital where some of his friends work.

JOHN PETERSEN

Football (2, 3, W4); Basketball (W4); Track (2, 3, 4); Weather Vane (2); Spanish Club (2, 3); Hi-Y (4).

"Alla en el rancho Grande"—that's "P-tar" leading el Ateneo on his guitar in the familiar Petersen bass. The tallness of our friendly athlete puts him to advantage on the basketball court. We are proud of the place Jack has made for himself as the champion football passer of local history.

PAT PETRUZZELL

Jr. Band (2); Mask and Mime (3); Spanish Club (3); Christmas Program (4); Gym Program (2); Band Concert (4); Band (3).

Pat is the quiet girl you can see any day in the band room or helping to get out the Hi's Eye. She is also a sports enthusiast, but has no particular favorite. Her main ambition is to be a teacher. We all wish you luck, Pat, in whatever you do!

DOM PONTURO

Hi's-Eye (Editor 4); Senior Day Publicity (4); S. A. T. Sales Manager (2); Vocational Committee (4); Boys' Athletic Committee (2, 3); Community Fair (4).

What would our Hi's-Eye do without him? It's largely through his efforts that we have a school paper at all. Also he seems to be the mainstay of the paper's financial committee, drawing in the shekels as he does every afternoon at the candy stand.

AMY PORST

If a psychiatrist were to know "Army Post," he would probably say that she is the argumentative type for that is what we find in our ambitious "beat me if you can" lass of 1941. Amy with her quiet, efficient pleasantness will surely make the best of nurses. Amy's ready store of "wise-cracks" keeps her presence constantly in demand. All of us admire Amy for her ability to work sensibly toward a goal.

DOROTHY PORLIER

Latin Club (2); French Club (2, 3, 4).

Possessor of an enviably placid disposition, Dotty appears unusually quiet on most occasions. Her lively sense of humor is known to all and enjoyed in the endless number of amusing anecdotes she relates. She may well be admired for her ability to get out of bed at eight fifteen and arrive at school before the eight thirty bell chimes.

JANE PRESTON

Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); French Club; G. A. C. (3).

Jane makes a hit with all who meet her. Her habit of bobbing up whenever anyone is in trouble and always finding a remedy, has endeared her to everyone. Very active in sports, Jane has made her foremost contribution in that field by taking charge of girls' athletic teams, a hard job which she has done very well.

GENE REYNOLDS

Academic Committee (2); Gym Program (2); Spanish Club (2).

Gene has become a familiar sight on Broad Street where she is often found exercising her Irish setter, Terry. Sunshine cakes, jokes, swing music on the piano—all are well within gay Gene's scope. Summers Gene Agnes spends on the sunny beach where she rents a cottage with other girls. Tell "Aggie" she blushes and watch her prove it.

LEONARD REICHHARD

Catalyst Club (4); Forum (Pres. 3, 4); Wrestling (3, 4); Mask and Mime (3, 4); Spanish Club (3, 4); Slide Rule Club (4); Senior Play Cast; Annual.

Len, our pseudo cynic, is always ready for intelligent and constructive argument. No idle debater, even-tempered Leonard really knows what he's talking about. As a versatile scenery engineer and three of the characters in "Smilin' Through," Leonard proved indispensable in our Senior Play production.

JACK RISING

Band (3); Forum Club (4); Chorus (4); Community Fair (4); Golf Team (2, W3, W4); Typing Committee (4).

A lover of the outdoors, "Jump" enjoys camping, hunting, and fishing as well as golf. His pet hobby is music and he tops W. H. S. in saxophone players. He takes great pleasure in pinning Mr. Thompson down with tough economic problems. He is a sharp dresser who is popular with all.

CAROL J. ROBINSON

French Club (3); Girls' Sports (3, 4); Annual (4).

A smile, a wave of the hand, and a cheery "hi" come from blonde vivacious Carol whose main enthusiasms are, believe it or not, archaeology and lapidary work. Heart-breaking rather than stone-cutting would seem to be more her style. However, Carol's interest is not all scientific. She is full of mischief and loves winter sports, especially skating.

CAROLYN ROBINSON

Carolyn's quiet sense of humor and her likeable personality have won her many friends in various cities all over New Jersey. Her favorite saying, "There are no lazy people just tired, tired ones," is indicative of her carefree attitude toward life. Carolyn regrets that she did not take biology or chemistry as she has recently become intensely interested in nursing as a profession, but she will be back next year to try her hand at these.

MARGARET ROFF

Typing Club (2, 3).

Margaret is better known as "Peggy" to her friends. A valuable member of the band in which she plays the flute, she is known as a chatterbox who will talk to any willing listener. Peggy, enrolled in the commercial course, is a conscientious worker, especially skilled in handicrafts. We know that Peggy's friendly co-operative spirit and cheerful competency will make her a very able secretary.

JACK ROGERS

Football (2, 3, W4); Swimming (2, W3, W4); Tennis (2, W3, W4); Class (Vice-Pres. 4, Treas. 2); Athletic Council (Pres. 4); Hi-Y Club (Pres. 4).

Although "Buck" is full of horseplay and laughter, he possesses a serious side which is shown by his intense training and good marks. Jack is also an excellent leader in athletics, having been a mainstay on the swimming and football teams for the past two years.

VIRGINIA RUH

Collectors' Club (3, 4); Red Cross Council (2, 3, 4).

One of our smaller classmates, "Ginny" has her just share of pep and personality. Because of her leadership, "Ginny" has lots of admiring friends who greatly enjoy her witty and opportune remarks. An accomplished driver, she is often seen driving about town with a carload of high-school students. Incidentally, we hope her interest in aviation does not "Peter" out.

LEONARD RYER

Golf (W2, W3, W4); Academic Committee (2); Band; Weather Vane (4); Annual (4); Spanish Club (4); Athletic Council (4).

Sharp "Rex" is such a golf enthusiast that he plays this sport in the snow with a red ball. Versatile Len, is a great fisherman, hunter, and a lover of the outdoors besides being an amateur photographer, a band leader, and a connoisseur of "gag" shows. He is a great pal to all his friends.

GERARD SANDKAUT

Basketball (Mgr. 2, 3); Indoor Track (2); Outdoor Track (2); Swimming (3).

Jerry is probably our most happy-go-lucky individual. His willingness to do whatever he is asked at a moment's notice is one of his outstanding characteristics. He gets a great deal of enjoyment out of life and never takes depressing situations very seriously. Varied interests and athletic abilities augment his likeable personality a great deal.

ROBERT ROST

Hi-Y (3, Pres. 4); Swimming (Manager 4); Spanish Club (3, Treas. 4); Community Fair (4); Nominating Committee (2, 3, 4); Senior Play (4); Annual Staff (4).

This super horseman is definitely a leader in our class. His trustworthiness has won him the jobs of president of the Blue Hi-Y club and motherly manager of the swimming team. He is always well dressed, and, speaking of clothes, you should see his vest!

STOCKTON RUSH

Choir (2, 3, 4); Band (2, 3, Treasurer 3); Swimming (2); Boys' Double Quartet (4); Orchestra (2, 3).

Besides being an ace hide-beater with the band, Stockton possesses a fine bass voice used to advantage with the choir. Among other activities Stocky manages to find time to practice the clarinet and to swim with our team. Although Stocky is quiet and retiring, he is hardly ever asleep on the job.

NICOLINA SANTACROCE

Girls' Chorus (2); Gym Program (2).

"Nichie" is a girl with sparkling brown eyes, a jolly laugh, and a lively interest in Pennsylvania. She is one who has found out exactly what she wants to do and is going earnestly ahead to achieve her goal. Medicine is her main interest and nursing, her chosen career. Everyone who knows her efficiency and perseverance feels confident that she will succeed.

JOHN SELLON, III

Swimming (2, W3, 4); Baseball (2, 3); Football (W4); Slide Rule Club (3, 4); Mask and Mime (2, 3).

"Sea-Lion," one of W. H. S. white sweater boys, flashes in the tank as well as on the gridiron. He always gets a big kick out of life which makes him a swell friend. Going around all winter without a coat is part of John's training, but we wonder just what it is he's training for.

JOYCE SCHAEFER

Vocational Club (4).

If you don't know our happy, carefree "Jerse," you certainly are missing something. What Joyce says, which is usually very little, is short and to the point and what she means. Joyce divides her time between reading books and serials and movie-going. Note that this omits time for homework! But seriously, Joyce does have her studious moments, and fruitful ones at that.

HELEN SCHULZ

Latin Club (4); Spanish Club (2, 3, 4); Band (2, 3, 4); Baseball (3, 4); Volley Ball (3, 4).

Although Helen is a silent student when in school, outside of its portals her grand sense of humor wins her many admirers. That smooth tan comes from spending her summers at Seaside Park where she spends much time puttering around her sailboat. A great tease, Schulz's pet saying is, "Don't wrinkle me."

JEAN SCHWARTZ

Latin Club (2, 3, 4); French Club (2, 3); Mask and Mime Club (2, 3, 4).

Jeannie with the dark brown hair has probably often been dreamed about by her many admirers. A very quick wit, accompanied with two big innocent brown eyes and a sweet and charming personality, has made Jean a popular girl. Jean is also one of the few students ambitious enough to attempt fourth year Latin.

TED SENGSTACK

Slide Rule Club (2); Football (2).

At last Ted has had his picture taken for the yearbook. Fear of the camera was not the cause for his delay but merely his belief in the motto "Haste makes waste." Oblivious to surrounding bells, unruffled by teachers' remonstrances, Ted has moved about the corridors calmly and serenely with now and then a coy look from beneath long, curling eyelashes. Why hurry?

BILL SHANNON

Track (3, 4); Slide Rule Club (3); Golf (3); Spanish Club (2); Library Council (3, 4); Archaeological Society (3); Annual.

A confirmed disciple of Isaac Walton, Bill would much rather tackle a rod or gun than one of Mr. Johnson's fiendish physics problems. However, Bill's well-evidenced participation in outside activities demonstrates that he has a balanced sense of values much needed in later life. A career in aviation is Bill's choice.

JANE SINGER

Vocational Club (4); Correspondence Committee (4).

Jane has curly blonde hair and big brown eyes which make her outstanding despite her slight form. She could qualify perhaps as the greatest animal lover in the senior class, for she has many pets, notably "Pete," a squirrel whom she raised herself from a baby. In her spare time Jane is generally found at a roller-skating rink.

JEANNE STAUFFER

French Club (2); Latin Club (2, 4); Forum Club (3); Junior Nominating Committee (3); Gym Program (3, 4).

Flying dark tresses and a winning smile seen behind the wheel of a red Pontiac will probably belong to Jeanne, especially if they are part of an abundant vitality and friendly personality. Although Jeanne's greatest interest is in her car, she finds time to be active in many clubs.

ROBERT STALKNECHT

French Club (2, 3, Pres. 4); Chorus (3, 4); All State Chorus (4); Baseball (2); Weather Vane (2, 3, 4); Academic Committee (2); Finance Committee (2).

Bob, our class linguist, does an excellent job of "parlant en francais" as French Club President. Besides having a good bass voice and acquiring excellent scholastic standing, he is one of our star ping-pong players. Cautious in his work, he is very dependable.

BETTY SHERMAN

Latin Club (3, 4); Spanish Club (4); Mask and Mime (4); Guidance Committee (4); Hockey (2, 4); Modern Dancing (4); Community Fair (4).

Although her heart is divided between Port Arthur, Canada, and Virginia, Betty's never ceasing chattering and sincere friendliness make her presence always a delight. Our lovely senorita, although not fond of school in general, is the star of her Spanish III class.

ANITA STEINBACK

Mask and Mime (2, 3, 4); Art Club (2, 3); Gym Program (2, 3); Girls' Sports (2); Senior Play Stage Committee.

Anita is one of those "few and far between" genuine glamour girls that we have around W. H. S. A "smooth" dresser, she is rarely seen with the same hair style. How she does it, we don't know. Anita has considerable talent in design as well as charm as a conversationalist.

JANE STEWART

Spanish Club (3, 4); Photoplay Club (Treas. 4); Girls' Gym Program (3, 4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4).

Good things may come in small packages, but tall, quiet Jane is the exception to prove this rule. An active participant in athletics, she spends her summers on Cape Cod, where swimming and horseback riding claim much of her attention. Willingness to do anything is one of Jane's traits.

BILL SULLIVAN

Forum Club (4).

Bill's friendly, quiet seriousness has brought him a big "Hall" of friends in his year at Westfield High. Ann Arbor High School and the University of Michigan find a staunch supporter in Bill. Our Eagle Scout is known as a hiker, camper, and fisherman; and we often find him quietly doing more than his share of a job. We predict success for "Honest Bill."

SHIRLEY TAYLOR

Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); Gym Program (2, 3, 4); German Evening (2, 3).

Cheery "Chubby" likes everybody and everybody likes her. This golden-haired siren with the smiling face is often seen sitting on the steps near 217. We wonder what the attraction is. Fond of the sea and of the guardians of the coast, Shirley spends her summers at Manasquan and charms everyone with her pleasing personality.

ROBERT THOMPSON

Football (2); Basketball (2, 3); Athletic Council (2); Intramural Basketball (4); Baseball (4).

Bob, studious and neat, considerate of young and old, very quiet and modest, will undoubtedly be as great an asset to Harvard, the university of his choice, as he has been to Westfield High School. Bob's interests are not all in studying, however; he is fond of summer sports and excels in tennis and baseball.

BYRON STUART

Baseball (2, 3); Track (2, 3, 4); Hi-Y (2, 3, 4); Guidance Committee (4); Wrestling (3); Nominating Committee (3); Spanish Club (4).

To quote Byron, "Who wants to be too serious?" In fact, homeroom 205 is much enlivened by his everlasting wit. Byron's motto is "On to Moscow," but Russia is distant. If he would only stay in track training, he could dash right over there.

DON TOMBLIN

Weather Vane (2, 3, 4); Tennis (W2, W3, W4); Catalyst Club (3, 4); Latin Club (4); Forum (4); Saracens (3, 4).

This red-headed "hep-cat," affectionately called "Red-Mike" by his friends, is one of the few swing music authorities in this school. He's that "Drummin' Man" who holds an open house all year 'round. Our leading tennis player for three years is now a member of the "One O'Clockers."

BLYTHE TOMLINS

Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); G. A. C. (3, 4); Gym Program (2, 3, 4); French Club (2, 3); Athletic Association (Sec. 4).

"Toni," one of our outstanding girl athletes, not only excels in this field, but has proved herself a dependable and hard worker in the Girls' Athletic Council and as secretary of the Athletic Association as well. Friendly to all, attractive "Toni" is a real sport, admired and liked by everyone.

ELISE VAN LEUVEN

Weather Vane (2, 3, 4); Latin Club (2, 3); Red Cross Council (2, 3, 4); Class Secretary (3); Jr. Aux. (4); Gym Program (4).

Friendly, popular Elise is in constant demand everywhere she goes. Our horseback rider has come through more than one show with honors. As the lovely Madonna in our Christmas program and as the personification of Mademoiselle, Elise will long be remembered. Elise, a class leader, will always make good.

DORIS TOWNLEY

Mask and Mime (3, 4); Band (2, 3, 4); Gym Program (3); Hockey (2, 3, 4); Basketball (2).

A flash of red-gold locks, a pleasing chuckle—that's "Dot"—always smiling. Her strong will, firm manner, and kindness are only a few of Doris's numerous assets. She has that special knack of making friends wherever she goes and is certain to obtain her goal as a nurse.

NICK TUORTO

Football (3, 4).

Nick's mechanical turn of mind, combined with his genuine love of the air has made him to decide to take up the career of an airplane mechanic as his life's work. He is of the crowd to whom the Newark movies are a frequent and lasting attraction. Nick, despite his keen sense of humor and likeable disposition, is known as "the strong, silent" type of man.

KENNETH UHRENHOLDT

Football (2, 3); Swimming (W2, W4); Spanish Club (3, 4); Red Cross Council (2, 3, 4); Hi's-Eye (4).

Long after Model A's have gone to wherever Model A's do go, Ken's red and blue collapsible coupe will be remembered. Skiing, swimming on the team, and football take up his spare time and he has hunted in almost every state in the Union. One of Ken's greatest assets is his loyalty to his friends.

FRANK VENUS

Slide Rule Club (3).

Frank has the make-up of an excellent metallurgist as is evidenced by the grueling daily workout he gives the metal turning lathe in the shop and by his deep interest in science. He often tries his own experiments in the laboratories with varying degrees of success. Frank is an intelligent, quiet, mild fellow ever willing to help and therefore very easy to get along with.

ALFRED VIGLIANTI

Band (2, 3, 4); Choir (3, 4); Orchestra (2); Boys' Double Quartet (4); S. A. T. Drive (2, 3).

A busy but quiet senior with a friendly greeting for everyone is Alfred. This pleasant chap is as superior in scholastic standing as he is in musical talent. "Girls don't bother me, work doesn't hurt me, and I am interested in art as well as music," said he. We wish him success as a singer.

SETH VILLA

Football (2, 3, W4); Swimming (2, 3, W4); Basketball (2).

"Compesino," voted the most valuable player on the W. H. S. football team of 1940, has made a mark in athletics. His football career has partially shadowed his fine work on our swimming team. Industrious (?) in his studies, Seth has consistently maintained an enviable record. His hobbies include midjet racing. Leaning toward mathematics, he is due for an engineering career.

VIRGINIA VOORHEES

Ginny is one of our peppiest and most vivacious seniors. She is known for her continuous babbling and we all sincerely hope she won't lose this magnificent gift of gab. She is the mainstay of sixth period lunch where she can be heard telling her clever jokes. The time she doesn't spend in Westfield is spent on Long Island where we hear she has some very dear friends. All the luck in the world to you, Ginny.

BILL VROOM

Intramural Basketball (3); Baseball (3); Archaeological Society (3).

A somewhat negligent student, Bill is one of the friendliest boys in the whole school. Diffident Bill is an ardent movie fan. He works very hard after school; and if it were not for his vigorous business activities, he would participate in sports. He has great ideas for the future and everyone that knows him wishes him lots of luck.

HARRY WAHL

Hi-Y (3, 4); Basketball (3, 4); Baseball (3, 4); Hi's-Eye (3, 4); Annual (4); Athletic Committee (4).

"Harry Lewis," the baseball team's classy infielder, is not only brilliant on the ball field, but also in journalism. Known for his cheerful personality, he is well liked by many. We hope he succeeds as well with his writing after he graduates as he has on the Hi's-Eye's staff.

BETTY WALKER

French Club (2, 3); Latin Club (Vice-Pres. 3, 4); G. A. C. (2, Pres. 4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); Senior Play Cast; Annual; Jr. Aux. (Treas. 4).

"Ben" is that tall, cheery girl with the curly dark hair, who's always doing something for someone. This conscientious student possesses a wealth of personality and a love for sports. If she's not around some week-end, you'll be sure to find her at Muhlenberg.

BILL WALKER

Track (3, 4); Football (3, 4).

Among the students who came to W. H. S. two years ago, was a tall blond boy from Tacoma, Washington, who has been since known to us as Bill Walker. An expert football player, especially in the backfield, Bill does not confine his skill to sports. He is known for his wit and humor which have amused the members of the fair sex on many occasions.

BETTY WATROUS

Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); Gym Program (2, 3, 4); Vocational Club (4).

Betty is one of our all-around sportswomen to whom the hockey field, basketball court, baseball diamond, and badminton court are all familiar. When she is not posing for her sister or swimming, roller-skating occupies her free time. Driving her rather the worse-for-wear car is another of Betty's favorite occupations.

FRANCES WATROUS

French Club (2); Mask and Mime (4); Art Club (2, 3, 4); Weather Vane (2, 3, 4); Band Librarian (3, 4); Gym Program (2, 3, 4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4).

"Fran" is that rare phenomenon, an untemperamental artist. No wild ravings disturb the serenity of her calm features, and she never has been seen to tear her glowing auburn hair. Besides this, Frances is an enthusiastic athlete, a good sport, and a very efficient band librarian.

ROBERT WHITE

Football (2, 3, 4).

A shy grin makes Bob attractive to many, especially one Jane. In his quiet, unassuming manner, Bob has won many friends even though Mr. Tolliver will probably remember him as an excuse to use his detention pad. Bob, who, is an outstanding hockey player and is known as an ace "puck pusher," is full of all sorts of fun and always ready for devilment.

BETTY TEW

French Club (3); Spanish Club (4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); Red Cross Council (2, 3).

First it was "Bettina," then "Wheatina," and now they call me "Wheaties," laughingly explains Betty. It's our guess that lively Betty with her adorable pepper of freckles will be as much a favorite with her future kindergarten pupils as she is with us. By the way, have you heard—"As Maine goes so goes Betty."

JAMES WILCOX

Hi-Y (3, 4); Track (3, 4); Golf (2, 3, 4); Forum (3, 4); French Club (2, 3); Class Treasurer (3, 4).

Jim, our Senior Class Treasurer and a veritable "Shylock" in all financial matters, has few equals as a friend and as an intelligent opponent in a debate. A conservative and individualist, Jim puts his heart into his work and is an able student who will further the good reputation of W. H. S.

DAN WILLIAMS

Golf (W2, W4); Class Secretary (2).

Known as the "Monster," Dan is one of the most popular boys in the senior class. He has been the mainstay of our golf squad, and was county champion while a sophomore. He has been our perennial class secretary and an outstanding member of the athletic council. Although small in stature, he has been a big man in the senior class. Good-luck, Danny!

MARTHA WILLIAMS

Latin Club (3, 4); French Club (2, 3, 4); Mask and Mime Club (3, 4); Red Cross Council (2, 3); Annual (4).

Red hair and pretty blue sweaters characterize "Marty," one of the supposedly quiet students. Quiet or not, she has an outstanding sense of humor. Maine, where she indulges in her favorite sport, swimming, is her home in the summer, but we understand that she is to attend college in the South.

WILLIAM WILLOUGHBY

This owner of a sparkling humor and a genial personality is known as "Webfoot," but "Daniel Boone" would be much more appropriate because of his enthusiasm for hunting. Even if his predominant weakness is daydreaming, he makes up for it as captain of the wrestling team. In his homeroom, "Bubbles" has acquired the reputation of keeping a certain teacher continually on edge. A confirmed bachelor at heart, he may meet his downfall in the future.

BARBARA WILLSON

Academic Committee (2, 3); Latin Club (3); Mask and Mime (4); Girls' Sports (2, 3, 4); French Club (3); Prom Committee (3); Gym Program (4).

Cheerful Barb is envied for her winning smile and admired for her dependability. Much of her time is spent in athletics, but she reserves her hours of ease for a certain W. H. S. grad. Genuine as she is, "Shorty" is a grand girl to know.

GEORGE J. WILSON

Football (W4); Hi-Y Club; Athletic Council (Treas. 4); Track (2, 3, 4).

George seems to run to athletics as is shown by his fine record on both the football and track teams. His spirit, sincerity, and "help the other fellow" attitude are obviously contagious to those friends about him. George has shown himself to be a talented actor as well as a very competent Athletic Council Treasurer.

GEORGE M. WILSON

Vice-Pres. (3); Basketball (3); Tennis (W3, W4); Hi-Y (3, Treas. 4); Football (W4); National Honor Society.

"Tex" was the boy you saw plugging in the middle of the football line, and making those faultless centers. In driving his Ford George seems to reveal those Texas cowboy antics. A fine student, an outstanding athlete, and an incurable blusher, George is sure to succeed in his Princeton career.

JAMES CASWELL WILSON

National Honor Society; Class Officer (Vice-Pres. 2, Pres. 3); Catalyst Club (3, Pres. 4); Forum (2, 3, 4); Slide Rule Club (2, 3); Senior Play Cast.

"Gad!" How did this genius of political orations get here from that southern democratic hang-out, Arkansas? High scholastic standing, personality plus, swell dancing, came to us via Washington with Jim. We hope that Washington and the nation will see him again, not as a pupil, but as the diplomat he really is.

GLADYS WOLFF

Red Cross Council (2, 3); G. A. C. (2); Typist Club (4).

Glad's sweetness can be seen in her face and accounts for her being one of our prettiest girls. Gladys finds a great deal of pleasure in going to the shore in the summer, and her out of town friends take up a good bit of her dating time. Sewing, cooking, and having a good time are among her favorite pastimes.

HANS WYDLER

National Honor Society; Forum (2, 3, 4); Catalyst Club (4); German Evening (2, 3); Chess Club (2, 3); French Club (2); Orchestra (2, 3); Latin Club (4).

Our German linguist, who has a passion for pulchritude, is particular about his dates. A musician of some note, Hans prefers Beethoven. On Forum programs he has proved himself an eloquent speaker. This able student will surely make good at the University of Pennsylvania.

PAT YANNUZZI

Football (2, 3, 4).

One of our more sophisticated seniors is Pat. He is very fond of spending week-ends in New York and often visits night clubs. Aside from these metropolitan interests, Pat spends his spare time playing in baseball games and bowling alleys. Already an up-and-coming business man, Pat's main ambition, in which he shows every indication of succeeding, is to be a good salesman.

EDWARD WITKE

Academic Committee (4); Chess Team (4); Forum Club (4); Catalyst Club (3, 4); Annual; National Honor Society.

Both astronomer and mathematician, Ed, our super scientist, is famous for his mathematical marvels. His theories and fiendish problems are left as unsolved as are his chemical reagents, and we all enjoy watching Ed disprove geometry. Ed's congenial personality and intelligence make him a fine person to follow and work with.

DOROTHY WOODWARD

Vocational Club (4).

"Pop up" Dot always has a "snazzy" answer for everything. Energetic Dorothy's wide and startling variety of pets includes rabbits, dogs, cats, chickens, and squirrels. Dot is one of the few girls able to really train animals, and her pets are especially known for their responsiveness to her commands. In spite of much persuasion we can't get Dottie to put her lovely hair down.

NORMAN ZEITELHACK

Nominating Committee (2); Guidance Committee (3).

Norman is one of Westfield High's field and stream men. When the hunting season comes with fall, Norman displays his aim in the local woods. Winter finds him trapping game in the nearby mountains; and spring, fishing in various streams. In between seasons Norman finds time to do some studying and to make himself generally liked by his classmates.

JOE ZOLLO

Basketball (2, W3, 4); Intramural Baseball (2, 3, 4).

Joe, Westfield High School's "fiery little furnace," has proved to be an "indispensable man" on all our athletic teams. Not only that, Joe has made himself genuinely liked and valued as a classmate. His outstanding qualities are vigor and independence which help to bring him his especial triumphs on the basketball court. Joe is very proud of his Model "A."

HOWARD ZWEMER

J. V. Football (2, 3); Football (4); Forum (3, 4); Red Cross Council (3); Hi-Y (3, 4); National Honor Society.

This reticent member of our class comes from Iowa. Inclined to be somewhat lazy, he lets his mind wander westward. He is an ardent horseman who often rides with "Honest Clyde." Although his future has not as yet been determined, his profound interest in science indicates choosing the engineering profession.

The Fall Activities

CHEER LEADING

In spite of the fact that it was only the second day of school a large number of our more courageous and energetic students who weren't afraid to desert a warm bed for school at 7:45 on chill, fall mornings, showed up for the first cheer practice. After the usual elimination, about thirty candidates remained to carry on the duties of the cheer squad. Of this number twelve were selected each week to cheer at the football games. The cheer leaders also directed cheering at four of the ever popular "Pep" assemblies plus one sophomore cheer practice and several ten minute assemblies at the close of school. All of these were rated successful by all.

The ability of our cheer squad is recognized by all our opponents and the Blue and White football squad was always able to count on plenty of good support from the stands through the medium of the cheer squad.

Parts of the squad also did some fine work at many of our basketball games.

After the season was well under way permanent captains Miriam Fetzer and Bob Butcher were elected to command the squad for the rest of the year.

Other prominent seniors on the squad were Carol Henry, Frances Loesch, Betty Bryan, Jackie Clark, Jack Hegeman, and Jack Ennis.

The squad owes most of its success to Miss Gertrude M. Swift who was present at every practice to contribute words of advice and encouragement and who did her usual excellent job of coaching and encouraging the team. The greatest credit goes, however, to "us the people," the students of W. H. S. who have always given great support to our hard working cheer leaders.

FOOTBALL

When the boys reported for practice a week or so before the beginning of school, Coaches Duncan, Berger, and Adams were sadly disappointed to see that only two letter-men returned. The rest had either graduated or had been spirited off to prep school. Nevertheless, they set to, and produced a ball club which showed fighting spirit, even in the face of defeat.

The season opened at home, and an experienced and favored Somerville team took home the decision, 18-0. Westfield went to Millburn the next week, and came back on the wrong end of an 18-14 count. A powerful Clifford Scott team defeated the Elmstreeters by a 13-0 tally.

A valuable addition was then made to the W. H. S. coaching staff. Mr. Joseph Freeman, who already carried the responsibilities of coaching basketball and baseball, volunteered his services to the Duncanites.

The following test of the eleven came with a heartbreaking 7-6 defeat, administered by Roselle Park. Columbia defeated us, 27-12, but the Blue and White scored two touchdowns, an act not accomplished by more powerful opponents.

A system involving "razzle-dazzle" appeared, and the Elmstreeters came through and whipped a dazed Harrison team, 19-6. The next week, Westfield whitewashed Thomas Edison High School, 55-0.

Impressive was Westfield's defeat of a determined Plainfield team at Plainfield, 13-0. The Queen City eleven, bitter rivals of W. H. S., played a fine game, but weren't quite good enough for the fighting Blue Devils.

The season ended with a trip to Ridgewood, from which the Blue and White returned with an 18-0 defeat.

Notable during the season were the excellent work of Co-Captains Jim Kane and Dom Sisto and the fine kicking of Jim Turpin. Bob Lowe, blocking back, was elected captain of next year's varsity squad.

THE FORUM

To interest youthful minds in the affairs of state, to study modern politics and its many and diversified relations, to create a growing interest in our governmental processes—these are the basic principles upon which the Forum Club was founded. It is with these fundamental ideals that the Forum continues to hold its sway, not only as one of the most lively and interesting clubs in the high school but also as one of the really beneficial organizations of our extra-curricular program.

Because of its many opportunities for public speaking, discussion leadership, and straight thinking, the Forum has served its members well in its chief purpose—the development of leaders of student opinion.

The assemblies sponsored by the club are perhaps the best-known of all its activities. Through these meetings, students receive valuable information concerning the different aspects of the news of the day. After the speakers have exhausted themselves expounding to the students, the students then bombard the speakers and possibly other students with their varied objections, criticisms, or questions.

Regular monthly supper meetings offer an unusual social opportunity; and the programs of moving pictures, invited speakers, or student discussions have been most profitable.

The Interscholastic Forum, which is composed of ten schools, was initiated by the Westfield Forum Club, and is a splendid means of securing interscholastic student expression.

The club has had a very successful year under the expert leadership of Miss Linda Johnson and Mr. Roy Tolliver. At the beginning of the year Leonard Reichhard was president; Alfred Oppenheim, vice-president, and Jean Bull, secretary-treasurer. The newly elected officers are President, Miriam Avery; Vice-President, Ted Willis; Secretary-Treasurer, Elizabeth Johnston.

ANNUAL STAFF

A sincere interest in success and a liking for good hard work characterized this year's staff. Everyone gave unsparingly of his time to help make this the best Annual in West-field High history. The staff waded through seas of write-ups and oceans of pictures to win your approval. If they have succeeded, it is due to co-operation.

Co-editors were Miriam Avery and Hugh Ogburn; Business Manager, Robert Hill; Sales Manager, Miriam Hunter; Write-up Committee Chairman, Mildred Boxill; Activities Chairman, Barbara Luessenhop; Typist, Anthony Alvanos; and Artists, Frances Watrous and Isabel Blount. The capable advisers were Miss Bordner and Miss Howard.

WEATHER VANE

Ably directed by its erudite editor, Harry Holcomb, and with its business affairs efficiently managed by Bryce MacDonald, the Weather Vane appeared in three successful issues this year. "Better late than never" was the staff motto. Undoubtedly the most outstanding number was the colorful Pan-American spring issue which stressed friendly relations.

After attending several press conferences, the Staff, together with the Hi's Eye, entertained the New Jersey Scholastic Press Conference in May.

An excellent art staff also greatly contributed to the success of the Weather Vane as did the able guidance of Miss Bordner and Miss Howard, the sponsors.

HI'S EYE

Fifteen regular issues, an April Fool's issue. and a three day Columbia Convention have kept the members of the Hi's Eye staff really busy.

Published bi-weekly during the year, the Hi's Eye covers all phases of school activity. It is maintained with the funds received from the Student Activity Drive, the Community Fair, and candy sales.

With Robert L. Foose as faculty adviser, the members of the journalism classes have edited the paper.

COLLECTORS' CLUB

The Collectors' Club, sponsored by Miss Olive Hammell, offers its members the opportunity of discussion, of securing information about special interests, and of exchanging items in their collections.

At each meeting there is an interesting program, and frequently adult collectors display choice possessions and give talks.

Club activities have been ably directed this year by the following officers: President, Sally Larson; Vice-President, Bud Jones; Secretary, Ruth Johnson; Treasurer, Dave Mumford.

The class artist, Frances Watrous, is president of the Art Club, an organization which has functioned for many years. Joyce Woodruff serves as vice-president, and Shirley Auster is secretary-treasurer.

ART CLUB

This club meets during the third period and the members may come on any day. They choose the type of art work which they prefer and may be observed doing figure work, water color, oil, charcoal, chalk, and finger painting.

Organized as an official club at the beginning of this year, the Writers' Club held meetings each month at the homes of various members. Several afternoon gatherings were also held. Much of the material read to the club later appeared in the Weather Vane.

With Miss Dietrich as sponsor, the officers were this year: Miriam Avery, president; Donald Smith, treasurer; Betty Nicholson, vice-president; Marion Jenkins, recording secretary; Mildred Boxill, corresponding secretary.

WRITERS' CLUB

W GIRLS AND G. A. C.

"The meeting will please come to order" is rapped out weekly with a newly-purchased gavel by the Girls' Interclass Athletic Committee's chairman, Betty Mae Walker. The minutes are "respectfully submitted" by Shirley Husson, secretary, and Grace Emmons, in the new office of treasurer, reports that all is satisfactory.

Business and more business is then investigated and problems of administering girls' sports are untangled. Yes, there are problems. The budget has to be drawn up; ushers are needed; Elise VanLeuven, vice-chairman, desperately wants brain storms for the gym program, the G. A. C. dinner, or the spring picnic; and sophomores need encouraging in various sports.

A new development in the line of girls' athletics is the Big-Sister Movement, which sends senior and junior girls into the sophomore homerooms at the beginning of the school year to explain their life in the Westfield High School.

Occasionally movie tickets are sold or a cake sale is fostered in order to earn money for some worthy project, such as buying a movie projector.

For participation in various sports and activities points are granted. The points are accumulated from year to year, and awards are given for 100, 200, 300, and 400 points. Those girls earning 300 points are called "W" girls. This year they number approximately sixteen. Barbara Butcher, Shirley Husson, Patty Shellenberger, Norma Westra, Grace Emmons, Doris McEvoy, Ruth Barker, Peggy Husson, Bette Mitchell, Phyllis Morton, Blythe Tomlins, and Betty Mae Walker have already received this honor.

As one girl is elected to the Girls' Athletic Committee from each homeroom, all girls have representation and receive all necessary information.

Five popular magazines, Mademoiselle, Travel, The New Yorker, The Saturday Evening Post, and Life provided the theme for the program given by the girls of the Physical Education Department on March 7 against a cleverly executed backdrop of magazine covers.

A sports review opened the program. Each sport was represented by an outstanding participant wearing the most correct type of sportswear.

The next item on the program was a tableau depicting a day in "Mademoiselle's" life, which was followed by several of the famous "Little Lulu" cartoons having to do with sports. Shirley Goetze did a fine job of portraying the famous brat.

Representing The New Yorker in three numbers, "Shadrach," "The Waltz," and "Study in Swings," the modern dancers next performed. The first of these numbers was brilliantly syncopated and particularly colorful, with the girls wearing red turbans and sashes over their black leotards. Accompaniment was provided for the dance by the Boys' Double Quartette. Barbara Mason, Phyllis Kinkead, and Miriam Avery danced in opposition to the group as did Nancy Byck in the dance which she composed, "The Waltz."

Fifteen girls presented a fencing drill, after which Barbara Butcher won the advanced fencing crown from Norma Westra in the finals of the tournament and Marty Maxwell was victorious over Bunny Herr in the beginners' group.

Marching to martial music proved a fitting conclusion. The girls were dressed in white skirts and navy blue sweaters and wore red, white, and blue flowers in their hair. Elise Van Leuven, vice-chairman of the Girls' Athletic Committee and program chairman of "Mademoiselle," was flag bearer. After her entrance the audience joined in singing the national anthem.

GIRLS' GYM PROGRAM

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Founded in 1919 at the annual meeting in Chicago of the National Association of Secondary School Principals, the National Honor Society has grown from an organization of twelve chapters to one with more than 2,400 chapters throughout the country. The Society in high school corresponds to the much sought after Phi Beta Kappa in colleges.

On December 19, 1940, a charter was awarded to the new chapter in Westfield High. As stated in its constitution, the society's purposes are to "create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership and to encourage development of character in pupils of Westfield Senior High School."

A formal banquet for members and their parents marked the induction of the Westfield Chapter, Number 2450.

Mr. William Warner, Miss Annie P. Hewitt, and Mr. Walter Johnson comprised the committee for organizing this branch of the Society and forming its constitution.

Juniors and seniors in the upper ten percent of their classes are eligible for membership. In 1941, forty-three eligible juniors and seniors were admitted, and as token of membership received gold pins.

Charter members of the local chapter in 1941 were as follows: Seniors—Anthony Alvanos, Ruth Barker, Josephine Barranco, Jean Barrett, William Bohannon, Mildred Boxill, Barbara Britton, John Cunningham, Marion Jenkins, Miriam Hunter, Barbara Luessenhop, Bryce MacDonald, Doris McEvoy, Betty Nicholson, Hugh Ogburn, Robert Stalknecht, Don Tomblen, James Wilcox, George M. Wilson, James C. Wilson, Edward Wittke, Hans Wydler, Howard Zwemer; Juniors—Janice Bell, Justine Bright, Barbara Brown, Barbara Butcher, Julie Calvert, Jean Cupitt, Phyllis Denny, Richard Denny, Mado Gaston, Paul Gesner, Shirley Husson, Sanford Klion, Sally Larson, Betty Mann, Thomas Meiss, Barbara Pierson, Shirley Sargent, Evelyn Wakefield, Norma Westra, Theodore Wright.

Officers were Hugh Ogburn, president; Bryce MacDonald, vice-president, and Miriam Hunter, secretary.

JUNIOR AUXILIARY

"There will be a short but important meeting of the Junior Aux. in 217 at the close of school" runs a familiar notice to the girls whose duty it is to entertain the crippled children at the Children's Country Home and to give financial support to this institution. Under the leadership of Miss Linda Johnson and their officers, President, Betty Bryan; Vice-President, Gloria Wright; Secretary, Barbara Murray; and Treasurer, Betty Walker, much has been accomplished.

WRESTLING

Although wrestling at W. H. S. is in its infancy, Coach Adams has realized remarkable improvement in his pupils. The season could not exactly be called a success as they failed to win a match. However, they were pitted against such formidable opponents as Roselle Park and Thomas Jefferson, and made a good showing. As the season progressed, all the men improved amazingly, and each match became more hotly contested. Ted Conover frequently pinned his instructor to the mat.

DRAMATICS

Mask and Mime presented One Mad Night as its annual play. In its two night run, this riotous madhouse mixup met the gay approval of large audiences.

MASK AND MIME MADCAPS

TRADITIONAL W. H. S. CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

BEHIND THE SCENE SENIORS "SMILIN' THROUGH"

Westfield High School is famous for its serious work in dramatics. This year Miss Johnson directed the senior class in a lovely but difficult costume play by Allan Martin, Smilin' Through. The leads in this serious drama were taken by Jim Wilson, Jackie Clarke, Harry Holcomb, and Miriam Beattys.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

The library council sponsored by Miss Alice Bible and Miss Marion Scott was this year a small group of about nine. These students interested in library work devote two forty minute periods a week to it in the high school library, getting better acquainted with the many facilities by checking books in and out, shelving them, using the files, et cetera. All enjoy the experience and gain a great deal from it.

The officers of the council are President, Miriam Beattys; Vice-President, Marguerite Carter; and Secretary-Treasurer, Bill Shannon.

In May the sponsors entertained the council at Miss Bible's home.

CHESS CLUB

In 1939, the chess enthusiasts of the high school banded together to form the Chess Club. The members of this new organization help to keep alive an interest in one of the world's oldest and most fascinating games by maintaining a record unparalleled in the history of Westfield High. The Chess Club meets once a week to prepare for its interscholastic matches. Although small, the club has remained undefeated in two seasons of play.

Mr. Gaston B. Gesner, whose guidance and instructions have been of inestimable value to the club, is the sponsor. The officers for the year were President, Edward Wittke; Vice-President, Homer Jones; and Treasurer, Albert Plambeck.

LITERARY CLUB

Under the guidance of Harry Holcomb, president; Connie Dean, vice-president; Doris McEvoy, secretary; Warren Bowden, treasurer; and Miss Brinser, adviser, the Literary Club enjoyed a successful year.

The club, consisting entirely of seniors and juniors, holds its charmingly informal meetings at the members' homes on the fourth Thursday of every month. In March, according to custom, the club saw a play, My Sister Eileen, in New York.

Connie Dean, vice-president, served as program chairman and at each meeting reports, discussions and games were based on one phase of literature, such as biography, poetry, or drama. Following adjournment of the meeting a social hour was held at which refreshments were served.

BASKETBALL

Led by their high scoring captain, Jim Kane, Westfield's basketball team turned in a record of eight wins and eight losses this season before entering the County and State tournaments. This is a very good record considering the fact that the boys had to practice under adverse conditions.

In the first game with Union, Jim Kane, Westfield's point making ace, hit the rim for a total of thirty-five points, breaking his old county record of twenty-nine points.

The first trip to Plainfield resulted in a defeat for the Elm Street team, but, on the return trip, Westfield defeated Plainfield for the first time in three years by the score of forty-eight to thirty-nine.

On the first round of the County tournament, Westfield was defeated by a strong Queen City team paced by Ed Kane.

The outstanding event of the season was Westfield's invitation to play in the State tournament. Although the team was eliminated in the first round by the superior Rahway squad, Mr. Freeman was pleased to think that his boys merited the invitation.

Captain Jim Kane was the outstanding player of the season, but the following boys contributed greatly to the success of the team: Bob Gebler, Jack Peterson, Jim Turpin, Joe Zollo, Hugh Ogburn, Tom Brotherton and his famous fan club, Dom Sisto, and the competent manager, Charles Gibbs.

SWIMMING

Westfield's aquatic stars turned in a remarkable record this year. The boys won their eight dual meets from schools, which are on the whole, larger than our own, and several members of the squad placed in championship meets. Considering the fact that the boys only practice three hours a week, the team and its able coach, Mr. Harold Shaterian, are to be congratulated for their undefeated season. The squad defeated the following outstanding teams: Arts High and West Side of Newark, Nyack, South Side of Newark, and New Brunswick.

At the South Side meet at Newark, the medley relay team composed of Ryan, Perry, and Rogers, clipped three seconds off the pool record formerly held by Arts High of Newark.

Following the dual meets several of our outstanding swimmers entered various championship meets. Jack Rogers placed fifth in the 50 yard freestyle and Walter Kelly placed sixth in the century event at the Rutgers Interscholastic Meet. Two weeks later Rogers again took fifth in the 50 yard freestyle and Kelly moved up to take a fourth in the 100 yard freestyle. The following Saturday, to climax the season, Rogers placed second in the 50 yard freestyle at the National Interscholastic Championships at Philadelphia.

Westfield was very fortunate in having such a well-balanced team with several good swimmers for each event. Rogers, Holmes, and Kelly were the freestylers, Ryan, Ley, and Peden were the backstrokers, and Albright and Perry took care of the diving.

With several lettermen returning next year and several good sophomores to swim, Westfield should continue their winning streak in the tank.

Bob Rost served as manager this year and was assisted by Messrs. Connelley, Twaits, and Correll.

Facing a strong Somerville team on opening day, Westfield's ball club, under Coach Freeman, succumbed to a 5-0 defeat. Westfield's fielding was good, but the team seemed to lack good batting. The squad is composed largely of sophomores and juniors, for only two senior lettermen returned. Having fourteen games to play, the team may yet turn in a good record.

BASEBALL

Westfield's ace track team blossomed forth again in 1941. The indoor season included the Dickenson Meet, the Sunday Call Meet in which they won the State Championship, and the Board of Education Meet in which they clinched the title. Outstanding runner Jere Hanson and his stellar teammates, Murray Parizeau and Frank Jones, were consistent point getters. At the Long Branch Relays, Westfield won second place in the mile and third in the medley relays, while in the dual meet with Union "One-Man-Blitz" Kane paced his teammates to a 65 to 54 win. Mr. Goodrich's squad should again secure their outdoor title.

TRACK

GOLF

The Golf Team, under Coaches Mr. W. E. Johnson and Mr. E. C. Allen started off the season by defeating the veteran Metuchen golf squad, at Echo Lake. The team, in spite of being hard-hit by eligibility rules, has several lettermen filling the key positions, and is hopeful of a good season.

Composing the squad are lettermen Dan Williams, Len Ryer, Jack Rising, and Roy La Clair. Other prominent members of the team include Bob Nelson, Ray Taylor, Bob Perry, Baird Mason, and Dick Lewis. Bill Peek and Frank Potter served as managers of the squad.

TENNIS

Westfield's courtmen opened their season by continuing their undefeated record of last year. The boys defeated Millburn in the opener, 4-1. The make-up of the squad is virtually the same as last year, with such stellar performers as Don Tomblen, Hugh Ogburn, Tex Wilson, and Jack Rogers returning to their court activities. Mr. Bunting, who formerly coached tennis at Peddie, has taken over the coaching job, on account of the vacancy left when Mr. Warner began to direct the band. The coach and members of the squad are all trying for the state tournament.

MASK AND MIME

With several highly successful productions to their credit, notably "One Mad Night" with its varied assortment of lunatics, and the Christmas Tableaus, the Mask and Mime concluded an excellent season climaxed by the annual trip to New York. The play seen was "Arsenic and Old Lace."

Under the experienced sponsorship of Miss Johnson, club members obtained a well-rounded view of stage craft, scenery, and lighting effects as well as the actual acting of the plays. The officers were Barbara Mason, president; Justine Bright, secretary; and Virginia Kelcey, treasurer.

CATALYST CLUB

The purpose of the Catalyst Club is further exploration into the realms of science. By means of student demonstrations, lectures, and an annual field trip, the club achieved much.

This year's trip was a visit to the Bristol-Meyers plant at Kenilworth where toothpaste, hair tonic, and shaving cream were observed in the making. Members were most fascinated by the conveyor-chute system moving the product from floor to floor.

Our sponsor, Mr. Rogers, worked hard to make the club a success. This year's officers were President, Jim Wilson; Vice-President, Warren Bowden; Secretary, Frank Irving; and Treasurer, Clifton Corbett.

At the first meeting of the Junior Class the officers were elected. Howard Batt, who is just as popular with the juniors as Jim Kane is with the seniors, was named president; Robert Shurts, vice-president; Kenneth Thompson, treasurer; and Lois Comrie, secretary. Under the able leadership of Mr. Allen, a really grand person, the executive committee attempted to plan intellectual meetings. The result was movies of a Rutgers football game, a talk by a T. W. A. pilot, a "Truth or Consequences" program, college and vocational advice by Miss Dodds, and a baseball talk by an American League umpire. The members of the commit-

Know how you feel when you receive a present—desirous of knowing what it will be like, and yet wondering whether you'll like it? Well, that expresses somewhat the feelings of the Class of '43 as we entered Westfield High School for the first time in September. We had heard so much about high school that we were a little dubious, but were really very much pleased with the outcome. Everyone was so helpful in reply to our anxious queries. We liked the teachers and upperclassmen, and they seemed to like us.

Our first undertaking as a class was the nomination and election of our officers. After tee have had both mirth and work. After all, however, the juniors are a great deal more grown-up than the sophomores, who give lollipops as prizes at their class meetings, and even than the dignified seniors who imitate their inferiors.

After working diligently for weeks to convert the Junior High School gymnasium into a Spanish Fiesta, the prom committees were rewarded with a smashing success. Even some seniors admitted that the Junior Prom was one of the best ever produced.

The juniors are now resting on their laurels, waiting for next year when they will be seniors—they hope!

vigorous campaigning for more than a week, Walter Eckhart, president; Van Snevily, vice-president; Bob West, treasurer; and Frances Crandall, secretary, triumphed in a very close election. Soon afterwards many of us purchased class jewelry which made us seem really a part of the school. Then under the helpful guidance of Miss Foutz, our adviser, we planned our year.

All in all, we've had a rather nice time this year, despite the inevitable handicap of being called "these little sophomores," and we're really sold on Westfield High School.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1941, being of fairly sound mind, do make, publish, and declare this our last Will and Testament. That is to say, we make the following bequests:

First: To "Shadrach" we bequeath a newer edition of his 1903 joke book.

Second: Upon the juniors we bestow a privilege which they would take anyway if it were not magnanimously given them—that of using other than the trade entrances.

Third: To Miss Bordner we leave a genius with light brown hair to help with next year's yearbook.

Fourth: To Miss Colley we grant a homeroom of students who want to be reformed.

Fifth: To senior "crackers" we leave a fresh assortment of cute sophomore "cookies."

Sixth: To Mr. Walter E. Johnson we present one corn fed chicken to hatch eggs laid daily in 307.

Seventh: To our athletic coaches we hopefully bequeath a little bird to tell them when the period is over.

Eighth: To our faculty we leave the best thing we have to offer, our appreciation.

Ninth: Upon the juniors we bestow a small portion (we need the rest) of our tremendous intellectual prowess with which we have repeatedly baffled the faculty.

Tenth: Upon the next twenty-five incoming senior classes we impose the sacred duty of carrying on our campaign for a new high school.

Eleventh: To Charles Grady we bequeath Bill Walker's filing case for detention slips.

Lastly: To posterity we leave the hope that Dame Fortune will ever smile on them and never her daughter, Miss Fortune.

S E N I O R

For the first time in its long history Senior Day was held on a May morning—a really tropical senior day with clouds of rainbow-hued butterflies, a bevy of hula dancers, and a host of zombies, to say nothing of a Janus-sided creature looking back myopically upon winter from the shelter provided by furs and facing nonchalantly the expected heat of summer in what might be termed a "short."

Alas, the morning line-up, the ejaculations of horror and surprise, the exciting trip across the stage, and the wit and humor of WHASCAP are no more. But it is fitting that we preserve the memory of the strange beings that made Westfield necks stretch to the snapping point.

The hoarse drawl of Jim "Gaswell" Wilson has fallen upon delighted ears for the last time. "We the People" and the "Lone Ranger" have died a natural death. The bewitching butterflies have flown. The braw lad from auld Scotia, the fierce evzone from the mountains of Greece, the soldier boys from the U. S. A., and Mr. Chaplin have gone home to mother. "Arsenic and Old Lace" has slipped into oblivion. The various inhabitants of the South Sea isles have retired to their verdant homes and have taken the sprightly monkey along. The female impersonators have limped away to the chiropodist after an agonizing day. The lollipops have been sucked into the vortex of life once more. Senior Day itself has been respectfully buried by some gentlemen who looked like comic opera Russians, and THE END has turned to reveal a half dozen smiling Satans.

That all this should have come and gone without the cost of a single faculty headache is singular. Our only explanation of the miracle is that it must be due to the "principle" of the thing, and to the splendid work of the able committee. Jim Wilson and Betty Walker were co-chairmen of the hilarious proceedings. Their committees were as follows: stage, Jim Kane, Hank Gordon, and Bob Butcher; skits, Marian Bailey, Miriam Avery, Harry Holcomb, Bill Bohannon, and George J. Wilson; music, Jack Rising, Don Tomblen, and Ed Fromm; publicity, Jo Barranco, Dom Ponturo, and Frank Jones; and judging, Miss J. Isabella Dodds, Miss Linda Johnson, and Mr. Walter E. Johnson.

FRENCH CLUB

"La séance est ouverte." With this, Bob Stalknecht opens the meetings of Le Quartier Latin.

After the business meeting, the program committee presents some form of entertainment, frequently a well-known French game. In April "Nisette" was presented at Rahway. The crowning event of the year came in the spring when the club journeyed to New York.

This year the club contributed to the support of a refugee in unoccupied France. To meet this obligation they sponsored a lecture by Dr. J. David Townsend.

The club is sponsored by Mr. Gesner and Miss Foutz. Its officers were President, Robert Stalknecht; Vice-Presidents, Clark Ambrose, Barbara Brown; Secretaries, Virginia Angell, Joan Burgher; Treasurers, Richard Bumstead, Sally Larson.

GERMAN DECLAMATORY PUPILS

Each year the German Department is invited to send three contestants to participate in the state declamatory contest at Rutgers. The students in our classes choose poems to memorize. By vote, every class selects several contestants to compete in our school contest.

Local citizens familiar with German act as judges at this competition in which about twenty students take part. Three winners, Bob Stalknecht, Charles Hansen, and Bob Hohenstein were chosen. Alternates were Hugh Ogburn and Frances Loesch.

At the Rutgers contest, Bob Stalknecht won third place, while Charles Hansen captured fifteenth. This was very good, as the competition was stiff. Congratulations to Bob and Charles for fine work.

SPANISH CLUB

One of the oldest organizations in the school, El Ateneo, promotes both improvement of pronunciation and interest in the Spanish language; therefore, members of this club speak only Spanish at the meetings.

Under the able leadership of Miss Stella Hemphill and Mr. Samuel Bunting, the members devote themselves during their monthly meetings to programs dealing with the customs, manners, and personalities of Latin America and Spain.

The outstanding events of this year were the Community Fair Fiesta, the Christmas program, and the Club's annual trip to New York.

Officers for the past year have been President, Louis Littleton; Vice-President, Joan McCarthy; Secretary, Phyllis Morton; and Treasurer, Robert Rost.

MUSIC

This year was one of change in the music department. First, a new star appeared on the choir's horizon in the person of Miss Janet Grimler who in one season has won a distinguished reputation for her outstanding work. Then, regret was unanimous when Mr. Lenox left his post as the band's leader to take a position in another town. Although he had been here only a short time, Mr. Lenox was universally liked and respected. Mr. Warner, the able former conductor of the band, resumed his old post for the remainder of the year.

Highlights of the season were the annual band concert and the music festival, both highly successful programs. Del Staigers, the well-known trumpeter, was the guest soloist at the band concert. American music from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries was the theme of the Spring Festival.

The orchestra did valuable work throughout the year under the direction of Mr. Lenox and Miss Grimler.

RED CROSS COUNCIL

The Junior Red Cross Council, advised by capable and charming Miss Linda Johnson, has found in addition to its customary work a greater field of service under present chaotic world conditions.

As usual the group conducted a successful drive for contributions to the Children's Country Home at Thanksgiving, but most of the workers' time has been spent in managing a successful campaign for Bundles to Britain and in knitting sweaters, socks, blankets, mittens, et cetera for England.

Officers of the club this year were Alice Harkrader, president; Peggy Husson, vice-president; Norma Westra, secretary; and Barbara Pierson, treasurer.

LATIN CLUB

With their aim the spreading of interest in the Latin language, the members of the Latin Club concluded a successful season during which a trip was made to Rahway High School and several interesting meetings were held. At the Christmas meeting, carols were sung in Latin; at other sessions games, such as Lat'n bingo, were played; plays written by the students were enacted; and talks were given.

The officers for this year were Frank Irving, consul; Bill Hardgrove, vice-consul; Margaret Allen, sriptor; Joan Burgher, corresponding sriptor; Bill Gardner, quaestor; Harold Richardson, vice-quaestor. Mr. Allen and Mr. Bunting acted as sponsors.

SLIDE RULE

The intelligentsia comprise the Slide Rule Club, formed to learn the principles of the slide rule, to teach proficiency and ease in its use, and to provide training for later mathematics.

Most of the members are juniors and seniors, although a few courageous sophomores are seen musing over the more difficult problems. The club has a special attraction for students taking physics and chemistry and for all entering engineering courses in college.

Under the direction of Mr. Walter E. Johnson, the adviser; Bryce MacDonald, president; Jack Ennis, vice-president; and Norman Ley, secretary and treasurer, the group has enjoyed a very profitable year.

PHOTOPLAY CLUB

After a temporary lapse into mixed membership, this year's Photoplay Club returned again to the feminine element. The girls, during the year, discussed their cinematic likes and dislikes, passions and prejudices in monthly meetings. Special reports on subjects related to moving-pictures were given as were interesting talks on such outstanding films as "The Philadelphia Story," "Night Train," and "Chad Hanna." Informal trips to New York were made at various times in the winter.

The officers of the club this year were Jean Butz, president; Betty Fowler, vice-president; Jane Maddox, secretary; Jane Stewart, treasurer. Mrs. Kimball acted as sponsor.

HI-Y

During the school year, the calendar has been studded with many enjoyable dances and programs under the sponsorship of the Blue and White Chapters of the Hi-Y Club. Outstanding among these have been the New Year's Dance, Hi-Y Assembly, with Paul Harris as speaker, and the Senior Hop, in co-sponsorship with the De Molay Club. A joint committee of Girl Reserves and Hi-Y members had charge of this year's Community Fair, which was a huge success. Under the co-chairmanship of Bob Lowe and Bob Shurts, the club's annual Paper Day was the outstanding fete of the year, with more than 100 boys participating. Borrowing trucks from local merchants, ten teams canvassed the town and collected 81,000 pounds of paper. This amount is a new record, being 9,000 pounds over the old record, set in 1930. Because of a sharp rise in the price of paper, the club collected $370. Of this amount $100 is used to pay the club's pledge to the United Campaign and the rest of the sum will probably be used to send worthy boys to the "Y" Camp at Andover.

The Hi-Y Club sent Jim Wilson and Peter Kitson as its delegates to the Hi-Y Model Legislature at Trenton. Jim was elected Boy Governor for the meeting and everyone who heard him speak over the air agreed that he did a wonderful job.

Under the leadership of Arthur Foust, Boys' Work Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and Mr. Walter E. Johnson, advisers, and Bob Rost and Jack Rogers, presidents of the Blue and White Chapters respectively, the Club has lived up to its motto to maintain and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character.

DESTRUCTION'S MASTERPIECE

Alas, and alack, what dire disaster is this? How came this ill-starred vehicle and its unfortunate occupants to such a horrible fate? These gory corpses, that mutilated radiator, the innocent telephone pole—all portray with ghastly clearness the result of wild driving. Regard, dear reader, if you can, the sorry plight of the one luckless victim impaled upon a cruel, cruel spike and the horror-stricken expressions upon the countenances of the other two poor souls who met death, black and terrible death, with the bloom of youth still fresh upon their cheeks. Imagine the wild scream of tires mingled with those of the occupants and the sickening crash followed by the mocking tinkle of falling glass. Picture the alarm of the good townspeople in the vicinity, bounding from their chairs in dismay upon hearing once more that awful sound. Try to feel the deep, deep sorrow of the president of the telephone company when he finds out that one more pole has been ruined and must be replaced by a costly new one.

Let this grim spectacle serve as a burning lesson to all those who would make a cattle range of the streets of our fair city and cowboy over them on their mechanical steeds of destruction. Doubtless the youths in this archaic conveyance had been on a carousal or perhaps the mind of the careless driver was upon a subject far afield from that of guiding his automobile. Whatever the cause of this calamity, we hope that this repulsive scene will be a warning to local "cowboys" to arrange beforehand with the street cleaning department in order that Westfield may be kept clean and beautiful.

A SIGNIFICANT FACT, too obvious to require much elaboration, is the growth of the Campus Publishing Company. From seven to seventy yearbooks in three years, to make us the largest exclusive yearbook publishers in the east.

One way to explain it is to say that Campus is not an engraver, a printer, or any other type of processor, but a service organization well acquainted with the "ins and outs" of yearbooks; co-ordinating all the phases of yearbook planning and processing. Not being a processor, we can cover the field more completely. There is no budget too small or too large in which we are not interested, nor any reproductive process that we cannot supply — letterpress printing, engraving, offset printing, or gravure.

Using these processes to the best advantage, we now make available five different means to a good book. In letterpress printing, "MASTER-PRINT" and "ENGRAV-PRINT." In offset printing, "MASTERTONE" and "VELVETONE" — and in gravure, "REGENTVURE."

All five, from start to finish, are handled alike, receiving the same "Perceptiplan" servicing; specialized handling of your yearbook from the "infant idea" to delivery of a fine finished edition. All five are Campus books through and through.

These five — differing in price only as they differ in desired effect and budget limitations — possess in full those superiorities in appearance, economy, and general effect that have, in three years, made Campus the leading service organization that it is.
