FOREWORD

In years to follow, we, the Class of 1945, shall reflect upon our three years as high school students as the most secure and care-free portion of our lives. If, in this twenty-fourth issue of the Weather Vane Annual, an inkling of the spirit which permeated this period can be captured and retained on paper, the staff will have gained reward enough.

JOHN L. FELL,
Editor-in-Chief.

In appreciation of his untiring interest in student work and the genuine aid he has given our class, we seniors dedicate the 1945 Weather Vane Annual to Mr. Edmund C. Allen.

ESTELLE AIM

When "Sweet Pea" is present you're sure to have a good time, as she's the life of every party. While describing one, she may frequently be heard saying, "It was a panic!" What will enliven cheer assemblies when Estelle is gone?

PAT AKERS

Pat's smooth personality and good looks are unusual. Widely traveled, Pat came back to us after living in Cuba. Her sophisticated charm sometimes gives way to an infectious giggle, but for inside information on this gal, you must go up 20,000 feet.

JAMES ALEXANDER

Well-liked by all who know him, Jim is one of our more studious and cooperative seniors. Although much of his time is spent keeping Whelan's going, this quiet lad finds time to play Santa Claus to fellow workers and unfortunates.

PEGGY ANDERSON

A dark-haired beauty of the Class of '45, Peggy has a sense of humor all her own. We won't forget her superb hockey game or her brief "emoting" with a potted plant in the senior play.

WILLIAM ANDREWS

A mighty mountain of a man, Bill—"Porky"—to his numerous pals—was always ready to replace any three on Joe's team. Conversations are enriched and cigarette stocks depleted by his fund of jokes both old and new.

WILLIAM APPLETON

One of the newer members of our class, Bill joined us from Bristol, Pennsylvania. Preferring to call everybody "Oscar," this would-be biographer of Nevius keeps all associates happy with flashy ties and witty remarks, much to Miss Bordner's dismay.

CAROL ARMSTRONG

Carol is a vivacious girl with gleaming bronze locks and a flashing smile. For three years she has been an enthusiastic participant in many school activities. Carol's choice for the future ranges from pounding the keys to flying the airways.

QUENTIN ARMSTRONG

"Monk" is one of the bulwarks of our class, making up in drive and energy what he may lack in height. This diminutive dynamo is noted for marks consistently above average and an ancient Chevy constantly requiring attention.

DONALD AYERS

Donnie will live in our hallowed hall of fame through his trumpet stylings, cartoons, and serious acting. Even if old Satchmo' never quite made the National Honor Society, a sharp sense of humor won the friendship of everyone who knows him.

NANCY BARKER

A lot of jabbering and laughing at the back of the room denotes pretty Nancy, settling the affairs of state. A fine pianist, she is much envied for her skill. We should feel lost without this humorous, enthusiastic, opinionated miss.

CATHERINE BARNETT

That incessant giggle is just "Bunny" bubbling over again. This popular senior has her more serious side, too, and has earned her position as a favorite senior because of her scintillating personality, dependability, knowledge, and loyalty to her school.

DONALD BARRETT

Friendly, popular Don, appearing to be quiet, is a nice addition to any crowd. This diver par excellence for our swimming team is very much interested in the Naval Air Corps. Here's hoping for a successful future for this deserving fellow.

DORIS BENNINGER

One of the ablest commercial students, Doris is a necessity on the annual staff. She plays the trombone in the band and in a home trio. Among the sweetest girls in school, she will be missed by teachers and students.

GEORGE BERKE

Dilettante of the arts, military analyst, and authority on physiology, Gotham's night life, literature, and contemporary American music of the improvised variety, our George will some day astound the civilized world. Hope you hit that wild blue yonder, kid.

ROBERT BERRY

Able co-captain of the swimming team, Bob was seen at every practice of the season driving his cohorts to death from exhaustion. Knowing the success he assured every venture assumed, we guarantee this admirable humorist advancement in the Merchant Marine.

Way McCoy

GERALD BLOUNT

Class magician, Jerry is well known for his card tricks and pocket thimble; indeed, he was star in the "Magician's Tent" at the Community Fair. In the Forum Club Jerry will talk for hours upon the evils of the New Deal.

INGE BLUEMMEL

Baby blue-eyed Inge has a mania for horses, rides them, and collects pictures of our iron-shod friends. Duluth and a certain c/o PM address are other interests. An able scout leader, she will surely succeed in her chosen profession of physiotherapy.

MARY BETH BOCKIUS

Beth is one of our class's most brilliant students, as proved by her membership in the National Honor Society. Although much of her time is spent on the telephone, she still manages to spread her cheery smile to all.

SALLY BOGART

Sally, the girl with one hundred nicknames, wreaks havoc with those big brown shoebutton eyes. A definite individualist, she brightens our moments in her company, as she is ever painting sunsets or making pungent comments on Home Nursing.

JAMES BOSTWICK

In this amiable character are the makings of a great physician. His usual dignity, coinage of additions to English, quick wit, and full pack of Philip Morris have won him many friends. Try to out-talk him in an argument!

BETSY BOWDEN

Betsy is the smooth little blonde who chews avidly. Is this one of her attractions for that dark-haired AAF man? This year's chemistry genius, she keeps all the girls asking questions. The Cadet Nurse Corps will have quite an addition.

BASKETBALL
WESTFIELD

Nancy McCoy

EDWIN BOXILL

Our class authority on things British, Ed has innumerable uncles in England's armed forces, and is always ready to inform us of any phase of English life. An ardent Yankee fan, Ed is sure to be a success in the Navy.

MARGARET BRADY

Brady is one of the friendliest girls in school and she gets our vote when it comes to a personality poll. Thanks, Brady, for helping all of us with our troubles and good luck in teaching dramatics and speech.

MARVIN BRAGER

W. H. S. would certainly be monotonous without "Moe" around. His ready laugh and businesslike attitude will be a great help in his intended vocation, pharmacy. Moe's zealous activities in Scouting have led to his appointment as an Assistant Scoutmaster.

RUTH BRAUNSDORF

See inimitable Ruthie in action on the stage! She's heading for a career in radio dramatics, where we hope to see "Table Scene" in television. When not rehearsing, "Rufus" is found at the piano, victrola, or someone's hen party.

PHYLLIS BRINKMAN

"Phyl," the sincerest of friends, has as a main interest a certain quarterback from Roselle. However, composing for the HI'S-EYE, and working faithfully on senior writeups also interest her. This capable gal loves sports and excels in them.

CHARLES BROTHERTON

DONALD BROWN

Our handsome class president is a hard and untiring worker who sticks to the job to the bitter end. Musically minded, Don sings in the double quartet and plays the trombone in the "Squires," while everyone else dances the night away.

EDWARD BROWN

Although Ted seems to be taciturn, a friendly personality lies concealed. His favorite pastimes seem to be hunting, fishing, ice skating, shooting pool, and fixing that '33 Plymouth, which takes all of Ted's mechanical ability to keep running.

JANET BROWN

Unruffled Janet, moving quietly among the screaming females in the halls, is one of our nicest classmates. She is dependable, even in a tin drive, and will surely succeed in her ambition to be a nurse. What lucky patients!

KENNETH BROWN

Scientist extraordinary and electrical wizard, Ken is famed for his methods of handling the lighting effects of our plays. Also the playful proponent of many a shock, he is sure to make good in his chosen profession of radio engineering.

SAMUEL BRUNETTA

This musical young man can be heard at any time humming some hot tune and revealing his latest jitterbug steps. Always in a pleasant and humorous frame of mind, Sam, with his many musical talents, is sure of success.

PATRICIA BRUNNER

Peppy, fun-loving, and fond of dogs, Pat will succeed wherever she is with her well-known hearty laugh. When you see that sleek grey car rounding the corner, you can be sure of a lift from this well-dressed gal.

P. JESSEE

DOMINICK CACCHIONE

A winning smile and a handy family car with gas characterize this quiet, unassuming senior who wears his clothes with that noticeably distinguished air. Dom aspires to take up aeronautical engineering as a profession; interest in aviation assures him success.

MARGARET CALLAWAY

Though armed with a barbed wit, "Cal" is nevertheless beloved by her many friends. Sleeping and eating are favorite pastimes of this artistic, pleasure loving gal, whose smiles supply sunshine. Looks, clothes, personality — "Cal" has them all.

JESSIE CARLIN

A member of the New Jersey All-State Chorus, Jessie can be heard sounding forth from the soprano section of the good old W.H.S. choir. Those beautiful wavy locks and sparkling "lamps" have delighted our eyes for the past two years.

JAMES CARTER

Jim is frequently seen after school driving the Vances' florist truck around town. After the war he expects to enter the flower business; meanwhile this amiable fellow is waiting for Uncle Sam's call to the Army Air Corps.

STEWART CLARK

From away back, Stewie has always been present at social functions and at dances he proves himself our only real jitterbug. This curly blond surely fools us all by looking so angelic in his choir robe, but elsewhere ——— !

WILLIAM C. CHILD, JR.

Class treasurer, honor student, serious musician, lover of fine cars, and business manager of the ANNUAL, Willie C.'s knocked-out humor is always present, but best displayed during the wee hours of the morning. Nowhere could anyone find greater sincerity and companionship.

GEORGE CLARKE

Besides being known as a smooth dresser and dancer, Clarkie earns recognition also by being W.H.S.'s football and letterman for three years. George is well represented on the third finger, left hand, of a certain girl in Plainfield.

JEAN CHRONÉ

Tiny Jean will make an excellent secretary in the not too distant future. She flits around school, cooperating with teachers and students alike. Her interest in work and play alike will bring her success in everything she may tackle.

REA MARY COATES

Our able drum-majorette whose blue eyes are always cutting up is one of our most outstanding classmates. One of the roving reporters on the HI'S-EYE, Rea is sure to make good her ambition to engage upon a career in journalism.

MALCOLM CONRAD

Who is that handsome boy winking those big blue eyes at everyone? Mac, of course. One of our finest class members, he is ready to undertake any task, great or small, but is especially fond of "rabbit" hunting.

MARJORY COOK

Look for Margie with the ash blonde curls and with Len at her side. The nursing profession will gain a kind and helpful addition after graduation. Love of gardening and housework imply that this popular girl will make a super wife.

JOHN CORKE

"Corkey," with boundless enthusiasm, made a name for himself on the basketball court and baseball diamond. An ardent baseball fan, he shows special preference for "Dem Lovely Bums." Lafayette certainly will be getting an addition next year.

ROBERT DAVIS

CHRISTINE DABNEY

Looking for a quick smile? Christine's smile outshines them all! Well liked by everyone for her jokes and kidding, she is also admired for her sincere will to succeed. She will be long remembered by her classmates.

CAROLYN DECKER

An accomplished sports enthusiast and scholar, "Deck" has also a charming personality, accented by her snappy clothes. Throughout her many and varied responsibilities around W.H.S., she has never failed to set a goal for us all to live up to.

LOUISE DEITZ

A zestful lover of the out-of-doors, "Deitzie" spends her summers at camp. Also having a flair for piano playing, to which the Duchess will readily testify, this ambitious girl will soon liven up the freshman class at some college.

JANE DENS

Peppy, vivacious, and beautifully blonde, "Densie" is loved by everyone, but with a special ardor by a select few. A hockey player par excellence and one of Swifty's best cheerleaders to date, Jane is definitely a sports enthusiast.

DOROTHY DEWEY

Dot's pleasant manner has won her many friends during her two stays in Westfield. She spends her time and best energies sewing and moving around the country. College and secretarial work are the next two steps in Dot's post-graduation career.

NANCY DREIER

ANCHORS AWEIGH! Nan has expertly piloted her sneakbox onto every shoal in Barnegat Bay. Unofficial member of the Hi-Y, indispensable hockey goalie, and creator of senior write-ups, Nancy also possesses a friendly spirit that wins her innumerable friends.

BARBARA ECKERT

Bobby is the young miss whom even Swifty applauds for her neatness. Always willing to do a good turn for a friend, she is consequently noted for her many friends. Running for the mailbox again, Bobby?

MARILYN EHLEN

Ice-skating, bowling, and Tommy Dorsey records are all favorites with "Daisy." She is often in demand to liven up many a hen party with her dramatic boogie-woogie piano playing. We believe Marilyn should devote the future to music.

DONALD ENGESSER

SALLY EVANS

Famous for her clear, beautiful voice, clever Sally occasionally delights us with a solo. Her chic appearance enhanced her smooth portrayal of Lorraine in the senior play. Who knows?—we may be hearing her over the radio soon.

JOAN EWART

Thoughtful, efficient, neat and fun-loving describe Joan. She is a valuable friend at all times. Practically all her summers are spent working and sailing at Lavalette. We are glad that she decided to remain with us this year.

JOHN FELL

"Blessed" with the thankless task of concocting this yearbook, John has shown his characteristic willingness to tackle difficult jobs. A connoisseur of "pure" jazz and an amateur photographer, "Shelby G." is also famous for his so-called automobile.

ANN FIADINO

Shining black curls and big brown eyes belong to "Fifi." If someone calls her Jean by mistake, we shall understand. She likes not only a certain black convertible (and its driver) but sailors also. By the way, don't forget 1949.

BILL FIELDMAN

"Mouse" is one of our peppiest athletic boys. He was a lifeguard at Point Pleasant and is known for beautiful diving and swimming. He drives a smooth Studebaker sedan and he has a wicked way with the girls.

Marion Halstead

WALTER FORSTROM

An active church-goer and possessor of a different kind of humor, Walter is another newcomer to the halls of Westfield High School this year. A cheery greeting for everyone characterizes this welcome addition to our beloved Alma Mater.

HUBERT FOSTER

Backbone of our football and baseball teams, Hubie is always willing to go out of his way to help one of his many friends. Hubie is also a brilliant, conscientious student as well as the smiling-faced manager of our famous team.

CHARLES FRANKENBACH

"How can I get a date with Charlie Frankenbach?" That is the eager query of feminine hearts, but Charlie, with a profoundly bored expression, wades his way through their idolizing, worshipping gazes toward one true love, sports — almost, anyway.

BETTY GILLESPIE

Chief custodian of the Junior Class —especially "Toad"—titian-haired Betty is one of the most attractive and friendly of our class. She would be incomplete without that huge indescribable ring. Is it emerald, sapphire, or aquamarine?

MARGARET GREENE

Sincere, popular, and fun-loving, Margie is really worth knowing. She is active in sports and outstanding scholastically. When a job is to be done, she can be depended upon to do it well. A girl like this is sure to succeed.

EDMUND GROVER

This collector of records, preferably swing or boogie-woogies, and member of the literary club works for Windfeldts' after school and also manages to maintain an excellent school record. Ed, who entered the school last year, hopes to be an engineer.

BARBARA HALL

Perhaps for her gay friendliness, perhaps for her gourd-swinging ability, Bobbie's loved by all. Prominent in school activities (Service Club president and alto in the choir) she is one of West-field's contributions to the beauty of the Jersey shore.

BETTY HALL

This friendly, good looking girl is that rarity, a good conversationalist. Betty has been president of the Library Council for the last two years. At every opportunity she refers to Panama or is seen addressing letters to a certain temporary resident.

CATHERINE HALL

EDWIN HALL

With music and humor, "Ginch" has been a ray of sunshine in our dreary lives. We'll remember him as demon student in Deutsch, teller of tall tales, and tomcat on the keys for the band of bands—the "Squires."

SALLY HALL

This friendly girl is always fun to have around. Active in G.A.C. and all girls' sports, her name can be found on many class teams. Sal's a grand all-'round girl with the ambition and energy it takes to reach the top.

A. TAYLOR

JEANETTE HALSEY

This friendly, enticing little lass has for three long years provided the High School Band with an expert in the clarinet section. Active in church affairs, Jeanette spent parts of the past two summers at Blair Academy conferences.

DONALD HANN

Although one of the more quiet, unpretentious members of our restless and rather exuberant class, Don comes into his own when among a group of fellows. We are sure he will succeed in his ambition to be a State Trooper.

SALLY HANSON

Attractive Sal, sporting that Hi-Y pin, is always in high spirits and seems to have a finger in every pie in W.H.S. Best described as "an all-'round good fellow, with a heart that is mellow is—our gal Sal!"

DONALD HARRIS

Although we were blessed with "Wimpy's" company for but a few months, his friendly manner, knowing ways, and wise words left a deep imprint upon our social structure. No eager beaver, Don wants to spend his life on a private Pacific island.

EVELYN HARRISON

If you ever want to get in a good mood, go to Evie — her giggle cheers anyone! Beautiful clothes, those oh-so-lovely eyes, and personality plus, make her a favorite with the boys and girls in W.H.S.

JOHN HARTWIG

With ties you can hear a mile away and an eye for women, "Herman" can be distinguished from the commoners at a glance. Active in De-Molay and Band, he is generally a happy-go-lucky lad whose time is yours.

GEORGE HASKEW

WALTER HEINIGER

This skillful equestrian and future sailor is a lover of green fields and salt spray who numbers training crows and raising rabbits among his avocations. A husky chap, Walter made his stage debut as a stalwart cop in "Very Untruly Yours."

BILL HEINZ

Big Willie G.—We 2-1362-M—originator of several famous sayings, has never been known to lack a smile except following physics class. Voted the most valuable player on our football team, he will not be forgotten by us or by many opposing schools.

CAROLYN HEITMAN

Carolyn is that cute little blonde who spends much of her time at the Milk Bar. Everyone who knows that impish grin agrees that "Heity" is an addition to any crowd, and a crowd is always found around this peppy kid.

Betsy A. Bowden

CHARLES HENRY

Cheerleader extraordinary, Charlie possesses pep and vitality which cheered us on to victory in many a close game. One of the founders of the Outing Club, Charlie is kept active planning and helping to carry out the program of this organization.

JOHN HENRY

John, the other famous twin, is the equal of his brother in cheerleading, although somewhat quieter. As treasurer and active member of the Forum Club, John has injected a touch of sanity into some of the more violent debates.

DORIS HIGGINS

The girl with the quiet poise and classic features, Doris has distinguished herself as an exceptional artist. This ardent attendee of rehearsals, whiz at economics, and listener to corny jokes, wears a Mexican rose on white stockings.

WALLACE HIGGINS

A gifted student of the first order is Higgy, whose halo would pinch were it not for such redeeming features as New Deal nating, vehemently displayed in Forum meetings, and virtuosity on that "ill win that no one blows good."

BARBARA HOAG

JIM HOAG

Whenever you hear a deep sardonic chuckle, there's Jim. Very enthusiastic about an Army career, he'll soon be coming up in the ranks. One of the mainstays of the choir, Jim's also in the State Guard and DeMolay.

RITA HOFE

Blond hair, blue eyes, a cheerful personality, and an unlimited supply of energy all go together to describe Rita. As a friend she is one of the best. She loves to play the piano and sing. We know she will succeed.

OWEN HOFSTETTER

Owen's brilliant qualities are lavishly displayed in extremely active Scout work and a keyboard technique which has won him more than one "first." As if it were not sufficient distinction, Owen is also noted for his flaming red locks.

LOIS HOLMES

This strawberry blonde is often envied for her beautiful clothes. An owner of that rare quality which creates assurance, Lois is also a fluent conversationalist. We're sure she'll mount many rungs on the ladder of success as a designer.

BETTY HOWARTH

Ah—to be always as bouncing energetic as Betty! Oh—to receive air-mails daily from far off places! When not rushing off in all directions, she may be found closeted with Mr. Allen, twisting her long necklace and murdering a Latin translation.

TOM HUNTER

With his subtle and dry remarks "Tommy" has distinguished himself as one of our chief wisecrackers. He was a needed man in the milk bar and surely can mix a mean soda. A swell swimmer and diver, Tom was on our class tank team.

CAROL HUNTLEY

Those flashing green eyes are but one of Carol's attractions. Friendly, cheerful and always willing to sit down and play your favorite piano piece, she is well loved in spite of her leaning toward corn and that unquenchably optimistic Dewey button.

BEATRICE INGRAHAM

Somehow Bea has been endowed with abundant good humor and just never grows angry. Friendliest of gals, she always has an open ear and plenty of sympathy for anyone caring to tell her his troubles. Bea is really tops!

Carolyn Andresen.

ROBERT IRION

Bob is the owner of a green Ford. His attendance at the sand-lot football games was responsible for many bruises, as well as touch-downs. Old Greenwich must have a special enchantment for him, as many of his own week-ends are spent there.

LOIS JACK

"Loie" has that black naturally curly hair that everyone loves. Interested in everything, she makes a wonderful companion and certainly knows how to entertain her friends. Her spare time is spent mainly on letters to more than one G. I.

EVERETT JACKSON

Active fellow, good natured and studious, Pete likes all the latest jokes. Although rather short he isn't afraid to argue with someone of greater stature. This member of the double quartet has eyes set toward the Navy.

TOM JENKINS

Who's that swooningly handsome fellow with a knack for forensics? Of course, it's Tommy, that varsity member adept at wicked passes and discus throwing who is also a treasurer of the Hi-Y. The B.B.'s lost a member, thanks to the junior class.

DOROTHY JESSEE

Frequently subtle humorous remarks make Dottie Mae a source of endless amusement in spite of her quiet manner. Her compatibility has made her many friends, and she has gained a reputation for helpfulness in giving friendly advice and making things go.

F. Jessee

ELEANOR JOHNSON

"Susie" is the girl who has been blessed with an ever-lasting smile. Besides the fact that she often meets John before fourth period, "Susie" also likes the Coast Guard and has proven herself capable of knitting blue sweaters.

WALTER E. JOHNSON, III

Wally, known for his infectious grin and hatred for cats, is an active Hi-Y member, flying enthusiast, and Air Corps reservist. "Cosmo" of the five Moes is at his best rat racing a fliver along the Watchung Mountain Trail.

CAMPBELL JONES

Gentleman, musician, scholar, and wit describe Jonesy to the unknowing. Although torn between his two loves, piano playing and physics, Campbell can always find time to stop to "swap a little dirt" with his friends.

DAVID LUESSENHOP

The summer of 1944 "Dave" took an accelerated junior course at Pingry in order to graduate with us. He received his letter as a needed man on our football team. David, our sweater boy, is the school's first two year man.

TOM JONES

In the Mask and Mime Club as stage manager and council member, Tom is one of our better "shovelers" — strictly from the cornfields of Nebraska. Although he is more the happy-go-lucky type, this rollicking lad also finds time for his studies.

HILDRUD KELLOGG

Hildrud is the lucky possessor of adorable dimples. She has the most infectious giggle of anyone we know; and when she laughs, the world laughs with her. We wonder why Hildrud is so partial to "My Wild Irish Rose."

RITA KELLY

A real Irish lass in name, temperament, and looks, "Kelly" is an asset to any gathering. One of the few bright spots in first period chemistry occurs when she brings in the notices; the wolf-calls that follow are collectors' items.

Nancy McCarty

JAMES KEPNER

Strike! Flying bowling pins herald what is but a commonplace occurrence with Jim, who is our ace bowler. Although spending most of his spare time working, this lad can often be seen about winning friends in his own quiet way.

DORIS KIRK

Here is probably the first redhead in history who hadn't a temper. All her friends know Doris to be very quiet, but she has a sense of humor, nevertheless, which really shows up when she throws a swell party.

THEODORE KRUSE

Soft Spoken "Doc" Kruse who is renowned for his characterization of Dr. Bradley in "The Man Who Came to Dinner," was a newcomer to our halls last year. However, Mr. "J" will long remember this genius in math and science.

HELEN LAKE

Medium height, shining chestnut tresses, mischievous brown eyes and a scintillating personality — that's Bub. Twirling for the band at football games, aviation and Civilian Air Patrol activities, interest in dramatics are all added attractions well worth noting.

DOT LANTZ

If you want someone to keep you in good spirits, then Dotty is your number. No one can comPETE with her. Not only does Dott roller-skate and bowl, but she also knits.

JOHN LUDLOW

Has anyone seen an old idle mail truck lying around? If so, it's a sign that Johnny is on the job. President of the Blue chapter of the Hi-Y and a star on the baseball diamond, Ludlow will be missed by all.

MARTIN LEONARD

NANCY LEE

Besides playing the flute in the band and orchestra, Nan is known to be a fancy stepper on the dance floor and sometimes has a hard time keeping her dates in order. We'll account for her driving some other time.

DAVID LUESSENHOP

The summer of 1944 "Dave" took an accelerated junior course at Pingry in order to graduate with us. He received his letter as a needed man on our football team. David, our sweater boy, is the school's first two year man.

DONALD MacCLOSKEY

ROY MACKAY

Our dean of impressionistic wit and great fancier of the fair members of the class is sure to make good in his field, medicine. That winning smile, smooth personality, and inexhaustible supply of anecdote will forever linger with us.

MAJORIE MAHLER

Always ready to lend a helping hand and sound advice, this tall, dark maiden has spent the last two summers in the Poconos working and having loads of fun. Artistically inclined, she seems to have a career "mapped by the stars."

ALLEN MALCOLM

Member of the Air Corps, Allen is equally at home in the air or driving a truck. A co-captain and mainstay of the swimming team, he will be missed by the fair sex and the patrons of the Echo Lake Pool.

PATRICIA MASON

She likes to be called "Horrid" although it hardly fits her sophisticated charm. Tall, with long chestnut hair, Pat is well liked by all. A recent addition to the class, she invites inspection of her record collection.

ANN McCLAIN

Always bubbling over with some pleasantly ribald quip, our Ann has an enormous collection of friends. A mainstay of the Service Club, a painstaking student, and a wide-eyed new recruit of the choir, she also sustains an affinity for Trinity.

NANCY McCOY

Big blue eyes and soft brown hair mark Nancy, who finds the RNZAF "interesting." Listen carefully and hear her whispering another tall story, or look and find her munching another apple-turn-over. Band librarian and giggler, "Mac" is sure to go far.

JUNE McENANEY

New this year from Allentown, Pennsylvania, June has certainly made a hit in W.H.S. Mac's known for her cute smile, loads of snapshots, and wonderful hen parties. We know where you got that Navy ring, June!

PHYLLIS McENANEY

Phyllis is a newcomer to Westfield, but is already well-known. Her happy-go-lucky manner helps to make her the friendly and likeable person she is. "Phil" hails from Allentown, Pennsylvania, and her heart is with a certain someone in the Navy.

EDWARD McGINLEY

"Cozy Cole" McGinley claims membership in our hall of fame by virtue of a short lived authorship of a music column, a flashing grin, and a vigorous love for the righteous jazz. Success to a football guard who "finally got down to work."

ROBERT McMANIGAL

Mickey will be remembered by all of us for his unquenchable laugh and his looks. He has displayed his skill in tennis, football, swimming and baseball. President of the White chapter of the Hi-Y and a second Frank Sinatra, Mick is tops with all.

MARIE MEIGS

"Dependability" is the watchword when "Meigsie's" around. Her frank interest in life and her sympathetic nature endear her to all of her friends. Marie will long be remembered for her contributions to committees, publications, musical affairs, and hospital wards.

ELLEN MILLER

Known to her friends as "Elm" or "Mouse," she flashed those big brown eyes in every corner. She is easily "sent" by one bar of Shaw's clarinet. "Mouse" is a brain and yet this never interferes with her fun.

LOIS MINCHEN

A staunch supporter of W.H.S.'s vocal aggregations and invaluable to the orchestra, "Jimme" is known for her virtuosity on the piano, gentian blue eyes, and a modest, calm disposition. We know that the Cadet Nurse Corps will welcome her.

Nancy Mills

DAVID MINTZ

The vitriolic gentleman who bristled through the lead of our Senior Play is, when shorn of that white beard, our quietly humorous Dave. This debonair president of the Writers Club is always ready with his own peculiar brand of humor.

DUNCAN MITCHEL

A stage crew stalwart, Mike enlivens the school with timely quips and cheerful disposition. Acquiring experience with Van Reckum, this hardy Scot now throws paint with the best of them. The Merchant Marine has claimed him before Uncle Sam's infantry could.

JOHN MOORE

An able basketball manager and leader of the town's senior scout organization, Jack has an enthusiasm and some ready humorous quips that help him through many problems, especially those encountered under the rough and ready hand of Mr. Johnson.

BILL MOTT

Prominent in all of the "Better" sandlot football games, Bill also is a fine basketball player and a staunch friend of all. Bill's slow and easy-going manner and cheery smile indicate his friendly personality—quiet and polite.

HOWARD MUELLER

Quiet, unassuming Howie is an ardent hiker and Senior Scout. Active in the Civil Air Patrol and one of W.H.S.'s many model railroad fans, Howie is aiming toward engineering as a career and his tenacity assures him success.

REGINA MULCAHY

Adjectives that describe Regina well to those who do not know her are "business-like," "co-operative," and "orderly." Always ready for a good laugh and always full of pep and fun, Reggie is especially fond of bowling, movies, and knitting.

Sally Ann Bogart

MAXINE MURRAY

"Tweeple" aspires to be a first class journalist. She is news editor of the HI'S-EYE and an active member of the Junior Milk Bar committee. Where do you manage to keep all those Aussies, Max? More power to you!

LARRY NEEB

That little boy with the big grin—that's Larry. His hearty chuckle and winning personality make him a swell friend and a fine person to know. One of our Army Eagles, he will be heard from in the future.

ANN NEILSON

This small piece of Newton, Massachusetts, has just arrived at W.H.S. Interested in all sports, especially basketball, she has already proved an appreciated asset to the old school. Ann plans to return to her home state this fall to enter Wheaton College.

BERNICE NELSON

Bernice, a quiet and conscientious girl, spends most of her leisure time on the roller-skating rinks with a certain young fellow from our senior class. Service Club takes up a lot of Bernice's spare time, but she can always find time for a hello to anyone with whom she comes in contact.

ANITA NEVIN

Anita looks like the girl who can do it. What? Why anything she really wants to do. This individualist turns up now and then, makes a brilliant report, and leaves us. Tennis, psychology and Ibsen are found among her interests.

CARTER NEVIUS

A happy-go-lucky fellow and member of the "club," his "Let's go places and do things" is well-known by his friends. Likeable and cheery with a "peaches and cream" complexion describes Carter well.

ANITA NICHOLS

Who is the girl who — ahem — stripped the gears of that snappy Ford convertible? Who is the little number with that Farragut class ring, those sparkling brown eyes, and the perpetually cheery "Hi there!" for everyone? Why, Nita of course!

VICTOR O'LEARO

Puttering around with firearms is the hobby of Vic, wielder of a wicked axe. Always ready for a drawnout game of stud poker, for a nominal fee he'll set your name up in lights at the Rialto!

GLORIA OPPENHEIM

Just mention Connecticut if you want to see "Huck's" face light up. Her cheerful smile and good-naturedness have made her many friends. Although she spends much spare time reading, there's always time enough to cruise around in the family car.

PATRICIA OWENS

Pat is that brunette with the quiet but definitely charming manner. Not only is she a good student, but also a co-operative, enthusiastic friend. Look for her around town with Hildrud and "Cookie," as they are practically inseparable.

MARILYN PARKER

One of our most versatile seniors, Marilyn has many talents: music, dancing, acting, art, and athletics. Always well dressed, always cheerful, always friendly, we know Marilyn will enrich Skidmore where she is planning to study designing.

DON IVAN PATCH

This rope spinner is the only individual who can manipulate the Johnson yo-yo better than the maestro himself. Don is also a member of the C.A.P. and the Air Scouts. He is one of the more enthusiastic of the class's many aeronauts.

Leslie Johnson

JIM PAULDING

Although you can never tell whether "Kelly" is serious or kidding, his timely humor manifests itself in clever cartoons. This amazing driver even managed to deliver the mail supply. The Navy and a tall blonde are the loves of his life.

WILLIAM PETERSEN

An addition to any group, especially "his boys," Bill is forced to spend spare time slaving over the HI'S-EYE, working at the post office, playing football, sleeping, and driving cars, with or without permission—or license.

JOHN PFAFF

Brother Pfaff's own little world is an amazing conception. We shall long remember him for his singing, piano playing, and his marvelous characterization in the senior play. Such a happy-go-lucky manner has won the constant friendship of millions.

JACK PITT

A bright spot in our gloomy corridors, Jack is well known for his many appearances in class activities. This member of the cast of our class play and aeronautical expert devotes his social activities to a blonde.

GEORGE PRICE

Trading in his uniform for "civies" on account of injuries, George returned to W.H.S. from the Navy before mid-year examinations to become a very popular senior. Although quiet and unassuming, George has the ambition that is sure to make him successful.

ALLEN REED

An active scout, member of C.A.P., and many clubs, besides working at nights, Allen still kept up good school grades. Called by the Army in December, Allen left us bereft of his big smile and friendly greeting.

CLARINDA REIER

Serious, delirious "Baby" is known for her infectious smile and bright eyes — a talkative, inquisitive, peppy, well-dressed girl. Known for exceptional acting, Clarinda received the part of Sara, the maid, in our play and gave a stellar performance.

PEGGY REYNOLDS

Uttering side-splitting remarks with preternatural solemnity. "Rennie" is known for her versatility. She is very well-liked — she has her driver's license, too. Among her many loves are numbered knitting, cats, clothes, letter writing, and Angus.

ALICE RICHTER

No school activity is quite complete without Al's good looks and talent. Cheering, choir, plays, athletics—she leads the field in all. The Navy has the situation well in hand, and Stevens College will gain in spirit and talent.

HOND

MARY ELLEN RILEY

A nimbus of short brown curly hair clusters around one of the sweetest faces in the class. Brains, looks, clothes, personality — Riley has them all. Although she is an outdoor type, she proves an ornament in any setting.

JOYCE ROBERTSON

Tall, dignified Joyce with her lovely red hair is sure to be successful in all she does. Her activities are many and varied with girls' sports on the top. She's always sweet, generous, and fun to be with.

BOB ROBINSON

Returning to us from the neighboring town of Cranford, Bob has thrown himself wholeheartedly into his school work. Tall, lanky, and handsome, this quiet senior has gathered many friends with a gratifying cooperative spirit and manner.

ADELE MITCHELL

DORIS RODEWIG

Look behind that quartette of busy needles and find "Wiggy," turning out more mittens. Another specialty of this class artist is piano-playing, especially "do-its." When a certain someone joined the Navy, she breathed, "Ooh, he's a seaman second class already."

HENRY ROWAN

Mighty tackle and co-captain of the football team, Hank also excels in basketball and track. A member of the Army Air Corps Reserve, this lady's man together with his Packard has left a permanent mark on our town.

HOPE ROWAN

Well-known to everyone in the school for her everlasting pep and personality, Hopie is a demon on the hockey field and in the halls of W.H.S. Ye Olde Schoole will really be lacking something when she leaves its portals.

JEAN RUSSELL

Bubbling over with fun and good nature, Jean skips through school laughing at everything. Active in girls' athletics, efficient, capable and always cheerful, Jean is a welcome addition to any group. Her curly head is a sure signal for fun ahead.

ESTHER SAHLIN

With her heart longing for a certain sailor, "Es" can't keep her mind on schoolwork. "We'll be 'off to the altar' as soon as he returns." Take it easy with those big blue eyes and blonde curly hair, Esther!

JOHN SCHIERLE

Fond of hunting, skating, safe driving, and the weaker sex, John is master of all. This tall, dark Romeo also loves the Navy, of which he hopes to become a part. We surely wish you luck, Johnny.

GUY SHAFFER

Quickly spotted in any crowd with his unruly red locks and generous size, "Red Top" is usually found expounding vociferously on any topic, surrounded by a snarling pack of dissenters. This heroic specimen was also one of Joe's boys.

PEGGY SHANNON

This peppy girl bowls into all activities and is friendly to one and all. Her impish smile captivates everyone and she is bursting with enthusiasm for doing things. Though "Shan" is small, her size doesn't diminish our admiration for her.

ADELE MITCHELL

SALLY SHREVE

Shrevie definitely looks the innocent, literary type, but get to know her and you'll be surprised. Full of fun and wisecracks, she's never still. The editor of the WEATHER VANE may be an enigma to some, but she's a puzzle worth solving.

JEAN SIMMONS

Always ready for a good time is "Sim." She can be seen running around town in the family car. A member of choir, she can be found singing at almost any time. Maybe Jean will be decorating your homes in a few years.

BILL SINGDAHLSEN

Brown-eyed "Willie" is a neat guy to know. He is full of pep and very active in sports. With that beautiful curly hair and good acting ability, Bill received a part in the Senior Play of 1945.

JANE SKINNER

"Skinny," a roving HI'S-EYE reporter, can be spotted by her flaming hair. Whether faithfully manipulating a Ouija board, keeping a diary, or cutting a fine figure (eight) at the Roller Drome, Jane always finds time for Pepper and Gus, cats extraordinary.

ELWOOD SMITH

"Woody" is not so quiet as he appears at first glance. His appreciative sense of humor and ready wit are an addition to any group. A good worker, El is usually around whenever a thankless task must be done.

PAUL SMITH

A genius at mathematics when he wants to be and always active in sports, Paul, when not arguing with a teacher about putting in unnecessary homework steps, can be found discoursing with intelligence on varied subjects of general interest.

ROBERT SMITH

Witty comeback, cheery grin, and perpetual pep typify "Smitty." This actor will long be remembered for his many sparkling characterizations. Even physics problems don't stop him. Our favorite cut-up always finds the bright side and is destined for success.

CAROL SNELL

Carol is a deep-thinker and slow to tell you her ideas, but once she gets started she's the star of any discussion. Dependable, fun-loving, and an all-'round super friend, is Cis. She has been a great asset to our class.

FRANCES SNYDER

JEANNE SNYDER

Glamorous Jeanne, indispensable on the hockey field and basketball court, has been gifted with the talent of playing the piano by ear and has recently taken up the clarinet. "Guess what? I got a letter," is her favorite saying.

JOAN SPACH

What would Spach do without her cops? Honestly, she has made an impression at school as no one else could with that dilapidated old car—her pride and joy. Beautiful clothes and hair plus a likeable personality endear her to all.

JUNE STEGGALL

A winning smile and a cheery nature are two of the reasons why "Jinx" makes those G.I.'s swoon at the U.S.O. dances. This soprano soloist's spare time is spent chasing after the mailman for those "Air Mail" letters from overseas.

ALSON STIRRUP

An appreciative lover of contemporary American jazz music, "Canonball" is the proud owner of a beautiful trumpet and three-year band award. Al is another of our aeronautical enthusiasts, aiming toward a career in aeronautical engineering.

MARJORY STEPHENSON

Though lacking in size, this prominent senior makes up for it with an abundance of vitality and friendliness. Rabid conversationalist and a vivacious personality, Marjory has also proved her competence scholastically and as secretary of her class.

JANE STEVENSON

Janie is noted for her spirited piano playing, glorious singing, and that deft touch at interior decorating which she is planning to develop as a career. When not writing letters, she is showing visiting Australians the town. How's Wilum, Janie?

FRANCES SUTHERLAND

Here's a girl full of vim, vigor, vitality, and vivacity! In the two years that she has been with us, Frances has proved herself a pillar of cheer and optimism, spiced with intelligence. She has pretty hair and a captivating smile.

Doris Rodewig

ERNEST TAYLOR

One of the sharper lads of our class, Zack is known for his bass voice and ready smile. "Stretch's" hobbies are his blue Plymouth in which he may be seen around whenever there's gas to be had, hunting, and Marion.

ALEXANDER TAYLOR

Ask Alex any question about airplanes, and he is sure to give an intelligent, decisive answer. When a piano is being played, Alex is sure to be found by its side, attuning himself to the melodious notes of inspiring music.

CAVIN TAYLOR

Tall, lanky Hi-Y secretary and pass snagger on Freeman's Demons, Gavin is well known for his good-natured humor. No bachelor, Gav's love life has been the butt of many crude jokes and cheers, but he dauntlessly carries on nevertheless.

MARION TAYLOR

LAVERNE TATE

Maestro of the violin, Laverne is a member of the all-state orchestra. In her presence you are liable to spend the time laughing and enjoying yourself. Even those excruciating physics problems don't keep her from attending her parties.

LOIS TELLIN

"Tiny" left W.H.S. in December and is now bestowing her gift of gab upon Summit High, where we hear it's going over quite big. Reports have come back about that housewarming slumber party too! Tellin will never be forgotten.

LEOLA THOMAS

This quiet senior has a very agreeable, good-natured disposition. Basketball, skating, and record collecting are numbered among her various hobbies. Those trips to Pennsylvania bring Leola back with a gleam in her eye. She says she visits relatives!

SAMUEL THOMPSON

Sam came to Westfield this year from South Carolina with his Navy father. This well-traveled fellow's chief interest and hobby is chemistry, from which he hopes to make his career at the University of Illinois. We like that shy Southern drawl.

CAROLINE TOMS

"Tommy's" a feature at her parties with her well-known giggle and her huge record collection—featuring Harry James. Skiing and other outdoor winter sports are a favorite pastime. Friendliness to all will take Caroline on the road to success.

PAULA VON RONK

Being a newcomer this year, Paula has caught on rapidly to life in W.H.S. Peppy and friendly, she's not the quiet gal that many assume, but is always ready to go. Her departure certainly was Somerville's loss and Westfield's gain!

LENA VELLA

A combination of brain and wit, "Lee" is a welcome addition to any crowd, delighting in nothing more than keeping her friends happy. She can cut a mean rug, and two of her favorite sports are bowling and moonlight skating.

MIRIAM VREELAND

"Pete" is a bright spot in the halls of W.H.S. with her incessant giggle and turned up nose. Her endless energy and vivacious eyes are a spark to weary seniors and a certain Army man. Miriam is an active member of El Ateneo.

Betsy A. Bowden

VIRGINIA WALKER

Here is a well-poised, dark haired young lady whose heart belongs to the Army. Though Virginia is rather quiet, she has a bright smile for everyone. You'll usually find her writing a letter to that certain someone.

MARION WALSTEAD

Although Marion appears to be a scatterbrain, in her own happy-go-lucky way she accomplishes much. Music, writing, all the arts, and Zack take up most of her time. Wal did a wonderful job of cutting and designing the class seal.

JACK WALTHER

Co-captain, dynamic power runner, and blocker of our State Champion football team, Jack has a cute smile that does things to the opposite sex. Sincerity and friendliness to all characterize this mechanic, amateur inventor, and natural-born athlete.

DOROTHY WARD

When bewildered or in a pinch, consult Dottie, an established helper-outer. Appreciated by friends for sincerity, she's also distinguished for her continuous good spirits and wit. Dottie's a faithful member of the band and a confirmed southerner.

JOHN WARD

An active scout, Johnny is one of the more polite members of our boisterous class and possesses an expert's knowledge of every mail box in town. "Behind the scenes" in many activities, his eager drive and spirit generously contributed to our class activities.

MARY ELLEN WEST

Sweet, friendly Mary distinguishes herself by being a nice dresser, possessing a ready smile, and having ability to knit a pair of socks in an evening. Sketching and letters to Maplewood occupy the other moments not spent with the "Big Ten."

Ann Thomas

VILMA LEE WHEELER

One of the loveliest soloists of the Christmas tableaux, Vilma Lee has twice been secretary of the choir. Scholastic ability is exemplified by her membership in the Honor Society. Her brown eyes cope with any situation not requiring intellect.

JAY WILCOX

The Junior Prom and Echo Lake Pool are only two projects spurred to success by Jay's enthusiasm. As frantic leader of the "Squires," his ambition and talent stood him in good stead, and as just Jay, his friendly sincerity has brought him popularity with everyone.

ALBERT WILLIAMS

This friendly fellow was one of our most ardent baseball enthusiasts, having been sports editor of the HI'S EYE. Player of a terrific game of chess, as Mr. Gesner will testify, he has an active sense of humor that brings joy to the lives of his friends and adds enlightenment to his classes.

VIRGINIA WILSON

Beneath this senior's quiet exterior lies a wealth of humor and corny jokes. Although homework is not a big thing in Virginia's life, she gets there just the same. Her infectious giggle is truly an asset to the school.

JIM WITTKÉ

How will the Forum Club, year-book staff, Mask and Mime, and hundreds of other activities survive without the ever-guiding, ever-helping presence of Jim. His conscientious devotion to work, friendship, and REALLY humorous wit are important contributions to our class.

ELLEN YARUSSI

This girl of pleasant appearance is noted for her speed and accuracy in typing and shorthand; in fact, she won a certificate for it. At the present time, she is employed at Pyro Plastics and soon she'll provide some tough boss with a wonderful secretary.

AGATHA YOUNG

Where goes the RAF, there goes Agi. Adept at maintaining troop morale, her spare time is spent writing significant little French notes, having Brianne lick her feet, or wandering off with "Wig." She is also one of our most decorative red-heads.

ELLEN YOUNG

Ellen, former Regional High School student, came to us in her sophomore year and immediately won the hearts of all by her sweet, demure manner. The three year choir award testifies to an immense interest in music and a lovely voice.

WEATHER VANE ANNUAL

The Weather Vane Annual is compiled each year by a volunteer staff of seniors with the help of Miss Dolores Bordner, sponsor; Miss Harriet Howard, art adviser; and Mr. Gomer Lewis, financial adviser.

This year the staff has departed from the conventional format of Westfield yearbooks in introducing a padded cover utilizing a photograph rather than the usual embossed design of the front entrance. The senior pages have been provided with a novel arrangement designed by Patricia Brunner. The change from letterpress printing to photo offset a few years ago proved very popular with this year's staff; so layouts have been limited only by student photography and a sense of what is good and bad. Rather radical change has been made in the location of the foreword and the dedication.

From those students who volunteered and qualified for the job, John L. Fell was chosen editor-in-chief. The class treasurer, William C. Child, served as business manager. They were assisted by Jim Wittke, write-up chairman; George Berke, feature editor; Hubert Foster, sports editor and photographer; Marie Meigs and Guy Shaffer, picture editors. Other staff members were Carol Snell, Jack Pitt, Margaret Brady, Elwood Smith, Nancy Dreier, Phyllis Brinkman, Peggy Anderson, Catherine Barnett, Carolyn Decker, Frances Snyder, and Betty Howarth. All sketches were made by the art students under the general chairmanship of Doris Rodewig and Marion Walstead. Typing was done by volunteers from Miss Colley's and Miss Hammell's classes. John J. McCutcheon was official photographer.

WEATHER VANE MAGAZINE

For twenty-two years the Weather Vane has reflected the life of the school and served as a medium of expression for students of literature and art. During this time it has held an enviable place among school publications, winning first place in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Contest ten times within the past fourteen years. The staff has been greatly encouraged by the praise received in the recent evaluation of our school.

Despite the fact that magazines are no longer published in grade schools and the junior high school, more than seventy sophomores expressed interest in magazine work, and a large number who passed tests or submitted proof of competence were accepted. This large staff was directed by Sally Shreve, who was unanimously chosen editor-in-chief. Allen Reed served faithfully as treasurer until he left for the Army. His place was taken by Letty Russell, a very versatile sophomore member. Betsy Ulrich added the secretary's duties to those of poetry editor. Miss Border and Miss Howard were the advisers.

Innovations this year were a large and active Finance Committee, headed by Letty Russell; an energetic aviation department, directed by Dick Coykendall; a scrapbook committee, guided by Mary Ann Schoder; and a Letters to the Boys committee, supervised by Carol Brower.

WELL, kids, you are all to be commended on that fine spirit of loyalty shown

COMING from a warm building out into the open and then back into another building is not good for your health! Nevertheless this is the condition that exists in WHS. Not only is this an eyesore, a health hazard and a waste of money, a fashion head-line in spring and summer blouses and dresses, with the return of the familiar but well-liked round and square necklines still going strong. Boleros might make a return engagement after several years' absence.

HI'S - EYE

With Ruthie Braunsdorf as editor-in-chief, the HI'S-EYE, published by the second year journalism class, appears every other week. News stories, features, girls' and boys' sports, and editorials are presented in this four-page paper which is maintained by funds received from the bi-annual Community Fair and the Student Activities Fund.

Through the efforts of Marion Walstead and Virginia Dannehowër, such features as "Lulu's Log" and "Happy Heartache Healers" were offered. Sports were handled by Jane Rogers and Loren Rodewig; Ann Braham was associate editor; Eve Lapeyrouse, managing editor; Maxine Murray, news editor; Mike Bivona, exchange editor; and Phyllis Brinkman, circulation manager. Mr. Donald Babcock succeeded Mr. Robert L. Foose as sponsor this year.

To provide variety pleasing to all, the staff published the Honor Roll. Also second page material included a servicemen column to keep the students well posted on addresses and ranking of men in the service. "Here and There" gives details of the parties, teas, and other doings of subscribers. "Around the Clubhouse" told of the activities of the many high school organizations.

On account of war-time transportation restrictions, the staff was unable to attend the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Convention this spring. This event is looked forward to eagerly; so it is hoped that circumstances will prove more favorable next year.

ART CLUB

This year the Art Club has been active in the war effort as well as in furthering the interests of school and town organizations. The club sent menu covers at Christmas time to Navy men aboard ship and also designed Easter cards for the service men at Lyons Hospital. To advertise town functions, the club filled many requests for posters on the paper collection and scrap drives, and also decorated store windows for the United War Campaign. To aid the school, the members advertised the Community Fair and the Senior Play. They, together with the regular art classes, made the sketches of school life for the year-book. In the latter part of January, Marion Walstead, a member of the club, designed the Senior Class seal.

Several members of the club entered some of their best sketches, posters, and water colors in the annual High School Art Exhibition at Bamberger's in Newark.

In February the club planned an exhibit to show the school the different types of work the members had been doing.

The officers for the year were President, Bill Singdahlsen; Vice-President, Leslie Johnson; Secretary, Adele Mitchell; and Treasurer, Tommy Wilson. Miss Howard sponsors this organization.

LE QUARTIER LATIN

Under the able sponsorship of Mr. Gaston Gesner and Miss Gertrude Foutz, the French Club has thrived on a growing membership. Varied programs of interest to all were ably presented at the monthly meetings. The entire group did remarkable work at the Community Fair, presenting a humorous skit that was very well received by the audience, while gaily costumed waitresses and flower girls enlivened the activity of the festive French Café. Refreshments were prepared by capable, white-clad chefs.

This year's officers were Jane Skinner, president; Carol Rasmussen, first vice-president; June Crehore, second vice-president; Claire Hamilton, secretary; and Glenn Taylor, treasurer.

EL ATENEO

Fostering better relations with Latin America is the splendid function of the Spanish Club. This year much was accomplished through bringing Spanish culture to the Community Fair by means of songs, souvenirs, and dances.

During the first semester the club is limited to second and third year students, but after an impressive initiation in January first year students are admitted. Under the capable sponsorship of Miss Stella Hemphill and Mr. Samuel Bunting, an enjoyable and varied program was planned by the following officers: President, Reed Warburton; Vice-President, Dorothy Ward; Treasurer, Carol Huntley; Secretary, Rita Hofe; and Corresponding Secretary, Katherine Sperry.

GERMAN CLUB

Carrying on its program of learning about and stimulating interest in the German language, culture, and customs, the German Club, only in its second year, was an active influence in the school.

At the Community Fair the club presented a program built around a German Christmas. The girls' cafeteria was converted into a café and decorated with a Christmas tree and other appropriate embellishments. Some of these were made by several present and former students. Refreshments were served and Pfeffernuesse, Marzipan, and German Christmas cards were sold.

The officers this year were James Bostwick, president; Kenneth Brown, vice-president and treasurer; and Ellen Miller, secretary. The organization owes its success to its sponsor, Mr. Mowen.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club, sponsored by Miss Gertrude Foutz and Mr. Edmund Allen, was established in 1932 to stimulate interest in Roman life and customs. Any students who are or have been Latin students are eligible for membership.

The officers were Consul, Bill Holaday; Vice-Consul, Margaret Brady; Scriptor, Phyllis Antle; and Quaestors, Margery Rost and Bill Smyers. They conducted programs featuring Latin crossword puzzles, riddles, songs, plays, and vocabulary games. Interesting talks on Latin subjects such as the Saturnalia also were presented. In the spring the Rahway Club members were guest performers at a meeting followed by delicious refreshments.

LITERARY CLUB

Each month throughout the year the Literary Club meets at the homes of members to discuss current best sellers and classics. Games in which book titles and authors are featured furnish many an enjoyable as well as instructive evening. The highlight of the year's activities is the annual theatre trip to New York.

The club is composed of fifty members whose common interest in good literature makes for a congenial group. Programs are planned for each meeting by a program committee, and the club is sponsored by Miss Margaret Dietrich.

WRITERS' CLUB

Those who aspire to write can receive help and inspiration, and have their poems, essays, and stories judged and criticized at the Writers' Club. Some of these creative efforts have found publication in the WEATHER VANE, while others were added to the illustrated booklet which the members have compiled.

The club is composed of forty sophomores, juniors, and seniors, who meet with Miss Dietrich, the sponsor, at the homes of the members once each month. All look forward to the annual theater trip to New York.

The officers for the year were President, David Mintz; Vice-President, Albert Jeffers; Secretary, Maxine Murray; and Treasurer, John Leeming.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

The Library Council renders very important service to the school and the library. Doing everything from carrying refreshments to collating books, the members learn that there is more to library work than meets the eye.

Two periods a week are contributed by each member for such rewarding jobs as pasting and stamping books, signing slips, straightening magazines, writing overdue cards, and charging books. Besides these duties there are out-of-town meetings, war work, correspondence and treasure hunts to provide a full program.

This year's officers were Betty Hall, president; Agatha Young, vice-president; and Nancy Dreier, secretary-treasurer. Miss Bible and Miss Scott are advisers.

COLLECTORS' CLUB

Eligibility in this club means having a collection, any collection. Service insignia, shells, maps, airplane pictures, automobile catalogues, stamps, bells, timetables, spoons, coins, butterflies—all have their devotees.

At the monthly meetings one or more members give short talks and exhibit their collections, and refreshments are served. A trip to New York is scheduled for spring.

Miss Olive Hammell, the sponsor, directed the activities of the club with the help of the officers, Wallace Higgins, president; Ed Christian, vice-president; Virginia Walker, secretary; and Jean Thompson, treasurer.

COUNCIL OF PRESIDENTS

With Bill Child as chairman and Carolyn Decker as secretary, the Council of Presidents began functioning last fall under the expert direction of Mr. William H. Warner.

In the past, student opinion has been expressed through the many clubs, but in recent years the need of a governing body to coordinate the club activities and supply an outlet for student opinion has been felt. Instead of establishing the usual type of student council consisting of representatives from each homeroom, it was decided by a group of students and teachers to try out a council made up of the presidents of the various school clubs.

This year has been a trial year to determine whether this organization answers the needs of the school. If it proves successful, a formal constitution will be drawn up and the organization will become a permanent one.

Like most student councils the Council of Presidents concerns itself with problems about the school. Among the activities undertaken this year were recording extracurricular activity points, sponsoring Youth Week, obtaining an honor roll for servicemen who have lost their lives in World War II, co-operating with the P.T.A., and publishing the handbook.

Two social functions have been held this year, a tea given for the faculty and the council in the fall and a luncheon for the council in the spring.

MR. WILLIAM H. WARNER

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Westfield Chapter of the National Honor Society during the year 1944-45 has endeavored to maintain the standard set for it by its creed: to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage development of character in the pupils of the Westfield High School.

In March, 1944, sixteen of the present seniors were inducted into the organization. In order to be worthy of this honor a student must be a senior or a junior, must rank in the upper ten per cent of his class, and must be outstanding in character, leadership, and responsibility.

Mr. Warner is the sponsor of the organization, while the officers, all seniors, are as follows: William Child, president; John Fell and Charles Henry, vice-presidents; Margaret Greene, secretary; and John Corke, treasurer. The senior members are Mary Beth Bockius, Ruth Braunsdorf, Carolyn Decker, George Haskew, Wallace Higgins, Campbell Jones, Marie Meigs, Duncan Mitchell, Marjory Stephenson, Vilma Lee Wheeler, and James Wittke.

At the time the yearbook went to press there had not yet been an election of new members.

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club provides an opportunity for students who enjoy playing chess to match themselves against others of the same caliber. It also supplies a means for those who would like to learn to play chess to do so.

The club has been active since 1938. From its ranks come the members of the Westfield High School Chess Team, probably the most successful team in the school. In the last five years it has had twenty-eight matches with neighboring schools, losing none, tying one, and winning the rest.

Mr. Gaston B. Gesner is the club's coach and sponsor; the present officers are Campbell Jones, president, and Al Williams, secretary-treasurer.

OUTING CLUB

The Outing Club does everything and anything the members desire. At different times during the past year they went skiing, tobogganing, skating, hiking, bicycling, and even bowling. Their purpose is to enjoy themselves in the out of doors and by participation in sports.

The club was started this year when an interested group obtained the necessary permission and drafted as their sponsor Miss Dietrich. When Miss Theurer, who had hiked with the American Youth Hostel, joined the faculty, she assumed full responsibility for the club.

Everyone is looking forward to an even more active and more enjoyable program next year.

CATALYST CLUB

The purpose of the Catalyst Club is to further the interest of students in chemistry, but all students taking science courses are eligible for membership.

The varied programs included a series of experiments and two motion pictures entitled "To Each Other" and "Steel—Man's Servant." In collaboration with physics students, the group presented a science show at the Community Fair that consisted of entertaining and unusual demonstrations.

The sponsor, Mr. James C. Montgomery, gave much invaluable assistance to the club and its officers, President, Jack Pitt; Vice-President and Treasurer, George Haskew; and Secretary, Duncan Mitchel.

SLIDE RULE CLUB

Although the Slide Rule Club is small, it has been active during the school year, and every member has made progress. At the club's first meeting the members were taught how to use the slide rule, and from then on the boys progressed to harder and harder problems until they took up difficult physics and chemistry problems during the last few meetings.

The majority of the members are juniors and seniors. However, there are a few sophomores preparing for their future mathematical work.

GUIDANCE COUNCIL

The Guidance Council, with the able assistance of Miss J. Isabella Dodds and Miss Mildred Fox, is a liaison group between the homeroom and the guidance office. Each homeroom has a representative to make sure that each student is reached.

In the Guidance Council are discussed subjects of interest or importance to the school. Reports of these discussions often encourage homeroom discussion on such subjects as study methods, courtesy, and choices of colleges and scholarships. Here too is introduced information on material available in the library, in testing, in records, in films, in vocational and educational files.

FORUM

Again this year the Forum, deriving its name from the famous meeting place of ancient Rome, carried out an active and interesting program. Devoted to the development of public speaking as well as to the discussion of the vital interests of the day, the group highlighted its program with an assembly forum on "Compulsory Military Training After the War" and a trip to the "Town Meeting of the Air."

This organization was ably guided by the faculty sponsor, Miss Mildred Fox. The officers were President, Jim Wittke; Vice-President, John Leeming; Secretary, Louise Deitz; and Treasurer, John Henry.

GIRL RESERVES

The combined clubs of the Girl Reserves, under the leadership of Miss Mildred Fox and Miss Margaret Dietrich, had a successful year. Besides regular activities there have been bowling and swimming parties, suppers, service work for the Red Cross and the Children's Country Home, and the giving of assistance to a needy family.

The meetings were held at the Y.W.C.A. every other Tuesday afternoon. At this time members participated in service work and occasionally heard a speaker who presented a discussion on personal or current problems.

The senior officers were President, Louise Deitz; Vice-President, Libby Frolich; Secretary, Millicent Merker; and Treasurer, Carol Huntley.

SERVICE CLUB

The purpose of the Service Club is to serve. Its members work in the office, delivering notices and filing; they usher at plays and at other school functions; and perform numerous other duties. In the past the club has been in charge of many patriotic drives.

Although it has been in existence only a few years, it has a large membership, consisting, unfortunately, largely of girls. The members serve on various committees such as publicity, art, ushering, and program.

The officers, President, Barbara Hall; Vice-President, Betty Jane Wichern; Secretary, Lois Jack; and Treasurer, Sally Hall, have planned the activities under the guidance of Miss Alice Pelton.

RED CROSS COUNCIL

This most essential organization began its activities in October by packing eighteen individual Christmas boxes for boys and girls to be sent to National Headquarters. Twenty others were sent to the British Red Cross in Wallasey, England.

In November the membership drive was as usual very successful, for 100% enrollment was achieved.

Box packing was also a pleasurable obligation in December, for articles for soldiers' Christmas boxes for Camp Kilmer were collected in the various home rooms. The group also packed ten educational boxes for the children in the devastated countries of Europe.

Other activities have been sewing, rolling surgical dressings, collecting and packing warm clothing for Wallasey, making scrapbooks, and knitting afghan squares. The art department made Christmas menu cards for the Navy, while the woodworking department made games and bedside tables.

The council sponsors are Miss Hewitt and Miss Pelton. This year's officers included Carol Snell, chairman; Richard Cadmus, assistant chairman; Roy Mackay, treasurer; and Ann Vreeland, secretary.

VICTORY CORPS

Totaling close to two hundred enthusiastic members, the Victory Corps, which still remains the largest organization in the school, has made very definite progress this year.

One of the first projects of the corps was the selling of war bonds and stamps during the sixth bond drive in December. Approximately $25,000 worth was sold, and students continued buying stamps throughout the year from Victory Corps members in homerooms.

A paper collection was held about every six weeks, and it was the boys of the corps who rode around in trucks and collected the paper, while the girls rang doorbells and urged the folks to get the paper out on the sidewalk. An average of eighty tons of paper was raised for each collection.

In addition to this, the corps launched a drive for tin cans after mid-years, and the results were excellent. Prizes to the homerooms bringing in the most tin cans were awarded, and a contest between the sophomore, junior, and senior classes was held.

Anyone interested in doing his part for the war effort is needed and is cordially invited to join the corps.

This year's officers were President, Jim Bostwick; Vice-President, Jerry Smith; Secretary, Alistelle Pettit; and Treasurer, Jack Pitt. Mr. S. H. Bunting and Mr. D. K. Ripley was co-sponsors.

HI-Y

Under the guiding hands of Mr. Donald Babcock and Mr. Walter E. Johnson, Jr., the Hi-Y continued as an active organization. The purpose of the club is to raise the lives of the boys to a higher standard of Christian character by the presentation of an educational program and participation in community projects.

The high spot of the year's activities was the Older Boys' Conference which was held in Westfield during the first part of December. This conference was ably presided over by Tom Jenkins.

During the year, several dances were held at the Masonic Temple and the Y.M.C.A. The New Year's Dance was the high spot of this program. All profits made from these projects were donated by the club to such organizations as the Community Chest and the Red Cross.

At the beginning of the first semester, the annual initiation picnic, a traditional frolic, was held at Echo Lake Park. Here the new members were "welcomed" by the old members, whip in hand.

JUNIOR AUXILIARY

During this school year the members of the Junior Auxiliary were active in fulfilling their aims of aiding the Children's County Home by entertaining the children and contributing to the financial support of the Home. Many projects were carried out with enthusiasm and consequent success.

The Annual Sadie Hawkins' Barn Dance was attended by a record crowd, and apples sold well to hungry football spectators. In spite of shortages of canned goods, a hearty response was received to a request for Thanksgiving contributions of food and money.

Santa Claus made his appearance at the Home with presents, refreshments, and fun for all the children. The Auxiliary also led the student body in the March of Dimes, which made all more conscious of the need for support in striking against Infantile Paralysis. Dances and sales followed, and the organization closed another year by electing officers who will carry on the tradition of joy in giving to others.

Under the capable leadership of Carolyn Decker, president, and Miss Gertrude Foutz, adviser, the girls were able to live up to the fine record set by last year's group. Mrs. Troeber, the Senior Auxiliary adviser, was replaced in January by Mrs. Broback. Other officers were Betty Ann Davies, Catherine Barnett, and Mary Ellen Riley.

MASK AND MIME

With the successful production of the fall play, Very Untruly Yours, and the staging of the Christmas Program, the Mask and Mime has seen an active and prosperous year.

This large club, with its more than one hundred members, maintains its efficiency through its excellent council and its fine committees. The Mask and Mime Council, the governing body of the club, determines the policies and activities of the organization at meetings held at intervals throughout the year. This council consists of thirteen members and is headed by the club president. The club committees, especially the stage and lighting committees, have assisted in the various assembly programs throughout the year and were in charge of the sets for the fall play and the senior play.

The climax of the year's activities was a trip to see a play in New York. This annual visit to see a Broadway production is a tradition and is always a gala time.

Miss Sheila May Callaway, known to her charges as "Miss Cal," was the courageous director of this lively organization, while the officers for the year were Edwin Hall, president; Peggy Anderson, secretary; and Sally Hanson, treasurer.

"VERY UNTRULY YOURS"

SENIOR PLAY

Proving successful from the point of finance and appeal, the senior play choice of the Class of 1945, "The Man Who Came to Dinner," played to a well-filled auditorium at all three performances, February 8, 9, and 10. Written by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman and ably directed by Miss Sheila Mae Callaway, the play concerns the many trials and tribulations that Mr. and Mrs. Stanley, their family, friends, and town must endure during the stay of Sheridan Whiteside, outstanding author and critic, after a fall on their doorstep in which he suffered a hip injury.

Despite an impending epidemic of chicken pox, a serious case of laryngitis, and a downfall of snow, the entire cast came through with splendid performances. David Mintz nobly lived up to his title of class actor in his portrayal of the self-centered critic, Sheridan Whiteside. Sally Evans gave an excellent performance as a gold-digging actress; Don Ayres made a decided hit as a screwball; the Henry brothers proved their versatility and their ability to cope with any emergency; and the cast as a whole delighted the audience.

Credit for the success of the play should also go to Mr. Warner, the various committees, the members of the class who sold so many tickets, and the teachers who aided the production.

MUSIC AND LYRICS BY COLE PORTER

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

This year's traditional Christmas Program carried its inspiring message more impressively than it has in many years, and had an extremely uplifting effect upon those gathered to hear it. The story of the Nativity of the Manger was presented in eight beautiful tableaux, the effectiveness of which was due to the excellent supervision of Miss Harriet Howard, head of the Art Department, and Miss Sheila Callaway, in charge of the Dramatic Department. The students appearing in these were Marilyn Parker, Marilyn Colby, Letty Glimm, Thomas Harms, David Luessenhop, Jack Jeske, Phil Parizeau, Charles Frankenbach, Tom Jones, James Alexander, Joy Borgeson, Lois Woodward, Sue Correll, Shirley Baldwin, Nancy Hills, and David Green.

Miss Janet Grimler, leader of the vocal music groups, directed the choir in fourteen beautifully rendered selections including "O Little Town of Bethlehem," "O Thou That Tellest Good Tidings to Zion," "When All Things Were in Quiet Silence," "Ave Maria," "Hark Now, O Shepherds," "Shepherds' Christmas Song," "Let Carols Ring," "Away in a Manger" (arrangement by Miss Grimler), "Song of Devotion," and "The Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's Messiah. Soloists were Sally Evans, Vilma Lee Wheeler, Robert McManigal, John Ludlow, Roy Mackay, Alice Richter, June Steggall, Charlotte Engle, Jim Hoag, Malcolm Conrad, and Ernest Taylor.

VOCAL MUSIC

The vocal organizations under the competent and valuable leadership of Miss Janet M. Grimler have once more produced a host of enjoyable and inspiring performances for our school and its friends.

The first public performance of this year's W.H.S. choir was the traditional Christmas Service, which in its beauty and simplicity presented an accomplishment worthy of praise. Its next achievement was the Spring Music Festival, at which the great diligence and the splendid training of this organization were displayed. Among the outstanding selections chosen were "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" by Wilhausky, the American Folk Song, "Cindy," "Rustling Leaves" by Thach, and "Set Down Servant," a noted Negro spiritual. Later in the spring the choir entertained both the junior high school and the grade schools with various compositions.

In addition to the choir there are the Girls' Chorus of eighty-six voices accompanied by Claire Hamilton and the Boys' Glee Club of forty-nine voices accompanied by Gordon Crane, whose excellent work in contributing to the Christmas Assembly, the Music Festival, and the Music Week celebration was indispensable.

The Boys' Double Quartette, whose members are Robert McManigal, Ernest Taylor, Malcolm Conrad, Donald Brown, James Perry, Everett Jackson, Roy Mackay, John Ludlow, and Stewart Clark, must also be commended for its excellent singing.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

"Busy as bees" should be the slogan for the W.H.S. instrumental department, for that is what they have been, playing for football games, assemblies, Mask and Mime play, senior play, band concert, Spring Festival, and Red Cross Drives.

Under Mr. Harold A. Warford's directorship, the band and orchestra participated in almost all school activities and gave their fullest cooperation where and when it was needed. Because this was such a successful year for the Westfield Senior High School football team, the band marched from many of the home games as well as to them. The band president, Don Ayres, was the composer of a new school song "Give a Cheer for the Blue and White," which became as popular as any of the old songs.

Athletics

FOOTBALL

For the second time in four years the Messrs. Freeman, Ellis, and May have turned out a State Championship team. Under their great coaching this year's team left behind a record that will be long remembered. Ten victories, no defeats, 203 points to the opponents' 36, a trophy, and many individual honors stand in testimony to a really great team. At the season's close they were awarded co-owner with Hillside of the Group III, Section II, State Championship.

Twenty letters were presented by Coach Freeman to the following varsity players: Bob Dougherty, George Clarke, and Bill Heinz, who were named to the Group III All-State team; Co-Captains, Jack Walther and Henry Rowan; players, Bill Andrews, Jim Chambers, Charlie Frankenbach, Tom Harms, Jim Hebden, Tom Jenkins, Dave Luessenhop, Ed McGinley, Bob McManigal, Jack Reydel, Jack Salvato, Karney Scioscia; Captains-elect, Loren Rodewig and John Chirrona; and Manager Hubert Foster.

BASKETBALL

Although turning in a very unimpressive record, the Westfield High School cagers made up for what they lacked in experience in spirit and drive. Despite the lack of a set shot artist, the Blue Devils were, with a few exceptions, always "in the game."

The team, with no lettermen returning from last year, made a rather good showing in losing to a much more experienced Plainfield outfit in the opener, 34 to 25. It was to be a long time, however, before the Blue and White were to taste victory.

On the eve of the Summit game, Mr. Lewis took over the coaching reins because of Mr. Freeman's illness. That evening, playing one of the best games of the season, Westfield topped Summit 36 to 33 in a thrilling game. A week later, the WHS courtmen repeated the performance, defeating a once triumphant Somerville, 52 to 40. These victories were to suffice for the season, however. High scorers for the year were Jack Reydel and Bob Dougherty with 156 and 134 respectively.

Of this year's lettermen, including Bill Comrie, John Corke, Bob Dougherty, Charlie Frankenbach, Jay Reydel, Jack Salvato, Paul Smith, and Captain Don MacCloskey, four veterans will return next year; thus there is a better outlook for the 1945-46 basketball season.

SWIMMING

A greatly improved swimming team took to the water this winter and enjoyed a successful season. This success was largely due to the coaching of Mr. Edmund Allen and his assistant, Mr. James Montgomery.

After losing two meets to Plainfield and Columbia, 48 to 18 and 42 to 24 respectively, the Blue Devils won the first meet in two years by beating Fairlawn, 45 to 21. Losing again to Columbia 41 to 25, W.H.S. came back to beat South Side 53 to 13. A strong Newark team defeated us 42 to 24, but this misfortune was followed by a trio of victories over Bloomfield, 42 to 24; Pingry, 48 to 11; and Pingry again, 40 to 25. At the State Meet, Westfield took fourth place with 20 points.

The team had as co-captains this year, Bob Berry and Allen Malcolm, swimming back and breast stroke, respectively. Berry placed second in the State Meet. Other Westfield stars were Brent Clarke, Jim Stockslager, and Bob McManigal, all swimming free style races, and Bill Fieldman, diving ace.

Wally Johnson was senior manager.

BASEBALL

Coach Joe Freeman should have a good season this year on account of the fact that there are eight lettermen returning to action. The Blue Devils hopefully face a nineteen game schedule.

Almost every position is filled by a letterman. The infield will probably consist of George Clarke at third, John Corke at short, Bill Comrie at second, and Jack Salvato, a substitute last year, holding down first. The outfield posts will be occupied by Jack Reydel, Loren Rodewig, and Don McCloskey. Charlie Frankenbach and Jim Chambers will do the hurling, with Bob Dougherty behind the plate.

Hubert Foster will handle the managerial duties.

TRACK

With no letter men returning and with two new coaches, the prospects for this year's track team are far from bright.

The new coaches, Clarence Mowen and Bart Ellis, hope to build up a strong group from the new boys. Real achievements are expected from Tom Harms, Bill Mott, Bob Berry, and "Monk" Armstrong, all of whom saw action last year.

At present a schedule is unavailable, but the team is expected to enter the County Meet, the Perth Amboy Relays, and the Board of Education Meet in Newark.

Vic Olearo is senior manager.

TENNIS

Fresh from another championship season, the Westfield High School Tennis Team finds its prospects for the season dependent upon such diverse factors as Micky McManigal's military status and Gav Taylor's eligibility. However, Paul Smith, John Zeiller, and Jim Stockslager show promise as dependable mainstays.

GOLF

The outlook for the golf team is rather grim, for there are no lettermen back this season. Coach Johnson's squad is composed entirely of new men who have to be developed into a team. In the coach's opinion the most promising men are Allen Malcolm, Jay Wilcox, and Donald Hann.

At the time of publication a schedule was unavailable, but Mr. Johnson was hoping to arrange several matches.

BOYS' ATHLETIC COMMITTEE

The Boys' Athletic Committee is composed of the elected representatives on the Athletic Council. This committee conducts the athletic affairs for boys in the school.

Teams are put into competition in all major sports, and all awards are made by this organization. The equipping, financing, and scheduling of outside competition are also conducted by this group.

CHEER SQUAD

With the irrepressible and undying spirit of all Westfield toward football this year, the Westfield High School cheer squad was out on the field in all kinds of weather to cheer our undefeated team on and on. Every game held new thrills and every pep rally renewed spirit. Miss Gertrude M. Swift was the able sponsor. This year some of the talented members of the squad also originated and revised cheers.

Varsity letters were awarded to those seniors who had served on the squad for three years. The recipients were Jane Dens, Peggy Shannon, Jim Wittke, Ken Brown, and Charles and John Henry. The other senior members of the squad were Margaret Brady and Alice Richter. Underclassmen were Marilyn Colby, Marjorie Hohenstein, David Green, Doris Keller, Libby Young, and Joseph Ainsley. An added attraction at the home games was Loraine Day, the four year old daughter of Coach May.

The efficient cheer squad should be given credit for being recognized by all the nearby communities as leading one of the best spirited high schools in New Jersey.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC COUNCIL

The Girls' Inter-Class Athletic Committee, which consists of one representative from each home room, meets weekly to discuss and determine the girls' physical education activities.

This year under the officers, Jane Dens, chairman; Carolyn Decker, vice-chairman and program chairman, Peggy Anderson, treasurer, and Betty Broback, secretary, numerous noteworthy projects were undertaken. The first award was changed to a small white W on a royal blue background. A Lost and Found department, separate from that of the Service Club, was organized under Carol Sanford. Under the Housekeeping Committee, Dot Jessee, Mary Ellen West, and Ellen Miller, several improvements were effected in traffic, safety, and health conditions in the girls' locker rooms.

In the fall W.H.S. acted as hostess school to the New Jersey Field Hockey Tournament. Six Westfield girls participated in the competition; three others filled vacancies. Nancy Dreier made the honorary team, and Nancy Jenkins, Peggy Anderson, and Jane Dens, the reserve team. When ballots were cast at the close of the season for the All-Westfield honorary squad, Phyllis Brinkman, Peggy Anderson, Janet Alpers, Jane Dens, Margaret Brady, Hope Rowan, Marjory Rost, Carolyn Decker, Jean Russell, Nancy Jenkins, and Nancy Dreier were elected. Although six of these were WACS to the WAVES' five, the WAVES defeated the WACS in the annual contest.

An elaborate sports program, a Community Fair game room, a physical education demonstration, and officers' training were all part of the activities so ably directed by Miss Swift and her assistant, Miss Engelke.
