Frank N. Neubauer

B.A., M.A., D.Sc.

1890-1947

On Sunday, April 27, the faculty and students were shocked to learn of the death of their principal, who for twenty-six years maintained the high standards of the Westfield High School.

It is a consolation to know that the last two days of Dr. Neubauer's life were deeply happy ones, spent in doing honor to scholarship and culture through awarding certificates to new members of the National Honor Society and accompanying the choir to Scranton. Significant also was the heartfelt praise bestowed upon him by Mr. Philhower.

FOREWORD

We have tried to make our yearbook a reminder of the priceless experience we have had, sharing together the fortune of living in these years a small segment of a good life and of being shown in these halls a glimpse of the life of the world. Maybe in the years ahead—for we have now come to the point where we are both looking backward ruefully and looking forward hopefully—it will be good to have a pleasant reminder of our high-school days.

1947

Westfield High School
Westfield, New Jersey

DEDICATION

In appreciation of his patient nurture of the minds and bodies of youth and of his sincere friendliness the members of the Class of 1947 dedicate this twenty-sixth issue of the Weather Vane Annual to Mr. Bart Ellis.

Bart Ellis, B.A., M.A.

Of Bart Ellis, a painstaking teacher of mathematics who is an excellent student of human nature and possesses a magnificent sense of humor, a colleague says: "I consider myself fortunate to be associated with this kind but firm teacher of youth. He is known by those who work with him as a thorough teacher, never neglecting the fundamentals because the fundamentals produce dividends." Of the same man a student remarked, "Mr. Ellis is so patient and explains things so thoroughly that any student with a little brains should succeed in geometry." A man's man, Mr. Ellis has been the coach of the fine lines we have had in football for the past five years. No wonder the Class of 1947 is happy to dedicate this yearbook to him.

This huge, rather lumbering fellow was born in Island Heights, New Jersey, and attended the Tom's River schools before he entered Colgate University at Hamilton, New York, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. At Colgate he played varsity football for three years and was mentioned for All-American.

Although many seniors know Mr. Ellis as a teacher of algebra and plane geometry, he is even better known as the line coach of our successful football teams and coach of field events in track. The boys who have worked with him will always remember his valuable lessons.

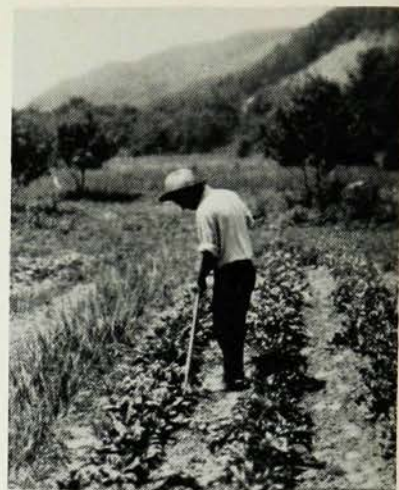

Last summer Mr. Ellis built himself a home in Island Heights and thus solved the housing problem. There he lives with his wife and two small children. Although he keeps very busy, he manages to find time for some sailing. He particularly enjoys ocean racing.

The Class of 1947 hopes that many students in the future will profit from association with this rugged, patient, and congenial teacher and friend.

CLASSES

CAROL AKERS

Pretty Carol, that sparkling brunette, has so much on her mind she's never been known to sit still more than five minutes at a time. Peppy and popular, she won't be forgotten soon. Her enviable maroon coupe certainly gathers mileage.

MARY LOU ALBEE

Suave, pretty Mary Lou may usually be found at the side of her "Jimmie", who is well represented by that gorgeous diamond on her third finger, left hand. Preoccupation with love doesn't keep her from her studies.

PEGGY ALLEN

Dark-eyed Peggy with those wicked sidelong glances is surely an active figure about W.H.S. Noted especially for her neat blue glasses, this attractive girl can be found at numerous hen parties delighting audiences with her inimitable tales.

ROBERT ANDERSON

Well dressed and extra-refined, popular Bob manages to wend his way thru life gaining the good will of both sexes. This handsome lad was our vice-president last year, but he is definitely one of our more happy-go-lucky members.

SHIRLEY ANDERSON

Who's that blushing prettily from ear to ear? This senior hockey captain, besides those fascinating dimples, has that certain something which keeps men captivated. We'll long recall Shirley, her devilish bent for mischief and her ever-present spontaneous laughter.

ALICE ANDREWS

This diminutive young lady, when not busy aiding some less talented classmate in the typing room, may be found sewing to her heart's content on some addition to her awe-inspiring wardrobe. Her continuously sweet disposition leaves us dumbfounded.

BARNEY ANSPACH

Here is an engaging rascal with a handsome face. This year he has been much occupied with an extremely pretty young lady who lives on Elm street, a niece. Barney's car is one of the newer (?) models parked outside the annex.

PHYLLIS ANTLE

Phyl may seem rather sedate, but her host of friends know that her effervescent personality is the formula for popularity-plus. This bright senior is an excellent instance of beauty and brains combined to make a shining example of success.

BARBARA ARNDT

Here we have a truly talented senior, for Barbara not only wrote our class motto but also composed THE WESTFIELD ELEVEN to supplement her enthusiastic cheering. Come rain or shine, she turns out for choir. Finished that beautiful argyle sweater?

STEPHEN AYRES

Second man on the track team, Steve is our quarter-mile star. Besides track he's kept busy by work on the Hi's Eye, photography, and Western Union. His friends will laughingly tell you he is always busy on Saturday night.

LEONA BAKER

Leona is the quiet unruffled girl with a pleasant manner who has hopes of becoming a beautician. Her faithful attendance at the Co-Ed and the Y-Teen club meetings demands recognition because it testifies to her dependability, unlimited loyalty, and fine ambitions.

WILLIAM BAILEY

This Don Juan returns to us after two years at Loomis to fill our halls with his "Hello, Beautiful!" His corny jokes, rat racing, and the way he handles Miss Dietrich have placed him in our famous celebrities' gallery.

SHIRLEY BALDWIN

Knitting sweaters, riding, and collecting records all help to make "Baldy" a regular gal—par excellence. Her angelic (?) nature was shown in her annual selection for the Christmas tableaux. Shirley has gained many new friends by merely "bumping into them."

JEAN BARNETT

Attractive and poised, Jeanie is definitely musically inclined as proved by her membership in band, choir, chorus and All-State. This sprightly blonde, a southern gal, really has a hand in everything in school that's at all important.

RITA BATTEN

That whirlwind racing around the corner is merely "Booze" on the loose again. With those puppy-dog eyes and piquant profile, she is fascination itself. She has that knack of weaving some very interesting tales about her shore adventures, too.

WALTER BAUGHMAN

Handsome Walt is the man with the pipe. His talent has brought him acclamation in cheering, choir, and Boys' Double Quartet. "Bee-Bee" is an aviation enthusiast and pulls a mean trigger.

MARY BAVOSA

Cheerful and lighthearted, Mary is one of the few "brains" of our class who always is on the honor roll. An active band member, indispensable to the Service Club, she is also well versed in such activities as dancing and skating.

RUTH BENDEL

Here one day and gone the next—that's Ruth. But when she's here, you know it by her ready smile and clear "Hello, there!" An elfish face and beautiful strawberry blond locks insure Ruthie's superior charm.

RUTH BETZ

A very conscientious student, Ruth was hampered by a serious accident early in the school year. Nothing daunted, she returned to school to graduate with her class. This girl collects pictures of movie stars but prefers the commercial field herself.

ARTHUR BINGHAM

Perhaps our tallest quiz kid, Art is a socialite who finds time to be a cheerleader, Hi-Y president, and DeMolay Council member. Though he has a finger in every pie in school, including choir and All-State, he secures excellent marks.

PAUL BIVONA

Paul rates high in the Technicians' Club and takes over when particularly important films are shown. This big fellow shuns the camera artist, however, so he was No. 243 on the list of those photographed. It is said he will study law.

DOLORES BODKIN

Dolores, one of W.H.S.'s distinguished artists, can often be seen painting a still life. In addition to this ability Dolores excels in handwriting and academic subjects. Although quiet and unassuming, she is sure to go far in art school.

JOY BORGESON

Joy, surely one of the more animated lights of our day, is also one of Luxie's liveliest cheerleaders. Her serious sincerity spiced with a dash of barbed wit leaves Joy endeared to both our lassies and laddies.

GLADYS BOVINO

Sweetly shy, Gladys definitely has her own way of doing things. She unfailingly brings home the kind of report card parents dream of. Her neatly artistic touch gives her that quiet attraction which is so refreshing in this bedlam of babble.

ARCH BRACHER

A varsity quarterback, volatile Arch is one of the sharpest wits and dressers of our class, always ready to sound off on "Why my Ford is the best car." This popular bachelor (?) plans to take premed at Amherst next fall.

PATRICIA BRAHAM

Pat, the club editor of the Hi's-Eye, has the habit of surprising us with her witty comments at the most unexpected moments. Gifted with an unusually lovely mellow voice, she is nevertheless determined to pursue a business career.

GLORIA BRAUN

This sparkling true brunette is the proprietress of "Handy Haven" and possessor of an unbelievably even disposition. Always exceptionally dependable, she is also graciously hospitable with her house and her Blue Plymouth right down to the last square inch.

CAROL BROWER

This giggler spreads joy "up to the maximum." We'd give anything for a little of that "domestic technique" that keeps us riding. Carol, editor of our magazine, is talented in music, writing, and cartooning.

FLOY ANN BROWN

"Oh, I can't be that naive!" is the pet cry of this demure girl with the gleaming eyes at any of her successful hen parties. Our diligent worker and New Year's Eve waffle maker is really as innocent as she appears.

LILLIAN BRUNETTA

Here is a girl full of laughter and jokes. "Loving Lily"—as she is termed by her best friends—expects to become a beautician. In the meantime she jitterbugs so well that every proficient male cuts in.

JULIE BUBB

Redheads seem to have a streak of mischief, and Julie falls into that classification. She makes a striking picture with her beautiful locks and smooth clothes. The lucky possessor of a beau-catching manner, her eyes really speak volumes.

LOUIS BUDELL

Silent "Louie" is inclined to be interested in the more worth-while things of our world. Hunting, fishing, biological collections, and arrowheads are among his hobbies, and he also remains one of our most active Hi-Y members by acting as treasurer.

JANE BURBANK

This pretty little brown-eyed girl is exceptionally dependable and efficient. For three years she has bullied the recalcitrant commas in the Weather Vane, detected the printer's errors, and even contributed poetry. We predict success for one so willing to serve.

MARGERY BURR

Margery, dainty as a Dresden figurine, is a gifted gabber, a satisfactory sitter, and a faithful friend. Gay laughter, adorable clothes, flowing chatter serve to liven up any party and certainly seem to hold a fascination for underclassmen.

PHYLLIS BURRITT

The short gal with the big gray eyes and shining glance is Phyl. An Art Lund enthusiast who likes to dance, Phyl keeps a dreamy expression on her face but is really filled to the brim with verve and sparkle.

CHARLES CALDWELL

An active church-goer and boy scout, this tall lad is a charter member of the Radio Club and is an enthusiastic "piddler" in applied science. Well known for his famous horse laugh, "Chuck" will make a good agriculturist.

MARY CAMPBELL

Vivacious and industrious Mary's many interests make her a welcome member of many clubs and societies. Her sincere manner and willingness to help anyone out of trouble assure Mary many friendships, and her intellect suggests a bright future.

MARILYN CHANDLER

This sprite-like, dark-eyed lass is truly a class favorite. Well known for her droll, naive remarks and her sudden infectious giggle, she's a constant joy to her many friends. She has that "joie de vivre" shining from those devilish eyes.

DONALD CLARK

Last fall "Clarky" left us for Kansas, leaving a sad gap in the senior roster. We especially miss his incessant drumming on desks when his drums weren't around. Modern music and baseball and football scores were some special interests.

PHILIP CLARK

Better give up, Gabriel—Phil's taking over now. This blushing blond trumpeter has delighted us for the past three years with his innocent jokes and clever subtleties. Success to "Heartbreaker" Clark, one of our most able and memorable seniors!

ANNE COLLINS

"Annie," one of the "coyer" members of our class, has a distinct personality all her own. Among her many interests are driving that Willys around town and devoting Saturdays exclusively (?) to Schaefer's. Everything is always jake with Anne.

PHYLLIS COLYER

This Colyer gal can actually write a poem about anyone or anything. Thoroughly talented in the arts of writing and humor, friendly Phyl is an excellent student and rates high with us by finding the unusual in any situation.

CHARLES CONLEY

Charles, an all-round sports enthusiast and a connoisseur of hot jazz, is a real credit to W.H.S. A true pal, always ready with his pervasive humor, Charles manages to save some of his time for a certain girl in Trenton.

MAURICE COOLEY

Maurice is a veteran so retiring that we scarcely knew he planned to honor our book until we found his fine manly face among our "senior" photographs. We certainly hope this really serious fellow has a landslide of luck.

WALTER CORRELL

This enthusiastic resident of 205 is always promoting something whether it's a hayride, a dance, the Kilroy Poll, or just a quiet evening with the boys. His driving brought Walt state-wide fame and his complete naturalness won him school-wide boosters.

RICHARD CORY

Football and basketball are two of this "vet's" many interests. "Sam", whose most poignant Army experience was a kick by a Kansas mule, has won many friends with his devilish humor and his good nature. That crazy mule just didn't know "Sam"!

MIKE COUCH

Though the cheerleaders have never called for a "Yeah, Mike" at the games, where would we have been without our drum captain? Mike's willingness to help people out and his ability to tell tall stories will stand him in good stead.

RICHARD COYKENDALL

A good practical fellow, even if his head is in the clouds—the better to detect recent models—this versatile senior is our authority upon jet propulsion. "Coyke" aspires to Cornell where he will study aeronautical engineering.

BARBARA CRAIG

Barbara, a grave looking brown-eyed blonde with an engaging quaintness in her serious moments, is capable of practical jokes and pert remarks, which brighten our dingy halls. This band librarian's ability to read dialect proved very helpful in English IV.

GORDON CRAIN

Co-operative, dependable, and ambitious, Gordon is a boy any teacher would enjoy in class or club. Although we think of him primarily as a pianist, he has a wide range of interests and will neither bore nor be bored.

JOAN CREEDON

"Madame Curie" to her fellow chemistry classmates, Joanie is also an indispensable member of the choir and a valuable participant in girls' athletic activities. Once she gets going, you really can't stop her, so Yale and Cape Cod—beware!!

CHARLES CROSBY

Tall, dark, good-natured "Click" is a sportsman plus. He spends much of his time playing football "with the boys" and a lot more time astounding us with tall tales of his Marine days in the South Pacific.

RAYMOND CROSBY

With ties you can hear miles away and an eye for women, easy-going Ray of the "Oh, My Achin' Back" expression can be found afternoons giving his all in Martin's Furniture Store. Friendly and studious, "the lover" will succeed.

MARY ANN CROWELL

This striking blonde with the gorgeous complexion and beautiful smile is not only a beauty but is also one of our best cheerleaders. "Mac's" scholastic ability and her enthusiasm for sports rate her tops with everyone in the school.

ARTHUR CUNICELLA

Arthur, better known as "Sox," is one of the "sharper" dressers of our class. Frequently seen in his Studebaker, "Sox" makes endless trips to Rahway. With his likeable nature and great determination to accomplish things, "Sox" is assured success.

VIRGINIA CUTLER

Jinny, with her bright smile and ready "Hi there" is a cute parcel of pep and vitality, mixed with more than an average amount of brains. Along with this unbeatable combination, she excels in sports and dotes on sailing.

JOAN DANNEHOWER

Our queen of personality, popularity, and pep, because of her unbelievable ease with people, seems capable of having a wonderful time with anyone, anywhere. Joanie and her fatal charm will be long remembered as "just a bit of O.K."

BARBARA DAVIES

Barbara came last year and may leave us for Vermont before the diplomas are handed out. We'll miss this pleasant reminder of the English poets, whose sympathy will soothe those whom she nurses in the years to come.

WILLIAM DAVIS

Bill, who was often seen at the Y.M.C.A. in those good old school days, thoughtfully had his picture taken before joining the Army and seeing the world. We hope that he has an opportunity to enjoy fishing in the Orient.

WALTER DEAL

Happy-go-lucky Waldo, usually emerges from tough situations with a grin. Perhaps that's why he seems to attract women—both here and in Europe. Seriously, though, let's hope he realizes his ambitions to be a real honest to goodness farmer.

PAT DeBARGER

Pat, who's an energetic individualist, has many good friends. She always has a purposeful gleam in her eye—except when she's dreaming—which means a job well done. Very lovely to look at, Pat is a swell gal to have around.

ROSEMARIE DeBELLA

Impeccably groomed Rosemarie is recognized as one of our most co-operative workers. This reputation and her demonstrated ability at merchandising assure success in either of her chosen fields, interior decoration and stenography. She is also an accomplished swimmer.

DONALD DEER

Don, known for his witty remarks and ever-present smile, is certainly an outstanding class member. His excellent 'cello solos and booming bass voice have entertained many. All this and brains, too, will make a fine addition to Denison.

DONALD DICKINSON

Congenial Don can be recognized easily by that curly hair, a "blight" on his existence? Always good for a laugh or a helping hand, this active member of Hi-Y, Mask and Mime, and Cheer Squad will continue to gain friends everywhere.

WILLIAM DOERRER

Bill can always be found having a good time whether in school, at the "Y," or on the baseball diamond. This "expert" on the Acme Market and active member of the DeMolay passes the time amicably kidding his friends.

LOIS DONALDSON

Not one to think things over, Lois is known for doing things on the spur of the moment. No doubt this tall, ambitious, blonde, with loads of cute clothes, will cut herself quite a niche in the future.

ROBERT DOUGHERTY

The whole school's admiration for "Hall of Fame" athlete Dougherty seems best expressed in the words of Coach Freeman: "Courage, loyalty and the will to win is this modest gentleman, the best back I have ever coached."

DAVID DOWNS

This well-poised and witty, linguistic fellow lives up to his membership in the National Honor Society. This ardent ornithologist (bird lover to you) displays more openly to his friends and classmates his natural ability for argumentation.

GLORIANA DUSTIN

Ever wonder who that little gal with the gorgeous complexion and naturally curly hair is? "Dusty." No party is ever complete without "Dusty" to start the gang howling with her innocent remarks. A ready listener, she will continue to gain friends steadily.

PATRICIA EARHART

Who hasn't seen this girl with the beautiful blonde locks dashing to Choir? Pat knows her music (from Bach to boogie) and can really tickle it out on those ivories, too. May that "pink dream", her driver's license, come true.

ALFRED EDGE

Alfie is indescribable! Our swimming team captain and flashy lineman is even more famous for his riotous impersonations. Born to have countless male friends and female admirers as well as to keep us howling, he is one we couldn't forget!

RICHARD ELLIS

Politics, baseball, football, bowling and Bloomfield always bring forth an abundance of conversation from this likeable lad. Though quiet in class and at chess, he's active and loquacious in Forum Club. Here's hoping we read about his political exploits in '66.

B. HANSHEW

JOAN ELY

Don't let Joan's quiet and reserved exterior fool you—this kid's a howl. Getting important jobs done easily is another of El's traits. Because of this combination of efficiency and humor plus a sociable nature, we'll put our money on El.

HERBERT ENTWISTLE

The recognized master intelligence within W.H.S. portals, Herb has all the qualities which make him our own "answer man." Third-year band member and opinionated participant in numerous forums, this six-foot orator is one of our most gifted classmates.

CLIFFORD FAWCETT

Sincerity and typical midwestern friendliness characterize Cliff. This well-mannered but unpredictable fellow has found his place among us. Around 2:30 he drags out his prized possession, his pipe, for a "pause that refreshes."

MARIE FEIL

How could this tall blonde fail to succeed? When Marie smiles, the world smiles with her, for although she is a good student, firm friend, and capable worker, she is best known for her lovely "American-girl" beauty.

BERNARD FELDMAN

Photographer, auto mechanic, and veterinarian, modest "Berney" is a swell addition to any crowd. His expert backstage lighting and javelin heaving are only two of the numerous diversified activities with which this "trumpet tootin' boy" has made himself a name.

RICHARD FLINN

Rich, a member in good standing in W.H.S. Hit Parade, is often seen pushing his '34 Ford to school. Everyone knows his favorite expression, "Heavens to Gertrude," and his winning smile and inexhaustible supply of anecdotes will always be remembered.

ROBERT FORCE

Bob, a lover of planes, with 2000 hours' flight time, spends much time constructing models and working in the Hobby Shop. With his ingratiating manner and fine performance as O'Hara in the Senior Play, Bob will not soon be forgotten.

SHELDON FOX

A rabid Princeton fan, "Shel" is present either in body or spirit at many of their games. Though this sports-minded boy is the proud possessor of a "real, live" television set, no one could find a more unpretentious member of our class.

THORDIS FRAMNES

"Teddy", a pert little girl with the kind of figure other girls dream about, spends many an evening at Norwegian dances. If you look in on many a senior hen party, you're bound to notice this Perry Como fan's jitterbugging.

RUTH GAIDO

When you hear that unique ascending giggle, Gaido is near. Always going places in her car, on her horse, or otherwise, Ruthie, the epitome of frankness and the personification of originality, is seldom seen not wreaking havoc with her favorite chum.

LOIS GARDNER

Piquant Lo is another of those girls with a winning smile. This Chicago product is full of fun and wisecracks. Her English and stenography grades suggest that she will be successful in the role of secretary to some lucky Babbitt.

DAVID GASKILL

Even though this even tempered fellow is of a scientific turn of mind, he enjoys playing baseball, swimming, and driving his gray Plymouth around. His friendliness to new students is commendable and has won him our affection.

PAT GERDTS

Blonde, full of pep and ideas, and always bubbling over with news—that's "Patty". The Hi's-Eye exchange editor and one of its most ardent supporters can boast an unbeatable record of never having stayed home on Saturday nights.

MARY LOU GIBBS

With her blonde hair and effervescent personality, "Gibbsie" is one of those wonderful things that come in small packages. Whether on the hockey field, in choir, or in class, she is just "piles" of fun and as sincere as they come.

ARTHUR GODING

A well-known hot trumpeter in the band, Art also is an active Hi-Y member. His ability to solve "trig" problems and his constant curiosity about chemistry assure us that he will be a success in the field of engineering.

JENNIE GRASSO

Jennie is a girl who makes you laugh about the littlest thing. She has a wonderful sense of humor which partly accounts for her many friends. This studious member of the class hopes to pursue a career in clothes designing.

ADELE GREANY

"Del's" exotic hair typifies her far from ordinary personality. President of GAC, All-State Choir member, mainstay of triple trio, photograph chairman, and one of our more charming charmers, she is one of whom the Class of '47 is duly proud.

BETTY HAESSIG

Ever helpful Betty is a pretty little girl, neat as they come. In summer this energetic senior beams at one behind the luscious strawberries and vegetables at a nearby farm stand. In winter, ice skating is her favorite pastime.

JUNE HALL

"Hi-lover" is the favorite expression of this twirler, who gave her all at the football games. Her habitat last summer was Lavallette where she acquired various interesting friends. June plans to take up a modeling career upon leaving W.H.S.

BETTY HANSHEW

Would you like a picture painted? Well then, Betty, chief Weather Vane artist, is the girl to go to. With her talent and her unusual dependability Betty, who excels in academic subjects too, will make phenomenal progress in art.

RUTH HARRIS

Ruth is that pretty little girl with the heavenly blue eyes, who is frequently seen riding a horse at Watchung Stables. Her loyal friends admire her sincerity, mild humor, and willingness to work hard for what she wants.

ANNE HART

Pleasure loving "Annie" and her shiny Ford made a fascinating study in color. As center half, she supported the Senior hockey team with a firm stick. Among other distinctions, she is our "Miss Anthony" and a constant patron of "Howard's."

PHILIP HAYDEN

Phil, the fellow who always appreciates a joke even if it's on himself, has a hearty laugh and a cheery greeting for everyone. He looks forward to spending his time as a dairyman on a Vermont farm during a cold winter.

JEAN HEATLY

A charm all her own seems the possession of those with Titian tints, and Jean has plenty of charm. Just ask Bobby. This chic girl has innumerable friends because of her interests in life, ability to laugh, and simple straightforwardness.

Jean Brown

SCOTT HEBBERT

The Einstein of the Class of '47, Scott is a radio genius, math expert, nuclear physicist, and master electronic chemist rolled into one. Even if he is one of the quieter fellows around school, he's one of the friendliest.

LEROY HILGESEN

Leroy is an essential member of the rhythm section of the Westfield High School Band. For recreation he enjoys playing football. In his spare time he is an electrician's assistant. Who knows? He may wire your home.

HILDE HINTERLEITNER

What would Hoyerman's be without cheerful, efficient Hilde? This alert and charming blonde gives everything she has to all she does—a sure recipe for success. Proficient in German and several other languages, Hilde might well be termed class interpreter.

LARRY HIRSCH

Larry was with us for only a short while, but his cheery smile was well known through the halls of W.H.S. We wish him good luck in whatever he attempts and know that his bright outlook will bring him success.

ALFRED HOOD

This bespectacled, blond fellow has a humor all his own, which fact his many friends (including a certain redhead) will verify. Al is a sports enthusiast and supporter of the Dodgers. With his quiet determination he will succeed in whatever he attempts.

EDGAR HOOS

The best distance man W.H.S. has had in years, Ed carries his 180 pound frame around the track with surprising ease and speed. When not defending his titles, he edits sports, writes love letters, and figures how to enter college.

PATRICIA HUGHES

Pat combines rare sincerity with enough love of life to make her fun to know. She can be seen hovering over the test tubes and such 'most any old time, for she hopes to earn her R.N. after graduation.

MAURICE IMRIE

Here comes that man again with "Harry", his little black Mercury, his pet possession. Although he is of the happy-go-lucky rollicking type, Maurice is apparently trying to keep on the good side of the police force. Get our point?

FRANK INTELISANO

"Slappy" can always be distinguished by his loud but gentle (?) laugh. It is said he has a way with women even though his hair won't stay down. We hope this bright lad enjoys his studies at the University of Indiana.

NANCY JENKINS

Smooth clothes, efficiency plus and a pleasing personality typify Nancy. When not buzzing around in the "Blue Beetle", she can usually be found amusing (?) people with the latest jokes. "Jenk", a holder of numerous offices, is also an inspired party giver.

FLORENCE JESSEE

"Jessee" is one of our prominent seniors with her interests divided equally around W.H.S. She is made distinctive by her intriguing giggle and cute dimples. This great sympathizer and optimist likes music of any kind and loves to sing.

BARBARA JEWELL

"Bobbie", who, more or less, keeps the Hi's Eye proof-read, is noted for her sincerity, effervescence and inimitable humor. This beauty with those big, brown eyes, has also displayed unusual ability in acting, driving, feature writing, and securing male admirers.

FRANK JOHNSON

Discharged from the U.S. Navy, Frankie has returned to W.H.S. in an attempt to remember some of what he has forgotten. With a joke and a smile for every situation this nonchalant lad helped keep life here quite gay.

GLADYS JOHNSON

Although she is inclined to be very modest, Gladys is an artist plus. Well liked by all, Gladys, whose main interests are movies, books, and all sports, is an all-round girl who will surely succeed in her secretarial work.

HARRIET JONES

Was that uniformed figure seen with Harriet at the games responsible for her dreamy, faraway look? Despite a sense of humor which runs to hysterical exaggeration of any situation, this dark-haired lass will make a welcome addition to any office.

DORIS KELLER

When "Kel," the girl with the flashing eyes and the quick laughter, does something, it is always done right. This peppiest cheerleader, ambitious hockey enthusiast, and talented artist enjoys people and is always trying to make them happy.

FLORENCE KELLY

Florence, filled with sincerity, is constantly building castles in the air. She's sure to reach her goals because her honest convictions carry so much strength. Yet don't think she's the dull type—not at all. Why, at the seashore—!

DOLORES KERSTING

Dolores, in her own quiet way, has made many friends during her school years. An avid gum-chewer, this neat little senior with a good word for everyone has among her many loves, clothes, letter writing, and Bob.

WILLIAM KINNEMAN

Always ready to try something new, this versatile boy is famous for his attempts to get us a new school. This energetic football manager has a good mind and the kind of charm that bowls over the fair sex.

JOHN KRUSE

Affable, easy-going and tired might best describe this Student Council president and National Honor Society member. Johnny, who philosophizes about every situation, is interested also in music and basketball. "Sleepy" Kruse is slow to anger and a good friend.

JOHN LANCASTER

Wherever the band goes, there is Johnny with his horn. Admired by both sexes, he has not, however, yet been snared by any female. Being an ardent sports fan, Johnny has a witty answer for any cracks about the Giants.

HARRY LEACH

"Pud," whose heart is not always in the sky, is one of the better known members of the Seven Year Club. He will be remembered for Model A "Maria", whose other seat is always occupied, and a wonderful love of life.

LOTTIE LEE

Here's a girl who really pinches pennies, for collecting coins is her hobby. Her all-round pleasant personality is reflected in the kind of facial expression and voice one could never tire of. Good luck in business school!

WILLIAM LEITZ

As a science enthusiast, Bill delves into the intricacies of chemistry, physics and radio and is a member of the Catalyst Club and also of the newly-formed Radio Club. His hearty laugh and friendly smile insure him many friends.

HELEN LEWIS

Helen's myriad jokes can boost your spirits when you're low. Since she entered W.H.S., she has been "a woman about school." Unpredictable and beautifully blonde, this siren is one of the most popular and friendly girls we know.

PAUL LITTMANN

In two years, Paul has become firmly established in W.H.S. President of the German Club and an active DeMolay member, Paul prizes, however, his '31 Chevy and a little red-head. Paul's easy-going personality has made him many best friends.

NANCY LOVELAND

Out of this world on the dance floor, Nance has really got her feet on the ground as a Hi's-Eye news editor. A sympathetic nature and a combination of wisdom and naivete made one of Blairstown's most ardent fans a success.

ALAN LOWE

Known for his collection of instrumental records and his "snazzy" convertible, Alan has become a prominent member of the exclusive club, the "5 butts." His abundant friendliness and rare personality have won him a place in our hallowed, dingy halls.

JANE LUNGER

Still waters don't run deep for this effervescent young miss. Known for her practical jokes and overflowing locker, Jane is one of our prize "ya-ta-ya-ters." By the way, Jane, how much rent do you collect on that locker?

EDWARD MACKIE

An automobile mechanic of the first quality, "Mac" has specimens ranging from a model T to a 1946 Dodge. This ardent Giants fan is well-informed, alert and always ready to lend a hand to his many friends.

ROBERT MAIDMENT

Blond "Iggie" is not only a whiz at ping-pong and Spanish but is also quite a lady killer. Bob is well known as "The Sea Girt Kid" along the Jersey shore where he spends his summers.

EUGENE MARCANTONIO

"Moehead" is the fellow you probably hear arguing about some sport event or about politics. Though shy before women, "Moe" is quite loquacious among his masculine friends. When he overcomes his tendency toward laziness, he'll really achieve things.

ROBERT MARTIN

Cars to Bob are like women to other boys? We gals are jealous that the Hi-Y takes so much of the time of this definitely different personality. Those caustic cracks mark him as a lad who can really give and take.

WILLIAM MATEER

"Big Bill" is that easy-going boy with the southern drawl left over from three years in Louisiana. Although new to us last year, he has already made a hit with both sexes and become one of our few three-letter men.

PHYLLIS MATHES

Phyl is interested in horseback riding as a sport and in secretarial training as a vocation. After a three year stay in Maryland she returned to W.H.S. as a junior. She's a good gal and surely "gets around."

MARGARET MATTHEWS

"Light and Bright" truly characterizes this winsome miss, well known for her sincere friendliness. She can often be seen mailing letters to that certain someone at Morgan State. Howard University and school-teaching are her hopes for the future.

GEORGE MATTHEWS

His Navy career definitely hasn't ruined this good looking lad's ability to sing, laugh, and be merry as in those pre-war days. George, a brainy and popular veteran, is one of those graceful dancers and so, much in demand.

JOSEPH MAZZA

Playing a clarinet in the school band and straining his voice for Miss Grimler exemplify Joe's immense interest in music. You can always depend on Joe for a pleasant smile and a jolly word when they're needed most.

JULIA McCABE

Have you noticed a slim girl with smiling Irish eyes, walking our dim halls? Maybe you've seen her behind a counter in one of Westfield's five and tens. She's Julia, who takes an interest in everything that passes her.

LEE McCORMICK

Lee's magnetic personality has registered in extracurricular activities and scholastic work. This king-pin of choir may be found blowing his slush pump, exercising his vocal cords or muttering some side-splitting witticism. He'll be a leader in tomorrow's world!

JOAN McCoy

Follow an infectious giggle and there's blushing McCoy. Red lightning on the hockey field, this petite miss wears a slick wardrobe with an air of pertness we can't resist. The DeMolay has the situation with our darling "Joanie" well in hand.

LOIS MEHLE

Lois is a girl who finds plenty to do in her spare time. The Girl Scouts and church conferences vie for her attention with sewing and drawing. Dress designing is her goal, and we wish her success at Traphagen.

BARBARA MEIXNER

"Mickey's" known to all for her smooth dancing and her ability to get around. Although going to school is hardly one of her favorite pastimes, her subtle remarks enliven sometimes dull classes. "A striking personality," vets quote.

HAVILAND MEKEEL

Hav plays the social and football fields with unequalled speed. An active member of DeMolay, Hav has won many staunch friends and —er—admirers. If he doesn't blow himself up in the physics lab, he should be a great success.

JOAN MENSCHING

This dependable and pleasant girl has been a loyal Girl Reserve member for four years. Her ingratiating manner and her delicious food make her home a welcome haven. Joan is indeed an oasis of calm in these boisterous halls.

CARMELLA MERRILL

Most of Mella's after school hours are spent working in a department store office where she expects to be employed after graduation. Her leisure time is spent attending movies and parties and writing letters. Carmella's cheery presence completes any party.

DONALD MILLER

"Charge," he bellowed and the walls shook. 'Tis Don portraying Teddy in the senior play. We won't be surprised to see him someday shaking the walls of our capital with his convincing speeches. Lucky our politician wasn't born in Russia!

DOUGLAS MILLER

"Doug" divides his time between Westfield Airport and Miss Hewitt's room (where he has a hard time with solid geometry). Doug's main distinction is his dark locks. 'Tis rumored he combs them with an eggbeater. Nevertheless, he's a great guy.

JEAN MONROE

The busy life Jean leads doesn't seem to faze her. Active in choir and chorus she expects to make music her major in college. High on her list are skating, dancing, sports and just a friendly gab-session with the "gang."

JANE MONTGOMERY

Jane, our Martha, is just one of those natural actresses who can keep any class or hen party in stitches. Having poured her enthusiasm into music and sports for three years, she ought to brighten the lives of numerous patients.

SALLY MONTGOMERY

Anyone who doesn't know "Sal" just hasn't lived. With her quick wit and genuine friendliness she's one of those unforgettable characters. "Our gal Sal" hears all, sees all, knows all. Her personality and brain power should lead to success.

HAROLD MONTROY

Harold is known for his distinctive bow ties and his neat appearance. Musically inclined, he plays a violin in the orchestra and also sings in the choir. This likeable fellow is very companionable and brightens up the dulllest classroom.

ARNOLD MOONS

A good-natured grin, an unruly mop of blond hair, and a beautiful tenor voice are this good-looking fellow's trademarks. "Arn" will be remembered for keeping the sopranos happy as well as for his grand solo work.

HELEN MOORE

Helen really loves a good time, and her idea of a good time is cutting a rug, devouring tempting dishes, roller skating, and bowling. With her determination she will achieve her foremost ambition, to become a beautician.

MARJORIE MORTON

Mr. Papale's personable and efficient "newsy" is welcomed everywhere. All Margie has to do to capture hearts, especially a vet's heart, is to smile. If her hard work in the Service Club is a criterion, Marjorie will make good anywhere.

RAY MOSHER

Many think this picture isn't like "Mo," for he is usually seen with his eyes half shut. Reason? Still trying to figure out that latest dance step. One of our basketball stars, he certainly has an eye for redheads.

JOAN MUELLER

Joan's twinkling eyes, sprightly smile and stimulating conversation can snap her fellow seniors out of the dullest mood. This concocter of milk shakes, the like of which there are none, finds time to keep herself in the National Honor Society.

RUDY MUELLER

Whenever you see a mop of blond curly hair, a pair of broad shoulders, and a hearty smile coming toward you, say, "Hi, Rudy". Football in a station lot, a "22" and driving the old Terraplane around occupy Rudy's time.

LENNIE MULINOS

Nothing seems to ruffle that gleaming, black pageboy or to worry the stable mind behind those deep dark eyes. If you hear a mysterious click, followed by a burst of laughter, it's Lennie snapping a photo of some unsuspecting W.H.S. socialite.

BETTY MULLER

Betty joined us two years ago, bringing with her an agreeable goodnatured disposition. Even though an honor student, she nonetheless finds time to enjoy her friends, quench her thirst for jazz or the classics, and knit a mean cable stitch.

DOROTHY MURPHY

Long golden locks, slim graceful figure, very chic wardrobe, pleasing personality, and an endless store of small talk—that's Dot, one of our collectors of antiques, especially picture frames. Just what lurks behind the twinkle in the artistic miss's eyes?

JOYCE NEEB

Indefatigable Joyce can be found rushing through the halls to the gym any afternoon there are girls' sports. Conscientious and always bubbling over with good spirits, this little chatterbox delights our ears with her latest side-splitting predicament.

LILLIAN NEGRI

Funloving "Shorty," who thrives on movies and the latest books, also knows all about the Yankees, her favorite team. That ring on her left hand suggests that church bells will be ringing soon and Lil will be a housewife.

JANET NEIN

This peppy little blonde, who can bring a clarinet to life, was in the New Jersey All-State Orchestra and also the All-State Band. Janet, who always appreciates a good joke, can usually be found livening up any party.

GLORIA NELSON

The belle of Island Heights and possessor of her own '46 Chevy, Gloria is blessed with a different kind of humor. This snappy senior, always bursting with laughter, shines at the head of Miss Hewitt's algebra III and trig classes.

SHIRLIE NEWMAN

With a sense of humor leaning toward the mischievous side, "Shirl" can generally be seen munching on an apple and creating havoc between classes. Shirl's flair for the dramatic and her winning smile will carry her far in the future.

ROGER O'NEILL

Our virile "hunk of man" is with us again after a year at Wardlaw. Interested in photography and meteorology, he aspires to be an aeronautical engineer. As for other pastimes he says, "Make mine music—from jazz to the classics."

EDITH OPPENHEIMER

Versatile Edie, with her friendly smile and sincere manner, makes a lasting impression wherever she goes. An exceptional scholar, sports enthusiast, and an officeholder in a number of clubs, she is the epitome of determination and efficiency.

TONY OTTAVIANO

Known to his more intimate friends as "T", Tony is a well-known character throughout the school. Partial to Tommy Dorsey and women, Tony is destined by good looks, personality, and determination to make out in this world.

LUCIEJEAN PALMER

This unusual lass with the serene, mysterious air is one of the few girls interested in shooting and she is really quite adept at this. Our Annie Oakley has a yen for the University of Nebraska and a certain "Mr. X."

RUEY JOAN PATCH

Bewitching eyes and a soft "Hello" mark Ruey, the girl who keeps herself busily occupied with music, journalism, and church activities. Ruey has a persuasive smile that makes everyone melt in her presence. Lucky Oberlin, with this addition to its enrollment.

PHILIP PARIZEAU

Although Phil enjoys driving around in a '46 Plymouth with girls, he doesn't let these Westfield charmers interfere with his school work. This "vet" has a sharp sense of humor and a grand personality that makes him welcome on destroyers and in classrooms.

S.K.S.

JOSEPH PARRY

From his shock of hair to his ambling gait, Sandy is different. A valuable addition to the music groups, he uses his voice in brilliant debating, on and off the floor. We hear also that Sandy will be a Princeton man.

SHIRLEY PERRETT

Minute red-headed Shirley has brightened many a friend's "sad hour" with her wacky laugh as she comes booming down the halls. Blues singer and jitterbug extraordinary—Shirley is a valued asset to the Class of '47 and to "Mo."

MARY PFAFF

Zany, well-groomed "Puff" is blessed with a tall, curvaceous figure and a gorgeous second soprano voice. A talkative bent and a "purty pink" driver's license help Mary to carry out successfully her duties as president of the Sub-Junior Women's Club.

PATRICIA POLLARD

Seven no trump and she passes! Yes, that's Pat, that tall, dark, sultry girl. With expressive black eyebrows, her eyes reveal a personality plus character which is an asset not only at the bridge table but also at any hen party.

HELEN POND

'Neath those shining curls we find an art genius at work. Whether working on her current masterpiece at Pratt or sitting behind a pair of knitting needles, Helen gives out with side-splitting remarks that she enjoys more than anyone.

ELEANOR PULLEY

Her smile and charm make Eleanor an appreciated newcomer. Blessed with brains, she excels in trig and solid, as well as being an excellent flutist in our school band. We know she'll make her goal, Johns Hopkins, with flying colors.

NORMAN RANDEL

Norm may always be identified by his hoodless Ford and blond sidekick. After two years in the Navy he is very glad to be home. Tho' he has the appearance of a dreamer, mighty thoughts lurk behind those dark curls.

JOHN RANDOLPH

Here's a boy with the active personality and the not-so-active motor scooter. Being president of his Hi-Y chapter keeps Jack busily engrossed. He has attended Y.M. C.A. conferences which he says are interesting. Knowing Jack, we can imagine what he means!

PEGGY RAPP

A "cute," excited giggle and enthusiasm for bowling characterize Peggy. Curly-haired Peggy uses her spare time whipping together chic clothes and getting things done. Because of her friendliness and respect for others, her secretarial career will be a success.

JO ANN REBERT

Adorable and bedimpled is Jo Ann, our ever-active girl who busies herself with choir, cheerleading, secretarial work for the class, and follows football, basketball, and baseball teams. This bundle of sunshine wends her way spreading joy.

SHELDON REED

Although much of Duke's time is spent going to and coming from New York, he always seems to be around when someone wants a ride. We all are envious of the carefree but capable mannerisms of this friendly "vet."

MILDRED REHM

Take a bit of sparkling laughter plus the determination to do well, add to this one full cup of pep, mix well, and you'll have Mil. With the above ingredients we know Mil will succeed in whatever she does.

EDWARD RICHARDS

Ed not only owns a jalopy but is also the possessor of a beautiful horse; so he can go places. His friends appreciate a subtlety in ways and words, while a truly broad outlook on life pays Ed dividends.

ROBERT RILEY

Senior manager of the football team, orator, and owner of the "daffodil yellow" model T—that's Bob. A well-known character, Bob will CONSIDER lending you a nickel if you're down and out. His home away from home is the West-field Diner.

WILLIAM ROBINSON

Bill is one of the smallest but nicest boys in our class. Good in sports, Bill flips lefthanded passes and is fond of ice skating and hunting. By his guffaw you always know twinkling-eyed Bill is coming down the hall.

EDMOND ROCHAT

One of the handsomest men about school, "Moe" is also an outstanding football player, an ardent skier, a good swimmer, and a demon on the diamond. "Moe" is happiest when he isn't studying, but who can blame this outdoor guy?

JANETTE RONNER

An absolutely crazy sense of humor and a touch of the dramatic characterize "Ronnie." This flirtatious senior is joining the Navy as an angel of mercy, and we guarantee as long as Ronnie is there things will NEVER be dull.

ANNETTE ROSS

Excellence in art and chicness in clothes are specialties of this petite blonde. Except when called "Blondie," she displays a smooth quiet disposition. You will always find her humming any popular tune or emitting some humorous unpredictable remark.

LETTY RUSSELL

A snappy stride and a smart appearance mark Letty. Natural ability and will power make her a leader in all she undertakes. An all-round girl, athletic Letty has undertaken successfully choir, debating, and Weather Vane editorial writing and finance.

MARGERY SALM

Versatile Marge stars on the hockey field, has been a choir member for three years, does commendable work in school, and is a remarkable driver. Her exuberant nature and well-dressed good looks make her the life of the party every time.

CAROL SANFORD

Well known in the school for her good marks and generous nature, Carol is also an all-round athlete as well as the editor of the Weather Vane Annual. All this plus golden hair and an ingenuous smile point to big things for this "swell" girl.

FRANK SAVOYE

Everybody knows "Leadfoot" for his exploits on the football field. Quiet and mild mannered, Frank has no enemies. Besides finding time for sports, his Hudson, and a little blonde, he presides as president of the B.A.C. and the senior class.

DONALD SCHIMMEL

If you want to hear some hilarious stories, just hunt up Don. A veteran, he has come to W.H.S. from Virginia complete with blond hair, personality and smile to finish off his higher learnin'. What more could the girls want?

EDMUND SCHISSEL

Hunting and fishing are "Chisel's" pet hobbies. This charter member of the before school smoking club and sportsman plus has ability to make a basketball dance which makes him a welcome addition to any group of "he-men."

BARRON SCHODER

Barron's accomplishments are large and varied. Although president of the Literary Club, he is an able swimmer and horseman. Barron's planning to make printing his life work; and if school work is any indication, he will surely reach the top.

RICHARD SCHUEMACHER

"Rapid Richard" is a well-built sprinter who has been carving his niche in W.H.S. athletic archives for the last three years. This well-liked, hard worker can do almost anything when he puts his mind to it.

PAMELA SCULL

Those crinkling brown eyes brighten Friday nights at Monmouth. If Pam's art work and her job as the Sub-Juniors' secretary are any indication of future success, she will shine in interior decorating. We love this least catty of girls.

GLORIA SERVENTI

Here's hoping we'll see this pretty face gracing the pages of the nation's magazines in the near future because that's Gloria's aim. She has the admirable and much envied habit of doing her work on time and neatly too.

JOAN SHOTWELL

"Shortie" is our idea of the perfect "ad" for vitamin tablets. This sprightly little red head has plenty of that old Westfield spirit. The contagious smile of this one of our "famous five" on the All-State Hockey Team lingers in our memories.

ROGER SMITH

Do you hear a strange noise coming down the street? It is probably Roger in his new (?) Buick. An active member of band as well as choir and a good student, Roger should certainly succeed in any field he chooses.

WILLIAM SMYERS

Hi . . . p! Hip! A dragging shirt tail, a red face, mixed with vim, vigor and vitality, really brought out those deafening cheers. Being bright of mind, quick of wit, and always doing more than his bit, Willie has success at his fingertips.

JEAN SOLLENBERGER

Tall, slender Jean has eyes that have gazed upon the majesty of Colorado's mountains and found it good, but she has adjusted well to life among the gentle hills and dunes of New Jersey. Sincerity and friendliness endear her to all.

CAROLINE SORGE

Laughable, loveable Caroline is called "Cud" by her intimates. Besides being a member of the Service Club and the girls' chorus and relieving the monotony of an eighth period class, Caroline does a wonderful job for the telephone company.

DAVID SPERRY

With Sperry around, life will never be dreary, for Sperry is cheery. Having a serious side too, he is able to excel in math and physics. Dave's distinctive voice is a familiar sound around the "Y", his favorite stamping ground.

SYLVIA STEWART

"Her charms strike the sight, but her merit wins the soul" might be said of Sylvia, who looks as if she had just stepped from a fashion magazine but is also an exemplary student with imagination and taste.

BARBARA STILES

"The voice with a smile" aptly describes Barbara, who intends to continue her work as a telephone operator after graduation. High on her list of hobbies are roller skating and collecting photographs. Are those orange blossoms we smell, Barb?

JOYCE STIRRUP

That Joyce is one of our hardest workers was evidenced by her performance as chairman of the Senior Play Reading Committee. Incidentally, she was up in front when sparkling personalities were bestowed, and she even has a reputation for promptness.

ELEANOR SWART

Eleanor's Boston accent is something we love to listen to. Even after five years in New Jersey Eleanor's heart belongs to Massachusetts, "the land of heart's desire." This bright girl, who is bound to rise, is a faithful member of the Service Club.

RICHARD SYDNOR

This excellent Spanish student was recently discharged from the Navy. His flirtatious manner, dancing, singing, and banjo playing entrance certain blondes. Unusual Dick has an unusual ambition—to be an oil geologist. Dick often visits down Plainfield way.

GLORIA TAYLOR

Attractive, popular "Goo", known for her beautiful gray eyes, is a talented, busy miss. Her most outstanding traits are her artistic ability and good taste, while her sociable personality is shown by her presidency of the Y-Teens and the Co-Ed Club.

ANN THOMAS

Quietly helpful, sweet, genuine,—these are a few of the attributes that make Ann such a lovely person to know. Three ex-servicemen, all brothers, a variety of athletics, and a horse in the garage monopolize most of her time.

RUTH THOMAS

Well-dressed "Ruthie" bubbles over with gaiety and enthusiasm and also is filled with determination to succeed in college. We're sure she will. She is a hard worker, especially in driving, and belongs to the Co-Ed and Y-Teen Clubs.

SUSAN THOMASON

"Tommie's" chief glory, her beautiful blonde hair, was highlighted in her part as an angel in the Christmas Tableaux. She is a demure, unassuming girl just full of "corny" jokes. No catastrophe in school life ever seems to faze Susan.

JOHN TITTLE

Reserved and friendly, Jack proves his wit in everything from his zany jokes to his quizzical glance. This super cornetist demonstrates dependability and popularity among his many masculine friends as secretary of a Hi-Y Chapter.

CHARLES TODARO

Charlie, a hard-working, determined Navy veteran, aspires to be a mechanic. His muscular physique (one reason why he used to be varsity center), dark hair and handsome features are a pleasing addition to the W.H.S. halls.

MATHIAS TORGERSEN

"Mat," that blond Dodger fan, is active in the Hi-Y and the Cranford Eagle Scouts. He also is quite interested in vaudeville, but he wishes to be an accountant, and he is going to be good at it, too.

PATI ANNE TROTMAN

Suave, sophisticated Pati Anne's unusual name suits an unusual girl. Talents in art (in which she has long been active) and man-catching are two attributes of this girl, whose doings and statements all demonstrate her quaint originality.

ROBERT TURNBAUGH

One of the best liked in our class, Bobby is the boy who always greets you with a genuine smile and some cheery remark. A rooter for the New York Rangers, he is also the life of hen parties.

TED VELLA

Ted has an initiative that labels him as one of our more ambitious veterans. In addition to being a fine dancer, he is also the boy who stole the show in the Mask and Mime play as Mr. Vechitto.

JOAN VERBURG

Replete with sang-froid and unique hair-do, poetess "Verbie" enjoys herself and others whether polkaing down the middle of a street or sliding down the banister. This diplomatic girl will undoubtedly straighten out our foreign affairs after studying political science.

EDMUND VILLA

Ed, who is quite the ladies' man, is short, dark-haired, and has sparkling eyes. With a perpetual smile which has won him friends in both sexes, he is bound to be a success in life with his winning personality.

EDITH VILLANI

Small and cute with black eyes and hair to match, "Edie" is willing to do anything for a friend, and she has lots of them. Other reasons for her popularity are her personality and swell sense of humor.

NANCY VOGELER

Do you see "plenty of sunshine headed your way"? It could be this cheery cheerleader. 'Neath the eye-catching locks and captivating smile, we've found brains, dependability, and loyalty. If you mention Manasquan, Nancy gets that faraway look and sighs.

MILDRED WADE

New to us this year, this small, dark basketball fiend has "waded" right in, joined a number of clubs and acquired an enviable number of friends. In preparation for her business career, Millie prepared the yearbook for the printer.

IRIS WALKER

Grandpa's best girl! She jumps at the sound of "Pingry." Her favorite history class phrase is "My daddy says—." Iris has enrolled for a secretarial course at Berkeley with the thought of becoming an advertising secretary. Be good, Iris.

PATRICIA WALLACE

You hear a sound like hysterical laughter? Uh huh, that's Patsy telling one of her incomparable "jokes." Active in French Club, choir and Triple Trio, she will be missed. How she "tears up the road" to Scotch Plains in her '42 Hudson!

PAMELA WATTS

Pam really has a wicked way with the men. Her favorite pastime of fun-making doesn't keep her from being an honor student and diligent worker. She surely will liven up that freshman class at Allegheny.

SUZANNE WAYNES

Personality, nice clothes, and a sense of humor of definitely high voltage are qualities which endear "Ducky" to her friends. This active athlete plans to continue her part-time job as a dentist's receptionist after graduation.

LYNN WELCH

Attractive, popular, blonde Lynn can always be seen in the main hall talking to dozens of people or dashing madly to get to class on time. The charm and winning personality of this choir member are bound to make her succeed.

BETTY WHALEY

Betty, a tall, striking brunette, is a friend in a million. Her amiable "sure nuffs" could come only from one who spends her summers in the deep South—namely Andalusia, Alabama. Betty makes a pretty, peppy addition to any party.

EDWARD WHALLEY

A flash of yellow, pea green, and tomato red—Ted has arrived with his loud socks. After three years in the Navy he returned with his Ford, the "Black Nanner," and several favorite expressions, among them the famous "No good, huh?"

PETER WIDIN

Everyone knows Pete and has probably seen him cruising around town in his mahogany-lined blue jeep. Red-headed Pete has built up a reputation as a swell pal, and with his sincerity and conscientiousness he ought to go far.

FRANCES WILLIAMS

An able officer of the Red Cross Council, member of the Literary Club and Library Council, Fran is a friend to all. This capable and eloquent conversationalist possesses a unique appetite, hot fudge sundaes being one of her specialties.

PATRICIA WILLIAMS

Someday when you girls are admiring that exquisite corsage remember that Pat probably held it first—for her ambition is to become a florist. Her pleasing smile and helpful hand are mighty welcome in the Service Club.

CAROLYN WILLIS

One look at this attractive bundle of sophistication, sweetness, and fun will let you know why she is such a charmer. Becomingly dressed Carolyn, when cruising around in her green Zephyr, is always more than willing to "give a lift."

ANN WOLFRED

A flash of vivid red hair, a sparkling smile, soft brown eyes, and a following of admiring males—that's Red. This volatile package of T.N.T. is active in band, choir, and numerous clubs but spends much time pouring affection on "Tuh" (her dog!).

GLEN WOOLFENDEN

Always ready to add a pungent comment in first period English to keep his classmates in stitches, Glen is the proud possessor of a charm all his own. Also an ardent ornithologist, Glen dotes on anything dealing with birds.

FRED WRIGHT

Although new to W.H.S. last year, Fred, late of Leominster, Mass., made many friends here. Among his many loves are hockey and skiing. At the present time Fred spends his spare time working in a local auto parts store.

JAMES WRIGHT

Jim's always ready with a flashing grin and a helping hand, say his friends. Car and girl are all he needs to keep him in his own private heaven. As to the girl—just ask him who Margie is.

MARY ALICE WRIGHT

You say you'd like a new dress whipped up in an hour? Well, Mary Alice is your girl, for she's one of Miss Dickinson's stars. Quite an athlete, she excels in basketball and baseball and yet loves to dance, too.

RUSSELL YOCUM

When a sophomore, Rus needed the iron hand, but now the velvet glove is sufficient. An outdoors type, this muscular fellow plays football and participates in track. In the future he hopes to give orders rather than receive them.

ELIZABETH YOUNG

Swiss-s! That must have been "Libby passing through." She rarely walks like the rest of us. Our vim, vigor and vitality girl is in just about every school activity. Her arrival at a party is usually announced by "Young's here. Party can begin."

ACTIVITIES

WEATHER VANE ANNUAL

The Weather Vane Annual is compiled each year by a volunteer staff of seniors under the direction of Miss Dolores Bordner, sponsor; Miss Harriet Howard, art adviser; and Mr. Gomer Lewis, financial adviser.

Some changes have been effected this year. The 1947 yearbook has been expanded from 92 pages to 104 pages. The padded cover is off-white with blue lettering rather than the blue padded cover with the photograph of the school. Gray backgrounds were substituted for the white backgrounds used for senior pictures in previous years. On account of Mr. Charles A. Philhower's retirement as supervising principal it was also thought fitting to honor him with a special feature.

This year Carol Sanford was chosen editor-in-chief. She was assisted by Floy Ann Brown, Sally Montgomery, Nancy Vogeler, Iris Walker, senior write-ups; Adele Greany, pictures; Gloria Braun, Gladys Bovino, activities; Herbert Entwistle, dedication; Lennie Mulinos, Pam Scull, Joy Borgeson, features; Stephen Ayres, Ed Hoos, sports; Betty Hanchew, Dolores Bodkin, Doris Keller, Jean Brown, Laura Weaver, Florence Jessee, and other members of the art classes, sketches and layouts; Harriet Jones, Phyllis Colyer, Pat Pollard, Joan Mueller, class will; Mildred Wade and members of Miss Colley's classes, typing; club presidents and secretaries, club write-ups; and class secretaries, special labeling.

HI'S EYE

More than any other activity in the school the Hi's-Eye was faced by the unbelievable increase in the cost of production. Editor Sally Montgomery and her associates, Dick Fischer and Walter Correll, compensated subscribers for fewer issues by endeavoring for finer quality. How well they succeeded is difficult to estimate. But this we do know: the originality of "Operation Kilroy," a survey on dating practices, brought the paper and the school national prominence when Student Life requested copies of the article for reprint.

The policy of the paper reflected the need for wider scope by bringing to its readers stories about sessions of the United Nations, forums on Inter-American solidarity, and recitals at Town Hall as well as interviews with outstanding stage personalities.

This ever broadening tendency was applied even to the financial structure of the paper in the Hi's-Eye's acceptance of national advertising. As this new source of revenue increased, the staff issued the paper more frequently.

While the editors took great pride in planning policies and meeting their own problems, they were glad for the experienced counsel of Dr. F. N. Neubauer and Mr. Napoleon Jean Papale who tempered the blades of their ideas.

Dick Kramer and Ruey Patch ably headed the weekly news release staff. Other important positions on the staff were held by Steve Ayres, Mike Bivona, Pat Braham, Brock Brower, Carol Brower, Betty Cameron, Phyllis Colyer, Lois Donaldson, Pat Gerds, Jim Harms, Ed Hoos, Barbara Jewell, Harriet Jones, Pat Kinkead, Margie Morton, Noreene Scurman, Shirley Smith, Ted Tayler, and Mathias Torgersen.

WEATHER VANE MAGAZINE

According to the editor, Carol Brower, a sincere interest in success and a liking for good hard work characterized this year's Weather Vane staff. The year was an important one, for it marked the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the magazine, an event fittingly celebrated by the publication of a special issue featuring contributions by distinguished alumni. Reprints from previous issues were also used, including the leading editorial from the first issue. This editorial was written by Katherine Noble, the first editor-in-chief, whose daughter Virginia was a member of this year's staff.

As in the case of other publications, the prohibitive cost of printing made it necessary for the staff to limit its output to two issues. Every effort was made to make the second of these superior to the first. A beautiful spring cover was designed by Jean Brown, and contributions were sought from the most talented underclassmen.

The crowning event of the year was attendance at the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Convention in whose contests the magazine has been entered for twenty-three years. This year it moved into a higher classification numerically, where competition is stiffer. The Weather Vane, like the Hi's-Eye, received second place. Next year's staff, it is hoped, will be able to regain top honors. Carol Brower and Lois Donaldson attended the convention.

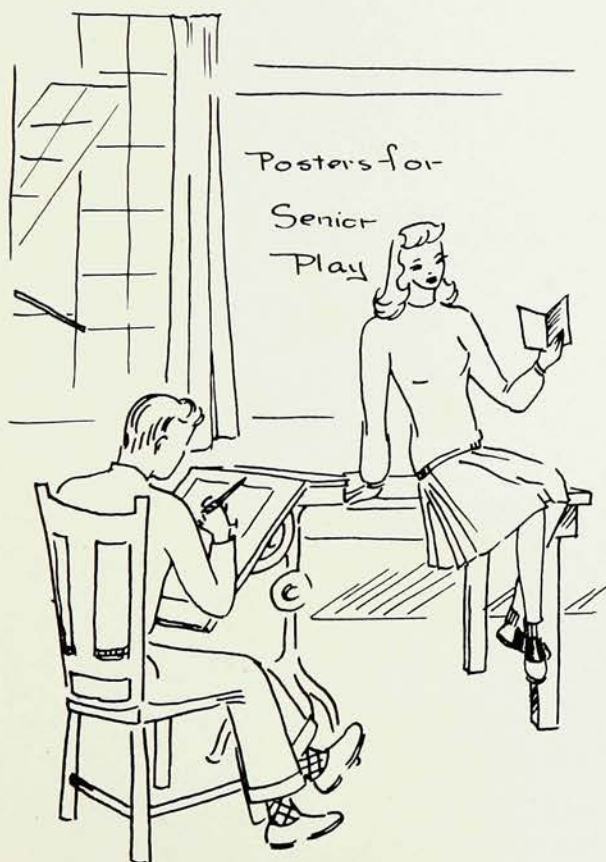

With graduation this year the staff loses many faithful staff members. No doubt under the able leadership of the art and literary advisers, Miss Howard and Miss Bordner, the good work will still go on.

ART CLUB

B. Hanshew

The Art Club, which grows larger every year and now includes almost all the members of Miss Howard's five art classes, achieved a great deal and engaged in varied activities. The members of the club met frequently during the third period and also had a special meeting on the third Thursday of each month.

Much was accomplished during the year. Again menu covers for the Navy's Christmas dinner were designed; several water color paintings of scenes around Westfield were entered in the Scholastic Magazine's Exhibition of High School Art, held at Bamberger's; and many posters for school and town activities were made. In addition a number of the students contributed to the success of the Mask and Mime and senior plays, the Christmas program, and the Spring Festival, by designing or painting scenery and turning out a large number of posters.

One of the most successful club projects was the portrait studio at this year's Community Fair. The drawings were very popular with the patrons, and by changing off in shifts the various artists were able to satisfy the crowd. Incidentally, a large sum of money was made.

During the year the club made a practice of inviting to its meetings members of the Westfield Art Association and former Westfield High School students who had become professional artists.

The success of the club was due largely to the efforts of Miss Harriet S. Howard, sponsor, and the following officers: Doris Keller, president; Pamela Scull, vice-president; Marcelle Thiebaut, secretary; Dolores Bodkin, treasurer; and Betty Hanshew, program chairman.

LITERARY CLUB

The Literary Club, whose membership includes juniors and seniors, not only provides a background of reading but also promotes an interest in good literature.

The meetings are held once a month in the homes of members and usually consist of informal discussion and a social hour. Occasionally, guest speakers enliven the proceedings; for example, Mr. Pestoff, a former captain in the Czar's army, gave an informal talk on Russian literature. Once a year the club attends a play in New York, this year's choice being Lady Windermere's Fan, by Oscar Wilde.

The officers for 1946-1947 were President, Barron Schoder; Vice-President, Bill Smyers; Secretary, Joan McCoy; Treasurer, Nancy Jenkins. Miss Margaret Dietrich sponsored the organization.

WRITERS' CLUB

The Writers' Club, sponsored by Miss Margaret Dietrich, meets on the second Thursday of each month to read and criticize anything that the members have written during the month. The meetings are held at the members' homes, and groups of hosts or hostesses serve refreshments after the meetings. Membership is open to all.

At this year's meetings poems, essays, short stories, et cetera were discussed, and many selections were submitted to the Weather Vane. Several awards were received in the Newark Evening News Contest. In the spring the group attended a performance of Finian's Rainbow.

The officers were Sally Montgomery, president; Edgar Hoos, vice-president; Abigail Tucker, secretary; and Letty Russell, treasurer.

GERMAN CLUB

This year has witnessed a great revival of interest in the German Club activities under the direction of Miss Louise Theurer. Besides regular monthly meetings devoted to music, movies, and games that helped increase the members' knowledge of German, the club made several excursions.

Early in the fall the group visited the Museum of Art in New York and later enjoyed a "Bratwurst" dinner. In February after a box supper the club attended a German movie in Irvington. A spring picnic wound up a season of interesting activities, which included participation in the Rutgers Declamatory Contest.

The officers were Paul Littmann, president; David Gaskill, vice-president; Hilde Hinterleitner, secretary; and Al Tillotson, treasurer.

SPANISH CLUB

The purpose of the Spanish Club is to make use of the Spanish learned in the classroom and to learn more about Spanish speaking people.

After the initiation of the first year students in February, the club took its annual trip to the Hispanic Museum in New York. The group ate luncheon at a Spanish restaurant and afterwards attended a Spanish movie. Other undertakings included the popular Spanish Fiesta at the Community Fair and the showing of motion pictures at the regular meetings.

This year's officers were President, David Downs; Vice-President, Barclay Fox; Treasurer, Gloria Braun; and Secretary, Mary Ann Crowell. As usual, Miss Stella Hemphill and Mr. Samuel Bunting were the able sponsors.

LATIN CLUB

With the aim of achieving a greater knowledge and understanding of the Latin language, the Latin Club had an interesting and successful year. The members became better acquainted with Roman customs and pastimes which were practiced at some of the meetings. Such entertainment as charades and "Guess Who" in Latin presented the opportunity for students to display their command of the language in an amusing but educational manner.

The officers of the organization, bearing the Latin titles, Consul, Carol Sanford; Vice-Consul, Margie Reeh; Scriptor, Bonnie Bunting; Quaestor, Paul Piret; and Vice-Quaestor, Bill McKim, were assisted in the guidance of the club activities by Miss Gertrude Foutz and Mr. Edmund Allen, advisers.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club, Le Quartier Latin, sponsored by Miss Foutz and Mr. Gesner, met once a month in the Annex Auditorium. There was a program of games and music conducted in the French language.

Besides the regular officers this club has art, music, and program committees whose chairmen call on members to participate in regular meetings or in the Community Fair. At the Community

Fair the club managed a French Café in which the members served refreshments, sang, danced, and acted in skits.

The officers for the school year were as follows: President, Donald Deer; First Vice-President, Jack Collins; Second Vice-President, Eric Oppenheimer; Secretary, Abigail Tucker; and Treasurer, Edith Oppenheimer.

FORUM CLUB

The Forum Club, under the direction of Miss Mildred Fox, is one of the most progressive clubs in Westfield High School. Almost every important subject, from the proposed new high school to those which deal with America's foreign policy, is discussed. Once a year a particularly timely subject is presented in a Forum assembly program with guest speakers from surrounding towns.

The monthly meetings of this group supply an excellent chance for the members to improve their public speaking and their ability to participate in a serious and intelligent discussion.

The club officers were Donald Miller, president; Lennie Mulinos, vice-president; Betty Whaley, secretary; and Joseph Parry, treasurer.

THE GUIDANCE COUNCIL

The Guidance Office has served our school for eight years, under the able supervision of Miss Dodds and Miss Fox. The Guidance Council keeps the student body posted as to what the Guidance Office is doing. So that all students will be reached, each homeroom is represented on the council by two students. These representatives meet once a week and receive information on scholarships, hints on studying and getting help from the Guidance Office, and other information valuable to the students.

The duty of these representatives is to report this information to their respective homerooms and thus bridge the gap between the Guidance Office and the student body.

SLIDE RULE CLUB

Under the apt instruction of Mr. Walter Eugene Johnson, Jr., adviser, the Slide Rule Club got under way. In the first meetings the use of the slide rule was taught; in later meetings the members, all chemistry or physics students, worked on problems relative to these subjects. At one meeting a film on the uses of the slide rule was presented.

The club members have found a knowledge of the slide rule a great asset and expect to make good use of it in the future.

The officers were President, Ted Frankenbach; Vice-President, Ronald Roth; and Secretary-Treasurer, Ann Thomas.

CATALYST CLUB

The Catalyst Club, under the leadership of Mr. C. Blair Rogers, endeavors to share its knowledge of chemistry with all interested students who are taking or have taken a course in high school chemistry.

The club meets bi-monthly for demonstrations by members and lectures by outside speakers. In addition several field trips to industrial concerns of a chemical nature are worked into the program.

Mr. Rogers had the assistance of the following capable officers: President, David Gaskill; Vice-President, Edmund Wise; Treasurer, Scott Hebert; and Secretary, Frank Coale.

CHESS CLUB

If the game of life is like a game of chess the members of the Chess Club have certainly gained invaluable experience. The purpose of this organization, which meets every Tuesday afternoon, is to better the play of its members by providing them with good opponents and excellent instruction.

This year there were few experienced players in the club, so it did not enter into interscholastic competition. The members, however, gained invaluable training which they will use next year when they resume their out-of-school matches.

Mr. Gaston Gesner is the club adviser. The officers were Ronald Roth, president, and Sheldon Fox, secretary.

COLLECTORS' CLUB

The greatly varied hobbies of the Collectors' Club include foreign dolls, autographed paper napkins, coins, stamps, bottles, cameos, buttons, and very old Dutch documents and manuscripts. Many opportunities are offered members of this club for discussion, for securing information, and for exchanging items in their collections. At the monthly meeting members give short talks and exhibit their collections, after which refreshments are served.

Mrs. Olive Timberlake, the sponsor, directed the activities of the club with the aid of the officers, President, Jim Podboy; Vice-President, Paul Piret; Secretary, William Kuhlke; Treasurer, Harold Potts.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

Under the able direction of Miss Marian Scott and Mrs. Eileen Price the Library Council rendered an important service to the school. The members of the council each devoted two periods a week to work in the library. This consisted of handling the mail, signing the slips, charging, stamping, pasting, and collating the books, mounting pictures, et cetera.

In addition to hard work there were social activities. In December the Westfield Library Council entertained the members of the State Library Council. February found the members holding a reception for our guest from El Salvador, José Rodriquez. April brought a farewell party for Mrs. Price, who was leaving to join her husband in the West. May included an excursion to Irvington to attend the State Library Council meeting.

The officers for the year were Lois Donaldson, president; Terry Molloy, vice-president; and Gloriana Dustin, secretary.

TECHNICIANS' CORPS

Because of the increased use of visual education, the Technicians' Corps was organized two years ago to supply qualified operators who could show films during class and study periods. With expert guidance from Mr. William Warner the group got off to a flying start, showing about 100 scheduled films during the first year. The subjects were varied and included several full length features.

Around this nucleus Mr. John Thompson, the present adviser, has built an active club of fifteen members. Although the corps has not been used to capacity, it has been kept moderately busy showing English, foreign language, scientific, vocational, social studies, sports, and fine arts films. Future plans include an expanded visual aids program with a full time director.

The officers for the year were President, James Bailey Scudder; Vice-President, Dick Coykendall; Secretary, Donald Beck; and Treasurer, Paul Bivona.

GIRL RESERVES

The combined clubs of the Girl Reserves had a very successful year. Besides the regular activities, there have been waffle suppers, swimming parties, trips to New York, and, of course, the annual dance, the Lenten Breakfast, and dessert party. Special trips were also made to Bonnie Burn, where the girls gave a party for needy children.

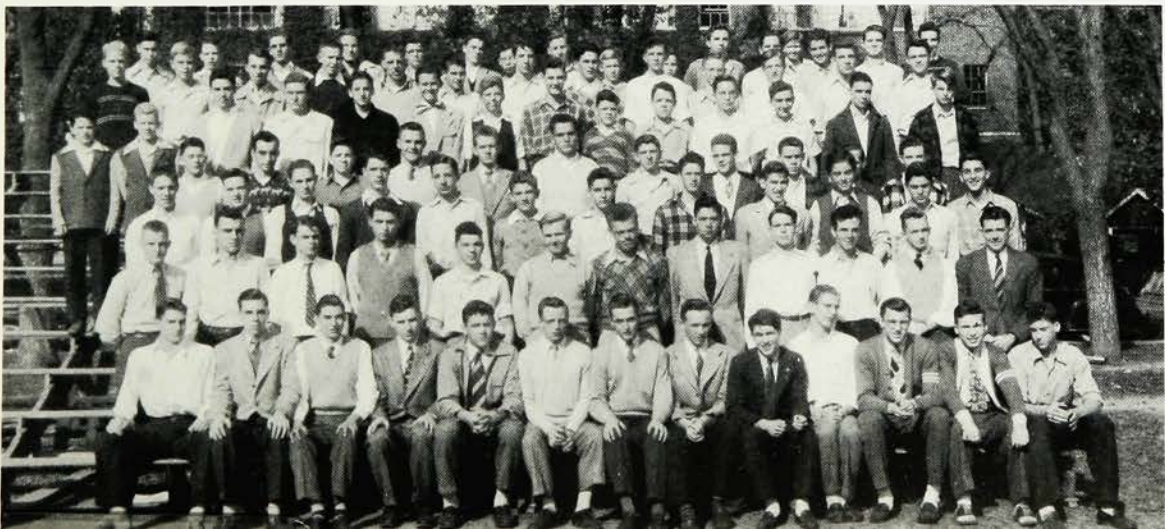

The meetings were held every other Tuesday at the "Y." At this time, members participated in various types of service work and occasionally heard a speaker.

The sophomore officers for the year were: President, Bunny Dolan; Vice-President, Marcia Snell; Secretary, Barbara Hafley; and Treasurer, Ann Litzelman.

HI-Y

With Mr. Donald Babcock, Boys' Work Secretary of the Y.M.C.A., as adviser, the Hi-Y Chapters have for many years been a center of the Christian, social, and recreational activities of the young men of the Westfield High School. This year has been no exception, and the six chapters of the Hi-Y have sponsored many school activities and have taken part in conferences concerning the problems of the high school boy. Aside from holding regular semi-formal dances at the Masonic Temple, the organization gave a formal New Year's Eve party, conducted bowling and basketball leagues, ushered at football games, served at a "Y" get-together dinner, and extended aid to foreign refugees by pledging a large sum to the World Service Fund. Currently they are working on a movie benefit, a novelty dance, and other means of raising this money.

SERVICE CLUB

This year members of the Service Club tried to help in both the Annex and Main Offices during their study periods. This organization also provided a Lost and Found service in A-206 for personal articles. One of the pleasanter duties of the members was the ushering at the Mask and Mime performances, the state and local band concerts, the Senior Play, the Music Festival, and Commencement.

Miss Alice Pelton is the efficient adviser and attributes much of her success to the following conscientious officers: President, Marjorie Morton; Vice-President, Peggy Hollberg; and Secretary-Treasurer, Marianna Carlson.

SEVEN YEAR CLUB

With the return of a great number of veterans to W.H.S. this year, room 205 was set aside as the "Vets'" homeroom with Mr. W. O. Steengrafe, himself a veteran, as adviser.

While some of the veterans returned to better their former marks and others to earn enough credits to replace their "war-diplomas" with a regular certificate of graduation, many of the ex-servicemen carried full schedules and participated in numerous school activities. A few men attended only one or two periods a day.

The "Vets" wish to thank Dr. Neubauer and his entire staff for the generous cooperation given them.

JUNIOR RED CROSS COUNCIL

The Junior Red Cross Council, sponsored by Miss Annie P. Hewitt and Miss Alice F. Pelton, is one of the truly essential organizations in the Westfield High School. From November until May the council engages in projects helpful to unfortunates all over the world.

The group's first activity, a membership drive conducted from November 1 to 15, resulted in the enrollment of ninety-four per cent of the students. Other November projects were Good Will Boxes for children in foreign countries and a collection of money for the Children's Country Home. The $58.64 donated by the student body provided many boxes for children across the sea, while the $75.19 collected for the Children's Country Home purchased the food formerly given by individuals.

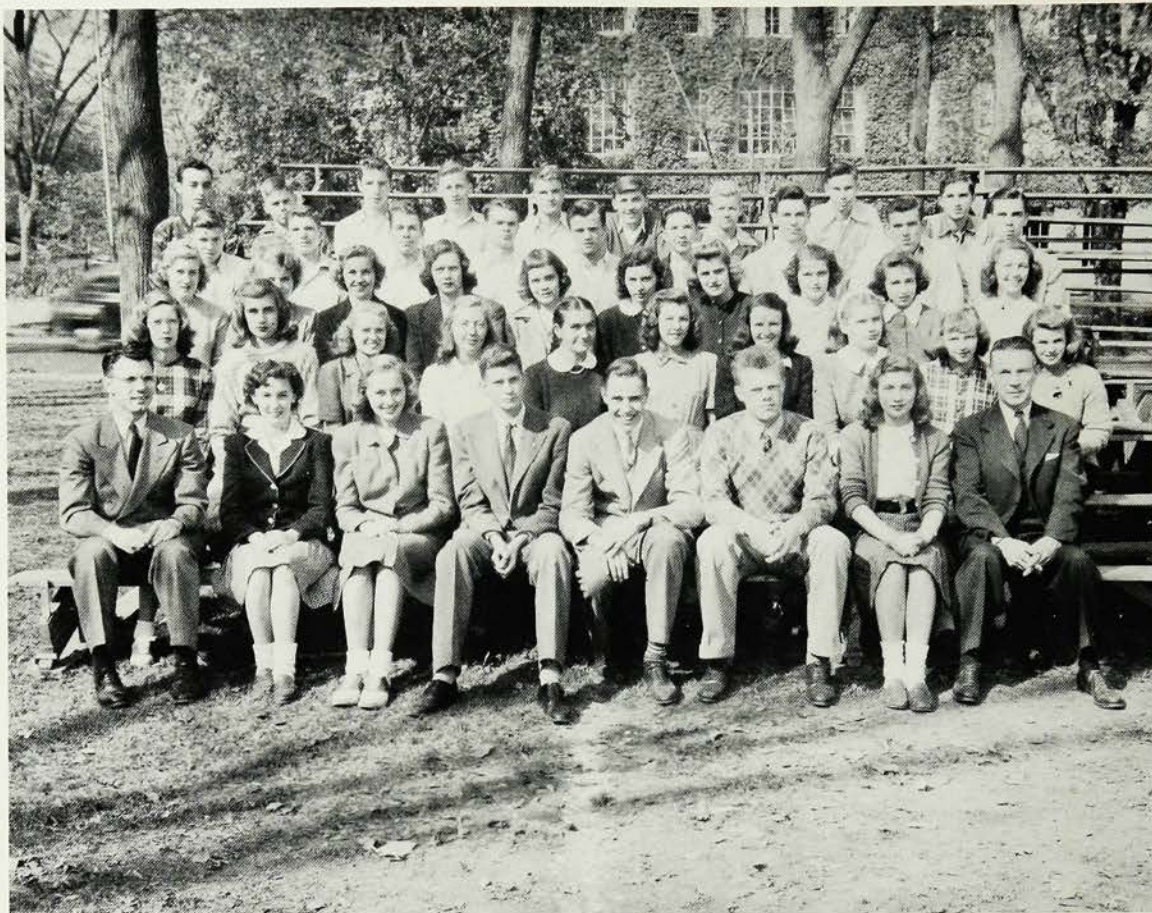

The winter projects included a gift of eight cartons of warm clothing for the mountaineers of Saylor, Kentucky, and ninety-four nut cups for the St. Patrick's Day celebration at the Lyons Hospital.

With the spring came other interesting enterprises. The council mailed thirty more Good Will Boxes on April 12. Later an elaborate Ward Birthday Box went to a patient at Camp Kilmer Hospital, and twenty-four beautiful place cards graced the table at a dinner given by the Senior Chapter for twenty-four patients from the Lyons Hospital. The Art Department painted the cards.

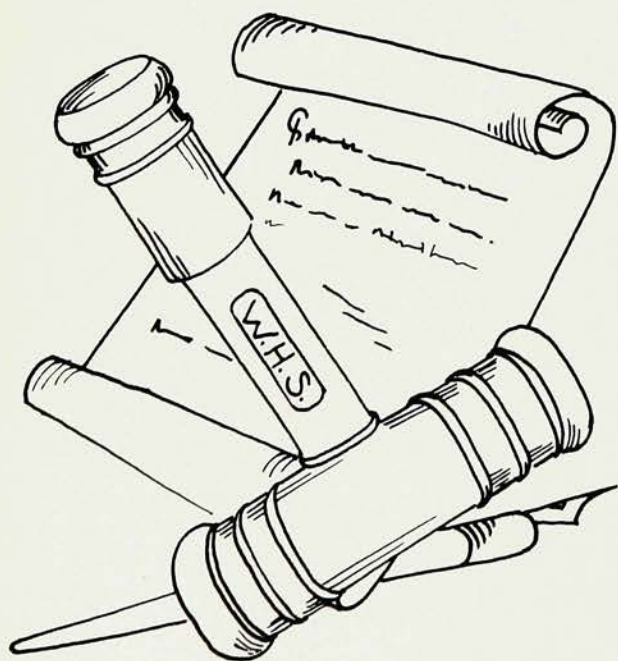

The council officers for the year included Julie Bubb, president; Frances Williams, vice-president; Joyce Neeb, secretary; and Ruth Gaido, treasurer.

STUDENT COUNCIL

B. Hanshaw

The Student Council was established in 1945 by the vote of the student body. It replaced the old system, the Council of Presidents, whereby the heads of the various school organizations formed the governing body of the school. The members of the Student Council are elected from the homerooms, one from each sophomore and junior homeroom and two from each senior homeroom.

This year the council engaged in many activities, the most important being the sponsoring of the Community Fair. The council also recommended that steps be taken to raise the standard of assembly programs, keep the school grounds free of waste paper, and assist the present classes in meeting their financial obligations. In addition a school handbook was published under the auspices of the organization.

Every year, early in November, the officers of the council, accompanied by their advisers, make a trip to the New Jersey Association of High School Councils which is held in New Brunswick. The group, this year, attended a general assembly in the morning, at which several speeches were made by prominent educators, and an open forum dealing with student government and school life. However, the group was unable to attend the informal panel discussion held in the afternoon on account of the exigencies of time.

The officers this year were President, John Kruse; Vice-President, Ted Frankenbach; Secretary, Mary Ann Crowell; Treasurer, John Lancaster. The advisers were Mr. N. J. Papale and Mr. Harold S. Thompson.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Membership in the National Honor Society is in recognition of a pupil's honest endeavor to excel in scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Mr. Weyman O. Steengrafe, sponsor of our Westfield chapter, has helped the organization inaugurate new ideas to acquaint the public with their achievement. For example, the initiation ceremony was held in the school auditorium for the first time.

The officers for the 1946-47 school year were President, Lee McCormick; Vice-President, Joan Mueller; Secretary, Sylvia Stewart; and Treasurer, John Kruse.

At the beginning of the year the following seniors were members: Mary Campbell, Richard Coykendall, Donald Deer, David Downs, Herbert Entwistle, Adele Greany, Betty Hanchew, John Kruse, Lee McCormick, Sally Montgomery, Joan Mueller, Edith Oppenheimer, Sandy Parry, Letty Russell, Carol Sanford, and Sylvia Stewart.

In April at impressive initiation ceremonies in the school auditorium twenty-seven new members were inducted. The seniors in this group were Phyllis Antle, Rita Batten, Mary Bavosa, Arthur Bingham, Gladys Bovino, Gordon Crain, Joan Creedon, Arthur Goding, Helen Thomas; the juniors were Peter Bickett, Eleanor Child, Janet Driver, William Glimm, Judith Hall, Carolyn Hanson, Frances Heerich, Robert Huddleston, Joyce Powell, Marjorie Reeh, Noreene Scœurman, Cynthia Smith, Lucille Stuart, Letty Thomas, Diane Tiedeman, Abigail Tucker, Virginia Williams, Edmund Wise.

To this group is entrusted the duty of holding high the standards of the school and of stimulating classmates to aspire to higher things.

MASK AND MIME

The Mask and Mime Club, with 226 members, is the largest and most active club in the school. It offers experience to all persons interested in any phase of dramatics. Those interested in acting tried out for a part in the fall production, What A Life, the original Henry Aldrich comedy; or they were given a chance to act in the many assembly and club programs. The lighting, stage crew, costume, and make-up committees worked on the Christmas Pageant, Music Festival, and club and assembly programs.

One of the highlights of the year for the Mask and Mime Club members is the annual trip to New York. This spring the club was fortunate to see Joan of Lorraine.

Through the able direction of the adviser, Miss Carol Brinser, dramatic programs attained a high standard. She and the members of the Mask and Mime Council determined the policies and activities of the club which made it an efficient organization.

The Council included the chairman of all five committees and the officers: President, Sally Montgomery; Vice-President, Jean Barnett; Secretary, Jo Ann Rebert; and Treasurer, Paul Piret.

FOOTBALL

Once more the expert coaching of Messrs. Freeman, Ellis and, during the past season, Gerber, moulded a fine football team, a combine of which Westfield can again be proud. With seven wins against three defeats, two of which were to Group IV teams, and 163 points scored against 84 for the opposition, the Blue Devils again completed a successful season.

One of the features of this year's campaign was the profusion of underclassmen in the important spots, assuring fine teams in the years to come. One-half of the sixteen letters given at the end of the season went to juniors. Of the eight senior lettermen, the one whose scarred jersey will be the hardest to fill will be Old Number 10, Bobbie Dougherty, our captain for '46 and our "mister inside" and "mister outside" combined. Also sure to be missed next season are Frank Savoye, pounding fullback; Bill Mateer, glue-fingered end; Alfie Edge, rugged little guard; Russ Yocum, fine defensive end; Havy Mekeel, the boy with the educated toe; Ed Rochat, passer extraordinary; and Arch Bracher, competent field general. Gerry McGinley is captain-elect.

BASKETBALL

For the first time in several years, the Westfield High School basketball team went through a successful season. Coach Gomer Lewis's boys gave promise from the start by winning the first opening game a Blue Devil combine had won in years, trouncing Somerville. A few days later the team defeated Summit in the first opening home game won in an even longer period of time.

Led by sophomore star Sam Mitchell with 211 points, Captain Bobby Dougherty with 156, and Babe Salvato with 146, the court squad won ten out of nineteen games, including two tournament contests, and scored 797 points against an identical 797 for their opponents. The basketballers hit their high in walloping Roselle 62-29, but the feature of the season was the three games with Summit, two of which were won by the Blue Devils although they went into overtime and none of which was won by more than two points.

WHS Diamond Season Going

BASEBALL

In 1946, his first year as baseball coach at WHS, Mr. Noel Taylor produced a hard hitting team that ended up the season with ten wins and five losses. This year, with only three lettermen returning, the prospects for a team that can equal or better that record are not too promising. Bill Mateer, who played regularly at second base in the 1946 season, will be on hand this year as will two outstanding pitchers of last year's squad, Frank Savoye who has long been noted for his terrific speed ball and Ronny Roth who pitches with deadly accuracy.

Charlie Schroepe, Ed Rochat, Rudy Stanzel, Sam Davis, and Bob Riley will probably see regular action, but most of the positions in the club are wide open. Although Coach Taylor has no idea of the Varsity Nine that he will field in the opener, he is confident that he can form a winning unit around his three lettermen.

TRACK and

The Westfield winged footers opened their season early in the fall only to be beaten by the Plainfield Cross Country Squad. However, they soon atoned for this defeat when they hammered out wins over Regional, Union, Cranford, Edison, and Rahway in quick succession. Thomas Jefferson, unfortunately, whipped them in the final meet.

Paced by Ed Hoos, the State and County individual title holder, the harriers placed third in the State event behind Dover and Rahway, but were the first Group III school to breast the tape. Trailing Hoos to the finish were Steve Ayres in the eleventh spot; Frank Patton, twenty-first; George Edwards, thirty-third; and Frank Barranco, fifty-second.

Coach Melvin Michaels has scheduled a tough spring schedule, to follow up the indoor season of preparation, which includes the famed Penn Relays, the Long Branch, Seton Hall, and County relay meets, as well as a string of dual triangular competitions and the State and County Championships. Havy Mekeel, Charlie Conley, Richard Tryon, and Stuart Campbell appear to top the sprinters; Dick Schuemacher, George Edwards, and Melvin Peterson, the quarter milers; Steve Ayres, Norman Mott, and Frank Patton, the 880 men. Hoos and Barranco seem to be the best milers. Although field events have always been weak in Westfield track teams, Mr. Michaels has two good weight men in Rus Yocum and Dick Brown.

The five lettermen, Hoos, Mekeel, Yocum, Schuemacher, and Ayres, have strengthened this year's team, for there is one for each event. The team should possess enough balance to be a threat in the Championship Meets and a potential winner in every dual meet.

SWIMMING

Faced with the prospect of going through a season with only two returned lettermen, the swimming mentor, Mr. Allen, and his stalwart splashers did a fine job in winning over more than 36 per cent of their contests, taking a fifth place in the state meet and walking off with one of the six individual state crowns.

The mermen knocked off Irvington, Fair Lawn (twice), and Lincoln in dual competition. In the state meet, the only real championship event they were entered in, the Blue Devil Tanksters took a first and a fifth in the diving with Bobby Clotworthy and the Squad's captain, Alfie Edge, respectively and a fifth in the 220 Free Style with Frank Coale a week later. Clotworthy placed a second in the Eastern Seaboard interscholastic diving championships.

Major letters were earned by Clotworthy, Edge, and Coale, while Dave Downs, Spencer Foote, Gerry McGinley, Bill McKim, Bud Wieland and Louie Budell, the manager, received minor letters. Of these only Edge and Downs are seniors; the rest return next year. Gerry McGinley and Frank Coale were the elected co-captains for next year.

GOLF SQUAD

Last year, Coach Walter E. Johnson found himself a golf squad composed of novice sophomores, most of whom had never played tournament golf. That year was designated a building year, but the underclassmen surprisingly enough came through with an excellent season topped by a second place in the Conference Meet.

This year, with Terry Brady, Bob Willig, Bill Miller, and Allan Hrudu, the four who won letters last year, the prospects are brighter than ever for an outstanding season of twelve two-team matches climaxed by the State and Union County tournaments.

TENNIS SQUAD

With Bill Coumbe and Arch Bracher, his two returning lettermen, as a nucleus, Coach Samuel Bunting, whose teams have taken the State Championship for four of his six years here as mentor, is pointing for another brilliant season. He is hoping for a number of talented underclassmen.

Although chances of regaining the State Crown are slim because he has only two seasoned players, Mr. Bunting is grooming his two holdovers in the hope that one of them may secure the County Individual Crown now held by John Zeiller of last year's team.

B.A.C.

The Boys' Athletic Committee comprises a membership chosen by election from each homeroom to represent the boys of the school in their athletic activities.

The purpose of the committee is to encourage teams in all major sports and to make the awards which are given to the boys who participate successfully in these sports. The committee also has the job of financing, equipping, and scheduling the teams.

The officers elected for the year were Frank Savoye, president; Jerry McGinley, vice-president; Robert Turnbaugh, secretary; and Edmond Rochat, treasurer. The committee functions under the supervision of Mr. Robert Duncan, boys' athletic director.

G.A.C.

The Girls' Athletic Committee, meeting weekly to discuss the sports program, consists of representatives from each homeroom. With the guidance of its officers, Adele Greany, president; Joan Creedon, vice-president; Eleanor Child, secretary; and Mary Ann Crowell, treasurer, and Miss Swift, sponsor, the G.A.C. has undertaken a kerchief sale, a Community Fair game room, and a G.A.C.-

B.A.C. two-way dance.

The regular program provided for before and after school activities. Special pride was taken in the selection of Barbara Fish, Joan Shotwell, Joan McCoy, Pat Kinkead, and Jane Montgomery for the championship team after the North Jersey Field Hockey Tournament at Trenton.

GIRLS' SPORTS

The purpose of girls' sports is to develop each girl individually as well as to develop team-work. A widely varied program is offered in the hope that at least one activity will interest each girl and help fulfill this purpose for her.

The program this year included field hockey, badminton, basketball, softball, country dancing, fencing, marching, and officers' training. Once again a spring gymnasium demonstration was given.

Under the efficient leadership and guidance of Miss Gertrude Swift, Miss Doris Acker, who returned to W.H.S. after service in the WAVES, and the Girls' Athletic Committee, this program has been carried out thoroughly and effectively.

Class Will

We, the propitious and auspicious class of 1947, befuddled and our senses dulled by the education to which we have been forcibly exposed, hereby bequeath in our Last Will and Testament, to those who will follow in our footsteps, all those things dear to us which we are leaving behind in the miraculous event of our graduation from these halls of learning.

FIRST: To any playful spirit we leave the fun of playing hide-and-seek with Mr. Thompson third period.

SECOND: To Mr. Papale we leave a well-shuffled assortment of imbeciles, idiots, morons, maniacs, lunatics and crazy people to sell Pepsi-Cola.

THIRD: We leave the cafeteria a large economy size bottle of Air-Wick.

FOURTH: We leave to anyone who will take it, a large shovel to remove the cigarettes that were so profusely scattered about the campus by the notorious portion of our class.

FIFTH: To innocent pedestrians changing classes we leave the danger of crossing the street during rush hours.

SIXTH: We leave to the hapless members of the faculty who attempt to teach during lunch periods, the hope for a new school equipped with soundproof walls.

SEVENTH: We leave our assigned assembly seats—whenever we get the chance.

EIGHTH: We leave to the ivy that so ably supports our educational edifice, a bucket of Vigoro.

NINTH: We leave the newly-established tradition of senior boys going with senior girls.

TENTH: To 101 we leave a revolving door to facilitate hasty departures in Period V.
