"MALAKA"

For refinishing furniture, hardwood floors, school desks or any varnished surface, Malaka has no equal.

It requires no brush or experience in its application.

It is applied to the surface with a soft cloth, a thin coating is left which dries perfectly hard in four or five hours, leaving a beautiful finish which will not crack or show scratches.

Surfaces treated in this manner, when signs of wear are observed, will be kept in perfect condition indefinitely. All germs on the desks or woodwork of schools, colleges, hospitals, cars and public buildings, can be destroyed by wiping them over with a soft cloth saturated with Malaka, which accomplishes a two-fold work, the destruction of germs and a renewal of the finish.

"I'm getting pretty solid over at the office," said the young man with the amethyst watch fob, boastfully.

"That's good," commented his friend with the yellow shoes. "I didn't think you would be, but if you are it's all right."

"Why didn't you think that I would be?" asked the young man with the amethyst watch fob.

"Oh, just because."

"That's a peach of a reason. What's the matter with me? Don't I look right to you?"

"Oh, you look all right to me," admitted the young man with the yellow shoes. "I ain't saying anything about that, but it ain't the way a man looks in his clothes that counts."

"Well, it is, a whole lot," contradicted the young man with the amethyst watch fob. "It may not be all there is to it, but if you don't look all right it's a handicap and don't you forget it. A man has got to be a dresser."

"That depends," said the young man in the yellow shoes. "Sometimes that cuts ice and sometimes it doesn't. Some would just as soon you'd look as if you was on the hog as not, provided you made good. There's some don't like to see a man put on too much side with his clothes."

"They ain't the kind I've trained with, and they ain't the kind I'd want a stand-in with," said his friend.

"Oh, I don't know."

"Well, I do know. Ninety-nine out of every hundred 'll turn you down cold if you ain't right there with the latest out. You're talking foolishness if you say they won't. That's what they look at. You've got to put a front."

"Well, you've got to make good, too," said the friend with the yellow shoes.

"Yes, you've got to make good. That's all right. I'm making good, I want to tell you. I'm no cheap skate. I understand all about that part of it, too. You may think that you're wise, but little Willie is on to his job."

"Well, that's all right. You ought to be by this time."

"I am. Any time you think I ain't you're going to get fooled."

"Say, what's the matter with you?" demanded the young man with the yellow shoes. "Did I say you wasn't on to your job? I wish I could catch on, too. I do the best I can, but I don't seem to be appreciated the way I ought to be where I am."

"Smoke up," said the young man with the amethyst fob; "you're slow. There ain't nothing to it. A jolly's what goes. You get 'em with a jolly every time."

"Yes you do."

"Sure thing you do. That's the way I work it."

"Got a boost yet?"

"Got a boost! I should say not. I ain't been there but six months and there ain't a man ever got a boost short of six years, I guess."

"They've put you up from where you were, though, haven't they?"

"In six months? I should say not. I'll do well if I get put up by next Fourth of July. The trouble is the boss seems to have it in for me good and hard. I don't know why he should; I work about as hard as any of 'em, but he's a sort of old grouch anyway, and I guess if he once takes a notion he don't like anybody he sticks to it. No, sir, I ain't expecting any boost just now."

"Say," said the young man with the yellow shoes, "what kind of a game are you giving me, I'd like to know? First you tell me that you are solid with your boss and then—"

"You're nutty," declared the young man with the amethyst watch fob. "I never said a word about the boss. Me solid with him? Well, I guess not. I was talking about the little lady with the yellow pompadour that pounds the typewriter over by the window across from my desk. Why, you know her. I pointed her out to you the time you were in to see me and I told you then I was going to try to win her out. Well, if I ain't solid there I miss my guess. Her and me has got to be pretty good friends by this time. Why, say, pal, I thought you knew what I was talking about."

"I ought to have known you wasn't talking about what I thought you was talking about," said his friend with the yellow shoes.—Chicago Daily News.

Worry Worse Than Work.

Worry is only the extra work, the increased wear and tear for which we are never paid. It always hinders, but never wins. It means incapacity for anticipated efforts and yet we constantly blame circumstances rather than our individual selves. The man who is always ready and takes time to be sure before he starts never need hurry or worry. How few can do this consistently! Then comes the breakdown which is so often charged to mere overwork. In 99 cases in 100 it is the worry, always useless, that eventually weakens and kills.

Good Funeral.

I sent a letter of condolence to ——, who had the misfortune to lose an only daughter. When I met him a week later he looked buoyant. "It was hard, hard to lose her," he whispered, "but there is always consolation and comfort for all the trials of life and death. I don't mind telling you that we had one of the finest funerals ever known in the ward. There were 47 carriages, and two filled with beautiful flowers." Were congratulations in order?—New York

Shoot Fish With Arrows.

In the South seas and in various groups of islands in the Indian ocean the aborigines shoot fish with the bow and arrow. The art is extremely difficult, as in taking aim at an object under water the archer has to allow for refraction. If he were to aim directly at the fish as he sees it, he would, of course, miss. Long practice has, however, made the natives expert in this sport.

Coal Under a School.

A seam of coal has been found under a portion of the Kirkby-in-Ashfield East Council school, Nottingham, England, and it has been decided by the Notts educational committee, subject to the approval of the board of education, to sell this to the Butterley colliery for £65. The liability for any settlement of the buildings in consequence of the taking of the coal will, it is stated, lie with the company.

Judge Worthy of the Bench.

In the court of Judge Klamroth, of Pasadena, Cal., the other day, when a witness had testified that she was married and a cross-examining attorney asked her: "Will you swear that you are married?" the judge stopped him and made him apologize, remarking: "Never, in the eight years I have held court have I allowed a woman to be insulted."

It Was a Nugget.

Workmen were digging a drain near the city hall of Bendigo, South Africa, when the pick of one of them rebounded after having struck something hard. "That must be a nugget," remarked a jocular bystander. "I'll look," said the workman, and the next moment he had a lump of quartz thickly studded with gold in his hands.

Scheduled All Real Estate.

The tax collector of Adelaide, South Australia, officially reports the conscientiousness of a taxpayer who, in getting up a statement of the real estate he owned, for taxation purposes, put down a piece of land of his measuring nine feet by six feet in "——cemetery," and under that column, "Name of Occupier," gave that of his departed wife.

First Bessemer Steel Rail.

The first Bessemer steel rail ever laid down was at Derby, England, in 1857. It was placed at a point where it had been necessary to renew the iron rails once in three months because of incessant wear. It was not taken up for 16 years, during which time a million and a quarter trains passed over it.

Had Name Badly Mixed.

How some people come to figure with an alias on police records was illustrated the other day when an Italian was called upon to come into court under the name of Mikado. His name figured on the docket as "Ricardo," but it turned out that he had given his name to the court officer correctly as "Genero."

Many Ways of Cooking Bananas.

Bananas are served in the same way as plantains in the West Indies, and the Americans anxious to find a new and delicious addition to the dairy bill of fare cannot do better than try fried or baked green bananas, or, boiled and pounded, they can be fried in boiling grease.

Flags on English Schools.

In some parts of England the practice prevails of displaying a flag from a schoolhouse roof when every pupil is present. The children take great pride in this and the rivalry between schools is found to improve the attendance.

Prevalence of Suicides.

The Civilita Catholica draws a distressing and melancholy picture of the suicide epidemic in Europe. Within the last 30 years not less than a million suicides have been committed in Europe, and in this total Germany alone figures with 300,000.

Old Fire Engine Still Good.

Chester, N. H., has a fire engine which has been in constant operation since 1842. It is a small hand tub but it can send a powerful enough stream to reach the highest steeple in town.

For the Egotist to Ponder.

Granting that there are a great many things in this world that do please you, remember at the same time that the world wasn't created for that sole purpose; it was here before you came.—John A. Howland.

In Crowded New York.

Packing of the poor population of New York city is shown by the fact that the most thickly settled tenement house blocks have increased in population 31 per cent. in the last five years.

New York's Hebrew Cemetery.

New York city had the first Hebrew cemetery in the United States. It was established in 1656, and a part of it yet remains at New Bowery and Oliver street.

Warning to the Avaricious.

Reflect that there is little profit and much dishonor in avarice.—Madame De Lambert.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JAN. 32, 1907.

The People's Lobby is working for the resumption of the publication of all laws passed by the legislature in the newspapers. James E. Martine, of Plainfield, is a prominent worker for measure. If it means that all the reputable papers in the county are to publish the laws, or a summary of them, it is commendable, but if, in a county like Union or Essex, two papers only are to publish them, they will be just as inaccessible as they now are, for the local papers are the ones that go into the homes and are read by all the people.

"I have slept under pine trees which were tall, straight, beautiful pine trees when North America was discovered. I went up through the same region two years ago with a friend and found my pine trees all gone and sumac and blackberry bushes in their places. It makes a man cry to see it."—Rev. Edward Everett Hale.

Assemblyman Perkins has shown that he has backbone. Early in the senatorial contest he took a stand in accord with the undoubted public sentiment in Union county and he has never wavered. Such loyalty and consistency is appreciated by his constituents, especially in this town.

"BEE LINE" INAUGURATES HAVANA PASSENGER SERVICE.

Semi-Monthly Sailings, Calling at Brunswick, Ga., in Both Directions.

With the sailing of the S. S. "Brunswick" from Pier 54, North River, Saturday, January 5th, at 1 p. m., the "BEE LINE" inaugurated their passenger service to Havana, stopping at Brunswick, Ga., in both directions. The establishment of this line marks a new departure in transportation circles as it is the only competing line to Havana from New York city as well as the only line going to Cuba or any of the Caribbean ports, which breaks the voyage en route by a stop at an intermediate port, allowing the tourists the privilege of stopping over at Brunswick, thereby affording them an opportunity of visiting Jacksonville or any interior point at a slight additional expense. This fact alone should make the Line very attractive to tourists but in addition the rates of $35.00 one way and $60.00 Excursion First Cabin will be another inducement appealing to the public.

Through rates will be quoted to all points reached via Brunswick, a special feature being the reduced rate which will be in effect to Jacksonville of $21.50 one way and $37.00 Round Trip for First Cabin Passengers.

The Steamship "BRUNSWICK" is an iron propeller of the latest type of about 3,000 tons, 300 ft. over all, 38 feet beam and 23 feet in depth, and is equipped with every convenience for comfort and safety. She is electrically lighted throughout and has several rooms en suite with bath. Broad promenade Decks and a spacious Social Hall add to the comfort and enjoyment of the passengers. The Mangement will take particular pains to see that the table is supplied with the best the market affords, their motto being "THE BEST IS NONE TOO GOOD."

The "BEE LINE," as the Brunswick steamship Co. is familiarly known, is an affiliated interest of the Atlanta, Birmingham & Atlantic Railroad, thus insuring its stability as a future factor in this business. Sailings will be made twice a month.

Geo. F. Tilton, General Passenger Agent, 32-Y Broadway, will furnish detailed information on request.

Rather Bitter.

"Father," said Senator Coyne's little son, "what is a mutual friend?"

"A mutual friend," the senator with some slight bitterness replied, "is a man who always tells you in advance what magazine will muckrake you in next month's issue."

Failed to See the Joke.

"I say, D'Orsay, have you ever heard that joke about the guide in Rome who showed some travelers two kinds of skulls of St. Paul, one as a boy, and the other as a man?"

"Aw, deah boy—no—aw, let me heah it."

Slow Time on Italy's Railways.

A truck arrived at Desenzano, on the Lago di Garda, having brought coal from Venice. On this was a patch of corn about four inches high, which must have taken at least 20 days to grow. This may give some idea of the delays on the Italian railways, which are causing factories to close for lack of raw material.

Real Enthusiast.

"Speaking of applying the artistic to ordinary duties reminds me of my unmarried aunt with whom I lived when I was a child. She used sometimes to do such a fine job of making the beds that she would make us sleep on the floor, because she hadn't the heart to see her work spoiled."—Exchange.

Cocktails and Evening Dress.

The London Lancet says evening dress is a good substitute for the cocktail as an appretizer, but as long as evening clothes retail at $75, and cocktails at 15 cents, the suggestion will not be universally adopted.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Democratic Idea.

A movement is on foot to form a choral society at Cranford, to be made up of the musical folk of the Cranford, Westfield, Roselle and neighboring towns. These towns combined ought to be able to maintain such an organization. Westfield, for instance, does not seem to be able to do so, being musical only in spots.

TOWN COUNCIL.

Tax Budget Increased $2,000—Changes in Committees.

The council revised the budget on Monday night, received applications for hotel and wholesale liquor licenses and transacted various items of business.

But one objection was received against the confirmation of the New York avenue sewer, that of Lawyer L. E. Hart, for the estate of the late Oliver M. Pierson, and that was for a slight error, which was referred to the committee on roads, sewers and water and the commissioners of assessment.

The tax ordinance was amended by raising the fire department appropriation from $3,500 to $4,000 and that of water for hydrants from $1,300 to $1,400, and the general expense fund from $8,500 to $10,000; a correction in the sinking fund appropriation reduced it from $1,133.33 to $1,033.33, so that the total increase is $2,000, making the total appropriation $39,145.33.

The Downer street and Osborne avenue sewer ordinances passed second and third readings and were adopted. And assessments under ordinances 63, 91, 93, 100, 104 were confirmed.

Chairman Russell, of the finance committee, reported that the W. A. Brown sidewalk assessment had been paid.

Applications were received for licenses as follows: C. E. Burtis, inn or tavern and wholesale; Lawrence Powers, inn or tavern and wholesale; Frank J. Schaefer, Charles W. C. Bock and Joseph Serpico, inn and tavern licenses. These were referred to the excise committee, but were not reported on at the meeting.

An application for appointment on the police force was received from A. D. Laurent.

Petitions were received from A. H. Clark, H. O. Piker and others for four electric lights on Euclid avenue, west of Broad street, and to have Euclid avenue macadamized from Broad street to Mountain avenue. These were adopted and ordered advertised.

A copy of the annual report of the trustees of the public library was received and ordered printed in the annual report. The library now contains 5,060 volumes; during the past year 864 persons have taken out books to the number of 18,594, a four-fold increase over the previous year. The report states that the new building will be ready for use in March or April; that the trustees could have built a larger building for $10,000 but it would have been of a flimsy character, while the present structure is substantial. The contract includes book racks and all necessary furniture.

The annual reports of the recorder and the chief of police were read. The recorder collected $335 in fines in 1906; the police department made 204 arrests; there were 117 violations of the peace ordinance.

Mayor Alpers changed the police committee, making it consist of Messrs. Floyd, Wilson, Hohenstein and Eskholme and the town property committee, making it consist of Messrs. Wilcox, Floyd, Berner and Russell, the first named in each case being chairman.

The application of Joseph A. Woodbury, of Rahway, to lease the sewer farm was referred to the town property committee.

It was decided to have 500 general ordinances printed and the award was made to the Westfield LEADER, the lowest bidder.

The council adjourned to meet Monday night.

"Fools."

This is not a lecture on "fools" by "one of them" with tickets to "admit one," but is by a bright, brainy humorist, the celebrated Dr. P. S. Henson, of Boston. This will probably be one of the most "taking" things of the course, as every one is interested in fools, and has probably admitted to himself that he has been several species of fool in his life time. He will be interested in learning how many species there are of the genus, and his and his neighbor's classification. The lecture will be given in the Presbyterian church tomorrow night. Admission, 50 cents. Tickets for the remainder of the course, four numbers, as will be seen by the advertisement in this issue, $1.00.

NEW BANK FOR WESTFIELD.

People's National Bank—Westfield and Plainfield Men Incorporators.

Westfield is to have a new bank, the Controller of the Currency having approved the application to organize a national bank here to be known as the People's National Bank of Westfield with a capital of $50,000 and a reserve fund of $10,000. The incorporators are Edward T. Perine, Dr. R. R. Sinclair and Herbert L. Abrams, of this town and Charles A. Reed, J. Herbert Case, Charles W. McCutchen, Orville T. Waring and Samuel Townsend of Plainfield.

One of the Westfield incorporators informed a LEADER representative that the idea originated here. It was thought there is a field here for another banking institution and that the $250,000 or more estimated to be on deposit in Plainfield and Elizabeth banks might, if this were done, be kept here. The town is growing rapidly and he believes two banking institutions would prosper. It appealed to Plainfield capitalists.

It is probable that Mr. Perine may be chosen president but it will be a week or more before anything definite is decided upon. Mr. Abrams is securing options on certain property here for a building.

It is not expected that the new bank will be opened for business before May 1st.

He leaves a wife and two children, a daughter, Mrs. Wilcox, and a son Russell of Jersey City. The funeral was held Monday evening, conducted by Rev. Sydney Cross, of St. Paul's church. Interment at Cypress Hills, Brooklyn.

The death of Mrs. Mary A., wife of William Vass, occurred on Saturday afternoon, at her home 46 Broad street. Mrs. Vass was 22 years of age. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at the house. Burial at Rose Hill Cemetery, Linden.

Senatorial Fight On.

Beginning with the caucus on Tuesday night, when eight Republicans, including Assemblyman Perkins and Senator Ackerman staid out of the caucus, while Assemblymen Moxon and Tillman finally went in, the fight proper began.

The strength of Dryden at the balloting yesterday was 36, Griggs 5, Pitney 3, Stevens, D., 16, Wilson, D., 11; Martine 9, in the two houses. Assemblyman Perkins and Senator Ackerman voted for Griggs and it is rumored that if Dryden fails, Briggs will be the man. Forty-one votes are necessary.

BOWLING.

The Elizabeth bowlers in the Journal league are to roll the Westfield Club team on the latter's alleys here tomorrow night.

Westfield Camp W. O. W. bowlers rolled the Myrtles, of Elizabeth, on the Westfield team's alleys on Wednesday night, and won two out of the three with totals as follows: Westfield—770, 677, 745. Myrtle, 645, 686, 606.

ROB TAVERN KEEPER.

Westfield Police Nab Thieves With Goods on Them.

The Red Star Tavern, near the golf links, of which S. M. Joseph is proprietor, was robbed Monday evening of jewelry, a revolver and other articles valued by Mr. Joseph at $105. The loss was discovered about 10 o'clock. While James Leo, a former employe was begging the proprietor to reingage him a confederate was ransacking drawers up stairs, Mrs. Joseph playing the piano and not hearing him. Leo depard and the theft was discovered.

Constables Sargent and Gray of Fanwood were sent for and Chief O'Neil of Westfield informed by telephone. The chief soon spotted Leo on a trolley car and arrested him, but nothing was found on him. The chief then suspected a man who was sitting in the car with him and telephoned the trolley junction asking that the man be detained. This was done and Officer Canfield went down and brought the man to the police station with "the goods on." He gave his name as Michael Croom. Both men hail from New York. Yesterday morning they pleaded guilty before Justice Toncey and were sent to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

ADVANCE CLUB.

"Macbeth," Music and Social Enjoyment.

The Advance Club discussed "Macbeth" at the January meeting, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler, Kimball avenue, on Friday night.

The discussion was lively and interesting, showing that the members had given the subject careful study. Dr. Steans led the discussion.

The club was favored with several vocal selections by H. D. Darling, of Summit, who has a rich, well-trained bass voice. He sang Lizst's "The King of Thule," "Break, break," "The Horn," and "LeCar," receiving several encores. Mrs. Dutcher was accompanist. Mrs. Hankinson rendered two piano solos—Beethoven's Sonata, op. 26 and a nocturne by Meyer-Helmund.

Mr. Ketchum, the president, occupied the chair. The names of the Rev. and Mrs. R. M. Craig were proposed for membership, there being two vacancies.

The club voted to continue the study of Shakespeare's dramas through the present year.

Union Council Eats and Installs Officers.

Thursday night was installation night at Union Council, No. 5, Loyal Association. The following officers were installed: Councillor, George H. L. Morton; vice-councillor, B. F. Vervoort; orator, C. E. Pearsall; past councillor, L. A. Lightfoot; recorder, C. H. Kyte; collector, C. M. Smith; treasurer, Dr. J. B. Harrison; chaplain, Henry R. Forster; marshal, L. W. Neefus; guardian, W. O. Wheeler. The installing officer was E. R. Tuttle, of Orange, one of the grand councillors. Immediately business was disposed of the Gold Dust Twins, employed by Caterer J. J. Schnitt, carried a long table to the centre of the assembly room and proceeded to lay out a spread fit for kings. During the repast Councillor Morton, in a few appropriate remarks, presented Past Councillor Lightfoot with a jewel. The past councillor was very agreeably surprised, at least he said he was, and he told those present all about it. If there is one thing more than another that Mr. Lightfoot can do well, it is making a speech. Grand Councillor Tuttle made a few remarks and Ben Vervoort also butted in as usual and had his say. The new entertainment committee promise novelties in the way of programmes for the coming year. The first gun will be fired Thursday night February 21, the next regular meeting.

Four Years Ahead of the Pure Drug Law!

There is one line of medicines in which no change in formulas is necessary in order to conform with Uncle Sam's new Pure Food and Drug Law.

Rexall Remedies were made to conform with this law in every particular four years ago—long before this law was thought of!

At that time one thousand leading druggists of the country, owing to the unsatisfactory way in which they had to sell patent medicines, decided to form a co-operative company and manufacture a line of remedies for which they could stand absolutely responsible from their knowledge and control of ingredients in these cures.

The plan of Rexall Remedies was the result.

Could these thousand druggists then have foreseen the new Pure Food Law, and known every clause of it, they could not have made the Rexall plan conform to it more closely.

There is nothing secret about Rexall Remedies, and there never was!

For years Rexall ads have told the public that each Rexall druggist had the formula of every Rexall Remedy on file, and would willingly give any formula to whoever asked for it.

Moreover, Rexall Remedies protect you more than the Pure Food Law does. You now only know the dangerous drugs in patent medicines—we know and have always known everything in Rexall Remedies—and have always been glad to show you the printed complete formulas.

No Rexall Remedy is a "cure-all." Each of the 300 remedies has a formula which years of experience have shown to be the most reliable cure for a certain human ill.

The proof of our confidence in Rexall Remedies is the Rexall guarantee. Every Rexall sale we make is with the understanding that if the purchaser is dissatisfied he or she can get back the money paid, by simply returning the empty package or bottle. For four years the sincerity of this offer has never been challenged!

A few of the 300 famous REXALL Remedies, one for each human ill, are:

FOR CATARRH—MUCU-TONE

The chief ingredients of Mucu-Tone are Gentian, Cubebs, Cascara Sagrada, Glycerine and Sarsaparilla.

Gentian is recognized in medicine as one of the greatest tonics ever discovered. It combines the tonic powers of all known "bitters," with none of the disadvantages applying to any.

Cubebs have long been recognized as a specific in the treatment of all catarrhal conditions. Its action is prompt and its benefit almost invariable.

Cascara Sagrada is especially introduced for its unapproachable laxative properties. The combination of these with Glycerine and Sarsaparilla makes Mucu-Tone a remedy that attacks catarrh from every point and gradually restores the diseased tissues. Bottle, 50c.

FOR NERVES — AMERICANITIS ELIXIR

The Rexall Americanitis Elixir is a tonic nerve food composed chiefly of free Phosphorus, Glycophosphates, Iron Pyrophosphate and Calisaya.

The wonderful results of this remedy are due to the fact that it supplies Phosphorus to the nerve cells in a condition in which it can be immediately and easily taken up by them.

The Glycophosphates, actual nerve tissue builders, are one of the most recent and valuable additions to this branch of medicine and unquestionably a more efficient remedy than the well-known Hypophosphites.

The Iron Pyrophosphates are the most easily assimilated form of iron which give tone and color, while the combined alkaloids of Calisaya have a tonic effect on almost all the functions of the body. 75c. and $1.50 a bottle.

REXALL "93" HAIR TONIC

The famous Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is composed in chief of Resorcin, Beta Naphthol and Pilocarpin.

Resorcin is one of the latest and most effective germ-killers discovered by science, and in connection with Beta Naphthol, which is both germicidal and antiseptic, a combination is formed which not only destroys the germs which rob the hair of its nutriment, but creates a clean and healthy condition of the scalp, which prevents the development of new germs.

Pilocarpin is a well known agent for restoring the hair to its natural color, where the loss of color has been due to a disease of the scalp. It is not a coloring matter or dye.

This combination of curatives mixed with alcohol as a stimulant, perfects the most effective remedy for hair and scalp troubles known today. Per bottle, 50c.

"REXALL" ORDERLIES

The New Laxative

If you suffer from constipation or a sluggish liver, we want you to try this newest member of the Rexall family. It has never failed.

"Rexall" Orderlies have all the virtues and none of the defects of those laxatives and cathartics already known. They are harmless vanilla-flavored tablets that effect a readjustment of Nature's functions—no griping, no nausea, no purging.

Pleasant to the taste—they give immediate relief.

A trial will prove to you that they are the best laxative and cathartic ever produced.

Price, box of twelve; 25c. a box of 36.
