WESTFIELD HAS A SCHOOL NURSE

Board Engages Competent Young Lady to Attend to Health of Students

BAND STAND MUST GO

At the meeting of the Board of Education held last evening, several new teachers were appointed to fill the balance of the vacancies in the staff. Among the number was the appointment of Miss Clara Cordua, as school nurse. The appointment of a school nurse has been under consideration for some time and the members of the board are to be congratulated on having taken this important step for the good of the students.

The other teachers engaged were Miss Wright, primary grade; Miss Ruth Spaulding, high school; Miss P. J. Parr, English 7 and 8th grades, and Miss C. M. Vergier, grammar grade.

The president announced that a new flag had been received from the National Security League for the school to be presented to the honor pupil next June.

The report of the finances of the lunch room was as follows: Balance last year, $11.10; receipts, $2,628.40; disbursements, $2,470.52; balance, $157.98.

On resolution the clerk was directed to write the board of Park Commissioners to ask if the band stand was wanted, if not would they please remove it as it had become an eyesore. The band stand was erected by the Board of Trade, now out of business, and this body promised to remove it on request of the board.

The fee for tuition for scholars residing outside of Westfield was raised from $40 to $50.

The Audit Company of New York was engaged to audit the books of the district clerk.

Mrs. Emery's report on the work of the Junior Red Cross in the schools was received and placed on file. This report showed that 614 garments had been made and disposed of to Colonia and the local Red Cross and that the present cash balance of the organization was $819.13.

President Orr presided at the meeting and Messrs. Coulter, Warfield, Platz, Cutler, Scarff, Perkins and Wick were present.

MORE MEN CALLED

The men are required to report at the City Hall, Summit, at 3:30 Sunday afternoon.

Included in the list are Joseph T. Beck, Raffael Rosella, Harvey S. Briant, Frank H. Essig, John A. O'Connor, Joseph L. Somers and Percy M. Lambert, from Westfield, and William M. Conklin, Edward J. Pfaff, Gustave A. Wenzel and Rowen A. Burns from Garwood.

THRIFT STAMPS RESULTS

Westfield Ladies Secured Pledges Amounting to About $45,000.

The Thrift Stamp drive which was in progress in Westfield last week and which was conducted by a corps of ladies under the leadership of Mrs. Paul Q. Oliver, secured pledges to the extent of about $45,000. It is probable that this amount will be slightly increased when all the reports are tabulated.

The sales at the local post office to date amount to $40,000, these are not included in the new pledges secured by the ladies.

The Boy Scout selling contests resulted in the sale of pledges amounting to $2,300 and the boys will receive the prizes donated by Mr. R. L. McIntosh tomorrow.

The winners of the Boy Scout contest are David Timberlake, first; William Austin, second, and Paul Anderson, third. The boys made a good campaign.

All Day Celebration Planned for Tomorrow Militia Reserve To Camp Tonight Ready to Start at Sunrise

Arrangements are complete for the biggest and most patriotic Fourth of July celebration Westfield ever planned. Nothing but inclement weather will prevent an enthusiastic demonstration of loyalty in which every man, woman and child of the town can participate.

The feature of the morning will be the parade, for which all will assemble at the Washington School grounds at 9:30. Everyone who has an automobile is urged to decorate it and form on Orchard street, fronting on Elm. Three prizes will be awarded, three War Savings Stamps for the best decorated car, two for the second best and one for the third.

Men and women who have sons in Uncle Sam's service are requested to march, carrying service flags. This division will assemble on the campus, right resting just off the Walnut street sidewalk.

All the children who want to march will form on the left of the "Sons in Service" division. The Board of Education will march at the head of the school division.

Following the pupils and assembling on their left on the campus will be the Westfield Chapter of the Red Cross, the Navy League, and the Committee of Mercy, and next the Citizens' division and civic organizations. All are requested to carry small flags.

The first division will assemble on Walnut street, the police escort fronting at Elm street. In this division will be the marshal and aides, Mayor and Town Council, Westfield Company of State Militia Reserves, Boy Scouts, a platoon of Westfield boys who are in the service, and the G. A. R.

The parade will start at 10 o'clock sharp and the line of march will be Elm street to Dudley avenue, to Prospect street, to Broad street, to Westfield avenue, to Park street, to Central avenue, to Broad street, to Harrison avenue, to Kimball avenue, to Mountain avenue, to Orchard street, to Washington School grounds, where patriotic exercises will be held.

Everyone is then invited to the Peckham grounds at Highland avenue just below Hillside avenue to spend the afternoon and evening. It is an ideal picnic ground so bring your lunch baskets and eat under the trees.

The Red Cross Canteen will have lemonade, ice cream, sandwiches, etc., on sale and be prepared to serve supper at 5:30 to all.

The afternoon exercises begin at 2 and consist of drilling and maneuvers by the Militia Reserves, a sham battle, an hour's band concert, inspection of the reserves by the Mayor and Council, presentation of a flag to the company, gift of a framed picture of the company to the town of Westfield, an oration by Rev. Philip B. Strong, of Plainfield, the reading of President Wilson's Fourth of July address at Mt. Vernon, evening parade by the reserves and an hour of songs around the campfire, closing with the burning in a big bonfire of things made in Germany.

Residents along the line of march of the parade are especially requested to decorate their homes, and all are urged to remain in town all day and help make the celebration memorable.

The Militia Reserves will begin the celebration by going into camp on the Highland avenue grounds Wednesday evening at 7 p. m., will sleep and do guard duty all night, have mess at 7 a. m., and march downtown at 9 to take their place in the parade. ## PLAYGROUNDS TO OPEN ON JULY 8TH

Miss Lillian Carroll and Miss Stedele to be in Charge.

The members of the various committees of the Playground Commission, at a meeting held last Thursday evening, in the Town Hall, reported that everything was in readiness for the opening of the grounds on July 8th.

It is expected that in addition to the regular features of the past seasons some new attractions will be offered this season.

C. C. Malsbury, recently appointed a member of the Commission by Mayor H. W. Evans, was elected secretary.

PLAYHOUSE FEATURES

On Friday evening of this week the offering at the Playhouse will be one in which Clara Kimball Young stars, "The Reason Why." The story by Eleanor Glynn. The plot can be followed without the slightest difficulty throughout the picture and the acting of the entire cast brings out the points of the story at their best.

For Monday and Tuesday of next week, "Miles," with Mary Pickford, the screen favorite, in the leading role, cannot help but draw a capacity house. The famous tale of California during the golden days from which the play gets its name is one that seems especially written to be dramatized for Mary Pickford and the screen production has proved another triumph for this screen favorite.

"The Kiss Burglar" Moves.

After several weeks at George M. Cohan's Theatre, "The Kiss Burglar" was transferred Monday night to the Eltinge Theatre, where it will remain during the heated term. Fay Bainter still plays the leading part with a charm and delicacy not often found in musical comedy. The book and lyrics are by Glen MacDonough and the music by Raymond Hubbell.

Strand—Mary Pickford in "How Could You Jean?"

Mary Pickford may be seen in "How Could You Jean?" by Eleanor Hoyt Brainerd. Miss Pickford will be seen in an entirely new role, that of an almost grown-up society girl who turns cook when fate gives her a blank in the form of a depleted bank account. "Outwitting the Hun" is also shown. This production is a marvel from a technical standpoint. The Outing-Chester film is entitled "A Dam Catastrophe." The Topical Review contains war pictures from the Italian front, new scenes taken with the American troops in France and other American and European news pictures of interest. The Strand Soldier Quartette renders a melody of patriotic airs. In commemoration of the 1th of July the Strand Symphony Orchestra plays "Jubil Overture."

Aborn Opera Company Open Season at Olympic Park, Irvington.

The opening week of the Aborn Opera Company summer season of musical comedy and comic opera at the Olympic Park Opera House, began Monday night. The company introduces another offering new to their repertoire and new to popular prices, in "Her Soldier Boy." The leading comedy role is interpreted by the popular Olympic Abornite, Robinson Newbold, who was most successful in this role on the tour of "Her Soldier Boy," and another member of the cast with which he appeared, Myrta Bel Gallier, will also have her former part. Other important newcomers and established favorites of former Aborn offerings who make up the company for this week are Chas. M. Bowers, Lee Daly, Inez Bauer, Ruth Mason, Charles R. Burrows, Frank Grinnell Augustus Buell, Russell Innon, Ralph Slipperly, Florence Mackie and Ida Allen. The staging is directed by Mr. Buell, and the musical director is Louis Kroll, recently with "Flo-Flo." Among the musical numbers that have contributed to the remarkable success of "Her Soldier Boy" are "Mother," "The Song of Home," "The Sleeping Princess," "Alone in a City of Girls," "Home Again," "He's Coming Home," "I'd Be Happy Anywhere With You," "Smile, Smile, Smile," "Slavery," "Golden Sunshine," "Amsterdam," "The Kiss Waltz," "History," and "The Military Stamp." There will be three matinees of "Her Soldier Boy" at Olympic Park. The attraction to follow "Her Soldier Boy" is "Flora Bella."

VAUDEVILLE.

Palace—Supreme Vaudeville.

For the two high spots in its Fourth of July vaudeville bill, the Palace Theatre is placing reliance on Fritz Scheff and Charles Pucell. Few people who know anything at all about the musical stage will fail to recognize in Miss Scheff a fascinating singer who has been vastly popular with audiences that extend from grand opera to vaudeville, or vice versa. She is bringing to the Palace this week a collection of new songs and, as an added interest an assortment of new summer gowns. Mr. Pucell is a musical comedy actor of prominence who will sing new songs, dance a bit and tell anecdotes. Others on the bill are Edith Tallaferrro in the Webb Brothers' musical playlet, "The Best Sellers;" Ryan and Lee in their skit, "Hats and Shoes;" Bernie and Baker, singers, and the Garcinetti Brothers, hat throwers.

New Brighton Theatre—Vaudeville.

The Yama Yama Man invades the ocean-side this week, which signifies that Bessie McCoy Davis tops the Independence Week program in her Period Dance Revue. The revue depicts, in song and dance, the four war periods of American history—1776-1861-1898-1918, showing the soldier boys of these crucial times starting for the battle front. She is assisted by Thomas Conkey and Henry Coote, both of whom have sung prominent roles in musical comedy. Another feature is Walter C. Kelly, as "The Virginian Judge." Kate Ellmore and Sam Williams also offer an original comedy. Joseph Bennett and Edward Richards present "Dark Clouds;" Ralph Dunbar's Tennessee Ten may be seen in a lively Ethiopian musical skit. The remainder of the bill includes Horace Wright and Reno Dietrich in "Ten Minutes of Melody;" Dave Harris and Charles Morey, as "The Boys in Brown with the 'Blues,'" and other features.

Proctor's, Plainfield—Photoplays.

The program for the remainder of the week is as follows:

"Today, Mary Pickford in 'Stella Maris;' Toto in 'Cleopatra'; 'Solving the Transportation Problem;' Hearst-Pathe News.

Thursday and Friday, Walter White in "The Belgian;" Hearst-Pathe News; Thursday only, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew Comedy; Friday only, Pearl White and Antonio Moreno in "The House of Hate."

Saturday, Emmy Whelan in "A House of Gold;" Win. S. Hart in "Staking His Life;" Charlie Cahplan in "A Jazz Water;" Hearst-Pathe News; Bronco Billy Pictures, afternoon only.

PLAYS OF THE WEEK.

Several Good Productions Still Running

The popular plays of the season still keep open doors for the public and the cool weather has made possible an unprecedented long season. New Yorkers who have not yet left town and visitors who have just arrived can find plenty of variety in the plays still with us.

The chief event of the week is the opening of the nightly concerts at the City College Stadium. These open air concerts at popular prices should appeal to every music lover. Arnold Volpe is the conductor and is supported by the Metropolitan Opera House chorus. Solists of note appear on the programmes. In case of rain, the concerts are held in the great hall of the college. Soldiers and sailors are admitted free.

Cohan & Harris—"Tailor-Made Man."

Forty-fifth capacity week for Grant Mitchell in his all-American comedy, full of American push and vigor from start to finish. Mr. Mitchell is at his best as the little, underpaid Tailor who makes up his mind to be somebody and to do something. How he breaks into society, climbs up to the top, stays there awhile and then takes a terrible tumble, is the theme of this interesting play. Every line tells; every situation is clever. There is a good American love story and you wish there were 5 more acts of the same kind.

Henry Miller Will Open Theatre With Ruth Chatterton in New Italy.

Henry Miller will reopen Henry Miller's Theatre in West 43d Street about Sept. 1st with Ruth Chatterton in a new play as the first of his productions during the new year. He plans an active season with new plays by H. V. Esmond, A. E. Thomas and Langdon Mitchell, and road engagements of "Come Out of the Kitchen" and "Daddy Long Legs." During the summer Mr. Miller and Miss Chatterton will play a stock company engagement in San Francisco. On the way to California they will present "A Marriage of Convenience."

Liberty—"Going Up."

You may search far and wide for a musical treat. In the end you will find "Going Up" can't be beat. So if musical comedy and rollicking fun is what you are after take this on the run. You'll laugh 'till your head aches. You'll scream with delight, and it's odds ten to one, go again the next night.

New Amsterdam—"Ziegfeld Follies."

Florenz Ziegfeld is not selling tickets for his new Crop of Follies through speculators. He doesn't need to. The 1918 Follies have been eagerly looked forward to as a summer fixture. The cast is better than ever and the decorations are the finest Urban has yet done. Tonal music, pretty girls, magnificent setting and every headliner a star! who needs speculators?

Republic—"Parlor, Bedroom and Bath."

Seventh month for this rollicking farce. Every line a laugh! A whole evening of merriment with dainty, beautiful Florence Moore dominating the scenes. If you want a summer evening of real pleasure and a play to make you forget your troubles, see this!

Shubert—"Getting Together."

"Getting Together" is by far the best war play of the season. It is unique in that it follows the soldier from his home to the very trenches. A particularly good scene—full of spirit and enthusiasm—is the recruiting meeting. Real soldiers and sailors—men who have been "over there"—do the talking and Lieut. Gitz-Rice stirs up the audience with his own rollicking trench songs. Percival Knight as Sergt. Atkins—a very British cockney—supplies most of the humor. Blanche Bates and Holbrook Blinn carry the love interest throughout.

LEADER TOBACCO FUND STILL GROWING

New Impetus Given by Check of $25 From Westfield Citizen. The "Leader" Tobacco Fund for the Boys in France was given a big boost last week by the receipt of a check for $25 from a Westfield citizen, and a contribution from the C. C. Committee of the Sixth Grade of the Grant School. As has been stated before for every twenty-five cents donated to the fund a package of tobacco retail value fifty cents, is sent forward to the Boys in France. In each package a card is enclosed and addressed to the person making the donation. The soldier who receives the package is requested to send the card back as an acknowledgement of the gift. A goodly number of these cards have found their way back to Westfield and we quote from one received this week by Mrs. E. Davidson, of 406 Lenox avenue:

Somewhere in France. Dear Friend: I am writing a few words to thank you for the tobacco I received. Although these few words can hardly express the thanks I feel. Respectfully, Corp. Frank Hopkins, Co. A, 4th Mch. G. Bri., A. E. F., France.

SAVE THE WASTE AND WIN THE WAR

Throughout the land tomorrow the Nation will await the utterances of the President as he stands beside the tomb of Washington to deliver a new message on Democracy for humanity.

Less than a week ago it was officially announced that more than 900,000 American troops were within the battle area. What tomorrow's announcement in this line will be can only be a matter of conjecture but it is known that it was the purpose of the American officials to have one million Americans in France at the beginning of July and what we have intended we have always carried out.

Take it as you will we have enough American troops in Europe today to hold the German Army. The American Army in Europe today is the best equipped, most carefully selected and most physically fit Army as ever entered a war in the world's history.

the cause of Democracy is one and there is no American heart one minute's doubt that we will win and sooner than even the brutal Huns anticipate.

The idea and effort to raise by voluntary subscriptions a fund to purchase and maintain an automobile for the District Nurse, Miss Mackenzie, needs no urging on our part. The motive for giving and the result to be obtained appeals to Westfield's composite heartiness in every worthy cause and this particular cause tops the efforts as a distinctive home help.

Over eight hundred citizens of Westfield have sent the Sunday in petitions to the Closing. LEADER which were presented to the Mayor at the meeting of the Council on Monday night. These petitions ask the Mayor to relieve Westfield from narrowness and to reinstate the town into a common sense community instead of having it a laughing stock for the rest of New Jersey.

Those who own automobiles are able to get supplies from Garwood and Cranford on Sunday—if they are fortunate enough to own automobiles—and it is to be hoped that the Mayor will give attention to the petitions of these citizens who desire to see Westfield as it formerly was.

Usually when Fourth of July approaches we have Vacation Days, either planned or had our vacation, but there is going to be only a very small percentage of the American people that will really have a vacation this season. The fact is it is no time for vacations. There is too much that every patriotic and loyal American ought to be doing to help win the war.

Is it a change in American spirit. The answer is decidedly no. It is just the same old American spirit but showing new excellencies under changed circumstances. The young men who two years ago envied the cotillion leader at the seashore are today fondly hoping to become the next American "ace." The amateur baseball pitcher is proving the value of his athletic training in his accurate throwing of hand grenades. The champion polo player is showing what he can do in training cavalry remounts.

Governor Edge shows a persistent determination to Who is to Be pass all of his troubles up to the various functions of the National Government and there is little that he will be only too glad, if the Inter-State Commerce Commission or some other Federal function will aid him in the annoying trolley affair matters.

It is however bad taste, to express it mildly, for the Governor to be continually trying to put something over the Government. A great many of us recall his pet project to render the name National Army a misnomer and create a series of State's armies. Had he been able to put this through there would have been untold demoralization and annoyance throughout the Army big as it is.

Now he is trying to tell the Director General of Railroads how the railroads of the country ought to be run. A great many of us may differ with Mr. McAdoo regarding many of his policies but we have all been obliged to admit that the traffic and freight conditions at the present are materially better than they were when the Government assumed control and when the imminence of the task is realized six months is a pretty brief time to expect noticeable results. On the question of railroad fares the LEADER would suggest to Governor Edge that the matter of giving reduced rates to soldiers has been very carefully worked out and so far as can be learned it has the approval of the soldiers. Under the circumstances it is likely Mr. McAdoo will not worry if he does not receive the approval of Governor Edge.

The approaching trial of Jeremiah O'Leary promises to Watch For bring to light much Traitors. that will astonish the American people and prepare us for the riddance of more undesirables. It is unfortunate that O'Leary was enabled to enmesh so many reputable and ordinarily loyal citizens in his schemes which at the present look as if they were all the result of an expenditure of large sums of German propaganda blood money. While only a small percentage of the leaders of the Irish race in this country were openly allied with O'Leary it was well understood that at one time that he had not only a strong but substantial backing of people who did not know what they were doing.

The English have made mistakes and the Irish have made mistakes, but in the record of errors which have been made since 1914 there is nothing which stands out so gigantic as the effort of the Sein Feiners in Ireland and coupled with that must the activities of Jeremiah O'Leary in New York City. Fortunately for the Irish people their clergy and their best thinking people have realized that an error was made and they have acted in good faith and admitted it. O'Leary's former friends have deserted him; his followers have gone but if what is intimated holds true before the end of his trial there will probably be other disappearances even if the disappearing parties have not been threatened with prosecution for any crime. It just simply won't be best for them to be too conspicuous around New York City.

BIG SURPRISE PARTY

Black Swan Frightened to Death, Hides Among the Grape Vines.

Excitement was intense on Euclid avenue last evening, people residing on that avenue came out on their porches to see what the trouble could be. Minduaskin Park was deserted for some time, the black swan got frightened, left the lake and hid behind the monument among the "grape vines." Some thought that advanced information had been received that the war was over, but it turned out to be a war of good fellowship, which began when fourteen citizens drove down Euclid avenue in six big touring cars and in unison flashed their headlights on the home of Mr. William Dallas, who was the victim of the surprise.

Mr. Dallas was greatly surprised when all the horns began blowing and coming out on his porch was heard to say, "I'll be —."

The members of the party and their host and hostess enjoyed a most delightful evening. Although Mr. Food Conservation Wilson was among the guests, his title was forgotten for a half hour at least when all present enjoyed surprise party rations.

Mr. Walter Tavornor in behalf of the guests, presented Mr. Dallas with a handsome walking stick.

Those present were Messrs. G. W. Adams, Captain Frank Bowman, W. H. Taverner, E. H. Oswald, J. C. Ryer, C. H. Griffiths, Spencer Gales, R. V. Meeks, A. A. Smith, A. A. Cammerer, W. E. Brown, M. W. Tracey and J. B. Wilson.

COMMUNICATED

In response to the "Leader's" request for communications pertaining to the town's doings, we are in receipt of the following knock from one of our good friends; also one on the display of "The Flag" tomorrow, (Independence Day).—Editor.

Opposed to Hearstism.

Editor, Leader. I believe that the greatest enemy we have is the one which lives in our own country. I believe that the newspaper which does not support our President, our Army and Navy, and all of our Allies should be prohibited from sending its insidious messages to the public. I believe that it is detrimental to the best interests of the citizens of the United States for any other newspaper to accept the defensive advertising of any such self-convicted newspaper. ROBERT L. SMITLEY.

FOURTH OF JULY AND FLAG DAY

Editor, Westfield Leader: Tomorrow we are to celebrate the 142d anniversary of the Declaration of the Independence of these United States of America.

Our National Standard Bearer, President Wilson, has officially asked the American people to give distinctive character and deep significance to this anniversary. Among other patriotic things that our town will do on this Fourth of July, the Westfield Branch of the National Security League looks for a more general display of the "Stars and Stripes" than usual; and it suggests that it would be well to substitute new flags for those that are tattered and torn, or much faded.

"Old Glory" is of more importance than many people realize. It ranks even our President, for he must bare his head, and salute, when it passes by. It also guarantees the rights of every American citizen, foreign born as well as native. Let everyone in Westfield, old and young, show the "Red, White and Blue," on Independence Day to encourage the love of our country and world wide liberty.

Yours patriotically, WM. H. SAMPSON, Chairman, Flag Committee.

WILL WESTFIELD HAVE BAND CONCERTS THIS SUMMER?

There seems to be considerable doubt as to whether or not Westfield will be favored with concerts by its band this summer. Since the opening of the new park there have been many inquiries as to when the band stand will be erected and when the evening concerts will begin.

Two parties are involved in the answering of the question, when will the band concerts start. The band itself is probably the most important party and upon investigation it is known that Leader Bartow has the band in splendid condition to begin the concerts at any time. The Park Commission, on the other hand, is taking the responsibility of placing and erecting a band stand, and as yet, have done little toward locating the band boys in the new park.

Until something is done in regard to the band stand, the band itself appears to be helpless and it will mean the town people will have to wait until something is done by the Park Commissioners in the way of a stand before the open air concerts can begin.

RECORDS FOR OUR GUN CREWS

"Our Boys" are going overseas for Patrol Duty. The demands are severe, and the little recreation given by a small talking machine and some good records is appreciated more than anyone on land can realize.

Records for the Gun Crews may be sent to Mrs. John Clapperton Kerr, 135 Central Park West, New York City.

The name and address of each donor is typewritten and pasted on the various records so that the boys may know who has thought of them.

ITALIAN INJURED IN EARLY MORNING FIGHT

Assailant in County Jail and Victim in Plainfield Hospital

John Iannelli, an Italian, living at 352 Spring street, is a patient in Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield, as the result of a shooting, which took place on South avenue just over the Westfield line, early Monday morning.

John Mattina, of Scotch Plains, sometimes called "Jumbo," is in the county jail charged with having fired the shots that put his fellow countryman out of business.

Police Sergeant Darcey reported to Chief Rosecrans that a man had been shot and the Sergeant was directed to investigate. Iannelli was found at the plant of the Pure Oil Company, where he had staggered after being shot. With Marshall Sullivan, of Scotch Plains, Sergeant Darcey went to the place where Mattini boarded and arrested the man, taking him to the Scotch Plains jail.

County Detective Galatian sent Detective Buckley and with Chief Rosecrans the county official searched Mattini's room and found a pistol hid away behind the bed. The officers took Mattini to the hospital where he was identified by Iannelli, and where he acknowledged the shooting. It is said that a long standing grudge was held by the two men.

A WARNING TO PRO-GERMANS BY SERGT.-MAJOR DE WITT

An open air mass meeting was held Wednesday noon for the benefit of the sale of War Stamps; Sergeant Major DeWitt made a stirring address in which he said if any pro-Germans were in the audience they had good reason to keep quiet from then on.

Major De Witt has seen service over there and he spoke from personal experiences of what the Hun did to him and declared he was going back to help do something to the Huns. He urged those who stay at home to invest to the limit in War Stamps. Councilman William Darroch presided over the meeting and the factories extended the noon hour so all the men had an opportunity of hearing the speaker. Music was furnished by a brass band and there was a parade of citizens and school children.

STOLEN AUTO DESERTED

On looking up the records it was found that the car was the property of Frank Goebel, a contractor, with an office at 1 East 42nd street, New York City. Recorder Bunnell gave the boys a severe reprimand.

CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH AT WESTFIELD T. C. COURTS

Donaldson Brothers to Play Finals With Sinclair and Embleton Tomorrow.

Favored with ideal weather and a large gallery, Westfield Tennis Club staged their annual doubles tournament for the championship of Westfield on Saturday afternoon, June 29th.

Twelve teams were entered and the matches progressed through the semi-finals. The successful teams in the upper half of the draw were Messrs. Sinclair and Embleton, and in the lower half Messrs. A. W. and D. Donaldson.

Special credit must be given the Donaldson Brothers for their success, as Donald Donaldson, who is in service, has had little or no play this year, and was only able to compete owing to his being on a furlough. It is not possible to announce at the present time when the finals will be played, as this will depend on when Mr. Donaldson is next on leave.

The results of the matches were as follows:

First Round—J. J. Lee and H. H. MacCawatt defeated A. R. Roy and C. Roy, 7-5, 3-6, 6-3; Pearsall and Middleditch defeated R. F. Bates and R. Mason, 6-0, 6-3; F. H. Kynes and H. Whitehead defeated C. M. Tremaine and G. W. Saunders, Sr., 6-0, 7-5; G. Weston and H. F. Cornwall defeated I. S. Tremaine and G. W. Saunders, Jr., 6-3, 4-6, 6-4.

Second Round—L. Sinclair and F. Embleton defeated H. W. Bartlett and Jack Clark, 6-1, 6-4; D. M. Pearsall and F. A. Middleditch defeated J. J. Lee and H. H. MacCawatt, 6-0, 6-1; G. Weston and H. F. Cornwall defeated F. H. Kynes and J. H. Whitehead, 6-1, 6-3; A. W. Donaldson and D. Donaldson defeated H. DeF. Sargeant and G. C. Lucas, 6-3, 4-6, 6-0.

Third Round, Semi-Finals—L. Sinclair and F. Embleton defeated D. M. Pearsall and F. A. Middleditch, 4-6, 6-3, 6-3; A. W. Donaldson and D. Donaldson defeated G. Weston and H. F. Cornwall, 6-3, 8-6.

All of the matches resulted in stirring contests and special mention should be made of the match between Messrs. Sinclair and Embleton and Messrs. Pearsall and Middleditch which was hotly contested from start to finish. The winners lost the first set being unable to make headway against the terrific service and overhead smashings of Middleditch, and the fine placing game played by his partner, Pearsall. In the second and third sets however the superior team play of Sinclair and Embleton made itself felt with the result that they were returned the winners by the scores indicated above.

The other semi-final match was one of the upsets of the tournament, as Messrs. Weston and Cornwall were the favorites in this half of the draw but the strenuous competition which they underwent in the first and second rounds of the tournament undoubtedly weakened their game in the final period, although this should not detract in anyway from the splendid playing of the Donaldson Bros., A. W. Donaldson played a wonderfully steady game and was brilliantly supported by his younger brother.

TREMAINE JUNIOR CHAMPION

The following shows the results of the Westfield Junior Tennis championship match played last week. The first rounds were played on Wednesday and the finals on Saturday. Tremaine won easily in the finals.

The scores: First Round—Joseph Moore defeated Edgar Reeve, 6-0, 6-0; W. R. Taylor defeated Russell Welch, 6-0, 6-4; Robert Evans and Ray Welch defaulted.

Second Round—Goddard Saunders defeated Allen Seed, 6-0, 6-0; Joseph Moore defeated Gordon Carr, 9-7, 1-6, defaulted; W. R. Taylor won by default; L. L. Tremaine won by default.

Semi-Finals—Goddard Saunders defeated Joseph Moore, 6-4, 6-0; L. L. Tremaine defeated W. R. Taylor, 6-0, 6-1.

The tennis match between the Westfield Golf Club and the El Mora Tennis Club on Saturday will begin at 3 p. m. There will be five matches, 2 singles, 2 men's doubles and 1 mixed doubles.

E. Kellar defeated Mrs. Samuel Armstrong, 1 up; Mrs. A. E. Mottlach defeated Mrs. R. Spencer Gales, 3 up and 2 to play, and C. J. Morgan defeated W. I. Ferris, 3 up and 2 to play, and A. E. Cook in a Cool Kitchen

Roasting, broiling, baking, toasting, boiling or simmering—elaborate or simple cooking—can be done perfectly with a New Perfection Oil Cook Stove. And you will not broil in a hot kitchen.

3,000,000 American women use the New Perfection and escape the daily drudgery of coal hod and ash pan, soot and kindling. They have gas stove convenience at kerosene cost—a stove that lights at the touch of a match—can be regulated accurately—that turns all its fuel into usable, odorless heat—that applies all the heat directly to the cooking utensil—that uses an inexpensive, always available fuel—that saves coal for the nation.

Why don't you cook in a cool kitchen?
Made in 1-2-3-4 burner sizes, with or without cabinet top and oven.

ROUGH GUFF.

"Yes, I've cut the slang stuff," Nell was telling her latest "gentleman friend." "Gee, but my talk was gettin' fierce! I'd worked up a line of fable-material that had George Ade backed off the map and gaspin' for wind, but I've ditched all that now. I seem it was up to me to switch onto another track. Jammed on my emergency brakes one day and says to myself, 'You mutt, where you think you'll wind up if you don't slough this rough guff you're shovin' across on your unprotected friends? You never will land a Johnny-boy that's enough gray matter in his cupola to want a real, up flossy lady for his kiddo in a skirt that palavers like a arm with a busted steerin' gear.' I can talk like a lady, even if her gets closer to one than to her neck when some swell buzzes past in her gas-wagon. I am to yours truly, it's time to re-formate your grammar, little sister, and you betcher sweet life I've cut the mustard."—Grit.

SOMETIMES.

"A man can't do anything without money." "That depends." "Depends on what?" "The man; if his credit is good he can get into debt."

Unavailable. The post vowed his luck was bad; in fact, distinctly cruel. A lot of burning thoughts he had; they were no good for fuel.

A Small Part. Father—Marry my daughter? Why, with your salary you couldn't even dress her. Suitor—Oh, yes, I could, I could keep her in gloves. Father—Do you mean to insinuate that my daughter wears only gloves? Suitor—Pardon me; I asked only for her hand.

Confidential. "My dear, I want to speak to you seriously." "I probably deserve it, papa. I know I have been neglecting the children lately." "It isn't that; but aren't you neglecting your game of bridge?"

SAVE THE WASTE AND END THE WAR.
