CHILDREN'S COUNTRY HOME A HOSPITAL

Influenza on Increase in Westfield. Many New Cases, but Few Fatal

536 SICK REPORTED TO DATE

That La Grippe has taken hold of Westfield is evidenced by the 536 cases now down with it in town. Each day and hour new cases are reported by the physicians to the Board of Health. In fact the doctors are over-worked and being kept continually on the go so hard that the papers have been asked to request that those who are not in actual need of immediate attention, to place their calls as early as possible in the day and that no night calls be requested unless actual requirement need it.

Almost one hundred cases have been added to the Board of Health's list of cases since Saturday last, but of these very few proved fatal and many, many cases are in the incipient stage.

In many cases whole families are taken down with it, and the physicians claim this is due to improper care being given in the early stages, and the important feature to be realized is that the patient should be isolated as far as possible from the remainder of the family. Also great care should be taken with the mucous discharged from the nose and throat as it is in this that the germ lies and it is important to remember that the disease is spread by breathing germ-laden matter sprayed into the air by the patient in coughing, or even in ordinary breathing.

The Board of Health has notified the police to be very rigid in regard to the regulation regarding the spitting on sidewalks. This the police have promised to do and it behooves the pedestrian to use extra care in this respect as undoubtedly large fines will be levied, and possibly imprisonment, on the unwary.

Last Saturday at the request of Mayor Evans and Dr. R. G. Savoye, president of the Board of Health the managers of the Children's Country Home turned over the home to be used as a hospital during the epidemic and at the present time there are 15 cases under the able care of Miss Cordua, the nurse for the schools, Miss McCoy, a trained nurse and Miss MacKenzie, the district nurse. There are forty beds up and this number of patients can be taken care of. J. B. Wilson, of the committee of the school gardens, has forwarded to the home canned goods that had recently been put up by children and their friends.

The schools are still closed and there is little likelihood of their being opened for another week or two and it is rumored that unless the dealers are able to supply them with coal they will be closed indefinitely.

ST. PAUL'S MEN'S CLUB.

On account of the Board of Health's order prohibiting club meetings, the regular meeting of the club for October has been postponed. This meeting will be announced later when restrictions are removed.

Unless otherwise notified, the Annual Dinner will be held on the evening of November 7th, 1918. A full attendance is required as this meeting will be one of the most important ones ever held. Keep this date free from all other engagements.

An honor roll will be placed in the club rooms for all the members who are in service. President Smith requests the co-operation of every member in making this roll correct. Anyone who knows of a member in the service will be assisting by sending the name to Fred G. Smith, 675 Boulevard, Westfield, N. J.

NAVY LEAGUE NEWS—PAPER DRIVE ABANDONED

Request, However, That They Be Sold and Funds Turned Over For Use of the Boys.

The results obtained for the Navy League Free Wool Fund in the newspaper drive held in June, were so satisfactory that many friends of the League have asked that another collection be made. Notwithstanding the work entailed the ladies who conducted that drive later decided to hold another the latter part of October. With the epidemic of influenza this plan has, of course, had to be abandoned.

The idea has been advanced, however, that all those interested in keeping the boys warm this winter, save their newspapers and magazines, dispose of them to the junk dealers, and turn the proceeds over to the Navy League for the benefit of its Free Wool Fund. Donations may be sent to Mrs. C. S. Norton, treasurer, 524 Lawrence avenue, or to Mrs. A. H. Meyers, chairman, 900 Rahway avenue.

1,000 Volunteers Wanted As Loan Lags Here

Westfield Calls On All Citizens to Subscribe More to Complete Towns Quota

1,000 TO BUY $100 BONDS

PRESIDENT RENEWS LOAN APPEAL; RELAXATION WOULD MEAN DEFEAT "WHEN VICTORY SEEMS TO BE IN SIGHT."

Washington, Oct. 14.—President Wilson today issued this statement on the Fourth Liberty Loan:

The reply of the German Government to my note of inquiry dated Oct. 8 gives occasion for me to say to my fellow countrymen that neither that reply nor any other recent events have in any way diminished the vital importance of the Liberty Loan. Relaxation now, hesitation now, would mean defeat when victory seems to be in sight; would mean years of war instead of peace upon our own terms.

I earnestly request every patriotic American to leave to the Governments of the United States and of the Allies the momentous discussions initiated by Germany and to remember that, for each man, his duty is to strengthen the hands of these Governments and to do it in the most important way now immediately presented—by subscribing to the utmost of his ability for bonds of the Fourth Liberty Loan. That loan must be successful. I am sure that the American people will not fail to see their duty and make it successful.

The tied-up condition of Westfield with its severe handicap of all assemblages of every character prohibited on account of the influenza epidemic, has produced a crisis in the Liberty Loan drive and despite the heroic efforts of all the workers and the Liberty Loan Committee, Westfield has still to raise $287,250, the total subscriptions, up to this morning being $660,000. The Loan canvass positively must end on Saturday night.

The situation calls for the earnest consideration and thought of every patriotic citizen in Westfield, who is asked to go over it thoroughly and resolve to make an increase in his or her subscription. Only by the most complete canvass of the town will it be possible to make Westfield's quota of $947,250 complete.

The backward condition of the Loan in Westfield caused Chairman Edward S. Malmar, of the Liberty Loan Committee, to call a special meeting of the committee in the committee's headquarters in the Pearsall Building on Monday night where the chairman laid all the facts before the members. He stated that up to Monday night the canvass had brought the total subscriptions up to $600,000. Many of the canvassers were ill of the prevailing malady and this had interfered with their work. He said among other plans that had been considered was one calling for 1,000 volunteers in Westfield to take 1,000 more $100 bonds, one $100 bond for each person. That would bring in $100,000 more. Mr. Malmar also had a list of 75 residents who the committee thought, were possibly good for $5,000 each and he distributed the names to the members of the committee present with the request that these persons be interviewed and asked to take $5,000 each. The banks would make loans at the coupon rate of 4 1/4 per cent. for 90 days and carry the balance with three renewals at the rate half way between 4 1/4 and 6 per cent, which latter is the prevailing money lending rate. Only large amounts of bonds, however, could be carried by the banks under this arrangement.

The Playhouse had expected to raise $100,000 at its performances, but the ban on meetings had put a check on the plan and not over $75,000 could be expected from the Playhouse plan. Garwood would approximate about $35,000, which would come through the Westfield banks. Some citizens had learned of the backward condition of the canvass and had already sent in additional subscriptions to the committee's headquarters and he hoped there would be more of this. There was need of the utmost endeavor on the part of every citizen to make an addition to the subscription already made.

The committee thought highly of the 1,000 volunteer plan and will make a special drive on that feature. It is believed there are at least 1,000 persons in the town who can and will take one more $100 bond and they are asked to send in their subscriptions at once so that Westfield will be able to go over the top and beyond by Saturday night next.

There is positive no possibility that the Playhouse will be allowed to open this week and the people who have been holding back to make subscriptions through Mr. Flagg are earnestly requested by him to make their subscriptions through their local canvasser or send them in direct to Liberty Loan Headquarters. Chairman Malmar said last night the situation called for the earnest effort of every citizen to the utmost to put the Westfield quota across.

Notice of Annual Meeting

Notice is hereby given to members of WESTFIELD, NEW JERSEY, CHAPTER, AMERICAN RED CROSS, that pursuant to the By-Laws, and to the regulations of the Central Committee, the annual meeting of the Chapter will be held in the Town Hall, on WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 23, 1918, at eight o'clock, for the purpose of electing twenty-four (24) members of the Executive Committee, considering reports, and transacting such other business as may regularly be brought before the meeting.

FRANCE CALLS

REV. S. J. HERBEN

Pastor of First M. E. Church to Leave Next Week to Take Up Red Cross Work

DR. A. W. HAYES MAY COME

The call has come from the Red Cross in France asking the Rev. Stephen J. Herben, pastor of the First Methodist church, to come and be accepted, secured his passport, and will leave for France next week. Dr. Herben, having two sons in the service, has long wanted to go and early last June put in his application for the work. At a meeting of the church official board, held Monday night, a leave of absence was granted to Dr. Herben, and he was wished God speed.

Dr. Herben became the pastor of the First Methodist church in January, 1916, coming here from Orange, where he had been pastor of the Methodist church since 1912. He has two sons in the service, Stephen Joseph Herben, who is in the Red Cross work overseas, and George Foster Herben, who is in the medical corps service in this country. Dr. Herben was sent for by H. D. Gibson, manager of the Red Cross in France, who cabled for him to come over and help in the work.

Since coming to the First Methodist church Dr. Herben has had a very successful pastorate and the church under him has prospered.

It was due to his efforts that the very successful Gypsy Smith meetings were held, and on one occasion he was mentioned by the various pastors of the other denominational churches from their pulpits for the excellent work he had done in raising some $40,000 on Sunday, November 26th, 1916, for the completion of the new church building and parsonage and other financial items.

The duration of Dr. Herben's stay in France is indefinite, but it will probably be for the duration of the war.

The First M. E. church pulpit will be filled by supply pastors as soon as the church is allowed to reopen. It is rumored that Dr. Addison W. Hayes, former pastor, will be called to fill Dr. Herben's place in the latter's absence. When it was reported last spring that Dr. Herben intended going into Red Cross work, the supply committee from First M. E. church obtained a promise from Dr. Hayes that he would come to Westfield and take his old place which he filled so acceptably for so many years. Since then Dr. Hayes may have made other church arrangements and it is not certain that his services can now be obtained. He is now filling the pulpit at the Ridgewood, N. J., Methodist church and Mr. George D. Beatty, chairman of the Pulpit Supply Committee, said last night that for the present it would not be possible to secure Dr. Hayes. Dr. Tuttle, whose preaching has been very pleasing to the Methodists of Westfield, was a possibility as Dr. Herben's successor.

COLORED PASTOR

FORFEITS SUGAR

Food Administrator Settles Case of Hoarding.

Paul Q. Oliver, food administrator here, acting under orders of State Food Administrator Tyler, has made an adjustment in the case of Rev. William E. Smith, of the Bethel Baptist church, of this town, from whom over 100 pounds of sugar was seized by Mr. Oliver. The minister was carting it in a wheelbarrow from a hencoop to the parsonage on September 20 last. Rev. Smith is allowed eighteen pounds, one month's supply for October, for his family of nine; twenty-five pounds is given to a parishoner who made affidavit the sugar belonged to her, and the balance, consisting of sixty pounds, has been ordered sent to the Elizabeth General Hospital.

The State Department investigated the matter and decided the minister had about sixty pounds in excess of what he should rightfully retain.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Westfield Medical Society, at its October meeting, passed a resolution adopting the following minimum rates, to take effect November 1st: Office Consultations, $1.50; Telephone Consultations, $1.50; House Visits, $2.50; Night House Visits, $5.00.—Adv.

 While the regular season of the Philharmonic Society will not open until Thursday evening, November 14, the Orchestra will be heard on the evening before this date, on Wednesday, November 13, in a concert given exclusively for the soldiers, sailors and marines in the service of the United States and its allies. There will be no admission fee to this concert, tickets being distributed among the enlisted men.
 For the four series of New York concerts and the series of Sunday concerts to be given in Brooklyn, the following soloists are engaged, so far: Jascha Heifetz, Josef Hofmann, Hacha Elman, Louise Homer, Harold Bauer, Hulda Lashanska, Efram Zimbalist, Gulomar Novaes, Mary Jordan, Max Rosen, Mischa Levitzki, Lury Gates, Raoul Vidas, Yolanda Mero, Ethel Leginska, John Powell and Eddy Brown. Others, with whom negotiations are pending, will be announced later.
 The books for new subscribers for the twelve Thursday evening, sixteen Friday afternoon, four Saturday evening and twelve Sunday afternoon concerts of the Philharmonic Society scheduled for Manhattan, as well as the five Sunday afternoon concerts which will comprise the Brooklyn series, are now open at the Philharmonic business offices in Carnegie Hall.
 Century—"Freedom."
 "Freedom" will open at the Century next Saturday night. This is a patriotic piece of spectacular proportions—offered under the patronage of a long list of what Percy Hammond calls "solvent New Yorkers," and presented largely for the benefit of a war fund. It is professionally sponsored, however, the producers being Julie Opp Faversham and Lee Shubert. C. Lewis Hind and E. Lyall Swete have written the play, and the music is by Norman O'Neill.
 The piece is not a pageant, but a play, despite its twenty-five scenes and one thousand characters. Its periods range from the year 500 until the present time, and it traces Freedom through the ages. In the cast will be Marcia Van Dresser, E. Lyall Swete (producer as well as author and actor), Edward Martindel, Arleen Hackett, Henry Herbert, J. Harry Irvine, R. E. Lee Hill, Eric Snowdon, Mrs. Hudson Litchin, Eva Randolph, H. R. Irving and some 200 others.
 Fulton—"A Stitch in Time."
 This play is by Oliver D. Bailey and Lottie M. Meaney, who may be remembered as the collaborators in the case of "Pay Day," produced here a few seasons ago. It is not a war play. Irene Fenwick has the leading role, and the supporting company includes Ralph Keeler, Grace Carlyle, Robert Cain, Earle Mitchell, Evelyn Carter Carrington, Charles Hampden, David Higgins and J. H. Gilmour.
 Greenwich Village Theatre—"The Better 'Ole."
 The fame of this piece has preceded it to these shores by about a year, and presumably something of its quality is contained in the Bairnsfather cartoons. Captain Bairnsfather, with Captain

Arthur Elliot, has written it, and Herman Darewski has composed the necessary music. It shows the lighter side of trench life from the viewpoint of a trio of warriors—Old Bill, Bert and Alf.
 The production is being made at the Greenwich by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coburn, the heads of the Coburn Players. They have leased the theatre for the season, and their schedule of productions would indicate that "The Better 'Ole" will be kept on the boards only a month.
 In the cast, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Coburn, will be Colin Campbell, Charles McNaughton, Lark Taylor, Henry Warwick, Kenyon Bishop, Mona Desmond, and others. It will be produced on Saturday night.
 Harris—"The Riddle Woman."
 A Danish play by C. Jacobi was the basis of this piece, and the present version has been written by Charlotte E. Wells and Dorothy Donnelly, the latter now turned playwright in earnest. Of its content little is known, but it is vouchsafed that the scenes are laid in Copenhagen, and that "the story is modern and has to do with the commercial aristocracy of that city."
 Bertha Kalich will come back from the films to star in the piece, and will be supported by a cast weighed heavily with the names of the well-known. For example, there will be Robert Edeson, A. E. Anson, Chrystal Herne and Albert Brunning, to say nothing of Herbert Kansom, Frances Carson, Beatrice Allen, Beatrice Miller, Betty Bouton, and Petra Weston. It will open at the Harris tomorrow night.
 Hippodrome Enters Third Gale Month.
 Last week Charles Dillingham's gorgeous pageant, "Everything," entered upon the third month of its happy career at the New York Hippodrome, with its success firmly established as the greatest of all Dillingham masterpieces. The task of surpassing "Cheer Up" as a popular magnet was a real feat of the Hippodrome's resourcefulness and the producer's ingenuity, for last year created new records at the big playhouse. However, during the first two months of this current season, "Everything" has broken all records of attendance and it is the consensus of opinion that this is the most remarkable attraction, from every viewpoint, that the Hippodrome has ever staged. Matinees are given daily.
 Maxine Elliott—"Tea for Three."
 "Tea for Three" started its sixth week Monday. It still stands in the opinion of those who have seen it as the best comedy in years. Comparison with the best that Oscar Wilde or Geo. Bernard Shaw ever wrote are freely and frequently made and it can be said in all fairness that the J. M. Cooper Megreue comedy at Maxine Elliott's Theatre suffers nothing in comparison. Arthur Byron, Margaret Lawrence, Fred Perry and the others in the cast continue to give what critics called the best acting performance in New York.
 Selwyn—Jane Cowl in "Information Please."
 Jane Cowl begins her third week at the beautiful new Selwyn Theatre in "Information Please," the sparkling comedy written by herself and Jane Murnin. The public has fallen into the habit of referring to the attraction as "beautiful star, in a beautiful play, at a beautiful playhouse" and the appellation seems quite correct in each instance.

 The exceptionally fine supporting company includes Orme Caldara, Blanche Yurka, Henry Sepsenson, Alan Brooks, Malcolm Duncan, Heity Graham, Helen Salingier, Cecil Owen and several others who have been seen frequently in other plays with Miss Cowl.
 Strand—"The Romance of Tarzan."
 Vivid in characterization and gripping in plot is "The Romance of Tarzan" which visualizes the concluding chapters of Edgar Rice Burroughs' great story, "Tarzan of the Apes," which is presented at the Strand Theatre this week. Miss Holden will sing the "Celeste Aida" and for comparison "I Hear You Calling Me." Herbert Waterous, the baritone, will sing the Armorer's song from "Robin Hood," and George M. Cohan's latest patriotic song, "When You Come Back." Ralph H. Brigham and Herbert Sisson will alternate in rendering a solo on the pipe organ. The Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Carl Eduardo, will play Victor Herbert's "Irish Rhapsody."
 VAUDEVILLE
 Palace—Supreme Vaudeville
 The usual good bill is given this week headed by Florence Walton, Pelham Naval Band, Van and Schenck, Willie Weston, Roy Cummings and Helen Fernoy, "Somewhere with Pershing" (sketch), Krantz and La Salle, Valanova Troupe of Gypsies.
 BURLESQUE
 Columbia—"Hip-Hip-Hooray Girls!"
 The popular Hip-Hip-Hooray Girls company present a new two-act burlesque called "Frolics Abroad," at the Columbia Theatre this week. The scenes of the piece of which there are five, carry the spectators to gay spots in Paris, Switzerland, the Hawaiian Islands and elsewhere that boast of districts similar to New York's Great White Way and they show the methods employed in midnight revels character-

SUPREME COURT REVERSES DECISION

Recent Case Decided in Favor of Local Police Force Reversed

POLICE MAY ONLY ARREST

The Supreme Court has decided that policemen have no right to lay hands on a man after arresting him except in the performance of duty. It has reversed a decision of the Plainfield District Court in favor of Westfield policemen sued by George C. Manners. The action alleged false arrest and later the taking of his finger prints and putting him through the third degree.

The Supreme Court says the whole trial was a travesty on justice and that there was nothing in the case to justify the police in holding the man all night without a warrant.

Young Manners is now with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, but should he decide to reopen the case, this can be done without him being present.

WESTFIELD BOY HAS ARMY WEDDING

Sergt. Clifford French Married to Miss Edith Jones at Little Rock, Arkansas.

At Little Rock, Ark., an attractive military wedding was solemnized in the Y. M. C. A. hostess house at 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 7, 1918, when Miss Edythe Mae Jones, of Davidsonville, Md., and First Sergeant J. Clifford French, of Westfield, N. J., were united in marriage, the Rev. Phillip Cone Fletcher, of the First Methodist Church, officiating. Mrs. Ada Parker, hostess of the house, received the guests. Just before the entrance of the bride, Mrs. Lee White sang "At Dawning," and during the ceremony appropriate selections were given on the violin by Miss Cardanes.

The rooms were decorated in white clematis, ferns and flags and were lighted with candles.

Sergt. French is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. French, of West Broad street, Westfield, N. J., and was formerly a member of Co. K., N. G. N., J., of Plainfield. He was nearly a year in Camp Custer, Mich., and has lately been transferred to the Officers Training School at Camp Pike, Ark.

OBJECT TO CLOSING OF CHURCHES

The First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Cranford, has sent a formal protest to the State Department at Trenton, N. J., saying "We consider the order closing the churches to be both unconstitutional and discriminating and ask that at this time should not the doors of the churches be opened wide so that people may gather and invoke God's protection as promised in the Bible in the Ninety-first Psalm? 'Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High thy habitation; There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.' Feeling that we, as American citizens are within our rights under the Constitution of the United States to meet and worship God, we respectfully request permission to continue our services as usual."

AUTOMOBILE SKIDS; DRIVER THROWN 30 FEET

A Government auto truck carrying mail between New York City and Lancaster, Pa., early Friday morning last skidded into a telephone pole at Miller's Corner, near Mountainside Borough Hall. The driver, Harry Jones, of Doylestown, Pa., was thrown thirty feet into a field and badly bruised. The guard, James D. Salter, of Flemington, was thrown into the roadside and severely injured on the head and body. He was taken to Plainfield for treatment. The body and top of the auto truck were smashed, but none of the mail bags were torn open, and the driver was able to take the truck to Plainfield under its own power.

NEW JERSEY DISTRICT MUST RAISE SIXTY PER CENT OF ITS QUOTA THIS WEEK

"Only four working days remain in which to raise 60 per cent of our quota if the loan is to go over the top in this district," said G. H. Klincutt, chairman of Sub-District Seven, covering the twelve Northern counties of New Jersey, today. "This means that we will have to do at least three times as well the balance of this week as we did in each of the preceding weeks merely to fill our allotment. To subscribe anything less than our full quota is unthinkable at this critical period of the war."

"Germany is looking for weak spots in our armor. Now is the time to show her that we are invulnerable. The war is not over until it is won and it is not won yet. Everybody must realize this fact despite the peace talk and show that they realize it by buying all the bonds they can."

Up to the close of business on Saturday, October 12th, Sub-District Seven had subscribed $57,189,300 or 32.7 per cent. of its quota of $143,850,000.

FRUIT FOR THE WOUNDED AT COLONIA HOSPITAL

An important service for the wounded soldiers at Colonia Hospital has been established in Westfield in the endeavor to supply them regularly with fresh fruit. It is a service greatly appreciated by those who have suffered so much for their country and are now being slowly restored as far as they ever can be to health and physical vigor. Residents of Westfield are being invited to contribute small sums weekly (ten, fifteen, twenty cents, etc.) for this purpose. The fund will be administered by Mrs. Theodore J. Miller, Mrs. Robert A. Fairbairn, Mrs. Robert I. Richardson and Mrs. Charles N. Coddling. An endeavor to reach as many as possible by personal solicitation will be made but any one who desires to take part in this valuable service may inform any of the above women and arrangements will be made for the regular collection of their contribution. Fruit will be purchased economically at wholesale and its distribution will be made through the Red Cross Convalescent House at Colonia.

A letter from Mr. Waldo A. Amos, Field Director of the Red Cross, is appended.

Red Cross Convalescent House,
U. S. A. General Hospital, No. 3,
Rahway, New Jersey.

October 11, 1918.
Mrs. Theodore J. Miller,
Westfield, New Jersey.

My dear Mrs. Miller:

In reference to your suggestion that the people of Westfield undertake to provide fruit regularly for the patients in this hospital, may I say that I thoroughly approve of the suggestion. You are aware of course that Red Cross does not solicit any subscriptions for work of this character. This is due to the fact that we appeal to the country once a year for a fund of one hundred million dollars and the country is always so generous in its response that we are provided amply with funds for carrying on our work.

There are of course many phases of relief and social work which cannot be carried by this fund. The work which you mention for example of providing fruit for the patients in this hospital is work of this character. While it would be entirely possible for us in certain cases to provide fruit, it would be impossible to undertake it for the entire body of patients and yet it is a very decided need and something which contributes a great deal to the health and happiness of the men here. If you therefore can undertake it as a separate venture, the Red Cross here at the hospital would be very glad indeed to arrange for the distribution of the fruit.

I have written thus at length in order to make it perfectly clear to you that while such work is absolutely necessary and contributes a great deal toward the maintenance of good conditions at the hospital, it is not an appeal issued by Red Cross for its work but an appeal issued by me as an individual for work among the men.

In conclusion may I express my deep appreciation to you on behalf of the patients in the hospital and assure you of my honest approval.

Very truly yours,
WALDO A. AMOS,
Field Director.

BENJAMIN WOODRUFF MEETS WITH ACCIDENT

B. H. Woodruff met with an accident yesterday while driving in his meat wagon. The seat gave way and Mr. Woodruff fell between the whiffletrees and body of the wagon, bruising his leg and back. The colored boy accompanying him, immediately stopped the horse which prevented what might otherwise have been a very serious accident.

DEATH OF J. W. MC GWIRE JR.

Young Man, Well Known to the Younger Circle, Passes Away Friday of Pneumonia.

The funeral services of the late John W. McGwire, Jr., was held at his late residence Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, and in consequence of the Board of Health restrictions, were private. The Rev. Stephen J. Herben, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiated and the interment was at Fairview cemetery, Monday morning.

Mr. McGwire, who was 24 years old, had not been of robust health for a number of years, and recently accepted a position with one of the leading local merchants, where he could be out of doors. The immediate cause of his death was pneumonia.

He was born in Bayonne and had lived in this town for the past seventeen years. He attended the public schools and at the time of his death was connected with the Chipman Chemical Company in New York. Besides his father and mother he is survived by four brothers, Corporal Allen McGwire, who is in service overseas; Thomas, Edwin and Wallace McGwire.

MRS. HELEN RAY PROUDFOOT DIES AT HER MOTHER'S HOME

Mrs. Helen Ray Proudfoot, wife of Perry A. Proudfoot, teacher of science in the High School, died after a very short illness of pneumonia on Saturday last at the home of her mother, Dr. Mary L. Ray, 406 Summit avenue. Mrs. Proudfoot was born near Galesburg, Illinois, September 16, 1896, and was 22 years old last month. She formerly resided in Roselle and came to this town three years ago. Besides her husband, who was taken ill a few days before her and was removed to the home of his mother, in Roselle, she leaves a little daughter, Helen, who is nineteen months old, her mother, a twin sister, Miriam Ray; another sister, Dorothy Ray, and one brother, Harold Ray. The funeral was held Tuesday morning at ten o'clock from the home of her mother and was private. Rev. Dr. W. I. Steans, of the Presbyterian church, and Rev. Dr. C. E. Goodall, of the Baptist church, of Roselle, officiated. Interment at Elizabeth.

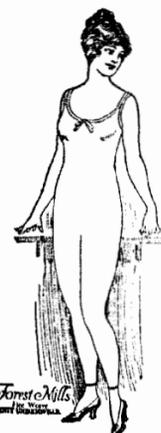

FORD CAR TURNS TURTLE

A Ford car, driven by Mrs. Joseph Lund, of 177 Washington street, Plainfield, turned turtle in front of Tuttle's coal yards at noon yesterday. Mr. A. D. Tuttle, who witnessed the accident, immediately went to her aid and with the assistance of his men, righted the car and rescued the four passengers, none of whom were hurt. The car, after being straightened out, returned to Plainfield under its own power.

JAMES JONES DIES.

James Jones, who was well known in Westfield's colored colony, died of pneumonia at his home, 634 Downer street, early Monday morning. Mr. Jones formerly was in the employ of Enoch Miller, of East Broad street, but at the time of his death was employed by the Central Railroad of New Jersey, at the freight house. He is survived by a widow.

SAVE THE WASTE AND WIN THE WAR

Be patriotic and use newspapers efficiently—when you have finished reading your copy of The Leader hand it to somebody who has not seen one. Make each copy of a newspaper do double duty in war time and save paper tonnage for war purposes.

Splendid work is being done in Westfield for the Liberty Loan. But Raise More Than the Quota. more hard work must be done if Westfield is going to raise its quota but the time in which the work must be done is rapidly growing short and efforts must be redoubled to attain the amount desired. There is little doubt that the full amount required in most of the districts will be subscribed, but in some of the sections there is sure to be a deficit and it is up to those districts where the organization is complete to do a little more than they have been asked to do.

That the prevailing epidemic of Spanish Influenza has had a most depressing effect in many cities as it has affected the loan in Westfield, is not to be questioned and in some towns little real effective work has been done for the Loan. It is not necessary to remind everyone that the Loan must be oversubscribed and no sensible man will be deceived by the insidious peace propaganda which has been kept at the front at this particular time. It has become noticeable that the talk of peace proposals has always been most active during the periods when Liberty Loans were being discussed.

Any effect that the talk of peace may have had on the Loan Campaign must be nullified by means of a large oversubscription. No American must lose sight of the fact that large sums of money will be needed for a long time even if peace should result from the recent appeal from Germany. The army which is in France must be maintained and brought back to the United States and paid until it is mustered out of the service. If peace came tomorrow the necessity for full subscriptions to the present loan would be just as great as it will be if the war is to be continued indefinitely.

Medical authorities have attributed the spread of the "Flu" in the Army Camps to the crowded condition that necessarily exist in such centers and when the violence of the disease and its rapid progress is considered the death rate has not been astonishing but the fact stands out strong and clear that fatalities would have been more numerous if the situation had not been handled with a vigorous and skilled hand. The discipline of the Army has stood the test well and once more it has shown its value.

The lesson of discipline which has from time to time been impressed since the beginning of the war upon the civilian population has counted strong in the large cities where epidemics usually find most of their victims. The readiness with which the American people have fallen into the habit of obeying orders and requests from the constituted authorities has made the handling of the situation easier than it possibly could have been under ordinary peace conditions.

There has been a spontaneous response to every suggestion that was sent out by the health authorities and everywhere there has been sincere co-operation from the state and local officials. America is learning to handle war problems as effectively as it has always handled the problems of peace and the country is going to be more efficient in every way than it has ever been.

There is always a serious problem facing the theatrical Amusements business in war times in Wartime, and it is not only just but fair to give credit to the men who make it their business to supply such amusements and who have done a great deal to maintain the spirit of patriotism in the people. Healthy strong plays breathing a splendid spirit of loyalty have predominated at the playhouses in New York City and in the great centers of population and the slightest criticism of the loyalty of a play or a playwright has been sufficient to end the career of any production of that type.

The public must be amused as well as occupied in its hours of leisure which are not as numerous as in peace times and New York theatres have had the greatest season in history in a great many respects. Credit also must be given for the great assistance given to every one of the great patriotic movements by the men and the women of the theatrical profession.

High salaried stars have been released from paying engagements to play for the men in France and every theatre in the land has made its stage a forum for the sale of Liberty Bonds. The men and women of the stage are doing their bit.

If some of our political wisacres are to be believed the Peace and coming of peace brings Politics with it a serious menace that must not be ignored and that danger is the return of Politics as a matter uppermost in the minds of a large percentage of the people. A great many sensible men have seen as one of the benefits that would come from the war the elimination of the professional politician and the appearance of the business man and the patriot as the greatest factor in the handling of public affairs.

One thing is quite sure and that is now no generation of politicians that can be developed through the war can ever be any worse than the men who have at times dominated the two political parties. There is little doubt that the men who are giving their time to the country in the army will feel that they will have the right to be recognized when the war is over and they will be sustained in that demand by the men who went with them to the front.

But the fact cannot be ignored that the majority of the men now in the Army are real patriots and a large percentage of these patriots are business men as well as patriots and their right will not be questioned. It is, however, pretty safe to assume that the political parties that now dominate must readjust themselves to meet the new conditions or be eliminated. Possibly elimination may not be such a serious thing after all and the ideal political organization may result.

Little attention is being paid to the professions which the political parties have made in the platforms adopted at Trenton last week. As a matter of fact the general public is not worrying much about political promises at the present time. It is basing its hope more upon the character and qualification of individual candidates than it is upon high sounding professions enunciated by conventions.

Little was expected from State Democratic convention and its platform has the usual amount of meaningless matter. Unfortunately for the Democratic Party in New Jersey Nugent of Newark, has a strong hold upon the reins which keep the regulars well under his thumb. The public will not be deceived by the attitude of the Democratic convention on the trolley fare proposition. If the Public Utility Corporation needs the Democratic votes in the Assembly there will be nothing embarrassing to the party leaders when the time comes to deliver the vote.

Of the two platforms that of the Republican Party sounds clearest and more definite but it is not a time to worry about platforms. Elect the right man and they will control their conduct by the exigencies of public affairs as they may develop and if we have the right men in office the people's interest will be safe.

COMMUNICATED

Westfield, N. J., Oct. 11, 1918. Editor of the Leader, Dear Sir:—The National Highway Council requires that municipalities submit, through the County Engineers and State Highway Department, an estimate of their expenditures for street construction and maintenance during 1919.

In submitting my estimate of the cost of street maintenance in Westfield next year I made a clerical error and stated the amount as $85,000.00 instead of $35,000.00 as intended. The larger amount has been published in several papers and in order to allay any misapprehension regarding the matter I would be glad to have you publish this letter stating the facts. Very truly yours, A. W. VARS, Town Engineer.

LIBERTY LOAN AND U. S. CREDIT Editor of Westfield Leader: If there are any persons in town having doubts concerning the credit of our Government, or its ability to pay its bonds and interest, I would like to remind them of the fact that at the time of our Civil War in 1861-65, when I was a young man, the United States was obliged to issue bonds bearing interest at the large rate of 7 3-10 per cent., whereas our present Liberty Loan bonds are at 4 1/2 per cent., and are being freely taken at that figure because of their intrinsic value.

Other countries are now paying the following interest rates on their bonded indebtedness, viz.: Anglo-French, 5 per cent.; Argentine, 5 and 6 per cent.; Dom. of Canada, 5 per cent.; Imp. Japan, 4 1/2 per cent.; United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, 5 1/2 per cent.; French Republic, 5 1/2 per cent.; Russia, 6 1/2 per cent. To show the ability of our government to pay all that it owes, it is estimated that its bonded debt is only about 5 per cent. of the resources, while that of Great Britain, the next richest country in the world, is about 33 per cent. of its worth.

Our "Liberty Loans" are called by that name for the reason that the liberties of the American people, and of all mankind, are menaced by the militarism and despotism of Germany and its partners in this war. Do not hesitate to lend the United States your money at 4 1/2 per cent. to enable us to win in this great conflict, while you have the opportunity, for it is the safest investment in the world today. If our government does not obtain what funds it needs from us now through bond issues, it will be obliged to levy heavy taxes on our property as an offset for any deficiency. Let us all be truly patriotic, and subscribe liberally for the present "Liberty Loan," doubling the amount that we took of the previous one, if possible to do so.

Peace near, or peace far off, the Government requires more money to finance its present gigantic operations, and we should be willing and anxious to render the assistance it asks of loyal Americans. Yours Patriotically, WM. H. SAMPSON.

In compliance with the ruling of the pulp and paper section of the war industries board regarding the conservation of newsprint paper, all subscriptions must be discontinued at date of expiration, unless renewal is paid in advance.

We ask your patriotic co-operation with us in complying with this wartime measure of our government by bringing or sending in your renewal.

Following is the new ruling of the war industries board, Washington, D. C., with reference to renewal of subscriptions:

"Discontinue sending papers after date of expiration of subscription, unless subscription is renewed and paid for. (This ruling effective October 10, 1918)."

In accordance with this ruling, the "Leader" will discontinue, on and after above date, all subscriptions when the time is up, unless renewed by subscriber previous to time of expiration. An X appears on the label. Notice of expiration is mailed in advance of expiration; then in accordance with the above ruling, your paper will be discontinued when the time is up, the war industries board assuming that if not renewed, the paper is no longer desired. Look at the label on your paper right now. Renew it at once.

LIBERTY BONDS HELP YOUR BOY TO CARRY ON

Part of the Money You Lend Uncle Sam Goes Toward Making Life Comfortable at Front.

Perhaps you will be glad to know that some of the money you will invest in Liberty Bonds—because your boy and the next-door-woman's boy are over there—will go for something beside just munitions and equipment. It will no doubt hearten you to know that Tom or Jack or Jim will not be in the trenches up to his knees in mud every moment. You want him there most of the time because that is what you sent him over there for, but you are glad to think, too, of the moments when he is just a boy again, the boy who played baseball or football with the boy next door, even after he had "grown up."

Maybe he is doing that very thing over there—taking a rest period and wielding a bat or tossing a ball on the back lot of the recreation camp.

One of the big items in the war bill is an appropriation of $250,000 for athletic material.

One wonders if it isn't perhaps the first war in the history of the world where a football, baseball or medicine ball was considered as important in some respects as a cannon ball. They are furnished, of course, to keep the men fit, for only as they can keep fit will they be able to "carry on."

4th LIBERTY LOAN

ABE MARTIN

No man is justified in thinking he's done his bit until he's the owner of at least one bond of every one of the four Liberty loans.

TO AMERICA AT WAR.

By CALE YOUNG RICE. (For the Fourth Liberty Loan.)

Oh, my America, I could avow None ever had a country till this hour, When men have found within their hearts the power, Fighting for more than country, to endow The soul of Liberty, half-born till now, With strength to link the patriot's lesser plea Unto the larger of Humanity— Which sees at last that war must end, and how!

Fight then the fight for Freedom, as of old, And even more for Union! For, apart, Nations will ever stab each to the heart, And Freedom for a pottage mess be sold. Fight for the greatest flag ever unfurled, For one to encompass you—and all the world!

A CHEERFUL GIVER.

Let those who are dubious as to whether they can afford to purchase more Liberty Bonds during this campaign, as well as those who are deciding how many more bonds to purchase, apply the moral in the little story narrated by a twenty-one-year-old soldier on the steps of the Subtreasury of New York.

He had been invalided home from France. Although he had hardly attained his majority, he had experienced far more than most men experience in a lifetime. Leaning upon a stick and looking down upon his audience with eyes which seemed to penetrate every auditor, he said:

"I know that many of you have already bought bonds. You think that you have bought all that you can afford to buy." Here he paused a moment and then in a voice which fairly quivered with emotion he added, "I have lost one leg, but I am ready to go back and give my life."

Were it possible for you to go "over there" for the purpose of ascertaining how much to lend to the cause you, too, would return, ready not only to LEND your money to the Government, but to GIVE it to the Government; ready not only to give your money, but life itself.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

My Dad's a soldier over there, But I can help him, never fear. I'm buying bonds with all my might 'Cause I'm a soldier over here.

Christmas "Over There" and The Gift the Boy Will Like Best

The boys have written home that they can buy almost everything which is being sent over there, except your photograph. They can't buy it, and therefore it is one of the things that will be sure to please him, as nothing else can. It is a long and difficult trip for mail to travel—don't disappoint him by delaying, but have them taken now, and thus be sure that they will be there.

Charge Accounts and Common Sense

Elsie Young came in slowly. She removed her hat, threw it on the library table and dropped wearily into a big chair.

"I'm tired and cross and disappointed—and I want a cup of tea," she announced gloomily.

Her Best Friend smiled. "You may have as much tea as you like. It will be here in a moment. Whatever has made you slump so thoroughly?" she asked.

Elsie revived enough to sit up straight. "I saw a suit in Bamberger's that I was crazy about—it was the only one they had in just that model, and I didn't have enough with me to make a deposit.

"I know it will be gone," she wailed, dropping back again, "wasn't it just my luck?"

The maid trundled in the tea cart. "I've often said you should have a charge account," the Best Friend remarked, preparing to pour. "Think how convenient it would have been today. Lots of times I see bargains that are worth while—my charge account places them within my reach.

"You see," she went on, "you do not always have ready money, or rather, money READY for such events—but if you can take advantage of the tempting chance to save by CHARGING the things, you will naturally put aside the amount in time to pay your bill. Now drink this and cheer up."

Elsie took the cup gratefully. "But I'm afraid I'd buy too many foolish things if I had an account. I do now."

"Then you should be ashamed of yourself," sternly pronounced her Best Friend, "you sound like one of those clinging-vine women in mid-Victorian fiction. The type's out of fashion, my dear. Money isn't something to fritter, these days, and you should know where every cent of yours goes.

"A charge account," she added in a milder tone, "shows you just what you spend. It makes you serious about money. If you are extravagant one month, when the bill comes in and you see it in black and white, you decide to reform. And you do."

"But it's so easy to charge all sorts of little things—I should think a charge account would go to one's head," said Elsie, placing her empty cup on the tea cart.

"Not after the first month," her Best Friend laughed, "I guess we all are a little excited when we begin, but one's bill is an accusing record of one's folly, and common sense soon sets in."

Elsie sighed.

"When I think of that suit at Bamberger's I could weep. I'm going down in the morning to buy it—and if it's gone—" she dropped her hands despairingly.

"Wouldn't they put it aside?"

"They didn't know me," said Elsie, "so how could they know I'd come back, especially when I couldn't make a deposit?"

"Another reason!" cried her Best Friend triumphantly. "When you have an account you go to one store regularly and the people get to know you and—I wish you would try it."

"Don't worry," declared Elsie, "I'm going to—tomorrow, for better or for worse."

"It'll be for better," smiled her Best Friend, passing the sugarless cookies.

YOUTH CAN FIND A WAY.

"After my husband had decided that he really could not give up anything more in order to save money with which to buy Liberty Bonds, he asked our young daughter—who is as canny as her Scotch grandmother—to look him over and see if she could suggest anything which he could change without sacrificing his well-groomed appearance," said a suburban woman to a friend on a train.

"She gave the matter careful thought then calmly announced: "Yes, Daddy, you can give up wearing starched collars. The laundress says starch is awful high. Your collars could be done at home, just like Teddy's. You'd look nicer, too, I think, and you'd save your neckties by not having to yank them so hard to get them straight."

WE ARE HELPING A VICTORY DRIVE

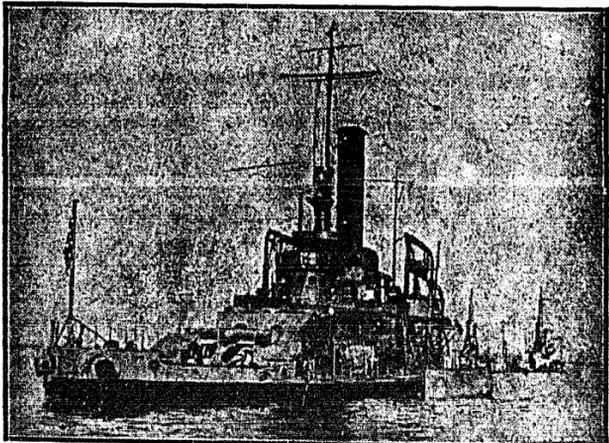

"Hell, Heaven or Hoboken by Christ-mas!"

That is the latest battle cry for the American soldier. With that cry thousands of American men are going over the top, and with that before them they are pushing forward for Victory.

We want that Victory. They must have our help to get it. They are bearing the brunt of the drive for Victory, but there is a part which has to be played by the Americans at home. That part is buying Liberty Bonds. Liberty Bonds furnish the sinews of war. Liberty Bonds mean food, clothing, guns and ammunition for those boys over there. And those things are necessary for a Victory Drive.

Today's Best Bet—Liberty Bonds in all races, even the race to Berlin.

Buying Liberty Bonds will not only keep the mother ship on the job, but also provide plenty of submarines for her to be a foster parent to. Every dollar helps, whether it buys oil or coal or guns. Back the navy with your money!

WHERE LIBERTY BOND FUNDS GO

ONE THOUSAND DOLLAR LIBERTY BOND WILL BUY:

A FIELD kitchen, or one 16-inch shell, loaded, or one wireless outfit, one hospital X ray outfit, or one ambulance, or 33 rifles, or one ton of TNT high explosive powder, or one ton of smokeless powder, or 148 pairs of marching shoes, or six cases of surgical instruments, or ten complete overseas outfits for soldiers, or complete equipment for ten cavalry horses, or 50 six-inch shells, or ten sailors' clothes, or enough high explosive for ten 14-inch shells, or four heavy Browning machine guns, or 80 gas masks, or 25,000 rifles or machine gun cartridges, or pay the entire cost of a soldier for nearly eight months.

THE LIBERTY BOMB.

By ALICE WILLIAMS BROTHERTON of the Vigilantes

We were reckoning, laughing, each sacrifice made For our Liberty Bonds; when Jane, solemn and staid, Brought her penny-box, poured out the whole jingling sum, Crying, "Papa, please buy me a Liberty Bomb!"

"Why, surely!" he said As he patted her head, "Each Liberty Bond is a Liberty Bomb!"

Oh, Kaiser, we're wiser than you are, you know By Liberty Bonds we shall "Pay as we go;" When you pay off, what's left of your army some day You'll find that there, still, is the Devil to pay Crying "Pay-day has come!" Let the day come, Each Liberty Bond is a Liberty Bomb!

If we can't man the trenches we, all, can retrench: Each bond is a bomb that will make the foe blench, Each bond that you buy, sir, 's a blow at the Kaiser; So you'd better buy all that you can, and then some! Who says dollars are dumb? You can't follow the drum, But—each Liberty Bond is a Liberty Bomb!

When You Fight--Fight

FIGHT as these American soldiers fought in the streets of Fismes. "They covered themselves with glory," the papers say. Of course they did—they are Americans.

They met the finest of the enemy's troops in a terrific hand-to-hand struggle. They used their guns—their bayonets—their bare fists. Every American soldier went after his man desperately, fearlessly, persistently, with one great driving purpose—to whip that Prussian Guard, to silence its machine guns—to win!

It's a pretty good way to fight—this American way. It wins battles over there, it will win a splendid victory over here—if we fight when we fight—if we buy Liberty Bonds to our utmost.

When you fight—fight! When you buy—buy!

Lend the way they fight—Buy Bonds to your utmost

LAD AT THE FRONT GETS ONLY THE BEST

Money That You Lend Uncle Sam Through Liberty Bonds Is Not Spent Carelessly

The money that you lend the Government through Liberty Bonds is not spent carelessly for second-rate equipment for your boy in the service. The sort of thing that we speak of as "just as good" is not good enough for him. Only the VERY BEST is. The kit of the American soldier is not only comprehensive, but its contents are "sterling" in every respect. From extra shirt to pipe tobacco the articles in this outfit carry the trade mark of the most famous makers. And whenever the Government cannot obtain a thing which it thinks is good enough it manufactures that thing itself.

When it decided to furnish its fighting men with their "smokes" it did not say this or that brand of cigarettes or smoking tobacco will fill the bill, even though it is not the finest. It chose none but high standard products. Many of the boys now smoke better tobacco than they ever did. So it is with everything. The best leather is chosen for their shoes; the finest wool or cotton materials for their uniforms. When sick or wounded they have the best doctors and nurses of the world at their bedside. You help to put them there.

Our soldier boys very often come home from camp or service abroad looking better than ever. They miss many of the comforts of home, it is true, but this may have proven to be a good thing for them. Just now the soldier is faring, in some respects, better than we are. He has better canned goods, razor blades and matches than we at home can obtain, for instance. It is only a small consolation for us to realize this, but we are learning to cling to every straw. And when our boys write to us it is nearly always of how much the little things mean to them, so they really are BIG THINGS after all.

The money realized from the sale of Liberty Bonds of the Fourth Loan will do even better work than that of the three previous loans, since the Government's purchasing experts are no longer experimenting and weeding out. Because of their experiments, because they now know their market, the margin of loss is infinitesimal. Your Liberty Loan dollar has a purchasing power of one hundred cents.

See that your boy gets only the BEST.

★ It's a good idea, making the button reproduce the flag. Of course when it is run up the mast the flag with the red border and the star on a field of white will overtop it. But both are service flags, and it will fly, and properly, just beneath the service flag. ★

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

STATE OF NEW JERSEY. EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT. WHEREAS, JOHN H. CAPSTICK, was at the general election held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, in the year Nineteen hundred and sixteen, elected by the voters of the Township of Westfield, to represent this State in the House of Representatives of the United States, and subsequently duly qualified himself as such Representative, and after such election and qualification, to wit, on the Seventeenth day of March, Nineteen hundred and eighteen, departed this life, thereby causing a vacancy to exist in the representation of this State in the House of Representatives of the United States;

THEREFORE, I, WALTER E. EDGE, Governor of the State of New Jersey, pursuant to law, do hereby issue this, my Proclamation, directing that an election be held according to law in said Congressional District, on Tuesday, the Fifth day of November next, ensuing, and date hereof, for the purpose of electing a member of the House of Representatives to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the said JOHN H. CAPSTICK.

GIVEN under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey, at Trenton, this Sixteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and eighteen and of the Independence of the United States the One hundred and forty-third.

ENDORSED: "Filed July 16, 1918. THOMAS F. MARTIN, Secretary of State."

STATE OF NEW JERSEY. DEPARTMENT OF STATE. I, THOMAS F. MARTIN, Secretary of State of the State of New Jersey, DO HEREBY CERTIFY that the foregoing is a true copy of Proclamation by the Governor, and the endorsements thereon, as the same is taken from and compared with the original filed in my office on the Sixteenth day of July, A. D., 1918, and now remaining on file therein.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Official Seal at Trenton, this Eighteenth day of July, A. D., 1918.

THOMAS F. MARTIN, Secretary of State.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.

TO JAMES E. GRAPE. By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of the State of New Jersey, made on the day of the date hereof, in a case wherein Mutual Building and Loan Association of Westfield, N. J., is complainant, and you and others are defendants, you are required to appear and answer to the complainant's bill on or before the twenty-fifth day of November next, or in default thereof such decree will be made against you as the Chancellor shall think equitable and just.

The said bill is filed to foreclose a mortgage that was made by you and your wife to complainant dated October 13, 1915, recorded in book 344 of Mortgages for Union County at page 393, covering lands in the Town of Westfield, Union County, New Jersey, and you are made a defendant because you hold a mortgage upon the mortgaged premises which is subsequent to that of the complainant and will be cut off by a sale thereunder.

The readers of this paper will be glad to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. NEW REGULATIONS FOR FOOD CONSERVATION

—Buy Liberty Bonds—
Twelve General Orders Put Out by Food Administration for Eating Places

—Buy Them in Westfield—
TABLED HOTEDISPENSEDWITH
 —Buy Liberty Bonds—

A new program for all eating places effective October 21st, is announced by the United States Food Administration. The new rules apply to all places where cooked food is sold to be eaten on the premises and affect nine million regular or occasional patrons.

The general plan of the Food Administration with regard to the conduct of public eating places has been reduced to twelve definite "General Orders." These twelve rules furnish the specific measure by which the Food Administration plans to carry out, so far as public eating places are concerned, the announced plan that for next year the American food program will be a direct reduction in the consumption of all food, particularly the staples, rather than a series of emergency regulations such as meatless and wheatless days and meals, and the substitution of one food for another.

These general orders prohibit the serving of any bread that does not contain at least twenty per cent of wheat flour substitutes, and of this Victory bread no more than two ounces may be served to a patron at one meal; if no Victory bread is served four ounces of other breads, such as corn bread, muffins, Boston Brown bread, etc., may be served. Bread served at boarding camps is excepted as is bread containing at least one-half rye flour. No bread is to be served until after the first course is on the table and no bread or toast may be served as a garniture.

Bacon is also barred as a garniture and only one meat may be served to a patron at a meal. Included in the definition of meat are beef, mutton, pork and poultry. Not more than a half ounce of butter is to be served to one person at a meal, and Cheddar (American) cheese is limited to the same amount. "Double" cream is banned.

No sugar bowls will be on the table, a teaspoonful is the limit for a meal, and then only when asked for. Two pounds is the allowance to be observed for each ninety meals served, including cooking.

No waste food may be burned but all must be saved to feed animals or reduced to obtain fats.

Simplified service, with meats and vegetables on one plate instead of in side dishes, and only necessary silverware, and simplification of the menu and the menu card are urged as a means of saving not only food, but labor and paper. The general bill of fare should be abandoned because the great variety of dishes listed makes waste through spoilage. Simple bills for breakfast, luncheon and dinner with limited dishes, changed from day to day for variety, are recommended, also the use of hors d'oeuvres, vegetable salads, fruits, seafood, made over dishes and animal by-products, which save staples and utilize many available foods.

The War program discourages the table d'hote meal except when confined to few courses and small variety, as on the Continent. American plan hotels should require guests to write orders, and all menus should be in plain English, actually describing the food.

being unable to hold meetings through the Board of Health restrictions and Regent Littlefield has sent out a request that all members will exert themselves to the utmost and to buy bonds through any channel but to buy them in Westfield.

Chairman E. S. Malmar received the following telegram late last night: "The Eyes of the world today are on the Fourth Liberty Loan, the President's vigorous answer to Germany demands from us a smashing response to this request for money to win the war on behalf of the Government our message to every city, town, and village and to every man and woman in this district is 'double your subscription to the last loan, go to your bank and borrow,' our slogan is 'Double the Third.' Benjamin Strong, Chairman, Liberty Loan Committee, 2nd Federal District.

One of the bond salesmen of the Fourth Liberty Loan tells the following story of patriotism and self-sacrifice. In the course of his canvass, he came to the home of a widow, the mother of five children all under eighteen. One—the eldest—is an enlisted soldier overseas who has twice been "over the top." There are four younger children who go to school. The mother, a woman whose splendid spirit shines out of her bright eyes, goes to a factory in a nearby town each day, and works that she may have the means to support her children and her modest home. Before she leaves in the morning she prepares breakfast for her children and herself and puts up a lunch for each one. When she returns home at night she cooks the dinner before she can rest for a bite herself. On Sunday—the day that most people look forward to as a day of rest and pleasure—this good woman washes and irons, in order that her children, her home, and herself shall always appear at their best. On Monday, back to the factory—and yet, when the bond salesman told her the purpose of his call, she greeted him cordially and said without hesitation, "Yes, I want a bond," and immediately paid her initial deposit. Further, she said she was glad to buy the bonds to help to pay for some of the things her boy would need over in France. She is at present carrying bonds of the former loans, and this noble woman is planning to use these bonds for her fighting son when he comes home again, for, as she said out of the largeness of her mother's heart, "He'll need clothes and lots of things."

Westfield is still below its quota on the Fourth Liberty Loan. Only a couple of days remain for the citizens to respond as they should. Surely in this woman's inspiring sacrifice and pleasure in doing her share there is a lesson for every man and woman in Westfield. She has no motor car, belongs to no club, has no handsome gowns, or new furs, nor does she plan to use her earnings to buy any, but with single loftiness of purpose, she has placed her son and her all at the services of her country in its need. Search your own heart! How many more bonds are YOU going to take?
