

REPORT ON WATER SUPPLY IS GIVEN TO THE TOWN COUNCIL

Engineer Bowe Contends Driven Wells the best System for use in Westfield as to Economy and Minimum time for Installation.

THE TEST WILL COST ABOUT $6,000.00

At the meeting of the town council on Monday night the Water Survey Commission presented its report. The report was a lengthy one and was made by Thomas F. Bowe, consulting engineer. Mr. Bowe in the report summarizes the conditions in the metropolitan district of New Jersey and states that at the present time there is a critical situation confronting a majority of the civil sub-divisions. He further states that this town with its present population of 18,000 in 1940 and 31,000 in 1960 and on that basis may also anticipate its daily use of water in 1940 as 1,000,000 gallons and in 1960 as 3,720,000.

The report considers the independent supplies of surface water available in this town including Green Brook, Stony Brook and the Passaic River projects. Mr. Bowe states that as to each of these sources the supply of water is satisfactory for introduction to a purification plant which would deliver the same suitable water to meet the highest standard of every possible requirement. In each case the acquisition of large tracts of land for reservoir and purification purposes and the relocation of highways is involved with consequent difficulty in securing title.

The report further states that while the watershed involved in the Stony Brook project is comparatively free from sources of pollution the existence of the Bonnie Burn Sanatorium on the Green Brook shed adds a factor which cannot be wholly dispensed, and that the various factors which should be considered in adopting either the Stony Brook or Green Brook sources show clearly that this town should eliminate them from consideration. On the Passaic River project the report states that the estimated cost does not provide for a storage reservoir as the cost of such a reservoir would increase the cost beyond the possibility of independent action by this town but without storage facilities unusual precautionary measures would be required. It is further pointed out in the report that while damage due to diversion of the river water has been carefully estimated the amount of such damage is by no means certain and therefore this project does not offer the relief sought.

On the possibility of a deep well supply the report states that all indications are favorable to the existence of such a supply within the limits of the Town of Westfield, but that it would cost about $6,000 to carry out the tests necessary to determine the truth of the indications. Mr. Bowe favors the driven well supply for the following reasons: 1, Economy; 2, complete location confined to Westfield; 3, flexibility permitting gradual development with consequent investment economy; 4, quality equal to the present supply; and, 5, minimum time required for installation.

In concluding its report to the Council the Commission stated that "it reiterated its previous statements that in its opinion the present situation is most dangerous. While undoubtedly the problem can be solved most satisfactorily by joint action on the part of the municipalities served by the Plainfield Union Water Company; over three years have now been spent without result in an effort to find a mutually satisfactory basis of joint action, and your commission is strongly of the opinion that the time has come when Westfield cannot, in justice to its people, further delay action looking toward a solution of the problem."

The complete report as presented will be found on page thirteen.

An ordinance providing for the issuance of $6,000 water bonds was passed on the first reading, and the Water Survey Commission was authorized to make this expenditure for deep well tests, for the development of a water supply for Westfield.

An ordinance was passed on the first reading providing for a note issue of $5,000 for plans and specifications for a municipally owned water plant and distributing station.

The hearing on the proposed amendment in the Zoning Ordinance to transfer 800 feet on North avenue from the residential section into a business section, brought out some strong opposition from the property owners in the district. Among those appearing before the council to oppose the change were Wm. M. Boyd, F. L. Nell, H. L. Pittman, R. S. Oliver and Allen Carter. E. A. Merrill, who presented the petition at the last meeting spoke in favor of the project. Following the hearing the Council went into executive session, at the conclusion of which the hearing was postponed until the next meeting.

The ordinance to enter into a contract with the State for paving of North avenue from the Plaza to Central avenue, and for the issue of bonds of the town in the amount of $40,000 to cover cost of same was passed in its first reading and a hearing set for May 12th.

An ordinance to enter into a contract for the paving of South avenue from the proposed 20-foot roadway to the curb line and for the laying of curb and gutters, and for the issue by the town of bonds in the amount of $50,000, was passed on the first reading. A hearing was set for May 12th.

The petition for a sidewalk on Madison avenue at a cost of approximately $2,500 was approved and a hearing was set for May 12.

The improvement of Fairacres avenue and the issuance of $5,000 bonds to cover the cost of same was approved.

The petition of Ralph Salm to erect an electric sign over the drug store at West Broad street and South avenue was denied. The treasurer was ordered to pay the sum of $300 to Overseer of the Poor Cox, and a temporary improvement note for $438.52 was authorized.

COLONEL DEMPSEY AT WORK ON "WINTER PLATTSBURG"

Business Men in Reserve Officers' Corps to Get Three Months' Training in Preparation

GRAFT TO BE ELIMINATED

Col. Walter A. Dempsey, of the Regular Army, who is well known in Westfield, where he has resided for many years, as a leader in all progressive movements for the development and enrichment of civic life, has been appointed by Maj. Gen. William H. Hart, of the Quartermasters' Dept., U. S. A., to take charge of and develop "Winter Plattsburg" all over the United States.

The Winter Plattsburg idea was originated and developed by Col. Dempsey and his appointment to the place is for the purpose of training in the military art business men and manufacturers who are members of the Reserve Officers' Corps of the Army, and also to co-ordinate their business training and knowledge of manufacturing with their army experience for use in any war emergency that may arise.

The mobilization of industry for war purposes was, in the early part of the period in which the United States was engaged in the World War a more or less haphazard affair and the experience then gained taught the Army men in the Quartermasters' Corps many valuable lessons which they are now proposing to apply in the training of business men and manufacturers in the "Winter Plattsburgs." The Army Industrial College at Washington is the outgrowth of the experience in the big war and from now on it will be Col. Dempsey's job to visit the important cities and industrial centers of the United States and there get in touch with the Reserve Officers of the Industrial section of the Army and to the end that all of them may be trained to mobilize industry for war purposes.

Preparedness of industry for war is just as essential and important as preparedness of the fighting men of the Army for war and the graduates of the Industrial War College at Washington will be eventually located in all important centers where they will do the work of instructing and keep thoroughly in touch the capacity of various industrial establishments; determine how industrial products may be quickly mobilized for the Army's use; there will be a regularly organized system for the taking over of various plants, regulating the output, fixing prices and eliminating opportunities for graft and in short applying the experience gained in the Great War to the industries as organized by the Industrial College.

It is the belief of Col. Dempsey and his associates in the Quartermasters' Department having these particular matters in charge that if the United States is again suddenly confronted with a war emergency, the experience gained in the "Winter Plattsburgs" will be such as to make possible the saving of hundreds of millions of dollars to the Government and at the same time get more for the money expended and with greater expedition, than at any time during the Great War period.

BOY SCOUTS TO GIVE EXHIBITION SATURDAY

Inter-troop Contests of Organization to be Held Saturday at Washington School Campus

Scouts are all pep over the coming exhibition and inter-troop contest that will be given on Saturday afternoon on Washington School campus at 3.00 p. m. The first-aid race, water poloing and fire building contest and the wall scaling contest are the main events to be contested. The medley dressing race is creating quite a bit of excitement also.

The Buds' Association of the Boy Scouts of Westfield, who are backing the Scouts in this exhibition, have offered a fine Troop Bugle and lanyard for the Troop scoring the most number of points. All troops now claim the prize so that a fine competition is promised.

The Fife and Drum Corps of the Bull-Kinch Post of the American Legion of North Plainfield will furnish music for marching and drilling. The judges of the exhibition are C. H. Wardfield, C. H. Adams, P. W. Jones, Dr. E. A. Kinch and A. R. Simpson.

METHODIST MEN DINE AND AID SOCIETY WOMEN

Unique Banquet Provides Much Hilarity—Men Served It Well, But Complain of Lack of "Tips"

STUNTS AND GOOD MUSIC

The men of the First Methodist church Brotherhood in part compensated last night for all the good dinners and other fine help the women of the church had given them this last winter, by themselves turning hosts and giving them, all members of the Women's Aid Society, the finest spread which the chef of the Shackamaxon Country Club and his assistants could muster. Fifty men of the Brotherhood, in aprons and caps, and with a head waiter at each table in evening dress, served the repast to the ladies, who numbered about 150 strong and who entered into the jollity and spirit of the occasion with right good will. One of the waiters was the Rev. Chas. W. Wright, who poured water.

When the ladies entered the hall they found at each plate a colored tissue paper fan, which when opened, formed a cap. These were of all different colors and helped make the scene a very colorful one. The "Black Cat Orchestra" played lively music as the diners assembled and the waiters all marched about the tables, in lock-step formation singing, to the tune of "Glory, Glory, Hallelujah!" that they were "a bunch of handsome waiters and don't spill any soup down her back."

The ladies found at their plates deflated toy rubber balloons which they blew up and knocked about from table to table. They were also furnished with ticklers which they blew into long lengths.

Vice President Frederick Tipson presided as toastmaster in the absence of President Frank Reed, who is in a New York hospital recovering from an operation. Mr. Tipson made a semi-humorous speech and told several good and apt stories. In his more serious remarks he said the men were trying to show how much they appreciated the good work and co-operation of the ladies. A telegram came from President Reed, expressing his best wishes and praising the women of the Women's Aid Society. The diners decided to send a telegram of greeting and good wishes to Mr. Reed and Vice President Ralph Vervoort was named to perform that duty. Mrs. Reed had been able to leave her husband's side at the hospital for a few hours to attend the dinner and she was obviously pleased.

After the turkey dinner and the ice cream had been served and disposed of and Mr. Tipson had made his little talk and Mrs. Trimble, President of the Women's Aid Society, had responded in an original poem in reply, W. H. (Bill) Kinney, a professional entertainer from New York, was introduced. He impersonated a woman in the first part of his sketch and soon had the women screaming with laughter at his antics and later he removed his disguise and told a series of stories of a side-splitting variety.

During the evening the diners sang a number of popular songs under the leadership of Chas. F. Goodrich, the popular bass singer of the church quartette and the men also sang, the men and women all joining in a good night song.

The hilarity was added to by some of the waiters assuming a most doleful attitude and complaining audibly in the hearing of the women that they were a cheap bunch because this because "the girls were from the country and were not used to giving tips."

Those in charge of the waiters and the head waiters were: Dr. Wilbur Harkender, John Gage, Frank W. Cooke, Edward Taylor, B. P. Martin and A. Meyers. E. L. Waterman did valiant service in the kitchen and the ladies at the head table as guests of honor were: Mrs. Trimble, Mrs. Brainard, Mrs. Davies, Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. L. M. Pearsall, Mrs. Post, Mrs. Waterman, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Steurnagel, Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. Pope, Miss Ella Ferris, Mrs. Clifford Pearsall, Mrs. Embree, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Wilcox, Mrs. Slater, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Schrader, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Edgar and Mrs. Palgrave.

A SUCCESSFUL CARD PARTY

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Watchung Camp, United Spanish War Veterans, held a card party on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wright, in Benson Place. There were seven tables and the games played were pinocle and five hundred. Awards of prizes were made to each table. Refreshments were served.

JERSEY FIRE CHIEFS HOLD MEETING HERE

Life Insurance Policy and a Solid Silver Service Presented to President Greenfield

MORE THAN 100 PRESENT

The grounds outside the fire house last Thursday looked as though an automobile exhibit was being held, but the cars strewn all about were those of the one hundred or more fire chiefs from all over the State of New Jersey who came to Westfield to attend the quarterly conference of the Fire Chiefs' Association of New Jersey. The conference lasted all day, with an hour intervening for dinner.

Chas. W. Greenfield, fire chief of the town of Kearney, president of the Association, presided. Town Clerk Charles Clark welcomed the fire fighters in the absence of Mayor Littlefield, who was unable to be present. Fire Chief Chas. Decker also extended a word of welcome on behalf of the local department. Chief Greenfield outlined the activities of the organization, including school and standardization, drills and standardization.

Frederick H. Wentworth, of Boston, Secretary of the National Fire Protective Association, spoke for nearly an hour on fire protection and fire prevention. He also advised the fire fighters to always keep in touch with prominent men of their towns and confer with them frequently on matters pertaining to the work of their department.

A feature of the conference was the presentation to President Greenfield of a solid set of table service containing 110 pieces, the gift of the Association. An insurance policy for $1,000 covering the set and insuring it against loss was also given to the chief. He also received a huge bouquet of roses and lilies. During the afternoon session a demonstration of the workings of the inhalator, which is used to restore victims of gas or smoke. A mouse was used in the demonstration, being first asphyxiated and then restored by the apparatus. A lecture on the use of automatic sprinklers was given by Ira G. Hoagland, of the National Automatic Sprinkler Association. The lecture was illustrated.

Senator Arthur N. Pierson spoke on the firemen's pension system and declared his opposition to many of its features. He said he hoped the chiefs would give the subject attentive study. The conference voted to name a committee to confer with the Firemen's Benefit Association and the State Exempt Firemen's Association on the matter of the $600 insurance fund as it is now in effect with the State Fire Chiefs' Association. Fire Chief Decker and the local authorities received a vote of thanks for entertaining the conference. The next quarterly conference will be held in New Brunswick.

CHILDREN'S C. HOME ASK FURTHER AID

Local Organization for Care of Crippled Children Need Funds to Continue Work

To day the Managers of the Children's Country Home are sending out circular letters asking Westfielders to continue their support of the splendid work of thirty-three years.

The Home is in a sound financial condition, but as the endowment is inadequate money must be supplied each year for the annual budget.

The Home is now equipped to care for fifty children, not for two or three summer months only but for twelve months of the year.

The children who come to the Home are convalescing from operations for hunchbacks, clubfoot, tubercular and dislocated joints. Some are sufferers from infantile paralysis and from arthritis. All are curable, and when discharged from the Home are healthy, normal children, ready to take their places in the community.

At the Home the children receive surgical attention, wholesome food, fresh air, public school education, and something many of their homes lack—a touch of refinement.

The aim of the Board of Managers is to care for each of the fifty children for a dollar a day, but—the Board must depend upon the public to make this aim effective.

It is hoped that every man, woman and child in Westfield will contribute at least one dollar. It will buy health, happiness and future usefulness for a child.

WESTFIELD BAND'S MINSTREL SHOW

FRIDAY NIGHT

Excellent Program Arranged for With a Second Performance Saturday Night

FUNDS NEEDED BY BAND

The thousands of Westfield residents who have enjoyed the summer night concerts in Mindowackin Park given by the Westfield Band, will have the opportunity Friday night and on Saturday evening of witnessing what promises to be a side-splitting minstrel performance by the members of the Band. The last time the Band gave a minstrel show it was such a good one the public did not get over talking about it for weeks. This time the show promises to exceed the previous effort. The members of the troupe have been rehearsing for a long time and there will be some fine music, songs, dances and stunts of a class calculated to furnish a full evening's entertainment well worth the cost of the ticket. Those who have the affair in charge say the tickets are going fast and those who patronize the show will realize that they are aiding one of the best assets the town has.

One other contributory reason also why many are looking forward to this entertainment is the fact that it enables them to do their part for the Band particularly where they have not done so otherwise, and this really offsets the organization a splendid assistance in its matter of financing, which is necessary because of the fact that the Band's net income does not exceed $1,500 per annum while its outlay usually averages from $1,400 or more for tuition, music, instruments and operating costs. When anything extra such as uniforms or items of this sort which are furnished the members gratis are required, a surplus such as this entertainment is designed to provide, is then necessary.

ADVERTISE ALL OF THE TIME—not extravagantly, not wastefully, but DON'T GIVE ANYBODY A CHANCE TO FORGET YOU!

THEATRES

Gaiety—"Garden of Weeds."
 The only new play this week is "Garden of Weeds," by Leon Gordon who wrote the popular "White Cargo," still running at Daly's. It is the story, so the advance notice stated, of a man who specializes in human frailties. If it is as fascinating a delineation of types as "White Cargo," it will be a worth while play. At any rate, Mr. Gordon appears not only as author, but as producer and director as well. He has assembled an excellent cast including Phoebe Foster, Lee Baker, Robert T. Haines, Lilyan Tashman, Warburton Gamble, Clarence Derwent and Norman Hackett.

Hudson—"Cobra"
 Martin Brown's "Cobra" holds all the fascination and absorbing horror that the title suggests to us. It is not a story of India, as first thought might easily lead us to suppose; but just a tale of every day life in which a slimy, sinuous, fascinating and yet utterly repellent young woman plays the part of a treacherous and poisonous snake. As Elsie Van Zile—a beautiful, cruel, charming and yet utterly calculating young reptile, the cobra of the title works her mischief. She glides and slithers into the lives of two college chums and works her mischief thorough and well. First she fascinates the big man of the college—the hearted popular Jack Kane, a member of the crew. Thinking him very wealthy, she winds herself about him only to find that it is his pal—Tony Dornan, a quiet, gentle idealist—who is the real millionaire. With a sinuous twist she releases Jack and twines around Tony, fascinates him and eventually marries him. Her fascinations last for 4 years, then she becomes bored and seeks out Jack, who has settled down to a real girl and a wholesome love affair of his own. The cobra sways and writhes; she smokes poor old Jack again; drags him off to a hotel to meet her; and then to end things, Elsie goes up in smoke in a midnight fire at the hotel. Up to that point the play is clever and interesting. The three leading roles are excellently played by Ralph Morgan as the gentle Tony, by Louis Calhern as the more vivid, active Jack, and superbly well by Judith Anderson as the cobra-like Elsie. In a lesser part as Jack's fiancée, Clara Moores is very satisfactory. The greater part of the play is superbly written and acted; the close in weak and disappointing, but don't let that deter you from seeing a play that is more worth while in its two acts than many others are in all three.

Morocco—"Flame of Love"
 "Flame of Love" is a romance of China in the days when silk weaving was the main-spring of Chinese life and industry and each piece of gorgeous silk held the waves of threads of romance. At this time, there lived a youth who loved a beautiful goddess and for her he learned the secret of weaving a precious silk that was so exquisitely lustrous that at a certain point it burst into flame. It is an interesting play. The settings are gorgeous and the story is romantic.

Rialto—"Outward Bound"
 "Outward Bound" is a play with a main theme that should make us to think of the French say, "Here's a lot of people on a liner, crossing the Bix and not even realizing that they are dead. Their personalities go on just the same; their lives" in the beyond, continue just as they were going on the earthward bank of the dark river. The big business man of dubious character carries on his ideas of big business; the little woman of the show who is all human and big hearted, continues to mother the weak and frail; the "half-wayers" who tried to force themselves out of life so as to be together are revealed to earth to work out their salvation. It is all very real, very credible and very interesting. Sutton Vane has given us ideas that we take home from the theatre and "Outward Bound" increases in interest and intensity as we think over it.

Shubert, Newark—"Top Hole"
 "Top Hole," the musical play just produced by William Caryl, New York, this week, lays claim to many distinctions, but the assertion that its debutante chorus will speak every word clearly is true.

"Top Hole" is headed by Lynne Overman and contains many notable inclusions including Clare Stratton, late prima donna of "Caroline," Beatrice Curtis, Mary Milburn, Leah Winslow, Nellie Graham-Hunt, John Daly Murphy, Walter Walker, John Dwyer, Harris Gilmore, Colin Campbell, Jack Young, Charlie Brown. A chorus of unusual beauty and dancing ability has been carefully gathered from the best on Broadway. With golf for its theme, a remarkably vivid story and music that is splendidly present at the Shubert one of the notable musical offerings of the year.

Vanderbilt—"The Dust Heap"
 When Paul Dickey and Bernard McEwen wrote "The Dust Heap," they probably mulled over all the melodramas they had ever known and said to each other, "Here, let's go 'em one better." And then they collected all the known ingredients of a thriller—of each and every thriller—and piled them up into "The Dust Heap." Off they skipped to the great open spaces of the white, frozen north "Where men are men," and where women are the motive power of thriller plots. And there among half-breeds, white-slaves, cruel wolf-hearted French brutes, fur traders and the indispensable Northwest Mounted, we have the flower-like, gentle, innocent young half-breed maiden who is abducted by a white slaver to serve in his notorious den, "The Dust Heap." Call in the aid of lightning, divine Providence, the brave policeman, a birthmark, a sorrowing father and love! The curtain falls on a satisfaction—and they lived happily ever after."

Sparks Circus Coming to Plainfield Friday, May 16

On Friday, May 16, afternoon and evening, under huge masses of canvas, one of the finest circus ever made by the ingenuity and courage of men, will parade and show in Plainfield, N. J., to make the young folks happy and the old folks young. The great parade is on Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock. First of all, a real wild animal circus is a 1924 acquisition, having been imported from the world's greatest wild animal quarters at Steglingsen, Germany. Included in these displays will be found lions, tigers, leopards, polar and grizzly bears—even trained ostriches will be seen in addition to the Sparks group of sixteen "Rotation" horses, the two elephant herds, fancy galled and posing horses, the Bibb County Pig Circus, Captain Tibor's steady and hosts of others of a novel nature. The circus proper opens with an elaborately staged spectacle, "Echoes from the Reign of King Tut," in which all of the animals, performers, promoter dancers and a large chorus participate. As a fitting finish to the all-future performance, a genuine English Fox Hunt, introducing real Irish-bred high jumpers, broad jumpers and perfectly schooled fox-hounds, will replace the old-time and very dangerous chariot races usually to be found with other circuses.

Strand—Plainfield
 "The Eternal Struggle" starring Earle Williams, Barbara La Marr and Wallace Berry, is the feature attraction at Read's Strand Theatre, Plainfield, today and tomorrow. Added attractions of the program include Harry Langdon, Mack Sennett's greatest comedy and in his latest success, "Smile, Please"; the Read's Pictorial News and the latest Literary Digest Topics. Norma Talmadge, in "Within the Law" and the latest "Our Gang" comedy, "Scout Things" are the attractions for Friday and Saturday. "Lawful Larceny" featuring Hope Hampton, Nita Naldi, Lew Cody and Conrad Nagel will be presented on Monday and Tuesday.

Regent—Elizabeth
 Many like Thrills in Bench Story "Flowing Gold," Richard Walton Tully latest contribution to the cinema art, will afford pleasure to the most fastidious. This picture is to be at the Regent, Elizabeth Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Soldon, if ever, has any novel offered the unusual opportunities for diversified and satisfying action as does this great Rex Beach tale, "Flowing Gold." Delicious comedy, pleasing romance, intense drama, fast-paced thrills and spectacular sequences are continually intermingled.

The hazardous tide runs a roof-top by Anna Q. Nilsson and Milton Sills through a tiding torrent of blinding ice in the midst of a cloud burst and thunder storm, with burning oil wells all about them, is calculated to bring a gulp from the most hardened audience.

Proctor's Palace—Newark
 Headline, a show at Proctor's Palace Theatre, Newark, that surpasses any shown there this season, is the popular American composer, producer, manager and star-maker, Gus Edwards, who brings with him his latest and greatest song review.

Another feature of importance is the appearance of Frank Dixon and his company in the sketch "Lonesome Manor." Many other special attractions complete the super-vaudeville show.

Miner's Empire, Newark—"Monkey Shines"

An uncommonly attractive offering of Columbia Burlesque is promised at Miner's Empire Theatre, next week in Clark and McCullough's "Monkey Shines," scheduled for the usual daily matinees on regular evening performances. Here is an all-new show brought into view for the first time this season.

Written and produced by Bobby Clark and Paul McCullough, theatre-goers are assured of a rattling good entertainment filled with laughs, songs and dances. And to further insure its success "Monkey Shines" has been provided with a cast that is a real top notcher.

For week of May 11th—"Hollywood Follies."

Half-Westfield

"The Frontier Woman" which comes to the Rialto May 7th and 8th, recreates the story of the sacrifices of wives and mothers in the dark days of the Revolution when they shouldered their share of hardships in the making of our nation. The setting is the settlement of Watunga, in the Tennessee mountains. The time is 1780. Cornwallis has sent Patrick Ferguson to destroy the power of the patriots along the frontier. John Sevier and his Mountain Men set out from Watunga to oppose him. The women of the settlement, thus left with the old men and boys, courageously refuse to recall their men in the face of an impending Indian attack. Sevier brings the British to bay at King's Mountain and we see the battle which has been declared the turning point of the Revolution in the West. On their victorious return, several of Sevier's men are killed by shuffling Cherokee Indians. The joy of the Watunga women is turned to grief and Sevier decides that, once for all, the Indian menace must be removed. He gives his men two hours in their homes and then into the saddle again and off on the trail of the Cherokees! "The Frontier Woman" is a photograph that will live, not alone for its value as an authentic historical document but also because it carries much of what is called "heart interest." It is thrilling, dramatic, and inspiring.

Tonight and Thursday, Tom Mix in "Mile a Minute Romeo" also chronicle "Daniel Boone"; Friday and Saturday, Ernest Traux in "Six Cylinder Love"; extra feature Saturday matinee only at 4 o'clock, "The Go-Getter." Monday and Tuesday "The Heritage of the Desert." Comedy "Plum Crazy."

President of Postal Employees' Association Shows Why Salaries of Men Should Be Increased

THE POSTMASTER TALKS

Clerks and letter carriers from all over the Fifth Congressional District met in Arcanum Hall on Sunday in one of the series of meetings now being staged the country over to agitate for the passage of legislation by Congress increasing the wages of postal employees. All the local carriers and clerks were present and Postmaster Byron M. Prugh made a talk in which he assured the employees of his co-operation in every proper effort to better their condition.

Fully 300 men crowded into the hall and cheered Ferdinand L. Douglas, president of branch 36, National Association of Letter Carriers, who is also chairman of the New York postal employees' joint committee. Mr. Douglas made the chief address of the day, while Mayor Littlefield welcomed the assemblage. Rev. Edward J. Holden, pastor of the First Baptist Church, also spoke, expressing his sympathy with the movement and stating that ministers, like letter carriers, were generally underpaid. Charles E. Bishop, the newly appointed postmaster of Elizabeth, spoke briefly.

Mr. Douglas is a working letter carrier and not an ornamental office holder in the postal employees' organization and what he said seemed to have the hearty endorsement of the audience. He complimented ministers like Rev. Dr. Holden, whose sympathetic attitude and help had achieved a day of rest on Sundays for the postal workers. Mr. Douglas reviewed the efforts to secure larger compensation and said that in 1920 the salaries of postal employees were so low it was impossible to get men to take the civil service examinations. A Congressional wage commission later recommended a wage increase and $150 per annum addition was secured, but even then the average wage was but $4.92 per day at a time when common laborers were receiving $6 to $8 per day. Trained men are now leaving the service in New York because of the low pay and he cited figures which disputed the assertion made by the postmaster general that men employed in outside industries, and doing about the same work as the postal employees, were receiving less compensation. The speaker discussed a plan for retirement funds and said a good work for Congressman Ackerman, who is in favor of granting the men a substantial increase.

EDWARD S. MALMAR
ON THE GRAND JURY

List of Eligibles in Elizabeth Also Includes Theodore R. Harvey of Westfield

Edward S. Malmar, of Park street, who is cashier of the Corn Exchange Bank of New York, and Theodore R. Harvey, the Westfield merchant, are among the thirty-five residents of Union County whose names were drawn by Jury Commissioner Leonard C. O'Brien and Sheriff Simmons in Elizabeth on Monday before Judge Stein for service during the May term of court. Out of the thirty-five, twenty-three citizens will be chosen to serve on the Grand Jury.

Included in the list of those drawn for this duty besides Messrs. Malmar and Harvey, are two women, Miss Sophie M. Brown, member of the Elizabeth Board of Education, and Mrs. Sarah V. Ackerman, of Hillside, president of the Union County Women's Democratic Club.

A panel of candidates for the petit jury service was also drawn on Monday. These petit jurors will serve two weeks and will sit in petty cases beginning May 13. The following have been drawn for this service:

From Westfield—Henry W. Pleister, G. Howard Butler, J. Albert Taylor.

From Cranford—Edwin R. Fairbanks, Jr.

From New Providence—Herbert E. Dickinson.

From Garwood—Frederick Hunkelley.

Mayor William J. Simpson, of Roselle; former Sheriff George H. Johnston, of Scotch Plains; Charles D. Doctor, president of the Elizabeth Banking Company; Leo H. Schwed, Broad street, Elizabeth, clothing merchant; Joseph Epstein, of Weiss & Epstein; Theodore Degener, cashier of the People's Bank of Elizabeth, and Simon Mack, steamship agent, are among other well known men drawn for Grand Jury service.

BYRNE—BRAUN

The wedding of Miss Pauline L. Braun and Robert J. Byrne, Jr., took place in Holy Trinity Catholic church this morning at nine o'clock with a low nuptial mass. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. E. Reilly, the assistant pastor of the church, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. J. J. O'Connell. Miss Margaret Reilly was bridesmaid and Henry Heffele was best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents on First street and later the couple left for a short wedding trip. Upon their return they will go to housekeeping in the new home which the groom has just completed at 723 First street.

The bride wore a gown of gray canton crepe with hat and slippers to match, and a corsage bouquet of sunset roses; the bridesmaid wore a powder blue gorgette crepe gown with hat to match and gray slippers, also a corsage bouquet of pink roses. The groom is a World War veteran and served sixteen months overseas. The bride is a graduate of the Westfield High School class of 1914. She is a member of Court Trinity Catholic Daughters of America.

OBITUARY.

EDWIN A. FRANCIS

Popular Young Man Dies From Injuries Received While Riding Freight

Edwin A. Francis, son of Mrs. Nellie G. Francis and the late Edwin A. Francis, died suddenly yesterday in his 20th year.

On Monday night Francis in company with another boy had been attending a fraternity night at the home of Harold Schaefer, on the Boulevard, and upon returning home the boys, as a joke, jumped on a passing freight train and rode as far as Graceland when they decided to jump off; young Francis in doing so had his left leg broken and his skull fractured; he was taken to Muhlenberg hospital but died yesterday morning.

Besides his mother, he is survived by a sister Carolin. He was a member of the Westfield Tennis Club and attended the Episcopal church. The funeral service will be held from his late home on Chestnut street and Fourth avenue Friday afternoon at 3.30, conducted by Rev. J. A. Smith, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church. Interment in Fairview cemetery.

MORTIMER E. NEWCOMB

Mortimer E. Newcomb of 530 Elm street passed away in the Roosevelt Hospital Sunday following an operation for intestinal trouble.

Mr. Newcomb was taken ill last Monday and was operated upon Thursday. He was born in Brooklyn forty-seven years ago, and had resided in Westfield for the past twenty years.

The deceased was president of the F. J. Newcomb Mfg. Co. of 42 W. 13th St., New York city. He was for many years treasurer and vestryman of St. Paul's Episcopal church and a member of the Men's Club, director of the Westfield Building & Loan Association, and chairman of the membership committee of Echo Lake Country Club, also a member of the Sons of the American Revolution.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Helen, and a son, Edgerton. The funeral service was held from his late home last night at 8 o'clock conducted by Rev. J. A. Smith, rector of St. Paul's church. Representatives of his church and all his club affiliations were present and the house was filled with many beautiful floral remembrances. Interment was private.

STEPHEN S. MAPES

Stephen S. Mapes, an old and well known resident of Westfield, died suddenly about 11 o'clock on Sunday last at his home, 262 Prospect street. Mr. Mapes had been ailing all winter from a complication of internal troubles, but several weeks ago he appeared to have rallied and recovered his strength somewhat and was able to be about. He had a relapse about two weeks ago, however, and had to take to his bed. Although it was realized that there was little hope for him, his death was not believed to be so close at hand and was a shock to his wife, mother, sisters and other relatives. He became unconscious Sunday morning and expired almost before those who were with him realized he had gone.

Mr. Mapes was 63 years of age and was born in New York city. His father Stephen S. Mapes, moved to Westfield when the son was a child and the son died in the old family mansion, which the elder Mapes built shortly after the Civil War. Mr. Mapes was educated in the Westfield public schools and was employed in Wall street when a youth and never lost interest in Wall street men and affairs. His mother, Margaret B. Mapes, who has been a widow for many years, survives her son at the age of 89, and he leaves a widow, who was with him when he died. He also is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Ham, wife of Frank B. Ham, of Prospect street, and Mrs. Mary E. James, a resident of Cambridge, N. Y.

The funeral will be held at the Prospect street home this (Wednesday) evening, with the Rev. Chas. W.

Wright, pastor of the First M. E. church, in which the Mapes family has held membership for half a century, officiating. The burial will be in the family plot in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, Thursday morning and attended only by the family and relatives.

JOHN PATTERSON

John Patterson, 89 years old, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harold B. Wright, 200 Ross Place, on Sunday morning. Mr. Patterson was born in Ireland and came to this country when quite young. He came to this town from Freeport, L. I., six years ago. He was a member of the Methodist church in Freeport and for fifty-four years was a member of Excelsior Lodge F. & A. M., of New York. He was connected with the D. H. McAlpin Company in New York for fifty-two years. Mr. Patterson is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Harold B. Wright of this town; Mrs. F. E. Rose of Freeport, and one son, Charles E. Patterson of Hempstead, L. I. Six grandchildren and two great grandchildren also survive him.

The funeral was held on Tuesday night at 8.15 from the home of his daughter and was conducted by Rev. Charles W. Wright, pastor of the First Methodist church. Interment was made today in Pinelawn cemetery, Long Island.

WILLIAM L. MACDONALD

William L. MacDonald, 69 years old, of 211 Elmer street, died in the Morris Plains Asylum on Friday where he had been a patient for the past six weeks. Mr. MacDonald was born in Scotland and came to this country when a young man. He had been a resident of this town for the past thirty-six years and for twenty-two years had a harness shop on East Broad street. He had been in poor health for two years. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Abbie MacDonald.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES

The services of worship next Sunday in the Presbyterian Church will be held at 10:30 and at 8 o'clock. At the morning service, Dr. McKinney, in agreement with the recommendation of the General Assembly, will speak on the subject of "Vocation." This is the beginning of "Music Week" and that subject also will be emphasized. At the evening service the Woman's Missionary Society will give a musical pageant.

On Monday evening, May 5th, the adjourned congregational meeting will be held to take up matters relative to the improvement of the Parish House and church buildings.

MRS. JACOB RIIS SPEAKS
AT WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's Club met on Monday in the Congregational Parish House with the president, Mrs. Fiske, in the chair.

Mrs. Scott read a letter from Mr. Henry Atwater of the National Red Cross with regard to swimming classes to be held in Plainfield. For a small fee members of such classes will be taught by a qualified instructor in swimming and lifesaving.

The lecturer of the afternoon, Mrs. Jacob Riis, head of the Woman's Department, Bonbright and Co., spoke interestingly and illuminatingly on "Finance for Women." Mrs. Riis said that the number of women holding important positions in the financial world is rapidly increasing. She emphasized the need, especially for women who manage their own funds, of more precise and detailed knowledge of the various kinds of investments. She explained the respective advantage of bonds, stocks and real estate, and emphasized five considerations to be taken into account before choosing a form of investment: safety, income, appreciation, marketability and diversity.

Mrs. Riis spoke with easy command of her subject and held the interested attention of her audience. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Fiske repeated the announcement made earlier by Mrs. Emery of the concert by Percy Grainger on May 5, for the benefit of the Music Studio Fund of the Women's College of New Jersey. It is earnestly hoped that this concert by a great artist in aid of a most appealing cause, will be very fully patronized.

Y. M. C. A. TO SHOW

SUMMER CAMP FILMS

At the Congregational Parish House on Friday evening at 8 p. m., the Westfield Y. M. C. A. will show the films of Camp Wawayanda, the New Jersey State Y. M. C. A. Camp, where a good sized contingent of May 3rd, commencing 10.30 a. m.

The reels were made at camp last summer and in a number of cases Westfield boys show up plainly. The boys will give the camp cheers and sing camp songs. Mr. Joseph Brown, who is to be camp director, will be present and tell of the improvements planned for this year.

All parents are invited to be present with their sons to see the camp film "Barrels of Fun" and also two reels "Circus Days."

ADVERTISE ALL OF THE TIME—not extravagantly, not wastefully, but DON'T GIVE ANYBODY A CHANCE TO FORGET YOU.

DENNIS SCHOOL APPEAL

DENIED BY COMMISSIONER

C. J. Strahan, assistant Commissioner of Education, has handed down a decision in the case of ex-Mayor John Alston Dennis, who contested the validity of the annual school election held on Feb. 13 last and holding that the five claims set up by Mr. Dennis had no merit and dismissed the case. The Assistant Commissioner sustained the validity of the election in its entirety.

EPISCOPAL SUNDAY SCHOOLS

HOLD CONVENTION MAY 3RD

Diocesan Sunday Schools Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of Northern New Jersey will be held at St. Johns Church, Broad street, Elizabeth, Saturday, May 3rd, commencing 10.30 a. m.

This convention is for Sunday schools north and east of New Brunswick in the diocese of Bishop Paul Mathews of Trenton. Teachers and scholars of St. Pauls Church will leave Broad and Elm streets Saturday morning at 9:45 in cars provided for their use and will return at the close of the convention about 4 p. m.

"AMERICA—First Last and All the Time—AMERICA."

Every town that does not strictly regulate Dangerous parking of automobiles devel-Places ops some particular point
that is a constant menace to life and an impediment to traffic. Westfield has permitted such a condition to arise at Elm and Broad streets where there is a seriously congested situation at all hours of the day.

Convenient to the banks, offices and business, owners do not hesitate to park cars at that point and leave them there practically all day long. The result is inevitable and it is always dangerous and frequently it becomes impossible for other cars to pass and it is rare when it is possible for an other car to get anywhere near the curb.

This condition can be prevented and steps should be taken to break up a custom that should not have been permitted to become established.
Westfield's business streets are not broad for they were laid out before the automobile was invented and their use as parking space must be carefully regulated.

It is recognized that Westfield has a greater percentage of automobiles to its population than almost any town in the country and its motor traffic has become extremely difficult to handle. Everything that will lessen the possibility of accidents must be done and the police should be given complete co-operation in their efforts to keep traffic moving at all hours.

The business section of this town is confined to a very few blocks and the curb lines of these blocks should not be converted into all-day parking places.

Conveniently located for every kind of transportation, Westfield is growing in importance as a convention center. Its excellent facilities for entertainment available at the Country Clubs and well conducted luncheon places add to the inducements that attract meetings of State organizations.

There are few places in the State of New Jersey that are not within a few hours' travel to Westfield and the universality of the automobile has made it easier for those who enjoy these meetings. Couple this condition with Westfield's well deserved reputation for hospitality and it is easy to see why Westfield is popular for conventions.

Extension of hospitality to convention visitors is an excellent town builder, for people nowadays are surprised to find the word "Welcome" on the doormat. When a town makes visitors feel at home they are going to think about that town when they decide to acquire a real home.

Westfield is growing fast
but it is expanding in an attractive way and its vacant acres are being built up by men who realize they must build well to meet the demand of people of good taste. From a community of a few hundred it has become a city in size but it has retained its quality as a home town and there is no likelihood it will ever be a manufacturing or commercial center.

Its banking facilities are unusual for it is the principal financial center for a number of industries in adjacent towns. And its banks are big,
strong, conservative institutions that have the confidence of the public in every respect.

Reports received from those who participated making attractive Westfield's Advertising display at the
"Own Your Own Home" show indicate that every cent spent for that exhibit was well spent. A large percentage of the people who are compelled to live in cities look forward to a day when they will be able to own a home in the commuting zone.

Westfield's exhibit was well arranged and intelligently handled with the result that many people now about Westfield and what they have learned has attracted them. Fortunately Westfield has been kept before the public in an attractive way as a rule.

There is no kind of business
that can thrive without advertising and if towns expect to grow and become cities they must make known the advantages they can offer to home seekers. Westfield has found this is true and every proper advertising plan it has carried out has been beneficial.

ADVERTISE ALL OF THE TIME
—not extravagantly, not wastefully,
but DON'T GIVE ANYBODY A CHANCE TO FORGET YOU.

Happy Childhood Days

Fragrant memories of childhood include familiar hymns, helpful verses and stirring Bible stories. Lessons learned then have never left even those who have wandered far.

Let's Go Every Sunday

Sunday schools in every community are training young people—and older ones—in ways of righteousness. Boys who go to Sunday school seldom go wrong. Their characters are woven through with a high degree of regard for right.
Sunday schools are worthy your fullest active support. Test next Sunday the welcome promised you at the nearest school.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO CELEBRATE MUSIC WEEK

Percy Grainger to Give Recital on Monday, May 5th

Paramount among club activities of National Music Week, May 5-12, is the musicale to be given by Percy Grainger, under the auspices of the Woman's Club.

The observation of Music Week throughout the country has come to be a national feature. Westfield, always abreast of the times in all kinds of achievements, feels that she must observe this particular festival in a fitting manner.

The bringing to Westfield of one of the most famous pianists in the world and the hearing of Percy Grainger is a rare treat. In every city in which he has played his appearance has always been greeted with the greatest enthusiasm.
Pleasure and profit go hand in hand
when Percy Grainger, pianist-composer, appears upon the concert platform.

The proceeds of this recital are to go toward the building of the Music
Studio building at the New Jersey
State College for Women at New Brunswick. This is a project which is of interest, not to club women alone, but to the general public as well. To invest in a better trained youth is a laudable object. The appeal to enrich educational opportunities along the line of music should meet with a generous response.

This recital is to be held in the auditorium of the High School on Monday, May 5th, at 8.15.

The seat chart will be at the National Bank on Thursday, May 1st, from 3 to 6 p. m. All holders of tickets may reserve their seats at this time.

SPACE ALLOTTED FOR TOWN EXHIBITS

Fire Headquarters has Been Made to Meet the Requirements—
May 22 Mayor's Night

Chairman A. N. Pierson called the heads of the various committees of the Town Exhibit to be held the week of May 19th, for a meeting at the office of L. M. Pearsall, 101 East Broad street last Saturday night. At this meeting the committees had their space allotted them and are now prepared to make their exhibit fit the space given. It may cramp some of the exhibits to a small extent, but Chairman Pierson had the space available in the Fire Headquarters drawn up to a scale and the show is going to fit in very nicely.
Of course Westfield needs a large auditorium for a thing of the magnitude of this sort and perhaps some day in the not far distant future,
such a building will be available.

Judging from the reticence with which the various committee heads are withholding from publication all that they have prepared, leads to the belief that they may have a few surprises up their sleeve.

Thursday evening, May 22, will be set apart as "Mayor's night" and the Mayors of nearby cities and towns will be invited to attend at that time.
Jersey editors will also be invited to be on hand at this particular date,
just to see how Westfield does things
when under full speed.

Bronze 2,400 Years Old

A splendid likeness in bronze of a Greek horse of 2,400 years ago, has been added to the collections of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York. The horse weighs 25½ pounds and measures 15 13 1-8 inches in height
by 14½ inches in length. It is an admirable expression of the greatness of Greek sculpture, which was at its best in interpreting human and animal forms. It is interesting to note how the probable date of the sculpture is fixed. Numismatists claim that the coins of a period generally fall ten years behind the sculpture. This would place the year 470 B. C. as the most likely date, as comparison of the bronze statue with the horses of the chariots on Syracusan coins of the period 600-450 B. C. would indicate.
Detroit News.

"This pretty room used to be our attic!"

"And now we have another bedroom—as cozy and attractive as any room in our house."

At little expense and no bother, Upson-ing will turn even an old attic into an attractive bedroom, "den," billiard room,
workshop or nursery.

Upson Board is nearly twice as strong as other wall boards—stiffer, harder, paints better! Genuinely waterproofed!

That is why we have received less than one complaint to every three million feet
sold and used.

Avoid imitations, which bring the dealer
higher profit—but may bring you trouble.

There is only one school where you can get a thoroughly practical training in Hair and Beauty Culture in all its branches and this is the Basco Academy at 29 East 46th Street. Right in the heart of fashionable New York it is delightfully run, and the very latest methods are taught.

Most of us are planning new furnishings for our summer homes. Nothing is so attractive for the warm weather as natural wicker. The Reed and Willow Craft Shop, 129 East 34th Street, offers a charming set—table, two chairs, and rocker, complete with cre-tomic cushions to your taste, for $27.75.

The most efficient work by the most approved methods in the quickest space of time, is the standard set by Marlo and Frederick, Inc., Permanent Hair Wave Specialists. There is a soft beauty about their wave. Write to their salon at 17 East 38th Street for the interesting booklet entitled
"Feminine Beauty."

There is just one way to buy good household furniture—through the manufacturer's agent. Such is H. C. Meyers at 41 East 34th Street. Call him at Ashland 7575, and make an appointment.

Women are like birds. In the Spring it is natural for them to don new clothes. For us who have full figures, the lovely voile and linen gowns, and the elegant silk and satin creations to be found at Whitney's Stout Apparel Shop, are a delight. The address is 121 West 125th Street.

There are thousands of places where one can get a hair cut, but very few understand the delicate art of the distinction that always marks her taste.
This art is Robert at 615 Fifth Avenue.
He gives to each one the touch that puts her best. Plaza 6684.

Children should be photographed every few months, they change so quickly. One who appreciates children, and thoroughly understands their photography is Hall at 425 Fifth Avenue. Just at the moment you can get six lovely photographs (7x10) mounted on French gray for $3.50, the usual
price is $4 the dozen.

The most ordinary door becomes distinguished if the right fixtures are chosen. At the W. Irving Forge showrooms, 45 Madison Avenue, you will find hand wrought knockers, hinges, shoe-scrappers, thumb-latches, all exquisite copies of the old colonial specimens. Telephone Murray Hill 8536 for the really charming illustrated booklet.

If you are interested in china, modern or antique, call at William H.
Plummer and Co., 7 East 35th Street.
The genuine Wedgwood Queen's Ware is of special interest. Too expensive?
Not at all. There are dinner plates in many famous patterns for $7.50 the dozen. Tea sets of delicate distinction are equally inexpensive.

For simple elegant Spring gowns,
and appealing fells and furberles for Summer, you can't do better than buy a visit to Suray at 582 Fifth Avenue.
Her new models are full of the distinction that always marks her taste.
her new salon is a rendezvous of the fashionable world, and her prices are moderate.

Send your boys and girls to camp
this summer. The American Redcross Association, maintained by the schools

MUSIC WEEK IN TOWN

Westfield to Join With Many Other Towns in a Fine Movement

Fresh from the activities of Boys' Week Westfield will proceed promptly to a very active celebration of Music Week next Sunday, when all of the churches will more or less feature music in their services.

Through the courtesy of the Rev. Mr. Smith and organist Walker, the regular monthly musical service at St. Paul's church has been postponed from the last Sunday in April to the first Sunday in May, and the augmented male choir will render special music at the evening service on May 4.

A Gounod evening service will be one of the features; two special anthems; and one or more solos will be added to the usual number of familiar hymns, in which the congregation is taking a more important part with each of these special musical services.

Monday evening, May 5, at the high school auditorium the Woman's Club is offering Percy Grainger in recital as a feature, and the proceeds of this appearance is to go to the fund for building a music studio at the Woman's College in New Brunswick, so that this feature of music week has a double bearing on the topic which Westfield is going to think about in particular during these days.

Wednesday evening, the 7th, the Musical Club co-operating with the Westfield Symphony Orchestra presents a program in the high school, to which admission will be free to everyone. The preliminary announcement indicates that there will be many attractive features, which should insure a large audience before the program begins.

The orchestra has three numbers: an overture by Suppe, "Poet and Peasant"; the Andante movement from Haydn's Surprise Symphony, and three Henry the Eight dances.

The numbers furnished by members of the Musical Club will consist of solos by members of the club, Mrs. O'Neil, soprano, and Mrs. Rowland, contralto; a piano number by Mrs. Hoo, and a group of three numbers by the Philomel Trio, well known to Westfield audiences. Something of a novelty will be injected into this part of the program in the form of a Shakespearean reading to music by Mrs. Harold Welch, the accompaniment being played by Mrs. Paul Scarff, violinist, and Miss Mills, pianist.

Friday evening, May 9, the High School Orchestra, together with the Glee Club of 68 voices, will give a concert in the high school auditorium to which admission will be free. Miss Jaeger, director of music in the schools, promises a very enjoyable program, and has arranged for a community sing after the program has been finished. This will be led by Miss Jaeger, with the assistance of the Orchestra and Glee Club. Words of the songs will be furnished to the audience, and the selections will be familiar songs, so that everyone's program will prove very attractive.

The Westfield Band will contribute to the work of Music Week, and there will be other musical activities, all of which will be announced as rapidly as the details are available; so without doubt Westfield's celebration of this most important Spring event will add to the achievements of the town, and encourage many of our citizens to "give more thought to music."

PROSPECT & NORTH

WESTFIELD

FINE PROGRAM BY GARDEN CLUBThe Ragged Serenaders, Soloists, Help to Round Out
Pleasant Evening

The Garden Club of Westfield presented a charming program of music, aesthetic and character dancing on Monday evening at the Tennis Club.

The club was transformed into a fairyland of spring blossoms. A pretty background to the distinguished audience and players.

Mrs. Beulah Rowland quite captivated the hearts of all, both with her beautiful voice and pleasing personality. She has been studying with J. Armour Galloway of Italy and New York and has already broadcasted via radio from station WEAF.

The initial appearance of The Ragged Serenaders was a most successful one as they had to play many encores. Miss Isabel Rockwell at the piano; saxophone, Fred Warnke; violin, Elizabeth Pleister; banjo-mandolin, Edward Colson and Mary Bell; mandolin, Sarah Myers and Muriel Smith.

Miss Elizabeth Rule gave a clever interpretation of an Italian street dance.

The Seasons were very prettily presented by Edna TenEyck, Fay Randall, Barbara Finken, Ruth Mooney, Betty Warner, Jewell Bunnell, Eleanor Alexander, Barbara Jarvis, Ruth Anne Warner.

Mrs. Beulah Rowland gave a group of songs. The first, "A Gypsy's Garden," the music of which was composed by Miss Adele Beattys; the second, "I Know a Lovely Garden," was followed by an encore composed especially for the Garden Club.

The program of dancing terminated with a bit of old Spain. The Spanish tango being ably interpreted by Mary Douglass, Virginia Scarff, Eleanor Gancel, Elizabeth Harvey, Louise Denison, Dorothy Scarff, and Avis Van Dyke. "Pepita," sung by Mrs. Beulah Rowland, with Miss Alice Rodenbaugh as her Spanish lover, and a most pleasant surprise brought the first part of the program to a close.

A sketch written by Mrs. W. R. Morrison was most enthusiastically received. The characters: Ethel (hostess), Mrs. Leo J. Burnes; Bertha, Mrs. C. M. Tremaine; Edythe, Mrs. Stacey Bender; Grace, Mrs. F. H. Herzsch; Eva (maid), Mrs. W. R. Morrison.

A continual ripple of laughter permeated the house as the audience thoroughly enjoyed the lines.

Too much credit cannot be bestowed upon Miss Elizabeth Pardoe who arranged the dances. Miss Adele Beattys for the musical end and the members of the committee, Mrs. C. M. F. Egel, Mrs. Fred Warnke, and last but not least the chairman, Mrs. B. Theodore Salt, whom the Garden Club presented with a lovely bouquet of flowers for her untiring work in compiling the evening's pleasure.

WASHBURN BROS. OPEN
NEW SERVICE STATION

The firm of Washburn Brothers, whose tire store and service station has been located at 229 North Avenue for a number of years, has opened another store, with like service, much enlarged in all departments, at 225 North avenue, east between Central avenue and Elmer street.

The service includes the standard quality tires, the repair work of all descriptions, gas, oil and accessories and shortly the firm will add free crank case service for customers.

The new store is a large, roomy building, the interior of which has been completely redecorated and as a whole is fully equipped to furnish a modern and up-to-date service. The store, being out of the area of congested town traffic, is of easy access, safe and convenient, a feature which will be appreciated by all, especially women motor drivers.

OF C. COMMUNION BREAKFAST

Organization Celebrates First Affair of its Kind at Westfield Hotel

George H. Riley acted as toastmaster at the first "communion breakfast" ever held in Westfield by the Westfield Council, Knights of Columbus, which met at the Westfield hotel on Sunday morning, after the members of the council, numbering 125 strong, had attended the 8:15 o'clock mass at Holy Trinity Church. The Knights first assembled in the gymnasium of the parochial school and from there marched to the church, headed by District Deputy John A. Mathews, of Newark, and Grand Knight Leroy Wolf of Cranford. As the Knights entered the church Mrs. J. J. O'Connell sang "Onward Christian Soldiers."

The Rev. Patrick E. Reilly, who officiated at the mass in place of the rector, Father Watterson, who has been ill, spoke in complimentary terms of the good work the Knights were doing. Father Watterson, although not strong enough to conduct the service, was present.

Speeches at the communion breakfast were made by the following: Leroy Wolfe, who spoke on the "Own Your Own Home Movement"; Past Supreme Warden Thomas J. McLaughlin, who spoke on the Columbus Cadet Camp; Past District Deputy Scriver; Past Grand Knight Tully, State Deputy Leonard, Past Grand Knight Nolan, Past Grand Knight William Reilly, P. E. Kennedy, editor of "Columbia," and District Deputy Mathews.

Prayers for the complete recovery of Father Watterson, who is now convalescing, were said and a rising vote of thanks given to those who had visited the rector during his illness and expressed a wish for his speedy recovery. The communion breakfast was regarded as a great success and undoubtedly will be made a yearly feature hereafter. The members of the committee in charge besides Father Watterson and toastmaster Riley was composed of the following: Daniel Donovan, James Hardiman, Thomas Woods, Jr., Leroy Wolfe, Peter J. McDonough and John A. Mathews.

REGIONAL TRAFFIC CONFERENCE

The following delegates have been appointed to represent Westfield at the Regional Traffic Conference: A. P. Egan, Police Commissioner; John C. Rosencrans, Police Chief; Alexander Blair, Town Engineer; A. K. Pierson, chairman, Town Plan and Art Committee; Mayor M. D. Littlefield.

One hundred and fourteen cities and organizations of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, within a radius of fifty miles of New York City, have already appointed 430 delegates to the regional traffic conference which will be held in New York City May 20th on the joint call of thirteen organizations, including the Merchants' Association of New York, the New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce, the New Jersey State League of Municipalities, the New York State Chamber of Commerce, the Westchester County Chamber of Commerce, the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce and seven others.

The conference will consider particularly how the traffic problems of New York and the network of municipalities surrounding it are influenced by the heights of buildings, by zoning regulations, by the location of inter-city highways, and the extent to which these problems may be alleviated or eliminated by a plan for the future development of the 5,500 square miles in New York State, New Jersey and Connecticut, which is now generally recognized as constituting the region of New York.

CHARTER DINNER FOR LION'S CLUB

The biggest gathering of Lions of the local Lions' Club was that held on Thursday night last at the Shackamaxon Country Club, the occasion being the Charter night and presentation dinner. It was a brilliant occasion inasmuch as there was not only a full attendance of local members, but heads of Lions' organizations were present from many cities throughout the state. It sure was one grand rout.

The visiting Lions and other guests included the following: Rev. Harold J. Sweeney, president of the Elizabeth Lions Club; Dr. William B. Gray, president of the Plainfield Club; Major William H. Caulfield, president of the Newark Club; Rev. Chester H. Clee, the district governor; Judge Benjamin F. Jones, the field director, and Rev. E. J. Holden, president of the Westfield Rotary Club.

The club was fortunate in having H. V. Kaltenborn, associate editor of the Brooklyn Eagle, who has been a great world traveler and who gave the club the benefit of a deep survey he has made of world conditions. Mr. Kaltenborn spoke optimistically of world conditions and declared the Davies Commission report and findings would in all probability place the United States in the role of world leader in solving the problems growing out of the great World War.

The committee which arranged for the charter night dinner was composed of Arthur N. Pierson, Jr., Rev. O. P. Barnhill, Herman Kostenbaum, Richard C. Doerr, secretary, D. Wayne Seaman and Henry L. Rost.

NOTES OF THE FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Twenty-two boys, members of the Boys' League, motored to Jamestown on Sunday and visited the State Home for Boys, in which a number of Westfield people are interested. The boys were accompanied by state and local Y. M. C. A. representatives.

Pastor Charles W. Wright made the fourth of a series of talks he is giving at the 7 p. m. meetings of the Epworth League. His topic last Sunday evening was "What It Means to be a Methodist."

Last Sunday evening was a service especially devoted to music. There was a mixed chorus of male and female voices. The pastor spoke to the topic "Getting Acquainted with Yourself."

The memorial flowers given on Easter Sunday were in memory of the late Alfred E. Pearsall. Those of last Sunday were the gift of Harold and Herbert Welch, in memory of their father, William S. Welch, and Mrs. William H. Davies in memory of her parents.

The Woman's Aid Society will hold its regular meeting in the Chapel tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon, at 3 p. m.

Rollin Fisher will be the speaker on Thursday evening at the meeting of the Intermediate Department of the Epworth League. His topic, "A Definite Thing I Can Do." The Intermediate Department will have a social in the Chapel on Friday evening of this week at 8 p. m. There will be "Olympian Games."

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be commemorated next Sunday morning and a number of new members will be received.

On Thursday evening, May 9, there will be a big Plainfield Group Rally of the Epworth League in the First M. E. Church. Two hundred and fifty league members are expected and the local leaguers are planning to have one hundred of our own young folk greet them.

The annual meeting of the mothers interested in the Kings Heralds will be held in the Chapel at 3:15 p. m. on Friday of this week.

Mother's Cook Book

There are nettles everywhere. But smooth green grasses are more common still. The blue of heaven is larger than the cloud.

—E. B. Browning.

EVERYDAY FOODS

WHEN a few pieces of chicken are left over from the Sunday dinner, cut the meat into small pieces removing all the bones. A cupful will make a nice dish with macaroni. Prepare a rich white sauce, using two tablespoonfuls of butter melted and two tablespoonfuls of flour; mix well and add one cupful of milk with such seasonings as one likes. Take a cupful of cooked macaroni, put a layer of macaroni in the bottom of a buttered dish, cover with a layer of chicken, then a layer of white sauce. Repeat until all is used. Over the top sprinkle a thick covering of buttered crumbs and bake until brown.

Soft Molasses Cookies.

Take one cupful of molasses, one and three-fourths teaspoonfuls of soda, one cupful of sour milk, one-half cupful of shortening, two teaspoonfuls of ginger, one teaspoonful of salt and flour to roll as soft as possible. Chill before rolling and less flour will be needed.

Mutton With Vegetables.

Brown serving-sized pieces of mutton in fat. Add sliced or diced carrots, onions, potatoes, and enough water to simmer. Cover and cook for an hour or more, adding salt, pepper and a dash or two of flour for thickening. Serve with hot corn bread.

Caraway Rye Bread.

Take one-fourth of a cupful of chopped suet, melt in one cupful of boiling water, add one cupful of scalded milk, three tablespoonfuls of molasses, one-half cupful of walnuts, two teaspoonfuls of salt, one-fourth of a yeast cake softened in one-fourth of a cupful of warm water, two teaspoonfuls of caraway seeds and three cupfuls each of rye and wheat flour. The mixture is set to rise and when double its bulk the seeds and nuts are stirred in. Bake in two loaves.

When making fudge try adding as much crisp corn flakes or puffed rice as the mixture will take. A few nuts coarsely chopped make a most palatable candy and one which may be given the children without worry.

Men You May Marry

By E. R. PEYSER

Has a galoot like this proposed to you?

Symptoms: About whom you have often said to mother: "Let's invite him. He is a corking dancer, has lots of light talk and can certainly carry his dress clothes like a gentleman." "Let's place him next to Charles and they'll get along swimmingly, and chewing the rag." He is so dependable. He is the best of the best too. He is so agreeable, ready to do anything for his hostess when he is moving her place in the nearest waiting room.

What's in a Name?

By MILDRED MARSHALL

Face about your name in history's meaning; how it was derived; the difference your lucky day, lucky jewel.

CARRIE

CARRIE may almost be regarded as a purely American name, though her origin is discovered in the Karling romances of the Teutons. Curiously, the meaning of the name is translated as "man," and Carrie's etymological predecessors were almost universally masculine names. The various Charles and Carls who figured in English and Teutonic history are close relatives of Carrie.

Carrie was evolved in England after Charlet had been brought there by the brave Lady Derby from the house of La Tremouille, into which the daughter of the unfortunate Charlotte d'Albret had carried it. The Anglicized version, Carolina, became the most popular of the two names, since it was borne by the queen of King George II, who brought it through Germany from an Italian source.

Carrie, an English diminutive brought to this country by the christening of the Carolinas among the thirteen Colonies, caught the fancy of Southern residents to such an extent that it is now given in baptism as a totally independent and etymologically intact name.

The beryl is the talismanic stone belonging to Carrie. It is said to make her amiable and inconquerable, and to give her the power to hold the love of her husband. Tuesday is her lucky day and 2 her lucky number.

GIGANTIC FURNITURE DRIVE BY MULLINS NEWARK

To Make 2,000 New Customers During the Month of May

John Mullins & Sons, Newark, N. J., oldest, largest, busiest, fairest, squarest furniture store in the state, are going the limit of liberality in order to add to their extensive clientele this ensuing month.

Every suite in stock has been cut in price regardless of cost and loss. Living room, bedroom and dining room suites, including the highest grade furniture on the floors (suits de luxe that originally sold up to $1,000 and over) are now purchasable (on terms to suit the convenience of the customer) at $78, $178, $278 and $378.

Mullins are quite satisfied to forego profits during the entire month for the purpose of widening the extent of their accounts. They figure that the more customers, the smaller the margin to operate upon—and that even lower-than-usual regular prices and therefore greater volume of business will more than recompense in future for what is being sacrificed now.

June brides will do well to take advantage of this unique opportunity the more so as payments on goods ordered now for future delivery need not start until June.

Besides cutting the life out of prices, Mullins will make a liberal allowance on old furniture taken in exchange. No matter how dilapidated your old furniture, it will be worth something if turned in when buying new goods at Mullins.

FOR FINISHING HERE'S THE PLACE TO GO. (IN SMITHING IS THE TRADE WE KNOW)

WHATEVER you need in the finishing line—repair work or in the installation of a new hot air furnace or the building of a substantial roof—you'll find to your complete satisfaction if you'll ask us in on the work.

THE VALUE OF THE KINDERGARTEN

By Miss Emma D. Harrison

When we speak of the kindergarten most of us picture a group of very young children engaged in games or songs or manual exercises, in a room with that characteristic equipment recognized as different from that of the ordinary classroom. Perhaps some of us recall the kindergarten we attended, a rather different one from that of today. In all probability, however, very few of the mothers and fathers of Westfield even enjoyed this happy introduction to school life.

What is the kindergarten of today like? What educational value has it which justifies its incorporation into our school system?

Every little boy and girl must sooner or later go from the family circle into the world outside and the modern kindergarten is the bridge over which the child of today takes his first steps. It takes the child at his most impressionable age and helps him to find himself in the harmonious society of children of his own age affording a most helpful social adjustment. While the work is informal, nevertheless, it is the experience-getting-period and in the various activities there are the beginnings of all the subjects to be studied later.

The materials have been carefully selected with a view to satisfying the child's sense of self-expression. By experimenting with these materials he finds what he can do with them thereby taking the first steps in the creation of the industrial arts. Careful study by kindergarten specialists has produced play materials which afford the greatest benefit to the child. For example, large floor blocks have taken the place of the little blocks which were formerly used. With these blocks the larger muscles are brought into play and houses big enough for the children to enter may be built. These blocks afford an unending source of interest, enjoyment and instruction to the child.

The physical development of the child is another important factor in the kindergarten and the teacher is constantly seeking to make healthy little bodies through establishing hygienic personal habits.

When a child enters the first grade from the kindergarten he should be able to so control his movements as to walk, run, hop and skip to the rhythm of music. Through the kindergarten training he learns to lift and carry easily such objects as chairs, boxes, books, building blocks. It also makes him adept in handling his work materials such as crayons, scissors and clay.

Oral English plays a very important part in the kindergarten. Even the foreign-born child, after being in kindergarten should be able to speak and understand simple English and his repertoire of verses, songs and stories is considerable.

Upon entering the kindergarten, children will often sing too fast, or drag, as well as sing in the wrong pitch, either above or below the proper key. By the time they enter the first grade the rhythm is corrected and the tone is invariably made true.

The kindergarten seeks to teach the child to "pay attention," to be obedient and to develop his powers of observation. The self control which kindergarten children acquire is in marked contrast to the child who is accustomed to gratifying his every whim.

Finally, the kindergarten child, on entering the first grade, has a friendly attitude toward the teacher and the school. He joyously anticipates the opportunities which await him there. We only need to be reminded of the delay in the learning process among the little boys and girls in the first grade who have never attended kindergarten, to realize its great value.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS SEE MASK AND WIG COMEDY

Guests of New York Committee at 36th Annual Production of Club

On Tuesday evening, April 29th, a number of the members of the faculty and students of the Westfield High School witnessed the 1924 performance of the Mask and Wig Club of the University of Pennsylvania at the Manhattan Opera House in New York City.

This show, the thirty-sixth annual production of the dramatic club, is a musical comedy in two acts entitled "That's That," the scene of which is laid in Palm Beach. The plot is based on an attempt to kidnap a society girl by a man who then hopes to become a hero by rescuing her. This attempt is frustrated by a country maid who proves to be the belle of the show. Two college boys with one dress suit between them add to the humorous features.

The invitation to the faculty and students was extended through Wm. G. Grove of Harrison avenue, a member of the New York Committee of the University of Pennsylvania Mask and Wig Club.

The Westfield High School party included Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Philhower, Miss Dowding and Miss Orgill of the high school faculty, Mrs. Hallock and Miss Woolman of the Grant school faculty, Caroline Bradfield, Jane Moody, Doris Beard, Ruth Whitlock, Evelyn Stewart, Arthur Crutenden, Kempton Dearie, Edgar Wright, Roland Nydegger, Lawrence Apgar and Roger Williams of the senior play cast, Mary Bell, Lillian Weber, Stewart Morton, Wayne Johnson, Eugene Reid, Willard Morgan, Edwin Gottlieb, Morgan Pearsall, Leigh Townley, Carl Hornung, Max Glasser, Alan Thompson, Everett Smith, Alan Colyer, Julian Page, Kenneth Vreeland, Edward Roebor, Merchant Slocum, Kenneth Johnson, Paul Crickenberger, William Yarnall, Abram Short, Edwin Ganzel, Edward Colson, Elmer Crickenberger, Paul Colson, Richard Sampson, Douglas Sampson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Caffrey and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Grove.

DATA RESPECTING SECONDARY SCHOOL STUDENTS IN COLLEGES OF THE EAST

Comparisons of work done during the first year in College by public and private school graduates. Opinions expressed by college authorities.

Colgate, Dartmouth, Harvard, Princeton, Yale, Wesleyan, and Vassar report a superiority in the public school product; Hamilton, Stevens, Union and Barnard report an equality of work from public and private school students; Bryn Mawr, Mt. Holyoke and Wells are noncommittal; eight other Eastern colleges express no opinion.

Harvard states that 82 Harvard seniors (1922-23) who secured honors came from public schools, while only 41 honor men came from private schools. Harvard statistics for the last three years indicate that the public school product is superior. Yale gives an equally gratifying report in regard to freshmen securing honor grades: Of freshmen entering in 1920, twenty per cent of public school graduates secured honors against eleven per cent from private schools; in 1921, twenty-six per cent public school, against thirteen per cent private school; in 1922, twenty-seven per cent public school, against thirteen per cent private school.

Princeton reports that public school students "pass better entrance examinations and their college record is more satisfactory though sometimes it takes them longer to settle down." An interesting report from Williams regarding present freshmen states that 33 per cent of their 1923 admissions came from public schools and 67 per cent from private schools, and that only 8 per cent of those dropped at mid-year were public school pupils; the remaining 92 per cent of those dropped came from private schools.

Wellesley reports that 51 per cent in the freshman honor group in 1922 completed their preparation in high school and that statistics for previous years indicate as high a percentage and in some years higher. Vassar reports in the graduating class of 1922 a percentage of 36.3 high school graduates securing 67 per cent of the honors; in 1923 a percentage of 37.7 high school graduates securing 60 per cent of the honors.—Extracts from a report to Westfield P.T. A. given by Mr. Philhower.

CHAPEL

Chapel on Wednesday last was spent in the celebration of the birthday of General Grant. Speeches on his life and character were very ably given by some senior boys, namely, William Yarnall, Russell Corbin, Morgan Pearsall, Albert Cook, Leigh Townley, George Talbot and Edward Roebor.

On Friday Mr. Battin presented the varsity W's to the members of the nineteen twenty-three football squad and the nineteen twenty-four basketball team. He then presented the class numerals to the members of the champion football and basketball teams of the school, which in both cases happened to be the senior boys. Willard Morgan was awarded a cup for winning the foul shooting contest in which over 200 boys took part. Mr. Neubauer presented the girls' basketball team with their varsity letters and the second team with their smaller letters. The junior girls, who were members of the girls' championship team, then received their numerals. The last awards were certificates to several Type 1 students who made the required thirty words a minute.

TRACK STARTS SEASON

Last Saturday Westfield High School was represented in the largest track meet ever held, "The Penn Relays." In the race Westfield ran in Huntington, came in first with Cape May, Hackensack and Westfield, second, third and fourth respectively. The fellows made a good showing and the experience is sure to be a big help for our future meets.

Tomorrow we will officially open the season by meeting South Orange at their track. The team needs your backing. Let's see everybody over there cheering the fellows on. Monday the boys of the school were called together by Mr. Battin and informed about the interclass meet which will be held next Monday afternoon. Everyone was urged to participate in the events.

DEBATE CLUB

The debate club which was organized for the promoting of interest in debate in the High School, had their first election last week. The officers are now as follows: President, Ruth Houghton; vice president, George Thayer; secretary, Robert Munger; treasurer, Alan Thompson.

BASEBALL TEAM WINS

Bound Brook succumbed to Westfield's baseball nine last Friday. It was a genuine ball game with the score ending 7-5.

In the second inning "Joe" Pollack was hit by a tip off the bat and received a broken collar bone. He will no doubt be out for the rest of the season. This is the worst injury in athletics this year and we hope it is the last.

HERE WE ARE AGAIN

The Junior Athletic Association of Washington School will present a benefit movie at the Rialto Theatre on May 7 and 8. The main feature will be the Frontier Woman, a dramatic and true story of the southwest, one of the Chronicles of America series given by the Yale University Press. The second will be a comedy of married life, Owen Moore in Modern Matrimony. There will be other short novelty films.

Tickets may be purchased from any association member. Don't miss this historical and educational picture.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL FIRST GAME OF SEASON

The Washington School team journeyed to Dunellen on Friday where they played their first game of the season, winning by the score of 6-4. The Washington school team was out to win and with the exception of two or three usual early season "bones" they played a fast game of baseball. Thirteen players were given a chance to participate in the game. The runs were made by Stapleton, Jarvis (2), Conway, Crane and McDede. Coach Stuart used Edmonds and Britten in the box.

The Washington School will open up its season in the Union County Grammar School League today with Scotch Plains as the first opponents. Other teams in the league are Rahway, Roselle Park, Garwood, Kenilworth, Cranford, Roselle, Hillside and Union.

LINCOLN PARENTS ELECTION

Mrs. Frederick Whiton was re-elected president of the Lincoln School Parent-Teacher Association at its meeting last week and other officers selected were as follows: First vice president, Principal Stanley T. Hinman; second vice president, Mrs. Addison Outwater; recording secretary, Mrs. V. P. Payne; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. H. Houghton; treasurer, Mrs. C. H. Westenburg; advisory committee, Mrs. W. P. Barclay, and Miss Klock. Catherine Ward of the National Child Labor Committee gave an address. Montague Miller gave several piano selections.

The regular meeting of the Grant School Parent-Teacher Association will be held at the school on Thursday evening, May 1st, at eight o'clock. There will be a short business meeting followed by an evening of dancing. The music is to be furnished by the Black Cat Orchestra. Please keep the date.

ROTARY CLUB CELEBRATES BOYS' WEEK

Boys' Week was celebrated at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary Club at the Westfield Hotel yesterday.

Don Maxwell, chairman of the Boys' Committee, introduced as the speaker of the day James Gregg, Secretary of the International Y. M. C. Association. Mr. Gregg took for his subject "Fine Four-Square Boys" and outlined the growing up of the boy, his Christian duties, his amusements and school life.

His talk was very interesting and was interspersed with humorous remarks. He showed the great necessity for Y. M. C. A. and the Boy Scouts.

The annual election of the board of directors was held and the following members selected: Charles Clark, Robert Harden, Edward Holden, Horace Martin, Don Maxwell, Byron Prugh and Lloyd Thompson.

At a meeting of the directors the following officers were elected: President, Edw. J. Holden; vice president, Lloyd Thompson; secretary Byron Prugh; treasurer, Donald Maxwell; sergeant at arms, Wm. H. Weldon, Jr.

All the Protestant ministers of the town were guests of the Club and guests were present from Plainfield and Cranford.

SOHMER
Cupid Grand

FLORENTINE MODEL

Established 1872

DIMINUTIVE Grand from which flows in full volume the indescribable rich mellowness of Sohmer tone. A small Grand that concedes nothing in qualities of tone or touch to the Grand of larger size. A miniature Grand that gratifies every requirement of the artist. That is the Cupid Grand. The fruition of 38 years of Sohmer effort—a crowning Sohmer achievement.

We offer the "Cupid" in exquisite encasements including three models of period design. As with all Sohmer pianos, it is constructed to take its place in the home as a cherished possession, a symbol of affection, the source of a lifetime pleasure—to become a treasured heirloom.

REPORT ON WATER SUPPLY GIVEN TO TOWN COUNCIL

Thomas F. Howe, Consulting Engineer, retained by the Town of Westfield, on recommendation of this Commission, and pursuant to resolution of your body dated October 8, 1923.

While your commission desires your body to consider Mr. Howe's report and the appendix thereto as an integral part of its report, it feels that a summary of its salient features may not be out of place.

Mr. Howe in his introductory remarks summarizes the conditions in the Metropolitan District of New Jersey and states: "At the present time a critical situation confronts a majority of the civil sub-divisions." He further states that Westfield with a present population of approximately 10,000 may reasonably anticipate a population of 18,000 in 1940 and 31,000 in 1960, and on that basis may also anticipate its daily expected use of water in 1940 as 1,800,000 gallons, and in 1960 as 3,720,000. Mr. Howe further states that for short periods of time, particularly during a conflagration, the consumption will greatly exceed the average rate and therefore the working capacity of the water system must be designed to cover the peak load. statements as to independent supplies of surface water available to Westfield:

GREEN BROOK

Location—Dam Brook just below mouth of Blue Brook at the Scotch Plains gap in First Watchung Mountain.

Cost (including distribution system)—

To cover demands to 1940 ..... $1,671,000
1960 ..... 2,028,000
Estimated cost to consumer per summer per 1000 cubic feet:
1930 ..... $4.00
1940 ..... 3.00
1960 ..... 2.00

STONY BROOK

Location—Dam brook at Washburnville.

Cost (including distribution system)—

To cover demands to 1940 ..... $2,055,000
1960 ..... 2,787,000
Estimated cost to consumer per summer per 1000 cubic feet:
1930 ..... $4.75
1940 ..... 3.40
1960 ..... 2.50

PASSAIC RIVER

Location—Draw from river above Berkeley Heights.

Cost (including distribution system)—

To cover demands to 1940 ..... $1,508,000
1960 ..... 2,035,000
Estimated cost to consumer per summer per 1000 cubic feet:
1930 ..... $3.60
1940 ..... 2.60
1960 ..... 2.40

As to each of the above sources, Mr. Howe states that the supply of water "is satisfactory for introduction to a purification plant which would deliver the same suitable to meet the highest standard of every possible requirement." In each case the acquisition of large tracts of land for reservoir and purification purposes and the relocation of highways is involved with consequent difficulty and delay in securing title. The report further states that while the watershed involved in the Stony Brook project is comparatively free from sources of pollution the existence of the Bonnie Burn Sanatorium on the Green Brook shed adds a factor, which cannot be wholly dissipated, and that the various factors which should be considered in adopting either the Stony Brook or Green Brook sources show clearly that Westfield should eliminate them from consideration. On the Passaic River project the report states that the estimated cost does not provide for a storage reservoir, as the cost of such a reservoir would increase the cost beyond the possibility of independent action by Westfield, but without storage facilities unusual precautionary measures would be required. It is further pointed out that while damage due to diversion of the river water has been carefully estimated, the amount of such damage is by no means certain. Mr. Howe, therefore, concludes that this project does not offer the relief sought.

On the possibility of a deep well supply the report states that all indications are favorable to the existence of such a supply within the limits of the Town of Westfield, but that would cost about $6,000 to carry out the tests necessary to determine the truth of the indications. If such a supply exists the costs are estimated as follows:

DEEP WELL SUPPLY

Location—(Completely within the Town of Westfield).

Cost (including distribution system)—

To cover demands to 1940 ..... $1,155,000
1960 ..... 1,477,000
Estimated cost to consumer per summer per 1000 cubic feet:
1930 ..... $3.00
1940 ..... 2.30
1960 ..... 1.80

Mr. Howe's report favors the driven well supply for the following reasons:

1. Economy.
2. Complete location confined to Westfield.
3. Flexibility permitting gradual development with consequent investment economy.
4. Quality equal to present supply, and
5. Minimum time required for installation.

The report summarizes the various sources available to augment the present supply of the Plainfield-Union Water Company, through co-operation of the various municipalities concerned, but because of the complete failure of the efforts during the past three years to bring about concerted action, your Commission will not at the time comment on these passages of the report, except to draw attention to Mr. Howe's statement as to the probable quality of the water to be secured from the Junction of the Millstone and Raritan Rivers, and to point out that in Mr. Howe's opinion, the cheapest satisfactory supply could be obtained by joint action of the municipalities served by the Plainfield-Union Water Company in taking over the present plant of that company and developing an additional supply at the Junction of the North Branch of the Raritan and the Black River. On this basis the estimated cost to the consumer per 1000 cubic feet would be:

1930	$3.30
1940	2.30
1960	1.50

In conclusion Mr. Howe made the following recommendations:

"The experience of the district during the last ten years, particularly the past dry period, forcibly presents a situation that must be met. A definite program with liberal provisions for the future must be adopted or the water shortage will beyond doubt make its reappearance. The water resources available for development and use are within reach and a wholehearted co-operation on the part of the interested municipalities will surely result in a permanent solution of the water supply problem of the district."

"If it appears that the consumption of such a program would be unreasonably delayed by lack of co-operation, or for other reasons, it is recommended that Westfield proceed with the development of its own well supply—not the permanent type upon which the cost estimates are based, but one constructed for temporary use."

"As the best permanent policy for Westfield to adopt, it is recommended that the Town, acting in conjunction with other interested municipalities through the agency of the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission, acquire the plant of the Plainfield-Union Water Company and develop a joint supply of water from the North Branch of the Raritan River."

Your commission at its meeting on April 17, 1924, adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, that the chairman appoint a sub-committee to prepare a report from this commission to the Mayor and Council of Westfield, that said report, accompanied by a copy of the report of Thomas F. Howe, Consulting Engineer, retained by resolution of the Town Council dated October 8, 1923, be submitted to the Mayor and Town Council, and further—

"Resolved, that this commission recommends to the Mayor and Town Council that the report of this commission and of the Consulting Engineer be offered to the newspapers of the town for publication and that such reports be printed, at the expense of the town, for distribution, and that this commission further recommend to the Mayor and Town Council the appropriation of the sum of $6,000 for carrying on the tests for an available supply of deep well water, as outlined in the report of said Consulting Engineer; and further—

"Resolved, that this commission further recommends to the Mayor and Town Council that in the event that the tests herein recommended shall indicate that there is available a sufficient supply of deep well water, there be appropriated a further sufficient sum for the purpose of preparing plans and specifications for the construction of a municipally owned water plant and distributing system for the Town of Westfield."

In conclusion your commission desires to reiterate its previous statements that in its opinion the present situation is most dangerous. While undoubtedly this problem can be solved most satisfactorily by joint action on the part of the municipalities served by the Plainfield-Union Water Company, over three years have now been spent without result in an effort to find a mutually satisfactory basis of joint action, and your commission is strongly of the opinion that the time has come when Westfield cannot with justice to its people, further delay action looking toward a solution of the problem.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) R. S. NICHOLS, Chairman.

It takes an expert to tell good oil from bad, but any layman can get the right oil if he asks that he gets it. The name "Standard" Polarine is on every oil tank containing our products.

You can't tell much about lubricating oils by their appearance. They all look more or less alike. You can't judge viscosity and wearing quality by looks. The color is about as important as the cover of a book.

You can safeguard yourself by always asking for your oil by name. The good name of a good oil is your best guarantee of getting what you want. It insures uniform quality, too. A nameless oil may be anything. See the tank from which your oil is taken.

For your own sake and for the health of your hard-working engine—select a good oil and then always buy it by name.

If you had time to make exhaustive tests you would decide on "Standard" Polarine. It has been recognized as the standard among good oils for many years. It is better today than ever. "Standard" Polarine has a good name to live up to.

BIRD HOUSE CONTEST CLOSED

The bird house contest, carried on by the school children under the auspices of the Garden Club, closed Saturday night after a three days' exhibit in the Art Department of the public library.

The judges were Mrs. Charles Courbier, Mrs. J. T. Tubby and Mr. Lloyd Thompson. Points considered in awarding the prizes were: 1, Suitability; 2, architectural design; 3, workmanship; 4, practicality for hanging.

The prizes were five dollar and two dollar and half gold pieces for houses that were for sale. Houses receiving first prize of $5 were taken by the Garden Club and will be placed in Mindowaskin Park. For houses not for sale, blue ribbons were awarded. Red and yellow ribbons were awarded for workmanship or architectural design where houses did not meet the standard of measurements and general suitability.

The prize winners were Robert Scott, $5 in gold for bluebird house, John Starr, $5 in gold for hairy woodpecker's house. Morris Simon, $5 in gold for wren house. Blue ribbon, Henry Atwater, downy woodpecker's house. Blue ribbon, Eugene Gerhart, Wren house.

Second Prize: Tony Riggo, $2.50 in gold for wren house. Arthur Evans, $2.50 in gold for wren house. Joseph Papandrea, $2.50 in gold for bluebird house. William Vines, $2.50 in gold for feeding station. Red ribbon: William Sampson, wren house. Kim Whitehead, wren house.

Yellow ribbon: Leonard Brady Wren; Charles Addams, wren; Joseph Brady, flicker; Wm. Mallifert, feeding station.

300 ATTEND PARISH REVUE

St. Paul's Men's Club Hold Novel Affair at Regular Monthly Meeting

One of the largest crowds of the season, estimated to number 300, was in attendance on last Wednesday evening in the Episcopal parish house to witness the first annual parish house revue, which consisted of a program of songs, local skits, comic sketches, dances and monologues. H. H. MacCawatt, chairman of the entertainment committee of the Men's Club, was the originator of the revue. Those who took part in the fun were James G. Orr, Warren Behrens, Geo. W. Adams, ex-president John Pencheon, and Messrs. Brown, Boyd, Johnson and Hastings. A feature of the evening was a fine bit of singing and dancing by the colored sexton of the church, Herbert Miller, entitled "Shuffling Along." This was a fine piece of work and elicited great applause.

HISTORICAL WESTFIELD

In connection with the coming Town Exhibit, week of May 19, it is desired to have information as to all objects of historical interest which will be available for the exhibit. Our committee would like to hear from all persons having historical relics dating from the Indian, Colonial and Revolutionary periods down to the present time, including ancient deeds, pictures of building and of public officials and other citizens who have been prominent in our town's history. Everything accepted for the exhibit will be properly labelled, including the names of the present owners, and will be called for and returned by the committee. Please send this information before May 5th to the undersigned at 414 Lenox avenue, telephone 1247.

The lower inflation of Michelin Comfort Cords is possible because these tires are much larger and more flexible than other balloons for present rims. Michelin introduced the first balloon tires for present rims and has developed them to a point far ahead of general practice. # MELODY RAMBLERS ADD- ED ATTRACTION FOR "WESTFIELD FOLLIES"

Wayne Bidwell Brings His Group of
"Synchronizing Symphonizers" to Men's League Minstrel Show

Contract has just been signed by Mr. Wayne Bidwell of South Orange for the appearance of himself and orchestra at the minstrel show and entertainment to be given by the Men's League of the First Baptist church on the evening of May 27th, at the High School, to which ladies will be especially welcome.

The program offered by Mr. Bidwell and his "Melody Ramblers" is unique, consisting of synchronizing symphonies, not jazz, but lilting lays and rhythmic melodies delightfully enticing.

"Westfield Follies" which include the minstrels and "olio" will be the final entertainment to be given by the Men's League this season that have brought great credit to the committee responsible, as well as great pleasure to the audience attending.

Admittance to this entertainment will be by invitation. Members of the community desiring tickets will be accommodated upon request to the Men's League. Owing to the limited seating capacity at the High School and due to the fact that this is one of the League's free entertainments, this has been found necessary.

Well Known Citizen Recovering
Nicely in Roosevelt Hospital,
New York

Mr. Frank L. Reed, of 619 Carlton Road, president of the Men's Brotherhood of the First M. E. church, and a well known Wall Street man, is a patient in the Roosevelt Hospital, New York city, where last week he underwent an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Reed had been more or less in delicate health all winter and a diagnosis disclosed that an operation would be necessary. The operation was a successful one and now Mr. Reed is on the swift road to recovery. Mrs. Reed has been with her husband since he was taken to the hospital and it is hoped that he will be strong enough to be brought to his home in a few days.

Many cheering messages have gone to the hospital from Mr. Reed's many friends and greetings and flowers in profusion have been sent to him by the men of the Methodist Brotherhood, with the members of which Mr. Reed is very popular. Members of the Official Board and Pastor Chas. W. Wright have also been bearers of messages of cheer and good wishes.

STATE PREPARES GUIDE FOR N. J. VACATIONISTS

In response to numerous requests for information concerning the widely varied attractions of the State for vacationists, the Bureau of Land Registry and Publicity of the Department of Conservation and Development, has prepared a booklet entitled "Vacationists' Handbook of New Jersey." The booklet is now in process of publication and is expected to be available for distribution within a short time. Copies will be forwarded on request addressed to the Bureau of Land Registry and Publicity, State Office Building, Trenton.

In the new booklet, the countless attractions to be found in all parts of the State have been grouped by counties and under each county appears accurate information as to the location of such sources of enjoyment as camp sites, fishing locations, golf courses, points of scenic and historic interest, and resorts. In its preparation, extreme care has been used to eliminate anything that might be construed as an effort to give special prominence to any particular section of the State at the expense of other portions.

New Jersey, with its wealth of historic background dating from the earliest settlement of the Nation, its remarkable industrial development, its world famed seashore resorts at various points along the 125 miles of sea coast, its rugged, mountainous northern section dotted with lakes and streams and its famous winter playground among the pines of South Jersey, is a veritable paradise for the vacationist no matter what his tastes or preferences may be. In fact, it has been impossible, within the scope of a small pamphlet, to include every possible vacation playground. However, it is believed that the information contained in the new publication will be sufficient to indicate both to visitors and citizens of the State, the general locations in which may be found the particular type of diversion that each most enjoys and that for this reason, the "Vacationists' Handbook" will be a useful addition to the growing list of valuable publications issued by the Department of Conservation and Development.

WELCOME to NEW JERSEY

EACH year an average of 60,000 people are added to New Jersey's population.

A large number of them come to work in the State's industries.

Many of them come because living conditions are better than in New York and Philadelphia.

All of them require good electric, gas and transportation service.

The new capital required to furnish facilities for the ever increasing host of customers is the reason for the offer made by
