st "Open" Primary Tues.

A greater than usual number of Westfield voters will go to the polls Tuesday to vote in New Jersey's first "open" Primary Election.

A three-judge federal panel ruled Friday that the state law that requires voters to wait until two primary elections pass before they can switch parties is unconstitutional.

As a result, Democrats will be allowed to vote in Tuesday's Republican Primary, and Republicans may vote in the Democratic Primary.

The challenge to the law was brought by a Westfield attorney, Richard Samuel, on behalf of the American Civil Liberties Union which argued that the three-year wait-between Primaries inhibits the free choice of voters.

Samuel himself is a candidate in the Democratic Primary for that party's nomination as a candidate for Congress. He opposes Mrs. Jerry English for the spot in a bid for election to the position now held by Rep. Florence P. Dwyer.

State Senator Matthew Rinaldo is running unopposed on the Republican ticket for nomination.

Westfield voters also will select delegates to the two Presidential conventions, candidates for U.S. Senate, the Board of Freeholders, mayor, town councilmen and county committeemen and women.

Mayor Donn A. Snyder heads the local Republican slate which also includes Councilmen Alexander S. Williams (Ward 1) and Jay Rochlin (Ward 2); former Councilman David Luessen (Ward 3) and newcomer William Steele (Ward 4).

The Democratic slate is led by mayoralty candidate Harry Foskey, teamed with R. Patrick Cash (Ward 1), Mrs. Bernice Fein (Ward 2), Councilman Charles A. Harris (Ward 3), and Lawrence Weiss (Ward 4).

Polling places are:
WARD 1
Districts 1 and 2 - Roosevelt Jr. High School
Districts 3 and 5 - Franklin School
District 4 and 6 - Municipal Building

Tuesday's Ballot Complex

The election of delegates to the Republican and Democratic National Conventions makes the 1972 primary election ballot more complex than in any previous election year.

Charlotte Rath of 612 Roosevelt St., a student of political science at Newark State College, points out that voters of both parties will elect convention delegates and candidates for federal, county, and municipal offices.

Republican voters will vote for 24 delegate candidates out of a field of 40. Democratic voters will elect 22 from among 63 delegate candidates appearing on the ballot. On the ballot of both parties there will be delegates-at-large, alternate delegates-at-large and local delegates and alternate delegates.

Republicans will elect 20 statewide delegates and alternates. Only 4 Republican delegates and alternates delegates will be elected from the 12th Congressional District. The major contest for the Democratic delegates-at-large is between the supporters of Hubert H. Humphrey and George McGovern.

On the county level, 13 delegates and alternate delegates will be elected to represent the wishes of local Democrats. Voters will choose from among delegates committed to Shirley Chisholm, George McGovern, and Hubert H. Humphrey.

The Republican slate appears in rows A and B across the top of the ballot. The total Democratic slate is spread out over six rows,

Miller Heads JCC

Richard S. Miller, representative of the Brightwood Association has been elected chairman of the Joint Civic Committee. "The Committee will continue to represent and serve Westfield as it has for the past 23 years by presenting to the voters competent and highly qualified candidates for the Board of Education. This is our only job. And to do it well, we must have the cooperation of the community as a whole in submitting names of potential candidates," Miller said.

Serving with Mr. Miller are W. Jubb Corbet of the Rotary Club, vice chairman; Mrs. John T. McGovern of the Intermediate Women's Club, secretary; and Mrs. Thomas Kennelly, representative of Lincoln School PTO, treasurer. Appointed committee chairmen for the new year are Mr. Corbet, screening committee; Mrs. Frank Elby, publicity; Mrs. Austin Sayre, membership; Mrs. Thomas Richey, hospitality; and Gordon Booth, by-laws.

The Joint Civic Committee was formed in 1943 to eliminate politics from the controversy over where to build the present senior high school. The purpose was to develop a broad based committee which would search for competent candidates who might not run on their own. At present, the JCC is composed of three members from each of the following 24 organizations: Boosters, Brightwood Assn., Business and Professional Women's Club, College Men's Club, College Women's Club, Exchange Club, Grant School PTO, Intermediate Women's Club, Junior Women's Club, Lincoln School PTO, Manor Park Assn., Parent-Teacher Council, Rake and Hoe Garden Club, Rotary Club, Roosevelt Junior High PTO, S.A.R., Tamaques School PTO, Westfield Adult School, Westfield Area Committee for Human Rights, Westfield Civic

Realtors Support Bicycle Safety.

Mrs. Barbara R. Davidson, chairman of the Make America Better Committee of the Westfield Board of Realtors, reported today her committee is cooperating with the Westfield Police Department in a drive for bicycle safety.

"Our committee is concerned for the safety of the many youngsters and adults now taking up the newly popular recreation of bicycle riding," Mrs. Davidson said, "and this fast growing pastime presents us all with a crucial problem in safety control."

"State rules governing bicycle riding are largely ignored and are grossly violated. Likewise, general ordinance No. 771 for the registration and regulation of bicycles in Westfield is not generally observed."

"Among the many rules relative to bicycling and, possibly, the most important, is section 4 of ordinance No. 771 providing for registration and safety inspection of all bicycles. The next date for bicycle registration is this Saturday at the Municipal Building, 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m."

The Police Department reminds all citizens that anyone violating safe riding rules or failing to register and license all bicycles may be prosecuted and if convicted, registration tags and licenses may be suspended. The ordinance also provides for a fine not exceeding $25.

"The New Jersey state statutes provide that bicyclists shall ride on the right side of the road only and must obey all traffic lights, signal for all turns and stops, and give

No President- No Ministerium

At the regular monthly meeting of the Westfield Ministerium May 28, those present voted unanimously to disband the organization. Some of the reasons for this action were dwindling attendance and lack of interest on the part of the majority of ministers in town, disagreement on the function of the Ministerium, lack of sufficient reasons for existing and the inability of the nominating committee to secure someone to serve as president for next year.

Says NOW Non-Political

"The Westfield No Overhead Wires Committee has one purpose and only one purpose—to keep Public Service Electric and Gas Co. from placing a 230,000 volt transmission line through residential areas in several Union County communities," a NOW spokesman said today.

"The Westfield No Overhead Wires Committee is not a political organization. The membership of the Westfield No Overhead Wires Committee have differing political affiliations which in no way influence the policies of this committee."

"We have in the last several days found that politics are being brought in to the issue. There is no place or partisan politics in

Crime Collection "Stolen" From Library

Westfield Memorial Library has just established a crime statistic of its very own. In the pamphlet file two weeks ago were two folders, "Crime" and "New Jersey Crime," with more than 100 pamphlets between them. Last week the folders remained - without a single pamphlet in either!

Mrs. Margaret Barnes, reference librarian, discovered them missing when she offered to help a student working on a school assignment on crime. "We have lots of material," she told the girl and couldn't believe her eyes when the files were bare. Three hours after the girls left, empty handed, a batch of about 20 of the pamphlets came in at the desk. They, like all the others, had not been checked out.

The library hopes that the old adage, "Crime doesn't pay," will work for the institution and perhaps the rest of the crime collection will be returned.....for future students working on future crime assignments.

Sidewalk Art Show Saturday

The Westfield Art Association's sidewalk show and the townwide cultural day will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday in Mindowaskin Park.

Demonstrations of landscape art and portraiture will be featured on the Broad St. side of the park; cultural organizations will perform at the bandstand.

The events, originally scheduled for May 20, were postponed until this date because of rain.

Weekend Premier for "Ferdinan"

Furnivall is the music director.

Leaf Munro, author of the original "Ferdinan," will attend Saturday night's performance of the folk-rock opera. He has agreed to donate the use of the title for the benefit of the Day Care Center and copies of his book are expected to be on sale at the auditorium.

Heading the singing cast will be Sally Schmalenberger as "Mrs. Ferdinand," James Johnson as "Mr. Ferdinand," Mark Bleeke as "Ferdinand," and Peggy Rub as "Lou Ann."

Mr. Inglis is dancing the part of "Ferdinand" and Ann Crowell Inglis is dancing the part of "Lou Ann."

Mrs. Schmalenberger, well-known to local audiences, is a long-time Westfield resident and mother of five. She is a soloist at the First United Methodist Church, Westfield, and for Temple Sinai in Summit.

WILL WESTFIELD BE NEXT? That's the problem Democratic Council Candidate and NOW Attorney Larry Welas shares with Jerry English, Democratic Congressional candidate as they view the Aldene Public Service switching center in Cranford. A similar switching complex is slated for Westfield on Lambertmill Rd., and Rahway Ave. if Public Service of N.J. has its way. That, along with 5 miles of high tension transmission towers is what the Joint NOW (No Overhead Wires) group is fighting in Westfield, Cranford, Scotch Plains and Clark.

Endorsing NOW's position, Mrs. English stated, "When power lines have to come through residential areas, they must go underground. We cannot allow another corridor of destruction to our environment. The cost of preserving our environment while still meeting growing power needs should not be born by just those in the affected community or neighborhood. Rather, this is a problem of national concern, where the Federal Government must consider subsidy."

Seeks New Route 22 Solution

MOUNTAINIDE - New concepts for the Route 22 intersection at New Providence Rd. "that will benefit Mountainide and not destroy it" are being sought by Mayor Thomas J. Ricciardi.

Describing a recent meeting with New Jersey Department of Transportation officials, Ricciardi said today:

"All of us are aware of the traffic problem that exists at the intersection of Route 22 and New Providence Rd. For many years citizens have asked the New Jersey Department of Transportation to correct this situation - correct it in a manner that would not be detrimental to the borough and not disturb the residential qualities of the community.

"The Transportation Department's initial concept was an overpass and a large cloverleaf which was rejected by most of the community. There is no doubt in my mind that this complex would attract additional vehicles to our community, resulting in the county widening their roads in Mountainide to accommodate the additional traffic load. The borough is currently bisected by Route 22 and New Providence Rd. was widened we would be 'quartered.' In essence, the cure offered by the Highway Department was deemed excessive.

"We have met with members of the Transportation Department several times over the past three years. We also have offered an alternate concept for their study. However, in all our meetings the original concept of an overpass and cloverleaf has been offered for our consideration.

"On May 4, a meeting was held with members of the New Jersey Department of Transportation and their consultants. Representing Mountainide were several members of Council, Planning Board and myself. Once again the same basic concept, with some modifications, was presented. The overpass was repositioned and the radii of the two remaining loops of the cloverleaf were reduced. Because of the repositioning of the overpass, our Rescue Squad building would be sacrificed.

"We were also shown various concepts for traversing Route 22 in the Chapel Island area. There were some good points in each concept for this location. It should be noted that each concept for Chapel Island was in addition to, and did not eliminate, the overpass at New Providence Road. All concepts called for the acquisition of additional rateable properties.

"It is also quite obvious to me that Mountain Ave. would also become a major artery in the county road system. If both New Providence Rd. and Mountain Ave. are to accept increased traffic, the intersection of these two roads in our main commercial district will present insurmountable problems. Our only shopping area will be inundated with traffic and serious situations are predictable.

Ballot

D.I. The decision to have a large number of lines became necessary when the County organization declined to endorse a presidential candidate who would run on the Regular Democratic Organization line. The effect of this decision has been to make the selection of convention delegates truly a choice of the people without regard to County politics.

Each of the Democratic party county delegates on the ballot was elected by his peers at the Union County Mini-Convention held on April 15 at Union College in Cranford.

On the Republican ballot the organization candidates appear on line A. Insurgent and reform candidates are on line B. On the Democratic ballot the U. S. Senatorial candidate is on line E with the Regular Democratic Organization aspirants for Board of Freeholders and local offices. Former Senator Jerry English, also on line E, is opposed by Richard Samuel for nomination to the 12th Congressional District seat vacated by Representative Florence Dwyer.

The only two candidates entered in the Democratic "popularity contest" are Terry Sanford and Shirley Chisholm. Voters may express a choice between these two and also vote for delegates committed to Humphrey or McGovern or Chisholm. It should be pointed out that a voter does not have to vote only for candidates committed to one of the presidential aspirants. From the county delegates, voters may choose any number up to eight from among the 24 names appearing on the ballot and any 5 of the 15 alternate delegates.

Sample voting machine ballots will arrive at area homes on approximately June 1. Because of the large number of national convention delegates to be selected it would seem that Democratic voters could reduce the amount of time spent in the voting booth by studying their sample ballots prior to arrival at the polls on June 6.

Boosters

Mangan award was won by John Kerr, a top student-athlete who starred in football and wrestling. Penny Moskeljohn was all-around honors for girls and a check for $200 for her outstanding achievements in the girls' athletic program.

Presentations were made by Bob Brewster, awards committee chairman.

Tom Manalino, Boosters president, greeted the more than 500 guests at the dinner and as master of ceremonies outlined the purpose and aims of the Boosters in an introductory talk entitled "Who are the Boosters?"

He introduced head table guests Mayor and Mrs. Donn Snyder, WHS Principal and Mrs. Al Bobal, WHS Athletic Director and Mrs. John Lay; his wife, Mrs. Mannino and guest speaker Bill Rafferty, basketball coach of Seton Hall University.

Mayor Snyder lauded the athletic achievements of the Westfield High School teams and emphasized the honor which they brought to their town as sportsmen and gentlemen. "The town thanks you," he concluded.

Bobal heaped praise on the coaches, teachers and the executive committee of the Boosters for their support of Westfield athletics and Lay called out the names of the more than 100 athletes winning senior plaques. He gave a brief summary of team achievements for 1971-72 which saw a composite of 199 wins and 45 losses. Most noted were the outstanding records of the football team which completed its third straight undefeated season and the basketball team which captured the State Group IV title. Also commended was the cross country team which won its 12th straight Watching Conference title as well as the State Group IV crown; the swimming team, state champions in 10 of the last 12 years; and county champs for 16 years. The special achievement of the B football squad was complimented for winning 102 straight games over the past 12 years, as well as the wrestling team which won its eighth straight district title.

Also lauded were the outstanding tennis team, current Watching Conference champions, and the golf squad which is current Union County champ. The track teams have won the current year's state indoor relay title and is now riding a 35-win dual meet string which included three out of the last four Watching Conference titles.

Named as top performers were John Kerr in football as an All-American high school selection; Dave Gray, Steve Thatcher and Ed Morton for outstanding track achievements; Kurt Stiefken for winning the State 157 lb. wrestling title; and sophomore Mark Dennis who finished fourth in his wrestling weight division.

Al Pfeiffer, awards chairman, and Bob Brewster, members of the executive committee, congratulated each participant.

In the football cover contest, Booster Bob Zitch presented a $50 bond to Linda Gottlieb whose sketch will adorn next year's football program.

Highlight of the evening was Rafferty's address which included many of his experiences as an outstanding high school and college basketball player, as well as his association with the pro Knicks. He emphasized not so much the athletic abilities of his associates, but the outstanding characters of men like Bill Bradley, Cassie Russell, Dick Barnett, Dave DeBuschere and Willis Reid. He praised teachers of the youth who mold the characters of their students and provide a strong influence, standard of living and code of ethics. He emphasized "the extra need of today's youth for God, good parents, good teachers, good coaches, and good families which is a mark of an outstanding town like Westfield and as an end result produces young people of high character."

While Jerry Krupnick, president of the Unami Civic Association, reiterated his plea for a "professional" survey of need, the committee and many in the audience felt that this need had already been determined by three surveys of the town's elderly. Garland C. Boothe Jr., spokesman for the mayor's committee, expressed the opinion that the need for units for the elderly was "in excess of 400." He outlined the project and its search for alternate sites, but explained that land costs must be $1,000 or less per unit to qualify for the housing agency 100 percent mortgage.

Stephen Hecker, senior project manager for the agency, also answered questions from the crowd, noting that of five projects for the elderly already built or nearing groundbreaking, three are on the edge of town or in remote areas and of low rise construction. Two, a 5-story building in Roselle and a high rise in Newark, are in congested areas.

to join in an effective program to reduce thefts, prevent accidents and possible deaths.

"Our committee," Mrs. Davidson concluded, "will continue their study for new ways to implement the drive for bicycle safety."

Members besides Mrs. Davidson on the Make America Better committee are Josephine R. Brown and Harriette A. Lewis.

site be obtained for senior citizen housing.

The latest site selection, which would place the project closer to Sycamore St., drew the fire of Manor Park Association members as well as residents in the bordering Harrow Rd., Oxford Terr. area. Two members of the mayor's committee studying the project also filed a minority report opposing the site selection since it involves the acquisition of some privately-owned lots while the Boynton-Twin Oaks location is wholly town-owned and immediately available.

The Manor Park group and the Harrow Rd. residents presented petitions to the mayor Tuesday night. Signed by 264 people, they demanded that the originally proposed 7½ acre site be designated for the project and the remainder of the 22 acre tract be assigned as green acre park area. The petitions threw a third dimension into the housing controversy by asking the council to "recognize the sacrifice we residents and our children have already made when our neighborhood Columbus School district was dissolved in the interest of social and educational responsibility."

Senior citizens at Tuesday night's meeting apparently did not care where units would be located, as long as rents are reasonable, with one "senior," Mrs. Edna Doughty of Arlington Ave. reminding the protestors that they too will become older.

While Jerry Krupnick, president of the Unami Civic Association, reiterated his plea for a "professional" survey of need, the committee and many in the audience felt that this need had already been determined by three surveys of the town's elderly. Garland C. Boothe Jr., spokesman for the mayor's committee, expressed the opinion that the need for units for the elderly was "in excess of 400." Two, a 5-story building in Roselle and a high rise in Newark, are in congested areas.

While the discussion generally focused on site location, its possible problems of traffic, drainage etc., some attention was given to priority units which would be given if the units are approved and built.

The project, while financed by the state agency, would be operated by a local non-profit corporation such as the one formed for the Cacciola Fl. redevelopment program. While it would be open to tenants having incomes ranging up to $18,000, priorities would be given lower or middle income residents. Hecker said that a point system, evaluating years of residency in the community, income and other considerations have been used with success in other projects.

While he said it appeared doubtful that there would not be a waiting list of senior citizens during the 50-year term of the mortgage, other tenants would fill the units if this should occur.

Rent subsidies, Hecker added, would be provided lower income tenants, with those in higher brackets paying the market rate of rents.

Mayor Snyder, as well as members of the committee, indicated that no specific details of cost, construction, priority ratings, rental fees etc. have been decided. The immediate aim, they agreed, was designation of a site.

Flag Flies Over Living Museum

Every day—bright and early—is flag day to seven young historians who get up early to make sure that a thirteen-star flag is flying over Westfield's first museum, the colonial Miller-Cory House.

The boys, all members of the Miller-Cory Junior Historical Society and students at Roosevelt Junior High School, have assumed the responsibility of seeing that the "Betsy Ross" banner is waving in front of the white clapboard farmhouse from sunrise to sunset.

RJHS Quartet Earns Ovation

The Roosevelt Junior High School vocal music department under the direction of Miss Carol Tischer and Mrs. Jean McDermott presented its Spring Choral Festival last Thursday and Friday evenings. A barber shop quartet consisting of Jeff Boylan, Alan Rasmussen, Bick Trout, and Jim Kinsella was given a standing ovation by fellow students. Accompanists included Robin Bldgood, Avis Chancer, Susan Hyldahl, Diane Preblud, Robert Schwarz, Susan Kenny, James Longenbach, Steven Brugger, Robert Schwarz, Michael Turner, Stasi Farkas, Wendy Ho, Susan Sheehan and Jayne Young. The concluding number featured a dramatic stage arrangement of all the choruses singing to the accompaniment of a string orchestra.

The youngsters travel by bicycle, raise the flag and pedal on to school. The flag was purchased with their own funds to show their support for the preservation of the pre-revolutionary landmark.

The young historians express surprise that adults find their devotion to the task astonishing.

"I like to think of all the people who have lived around here before, the things they've done and what it means to us today. It seems very natural to me to be curious about their life style and to want to preserve what they've left behind for the whole community," said Paul Helder, leader of the society and one of its flag raisers.

Blasts Samuel On Labor

Mrs. Jerry English, Democratic candidate for nomination to the 12th Congressional District, today accused her Democratic primary opponent, Richard Samuel, of "blatant hypocrisy in trying to save himself from public embarrassment."

"My opponent presents himself as a self-appointed friend of labor," remarked Mrs. English, "but he shows an unbelievable disdain for the entire labor movement by issuing campaign literature produced in non-union shops."

"His loyalty to the cause of the United Farm Workers—a group he is quick to embrace in his campaign rhetoric—is opportunistic to me," said Mrs. English. "Some time ago, I received a telephone call from Mr. Samuel asking me to be ready to bail out some United Farm Workers demonstrators if necessary. He couldn't, he said, because his law firm represented one of the food companies being picketed."

Questioning Mr. Samuel's integrity, Mrs. English asked, "If my opponent espouses liberalism and the problems of the workers, then why does he turn to non-union shops to produce his campaign materials?"

She continued, "If my opponent claims he is a friend and fighter for the United Farm Workers, then why does he—or why did he—take money from a law client who was working against the farm workers, and why did he turn to me to be ready to bail him out?"

S&L Officers Aid U.S. League

The Junior Historical society officiates at flag-raising each morning at Miller-Cory museum.

Guard Honors 29 Dead

Memorial services were held on Thursday by the Westfield Old Guard at the YMCA for the 29 members who have died during the past year. Both before and after Director Clarence Yoder had read the names of those members whose names were on the trumpet by Ted Herrmann, a student from the Edison Junior High School. The chorus sang "God Our Father."

The community singing was led by Willard Leggett with music by Charles Elste and Conrad Meier.

Director Yoder presented membership credentials to Hans Nornes and birthday greetings were extended to Frank Heras and Theodore C. Spinner.

An illustrated lecture on Northwest and Southwest America was given by Walter Eckert of Westfield a retired tour guide of Public Service Electric & Gas Company.

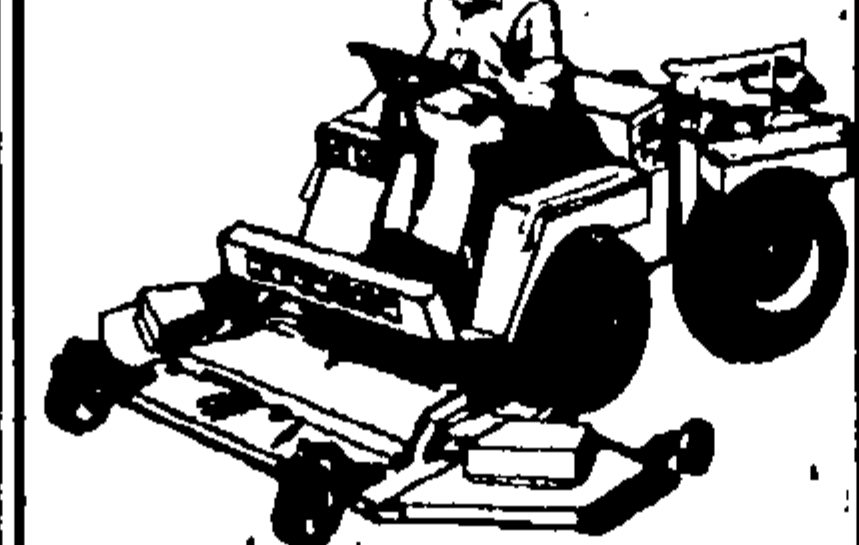

Director Yoder gave a brief report on the recent Old Guard Inter-Chapter Council meeting held in Livingston. There are now 21 chapters in New Jersey with a total membership of 4450 members. Point Pleasant has the largest membership followed by Summit and the third largest is the Westfield Chapter. Many of these chapters having waiting lists because of limited space where the meetings are held.

On May 19, 14 members from Westfield were guests of Leisure Village for the day. Included in the ent-

Resident to Head Essex United Way

Charles R. Bergmann of 805 Dartmoor, vice president of Western Electric Company, service division east, will serve as general chairman of the United Way campaign of Essex and West Hudson this year.

The campaign will be conducted this fall in Newark, the Oranges and Maplewood, Nutley, Belleville, Irvington and West Hudson for the benefit of the more than 100 participating services of the United Way. These services include recreation and health services, programs for the aged and the handicapped, day care for children of mothers who must work, mental health, emergency services through such organizations as the Salvation Army and the Red Cross, and community hospitals.

Formerly the United Community Fund, the United Way last February changed its name and restructured its organization for a redirection of emphasis. The United Way not only conducts the annual fund raising campaign, but includes community planning for services and the development of new programs to meet current needs, as well as the disbursement of the campaign funds through its volunteer allocations committee.

Bergmann is a graduate of Newark College of Engineering and also attended Stevens Institute of Technology and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He has been with Western Electric Company since 1937 and has held positions in quality control and manufacturing planning work and managerial assignments in New York, Pittsburgh and Syracuse. He was appointed comptroller of the manufacturing division in 1962 and elected vice president of the company's service division east in 1966.

He is a member of the New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce, the New Jersey Manufacturers Association, the New Jersey State Safety Council and the New Jersey Taxpayers Association. A director of the Better Business Bureau of Greater Newark, he is also a trustee of Newark College of Engineering, the New Jersey College Fund Association, the Greater Newark Hospital Development Fund and the United Way.

Bergmann has also been active in several United Way campaigns, having served as vice chairman of last year's successful drive and chairman of the Pacesetter division in the 1970 campaign.

RCAC Endorses Dr. James Ralph

The executive committee of The Republican Conservative Action Club of Union County has endorsed the candidacy of Dr. James W. Ralph of Englewood, who is opposing incumbent Senator Clifford P. Case in the Republican Primary on June 6.

In their statement, club spokesmen pointed out that Senator Case has been anathema to grassroots Republicans for many years, and that there is an attractive, youthful war hero who is a Real Republican. If voters will go to the polls and vote for Dr.

Ralph in the primary, it may be possible to retire the liberal Senator Case in 1972. "Case consistently forgets he is a Republican," the spokesmen continued. "He votes against his own Republican president most of the time, and with the Democrats. He is widely regarded as a tool of the labor bosses."

The statement noted that Senator Case has opposed "voluntary prayer in schools, the proposed amendment to prohibit forced bussing of school children, and vital national defense measures."

Samuel Asks Intercity Transit

Deploing what he termed "an amazing lack of mobility" between neighboring towns in the 13th Congressional District, such as Westfield, Summit and Berkeley Heights, Richard I. Samuel, Democratic candidate for Congress in the June 6 primary, called for an experimental transit system to link the towns in the District with each other as well as other New Jersey communities traditionally bypassed by mass transit.

"Adequate public transportation is an economic resource," Samuel explained, noting that an increase in commerce between neighboring communities would most likely result from better transportation.

As an example of the kind of viable system he would like to see, Samuel suggested the creation of an intercity bus line, on a Federally-funded, two-year trial basis.

"In two years people would become accustomed to the idea of not driving everywhere," Samuel said. "After two years we would be able to determine just how much traffic patterns had altered by the inroduction of the new transportation system."

If the bus service proved popular enough, Samuel believes its operation could eventually be administered by private enterprise.

Samuel would also like to see transit legislation which would transform New Jersey from a commuter conduit into New York to a self-sufficient network of communities with convenient links to several states.

But he emphasized, "We must improve the quality of transportation by creating incentives for mass transit and de-emphasizing reliance on our primary source of congestion and pollution - private cars."

True ☒ False

On the contrary, we do care what you think about our service. And every month we call thousands of phone customers throughout the state to find out.

We want to know if you get a dial tone fast enough, if your calls go right through, and whether you can hear and be heard every time you call.

We talk to people who've recently had a phone installed or

What have you been telling us? That there are still a few trouble spots needing extra work. But that service in other areas is generally good. We'll be working to improve that, too. Because to our way of thinking, being good isn't good enough.

Kathleen Renart, R.M. Vinegra Exchange Vows At Holy Trinity

Holy Trinity Church was the setting Sunday, May 21, for the wedding of Miss Kathleen M. Renart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Renart of 459 Edgewood Ave., to Robert M. Vinegra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael R. Vinegra of Roselle.

The newlyweds are on a trip to Venezuela and will live in Roselle. Reception at the Mountaineer Inn followed the four thirty o'clock ceremony at which the Rev. Michael Desmond officiated.

The bride wore a wedding dress of ivory satin with Alencon lace and seed pearls. Her illusion veil fell from a headpiece of matching lace and pearls.

Attending the couple were Miss Margaret Renart, sister of the bride, and Carol McBride of New York City. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Spencer Kopecky of Scotch Plains and Miss Carol A. Vinegra, sister of the bridegroom. Ushers were Edward and Albert Reinoso, the bridegroom's cousins; Thomas L. Renart III, the bride's brother, and John Mahon of Roselle Park. Mrs. Vinegra, an alumna of Holy Trinity High School, attended Newark State College, Union. She is in the trading and arbitrage department of Goldman, Sachs & Co., New York.

Her husband, a media supervisor at Dancer, Fitzgerald and Sample Advertising Agency, New York City, is an alumnus of St. Benedict's Prep, Newark, and Lehigh University. He did graduate study at New York University.

New Band Uniforms Viewed at Parade

As a result of an extensive fund-raising campaign, the Westfield High School Marching Band has received 106 new uniforms.

The new uniforms were worn at the Spring Concert on May 6, and have been displayed in the window of John Franks at 207 East Broad st. They may presently be seen in the window of Lee K. Waring Realty at 15 East Broad street. The band wore the uniforms in the Memorial Day parade.

The uniforms were custom-made by the J.H. Lewis Uniform Company of Philadelphia. They are white and royal blue with gold trim, and are made of wool. They are predominantly in the "cadet" style with noticeable influences from traditional band and drum and bugle corps styles. The uniforms have short jackets, and feature reversible overlays creating two different fronts. Five-inch satin sashes are worn as belts; these are also reversible, having white and gold sides. Blue-and-white satin sidedrops hang from these sashes. Headgear consists of blue shakos with silver and white trim and eight-inch ostrich plumes. According to Band Director Ronald Starnes, these uniforms "were badly needed and will improve the appearance and morale of the organization."

The uniforms cost $11,929.50. The band is appreciative of the cooperation it received from the community in helping to defray this cost through donations and the purchase of decals. The decals, which were sold by band members last October and November, depict the Westfield blue devil. Next autumn, the band will conduct further fund-raising efforts in order to purchase foul weather gear for the new uniforms.

In the Memorial Day parade, the band played the national anthem at ceremonies held at the cemetery, the Revolutionary War Cemetery and Fairview Cemetery. Trumpeters Tom Campbell and Roger Wiehl played "Taps" at each of these ceremonies. As it marched along the street, the band alternately played Bill Moffit's arrangement of the trip of Sousa's "The Stars and Stripes Forever" and Clifton Williams's "Strategic Air Command," which is a march commissioned by that organization in 1963.

Joan Kennelly, vice-president of the Westfield Democratic Women's Organization, who will appear on the June 8 primary ballot as a delegate for Presidential candidate, George McGovern. Mrs. Kennelly was elected one of the eight regular McGovern delegates from Union County at the Mini-Con Convention held at Union College on April 15. It elected on June 6, she will attend the Democratic National Convention to be held in Miami on July 10-13. Mrs. Kennelly is secretary for the Westfield Democratic Committee and also serves as a committeewoman in Westfield's third ward.

Elected as Union College Officers

J. Kenneth Boyles of 312 Jefferson Avenue, was reelected assistant treasurer of the board of trustees of Union College, Cranford, Elizabeth, and Plainfield, at the annual May meeting at the Cranford Campus.

Mr. Boyles is vice-president of the National State Bank, Elizabeth.

Mrs. James R. MacDonald of 375 Wychwood Rd., was reelected a trustee, and Dr. Albert E. Meder Jr. of 508 Salter Pl., provost-emeritus of Rutgers University, was reelected to the executive committee.

To Honor Feminist Steinham

Gloria Steinham, a writer who has led the fight for human rights who has been described as "the uncrowned leader of the feminist movement" has been named the first female recipient of the annual human rights award of Temple Sharey Shalom in Springfield. Westfield area residents are invited to see Miss Steinham receive the award following regular Friday evening services at 7:30 p.m. Friday, June 2, at the Temple on South Springfield Ave.

"Miss Steinham's work for human rights," said a spokesman for the Temple, "has extended into all areas where the rights of the minority have been threatened."

"Not only has she been steadfast in her opposition to the Vietnam War, but she has worked for the rights of farmworkers, students, but foremost for women's rights."

"Miss Steinham's basic definition of women's liberation goes beyond securing financial and legal equity under the present system but is that 'once we forget the myth of the dominant male, and submissive female, both sexes will be free to function as human beings, to discover their individual talents and to be happier, better parents.'" Miss Steinham, he noted, is credited with selling McGovern on the women's movement.

Past recipients of the award have included Rabbi Jochin Prinz, Wyatt T. Walker, Dean Willard Heckel, Norman Thomas, Bishop John Daugherty, Kivi Kaplan, Rabbi Israel Dresner and Peter Seeger.

DAR Visits Historic Houses

"Off to Elizabethtown" was the title of the Westfield DAR Chapter's program for May. Last Friday the group toured two of Elizabeth's historic houses, the Belcher House and Boxwood Hall; both dating back to the early settlement of old Elizabethtown in the 1600s.

The Boudinot Chapter DAR extended the use of their room in Boxwood Hall to the Westfield chapter. In the absence of the regent, Mrs. Lawrence Wouters, Mrs. Guy L. Quinn conducted the business meeting. Mrs. William Bolger and Mrs. Joseph Pate told the story and showed slides of Westfield's Miller - Cory House.

Mrs. William P. Kineman announced that a special fund of $1,400 had been contributed by the Westfield Chapter to the Miller - Cory House and that additional $1,000 had been given by individual members in the early stage of the campaign to raise funds for the purchase of the house.

Endorses Senator

Editor, Leader:
I address this letter to those who are still indecisive in their choice of a presidential candidate.

Sen. George McGovern has always been a man with great foresight, strong in his feelings of morality and equality, and unwavering in his path towards the goal of keeping this country in which we can always "walk tall".

A facet of his purposefulness that might have been overlooked is his strong stand on conservation and environment. And in New Jersey, it is crucial that we understand the importance of environmental political action, particularly in the light of the recent exposure of sludge dumping by municipalities along the New Jersey shore and the continued high levels of air and water pollution.

According to the most recent published survey of the League of Conservation Waters (a non-partisan organization which rates the environmental voting records of all U.S. Congressmen) George McGovern ranks among the top ten United States Senators, a record unmatched by any other presidential aspirant.

McGovern proposals include:
A comprehensive proposal for a national policy on conservation development and natural resources, including a White House Council of National Resource Advisors.

A world environmental institute to deal with the threat to our environment on a world-wide scale.

A new super agency, patterned after NASA, to deal with pollution.

Sen. McGovern has sponsored environmental class action legislation to give any person the right to seek relief against pollution in Federal Court.

A national wilderness Preservation System which would protect our nation's wetlands.

Strong opposition to the development of the SST, both for ecological protection and because it is not a high priority need.

Sen. McGovern has co-sponsored all major environmental protection laws introduced during his terms in the House and Senate.

A few of those of which he has been the principal sponsor:

The National Land Use Policy Acts of 1969 and 1970 providing for a National policy on environmental WESTFIELD JAYCEES INSTALL SLATE, PRESENT AWARDS — The 1972-73 administration of the Westfield Jaycees took office at the chapters' annual inaugural dinner dance May 13 at the Plainfield Country Club.

The new officers are: James Gruba, president; Keith Hertell, external vice-president; William Coles, internal vice-president; Denny Clark, treasurer; and Pete Latartara, secretary. Also installed was the 1972-73 board of directors: Patrick Brennan, Bob Mason, Mike Fleischman, Jim Calders, Jim McCabe, Bob McStay, Ron Johnson, Al Lehmkuhl, Stan Lipson and Bill Robinson. Outgoing president Allen Chin was designated chairman of the board.

In an unprecedented display of recognition, President Chin presented his wife Mary with a special gift in appreciation of her understanding, patience and assistance throughout his tenure in office. In so doing he also focused attention on the growing participation of Jaycee wives in chapter affairs and expressed his hope that their interest would continue.

In his first official act as the new chapter president, James Gruba commended his predecessor for an outstanding administration of community service and accomplishment and charged the incoming officers and directors with the task of emulating Mr. Chin's example.

After the dinner dance, members and wives retired to a reception hosted by President and Mrs. Gruba at the Community Playhouse on North Ave.

The Environmental Bank Act of 1970

The Family Planning Services and Population Research Act of 1970.

The Environmental Protection Acts of 1970 and 1971

These proposals supplement existing, as well as proposed legislation. Together they: 1) grant to all citizens a federally guaranteed right to a pollution-free environment; 2) provide for enforcement of that right through suits by ordinary citizens in federal and state courts; and 3) give citizens standing in federal and state courts to challenge administrative decision making where it is lax in the implementation of environmental policy.

Ralph Nader has stated that Senator McGovern is the only Democratic candidate for president who would be an improvement over Nixon.

Fred Ferber, noted New Jersey conservationist, has endorsed Sen. McGovern.

Those of us who know his accomplishments and his future potential sincerely feel that Senator George McGovern is vital to the survival of our country!

Area Families Pitch In To Renovate Y Camp

THE WESTFIELD (N.J.) LEADER, THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 1972

Page 15

Sale to Minor Brings $1,700 Fine

Cappy's Wine and Liquors has been fined $1,700 in lieu of suspension of its license for 25 business days by the ABC. The store pleaded non-vult to charges alleging that a minor, aged 20, was sold alcoholic beverages on Feb. 18.

hall, working on new decks, helping construct a chapel and general maintenance and repair work.

"It gets us out of all those weekend chores at home," explained President Lem Roberson with a grin.

Y's Men "barn-raising" at Camp Wawayanda.

The old-fashioned "barn raising" has been given a new twist by the Westfield Y's Men's Club, which has spent several weekends in the last three years building a new storage barn at Camp Wawayanda in the Catskills. Arriving at camp recently to complete the work, they found a bit more than they had originally bargained for. The barn was already crowded to capacity—so they pitched in to construct a major addition at one end. Like the barn raisings of old, the Wawayanda project is an outgrowth of a spirit of "neighborliness" and the joy of comradeship that working together to help someone else so often brings the Y's Men say. Working under the guidance of Mountaineers

Mayor Thomas Ricciardi, himself a contractor, the Y's Men's club built the handsome dark-blue barn with lighter blue trim from the ground up. It replaces a barn razed in a fire four years ago.

Over the past three years more than a dozen area families have participated in the project. Wives usually go along on the work weekends and take leaves or wash the windows at the Forstmann Castle while the men are busy hammering and sawing.

The Y's Men, a service-oriented organization, has provided a great deal of help for Wawayanda and YMCA Camp Speers over the years, including installing a floor in the new boy's dining

Vandals Busy

About $125 in cash was taken in a holdup Saturday night at Charlie's Hot Dogs, 302 Cacciola Pl., police reported.

Also on Saturday, a television set valued at $149 was reported taken from Elm Radio, 20 Elm Street.

Front glass window panes were broken in four stores at the southside shopping center on South Ave. Sunday, but merchandise was reported taken from only one.

Two television sets and a number of radios and tape recorders were stolen from the window display of the Economy Electric store at the center.

Glass also was broken at about the same time, 12:37 a.m. at the A&P and United Rental stores at the center. About an hour later, lesser damage was done to glass at Cappy's Liquors there.

Police said stones were thrown through the windows.

There also was extensive damage reported to a classroom in Roosevelt Junior High School Sunday. Entry was gained through a second floor window. Police did not immediately determine whether anything was stolen.

YW Registering Campettes

For carefree days of summer fun and a chance to commune with nature the Westfield YWCA offers a day camp program throughout the summer for girls as young as four and up through 11 years of age, according to Miss Mary Hagen, health education director.

The Campettes program is conducted daily Monday through Friday with transportation provided from the YWCA to the camp sites at Echo Lake and the Watchung Reservation.

There are three two week camp periods offered for the six year olds, who have completed first grade, through 11 year olds. Their days are from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and the periods are July 5-14, July 17-26, and July 31-Aug. 11.

The activities for Campettes are many and varied and designed to help the child grow and become aware of nature and the joy of camping. They include daily swimming instruction and canoeing safety for the school age children, handicrafts, boating, fishing, singing, dramatics, hiking, cooking out, campfires, nature study, amateur day, paint-ins. All-Camp Olympics, the Campette Circus, catching crayfish, chasing crickets, and scavenger hunts.

YWCA membership is not needed to participate unless the child plans to attend the afternoon plunge after the Campettes day. Girls interested should inquire about the special all-summer plunge rate. The plunge is from 3:30-4:30 p.m.

Leadership for the day camp program is offered by the YWCA program staff, the swimming staff and high school and college-age counselors. Many experienced counselors from last year will be returning, assures Miss Hagen.

Girls interested should register at the Westfield YWCA office promptly, and full information will be mailed to each registrant on June 15. Scholarship forms are also available at the Y desk.

Registration for ballet and tap dancing classes to begin in the fall will also take place at this time. Classes for seven year olds and older.

Pray for Peace

A call for citizens to use prayer in bringing a "peaceful and prompt solution" to the Vietnam conflict was made at First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Westfield, Sunday.

John S. Nichols, First Reader of the church, read a message from the five-member Christian Science Board of Directors in Boston, which was issued to the 3,200 Christian Science churches throughout the world.

"No one can outline for another how to pray, nor do we in our prayers attempt to outline specific solutions for human conditions," the message stated. "But let this not prevent us from joining in the deepest confidence that prayer does avail."

"It is our conviction that prayer has deeply needed and of vital importance at this time. We believe that all of us must now be counted upon to do our full share in bringing to bear the immense power for good that is native to prayer."

Vote Tuesday

While there are no local Primary contests in either Republican or Democratic elections Tuesday, Westfield voters of each party are expected to turn in a better than average vote tally on that day.

Two local men are directly - or indirectly - involved in the vote for their party's endorsement in the Congressional race.

Richard Samuel is making strong bid to win the Democratic nomination for the seat now held by Rep. Florence P. Dwyer. He is opposing the Democratic screening committee choice Mrs. Jerry English. Samuel is well known locally, and should have a big showing in his home town. An active "rights" advocate, the local attorney also is expected to draw heavy support from these groups throughout the district, but his public exposure has not been as great as that of Mrs. English.

While the official Republican Primary ballot doesn't indicate any dissent in the Congressional slot, there is a movement afoot for a write-in campaign which does involve Westfield's State Senator Frank X. McDermott. McDermott, as well as Assemblyman Peter McDonough of Plainfield, were contenders for nomination which reportedly was given Senator Matt Rinaldo by a wee margin in screening committee voting.

Some Republicans feel that GOP voters deserve a choice - hence the write-in appeal as a form of protest.

Added zest will be given the Democratic Primary election, who have a wide choice of Presidential delegates from which to choose. Several of these are Westfield residents, including pledges to McGovern, Humphrey and Shirley Chisholm.

A generally dull Westfield Primary Election may not be such this year - so, regardless of your feelings, go vote on Tuesday.

Bike Safety

At long last, someone in Westfield is trying to do something about bike safety - before it's too late. If only two major results follow, we shall possibly save our cyclists from death or injury, and we shall certainly save our motorists from a great number of anxious moments.

It is our hope that bicyclists will learn that laws mandate that bike traffic goes with the other vehicular traffic, rather than against it (or even both ways) and that use of lights is necessary after dark.

The Realtors' committee working on this project of bike safety should be commended for its efforts which perhaps could be the nucleus for furthering bike safety throughout the State of New Jersey.

As their survey of enforced regulations in neighboring towns illustrates, rules and procedures vary widely - even in the area serviced by the Westfield Board of Realtors. Since the board is a member of a statewide association representative of the entire state, perhaps the Realtors might widen the scope of their bike safety program.

In ascertaining local regulations throughout New Jersey, an enforceable bicycle code might be devised as a guide for each community. Older bicyclists generally do not confine their activities to one town, and it would be to the best interest of all to equalize equipment standards and codes of operation.

One local regulation, incidentally, requires that bicycles with a 20 or more inch wheel diameter be licensed. Those who have not obtained new registrations may do so Saturday morning behind the Municipal Building. It's an inexpensive and quick procedure that greatly enhances chances of recovery of stolen bikes.

And bike thefts, we are sorry to note, are far from uncommon.

Urges Primary Vote

Get ready to vote - June 6th 1972 in every election district in New Jersey voters will elect candidates for the general election for U.S. Senate, U.S. Congress, County Officials and local officials; County Committee members and woman plus delegates and alternates to the National Conventions. The League of Women Voters have published a Primary Election flyer explaining just what the primary is all about and its importance.

Q. What is a Primary?
A. A party election.
Q. Who can vote?
A. Every registered voter.
Q. Where do I vote?
A. Your sample ballot will tell you where.

Q. How do I vote?
A. Go to your polling place. Tell them your name and the party you wish to vote for. You must not have voted in the primary of the other party for two successive elections. Go into the booth and vote for the candidate of your choice.
Q. What happens then?
A. You are a member of that political party. You have helped choose the best candidate of that party to run in the General Election, and have elected party officials to represent you. However, you do not have to vote the straight party ticket in November.

Q. Why vote at all?
A. Your vote is your voice. Its your town and your country and the Primary is your chance to say how you want things done. ONE VOTE MEANS MORE

THAN YOU THINK!! Your vote could make the difference. Your party needs your vote.

Since the last presidential election 35 million potential new voters have been officially added to the electorate. The 26th Amendment has enfranchised 11 million 18-20 years olds. The 1970 Voting Rights Act Amendment and related Supreme Court rulings have lifted literacy and durational residency requirements to qualify some ten million more people.

In New Jersey, the 1972 (est.) voting age population is 5,025,000 of which there are 344,000 18-20 year olds and 450,000 21-24 year olds. The youth voters bring a total new voting sector of 794,000 which is of immense importance to both political parties. Lawrence O'Brien, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee says, "The dramatic increase in the number of young people seeking public office at all levels of government in 1972 bodes well for the democratic process. It is at least an indication that sizable numbers of young Americans have chosen to express their concern for this country by working within its processes. They have much to contribute - both as office holders and as part of a body of 25 million first time voters who could decide the course of the 1972 elections."

Senator Robert Dole, Chairman of the Republican National Committee says,

Letters to Editor

Supports Ralph

Editor, leader:

Do you want to have your children or your grandchildren or your neighbor's children bussed to Newark, Elizabeth or Plainfield to achieve racial balance in the schools? If you do, go ahead and support Sen. Clifford P. Case, the alleged Republican who consistently votes against his own party and his own people. He is your man. He voted against the anti-bussing amendment in the Senate, also against the amendment to permit voluntary prayer in the classroom.

If you do NOT want to have children wasting time and energy riding buses to distant schools in uncongenial and unfamiliar surroundings, and you are a registered Republican, the upcoming Primary Election on June 6 will give you an alternative to Senator Case. Dr. James W. Ralph of Englewood served with distinction as a surgeon on the battlefields of Vietnam, helping wounded American soldiers. He is a true Republican, unalterably opposed to school bussing. He believes firmly in the neighborhood school concept, in the reduction of welfare handouts, and in a strong national defense posture.

Mark your calendar and go to the polls and vote for Dr. Ralph for Senator on June 6. If for any reason you will be unable to go, write or phone the Town Clerk at once for an absentee ballot application.

Remember, this is the only chance Republicans will have to unseat Sen. Case for another six long years.

Mrs. James E. Hurley

Workshop

Editor, leader:

For the first time, the Westfield Summer School has proposed a Band-Orchestra-Chorus Summer Workshop, pending final approval by the Board of Education. This workshop will be available to students in grades 1-12.

Here, finally, is the answer to the numerous requests by parents for a comprehensive summer music program in Westfield. This five week session can provide the opportunity for the student community of Westfield to meet in a relaxing atmosphere of friendship, while enjoying the fun and creativity of a musical program geared to appropriate age and performance levels.

Let us give this new endeavor the support it deserves.

Evelyn Eason
65 Tamaques Way

"Already, youth is making a significant personal impact on the Republican Party at all levels. Locally, young people have been appointed or elected to positions of authority within our county organizations; at the state level key positions such as executive director and director of public information have been filled by persons 25 years of age or younger; and nationally at the Republican National Committee itself over 50 percent of our present staff are under the age of 26, most by serving in areas of major responsibility." On June 6th the polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. You may vote by Absentee ballot if you apply in person or by mail to the county or municipal clerk no later than 8 days preceding the election. For nonpartisan voting information call 201-746-1405 or 609-394-3303. The Telephone Information Service of The League of Women Voters of New Jersey.

"Mutilation?"

Editor, leader:

Mayor Snyder mentioned at the last council meeting that he would like to hear from the public in regard to the proposed mutilation of the First United Methodist Church property.

The proposed plan is to cut into the front of the church property by 12 feet and to take three feet off the side of the property. This would immediately eliminate two street trees and by cutting 12 feet into the front of the property would cut into the roots of two of the oldest American beech trees in Westfield. It is proposed to build a retaining wall to hold the church property in place.

It is well known that trees as large as these usually have roots which extend beyond the longest branch. When the roots are cut the trees will probably die and if a retaining wall is placed next to them air-pockets may develop and ill the trees.

These trees shade the front of the church, keep a great deal of the street dust from it and, most importantly, break the noise from the street traffic. If they die there will be nothing to shield the church and the traffic noise will be 12 feet closer. A church should be a quiet place.

After this mutilation takes place the town will have one extra very short lane from Keller's to the corner which will hold four or five cars that wish to turn right. It is generally observed that it is never the first four cars which turn right when the traffic is stopped. It is usually the seventh, eighth or tenth car and sometimes even none at all that wish to turn right. A count has been made and only 24 percent of the traffic turns right from Broad St. into North Ave.

If this short proposed 4-car lane is to stand empty most of the time because cars cannot use it due to the parking space and sidewalk from Prospect St. to North Ave. it would seem advisable that, if the plan must go through, 12 feet be cut from all property from Prospect St. to North Ave. so as to make a full extra lane. Otherwise it would be possible to control the right turn traffic with an extra right turn arrow light.

The proposed mutilation of church property would be a very expensive solution of the traffic problem. The money could be put to much better use by installation of traffic lights at Chestnut and Broad, Chestnut and Mountain, or even Dudley and Mountain, all of which are badly needed.

MRS. C.R. ADDINALL
746 Belvidere Ave.

Regrets Action

The bells have tolled. Mrs. Knodel is but one member of the Mountainside Board of Education, and some time ago on the other side of the fence "a poor teacher."

It is regrettable to lack respect and consideration of the board, who are working and giving of their time and effort that has afforded us the time school system we so enjoy.

A board member should respect the decisions of the board as discussed in caucus and decided as to what is best. Vote "no" in public confidence through the press.

As to the Barnes track, the council action appears to be but a "sham." It is not going to be used as a borough facility but like the Old Wilson site, an attempt to block conventional housing that is bound to come. The noise factor of the swimming pool, traffic, sirens and Route No. 22 can be heard on Sherwood Pkwy. The council is now uncertain as to the use of the site, so why spend $170,000?

DONALD G. MAXWELL

Urges Write-in

Editor, leader:

Do you realize that we Republicans have not been given a choice for the Congressional seat that will be vacated due to Flo Dwyer's retirement? The screening committee chose one candidate. However, there were two other qualified aspirants: namely, State Senator Frank X. McDermott and Assemblyman Peter J. McDonough, who should also have been endorsed. Had the screening committee done this, the Republican voters in the 12th Congressional District would have been given a choice at the polls on Primary Day.

Those who favor a choice at the polls may cast a write-in vote. To do this you may raise the slide panel directly above the "Member" of House of Representatives" designation and write in your preference. Pencils should be available in the voting booth.

A strong write-in vote will indicate to the County Republican leadership that we, the Republican voters, desire a choice in Primary elections. Primary Day this year will be held on Tuesday, June 6. The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Mrs. James P. Mitchell
Former President Westfield
Women's Republican Club

For McGovern

Editor, leader:

In view of President Nixon's latest vicious round of escalation in the Vietnam War and the upcoming June 6 N.J. Presidential Primary, I wish to make a few points on behalf of Senator McGovern's candidacy on the issue of war and peace.

Almost a decade ago - on Sept. 24, 1963 - McGovern became the first Senator to speak out against our Vietnam military involvement. He has led the way in legislative moves in an attempt to extricate us from this morass and, in a humane, rational way, he seeks conditions that will allow the return of American prisoners of war.

In contrast, Nixon seeks to use the prisoner issue as a bargaining chip and for other self-centered political maneuvering. He refuses to admit the basic illegality and uselessness of our involvement and, like McGovern's major June 6 primary opponent, Hubert Humphrey, he would sacrifice lives, national treasure, and an entire generation for personal political concerns.

As this has become politically prudent and fashionable, Humphrey has become anti-war.

Before any voter considers him as a possible Presidential candidate, he should remember that, with the same evidence available to appraise the situation, for obvious political reasons to suit his own needs, Humphrey has betrayed the spirit of our Democracy and thus varied his position on the war.

With the same facts at hand that he has today, until 1968 he supported the war and its useless death - why? The answer is clear - politics. The motivation for his new position is just as clear.

Now he is for a prompt withdrawal, a coalition Government, and everything else. Fine.

Feb. 19, 1968 - Humphrey's response to Robert Kennedy's most rational proposal for a coalition Government settlement: It's like "putting a fox in the chicken coop; soon there wouldn't be any chickens left... or an arsonist in a fire department."

On Feb. 23 he wondered aloud to the press why Congressional war critics "always suggest we might give up" to achieve negotiations.

With Administration supporters in Congress saying "he was talking

"Win" tougher than Rusk." Humphrey asked, "Why not ask what Hanoi might give up?" He then proudly announced a U.S. military escalation of the ground war.

Returning from an Asian trip later in the year, he told his boss, "I return, Mr. President, with a deep sense of confidence in our cause and its ultimate triumph. The tide of battle in Vietnam has turned in our favor."

Endorses Ralph

Editor, leader:

There is an alternative to Clifford P. Case as U.S. Senator. Concerned Americans can elect Dr. James W. Ralph, a much decorated Vietnam Veteran, and a traditional Republican, in the June 6th Primary. I invite you to consider Dr. James W. Ralph, and I quote from his campaign literature:

"I believe in a strong defense posture as the best means of deterring aggression from American's enemies.

I propose to get the bureaucratic spenders off your back by opposing any new tax schemes.

I shall support legislation aimed at reducing the welfare rolls and increasing the job rolls.

I shall vigorously oppose compulsory bussing of our children to achieve racial balance.

I am dedicated to the prompt and safe return of American prisoners of war. And accounting for those missing.

I advocate a return to proven judicial values which protect the victim rather than the criminal. I promise solid support of our police, fire, and all public safety officials.

I shall do all in my power to relieve the burden of America's forgotten men languishing in Veterans' hospitals.

I shall establish and maintain close contact with my constituents in order to better represent them in the U.S. Senate.

I am dedicated to the preservation of the United States as a sovereign power and, therefore, will vigorously oppose world government in any form.

I believe in improved medical aid for the victims of the drug menace and stronger penalties for drug pushers.

I support pollution control legislation to ensure a healthy and beautiful America."

The opportunity to elect this man to the U.S. Senate will be available in the June 6th Primary. Please vote, and encourage your neighbors and friends to vote.

Mrs. John R. Mandel

Applauds Play

Orchids and accolades to all the hard working and multi-talented members of the cast and orchestra who returned to our time a taste of Broadway's better days in the superb production of GUYS AND DOLLS, performed May 19th and 20th at the Edison Jr. High School. Directed by Mr. Edwin Illiano and choreographed by the able Barbara Sheldon it was a production to be proud of for them, and for us as Westfield residents. The task of assembling a group of sixty odd young people and molding them into a working entity and producing in a relatively short period of time such an utterly delightful and imaginative production is a far from easy task. That the task was performed with enthusiasm, excitement and expertise was evident in the end result. The standing ovations given the cast were well deserved by all involved.

Only having heard of the Westfield Academy For The Performing Arts a short while ago, I made some inquiries among the members of the Board of Trustees before the show and during intermission and found out some interesting things about this enterprising group. Under the auspices of the Westfield Recreation Commission they rehearse two evenings a week in the Watenunk Room under the town library. They do all their own work, sets are constructed and the young people themselves do all the painting. The results are amazingly professional. That they work hard is truly evident in that although they had no access to a piano for the bulk of their rehearsals by making use of a small portable chord organ and records they learned their music not only well but also winningly. The Academy is certainly fortunate in having Mr. Illiano as its director, for he certainly knows how to get the most and the best out of his students, no matter what the circumstances.

In the program was an explanation of the purposes of the Westfield Academy and one sentence in particular stood out. "To develop creative talents and provide a means whereby students can learn and cultivate their skills and talents." That is after all the heart of the matter. In a time when the young are all too often criticized, the people of Westfield should be made aware of and proud of these young people who are building and creating purposefully and constructively. Along with the support and guidance of their talented staff and the members of the Board of Trustees, we Westfielders should show our support and appreciation of our young by attending their productions and encouraging their efforts.

Hikers Plan Weekend Trips

Members and guests of the Union County Hiking Club have a choice of several activities this weekend.

A Watching Reservation perimeter hike is scheduled for Saturday, with the participants meeting at 9:30 a.m. at the parking lot of the Trailside Nature and Science Center. Led by Parker Milton of Westfield, the group will hike 9 or 10 miles around the outside edge of the Reservation by means of the Sierra Trail and old roads.

On Sunday, Nat Coyne of Irvington will lead an eight mile hike in the Oakland Circular.

A hike in the Delaware Water Gap is also listed for Sunday, led by Helen Newsom of Union.

A bicycle ramble is also scheduled for Sunday, meeting at 10 a.m. in back of the swimming pool at Rahway River Park, Rahway. A 20 mile ride is planned by the leader, Helen Yearsley of Rahway.

Take Five

(News item) "Prisoners May Be Allowed To Vote." Can't you just hear some candidate campaigning in a jailhouse, saying, "My fellow Americans, when I am elected, every prison will be a country club, with plenty of golf courses, no waiting time, like it is outside. There will be swimming pools and a floor show every night. And that's not all. There will be a daily parole lottery with 25 winners. Fellow Americans, vote for me, not some crackpot!"

When he finishes, I am sure one prisoner will say to another, "You know, when you listen to that guy, you know, you don't feel, you know, like a captive audience."

STUDY HALL CHATTER

"Hi, Mert! Say, we missed you last night down at the disco. No trouble between you and Joe?"

"No, Marge. My father asked the same question. My record-player was going full blast and the Lord of the Manor zoomed into my room, and making like Archie, yelled, 'You and clown haven't busted up, I hope?' I replied, 'Pater (he hates that word) so sorry to disappoint you but Joe and I will always care for each other, at least until the day we are married. Now, Pater, will you please check out and let me alone with my records and school books so I can start to study for the finals?'"

"Mert, I tell you, parents will be the death of us."

Summer Vacancies

For Day Care

Parents who need all day summer care for their three, four, five or six year olds should contact Mrs. Mercedes Wilson at the Westfield Day Care Center. There are a few vacancies in each group because of some regular enrollees being withdrawn for July and August. The center will be closed for repairs from July 24 to Aug. 7. Otherwise, the summer program offers care from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, and activities in outdoor art, music, supervised play, etc.

Trackmen Win State Sectionals, Set New Record

By Tony Osterman
Westfield High's track team continued to roll over the opposition last week as they surged to victory in the North Jersey Section Two State championships. The Blue Devils easily outscored second place Union 55-35 while qualifying 13 athletes for tomorrow's state group championships.

The Big Blue assault was led by the jump team of Steve Tourtelotte, Ed Morton and Ken Blackwell. Tourtelotte was the first Devil to tally as he captured the polevault with a leap of 13. Tourtelotte's vault tied the meet record and set a new WHS standard.

Morton and Blackwell also chalked up victories in the high and long jumps. Morton captured his gold medal at 6'2" while Blackwell's came at 2'7 1/4". On the track the Blue and White sprint-hurdle crew qualified five runners in the early stages as the speedsters but could only manage a third, two fourths and a fifth in five events. Blackwell again led here as he took the bronze medal in the 100 while Marv Palmer and Daryl McMiller placed 4-5 in the 200. Keith Davis put the only Devil hurdle points on the board as he took fourth in the lows.

The Devil distance team picked up most of the slack as they pounded out a 23 point surge that included two firsts.

Miller Ted Kamins nailed down his second major title of the year as he crossed the line in 4:26.3 with teammate Joe Gialmo hot on his heels in second place in 4:27.2.

Devil Dave Gray was the final individual winner of the day as he coasted to victory in the two mile in 9:34.4. Teammate Steve Thatcher drove by Giordano of Bloomfield with 50 yards to go to nail down third place with a 9:44.8.

The 800 was the only distance race that two Devils didn't place in, but Mike Gohardine more than made up for it as he tacked down the silver medal in 1:56.7.

The Mile relay of McMiller, Blackwell, Palmer and Mike Saunders put the icing on the Devil victory cake as they smoked to victory in 3:24.4 setting a new meet record. Saunders ran a strong anchor to hold off a fast closing Montclair team.

The bright spot in the weight events was soph javelin thrower Gary Berckhardt's heave of 109'11" that shattered the old sophomore record by 13'. Monday Berckhardt won the Berkeley Heights Sophomore Invitational with a heave of 165'5" to bring home the only Devil victory of the day there.

Earlier in the week the Devils halted Clark by a score of 81-41. This victory raised the Devil win streak to 36 while stretching the seasonal skid to 8-0.

The Blue and White attack was paced by the double victories of Morton in the jumps and Billy Midkiff in the hurdles.

Wins Tourney

Mrs. Gloria Glickman of Westfield shot a net 68 to take first place in Flight B of the Warrenbrook Women's Golf Association Crier's Tournament last week.

SPORTS

Devil Nine Eliminated

By Peter Herbst

The Westfield High varsity baseball team was eliminated from the state tournament last week as it fell to Bloomfield in the second round by a 3-2 score. The Blue Devils bounced back to rout Clark 6-0 and annihilate Linden 12-2.

Tuesday's conference showdown with Cranford was too late for Leader deadline. If the Devil batsmen beat Cranford, then there probably will be a playoff game for the Watchung Conference championship later this week.

The Devil nine traveled to Bloomfield and found that playing on your own field has its advantages. The Bloomfield baseball park seemed to be made for hitters. The infield was hard and fast so that just about every ball, not hit directly at a fielder, would skip on through to the outfield.

The most attractive part of the field, however, was an unbelievable 260 ft. center field fence. At first glance, this hitters haven seemed to be designed for an offense minded team like Westfield. In fact it proved to be the Devils undoing.

With no score, Devil pitcher Tom Anderson went 3-2 on Bloomfield's Sal Rosmilli. After fouling off seven pitches, the Bengal blasted an Anderson fastball over the center field fence. The next batter Anderson faced also homered over the short fence to give Bloomfield a 2-0 lead.

Westfield cut the Bengal lead to one when Kurt Stiefken walked and reached second via a John Havas single. Stiefken later scored on Neil Chamberlin's line single into left field. Bloomfield scored what proved to be the winning run when Stan Taylor tapped a ground ball which raced through the fast infield for a basehit. Taylor was then doubled home with the winning run.

Westfield managed its final run when Steve Tebbetts hit a sacrifice fly to center field which scored a run. The Devils had men in scoring position in both the sixth and seventh frames but could not bring them home. Anderson was the losing pitcher, allowing eight hits while hurling a complete game. It was the Devil's first mound setback of the year as his record now stands at 5-1.

Anderson made up for his first losing performance by going 4 for 7 at bat during the week. Against Linden, Anderson clubbed three hits including a double while playing at third base. Chamberlin also had a hot bat last week going 4 for 7 at the plate also. Chamberlin now owns a seven game hitting streak and has batted his average to .333.

Both of Westfield's winning pitchers helped their own causes last week with strong showings at the plate. While blanking Clark 6-0, Art Goldblatt delivered two singles and knocked in a pair of runs to pace the Devil offense. Righthander Linwood Hudson ripped a run scoring single and sacrificed another run in Westfield's six run seventh inning as the team clubbed Linden 12-2. On the mound, Hudson fired his third complete game of the year while striking out Seven Tigers.

Coach Dave Cilo now has six of his eight starters hitting 300 or better and Junior Paul Pecka is not far off the mark with a .285 average. Lou Case was the newest member of the group as he raised his average to an even .300 with four singles last week. Case, who began the campaign by going 2 for 18, has been hitting over .400 the second half of the season to reach the lofty plateau.

Golfers End With Three Victories

By Tucker Marr

The Westfield High School golf team defeated its last three opponents of the season last week by impressive scores, including an 18-0 shutout victory over Montclair. The other wins came against Berkeley Heights 18 1/2-1 1/2 and Summit 15-3.

The Blue Devil linkmen ended their season with 13-3 mark and won their final eight games of the season. Last week was easily their best one of the season. In all three matches the six Devil golfers did not post a score above a 45 or an individual average over 43.

Seniors Joel Farley, John Reid, Bill Mann and Steve Lee all finished their final season as WHS golfers and yielded a total of only four points in the final three matches.

John Reid paced the attacks with three shutouts and excellent rounds of 39, 41, 41 for nine holes each. The 39 was his best of the season, encompassed six pars and three bogeys, and came against Montclair. Versus Summit Reid hit five greens in regulation and had only 19 putts despite three putting two holes.

Joel Farley also registered three shutouts with scores of 41, 42, and 44. On the seventh hole against Montclair he hit a nine iron from the tee. It carried about 120 yards, kicked off the edge of a sandtrap and bounded to within ten feet of the pin, and he holed the ensuing putt for a birdie. Throughout all three matches, Farley's play was highlighted by excellent chip shots. Against Summit he recorded only 15 putts primarily because of his excellent short iron shots.

Steve Lee managed 43's in all three of his matches and handily won each match. His play was highlighted by consistency, illustrated by his scoring.

Conversely, Bill Mann was hurt by two double bogeys versus Berkeley Heights but was able to score a 42. He had a 43 and 45 in his other two matches. He found the range on the ninth hole against Montclair when he hit a tremendous 4 iron approach shot which rolled to within three feet of the pin. He stroked the putt for an easy birdie.

Sophomore Jim Bender carded two 41's and a 45 and salvaged several strokes on putting. Against Montclair he sunk two 30 footers and in the Summit match he holed a 15 foot curler.

Junior John Brown also displayed some fine putting. In a 2 1/2-1/2 triumph against Summit, he was down going into the final hole but managed to sink a 25 foot putt for par and a point.

Netsters End Season

By Brian Kane
Westfield High's tennis team lost a close, disappointing match to Columbia in the State Tournament on May 25. The 3-2 decision eliminated Westfield from the tourney. The netsters will close out their season today at the County Tournament.

The Columbia match was "the closest match in the last three years", according to third singles player Larry Katz. Although Westfield lost the match, the Devils won more games than Columbia. The reason for this is, generally, when the Devils won, they won by a lot, and when they lost they lost by a little. The Devils won 80 games, and lost 75.

Katz lost an unbelievable close match to Columbia's Joe Giunta. Giunta won the first set 7-5. Katz won the second 6-2. The third set went into several extra games, but when it was all over, Giunta was the victor. The statistics attest the closeness of the match: both players won an even 18 games apiece, but Giunta's were better distributed.

First singles player Buddy Robinson also lost his first set 7-5, but he roared back to win the last two by identical 6-1 scores.

The only other bright spot in the Devil's day was in first doubles. Dave Jester and Don Reiter, who worked well together all year, defeated Tom Carsen and Bill Kragen 6-4, 5-7, 6-1.

Columbia's Steve Lieb defeated Craig Larsen 6-4, 5-7, 6-2, and Westfield's second doubles team of Mitch Sandak and David Krinzman lost to Columbia's Eric Washington and Pete Lynott 6-4, 7-9, 6-2.

All the matches went three sets, and each match had at least one set that went into extra games to break the tie. Captain Craig Larsen put the match into perspective: "It was very close-but they were better". Although WHA won more games, Columbia was better at distributing their wins effectively. In the first Westfield-Columbia match (held earlier this year) Columbia was better, winning a close 3-2 decision over the Devils. The May 25 loss was especially disappointing in the Westfield was defending Group IV State Champs.

Now all Westfield has left is the County Tournament. The Devils should win this, although Cranford will put up a fight. The Cougars lost two 4-1 decisions to the Devils this season, the most recent in the State Tourney on May 22. Cranford could put up a closer fight than either of those matches was, but Westfield should remain County Champs.

Westfield also played a rescheduled match against Clark, last week. The Devils won 5-0. Larsen played first singles for the first time and won easily 6-2, 6-1. Sandak played first singles for the third time and handled the job easily, winning 6-0, 6-3. Next year Sandak will be one of the top three players and if this match was any preview or indication of what he will do next year, Westfield should have a strong team.

Westfield vs. Columbia May 25, 1972. 1st singles Buddy Robinson (W) over Bob Holmes (C) 5-7, 6-1, 6-1. 2nd singles Steve Lieb (C) over Craig Larsen (W) 6-4, 5-7, 6-2. 3rd singles Joe Giunta (C) over Larry Katz (W) 7-5, 2-6, 9-7. 1st Doubles: Dave Jester & Don Reiter (W) over Tom Carsen & Bill Kragen (C) 6-4, 5-7, 6-1. 2nd Doubles: Eric Washington & Pete Lynott (C) over Mitch Sandak & David Krinzman 6-4, 7-9, 6-2.

FINAL SCORE: COLUMBIA 3, WESTFIELD, 2.

Steve Mease of Westfield, who finished tennis season at Grove City College with 8-2 singles record. Mease, a sophomore at Grove City, also compiled a 9-0 doubles record and was his team's top scorer.

Jvers Raise Record

By Steve Brunquell
The Westfield Junior Varsity baseball team won both its games last week to raise their season record to 14-7. The wins came over Johnson Regional and Linden.

The Devils bats were hot last week, scoring 22 runs and producing 27 hits for the two games. This has been their style after the first few games of the season. Westfield started off the year with only 18 hits in their first four games.

The Blue Devils completely over powered the Johnson Regional team 14-4. They scored all their runs in the first four innings. The Westfielders played nearly perfect baseball, hitting very well and only having one error in the field. The pitching of Chip Danker and Matt Sweeney was also superb. They only gave up five hits and four runs. The fact that half of the Johnson Regional outs came on ground outs indicates that both pitchers kept the ball low.

The Linden game was a little closer. The Devils won 8-6. The Westfielders had the lead from the start and kept it throughout the game. Linden came close once, scoring five runs in the bottom of the fourth to come within one run, 6-5. They could only come up with one more in the bottom of the fifth, but the Devils scored two in the top of the same inning to clinch the victory.

This year's JV team will supply next year's varsity with several excellent ball players. In particular, Cary Crawford, who has been hitting over .400, Gerry Gigon, a .375 hitter, and Chip Danker, who hit over .300 and also pitches. Chip has alternated between junior varsity and varsity this year.

Junior Champ, Jr. Tennis Climax Week

The Westfield Jaycees, designating this week as "Youth Sports Week" in Westfield, will sponsor their annual track and field and tennis championship competitions this weekend.

All Union County residents and students are eligible for the Jaycee Tennis Tournament. Awards will be presented in six divisions, singles, 18 and under, 16 and under, 14 and under, boys and girls.

Preliminary matches will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Tanager Park and Elm St. courts, while the finals will be played on clay at the Westfield Tennis Club on Sunday.

"We're looking forward to a weekend of exciting tennis," said Bill Robinson, tournament chairman. "We hope that parents and tennis fans will turn out to support these fine young players."

Following the tennis finals, the Jaycees will hold "Junior Champ," the annual track and field competition, at Westfield High School Field.
