Westfield voters approved the building of a new $3½ million library on the Grant School site, reelected Mayor Ronald J. Frigerio and Second Ward Councilman Garland (Bud) Boothe, and elected Republicans Frank Rodgers, Ward 1, Beverly Caldora, Ward 3, and Democrat Michael Diamond, Ward 4, in heavy balloting Tuesday.

Closest race was in the fourth ward, where Diamond, in local balloting, won by 90 votes. With absentee ballot counts received yesterday, however, his opponent, Shirley Cordes, picked up 159 additional votes and Diamond 102, making the final tally Diamond, 1952, and Cordes, 1919, for a Diamond victory by 33 votes.

The library proposal won by a margin of 7,178 to 6,010; results of the non-binding referendum will now go before the Town Council for action.

On state and national levels, Westfield voters cast decisive pluralities for President Ronald Reagan and his running mate George Bush (10,727) in his reelection campaign against Walter Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro (5,117). They also tallied 8,912 for incumbent U.S. Senator Bill Bradley with 5,764 for his Republican opponent Mary Mochary. Incumbent Congressman Matt Rinaldo, top vote getter in local returns, won locally by a 10,766-3,147 margin over his Democratic challenger John Feeley. The Reagan-Bush team catapulted to a landslide victory nation-wide. Bradley and Rinaldo also were reelected by large majorities. Local election returns also showed the Republican Freeholder slate of Edward J. Slomkowski, Alan M. Augustine and Robert F. Gonor for three-year terms and Richard Malgran for a one-year term, leading by 3,000-plus margins over Democrats Harry Pappas, Gerald Green, Mary Ann Dorin and Peter Okrasinksi. According to unofficial Union County returns, the Republicans won county-wide and will assume the majority on the Board of Freeholders in January.

Westfielders also gave overwhelming approval to two bond issues and four public questions on the ballot state-wide. Winning state-wide pluralities were bond issues for a $90 million program for construction of hi-tech centers and expansion of that industry and $60 million for human services facilities, and approval of senior citizens' group raffles, authorization to appropriate two and a half cents of gas taxes for the state's transportation system, allowing people 65 years and older to receive both veteran's and senior citizen's tax deductions simultaneously, and prohibiting future taxation of Social Security and Railroad Retirement benefits.

A total of 15,327 residents, about 80 percent of the 19,279 registered, cast ballots in Tuesday's election.

Mtside. Voters Reject Center

Mountainside voters Tuesday rejected a proposal for an $800,000 community center by a margin of 2,444 to 965.

Incumbent Republicans, Robert Viglianti and Ronald Romak, unopposed for three-year seats on the Borough Council, were reelected with 2,644 and 2,607 votes, respectively, in voting which brought almost 4,000 of the borough's 4,941 voters to the polls.

Harry Brown Resigns Council Seat

First Ward Councilman Harry Brown is resigning from Town Council effective immediately, it was announced today by Jean Sawtelle, Republican town chairman. "Brown will be moving to Virginia early in 1985 and must devote more time to business affairs preparatory to this move," said Mrs. Sawtelle. Brown is cofounder and chairman of The Reserve Fund, Inc., the nation's first money-market fund. On Council, Brown has been chariman of the transportation, parking and traffic committee since 1982. He was a member of the license laws and rules, finance and public works committees.

"I deeply appreciate the opportunity to serve," said the outgoing Councilman, "and I particularly enjoyed being a part of the governmental process of Westfield. It has made me appreciate the responsibility involved and the many hours put in by individual Council members and Town officials. However, since I must be away from Westfield for extended periods, and will not be able to attend many Council meetings, I feel that the responsibility should pass to someone who can serve the town on a more full time basis," Brown explained.

Brown praised the work of former Mayor Allen Chin and Mayor Ronald Frigerio. Additionally he commended the work of his colleagues. "Ray Stone's ability to get State and Federal funding (for Westfield) has been extraordinary," he said," while Bud Boothe (with his legal background) has provided me with an insite into the myriad of details which must be considered in making informed decisions about town matters," Brown continued. "Very few are aware of the many hours of homework that John Brady has spent exploring possible solutions to Westfield's parking needs, and writing up an expert analysis."

"Since finding a solution to the town's parking needs is of such great importance to me," Brown said, "I had hoped to remain on Council until Ramp completed its town parking study and we could vote on implementing its recommendations. I regret that I will not be able to participate."

Brown also praised the work of Town Administrator Jack Malloy, Town Enginer Ed Gottko and Town Attorney Charlie Brandt. Of Brandt he said, "I probably have been more involved with Charlie Brandt than anyone else and I can only say that I wish he was practicing corporate law in New York. He is without a doubt the most practical attorney that it has ever been my privilege to know.

"Serving Westfield," Brown concluded" has been a rewarding experience and a wonderful education. I wish to thank the voters of the first ward for giving me this opportunity."

"Westfield" Car Logs 150,000 Miles in Five Years

PATH is commemorating five years of transit service of Car No. 625 since it was named the "Town of Westfield." Since 1979 the car has carried more than 750,000 passengers and traveled over 150,000 miles between New Jersey and New York.

The Port Authority Trans-Hudson Corporation noted these achievements in public transportation in a citation addressed to Mayor Ronald J. Frigerio and the Town Council by Francis A. Gorman, vice president and general manager of the rail rapid transit system.

The "Town of Westfield" is an all-aluminum 51-foot-long car, weighing 58,000 pounds. It is part of PATH's fleet of 290 fully air-conditioned rail transit cars. The car's exterior finish of metallic silver-blue and silver-black is highlighted with polished aluminum. The interior is tan with orange accents. The floor is covered with mottled white and gray rubber tile.

The plaques bearing the name "Town of Westfield" are located at each end of the car interior. They inform PATH riders that Westfield's early settlers laid down foundations with such great care that its citizens today enjoy one of the finest residential communities in New Jersey.

Visits to School Facilities Features of Education Week

American Education Week will be observed during the week of Nov. 11 through 17.

American Education Week, observed for more than six decades, is sponsored by the National School Boards Association, National Education Association, Department of Education, National Congress of Parents and Teachers and the American Legion to let the public know what schools are doing.

In Westfield, citizens interested in learning more about the schools are invited to call the Office of School-Community Relations (654-6400, ext. 380) or visit any school.

"Parents and members of this community are ever welcome in our schools," said Laurence F. Greene, Superintendent of Schools. "We don't need a special week for that. A simple telephone call ahead (to assure, for instance, that students are not involved in testing or out of the classroom for gym) is the only prior courtesy asked of anyone who wishes to visit any school any day.

Visitors to schools are asked to report to the school office before going to other areas in the building.

A number of school and Parent-Teacher activities and meetings are scheduled during the week, including a tour of the fieldhouse and high school library on Thursday morning Nov. 15, College Night at Westfield High School on Thursday evening, Nov. 15, and the issuance of report cards to students in grades one through 12 on Friday, Nov. 16.

A car belonging to Grace E. Henry of Westfield lies overturned after a collision with another vehicle on Faulkner Ave. and Tice Pl. on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Henry was conveyed to Overlook Hospital by the Westfield Rescue Squad for treatment. The driver of the other vehicle, James Darrow of Westfield, was reportedly uninjured.

Custodians' Contract Goes to Fact Finder

Fact finding is the next step in negotiations between the Westfield Board of Education and the Westfield Supportive Staff Association, representing 53 custodians and maitnenance employees in the schools.

Two sessions with mediator Robert Weakley, the mediator appointed by the Public Employee Relations Commission, were held before it was determined to seek a fact finder. The Public Employee Relations Commission will appoint a fact finder to work with the two negotiating teams.

The Board of Education will hold a special meeting at 8 p.m. on Monday, Nov. 12, in the board meeting room. Since the meeting agenda is a discussion of negotiations, it will not be open to the public.

Schools Closed Today, Tomorrow

Westfield public schools will be closed for students and teaching staff members today and tomorrow so that teachers can attend the New Jersey Education Association Convention in Atlantic City, if they wish.

All schools offices and the administration building, at 302 Elm Street, will be open 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

School will resume at the usual starting on Monday, Nov. 12.

St. Helen's to Host Annual Thanks Service

The annual Thanksgiving Service sponsored by the League of Religious Organizations will be held this year in the Parish Center of the Church of St. Helen, Lamberts Mill Rd., on Sunday, Nov., 18.

The event will begin with a potluck supper at 5 p.m. followed with a panel discusion by Father William Morris, The Rev. John Wilson and Rabbi Charles Kroloff. The evening will conclude with a communal Thanksgiving Service in the church. All who are interested in attending may receive further information from their clergy.

Planners Approve Outdoor Unit for Seafood Store

The Westfield Planning Board met Monday to hear the appeal of South Ave. Seafood in regard to the construction of an out-door-refrigeration unit, contrary to rear yard depth requirements. After brief statements by the parties involved, the board granted a variance.

Rick Wilde, attorney representing South Ave. Seafood, called the owner, Tom Rutishauser, to testify. Rutishauser told the board that he believed he would be improving the service of his business. The refrigeration unit, if installed, would be located between New Norris Chevrolet Parts and Service Center, 210 South Ave., and the municipal parking lot at the southside train station. Rutishauser commented that the unit would not make noise.

Also speaking on behalf of South Ave. Seafood was Michael Dinan, who told the board that the unit was not a luxury item and that it was necessary for the survival of the business.

Meeting no adversity from the public, the board approved the appeal.

Council Acts On Parking Lot

In a meeting last night, too late for Leader deadline, the Town Council was expected to introduce an ordinance which would increase fees and change other regulations at Lot #4, an attendant parking lot.

Another ordinance on the agenda would alter existing required frontages of one-family residential lots in the Wallberg Ave. area from 100 feet to 70 feet.

Full coverage of last night's meeting will appear in the Nov. 15 Leader.

Library to Close On Veterans' Day

The Westfield Memorial Library will be closed Monday Nov. 12 in observance of Veterans Day and will re-open Tuesday, Nov. 13 at 10 a.m.

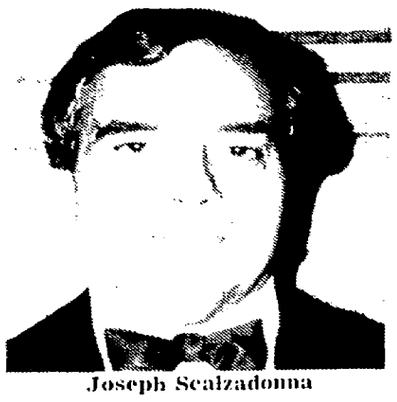
Unico Dinner to Honor Joseph Scalzadonna Nov.17

The Westfield Chapter of Unico National, an organization of Italian Americans dedicated to community service, will hold its seventh annual Person of the Year Award Nov. 17 at the Westwood in Garwood New Jersey.

The award, which is based on service to the community, service to Unico, outstanding personal achievements and family dedication will be presented to Joseph Scalzadonna of Westfield.

Scalzadonna is a past president of the Westfield Chapter of Unico as well as vice pesident and director. He has been cited in the past for his dedicated service to Unico District X, Plainfield Unico, The Boy Scouts of America, Cooley's Anemia Volunteers of America and the Garwood Little League. He is an honarary member of the Garwood Fire Department and the Garwood P.B.A. Local 117. Scalzadonna has demonstrated his "generosity and kindness through his service to the community though the years," according to Unico officials.



Joseph Scalzadonna

In the past, the award has been given to John Fontenelli of Garwood, Robert Brewster of Westfield, Alan Chin, former Mayor of Westfield, the late George Pullman and Tom Mannino, a Westfield Unico past president.

A cocktail hour will precede the awards dinner of prime ribs followed by a Venetian table and open bar. The public is invited to attend. Tickets are available from Peter Giordano, 553 First St. or Frank Isodi, 881 Dorian Rd.

Honor Guard Officer SAR Speaker Monday

The West Fields Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, will meet at the Parish House of the Congregational Church, Elmer St., at 8 p.m. Monday.

Speaker will be Captain Bruce Van Derven, former USAF, officer assigned to the White House Presidential Honor Guard.

One of three officers assigned to the Honor Guard, Van Derven was responsible for armed forces participation in events at the White House, the Pentagon, Arlington National Cemetery and Andrews Air Force Base. He was involved in planning the White House Ceremony of State for visiting Chinese Premier Teng, the first communist Chinese head of state to visit the United States since the 1930s. He served as escort officer and troop commander for the interment of former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, General George Brown.

Van Derven also performed as Death Watch Commander for the U.S. Ambassador to Afghanistan slain by terrorists in the Kabul Embassy. Most recently, he was recalled to active duty to assist in planning and to serve as an escort officer for the interment of General of the Armies Omar Bradley.

Bruce Van Derven

Still active in the N.J. Air National Guard, Van Derven is assigned to the 108th Tactical Fighter Wing at McGuire AFB. Raised in Westfield, he practices law with the firm of Nochols, Thomson, Peek and Meyers. He resides in Westfield with his family.

Veteran's Day Observance At Deerfield School

Deerfield students and faculty will observe Veterans' Day in Mountainside on Monday at ceremonies beginning at 9 a.m.

Honoring present and past faculty members who have served in the country's armed forces, students and their guests will hear student body president, Patrick Attenasio, speak on "What Is Veterans' Day?"

Among Deerfield faculty are four from the U.S. Navy: Oliver Deane, Fred Moebus, William Ortolf, and Edwin Sjonell. Three faculty were Army men: Charles Guinta, Howard Kravitz, and Allan Shapiro; one a Marine: Andrew Ray, and one from the Air Force: John Simmons.

The Blue Star Post #386 of the American Legion, Mountainside, and the Memorial Post, #10136, Veterans of Foreign Wars will join the ceremony by placing a wreath to honor veterans.

Community residents are invited to attend the brief flag-raising ceremony which will be held around the flagpole in front of the school.

High School Orientation For Pupils and Parents

Mountainside seventh and eighth graders and their parents will meet high school department supervisors and Miss Anne Romano, principal of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the cafeteria of Deerfield School.

Purpose of the meeting is to orient families of children ready to attend high school to academic programs and special opportunities in the curricula. High school personnel at the meeting will include: Stanley Grossman, vocational education; Mrs. Emma Massey, business education; Dr. Frank Kenny, director of pupil personnel; Miss Charlotte Singer, guidance director; Mrs. Julia Latzer, English department supervisor; Mrs. Anna Tedesco, foreign language department supervisor; Mrs. Katherine, Venditti, social studies department supervisor; William Jones, mathematics department supervisor; George Barclay, science coordinator, Union County Regional High School District No. 1; and Peter Falzarano, athletics director.

Dr. Donald Merachnik, superintendent of schools UCRHS Dist. No. 1, will introduce department heads and conduct the meeting which will end at 9 p.m. This meeting is the first of two for incoming ninth graders to Jonathan Dayton High School. The second will be at the high school on Monday, Jan. 14, when parents and students will be able to meet classroom teachers.

Karate Instruction At Westfield YM

Westfield YMCA Karate Instructor Mike Garrastazu will teach youth ages 9 - 14 in the ancient Japanese form of self defense, Shukokai, on Mondays from 4:30 to 5 p.m. and Saturdays from 10 to 11:30 a.m.

Garrastazu is a 2nd Degree Brown Belt, who will receive his black belt by June of this year. He is ranked first in the State of New Jersey in the Brown and Black Belt division for his age group. Anyone interested in karate who would like further information may stop by the Westfield YMCA and observe the program.

Registration for the winter session of classes began last week; classes begin Nov. 12.

Lifesaver Program Wins Trophy for Squad

The Frank Eaton Memorial Trophy for excellence in community education was awarded to the Westfield Rescue Squad at the recent annual convention of the New Jersey State First Aid Council. The trophy, given annually to the Squad demonstrating the most substantial training and education program in the State, was awarded on the basis of more than 1100 persons trained in CPR and related lifesaving skills since January of this year.

The award-winning program, dubbed "Lifesaver '84" offers free courses taught by volunteer Squad members who are also trained CPR instructors. American Heart Association certification for the courses is provided by special arrangement with Overlook Hospital's Cardio-Pulmonary Department. All other expenses for training materials and equipment are funded by the Squad.

Westfield Rescue Squad Captain Judy Heatley, Mrs. Alice Crow, and Squad President Mel Bailey, dedicate the new membership plaque at Squad headquarters to the memory of Don Crow.

The trophy was displayed Sunday during the official opening of the newly decorated recreation room at Squad headquarters. A short ceremony was also held at that time, dedicating the new membership plaque to the memory of Don Crow, past training lieutenant of the Squad, who died last year.

Present for the open house, along with active members and telephone volunteers, were Honorary members, Tom Byrnes, Lou Teitelbaum, Marie Keller, Charles Fredericks, Jack Briggs and Bruce Kampe. Mrs. Alice Crow was also present for the dedication.

Jim Englert, Westfield Rescue Squad delegate to the New Jersey First Aid Council, displays the Frank Eaton Memorial Trophy for excellence in community education to Connie Anderson, CPR coordinator of Overlook Hospital, and Jeff DeChellis, chairman of the Squad's Lifesaver '84 program for which the award was made.

Student Wins Local Century III Award

Tonia Garbowsky, a senior at Westfield High School, has been named the school's top Century III Leader according to Robert G. Petix, principal.

The 17 year old student is now eligible to compete with other local winners from around the state for one of two $1,500 scholarships and an all-expense-paid trip to the Century III Leaders National Conference March 15-18 in Colonial Williamsburg, Va. State winners wil compete for the national winner's prize of an additional $10,000 scholarship.

The Century III Leaders program is designed to bring together and recognize student leaders who show both strong leadership abilities and an interest in the future of America.

Tonia was judged on the basis of leadership skills, school and community involvement and a current events examination. She also wrote a short essay on a particular issue that challenges America in its third century.

This is the tenth year of the Century III Leaders program, which awards a total of $218,500 in scholarships to 204 young leaders. Century III is sponsored and administered by the Naional Association of Secondary School Principals, and funded by the Shell Companies Foundation, Inc.

The Williamsburg meeting will be highlighted by major speakers and seminars, along with discussions among students and leaders from the worlds of business, education and government. Speakers at past conferences have included former President Gerald Ford; newsmen Harry Reasoner, Howard K. Smith, Tom Brokaw, and Charles Kuralt; philosopher and futurish Buckminster Fuller; and the librarian of Congress, Daniel Boorstin.

Tonia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garbowsky of 1012 Harding St.

Westfield Service League Support Of United Fund Tops $100,000

The Westfield Service League has contributed one of the largest single contributions made this far in the appeal for funds to support the 17 member agencies of the United Fund of Westfield.

"The Westfield Service League has been one of the mainstays of our United Fund," stated Linda Maggio, executive director the United Fund. "We are so grateful for their continue support. This significant contribution has helped us to reach more than 50 percent of our $480,000 goal. The Service League has been most supportive of our United Fund effort, with contributions totaling over $100,000 for the past 27 years. We are hoping that Westfielders will follow the example of their responsiveness and return their pledge cards as soon as possible. We need the support of each and every Westfielder to make our 1984 campaign successful.

"The Service League is an organization of women devoting their time, energy, and talents so that others may benefit."

Mr. Maggio said the League's continuing generosity toward the Westfield United Fund represents "an important vote of confidence in the services our agencies bring to the community and the important role they play in Westfield's everyday affairs."

Mrs. Peggy Walsh, president of the Service League, noted "our members are well aware of the financial needs of the United Fund's member agencies. Many are involved in this annual appeal to the community, and we are proud to be able to help."

On behalf of the Westfield Service League, Peggy Walsh, president and Nancy Fleischman, chairman of the donations committee, present a contribution to William T. Meglaughlin, a member of the Board of Trustees and Chairman of Finance for the United Fund of Westfield. "Their generous donation at this time," noted Meglaughlin, "brings us one step closer to our goal of $480,000. The 17 agencies of the Fund join with me to thank the members of Service League for their thoughtful and most welcome gift."

The contribution to the Fund was made possible because the Service League operates the Thrift Shop and Consignment Shop at 114 Elmer St. and all profits from the two shops are donated to various local charities.

Members of the League donate their time operating the two shops. The Consignment Shop accepts clothing and miscellaneous items on consignment for sale to the public. At the Thrift shop, all merchandise is donated and offered for resale at "Thrift" prices.

"We urge all Westfield residents to give the League's shops the same wonderful support that the League members are giving through this contribution and the many others they make to local charities," stated Mrs. Maggio. "The Service League gift truly exemplifies an organization made up of individuals who truly care."

The Election's Over!

The election is over. Winners are relaxing in their victories; losers are licking their wounds. And issues, which appear only once a year, are for the most part, put to rest for another season.

One of the more interesting aspects of our local election - among a plethora of allegations, misstatements and political rhetoric - was a survey made by a candidate in the fourth ward, Michael Diamond, which probably reflects local thinking fairly accurately.

Town services ranked high in the opinion poll, with high marks given the town for leaf collection, snow removal, the conservation center, recreation programs, the police and fire departments.

Parking and traffic fared not so well - but then both Republicans and Democrats opined that the parking situation, in particular, is one that will require some action - and some is already underway.

Opinions on the town library benefits appeared mixed, so Tuesday's vote on a $3.5 million new facility on the Grant School site was not surprising. That "undecided" 21 percent was important in the election returns.

Waste management, of course, will continue to be a concern, at least until some resource recovery program is adopted, and we surely didn't need a survey to prove it. Transportation questions, particularly a mini-buses for seniors, were interesting, but does anyone else remember when a mini-bus referendum was defeated many years ago by town voters?

We don't take too much stock in polls, particularly those which judge "wish lists." Lots of services and facilities are nice to have, but the acid test comes when we read the price tag.

But as far as most existing services - ones that mean safety, and others that give Westfield a quality of life through recreation, lawn clean-up etc.-local residents who were questioned appeared quite pleased with our municipal government.

. . . And that's a plus.

Money Management

The tax reform act of 1984, with its hundreds of minor adjustments to tax law, could mean your tax bill will rise sharply unless you take steps to prevent that from happening. You have until the end of the year to make your tax moves.

The New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants says there are some new twists this year to year-end tax planning; new rules on deadlines for Individual Retirement Accounts and on deducting for medicine, plus a larger deduction for those non-itemized charitable contributions.

Individual Retirement Accounts, which have become America's favorite way of sheltering income from taxation, are still attractive. One change removes a popular feature: Taxpayers may no longer delay making IRA contributions.

Under last year's IRS regulations, a taxpayer could file Form 4868 by April 15 for an automatic four-month extension. The taxpayer then had extra time to make the maximum $2,000 IRA contribution. But now, an IRA contribution made after your 1984 tax filing deadline must be deducted from your 1985 return. Smart taxpayers plan now to have their IRA contributions ready.

Self-employed persons who qualify for Keogh accounts, another retirement plan, must also make money-saving steps before 1984 runs out. The maximum that can be placed in a Keogh was boosted effectively to 20 percent of earned income. The maximum contribution is $30,000. Although you can contribute to an existing Keogh until the tax filing deadline (with extensions allowable), new Keogh accounts must be opened before January 1.

Taxpayers who do not itemize will be pleased to see the new short form; it permits a larger deduction for contributions to their favorite charity in 1984. Last year, someone who did not itemize deductions was entitled to a maximum deduction of $25 if they donated $100 to a charitable organization. Twenty-three million returns listed that deduction. This year, those not itemizing may take up to a $75 deduction if they donate $300 to charity before Jan. 1. Keep in mind, however, that in 1985 charitable deductions that are not itemized will be even more valuable. Then, half of a charitable contribution can be deducted with no dollar limit on its size.

Medical expense deductions will change slightly and if you qualify for that deduction, money-saving steps should be taken before the year-end.

Medical expenses can be deducted only if they exceed five percent of adjusted gross income. For example, if you report an adjusted gross income of $20,000 you can deduct medical expenses that are above the $1,000. That's not new. What is new is that you can now include the cost of unreimbursed prescription drugs and insulin when you add up medical expenses. Last year, medicines were only deductible in excess of one percent of income. To make the most of the new rule you may want to buy — before year-end— those medicines you would purchase early next year.

Another twist in year-end tax planning requires quick action by the self-employed who have been planning to use the income averaging method to calculate taxes. If you have been making estimated tax payments based on the income averaging formula in force before the tax law was ratified, you may find your quarterly payments are no longer adequate. The new income averaging law is tougher. Under the new rules, some taxpayers are disqualified from income averaging. Consequently, they will owe more tax than they anticipated. Although nothing can be done about underpayments for previous quarters, there's time to increase your payment in this last quarter.

Dayton Educators To Talk at Deerfield

Miss Anne Romano, principal of the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, will lead a group of Dayton School supervisors in a discussion of the high school curriculum and opportunities for students at the Deerfield School, Mountainside, Nov. 12 at 7:30 p.m.

The program is being held for all seventh and eighth grade students and their parents. Upon graduation, Deerfield students attend Jonathan Dayton in Springfield.

Letters To The Editor

All letters to the editor must bear a signature, a street address and a telephone number, so authors may be checked. If contributors are not able to be reached at local phone numbers during Leader business hours, the writer's signature may be notarized.

Letters must be written only one side of paper and typewritten. No letter long than 1½ pages double-spaced will be considered for publication.

All letters must be in the "Leader" office by Friday if they are to appear in the following issue.

CAMPAIGN THANKS

Editor Leader;

I want to thank all of the people who were involved in the 1984 Westfield Election for both the Democrats and Republicans. Special thanks should go particularly to the chairs of both parties, Martin Sheehy and Jean Sawtelle, who do a lot of the behind the scenes work, but get little credit.

A spirited election fight is good for the Town and I enjoyed being a part of it. The Westfield Leader did a very fair job in presenting the candidates.

My best wishes to all the winners whoever they may be.

COMMENDS COVERAGE

Editor, Leader;

I want to express my appreciation to the Westfield Leader for giving such generous and impartial coverage to the 4th Ward Council race. Indeed, it appears as though all candidates have been treated most fairly. This letter is being written before election day because, win or lose, I just want to express my gratitude for the Leader's successful efforts at including all positions taken in the campaign. We all gain when there is such a free flow of ideas.

Council Candidate

FOOD PANTRY "TREATED"

Editor, Leader;

On behalf of the youth of the First Congregational Church, I want to thank all the people who donated to our trick-or-treating for the Food Pantry on Halloween. Because of your generosity, our young people were able to collect a large quantity of food to be given to people in need throughout our area.

The Food Pantry, located at Holy Trinity on First St. in Westfield, provides a much needed service. The number of people below the poverty level has been increasing, and the use of the Food Pantry has increased substantially as well. Over 1500 people have been served so far this year.

By giving food to our youth on Halloween, you helped us to be of help. Many thanks again for your generous support.

Richard A. Plant
Associate Minister
First Congregational Church

SCHOOLS IN DISREPAIR

Editor, Leader;

A recent letter to this newspaper suggests that the Westfield Athletic Fieldhouse is in shambles and should be repaired, perhaps by supporting a bond. I sympathize with that position, but I do not think we are focusing on the problem. More than the Fieldhouse needs repair. Our school buildings have many problems, and like the Fieldhouse, are in a general state of disrepair.

For some years, Westfield residents have placed school taxes primarily in academics and have spent minimum amounts on maintaining school facilities. That course of action is beginning to show. I would support a bond issue for repair of the major deficiences in our school buildings, including the Fieldhouse. The health and safety of our children is paramount, and any potential deficiences that may affect health and safety must be addressed before cosmetics, although I would have no objection to some money spent on "dressing up" school facilities after correcting major deficiences. That is important, too!

A note of caution must be mentioned on a potential bond issue. The proposal for a new library will be on a straw ballot in November. Will residents support more than one bond issue? If so, what is the level of taxes which would be supported? A realistic school bond issue would probably raise taxes double that of the proposed library. If a choice must be made, it will not be easy.

STARSCOPE

by Clare Annswell

WEEK OF: NOVEMBER 8, 1984

AQUARIUS — January 21-February 19
Postponements are a way of life through much of the week — fill in the gaps by writing letters, stories, poems, whatever. When it comes to the written word, you truly shine now.

PISCES — February 20-March 20
Relatives offer sound criticism, though their approach may leave something to be desired. Conferences keep you well-occupied; don't hesitate to make some creative suggestions.

ARIES — March 21-April 20
Restraint is all-important, as any conflict can lead to a showdown, complete with fireworks. There's a chance to increase earnings or prestige; be observant throughout the week.

TAURUS — April 21-May 22
New methods lead to a series of personal accomplishments. Romance demands more trust on your part. Surprise visits are scattered through the week. Overdue announcement arrives by Tuesday.

GEMINI — May 23-June 21
A fine week if launching new projects. Loved one is preoccupied, not neglectful. Creative energies run high; this is a good week for do-it-yourself holiday presents.

CANCER — June 22-July 22
Take a leisurely break from obligations and enjoy time alone — you can do some of your best thinking now. This is a good week for receiving as well as for giving.

LEO — July 23-August 22
Partner is more open-minded and you're more optimistic. If shopping for household items, be more demanding than usual. Calculated risk may pay off after the weekend.

VIRGO — August 23-September 22
Business and pleasure blend quite nicely this week. Loved one is full of surprises. With some overtime, a major task can be completed by Tuesday or Wednesday.

LIBRA — September 23-October 22
Weekend is filled with surprises of a happy kind. Talents are varied, but the key this week is to focus on specific skills. News of a celebration may arrive by Tuesday.

SCORPIO — October 23-November 21
The answer to a romance question comes when you least expect it. In family matters, compromise is all-important. A delay may actually be a blessing in disguise.

SAGITTARIUS — November 22-December 22
A fine week for embarking on an all-new course of study; foreign languages, particularly, are accented. A friend repays an ancient debt. Career road is less rocky.

CAPRICORN — December 23-January 20
Watch tendency to edit-out information when re-telling a story or preparing a report. New and bolder dress styles are accented. If traveling, prepare for unexpected weather.

BIRTHDAY THIS WEEK
You can be blunt and you can be outspoken — but you cannot be ignored. You see through people — and they know it. Use your intuitive gifts to make advances in realms of career and education. Family responsibilities require your attention through the spring.

BORN THIS WEEK
November 8th, actress Katharine Hepburn; 9th, singer Mary Travers; 10th, actress MacKenzie Phillips; 11th, actor Jonathan Winters; 12th, actress Stefanie Powers; 13th, actor Charles Bronson, 14th, actor Brian Keith.

Report from Washington

By Congressman

Matt Rinaldo

7th District, New Jersey

A recurrence of the winter like the one we had last year is not an inviting prospect for New Jersey consumers, especially those who heat their homes with oil.

Few have to be reminded of the price shock fuel oil users experienced during the December - January cold snap when prices shot up 21 cents to a record $1.28 a gallon. The steep, unexpected runup in prices was caused, to a great extent, because oil companies entered the heating season with inventories considerably below what they had on hand for the winter of 1982-83.

Home heating oil customers in the Northeast and Midwest paid dearly for this decision which in my mind represented a serious mismanagement of a product critical to the health and welfare of millions of Americans. The price jump brought about by the shortage cost New Jersey consumers alone an estimated $100 million in additional heating costs last winter. Most of the money left the state's economy.

In a bid to head-off a repeat of last winter's price runup, I have urged Energy Secretary Donald Hodel to develop a contingency plan to be implemented in the event of a home heating oil shortage this winter. My concern is that New Jerseyans, particularly the elderly and those on fixed incomes, be provided with adequate supplies and stable prices for home heating oil. It is important to anticipate what this winter might bring and advisable for the Department of Energy to plan a course of action in the event of another heating oil crisis.

As a senior Republican on the House Energy and Commerce Committee, I also have proposed that as an incentive for the oil companies to increase their inventories of home heating oil, the federal government should consider arranging to purchase any surplus at the end of the heating season for the Strategic Petroleum Reserve. The fuel would be purchased out of funds appropriated by Congress for the express purpose of acquiring oil for the reserve and would not add to the level of federal spending. Such an arrangement would provide the oil companies with some assurance that they would not be left with costly surplus at the end of the heating season, and it would provide a system for the government to create a reserve of distillate oil to meet residential, commercial and industrial needs in an emergency.

Since writing to Secretary Hodel and participating in a Northeast-Midwest Congressional Coalition hearing on the adequacy of the home heating oil supply, there has been a substantial increase in the oil company inventories serving New Jersey. During the first three weeks of October, the home heating oil supply on the East Coast jumped nearly 20 percent from 55.3 to 66.5 million barrels, while total national reseres went from 141.9 million to 153 million barrels. Each barrel holds 42 gallons of product.

That is a substantial increase and encouraging news for New Jersey consumers who do not know what to expect after last winter. However, these inventories are still short of what was on hand at this time last year and continue to be a matter of concern. I am worried that a sustained cold snap this winter will not only lead to another drastic increase in prices, but might even cause a severe oil shortage which could result in the closure of schools, businesses and industry in our region.

About 1.1 million, or 45 percent of the households in New Jersey, rely on fuel oil for heating and consume an estimated 20 million gallons a year. Another 70-plus million gallons are burned annually by utilities and commercial and industrial enterprises in the state.

At the recent Northeast--Midwest Congressional Coalition fact-finding session in Washington, both industry and DOE officials testified that they expect heating oil supplies and prices to be stable this winter if the weather is not unusually cold. I will be monitoring the weekly petroleum status reports issued by the DOE's Energy Information Administration to keep track of all the oil companies' management of the heating oil inventories, and will call for government action at the first hint of manipulation or mismanagement in the handling of the stocks.

United Way Services

Girl Scouting

When eighteen 4th, 5th, and 6th grade girls put their heads together with three volunteer adults to learn and have fun doing things, we call it Girl Scouting, but the girls call it "Awesome."

In the course of their troop year, the girls of Troop 864 earned their Fire Prevention Badge, Healthy Eating Badge, My Heritage Badge, and Theatre Arts Badge. Earning these badges meant involvement in a variety of learning activities such as making posters about fire prevention and displaying them at the Trailside Museum in Watchung, then interviewing Smokey the Bear for a newspaper story. The Girl Scouts also adopted the pediatrics clinic at Overlook Hospital as their special focus of service.

Going places is one of the best ways that Girl Scouts learn, and Troop 864 was on the move. They attended a special performance of the Cranford Orchestra; they visited a local florist to get a behind-the-scenes view of the horticulture business. They planned and executed a weekend camping trip to Camp Hoover. They sold cookies and used profits to see "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat" at a local theatre. They visited the Girl Scout Council office to find out how the organization works and interviewed its directors. They went to an historic cemetery to make rubbings of interesting stones and learn about local history.

Planning, finding out, doing, and learning are the fundamental tools of Girl Scout troops. The activities described here (or similar ones) can be multiplied by 480 troops in Washington Rock Girl Scout Council and their 7,000 active members. Through these activities and the guidance of trained volunteers, Girl Scouts are preparing themselves to be active leaders in the community, in industry, and in the home. The Washington Rock Girl Scout Council is a participating agency of the United Fund of Westfield.

A birthday party for Smokey the Bear and a lesson in safety were part of earning the Girl Scout Fire Prevention Badge for members of Troop 864.

Tax Shelter Seminar At the Mansion

Family Investors Company Inc. will host a real estate tax shelter seminar from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Nov. 15 at the Mansion in Fanwood.

The session will cover information regarding the structure, the management, and the types of deductions offered by limited real estate ventures. The benefits and risks also will be reviewed. A special presentation will be made by Walter J. Pagano, a former revenue agent, now in private practice. Pagano will discuss I.R.S. real estate evaluation practices. Information on various real estate partnerships will be distributed. Reservations are required by Nov. 13 as the office of Family Investors Co., North and Martine Aves., Fanwood.

Whitty On Co-Op Advisory Council

Thomas Whitty of Westfield, whose firm of Whitty Consultants, also located in Westfield, has recently been appointed to the 1984-85 Cooperative Education Advisory Council at Montclair State College.

Cooperative Education is an educational program that places students in part-time and full-time work positions related to their major and their career goals. Through this program, students are able to earn academic credit and salary while gaining valuable experience in their chosen field.

Discussion to Focus On WHS Needs, Problems

The needs, requirements and problems confronting the Westfield High School library will be the featured presentation at the PTO board meeting on Wednesday night at 7:45. The public is invited to hear Dawn Ganss, head librarian, assess the situation.

"On a busy day, 1,032 students use this facility. Since the library has failed the Middle States Association evaluation twice in recent years, there is a dire need to do something quickly and positively," said Ganss. The meeting will take place in the high school library on the second floor.

Films and Stories For Children Today

A film program for boys and girls in kindergarten through fourth grade will be shown by the Children's Department of the Westfield Memorial Library from 3 to 3:45 p.m. today in the Wateunk Room. The films are "The Witch Who Was Afraid of Witches," "Strega Nona" and "Charlie Needs a Cloak." Magic Carpet Story Time will follow at its regular time. No passes are necessary for the program.

The Old Guard of the Westfield area was entertained this past week by the Rev. Phillip R. Dietterich, minister of music of the First United Methodist Church, left, and Thomas Anthony, right, a music teacher from North Plainfield. They talked about and showed slides of their trip to the Llangollen International Music Eisteddof, in Wales. Fifty-five members of the Wesley Singers participated in this contest. Participation in this contest is by invitation only and it was a great honor for our group in Westfield to receive the invitation. Contestants come from many different countries and are in different age groups.

Assistant Cashier David Kepner and Branch Manager Florence V. Saland are all smiles as they display the bank's new name and corporate symbol outside the bank's office here. The new name, First Fidelity Bank, na., New Jersey, reflects the merger of First National State Bank and Fidelity Union Bank/First National State on Oct. 31.

Center's Youth Program "Grand Opening" Nov. 15

Ernestine N. Howell, program director of the Westfield Community Center, a charter member of the United Fund, has announced that the "grand opening" of the evening youth program on Thursday, Nov. 15, from 7 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. Entertainment will be provided by the Third Dimension, Inc. breakdancing group, and The Lover Boys MC's.

The Westfield Community Center youth program will be offered Mondays through Thursdays, 6 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. for youth, 12-19 years of age.

Activities being offered are tutorial services, computer club, crafts, friendship clubs, athletic activities, counselling, leadership development activities, dramatic group, youth chorus, social hygiene, etc.

Interested Westfield Youth are invited to attend the "grand opening" and register to become a participant in the program. For additional information, youth may contact President Carlisle, coordinator, between 6 and 9:30 p.m. at the Community Center.

Mrs. Newill Speaks To Roosevelt Students

The English I Honors classes at Roosevelt Junior High School recently heard Mrs. Vaughn Newill speak to them of China. Having lived there, she brought slides to highlight her talk on Chinese culture. The program was related to the students' study of Pearl Buck's "The Good Earth."

WHS College Night Nov. 15

Westfield High School's 30th annual College Night will be held next Thursday evening, Nov. 15, from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. at WHS, 550 Dorian Rd. Approximately 210 institutions of higher education, including universities, two year colleges, trade schools, and the armed services will participate in this year's event. All grade levels are welcome to attend.

Participants will include:

Suzanne Attenborough Weds John E. Berg

Suzanne Attenborough and John Eugene Berg were married Saturday, Sept. 22, at the Presbyterian Church in Westfield. Dr. Jeffrey R. Wampler performed the double ring ceremony. A luncheon followed at the EchoLake Country Club.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Attenborough of Westfield. The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. John R. Berg of Arlington, Va. and St. Paul, Minn.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her mother's wedding gown. The gown, designed and made by the bride's grandmother, was of white imported rosepoint French lace over white satin in a princess style, with slightly dropped shoulders, forming a short sleeve and a square neckline, accented with a lace bow and ending in a chapel length train. Her cathedral length veil of French illusion fell from a pearl crown. She wore matching lace guantlets and carried a cascade arrangement of white roses, fressia and English ivy with a central orchid. The bride made her petit point shoes with a design of peach roses and green garlands on a white background.

Amy Buford Brill of Goldsboro, N.C., was matron of honor. She wore a full length gown of peach moire taffeta with puffed sleeves, a square neckline and bouffant skirt, fashioned by the bride. Her halo was of baby's breath, peach stock and lavender campanula. She carried a large nosegay, accented with lavender streamers.

The bridesmaids, Pamela Becker of Boston, Mass., Judith Uttal of Los Angeles, Calif., Elizabeth Rowe of Dallas, Tx., and Suzzane Young of Tucson, Ariz., were similarly attired and carried identical bouquets. Kerry McLaughlin of Westfield was the flower girl.

Thomas Berg of Bath, Me., brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were James Berg of Newark, Del., Joseph Berg of St. Paul, Minn. Matthew Binet of Little Rock, Ark., cousin of the bridegroom was the ringbearer. He carried a neddlepoint pillow made by the bride's mother.

Soloists were Susan McNamera of Westfield, who sang, and Annie Fullard of New Haven, Conn., who played the violin.

Suzanne Attenborough

The bride, who will retain her name, graduated from Westfield High School, Wellesley College and Carnegie-Mellon University, where she received an MSIA degree. She is a sales forecaster for Lever Brothers in New York.

Mr. Berg graduated from St. Thomas Academy, Mendot Heights, Minn., and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is manager of research and development for Standard Microsystems Corporation in Hauppauge, N.Y.

Following the rehearsal, Friday evening, the bridal party and out-of-town guests were entertained by the bridegroom's parents at a dinner at the Squire's Inn, Summit.

Pre-nuptial showers were given by Mrs. Janice Nelson and Mrs. Peggy Norwine, and by Mrs. Phyllis Babb and Mrs. Jane Annis.

After a wedding trip to France and Switzerland, the couple is residing in Manhattan.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf H. Rix of Hershey, Pa., formerly of Westfield, announce the engagement of their daughter Deborah Lee of Jenson Beach, Fla., to Dr. Robert Douglas MacKenzie of Stuart, Fla., son of Douglas and Lucilla MacKenzie of Kahala, Hawaii.

Deborah L. Rix

The bride-elect is a graduate of Westfield High School and holds a B.S. degree from East Carolina University, N.C. She also attended the Para Legal Institute in Virginia. Miss Rix is a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma national sorority. She is employed as a legal secretary/paralegal at McRoberts & Steger, P.A., in Stuart.

Dr. MacKenzie earned a B.S. degree at Hobart College in New York, and his M.D. from New York Medical College, New York City. He took graduate training in obstetrics/gynecology at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. Dr. MacKenzie is currently in private practice in Stuart. He is a member of Kappa Sigma national fraternity and the Washington Rugby Club.

The wedding is planned for April 13, 1985.

Karen Epstein Weds Adam J. Lasser

Karen Leslie Epstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley A. Epstein of Westfield, was married on Oct. 13 to Adam James Lasser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Lasser of Jamestown, N.Y.

The Rabbi Charles Kroloff officiated at the ceremony, which took place at Mayfair Farms in West Orange. A reception immediately followed.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin, trimmed with appliques of Alencon lace. She carried a cascade of white roses, off-white lilies and pink alstomeria.

Debra Tievsky, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Best man was Andrew Lasser, brother of the bridegroom. Bridesmaids were Ingrid Powell of Westfield and Nan Davidson of Houston, Tex. Ushers were David Epstein, brother of the bride, and Richard Mudge, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride is a 1978 graduate of Westfield High School. She graduated cum laude from Carnegie-Mellon University in 1982 with a B.S. degree in graphics communications management. She is employed by Command Web Offset, Inc., Secaucus, as a production co-ordinator.

The bridegroom attended Exeter Academy, Exeter, N.H., and graduated from Carnegie-Mellon University in 1982 with a B.S. degree in mathematics and computer science. He is employed by Ross Systems in New York City, as regional systems consultant.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam J. Lasser

The bridegroom's parents hosted a pre-nuptial dinner at The Manor in West Orange for the bridal party and family members.

After a wedding trip in St. Martin, the couple is residing in Montclair.

Washington School Players to Present Musical

The Washington School Players (formerly of Grant School) will present a musical comedy, "That Rascal Robin," on Feb. 1 and 2. Sign-ups for the many acting and dancing parts commenced with a Pot Luck Supper at the school. The proceeds from the show, now in its 37th year will be spent on assemblies at the school and many other student benefits. The musical production is done entirely by parents and teachers.

Cast try-outs will be held Monday, Nov. 12, Friday, Nov. 16 and Sunday, Nov. 18, all in private homes. Dance try-outs are scheduled for Nov. 19 at the school.

"That Rascal Robin" was written by Nancy Schmidt, a Washington School teacher, and will be produced by Camile Hayden and Julie Hermiston. Anne Wischusen will direct the show, assisted by Nancy Schmidt.

Linda Hochberg Halsband, hair stylist at Morgan's in Westfield, will be the speaker at the Westfield Service League meeting on Thursday, Nov. 15, 9:45 a.m., at Echo Lake Country Club. Hair styles to fit personalities and life styles rather than age and face shapes will be discussed. Blow drying will be demonstrated with Margot Komar. Other models will be Bunny Block, Peggy Myers, Mark Halsband and Elizabeth Frank.

Garden State Antiques Fair at Armory

Seventy-five exhibitors from nine states will participate in the Garden State Antiques Fair and Sale on Nov. 9, 10 and 11, at the Westfield Armory, 500 Rahway Ave. The box office will be open from noon to 10 p.m. Friday and Saturday and from noon to 6 p.m. Sunday.

Produced by JML Shows, the fall edition of the semi-annual event will offer a wide selection of country and formal furniture, fine paintings and prints, European and Asiatic porcelains, English and American silver, early American glass, lamps, bronzes, quilts and laces, jewelry, art deco and nouveau items, pottery, posters, rare and limited edition books and much more.

Special features at this event include a Vintage Radio Repair Clinic during all show hours, and a Chipped Glass Repair Clinic on Saturday and Sunday only.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Di Louie will be one of four homes featured during the Rake and Hoe Garden Club's Christmas Standard Home Show, Dec. 5, 1-5 and 7-8:30 p.m.

Homes Prepare for Christmas Tour

"A Fairy Tale" will be the theme of the home of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Di Louie, one of four homes that will be featured during the Rake and Hoe Garden Club's Christmas Standard Home Show, "The Nutcracker," to be held Dec. 5, 1-5 and 7-8:30 p.m.

The show's theme is based on Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker Suite." Artistic arrangements throughout the house are eligible for the Creativity Award. The Conservation Committee of the Club will decorate the Christmas tree.

The Rake and Hoe Garden Club is a YWCA sponsored organization and has designated all proceeds for educational and community projects. Tickets may be purchased at the YWCA desk or from any member of the club.

Pre-Bazaar and Garage Sale

The Greater Westfield Chapter of Women's American ORT will hold a pre-bazaar and garage sale, featuring new and used merchandise on Thursday, Nov. 8 at 624 Willow Grove Rd. from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Beauty Consultant to Address Club

Mrs. Eleanor K. Nelson of Westfield, a color analyst and consultant, will address the Amity Club of Westfield at its Wednesday, Nov. 14 luncheon meeting at the Jade Isle Restaurant, Scotch Plains. The program is "Personal Beauty Potential."

Mrs. Nelson, a consultant and director with "Beauty For All Seasons," Idaho Falls, Idaho, will present and demonstrate personal color analysis as it relates to accessories, make-up, hair and wardrobe.

Married to a native Westfielder, Herbert, and the mother of three sons, Mrs. Nelson is president of the Fifth Wheel, the Women's Evening Guild and chairman of Worship and Music. She holds a B.S. in home economics from Cedar Crest College and has taught at the Fanwood-Scotch Plains Adult School.

Art School Offers Santa's Workshop

Santa's Workshop, five special arts and crafts classes for children age three to five, will be offered by the Christine Loeber Children's Art School, 645 Roosevelt St. Classes will be held 10 to 11 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m., beginning Tuesday, Nov. 20.

Mrs. Sherry Woodruff, art teacher at the Christopher Academy School in Westfield, will be the instructor.

Christine Loeber established her school in 1960 and teaches elementary and teen classes Tuesday through Friday. Mrs. Woodruff teaches pre-school on Mondays. For enrollment, contact the school.

Color-Analyst to Give Program

The Mountainside Woman's Club will hold its monthly meeting at L'Affaire, Rt. 22 W., on Nov. 14 at 12 noon. Entertainment will be provided by Sherri Austin, a professional color-analyst.

Members are reminded to make their resrvations with Mrs. Florence Britoon no later than the Friday before the meeting.

Jubilee Bazaar

OBITUARIES

Muriel E. Reynolds

Memorial services will be held at St. Paul's Episcopal Church at 1 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 24, for Muriel E. Reynolds, 81, who died Oct. 8 at the Norwalk, Conn., Hospital. The Rev. David Deppen, rector, will officiate at the services.

Born in Waterbury, Conn., Miss Reynolds was a 50-year resident of Westfield and had lived in the Duncan Hill apartments before moving to Westport, Conn., six years ago.

She was retired as an assistant secretary and manager of the shareholders relations division in the secretary's department of Exxon Corp. in New York. A 1924 graduate of Wheaton College, she received an honorary doctorate of humane letters from Wheaton in 1960. An emerita trustee of Wheaton College, she was a member of the Wheaton Club of New Jersey and a life member of the Girl Scouts of America.

Miss Reynolds also was secretary of the World Foundation for Girl Guides and Girl Scouts Inc., a member of the New York City chapter of the Women's National Republican Club, a national member of the American Association of University Women and a member of the Westfield AARP.

Surviving are a brother, Samuel H. Reynolds of Carmel, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Susan R. Resko of Westport and several nieces and nephews.

Private interment in the garth of St. Paul's Church was at the convenience of the family. Services were arranged by the Spear Funeral Home, Fairfield, Conn. Memorial contributions may be made to the Girl Scouts of America, 830 Third Ave., New York, N.Y., or St. Paul's Church.

Shirley Kantor

Shirley Kantor, 72, of Westfield, died Oct. 31 at Overlook Hospital, Summit.

Born in Newark she lived in Springfield before moving to Westfield.

She worked out of her home for the Quaker City Packing Co. of Allentown, Pa., for 12 years, before retiring 10 years ago.

She was a member of Hadassah, the B'nai B'rith and Deborah, all of Springfield.

She is survived by her daughter, Millicent Brody of Westfield; two brothers, Robert Krieger of Orange, Harry Krieger of Highland Beach, Fla.; a sister, Eve Katcher of South Orange; and two grandsons.

Services were held Nov. 1, at the Menorah Chapels at Millburn, Union.

Bruno Romagnano

Bruno Romagnano, 77, died Thursday, Nov. 1, after a brief illness.

Born in New York City, Mr. Romagnano lived in Linden and Branchburg before moving to Westfield in 1947. He also maintained a winter residence in Boca Raton, Fla.

Mr. Romagnano retired in 1969 after 39 years as owner and founder of Rudy's Armature Service, Rahway.

Mr. Romagnano was a former chairman of both the Branchburg Planning Board and Board of Education.

He also was a former member of the New Jersey State Planning Board and the Somerville Elks.

He was a communicant of St. Helen's R.C. Church and was a member of its building committee.

Mr. Romagnano and his wife, Mrs. Kathryn Clapsazell Romagnano, celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary in October.

Also surviving are a son, Rudolph W., with whom he lived; a sister, Mrs. Madeline Rienzo of West End; a brother, John of Rahway; four grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

A Mass of Christian Burial was held Monday morning at St. Helen's Church following services at the Dooley Colonial Home, 556 Westfield Ave. Interment was in St. Gertrude's Cemetery, Colonia.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Center for Hope, 1379 Morris Ave., Union, N.J. 07083.

Morton Brody

Morton Brody, 65, of Elizabeth, whose two sons live in Westfield, died Nov. 1, at Elizabeth General Hospital, Elizabeth.

Born in Newark he lived in Elizabeth for 30 years.

Mr. Brody was the leader of the Mort Brody Orchestra for 25 years. His orchestra performed at bar mitzvahs, weddings and other social functions. After retiring as a band leader, he owned the New Jersey Transcription Service, Elizabeth for 10 years.

He was a member of the American Federation of Musicians, Local 16 in Newark and Local 151 in Elizabeth. He was a past master of the Mount Nebo Lodge of F & AM, Westfield, a 32nd degree mason at the Salaam Temple, Livingston,and the Scottish Rite.

Mr. Brody served in the Army during World War II.

Surviving are his wife, Zell; two sons, Marc and Fred both of Westfield; a brother, Philip Brody of South Orange; a sister, Frances Kantor of Springfield; and two grandchildren.

Services were held Nov. 2 at the Menorah Chapels at Millburn, Union.

Virginia M. Briguglio

Virginia M. Briguglio, 85, of Westfield, died Sunday, Nov. 4, in her home after a brief illness.

Miss Briguglio was born in Mandanici, Italy, and moved to the United States, residing in Westfield for 65 years.

She was a seamstress for many years in the Plainfield area and was a member of the United Garment Workers Union.

Surviving are her cousins, Joseph and Silvio Papandrea, both of Westfield; Frank Papandrea of Garwood; Oliver Papandrea of Lacoma Hills, Calif.; Mrs. Rose Colucci of Roselle; Mrs. Julia Lonsdale of Vista, Calif.; and Joseph Giuntra of Ontario, Can.

Services were held yesterday at Gray's Funeral Home, 318 East Broad St. Interment followed at Fairview Cemetery.

"Pumpkin" Winners Named

Ashbrook Nursing Home's fourth annual "Guess the Weight of Our Pumpkin Contest" ended with a trick or treat party on Saturday, Oct. 27.

The weight of the great pumpkin was 247.25 pounds and the first prize of $50 went to Denise Ann Feley, age 11, of South Plainfield who guessed 248 pounds. Second and third prizes went to Staci Teitelbaum, age 10 of Springfield and David Griffith, age 4, of Westfield. They both guessed 250 pounds and were each awarded $25.

Scotch Plains Mayor Irene Schmidt presented the children with their prize money. Mayor Schmidt also presented to the Ashbrook Resident's Council a New Jersey State flag from State Sen. Donald DiFrancesco. Resident Council representative Christine Reusch accepted the flag, stating that it would be flown with the American flag which was presented to Ashbrook earlier this year and had flown over the capitol in Washington, D.C.

Haunted Squad Building a Success

The Mountainside Rescue Squad hosted its version of a "Haunted Squad Building" on Halloween night from 6-9 p.m. The Rescue Squad's volunteer first aiders decided that a safe and entertaining alternative to trick or treating was needed. Flyers were sent out to local grade schools inviting students to attend the free event.

Although the turn-out to the haunting was much greater than expected, the 350 children who attended all received refreshments, Rescue Squad coloring books and gifts. Each child had the opportunity to be video taped by Squad member Robert Willard. The tape was reviewed Monday night by members of the squad and prizes were awarded with the help of area merchants.

Attractions at the haunted squad building included a witch's cauldron, dracula, a vampire, two mad scientists "operating" on a live victim, a hand straight out of "the Adams Family" and a variety of ghosts and goblins. Co-chairmen of the attraction Linda Bongiovanni and Ruth Keuler promise an even more elaborate show next year.

The event was held with the cooperation of Echo Lanes, Wendys, Friendlys, Dunkin Donuts and especially the Scotch Plains McDonald, and the Mountainside Police Department which helped with the unexpected turn-out, and other merchants and individuals who were not mentioned above.

Membership in the Mountainside Rescue Squad is open to anyone living within five miles of the Rescue Squad who is 16 years of age or older. Membership in the newly formed auxiliary is open to anyone 14 years of age or older. For information, call the Rescue Squad's non-emergency number.

First - Time Buyers Often Start Out in Smaller Homes

Declines in the level of housing affordability over the past six years have led to major changes in the homebuying market, according to the Westfield Board of Realtors, according to Betty Thiel, president of the Westfield Board of Realtors. The Housing Affordability Index of the National Associations of Realtors shows that the typical American family has not been able to afford the median-priced existing home since November 1978. While this index improved dramatically during 1983 and the first part of 1984, the affordability level for homes has been slipping in recent months.

This has a dramatic impact on younger, first-time homebuyers. Instead of buying a single-family detached home, many are starting out in lower-priced condominiums. However, many young couples continue to buy single-family homes.

While the median resale home nationwide sells for about $74,300, the typical family with an income in the range of $25,700 can afford a home priced about $61,600. In the last few months, approximately one-third of all existing homes sold were priced under $60,000.

What this means is that first-time buyers must often lower their sights and start out in a smaller home. A recent survey of 750 people in 15 metropolitan areas, conducted by "Multi-Housing News," shows that more buyers are willing to accept smaller living quarters than they were a year ago.

The most popular size for a home is in the range of 1,000 to 1,500 square feet. Homebuyers interested in smaller units (less than 1,000 square feet) increased to 24 percent this year from 15 percent last year.

Some economists believe that the trend toward condominiums and townhouses will continue, especially during periods of high interest rates and increasing home prices. Buyers seem to be more interested in the amenities of both a home and its surrounding community than they are in the size of the unit.

If a larger home is of particular importance, potential buyers should not overlook the possibility of below-market seller-financing and assumption of low-interest FHA or VA loans, the Westfield Board of Realtors said.

Girls Win County Soccer Championship

By Kerry Lucke

The WHS girls soccer team captured its fourth consecutive Union County title Saturday night by defeating Governor Livingston 2-0 in Elizabeth. The team also defeated Johnson Regional, by a score of 6-0 and advanced in the state tournament with victories over Livingston 5-0 and Wayne Valley 6-2.

The first seeded Westfield team met second seeded Governor Livingston under the lights for a defensive battle. Despite 35 WHS shots on goal, only two managed to penetrate a strong Governor Livingston goalie.

Earlier in the second quarter Wendy Maher scored the game winning goal. Maher booted in a pass from Parizeau. The only other score of the game came from Karen Voorhees in the fourth quarter. Voorhees received a pass from Parizeau and brought the ball up and in for the score.

Kirssy Jeremiah displayed her offensive strength by using her footwork to fake out the Governor Livingston defense several times.

Parizeau was also an offensive key as she kept control of the ball despite the pack of surrounding Governor Livingston players.

The girls' defense proved to be strong as it limited Governor Livingston to nine shots on goal.

On one occasion, goalie Linda Mike was forced out of the goal to make a save. The ball got past Mike, and Erin Doyle came in to clear the hall away. Doyle demonstrated such defense throughout the game.

Di Telling consistently cleared the ball away from the WHS goal to add to the strong defense.

The team quickly advanced in state tournament play with two victories.

Leading scorers thus far in state tournament play are Parizeau with four goals and five assists, Maher with two goals and two assists and K. Voorhees with two goals and one assist.

The girls are hoping to continue thier success as they are closing in on the state title.

WHS halfback Mark Giacone finds an opening in the Raiders' defense. He rushed for 60 yards on eight carries against Scotch Plains in a 14-14 tie last Saturday in Westfield.

Devils Tie Plains

BY BILL PENDZUK

When rival teams meet, both of them usually are anxious to settle the score. Unfortunately, when the final gun sounded after the Scotch Plains-Westfield clash last Saturday, the result was a 14-14 tie.

WHS seemed to be in command of this game after taking a 14-0 lead in the second quarter. WHS's second touchdown came about as the Blue Devils' defense held the Raiders deep in their own territory and forced them to punt. WHS took over at the Raiders' 30 yard-line.

On fourth down and six yards to go, quarterback Tony Tiller threw a screen pass to Mike Stagaard, who rambled 25 yards for the TD to give WHS a 14-0 lead.

In the third quarter, the Raiders moved the ball well behind quarterback Dale Cox (12 out of 23 for 117 yards) and halfback Bob Montagna (14 carries 64 yards). Scotch Plains marched 72 yards on 13 plays as Cox completed three passes for 36 yards. Montagna climaxed the drive by running seven yards for the score and Mark Drozik added the conversion to pull the Raiders within 14-7.

During the end of the third quarter and the beginning of the fourth, Scotch Plains held the ball for more than five minutes as they marched 60 yards in 11 plays. Montagna rushed for 31 yards during the drive and ran 15 yards for the game-tying TD.

Westfield scored its first TD as Scotch Plains fumbled the opening kick-off and Andy Kendeigh recovered at the Raiders' 16. On its first play from scrimmage, WHS scored as Mark Giacone scampered 16 yards for the score. Kendeigh added the extra point for WHS.

In the game Giacone and Stagaard combined for 113 yards, (Giacone, eight carries-60 yards, Stagaard, 11-53 yards). WHS gained 95 yards rushing, outgaining its season average of 87 yards. Westfield now prepares to take on Irvington next Saturday in Westfield. Irvington (0-6-1) has not won a game this season but they have a good defense led by senior Louis Baker, who last week against Plainfield returned a fumble 31 yards.

Sidebottom, Carnevale Lead Booters to Title

Rob Sidebottom has two goals and Joe Carnevale had a goal and two assists to lead the Westfield High School boys' varsity soccer team to a 4-1 victory over New Providence and the Union County Championship.

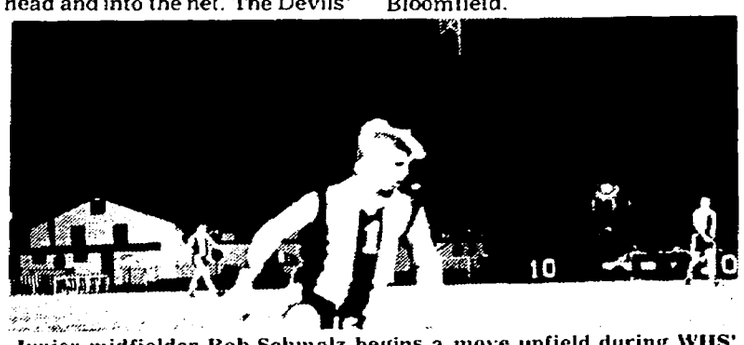
The game marked the Devils sixth consecutive appearance in the UCT finals and their fourth title in the last six years. WHS lost to Pingry in last year's finals.

The Devils had taken a 3-0 lead midway through the third quarter, but gave up on own goal to make the score 3-1. However, Westfield put the game out of reach when Carnevale put a high, arching corner kick in front of the net where Rob Schmalz put it into the goal to insure the devil victory.

WHS first goal came in the second quarter on an excellent play by Sidebottom. Carnevale crossed the ball into the penalty area where Sidebottom, with his back to the net, kicked the ball over his head and into the net. The Devils' next goal was scored in the third quarter when Sidebottom headed in a Schmalz free kick, and Carnevale scored Westfield's third goal on a pass from Gregg Schmalz.

The Devils outshot New Providence 27-6 and much of Westfield's domination was due to the outstanding play of WHS fullbacks Chris Capano, Jim Miller, Taylor Wright, Mike Drury and Alfie Priscoe. Capano was especially effective in putting New Providence's clearing attempts back into the New Providence zone. Devil goalie Dave Zupko only had to make three saves but he played well and nearly garnered his thirteenth shutout of the year.

Westfield is now ranked tenth in the state by the Star Ledger and faced ninth-ranked Governor Livingston Tuesday (too late for Leader deadline) The Devils begin state tournament play this week against either Livingston or Bloomfield.



Junior midfielder Rob Schmalz begins a move upfield during WHS' victory over New Providence. Schmalz had a goal and an assist in the game.

Basketball Signup Begins Tomorrow

The Westfield Basketball Association has announced that registration for the 1984-85 season will take place at the YMCA from 7:30 to 9 p.m. tomorrow. Children can also be enrolled on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Leagues are organized by grade. This year there are six different leagues: 4th grade; 5th grade; 6th grade; 7th grade; 8th and 9th grades; 10th, 11th and 12th grades; and the girls league for young ladies from 5th -8th grades. All games are played on Saturday.

Netsters Win Two More

By Gary Winzelberg

The Westfield High School girls' tennis team won against Kearny and Elizabeth 5-0, 4½-½ respectively to raise its record to 22-2 as several netsters saw action for the first time this season. In spite of its latest wins the team remained as the second ranked team in Union County behind Summit and unranked in the top 20 state poll.

Amy Briemer was moved up to first singles against Kearny as she won her match 6-0, 6-0. Second singles player Colleen Gorman and third singles player Christine Niedzwiecki both won by the same score as Briemer.

At first doubles, Amy Kaminstein and Grace Liang also won easily (6-0, 6-0) and Kelly Liang and Amy Lanam played for the first time this season as they took a 6-1, 6-1 decision in second doubles play.

The netsters also dominated their match with Elizabeth. Linda Katsch, who normally plays third singles, won 6-2, 7-5 in her first ever first singles encounter. At second singles Gorman won 6-2, 6-2 for her second victory during the week. Niedzwiecki also won convincingly at third singles.

In the doubles action, the first doubles tandem of Kaminstein and Liang won again by a 6-0, 6-0 score. At second doubles, Mary Ann Bekkedahl and Susan Rothstein played in their first match of the season as they won the first set 6-0. They were also leading in the second set 1-0 when the match was ended because of darkness and called a draw. Each team split the one point that the match was worth.

Both Kearny and Elizabeth were Watchung Conference foes, and the netsters have an undefeated 19-0 record in conference matches. In fact, only four of the netsters' conference matches have not been decided by 5-0 scores. The team played its last match of the season last Monday against Union (too late for Leader coverage).

Harriers Qualify For State Finals

The Westfield boys' varsity cross country team qualified for a spot in the State Group IV finals by placing fifth in the State Sectionals in Warinanco Park on Saturday.

Westfield's score of 129 was more than twice that of first place, Newark East Side, who had a score of 49. The other teams to defeat Westfield were Morristown, Phillipsburg and Morris Knolls.

Tim Yockel was Westfield's first finisher. He finished 11th overall with a time of 17:19. Jon Dowell placed 16th at 17:30. Tim Brennan finished 29th in 17:47. Bill Esbeck placed 36th with an 18:01. Mike Vedisco finished the Westfield scoring with a 43rd place finish in 18:40. The Westfield effort was completed by Dan Soucek and George Roscoe, who finished 58th and 61st respectively.

Earlier in the week the harriers completed an undefeated dual meet season by beating Union. Yockel again led the team with a second place finish. Dowell finished fourth and Brennan, Esbeck, Roscoe and Verdisco took the next four places for Westfield. Dan Soucek completed the effort with an 11th place finish.

On Saturday the harriers will compete in the State Group IV Championships in Holmdel.

Receiving awards at the Westfield Tennis Association annual meeting are Diane D'Almeida, #1 women's singles; Chuck Hardwick, #1 men's singles, B-division; Lee Perry and Eveleen Sharpe, #1 women's doubles. Other winners were John McLoughlin, #1 men's A-division; Bruce Phillips and Dorothy Graf, #1 mixed doubles; Irwin Bernstein, #1 men's senior singles; most active players, Paul Egan, Barbara Walker.

Girls Ninth In Sectionals

By Penny Patsuris

In the last competition of the season the WHS girls' cross country team placed ninth in the state sectionals Saturday at Warinanco Park, Elizabeth.

The team competed against nine others and scored 215 pts. Coach Tom Hornish feels that the team performed to its best ability. Unfortunately, they were just not competitive enough. To be an effective team WHS needed five girls in between 21:30 and 23:00. However, while the rest of the team ran at their usual performance level, Ellen Splaine, Lisa Broadwell and Sheila Grimes did have their best seasonal efforts.

Last Tuesday the team met with Union at Warinanco. It was an easy win for WHS, with 20 pts. over Union's 42. It was on this note that the girls ended an excellent dual meet season with a record of five wins and two losses.

Despite poor results at the Watchung Conference, Coach Hornish is happy with the team's seasonal performance. The team's proudest achievement was placing second at the Union County Championships.

With graduation, the team will have lost better than half its varsity team. Nevertheless, Coach Hornish is optimistic as to the potential of the underclassmen in the 1985 season.

Jets Defeat Berkeley Heights

The Jets played their best game of the season as they defeated Berkeley Heights 24-8.

The Jets' powerful ground game was at its best as they made three long drives for their scores. Midway in the first period the Jets were forced back by a clipping penalty and began a drive from their own 25 yard line. Behind explosive blocking by Erik Holton, Mike Payne, Sam Wunderlie and John Povalack the Jets moved to the games first score. Brian Cheek scored the TD on a short run over right tackle. Jim Monninger threw the key block with Brian Legan and Billy Campaniele opening the hole for Brian. Jeff Suto kicked his first of three consecutive conversions for the 8-0 lead.

The Jets next TD came as a result of a 65 yard drive. On this drive Ryan Gardiner had a fine series as he made several long gains. His 22 yard run down to the six yard line set up Brian Cheek for Brian's second TD of the day. Ryan got his TD on the Jet's next possession as he raced 48 yards for a score. The defense for the winners was in control the entire game as they were not threatened until late in the game as the Jets were holding a 24 point lead. The defense was led by the inspired play of Ryan Manville, Wes Smittle and Brian Mueller. Brian's interception led to an early score.

In a 'C' division game the Eagles lost a very exciting game to Millburn 26-20. Ray Price scored twice for the Eagles; with Pat Monninger, Eugene Watkins and Danny Higgins playing well.

In the 'A' division game the Colts lost to Berkeley Heights 24-6. For the Colts good yardage was gained by Matt Brown, Jerry Benaquista, an d Shawn Brennan. On defense Eric Klezer, John Cristifoli, Ken Marsh and Billy Bonnetti had a good game making several fine tackles.

This week's schedule finds all three teams playing at Scotch Plains with the first game scheduled for 12 noon.

Field Hockey Season Ends at 4-8-4

by Betsy Maslin

WHS Field Hockey team played its final games last week and ended the season with a 4-8-4 record. Kent Place defeated Westfield 2-0, and Westfield tied Roselle Park 0-0.

Kent Place had 12 shots on goal and Westfield's goalie, Wendy James, saved 10. WHS had one shot on goal by Nancy Kasko.

Westfield dominated the scoreless game against Roselle Park. Carolee Ritter, Chris Gilgallon, Deneen Rolleri, Chris Brown and Kasko all had shots on goal, totalling nine, and Roselle Park had three attempts to score.

A strong defense was held for Westfield by sweeper Sue Fraser, halfbacks Melissa Brunhouse, Kasko and Betsy Maslin, and links Gilgallon and Carolyn Henn.

The forward line of Mary Tweedie, Ritter, Brown, and substitutes Julie Dietz and Sandra Sharpe, made numerous rushes at the goal.

Westfield was due to play a make up game last Friday against East Brunswick, but it was cancelled and will not be made up, therefore Westfield will have no chance of improving their 4-8-4 record.

Coach Marge McFadden stated, "While our record may not show it, this year's team played well and deserves a lot of credit for the effort they put forth this season and I'm looking forward to a better showing next year."

Gymnasts Up Record, Edged for County Title

By Sarah Kreisman

The WHS gymnastics team brought its record to 9 wins and 1 loss as it defeated Johnsen Regional 98.55 to 94.7. The team also placed second in the Union County Tournament last weekend, losing to Scotch Plains by 1.85 points.

The high scorer of the meet against Johnsen Regional was Chrissy Diaz with a total of 33.20 - 8.7 (vault), 7.95 (bars), 8.15 (beam), and 8.4 (floor).

The event high scorers in the meet were vault-Vernugopal (9.1), bars - Verdisco (8.5), beam - Diaz (8.15) and floor - Diaz (8.4).

In the county tournament individual awards went to Vernugopal - 4th all-around, 4th vault and 6th bars, Verdisco - 5th all-around, 2nd floor, 3rd bars, and 6th vault and Diaz - 3rd vault and floor and 6th beam.

Coach Anthony feels the team performed very well and congratulated all the gymnasts for such a fine job.

Sewing Instructor Needed

The Union County Cooperative Extension Service is seeking an adult, willing to spare a few hours a month to instruct members of the 4-H Clothing Club. The individual need not be a sewing expert.

Most 4-H Clubs are held twice a month at the home of the leader, at a local church or at the County Administration Building, 300 North Ave. East, Westfield.

Interested parties may contact Peggy Burkat at the Extension Service office.

Warriors Win 2 of 3, Remain in Title Hunt

By Mike Gagliardi

The Roosevelt Warrior 9th grade soccer team, nearing the end of their successful season, won two of three games last week.

The Warriors, who are 13-3 overall, trounced Chatham Borough last Monday 4-1. Center forward Karam Singh returned to the line up with a bang as he netted a hat trick. Singh, who was playing in his first game of the year after a serious ankle injury, scored on the first three shots he took. Also scoring for Roosevelt was Jeff Sherman on an assist from Singh.

Tuesday the team beat Union Burnet 3-2 in a game which was more one sided than the score indicates. Tallying for the Warriors were Brendan Flaherty with his team leading seventh goal, fullback Chris Emanuel netting his fifth, and Jeff Sherman putting in his third goal of the year. Nevertheless, the stubborn Union team kept the game close, but the Warriors maintained their poise and controlled the second half to preserve the victory.

On Thursday the Warriors played their third game in four days against one of their toughest rivals; Scotch Plains. It was a very physical, hard fought match as both sides had no love lost for each other. Scotch Plains had the better of the play in the first half and took a 1-0 lead in the second period. As the fourth quarter started the score remained the same with 'Plains applying pressure on the Warriors. But Roosevelt suddenly turned the tables and started to exert their own pressure. Unfortunately it was not meant to be for the warriors as some unlucky breaks hurt their chances and the final score stayed 1-0. Playing strong games for Roosevelt were Kirk Poddle, John McCall, and Ron Eibshutz.

FREE KICKS: The Warriors, now 13-2 and in second place in the Watchung Conference, had a shot at the championship this Tuesday (too late for Leader deadline) with an all important game against powerhouse Kearny who has only one loss, that loss coming at the hands of Roosevelt. A win by the Warriors would eliminate Kearny from title hopes, however, even if the ninth graders win they could end up in a tie with Scotch Plains and the outcome is uncertain at this time. Warriors closed out their season this morning with a game against Rahway. . .

Eye Openers
THE COST OF CONTACT LENSES
Q. Why are contact lenses generally more expensive than glasses?
A. Actually, the cost of the lenses themselves may be less expensive. What you are paying for is the time and exacting skill needed to measure, prescribe, verify, modify and ultimately fit the lenses into your eyes. There is also continuous follow-up care to assure the safety of your eyes and the comfort of your lenses.
Price shopping for contact lenses does your eyes and your vision a disservice. You should choose the optometrist who has a reputation for fitting successful contact lenswearers, who is thorough with the initial examination and the required follow-up examinations. The optometrist will be totally familiar with the various types of lenses, and will explain which are appropriate for you, and when to call for help. Only a reputable professional can supply this type of service.

Westfield's Sean Murphy Leads Tigers to Ranking

Sean Murphy

Junior flanker Sean Murphy, a product of Westfield High School, has ranked among the top pass receivers in NCAA Division II for the Towson State University football team and has led the Tigers to a 7-2-0 record and a number ten national ranking this season.

Murphy, a 5-10, 167-lb. veteran, has been one of the Tigers' top offensive performers this season. Through nine games, he has 51 pass receptions for 859 yards and seven touchdowns. With two games remaining in the Tigers' season, he needs only 11 catches to set a new TSU single season record for pass receptions.

A speedy receiver with great moves, he enjoyed one of his best game of the season at the University of Delaware, catching five passes for 120 yards and two touchdowns. It marked the second time this season that he caught a pair of TD passes in a game as he had a pair of scores in the Tigers' 52-27 win over New Haven earlier this season.

Murphy, who was an All-County performer at Westfield for Coach Gary Kehler, is currently the third-ranked pass receiver in TSU school history. His 95 catches leave him only 32 behind TSU's all-time receiving leader Bob Remeto, who had caught 127 passes in his Tiger career.

"Sean's been quite an asset for us this season," says Tiger Coach Phil Albert, who guided the Tigers to a 10-2 record and the Lambert Award as the top Division II team in the East last season. "Teams have tried to double cover him and intimidate him, but he still comes up with the big plays for us."

Murphy, who has been averaging 16.8 yards per catch, has teamed with Tiger quarterback Kurt Beathard to give the tigers an explosive passing combination. Beathard is the son of Washington Redskin general manager Bobby Beathard. His best game as a receiver this season came against California when he caught eight passes for 150 yards. He also caught eight passes in a 21-7 win at C.W. Post.

The Tigers, who are looking for their second straight NCAA Division II playoff berth, return to action on Saturday against Morgan State University. TSU closes out the regular season on Nov. 17 against James Madison University at Minnegan Stadium.

FALL SOCCER RESULTS
what a kick

BOYS SOCCER
Westfield Rockets 2, Mendham '73, 0
The Rockets recorded their third straight shoutout behind the defensive work of a superb fullback line.
With left fullback Christian Lesher repeatedly blasting the ball downfield, Paul Jordan stealing the ball countless times at his center fullback post, and right fullback Paul Cavalchire driving corner kicks to pinpoint positions, the Rockets were able to halt any serious scoring attempts by the Mendham line.
To date, the Rockets' defensive unit, including strong goalkeeper Brian Schackman, has given us but four goals in seven games in Mid-Jersey League competition. The Rockets remain undefeated in the division, and will wrap up the championship with victories in the upcoming two contests.
The Rockets' goals came on a 20-yard boot by left halfback Kevin Cashman, and on a smash from the foot of right wing Mark Cagnassola. Despite the presence of a strong Mendham defensive team, the Westfield forwards, including David Sprague, Peter Lehmkuhl, Chris McCall, Michael Reiss and Robbie Megalughlin, were able to move into scoring position often. Pressure was applied to Mendham by halfbacks Doug Augis, Junior DiDario and Ross Martin.
Bob Lister is the Rockets' coach, with Jim Augis, assistant.

Traveling Team
Westfield Tornado 1
Livingston Lightning 1
The Westfield Tornado made a fine showing this past Sunday against the top ranked team in their division, the Livingston Lightning, with an impressive 1 to 1 tie. Livingston scored off a penalty kick early in the first quarter, Mike McIntyre evened the score in the second quarter off a combination by Jon Fahey and Mike Brawer, and the balance of the game was a defensive contest between both teams.
MVP Jon Meyer played an outstanding game in goal and as center fullback. Fullbacks Jason Meyer, Adam Pizzi, Charlie Foley, and Taber Loree combined for an awesome defense which foiled every Lightning scoring attempt. Mark Gilrain rounded out the effort with 11 saves in goal. Halfbacks Lee Topar, Mike Brawer, Jon Fahey, John Fox, and Will Rhodes showed fine hustle which kept Livingston out of scoring range. Forwards Klaus Dolling, Taber Loree, Mike McIntyre, Joel Urciardi and Glen Kurz did well against a strong Lightning defense.

Coventry 1 - Liverpool 0
Coventry downed Liverpool for the third time this season in the playoff opener, a 1-0 squeaker. Dan Haag in goal shutout Liverpool for three quarters. Ian Rhodes, fourth quarter goalie for Coventry, made a major save to keep it that way.
The only score came on a shot by Greg Johnson set up by excellent offensive teamwork and passing. Tom Hanlon at center halfback for Coventry played aggressively both on offense and defense. Adam Bottorff at center fullback swept his area clean with outside help from Greg Carlow and Andy Cosewith.
Notable for Liverpool was their defense — Adam Cherensky in goal, Tom Marshall, Bruce Lowe and Peter Sanaman at fullback. Midfielders who challenged the ball and kept the action brisk were J.C. Feeney, Kevin Coulter, Pat Rork, Rich Rhodes and Matt Fontana.

Coventry 2 - Leeds 1
Coventry has gained power as a team in the playoffs. Every player contributed excellence to the victory over Leeds in double sudden-death overtime. Dan Haag starred in goal in the half and scored the game winner at center forward on lead passes of near perfection from center halfback Tom Hanlon to Adam Bottorff on right wing to Haag.
Best efforts of the season came from Andy Cozewith, Greg Carlow and Derek Henwood at fullback. They kept Ian Rhodes secure in goal through the second half and overtime periods. Midfield was controlled by Keith Hertell, Jared Barbin, Ryan Donnelly and the constant gutsy headsup play of Tom Hanlon at center half. Coventry's forwards Greg Johnson, Peter McDevitt, Kevin Knuettel and Ben Bradley tested Leed's goalie Kevin Deneker's fine talent.
Other Leed's standouts include calm, surefooted Jeremy Burgess at center fullback, Scott Ghedine at halfback and Dave Brieman at center half.

Division IV
U.S.A. 4 - Peru 1
U.S.A. started its playoff tournament with one of its best team efforts of the '84 season. Each player from the best to the least gave his all for a solid victory for U.S.A.
Peru, however, was not easily overpowered as an outstanding performance as turned in by goalkeeper Steve Koraj. He held the U.S.A. at bay for the first quarter keeping the score zero to zero.
U.S.A. came back in the second quarter with a vengence. Goals were scored by Marc LaCarrubba with an assist by J.P. Maloney. Bryan Rogers deflected a shot of a Peru player for the second score.
Peru came back in the third quarter on a goal by Eric Pepper with an assist from Frank Rohm. Peru struggled to score the tying goal but were stopped by the excellent play of Jim Perry (who turned in an exceptional performance), Jon Taylor, Matt Gilrain, Josh Cooper and Kevin Toth.
U.S.A. then reached down into their well of strength and led by the outstanding play of midfielders, Matt Robinson (who played his best game to date), J.P. Maloney, Bob Wilson, Bryan Rogers, Stephane Bouvet and Michael Doerr came charging back. Goals were scored by Marc LaCarrubba and Tommy Nelson. Also playing well on the front line were Jim Cahrlesworth and George Hayden.
Playing well for Peru was Joel Kamins at halfback.
Guillermo Pinczuk turned in another stellar performance in goal.

USA 7 - England 0
In the regular season finale, Team USA stopped a determined team England in their tracks. England fought with great resolution during the first half of play but were over powered on goals by George Hayden, Tommy Nelson, Marc LaCarrubba, Michael Doerr, Kevin Toth, Bryan Rogers and Bob Wilson.
USA's defense was tested several times but the outstanding play of Jon Taylor, Jim Perry, Matt Gilrain, Josh Cooper, Stephen Bouvet and Matt Robinson kept England in its own territory. Guillermo Pinczuk turned in his usually good performance as goal keeper.

Germany 3 - Italy 0
Germany defeated a tough Italy team on the strength of three second half goals. The first half was a classic defensive struggle. Germany had scoring opportunities as wings Josh DelMonico, Matt Clark and Jason Sabatino brought the ball up, but these were turned away by Italian fullbacks Ben Spirn, Chris Spina and Jeff Maynard and excellent goal keeping by Billy Bradley. Italy retaliated as forwards Jeff Birchall and Grant Cowell mounted the attack backed by Alfie Perez. Germany fullbacks Michael Lalor, Bryan Zenner and Billy Egan responded with long clearing kicks. Italy's best scoring chance came on Jeff Hughes' driving kick but Germany's goal keeper Chris Infantino smothered the shot.
In the third quarter center half Eric Koons put Germany on the boards taking the ball off nice footwork by Robert Berry and Matt Devlin and driving it high into the goal. Then left wing Kalvin Wise found center forward Jay Ball with a pass in front of the goal, and Ball blasted in the shot. Chris Wojcik completed the scoring with a corner kick that ricocheted off another player and into the goal.

Ireland 3 - Chile 1
Ireland was victorious in its first round playoff game against a valiant Chile team. With good basic soccer, Ireland dominated the first half, largely through the outstanding efforts of the fullbacks Mark Kostro, Corey Walsh and Ron Swist, who kept the Chile offense from getting untracked. Chile did score first, however, on a beautiful volley by CF Matt Fahey off a hard drive by CF Kurt Duchek. Ireland struck right back as CF Dan Keenan found the corner of the Chile goal. Ireland kept the pressure on throughout the period with good midfield play by HBs Dave Goldner, Matt Connell and Sean Mulvaney. Ireland's second score came on a tremendous free kick by CF Dan DiCleriro from 30 yards out.
Early in the second half Ireland CF Corey Walsh got inside the Chile defense and blasted one to the back of the net. Down by two goals, Chile was undaunted and made a great comeback in the fourth quarter as their fullback corps of Chris Battiloro, Scott Desch, Steve Shelton and Andrew Olson along with goalie Casey Norr, shutdown the Ireland offense and triggered the Chile attack. The Chile front line, backed by the fine play of CHB Woody Weldon, made repeated charges on the Ireland goal and only the exceptional play of keeper Jeff Roegen kept Chile from snatching victory from the jaws of defeat.

Brazil 2 - Sweden 1
In a well-played, close contest Brazil bested Sweden 2-1. Josh Polak scored first for Brazil on a beautiful flip off Michael Smith's centering pass. Sweden's Matt Fountain evened the score on a penalty kick. Brazil regained the lead in the third period on a boot by Tom Oravez. Thereafter the teams played evenly, the big play being Brazil goalie Dan Kelly's fantastic stop of a penalty kick.
Brazil fullbacks Andrew Luka, Marc Zemel and Fred Thum, and sweeper Shawn Feeney, stopped thrusts by Sweden wings Paco Gonzales and Casper Schelbye. Brazil midfielders Todd Luka, Lawrence Showlety, Hal Connolly, Jeff DeVito, Jeremy Barbib, and Jeff Weisslitz constantly moved the ball downfield, while Sweden Halfback Matt Sheehy and fullback Mike Steerman helped to repeatedly stop Brazil.

France 5 - England 2
France defeated a courageous England team in the first of its three playoff games. Eric Swart played very well, scoring two goals, one on a nice assist from Joey Agnone, Brian Partelow kept up his scoring blitz by adding two more goals with the help of forward David Weber and halfbacks Jason Goluch and Jay Lorch. Joey Agnone scored the fifth goal with great teamwork from Eddie Pretre.
Defensively, Robbie Moore, Micah Best, Jay Matino, and John Bottini, led by Center Fullback Tony Saliola, thwarted England's offensive drives. Garth Burrill played very tough in defending France's goal!
England's Leonard Stern scored their first goal with an assist from Greg Sturcke, and Justin Burchett scored on a pass from Scott Murphy. Goalie Brian Muzas played very well, stopping numerous shots by France's offense.

Canada 4 - Argentina 1
The Canada team displayed a well balanced attack Sunday defeating Argentina 4-1. Canada's first goal was scored by forward Billy McIntyre. Canada quickly responded by a blast from left wing Andrew Klein. Stephen Leong scored on a fine assist from Jason Brown. Matt Sklar and center halfback Jimmy Chmielak did a fine job controlling the midfield. Ian Lauer did a fine job at fullback along with Patrick Glynn and Eric Hellen. Joey Ciccione tallied Canada's fourth goal on a blast from the right side. In the second half, Robby Mason did an excellent job at rover. Larry Epstein and Carl Jordan made many fine clearing kicks for Canada. Steve Rennyson did a superb job in goal.
Chris Griffith played a fine game for Argentina. Tommy McGeary did a nice job for Argentina in goal. M. Halpin showed fine ball control for Argentina.

Mexico 5 - Denmark 2
On a brisk Sunday afternoon Mexico overwhelmed gallant Denmark with a display of agility and skill. Each teams offense was splendid but Mexico's defense made the difference. Justin LeWand scored 1 goal and Scott Goldberg and Chris Hartzell each scored 2 goals for a total of 5. Along with Ted Jansen and George Lasky they made up Mexico's offense. The super defense of Chris Choi at center fullback aided by fellow fullbacks Pat Regan and T.J. Bergeron and Phil Vinegra and Ted Danser as goalie held the stalwart Denmark to 2 goals. Halfbacks Ian Shuster, Mark Ligori and Rod Lindsay were equally adept at both offense and defense for the spirited Mexico team. Several Denmark players also displayed talent. Lee Frankel and Josh Altschultz each of whom scored for their team — halfback Mike Davidson and forward Josh Young also exhibited skill at their respective positions. It was a well played game with no penalties on either side.

Division V
Playoffs
Sharks 5 - Bobcats 1
The playoffs started for the Sharks and Bobcats with both teams showing strong defenses. The Sharks took a 2-0 on a 1st period goal by Marc Nienburg (who added another in the 3rd period) and a second period goal by Brendan Lesher. Strong defensive play by Bobcats' defenders Mike Schwehel, Brian Williams and Ted Pollack turned aside other 1st half scoring chances by the Sharks.
The Bobcats came out "smoking" in the 2nd half putting constant pressure on the Sharks' defenders and finally scored on a shot by David Villalobos. The "backbreaker" goal was headed by Lee Marer off a corner kick by Brendan Lisher. The final goal was scored by Ryuichi Saito on a penalty kick late in the game. The Shark defense of Fullbacks' Geoffrey Hinman and Mike Principio, Stopper Marc Spirn and Goalie Kevin Boyle played their usual outstanding game. Special mention should go to Joey Catanzaro who came off the "sick list" to have his finest game of the season.

Hornets 5 - Bisons 0
Ball control and crisp passes enabled the Hornets to win their opening game of the playoffs.
Goals by Jeff Haag (2) David Fela (2) Chris Manos (1) comprised the scoring attack of the Hornets. Assists where given to Rich Humphreys, Chris Manos and Brian Mc Guire. Midfield play by Gary McMillian, Brian Mc Guire, and Jeff Haag set up many scoring attempts of the Hornets. Exceptional defensive play by fullbacks Mike Skubish, Dylan Weiss, Jim Rowan, Rick Russo and Tom Vella denied the Bisons each time down the field. In goal for the Hornets was Mike Rosner who again was equal to the challange and saved several well placed shots on goal. Hornet forwards Greg Silverman and Chris Manos continued to show improvement and set up several shots on goal.
The Bisons attack was led by Greg Rhodes at center forward and James Howlett at center midfield. On defense JohnTonzola and Brian Ciemnicki at fullback with David Wells in goal played well dispite the cold wind and low temperature.

Jefferson Conference
Bulls 3 - Eagles 1
In a well played game, the Bulls came from behind to defeat the Eagles 3-1.
Adam Yannuzzi scored the first goal of the game on a great pass by Dennis McKeever. Dennis Schaller led the Eagle defense while playing an excellent game in goal. The Eagle forward line was led by David Broad and David Feeney.
Mike Ryan, Charles Salzman and Boomer Wertheimer spearheaded the Bulls by scoring one goal each. Seth Rosen led the defense with an outstanding performance in goal and assisted on one of the Bull goals.
Michael Albanese, Richard Broadhead, Chris DelMonico, Jim Flood, Jeff Harris, Sean McCarthy and Stephen Petrik maintained strong offensive pressure throughout the game. The tight defense was led by Mark Davidson, John O'Brien and Coleman Parker.

Gators 2 - Jaguars 1
The Gators defeated the Jaguars in a close, evenly matched contest. Scott Porhick opened the scoring for the Gators. Chris Vogel followed shortly thereafter with another goal for the Gators. The two teams continued to battle back and forth for control of the ball. Gators Ryan Walsh and Robbie Rosu played an excellent game. Jaguars' Brian Checkett, Richard Arnheim and James Nicholl kept up the pressure on the Gators.
The second half was a defensive struggle as Gators goalie, Michael Dowling made several excellent saves. Jaguars' Michael Checkett was finally able to get thru and score for his team. Gators' Matthew Wainwright, Ilan Friedman and Steven Kaye all played a good game and applied the neressary pressure to help their team to victory.

Memorial South
Colts 5 - Lions 3
In a tense but exciting playoff game the Colts managed to outscore a very tough Lion team. The Lions scored first as Bob Bradley drilled a centering pass to Edmundo Stahl who guided the ball into the nets. The Colts front line of Mike Glynn, Greg Daly, Abby Bomba and Jeff Edling pressed the action but were stopped by Lion fullback Steve Monninger and goalie Kevin McKenna. Finally, Tom Mann, who played a spectacular game, was able to score on a breakaway to tie the score 1-1 at halftime. The Colt halfbacks of Tony Bosria, Ben Brown and Dan Urbano began to control the action as they kept feeding the front line. Tom Mann was able to score twice more, one coming off a tremendous corner kick by halfback Scott Brainard to make the score 3-1 Colts.
Bob Bradley, who was everywhere for the Lions, and halfback Brian Bulao didn't give up and were able to push the ball into the Colt end where Bradley scored twice to even the game at 3-3. The Colt defense led by Richard Jeremiah, goalie Matt Daly and supported by Ted Kilcommons, Mike McDermott and Tom Tansay tightened up and didn't allow any more Lion scores. Tom Mann was able to breakaway twice more and increase his goal count to five as he scored both fourth quarter goals to give the Colts a 5-3 win.

Elks 4 - Bears 1
The Elks continued their much improved play with a convincing 4-1 victory over the never-say-die Bears. George Maslovsky scored the first goal on a diving kick set up by Ryan Hughes and Eric Rubin. The Bears came roaring back on a rocket off the foot of Chris DeMasi with an assist from Chris Roesgen to tie the see-saw game. Ryan Hughes put the elks ahead for good with a twenty footer started with assists from Eric Rubin and Brian Crocco.
The Elks' Eric Rubin caught fire in the second half to cement the victory with two goals. His first, a twelve footer, was assisted by Jimmy Jordan and Andrew Hughes. Stephen Shannon and Adam Barcan set up his second goal.
The Elks "mean" defense was spearheaded by David "Lion Hearted" Larsen and center-half Brian "Big Foot" Crocco who turned back numerous offensive thrusts by Jim Pipher.
The Bears' goalie Tim O'Brien stopped hard shots all game. Frank DiGiovanni showed his cool when he stopped a hard five-footer in the first half for the Elks.

Hawks 5 - Badgers 0
The game was closer than the score suggests, with four goals in the last fifteen minutes. Seth Coren opened Hawks account but further Hawks attacks were broken down by the tackling of Mike O'Hara and saves from goalies Stephen Kendrick and Vincent Brodo. Midfielder Eigi Miyamoto's ball control supported Harlan Rothman, who excelled for Badgers, but they were unable to break through Hawks' defense (Jenkins, Cheek, Haack and Solomon).
Hawks talented goalie, Glen Gutterman returned to forward to open the second half scoring and combined well with Coren (4 goals), Patrick Cosquer and Jeff Checchio in numerous attacks. Kapusinski and Palmer dribbled and passed well, contributing to Hawks' win.

Leopards 3 - Cougars 1
In an exciting post season soccer game the Leopards defeated a strong Cougar team. The Cougars opened up the scoring in the second quarter on a goal by Brian Pancs (first goal of the year.) It wasn't until the second half that the Leopards tallied their first goal on a super effort by Steven Flynn from the left wing position. The Leopards' forwards led by Brad Northup, Tom Ryan and Michael DeMarco kept constant pressure on the Cougars fine fullbacks, led by Gregg Gagliardi. The Leopards second goal came when Brad Northup forced a Cougar fullback into making a mistake which resulted in the score.
Outstanding mid field play for the Cougars came from Drew Pinkin and goalie play by Mike Vinegra. The third goal for the Leopards came in the 4th quarter when Brad Northup made an outstanding pass to Steven Flynn on a breakaway, who in turn slipped the ball between two Cougar defenders allowing Billy Rodd to drive the ball home. Terrific fullback play was led by Keith Zadourian who had his best defensive effort of the season.
Other fullbacks who added to the Leopards' strength were Peter Cantazaro, Chris O'Connell and Chris Cammennelli. Halfbacks honors were shared by Scott DeVito, Billy Rhodes, Chris Partelow, who just came back from a severe leg injury, and Paul Agnone, who played his best game of the year. Rounding out the efforts by the Leopards came from forward Brian Burke and Tom Ryan who kept the Cougars scoreless in the last half by his great efforts as goalie. Both teams should be commended for their outstanding play and sportsmanship.

Buffalos 5 - Mustangs 2
The Buffalos opened the game by playing ball control and applying continuous pressure on the Mustang's goal. But Mustang goalkeeper Todd Phillips and his defenders were equal to the challenge. It was not until late in the firsthalf that Buffalo halfback James Lenton dribbled past three Mustang defenders and scored. The first half ended Buffalos 1 Mustangs 0.
The second half started like the first half with the Buffalos keeping the ball in the Mustangs half of the field. This resulted in two quick goals and a 3-0 lead. Pat McNellis and James Lenton (his second of the game) were the Buffalo goals-orers.

Mountainside Observes Education Week

Deerfield principal, Allan J. Shapiro, has issued an invitation to all school parents to observe their children's classes in action on Tuesday.

In honor of American Education Week, Nov. 12-16, Shapiro encourages parents to visit the school and to call the office to make an appointment for viewing specific classes on Tuesday.

Weichert Realtors Sponsors Holiday Toy Drive

The Weichert Co., Realtors annual Holiday Toy Drive is underway! Betty Robinson, manager of the Weichert Co., Realtors Caldwell/West Orange office, will chair the sixth annual gift program to benefit needy children in local communities in New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and Connecticut.

Residents are encouraged to drop off their donations at any Weichert office. Contributors are also asked to label the packages for a "boy" or "girl" and to specify what age child would enjoy the gift. Santa will collect the gifts on Dec. 10 and distribute them to community service organizations in time for the holidays.

For more information on the 1984 Weichert Holiday Toy Drive, contact the Westfield Weichert Co., Realtors office.

Dr. Platt to Discuss Biblical Archaeology

The Woman's Association of the Westfield Presbyterian Church will hear a talk entitled "A Summer's Harvest In Biblical Archaeology" given by Dr. Elizabeth E. Platt at its meeting on Nov. 15. A dessert will precede the talk at 12:30 p.m. in the Assembly Hall of the church located at 140 Mountain Ave.

Dr. Platt, minister of education and youth, is well-known for her interest in art and archaeology as they relate to religion. She is a graduate of the College of Wooster, Union Theological Seminary, and Harvard University which awarded her a Ph.D. in Old Testament Studies. She has taught in the departments of religion at the Emma Willard School, Radcliffe College, and Rutgers University and served as dean of women at the Harvard Summer School for three years. Dr. Platt will tell of her participation in the Dig at Tell el Umeiri, Jordan, where she served as Object Registrar. She received her qualifying preparation at Harvard University in the Ph.D. program under the late G. Ernest Wright, archaeologist and Biblical scholar. Dr. Platt will illustrate her program with slides and actual archaeological objects.

Reservations for the dessert may be made by calling Mrs. Byran Campbell, 316 Canterbury Rd. by noon Monday. Child care will be available. Responsibilities for the "dessert" are being shared by members of Circles 2, 4 and 8 under the leadership of Mrs. D. McBride, Mrs. O. Schundler and Miss Marion Cubberley.

The children of the church and nursery schools of the Presbyterian Church in Westfield, along with the entire congregation, are collecting food items for Thanksgiving dinners for local families. The church is working in cooperation with the Town of Westfield Department of Human Services. The 20 families who will receive the boxes of food live on subsistence income as a result of unemployment, disability, or large medical expenses due to poor health, mental retardation or a terminally ill family member. The church helped ten families last year but this year there is a greater need.

Nov. 11 and Nov. 18 will find decorated cartons waiting the arrival of fresh fruits and vegetables, canned items, baking supplies and paper and cleaning items. Turkeys will be purchased with 25 cents donations from the church school children and other donations received for that purpose.

The coordinators for this project are Joanne Stainthorpe of Westfield, Frances Ehrnman of the Weekday Nursery School and Jean Luce, director of Children's Ministry at the Presbyterian Church.

Pioneer Club Begins At Grace Church

A new activity for grade school children began at Grace Church, 1100 Boulevard. Beginning yesterday Pioneer Club will meet on Wednesdays from 3:30 until 5 p.m. throughout the school year.

Membership is open to any child in grades one through six.

The parent organization, based in Illinois, is international in scope. Until recently, Pioneer Girls and Boys' Brigade have been the groups which have been sponsored throughout the world. Now, Pioneer Clubs for both boys and girls will follow a similar pattern.

Children may earn badges and achievements in many areas, such as communications, hiking, crafts and personal fitness. Bible study and memorization figure largely in the total program.

Co-chairmen for the Pioneer Club at Grace Church are Mrs. R. Arthur Thompson and Mrs. Rorbert B. Ottoson. Assisting them will be Mrs. Robert Sneed and Mrs. R. Patrick Width. Parents may call any of these leaders for further information or to register their children for the club.

YOUR PHARMACIST SPEAKS
by Kitty Duncan, Pharmacist

With your doctor's permission we will be glad to fill your prescription with a quality generic drug to save you money. All your prescription needs can be met at JARVIS PHARMACY, 54 Elm St., 233-0662, 0663, 0664. Greeting cards and giftwrap are available for Thanksgiving and other occasions. We also stock traffic and household appliances. Hours: Mon thru Fri 9am-9pm, Sat 9am-6pm, Holidays 9am-1pm.

CHOOSING GENERICS FOR SAVINGS

Not only does a pharmacist use his medical expertise to sometimes save lives, he can also save money for his customers. A pharmacist knows how to pick the best drugs at the most reasonable prices. Usually, that means picking a drug by the generic name of its active ingredient, rather than by the brand name given by a manufacturer. A drug's brand name is invariably shorter, simpler and easier to remember than its generic name. It was designed to be so. A generic name is generally an abbreviated version of a long, often complex, chemical description. About half of the most commonly prescribed drugs are sold under different brand names. Although the active ingredient in the various brands are identical, the prices are not.

HANDY HINT: Ask your doctor if it is possible to prescribe a drug for your use by its generic name.

Rec. Commissions Plans Ski Trips

The Westfield Recreation Commission is planning six ski trips, according to Ruth V. Hill, director of recreation.

The schedule for the season is: Dec. 23 — Elk Mountain, Pa.; Jan. 6 — Camelback Ski Area, Pa.; Jan. 18-20 — Killington Ski Area, Vt.; Feb. 3 — Big Boulder Ski Area, Pa.; Feb. 17 — Shawnee, Pa.; and March 3 — Jack Frost Ski Area, Pa.

Buses for all trips will leave the Municipal Building Parking Lot, 425 East Broad St., at 6:30 a.m. and return at approximately 5 p.m. (except Vermont trip).Trips are available to Westfield residents only. There will be a maximum of 98 seats per trip. Children under 12 years of age must be accomplanied by an adult. For Vermont trip children must be 16 years of age or accompanied by an adult.

For information is availables at the Recreation Office in the Municipal building.

Borque Dartmouth D-Player of Week

Harry Bourque, a 6-1, 200-pound product of Westfield High School, was named Dartmouth Defensive Player of the Week for his football performance in the Big Green's game against Cornell. Bourque recorded nine solo tackles, one pass sack and one pass breakup, as Dartmouth fell to the Big Red.

"We lost him all of last year (with a ankle injury)," Dartmouth Coach Joe Yukica said. "But he's come back and done a good job this season and we're glad to have him with us."

Harry Bourque

Bourque, a middle guard, is currently the Big Green's seventh-leading tackler with 14 solos and 22 assists, while also recording one tackle for a loss and one fumble recovery. He is also a member of the Dartmouth lacrosse team.

An economics/political science major at Dartmouth, Bourque is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Bourque of Westfield.

Local Gymnast 1st All-Around

Elise Rosenberg of Westfield won first place in all-around competition at the Golden Apples Invitational Gymnastics Meet in Armonk, N.Y., Saturday. She received a score of 34.90 for all four events.

Elise received a score of 9.0 on bars winning first place and a score of 9.05 on beam placing third. She is competing in class III C&O in the 9-11 age group.

Elise is a member of the La Gymnastique Team that is coached by Annmarie Spicer and Mark Henderson at Surgent's Elite Gym in Garwood. She attends sixth grade in Carol Lester's class at Tamaques School.

Five teams from New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, and Massachusetts competed on Sunday. Teammate Margaret Furtado of Bayone received a second place for her vault with a score of 8.40. Teammate Debbie Zapotocky of Rahway placed second on bars with a score of 8.80 and third on beam with a score of 9.0. Debbie competes in the 12-14 age group. The girls helped their team win third place in the team competition.

Friends of Track "Turkey Trot" Nov. 24

The Friends of Westfield Track and Field has announced that its first "Turkey Trot," a five-mile race on the Tamaques Park course, with a one-mile "fun run" is planned for Saturday, Nov. 24, at 11 a.m. The "fun run" is scheduled for 10:30 a.m.

Age groups for the five-mile run are male and female 13 and under, 14 to 18, 19 to 29, 30 to 34, 35 to 39, 40 to 49, 50 to 59 and 60 and over.

The event is planned to encourage local track and field and cross country at all development levels and to support the activities of the school teams.

Prizes include tee-shirts to all pre-registrants, trophies and a special gift to the first place finisher in each age group. Trophies will be awarded to second and third place finishers in each group. The pre-entry fee is $5, and a $6 charge on the day of the race.

Entry forms are available at major sporting shops in the Westfield area or from "Friends of Westfield Track and Field," 259 Tuttle Parkway.

The Friends of Westfield Track and Field is a non-profit organization whose goal is to encourage and assist the Westfield High School and Junior High School programs. Further information is available from John Feldman of Tuttle Parkway.

FALL SOCCER RESULTS

Several minutes later Pat McNellis scored his second goal of the game and extended the lead to 4-0. But the Mustangs bounced back with two goals to narrow the gap to 4-2. Danny Drury and Brian Godiri were the Mustang goalscrorers. The Mustangs gained momentum particularly after their second goal while the Buffalos seemed on the verge of a letdown. But the fine defensive play of center fullback Jim DeSantis and halfback Jeff Ryan kept the Mustangs from mounting any other serious offensive drives. The Buffalos shut the door on any hopes that the Mustangs had when Pat McNellis scored his third goal of the game. The scored remained 5-2 to the final whistle, and the Buffalos had earned a victory in the first round of the playoffs.

GIRLS SOCCER
Division IV
Jacksons 3 - Culture Club 0

The Jacksons advanced to the second round of the playoffs with a 3-0 victory over Culture Club. Marcy Bartlett spearheaded a victory with all three goals assisted on the second goal by a beautiful pass by Carry Greenwald. Both Culture Club goalees, Caroline Nappi and Courtney Cherewich, played very well in turning back every other defense by the Jacksons.

The offense by both teams moved the ball effectively with Culture Club led by Kris Heatley and Jessica Esposito and the Jacksons were led by Jenifer Green, Katy Mondelli, Katy Fitzgerald and Alessandra Sachs. It was the excellent Jackson defense which made the difference led by Linda Bruett, Kris Dzury, Mary Johnson, Christine Wischusen, Becky Nusse, Priscilla Sachs and Tara Liquori in goal.

Pink Floyd 1 - Duran Duran 0

The Pink Floyd showed a strong defensive line-up in defeating a well-coached and talented Duran Duran squad. The final score was 1-0, but this first play off contest could have gone either way. Hustle was the name of the game. Right center fullback Pam Raffree sent a booming kick into the upper right corner of the net for the only score. Cristin golden and Amanda Gross were outstanding in sharing goal keep duties. Krisy Seely, Jodi Gross and Bridget Harrington showed a lot of heart in showing up the Pink Floyd defense. Sara Kettler, Nicole Marione, Kristen Heller and Alyson Tischer provided solid midfield play. Danielle Marione played a key role as center halfback. Valerie Schultz, Nan Gadek and Melissa Hobson represented a very good offensive line. Samantha Nichols played her usual excellent game as center forward. Talented Sofia D'Almeida was ill but attended the game with her teammates on the sideline.

Duran Duran played one of their best games of the season but lost to a hustling Pink Floyd team. The Duran defense came alive with tough play by fullbacks Christina DeMasi, Denise Rehrer, Jill D'Ambrosio, Lexie Lenton and Dawn Schaefer. Claire Weiting was fearless as goalie and wing while inner Lisa DiSalle kept the Pink Floyd defense honning.

Kiss 3 - Air Supply 0

Kiss defeated Air Supply 3-0 to open the playoff schedule. Megan Pray opened the scoring with a goal from a penalty kick. Kiss displayed constant pressure all game. Courtney Zenner kicked a spinning ball from thirty yards out which bounced around the goal mouth before going in for a goal. Linda Coulter and Stefani Rubin applied pressure throughout the period. The final goal was notched by Michelle Edmonson on a bouncing twenty-footer from the right side. Her goal was set-up with picture perfect passes from Allison Rothman and Julie Mc Clay.

The Air Supply's Michele Kelher, Ann Lau, Sandy Sherman and Ginger Comstock excelled with their superior play.

The heads up goaltending of Kathy Baker and Melissa Zemsky preserved the shutout for Kiss, but the key to victory was the hustle of the midfielders. Susan Cherkett, Leigh Baker, Karla Henwood, Christeen Keegan and Kristen Markey patrolled the field with authority.

Stephanie Roth and Melinda Stepanski played well on defensive to round out a superior effort for Kiss.

This year the budget task force will be a townwide effort to inform the residents of Westfield about the Board of Education budget for the Westfield public schools. The vote is not until April 2, 1985, but the group is looking for input now.

The Task Force needs questions about the budget and ideas about how to get the facts to the public. Anyone wishing to contribute any ideas can do so by contacting co-chairpersons Joanne Cavan or Barbara Vierschilling, shown above, c/o Board of Education Office, Elm St. The Task Force is interested inconcerns about our educational system. They urge residents to remember "Education costs - Ignorance costs more!"

Rape Victims Offered Help at Crisis Center

The Union County Rape Crisis Center, located at 300 North Ave. East, began an assertiveness training group for rape victims Monday evening moderated by Esther Goldenberg, M.S.W.

The group will meet for eight consecutive Mondays. The group is limited to an enrollment of ten.

Reservations may be made by calling 233-RAPE.

Alicia Karpati Earns Gold Medal At International Olympiad in Spain

"I was thrilled with my silver medal last year in Rome . . . and now, a gold!"

Alicia Karpati was talking about the gold medal and diploma she was recently awarded in Madrid, Spain, by the Monde Selection Quality Olympiad.

George and Alicia Karpati of Alicia Karpati Cosmetics, Inc. of Westfield, have just returned from the awards ceremonies of the International Olympiad, where her product entry, cleansing and massage cream, earned her a fourth gold medal. Each year the Karpatis have entered a product, it has been distinguished with honors.

"The regulations as well as the competition becomes tougher each year," comments Mrs. Karpati," and it is an enormous honor for us, to continue to gain such recognition for the excellence of our products. The arards ceremonies are always very exciting and quite elaborate," Mrs. Karpati continues, "and it remains a special thrill for me, as a former Hungarian, to claim my award as one of the representative companies from the United States.

The Karpatis' stay in Madrid was further highlighted by a private meeting with the Honorable Thomas Enders, U.S. Ambassador to Spain, at the Ambassador's residence.

A vivacious red head with green eyes and a firm, beautiful complexion, Alicia Karpati is the best advertisement for her cosmetics.

"Healthy living habits, along with a sound skin care program, are essential," Mrs. Karpati states. "I use no soap and water on my face, and do not believe in cover-ups. My common-sense approach is simple. Clear up completion problems. Covering only aggravates . Make up, she adds, "should enhance, not cover."

Alicia Karpati trained in Budapest, Hungary, with the renowned skin specialist and allergist, Dr. Tibor Haller, and eventually became his assistant prior to opening her own establishment in Budapest.

Alicia Karpati receives gold medal and a hand shake from an official of the Monde Selection Quality Olympiad as the president of the society, Georges de Bruyn, partially hidden, looks on.

Alicia Karpati and her husband, chat during a 45-minute visit at his private residence with U.S. Ambassador to Spain Thomas Enders, at right. The meeting with the career diplomat was one of many facets of the Karpatis' trip to Spain, where cosmeticians from 60 countries, some of them Communist countries, gathered for the international competition.

The Karpatis came to America in January 1957. Here they formed Alicia Karpati Cosmetics, Inc., offering a full line of cosmetic products, with emphasis on a clear, healthy complexion without make-up base.

Mrs. Karpati points out that the numerous accolades by the Monde Selection, besides the obvious prestige, have only added to the already existing confidence that women have in her cosmetics.

The jury is highly selective, and is comprised of recognized professionals in the scientific field. Product entries undergo rigorous and extensive testing for four months and "after all," Mrs. Karpati concludes, "we're competing with leading companies from all parts of the globe." Sixty nations were represented with 300 different items and only forty seven products won, some gold, the remainder silver and bronze.

In addition to its retail store on Elm St., Alicia Karpati Inc. carries a growing mail-order business, which reaches all parts of the continent.

"Here in Westfield, I'm able to give personal consultations geared to the individual's completion needs."

"Obviously, Mrs. Karpati proudly states, "word of mouth must be my major form of advertisement; hence, my products are used all over the world."

"My Gold Medal? It's a beautiful recognition, as were the other awards. But my true rewards", maintains Mrs. Karpati, "continue on a daily basis. That is, the personal satisfaction and gratification when I'm able to make women look younger and lovelier!"

FALL SOCCER RESULTS

an excellent 1-1 soccer match Sunday.

In a game highlighted by exciting, end-to-end action, Bee wings Sarah Booth, Kim Musler, Katie Mee and Colleen Maloney were often in position to score, but it wasn't until forward Meenal Mehta netted a penalty shot that the Bees got on the scoreboard.

For the Bees, the game was also marked by the cannon-like clearing kicks of fullback Sheryl Krevsky, the long-range shooting of halfback Mary Rollin Wampler, and the offensive persistence of forwards Deborah Danser and Christie McGovern.

The Fireflies took the lead in the first period on a well-placed goal by Cathy Culligan off a lead pass by Stacey Tourtellotte. The Bees tied the game on a penalty kick just prior to the half.

Scorpions 6 Locust 0

Diana Daniel led the offense with four goals assisted by Emily Dexter, Lisa Steirman, Robin Smittle and Teale Failla. Emily Dexter added two more goals to the Scorpion attack assisted by Suzy Folger and Lisa Steirman.

Credit must also be given to the strong defensive unit of the Scorpions. Robin Smittle and Teale Failla were outstanding in goal. Kristin Cicero, Lauren Folger, Molly Rock, Amber Pusich and Jessica Liguori stopped the Locusts before they could shoot. Alyson Mannino, who has shown great improvement, played an outstanding game at her halfback position. Susan McCloy and Suzy Folger played a stong game in their wing positions.

For the Locusts, goalies Julia Cerefice, Ellen Rudofsky and Sara Tirone tried valiantly to keep the Scorpions at bay.

The offense of Elizabeth Kozub, Katie Teitelbaum, Jessie Lee, Jamie Zenner could not penetrate the Scropion goal, even with the great kicking and ball handling skills displayed by Aideen O'Keefe, Andrea Ducherk (back after sitting out most of the season with a broken arm), Jenna Cohen and Jamie Gutterman.

Crickets 3 Yellowjackets 0

The first half score was kept close by the strong, steady defense of Yellowjacket fullbacks Jessica Inglis and Kristen Johnson assisting goalie Ghia Jacobs. Elizabeth Taranto continued to play her normal agressive game.

In the second half, the defensive stars of the Yellowjacket team were shining again. Becky Lind at fullback and Kristen Johnson in goal repelled countless Cricket attacks with bounding kicks.

Beetles 0 Hornets 0

The Beetles and Hornets battled to scoreless tie Sunday.

For the Beetles, goalie Elizabeth Devlin and the defensive line of Regan Lenehan, Hallie Peskin, Catrina Engell and Cara Jeiven were impenetrable.

The Beetles' offensive line of Bronwyn Hay, Jewel Coles, Brigid O'Connell, Jeanine Gottko, Laura Cashman, Kelly Maloney, Laura Wischusen, Anne Engell, Stephanie Markowitz and Loren Graffigna had many fine attacks throughout the game but were unable to score against the tough Hornet defense.

Stingers 4 Grasshoppers 0

The Stingers defeated the Grasshoppers, 4-0, with both sides displaying fine passing and team play.

For the Stingers, Lori Chelius and Janna Chernetz tallied with assists from hard working linemates Jessica Walsh, Laura Silverman, Noelle Nolas, Stephanie Duris, and Aimee Vesey.

Sharon Brady tended flawless goal, with defendes Kelly Feeney, Megan Joyce and Jenny O'Brien working with great intelligence and heart against the active Hopper attack. Stinger midfielders Mandy Silverberg, Betsy Siberry and Kim Cross ran hard, playing smart two-way soccer.

Bees 1 Fireflies 1

The Bees and Fireflies treated their fans to an exciting game, scoring in the first half then thrilling every one on the field spectators and players alike with their defense and pressure offense. Stones rookie Stephanie Lester made the game's only goal during the second period in a play that saw FB Patty Costa corner kick to Ann Marko who passed to Stephanie for the point. Police Katie McEvilie rose to the challenge by leading the defense against Stones Dryden Walner, Susan Tansey, and Christine Mckenna.

The third period saw the Stones defense bear down as HB's Beth Myers and Robin Michel stopped Police on the side lines while Maite Quinn, Nichole Czarnecki, Amanda Wilton, and Amity Covert were quick to shore up mid field and the FB posts. Meanwhile RW Melanie Hawley showed fine dribbling in several attempts at goal. The fourth period saw more fireworks from both teams as Stones Beth Myers boomed a kick just over the goal from mid field, and Police Alexis Hay responded with a similiar attempt that hit the top of the Stones goal.

Westfield Colonial Chorus

Barbershop Harmony Singers To Feature Tribute to Radio

The Westfield Colonial Chorus, a local chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, will present its annual Harmony Holiday on the evenings of Friday, Nov. 30 and Saturday, Dec. 1 at Westfield Senior High School.

This year's musical presentation, entitled "On the Air," will celebrate the golden days of radio. Show Chairman Doug Brown promises fun-filled evenings of entertainment, showcasing the talents of the men of the Colonial Chorus, two local quartets, Stage Four and Four on the Town, and the internationally known Four Under Par, a comedy quartet which has performed throughout the United States and Canada.

Tickets may be obtained from John Franks Men's Store, the Music Staff and the Band stand in Westfield, or by contacting Doug Brown, 805 Springfield Ave., Cranford, William Ross, 291 Elkwood Ave., New Providence, or Paul Bandtlow, 2006 Mountain Ave., Scotch Plains.

All-Day Conference Nov. 14 To Focus on Eating Disorders

Susie Orbach, author and specialist in the treatment of compulsive eating, anorexia and bulimia, will be the principal speaker at the 6th annual all-day Clinical Day sponsored by the Association of Jewish Family Service Agencies at Temple Emanu-El Wednesday.

Recent studies demonstrate that eating problems are epidemic in today's society. Often these problems are hidden in other disorders, and therefore, the deeper significance of food and body image may be overlooked. Orbach has been a pioneer in exploring the social and psychological aspects of this complex phenomenon, and in developing a unique treatment model.

Orbach is the author of several books including "Fat is a Feminist Issue," which deals with eating problems and why they affect women, "Understanding Women: A Feminist Psychoanalytic Approach," and "What Do Women Want? Exploring the Myth of Dependency." Anyone wishing further information or to register may do so by calling Shirley Jasgur at Jewish Counseling and Service Agency in Millburn.

Comby and King Join VNHS Staff

The Visiting Nurse and Health Services (VNHS) has announced the employment of Donna Comby, R.N., B.S.N. and Patricia M. King, R.N., B.S.N. Comby, a resident of Westfield, received her B.S.N. from the University of Delaware. She has been assigned to the Elizabeth service area of VNHS. Ms. King received her B.S.N. from Trenton State College. A resident of Mountainside, she has been assigned to the Westfield service area.

VNHS is a voluntary, non-profit home health and community health care agency serving the communities of Union County for more than 70 years.

K of C Initintes Members' Drive

Grand Knight John F. McCarthy of the Knights of Columbus Mountainside Council #6225, has announced that the Council will conduct a membership drive starting Nov. 10. He urges all interested and qualified men to consider membership in the K of C, the largest organization of Catholic laymen in the world.

Members of the council will be available after all the Masses at Our Lady of Lourdes Church, 300 Central Ave., Mountainside, to answer questions and to accept applications for membership.

Installation of officers for this council will be conducted on Tuesday at the Elks's Clubhouse, Route 22 East, Mountainside at 8:30 p.m. All members, and their family and friends are invited to attend. An open house will be held following the installation ceremony. Refreshments will be served.

Nutrition Seminar Nov. 17 At Convalescent Center

The Westfield Convalescent Center, 1515 Lamberts Mill Rd. will hold a seminar for the public, residents and staff on "Nutrition and the Elderly" and a movie showing "Food Changes in Our Life Style" at the center on Saturday, Nov. 17, at 2 p.m. in the Recreation Room.

Nutritionist Linda Thorn of Cranford will offer tips on nutrition. A question and answer period will follow. Refreshments will be served.

Those interested in attending should call the Recreation Dept. by Nov. 15.

Pictured are the winners of the "costume contest" at Holy Trinity Elementary School. Participants were from the kindergarten through the fourth grade.

All Trinity Students Share in Halloween

For the first time in years, the world of dress-up and make-believe was extended to all grades at Holy Trinity Elementary School on Halloween with witches and goblins, all sorts of animals, punk rockers, munchkins, transformers and even a traffic light and keg of dynamite. Individual class parties, hosted by the room mothers, started the festivities.

Miss Ellen Colandrea, the 4th grade teacher, dressed as a die, spoke on the history and traditions of Halloween, followed by the presentation of awards for the most original, scariest and humorous costumes along with a "Judge's Choice." Each grade from K to 4 had a winner for each category. The program was highlighted by a rendition of "Ghostbusters" performed by Miss Donna Gauteri's 6th graders.
