Landfill Problems Plague Attic Waste Center Operations

Problems of landfill areas have resulted in the rescheduling of the Attic Waste Center operation, according to Town Engineer Edward Gottko.

Originally slated to be open Saturdays during May and June and again in September and October, the new dates are spaced at two week intervals from the beginning of May to the middle of October: May 4, May 18, June 15, June 29, July 13, July 27, Aug. 10, Aug. 24, Sept. 7, Sept. 21, Oct. 5 and Oct. 19.

"Many residents seem to feel this schedule spread over five months will be more beneficial to them," Gottko said. "Those who miss the previously scheduled spring schedule at the center won't have to wait until fall to get rid of their trash items."

"As for the Public Works Center personnel," Gottko added, "it is an impossible task to run a weekly schedule as we would not have time to clean up the site from one Saturday to the next."

Town contractors previously were able to make four daily trips to the disposal center in Edison. With the redirection of all Westfield trash to the landfill site in East Brunswick, they can now make only two trips daily to the Edgeboro Landfill - and sometimes, because of traffic and waiting times at the dump, return with trucks still loaded.

Hours of operation of the May 4 to Oct. 19 attic waste center will remain the same - 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the designated Saturdays at the Public Works Center on North Ave.

Under recently enacted regulations, users of both the Attic Waste Center and Conservation Center on Lamberts Mill Rd. must display a sticker on the left front bumper of their cars. These may be purchased for $5 at the Conservation Center. In addition, a charge of $5 per car ($10 for a van or pickup truck) is made for each trip to the Attic Waste Center. Tickets for these visits may be purchased at the Town Clerk's office in the Municipal Building or at the Public Works Center.

The meeting is open to the public with time for public input on any agenda item at the beginning of the meeting and time for public input on any educational item at the end of the meeting.

Senus Begins 4th Term As B of E President

Leo J. Senus was re-elected president of the Westfield Board of Education at the organization meeting for the 1985-1986 School Board Tuesday. He begins his fourth term as president.

Gail Cassidy, who served as vice president in 1984-1985, was re-elected vice president.

Both officers were elected unanimously.

After taking the oath of office for a three-year term, Afonso Miele joined the school board. Susan Pepper and George Weimer, elected on April 2 with Miele, were absent from the organization meeting.

William J. Foley was appointed board secretary; William D. Peek, board attorney; and James R. Dickson, treasurer of school moneys.

Regular monthly meeting dates were set for the third Tuesday of each month except September and February when the meetings will be held on the second Tuesday because of school holidays.

Noted for the record were the results of the April 2 annual school election in which the current expense school budget received 1,816 yes votes and 850 no votes and a capital improvement question received 1,745 yes votes and 919 no votes. School board candidate results were: Susan Pepper, 1,573; Stephen Swersie, 1,103; James C. England, 1,233; George M. Weimer, 1,618; Afonso R. Miele, 1,318; and one write-in vote each for James Boyle and Jack Carpenter.

About 14% (2,770) of the 19,276 registered voters in Westfield went to the polls for the school election.

"I was pleased with the number of letters to the editor in the local newspaper about the school election," said Senus who begins his fourth year as school board president. "I was pleased with the staff's efforts to generate interest in the school election. I was pleased with the Parent-Teacher Council's Budget Task Force and all the efforts of P-T members to make telephone calls and include messages in newsletters to point out the importance of the school election for parents," he continued. "I was pleased with the people who voted."

Street Improvements To Cost $250,000

Close to $250,000 in street improvements won initial approval of the Town Council Tuesday night with the introduction of four ordinances providing $34,000 for replacement of curbing and sidewalks at various locations throughout town, $75,000 for the town's annual street improvement program, $40,000 for the improvement of Elizabeth Ave. from Boynton Ave. to Central Ave. and $100,000 for improvement of Warren St. from Lamberts Mill Rd. to Scotch Plains Ave.

More than 50 percent of residents of Warren St. and Elizabeth Ave. favored the improvements, for which some property assessments are expected.

Town Council also approved a $34,790 contract with Olympic Construction Co. for the improvement of the Myrtle Ave. brook and introduced a fifth ordinance which appropriates funds for the purchase of three typewriters, chairs, playground equipment and microfilm reader and printer for the library.

The firm of Keller & Kirkpatrick was awarded a $17,000 contract for a long-range study of the Memorial Pool facility which is, according to at least one councilman, showing its age of 15 years.

Council also approved five ordinances following hearings at which only one resident spoke - and that for clarification of a prohibition on use of residential properties for kennel businesses. Other ordinances set a $30 weekly fee for non-residents enrolled in the Recreation Department's summer Exceptional Center at Tamaques Park, the purchase of various items of equipment, the establishment of Martin Luther King Day as a 13th holiday for employees in the municipal building, and higher salaries for members of the special police.

Under the latter ordinance, a new position of sergeant is created at a salary of $500 a year, the captain's pay would be increased from $500 to $600 and other officers would receive annual salaries of $400.

All five ordinances were approved unanimously by Mayor Ronald J. Frigerio and the seven members of council present.

WHS Plans May 1 Dedication Ceremony As First Public School "Peace Site"

When Westfield High School is formally dedicated as a "peace site" on May 3, it will mark the latest stage in the growth of a citizen's movement.

Keynote speaker at the Westfield High School Peace Site dedication ceremony—at 11:30 a.m. in the school auditorium, 550 Dorian Rd. — will be Kean College President Nathan Weiss. Two years ago, the Kean College Student Center in Union, was dedicated as a peace site. Two other "peace sites" are located in Westfield — at St. Helen's Church and at Temple Emanuel.

"This is a peace campaign which thrives on developing links among mainstream, traditional institutions at the grassroots level," says Louis Kousin, a retired public relations executive, fund raiser and journalist who founded the peace site movement. "Military sites dot the landscape, doing little to protect us from the dreadful threat of nuclear war," notes Kousin. "Why not dot the landscape with peace sites, where people can work to help prevent nuclear war?"

What began four years ago as an idea in a grandfather's mind — that establishments declare themselves "peace sites" to help prevent nuclear war — has rapidly mushroomed into an international movement.

More than 75 churches, synagogues, YWCAs, schools, small businesses and other institutions across America and overseas have dedicated themselves as peace sites — more than half of them in the past year.

One of the latest peace sites, the high school in Westfield, was created by a student campaign shortly before Christmas. In a referendum conducted by the student council, complete with hallway posters, flyers and an information table, the students voted 918-217 to declare Westfield High the nation's first public school to commit itself as an institution of peace.

Earlier this year, the children of the Live Oak Friends Meeting in Houston, Tex. declared their day school building a children's peace site, the first of its kind — with the purpose, among other things, of developing "peace materials oriented to kids."

A few months before, a group of adults in the midst of Central America's civil wars declared the Centro De Los Amigos Para La Paz in San Jose, Costa Rica, the first peace site in Latin America.

Since the first U.S. peace site was created by the Ethical Culture Society of Essex County in Maplewood, in October 1981 the peace site concept has been adopted by a growing number of national and international organizations.

After 13 community YWCAs in New Jersey voted to dedicate their buildings as peace sites, 12 more YWCAs in Scotland and England followed suit last year. Peace sites have also been dedicated at YWCAs in Pittsburgh, Penna.; White Plains, N.Y.; Toledo, Ohio; Janesville, Wis. Last month, the YWCA's National student Assembly dedicated a peace site in San Jose, Calif. in a candlelight ceremony attended by 800 YMCA national convention delegates from across the nation.

Parents Urged to Pledge, Be Counted In Fight Against Substance Abuse

Secondary school parents concerned about juvenile drug and alcohol abuse are urged to return their signed pledges of cooperation to the School Community Relations Office, 302 Elm St. by Wednesday.

Sponsored by the Chemical People Task Force of Westfield, letters outlining the goals of this drug prevention program were recently mailed to all secondary school parents, asking them to agree not to serve nor allow young people under the legal drinking age to consume alcohol or to use illegal drugs at parties in their homes or on their property and to accept responsibility for supervising parties given by and for students in their home. It also encourages calls from other parents about student parties in their home and urges contact with parents whose home was used by teen-agers for a gathering at which alcohol or other drugs were used.

Each parent is also asked to authorize the printing of their name in a Directory of Cooperating Families for 1985 and inclusion of their name in a newspaper statement endorsing an alcohol-and-drug-free Westfield for students. A donation of $2 to help defray the cost of this project was requested — checks should be made payable to Westfield Chemical People Task Force (W.C.P.T.F.).

Those who may have misplaced their letters, may obtain copies at the secondary schools or the school community relations office at the Elm St. School.

The N.J. Federation for Drug Free Communities reports that, of youngsters 12-17 years old, 19% are defined as having a serious drinking problem — which is defined as drinking at least once a week and consuming 5 to 12 drinks on a single occasion. Parent participation in this pledge program offers an opportunity to unite against juvenile substance abuse. Additional coordinated programs are scheduled in the schools and throughout the community during "Stick Your Neck Out Week" April 21-27.

Rescue Squad Reaches

Fund Drive Goal

The Rescue Squad's budget is financed entirely by donations from the public. The major portion of the income is derived from the annual fund drive receipts. The remaining income results from regular donations received during the year and memorial donations.

An open letter from the officers of the Westfield Volunteer Rescue Squad thanking everyone who supported the fund drive is published in today's Leader.

New Scout Center in Mountainside

The Watchung Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America has remodeling an industrial warehouse at 1170 Route 22 West-bound, Mountainside, into a new service center.

The merger of the Watchung Area Council with the Union Council in 1980 shifted the service area eastward and expanded the number of communities served. The easily accessible, thoroughly remodeled center on Route 22 — chosen after inspecting some 40 buildings in Union County — replaces an older, cramped, wooden structure in Plainfield.

"This new service center will allow us to handle a growing number of scouts," said Alfred D. Morin Jr., scout executive.

"We have more meeting rooms, an area to display program support material, and we will have a much higher visibility here on Route 22," he said.

"Volunteers are essential in scouting," said Morin, "and now we have conference and meeting and their subcontractors worked at cost, and we believe that they gave us a few little extras along the way.

"We particularly appreciate the work of our advisory committee, headed by Frank Rodgers, president of Nycooil Company, Fanwood," said Morin.

This group included Richard Berry, an architect from Fanwood; Robert J. Bauer, president of Electrical Installations, Cranford; Pat Fittipaldi, president, Joseph Fittipaldi Construction Co., North Plainfield; Stanley Corwin, a heating expert from Westfield; Nicholas Cirignano, Clairmont Painting and Decorating, Bridgewater; and William Hahn, president, Hillside Overhead Door.

"I'm proud of this renovated facility," Morin concluded. "and I hope that they will be also, for they gave their expertise and helped make it happen."

Westfield Student Wins Press Women's Contest

Michael Rakita, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rakita, 608 Mountain Ave., has been awarded first place in the feature photos division of the eighth annual New Jersey Press Women high school journalism contest. A junior at Westfield High School, Rakita, one of the photo editors on the staff of his eye, took first prize for his candid captioned, "The Pitter-Pat of Little Feet." Sophomore Laura Adriance teaches her students the tricks of tap dancing. The picture, one of two that accompanied an article about an enterprising student at Westfield High who teaches dance ten hours a week at Panacea Studios, was published in the Dec. 7, 1984, issue of the school weekly.

Patricia S. Miller, Press Women's feature photos judge and staff photographer for the Somerset Messenger Gazette, noted that Rakita "captured the feeling of the dance lesson and showed the movement of the group." Miller praised the "fairly good tonal range (black, white and grey)," and suggested ways to tighten the overall composition.

Rakita will be among 11 high-school journalists honored by Press Women at a June 22 luncheon at Fine Hall on the Princeton University campus. His photo has been entered in the national contest sponsored by the National Federation of Press Women, Inc. Winners will be notified in May and feted at the Youth Awards Luncheon on July 5 in Chicago.

NJPW joined National in sponsoring this contest to encourage and improve scholastic journalism. There were 196 entries in this year's contest which attracted participants from 33 schools throughout the state. Marjorie S. Schkolnick of Princeton is contest director.

Rakita uses a Chinon 35 mm. single-lens reflex and sometimes borrows his mother's Nikkormat. An avid amateur, he has his own workshop at home to which he modestly refers as "sort of a darkroom down there."

Recently, Rakita and a friend found themselves on the scene of an auto accident. Rakita's friend had his camera and snapped a picture. Rakita took it home and developed it. The two boys sent the photo to The Star Ledger which published it. Rakita is spending his school vacation scuba diving off the Florida Keys, taking his first underwater photographs. In a telephone interview, Rakita's father told Press Women that his son is committed to a career in journalism. Mrs. Fran Rakita, Michael's mother, had high praise for her son's adviser, Walt Clarkson of Westfield. "He devotes a lot of time and energy, and the kids truly love him," she said.

Hardwick Calls for Action On Additional Police Funding

Assemblyman Chuck Hardwick has called upon the Legislature to act on a bill that would put 2,000 additional police officers on the streets of more than 450 New Jersey Municipalities.

The total amount of state money proposed for the nine municipalities in the 21st district is $499,688, Hardwick said. A breakdown of the disbursement of these funds is as follows: Westfield would get $49,638; Union Township $113,458; Springfield $35,456; Roselle $118,453; Roselle Park $26,592; Kenilworth $19,501; Garwood $13,296; Hillside $81,613; and Cranford $41,661.

The funds, contained in a bill that Hardwick is cosponsoring, would implement a project supported by Governor Thomas Kean and Republicans in the Assembly. A total of $25 million would be disbursed to New Jersey towns to be used exclusively to hire additional police officers, Hardwick said.

"Union County municipalities in my district, the 21st district, would receive up to almost $500,000," said Hardwick, the Republican leader in the Assembly. "This would help towns hire more police to further reduce the crime rate by giving us a stronger police presence," he said.

Hardwick explained that under the proposal the municipalities that already qualify for funds under the State Safe and Clean Streets fund would receive four dollars in state funds for each dollar they earmarked for police hiring. Other municipalities qualifying for State Revenue Sharing funds would get one dollar in state funds for each dollar they spent, Hardwick said.

Hardwick said the bill, A-3330, is awaiting action in the Assembly Municipal Government Committee.

"I urge all local government officials to contact the chairman of this committee to ensure swift passage of this important bill," Hardwick said.

Students kick up heels in rehearsal for Carnival at Westfield High School April 19.

Community Invited To April 19 Carnival

The Department of Foreign Languages of Westfield Senior High School invites the community to its bi-annual Carnival on Friday, April 19, from 5 to 8 p.m. in the school courtyard and cafeteria.

In addition to the culinary delights on sale, entertainment with a foreign flavor will be presented throughout the afternoon. Foreign Language students have planned a demonstration of typical songs and dances representing the culture they study to augment chariot races, gladiatorial combat, a pinata and a guillotine.

Tickets of admission may be purchased the school cafeteria this week. Questions may be addressed to the department chairperson, Nancier Didier.

Oral reports were given by the students entitled "What Foreign Language Week means to me."

"The week is designed to help students become more aware of their own culture and heritage," says Sal Paoletta, lower school foreign language coordinator.

A Year for Local Libraries

It's been a good year for libraries in Westfield. Voters approved a $3.5 million new library facility at the Grant School site last November and last week opted to spend close to another half million dollars on expanding the high school library.

The municipal library has been the focus of about five studies - by citizens' groups, library committees, Town Council committees, ad hoc committees, ad nauseum committees ... Several years and several hundred thousand dollars later the results pretty much remain the same: A new library at a new location (Grant School) and continued rejection of expanding library facilities at the present Municipal Building location.

Expansion of the high school library or alternatives, on the other hand, have barely been explored yet approval was given (with none of the hoopla attendant upon the municipal library proposals) by a wide margin of those few who chose to vote in last week's school district election.

Considering that a high school library is pretty much limited to perhaps two thousand students, is open perhaps 35 to 40 hours a week for maybe 40 weeks a year, perhaps a new municipal library - open almost twice the number of hours each week and 52 weeks a year is a bargain?

We suspect that it will be many moons before we see completion of either facility, but it is our hope that library staffs from both "town and gown" will get together so duplication of materials - particularly resource volumes - does not occur. Certainly some reciprocity must exist so books, periodicals, etc. can be shared. After all, the money for their purchase comes from the same taxpayers' pockets - yours and mine!

In addition, it might be a hospitable gesture to give the general adult public access to an expanded high school library. Many of our senior citizens who live on the southside might find a walk to the high school a journey they can manage more easily than one to the other side of town.

We will be watching the progress of Westfield's two new libraries - we hope you will too.

HUNG UP

By Milton Faith, Executive Director Youth and Family Counseling Service, 233 Prospect St

A reader writes:

Okay - we want to know from you now. Ann Landers and all the experts seem to have written about her sex question about women wanting to be held and shown affection rather than have sex. Do you agree? Does your experience bear this out?

Answer:

There are so many variations on this theme - who wants more of what! I have no survey on which to base any response. I believe, however, that if given a choice, most women would like both the affection and the sex. In a world where sexual performance and achievement are priorities and emphasized obsessively, the act becomes the focal point of everything. Feelings of tenderness and care, gentility and affection become too infrequently "added attractions" to the "main event."

A concerned couple writes:

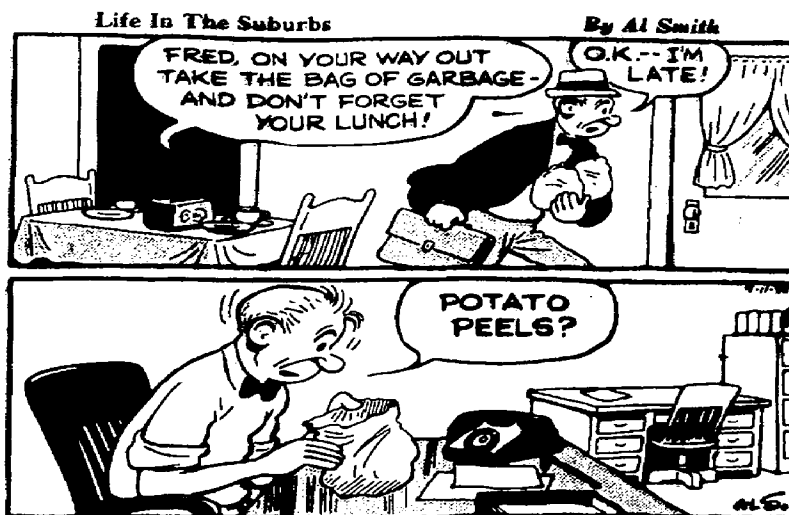

How would you recommend concern parents deal with "nervous habits" developed in young teen-agers' stressful years? ... We have ignored it, but it did not subside. We have discussed it or any problem that might have brought it about, but it could not be arrested. It is very evident under pressure - but just as much so when at leisure such as when our child is watching TV or reading a book. Our loving child is a good student with many friends of different interests, outwardly happy with good self esteem, and enjoys leadership. Since this very obvious habit is now a year old, we sincerely seek your advice. Our first thought is that it will be outgrown, but we have been advised this is not always the case. Yet, we hesitate to "blow it out of proportion" by seeking outside help.

Answer:

Nervous habits usually reflect an inner tension or conflict which releases, or relieves itself temporarily, through somatic or body reactions. Most parents attempt to deal with it by reacting to the "nervous habit," or symptoms, directly. "Stop doing that! It's disgusting! I'll punish you if you continue." And so on. Sometimes the child stops, because of intimidation, fear or anxiety. But the original source remains. There are many "nervous habits" - nail biting, rocking, eye blinking, and more self-destructive ones. You have indicated that you have ignored it and then spoken to him. Neither changed the habit. You appear to be very caring, loving parents. You also indicate that it shows itself, particularly, when your son is under pressure. This is what traditionally happens, in that the "habit" is an outlet during stressful times. Early teen-age years is an anxiety filled one for many youths. Adolescents become more involved in interpersonal relationships and questions of self-adequacy. If you feel that the habit is not self-abusive, and that your son, in general, is comfortable with himself and functions

Letters To The Editor

All letters to the editor must bear a signature, a street address and a telephone number, so authors may be checked. If contributors are not able to be reached at local phone numbers during Leader business hours, the writer's signature may be notarized.

Letters must be written on one side of paper and typewritten. No letter longer than 1 1/2 pages double-spaced will be considered for publication.

All letters must be in the "Leader" office by Friday if they are to appear in the following issue.

HOLOCAUST TRIBUTE

Editor, Leader:

This letter has been generated by a series of factors, triggered in finality both by the article in the March 28 issue of the Leader on the April 21 Holocaust Remembrance "Jew and Christians Remember: A Matter of Faith" the community interfaith service to be held at the Presbyterian Church; then the TV Guide article by Elie Wiesel "The Brave Christians Who Saved Jews From the Nazis" heralding a program about Raoul Wallenberg, the Swedish diplomat who saved thousands of European Jews from the Nazis. These two articles were the final impetus for expressing thoughts and feelings which have been in the forefront of my mind ever since I had the privilege of being a part of the cast of The Diary of Anne Frank presented by Westfield Community Players last month as Anne's mother, Edith Frank.

The play is one with an incredible strong message of familial love, human dignity and the strength of the human spirit in adverse circumstances. During the two months of rehearsal and the six performances the cast did a great deal of research, helped inestimably by the sharing of memories of one who had known the Frank family and who survived the horrors of the Holocaust, but not without great loss. As a group we did a lot of thinking, talking and relating our feelings to one another, realizing, as we worked together that at this fortieth anniversary of Anne Frank's death (March 1945) we were telling a story that needed to be told once again, a story timely for many reasons. The most obvious reason being the fortieth anniversary observance of the end of World War II, the other reason, much discussed by the cast members was, that in our modern world where death, destruction and annihilation appear nightly on TV and the public as a whole has become generally injured to horror.

It is too easy to forget even for the grown ups what happened in Nazi controlled Europe, even more difficult for the young people to fully grasp the enormity of it when it is reduced to mere statistic in their books. We must not forget that what happened to six million Jews and nearly five million others can indeed happen again, and is in fact happening in different guises, in several parts of the globe right now.

Now, as it was then, indifference to the human circumstance is a grave sin and danger to the future of us all. It matters not whether the sins are committed against Jews, Christians, Moslems, Afghans, Indians, Blacks or Nicaraguans or other minorities, it is a diminution of the value of human life if we stand by and do nothing. If we have opinions and do not express them against such evil then we are as guilty as were the Nazi collaborators and supporters and the "good people" who remained silent and "minded their own business" and did nothing, remaining oblivious to the horrors happening right at their doorsteps.

To paraphrase the poets "the greatest evil happens when good men do nothing." The "small miracle" of what happened in Nazi Europe was the people who helped to hide, sustain, spirit away and falsify documents for Jews were "common" people like you and me despite danger to their own lives." I asked father what would happen to them if the Nazis found out they were hiding us. Pim said that they would suffer the same fate that we would. Imagine! They know that and yet when they come up here they're always cheerful and gay as if there were nothing in the world to bother them" (Anne Frank's Diary.)

Readers who are in their 40's or over should be able to recollect the rise of the American Civil Rights movement in the 1950's and 60's, in which I and many of my generation, common, every day people, in many ways big and small made a contribution on behalf of their fellow Americans and changed the course of our history. It has been the case throughout history where people care, the early Christians hiding from the Romans, English clergy protected during the Reformation, the "underground railroad" during the American Civil War etc., it was the common people who helped at their own risk.

BORN THIS WEEK

April 11th, actor Joel Grey; 12th, actress Ann Miller; 13th, actor Howard Keel; 14th, actress Julie Christie; 15th, actress Elizabeth Montgomery; 16th, composer Henry Mancini; 17th, actress Monique Van Vooren.

More than 56 other Republican and Democratic members of the House have joined me in introducing legislation to correct the infamous Social Security "notch" problem that is unfairly penalizing tens of thousands of older Americans.

By slightly modifying the Social Security Act, the bill would close the notch which has allowed individuals born months, weeks, and even days apart to receive widely disparate benefits. The difference can be as much as $110 a month.

This has weakened confidence in the fairness of Social Security and represents a terrible breach of faith with millions of retirees who worked long and hard for their benefits only to find them arbitrarily reduced by substantial amounts. Many beneficiaries believe that they are being cheated and are demanding that Congress take corrective action.

To explain the notch, we must go back to 1972, before I was elected to the House. At that time Congress amended the Social Security Act to provide for an annual cost-of-living increase in benefits. The formula adopted for computing the adjustment, however, was fundamentally flawed because it compensated beneficiaries twice for inflation - once for the national increase in wages and a second time for the rise in prices.

Former President Carter called attention to the problem, warning that the higher benefit levels were pushing the Social Security system into bankruptcy. He requested a new formula which became law in 1977. To guard against an abrupt change that would severely penalize some beneficiaries, and to provide some element of fairness in implementing the new formula, a plan reducing benefits was implemented over a five-year period for those born from 1917 through 1921. They became known as "notch babies" because their annual benefits are lower than those who were born earlier.

When the new formula was enacted to eliminate double compensation for inflation, it was projected that there would be a difference of less than $10 a month in the benefits received by persons born after 1916. What the projections did not contemplate was the raging, double-digit inflation that wracked the national economy from 1978-1980. The high rate of inflation and the decision to exclude earnings received after age 62 in computing the benefits of those born subsequent into 1916 combined to turn a notch, expected to be just a few dollars, into gap in benefits as much as $110 a month.

This disparity has outraged older Americans and caused them to question the fairness of the Social Security system itself, and rightfully so. It is not fair.

As the ranking minority member of the Select Committee on Aging, who has a close liaison with the elderly and is committed to protecting their security, I want to eliminate this disparity. This can be done by slightly modifying the formula approved in 1977 and stretching out the period over which the changes would be introduced. The bill has broad bipartisan support, and I am hopeful it will receive favorable consideration in the Ways and Means Committee, which will have the final say on whether it is brought to the floor of the House for a vote.

An individual contributing to Social Security has a fundamental right to expect that he or she will be treated equally with other workers.

The prevailing attitude in the "Show Me" state of Missouri seems to be, "Show me a good cause, and I'll willingly pay more taxes," says National Wildlife magazine. In both 1976 and 1984, as other tax-raising measures were defeated, the citizens of Missouri approved increases in the state sales tax to fund conservation programs. So far, no other state has followed suit.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

history at this time of the fortieth anniversary observances of the end of World War II should remind us that we are all responsible one for another. Even a small effort made towards helping fellow human beings who need help is a valuable contribution to the future of all mankind. It is said that history repeats itself and surely we have seen that borne out too often. It is to be hoped that nothing like the Holocaust will ever happen again. It will not if we keep ourselves aware of our human responsibilities each to the other. It is important that we think, feel and act, if, as a race, we are to survive. We, the bulk of society, the common people can make a difference in the way of the world. I do believe that strongly and quote Anne Frank again from her diary "...in spite of everything I still believe that people are really good at heart."

I hope many of our community will attend the Holocaust observance in tribute to those who died and looking ahead with a renewed commitment to the future. I know I will be there.

VOLUNTEER WEEK

Editor, Leader:
I was genuinely pleased to read your editorial on volunteerism in last week's Leader. We are indeed fortunate to have so many Westfield residents who are able to give of their talents and skills, time and financial resources to benefit our community.

I call your attention to National Volunteer Week which will be celebrated April 22-28. Our organization has joined with the Greater Westfield Section of the National Council of Jewish Women and the Westfield Area League of Women Voters to sponsor "Working Together To Effect Change." I invite all volunteers in our area to join us when Joan M. Wright, director of the Division on Women for New Jersey, speaks on this topic Tuesday, April 23, at 8 p.m. at the Campus Center Theater on the Cranford campus of Union County College. We believe this is a fitting way to recognize the active volunteers in our community and give them a pat on the back for contributions they so generously give!

Sonja Burkett,
President
Junior League of
Elizabeth-Plainfield

APPRECIATES SUPPORT

I wish to thank the Westfield community for giving me the opportunity to serve it as a member of the Westfield school board. I am grateful to the Westfield Leader and its editorial writers who challenged its readers "to become involved" in the all important task of making policy contributions affecting the education of our young people.

The challenges of this mission, and its responsibilities, are exciting and rewarding. To maintain the excellence of our school system is everybody's job. Communicating with each other in good faith remains at the core of our free society. I shall dedicate myself to that end. Our school system remains one of the main attractions for people coming in from other parts of the state and country. From my vantage point of working in town I can make such a statement with informed conviction.

To the people of Westfield, once again, many thanks. I shall work very hard to be worthy of your precious vote of confidence.

Al Miele
Dartmoor.

THANKS CONTRIBUTORS

Editor, Leader:
We are happy to report to report the success of the Westfield Volunteer Rescue Squad 1985 Fund Drive.

On behalf of the members we wish to thank all those who so generously contributed to this year's campaign. We regret that time and money make it impossible to thank each person individually, because every donation, large and small, is deeply appreciated.

Being a member of the Rescue Squad is generally a rewarding experience, but at times it can be frustrating and it can involve a great deal of work. The response to our appeal for funds is gratifying and encouraging to each of us at it indicates that our efforts are truly appreciated.

We would also like to take this opportunity to mention those who supported our 1985 Fund Drive through special efforts whose value is immeasurable. Mayor Ronald Frigerio provided the backing of the Town of Westfield by his proclamation of March as Westfield Volunteer Rescue Squad Month. Warren Rorden, president of the Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce, graciously represented the Rescue Squad in our appeal to Westfield businesses. The staff of the Westfield office of the Central Jersey Bank and Trust Company cheerfully spent many hours processing our fund drive returns. Dan Kelly and his staff at the Westfield Department of Public Works cooperated in providing assistance with the fund drive signs at the railroad station. The Westfield Leader has been generous in providing prominent space in the newspaper for the fund drive publicity.

Again, we thank everyone who helped make the 1985 Fund Drive of the Westfield Volunteer Rescue Squad a success. The residents and businesses of Westfield can count on us to maintain our service as we have for the past 34 years.

REPLY UNSATISFACTORY

Editor, Leader:
In reply to my open letter of March 21, addressed to Dr. Greene, Superintendent of Schools and Mr. Sensus, president of the Board of Education, I received the following reply from Dr. Greene:

"Dear Mrs. Gorsky:
"Thank you for your letter of March 21, 1985.

"You are mistaken when you state that the Young Leftists Club comes under the new Equal Access Act of 1984.

"The Young Leftists Club is a club with a faculty sponsor like other clubs.

"So far, no group has applied to us to meet under the auspices of the Equal Access Act of 1984."

As far as I am concerned, Dr. Greene's letter makes matters even worse. For weeks the impression was given that the Young Leftists Club in the WHS is beyond reproach, because under the Equal Access Act of 1984, the club has a legal right to exist. Could it be, that by questioning the legality of the club's organizational structure (like have a teacher as an advisor), I hit the proverbial nail on the head??? Could it be, that by suddenly assuming responsibility for the existence of the Young Leftists Club, the board, the faculty and Dr. Greene had to choose the lesser of two evils???

Whatever the case may be, Dr. Greene's letter places the responsibility for the existence of the club on the board and the faculty, and this brings us right back to square one.

I like to reiterate: It is my opinion, that if the club comes under the Equal Access Act of 1984, its organizational structure is illegal and the board must void any and all of the club's activities and decisions. If the Young Leftists Club is faculty sponsored, then we, the taxpayers of Westfield, have a right to object emphatically, because in that case we are paying for the club's existence with our tax money.

adequately. I would do nothing and continue to leave the doors of communication open between you. I do not want a conflict to develop over focusing on him to "stop it." At the same time self-destructive habits do need professional help.

A reader writes:
Several years ago you responded to letters about cable television. You felt that a family should subscribe to cable if it wanted to — and that parents, basically, should supervise what is seen in the home. This has worked very effectively for my family and I thank you for your direction. Recently we purchased a VCR and found that, more than ever, we have to be more sensitive about what comes into the home — because our children can tape and play back whatever they want to. Decisions, decisions, decisions. These technological advances bring so many headaches. But do you see any reason to avoid purchasing a VCR?

Answer:
No, not if one can afford a VCR and if a family wants one. The family members must decide how it wants to be entertained. I respect each family's right to use discretion and good judgement regarding what it wants. Certainly I highly recommend that family members discuss and communicate their preference and that in the situations where young children and young teenagers live, parents continue to provide supervision. Now let's see... what shall I choose... is my son asleep...?

E'Town Flushing Hydrants

Elizabethtown Water Company announced today that the company will begin its annual fire hydrant flushing program on April 14, and will continue it until all hydrants in the area served by the company have been properly flushed. The company anticipates that the program will be completed by early June.

Each spring Elizabethtown Water Company flushes its hydrants in order to dislodge any accumulated sediment and to have an opportunity to make sure they are functioning and ready for service when needed.

Although the flushing may cause some minimal inconvenience to customers it helps insure future inconvenience during heavier summer demands. As a hydrant is flushed, the water sometimes becomes rusty and discolored as the force of the new water rushing through the pipes dislodges small particles of rust and sedimentation.

For several hours following the flushing, water coming from taps in nearby houses may remain discolored. The water is safe to drink although not aesthetically pleasing during this period.

Very few customers are affected by the flushing operation, because the company makes every effort to prevent inconvenience. All flushing is accomplished between the hours of 10 p.m. and 6 a.m. — a time when children will not ordinarily be playing in the street and there is less vehicular traffic.

Glenda Schmidt to Open Financial Planning Series

Glenda A. Schmidt will be the speaker at the first of a two part seminar on "Women's Financial Planning" sponsored by the associate membership of the Westfield Service League. These sessions will be held on Wednesday evenings, April 17 and 24, in the Children's Specialized Hospital auditorium starting at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Schmidt, a financial consultant and vice president of Halberstadt Financial Consultants Inc. of Princeton, is an alumna of the University of Illinois where she received a B.A. degree and a M.A. degree in economics. She also attended advanced financial classes at the New York Institute of Finance. Mrs. Schmidt has been a financial consultant both to individuals and non-profit organizations and has been an economic analyst and speculative commodity and stock option trader.

In addition to teaching financial courses and conducting seminars, Mrs. Schmidt has been a contributing financial columnist to area newspapers and has been actively involved in many facets of the financial world.

Both sessions are open to the public free of charge.

Senator Bill Bradley, center, honorary chairman of the newly-formed New Jersey Association for Lifelong Learning, with Harriet Diamond of Westfield, the association's first president, and Frank Mancuso, outgoing president of the New Jersey Association for Adult Education.

Diamond to Head New State Association

Harriet Diamond of Westfield will be the first president of the New Jersey Association for Lifelong Learning. Diamond has served for the past 10 years on the Executive Board of the Association of Adult Education of New Jersey. She developed an effective campaign to acquaint state and federal legislators with the benefits of lifelong learning programs and has edited the AAENJ journal, The Adult Educator, and the inaugural issue of the New Jersey Journal of Lifelong Learning. A veteran adult educator, Diamond is now a principal with Diamond Associates, human resource development consultants.

Senators Bill Bradley and Frank Lautenberg are the honorary co-chairman for the new state association that will combine the resources of the association for Adult Education of New Jersey and the Association for Community Education of New Jersey. The New Jersey Association for Lifelong Learning will hold its inaugural conference April 24-27 at Harrah's in Atlantic City.

Senator Bradley, in a letter of congratulations to the members of NJALL, said, "One of the central tasks facing our nation today involves learning to embrace demands on all of us. If, as a society, we are to truly meet the challenge of embracing change, we will need to view education as a process that takes place across our entire lifespan."

Senator Lautenberg, in a letter to NJALL members commented, "Our ever-changing society has made lifelong learning almost a necessity. Adult and continuing education programs not only give citizens the tools to compete in the job market — they also add to the quality of life."

The purpose of NJALL is to encourage the growth and development of lifelong learning activities. AAENJ and ACE-NJ have a long history of support for adult and community education. NJALL will continue and strengthen this tradition. New Jersey has always been a leader in the area of lifelong learning, offering model programs, materials development, and most important, quality professionals and strong community support. New Jersey's success in this field, according to Diamond, is also attributable to strong bipartisan legislative support within the state and by New Jersey's federal legislators. The Kean administration has been especially sympathetic to the needs of the lifelong learner.

Joining Diamond in leadership for the first year will be Debra Gabriella, president-elect, Mary Starita, vice president, Judy Reichter, secretary, Dan Melchior, treasurer, and Bill Grippo and Frank Mancuso, past presidents of ACE-NJ and AAENJ.

Members of the executive board will be Gloria Durham, Nancy Finby, Lynn Klem, John Gordon, John Radig, Robert Rago, Pat Saries, Valerie Bianco, Carol Dann, Pearl Greenslein, Ray Heagle, Bill Huber, Phyllis Klugerman, Carole Miller, Frank Nichols, Harold Sahm and Milt Wallace. Board members are professionals representing a wide spectrum of lifelong learning programs including adult basic skills and adult high school programs, adult and community education programs, continuing education programs offered at county colleges, colleges, and universities, and training programs within education, business and industry. Membership in NJALL will be open to all those persons committed to the concept of lifelong learning.

Anyone interested in attending the conference or joining NJALL may call Harold Sahm.

WE'VE GOT A PLAN TO LOWER YOUR GAS BILL:

Conserve & Save

Working with the New Jersey Board of Public Utilities and Department of Energy, we've developed a plan to make it easy and affordable to install practical conservation measures. The plan is called "Conserve & Save" and includes:

LOW-COST HOME ENERGY AUDITS

These audits, valued at $70 each, are part of the New Jersey Department of Energy's Home Energy Savings Program, and cost you only $15. It is free to Lifeline recipients.

A specially trained auditor will inspect your home for energy wasting conditions, and issue a detailed report on how to correct the problems and reduce your energy cost.

A free weatherization kit is included. Free literature and do-it-yourself audit instructions are also available. This program is available for gas heating customers residing in one- to four-family dwellings.

NO INTEREST/ LOW INTEREST LOANS

If you own and live in a gas-heated one- to four-family dwelling, you may be able to pay for qualifying conservation measures with a no-interest or low-interest loan from a participating bank, provided you have an approved HESP audit.

No-interest loans are available to homeowners with family incomes under $30,000. Those with family incomes over $30,000 are eligible for loans at half the current consumer loan rate.

Loans will range from $500 to $4000, for terms of four to six years, subject to credit approval by the lending institution and determination of the cost-effectiveness of the improvements.

ASSISTANCE TO LOW-INCOME HOUSEHOLDS*

Working through selected social service agencies, we're providing low-income gas-heated households with free weatherization kits and free installation of cost-effective weatherization measures.

*Low-income households are defined as those not exceeding the following income limits: family size in parentheses: (1) $7,470, (2) $10,080, (3) $12,690, (4) $15,300, (5) $17,910, (6) $20,520. Add $2,610 per family for each person over 6 total in family.

REBATE TOWARD CLOCK THERMOSTAT PURCHASE

If you buy and install an energy-saving clock thermostat, we will give you a $10 rebate. You will soon receive a rebate request card with your bill. Please fill it in and return to us to get your $10 rebate coupon, which you will use when purchasing your clock thermostat at any retail outlet.

FREE LITERATURE AND INFORMATION

Free conservation information and literature is always available at any of our offices. Be sure to ask for our new "Conserve & Save" pamphlet that outlines this and all of our programs in detail.

Devil Batsmen Open Season, Post 1-2 Record

By Todd Brecher

The WHS varsity baseball team won its first three games defeating Union Catholic but losing to Cranford and Johnson Regional.

After losing their first two games, The Blue Devils faced Union Catholic, a state champion last year, and defeated them 8-1. Sophomore Todd Graf pitched six innings of four-hit baseball while second baseman Chris Diaz had two hits and two RBI's to lead Westfield to the victory.

Westfield did most of its damage in the second inning, when they sent nine men to the plate against Viking pitcher Frank Prudente and came up with six consecutive hits and five runs. Andy Kendeigh and Mike Connell hit back-to-back singles to start the rally and Chris Materson then singled to drive in Kendeigh. After Connell scored on a throwing error by Prudente, Diaz struck the big blow of the inning, a two-run triple which made the score 4-0. The Devils added another run in the inning to take a 5-0 advantage.

Union Catholic scored its only run in the top of the third inning but then committed four of its eight errors in the bottom of the fifth as the Devils pushed three insurance runs across the plate to take an 8-1 lead. Jeff Monninger relieved Graf in the top of the seventh and retired all three men he faced to seal the easy victory.

Westfield had a case of opening-day jitters in its first game of the year, committing four errors (and several mental errors) and was beaten 13-1 by a good Cranford team.

The Devils scored the first run of the game when Materson singled in the top of the second to score pitcher Chuck Mueller. However, in the bottom of the inning Mueller, who struck out four of the first six men he faced allowed two unearned runs. Mueller, a sophomore starting his first varsity game, lost his composure and Cranford scored 11 runs over the next three innings (seven off Mueller).

Pitcher Mike Reilly led the way for Cranford as he went 3 for 4, scored three runs and had three RBI's, while allowing Westfield just five hits in six innings. Erwin Camacho also had a big day, going 4 for 4, scoring three runs, and stealing two bases.

In the second game of the season, the Devil's Derek Muller and Johnson Regional's Eddie Hanevald engaged in an excellent pitching duel as they each went the distance and allowed only 13 hits between them. When it was over, Westfield had come out on the short end of a 3-2 score.

The biggest play of the game came in the top of the sixth with Johnson leading 2-1, two out, and a Johnson player on second base. Al Sherb hit a ground ball to the shortstop Graf who threw it away allowing an important run to score and giving Johnson a 3-1 lead.

Westfield had a chance for a big inning in the bottom of the sixth but had runners thrown out at home and third and could only score one run, that on a Dave Cowell sacrifice fly. The Devils were shut down in the bottom of the seventh and Johnson took the victory.

WHS had taken an early lead in the second inning when Materson led off with a triple and Graf scored him with a ground ball. However, Johnson scored two runs in the bottom of the fourth on sacrifice flies by Vinny Sabba and Marty Venezia and took the 2-1 lead that they would parlay into the victory.

The Devils faced Linden yesterday (too late for Leader deadline) and will travel to Scotch Plains tomorrow.

Netsters Impressive In 5-0 Opener

By Henry Span

The WHS tennis team opened up its season last week with an easy 5-0 victory over Union Catholic. The netsters had been scheduled to play the day before against Cranford, but the match was rained out.

The netsters looked impressive against Union Catholic, which managed to win only three games in five matches. At first singles, junior Robert Rogers shut out his opponent 6-0, 6-0. At second and third singles, freshmen Dean Huddleston and Joe Deer won their matches by comfortable margins, 6-1, 6-1, and 6-0, 6-0, respectively.

The doubles teams also looked strong. At first doubles, senior Andy Yearley, who's played first doubles two years prior to this year, matched up with newcomer Mike Drury to win handily 6-0, 6-0. The young second doubles team of Adam Sherman and Hampton Tener also won easily 6-0, 6-1.

A humble Coach Berardo stated afterwards, "It's not that we played so well, it's just that Union Catholic needs a lot of work on the basics." Indeed, Union Catholic's main problem was getting the ball in play, whether serving or returning serve.

A tougher test of this squad's ability occurred on Tuesday (too late for Leader deadline) against highly-rated Delbarton. Their next important match will take place on Tuesday, 3:45 p.m. at home, against Union county rival, Summit.

Trackmen Strong In Spring Meets

By Kevin Culligan

The Westfield High School varsity spring track opened the season with a third place finish in the Kearny Relays, as well as dual meet victories against Cranford and Union Catholic.

Westfield's score of 19 in the Kearny Relays was 2 points behind Thomas Jefferson (N.Y.) and 7 points behind Morristown. Westfield did well in the field events, winning the pole vault relay, placing second in the long jump relay and third in the shot put relay. The team also did well in the sprinting events with a fourth place finish in the 4x200 and fifth in the spring medley.

The winning pole vault relay team had a total height of 22 feet with Rob Carney and Karl Koederitz both vaulting 11 feet.

In the long jump relay, Steve Barden jumped 21'5" and Marc Giaccone jumped 18'5". Drew Cary had a put of 49'7" and Matt Ballister heaved the shot 38'4" in the third place shot put relay.

Stickmen Earn 2-0 Opening Record

By Michael Emanuel

This season is the first time in the history of Westfield lacrosse that the varsity squad has started out with a 2-0 record.

The team has completed the opening week of competition with victories over Summit and Princeton. This year is also the first time that the WHS varsity lacrosse team beat Summit; they did so by winning 11-5 in Summit.

The Blue Devils started off the season on a positive note against Summit when Rob Schmalz scored forty seconds into the opening game. Schmalz finished the day with three goals and an assist.

Senior tri-captain Chris Capano filled the nets with three goals and an assist as well from his midfield spot. Senior tri-captain Dave Hone controlled the offensive tempo with a goal and three assists from his attack position, and senior tri-captain Chris Aslanian scored four goals from the attack including a beautiful behind-the-back shot.

But for this year's lacrosse team, there seemed to be no question about the potency of its offense, if anything, it was the lack of experience of their defense which was in question.

But the defense composed of senior goalie Steve Ciarrocca, senior defenseman Curt Cheesman and Rob Sidebottom, and sophomore John Telling met the challenge in the opening week. The particular concern in the Summit game was Summit's strong attackman Chris Tyler.

Coach Shaun Cherewich placed Cheesman on the assignment of shadowing Tyler. Although Tyler finished the day with three goals, Cheesman and the defense did an outstanding job of controlling him so the Blue Devil offense could go to work.

Midfielders Capano, senior Jim Miller, juniors John Macaluso and Paul Schirmer, and sophomores Jim Fox and Todd Prybylski were effective in supporting the attack and helping out on defense.

The Blue Devil lacrosse squad continued their winning ways last Saturday against Princeton, defeating them 13-3. The game was marked by an outstanding five goal performance by Hone and an equally impressive three goal, two assist effort by Schmalz. Goals were also tallied by Aslanian, Capano, Macaluso, Miller, and senior middle Mike O'Brien. Capano also passed for two assists and Fox had one.

The goal that was most crucial to Westfield's victory came with 9:09 left in the second quarter. With Capano, Hone, and two Princeton players off on penalties, Rob Schmalz scored on a solo effort to give the Blue Devils the lead for the first time in the game. Westfield scored six goals in the second quarter which gave them a 7-2 lead going into halftime.

After somewhat of a slow start, the WHS defense held strong, while the offense created a lead which they were never to relinquish.

Yesterday, the WHS varsity lacrosse team opposed Johnson Regional of Clark in their first inter-divisional matchup (too late for Leader deadline). Saturday, they face Delbarton in what should prove to be a tough game.

Trinity Ends Season in 2nd Place, Coach Dilorio Fields Last Team

By Joe Nazzaro

Holy Trinity finished its 1984-85 season by placing second in the Suburban Catholic League playoffs. St. Agnes, Clark, won first place by defeating Holy Trinity 45-34 in the final game. Holy Trinity was 14-4 in regular season play, 1-1 in league playoffs, and 2-1 in the Msgr. Whelan Tournament. Totals for the year were 17 wins and six losses.

Holy Trinity got off to a galloping start by outscoring its first four opponents 276-100. After a defeat by St. Agnes it went on a 9 game winning streak and on Feb. 19 it had lost only one of 15 games for a 14-1 record.

With the conclusion of this season, Coach Dominick Dilorio ends a five year career as Coach at Holy Trinity. Along with his hard working Assistant Coach John Pirich, his Holy Trinity Teams amassed 75 wins and 25 losses. ### OUR GOLDEN AGE OF BASEBALL

By Sandra Pavleszek

With modern diamonds all over town, all in full use at the peak of the youth baseball season, we are justified in thinking that baseball has come a long way in Westfield. But baseball is a game of tradition, and Westfield's baseball traditions go way, way back, before the turn of the century.

Shine Manning was one of Westfield's legendary players under manager Charlie Denman at Recreation Park in the 1900's, a fenced-in ball park located about where Lincoln School now stands. Shine was a first baseman who seldom made an error — despite the fact he never wore a mitt. He played on the Young Stars with Billy Sansome, Albie Coombs, Chauncey Smith, Morey Townley, Al Coger, Dink Taylor and many more. Shine was black, playing with whites, and in those days it took a while for him to earn the respect of the fans. Once he did, he became a local idol.

Another of the legendary homes of Westfield baseball was Drake Park. It stood on Park St. between Summit Ave. and the Boulevard before being torn down for housing development in the 1890s. Uncle Al Drake, whose estate was to become Stoneleigh Park, was a one-man Booster Club who built the park and sold the tickets. A young lawyer named Charlie Coddling, who lived where 545 Boulevard stands today, managed Westfield's entry in the Tri-County League.

Jack Warner, battery mate of the great pitcher Christy Mathewson, caught for two seasons in Westfield before he signed with the New York Giants, and the great Christy himself is said to have pitched here more than once.

Competition was intense in those days of the Central Jersey League. Rivals included Somerville, Plainfield, Elizabeth and Cranford. In 1903 Westfield beat every team in the county. Plainfield was tired of losing and hired a team of professionals, including the Athletics' great pitcher Eddie Plank — just to beat Westfield in the final game of the season. The strategy succeeded as Plank blanked the Westfielders 3-0.

These were some of the exciting things that happened at Drake Park and Recreation Park long ago.

Anything but a "Dog's Life" at Nursing Home

"Sparky," a border collie, has found a warm home at the Westfield Convalescent Center, the first nursing home in Union County to have a pet therapy dog. Acquired last year through Therapy Dogs International, Sparky is now a beloved member of the Westfield Convalescent Center's Staff.

"Sparky brings warmth and comfort to the residents," said Recreation Director Shirley Sporman, "particularly those who once had a favorite pet. Most of the residents love him."

"One resident, Dr. George Child, goes out in the courtyard for some sun every noontime, and Sparky goes out with him, and other residents and staff walk Sparky from time to time," Mrs. Sporman said.

Sparky begins each day by "making the rounds" of the center's offices, where he greets the arriving workers. He then wanders through the one-floor building, getting petted and pampered by the residents enjoying their breakfasts.

In the early days, too many residents and staff felt they had to feed Sparky. Patients saved their desserts and snacks. One staffer even used to make Hungarian goulash for Sparky.

"I had to put a stop to it," said Mrs. Sporman, who asserted that the dog is now restricted to doggy treats she controls.

"The value of a friendly, obedient dog as therapy for the elderly is documented repeatedly in current studies," says Elaine Smith, secretary of Therapy Dogs International.

If Sparky could talk, he'd certainly rave about the values of being a therapy dog at the Westfield Convalescent Center.

Eye Openers

TINTED LENSES

Q: Why do people wear tinted lenses all the time?
A: They do so by choice. Lightly tinted lenses, or gradient lenses, were first introduced to help eyeglass wearers who were sensitive to indoor light. They were never intended to replace sunglasses, because they only cut out 20 percent of the light in the atmosphere.

Today, in addition to giving sensitive eyes a more comfortable way to see, tinted lenses have become fashionable. The tint used in the lens may have various gradations of color that gradually increase, toward the edges, in tone. We do most of our seeing out of the clearest or least tinted section of the lens.

The most commonly-used tints are brown and grey. Blue is also popular. The tints can be flattering to your face and eyes. They help hide wrinkles around the eyes and dark shadows under the eyes. Yet no one looking at you can tell that the lenses are tinted, if the color is pale.

WARNING: Don't wear lightly tinted gradient lenses where darker gradient sunglasses should be worn. A lens must screen out from 75 percent to 90 percent of sunlight if glasses are to give your eyes any sort of protection from harmful sun rays. Lightly tinted lenses can't do that.

When you're given a prescription, to aid in the relief or prevention of an asthma attack, bring it to the expiration date to be sure of its effectiveness. We will also give some guidance in filling out the forms. Bring your Easter photos here for finishing. Hours: Mon thru Fri 9am-9pm, Sat 9am-6pm, Holidays 9am-1pm.

ATTACK ON ASTHMA

Asthma is a chronic disease. It involves a reversible obstruction of the airways, specifically the bronchi and bronchioles, which are the large and small tubes that carry air into the lungs. The newest pharmaceutical entry in the battle against asthma is a drug called cromolyn. While it cannot "turn off" an asthma attack that has already started, it has been effective in preventing attacks. Patients with exercise-induced asthma can take cromolyn before exercising. It has also been found to be effective in blocking allergy-induced asthma attacks. One study showed that children who take cromolyn before bedtime are better able to sleep through the night. Morning wheezing is reduced and the youngsters can participate in normal athletic activities.

HANDY HINT: There is reason to believe that asthmatics tend to "outgrow" acute attacks.

Westfield Rosarian Enlisting Rose Lovers

"It's not easy to grow roses in this area," noted Phil Keeler of Westfield, rosarian at the Reeves-Reed Arboretum, Summit, who invites interested men and women to learn about rose culture by helping to rejuvenate the Arboretum's rose beds.

The Susan Graham Reeves Rose Garden dates back to 1925 and currently contains 200 roses of 50 varieties, primarily modern hybrids and floribundas.

No prior knowledge is required since step-by-step instruction will be provided. Keeler has arranged Saturday work dates beginning April 20 at 10 a.m. when fertilizer must be worked into the soil and mulch removed. Other work dates are scheduled for June 8 and July 13, at 10 a.m.

Those who would like to work directly with and learn about growing roses in this area are asked to bring their own trowel, gardening gloves, a hand cultivator if possible and a kneepad if desired.

To volunteer to work and learn, call Monday, Tuesday or Thursday. The Arboretum is located at 165 Hobart Ave. near Rt. 24.

Tamaques Brownies Bring Easter To Convalescent Center Residents

Brownie Scouts from Troops 502 and 430 arrived at the Westfield Convalescent Center April 1 with Easter baskets they had made and with songs and dances from many lands which they performed for the residents.

The girls sang old favorites like "Make New Friends," "Waltzing Matilda," and "Kookaburra," that the residents knew. Many joined in on "Kookaburra."

The Brownies then danced a German Shoemaker's Dance, the Mexican Hat Dance, and the European Children's Polka.

After the girls presented residents with the Easter baskets, the generations shared refreshments.

County Parks Fee Schedule Announced

The Union County Department of Parks and Recreation, which operates 25 parks and facilities on more than 5,400 acres of land, has announced that fees for 1985 have held the line at most locations.

The Parks Department also reminds area residents that the scooter law is in effect and enforced. All dogs must be kept on a leash no more than six feet in length when being walked through the park system.

Roller skating, which runs from mid-May to mid-July at the Warinanco Skating Center, Roselle, will now cost $1 for everyone. Facilities retaining 1984 fee schedules are Watchung Stables, general admission at both Wheeler Pool in Linden and Rahway Pool tennis courts, ball field and picnic reservations, the Lenape Park Trap and Skeet Range, the Rifle and Pistol Range, and rentals of the hand wagon and sound system (available only to recognized organizations in Union County).

The county's three golf courses, Gallop Hill in Kenilworth, Oak Ridge in Clark and Ash Brook in Scotch Plains, will have slight increases in fees this year. However, fees for I.D. cards at the golf courses have not been increased for 1985. The county has experienced increased costs of maintenance, materials and supplies, officials said, adding that these costs must be met to keep the quality of the courses in top condition. Extensive work on greens, tees, irrigation systems, as well as general maintenance has been undertaken recently at both Ash Brook and Oak Ridge golf courses.

The Parks Department also reminds county residents that beer is prohibited everywhere throughout the County Park System except for the reservable picnic areas. Beer permits may be obtained for $10 no later than 4 p.m. on the Wednesday preceding the weekend or 72 hours in advance of the event.

County residents must also make reservations to use any one of the several picnic areas and ball fields in the park system. Beer permits and reservations may be obtained at the Parks Department front desk on the third floor of the Elizabeth Court-house Administration building, or by calling the front desk.

25 YEARS OF RELO SERVICE

In 1960, a small group of Realtors met to discuss an emerging problem in the real estate industry—finding good, independent brokers who could be trusted to provide expert assistance to families relocating from one community to another. They proved to have great foresight—they founded RELO/Inter-City Relocation Service.

From the very beginning, RELO members committed themselves to the philosophy of providing the finest relocation services to both corporate clients and to transferring families. Additionally, they were dedicated to provide these services in a totally caring and personalized manner.

Over the past 25 years, the industry has changed dramatically, but RELO members have remained steadfast to our philosophy and commitment to service—for the basic element of our business is still there—people! People helping people. That's where RELO members excel!

No multinational conglomerate, no impersonal franchise will ever replace the dedication, local know-how, creativity and imagination of our experienced and professional members all across America.

In 1985, we mark our 25th year... a quarter of a century! Twenty five years of providing personalized and professional relocation services which has made RELO a WORLD LEADER IN RELOCATION. Our philosophy and our commitment have become a tradition.

Nursery School Visits Baking Class

The Westfield Co-operative Nursery School children, accompanied by their teacher Jean Kiray and several co-op mothers, visited the baking class of the Union County Vocational-Technical Schools in Scotch Plains April 1. The instructor Carmine Dilorio welcomed the children and their chaperones.

His students prepared pastry ingredients and demonstrated to the children the tools used to cut the dough and the equipment which was used for a bake off. Bread dough mixing and baking was also shown during the presentation. The children were permitted to have "hands-on" experience in rolling and cutting their own cookies. This experience was offered to the children as a courtesy of the vocational-technical schools to offer valuable education to young children enabling them to learn first hand about people who work in the community. Over the years numerous groups have availed themselves of this opportunity.

Dilorio replaced the previous instructor who retired just recently. Carmine has had more than 30 years of experience in the operation of his own retail bakery in the Bergen County area as well as extensive background in adult education. He has completed all requirements for vocational teaching certification at Rutgers University.

Dilorio is active in many community organizations in his hometown of Bloomfield.

Erik Potts, Erik Larson, Chris Wood, Andrew Palumbo, Kevin Knight and Danny Megaro listen to baking instructions as Jackie Karmol, motherhelper from the Westfield Cooperative Nursery School, looks on. The students were recently given a tour of the bakery facilities at Union County Vocational-Technical Schools in Scotch Plains.

Red Cross Offers Nutrition Course

"Better Eating for Better Health," a new nutrition course is being offered to the community by the Westfield-Mountainside Chapter of the American Red Cross. "We'll help you take the guesswork out of nutrition while you learn about food, health and the diet that's right for you," said Marcia Bereset, R.D., clinical dietitian from Children's Specialized Hospital. Bereset will be the instructor for the 12 hour course being introduced for the first time in this area. Participants will learn to understand the information on food labels, to evaluate food additives, to consider the relationship between diet and disease, and to think about the vitamins, minerals, and other nutrients in food. "No matter how old or how busy you are, if you eat 'smart' you can look and feel better, be healthier, live longer, and save money too," said Bereset.

The course will be held on Thursday evenings beginning May 2 and ending June 6, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Red Cross Chapter House at 321 Elm St. Participants will receive a workbook, a poster for home use, and booklets on nutrition during pregnancy, infancy, childhood, adolescence, and adulthood. There will be a fee and registration is limited to 15.

Those interested in taking Better Eating for Better Health should contact the chapter.

Horan Receives Discimus Award

The Foundation for Educational Alternatives recently hosted a benefit dinner in honor of John J. Horan of Westfield, chairman and chief executive officer of Merck & Co., Inc.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of the Vitae Discimus award to Horan. The award, which translates from the Latin to "We teach for life," was given to honor the many contributions of Horan to education and philanthropy in New Jersey. "The commitment of John Horan to F.E.A. has helped us get our message to the northern New Jersey community," Executive Director Thomas L. Kenyon commented. "His longstanding commitment to quality education and his leadership as chairman of Merck & Company are examples for other business and industry leaders to follow."

Horan is the first recipient of the Vitae Discimus Award. He observed, "Much emphasis has been placed on the need for strengthening higher education in this country. But the colleges and universities can't do their job unless the children receive a strong foundation from our primary and secondary schools. Organizations like F.E.A. help more children get that foundation. I hope others in the business community will join me in supporting F.E.A.'s efforts."
