

Food Library Provided 30,000 Meals During First Half of 1985

During the first half of 1985, the Westfield Food Pantry at Holy Trinity served the equivalent of 30,000 meals to the needy. Family size has ranged from a single individual to as many as eight in a household. Food has been supplied for a minimum of a few days to up to two weeks, depending on the need. In the second trimester, 445 individuals were aided, 187 adults and 258 children. Among the children who were assisted, 21 of them had been abandoned and were placed with friends or relatives.

In the second quarter food contributions were made by the following churches and organizations: Church of the Assumption, Roselle Park; First Congregational Church, Westfield; First Grade Brownies, Holy Trinity School; St. Helen's Church, Westfield; Holy Trinity Church, Westfield; Junior Woman's Club, Westfield; Our Lady of Lourdes, Mountainside; The Presbyterian Church, Westfield; Senior Citizens of Westfield; St. Stephen's Anglican Catholic, Plainfield; Temple Emanu-El, Westfield and Troop 101, Franklin School, Westfield.

During the summer there is generally a decrease in contributions and an increase in requests for food. The stock is currently low on the following items: Dry milk, canned milk, jelly, spaghetti sauce, canned vegetables, cereal, soup, tuna fish, canned meals, canned fruit, coffee, tea, peanut butter, canned meat, canned pasta meals, personal care products and cleaning and laundry supplies.

Parade, Vigil Here Monday To Commemorate Hiroshima

To commemorate the 40th anniversary of the Hiroshima bombing, Union County SANE will sponsor and participate in three days of events culminating with a parade and candlelight vigil Monday in Westfield.

Literature about Hiroshima and about the current peace movement will be handed out Saturday in downtown Westfield and Elizabeth. SANE volunteers will also present slide shows in area churches. Carl High, a frequent visitor to Japan, will show slides he made at Hiroshima and got from the Hiroshima museum at the St. James United Methodist Church, Elizabeth, from 1 to 5 p.m. In Westfield, at the First Baptist Church, 170 Elm St., there will be screenings of a Common Cause slide show on what citizens can do to prevent nuclear war from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

On Sunday, some SANE members, along with members of Methodist, Quaker and other area churches, will travel to Washington, D.C. There they will help people from all over the country tie ribbons of peace around the Pentagon, the Lincoln Memorial and the Capitol, with a stretch of ribbon connecting the Lincoln Memorial with each of the others.

Local peace supporters will gather in Mindowaskin Park, at 7 p.m. on Monday, for a rally and parade. In tandem with peace groups across the nation, they

Police Chief James F. Moran reports that as a result of an ongoing investigation, Detectives Donald Fuentes, Thomas Garley and James Schneider executed a search warrant Tuesday evening, on the apartment of Richard A. Lembeke, age 21 of 19-D Elm St.

Lembeke was charged with possession of a contained dangerous substance with intent to distribute (marijuana), use of drugs and possession of drug-related paraphernalia.

Also arrested at the same address and charged with possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia and use, were Sandra Fuchs, 24, and Basil Kalellis, 23, both of Westfield.

Bail was set at $5,000 for Lembeke.

Schools' Master Plan Lists Building Needs

The need to improve Westfield's school buildings becomes clear in a huge Master Plan submitted to the State Department of Education's County Superintendent's office this summer.

The report, submitted to Dr. Vito Gagliardi, Union County Superintendent of Schools, by the Westfield Board of Education, meeting a July 1 deadline, is entitled: "Master Plan for the Educational Facilities of the Town of Westfield, Union County, New Jersey." This is the second master plan which the School Board has submitted. The first one was submitted in 1979 by

The board of trustees of the United Fund of Westfield has accepted two new agencies. Contact We Care and Union County Legal Services, to become members of the Fund and recipients of a percentage of this year's $500,000 campaign goal. At left, Austin B. Sayre, president of the United Fund board of trustees, welcomes Wesley Olson, executive director, and Mercedes Rossol, director of Deaf Contact 201, for Contact We Care and, right, Dr. Susan Fuhrman, chairman of the United Fund Admissions Committee, also welcomes Union County Legal Services with a handshake to Executive Director Richard Bennett Esq.

United Fund Adds Two Agencies

Contact We Care and Union County Legal Services have been accepted as two new agencies by the board of trustees of the Westfield United Fund. They will share in a percentage of this year's $500,000 campaign goal.

Contact, We Care, affiliated with Contact Teleministries USA, provides two major services to Westfielders and others in surrounding communities. The first of these programs, Contact

We Care helpline (232-2880), is a telephone service available to troubled, lonely, or suicidal persons who simply wish to talk about their feelings or problems. This service is staffed by volunteers who have received at least 54 hours of training in areas enabling them to deal with problems of loneliness, depression, grief, sex, and others that require an understanding of emotions. Additionally, the Contact program provides not only listening services, but crisis intervention, community information, and referral services as well.

Contact We Care's second major program, Deaf Contact 201 (232-3333), provides a communication service between deaf and hearing persons via telephones and the teletype machines located at the Contact We Care office (anonymous). (Continued last page, this section)

Use Variances in Class of Their Own

Fifth in a series on zoning regulations

Probably no single appeal for a variance brings more residents — both pro and con — to meetings of the Board of Adjustment than those seeking a "use" variance.

A "use" variance is one which asks that deviations to specific zoning patterns be granted to permit property to be used for purposes not allowed under Westfield's land use ordinance.

A use variance is the sole prerogative of the Board of Adjustment and requires five affirmative votes of the board, while other variances need only a majority of those present. Appeals to the decision of the Zoning Board of Adjustment may be directed to the Town Council, a step not applicable to in other rulings by that board.

While no two appeals for a use variance are alike, they all are judged on such merits as character of the neighborhood, conservation of property values, health and safety, potential congestion of traffic, pedestrian safety, effect on the use and enjoyment of adjacent properties, nature and intensity of use, adequacy of utility, drainage and other facilities, and objectives of the land use ordinance and Master Plan of the Town of Westfield.

Despite these odds, each year brings a small number of applications to permit a deviation from zoning patterns.

At the present time, the Board of Adjustment is hearing an appeal for a use variance from Eastgate Square Inc. to develop a tract of 2.3 acres on East Broad St. between West Ct. and Fairview Cemetery into 20 two-story condominium townhouse units. The tract is located in a residential zone (R-100) which, for starters, requires 100 ft. frontage for each building lot.

Hearings on the proposal are expected to continue in September.

The zoning board recently denied a use variance for using the current site of a service station at the corner of East Broad St. and Springfield Ave. as a real estate office. The gas station had been in existence for many years, predating the current zoning provisions, which specify not only that pre-existing uses may continue but that "any building, structure or use of land which is non-conforming because of use shall not be enlarged, extended or changed to another non-conforming use in any manner whatsoever."

Clearly, the Board of Adjustment must take into consideration the best use of the land and any resulting impact on the community, knowing that its decision can be challenged in the courts.

Other use variances which have brought area residents to hours of public hearings have included in recent years, among others, an appeal by Lincoln Federal Savings & Loan to convert the Columbus School property to a commercial use, an appeal to convert existing buildings in the Holy Trinity Elementary School/convent complex to condominiums, use property on North Ave. for an office building, and build apartments on North Ave. at Fourth Ave.

Almost all of the appeals spanned several meetings and drew numerous comments from residents. Lincoln Federal was denied a use variance and property has now been zoned into several lots on which common-wall homes will be built.

Harvey Gerber, a former Westfield resident, was granted a use variance for his project on Trinity Pl. across from the high school, bought the property from the State of New Jersey which had found its plan to use the site for a visually-impaired program impractical, and is currently renovating the buildings.

The proponent of North Ave. office building was denied his appeal after much discussion on traffic patterns, ingress and egress, etc. The site has become home of the new Westfield Diner.

The apartment complex at North Ave. and Fourth Ave. was widely supported by its neighbors who saw the project as a welcome buffer between their residential property and more commercial use. The use variance was granted and construction completed.

Foundation Keeps Westfield Young People Working

Being helpful and earning spending money at the same time are the motivations of seven Westfield young people who have summer employment as a result of grants from the Westfield Foundation. For the third year in a row, the Foundation has contacted service organizations and municipal agencies asking that they submit requests. Of ten proposals submitted, seven have been funded for 1985. Three young women and four young men are employed.

Linda Jenkins is working as a general helper at the Westfield Day Care Center. She is located at the Infant Care facility on West Broad St. and helps with food preparation, clean-up and all of the many details in caring for ten children from three months to 2½ years. Linda comes from a large family of six girls and two boys and will be a high school senior in September. Her hope is to further her education after high school and become a fashion designer.

Ken O'Brien is employed by the United Fund of Westfield for the second summer in a row. Ken is helping the Fund in two areas he likes best, computer work and public relations. Ken graduated this June from Westfield High with academic honors and will attend the University of Denver in September. At WHS Ken served as tri-editor of the Hi's Eye and received much recognition of his writing and photographic ability. Among his awards were a first place in the Courier News High School Journalism Contest and a first as Gold Key winner — Quill and Scroll 1985 National writing and photo contest. Ken is the only summer employee in this group who is working with skills which he intends to develop and use after college.

Joel Peyser is employed by the Red Cross as the home handyman for the summer. Joel finds great satisfaction in doing odd jobs for older citizens of Westfield and Mountainside who are unable to do certain tasks for themselves. Joel will be a senior in high school in September. He developed an interest in helping the elderly by working as vice-president of a youth group at Temple Emanu-El. Joel has one younger brother and together they are the "men" of the family as their dad passed away several years ago. Joel looks forward to a career in accounting or business administration, but recognizes the advantage of knowing how to be a home handyman.

Susan Curry has been typing, storing information in the computer and generally being helpful at the Spaulding for Children adoption agency in Westfield. She is a 1985 graduate of Westfield High, has one brother and two sisters and is grateful for a summer job as she will attend Cornell University in September. She plans to major in animal science which may lead to a career in veterinary medicine (Continued last page, this section)

Jeanne Attenborough and Gwyneth Rochlin, were presented with the YWCA Esther Bowen Volunteer Service Award at the recent annual meeting of the Westfield Y.

This is the first year this award has been given to more than one recipient. The Esther Bowen Award is presented to women who have given years of volunteer service to the YWCA and the community.

Jeanne Attenborough served as president of the YWCA board of directors and as president of the YWCA board of trustees, as well as serving on the board of directors of the Westfield Neighborhood Council and the Washington Rock Girl Scout Council. She has also been active in the Presbyterian Church.

Gwyneth Rochlin was first vice president of the YWCA board of directors and secretary of the YWCA board of trustees. She is a member of the Methodist Church and has traveled extensively with the church choir. She is currently living in the Washington, D.C., area with her husband, Jay Rochlin, who has been appointed as an advisor to President Reagan. Mrs. Rochlin is now serving on President Reagan's Committee on Employment of Handicapped, and will be working on "INSPIRE 85" with Mrs. Reagan and Mrs. Dole.

The awards were presented by Sallie Muehlenhard, president, YWCA board of trustees. Mrs. Muehlenhard also presented a plaque, honoring all recipients of the Esther Bowen Award to Bill Hunnell, President, YMCA board of directors.

H. Emerson Thomas, president of the YMCA Board of Trustees, dedicated a plaque to the YWCA. In acceptance of the dedication, Mrs. Muehlenhard stated that "We are now the Westfield Y and will continue to serve the community."

Cara A. Garofalo, a recent Westfield High School graduate, receives a Medallion of Honor from Governor Thomas Kean at the Governor's Awards in Arts Education ceremony in Trenton's State Art Museum. This ceremony honoring students and educators for their accomplishments in the arts marked the culmination of a day's celebration of the Creative and Performing Arts. Garofalo was nominated to receive this honor by both the New Jersey Council of Teachers of English and the National Foundation for Advancement in the Arts. During the ceremony she was recognized twice for her achievements in Creative Writing.

Cyclists with Cause Here Sunday P.M.

Cyclists fighting hunger, a group of Harvard-Radcliffe students, will be in this area Sunday after a transcontinental bike ride which began in San Francisco on June 8. They will be at Mindowaskin Park at 5 p.m. to lead the way to a picnic at Taylor Park, Millburn, beginning at 6 p.m. A police escort will lead the way to Taylor Park.

Westfielders are invited to join the touring group and bike to the old-fashioned picnic, and those who attend are asked to bring a picnic supper with some to share with a cyclist. Festivities will include music by "The Midnight Special."

The young people have stopped along their journey to tell of their adventure and to share their vision of a better world. The monies raised by this group are distributed through Oxfam and the Save the Children Federation.

They have made stops in Utah, Wyoming, Colorado, Missouri, Kentucky, Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania, hitting small towns and large cities, including Washington, D.C.

From here, the group will go to New York and on to Boston arriving there Aug. 10.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the Rev. Ronald Johnson, pastor of the Wyoming Presbyterian Church in Millburn.

VNHS Marks a Year Of Growth, Challenge

The Visiting Nurse and Health Services (VNHS), a voluntary, non-profit home and community health care agency serving the communities of Union County, has published its 1984 annual report. The number of home visits made in 1984 increased 6% over 1983 for a total of 144,898 visits. Time spent at community health programs increased 10% to 16,414 hours.

VNHS has been serving Union County residents for nearly 75 years and this growth is credited to the agency's awareness of and response to community needs.

"Preventive health care has received stronger emphasis in recent years and our increased time spent at clinics, health fairs and screenings reflects our commitment to wellness and health education. At the same time we remain committed to providing comprehensive care at home," says Rosemary Cuccaro, executive director.

In its home care program, VNHS can provide a patient with services that include nursing; physical, speech and occupational therapies; medical social work; home health aides; respite care; mental health nursing; nutrition guidance; health supervision and case management.

Referrals for service are made by physicians, hospitals, family, friends, social service agencies and even patients. After a referral is received, a nurse visits the patient to determine health status and needs. Working with the patient, his physician and family, the nurse establishes a care plan. In many instances, VNHS service can help a patient and family cope with illness and injury and thus prevent or delay re-entry into a hospital or other institution. Recently a Medicare-certified Hospice program has been added.

In addition to health fairs and screenings, community services include child health conferences, senior citizen health maintenance and monitoring programs, communicable disease programs, teen parent program, child abuse intervention program, school and day care nursing programs and a maternal child health program.

As a non-profit agency, VNHS strives to give service to all patients regardless of the fee source or the ability to pay. The agency accepts Medicare, Medicaid, Blue Cross of NY and NJ, and other private insurance. Free care and sliding scale fees are supported by the community through United Way; local, state and federal funds; foundation grants and individual contributions.

Westfield Convalescent Center residents enjoying the picnic at the Watchung Reservation on their "Discover Our Parks" tour provided by the Union County Park System.

Convalescent Center Residents Tour Parks

Westfield Convalescent Center residents were guests recently of Union County's award-winning "Discover Our Parks" program. Developed by Leo Spirito, park recreation supervisor, the program shows the offerings of the park system to those who might otherwise not be able to use them. The program was honored for its innovativeness in 1984 by the National Association of Counties.

Spirito came for the Westfield Convalescent Center residents in the morning and took them to the new Watchung Stables, where Fred Lazzara took them on a tour.

They watched riders take their horses through their paces. The residents then got to pet the animals.

Mrs. Margaret Loughlin was particularly thrilled to be near horses again, since her family had owned them years ago. "They are so beautiful," she exclaimed.

Spirito then took the residents to the "loop" in the Watchung Reservation where they picnicked. Then it was off to Trailside Museum and a nature walk.

"They had a good time," said Spirito. "It's a day out, a chance to see what the parks have to offer. And the program succeeds because the managers and workers at the facilities go all out to help people when they are visiting."

Of particular interest are the decorative touches in dull gold paint, fruit motifs, and the berry china set popular in Victorian times. The Museum Shop will offer for sale many new hand-crafted items.

Seaside's for Handicapped, Too

On a hot summer day have you ever wondered what it would be like to spend a day at the shore and not be able to go in the water? There are probably many of us who don't "go in the water" when we visit the shore. But it is by choice, not as for hundreds of people who live or visit New Jersey — a physical impossibility. Why? Have you ever tried getting a wheelchair across the sand and into the water and out again? You're right; it can't be done.

This summer for the first time, however, it is possible for handicapped visitors at Island Beach Park where a special boardwalk has been constructed for just this purpose. Stretching from the dunes area to the water's edge at Beach Unit No. 1, this new facility will provide access to ocean bathing for countless handicapped individuals. It is one more facility that has been added to our parks system to extend their use to a greater number of people.

Don't let midsummer doldrums divert you from a critical task: Halfway through the year is the time to assess where you stand financially. Fine-tuning your investment and tax strategy at midyear can produce important results later when tax time comes.

According to the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants (CPAs), you should make sure your strategies have kept up with the helter-skelter changes in the tax laws. Just as important, you must be alert to changes coming up in 1986 that, as of now, appear to threaten some of the most traditional tax benefits, such as deductions for interest payments or taxes to state and local government.

Some of the most dramatic developments in tax recently have been related to tax shelters. Hundreds, even thousands, of tax shelters compete for your investment dollars. Two years ago, tax shelters had attracted $6 billion, and the outlook for growth was bright. But the situation changed.

The IRS has now moved aggressively to curb those tax shelters it considers abusive. Besides that, rules have been changed — like stretching out the years for depreciating real estate or tightening up on up-front deductions for expenses that won't be incurred for years.

Last year, it became obligatory to register with the IRS tax shelters generating at least a two-to-one write-off of tax savings to investment. As a further effort to control tax-sheltering, promoters are required to maintain lists of investors for scrutiny by the IRS.

According to reports, the IRS is hardly a passive onlooker. Its agents, auditors and computers go after everybody involved in suspect tax shelters. Beyond that, the President's new tax proposals seek to eliminate more of the tax advantages of more shelters. Those developments seem to dictate new tax strategies.

Two important tax-saving measures suggested by CPAs are tax-free investments and giving away income-producing properties to family members. Each can generate tax benefits. Tax-free investments include municipal bonds, or mutual funds which invest in municipal bonds, and pass along tax-free income to shareholders. Both are attractive possibilities, but no decision should be made until comparing them against the after-tax return on taxable investments. Follow this rule of thumb: Take the tax-free yield and divide it by one minus your federal tax bracket. For example: If you are considering a 10 percent bond and you are in the 44 percent tax bracket, 10 percent would be divided by .56 (1-.44) for a result of .18. In this case, a 10 percent tax-free return is equivalent to an 18 percent return on taxable income.

Another alternative to tax sheltering is to donate appreciated property (stocks, for example). If you hold it long-term, the current value can be written off and the donor pays no tax on the gain. That has advantages over first selling the stock, then donating the proceeds. By giving the stock, you can deduct the entire amount, including its appreciated value.

TAKE MY Word FOR IT

WORD HISTORIES
BY JO & JOHN JACOBSON
VIRILITY

(Not for men only)

Virility comes from the Latin word "vir," which means man. "Virtus," meant strength, courage and excellence. Thus, to be virtuous is to have traits of a man, and if you had many manly skills, you were a virtuoso.

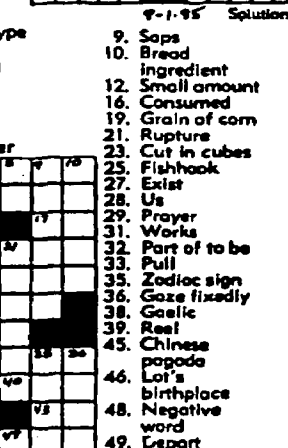

Many of these virtuous cognates now are applied to women, such as virtue, virtuous, virtuoso. Women have come a long way etymologically! But virility is still the province of men.

Partridge suggests that virgin also comes from the Latin root word "vir," probably from virgo, which is "vir" (man) plus "uigo" (without), hence without a man.

Macho and machismo are twentieth century borrowings from Spanish and refer strictly to men who have masculine qualities.

Report from Washington

By Congressman

Matt Rinaldo

7th District, New Jersey

The ability of the Veterans Administration to meet the health care needs of the growing population of older veterans will be severely tested in the coming years.

It is estimated that the number of veterans over the age of 65 will triple from the current 3 million to 9 million by 2000, greatly increasing the demand for care at VA facilities.

The VA, which turns away 20,000 veterans from health care facilities each month for lack of space, expects that by the turn of the century, two-thirds of the male senior citizens will be veterans and will be eligible for health care from the VA. This tremendous growth should not be viewed as a problem, but rather as a challenge and obligation that we will not let go unfulfilled.

As a step in the direction of meeting this obligation to the deserving men and women who served in the armed forces, I have introduced legislation in the House that would give a tax break to families who care for a veteran at home. In a nutshell, the measure would provide older and chronically ill veterans with a credit against taxes for the expenses they and their families incur in providing home-based care. Titled "Elderly Veterans Care Act," the bill would cover expenses for such things as home health aids, adult day care, respite care, nursing care, and medical or health-related equipment and supplies.

It is designed to encourage and retain an independent living environment for the elderly veterans of our nation. It would not only benefit many financially strapped families, but also save the taxpayers money by encouraging more families to care for dependent veterans at home rather than placing them in expensive institutions.

The bill would not affect in any manner the right of a veteran to receive care at a VA medical facility. The veteran would retain the option.

The tax credits would be available on a sliding scale with the most needy families receiving

Jefferson, Franklin Win Playgrounds' Town Olympics

A release of helium balloons heralded the Annual Town Olympics as two citizens of the week from every playground, the Neighborhood Council, and the entire Exceptional Center set the balloons free. Children from all of Westfield's playgrounds, the Neighborhood Council, and the Exceptional Center enjoyed the morning of challenging events. To officially begin the events, playgrounders marched in to the stadium following their respective playground banners. The athletes contributed to their teams' efforts by running obstacle courses, throwing softballs, kicking kickballs, jumping high and long, and running relays and dashes. The tug of war was the final event and it was also the toughest. While all the playgrounds did their best, the top winners in the 6-9 year old division were first - Jefferson, second - Franklin, and third - Tamaques. In the 10-12 year old division the winners were first -

Franklin, second Jefferson, and third - McKinley. The next big event is the Annual Town Picnic to be held on Aug. 7 at Tamaques Park. Bus transportation will be provided for all playgrounds.

The annual Playground Olympics looked like it belonged to the Franklin School playgrounders last week as they came in first place in the 10-12 yr. old division and second place in the 6-9 yr. old division. Franklin also was the overall Olympic champion. Some of the events competed in were the 50 yd. dash, kickball, shuttle relay, obstacle course and standing broad jump for the 6-9 yr. olds, and the 50 yd. dash, running broad jump, softball throw and high jump for the 10-12 yr. olds. Franklin also placed first in the 6-9 tug-of-war and the 10-12 440 relay.

Some of the individuals who excelled in the games were Teddy Powell who took first in the kickball, Jeff Fox who took second in the standing broad jump, Paul Jordan who took first in the running broad jump, and third in the 50 yd. dash. Lee

Money Management

Giving away income producing property is another way to lower your taxes. Transfer the property to a family member in a lower tax bracket, thus saving tax while retaining family control over the property. Money or stocks can be given to a child using a uniform grant to minors account, which can be set up by banks or brokerage houses.

Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs) remain, however, the most used method for tax savings. The reasons are apparent: Invest $2,000 — if you are in the 33 percent bracket it costs only $1,340 because you're saving $860 in federal taxes — and earnings accumulate, tax deferred, until withdrawn. Comparative growth rates between IRAs and taxable investments dramatically favor IRAs. But the IRA does present disadvantages; for example, you pay a 10 percent penalty for early withdrawal before age 59½.

Keogh plans for self-employed individuals allow even larger contributions, although both plans penalize for early withdrawal.

Topper also excelled, taking first place in the high jump, and second place in the running broad jump and softball throw. Also scoring points for the Franklin playground were David Broad and Chris O'Connell. Mark Schunder and Alicia Albee were the Franklin representatives in the balloon launch for the opening ceremonies. Other members of the winning team were Mark Cagnasso, Matt Radtke, Phil Vinegar, Brad Jankowski, Brad Ainslie, Dave Schaller, Jennifer Kassakian, Tom Anspach, Mike Glynn, Edward Joffe, Jennifer Joseph, David Feeny, Gina Anspach, Caitlin Jordan, Mike Giordano, Mia Fiore, Tom Albee, Nolan Sullivan and Alegra Fiore.

Other activities held last week had Tom Anspach, Brian Croco and Jennifer Kassakian winning in the Fribbee tournament. Michelle Reguso, Jennifer Kassakian, and Eric Albee and Katie Kennedy won first, second, and third prizes for Hobo Day. A riddle contest was also held last week with Jennifer Joseph, Pat Glynn, Brad Ainslie, and Tom Anspach the winners.

Finally, last weeks citizens of the week were Tom Albee and Amanda Kong. Upcoming events include: softball games, arts and crafts, pool swims, tournaments and a picnic at Tamaques on Wednesday.

At the end of last week, the Wilson playgrounders finished Circus Week with the annual balloon ascension. There have swim at Memorial Pool, even though the weather was other than pleasant. Regulars such as Christine, Eddie and Michael Bartolomeo were among the Wilson swimmers. After breaking for lunch, the playgrounders assembled for a hike to the Westfield Cinema where all watched the movie The Goonies. The combined comedy-adventure entertained all the playgrounders, and the enthusiasm and cooperation that was demonstrated may lead to another trip to the movies as well.

On Tuesday Wilson won its first home softball game against Washington with a score of 14 to 4. Wilson looked clean and sharp in the field, with numerous contacts between first baseman Pat McNellis, shortstop Adam Yannuzzi and pitcher Chris DeMasi. The team looked as good off the field as on. Wilson's hitting sailed them into and early 5 to 1 lead, and they continued the hitting from players including Matt DeMasi, Rob Cook, Danny Shomaker, and Amy Gallagher. Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Hawkins came for the weekly Art For Fun session and the playgrounders completed abstract art pictures made out of cre-pas and colored paper. Designs by Samantha Legones, Brita Beyerlein, and Molly Rock were among those created. Later, the playgrounders had a water balloon fight. The afternoon concluded with a practice obstacle course race in preparation for Wednesday's Olympics. Winners of the practice round were Mark Borton finishing in 15 seconds, Pat McNellis finishing in 20, and Brian Riley who ran through in 25 seconds.

Wednesday held the Town Olympics, and the Wilson playgrounders came decked out in their team color, blue. Among the 10-12 age group, participants included Chris DeMasi, Adam Yannuzzi, Rob Cook and Amy Gallagher. The 6-9 age group included such participants as Adam Gorman, Christine Bartolomeo, Tripp Swart, Mark Legones, Joey Gallagher and Molly Rock. All contributed greatly to the success of the Olympics. Among the events were the 50 yard dash, the shuttle relay, and obstacle course.

On Thursday there was a nature hike to Mindwaskin Park where nature collages and a scavenger hunt was completed. The ducks were also an added attraction. The playgrounders hunted for different types of leaves that were later used in the nature collage art project.

The citizens for this week were Chris DeMasi and Matt DeMasi. Upcoming events for next week include a lollipop hunt, talent show, "Breakfast at Wilson," and a Beach Party. Times and dates are on the flyers available at Wilson playground.

The Jefferson playground softball team won its fifth straight game last Thursday.

Jefferson traveled to Tamaques. Players who participated in the game were Gina Lukaszewicz pitching, Chris Wojcik at first base, Mike Ryan at second base, Pat Cosquer at third base, Jeff Suto at short stop, Rickey Molinero at midfield, Steve Haggarty in left field, Brian Haggerty in center field, Glen Wojcik in right field, and Mark Sullivan as catcher. Both teams played well and remained at a standstill but Jefferson managed to secure its lead by bringing in two runs in the fourth inning. A key play in the game was made by Chris Wojcik, first baseman. Chris prevented the tying run in the last inning by tagging the runner midway to first and charging the plate to prevent the runner at third from scoring.

Friday morning was the annual Balloon Ascension. The children prepared for this event earlier in the week by filling out postcards to be attached to the balloons. When the truck arrived with the balloons the children eagerly surrounded it, choosing the color balloon which they hoped they would get. At liftoff, they eagerly watched the sky until the last balloon was out of sight.

Monday and Tuesday were spent preparing for the Olympics. Those children who were not involved in these preparations kept busy with crafts.

Tuesday morning brought another softball victory to the team as they played

A big round of applause goes to the 6-9 year olds for winning the first place trophy at the Olympics on Wednesday.

Physical Fitness Week began on Monday as McKinley School playgrounders started to prepare for the main event of the week, the Olympics.

Monday began, as usual, with the morning swim in the Memorial pool. In the

On Tuesday, the morning was consumed with practice for the upcoming game against Tamaques, which was played at the Tamaques playground. Despite some good fielding and excellent hitting, the McKinley playgrounders were defeated by their opponents in a score of 1 to 0. In the afternoon, the children engaged in arts and crafts, and continued their practice for the Olympics. As the afternoon came to a close, the children watched two movies which were shown courtesy of the Westfield Library.

Finally, the long awaited Olympics came around on Wednesday morning. As the morning hours unfolded, the playgrounders began by parading around the track at the Field House with their banners showing the name of each school. Events included the softball throw, the 50-yard dash, the obstacle course, and the tug of war. McKinley finished with winning third place in the 10 to 12 year old events and winning third place in the best all-around playground evaluation. The day ended with popcicles for all hot and tired participants.

Thursday was an eventful day for the McKinley school playgrounders. In the morning, the children played a softball game against the Jefferson school playground, which ended in a loss for McKinley. Later on, participants in the Olympics were treated with pizza, cake, ice pops, candy, and watermelon which were funded with proceeds from the Fair. After lunch, librarians held a visit, led with books for the children. Finally, the rest of the afternoon was occupied with game playing and arts and crafts.

On Friday, children spent the morning participating in an art lesson conducted by Mr. Hawkins. Because of much help to counselors on the playground, citizens of the week awards went to three playgrounders: Rodney Hayes, Shylene Small and Manny Small.

Last Thursday was Sunlasses Day at Washington School Playground. There were two categories judged with a boy and a girl winner in each category. The winners in the widest sunlasses category were Jamie Clark and Amy Watkins. In the coolest sunlasses category, the winners were Matt Connell for the boys and Melissa Watkins and Dana Clark tied for the girls. The softball team beat Franklin on Thursday. It was a closely matched game, but Washington hitters edged out Franklin to give the team a victory. About 30 children turned out for balloon ascension day on Friday. The first time the once again striven to provide a varied and exciting program to the children in attendance. One of the highlights was a gourmet meal prepared from the kitchens of Mrs. Gaetana Furnari. A tour of the extensive Furnari gardens was conducted and the family pet, Lucky, entertained the children.

Another highlight was a recent trip to Sandy Hook National Park. The day was beautiful and everyone left with sunsets and a new appreciation of the services of the Department of the Interior. Bowling at Clark Lane has been led by John Francis with unusually high bowling averages. Maria Furnari has captivated the audience with a most unusual and creative bowling form. David Coval and Juanna Quinn have shown remarkable improvement in their recent scores. Patricia Michaels has been most helpful in assisting in the general conduct of all children. Joe Sharkey also keeps a watch-

Friday, July 19, was one of the Playground's most varied and exciting days. In the morning, the Tetherball and Checkers Tournaments began. In the afternoon, several of the kids dressed up for Punk Rock Day. Ribbons were given out to Susan Bradley for the Most Colorful outfit, Bobby Bradley for the Most Like Billy Idol, Elizabeth Cook for the Most Like Cindy Lauper, Brian Shaver won the Coolest costume ribbon, Elizabeth Bradley won the Coolest costume ribbon and Natalie Bradley took the ribbon for the Most Original costume.

Finally, the week was capped off on Friday afternoon by the renowned Balloon Ascension. In this event, the playgrounders wrote their names in post cards that were addressed to the Westfield Recreation Commission. We tied the post cards to helium inflated balloons and — with considerable fanfare sent the colorful balloons up, up and away into a blue summer sky. In chful eye on and informs all of any unusual occurrences. Jennifer Yacilia makes every effort to participate in many different activities. Jonathan Lega has shown uncanny ability in his performance in pool volleyball and pool soccer.

Mrs. K. Wharton and B. Comba, both counselors at the Exceptional Center, are planning more exciting diversions and activities for the remaining two weeks. Ice cream parlor treats, additional beach trips, and a pizza party are just a few of the planned events.

The world keeps on turning, the summer reaches the hot month of August, and Tamaques School playground continues to provide good, clean fun for the neighborhood boys and girls. Tamaques hosted the Jefferson School playground to a softball game Thursday. The players got a little carried away with their competitive spirit, thus delaying the game now and then while the leaders of the playground tried to restore order and civility. Unfortunately good sportsmanship is sometimes suffocated by the playgrounders' intense desire to win. Jefferson ultimately beat Tamaques by a score of 3-2.

The atmosphere at the Tamaques Playground mellowed considerably in the afternoon as the campers participated in the Stuffed Animal Contest. Everyone was a winner as we were joined by stuffed animals of all types and sizes.

past years, post cards have been received by the Recreation Commission with post marks from as far away as New Hampshire.

As usual, the next week began with the Memorial Pool Swim from 10:30 to 11:30. Monday afternoon will long be remembered for the Candy Hunt. The Playground leaders hid candy all over the playground and then, the kids were set loose to find their sweet treasures. Everyone ended up a winner as each camper went home with a handful of candy.

Tuesday morning brought another softball game to Tamaques, which hosted McKinley School playground. The home team ended up winning this game, 1-0. This game was a pleasure to watch because the sportsmanship on both teams was commendable. While some of the playgrounders concentrated on the softball game, the rest concentrated on their creativity, as Joel Hawkins visited the playground for the weekly Art for Fun lesson.

On Wednesday, July 24, Tamaques playground joined with the other playgrounds for the annual Olympics at the Westfield public schools field house. The skill combined with the enthusiasm helped Tamaques capture third place in the 6-9 year old division. Outstanding individual performances at the Olympics were shown in the Obstacle Course by Greg Murphy, Michael Dickey and Amy Wheeler. Anne Brummet and Michael Dickey had excellent times in the 50 yard dash. In the 10-12 year old category, Jeff Pereira had an impressive 106 ft. throw in the Softball throw contest and Jeff Batiloro jumped 5 ft 1 in. in the Running Broad Jump.

Humans aren't the only ones with babysitters, says Ranger Rick magazine. If a mother animal has to hunt, she will often leave her young with an "auntie" or teenage animal. Apparently, it is a shared duty and animal sitters don't get paid.

Eye Openers

THE RIGHT BRIDGE

Q: How can one choose an eyeglass frame that flatters the nose?
A: When choosing eyeglass frames, pay special attention to the BRIDGE of the frame. That is the small, curved piece of the frame that sits on your nose and connects the parts that hold the lenses.

Frames with a low bridge (one that joins the two halves of the frame below the top) will tend to shorten the appearance of a long, narrow nose. A short nose looks best in a frame with a high bridge. Squarish frames with a dark-colored bridge make a broad nose look narrower.

Q: Why is the bridge so important when choosing an eyeglass frame?
A: Since the bridge of an eyeglass frame rests on your nose, it plays an important part in how comfortable you feel when wearing your glasses. Different types and sizes of bridges assure a comfortable fit for different types of faces. Only certain types can be adjusted.

But rules were made to be broken! Try some odd shapes and some unusual colors, or non-traditionally-sized frames the next time you need another pair of eyeglasses. You may like the new look they give you.

Nearly 250,000 calls have been recorded by the telephone sky information service at the Sperry Observatory provided by members of Amateur Astronomers, Inc. at Union County College's Cranford Campus.

The tapped 24-hour celestial jointly by AAI and Union County College. An average of 700 calls a month, or more than 10,000 a year, are made to the 276-STAR number, Malpas said.

Malpas, a member of AAI's executive board, updates the celestial news tape weekly to give information of current interest. However, in his absence during the month of July, Malpas has turned the news service over to Prof. Kenneth Hanselman of North Caldwell, a member of AAI and professor of engineering at the college. Prof. Hanselman, like Malpas and other amateur astronomers, volunteers his time and services to the group's activities.

In addition to giving the current position of planets, constellations and other celestial bodies, the 276-STAR tape carries information about the weekly slide shows scheduled by AAI during the year.

For information on Friday night viewing or other astronomical information, or to learn the titles of the slide shows to be presented during the month of August, dial 276-STAR.

Lowell F. Johnson, chairman of the Muhlenberg Hospital board of governors, (left) reviews preliminary renovation plans for the Ambulatory Health Care area of Muhlenberg Hospital with Phyllis Romano, immediate past president of the Muhlenberg Hospital Auxiliary. The renovations will be partially funded by the Auxiliary's $225,000 donation to the hospital.

Auxiliary Makes Donation

The Auxiliary of Muhlenberg Hospital recently presented a check for $225,000 to the Muhlenberg Hospital Foundation, paying off almost two-thirds of its $350,000 pledge to the hospital.

The money was raised as a result of profits from the television service and the circus recently sponsored by the auxiliary, money raised through the Nearly New Shop and the Service Shop and Twig donations.

The $225,000 donation has been earmarked for the renovation of the Ambulatory Health Care area and a new Service Shop, according to Phyllis Romano, immediate past president of the Auxiliary.

"I want to thank the hard-working members of the auxiliary for their generous donation," said Board of Governors Chairman Lowell F. Johnson. "The board sincerely appreciates this extraordinary donation," he said.

County Gardens Await

During the last year the Union County Cooperative Service has established an eighth of an acre demonstration garden near the grounds of Trailside Museum in Mountainside. Residents are invited to tour the gardens and sample some of the vegetables and herbs grown there. They may visit either Aug. 8, between 6:30 - 8:30 p.m. or on Saturday, Aug. 10 between 10 a.m. - 2 p.m.

There will be exotic vegetables to taste such as Cape Gooseberry, and old standards like tomatoes and peppers. There will also be herbs to smell and flowers to admire.

proposed structures along East Broad St., creating an open space of 29 feet, and having the impact of single family dwellings. The number of living units would be reduced to 18.

The alternative was brought forward after the board indicated as the plans stand, the total ground coverage is unacceptable. The proposed units are in excess of the 20% total coverage limitation by almost 3%, which is more than would be permitted for garden apartments built on the same tract.

Also giving testimony on behalf of Eastgate Square was David Mendelson of Montville, president of Garmen Associates, a firm which practices traffic engineering and land use planning.

Mendelson explained that traffic counts were taken on July 1 and 2 at the intersections of East Broad St. and Davis and West Ct., and at Springfield Ave. and Michael Dr. The first count was taken on a Monday afternoon, 4-6 p.m., the peak hour being 5:30-6:30 p.m. The second count was taken on a Tuesday morning, 7-9 a.m., with the peak hour occurring 7:30-8:30 a.m. Mendelson concluded from his study that the condominium project could be developed without adverse results regarding an increase of vehicles in the area.

Given the opportunity to question Eastgate Square's witnesses, the public asked why the traffic count was made in July as opposed to a month when school is in session. Mendelson replied that school was already in summer recess when he was approached to make his survey. Asked whether he had looked into the accident history of the intersections, Mendelson reported the police department's statistics showed only two to three reported accidents per year.

A Michael Dr. resident asked about the interior and dimensions of each unit. Mrs. Salustro indicated that each unit would measure 1,800 square feet and include a first floor living room, dining room, kitchen, den, one-car garage, patio and foyer, and a second floor consisting of a study, bedroom, and master bedroom suite. Each proposed unit would measure 34 feet in height.

Neighbors also pointed out that the rear yard set back of the proposed units on East Broad St. would only be 20 feet. Salustro responded that there was room to pull the buildings forward to adjust this figure.

Also previously heard at the June session was the appeal of Jay Burlson of 1545 Rahway Ave., for permission to lower his illegal deck to ground level. Burlson proposed to have a rear door with a landing and two sets of steps in two directions leading down to the deck. The rear yard set back would be 31 feet instead of the required 35 feet. The board approved the adjustment.

The appeal of Joseph M. Fol, 1504 Seward Ave., for permission to construct a 10 foot by 12 foot deck 2 1/2 feet off the ground was postponed until next month.

The existing total lot coverage already exceeds the 20% maximum by 3.5%. The rear yard set back would be 32 feet instead of 35 feet.

The board informed Fol that they would almost be forced to turn him down because of the lot coverage violation, unless he could prove hardship.

The appeal of Anwar Torky, owner of the Pizza Place on South Ave., for a variance to erect a sign to be seen by east-bound traffic, was finally resolved after months of discussion.

Torky said he would be satisfied with the board's suggestion of a one foot by 5 foot sign, hanging flush against the side of his business. Removal of a small tree along the side of the building was also advised so as not to obstruct the sign. A picture of the proposed sign must be submitted to the board within 30 days and is subject to their approval.

The appeal of Edward Pretre, 1504 Pine Grove Ave., for a variance to extend his one family dwelling was also approved. Pretre was told at last month's meeting that his total lot coverage figure did not take into account an existing deck.

Pretre's new calculations showed, however, that the total lot coverage did not exceed the 20% maximum. The remaining violation of a pre-existing deficient side yard was discussed, and as Pretre's immediate neighbor did not object, the board granted the variance.

The remaining appeals scheduled for July will be heard at the August hearing.

charge of business and plant maintenance. That report included lists of improvements needed in the schools.

A capital bond issue, designed to take care of some of those needed improvements, was submitted to the public at the polls in February and again in May, 1980. Both times the bond issue failed to receive voter support.

A number of projects cited for improvement in the 1979 Master Plan have been accomplished over the past five years. These include renovations such as new roofs at several elementary schools, and new updated science labs at Westfield High School.

Many of the original projects still need to be done. These are included in the 1985 Master Plan, submitted by Dr. William J. Foley, assistant superintendent in charge of business and plant maintenance.

Westfield has six elementary school buildings, two junior high school buildings, a high school, fieldhouse, fields and the administration building. The average age of all original buildings approximates 50 years. The average age of all additions is 25 years.

"The problem of aging buildings has not gone unaddressed by school boards in Westfield," said School Superintendent Laurence F. Greene. Two architects have conducted feasibility studies. Their reports, including items

Deaf Contact 201 will make calls for personal, professional, business or emergency reasons. Volunteers are additionally instructed in deaf awareness and all of the techniques necessary to operate the teletype machine. This media also serves as a "help-line" to the deaf.

Both the Contact helpline program and Deaf Contact 201 are operated 24 hours a day, seven days a week by trained volunteer workers, administered and supervised by professional staff.

Union County Legal Services Corporation (354-4340), located in Elizabeth, is a private, nonprofit corporation organized in 1967 to provide free legal assistance to the indigent residents of Union County involved with civil law problems. They offer valuable legal services to those who would not otherwise be able to secure representation.

In 1984, the agency represented approximately 800 clients in legal matters, excluding those receiving same day advice, and more than 100 clients were Westfield residents. However, there are restrictions on the cases that UCLS may represent.

The cases which may be accepted, as well as the income qualifications of clients, are governed by Federal guidelines of the Legal Service Corporation. However, legal service to the general clientele permissible by these federal guidelines falls within the more common areas of landlord-tenant disputes, administrative law, Social Security, Medicaid and Medicare, public assistance, etc. and domestic relations matters.

Union County Legal Services receives referrals from almost every member agency of the United Fund of Westfield, as well as those requests for help that come directly. However, in cases that Legal Services is not permitted or equipped to handle, they maintain a volunteer attorney program consisting of a panel of about 200 attorneys that may be able to help.

"The United Fund of Westfield is very pleased to welcome Contact We Care and Union Legal Services as member agencies, and with the vital services that both organizations offer, it is easy to see that with the support of the United Fund, these services to Westfielders will continue and grow," noted Austin B. Sayre, president of the United Fund board of trustees.

SPORTS NEWS

Westfield Novice Triathlon Added to Family Fun Day

The annual Westfield "Y" - Chamber of Commerce Family Fun Day will feature, for the first time, a Westfield Novice Triathlon. This event, consisting of bike, run, and swim portions, is under the principal sponsorship of Lincoln Federal Savings and Loan Association. Planning, logistics, and registration are being arranged by Carol H. White of the Westfield Y and Chamber member Peter Mogendorf of The Runners Edge.

The race is for the novice triathlete and is staged with staggered bike and swim starts. The run portion will coincide with the five mile Benefit Run, a regular event of previous Fun Days. The Triathlon is limited to 100 participants, with preference given to Westfield residents who register by Aug. 15. Deadline for registration is Sept. 1. Proceeds will benefit local charities.

Starting at 8 a.m., the bike portion will consist of a ten mile race on a flat course which starts and finishes in Tamaques Park. Volunteers will monitor the bike course, which will be laid out on local streets. Peter Mogendorf, who is president of the Garden State Tri Mates Triathlon Club and has competed in ten triathlons, will be the Westfield Novice Triathlon race director. A mechanic from ProTour Cycles of Westfield will inspect each bicycle entered in the race to ensure safety standards. Protective hard shell helmets are required.

At 10:30 a.m., triathletes will join other runners entered in the five mile Benefit Run over a flat course, beginning and ending in Tamaques Park. Triathletes will be identified by distinctive jerseys and numbers, so that their finishing times can be considered within the framework of the Triathlon.

At 12 noon, the final leg of the Triathlon will be held at the Westfield Y, 138 Ferris Pl. Triathletes will swim 1/4 mile, 18 lengths of the Wallace Pool. Y lifeguards and volunteer timers will be available for the swim. Starting times will be staggered, with ten lanes being used at a time. Total swim time for each competitor is limited to 20 minutes.

Awards will be presented at the Y following completion of the Triathlon. A trophy will be awarded to the overall male and female finishers, and to the first three finishers in each of the six age categories. In addition, the overall male and female winners will receive a $50 gift certificate from the Runners Edge; first place finishers in each age group will receive $25 gift certificates from Westfield Area Merchants; second place finishers in each age group will receive one month membership at the Westfield Y - Nautilus; third place finishers in each age group will receive one month membership at the Westfield Y. Door prizes and refreshments will also be available at the finishing ceremonies.

Registration forms are available at the Westfield Y, 138 Ferris Pl., and at the Runners Edge, 401 Cumberland St. Entry forms, with fee, should be returned to the Y or the Runners Edge with a self-addressed, stamped envelope for acceptance letter, race number, rules and regulations. Each entered triathlete will receive a long-sleeved shirt, water bottle and swim cap. There will be no post entries.

Finnagels and Bowlers Men's League Leaders

The Bowlers and Finnagels continue to stay atop in each of its divisions in the Westfield Men's Softball League.

But both clubs each escaped upsets in league action last week at Tamaques Park.

The Bowlers, which leads the East with a 21-2 record, rallied and foiled the upset plans of Jacobs Construction with an 9-8 decision.

Meanwhile, Finnagels (19-3 in the West) edged Rodz Construction, 5-4, in eight innings and two nights later, Finnagels was forced to play with only eight players but managed to defeat Lodge, 8-6.

In other action, the Lodge beat Greco's, 4-3, and Portasoft defeated Jerseyland, 9-7.

The Bowlers chiseled four runs in the last of the sixth inning to open a 9-8 lead over Jacobs. Rod "The Man" Yacilla and Chris "Ozzie" Assmann each knocked in one run with a single and two other runs came across due to a throwing error by outfielder Joe Bountempo to account for the four runs in the sixth.

Rod Yacilla and Assmann each finished with two RBI and Owen Brand ripped a homer for the Bowlers. Diane Gryziec earned the victory in relief.

Joe Fiorino clubbed a homer for Jacobs.

Brad Pederson lifted a fly out to drive home the winning run in the bottom of the eighth when Finnagels narrowly avoided an upset to Rodz.

Numbers were the problem for Finnagels against the Lodge. Finnagels played with only eight men and were forced to use three outfielders and three infielders.

The 8-6 victory with only eight players reveals the power of Finnagels. Ken Metz, Kevin Richards and Tom Bowden each cracked two hits to help overcome the attendance problem for Finnagels. And Mark Muth, the sly veteran pitcher for Finnagels, helped his own cause when he belted a homer.

EXTRA BASES: All rain-out games will be made up this weekend and early next week so the playoffs can get under way later next week.

Winner Breaks Record At 5-Mile Women's Run

Cindy Girard-Klein of Richmond Hill, Queens, NY took the lead at 3 1/2 miles and out-distanced a record of field of 1800 women runners in the fifth annual Women on the Run five mile road race in Westfield.

The 24 year old former St. John's University standout finished in a course record 27:04 bettering Doreen Schwarz's 1983 mark by 20 seconds and breaking her own personal best by 47 seconds.

Second place went to Olympian Julie Isphording of Cincinnati, Ohio in 27:34, followed by early leader Kate Washburn of Berkeley Heights in 27:49.

Despite temperatures in the mid 80's, the early leaders passed the mile mark in a fast 5:04, led by Washburn and Linda King of Succasunna, two of the state's outstanding female road racers. Girard-Klein was sixth at the mile but worked her way into contention by three miles, which the leaders passed in 16:18. She then used a 5:23 mile to pull away to a 75 yard lead and held on for an easy win. Among her awards were two Eastern Airline tickets to the Caribbean.

Linda King of Succasunna was fourth in 28:04 followed by Alison Quelch of Australia in 28:06.

Overall, 1300 women finished the five miles. In a two mile run which preceded the five miler, Terry Rowan of Maplewood ran a fast 11:13 to score a 9 second victory over Jan Treacy of Palisades Park.

Both races started and finished in Tamaques Park and the 5 milers travelled through the streets of Westfield.

Major sponsors of the event were Women on the Run, a major manufacturer of women's active wear, and Collins and Aikman fabric. Other sponsors included International Bottled Waters and Eastern Airlines.

WHS Trackwomen Run In Tamaques Park Race

Four members of the 1984-1985 Westfield High School Cross Country and Spring Track teams competed in the fifth annual "Women On The Run" race held at Tamaques Park, Sunday, July 21. The Westfield girls participated on an individual basis competing against a field of state and national female runners.

Ellen Splaine, a 1985 Westfield High graduate and member of the three Westfield track teams for five years and recipient of the "most valuable team member-1985," award, placed ninth in the 2-mile run with a time of 13 minutes, 17 seconds.

Lisa Broadwell, who will be a Westfield junior this fall and a member of the 1984-85 cross country and spring track teams ran the two miles in 13 sec., 41 min. She placed twelfth in a field of several hundred. Lara Garbowski, who will be a sophomore at Westfield High in the fall, also ran the same race. She was a member of the 1984 cross country team.

Sheila Grimes, a member of the upcoming 1986 senior class, has been part of Westfield High track teams for three years. She was the only track team member to run in the 5-mile main event. Sheila ran the race — along with over 1,000 other female runners in extremely hot and humid conditions — in 38 min. 2 sec.

Eight Teams Alive For Championship

With one week remaining in the CWSA regular season, eight teams find themselves alive for the 1985 championship. Last Sunday was the second position week which brought together Rorden Realty and Leesville Auto, a rematch of last year's final.

Leesville prevailed by sweeping Rorden 13-5 and 8-2 which leaves the two teams in a first place tie. Leading the way for Leesville was Tom Treacy with six hits and a host of others with five hits. Both Leesville and Rorden will receive first round byes.

Battling in the three and four spots were Buffy's-Dittricks and Infantino Shades and again it was the Shades sweeping B-D by the scores of 5-4 and 9-7. It was a stunning seventh inning two run homer over the fence at Hillside Ave. by Mike Powers that left the

B-D pitcher feeling like Ralph Branca in game #1 while Lance Meadows also belted a three run homer in game #2 for the deciding runs.

Other games found Garwood Metal clinching a play-off spot by sweeping the Unicorns 4-1 and 5-1 as J.D. Taylor returned to the mound. Cascio's stayed alive by winning 3 of 4 on Sunday, first splitting with Sierras then sweeping Hollyhill. National Health Lab continued its winning ways over Hollyhill by sweeping all six games this season.

Swim Marks Fall At State Games

Four 10 year old boys from the Westfield Y teamed up to swim in the Robert J. Scherertz Memorial Games at Ocean County College over the weekend. By the end of the two day meet, Rusty Schundler, Tom Mann, Derek Van Derven and Brian Zenner had demolished the meet records for both the 200 freestyle relay and the 200 medley relay. Besides winning both relays in record time, the Westfielders won three individual events, and placed second, third, or fourth in nine others.

Derek Van Derven walked away with wins in the 50 and 100 freestyles (29.29 & 1:04.73) and the 50 back (35.71). He also placed second in the 50 breast (39.96) and the 50 fly (34.71). He posted his best times in every event. Team mate Brian Zenner had a great day, posting his best time in the 50 free (29.91) and finishing second. This gave Westfield 1-2 in the event. Zenner also finished third in the 100 free with his second fastest time ever, 1:09.15. Tom Mann made sure the competition was quick. He swam his best time in the 50 back (37.26) to place second in the event, and again, give Westfield a 1-2 finish. Mann came on strong in the 50 fly with a time of 35, which gave him third. He also finished fourth in the 50 free, just missing third by .03 seconds. Rusty Schundler also had outstanding swims. In the medley relay, Schundler held the record setting pace during the breaststroke leg, ensuring a meet record time. In the 50 back, he placed 4th with a time of 39.35 to give Westfield a 1-2-4 finish. Schundler turned in a solid 43.83 in the 50 breast, also finishing fourth.

Robbie Schundler deck-entered the 8/u 50 fly, and posted his best time in the event on his way to finishing 2nd (45.24).

In the finals of the Garden State Games, earlier this month, Van Derven and 15/18 year old swimmer Rich Andrews together won three events, scored second in two, and third in three. Van Derven won the 50 free (32.84) and swam the anchor legs of both the winning region II medley and free relays. He placed second in the 100 free (1:13.55) and third in the 200 free (2:40.47), missing second by 2/100 of a second. Rich Andrews placed third in both the 50 fly (30.72) and the 100 breast (1:13.36). He also swam on the region's second place medley relay team.

Children to Help Provide Oxen, Plow Blades for Ethiopian Farmers

Children of this area will have an opportunity to help the starving populations of Ethiopia during Mountainside Gospel Chapel's free Daily Vacation Bible School program starting Monday.

The school will coordinate a missionary program through the Sudan Interior Mission, known as S.I.M., headquartered in Cedar Grove. According to S.I.M., one devastating effect of the drought in the Wolayta and Kucha areas of Ethiopia, where crops are an essential part of the people's livelihoods, has been that farmers have had to sell their livestock and farming implements (at reduced prices, in their desperation) in order to buy food (at inflated prices).

Earlier this year S.I.M. was able to purchase 75 oxen and 124 plow blades, and to distribute them to the more destitute of the area's farmers, in cooperation with government officials.

As part of the Vacation Bible School's week-long program of varied activities, children will be taught principles of giving and of involvement in the lives of others less fortunate, through a daily free-will offering to be used entirely for the project of providing oxen and plow blades for Ethiopian farmers.

While school is in session, a special program for mothers is scheduled. Mrs. Walter Degenhardt and Mrs. Jacques Stori of Mountainside will lead a class entitled "God's Woman in the 80's," and Mrs. James Goense, also of Mountainside, will teach a craft workshop entitled "Christmas in August."

The school will be in session from 9 a.m. to 12:00 noon daily from Aug. 5 to 9 at the Chapel, Spruce Drive, off Central Avenue, Mountainside. Registration and information are available from the church office.

The Rev. Matthew E. Garippa is pastor of the Chapel. The Rev. Robert R. Cushman, minister of Christian education, is directing the school's program with the coordination of Mrs. Michael Bonaventura of Mountainside.

YOUR PHARMACIST SPEAKS

by Kitty Duncan, Pharmacist

Prescription drugs generally have warnings placed on their labels if there is a problem with certain foods. Should you have a question about your prescription medication talk to our pharmacist at JARVIS PHARMACY, 54 Elm St., 233-0662, 0663, 0664. We handle greeting cards, giftwrap. Leggs, and health aids. Hours: Mon thru Fri 9am-9pm, Sat 9am-6pm, Holidays 9am-1pm.

FOOD AND DRUGS
Certain drugs can increase or retard the absorption of drugs into the bloodstream. For example, the absorption of iron is enhanced if it is taken along with foods that are rich in vitamin C such as citrus fruit. More commonly, however, food impairs the absorption of drugs. One well-recognized interference comes from antibiotics. If dairy foods are eaten during tetracycline therapy, the calcium in the milk, etc., will impair the absorption of the tetracycline. Other antibiotics, such as penicillin, ampicillin and erythromycin, should not be taken with fruit juices, citrus fruits, tomatoes, vinegar, pickles and cola drinks. If drugs need to be swallowed with liquid, it is safest to drink plain water.

HANDY HINT: The acidity in soft drinks can cause drugs to dissolve in the stomach rather than the intestines.

PUBLIC NOTICE

PUBLIC NOTICE
Public Notice is hereby given that a resolution as follows was passed and adopted by the Council of the Town of Westfield at a meeting held July 16, 1985.

RESOLUTION
WHEREAS the Town of Westfield received competitive bids June 1985 for the repair of its 1959 Hahn Pumper Model C Fire Engine and awarded said contract to the lowest responsible bidder, Hahn Truck Sales and Service Corporation, Shattlesville, Pennsylvania on July 3, 1985 in the total amount of $19,976.00; and

WHEREAS this contractor has dismantled the vehicle as required by the repair work and in dismantling said vehicle has discovered that certain other repair work is necessary in order to properly rehabilitate the vehicle and to avoid reassembling the vehicle with damaged or worn parts which would shorten its life in the future, make it unreliable in fire fighting and require substantial additional repairs in very short period of time; and

WHEREAS it would be impossible or impractical to obtain competitive bids for the additional repair work as the vehicle is dismantled in the contractor's shop and would require reassembling the vehicle and would further require disassembling the potential bidders to determine exactly the extent of the latent problems and the cost of repairing the same;

WHEREAS the provisions of the local public contracts law, N.J.S.A. 17:27 et seq., to wit: N.J.S.A. 17:27 (1) (i) wherein equipment repair services, in the nature of an extraordinary, unspecified service and necessary parts furnished in connection with such service and N.J.S.A. 17:27 (1) (ii) wherein emergency contracts can be entered into, both provide a legal method to permit the work to be completed by the contractor performing the initial work on the vehicle without further competitive bidding and

WHEREAS a price for such work has been quoted to the Town of Westfield by Hahn Truck Sales and Service Corp. in the amount, $10,076.48 and has been determined by the Town Council of the Town of Westfield to be fair and reasonable for the work to be performed and the Town Council has also determined that (1) the equipment and repair services to be performed are in the nature of an equipment repair service meeting the requirements of an extraordinary, unspecified service; and (2) that an emergency contract is justified by the absence of said fire equipment sufficient to justify the performance of such work and the letting of a contract without public advertising and bidding; not withstanding that the cost thereof exceeds $10,000; and (3) that the work may be performed by virtue of the provisions of N.J.S.A. 17:27 (1) (i) and N.J.S.A. 17:27 (1) (ii) and (4) that provisions of said statutes have been complied with.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the provisions of said statutes have been complied with.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the proper town officials be and they are hereby authorized to enter into a contract with Hahn Truck Sales and Service Corporation for the repair of the fire engine owned by the Town of Westfield at a price not to exceed $10,076.48.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be published in THE WESTFIELD LEADER as public notice of the action taken in accordance with N.J.S.A. 17:27 (1) (i) and (ii).

PUBLIC NOTICE

Public Notice is hereby given that an ordinance of which the following is a copy was introduced, read and passed on first reading by the Council of the Town of Westfield at a meeting held July 16, 1985, and that the said Council will further consider the same for final passage on the 13th day of August 1985, at 8:30 p.m., in the Council Chamber, Municipal Building, 425 East Broad Street, Westfield, New Jersey, at which time and place any person who may be interested will be given the opportunity to be heard concerning said ordinance.

JOY C. VREELAND
Town Clerk

SPECIAL ORDINANCE NO. 10
AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE LAND USE ORDINANCE OF THE TOWN OF WESTFIELD, ARTICLE II, "ZONING MAP," SECTION 1101, "ESTABLISHMENT," BY INCLUDING CERTAIN LANDS AND REAL PROPERTY THEREIN.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Town Council of the Town of Westfield as follows:

SECTION I. The Town Council of the Town of Westfield finds that the central business district has enjoyed very substantial growth in commercial activity in recent years since the adoption of the master plan and any revisions thereto and updates thereof, resulting in increased employment of individuals, conversion of residential use to commercial use and an increased demand for parking spaces by both employees and patrons.

SECTION II. The Town Council finds that improvements to the New Jersey Transit Commuter Railroad facilities have substantially increased the demand for parking spaces for use by commuters on this railroad.

SECTION III. The Town Council concurs with the findings of a recent professional study of parking needs in the central business district which calls for the addition of two hundred spaces to adequately handle parking needs.

SECTION IV. The Town Council has determined that the Town of Westfield has a general policy expressed in its land use ordinance to eliminate gasoline service stations in the central business district. Such uses are not permitted under the terms of the ordinance in this district so that existing facilities constitute pre-existing non-conforming uses. The land hereinafter described to be included in the official map are presently utilized as such a gasoline service station.

SECTION V. The Town Council finds that the lands hereinafter described are uniquely suited for development into parking facilities since they are located adjacent to the most intensely used municipal parking facility; they are located adjacent to existing parking facilities which make their development as a parking facility particularly economical in view of providing convenient ingress and egress from the facilities.

SECTION VI. The Town Council has determined that the lands hereinafter described are to be designated for use in the future for expansion of public parking facilities within the Town of Westfield.

SECTION VII. The Town of Westfield has heretofore established an official map entitled, "Official Map, Town of Westfield, Union County, New Jersey," dated March 1975 with amendments, prepared by Robert Catlin Associates, City Planning Consultants, Denville, N.J., and has shown thereon various land and real property proposed for, or utilized as, public parks, playgrounds and for other existing and proposed public facilities and areas.

SECTION VIII. The lands "Being known and designated as Lot 21 and 22 in Block 401 on the Tax Map of the Town of Westfield," are hereby included in the official map of the Town of Westfield.

SECTION IX. All public rights arising from the lands herein described on said official map as provided by the statutes of the State of New Jersey and the Land Use Ordinance of the Town of Westfield shall attach to and control the use of said lands.

SECTION X. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict, or inconsistent, with any part of the terms of this ordinance shall be held to be unconstitutional or invalid by any court, such holding shall not affect the validity of this ordinance as whole, or any part thereof, other than the part so held unconstitutional or invalid.

SECTION XI. This ordinance shall take effect after passage and publication as soon as, and in the manner, permitted by law.

Men's Standings
Vacations and variable weather took their toll during the past two weeks as the Westfield Tennis Association's Men's Singles ladder recorded unusually light activity. During this time of year, anyone who plays has a chance to move up, since players who are inactive during any two week period automatically drop three positions in the standings.

Winners of all matches should report the results to Jim Augis, Ted Kelly or Bruce Phillips no later than three days after the match is played. Current standings are:

Memorial Pool Swimmers Undefeated

With the final return victories over Madison, 22-18, and Livingston, 23-15, the Westfield Memorial Pool Swim Team has recorded their second consecutive undefeated season with a perfect 10-0 record. Although they had been moved up to the strongest division because of last year's 10-0 record, the team continued to prevail in the North Jersey Summer Swim League once again capturing the dual meet championship.

Senior swimmers Rich Andrews and Lynne Cassidy gave strong performances in the last two meets, both breaking and re-breaking team records; Lynne in the 15-17 backstroke and Rich in the 15-17 breaststroke, to remain undefeated in their specialties. Tom Mann, swimming in the 9-10 age group, set a new standard in the butterfly. Special mention and congratulations are also due swimmers Mike Schwebel (8&U), Ted Pollack (8&U), Derek Van Derven (9-10), and Scott Kaslusky (11-12) who were the only team members to attend every dual meet. Memorial Swim Team 3rd at Invitational

The Westfield Memorial Pool Swim Team earned third place at the annual Middlesex Invitational Mini-Meet sponsored by the Water Rats Aquatics Club. This feat was accomplished through outstanding performances by 13 swimmers aged 6 to 9.

The boys 8-and-under relay team made up of Chris Payne, Ted Pollack, Robby Schundler, and Mike Schwebel won with two meet record-breaking times of 1:10.81 and 1:22.78 for the freestyle and medley relays, respectively. The 9-and-under boys relay teams placed third in both the freestyle and medley relay events. The 7-and-under boys freestyle relay team made up of Jon Jones, Tim Romano, David Schaller and Paul Schwebel placed a respectable fourth in a field of 12 teams.

Tim Romano, making his debut in the 6/u age group, placed second in backstroke and third in freestyle. Trudy Schundler also swam well in her events.

David Schaller put in a strong performance with second place for both his 7/u freestyle and backstroke events. Jon Jones placed second in the highly competitive 7/u breaststroke event. Eric Linenberg picked up points for the team with his fourth and fifth place swims in the 7/u freestyle and breaststroke events. Jackie Mundie also put in strong swims.

Ted Pollack won every one of his individual events with record-breaking performances. In the 8/u backstroke event, Ted set a new meet record with a time of 18.91. For the 8/u butterfly event, Ted won with a time of 17.59 that was a new team record, which also tied a long-standing meet record. Ted Pollack closed out his day by setting a new meet record in the 8/u freestyle event.

Cancer Golf Tourney Monday

The Union County unit of the American Cancer Society tees-off with its third annual ACS Golf Tournament Monday, at Shackamaxon Golf and Country Club in Scotch Plains. The public is invited to participate.

Robert Wilcox, tournament chairman, promises a day of challenge and fun. The day begins with a buffet lunch at 11:30 a.m., followed by a shotgun golf tourney," says Wilcox. "The annual 'Nineteenth Hold Cocktail Party' guarantees to round out the festivities."

A 1986 Cadillac or an antique car for any golfer who has a hole-in-one will add to the excitement of the day.

Jack Nicklaus, winner of four Masters Championships, serves as honorary chairman for the 1985 American Cancer Society Golf Championships.

Winners of the Union County Tournament will be eligible to play in the ACS Golf Championship state playoffs at Riverton Country Club on Sept. 9. Winners of that tournament continue on to Doral Country Club in Miami, Fla.

For further information call the Union office in Elizabeth.

Old Faithful is getting tired. Yellowstone's famous geyser, which has spouted every 69 minutes for almost a century, now makes visitors wait as long as 100 minutes between eruptions, reports National Wildlife magazine. An earthquake is partly to blame, say scientists, but so are tourists who persist in dropping objects into the geyser, thus reducing its water supply.

with a time of 15.46.

Robby Schundler captured first place in the 8/u breaststroke event with a time of 22.09 in a field of 28 swimmers. In the 8/u butterfly, Robby put in a strong swim for fifth place. Mike Schwebel handily picked up a second place in the 8/u backstroke in a field of 26 swimmers, and fourth and fifth places with good times in his breaststroke and freestyle events. Andrea Duchek also placed well in her individual events.

Brian Ramsthaler, turning in his personal best time, won the 9/u breaststroke event with a time of 18.98. Brian also put in strong performances in his other individual events with a third place for freestyle, fourth place for backstroke and sixth place for butterfly.

WTC Teams Hope For Playoff Spots

Chrissy Gorman and Stacy Elmore lost a three set heart-breaker, while Lori Tirone fell at first singles.

Waterhouse played impressively to win. Second singles Blake Sturke lost a cliffhanger in three sets, while first doubles Damien Lyon and Sean Duggan couldn't recover after losing in a first set tiebreaker. Chris Reichelm and Bruce Ricker lost to a tough squad at second doubles. The team needs an impressive win on Monday to make the playoffs.
