

WHS Homecoming Queen to Be Announced Tonight

by Jamie Meliselman

The WHS Council's first homecoming celebration begins tonight, at the pre-Thanksgiving game pep rally-bonfire.

The events of the Homecoming include the crowning of the homecoming queen, an alumni reception and a pre-game parade, which takes place tomorrow morning.

The first of the events, the crowning of the queen, will be held tonight at the bonfire, which is on the high school athletic field. Nominees for this position are Catherine Baldwin, Christine Brown, Chrissy Diaz, Mary Glynn and Erika Marsh, who are all seniors. They and the winner were selected by the WHS student body.

Following the crowning and the bonfire, there will be a reception for all WHS alumni and present students, in Cafeteria B. Free refreshments will be served and music will be provided by the Fundamentals at this gathering. All alumni are encouraged to attend.

The homecoming parade will be tomorrow, preceding the football game. This consists of a procession of decorated convertibles displaying the queen and her court, which is comprised of the four runners-up.

Also to be driven in the convertibles are Student Council President Drew Robins, and tentatively student council presidents from previous years. The parade will begin at approximately 10:40 a.m., at the field house.

School Bd. Approves Major Staffing

One retirement, two resignations, one termination, and 51 appointments of teachers to special assignments, were among the many items approved by the Board of Education at its Nov. 19 meeting.

Members of the board voted unanimously on the following personnel items: The resignations of Sally Gilbert, WHS social studies; and Caroline McFarlane, WHS nurse; the retirement of Denise Hodes, Roosevelt Library Aide; the termination of employment of Jane Ringel, Roosevelt Math; the appointments of the following coaches and special assignments for the 1985-86 school year: WHS: David Kaplan, assistant band director, $1500; Carol Donner, head softball coach, $2,786; Robert Bruno, assistant baseball coach, $2,211; Robert Brewster, head baseball coach, $2,786; Shaun Cherewich, head lacrosse coach, $2,786; James Farrell, assistant wrestling coach, $2,211; Patricia Fernandes, assistant girls basketball coach, $1,706; David Shapiro, assistant softball coach, $2,211; Margaret McFadden, assistant softball coach, $1,870; Peter Lima, assistant baseball coach, $2,711; George Kapner, assistant lacrosse coach, $2,211; Anthony Berardo, boys tennis coach, $2,786; D. Zoning Board Postpones Action

Action to approve the use of an unimproved right of way on Breezeknoll Dr., as an access to a proposed Mountainside residence, was postponed by the Board of Adjustment, at Monday night's special meeting.

The decision to delay action came after it was agreed that additional testimony should be obtained from the town engineer and fire officials from Westfield and Mountainside.

The appellant, Henry J. Troeger of Scotch Plains, is the contract purchaser of the rear portion of a lot owned by Harry Devlin of Hillside Ave. The proposed home would not front on an unimproved street and would have access from Westfield, not Mountainside.

Attorney Arthur Attanasio, representing Troeger, stated that the sub-division of the property had been approved by the Mountainside Planning Board. The existing right of way, owned by the Town of Westfield would be developed into a 15 foot driveway.

Neighbors on Breezeknoll Dr. were present to object to the proposed driveway, although none were opposed to the proposed home. The objectors were represented by their attorney, Paul Williams, who stated that the appellant could not show practical or financial difficulties in locating the driveway on Hillside Ave., extending Devlin's existing driveway.

School Budget Increase Expected

With notification from the State Department of Education about the amount of State Aid to anticipate and the percentage increase permitted under the cap law, the school budget process in Westfield is underway for 1986-1987.

The State Department of Education has notified Westfield that it can increase the 1985-1986 school budget net current expense amount of $21,323,799 by 8.3 percent. This would be a permitted increase or cap of $1,767,780 in the 1986-1987 school budget.

The State Department of Education has notified Westfield that it can anticipate $3,234,855 in State Aid for 1986-1987, the 1985-1986 State Aid amount was $3,089,672. State Aid for next year would thus increase about 4.7 percent.

The next step, according to School Board President Leo Senus is developing a first draft of the budget for 1986-1987.

"Now is the time for staff and community input to the budget process," Mr. Senus stated. "I am again calling for citizens to participate to the fullest in helping us develop a 1986-1987 school budget. We will be asking for your support in April, but first we would like your input."

Usually the Board of Education receives a first draft of the proposed school budget in December. The deadline for local school districts to submit proposed tentative school budgets to the County Superintendent's office is Jan. 15. The deadline to adopt a tentative school budget is March 4 for the April 1 annual school election when citizens will have the opportunity to vote on the budget.

Individual school budgets are currently being reviewed by School Superintendent Laurence F. Greene and Dr. William J. Foley, assistant superintendent for business. A first draft of the school budget will be presented to the School Board for review in December.

Citizens with questions or suggestions about the budget process are urged to telephone any school board member or to contact Dr. Foley in the business office at 302 Elm St.

Community Contest, Toy Drive Usher in Holiday Season

More decorating contests, the return of the holiday toy drive, and a new holiday treasure hunt in downtown Westfield have been planned by the Westfield Association of Merchants (W.A.M.) in conjunction with the 1985 Westfield Winter Festival.

The town-wide "Home Decorating Contest" will be conducted by the Westfield Board of Realtors. Westfield homeowners can enter their homes in the contest simply by completing an entry form in any participating W.A.M. store in downtown Westfield between Friday, Dec. 6, and Monday, Dec. 16. Homes will be viewed by the Board of Realtors December 17-21.

Four homes — one from each of Westfield's four wards — will win $25 W.A.M. gift certificates which will be honored in 27 downtown Westfield stores. The winning homeowners of the 1984 contest were the Ryan family, 117 North Chestnut St. (Ward 1); the Meier family, 1262 East Broad St. (Ward 2); the Daniel family, 147

Landsdowne Ave. (Ward 3); and the Wilday family, 621 Vermont St. (Ward 4).

The judges criteria will emphasize creativity, implementation of idea, unity of design, and overall appearance.

Three new decorating contests have been added to this year's holiday promotion. Westfield merchants are invited to participate in a "Best Window" contest and all businesses — retail or professional — may enter the "Best Exterior" and/or "Best Interior" decorating contests. All three contests will be judged by the Rake and Hoe Garden Club of Westfield and the same rules and guidelines apply as with the Home Decorating contest; entry forms will be available in participating W.A.M. stores in downtown Westfield between Dec. 6 and Dec. 16 and judging criteria will be based on creativity, implementation of idea, unity of design, and overall appearance. The "Best Store Window" and "Best Exterior" con-

Meeting Slated to Discuss New Library

A meeting to discuss plans for the new memorial library will be held Wednesday, Dec. 4, at 7:30 p.m., in the Wateunk Room of the Municipal Building, it was announced by Library Trustee Christian M. Abeel.

The public is invited to address its comments and questions at the meeting, to members of the board and representatives of the library staff and architectural firm.

Abeel also stated that the approved floor plans are currently on display in the library, as well as a comment box.

Tree Lighting Ceremony, Dec. 5

Arrangements of holiday music will herald Santa's arrival at the annual tree lighting ceremony sponsored by the Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce Thursday evening, Dec. 5, at the Westfield Train Station on North Avenue.

Ceremonial lighting of the large evergreen tree is scheduled for six o'clock. Chamber President Warren Rorden will introduce members of the Town Council and other town officials. A member of the council will throw the switch to light the tree. As the tree is illuminated, Santa Claus will arrive on a fire truck. He will greet the youngsters and distribute candy canes.

A group of musicians, The West Fields Trombones, will present holiday selections beginning at 5:30. Carols will be played by local trombonists: Ellen Rogers, Chase Acito, Tommy Reinauer, and Henry Kavett. John Cook will direct the group, and also play. Philip Dietterich, minister of music at the Methodist Church, will introduce the trombonists and will encourage those present to sing along with the tunes.

Two businesses located near the train station will contribute to the plans for the evening again this year. For the children, Fine Toys, Ltd. will distribute balloons, each containing a coupon for a free holiday surprise. For Santa enthusiasts of all ages, Homeward Bounty will offer free samples of their wares.

"With the cooperation of town police, fire and public works departments, the Chamber of Commerce is pleased to arrange this event for the whole community," Mr. Rorden said. "Each year the crowd seems to be more and merrier!"

The ceremony is a part of the Holiday Lights Project sponsored by the Chamber. Installation of six foot artificial trees adorned with red ornaments and lights throughout the central business district is arranged by Bill Moore, of Classic Studio. The project depends on the financial support of members of the local business and professional community whose contributions to the Chamber's lights appeal make possible the purchase, installation and maintenance of the display.

Santa Claus will make his traditional grand entrance by fire engine at the annual tree lighting ceremony, sponsored by the Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce, on Dec. 5, at the train station on North Ave.

Anyone wishing to contribute may contact the Chamber of Commerce office at P.O. Box 81, Westfield, N.J. 07091.

Community Blood Drives Scheduled

In an effort to bolster area blood supplies, residents are urged to donate blood at one of two drives being held on Monday, Dec. 2 and cosponsored by the Westfield-Mountainside chapter at the American Red Cross and New Jersey Blood Services.

From 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., next Monday, the Borough of Mountainside Municipal Building, located at 1385 Route 22 East, will be the site of an open blood drive.

Later that day, the H.C. Winston's Restaurant and Echo Lanes Bowling Alley will host a blood drive from 2:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m., at the Echo Lanes Bowling Alley, located on Route 22 in Mountainside.

Each donor will receive a free medical check-up at the donor site. Blood pressure, pulse rate, body temperature and red cell level will be checked. According to Pat Goodale, executive director of the Westfield-Mountainside Red Cross, "First time donors have the additional benefit of finding out their blood type!"

Anyone between the ages of 17 and 66, weighing at least 110 pounds and in good health, can donate blood. Seventeen year olds require the written consent of parent or guardian. Donors over the age of 65, must have donated previously, be in good health and meet the medical requirements of a New Jersey Blood Services physician.

For further information, please call the Westfield-Mountainside Red Cross.

Rescue Squad to Seek New Members, Saturday

"Come help us save lives." The request is from members of the Westfield Rescue Squad who will be at Hill's Ice Cream Shop, 53 Elm St., Saturday, to demonstrate some of the first aid measures they use regularly.

To launch their first recruiting drive, squad members will answer questions and interview potential volunteers from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Hot chocolate and popcorn are being donated throughout the day by Hill's.

Struggling to keep up with an evergrowing number of calls, which now average six a day, the squad urgently needs more members. Currently 57 people volunteer for regular day or night duty. They include housewives, chemists, teachers, students, police officers, attorneys, and other business and professional people.

"If you are at least 19 years old, have a valid driver's license, and can spend at least four hours a week on duty, you will be an enormous asset to the squad," says Captain Judy Heatly.

The squad expects to handle a record breaking 2,400 calls by the end of 1985. In September it went out on 212 emergencies, in Oct. 190, and during the first 22 days of November they have received 130 calls for help.

One of the squad's three ambulances will be on display at Hill's during the day and visitors will have an opportunity to examine the equipment used in first aid for people who are injured or ill.

Diane Holzmueller and Anne Bizink are co-chairpersons of the recruiting drive. Other crew members on their committee are George Fink, Miki Leitner, Joe Urso, Grace Marcotullio, and Duncan Smythe.

Kreisman Reappointed To Industry Council

Dr. Leonard T. Kreisman of Westfield, vice president for academic affairs of Union County College, has been reappointed to the Union County Private Industry Council.

The appointment was made by the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders. The Council administers the federal Jobs Training Partnership Act in Union County.

Under Dr. Kreisman's leadership, Union County College established the Employment Skills Center as part of its Elizabeth Urban Educational Center, 10 Butler Street, Elizabeth, which provides jobs training programs in a variety of fields. ESC currently has 200 full-time students in such programs as secretarial skills, bookkeeping, basic skills, basic studies, clerical skills for hearing impaired, vocational ESL (English for Speakers of Other Languages), GED (high school equivalency) preparation, and job placement, testing (aptitude, achievement, interest), and Assessment Services.

E'Town Offer Rebates On Energy-Saving Items

Elizabethtown Gas Company is broadening its energy saving rebate program this heating season — offering customers rebates on the purchase of qualifying energy efficient gas water heaters, gas-fired furnaces and clock-thermostats.

"By offering the extra incentive of a cash rebate, we want to encourage customers to purchase energy efficient systems that provide comfort while consuming less energy," said Clarence Bauknight, general manager of energy conservation services for Elizabethtown Gas.

"Money is saved both by the reduced amount of gas used and the energy conservation rebates."

Elizabethtown Gas is offering its customers a $50 rebate on the purchase of an energy-efficient automatic gas water heater, which comes in 30-, 40- and 50-gallon sizes. The efficiency is measured according to an energy factor (EF), which must be at least 0.56 for the 30-gallon size, 0.54 for the 40-gallon and 0.51 for the 50-gallon heater to qualify for the rebate.

The second type of rebate, for a new, high-efficiency central gas heating system, is determined by the annual fuel utilization efficiency ratio (AFUE) and the heating capacity of the equipment measured in BTU's. The rebate, limited to present gas heat customers, may be $100 or more (based on qualified ratings for the new system installed).

There is a $10 rebate offered on the retail purchase of an automatic clock-thermostat that helps control energy consumption levels. A coupon must be obtained in advance from Elizabethtown Gas before making the purchase of a clock-thermostat.

Arts Awards Granted

The Association for Retarded Citizens of Union County has been awarded a 1985/86 Arts Grant from the Union County Office of Cultural and Heritage Affairs, with funding provided by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts. This award will make possible the continuation of the choral singing program for adults with special needs that was organized last year, "The Union County Special Singers."

This year the Singers group expects to expand its activities to include a drama component as well as the choral singing. The drama programs will stress movement, mime, and non-verbal self-expression to give more flexibility in performance to this group of adults, many of which may have impaired communications skills.

As soon as a new director is located, the group will reconvene and weekly practice sessions will begin. A person with musical training, some teaching experience is now being sought.

Adults interested in participating in the Union County Special Singers may contact the ARC office.

Margaret G. Corbet

Local Stockbroker to Advise Women How to Make Most of Money

Today's women who want to control her own finances may not be so very different from her mother or grandmother, stockbroker Margaret G. Corbet asserts.

The third generation of her family to offer financial guidance to Union County residents, Corbet explains:

Financially, women tend to fall into three categories:

- those who have always managed family investments, either because their husbands are too occupied with business, because they have better instincts, or because they are single

- women who never pick up a checkbook, whether married or single, leaving all money matters to the men in their lives

- the widowed or divorced woman who has no choice but to control her own fortunes

Corbet will teach a four-week course "Understanding Your Money and How to Get the Most Out of It" at the Westfield Y Women's Center. Registration begins this week for the classes in January. She hopes women in the latter two categories will enroll.

"A lot of women out there are making very savvy decisions about investments," says Corbet. "Some always did. However, there's a large group who just assume women aren't capable of making investment decisions. They'd like to become investors, but fear they lack the ability to make sound judgments."

Successful investing does take knowledge and understanding," says the stockbroker. "But there's no mystique. Why are some women living more comfortable lives? Simply because they planned better. You can do it too," she encourages. "Just do it. This is the place to begin."

Unfortunately, many women have been conditioned to believe that females don't and can't understand finance, Corbet says. Surprisingly, many women both married and single, who have their own healthy incomes fall into this group.

"Nonsense," said the young broker, who started playing with stocks in her father's office when she was only 11. Now 25, she already boasts four years' experience in the world of finance. (She worked fulltime one summer while still an economics major at Lehigh University.)

In the Y's class, Corbet will help women explore the greatest possible return for the least amount of risk, the cornerstone of the investment philosophy of Legg, Mason, Wood Walker, one of the country's largest regional brokerages and investment banking firms.

Legg Mason is a happy marriage of Legg Mason, founded in 1899 and the Corbet family opened by Maggie's grandfather, William Corbet in 1921 in Elizabeth with F.P. Ristine.

Children's Films At Library

A film program for children, The films are ages five through eight, will be shown by the Children's Department of the Westfield Memorial Library on Friday, Nov. 29 from 11 a.m. to 12 noon, in the Wateunk Room. "Rumpelstiltskin," "Ghosts and Ghoulies" and "What Mary Jo Wanted." No registration or passes are necessary for this Thanksgiving special.

Hypertension/Diabetes Screening on Dec. 19

The Westfield Board of Health will conduct a free blood pressure/diabetes screening session from 10:30-11:30 a.m., Thursday, Dec. 19 at the Westfield Community Center, 558 West Broad St.

More than 23 million Americans have high blood pressure and many are unaware they have it. In most cases, high blood pressure is painless and produces no symptoms.

Individuals should be screened for high blood pressure if they:

- Are 35 years of age or older
 - Are not under a physician's care for high blood pressure
 - Have a family history of high blood pressure
 - Have not had a blood pressure test in over a year
 - Have stopped taking blood pressure medication without their physicians' approval
- The early detection and treatment of high blood pressure can enable a person to lead a normal life. It takes only a few minutes to have blood pressure checked.

The first week in December has been declared the Westfield Foundation week by Mayor Ronald Frigerio, pictured above with H. Emerson Thomas, a president of the Foundation; E. Alfred Herberich, executive director; and Charles H. Frankenbach, vice-president. The Westfield Foundation has been in existence for ten years managing more than $1,000,000 in assets and distributing dividends in the form of grants to worthy tax-exempt organizations serving Westfield's people.

Anyone interested in donating funds or receiving a grant should write to the executive director, the Westfield Foundation, 210 Orchard St., Westfield 07091.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1985

Thanksgiving Day, 1985

Although the time and date of the first American thanksgiving observance may be uncertain, there is no question but that is treasured custom from our Judeo-Christian heritage. "Unto Thee, O God, do we give thanks," the Psalmist sang, praising God not only for the "wondrous works" of His creation, but for loving guidance and deliverance from dangers.

A band of settlers arriving in Maine in 1607 held a service of thanks for their safe journey, and twelve years later settlers in Virginia set aside a day of thanksgiving for their survival. In 1621 Governor William Bradford created the most famous of all such observances at Plymouth Colony when a bounteous harvest prompted him to proclaim a special day "to render thanksgiving to the Almighty God for all His blessings." The Spaniards in California and the Dutch in New Amsterdam also held services to give public thanks to God.

In 1777, during our War of Independence, the Continental Congress set aside a day for thanksgiving and praise for our victory at the battle of Saratoga. It was the first time all the colonies took part in such an event on the same day. The following year, upon news that France was coming to our aid, George Washington at Valley Forge prescribed a special day of thanksgiving. Later, as our first President, he responded to a Congressional petition by declaring Thursday, November 28, 1789, the first Thanksgiving Day of the United States of America.

Although there were many state and national thanksgiving days proclaimed in the ensuing years, it was the tireless crusade of one woman, Sarah Josepha Hale, that finally led to the establishment of this beautiful feast as an annual nationwide observance. Her editorials so touched the heart of Abraham Lincoln that in 1863 — even in the midst of the Civil War — he enjoined his countrymen to be mindful of their many blessings, cautioning them not to forget "the source from which they come," that they are "the gracious gifts of the Most High God." Who ought to be thanked "with one heart and one voice by the whole American People."

It is in that spirit that I now invite all Americans to take part again in this beautiful tradition with its roots deep in our history and deeper still in our hearts. We manifest our gratitude to God for the many blessings he has showered upon our land and upon its people.

In this season of Thanksgiving we are grateful for our abundant harvests and the productivity of our industries; for the discovering of our laboratories; for the researches of our scientists and scholars; for the achievements of our artists, musicians, writers, clergy, teachers, physicians, businessmen, engineers, public servants, farmers, mechanics, artisans and workers of every sort whose honest toil of mind and body in a free land rewards them and their families and enriches our entire Nation.

Let us thank God for our families, friends, and neighbors, and for the joy of this very festival we celebrate in His name. Let every house of worship in the land and every home and every heart be filled with the spirit of gratitude and praise and love on this Thanksgiving Day.

Now, therefore, I, Ronald Reagan, President of the United States of America, in the spirit and tradition of the Pilgrims, the Continental Congress, and past Presidents, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 28, 1985, as a day of national Thanksgiving. I call upon every citizen of this great Nation to gather together in homes and places of worship and offer prayers of praise and gratitude for the many blessings Almighty God has bestowed upon our beloved country.

Candlelight Holiday Tours
At Miller-Cory Museum

Guests to Miller-Cory House Museum, located at 614 Mountain Ave., will experience a taste of the holiday season, 18th-century style, on the evening of Sunday, Dec. 8, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. Opening the 1740 farmhouse to the public for the first time during evening hours, visitors will be treated to an hour-long candlelight house tour with holiday interpretations of local ethnic decorations of the period.

Adorning this early American house will be items representative of the Dutch, Swedish, English, and German ancestors residing in the West fields of Elizabethtown. The symbolism of decorations such as the pyramid of candles, an Advent wreath, an apple tree, and Dutch shoes filled with carrots and oranges will be interpreted by costumed docents throughout the program.

To further enhance the evening, guests will sample foods typical of an 18th century gathering from a groaning board. A variety of cheeses, breads, fruits, smoked ham, hot mulled cider, and roasted chestnuts will be served while visitors are entertained by period music performed by a group of museum volunteers.

Mrs. Anne Bishop, a culinary author and museum volunteer, will be present in the Frazee Building to discuss some of the foods which would have been prepared over an open hearth two centuries ago. Mrs. Pat Gambino of Clark will be assisting her.

Miller-Cory House Museum, a national historic landmark, offers visitors an 18th century "living museum" experience aimed to educate the young and old. The Flo Malcolm, a Miller-Cory volunteer, will conduct candlelight tours at the museum.

Museum volunteers would like to extend an invitation to the public to support this fund-raising event in order to augment its Education Center. Once completed, this area of the Museum will be equipped to offer a variety of craft programs to the public.

Mrs. Eva Wiley and Mrs. Bebbins Yudes, both residents of Westfield, are the chairmen of this special event. Tickets may be purchased through the Museum office from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. daily and will also be available at Jeannette's Gift Shop and Jane Smith's in Westfield.

Money Management

First came yuppie books. Then came yuppie haircuts. There's even a dog sold in pet shops that's being touted as the "Yuppy-puppy." Since America discovered yuppies in 1984, yuppie-mania has spawned a smorgasbord of products and fads for the Young Urban Professional.

Now, topping all the clever yuppie gimmicks by applying some practical financial advice, the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants (CPAs) has come up with a year-end tax planning strategy for yuppies. For financially strapped young professionals, it may provide some needed tax savings.

Despite the hoopla and hype surrounding them, the celebrated yuppies remain in the financial doghouse. Although they are being singled out in books, advertising campaigns and the media, many are financially troubled. The sharpened competition for high-paying jobs, the high cost of living in or near a big city and the bigger loan repayments for college are dogging America's newest generation of professionals.

The yuppie year-end tax strategy is based upon a common tax technique known as "bunching." Bunching can be used by all taxpayers, but yuppies — more than others — will frequently find the strategy helpful. That's because many young professionals are in the $25,000 to $35,000 income range. Many people at that income level have some itemized deductions, but not enough to itemize. By bunching deductions into 1985, you can itemize and cut a tax bill this year. Then, claim the zero bracket amount (formerly known as the standard deduction) in the following year. According to the CPAs, you can net a handsome tax savings.

Let's see how this might apply to a typical young professional. Such a person might have $600 in interest deductions for college loan repayments. If he or she purchased a car with borrowed money, additional interest deductions — say, for $600 — may also be claimed. In many instances, state income taxes may be levied or a state sales tax on a car could bring an additional $1,000 deduction on a federal return. These itemized deductions ($600 plus $600 plus $1,000) would total $2,200. To itemize, however, a single taxpayer in 1985 would need more than $2,390 in deductions, which is the current zero bracket amount. This is where bunching deductions becomes helpful.

A taxpayer who is at or near the zero bracket amount may be able to accelerate certain deductible expenses into 1985 before the year ends. Perhaps there are expenses that can be speeded up to break through the zero bracket amount. The young professional may want to pay for dues to a professional organization or alumni association before the year ends. Maybe you can pay 1986 dues in 1985. In addition, payments for subscriptions to job-related and investment-related periodicals can sometimes be advanced. A nurse, for instance, may be able to pay for a three-year subscription to a medical journal before Dec. 31. The fee you will pay in 1986 for a safe deposit box can also be advanced into 1985, by the way.

Another bunching technique calls for lumping two years of charitable deductions into one year. If this sounds like a good idea, but you are strapped for the cash needed or the extra charitable contribution, consider making the contribution with a credit card. This allows you to claim the deduction this year and actually make the payment next year. Remember, contributions of old clothing and furniture are also deductible at the fair market value.

It may also be smart to evaluate your medical expenses. Medical expenses are deductible only when they total more than five-percent of your adjusted gross income. If your medical expenses are at or near that level, it may be smart to get that physical you've been putting off or speed up the purchase of a pair of eyeglasses or contact lenses.

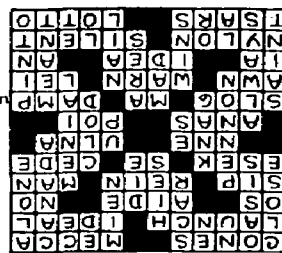

Yuppies who are in the job market or who plan to begin looking for a new job after the first of the year may want to get some resumes printed before December 31 or place a classified ad in the "positions wanted" section of a newspaper or magazine. Job hunting costs are deductible if you are seeking employment in your current line of work.

By bunching all of these itemized deductions into a single year, rather than spreading them out helter-skelter over two or three years, you may be able to lower your 1985 tax bill. Remember, you have until the end of the year to implement this strategy.

Report from WashingtonBy
Congressman

Matt Rinaldo

7th District, New Jersey

Archaic federal laws are handicapping the nation's veterans in pursuing benefit claims before the Veterans Administration.

Unlike claimants before other federal agencies who can appeal rejection of their claims to the federal courts, veterans' appeals are judged by the Board of Veteran Appeals, which is part of the Veterans Administration. The decision of the board is final, and there is no opportunity for judicial review.

When they hire attorneys to represent them before the VA, veterans are expressly prohibited from paying fees in excess of $10. This 19th century limitation can effectively prevent them from having their cases heard.

The fee limit dates back to 1861 when Congress passed a law prohibiting lawyers from charging veterans more than $10 for helping them receive death and disability benefits. The idea was to protect veterans against fees that would be disproportionate to the amount of benefits they received. This restriction was recently upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court, which ruled that there was nothing unconstitutional about limiting the amount a veteran may pay an attorney to press a claim before the VA.

The $10 cap was probably reasonable in 1862 when it was roughly equal to $600 in 1985 dollars, but in today's economy it is unacceptably low, and could result in many veterans being unable to retain lawyers to represent them in VA appeal cases.

This is especially unfortunate when you consider that claims made by veterans today may involve complex medical and psychiatric conditions. Many of these problems were unknown a few years ago, such as disability claims involving radiation or Agent Orange poisoning, and others were not fully understood.

The fee limit is compounded by the fact that since World War I, veterans have been limited in their options in dealings with the VA. Current law states that the VA has the final say on a veteran's claim for benefits. The VA — the second largest client agency of the federal government — is one of the few agencies whose decisions on paying benefits are not subject to the scrutiny of the federal courts. The fact that the appeals system is bogged down with more than 30,000 disputes each year is an indication that veterans are dissatisfied with the handling of their claims and the system is not working as well as it should.

These legal restrictions are contrary to the traditional American commitment of fair play and due process under the law. How ironic that the very individuals who served in the armed forces to protect democratic freedoms are denied their basic constitutional rights in dealing with the Veterans Administration.

To correct this inequity, I am a sponsor of legislation which would give veterans the right of judicial review and allow for the payment of reasonable fees to attorneys representing them in benefit cases. We owe them no less. Similar legislation has been approved by the Senate and I am hopeful that the House also will follow suit.

Co-op Registration
To Open Jan. 2

The Westfield Cooperative Nursery School has announced its opening for September, 1986 registration, on Jan. 2.

The school, now in its 17th year, is held at the First Congregational Church, 125 Elmer St. It is a non-profit, non-sectarian state licensed school.

A slide show discussing the school's curriculum will be held at 9:15 a.m., Tuesday, Dec. 3, in Patton Hall, at the church. Parents actively seeking a nursery school for their three, four or young five year old children, are encouraged to attend.

STARSCOPE

by Clare Annswell

WEEK OF: NOVEMBER 28, 1985

AQUARIUS — January 21-February 19

Your ability to see another person's point of view wins you an important ally this week. Romantic differences can be mended; the key ingredient is a sense of humor.

PISCES — February 20-March 20

You're in the spotlight thanks to a recent accomplishment. Family support for your ideas grows. Motives of an acquaintance may be deceptive. Cultural events are highlighted.

ARIES — March 21-April 20

If making home improvements or shopping for a wardrobe, warm tones reflect your present mood. A friend's encouragement can help you complete one major project and then launch a new one.

TAURUS — April 21-May 21

Good week for building a new relationship, for travel, and for property transactions. In all areas, the key is to have realistic expectations. New pressures may greet you at work.

GEMINI — May 22-June 21

Watch tendency to be overly cautious, overly subtle. This is a good time for tooting your own horn and selling your ideas. Originality is also to be encouraged.

CANCER — June 22-July 22

Week finds you developing plans for an upcoming celebration. News of a partnership may catch you by surprise. An old skill of yours can prove unexpectedly useful.

LEO — July 23-August 22

Nostalgia is week's theme as you meet old friends or browse through picture albums. At work, however, an up-to-the-minute approach is critical — and wins admiration.

VIRGO — August 23-September 22

New partnership may be launched this period. Real estate and travel are generally favorable, provided you expect the unexpected. Romantic misunderstanding keeps you resourceful.

LIBRA — September 23-October 22

Social life may sag, but professionally you're making significant strides. Award may come your way by the end of this period. Friends respond positively to your advice.

SCORPIO — October 23-November 21

Listen to all suggestions before making a domestic decision. Announcement of a celebration may arrive by the end of this period. Publishing and advertising ventures are favored.

SAGITTARIUS — November 22-December 22

Salesmanship is a current strength; use this week to sell ideas as well as products. Chance for earning spare cash may come your way by Wednesday. Romantic slowdown is temporary.

CAPRICORN — December 23-January 20

Older people offer some bright, innovative ideas related to profession and home life. Romance takes on an aura of glamour. Avoid overextending yourself in the fitness department.

BIRTHDAY THIS WEEK

You're an adventurer, a student of life, and a late bloomer. New interests keep you young — and the coming half-year accents change and travel. Although generally dependable, you tend to procrastinate. Give more attention to detail, and a leadership role is yours by late '86.

BORN THIS WEEK

November 28th, singer Randy Newman; 29th, singer John Gary; 30th, host Dick Clark; December 1st, singer Lou Rawls; 2nd, actress Julie Harris; 3rd, singer Andy Williams; 4th, actor Max Baer, Jr.

SKILLS in understanding alcohol and drug related issues are being developed in staff inservice workshops for Westfield public school staff members. Sponsored by the Union County Council on Alcoholism, the workshops are conducted by Bob Randall, addictions consultant. Two more workshops are scheduled in the spring. "Our goal is to train each elementary principal, librarian, secretary, custodian and 4, 5 and 6 grade teachers and all K-12 school nurse/health educators," said Marie Scian, coordinator of the inservice. Pictured at the fourth workshop are (left to right) Marie Micione, secretary in the health department; Gregory Gorski, health/physical education teacher at Westfield High School; Thomas Graves, custodian at Washington School; Bob Randall; and Charles W. Jackson, principal of Jefferson School.

Westfield Winter Festival Set for Sunday, Dec. 22

Ice sculptures, local television and Santa's North Pole headquarters - they're just three of the attractions to the 1985 Westfield Winter Festival which will be held on Sunday, Dec. 22, 12 noon to 4 p.m., in downtown Westfield.

"We're taking the best of last year's well-received festival and adding some new attractions," explained Anthony Annesse, president of the Westfield Association of Merchants (W.A.M.), sponsor of the festival. Elm St. between North Ave. and Quimby St. will again be closed to vehicular traffic to serve as a focal point for the festival.

Among the activities scheduled are the popular "Civic Clubs' Ice Sculpture Contest," a kiddie matinee, stage entertainment, Santa Claus' North Pole headquarters, and several community contests. In addition, three booths - one more than last year - will be set up in downtown Westfield to dispense free hot chocolate.

The ice sculpture contest, which was won by Westfield Boy Scout Troop 79 last year, is open to all Westfield area civic, religious, and service organizations. The Westfield YMCA, Westfield Kiwanis/Key Club, IB-POE Centennial Lodge #400, and the Boy Scout Troop 79 have already reserved ice blocks for this year's contest. Each club will be assigned a four-foot ice block and given two ice shavers (private tools are allowed) and three hours to construct its "masterpiece." Trophies will be awarded to the top three entries as determined by a panel of judges at the festival. There is no entry fee to join the competition; simply call the Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce (233-3021) to reserve an ice block.

A new attraction to the 1985 festival will be "Santa's North Pole Headquarters." Children can visit Santa, receive free candy canes, and have professional color photographs taken for just $2. The North Pole headquarters will feature a life-size sleigh and decorations by the Rake and Hoe Club of Westfield.

The kiddie matinee will be shown at the Westfield Cinema on Central Ave. at 2 p.m. Discounted advance tickets will be available in participating W.A.M. stores for $1; at the festival, tickets will be available for $1.50. The movie title will be announced in the near future.

Stage entertainment will include animal trainer Frank McSweeney, who boasts of owning the "smartest cats and dogs in New Jersey." McSweeney has appeared on several television programs, including "The David Letterman Show," "AH My Children," "Good Morning America," and "New Jersey People."

Winners of several community contests which preceded the Investment factors Corbet will cover in the course include:

- avoiding "cocktail party stocks," those hot tips people confide at social gatherings. "They always tell about the stock they bought at $10 which soared to $50, but not about the other nine that went down substantially."
- diversification — how to achieve a good balance in your portfolio instead of putting all your eggs in one basket.
- judging performance of your own stock against the market's performance in general.
- short term and long term investments
- an overview of investment alternatives: stocks, bonds, CD's, treasury notes etc.
- how to determine the amount of risk you can live with and risk-reward ratios

Two categories of women could profit especially from the classes, Corbet believes:

"People of my age group tend to be very conservative about investments," Maggie asserts. "Their idea is spend it all today because with inflation it's going to be worth less tomorrow."

"Nothing's sadder than being 30 years old with nothing tangible to show for it but a flashy wardrobe, a microwave and a VCR. It's unfortunate to have no savings or long range financial plan at the very time they have the resources to start an investment program and make their futures more secure."

The second group are women of 60 or so, suddenly widowed, who think they're too old — too old to learn a new skill, and at a stage of life when their investments won't make much difference.

"Yet statistically, their assets must provide for them for 20 years or more and keep pace with inflation."

Corbet hopes to help all kinds of women feel comfortable managing money, and how to make what may be the most important decision of all, "selecting a financial advisor you really feel comfortable with."

Claims Boro Water Pressure is Inadequate

Water pressure in the towns of Short Hills, Millburn, Springfield and Mountainside are sometimes less than 40 (psi) and at times these towns may not have enough pressure to put out a major fire, according to Herbert Ross, spokesman for "The Committee For Consumer Protection."

"In fact we are suggesting that homeowners who have problems purchase a pressure gauge and keep track of the date the pressure was taken. We will submit the information to the Public Utilities Commission and if necessary initiate a class action suit. To check water pressure you attach a gauge to an outside faucet and run water through it" Ross concluded.

A list of homes, stores and factories is being compiled who have trouble with water pressure. Residents may contact The Committee For Consumer Protection, 1519 Stuyvesant Ave., Union, N.J. 07083.

What you should know about... jewelry "discounts?"

40% "OFF" ... 60% "OFF" ... "OFF" OF WHAT?

The public is being bombarded by various outlets — even famous department stores — with ads and promotions claiming so-called "discounts" which are so exaggerated that you should question them.

Are they really true discounts? Was the merchandise ever really sold at the high "regular" or "former" or "reference" price quoted?

Or, was the merchandise fictitiously priced to lure you into thinking you're getting a bargain?

There's nothing wrong with legitimate discounts...we are against deceptive pricing. You owe it to yourself to shop around and compare quality and service as well as price.

Violinist Amy Sklar, a fourth grade student attending Tamaques Elementary School in Mrs. Dale Schwam's class, performed as an unaccompanied soloist during the school's annual Back-To-School Night. Her selections included musical compositions from Shinichi Suzuki's volume #1 and duets from the Wolfahrt Easiest Elementary Method accompanied on violin with her teacher at Tamaques, Theodore K. Schlosberg.

Amy had her first class in violin at the Westfield Summer Workshop when she was seven years old and has been studying privately with Mrs. Lubove Schnable of Scotch Plains for the past year and a half. She is a member of the Tamaques School Orchestra and studies violin with Schlosberg as part of the instrumental music instruction program provided to students interested in playing a musical instrument.

Amy is also a member of the orchestral String Training Ensemble of the New Jersey Youth Symphony. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Talbot Sklar.

UCC To Admit Fresh in January

Union County College will accept applications from freshmen for the spring semester, which opens on Jan. 21, it was announced today by Dr. Leonard T. Kreisman of Westfield, vice president for academic affairs.

"Many colleges and universities admit freshmen only at the start of the fall semester, Mrs. Jane Cook of Cranford, director of registration, said. "However, we accept freshmen in the spring also."

Union County College is able to open programs to incoming students in mid-year because of the college's "highly flexible course scheduling," according to Mrs. Cook.

Jill A. Wittke Bride of Dr. David J. Swiecinski

Jill Anne Wittke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Wittke, Jr. of Westfield, became the bride of Dr. David J. Swiecinski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Swiecinski of New Castle, Pa., on Sept. 28.

The 11 a.m. ceremony was performed by the Revs. James Cole and William Morris at the Presbyterian Church in Westfield. A reception followed at The Old Mansion in Elizabeth.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional white, floor-length gown, trimmed with seed pearls and lace, with a matching veil and cathedral train. She carried a bouquet of white roses, peach mini carnations, yellow freesia and baby's breath.

Mrs. Gail Williams of Wilmington, Del., served as her sister's honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Katie Layton of Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. Grace Nasseh of Aldan, Pa.; and Mrs. Bruce Gillie of Fanwood. Junior bridesmaid was Gina Williams, and flower girls were Julie Williams, both nieces of the bride. All attendants wore pale blue, floor-length satina gowns and carried bouquets of peach, yellow and white flowers. They wore matching hair wreaths of flowers.

Kirk Fisher of New Castle, served as best man. Fred Swiecinski of New Castle, the bridegroom's cousin; Brent Tanner of Cincinnati, Ohio; and Jerry Bishop of Sharon, Pa., were ushers. Jeffrey Gillie was the ringbearer.

Wedding music was provided by Laurie Conrad of Ithaca, N.Y., the bride's stepsister, on piano, Mrs. Annette White, organist, and Mrs. Mary Beth Minson, soloist.

The bride is a graduate of Westfield High School and Ohio Wesleyan University, where she received a B.A. degree. She graduated from Thomas Jefferson University in Philadelphia, receiving a B.S. degree in nursing. She is employed as a registered nurse at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia.

Dr. Swiecinski is a graduate of New Castle High School, and attended the University of Miami in Florida. He graduated from Pennsylvania State University, and is a 1985 graduate of Temple University School of Dentistry, Philadelphia.

Mrs. Grace Nasseh hosted a bridal shower in her home. The rehearsal dinner party was given by the bridegroom's parents at the Ramada Inn, Clark.

Following a wedding trip to St. Thomas, in the Virgin Islands, the couple is at home in Blackwood.

Wendy L. Collins and Wayne A. Zimmerman Wed

Wendy Louise Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Collins, III of Wilton, Conn., formerly of Westfield, was married to Wayne Albert Zimmerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald C. Zimmerman of Tamaqua, Pa., on Sept. 26, at St. Matthews Episcopal Church in Wilton. Dr. J. Stephen Jacobs of the Wilton Presbyterian Church performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Laura Ashley gown of lace, trimmed with dotted voile with a chapel train. Her finger-tip veil was attached to a circlet of pink rosebuds and babies breath, and she carried a cascade of cymbidium orchids, pink roses and stephanotis. She wore her maternal grandmother's necklace of pearls.

Maid of honor was Ellen Nofer of Philadelphia, Pa. Bridesmaids were Robin Collins, sister of the bride and Anne Elizabeth East of Devon, Pa., cousin of the bride. Stephanie Sauter of Plainfield, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl. The attendants wore full-length, rose floral printed dresses by Laura Ashley. Their bouquets and matching headpieces contained rosebuds, carnations, freesia and statice in shades of pink and lavender.

Best man was Kurt Schagen of Glen Rock. Ushers were Andrew Collins, brother of the bride and Christopher Rooke of Morristown.

The bride attended the Westfield schools and Kent Place School, before graduating from Wilton High School in 1980 and Susquehanna University in 1984.

Mr. Zimmerman graduated from Tamaqua High School in 1978 and Susquehanna University, in 1982. He is a district manager for Family Computer Centers, Inc., in South Orange.

20/20 VISION AND SPORTS

Q: Is it necessary to have 20/20 vision to be a good athlete?
A: 20/20 vision only means that you can see an object clearly from a distance of 20 feet. A good athlete needs many other visual skills as well, including clear near vision, depth perception, speed of recognition (how fast the visual image is processed by the brain), quick visual reaction time, and good peripheral (side) vision.

A recent study of athletes and sports officials has shown that many athletes whose distance vision is clear are deficient in the other visual skills. However, many of these skills can be developed. Some outstanding athletes have done so!

Q: Will wearing glasses interfere with playing baseball and tennis?
A: If you see clearly with your glasses and are comfortable with them, they should not inhibit your sports activities. But, as a safety precaution, make sure that the lenses are either scratch-resistant plastic or impact-resistant glass, in case you accidentally get hit in the eye by a stray ball. Many athletes prefer wearing contact lenses. They don't steam up in hot weather, slip down your nose, or feel heavy. Contact lenses often provide even clearer vision than eyeglasses, and since there is no frame, there is nothing to interfere with peripheral (side) vision. Consider one of the new types of sports goggles for extra protection if you wear contacts or no glasses at all.

Westfield Symphony Concert Reviewed

by Paul Somers

Certainly the most recent concert by the Westfield Symphony was a primer in each represented composer's style. The opening Prelude to "The Afternoon of a Faun" by Claude Debussy was a revolutionary work, almost singlehandedly opening the door to Twentieth Century music. Even today it is the classic work with which to demonstrate the French Impressionist way of thought. Katherine Fink's evocative flute soloing set the dreamy atmosphere, and kept it drifting and shimmering throughout the work. Brad Keimach's conducting was sensitive and not overly dramatic. The absence of Peter Winograd as concertmaster for this concert was noticeable in the solo violin passages, which lacked his underlying sureness of purpose.

More of a problem in the program was the early work for soprano and orchestra by Hector Berlioz, Les Nuits d'Ete. The problem was twofold. First, one has to be absolutely fascinated by the middle movements, or risk nodding off. To hear that even early Berlioz had already found that personal style which so influenced such divergent composers as Liszt and Wagner on one hand and Bizet on the other was sufficiently interesting to me to keep me with it, but I could not help but notice some others in the audience who, after the second song, "Le Spectre de la Rose", did not rejoin the proceedings until the final "L'Isle Inconnue". Second, soprano Daureen Podenski has some vocal problems. She seems to have a very edgy voice. She also has a constant tight vibrato which she cannot use at will; rather, it is something that gets in the way of her expression. She should really rethink her vocal placement. There is hope, for she really reminds me of the Tatiana Troyanos of about six years ago. She, while having a great career, has managed to learn to control her voice rather than merely use it. With some more work Ms. Podenski will, too. On her plus side are excellent diction, a feeling for the text and its phrasing, and, not least, her striking stage presence. Despite the flaws I felt in this performance, I must commend her and Mr. Keimach for presenting this little known Berlioz work. We are so used to hearing nothing but "standards", that the chance to hear a beautiful, seminal, and less played work was exciting.

After a first half bath in the French ethos, the concert concluded with an interesting juxtaposition: a well thought out reading by Keimach of Beethoven's Seventh Symphony, a work first performed at a concert to benefit soldiers wounded in the war against Napoleon. Emphasizing the rhythmic motives driving the work, he let us hear why Wagner referred to this symphony as "the apotheosis of the Dance." I have a few quibbles, matters of taste: (1) I feel the first movement needs the repeated exposition (2) The trumpet intonation problems in the Presto occurred because they were asked to push too hard. (3) In the Finale the trumpets overpowered, thereby not only covering the melodic lines, but robbing the horns of their effectiveness when they are supposed to shine. These are all conductorial matters to be covered in rehearsal. In spite of these differences I felt this was an exciting, well paced performance which compared favorably to others I have heard. All in all, it was an enjoyable interesting evening played to what appeared to be very near a capacity house.

Benefit Concert to Fight Hunger

Under the aegis of World Hunger Year, Inc., and the New Jersey Center for Food Action, Arthur L. Johnson High School on Westfield Ave., Clark, will host a benefit concert to fight hunger, on Dec. 5, 8 p.m., in the Hough Auditorium.

College Women to Give Holiday Program

The Westfield College Women's Club will present a two-part holiday program featuring a discussion by Brad Keimach, music director and conductor of the Westfield Symphony Orchestra and a performance by the Wesley Singers, under the direction of Phil Dietterich, on Tuesday, Dec. 3.

Brad Keimach, made his New York Town Hall debut in 1983 conducting the Cosmopolitan Orchestra. He has been a member of the Teaching Artist Faculty of the Lincoln Center Institute and is currently artist-in-residence in the Westfield public schools. Keimach will discuss the symphony tradition of performing opera, focusing on the concert Westfield Symphony Orchestra will be performing at Carnegie Hall in March.

The second part of the program will feature Phil Dietterich directing the Wesley Singers. In addition to the Wesley Singers, Dietterich directs eight choirs, including the Oratoria Choir. Dietterich is also a published composer.

The Wesley Singers are a 50-voice traveling choir. They Brad Keimach has competed internationally, representing the U.S.A. at the famous International Musical Eisteddfod in Wales.

The program will be held at 8:15 p.m. in the Fellowship Room at the First Methodist Church in Westfield. Members and their guests are invited to attend.

Jr. Musical Club Meets

The Junior Musical Club of Westfield met this month, at the home of Susan Sheehy. Vocalist Lynn Pinto of Cranford, opened the meeting with "The Yum Yum Song" from "The Mikado" by Gilbert and Sullivan. Valerie Valvano, Linden, then sang "Virgin, Tutta Amor" by Francesco Durante. Both girls were accompanied on the piano by Vice-President Elizabeth Lipnick.

Miss Pinto performed again, playing the Allegro of "Moreau de Concert" by C. Saint-Saens on the French Horn, concluding the meeting.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 1, at the home of John Brixie, Cranford. Regular meetings are open to members of the Junior Musical Club. As the club wishes to increase its membership this year, it hopes that private teachers of piano, voice, strings, and other instruments encourage their students to join. Any interested young musician may contact Elizabeth Lipnick, 1251 Lenape Way, Scotch Plains to arrange attendance to a monthly meeting.

Lady of Liberty Benefit at Hahne's

Dorothy Constants of Oakland, President of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs has announced that Hahne's Department Store, 609 North Ave., West, in Westfield will host its second Holiday Shopping Spree Benefit for the NJSFWC Lady of Liberty Special State Project on Sunday, Dec. 8, from 6 to 9 p.m. Ten per cent of every sale will be given to the NJSFWC Lady of Liberty Campaign according to Mr. Alan T. Kane, president and chief executive officer of Hahne's. In detailing the store's support, Mr. Kane invited each member of the NJSFWC and their friends throughout the state to the benefit.

Performances by the NJSFWC Chorus will be a feature of the shopping gala. Under the direction of Karen Edson of Dumont, the chorus of more than 60 women from across the state will present a program of traditional holiday music and patriotic songs at 6, 7, and 8 p.m.

Strolling entertainers, refreshments, gift wrap, coat check, and shopping bags will be among the complimentary services offered, according to Project Chairman Marilyn Tonneson and Vice Chairman Jeanne Blackburn, both of Mountainside.

Special invitations to civic leaders will allow them opportunity to show their support of volunteerism and the renovation of the Statue of Liberty by their attendance.

According to Christine Steck, Hahne's director of public relations and Special Events, "admittance by invitation to the after hours event can be obtained through any of the 28,000 members of the NJSFWC. As long as someone in the party has an invitation, the shoppers will be welcomed."

The Lady of Liberty was proclaimed the 1984-1986 NJSFWC Special State Project in June of 1984. Since then Chairman Tonneson has traveled the state bringing the effort to the attention of Clubwomen so that they might become part of the preservation effort.

ments on the use of his driveway as access to the property.

The appeal of Dorothy Houston, 480 Topping Hill Rd., for permission to add a second story to her home was approved.

Mrs. Houston came before the board last year for an identical variance, which was granted. She did not act on that variance at the time, and it had expired. The variance sought at Monday's meeting was identical, except for a change in the roofline. The property violated the front yard setback by one foot.

Also approved was the appeal of Fred and Barbara Vogel, 424 Everson Pl., for permission to expand their family room. The lot coverage is 20.4 percent, not 20 percent.

Denied was the appeal of Evelyn Dvorin, 1 Manchester Dr., for permission to extend her one family dwelling with a solar room. The rear yard would measure 29.49 feet, not 35 feet.

Attorney for the appellant, Paul Williams, said that the proposed room would extend five feet over the rear yard requirement, to get the proper light needed for the solar project. The board felt that hardship was not proven and denied the appeal 4-3.

The board publicly recognized the resignation of Polly Mount who served from January 1975 to June 1985.

Schlosberg, jazz band advisor, $810; Drude Rossler, drama advisor, $835.

Also approved were the appointments of the following staff for the remainder of the 1985-86 school year: Barbara Flynn, WHS art, replacing Reynolds; Allan Lambert, Edison social studies, replacing Brown; Arlene Harris, Special Services - Edison Pre-K aide; and Kathleen D'Eufemia, Special Services - Edison NI aide, replacing Horner.

The following full-time lunchroom aides for the 1985-86 school year were approved: Henrietta Vednak, replacing Aurand; Franklin; Patricia Barton, new position; Wilson; Rebecca Nadel, replacing S. Czika; Jefferson; and Gail Patnaude, replacing E. Czeka; Jefferson.

Louise Ward was appointed as Saturday suspension teacher at WHS. Mrs. Ward is a WPS teacher and will be paid $11 per hour, 8 a.m. to 12 noon, in Cafeteria A.

The board also approved the employment of Dorothy Pietrano, retired Special Services secretary, as consultant in Special Services on an as needed basis; and Virginia Thoenes as an hourly elementary music instructor at Tamaques School.

Noted for the record, was the death of Evelyn Brown, Edison social studies teacher, on Oct. 25.

The board acknowledged the receipt of a Panasonic video cassette recorder/player, Panasonic 19" television monitor and TV table for Washington School as gifts from the 1984-85 Washington School PTA.

Toy Drive

tests will also be judged December 17-21; however, the "Best Interior" contest will be judged during the week of Dec. 16 since many businesses are closed on weekends.

Winners of these contests will receive trophies to be presented at the Winter Festival on Sunday, Dec. 22.

All Westfield residents are invited to go on a "Westfield Holiday Treasure Hunt" in downtown Westfield stores beginning Saturday, Dec. 7, through Friday, Dec. 21. In each of the 27 participating W.A.M. stores, a wreath will be displayed which will feature one item from that particular store. Contestants who match all 27 items with the corresponding stores on entry forms available in the stores will be eligible for three grand prize drawings to be held at the Winter Festival. Completed entry forms must be left with participating stores by Dec. 21. Grand prizes will be announced after Dec. 18.

ed at a later date. The treasure hunt is co-sponsored by the Rake and Hoe Garden Club of Westfield.

One final campaign will produce a different group of winners — underprivileged children in the Westfield area. The W.A.M. merchants will conduct a two-week toy drive for new and like-new toys Dec. 4-18. Donated toys will be given to the Westfield Neighborhood Council and other local charities to help needy children have a happier holiday.

A giant candy cane measuring the progress of the drive will be displayed outside Milady's, 167 East Broad St. Last year, the drive was so successful that the goal of 100 donations was reached a week early. One regulation: No obviously-used toys. Toys should be unwrapped and suitable for girls or boys through age 12. No more than one shopping bag of toys per donor can be accepted. No donations can be accepted after Dec. 18.

Devils Knock Off Kearny 3-0, Go for State Championship Tonight

By Todd Brecher

Led by what Coach Walter Leonow called a "superb, all-star performance" by goalie Dave Lowi, the WHS boys' varsity soccer team shut out two opponents to advance to the Group IV finals for the first time in school history.

The Devils, ranked second in the state by the Star Ledger, face Toms River East, which defeated top-ranked Hightstown, in the state final tonight at Trenton State College.

Westfield took on third-ranked Kearny last Sunday in the semi-final round. The Devils lost 4-0 to Kearny in last season's group semi-finals, but this time were on the plus side of a 3-0 score, as they controlled the game, outshooting the Cardinals 15-7.

WHS broke open a 1-0 game with goals late in each of the third and fourth quarters. With under one minute to play in the third, junior sweeper Mike Drury lifted a free kick over the Kearny defense for senior Brian Noerr, who put the ball in the net for his 10th goal of the year 19:25 into the period.

The Devils cemented the win in the fourth quarter when Brian Morris broke down the left side of the field and crossed the ball to Gregg Schmalz, who put his team-high 16th goal of the season past Kearny goalie Sal Rosamilia to give WHS a 3-0 lead.

WHS' defensive line of Drury, stopper Rob Schmalz and fullbacks Steve Locker and Chris Dembiec, played an excellent second half, limiting the Cardinals to one shot on goal, that on a direct kick, as Westfield took the win.

After the first quarter which saw few scoring opportunities, each team had several chances in the second quarter. (WHS had eight shots on goal, while Kearny had four.) The Cardinals were stopped by the fine play of Lowi, who had four of his size saves in the period. The junior stopped a two-on-one breakaway and also deflected a point-blank blast to stop the Cardinals from scoring.

Westfield took a 1-0 lead 12:04 into the quarter on one of the team's best passing plays of the year. Jeff Longo began the play by bringing the ball up the right side of the field. He passed the ball ahead to Tom Ward who then crossed the ball to Gino Piaggio. Piaggio fired a hard shot which was stopped by Rosamilia, but Rob Rogers blasted home the rebound to give the Devils the lead.

WHS advanced to the semi-finals by winning its second straight North Section II, Group IV title with a 1-0 victory over eighth-ranked Morris Knolls. Despite the fact that the shots on goal were even at nine a side, Morris Knolls controlled most of the play and was only stopped by some fine defensive plays by both Lowi and the fullback line.

Westfield took a 1-0 lead in the first quarter when a Piaggio shot was stopped by the hand of a Morris Knolls defender in the penalty area, an infraction which automatically results in a penalty kick. Drury converted the kick, his ninth score of the year, 10:20 into the period to give the Devils a lead they would never relinquish.

After a second quarter which saw just one shot on goal, Morris Knolls put great pressure on the Westfield net in the third period, in which they held a 5-1 shot advantage. They had several scoring chances but were repeatedly turned away, most notably on a spectacular Lowi save which stopped a breakaway.

The Devils continued their great defense in the fourth quarter with two more tremendous plays. The first came when Lowi came out of his net and had the ball kicked over his head and in front of the now vacant goal. Fullback Dembiec saved a goal, however, when he came out of nowhere to clear the ball off the goal line and out of bounds. The second came when Lowi made yet another remarkable stop on another breakaway.

After that save, Morris Knolls could not manage any more shots on goals as Westfield took control of the game and gained the sectional title.

The Devils will enter the final game with a record of 19-2-2, the best in school history. The team has 10 shutouts, the second highest total in school history. All of the 10 shutouts have come in the last 15 games, in which the Devils have allowed just seven scores.

Michele Scheuermann Playing for King's

Michele Scheuermann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Scheuermann of 623 Dorian Rd., is a member of the King's College basketball team in Wilkes-Barre. The Lady Monarchs opened the season in the Immaculata College Tournament Nov. 22-23 along with Elizabethtown and Molloy colleges.

A graduate of Westfield High School, where she played basketball, was in the band and German Club, Michele is a sophomore majoring in human resources management. She is resuming basketball activity this year for the first time since being sidelined in high school by a knee injury which required surgery

Thanksgiving Game Preview

By Henry Span

The Westfield Blue Devils' football team (2-6) will meet the Plainfield Cardinals (1-6-1) at home at 11 a.m. for their 73rd Thanksgiving game, continuing a tradition begun in 1903. Plainfield leads the series 37-33-4.

The Cardinals have won the past three Thanksgiving games, but Westfield, which has the longest winning streak in the series (1968-1981), will be looking to end Plainfield's streak today and to end its own season with back-to-back wins.

Last week, the Blue Devils had their most impressive game of the year against Irvington. Westfield controlled the line of scrimmage and ran up a 20-0 score in that game.

Tailback Mark Giaccone was the leading rusher against Irvington with 61 yards in 19 carries. Giaccone leads Westfield rushing this season with 545 yards. He has also been the leading rusher in six of Westfield's games this year.

Westfield's other main offensive threat is junior quarterback Todd Graf, who has come back from an early season injury to have a very respectful season. Graf had his best game of the year two weeks ago, during Westfield's 28-25 loss to Scotch Plains (6-2). He completed seven passes for 123 yards in that game. In earlier games, Graf had often been the victim of insufficient pass protection, and the key to today's game might lie on the shoulders of Westfield's offensive linemen.

Defensively, Westfield is led by juniors Andy Kendeigh, Drew Cary and Chris Masterson, who have consistently stopped Westfield's opponents from running up the middle successfully. The defense's main weakness is its speed, and the fate of today's game may rest on how well it stops Plainfield from running wide.

Plainfield, which was highly ranked at the beginning of the season, has had a very disappointing year. Much of the fault lies with its offense, which has especially hurt them the past two weeks. Two weeks ago, Plainfield had to settle for a 0-0 tie with Irvington (0-7-1), and last week the Cardinals were defeated 14-6 by Rahway (2-6).

The key to Plainfield's offense is its offensive line, which was lauded earlier in the season as the "Mighty Cardinal Brothers." Led by Jerald Lee and Charles English, the offensive line is big and fast, and could give Plainfield, which has not won since opening day, the advantage it needs to end the season on a high note.

Westfield "Turkey Trot" Footraces Called "Anybody's Race"

With preregistration already over 300 and running far ahead of last year, the organizers of Westfield's Nov. 30 Turkey Trot races predicted that new names are bound to go into the record books for the event. Race co-director Roger Yockel of Friends of Westfield Track and Field, the organizers, said "Tom Splaine, a Rider College student who won the one-mile race in 1984, will be a top contender again this year, but few of the leaders in the premier event, the five-miler, are returning." Co-director Judy Shanosky agreed, noting that last year's overall winner in the five-mile race, Cliff Sheehan, a student at Harvard University who had also done very well in last year's NCAA cross-country championships, was reportedly planning to stay in the Boston area to continue his training this year. "It's anybody's race," she said.

Thanks in part to good support from area merchants, the organizers anticipate a "first class" event. The five-mile race will be paced by a Jaguar XKE from one major sponsor, Jaguar of Westfield, through Tamaques Park and the tree-lined streets of the adjacent neighborhood.

McDowells Oil Heat and Schlott Realtors are also major supporters, whose contributions enabled all preregistrants to receive commemorative t-shirts.

Race day registration opens at 9 a.m. on Saturday, November 30th, near the basketball court in Tamaques Park. The entry fee is $6, with t-shirts as long as they last, and all entrants will be eligible for door prizes. Trophies will be awarded to the top finishers by age group and sex. The one-mile race starts at 10:30 a.m., and the five-mile event starts at 11 a.m. Race proceeds will be used to support the development of track and field programs in Westfield.

Blue Devil Marching Band Captures 4th in State, 6th in East

The Westfield High School Marching Band finished sixth (fourth in the state) in Class I at the Eastern Marching Band Championships held at Passaic Valley High School last Sunday. The Blue Devils came within 2.5 points of a fourth place finish (third in the state), being edged out by West Windsor and South Hadley (Mass.). They upset the favored Marching Middies from Middletown (NY) High School.

David Shapiro, the Westfield Band Director, said that 76.3 is the best score that Westfield has garnered in years and that this is probably the best marching band that he has directed. The Class I results are as follows:

South Brunswick	90.55
Monsignor Farrell (NY)	89.5
Glen Ridge	89.0
West Windsor	88.8
South Hadley (Mass.)	77.15
Westfield	76.3
Middletown (NY)	75.35
Harrison (NY)	73.8
Ontario (NY)	72.35
Madison Central	66.2
Belleville	65.55
Roselle Park	64.25

Patriots Tie with Lions, 2-2

After losing to Kenilworth and Woodbridge in regular season play, games in which Tony Czar and Steve Flynn were the only Patriots to score, Westfield bounced back and probably played their most exciting game of the season. Despite an excellent defensive effort, the Cranford Lions were able to score twice in the first half. Getting their act together in the second half of the game, the Patriots became very offensive and were able to put the ball into the net.

Mike Ryan took a corner kick which Jeff Haag was able to convert for goal #1. There was no stopping the scrappy Patriots after that. Tommy Mann collected the ball and was able to dribble thru the defensive Lion line and took a shot that just went wide. A few minutes later, Michael Cort took a long hard shot that hit the cross bar. Finally, Glenn Wojcik took the ball and crossed it over to Tony Czar who drew the goalie out and took a high shot into the net for goal #2.

Playing excellent defense for the Patriots were Mike Ryan, Mike Cort, Bobby Bradley, Brendan Leshner, Brian Goski, Gregg Gagliardi, Rich Jeremiah, Marc Nienburg, and Glenn Wojcik.

Offensively, Tom Mann, Seth Coren, Steve Flynn, Jeremy Romine, and Haag & Czar all played well. Haag and Brian Corco, who made numerous fine saves, shared the goal-tending duties.

With the momentum that Westfield had going for them, a few more minutes in the game might have ended the season on winning note.

Kevin Morris Gridded For Williams College

Kevin Morris of Westfield, a senior at Williams College, is a member of the 1985 Williams College football team. The squad finished its season at 2-5-1 with wins over Middlebury and Bowdoin.

The 6'0", 172 pound Morris started at quarterback on head coach Robert Odell's 14th Williams squad. Through seven games he completed 55 of 138 passes for 524 yards and three touchdowns.

Odell said: "Kevin is a born leader on the field; he thrives under pressure. He has exceptional talent for running and throwing the football, and has matured greatly in his years into a fine and unselfish team player."

The Williams College Ephmen compete in the New England Small College Athletic Conference, as well as the ECAC. They suffered a tough 21-10 loss to nationally ranked Union College on October 26, before losing their first contest in the Little Three Championship against Wesleyan by a score of 9-6. In their last game the Ephmen lost to archrival Amherst, the third member of the Little Three, by a score of 35-20 in the two teams' 100th anniversary game. Williams now leads the series 52-44-4. Morris is a 1982 graduate of Westfield High School, where he was a member of the football and baseball squads in addition to earning several academic honors. At Williams, he is also a pitcher on the varsity baseball team. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Morris at Baker Ave.

- Diane D'Almeida
- Delores Schmidt
- Marcia Bereset
- Mary Shea
- Cindy Fechter
- Ann Lalartara
- Geri Cohen

The winner of the Most Active trophy was Gert Cohen. The WTA encourages any ladies who enjoy tennis to join the group next season in the Singles, Doubles or Mixed Doubles Ladders. For any information contact Barbara Walker or Lois Chapman.

Cross Country Team Finishes 13th in State

by Kevin Culligan

The boys' cross country team concluded their season with a 13th place finish in the All Group Championships last Saturday in Holmdel Park.

Tim Yockel led the team placing 30th in the team competition. He completed the hilly 5000 meter course in 17:28. Craig Russell placed 44th in 17:48. Jon Dowell finished 55th in 17:54.

Bill Esbeck placed 76th in 18:23 and Jim Brennan rounded out the scoring finishing 86th in 18:35. Chris Maddock finished 98th in 18:41. Dan Soucek rounded out the effort placing 93rd in 18:46.

This is the farthest the team has advanced in State competition since 1981. Other highlights of the season included victories in the Watchung Conference and Union County Championships. The team also placed third in both the state sectional and state group championships and finished with a perfect dual meet record of 10-0.

Senior co-captain Jim Brennan feels "the team showed a lot of improvement this year and with five returning members of the varsity the team should do even better next year."

Bill Esbeck feels that despite a disappointing finish in the all groups "the experience the team gained will make us a better team next year."

Boosterettes Look Back At Winning Season

By Bridget Perry

The WHS girls' varsity soccer team completed a successful season (17-3-2) with many team as well as individual accomplishments.

Nine boosterettes made the All-County team. The first team is composed of forwards Wendy Maher and Karen Voorhees, midfielders Jill Voorhees and Krissy Jeremiah, and defenders Bridget Perry and goalie Suzanne Williams.

Westfield landed on the second team forward Amy Pearce and defenders Joy Shields and Erin Doyle.

The Boosterettes placed first in the Watchung Conference and in the Union County Tournament. They went as far as the sectional semi-finals of the states. This is the furthest the girls' team has ever gone.

Throughout the course of the season, Westfield outscored their opponents 85 to 17. Pearce led the team with 15 goals and 9 assists. Maher and Jeremiah trailed close behind with 14 goals each and 2 and 9 assists respectively. Karen Voorhees finished with 12 goals and 9 assists.

Westfield's defense registered a record of thirteen shutouts in twenty-two games. Goalie Williams made a total of forty-seven saves, let up nine goals, and had seven shutouts which broke the high school record. Goalie Malini Vernugopal made sixty-four saves, let up eight goals, and recorded six shutouts.

Coach George Kapner is very proud of this season and feels that this may have been the best team he has yet coached.

PCC Course Rated #34 In Golf Digest Survey

Plainfield Country Club has been named by Golf Digest magazine as the 34th Greatest Course in America in the magazine's latest ranking of golf courses.

In prior years, Plainfield's layout had been in a group of courses ranked between No. 50 and 100. This new ranking, in the magazine's November issue, places Plainfield ahead of such noted courses as Spyglass Hill at Pebble Beach, Firestone C.C. in Akron, Ohio, Congressional near Washington, D.C., Inverness in Toledo, and several other courses that have served as the site of the U.S. Open and PGA tournaments.

Commenting on the new rating by Golf Digest, Neil Chamberlin, president of Plainfield Country Club, said, "This is an extraordinary and prestigious honor for our course. It is a tribute to the famous architect, Donald Ross, who designed our course more than a half century ago, and no less to Red Wender, our course superintendent, who has molded our layout to the exacting test it is today.

"This honor comes as we prepare for the 1987 Women's Open at Plainfield and we are anxious to share a golfing challenge with the finest women players in the world."

The Plainfield layout also ranked third among New Jersey courses, behind Pine Valley in Clementon (#1) and the Lower Course at Baltusrol in Springfield (#86) in Bernardsville and Ridgewood Club (unranked) in Paramus.

This was the 11th time Golf Digest has ranked American golf courses and the first time it ranked all 100 courses in a specific order. The magazine chose seven criteria in its ranking, ranging from shot value to conditioning.

Plainfield plays to 6,859 yards from the back tees with a par of 72. It has been the site of many major state and metropolitan championships as well as the 1978 United States Amateur Championship.

FALL SOCCER RESULTS

GIRLS SOCCER DIVISION II/III

Wham 2 - Blondie 0

Wham 4 - Sting 5

WHAM finished the season in fine style shutting out BLONDIE 2-0. Both teams played magnificently; showing what the pre-playoff games were all about when the teams played close and even matches. Megan Pray made the two WHAM goals with support from her forwards Kathy Hanna, Lexie Lenton, Kirsten Haack, Kathy Harris, and Danielle Loffredo. Excellent halfback center support was given by Yuko Miyamoto who seemed to be everywhere at the right time. Julie Cafaro, Leigh Baker, and versatile Kathy Baker played with a second sense for ball position that represented their determination to win. Jenn Higgins, Amy Covert, and Carolyn Nappi played as tough as ever as fullbacks and the goalkeeper position was shared by Kathy Baker, Megan Pray, and Carolyn Nappi.

The first playoff game went into double overtime as a 1-1 tie between WHAM and STING and was finally settled by a shoot-out with Sting winning 5-4. Both teams played excellent soccer and were a thrill to watch. The coaches would like to thank the WHAM players and their parents for a rewarding experience with the girls.

"Y" Swimmers Successful At Mini-Sprints

Nine swimmers from the Westfield Y travelled to Bridgewater to compete in the Holiday Mini-Sprints hosted by the Somerset Valley Y on Nov. 24. Also that same day, four Westfield Y swimmers (Peter Wright, Brian Ramsthaler, Danny and Melissa Zemsky) travelled to Montclair State College for a "B" meet.

Peter took 2nd in both the 100-ly (1:09.85) and the 100-free (58.14) in the 13/14 age group.

JV Booters Win Two, Seeded #1 in Tourney

By Mike Gagliardi

The Westfield High School boys' JV soccer team, gearing up for the upcoming Union County Tournament, continued its winning ways with two more victories last week extending the current winning streak to six straight.

Against Montclair, who was previously undefeated, Westfield did all its scoring in the first half with left wing Kevin Lombardi and striker Chris Emanuel putting in the goals. Goalie Paul Emanuel collected four saves in giving the booters their first shutout of the season.

On Friday the JV's coasted to an easy victory over the Rahway Indians. The Indians were no match for the Devils, who put the game out of reach early with two goals in the first 30 seconds. Scoring for Westfield were Emanuel with two goals apiece by Lombardi, Hamden Tenor, Lou Peluso, Scott Adams, Jeff Sherman, John McCall and Dennis McGorty.

The big story of the week was the announcement that the Blue Devils were made the #1 seed in the JV Union County Tournament (UCT). The booters will try to become the first Westfield JV team to win the tournament. Last year's JV team was also seeded first but suffered a heartbreaking 1-0 loss to Scotch Plains in the tournament final after beating them earlier in the season.

If everything goes according to plan, Westfield will meet #2 Scotch Plains in the finals once again. But the road to that meeting will not be easy. Both teams will first have to get by their quarterfinal opponents and then their semifinal matchups. The teams that seem to have the biggest chances to pull upsets would be #3 Summit, #4 Elizabeth, and #5 Governor Livingston (Berkeley Heights).

Westfield's first test will come Saturday at Tamaques Park in a quarterfinal matchup against the winner of #8 Clark and #9 Union.

If the Blue Devils are going to win the UCT this year, they are going to need consistent play from each area of the field. But probably the most important ingredient necessary for success will be the play of the defense.

The defense of goalie Paul Emanuel, sweeper Dennis McGorty, stopper Randy Wojcik, right fullback Pat Quill and left fullback Lou Peluso, have a respectable 2.12 goals per game average that has come down steadily of late. After a sluggish start the defense has been playing well allowing only 1.6 goals per game in their last five outings.

An unfortunate injury in the Montclair game to left fullback Glen McSweeney may be a costly one for Westfield however. McSweeney, who will be out for the season with a broken collar bone, provided a great deal of skill and experience to the defense. His replacement will be McGorty, who may be the key to how well the defense performs.

It is going to be a crucial next two days for the Blue Devils as they play an important game tomorrow against perennial powerhouse Kearny, and the UCT game on Saturday. Both games will be played at Tamaques Park.

Sean Murphy Sets New TSU Receiving Record

Senior flanker Sean Murphy of Westfield, a member of the Towson State University football team became TSU's all-time pass receiving leader in last Saturday's 52-8 victory over Morgan State University.

The 5-9, 167-pound Garden State native caught six passes for 119 yards and two touchdowns to pass Bob Remeto and become the Tigers' all-time receiving leader with 131 pass receptions. For the year, Murphy now has 25 catches for 384 yards and four touchdowns as the Tigers' second leading receiver.

Murphy, a second team College Division All-American as selected by Associated Press in 1984, now leads TSU in all three pass receiving categories. He has caught 131 passes for 2,181 yards and 18 touchdowns. In addition, he has scored 22 touchdowns in his career with four coming on flanker reverse plays.

"It's a real tribute to Sean that he was able to set that record," says Towson State Coach Phil Albert, whose Tigers are 5-0-1 on the season and ranked fourth nationally among NCAA Division II schools. "We've had a number of outstanding receivers here, several of whom have been All-Americans and they haven't been able to put up numbers like Sean."

"His durability has been a key," he adds. "He's not the biggest kid you'll ever find, but he's tough and he has bounced up from a lot of tough hits. He's done a real good job for us over the last four years."

Murphy has helped the Tigers become one of the top NCAA Division II teams in the nation over the last three years. In 1983, he was the Tigers' second leading receiver with 39 catches for 592 yards and five TD's. He helped the Tigers post a 10-2-0 record and earn a number four national ranking. TSU also won its first Lambert/Meadowlands Award as the top Division II team in the East.

An All-ECAC Division II pick last year, he tied a school record with 61 receptions for 1,128 yards (the top figure in Division II) and eight touchdowns. He helped the Tigers earn their second straight NCAA playoff berth and a number eight national ranking. He also was part of a second straight Lambert/Meadowlands Award-winning team as the top Division II team in the East.

Industries Inc., Impco's parent corporation, effective Dec. 1. Stemmler will have direct responsibility for overseeing the operational activities of the A.J. Industries subsidiaries.

Bert Martin, presently operations vice president at Impco, will assume the position of general manager. He will be responsible for the overall management of Impco, including administration, production, engineering, and sales.

Robert M. Stemmler

Stemmler has held the position of vice president and general manager at Impco since 1983. His experience includes over 20 years in various executive positions for the Celanese Plastics and Specialties division of Celanese Corp.

Stemmler holds a mechanical engineering degree from Washington University, St. Louis, Mo., and an MBA from Seton Hall University, Orange, N.J. He and his wife, Susan (Koffron) Stemmler of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, currently reside in Villa Park, Calif. The Stemmlers and their five children are former residents of Westfield.

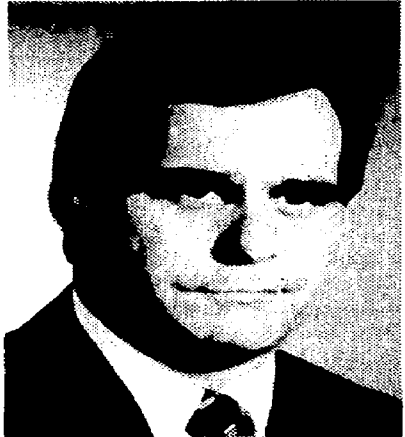

Prior to joining Impco in 1983, Martin was employed for 13 years by Celanese Corporation in Anaheim, Calif., serving in numerous positions including manufacturing manager. He also worked for several leading industrial firms including Dow Chemical and John Deere in production-related capacities.

Robert M. Schantz, formerly of Westfield, has been named president and chief operating officer of Inter-Metro Industries Corporation. He had served the Wilkes-Barre, Pa., based company as executive vice-president since 1979.

Schantz joined InterMetro as vice president - operations in 1977. A graduate of Lehigh University and the Harvard School of Business Administration, Schantz held managerial positions with Scott Paper Co., F & M Schaefer Brewing Co., and American Brands, prior to joining InterMetro. He served as a lieutenant in the U.S. Navy and is a past president of the Lehigh Club of Northeastern Pa.

Schantz and his wife, Sally, reside in Dallas, Pa., and are the parents of three children.

Ronald C. Kowalczyk

Ronald C. Kowalczyk, employee relations manager of the Exxon Bayway Refinery, has been appointed to Rahway Hospital's board of governors. A resident of Scotch Plains, he has been with the Refinery since April, 1985.

Prior to joining the refinery, he was with the administrative section of Exxon U.S.A.'s refining department in Houston, Texas. Kowalczyk started with Exxon in 1967 in marketing and held various sales and staff positions before joining employee relations in 1976.

He holds a bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Connecticut. He and his wife Virginia have two sons.

Saeger Attends "Super Session"

Bailey Saeger, Manager of Burgdorff Realtors' Relocation Division, was among 1,000 relocation professionals who participated in Super Session, a national conference sponsored by Consultants in Relocation. The conference was recently held in Washington, D.C.

The fourth and largest to date, Super Session 1985 offered Mrs. Saeger and colleagues from around the country the chance to share ideas and information. More than 80 workshops dealt with a range of topics that would help relocation professionals better assist their clients. Seminars on transferee needs, spouse career assistance, group moves, international relocation, ethics, computers and management were just some offerings in the four-day program.

The conference drew professionals from all areas of the relocation spectrum - real estate brokers, corporate adminis-

Fanwood Club Offers Bean Soup Luncheon

For the second year, the Woman's Club of Fanwood will hold its Bean Soup Luncheon on Dec. 7, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., in the Multi-Purpose Room of the Fanwood Municipal Building on Martine Ave. A special 10-bean soup will be served with hot dogs, dessert and beverage for a nominal charge. There will be containers of the 10-bean soup available for purchase. The public is invited.

The Junior Woman's Club Christmas Boutique will be held the same day at the Fanwood Carriage House, adjacent to the Municipal Building. Customers may visit Santa at the Carriage House and browse among the crafts at their country store.

The luncheon and sale are being held to raise money for various charities supported by the Woman's Club every year.

Temple to Give Nuclear War Slide Show

A slide show entitled, "Only You Can Prevent Nuclear War," will be given at 8 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 2, at Temple Emanuel on East Broad St., under the sponsorship of the League of Religious Organizations of the Westfield-Mountainside Area.

This slide show lasts one-half hour and presents the views of some of this country's most experienced statesmen, including Dwight Eisenhower, Richard Nixon and Averell Harriman. The public is invited.

Consumers Receive Warning

The purchase of new furniture sometimes brings problems that call for awareness by consumers of their rights within the laws of the State. "Unless you have been sold a floor sample, which should be clearly marked on your bill, consumers have the right to expect delivery of new furniture in excellent condition without dramatic flaws or marks of any sort," states Ellen Bloom, Director of Union County Division of Consumer Affairs.

"We receive complaints at our office that relate to delivery of new furniture in such condition as to cause the consumer to need immediate service or consideration by the retailer of repair or replacement. That is really unfair. All furniture should be examined before it is paid for. If it is badly scratched, broken, or parts are missing I urge consumers not to accept it and certainly not to pay for it. If it is covered have the delivery men uncover it - if it is crated have them uncrate it. Once you sign for the acceptance of furniture in good condition you may have to live with it. Your signature is an indication of satisfaction," she said. The purchase order for furnishings should be specific with each piece of furniture listed separately with a description of cost. Delivery charges should be made clear and sometimes may be very costly.

The New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act concerning the delivery of household furnishings requires that purchasers be made aware of an exact delivery date written on the face of the purchase order. Should the retailer be unable to meet that delivery date, he must give the consumer the option of a delayed promise of delivery in written form or a written form or a refund and cancellation of further obligation.

This regulation protects both the retailer and the consumer. The consumer has no excuse then not to be home on the anticipated delivery date. Never leave a neighbor, relative or friend at your home to accept the delivery of your new furniture.

Dog Obedience Series Resumes at Y

The Westfield Y is offering dog obedience classes starting Dec. 10 for seven Tuesday evenings. Starting time is 7 p.m.

The course emphasizes "Good

Dog Manners" with leash training, obeying commands such as heel, sit, stay and come as well as advice to owners concerning individual problems such as chewing, barking and biting.

Name Search Contest Deadline, Dec. 2

In an effort to find a new name and/or slogan that will better depict their efforts to prevent juvenile drug and alcohol abuse (i.e. MADD, Mothers Against Drunk Driving, etc.), the Chemical People Task Force of Westfield is sponsoring a town-wide Name Search Contest. Endorsing the goals of this group, the Kiwanis Club of Westfield has provided a $700 cash scholarship for first prize and six runner-up prizes of $50 each. A select panel of judges will determine the winners by mid-December, after reviewing all the entries, many of which have already been received.

The Chemical People Task Force of Westfield, a community action group of parents, school personnel, local police, government officials and concerned citizens, is one of more than 8,000 task forces across the country organized to fight juvenile substance abuse.

Entry forms, which are available at school libraries, churches, and the "Y" office, must be submitted by Dec. 2, at 5 p.m. to Westfield CPTF, P.O. Box 2122, Westfield, N.J. 0709-2122. Residents may submit as many entries as they wish. If using a plain piece of paper, include: entry name; name of entrant; address of entrant; and name of scholarship recipient to be designated if different from entrant. Scholarship recipient must be a Westfield resident at the time of the award and must be a 1986 high school graduate or younger. The $700 will be held in escrow until needed by the recipient.

If the contest winner is an adult, he or she may select a young relative or friend living in town to receive the scholarship.

All Westfield residents are reminded that the deadline for submitting entries to the Chemical People Find-A-New-Name Contest is Monday, Dec. 2nd at 5:00 p.m. Working in conjunction with Chemical People's efforts to prevent juvenile drug and alcohol abuse, the Kiwanis Club of Westfield has provided funds for the first prize of a $700 scholarship and six runner-up prizes of $50 each. Prepare Bulbs Now for Indoor Forcing

By Stephen Bachelder
County Agricultural Agent
Long before the first crocus or snowdrop blooms outside you can have bulbs flowering indoors on your windowsill. However, hardy bulbs will require attention now to prepare them for forcing later, advises the Cooperative Extension Service of Rutgers University's Cook College.

Hardy bulbs, such as crocus, snowdrop, grape hyacinth, daffodil, hyacinth and tulip should be potted now, watered, and placed in a cool location to develop a sturdy root system. Allow about 10 to 12 weeks at a storage temperature of 40 to 45 degrees F for tulips to root properly, while eight weeks of storage should be adequate for the other hardy bulbs. A cool basement or an attached garage should provide suitable storage conditions. Check occasionally to make sure the soil is moist.

After the required cold storage period, bring potted bulbs into a cool room where temperature range between 50 and 60 degrees, water regularly, and provide good light but not direct sun. In about two weeks, move potted bulbs into a 60-to-65 degree room with full sun for blooming.

Tender bulbs, such as paper-white narcissus and amaryllis, do not require a cool temperature treatment before forcing. The paper-whites can be placed in bowls or shallow pots of pebbles or sand and will bloom in three to five weeks at a temperature of 60 degrees.

Plant amaryllis bulbs in pots which will allow one inch of space around the bulb. Leave the upper third of each bulb above the soil level. Place in a bright location at 60 degrees and water regularly. Amaryllis should bloom six to eight weeks after potting.

Plainfield Symphony To Perform Dec. 1

The Plainfield Symphony will kick off the holiday season with a gala performance of Vivaldi and Haydn. This second in a series of five season concerts, will take place Sunday, Dec. 1, at 3 p.m., in Plainfield's Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, Watchung Ave.

The program begins with Antonio Vivaldi's concerti, "The Four Seasons, with guest violinist Ruth Waterman as soloist. A native of England, Waterman was presented to the Queen after her concert at the Royal Festival Hall with the London Symphony Orchestra. She has performed at Lincoln Center and with the Baltimore Symphony and the Y and Orpheus Chamber Orchestras.

The afternoon audience will also hear Franz Joseph Haydn's "Symphony No. 101 in D major." After the concert, The Plainfield Symphony Society Auxiliary will host a "Between the Bars" benefit cocktail reception open to all, at Swain's Gallery, Watchung Ave. and Seventh St.

For information on the Symphony performance and post-concert activities, contact the Auxiliary's executive director, Janet Stewart. Individual tickets may be purchased at the box office.

Temple to Present "Hannah Senesh"

"Hannah Senesh," a musical play about a young woman who inspired a nation, will be presented at Temple Emanu-El, 756 East Broad St., on Dec. 8 at 7:30 p.m. Sponsored by the Temple and its Men's Club and Sisterhood, the play will come from Broadway to the Westfield area, and will be an exclusive engagement in the county.
In real life, Hannah Senesh was the daughter of a famous Hungarian playwright. She became a Zionist as a teenager and emigrated to Palestine on the eve of World War II. She was concerned with the safety of her family in Hungary and volunteered for a special mission. She was one of two women to parachute into Yugoslavia in a group of 32 to work with the partisans. They made their way through the woods into Hungary in order to rescue the Jews from the Nazis.
Tickets may be reserved by calling the Temple office.

"Music Around the World" At Tamaques School

"Music Around the World," a Festival of Music Arts-in-Education presentation, has been invited by the P.T.O. to perform at Tamaques school on Dec. 3.
"Music Around the World" explores music as a universal language to which each culture lends its unique and special characteristics. Using more than 30 native and natural instruments including African and Chinese drums, a xylophone from Uganda and Japanese bamboo flutes, Andy and Dorothy Wasserman take the students on a journey through the rhythms, instruments, and dance of cultures all over the world. Mali, Japan, Thailand, Brazil and Mexico are on the "itinerary" which ends in the United States with American jazz and jazz tap dance.
Student volunteers play natural instruments made of materials such as gourd,

turtlesell, bamboo, and Brazil
nuts, and the entire audience shares in the experience through clapping and movement.
Andy Wasserman maintains a large collection of instruments from around the world, all of which he plays and teaches in workshops and performances for both children and adults. He is a registered music therapist currently working with special needs populations.

Dorothy Wasserman has studied, performed and taught several forms of dance including Afro-Cuban, jazz, jazz tap, improvisation, and dance for children. She was the founder and director of the Jazz Arts Studio in Boston, artistic director and choreographer for "Toe Jammin'", the Jazz Tap Dance ensemble and on the faculty of the Institute of Contemporary Dance in Cambridge, Mass.

"Ladies Outreach" Presents Annual Christmas Luncheon

The Ladies Outreach of the Mountainside Gospel Chapel invite area women to attend their special Christmas Luncheon on Wednesday at 12 noon in the chapel's Fellowship Hall.
Special guest speaker will be Mrs. Carole Williamson who will bring a special Christmas message. Mrs. Williamson is known for her special insights into Christian living and is a familiar speaker for women's retreat centers, as well as Bible Study groups, and church speaking engagements.
There will be a special music

presentation entitled "A Celebration of Christ." The music is a collection of classical Christmas songs as well as narration of the Scriptures. Singing the soprano solo will be Mrs. Lesley McDonald. Mrs. McDonald will be accompanied by Mrs. Carrie Jen Grant on piano, and Mrs.
Sandra Wagner playing flute and also narrating the Christmas story.

Lunch will be provided by the women of the Mountainside Gospel Chapel. Reservations are required.

Tamaques Park Map Eagle Project

Mark Johns of Boy Scout Troop
273 recently finished his Eagle service project. A complete map of Tamaques Park, with all designated fields, courts, and picnic areas noted is now on display for public use near the park entrance.
The production of this sign was initiated and supervised by Mark with the cooperation of the Westfield Public Works. Marvin
Stith supervisor of parks, and

Daniel Kelly, superintendent of public works, approved the project, and supplied blueprints and mounting help. Supplies and professional advice for the construction were donated by William Vincentson, a local contractor.
Members of Boy Scout Troop 273 contributed man hours toward the completion of the project.
Dedication ceremonies for the new map of Tamaques Park were held at the site last month.

YOUR PHARMACIST SPEAKS

by Kitty Duncan, Pharmacist

Everyone receives friendly, helpful service when they come to JARVIS PHARMACY, 54 Elm St., 233-0662, 0663, 0664. Free prescription delivery is available and if needed because of illness we will pick up the prescription at your home, carefully compound it at our pharmacy and deliver it back to you. Delivery includes all types of merchandise (within reason). For Thanksgiving we have a fine selection of Whitman's candies. Open: Mon thru Fri
9am-9pm, Sat 9am-6pm, Holidays 9am-1pm. INJECTION MASSAGE
It is now possible for diabetes patients who require insulin injections to improve their control over the disease. It is a relatively simple procedure. Doctors report that by massaging the injection site, patients may be able to increase the effectiveness of the insulin. The massaging action helps to reduce the pool of the drug that is usually left at the injection site. This helps the patient receive the full dose of the medication at the appropriate time. When 26 patients in a study performed the massaging for three minutes at each mealtime, the blood sugar levels dropped significantly or became lower. The benefits have continued over a two-year follow-up period.
HANDY HINT: Aspirin, a blood-thinner, should not be taken with other blood-thinning drugs without a doctor's approval.
JARVIS PHARMACY 54 Elm St., Westfield 233-0662

Although Thanksgiving, the fall festive holiday, is of United States origin and is celebrated primarily in the United States and Canada, the word "thanksgiving" is considerably older and definitely of English derivation. This word's first appearance in print was in 1533, but its original usage was not festival-related. It was used in the sense of expressing appreciation to God. In fact, the first usage of the word in the colonies was on Dec. 4, 1619, when it was applied to a totally religious celebration. The occasion for this first Thanksgiving was the arrival of 39 English settlers at Berkeley Plantation on the James River near Charles City, Virginia. The first feast oriented Thanksgiving in the New World was celebrated by the Plymouth colonists. The historic day was decreed by Governor Bradford to be held on July 30, 1623.

In 1789, President George Washington issued a general proclamation naming Nov. 26 of that year a day of national Thanksgiving. However, for many years following, no regular national Thanksgiving was observed in the United States until 1863, when President Abraham Lincoln declared that the last Thursday in November should be "a day of Thanksgiving and praise to our beneficent Father." For 75 years thereafter, each President formerly proclaimed that Thanksgiving Day would be celebrated on the last Thursday of November. This changed in 1939, when President Franklin D. Roosevelt moved the celebration to the third Thursday of the month to provide for more shopping days before Christmas. Finally, in 1941, Congress ruled that henceforth, Thanksgiving would be celebrated on the fourth Thursday of November.

Astronomers Expand "Halley's Twice Party"

"Halley's Twice Party" has been expanded from a double-header to a tripleheader.

The party planned by Amateur Astronomers, Inc., and Union County College for Jan. 3 and 4 has been expanded to Jan. 5 as well, at the College's Cranford Campus. Those who saw Comet Halley in 1910 as well as those who may see it again in 2061 will be invited to the party as well as their friends, parents and all others interested in viewing Comet Halley.

"We have had so many calls and so many people are indicating an interest in attending our 'Halley's Twice Party' that we have added another day for our senior citizens and for young people to view Comet Halley," Barry Malpas of Warren, AAI vice president, said. "Since we will have only a two-hour period from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. each day to view the comet, we will need at least one more day to accommodate all those who want to join our party."

Mr. Malpas said members of Amateur Astronomers will set up several dozen telescopes they made or own, so senior citizens, young people and all other interested people will be able to see Comet Halley on Jan. 3, 4 and 5. Members of AAI will be on hand to assist viewers in using the telescopes and to answer any questions they may have about the comet.

"We are now working on a program to accommodate those who are waiting to see the comet, which might include slide shows, videotapes and refreshments," Malpas said.

The AAI leader said dozens of calls are received daily seeking information about Comet Halley and about the "Halley's Twice Party," including calls from schools and organizations that plan to bring bus loads of young people and senior citizens to Union County College's Cranford Campus in early January.

A special viewing section will be set up for senior citizens, so they do not have to stand out in the cold weather before seeing Comet Halley, Malpas said.

Barrett & Crain Qualifies Three for Top Award

This year the New Jersey Association of Realtors will give a President's Club Award to the realtors and realtor associates who have reached $5,000,000 in closed transactions.

Lucille K. Roll

Lucille K. Roll, Jean T. Massard and Nancy Bregman of Barrett & Crain Realtors achieved this goal, making Barrett & Crain the only office to have three representatives for the Westfield Board area.

Mrs. Roll Realtor/Broker has qualified for her seventh consecutive year in the N.J. Real Estate Million Dollar Sales Club. This year Mrs. Roll is also a qualifier for the NJAR President's Club Award. In January and July, 1985, she was salesperson of the month for Barrett & Crain by having the most transactions in sales and listings. Mrs. Roll has been Top Salesperson of the Year for the company for the last four years, and Top Sales Associate for the past three years. A past vice president of the Westfield Service League, a former director of the YMCA, and former director of the Westfield Hospital Association, Lucille and her husband Edgar are longtime residents of Westfield and the area.

Jean T. Massard

Nancy Bregman

Mrs. Massard, broker associate, and Director of Barrett & Crain's advertising has also qualified for membership for the President's Club Award. With 16 years in the real estate profession, she is qualifying for the Million Dollar Club for her seventh consecutive year. Mrs. Massard was salesperson of the month for the firm in April of this year. A member of the Soroptimist Club of the Greater Westfield Area, former principal of a real estate firm in the area, and longtime resident of Westfield, Mrs. Massard resided in Westfield with her husband, Chris, a local contractor, and her daughter, Carol Thomas, a student at Westfield Senior High.

Another President's Club Award qualifier, and a five year consecutive N.J. Real Estate Million Dollar Sales Club candidate is Mrs. Bregman, realtor associate. A former member of the Westfield PTA and past president of B'Nai B'rith, Nancy and her husband David are 21 year residents of Westfield. They are parents of four children, and active members of Temple Emanuel in Westfield.

Walker

Participates in Convention

David R. Walker, president, J.G. Mulford Company, Westfield, recently joined insurance agents from 50 states at the 1985 National Convention of the Professional Insurance Agents (PIA) in Reno, Nevada.

Hundreds of members of the National Association of Professional Insurance Agents, including Walker, took part in educational and business meetings designed to provide agents with professional information to improve the operation of their businesses.

Walker is also a member of the Professional Insurance Agents of New Jersey, a state affiliate of the national association. PIANJ represents some 8,000 professional, independent, insurance agents and their employees.

School Bond Advisory Committee — Three Westfield citizens, with expertise in bonding, are working with school administrators and School Board members to determine the best time and way to sell bonds for the $6.5 million bond issue approved by voters in October. Pictured, at a recent session, are: (standing, left to right) John Derry, partner, Barr Brothers; Carolyn Moran, chairperson of the School Board's finance committee; Dr. William J. McKinley Holiday Fair Wednesday

Santa Claus will be there from 9 a.m.-3 p.m., and hot buttered popcorn will be served. An adult section will include specialty handcraft items.

Proceeds from the fair will be used to fund cultural arts programs throughout the school year.

Mrs. Claudia Andreski and Mrs. Linda Mankoski are the chairpersons.

"Stop the World -- I Want to Get Off" Reviewed

by Deirdre Lauder

An open stage hung with gauze and wisps of color from overhead flags set the circus atmosphere for the opening night audience as they found their seats Friday night at Westfield Community Players. The program prepared us for pantomime in a British setting and a splashy overture brought on all the characters. Then, Littlechap, the central figure, complete with baggy plaid pants and whiteface, is born in the occasionally punctuated silence of superb mime.

Played by Gary Cohen, who also directed the production, Littlechap is ably supported by an amazingly versatile cast in their refreshingly different musical. Mr. Cohen was a consummate Littlechap, combining his considerable acting skills with a strong voice to bring his character very much to life. Mr. Cohen's attention to detail was evident not only in his portrayal of Littlechap, but throughout the entire production.

Judi Adams La Ganga plays Evie, Littlechap's wife and also the three other women in his life: Anya the Russian, Ilse the German, and Ginnie the American. Each of her characters, exhibited far more than just different accents. Each was complete with varied moods, actions and voice levels to make four distinct beings. Combined with a rich singing voice (how lovely in "Meinlich Meilich"), we were treated to an all round outstanding performance.

Deirdre Lauder and Cassandra

McKinley School P.T.O. will hold its annual Holiday Fair Wednesday, in the school auditorium, 500 First St. The fair will be open to McKinley School students from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. and to the public from 3 p.m.-4 p.m.

The fair will feature over 2,000 handcrafted items, most of them priced under $1, for the children to purchase for their family and friends. Gift wrap will be included.

Lammers were just right as the daughters, Susan, the favorite first born and Jane the neglected second child. Christian Laganga ably plays both the son of Littlechap, snatched by the angel of death, and later his grandson.

The all-important female chorus provides the rich fabric through which the thread of Littlechap's life is woven. They are all excellent as the school chums, the factory workers, the tourists, the British Parliament and as commentators on the action. What a pleasure to see seven animated and expressive ladies who could also sing so well.

Kudos to Mitch Audrus, Julie Knudson and their committees for a fine set, and to Judy Sullivan and her committee for the Pierrot-like clown costumes. The lighting was also especially complementary to the story and very well executed. The orchestra, under the able direction of Mark McGee was an integral part of the action even taking on various characters. We never see "The Boss" but we hear his voice in Phil Defusco's bassoon. Except for some sour trumpet notes the music was delightful.

I would hurry, hurry, hurry to see "Stop the World" and hear songs like "Gonna Build a Mountain" and "What Kind of Fool am I" to see excellent mime such as a door knob on the Boss' door get lower and lower as Littlechap gets more successful; and to see a challenging show beautifully done. It runs two more weekends, Nov. 29 and 30, and Dec. 6 and 7.

E'Town Launches Poster Contest for Students

Elizabethtown Gas Company is launching its Third Annual Energy Conservation Poster Contest for students in which cash prizes will be awarded for conveying original messages on energy conservation.

"Last year's competition produced exciting results," said Clarence Bauknight, general manager of energy conservation for Elizabethtown.

Winners will be selected from each of five grade/level categories: Grades 1-3, 4-6, 7-8, 9-10 and 11-12. Prizes range from $20 for third place, in the primary grades, up to $150 for first prize at the junior-senior high school level.

"We're looking forward to a good response this year," said

Bauknight, "since the contest has been building from 170 entries in its first year to 400 entries last year.

Entries must be original and may not include copyrighted characters. Maximum poster size is 22 by 28 inches. Each student contestant's name, home address, school, grade level and home phone number must appear on the back of the poster. Children of Elizabethtown Gas employees are not eligible.

Posters must be received by Elizabethtown Gas Company by Dec. 1. They may be mailed or hand-delivered to: Elizabethtown Gas Company, One Elizabethtown Gas Plaza, Elizabeth, N.J. 07207. Attn: Energy Conservation Department.

Realtors Do More than Sell Houses

Did you know that real estate agents who are also Realtors do more than just sell homes? The Westfield Board of Realtors says it may be surprising to learn how many Realtors specialize in real estate services other than home sales.

Following are brief summaries of the societies, institutes, and councils:

— American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers (AIREA) — The institute is the oldest organization of professional appraisers in the United States and was founded 50 years ago. All 5,400 members hold either its MAI (Member, Appraisal Institute) or RM (Residential Member) designation or are candidates for these designations. AIREA members serve the courts, government agencies, lending institutions, developers and real estate brokers by providing expert appraisals.

— The Farm and Land Institute (FLI) — This institute was organized in 1944 for Realtors and Realtor-associates who wanted to improve their professional competence in the land brokerage segment of the real estate industry. Its 8,000 members are active in the management, syndication, and development of urban, rural and recreational land.

— The Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) — The institute was founded in 1934 to foster knowledge and professionalism in property management. Currently, more than 5,000 members hold the CPM (Certified Property Manager) designation. Residential managers who fulfill both experience and education requirements can qualify for the ARM (Accredited Residential Manager) recognition award. Firms that qualify can receive the AMO (Accredited Management Organization) designation.

— The Real Estate Securities and Syndication Institute (RESSI) — The institute's more than 3,000 members specialize in the creation, issuance, analysis, promotion, marketing, and management of real estate securities. After members take a carefully planned course of study, they can earn the only professional designation currently offered in the real estate securities field — SRS (Specialist in Real Estate Securities).

— Realtors National Marketing Institute (RNMI) — The overall mission of the institute is to promote the professional competence of its members and of other interested Realtors and Realtor-associates. Three professional designations are offered and currently more than 18,000 members hold one or more of these designations: CCIM (Certified Commercial Investment Member), CRB (Certified Real Estate Brokerage Manager) and CRS (Certified Residential Specialist). These designations are awarded to members after intensive coursework has been successfully completed.

— The Society of Industrial Realtors (SIR) — The Society is a professional organization for those specializing in meeting the real estate needs of industrial property owners. There are approximately 1,500 members in the United States, Canada, England, France, the Netherlands and Australia.

— The Women's Council of Realtors (WCR) — The Women's Council of Realtors is a support system within the National Association of Realtors that prepares members for leadership roles in business and community service. This is accomplished through a network of more than 400 state and local chapters with 19,000 members.

— International Real Estate Federation, American Chapter — Established in 1956, the major objective of IREF is the promotion of high professional standards among individuals engaged in real estate throughout the world.

Again this Thanksgiving Day may we ask all our friends to join us for a quiet moment of prayerful thanks for the blessings of the past year, the privileges, freedom and opportunities that we all enjoy as citizens of our great Country, and the gradual though sometimes painful growth toward learning to love our fellow man, whatever his race, creed or color. Let us be mindful of all this and strive to express our gratitude in meaningful ways during the year ahead. A very happy Thanksgiving to you all!

UNICO to Sell Entertainment '86 Books

UNICO National District #10 (which encompasses most of Union County), is again selling the "Entertainment" discount coupon books. This is the sixth consecutive year the nationwide Italian-American organization has used the proceeds from the sales of these books as a fundraiser for its charitable endeavors.

Each book has hundreds of coupons with a total value savings of thousands of dollars. There are many features included in every book, including a fine dining section for selected area restaurants; an informal dining section; special events, movies, theater, theme parks; sporting events, college and pro basketball, football and hockey; racetracks; highlights of Manhattan; major hotels around the country, and more.

This year the books may be obtained from the following local and nearby UNICO representatives: Westfield, Charles Casiere; Scotch Plains-Fanwood, Phil DeFrancesco or John DiPace; Union, Joe Almeida; The Plainfields, Frank Licato; Clark, George Abruzzo.

The books may also be purchased over the counter at Westwood Cleaners, 1004 South Ave.

Garden Club Holds Christmas Meetings

The November meeting of The Mountainside Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Bishop. Mrs. Bishop talked on "The Spices of Christmas." She discussed the uses of spices in holiday food by appealing through aroma and taste.

The club will hold its annual Christmas Party on Dec. 3, at the home of Mrs. Philip L. Young. There will be a judging contest of decorative gifts, furnished by club members. These gifts will be given to patients of Runnell's Hospital.

"Festival Percussion" At Jefferson School

"Festival Percussion," a Festival of Music Arts-in-Education presentation, has been invited by the PTO to perform at Jefferson School on Dec. 5.

The "Festival Percussion" musicians have developed a program which features an introduction to the world of percussion instruments and techniques. The group explores the music of Bach, the Ragtime Era and modern compositions.

Members of the group are Norm Freeman, timpanist; Sue Evans, percussionist; and Barry Centani, classical percussionist.

For information on the group, contact Festival of Music, 80 Westervelt Ave., Tenafly, N.J. 07670.

Brownie Troops #598 and #101 holding their Thanksgiving placemats. Standing back row, left to right: Laura Todd, Ghia Jacobs, Laura Cashman, Wendy Reynolds and Brooke Wiley; second row: Jessie Lee; Kelly Norton, Courtney Bender, Meredith Hobson and Colleen Maloney; first row: Meghan Bender, Sharon Pakenham, Beth Muggeo and Jill Goldberger. Not pictured: Johanna Smiljanic, Caitlin Jordan, Kelly Mann and Alicia Manion.

Brownies Complete Service Projects

Franklin School's Brownie troops have been busy this month doing service projects for various community organizations.

Third grade Brownie troop #598, under the guidance of Carol Maloney, and troop #101, under the guidance of Peggy Bender, made Thanksgiving placemats for the pediatric ward at Overlook Hospital, Summit.

Second grade troop #69, under the leadership of Sandy Joseph and Marcia Talbott, have been preparing a food basket to be distributed by the Union County Department of Human Services.

First grade troop #451, under the leadership of Carol Phelan, also created Thanksgiving placemats to be distributed by the Red Cross to area Veterans Hospitals.

51st Annual Friendship Market Craft Sale

The New Jersey Division of Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, Inc., will present its 51st Annual Friendship Market Craft Sale on Wednesday, Dec. 4, at the Birchwood Manor in Whippany, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

The New Jersey Division donates its profits to scholarships and grants for individuals and institutions in the fields of agriculture, horticulture, landscape design, 4-H leadership training and related subjects.

The Friendship Market is in its 51st year of encouraging the preservation of native skills, arts, and handicrafts and has established high standards for direct marketing of crafts made in the home.

More than 130 crafters will be displaying their crafts. Some of the crafts being offered are pierced and painted lampshades, papier tole, rosemaling, decoupage, hand-painted miniature military figures, wax craft, weaving, basketry, pewter, folk art, stained glass, leather work, wood working, jewelry, doll house miniatures, dolls, Victorian Christmas ornaments, herbs, Victorian crafts, terrariums, stencil craft, pinecone crafts, hand-painted eggs, china painting, pottery, counted crossstitch, hand bags, wearing apparel, knit and crochet items and more.

Manor Park Tenants Plan Holiday Programs

The Manor Park Tenants' Association's Public Service Relations Department will present a slide and holiday talk on "Christmas Around the World" on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 5. Coffee and tea will be served to the residents.

In preparation for the forthcoming holiday season, the Sing Along Group has reorganized to rehearse and sing under the direction of a new resident, Willard Reese. The group will participate in a community sing at the tenants' meeting and also for the Old Fashioned Holiday Party planned for Dec. 19.

Mrs. Alice Berry, social coordinator, assists in the planning and arrangements of the festivities.

KRIS KRINGLES

Yield: 36 cookies

1/2 cup butter
1/4 cup sugar
1 egg yolk
1 tablespoon orange peel, grated
1 teaspoon lemon peel, grated
1 teaspoon lemon juice
1 cup flour
1/8 teaspoon salt
1 egg white, slightly beaten
1/2 cup pecans or walnuts, finely chopped

18 candied cherries, cut in half
Cream shortening and sugar thoroughly, add egg yolk, orange and lemon peels, and lemon juice. Beat thoroughly.

Stir in flour and salt. Chill until firm. Form small balls about 1/2 inch in diameter. Dip in egg white and then in finely chopped nuts. Press half a candied cherry in the center of each cookie. Bake at 325° about 20 minutes.

CHATHAM CHUTNEY

Yield: 6-8 quarts

12 pounds firm peaches
1/2 pound green or red peppers, seeded and chopped

1/8 pound green ginger, chopped
2 cloves garlic, mashed
3 pounds raisins (seedless)

Blanch peaches in boiling water for easy peeling; pare and slice. Mix with remaining ingredients.

Make syrup by boiling;

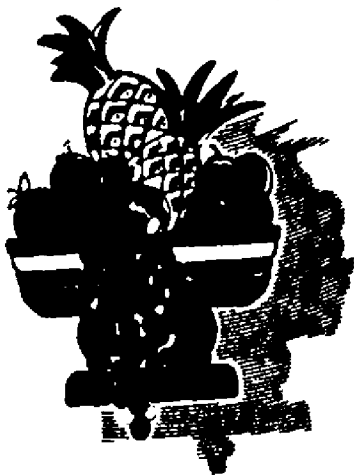

2 quarts cider vinegar
4 pounds dark brown sugar
6 ounces mustard seed
1 tablespoon salt

Combine all ingredients in large heavy kettle and celery; simmer 10-15 minutes longer, uncovered, or until mixture is thick. Cool and refrigerate.

THE ULTIMATE EGGNOG

12 egg yolks
2 cups sugar
1/4 cup powdered cloves and freshly grated nutmeg, mixed
12 egg whites
2 quarts whipping cream
1 quart bourbon
1 pint dark rum
1 pint V.S.O.P. cognac

Beat yolks until very light. Beat in sugar, cloves and nutmeg. Cover and let it stand overnight. Just before serving, beat egg whites stiff, beat cream until it peaks. Fold mixtures together, stir in liquor. Serve over cracked ice. Sprinkle with freshly grated nutmeg.

Mon.-Sat. 10 TO 6 PM. 'TIL 8 PM. 1 TO 6

'Twas the night before Christmas when all through the house
Not a creature was stirring except for one louse
Who entered a home that hadn't a prayer
Of stopping his stealing whatever was there.

He took all the presents from under the tree
He took cash and jewelry, he took the TV
A typewriter and radio went into the sack
He greedily filled and put on his back
But not before throwing a butt on the rug
And snickering snidely, "Bah and humbug."

Gingerbread: A Holiday Treat

The recipe below for gingerbread cookies, supplied from the Recipes from the Raleigh Tavern Bake Shop, published by The Colonial Williamsburg Foundation, can easily be transformed to gingerbread men with the aid of a good mold.

GINGERBREAD COOKIES (50-60 cookies)

1 cup sugar
2 teaspoons ginger
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons baking soda
1 cup margarine, melted
½ cup evaporated milk
1 cup unsulfured molasses
¾ teaspoon vanilla extract (optional)
¾ teaspoon lemon extract (optional)
4 cups stone-ground or unbleached flour, unsifted

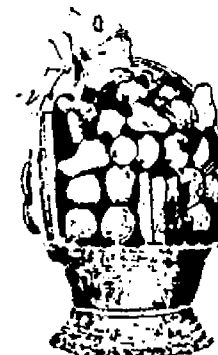

Combine the sugar, ginger, nutmeg, cinnamon, salt, and baking soda. Mix well. Add the melted margarine, evaporated milk, and molasses. Add the extracts if desired. Mix well. Add the flour 1 cup at a time, stirring constantly. The dough should be stiff enough to handle without sticking to fingers. Knead the dough for a smoother texture. Add up to ½ cup additional flour if necessary to prevent sticking. When the dough is smooth, roll it out ¼ inch thick on a floured surface and cut it into cookies. Bake on floured or greased cookie sheets in a preheated 375°F. oven for 10 to 12 minutes. The cookies are done if they spring back when touched.

Homeowner Holiday Hints

There's nothing like Christmas. The anticipation, the tree, the friends and family. The snow, or the hoping for snow to make it all official. The feeling that everything will be all right. The memories, reflections and dreams of Christmases past.

But for some, Christmas is just a good time for exploiting others, a time for taking, an opportunity to make what's yours, theirs.

They are the thieves, the modern-day Scrooges who will take the merry out of your Christmas — if you let them.

When you're out:

- Leave lights on in several rooms, attached to timers turning them on and off at varying intervals. Also leave a radio on tuned to an all-talk station.
- Leave drapes and shades open to reflect normal household patterns.

• Don't leave lawn furniture, ladders, etc., lying around.

• Turn down the volume on your phones. Constant ringing advertises your absence.

• If you're going to be away for an extended period, leave a car parked in your driveway. Make sure your grass will be cut or the snow shoveled. Cancel all deliveries such as newspapers, milk, etc. Have a friend or neighbor pick up your mail and use your trash cans.

During the holiday season, fire is also a threat to your property — and your life. You might do well to ask yourself the following hard questions: Have I taken the proper safety precautions regarding my Christmas tree? Do I know life-saving fire escape procedures — in case I do have a fire?

When we do our buying for the Holidays,
we do it with some of these ideas in mind.

• VALUE:

Quality at affordable prices.

• INVESTMENTS:

We select individual pieces which we believe have the potential for appreciation.

• INDIVIDUALITY:

We select many one of a kind items.

• SELECTION:

We are prepared to give you the largest selection of lampshades anywhere. Our gift department, though small, is filled with big surprises for the shopper who wants a gift to be remembered.
