Council to Organize Thursday Night With Two New Members

Two new councilmen, both with two-year terms when the Westfield Town Council organizes for 1986 at 8:30 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 2.

Jim Heimlich, Republican, will fill the third ward seat formerly held by James Capone, who declined to seek reelection. Jim Hely, Democrat, joins fellow Democrat Michael Diamond, also fourth ward, as a minority member of the council. Hely upset incumbent Republican Charles Cure in November. Cure had served briefly in the post which had been vacated by Tom Quinn.

In addition to the two new councilmen, incumbents Jubb Corbet, Ward 1, and Richard Bagger, Ward 2, will begin second terms on the Town Council.

The annual organization meeting, attended generally by most of the municipality's "official family" and former elected officials, is also the session at which Mayor Ronald J. Frigerio, in the second year of his second term as mayor, will give his annual message, recounting accomplishments of 1985 and forecasting the coming year.

Various appointments, such as memberships on official boards, also are announced at the meeting. Some are appointments by the mayor; others require consent of the council.

Council also approves a schedule of meeting dates for the coming year. Council committees and their chairmen also are named.

First regular business session of the Town Council will be held Tuesday, Jan. 14.

Children's Specialized Hospital Stages "New Year" Blood Drive

In an effort to bolster blood supplies depleted during the holidays, the Children's Specialized hospital, located at New Providence Road in Mountainside, will host a community blood drive on Thursday.

Cosponsored by the Westfield-Mountainside chapter of the American Red Cross and New Jersey Blood Services, the drive will be open to the public from 12:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

"We're asking everyone to make an extra special New Year's resolution to help the community by donating blood," said Pat Goodale, executive director of the Westfield-Mountainside chapter of the American Red Cross.

"Donating blood takes just minutes of time, yet, it can mean a lifetime to someone in need," she added.

Anyone between the ages of 17 and 66, weighing at least 110 pounds and in good health can donate blood. Seventeen year olds require written parental or guardian consent. Donors over the age of 65, must have donated previously, be in good health and meet the medical requirements of a New Jersey Blood Services physician.

Further information, is available from the Westfield-Mountainside Red Cross.

Labs, Educational Facilities, Fieldhouse District Priorities

In a December status report on the $6.5 million bond issue to upgrade and update needed improvements in Westfield's public schools, William J. Foley, assistant superintendent for business, reported that two priorities have been established for projects.

Reporting to the public and the school board at the board's December public meeting, Dr. Foley said "the first priority for projects is education." These projects include: updating and upgrading science labs at Edison Junior High School, renovating industrial arts rooms at Westfield High School, and dealing with substandard rooms.

Dr. Foley said that he and Steve Zalko, supervisor of the plant maintenance department, have been meeting with the school board's operations and facilities committee. Members of that committee include James DiClerico, chairperson; and members Gail Cassidy, Leo Senus and George Weimer.

Dr. Foley called the fieldhouse another priority. The operations and facilities committee plans to recommend an architect for the fieldhouse and field renovations before the next board meeting, January 21, 1986.

Renovation of the high school industrial arts rooms will enable the school district to offer students six additional courses: electronics, energy concepts, digital concepts, robotics, computer-assisted design and photography.

Substandard rooms are rooms that do not meet state code specifications, such as size.

Dr. Foley said that the substandard rooms in Westfield fall into three categories:

- 1) ones which will be abandoned.
- 2) ones which will be enlarged or taken care of, and
- 3) ones which need heat or ventilation (these will be taken care of by the bond issue).

Dr. Foley presented a large chart showing each of the projects proposed in the $6.5 million bond issue approved by Westfield voters in October. He said that the chart will be reproduced in size and published, as soon as possible. However, he noted that the chart will be "amended, as needed," to save time or money in doing the projects.

Yule Tree Disposal

Westfield residents may dispose of their Christmas trees by taking them to the lower parking lot in Tamaques Park.

Recycling pays for Westfield — Recycling paid off for 304 New Jersey municipalities receiving grants for recycling activities under the state tonnage grants program. At the annual New Jersey League of Municipalities Conference checks were presented to the top award winners by the New Jersey Department of Energy, Office of Recycling. Westfield received a check for $20,532. Shown left to right, Mary T. Sheil, recycling administrator; Stephen Esser, director, Division of Conservation; Leonard S. Coleman Jr., Energy Commissioner; and Joy Vreeland, Town Clerk.

Parking, School Bond Vote, Library Capture '85 Headlines

Progress on alleviating Westfield's parking problems, concurrent with hike in metered parking fees and plans to erect a tier on municipal lot opposite Post Office are among the major news stories dominating local headlines this year.

In addition, voters opted to approve a $6.5 million program of renovations for Westfield school facilities, and in the General Election, elected a second Democrat to the Town Council from the fourth ward. Jim Hely, who had run unsuccessfully the previous year for mayor, upset incumbent Republican Charles Cure for the seat. Other newcomer on the council will be Jim Heimlich, Republican, from the third ward, who will succeed James Capone, who did not seek reelection.

After another study to determine whether cost savings could be achieved by expanding the municipal library at its present site, it was agreed that the voters' choice of the Grant School location is preferable. Work is continuing on the design phase with interior layouts now being finalized. Voters a year ago had approved both the site and the expenditure of $3.5 million for the project.

And Gloria, feared as an awesome hurricane, blew through town, leaving less damage than anticipated.

The year's major headlines were:

Chronology - 1985

Officer Craig Allen, president of the Policemen's Benevolent Association Local #9, presents its contribution to Linda Maggio, executive director of the United Fund of Westfield for the 1985 campaign. "We are most grateful for the continuing generosity of the PBA and most fortunate to have their commitment," Maggio said. "The vital programs and services of our member agencies can only continue because of help like this. We hope all Westfielders will join with the PBA and support our effort. We need almost $31,000 to reach our goal of $500,000 to assure each agency of receiving the total allocation promised by the United Fund. During this holiday season, we thank those residents who have responded to our appeal. If you have not, we urge you to do so today. On behalf of the United Fund and our member agencies, we wish everyone the very best in the New Year."

Promises for 1986?

It's a little late on the last day of 1985 to say what we've done right or wrong through the year; nothing we can do now will change decisions made.

But we can look to next year and envision some of the problems — and yes, the progress, too — which we in Westfield should see.

One of the major goals of course is alleviation of the parking problem. The only trouble is that the situation will probably get worse before it gets better once work begins on tiering the municipal lot across Central Ave. from the Post Office. But we can hope by this time next year the town will have about another 100 parking spaces — and promises of perhaps a hundred more to come the following year.

Progress on parking has been a long time in coming, but it appears to be off the ground.

Another sign of progress we might expect during the coming year is breaking ground for a new library on the site of the present Grant School. The current building is due to be torn down after its current lease expires to make room for the new $3.5 million facility approved by voters a year ago last month.

Also in the works is a massive $6.5 million program of renovation and rehabilitation of every building and property owned by the school district, from the administration building, each of the elementary schools, the three secondary facilities to the high school recreation field and field house. Surprisingly to many, after several attempts on a lesser scale over the past few years failed, voters overwhelmingly approved the expenditure in April.

While higher metered and permit parking fees are expected to cover the costs of additional parking spaces, the roughly $10 million for schools and library is on the shoulders of the property tax payers who, during 1986, should begin to see the results of their generosity at the polls when they pay their quarterly tax bills beginning next summer.

Our Highway's Unknown Killer

The high incidence of deaths and injuries resulting from motor vehicle accidents involving intoxicated drivers is well documented. What is unknown is the frequency of injuries and deaths resulting from motor vehicle accidents involving a drugged driver, says the New Jersey State Safety Council.

According to statistics available to the National Safety Council, for every 100 alcohol-involved driving arrests there is approximately one arrest for driving under the influence of another drug.

The New Jersey State Safety Council asks you to adopt these safety considerations:

— Ask your physician or pharmacist if it is safe to drive after taking a prescribed or over-the-counter drug, and then follow the advice.

— Read the label for a warning describing potentially adverse effects.

— Ask what the effects would be if you consumed alcoholic beverages while using the medication.

WEEK OF: JANUARY 2, 1986

AQUARIUS — January 21-February 19

Higherup is in an easygoing mood; this may prove a good week to request a bonus or present your ideas. Money-making scheme may prove unrealistic. Romance shows its sentimental side.

PISCES — February 20-March 20

Major academic opportunity may be within reach. Volunteer assignment is favored and can lead to important new contact. Romance and travel blend throughout the weekend. Household activities become hectic.

ARIES — March 21-April 20

Travel may prove unexpectedly costly. Partnership activities are generally favored but don't try to second-guess your other half. Money-making idea benefits from a careful blueprint.

TAURUS — April 21-May 22

Try to stay uninvolved in friends' domestic or romantic disputes. This is not the week for trying to mediate. Leadership role is highlighted and can lead to bonuses at home or in community.

GEMINI — May 23-June 21

Colleague proves full of surprises. Routines change and can lead to new productivity. Make a point of identifying and accentuating your positive traits. Travel and business mix well.

CANCER — June 22-July 22

Avoid tendency of being overly critical of colleagues or family members. Sagittarius may step into the romance or friendship picture. Resolutions made now enjoy a strong chance for success.

LEO — July 23-August 22

Good week for making resolutions related to health, diet and physical fitness. Economic picture shows signs of brightening but don't expect too much to happen immediately. Platonic friendship is highlighted.

VIRGO — August 23-September 22

A variety of information comes your way and the key is to sort it all out carefully. New friendship is the theme of the week. Consider renewing physical fitness activities.

LIBRA — September 23-October 22

Sense of humor wins admiration of someone you admire yourself. Weekend focuses on romance and travel, with the two themes perhaps interwoven. Avoid making unrealistic promises.

SCORPIO — October 23-November 21

Packages and letters come your way after a series of delays. It's important that you meticulously arrange priorities. New interests — from bird watching to yoga — are accepted.

SAGITTARIUS — November 22-December 22

An aura of mystery surrounds this week with possessions strangely reappearing or temporarily disappearing. Creative writing is highlighted. This is the right week to start a novel or poem.

CAPRICORN — December 23-January 20

Creativity is theme of the week. Your imaginative touches are well put to use when writing letters, completing projects, or planning a menu. Younger relatives offer a lesson in friendship.

Report from Washington

By Congressman

Matt Rinaldo

7th District, New Jersey

With more than one million takeoffs and landings this year, the three major airports serving New Jersey and New York are elbowing each other for more air space. The 20 percent increase since 1980 in air traffic is causing the Federal Aviation Administration to develop a new plan for air safety that should relieve the current congestion. Besides improving safety, it would mean fewer delays for the 74 million passengers using Newark, Kennedy and LaGuardia.

The most dramatic increase in air traffic has taken place at Newark. The number of landings and takeoffs have increased from approximately 197,000 in 1980 to 345,000 in 1984. Passengers using Newark skyrocketed from 9.2 million in 1980 to 23.7 million. With the addition of the new terminal for People Express due to open in the fall of 1986, traffic at Newark should continue to set new records.

The sharp rise in air traffic comes at a time of increasing concern over safety in the skies. With 486 Americans killed in airline crashes, 1985 is the worse year on record. FAA critics in Congress also contend that the number of midair near collisions rose 25 percent. The House Subcommittee on Aviation, which expects to hold hearings on air safety in January, has been demanding that more air traffic controllers be put on the job.

What is being done or planned to make the skies safer? A number of improvements in air traffic safety are underway, according to FAA officials and Transportation Secretary Dole. They include:

- Beefing up the FAA's force of 1,380 inspectors over the next two years by about 20 percent and cutting their paperwork in order to concentrate their skills on checking out aircraft.
- Pushing the introduction of technology to monitor wind-shear and other weather hazards. Wind-shear was blamed for the Delta Airlines crash in Dallas.
- Initiating a "back-to-basics" program for all users of the air traffic control system including ground crews, pilots and airport operators in order to reduce ground traffic incidents and accidents. The number of ground incidents increased from 41 to 54 in the first half of 1985. Among the near misses were large commercial carriers that nearly collided on the ground with smaller aircraft crossing their runways.

- Tightening up security against terrorists at foreign airports. The 1986 foreign aid bill enacted by Congress cuts off aid to countries that fail to remedy inadequate airport security. The Secretary of Transportation must assess security conditions at foreign airports. Where it does not meet standards, U.S. travelers would be informed of the conditions at the time they purchase tickets to a deficient airport.

- Stricter flight time limits for pilots. Under a recent FAA decision, flight crew members may not be scheduled for more than 8 hours of flight time between required rest periods. The Air Line Pilots Association called the new rule a major improvement over the old regulations dating back to the 1930s. It guarantees a minimum nine-hour rest between trips.

- Implementation of jet engine noise controls on all foreign, as well as domestic airlines, operating at major airports, including Newark. Some 50 foreign airlines had unsuccessfully petitioned the FAA to have the regulations waived.

- En route spacing of aircraft to eliminate traffic bottlenecks and congestion when too many aircraft approach an airport at the same time.

- An automated early warning sector saturation alert that now continuously monitors high altitude flights one to two hours in advance of their approaches to an airport.

- Better information to general aviation users (small planes) to avoid certain sectors during busy hours.

- Procedure changes that expedite arrivals and departures at Newark, Kennedy and LaGuardia reducing the number and length of delays, other than those caused by weather.

- Increasing the number of air traffic controllers to 14,259, with another 2,000 in training. While these are encouraging steps, the development of the new air traffic management plan scheduled to be unveiled by Transportation Secretary Dole early next year remains the key to the future growth and safety of air traffic in this region.

Money Management

Are you planning your financial future? Would you like to turn over a new financial leaf for 1986? Do you feel as though you squandered much of your money on unimportant items in 1985?

To manage your money wisely in 1986, organize your financial life with a monthly program. According to the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants (CPAs), by performing some financial maintenance each month, you'll gain better control over your money. Here are some ideas to help you in 1986.

January. The sooner you make your contribution to a 1986 IRA, the more tax-free earnings you'll accumulate. If self-employed, open a Keogh. An IRA or Keogh will lower your current tax liability and build a retirement nest egg. If you have not already contributed to a 1985 IRA, you have until April 15 to do so. You have only until December 31 to open a 1986 Keogh. There are no extensions to these deadlines. April 15 is also the deadline for a 1985 income tax return. The sooner you file, the quicker you'll get back a refund if any is due.

Reminder: Investing in a 1986 tax shelter should be considered now to ensure getting the safest and fullest tax benefits.

February. Draw up a budget. Figure out your fixed expenses for each month of the year. Include rent or mortgage payments, utilities and any other expenses which you do not control. Then calculate the monthly sum of all expenses over which you have some control: transportation, taxes, medical care, entertainment, clothing, insurance and food. Then, add up your income from wages and investments for each month of the year. Subtract the difference to determine your "discretionary" income — if any. Set aside a reasonable cash fund each week for out-of-pocket expenses. Set aside a portion for savings or investments.

March. Plan to reduce taxes this year. Estimate your 1986 taxable income. Make sure you're not having too much withheld from your weekly paycheck. If in need of shelter from taxes, review investments now. Check your capital gains positions. Consider establishing a trust or making a gift to shift income to a lower-bracket family member.

April. Deal with debt. If you are in debt because of credit cards, consider consolidating credit card loans. Credit card debts frequently carry annual interest rates that are higher than other loan rates. By taking a personal loan to pay back credit card companies, you can cut the interest dollars you pay back. Where possible, use a savings account as collateral for a personal loan.

Reminder: You must file your 1985 tax return by April 15 or apply for an extension, but you have only until the 15th to establish a 1985 IRA.

May. Tune up your savings. If you are maintaining a savings account, be sure to leave no more than a three-to six-month "emergency fund" in ordinary savings or money market accounts. Put any extra cushion in other instruments that yield more than money market accounts. Begin to survey the investment arena for a stock, bond, mutual fund or other investments that will suit your ability to take risk.

June. Manage risks. Review insurance policies. If you were to become disabled or suddenly die, what cushion has been provided for your family? Find out how long you must be unable to work before a disability policy will begin paying you. Many policies do not pay benefits until you are disabled 90 days. Determine if you have ample life insurance to keep your family secure in the event of death. Have you met deductible amounts on your health insurance?

July. Devise an investment strategy. Write down your investment objectives. Do you want to finance your child's education? Are you planning for retirement? Or is saving up for a downpayment on a vacation home your main objective? Writing down three main investment goals gives you a notion of whether your goals are realistic, and it shows how much income you need to achieve goals. Match goals with investments. Reminder: If children are away at summer camp because you could not care for them due to your work schedule, you may be eligible for a child care tax credit.

August. Retirement planning is advisable for almost everyone over 30. In your 30s, consider contributing the maximum amount to an IRA. You may want to consider opening or transferring all or part of a current IRA into a more aggressive "self-directed" IRA, which may be riskier and offer bigger potential for gains.

September. Figure out your net worth. Add up your assets — your house, car, personal possessions, current investment values, cash surrender value of life insurance and your savings. Then total your liabilities — mortgage debt and other outstanding personal debts. Finally, subtract liabilities from assets to find your net worth.

October. Determine how your estate will be divided in the event of your death. If your taxable estate is greater than $500,000 and you die in 1986, the excess will be taxed at progressive rates of 37 to 55 percent. An estate passes to a spouse tax-free, however, no matter how large it is. If you do not have a will, you may want to consult an attorney to draw up one. Existing wills should be updated.

November. Review deductible expenses you've paid since January 1. If income is expected to be about the same next year, accelerate deductions and defer income when possible. Non-itemizers should try to "bunch" deductions, lumping several deductions into a single year, and this may push itemized deductions beyond the zero bracket amount. Beware of year-end tax law changes and consider hiring a CPA for year-end advice.

December. Catch up a record-keeping. Make sure all receipts will be available for filing 1986 income taxes. Organize all receipts, old bills and budgeting aids. Assemble a list that can be utilized by family members if something happens to you. Write down location of your will, insurance policies, stocks, bonds and other financial documents. List the names of your insurance broker, attorney and CPA.

ERASER

Starting from scratch

Man, the inventor of human error, is certainly indebted to Joseph Priestly, who discovered that a gum-like substance from India known as caoutchouc would rub out pencil marks. This momentous observation not only provided man with a means to help him overcome his penchant to err, but also introduced a generic term for products made from the gummy substance, such as rubber bands and rubber tires.

The rubber on the end of a pencil, generally called an eraser, is derived from the Latin word eradere and simply means to scratch out. Ancient scribes could not afford too many errors, however. Imagine erasing or scratching out a mistake when the message was literally etched in stone. If he was error prone, a stone carver could really have a tough time scratching out a living.

Correcting errors made with a pen was a problem until a substance known as ink eradicator, now obsolete, was developed to root out errors. The origin of eradicator (ex = out + radix = root) literally means pull out by the roots. The word radish was also pulled from the radix root.

Man continues to develop better ways to correct his boo boos. Correction fluids cosmetically hide inked or typed indiscretions, but the ultimate means of covering our erroneous tracks is provided by word processing computers. They do not scratch out, pull out, or cover up our mistakes. They simply make the operator's errors vanish without a trace by using what is known in computereese as "text editing." That definitely beats a hammer and chisel.

Stephen R. Turk Weds Charlene A. Calnan

Stephen Ronald Turk and Charlene Ann Calnan were married on Oct. 5. Mr. Turk is the son of Mrs. Audrey K. Turk of Westfield, and the late William H. Turk. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Dan Harris of Tampa, Fla., and the late Charles Calnan.

The ceremony was performed by Judge Dennis Alvarez of Tampa, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Andrews, in Clearwater Beach, Fla. A lawn reception followed the outdoor ceremony at sunset.

Marlene Mondino served as maid of honor, and Herman

Kasse served as his grandson's best man.

The bride is a graduate of Tampa schools and is a teacher of aerobics at Dimensions, in Tampa.

The bridegroom attended Westfield schools and is a graduate of Lehigh University. He is affiliated with the Tampa office of Crystal Polishing systems, and is well-known in the Tampa area as a professional musician.

Following a wedding trip to Europe, the couple is residing in Tampa.

Jr. Musical Club Holds Meeting

The Junior Musical Club of Westfield met earlier this month, at the home of President John Brixie, Cranford. The program featured performances by Beth McIntyre of Westfield, vocalist; Susan Hahn of Fanwood, flutist; and Karen Kennedy of Westfield, pianist.

Miss McIntyre sang "Armellini" by Giulio Caccini and "A Robin Sang in the Elmwood Tree" by Richard Kountz. Beth was accompanied by pianist Elizabeth Lipnick. Miss Hahn played "Minuet" and "Dance of the Blessed Spirits" by Christopher Gluck. She was accompanied by pianist Ellen Kim.

Karen Kennedy followed playing "Prelude in B flat" by Bach and "Prelude in B flat" by Gershwin. Six members of the club recently assisted as ushers at both the concert of the senior Musical Club and at the Westfield Community Concert.

At last month's auditions many talented young musicians were accepted into the Club. They include Bella Bashar, pianist; Vanessa Lloyd, pianist; Jessica Oppenheim, pianist; pianists Alicia Roberts and Kristine Roberts; pianist Grace Ryu; and Anna Senkovich, vocalist; all of Westfield, and Sabrina Priedla of Scotch Plains.

Nancy Opdyke to Wed James S. Little

Dr. and Mrs. David F. Opdyke of Greenville, N.C. and Bar Harbor, formerly of Westfield, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Nancy, to James S. Little of Westfield, son of Mrs. Miriam Little of Marshall's Creek, Pa., and the late Clayton K. Little, Sr.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Westfield High School and Heidelberg College, and is employed as an administrative assistant in the office of Mrs. John Hay Whitney of New York.

Mr. Little is a graduate of Trenton State College and teaches men's choral music at The Pingry School of Martinsville. He is also organist/choir director of the Community Presbyterian Church of Mountaintide.

A wedding is planned for June 21, 1986.

Mrs. Sitzler Honored By Garden Club

Honorary President for The Garden Club of Westfield Catherine Barnett Sitzler has been designated Honorary President, 1985-87, for the club.

Founded in 1922, Mrs. Sitzler became a member in November of 1928. Known then as Mrs. Charles M. Barnett, Jr., she served as president from 1935 to 1937, initiating some of the club's continuing activities. She has served as a member of the board each year since. A tea was held in November of 1978, marking 50 years of active service and honorary membership.

Mrs. Sitzler brought honor to the club with blue ribbon designs and horticulture in the Mum Show, Orchid Society Show, at George Jensen's branch store in Millburn, Altman's in New York City, and often in the New York Flower Show. Records indicate a blue ribbon for her arrangement in the first New Jersey State Flower Show in October, 1943. Through the years, she has done programs and workshops on design and color for her own and neighboring clubs, introducing lighted niches. As bird chairman in 1948, 800 pounds of seed, 17 bird feeders and 12 wren houses were sold to members.

Mrs. Sitzler was chairman of

the 1976 award-winning Centennial Flower Show for the Westfield Club. Catherine is also a past president of the Westfield Art Association, and her artwork has appeared on the club's flower show schedules, signs and illustrations for the Garden Club of New Jersey shows. Illustrations and cover for the 1967 Tour Cook Book, as well as cover designs for seven issues of Newsleaf, issued by the Garden Club of New Jersey, including the current issue.

Eye Openers

HOW YOUR EYE WORKS
Q. How does the eye regulate what we see in different intensities of light?
A. First, the pupil, the central opening in the eye, regulates the amount of light that enters the eye and eventually reaches the retina. The retina contains two types of photoreceptor cells: the rods and the cones. These cellular structures look different, are located in varying degrees in different parts of the retina, and have different functions. There are almost twice as many cones as there are rods. The cones are closest together in the central portion of the retina.
The rods enable us to see when it is not too light, at dusk, and in semi-darkness. They also control what we see from either side, rather than from straight on in front of us.
The cones function best at high levels of light and are responsible for clear central vision what we see straight in front of us. They also possess photopigments that enable us to see color.
In a thorough eye examination, your optometrist checks the health of the retina, which contains the rods and cones as well as a complicated network of nerves and blood vessels.

Collegians

Heidi J. Schleifer, daughter of Renee and Albert Schleifer of Westfield, and 1982 graduate of Westfield Senior High School, is in her senior year at Douglass College of Rutgers University.

Heidi is presently seeking a B.A. in psychology and women's studies.

She is president of Psi Chi, the Honor Society of Psychology, where she and others are organizing provocative programming for the members of the society, and the psychology majors at large. In addition, Schleifer is currently conducting honors research on bulimia nervosa, and its relationship with depression. She is assisting with pilot studies, statistical analysis, and running control groups, under her research advisor, Linnea Lindholm, of the Eating Disorders Clinic at Rutgers University. Both Lindholm and Schleifer's research is under the auspices of Dr. Terry Wilson, Graduate Professor of Applied and Professional Psychology at Rutgers. Schleifer will be presenting her paper on bulimia in April, 1986.

In addition to her honors research work, she is the Undergraduate Representative to the Executive Committee of the Women's Studies Program at Rutgers. She is organizing programming for members of the Women's Studies Program and making monthly reports as to the progress of various functions going on around campus.

She is also a member of the Gear and Triangle Society, an honor society that recognizes students in their junior year for outstanding contributions to extracurricular activities.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Patnaude of Westfield, Karen expects to receive the bachelor of engineering degree with a concentration in materials and metallurgical engineering in May.

Joins Schwartz Company

Sheila A. Camara of Mountaintop recently joined the Archie Schwartz Company as a sales representative in the East Orange-based realtor's Essex/Union/Hudson industrial and office space division.

Before joining Schwartz, Camara held supervisory positions at U.S. Air. She is a graduate of Rutgers University.

Symphony to Present "Musical Soup"

"Musical Soup," Plainfield Symphony's second annual free young people's concert, will be held on Jan. 5, at 3 p.m., at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church in Plainfield.

Special guest artist, Shari Bart, an 11-year old violinist residing in Plainfield, will perform the intricate Allegro movement of Bach's "Violin Concerto in E Major" accompanied by the orchestra. Miss Bart is the winner of the Plainfield Symphony's First Annual Young Performer's Concerto Competition.

Miss Bart is currently a music student of Nicole Di Cocco at the Manhattan School of Music, where she has been a student from the age of three. This year she was chosen to receive the school's Nalon Award for excellence in violin, and has earned first prize in a division of the American String Teachers Association solo competition in New Jersey. She is an academic student at Wardlaw-Hartridge School and has performed extensively in the local area.

George Marriner Maull, conductor and music director of the Plainfield Symphony and writer of "Musical Soup," developed this concert format during his tenure with Young Audiences of New Jersey, the New Jersey Youth Symphony, conductor for the last seven years, and the New Jersey Symphony, where he received an American Symphony Orchestra League Certificate of Merit for his in-school educational programs used in conjunction with the symphony.

In addition to Miss Bart's appearance, Mr. John Kim, a 17-year old student at Millburn High School and assistant concertmaster of the New Jersey Youth Symphony, will be guest conductor for part of the program.

Repertoire will include selections by Sousa, Bach, Beethoven, Bizet, Dennes, Boyce and a "Humoresque for Orchestra" written by Maestro Maull.

The concert is free, but tickets must be secured by contacting the orchestra's office, or by mailing a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Plainfield Symphony, P.O. Box 5093, Plainfield, N.J. 07061 with ticket request.

Collegians

Dennis G. Reilly, a Westfield student at Bryant College, recently participated in the annual Bryant Fund fall phonathon.

Reilly, a freshman accounting major and son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Reilly of Westfield, was one of 300 students who helped to raise more than $150,000 for the Bryant Fund. The Fund raises money each year to support financial aid, library acquisitions, data processing, and other academic programs.

Laura Annesley Swicker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard K. Swicker of Westfield, has been named to the 1986 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Miss Swicker is a senior psychology major at Hollins College in Roanoke, Va., where she is a dean's list student. She is a graduate of Westfield High School.

Bird watching is an interesting hobby that can be enjoyed in the home yard during winter. The best way to draw many species into the yard is by providing a wide variety of food. The types of feed mentioned below will attract the following birds.

Sunflower seeds — Feed on by birds that live off the ground in bushes. Placing these in an elevated feeder, instead of on the ground where they will only attract squirrels, will draw cardinals, woodpeckers, nuthatches, and bluejays.

Thistle — While expensive, place in an elevated feeder, will attract goldfinches and other uncommon birds.

Millet — Enjoyed by ground feeding birds such as sparrows, blackbirds, and doves. Placed on the ground in a tray or scattered it will attract many of them.

Suet — Fat trimmings from meat (can be gotten from butcher shops). It needs no processing before feeding. Hanging it in a mesh onion bag off the ground will attract woodpeckers, nuthatches, and other birds that normally feed on insects.

Bread — Attracts starlings and pigeons. These birds can become a problem by roosting on your roof and in the eaves.

Lastly, if you haven't fed birds in the past because you lived in an urban area and thought birds would not come there, "take heart." Holly Hoffman, Director of Trailside Nature and Science Center, and resident of Plainfield, has been feeding birds there successfully for years.

John M. Sheffey Jr.

John M. Sheffey Jr., formerly of Westfield, died Wednesday, Dec. 18, at the age of 39. Mr. Sheffey, a 1964 graduate of Westfield High School, was associate dean of the University of Arkansas at Little Rock School of Law.

Mr. Sheffey held the academic rank of professor and became associate dean in July 1983. He specialized in the law of corporations and securities regulation and also taught agency and partnership, insurance, remedies and consumer law courses.

Outside of the law school, he was known for his work with the Pulaski County Humane Society. He was a member of its board, chairman of its legal advisory and finance committees and, in 1984, received the 40-year-old society's first Humanitarian Award.

Born in New York, a son of Evelyn Comyns and John M. Sheffey, he was a graduate of the Randolph-Macon College at Ashland, Va., and graduated with honors from the Northwestern University School of Law at Chicago, where he was on the editorial board of the Law Review.

He practiced law with the Chicago firm of Lord, Bissell and Brook from 1971 through 1978, when he accepted an appointment at UALR. He became an associate professor in 1981 and a full professor in 1984.

He was the author of eight published scholarly articles on the law, most of them on aspects of securities law. He was admitted to practice before the courts of Arkansas and Illinois and the United States Supreme Court.

He was a member of the Pulaski County, Arkansas and American Bar Associations and served on several of those organizations' standing committees. In addition to serving on several law school committees, he also was a member of a number of UALR-wide committees, including the chancellor's policy advisory council, which he headed in 1981-1982.

Survivors are his wife, Kathy McGregor Sheffey; a son, Danny Sheffey of Little Rock; his mother, Evelyn Comyns Sheffey of Westfield, and a sister, Daphne Beckman of Mount Airy, Md.

Funeral services were held Dec. 20.

Memorials may be made to the Pulaski County Humane Society or to the Arkansas Cancer Research Center, Slot 623 at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences.

Francis X. Garrigan

Francis X. Garrigan, 92, of Westfield, died Dec. 26, at Overlook Hospital in Summit after a long illness.

Born in New York City, he moved to Rossmore in Jamesburg in 1966 and to Westfield in 1983.

He was a Marine veteran of World War I.

Mr. Garrigan was a postal worker for 35 years at the General Post Office in New York City, retiring in 1966.

He was a member of the Old Guard in Jamesburg and a long time communicant of St. James Church in Jamesburg.

He was the husband of Lucille Mackey Garrigan, who died in 1983.

Surviving are two sons, Donald F. of Westfield, and Gerald H. of Stony Point, N.Y.; and seven grandchildren.

A funeral Mass was celebrated at St. Helen's Church in Westfield on Saturday.

Memorial donations may be made to Covenant House in New York City, or Our Lady of the Snows Oblate Missions, Belleville, Ill.

Arrangements were by the Dooley Colonial Home, 556 Westfield Ave.

Henry M. Hessler

Henry M. Hessler, 59, died Sunday at home after suffering an apparent heart attack.

Born in Buffalo, N.Y., Mr. Hessler lived in Cranford for 18 years before moving to Westfield in 1977.

He had been a designer/draftsman for H & R International Inc. of Edison for the past year and prior to that had held a similar position with Braun Engineering in Murray Hill for 10 years.

Mr. Hessler had been a member of the Union Municipal Band for 38 years and was an active amateur artist with several of his sculptures displayed in the Cranford library. He also was a veteran of World War II service with the U.S. Marine Corps.

Surviving are his wife, the former Patricia Reuther; two daughters, Lynn Sciarone of Lake Ridge, Va., and Janice Pruresti of Bricktown; two sons, Dan of Garwood and Tim of Deal; a brother, Charles of Mamaroneck, N.Y.; a sister, Margaret Morris of Denver, Colo.; and six grandchildren.

Funeral services are being held at 11 a.m. today, Tuesday, at the Dooley Colonial Home, 556 Westfield Ave., followed by interment at Fairview Cemetery.

Frederick H. Schork

Frederick H. Schork, 74, of Point Pleasant Beach, formerly of Westfield, died Dec. 26, at Point Pleasant Hospital.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., he lived in Westfield before moving to Point Pleasant Beach 35 years ago.

He was self-employed as an arcade owner in New York City for more than 40 years.

He was a former member of the First Baptist Church of Westfield.

Mr. Schork was a member of the Point Pleasant Moose Lodge #1549, the Tradewind Chapter of Deborah, and the Point Pleasant Beach Elks #1698.

He was a 1936 graduate of Colgate University and a member of its alumni club.

Surviving are his wife, Jane Prine Schork; two daughters, Mrs. Sharon Layman of Harrisonburg, Va., and Mrs. Robin DeRosa of Point Pleasant; a brother, Robert of Hatboro, Pa.; and five grandchildren.

Arrangements were by the Van Hise and Calligan Funeral Home in Point Pleasant.

Boys Defeat Cranford, Lose to Linden, UC

By Todd Brecher

The WHS boys' varsity basketball team opened its season with a victory over Cranford, but then suffered consecutive losses to Linden and Union Catholic.

The Devils opened the '85-'86 campaign against Cranford and broke open a close game with an excellent fourth quarter in which they outscored the Cougars 26-10. WHS had a balanced scoring effort as three starters hit double figures, led by the 14 points of sophomore guard Neil Horne.

Westfield led 35-31 at the close of three quarters and exploded for 12 straight points at the beginning of the final period to put the game virtually out of reach. Center Rob Gladden began the run with two free throws and then followed with a three point play which gave the Devils a nine point bulge. After Charlie Karustis scored two of his ten points, Horne made three free throws, part of his eight for nine performance from the charity stripe.

Point guard Scotty Blackmon capped off the run with a basket which made the score 47-31 with 5:33 left to play. Forward Mike Walsh insured the win for Westfield as he scored nine of his 12 points down the stretch, and Cranford could get no closer than 12 points. Walsh also led the Devil rebounding effort, as he pulled down 11 boards, seven in the second half.

Cagerettes Split Opening Games

By Larry Playford

The Westfield High School varsity girls' basketball team began its 1985-86 season on Friday, Dec. 20 with a narrow 41-40 victory over Cranford. The Cagerettes then went on to suffer losses at the hands of both Linden and Union Catholic in their next two games.

The victory over Cranford came with :06 left on the clock in the fourth period when Audrey Ceklosky drew a foul and sank her second shot to break a 40-40 tie and give the Blue Devils a 41-40 victory.

Westfield had dominated the first half of the game and held a 19-10 lead over Cranford at halftime. Kris Jeremiah scored 11 pts. and Tracey Gaskin scored 8 pts. to give the Blue Devils their 9 pt. lead.

Cranford, however, came out fighting in the third period and took the lead, scoring 18pt. before Audrey Ceklosky broke a Westfield scoring drought with 1:09 left in the period. The Cagerettes managed only three more pts. after Ceklosky's shot, and by the end of the period Cranford lead, 28-24.

In the fourth period, Westfield rallied to cut Cranford's lead. Five times during the period, Westfield tied up the score and then fell behind again, but with :40 left Gaskin sunk a lay-up and tied the score at 40:40. The Blue Devils then managed to hold Cranford scoreless until Ceklosky scored to give Westfield the victory.

The Cagerettes were defeated by a score of 50-41 in their next game against Linden. The Blue Devils took an early 16-14 lead in the first period, but Linden took control in the second period and by halftime was leading 28-24. Westfield managed to stay close in the third period, but again Linden took control and by the end of the game had built a 50-41 lead.

For Westfield, Gaskin scored 16 pts. and grabbed 7 rebounds

Both teams played a somewhat lackluster first half. The Devils were plagued by poor shooting, as they converted just 8 to 27 shots (30%). However, they kept in the game with fine offensive board work, as they pulled down ten offensive rebounds in the first two periods. Cranford, meanwhile, was hurt by a number of turnovers caused by the Devil press. The first half ended in a 21-21 deadlock.

WHS began the third quarter with a spurt, as Horne scored five consecutive points, but Cranford, which was led by Mike Davis with 12 points and Mike Schneider with 13, managed to stay close until the final quarter.

Westfield traveled to Linden the next day, and once again the contest was decided by a fourth quarter spurt. However, this one was by Linden, which, led by sophomore Corey Floyd, pulled away in the final minutes to take a 56-46 victory.

The Devils trailed 39-30 at the end of the third period, but outscored the Tigers 7-2 at the beginning of the fourth quarter to close to within four points. Horne led the run, scoring four of his team-high 17 points, 12 of which came in the second half. However, Floyd, who had been shutout in the second half after scoring eight points in the first two periods, proceeded to take control of the game.

After two Horne free throws made the score 41-37, Floyd hit a jumper to end the Devil spurt. Walsh then missed a jump shot and on the other end of the court, Floyd connected on two free shots. After a Devil turnover, Floyd converted two more free throws to give Linden a ten point bulge.

Horne hit two foul shots to cut the lead to eight, but Linden responded with five straight points, two of them on an incredible dunk by Floyd. Floyd finished the day with 17 points and 14 rebounds, leading the Tigers to the win.

Walsh had nine points and 13 rebounds for WHS while Blackmon had seven assists for the second straight game, albeit in a losing cause.

The Devils next game featured a confrontation between father and son. The father was Neil Horne Sr., head coach of the Union Catholic Vikings. The son was Neil Horne Jr., starting guard for Westfield. However, the game was not an entirely happy one for the Horne family, as Union Catholic shot an incredible 73% over the first three quarters and defeated the Devils handily, 63-36.

The Vikings jumped out to a 12-0 lead and held a 14-4 edge at the end of the first quarter. Any hopes of a Devil comeback were crushed in the second quarter when Union Catholic outscored WHS 19-8 to take a 33-12 halftime advantage. The Vikings shot an amazing 16 for 22 from the field in the first half while Westfield made just 4 of 17 shots. Union Catholic continued its incredible shooting in the third period making 8 of 11 shots and extending its lead to 50-20 by the close of the period coasting to the win.

Tate George led the way for Union Catholic, scoring 18 points and dishing out seven assists in less than three quarters of action. Maurice Bullock added 13 and Eric George contributed 12 for the Vikings. Karustis had 11 points and Horne had 10 to lead Westfield.

The Devils made just 11 of 37 shots (30%), continuing their shooting problems. WHS has converted just 49 of 145 shots on the season (34%). The Devils will need to improve in this area if they hope to achieve a winning season.

WHS took part in the Summit Christmas Tournament over the weekend and will face an undefeated Scotch Plains team on Thursday and then meet Irvington on Saturday.

Matmen 4th in Tourney

By Henry Span

The WHS varsity wrestling team placed fourth in the recent Governor Livingston Tournament, which was held at Hunterdon Central, with 74 points. Hunterdon Central dominated the tournament with 134.5 points, but Westfield placed only eight points behind second place finisher Scotch Plains. Millburn was third and Union fifth.

Westfield was second only to Hunterdon Central in number of champions with three. Westfield's champions were junior Anthony Coleman (158), and seniors Toly Volkov (170) and Mark Giaccone (188). Senior Rob O'Hara (122) placed second. Coleman, who saw only limited action last year, pinned his first two opponents in the third period. In the finals he pinned Ken Paster of Governor Livingston 26 seconds into the second period. Coleman relied on his natural athletic ability and great sense of balance rather than experience.

Volkov, who also won the tournament last year at 170, had a bye in the quarters and pinned his semifinal opponent in just 20 seconds. He met Kevin Nicola of Scotch Plains in the finals and thoroughly dominated the match. With the help of 12 backpoints in the second period, Volkov built up a 18-3 lead in the third period.

The match was ended at that point because under the new rules it is considered a technical fall when a wrestler takes a 15 point lead.

Giaccone, who is making a 40 lb. jump from last year, also received a bye in the quarterfinal round. Giaccone wasn't at full strength during his semifinal match against Jeff Lange of Hunterdon Central due to a slight groin injury and his performance was lackluster. He won, however, 10-5 with the help of five takedowns. Giaccone seemed fully recovered for the championship match against Ed Dupuy of Scotch Plains and scored a pin at 3:13.

O'Hara, who is in the toughest weight class at the tournament, also was very successful. After receiving a bye in the quarters O'Hara met Kip Winget of Hunterdon Central in the semifinals.

O'Hara avenged his 4-0 loss to Winget last year with a close 2-1 decision. After two periods the score was tied 0-0, but Winget scored first with an escape early in the third period. Then with 13 seconds left in the match O'Hara scored a takedown for the win. In the finals, O'Hara faced Sal Rafanello of Millburn, who took second at 122 in the Region III tournament last year. Rafanello was a little too strong for O'Hara, and Rafanello won the match with a 4-2 decision.

Also of note was the performance of junior Jeff Hurley, who was out all of last year with an injury. He lost to Bill DeMarco of Union 6-4 in the first round, but DeMarco went on to win the championship at 129. Hurley was tied with DeMarco up until DeMarco reversed him with only 20 seconds remaining in the match. Hurley won his consolation match with a pin 30 seconds into the second period.

Ice Skating Allowed In County Parks

Ice skating on frozen lakes and ponds is permitted in 16 areas throughout the Union County Park System.

Each area is open from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily when "Skating" signs are posted. "No Skating" signs indicate "unsafe ice" conditions and should be strictly adhered to.

Ice skating is permitted in the following areas:

Lighted Areas - Warinanco Park, lake; Rahway River Park, lake;

Meisel Ave., lake; Cedar Brook Park, lake; Briant Park, lake; Galloping Hill Golf Course, flooded practice fairway; Echo Lake Park, upper lake; Unami Park, flooded parking lot.

Non-Lighted Areas - Warinanco Park, lagoon; Elizabeth River Park, Woodruff Section, Black Brook Park, lake; Nomahegan Park, lake; Milton Park, lake; Watchung Reservation, Surprise Lake; and Green Brook Park, lake and lagoon.

WHS Booters Attain All-Star Rankings

Several members of the WHS boys' varsity soccer team, which posted a 19-3-1 record and advanced to the state finals, have been named to all-star teams.

On the county level, the Devils placed nine players on the coaches All-County team. Seniors Rob Schmalz and Gino Piaggio, junior Mike Drury and sophomore Gregg Schmalz were named to the first team while juniors Chris Freer, Anthony Coleman, Brad Shapiro and Steve Locker were placed on the second team. Senior Brian Morris received third team honors.

Six Devils were named to the Star Ledger All-County squad. Drury Piaggio and Rob Schmalz made the first team while Gregg Schmalz and Coleman placed on the second team. Shapiro earned a spot on the third team. Westfield also had several players receive statewide recognition. Drury, a sweeper who had nine goals for the Devils, was named to the All-State second team by the Star Ledger and was placed among the top 51 players in the state by the coaches. Drury was also named first team All-Group IV by both groups. Rob Schmalz, who handled the stopper position, was named third team All-Group by the Ledger and second team by the coaches.

Piaggio also received second team All-Group recognition from the coaches and Gregg Schmalz was named third team All-Group by the coaches. Coleman was given honorable mention for the group team, also by the coaches.

Sixers and Knicks Pace 8th Grade WBA Basketball

Last year they played together but this year the divided duo of Lou Rettino and Shawn Brennan put on offensive displays that were something to behold. In the opener, Louis scored thirty four points from all over the floor. In the second game Shawn could not be denied as he scored a league leading 39 points, often taking the ball the length of the floor in thunderous forays to the basket.
Individual game results were:

Sixers 63 - Celtics 39

The Sixers won their second game of the year by beating the Celtics. Lou Rettino led the way with 34 points. Jason Meyer played well while scoring 10.
Mike Marinelli played the center and forward and picked up 9 points. Robert Weinstein, Charlie Foley, Lance Partelow and Kevin Coulter played well for the winners. Juan Torrejon electrified the crowd with a spectacular behind the back pass to Rettino for an easy layup.

In a rough matchup, the Celtics fell short, but in this game erupted a new star, "Fast Eddie McTeigue" who scored six and appeared to control the game for the Celtics. Another great game was played by Tom the Destroyer

Brodo (14 points) along with Joltin Jeremy Burgess, Killer Ken Goski, Eric Eage Holton and Roland the Man Boyd, all of whom also scored. Other scorers and strong players included Dane the Dodger Weinstein, Benoit the Rover Chiqui, Easy Adam Pizzi and Willy Wess Smittle.

Knicks 61 - Nets 50
Brennan completely dominated for the Knicks but was given able support by Marcie Bartlett and Dwayne Glasgow who added 7 and 6 points. Deon Durham with 5 and Scott Parisi with 4 aided the Knick cause. Opposing coaches will have to spend the Christmas break coming up with defensive schemes to handle the explosive Knick scoring machine in future contests.
Everyone scored for the Nets who were shorthanded and not able to match up with the bigger Knicks. Noble efforts were nonetheless provided by Jon
Meyer, 13 points, and Mark Bartlett and Matt Shea with 9
each. The tandem of Jay Kosolowsky and Ryan Manville added 8 and 7 respectively. Also scoring were Robert Longo and John Pugliese.

WBA Grade 7 Results

Results of the 7th grade WBA for Dec. 21 are:

Hoosiers 32 Buckeyes 14

In the season opener the Hoosiers won a hard fought victory over a stubborn Buckeye squad by a score of 32 - 14. The Hoosiers were led by strong offensive performances from Brian Carovillano and Lee Topar who each scored 11 points and Christian Leshar who contributed 8 points and Ted Danser who added 2 points to the team effort.
Matt Bilodeau played an excellent backcourt game and Mark Swersie and Daniel Black contributed a solid defensive effort to enable the Hoosiers to hold a strong Buckeye team in check.

Erick Wildstein led the Buckeye scoring with 8 points while Jim Monninger did a good job contributing 4 points and many rebounds. Good games were played by Adam Strafaci and Jay Lorch both showing good defensive skills. Chris Teitelbaum showed good offensive moves and hustled on defense.

Badgers 28 Hawkeyes 21

Badgers opened the season with a hard fought win over the Hoosiers. Aggressive rebounding and general hustle were the keys to the victory. Lee Polizzano,

Rich Fela, Matt Laelblein and Scott Harris did a fine rebounding job offensively. Polizzano also led the Badgers with 12 points followed by Chris McCall
(4 points), Steve Clyne (4 points), Brian Shackman (5 points) and Rich Fela (3 points).

Drew Rountree led the Hawkeye offense with thirteen points while Mike Gandy stood out with hustling defense and 4 points. Scott Desch contributed 5 points and strong defense. Scott Desch, Ryan Donnelly and Justin Burchett each hounded the Badger offense and showed that the talent to win is there for the Hawkeyes.

Wolverines 30 Spartans 25

The Wolverines posted their second win as John Fox and Marc LaCarrubba hit for 11 points and 13 points respectively. But it was strong defense that won this game. Steven Stoneback held the Spartans big center check to six points with aggressive play. Kevin Cashman scored two points and
Brendan O'Brien and Danian Santomauro each tallied two important baskets. Matt Jacobs had several nice plays as the Wolverines played solid team basketball.

The Spartan offense was provided by Jeff Suto (11 points),
Martin Dau (6 points) and Brian Cheek (6 points) and Pat Rock with a nifty lay up for the final 2 points. Ball hawking defensive pressure was provided by Grant Cowell and Matt Radtke. This was a solid team effort against a very talented Wolverine team.

Hospice Program For Methodist Women

The United Methodist Women will hold their first meeting of the new year on Jan. 9 in the Fellowship Room of the First United Methodist Church, 1 East Broad St., with Gladys Bornmann presiding. The business meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m., followed by the program at 10.
Special music will be presented by Janet Somers, flute soloist.
The subject of the program will be the Hospice program at Muhlenberg Hospital in Plainfield, presented by Eleanor Bryant, R.N. After extensive nursing experience, Bryant felt the need to reach out beyond the hospital and has attended clinics in hospice care. She will share her experiences and provide information on the Hospice program.

Luncheon will be served at 11:45 a.m. by Circle 7, with Virginia Toenes as hostess.

A helpful staff is one of the reasons people like to come to JARVIS PHARMACY, 54 Elm St., 233-0662, 0663, 0664. We have a complete prescription department and over-the-counter medications. As a Western Union Agency we can handle money orders, mailgrams and regular telegrams. Hours: Mon thru Fri 9am-9pm, Sat 9am-6pm, Holidays 9am-1pm. The entire staff at JARVIS PHARMACY wishes you and your families a happy, healthy New Year.

THE COUGH REFLEX
The primary purpose of a cough is to clear the airway. It is a protective, physiological reflex that is part voluntary and part involuntary. It often occurs in healthy people as well as those who are sick. Infections, chemical irritants, retained body secretions and the presence of foreign bodies that block one's airway can cause coughing. They do so by stimulating the nerve endings in the respiratory tract. Drugs that reduce the amount and intensity of coughs are called cough suppressors or, technically, antitussives. A few are safe and very effective. However, because coughing is one of the ways that the body fights illness, it is not always wise to suppress it with drugs.
HANDY HINT: Consumers can safely treat a dry cough with non-prescription.

Trinity Junior Bluebraves 3-0

The Holy Trinity Junior (5th and 6th grade) Bluebraves closed out the year with a win over a "pesky" St. Theresa's team from Kenilworth. This was Trinity's third win for the 1985-86 season.

Coach Porich's goal was to win all games before the holiday break and start the new year with confidence and a schedule which starts with the tougher teams and peaks when they meet St. Mike's (Union) and St. Agnes (Clark), who are favorites to be #1.

On Friday Trinity players found themselves with three of the starting five in foul trouble in the first quarter. Greg Powell, Tony Salola and Joe Marinelli all had three fouls, however, the play of Mike Comandini, Tommy Orauez, Dan Kelly, Damien King and a surprise performance by Dennis Yabut made up for the loss.

Veterans Jeffrey Hughes and Billy Egan turned in outstanding performances to keep St. Theresa's from getting close. Billy Egan had a game/year high of 27 points. Jeffrey Hughes had a "coach's game" with his ball handling, passing, the St's. and rebounding. Hughes had eight assists in Egan's scoring.

With this win and balance attack showing bench depth, Holy Trinity Junior Bluebraves served notice to the league. "We'll be there when the year ends," commented ments assistant coach Ralph Besho.

The team is due back on Jan. 4, and coach Porich has set a goal for '86 of 11 wins and a defense that will not 25 points per game.

Other members of the team are Jeff Maynard, Matt Comandini, Tommy Tinnervin, David Brennan and Gus Goya, all of whom seen action in Holy Trinity's first three games.

Hospice Program
Seeks Volunteers

The Overlook Hospital Hospice Program is seeking volunteers to provide supportive services to families caring for terminally ill patients at home.

The Overlook Hospice provides medical aid and supportive services for these families. Volunteers are needed to serve the families by visiting, providing transportation, doing office work and shopping and by contacting the bereaved.

In preparation for this work, volunteers attend a training program. The course is conducted at 10 Tuesday mornings from 9:15 to 11:15 at Overlook Hospital. The next course will start on Feb. 4 and will continue for 10 weeks except for the week of Feb. 18.

Anyone interested in serving the people of Overlook's service area by becoming a Hospice volunteer, may call the Hospice Office weekdays between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. To register for the Feb. 4 training course, contact the office before Jan. 24.

Ski Trip Jan. 12

The Westfield Recreation Commission will sponsor a ski trip to Camelback Ski Area, Tannersville, Pa., on Sunday, Jan. 12, according to Mrs. Ruth V. Hill, director of recreation.

Buses will leave the Municipal Building Parking Lot at 6:30 a.m. and will return at approximately 6 p.m. For additional information call the Recreation Department.

Trinity Tops St. Theresa 43-31

By Joe Nazzaro

Experiencing greater challenge than in their last two outings, Holy Trinity Braves raised their record to 3-1 by defeating St. Theresa's, Kenilworth, 32-31.

Trinity had another 1st quarter in which its defense held the visitors to a minimum 4 points. With Rick Allorto hitting for 6 points, Andy Allorto for 5 and Joel Ucciardi scoring on a rebound, Trinity took a 13-4 first quarter lead.

In the 2nd quarter the pace quickened as Chris Hoey hit with a set shot. Brian Egan scored from underneath, and Joe Tinervin put in an offensive rebound. Andy Allorto cut thru St. Theresa's on a one man drive to score, and followed with 2 foul shots. As the quarter ended St. Theresa had moved offensively to cut the Trinity lead to twelve points.

Trinity's fast breaking passing attack opened up the lead again in the 3rd quarter. Marshall Barnes scored on a pass. Chris Hoey and Rick Allorto hit with set shots.

In the 4th quarter the Trinity lead was bombarded by the one man attack of St. Theresa's Apice. Moving on a hot spree Apice was unstoppable, scoring 12 fourth quarter points, inside, underhand, outside, with rebounds and set shots. Apice scored 23 of St. Theresa's 31 points. The final buzzer cut short the hot spree with Trinity still on top of a 43-31 win.

Holy Trinity plays St. Ann's, Garwood, on Friday, January 10th, at the home court. Point scoring was: Rick Allorto 10, Chris Hoey 11, Andy Allorto 8, Joel Ucciardi 6, Brian Egan 4, Joe Tinervin 2, Marshall Barnes 2.
Holy Trinity: 13 10 13 7: 43

Yudes to Discuss Divorce Law at Y

One of the nation's top specialists in matrimonial law will appear at the Westfield Y Thursday, Jan. 9 to discuss "Anything You Ever Wanted to Know About Divorce Law and Were Afraid to Ask."

Attorney James P. Yudes will focus his lecture on issues he finds of most interest to the audience. His 7:30 p.m. appearance is open to both men and women, according to Joan Unger, director of the Y's Women's Center.

A member of the American Bar Association's Family Law Committee, composed of the top 1% of divorce lawyers in the U.S., Yudes is also on the N.J. Supreme Court's Family Practice Committee. That body is in charge of monitoring family law in the state and making changes when necessary. Yudes is also chairman of Union County's Matrimonial Early Settlement Panel, which reviews every case before a divorce is granted.

"With a broad brush," Yudes says, he will discuss "the most meaningful issues caused by a marriage breaking up."

"Depending on where the couple falls in the marriage spectrum, issues change dramatically," the Mountinside attorney points out. "When younger children are involved, the priority is getting the youngsters through maturation, so child support, education and shelter are the main focus."

"There comes a point in time where divorce can be an estate planning device, with even some positive tax benefits."

A graduate of Villanova University and Law School, Yudes began his career as a tax lawyer in Philadelphia.

After clerking with Superior Court Chancellor Judge Joseph J. Takacs of the Matrimonial Division, Yudes decided to combine his background in economics and working with people, helping them make the best division of significant assets in a troubled period of their lives.

B'nai B'rith to Honor Herbert and Betty Seidel

The Westfield-Mountainside Scotch Plains Lodge of B'nai B'rith will honor Herbert and Betty Seidel on Sunday, Jan. 19 for their many years of outstanding service to the community.

The Seidels will be feted during a B'nai B'rith National Youth Services Appeal Brunch at the Westwood Restaurant in Garwood. This year the program will focus on the Hillel Foundation which constitutes the largest Jewish campus organization in the world, enriching the lives of over 400,000 Jewish students and faculty.

Herb Seidel is president of Reisen-Seidel Hardwood Company of Union. He attended Syracuse University and earned bachelor's and master's degrees from the school's College of Forestry. He is a director of both the Alumni Association and the Endowment Foundation.

Seidel, who is a charter member of the honoring lodge, has served in many key roles for the Jewish Community. He has been secretary of the Jewish Federation of Central New Jersey and a member of its executive board. At present he is a member of the board of directors. Earlier in his career he was a co-chairman of the local Israel Bond Drive and chairman of the Westfield-Mountainside United Jewish Appeal. His efforts in raising the spirit of involvement and commitment level of the small blossoming Jewish Community of the 60's and the 70's were of vital importance in the development of the active Jewish environment of today.

Seidel's enthusiasm, energy and accomplishments are well known in Mountainside. He is a former chairman of the Mountainside Overlook Hospital fund drive, and was also president and director of the Community Fund Drive. He has served in similar capacities for the Mountainside Shade Tree Commission. He has an interest in music and has served on the executive board of the Mountainside Music Association. He has performed in musicals for the group for more than 25 years.

Betty Seidel has been active in Jewish Communal Life since her teens when she led Young Judea Clubs. She also served on the New Jersey Hadassah Zionist Youth Commission for many years. Her interest and involvement in Hadassah is well documented including a term as president of the Westfield Chapter. She has held a number of senior leadership positions in the Jewish Federation of Central New Jersey and currently serves on the executive board as chairperson of the College Youth and Faculty Committee which oversees the Jewish Student Union at Kean College and allocates funds for Rutgers Hillel. She is also serving on the Regional Cabinet of National United Jewish Appeal's Women's Division. She is a former president and campaign chairperson of Central Jersey Federation Women's Division Mrs. Seidel has been active on the school board of Temple Emanuel and is currently working with the Temple outreach committee.

Betty and Herbert have been residents of Mountainside and members of Temple Emanuel of Westfield for many years. They have two children.

Jonathan received a master's degree from the Jewish Theological Seminary and is a doctoral candidate on Judaic studies at the University of California at Berkeley. Judith is a graduate of Yale University. She is currently studying for a master's degree at the Center for Children and Technology, Bank Street College of Education.

Further information on the brunch, or the B'nai B'rith Youth Services Program, is available from Gary Schader, 645 Raymond St.

Y's Santa Claus — The Jolly old gentleman (thanks to rector Roger Love) made an appearance at the Westfield Y Kiddie Korner where he was greeted by Y Executive Director Stan Kaslucky and son, Gordon, Kiddie Korner Director Beth Comandini and small preschooler. The tree grew prettier each day as pre-schoolers, afterschoolers and members of the Japanese Women's Club added decorations of beads, lace and origami.

Winner in Rorden Realty "Know Westfield" Contest

Daniel DeWeaver of Westfield became the first winner in Rorden Realty, Inc.'s "Do You Know Westfield" Contest.

DeWeaver correctly identified the picture of the top of the Westfield Fire Department Building on North Ave., which ran in the Dec. 5 number of The Westfield Leader. Rorden Realty encourages Westfielders to guess the locations of the pictures which appear weekly in The Westfield Leader.

The first five who come into Rorden Realty, Inc., 44 Elm St. and correctly identify that week's picture will, like Daniel DeWeaver, win a "Do You Know Westfield" shirt.

Daniel DeWeaver wins Rorden Realty's first week of "Do You Know Westfield?" contest.
