House Committee Approves Rinaldo Cable TV Bill

The House Committee on Energy and Commerce Thursday approved legislation jointly introduced by Reps. Matthew Rinaldo (R-N.J.) and Edward Markey (D-Mass.) to re-regulate the cable television industry and to require cable TV to heed customer complaints about rising rates and poor service.

Committee members reached agreement on legislation drafted by Congressmen Rinaldo and Markey to prohibit large rate hikes, to require cable operators to carry certain TV stations, to stimulate competition in the industry, and to improve customer service.

The bill, which drew objections from the cable industry, responds to widespread customer dissatisfaction with the high rates and poor service of monopoly cable franchises in communities across the country, Rep. Rinaldo explained. "This is good consumer legislation," he said. "And it stands a good chance of enactment into law this year."

The legislation builds on the work of the Telecommunications and Finance Subcommittee over the last year. Rep. Markey is subcommittee chairman and Rep. Rinaldo is its ranking Republican member.

Prompted by consumer complaints, the subcommittee earlier this year conducted an extensive review of the cable industry that included an in-depth inquiry by the General Accounting Office into cable rates and oversight hearings into cable issues such as competition, customer service and programming. "Sensible cable legislation is something that few people thought would come out of Congress this year," Mr. Rinaldo said during the committee deliberations. "But I believe we're going to beat the odds today. . . . The Bill before the committee will correct the problems that exist and have been the target of consumer complaints with solutions that will provide immediate benefits to consumers and competitors."

The provisions of the legislation before the committee include:

- Regulation of basic minimum service rates.
- A new "must carry" requirement that cable operators carry specified public TV stations.

- Allowing the Federal Communications Commission to develop customer service guidelines that can be enforced by local franchise authorities.
- Allowing the FCC to set maximum rates for leased access channels.

A major national consumer group that has been pressing Congress for action on cable television industry problems issued a statement after the committee session praising the cable bill and the Congressmen Rinaldo-Markey collaboration.

In his statement, Gene Kimmelman, legislative director of the Consumer Federation of America, said the proposal "would protect consumers against unreasonable cable rates

Enrollment Still Open For Westfield Y Camps

By enrolling in Westfield Y's summer camps, youngsters can end the summer with a bang and return to school with stories of a great vacation.

"Only a limited number of openings are available in our camps," said Linda Crane, Y director of school age child care. Therefore, she added, "enrollment will be accepted on a first-come, first-serve basis only. Children must be registered at least one week before the camp begins."

According to Crane, all of the following camps are available:

Junior Soccer Camp - ages 5 through 7. Sessions will be instructed by the Hills Soccer Camp, Inc., from Aug. 6 to 10, 8:45 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Computer Camp - grades 2 through 6 (completed). One-week sessions: Session 3: Aug. 6-10 and Session 4: Aug. 20-24. Each child will work with either Commodore 64 or Apple IIc computers.

Caravan Camp - grades 2 through 7 (completed). This one-week session from Aug. 13-17 features trips to area theme parks and other attractions.

Summer Fun Club - ages 6-11 (completed K-5th grade). This camp offers arts and crafts, games, sports, recreational swim, special events and trips during its final three one-week sessions. Camp sessions run from Aug. 6 to Aug. 24.

"In response to the needs of working parents in the community, optional Before-camp and After-camp care is available," Crane added.

For information, individuals may contact the Westfield Y, 220 Clark St., at 233-2700.

Recycling Information

Residents are reminded that there will be curbside pick-up of recyclables (aluminum cans, glass bottles and jars and newspapers) on the following days during the month of August:

North of railroad tracks: Thursdays, Aug. 9 and 23; south of railroad tracks: Fridays, Aug. 10 and 24.

Missed pick-ups can be reported by calling 753-7276.

For those who miss the twice a month pick-ups, can take their glass bottles and jars, as well as cardboard to the Lamberts Mill Road Conservation Center, Saturdays and Sundays 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Council To Vote on Health Service Funds

A resolution authorizing the reinstatement of visiting nurse services to Westfield's private schools for the balance of 1990, is on the Town Council's agenda for next Tuesday's (Aug. 7) public meeting. Council will convene at 8:30 p.m. in the council chambers, 425 East Broad St.

Principals of Holy Trinity Elementary School and the Redeemer Lutheran Day School, as well as a representative of the Westfield Day Care program, accompanied by concerned parents voiced their dismay at the Board of Health's decision to cut the program for students at private schools. This group has assembled several times before the council to ask to have the program reinstated.

Recent budgetary cuts by Gov. James Florio resulted in the Westfield Board of Health's decision to eliminate the health services from the private schools. The original amount budgeted for the entire year for these services was $19,971.50. Services were cut at the end of June because of the loss in state aid.

Among the services provided by the program in the two schools and the day care center are screenings for hypertension, scoliosis, the monitoring of immunizations, vision, hearing, heights and weights.

West Brook Contamination Is Under Investigation

West Brook, a stream that flows underground on the north side of Westfield and above ground through parts of Westfield's south side, has recently been under investigation by environmental authorities on both county and state levels.

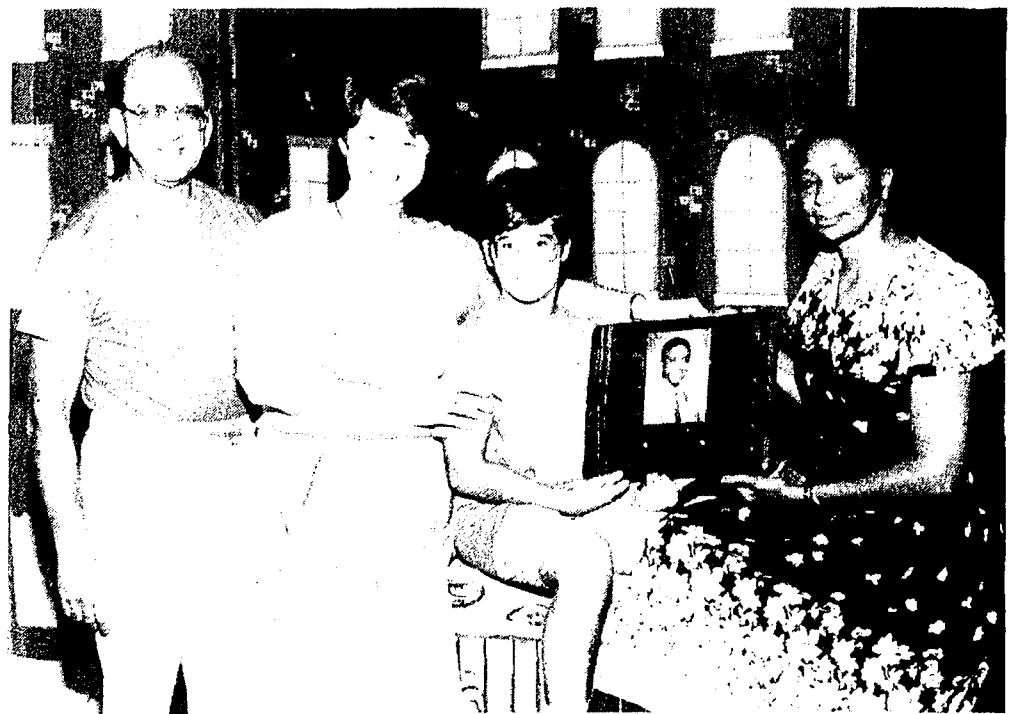

The stream, which empties into a reservoir in Clark Township, has had a long history of contamination by fecal matter and fuel oil. Incidents of pollution have, in the past, been reported to the fire department or to the health department.

result of Dr. Gajewski's discovery, residents contacted the Division of emergency Management, members of which arrived shortly after the incident was reported.

Two barricades were set up on the brook to collect oil residue for analysis. West Brook has had a number of similar incidences of pollution, and Dr. Gajewski feels strongly that "this brook is an environmental problem."

Planning Board To Meet Aug. 6

The Wednesday Planning Board will meet Monday, Aug. 6, at 8 p.m. in the Council Chambers of the Westfield Municipal Building, 425 East Broad St. This hearing is open to the public.

Fitness Week Comes to the Summer Playgrounds

Summer days at the Westfield Playgrounds are always fun and memorable. On Thursday, July 19, some of the playgrounders participated in the All-Star Softball Game at Gumpert Field; even Glenn Burrell, assistant director of the Westfield Recreation Commission, got involved in the game. Following the game, the children went back to their area schools and celebrated Everybody's Birthday. The parties included pizza, soda, cake and games.

On Monday, July 23 the children entered their annual Olympics. Everyone had an opportunity to participate in swimming events at the Memorial Pool and field events at Memorial Park. They were divided into two age groups, 6-9 and 10-12, and competed against each other in various events. Some of the events were: an Obstacle Course, High Jump, Ball Push Race and a Treasure Hunt. As a grand finale, trophies were given to the highest scorers.

The fun continued on the playgrounds with picnics, Christmas in July, tie-dyeing T-shirts, kickball and dodgeball. Before closing time on August 9th, there are still more upcoming activities, such as the ever popular All-Playground Picnic at Tamaques Park on Aug. 8.

Exceptional Center
The E.C. had an exciting and fun-filled week. The winners of the Clown Coloring Contest were as follows: Lisa Dattner with the Neatest; Bernadette Simone and Phillip Yoon with the Funniest; Stefan Mogielinski for the Most Lifelike; Joseph DiDario and J.R. Smilianic for the Most Colorful; Joseph Monaco for the Most Original and Frank Nora for the Meanest. Lunch this week consisted of miniature individual pizzas made from English muffins, sauce, and cheese served with soda and cookies for dessert.

Tuesday, the E.C. campers combined with Tamaques playground to celebrate Bear Day in the gym. Two ribbons were awarded to the E.D. one for the Smallest by Joseph DiDario's Bear, and the Fattest was awarded to George Pappadopoulos's Bear. The highest scores for the Bowling Tournament were: Bernadette Simone, Tamar Bowles, and Phillip Yoon.

Wednesday's elaborate sunshine allowed the E.C. to extend their stay an extra half hour, plus allowed the Fair to be held in the evening. The turnout of children, parents, and friends was extraordinary. There were a large variety of games and booths to allow everyone of all ages to exhibit their best talents.

Thursday the campers took a bus ride to Lord Sterling Stables in Berkeley Heights to experience a hay ride.

Friday was filled with activities relating to winter in July. All the campers wore something red, white or green and watched two winter classics: "Rudolph the Red Nose Reindeer" and "Santa Claus is Coming to Town." The least began with chicken nuggets, french fries and soda. The dessert consisted of cupcakes, a homemade cake and ice cream.

Monday morning the playgrounders participated in the Junior Olympics at Memorial Pool. All the E.C. campers participated in all of the events. George Pappadopoulos jumped seven feet in the standing broad jump.

Tuesday the E.C. took a bus ride to the Birchwood Nursing Home to meet and help the residents. Both shared a morning performance of Rock On from the Westfield Summer Workshop Traveling Players. The troupe sang and danced to music from the 50s, 60s, 70s and 80s.

Thursday morning the campers participated in a Basketball Shooting Contest. First place went to Matthew Hesner, second place was Bernadette Simone, Phillip Yoon and George Pappadopoulos; third went to Tamar Bowles. The E.C. took a trip to the Trailside Museum in Watchung. The campers were given a hands on presentation and background on snakes. Each camper was allowed to touch and hold a snake egg, skin, and pet a live snake.

Franklin had a nice turn out for the fair. The money raised was used for Everyone's Birthday on Thursday. Many children showed up for the fun-filled day including Jamie and Krissy Mack, Tonya, Keith, and Miriam Habeeb, Lee Musler, Abby Stoller, Lauren and Aubrey McGovern, Lauren and Joe Schaffer. The day was filled with races, SPUD, pin the tail on the donkey and a kickball game. The children enjoyed pizza, soda, candy and prizes.

Friday afternoon, Franklin playground entered a walk to town to get ice cream. Children such as Kelly and Jaime Lane, Richard Unlacke, Keith and Miriam Habeeb, Megan Sheehy, and Tom Albee participated.

Monday morning, all the playgrounds joined together at the Memorial Pool for the all playground Olympics. Sara Guerin, Lisa Meier, Krissy and Jaime Mack, Joe Gallagher, Megan Sheehy, Nicole Cunningham, Bobby Shultz were among those who enjoyed the day full of pool and field events.

Tuesday and Wednesday the playgrounders enjoyed themselves with arts and crafts. They played many field games: such as, soccer, kickball, and dodgeball. Wednesday afternoon, Franklin had their own little Olympics. The counselors set up an obstacle course for the children. Participants included Keith and Miriam Habeeb, Jamie and Krissy Mack, Lisa Meier, Joey and Mark Fundora, and Rich Hatfield. They raced for speed throughout the course. The rest of the day was filled with other games. The rest of the week Franklin will be having fun with a Lollipop Hunt and a Beach Party on Friday.

Jefferson
Jefferson Playground recently enjoyed the many festivities of Everybody's Birthday. Along with cupcakes, icepops, and a candy hunt, playgrounders participated in many games. A huge game of Musical Chairs was won by Nicole Murray, Brian Garrison came in second place, and Daniel Sawicki third. In a game of Hot Potato, John Bruett took first place, Christina Perez second, and Mike Nahaczewski third. A classic birthday game of Pin-the-tail-on-the-Donkey put Nicole Murray in first place again, Kristin Morgan in second, and Janna Kamel in third.

Friday morning was the annual Bubble Gum Blowing Contest at Jefferson. Dexter Adams, Mike Galata, Claudia Arango, Mike Ciaciarelli and Daniel Sawicki all blew giant bubbles. For smallest bubble, Diana Silva came in first place, David Yunker second, and Mike Galata and Dexter Adams tied for third. The four people that were able to blow double bubbles (a bubble inside another bubble!) included Mike Galata, David Yunker, Mike Ciaciarelli, and Dexter Adams. Claudia Arango cracked her gum the loudest with Jamie Katcher and Danny Tamaro following behind.

The week of July 23 began with the Olympics at Memorial Pool. Everyone had a wonderful time competing with other schools in various events. The Water Walk race, run by Christine Ugenli and Lisa Griffin, seemed to be the most popular event. Tuesday was filled with Soccer Competitions and Sign-ups for the exciting, upcoming Pizza Day and Tie-Dyeing Day. Wednesday, July 25, playgrounders celebrated Christmas in July. Many children exchanged gifts and all had refreshments. Jefferson looks forward to the end of the softball tournament and the special day to be announced next week.

McKinley
McKinley Playground rolled into its fifth week of the summer's program with more special events for the playgrounders. These included Everybody's Birthday, a car wash, the Olympics, and Penny Toss and Penny Hunt contests. The playgrounders showed no letdown in enthusiasm after all the work and effort they put into the Fair. All the activities, bunched together to make up for rained out days, added up to a somewhat hectic, but enjoyable week.

Everybody's Birthday Party was held the day after the Fair. A turnout of nearly 40 playgrounders were treated to pizza for lunch, followed by ice cream cake, along with homemade cupcakes and brownies. With watermelon, toasted marshmallows, soda, and juice to go with the main items, there was more than enough food and drinks for the playgrounders to enjoy. The party was not only to celebrate Everybody's Birthday, but a day to relax and enjoy after the hard work put into the just completed Fair.

The car wash took place on Friday afternoon, which was preceded by a ride with Mr. Hawkins in the morning.

Instead of the usual Monday morning swim, the annual Olympics were held Monday morning. Children from all the playgrounds participated in various field and swim events. McKinley turned in a fine effort overall, as we finished in second place in both the 6-9 and 10-12 age groups. All had a good time as everyone received ice pops at the end for their participation.

On Tuesday, there was a mix of crafts and softball. The playgrounders attempted to make figures of people out of different types of beads and wire. Meanwhile, the softball team won for the fourth time in five games and will start the playoff round later in the week. On Wednesday, the penny toss was won by the team of Damien Smith and John Brunetto, and the penny hunt was won by Shakir Nelson, with Jason Sanders second and Jovan Clowers third.

With only two weeks remaining in the program, the summer is nearing its end.
Neighborhood Council
Along with the fifth week of the Neighborhood Council Playground came several special activities that have been anticipated for quite some time. Thursday was a relaxing day with its highlights being Nok-Hockey, chess and an afternoon movie.

Friday eight playgrounders went roller-skating. While Mr. Brown professionally taught Tracy Goskin to skate backwards, the playgrounders watched in awe. The rollerskating trip was by all means a success as it became the main topic of conversation for the next few days.

By Monday the playgrounders, over their sore rollerskating limbs, were ready to represent the Westfield Neighborhood Council in the annual Playground Olympics. The kids had a great time at the Olympics and participated in many of the events. With the help of Abe Harrison, the Neighborhood Council Tug of War team showed the essence of true competition to all the other playgrounds.

Tuesday the playgrounders worked up a big appetite for a gourmet spaghetti and meatball lunch by playing jump rope in the burning sun. Tuesday afternoon, the playgrounders watched a movie.

Wednesday started off with a trip down to the store. Mr. Hawkins taught the playgrounders to make paper ice cream sundaes. In the afternoon, the playgrounders continued to play Nok-Hockey, play on the jungle gym, and watch "License to Drive."

Tamaques
At Tamaques Playground the children started off the week by winning the annual Playground Olympics, held at Memorial Pool. Besides the fact that Tamaques won the 10-12 year old Tug of War, and the most points in the 10-12 competition, the children from the playground also won the overall competition. This week Tamaques held a Lollipop Hunt with the Exceptional Center. Each child received at least three lollipops, however, there were three winners in the contest who received awards for finding the most. The winners were: Cathy Kuza in first place, who found eleven lollipops; Jenny Wilson in second place, who found ten lollipops; Michael Attansio in third place, who had nine lollipops. A Disney made movie, the Little Mermaid, was loved by all the children when they watched it on Wednesday afternoon. The children at the playground also have a lot to look forward to. Events such as the Watermelon Contest, softball tournament in the games, Talent Show, and the All-Playground Picnic.

Washington
Washington Playgrounders and counselors had a busy and fun-filled week. After a successful Fair on Wednesday night, Everybody's Birthday was celebrated on Thursday. Proceeds from the fair were used to treat the children to a Pizza Party, which included cupcakes and goody bags for everyone. Ryan O'Donnell and Suzanne Heinkle blew out the birthday candles for everyone since their birthdays were closest to the party date. The party ended with a rousing game of "Capture the Flag."

Friday morning found the children anxiously awaiting the upcoming water-ballooning fight. A good time was had by all and no one escaped because everyone got involved. In the afternoon, counselors Dan Haag and Jenn Mann returned with a brand new slip-n-slide, which everyone thoroughly enjoyed. Highlighting the afternoon was a Cherry Pie Eating Contest. The playgrounders had to eat the pie without using their hands. Winners were: David Angelo, Tracy Broughton and Robbie Jessup for being the fastest eater; Duffy

Lau was the slowest eater savoring every cherry; Peter Lau and Danny Mullaney were the messiest eaters.

Memorial Pool was the setting Monday for the Olympics. Washington won the relay race with Duffy Alexander and Peter Lau, Danny Seely and Kevin Mullaney making up the winning team. Washington also took back a second trophy for winning in the 6 to 9 year old overall division.

When the softball game against Franklin was unable to be played, Washington Players returned and played their own game. Hopscotch was started on Tuesday morning and continued all day Wednesday. Two separate games had to be played, one by the rules of counselor Sue Broughton as they played in the "golden days."

Also on Wednesday, the children tie-dyed T-shirts and played kickball. The playgrounders are looking forward to the days ahead, which will bring a visit from the Westfield Rescue Squad and a picnic.
Wilson
Wilson Playground as it enters its fifth week, still has plenty of fun events for everyone. Since Wilson had a great turn out for the Fair last Wednesday the playgrounders were able to have a great celebration for Everybody's Birthday on Thursday. They ate lots of candy, pizza and cake, played many games and won lots of prizes. On Friday, they ended the busy week by relaxing in the sun, cooling off on the slip-n-slide and discussing the Olympics.

began. Everyone was given the opportunity to display their athletic ability throughout several swimming and field events. Wilson School had about 15 children participate in the Olympics, all for whom showed school spirit and effort. At the end of the morning, the playgrounders walked away with a first place trophy for the six to nine year old Tug of War. Then all left to cool off for the afternoon and get ready for our softball game the next day. On Tuesday, Wilson had a home softball game against McKinley.

Lastly, Wilson had its Christmas in July on Wednesday. Everyone sang Christmas songs, made ornaments and candy canes, and ate cookies and mints. They also had a grab bag and everyone went home with a gift. Now we are anxiously waiting for the last events of the week to occur, which are a picnic in the park and a water balloon toss.

The Open House from 10 a.m. to noon on Saturday, August 25 will provide an overview on the college experience, including presentations by staff on registration and obtaining advanced credit. The Open House will be conducted in the Tomasulo Art Gallery on the Cranford Campus.

Part of the program will include information on the College Level Examination Program (CLEP), an arrangement whereby students may earn up to 30 college credits through successful completion of a test that taps previously learned knowledge in a particular subject. CLEP tests are administered in a variety of subject areas, both general and specific. For example, a student may take an English examination that deals with reading comprehension, writing, and other skills, or a more specific test on literature alone.

Mr. Rinaldo said he believed that the bill that emerged from the Energy and Commerce Committee "contains the most that is substantively and politically possible to pass and get signed into law this year. It is a pragmatic, practical, do-able approach."

"It will solve the short-term problems with the cable industry in a manner that has the greatest long-term benefits for consumers and competition."

TAX CONSEQUENCES OF SCHOLARSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIPS

If you—or your child—is the recipient of a scholarship and fellowship, you may be surprised to know that the tax law may come nipping at your purse strings next April. Depending on a number of different factors, you may find yourselves unexpectedly owing substantial funds to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

According to the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants (CPAs), you should determine now whether or not you will have to report this year's payments as taxable income. Your first task is figuring out whether or not your grant actually qualifies as a scholarship or fellowship. Sounds easy, doesn't it? Well, take a look at the definition in the IRS publication on scholarships and fellowships and think again. To summarize, a scholarship is basically any amount given to a student for the purpose of obtaining an education at a university or college, where a fellowship generally aids a person pursuing a specific study or research project.

Under tax law, however, not all scholarship and fellowship payments receive equal tax treatment. Depending on the date you received the grant, and on the type of services, if any you perform for the grantor, you may have to include part or all of the money in your taxable income.

FUNDS GRANTED BEFORE AUGUST 17, 1986
If your scholarship and fellowship was awarded before August 17, 1986, count yourself lucky. The tax treatment remains basically the same as in the past—including many provisions that may reduce your tax liability.

If you are a candidate for a degree, you may exclude from your taxable income the basic scholarship or fellowship grant, including the value of room and board. In addition, you may exclude any grant funds specifically designated for travel, research, clerical help, and equipment. But be warned you must actually spend these amounts for the purpose of the grant and within (or shortly after) the term of the grant, or else the funds may become taxable.

On the other hand, you generally must report as income any grant payments that you receive in exchange for past, present, or future employment services, or for research that mainly benefits the grantor of the award. (An exception is made in certain cases where the services are required of all candidates for the degree.)

As far as the IRS is concerned, payments to medical interns or residents, certain social service agency interns, and others in similar positions, are income and do not qualify as either scholarships or fellowships. The "payment for services" rule also applies to grants that require a student to work for outside employers. An example of this situation would be a university grant that requires a journalism student to work as a regular staff employee of a local newspaper.

WHAT IF YOU ARE NOT A CANDIDATE FOR A DEGREE?
If you are not a candidate for a degree, you may still be eligible for certain tax benefits if your grant was made before August 17, 1986. Under these circumstances, you may exclude from your taxable income any amount received for such expenses as travel, research, clerical help, or equipment.

In addition, you can exclude up to $300 a month for each month in which you receive scholarship or fellowship payments. You may claim the $300-a-month exclusion for a period of 36 months, consecutive or not. But once you exceed the 36-month limit, you must include in your gross income all amounts you receive under the grant, including funds designated for qualified expenses.

To complicate matters somewhat, the $300-a-month exclusion only applies if the grantor of the You're Retired When...

Last week, in our short series on travel tips, we talked about money and culture. Now we'll go on to examine more of the practical knowledge you'll need for your trip abroad.

3: Shoes! Comfortable shoes! I once heard a woman on a plane telling her companion "I always bring along the shoes I wear to the supermarket. And then another pair for backup." The phenomenon of "museum feet" is well known. You also cannot be at your best when you are walking over picturesque cobblestones in high heels.

4: Everyone has a fear of flying; some more than others. I totally identified with a woman across the aisle who put down her magazine and took out her rosary beads as the plane began to taxi out to the runway. She kept saying her prayers until the plane was in the air for five minutes. She then repeated the whole process as the "Fasten Your Seat Belts" sign came on for landing. The man sitting next to me had been watching her too. "Smart woman that," he commented. "I know exactly how she feels and I've been flying for years."

5: I once thought I was the only person who ever went to Paris and had to spend the day looking for a dentist who could glue in a crown which had come off during the night. I have since found out I have lots of company. Get a list of English speaking doctors and dentists here before you go. Incidentally, the dentist I was referred to by the American Hospital in Paris had a waiting room such as you will never see outside Fontainebleau. It had twenty-four-foot ceilings. Walls and ceiling were painted in the eighteenth century with cherubs, nymphs and gardens. Gold leaf was everywhere and sixteen-foot French windows looked out onto the same gardens that were pictured on the walls. It was magnificent. When I complimented the dentist, whose work room was low ceilinged and a paragon of efficiency, I immediately was overwhelmed with an impassioned diatribe: Did I realize the overhead that immense room represented? Could I calculate what it cost to heat? The upkeep cost so much it was driving him out of his mind. And all the repairs had to be done at his expense! All because the building was an historical monument. Evidently one man's art is another man's overhead.

Next week we will discover other aspects of a trip to Europe which you should know about. No four color brochures, mind you, just the simple facts.

APPLAUDS CONGRESS

Editor: Leader:
I would like to personally applaud Congress for their recent action by passing the Americans With Disabilities Act.

In my 26 years of life in a wheelchair, I have been confronted with many obstacles, and the Americans With Disabilities Act will lift many of these barriers.

As a result of this Act, persons with disabilities will have greater access to their community in such areas as public transportation, shopping and restaurants. This, in turn, will provide opportunities for thousands of people who were previously denied access.

Widened doorways, curb cuts and wheelchair accessible transportation are physical examples of The Americans With Disabilities Act. A far greater impact of this Act will be evident in the employment rights for the handicapped. Although this is an area in which many minorities have been protected for years, Congress has now insured that there will not be discrimination in employment for the handicapped.

Handicapped citizens are also taxpayers, and are entitled to the same rights and privileges as non-handicapped citizens. The Americans With Disabilities Act eliminates the second-class citizen status with which many handicapped people have been forced to live.

As for the future, handicapped children will be able to grow up knowing that they will have the same opportunities afforded to society. Our children are the future of this country, and the Americans With Disabilities Act paves the way for all children regardless of their ability to walk or use a wheelchair.

Congress made a bold move in the right direction. Now, it is up to elected leaders, merchants, personnel managers and, mostly, all of us to make sure that the Act is in effect. Let's work together on fulfilling the wishes of Congress and the needs of thousands of handicapped citizens in this country by doing what we can in supporting and assisting the Americans With Disabilities Act.

REPRESENTATION NEEDED

Editor: Leader:
The Westfield Board of Adjustment is considering a request to place a large electrical power substation on Rahway Avenue. Our understanding is that this will be similar to the one in Fanwood between South and La Grande avenues. The substation would have towers extending as high as 65 feet. Furthermore, PSE&G's representatives have stated the potential to expand to twice the size of the Fanwood substation, or 140 megawatts. Our current substation capacity is 25 megawatts, Fanwood's is 70. This represents a real potential for health hazards and adverse effects on property values in a considerable area. The current 13,000-volt lines, moreover, would carry a significantly higher voltage, passing directly through our town and affecting citizens throughout. Leaking transformer oils, that may be carcinogenic, could also contaminate the land surrounding the site of the substation, the runoff even contaminating the reservoir in Clark.

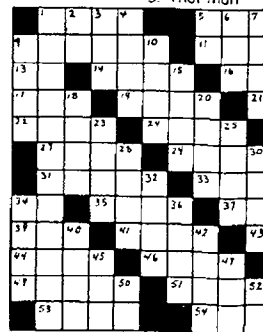

As recently as last year we endured a dangerous proposal to place a propane tank at Cosmair. A long, hard and stressful battle was required. This should not have been necessary since we have elected officials who are supposed to represent us in matters such as this. Nor was this an isolated instance. We have seen a trend in fact, in recent years, wherein groups of taxpaying citizens feel it necessary to devote extensive time and energy to protect themselves. And in some cases, money is expended to hire an attorney. We have in mind: the Prospect Street Association, Dunham Avenue Group (AT ODDS), United Homeowners of Westfield, Northside Coalition, and the Summit Avenue Parking Association.

Should the citizens have to Report from Washington

By Congressman

Matt Rinaldo
7th District, New Jersey

The problems faced by traditional housing lenders, combined with uncertainty over the tax laws, has deeply affected New Jersey's housing industry. Jobs have been lost across the state and more jobs and businesses are in jeopardy.

Part of the problem is the uncertainty over the federal programs that provide tax exemptions for mortgage revenue bonds and tax credits for low-income housing. These programs are scheduled to expire this year, and they must be renewed.

Mortgage revenue bonds assist moderate income families to purchase homes. Many first-time home buyers will be unable to afford their first homes without mortgage assistance through the New Jersey Mortgage Finance Agency. These low interest mortgages have already helped more than 46,000 home buyers in New Jersey.

The popularity of the federally and state assisted housing mortgage plans for home buyers was dramatically illustrated last year when the New Jersey Mortgage Finance Agency was deluged with requests for no-down payment, no-closing costs mortgage applications. To qualify for the special mortgages, applicants could earn no more than 80 percent of the median income in the region where they were purchasing a home.

The Low-Income Housing Tax Credit Program also expires this year, and it must be renewed. It enables various state aid programs and local community development projects to use federal tax credits to spur rental housing construction. The credits apply only to the lower income rental units that must remain rent controlled for 15 years in order to qualify. This year the program has generated $9.5 million in loans for the construction and rehabilitation of 1,889 New Jersey apartments for lower income families. It is the quickest and least expensive method of encouraging the construction and rehabilitation of low income housing.

If and when housing prices and interest rates decline, thousands of young families are expected to flood into the housing market, looking for homes they can afford. These programs will ensure that there will be housing available for them.

In addition to the new construction that will be necessary to meet the demand for affordable housing, New Jersey also must replace many existing low-income housing units.

The construction resulting from these federally funded programs would not only help provide housing but would contribute to the businesses of builders, realtors, supply companies, and even restaurants and retail stores. However, unless these two housing programs are extended, these new units will not be built or sold.

I am working with a coalition of New Jersey state agencies, realtors, bankers and builders to save these two last available federal housing programs before they expire this year.

Unless Congress passes separate legislation or incorporates the extension of the mortgage revenue bond program and tax credits into the budget, New Jersey's housing industry will be devastated. And we will be unable to meet the demand for housing during the next decade. I intend to do everything possible to see that these important programs are continued and that New Jerseyans get the help they need with affordable housing.

AQUARIUS - January 21 - February 19

Good week for making your point loud and clear—but not for harping on an issue. A nagging friend or relative may at last get the hints you've been providing. Musical events are spotlighted.

A super period for catching up on assorted tasks—avoid procrastination and distractions as much as possible. Travel prospects are highlighted. Keep your journal and camera handy.

ARIES - March 21 - April 20

Artistic streak surfaces and you may choose to experiment in a new medium. Gardening and nature-related activities are also in the picture. Personal relationships benefit from a lighter touch.

TAURUS - April 21 - May 21

You may build the courage to take a chance on a relationship. Sense of duty is as strong as ever, but obligations may be lightened. Excellent week for completing various chores.

GEMINI - May 23 - June 21

Several recent questions are solved, generally to your satisfaction. Check calendar carefully—you tend to overbook. Cultural events are highlighted; you may be visiting galleries and museums.

CANCER - June 22 - July 22

It seems that everyone is offering advice, and in fact you may prove your own best counsel. A natural look is favored at this time, if decorating or planning a wardrobe, consider earth colors.

LIBRA - September 23 - October 22

Expect some intriguing invitations—which should be neither declined nor accepted without some thought. Week has a poetic, romantic flavor. Friends may have trouble articulating true feelings.

HUNG UP

By Milton Faith, Executive Director Youth and Family Counseling Service, 233 Prospect St

A relieved man writes:
I just won my bout with cancer (Hodgkin's Disease). Strange what this has done to me. I hope you can publish this letter so others can take advantage as they live their daily lives. I am 59, work in New York City at a pressured job; I go to work early on the train, come home late, have rarely spent time going to school functions and other things that are part of family life. Although loving towards my wife, I "didn't have time" to listen to her, to be there when she or the kids needed me. She always told me I was missing out on a lot. I told her I was providing a good living, so that she and the children could have everything they wanted. She said they all wanted more of me. I said "foolish". Last year I was diagnosed as having cancer. It was "caught in time" and with proper medical care, the doctor feels I should live a long time. My family was with me all the time, showing love and care that I never knew, nor recognized, could exist. I vow now to do all I can to enjoy life more and to spend more time communicating and enjoying life with my family and friends. People, take heed and don't wait for a life-threatening trauma to occur.

Answer:
Why, indeed, do we need to be shocked about the cycle of life to realize that we should enjoy today, with those we love, because today cannot be repeated and we do not know about tomorrow. Some of us learn only through the experience of a trauma, like an illness or loss. I hope others, however, will take a moment, after reading your letter, to evaluate how they could change their attitudes and expectations and reach out for TODAY. Good luck — and I am glad you became aware of your life style before it was too late. Stay healthy and write me in a few years (if I'm still around) to tell me how you are doing.

blues, the birth of the — If you were to research the roots of the blues, you could head south. A popular song, in fact, emphatically states that the "...southland gave birth to the blues." We, however, saved our time and money by going straight to our etymological sources for the origin of the word blues. Webster, who defines blues as "a depressed unhappy feeling," indicates that blues is a shortened version of the blue devils which first appeared in print in 1780.

The most accepted theory regarding the association of the word blues with black people is as follows: during the season of the year when tobacco was being cured (smoke dried), and when wood fires were burning, the antebellum southern plantations were enveloped in a blue tinted smokey haze. This unhealthy environment undoubtedly had an adverse physiological effect on the slaves and was expressed by a general feeling of depression.

Jelly Roll Morton was the first musician to have his blues songs published (1905). Morton named them the Jelly Roll Blues. And there you have, etymologically speaking, the birth of the blues. ©Leather Impressions, Inc. 1990 resort to such methods to get the representation they thought they would receive when they voted an official into office? Of course not! Let's hope that the proposed power substation does not require the stress and expense that is becoming all too common.

We wonder if the town government would be willing to repay the funds that many people across the town have had to expend, since they typically seek to claim credit for solving these situations after the fact. Proper representation will avoid such dilemmas and would be much appreciated by the residents.

WRONG PITCH

Editor; Leader

This is in response to the brouhaha created by the rendition of the "Star Spangled Banner" by Roseanne Barr. She began to sing on a "G" which put her in the key of C — an impossible key to sing in — she had to screech in order to reach those high notes. Someone should have given her a pitch three or four tones lower.

Her voice is not the most mellifluous in the world, but it wouldn't have taken on that desperate shrill character if the key had not be so far out of her range.

Vulgar she undoubtedly is, but I've read some of her poetry and found it very moving.

scholarship or fellowship is a tax-exempt, nonprofit organization operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, testing for public safety, prevention of cruelty to children or animals, or fostering national or international amateur sports competitions. Other acceptable grantors include any United States agency, state, or possession; a foreign government; or an organization created under the Mutual Education and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961.

FUNDS GRANTED AFTER AUGUST 16, 1986
Recipients of scholarships or fellowships granted after August 16, 1986, may find life a bit more taxing. The $300-a-month exclusion for non-degree candidates, for instance, has been repealed.

Under current rules, scholarships and grants are tax-free only if you are a candidate for a degree and you use the funds for tuition, matriculation fees, books, supplies, and equipment.

You cannot exclude from income any money received for such expenses as room, board, and travel. Neither can you exclude the portion of a grant, including any tuition reduction, that represents payment for teaching, research, or other services — even if teaching or research is required for the degree. The new law also considers non-cash awards, such as a partial or total waiver of tuition in exchange for teaching, research, or other services, as taxable income. For further information on how to handle scholarship or fellowship funds, you may want to consult your own CPA.

"Quick Change"
Transforms Into Laughter

POPCORN RATINGS
 POOR

Bill Murray really gets to strut his nonchalant stuff in Quick Change, an inconsequential yet highly entertaining bit of well crafted fluff. Playing Grimm, a bored city planner, Murray epitomizes the beleaguered civil servant whose obviously stifled talents ultimately must be expressed via a stroke of genius, albeit an illegal act.

Aided and abetted by his girlfriend (Geena Davis) and longtime chum (Randy Quaid), Grimm dons a clown costume, takes hostages at a bank on New York's East Side, and leaves said financial institution with $1 million in his kick. Supported by Bob Elliot (of Bob and Ray) as a bank guard who later exaggerates his "heroic" role, Murray plays the hostage scene with whimsical elegance.

But the caper itself is a cinch compared to the Herculean task of getting to Kennedy Airport, where a flight to Fiji promises eternal bliss and freedom for the trio. Running into the unique madness of delay and complication that only the Big Apple can produce, the bank robbers do their variation on the theme previously depicted so well in The Prisoner Of Second Avenue and The Out-Of-Towners.

Stalked by a police chief who must save face after he's initially out-witted at the bank, Grimm and his unlikely gang have their getaway car destroyed by the fire department, are themselves robbed by a petty hold-up man, mistakenly descend on a mob warehouse, and are utterly frustrated by a lunatical cab driver who, of course, has yet to learn the language.

Though the basic plot is pretty pat, Mr. Murray, who co-directed with Howard Franklin, manages a plethora of novel permutations; his sense of timing, combined with that trademarked style of deadpan delivery, spirits Quick Change along at a delightful, jaunty pace. The comely Geena Davis as Phyllis, Grimm's partner in love and crime, supports with winning aplomb. When the derring-do pauses of rhythmic necessity, her attempts to win a commitment from the devil-may-care beau provide a nice, thoughtful touch.

Randy Quaid, who continues to perpetuate his character role as an inbred prone to hysteria, supplies yet another comic edge to the humorous embranchment.

Breaking stride from the usual array of summer products being shown at air-conditioned bijous across America, this audience-friendly farce is wonderfully free of the cumbersome baggage that inundates our silver screens each year when the mercury rises. Delivering its delightful diversion, Quick Change is a welcome departure that will win fans fast.

VISION AND SCHOOL

When a child's school performance suddenly turns unsatisfactory, it may be related to the way he sees.

Visual defects and strain appear at any time and at any age. If your child is showing any of the following behavioral signs, it could be symptomatic of a vision problem.

• Has his level of understanding what he reads diminished? • Is he fidgety and uncomfortable while doing homework? • Is he covering one eye while he's reading? • Is he beginning to dislike school? • Is he avoiding reading and turning in incomplete assignments? • Is he squinting?

Sometimes these signs of visual difficulty do not appear until a child is in high school or college. Since all learning depends on the ability to process visual information quickly and accurately, it would be best to find out if your child's drop in school performance may be caused by the development of an eye problem. Be sure to tell the optometrist about any of the symptoms you have observed. In addition to a measurement of visual acuity, he should be given a battery of visual performance tests as part of a complete eye examination.

The permanent collection, which includes watercolors and pastels, is located in the hospital's Long Term Care Unit.

The purposes of the permanent display are to present an interesting facet of art for the young patients, to promote interest in the arts in the area and to highlight area artists.

Philip Kass, a resident of Westfield, works in watercolors and is a recipient of various area art awards.

Mr. Kass is a member of the Westfield, Kenilworth and Clark Art Associations, and studies with master artist Betty Stoppel as well as Bill Senior.

Florence MacDowell Laughlin of Westfield has painted exclusively in watercolors for the past 12 years, specializing in wildlife, country and shore scenes. associate member of the New Jersey Water Color Society.

Mrs. MacDowell Laughlin has presented one-artist shows in New Jersey and New York and has won several awards in local shows. Her paintings are included in many private collections throughout the country.

Christine Loeber, who works in watercolors, pastels and gouache, is a resident of Westfield. Her paintings are shown throughout New Jersey and Florida and in private collections.

Mrs. Loeber established her Children's Art School in Westfield and has been an art teacher in the area for 37 years. Junior Garden Club Ends Year With Picnic

The Rake and Hoe Junior Garden Club of Westfield ended their year with a family picnic at Echo Lake Park. The juniors had lots of fun boating, playing games and taking a nature walk through the park.

The Juniors had a very busy year completing activities enabling them to receive the Certificate of Merit for the Honor Roll from the Garden Club of New Jersey. Jill Gillan, chairperson for the Rake and Hoe Juniors, was presented the award at the Rake and Hoe Garden Club of Westfields' annual luncheon in May.

The busy year started out for the juniors with a pool party at the house of Rake and Hoe member Claire Brownell. Here the children made original animals out of vegetables. These animals were then entered in the annual Flemington Fair Flower Show with several ribbons being won by the Juniors.

Other activities included making and framing pressed flower arrangements, delivering handmade pot-pourri sachets to Senior Citizens at Meridian Nursing Center. Christmas wreaths, bird feeders and Valentine corsages were made to bring home. And annual seedlings were planted and windsocks were made to decorate their gardens. Holly Hoffman of Trailside spoke to the Juniors about how to identify different insects and the club explored flora and fauna at Brightwood Park complete with a nature quiz.

The Rake and Hoe Juniors are associated with and chaired by members of The Rake and Hoe Garden Club of Westfield and have a limited membership of six to 12 year olds. This year members included; Danny Egan, Nicola Gillan, Becca and Thomas Hanscom, Lauren Kossler, Matthew and Erin McCool, Amanda Parker, Alicia Starkey and Elise Tate.

GFWC Recently Celebrated 100 Years at Convention

From July 3 to 5 the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC) celebrated its 100th anniversary at a convention held in New York City at the Marriott Marquis.

Representatives attending from the Woman's Club of Westfield included the club President, Mrs. C. D. Shacklett, Mrs. John Allegro, Mrs. Warren Beatty, Mrs. Charles E. Brown, Mrs. Donald F. Hancock, Mrs. Samuel J. Kuna, Mrs. William Liggitt, Mrs. Vincent Positan and Mrs. Carlyle J. Wieseman. Members of the group attended workshops discussing international affairs, art and membership and heard a talk by Marlo Thomas entitled, "From that Girl to this Woman."

The General Federation of Women's Clubs began in 1890 in New York City with a group of volunteer women who worked together to develop programs and projects for both self and community improvement, giving credence to the value of organized volunteer service. This group has become the largest and oldest non-demoninational international service organization of volunteer women in the world with ten million members in all fifty states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and forty-six countries worldwide.

Over the years some of the programs which have been supported by the GFWC include child labor regulations, an eight-hour workday, The Pure Food Act, employment of the handicapped, fashion design for the handicapped, mental health concerns, reduction of crime, energy awareness and conservation. Notable during 100 years of volunteerism were efforts such as the establishment of reading rooms and libraries across the country.

When the need for a public library was felt in Westfield, a town library committee was formed with past club President, Miss Emma Bridges, named as chairman, and the Westfield club continues to support the library.

The Woman's Club of Westfield celebrated its 95th birthday this year and became a member of the GFWC in 1896. Since that time club members have filled many district and state offices.

For information regarding membership in the club please call Mrs. Warren Beatty at 654-3270.

Westfield Ten-Year Olds Stun Merrill Park 9-8 in Colonia

Westfield proved that the "game isn't over" in their fourth game at Colonia against a team who had previously beaten them. Merrill Park started the first by scoring three runs before pitcher Robinson ended their streak with a third out strike out. Hawks started Westfield's first inning slug fest with a single. Robinson bunted himself on and when Mullaney hit, Hawks scored. Baykowski walked on. Baly and Corcoran singled and Koye's walk scored Baykowski. Cambria's solid hit scored Baly and Cohen's line drive triple scored three runs. Westfield left the inning up 6-3. Merrill Park's next scoring opportunity came in the third. With two men on Hawks stopped a fly to center. When the next man singled one run scored. Robinson struck out the next batter and Mullaney stepped on the bag all first for the third out. Westfield left the third still ahead by two runs. Both Merrill Park and Westfield put one on the board in the fourth. Westfield's Baykowski tripped to score Robinson.

Merrill Park tied the game in the fifth when a hard hit to the rightfield fence allowed two runs to score. Orsini led off the fifth for Westfield by walking on, but was out stealing third on Aquila's single. Mann and Hawks walked on, but Westfield was out in the sixth when Robinson's fly was caught and sent to Aquila at the plate. Merrill Park had two men on in the sixth when a hit got past Hawks in centerfield allowing one to score. Hawks gunned the second man out at the plate for the final out. Westfield came to the plate down one run. Two quick outs and Merrill Park started to celebrate. But Baly walked on, Corcoran singled and Orsini waited out a full count to walk to first. With the bases loaded and a 1-1 count Aquila hit a strong ball past the shortstop to score the tying run. The second pitch to Mann knocked him off his feet allowing the winning run to walk in.

Westfield Tens Win Colonia Semi-Final Game

Westfield's ten year olds turned a potential 7-1 loss into a 9-7 victory in Saturday's semi-final game at Colonia. Westfield held Bayshore scoreless in the first as pitcher Robinson gloved a pop up and Hawks saved a shot to centerfield. Cohen and Corcoran stopped the lead runner with a game of catch at second and Westfield came to the plate. Westfield scored one when Hawks stole across the plate on Baykowski's bunt. Bayshore started swinging in the second and put three on their side of the board. Robinson led off the second with a next play catcher Baly stopped one runner at the plate. Controversy erupted when the umpire allowed the go ahead run to score on a ball "out of play." The third run scored on an overthrow. Robinson ended the inning with a strike out. Westfield bats were cool in the second and third. Bayshore threatened in the third, but couldn't score. Bayshore put three men on in the fourth and the next man walked in a run. Orsini snagged one in deep leftfield, but another run scored. Another hit to deep rightfield scored two runs. Robinson caught the next shot to right for the second out and Baykowski threw three perfect strikes for the third. Rally time for Westfield. Baly singled and Corcoran walked on behind him. Orsini and McCullam walked on and Baly walked in. Mann and Hawks walked on and Westfield had two more runs on the board. Robinson's single scored McCullam, but Mann was out at third. Mullaney's double scored two and tied the game at 7. Mullaney scored on Baykowski's single and Westfield left the inning up one. Bayshore was out 1-2-3 in the fifth. Westfield picked up an insurance run when Baykowski's to the fence shot scored Mann. Westfield held Bayshore in the sixth as McCullam gloved a shot to third for one and Baykowski threw to Mullaney at first for two. Bayshore stranded two men when Mann picked up a hit to short and threw to Mullaney for the final out.

Westfield 2 and 1 in Fords Tournament

Westfield ten year olds returned to Fords Sunday, the day after a devastating eight inning, 13-12 loss to Scotch Plains. The determined team needed only five innings to defeat the Woodbridge All Stars. Westfield nor Woodbridge could score in the first. Baly, trading his catcher's gear for the pitcher's mound, struck out one and tossed a weak hit to the mound to Baykowski at the plate to pick off the lead runner. Baykowski handled the third out from the plate by throwing the man out to Mullaney at first. With one out in the second Corcoran singled, stole second and scored on Koye's hit. Aquila popped out to the pitcher, Mann singled scoring Koye and was able to cross the plate as Woodbridge overthrew him at each base. Westfield left the inning when Cohen hit out to second. Westfield held their opponents scoreless as Mullaney tagged the lead off man at first, Baly struck out one and Mann caught a bounce to third. Westfield left men on in the third and Woodbridge earned their only run when a man walked in. Koye and Robinson led off the fourth with a single. McCullam's double scored Koye and in the ensuing confusion at the plate Robinson stole home. Orsini singled, Hawks and Mullaney filled out. Baykowski's hit scored McCullam. Westfield left the inning when Baly was out at first. Bottom of the fourth, Mullaney, in to relieve Baly on the mound, struck out the first two batters. McCullam at first, grabbed Corcoran's throw from second for the final out. Top of the fifth Corcoran led off followed by two and went out. McCullam's second double scored Corcoran, Orsini singled and Hawks hit scored McCullam. Mullaney hit out to the outfield. He held up at first, but speedballs Orsini and Hawks both crossed the plate. Westfield left the inning on Baykowski's pop up. McCullam tagged Woodbridge's lead off runner out at first. Mullaney struck out one and Corcoran sent the final out from short to McCullam.

14 Year Olds Win 3

The Westfield Demons played for games on the road last week winning three of four. They travelled to Monroe on Monday losing 4-3. In the 2nd inning Chris Roguso led off with a walk, advanced on Bill Rodd's single and scored on Mark Kearney's single. In the 3rd Kevin McKenna led with a walk, advanced on Steve Flynn's fielder's choice then scored on Ru Saito's single. Monroe stranded three in the 4th, all walks as Yannuzzi struck out one and his defense provided support. Monroe led off the 6th with a single, followed by a walk. The next two batters grounded out as a run scored. A walk resulted in Jim Corcoran coming in as relief. He yielded a single before retiring the side, as Monroe took a 4-2 lead. Jeff Haag led off the 6th with a line drive. Saito was out on the fielder's choice. Adam Yannuzzi singled. Chris Roguso hit out for the sacrifice as Haag scored. In the 7th Demons bats were swinging but apart for a walk to Kearney none reached base for the final score of 4-3.

On July 28, the Demons met Laurence Harbor. In the 1st Haag singled, Saito reached safely and Yannuzzi singled to load the bases. Roguso's fielder's choice produced the first run. In the 2nd Rodd led off with a line drive to left. Kearney laid down a sacrifice bunt on a hit and run play which brought Rodd to third. He scored as the 1st baseman overthrew third. LH threatened in the 2nd after two singles, but a pick off by pitcher Jim Corcoran of the runner at 2d ended it. In the 3rd LH made it 2-1 as Gill reached on an error, advanced on a passed ball and scored on a single. But two Ks ended the inning. In the 4th Corcoran and Rodd walked. Kearney was safe on a FC. Rodd scored as the LH pitcher attempted to pick off Kearney at first and instead threw wildly. Keith Zadorian singled to left and was stranded with Kearney as the side was retired. In the 5th Flynn singled, Haag walked, and Yannuzzi singled to load the bases. Roguso overthrew first and with a shot to left. The LH pitcher attempting to pick off Roguso overthrew first and Haag scored. Corcoran lined to right to score another, but was out as Rodd hit a fielder's choice 8-4. Kearney walked to load the bases. A walk to Zadorian produced the 4th run. Slogers flied out to deep center. In the bottom of the 5th Saito snagged two in deep right field. In the bottom of the 6th, Haag made a running catch of an errant foul ball at the fence. At the top of the 7th Roguso lined to left, Rodd walked and Kearney reached safely as the 3rd Rodd walked and Kearney reached safely as the 3rd baseman bobbled the ball. A walk to Zadorian scored one while Carl Slogers came out of his hitting slump with a swat to left for another as the Demons took a 9-1 lead. In the bottom of the 7th pitcher Corcoran yielded a walk followed by a towering homerun which brought hope to LH, but good defense gave the Demons the win.

Now it was on to Hazlet which had a 7-3 record in the Jersey Central Division League for a double-header. A win was necessary for the Demons to have a chance at making the playoffs. The Demons got on the board in the 2nd as pitcher Roguso walked, advanced on Corcoran's single and scored on Rodd's FC. Hazlet came back with a walk and a double which scored both as an infield error resulted in the runner advancing. A timely K lessened the threat as Demon defense stranded two. In the 3rd Zadorian singled, McKenna walked. Flynn ripped a shot up the middle to score one. Haag had a shot to left for a second. Saito walked for a third. Paul Baly hit into a FC with the Hazlet shortstop alertly throwing out the runner at the plate. With two outs Corcoran ripped a shot to left to score two and a commanding 7-2 lead. In the 4th Hazlet threatened when with two out and two on Cosquer fielded a hard hit grounder and flipped the ball to Flynn at second for the force. In the top of the 7th, Haag reached safely on an error. He stole 2nd and 3rd, then scored on Corcoran's sacrifice bunt. Roguso singled out two in the 7th as the Demons won 8-7. Roguso had 8 Ks yielding 4 hits, 6 walks and one earned run.

Flynn off the 2nd game with a hard hit ball to second which the fielder could not handle. Haag then laid down what was intended to be a sacrifice bunt, and reached safely. A well-hit ball by Yannuzzi to deep right scored the both Pitcher Mark Kearney yielded a single to the first batter, then struck out two to set the tone for the game, before the third batter flied to Corcoran in center. Rodd led off the 2nd with a single to left, advanced on Kearney's sacrifice bunt. Baly's single brought in one, before the side was retired. Kearney threw 14 pitches in the 2nd and 10 in the third to keep Hazlet at bay. McKenna led off the 5th with a walk, advanced on Flynn's single and scored on Saito's double to right. Hazlet then doubled out the side as the shortstop as he caught Yannuzzi's shot and threw home to tag Flynn at the plate. In the 7th McKenna walked on 9 pitches as he defended the plate. He advanced on a passed ball and scored on Flynn's single to right. Haag reached safely on an FC, but both he and Flynn were tagged out as an attempted double steal went awry. In the bottom of the 7th with one out the batter reached safely on an error, but the game ended with a Haag-Flynn-Yannuzzi double play. Kearney who pitched the entire game is a much welcomed addition to the Demon pitching rotation. He yielded two runs, on 3 hits and 3 walks, striking out 4.

Foundation Provides Funds For Youth's Summer Jobs

Eight young Westfielders are working at summer jobs in various Westfield agencies thanks to salaries funded by grants from the Westfield Foundation.

The Foundation granted a total of $8,750 to seven local agencies to fund the employment program for youths in need of summer jobs.

The young people, and the agencies for which they are working, are Eric Klezer, Westfield Summer Workshop; Jennifer Stagaard, Washington Rock Girl Scouts; Monica Sharma, Westfield Day Care Center; Mary Serko, Children's Specialized Hospital; Kevin Feige, Westfield United Fund; Tracey Gaskins, Westfield Neighborhood Council; and Edward Carter and James Hogaboom Westfield Red Cross.

Mary Serko, who will be a senior at Westfield High School in September, is working as a file clerk in the medical records department at Children's Specialized Hospital. She says she enjoys the job because she is interested in a medical career of some sort, and this job gives her first-hand hospital experience.

Kevin Feige is another upcoming Westfield High School senior, and he is spending the summer working on a video project for the United Fund of Westfield. The video tape he is preparing will be used by the Fund for promotion and fundraising.

Edward Carter and James Hogaboom are sharing the grant monies given to the Westfield chapter of the American Red Cross. They are providing handyman services such as grass-cutting and small repairs for senior citizens. Edward will be a junior at the high school, and James a sophomore.

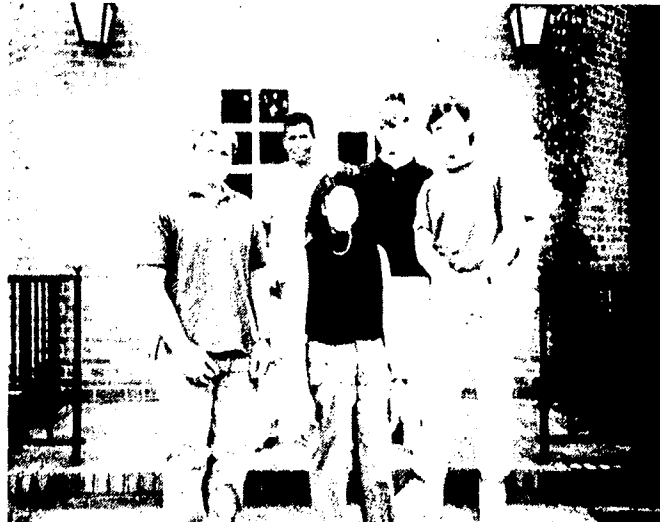

Jennifer Stagaard is a graduate of Westfield High School who is now attending East Stroudsburg University in Pennsylvania. She is working as a computer operator for the Washington Rock Girl Scout Council and finds the job most useful because she is developing skills she can use in her college coursework.

Eric Klezer, who graduated this year from Westfield High School, also plans to attend East Stroudsburg University in September. Eric, in his fifth year working for the Westfield Summer Workshop, is a general trouble-shooter and handyman for the summer program.

Tracey Gaskins, another Westfield High School graduate, is a senior criminal justice major at Jersey City State College and the mother of a 13-month-old son. She is working as a camp counselor for six- to 11-year-olds at the Westfield Neighborhood Council, and hopes to eventually go to law school.

Monica Sharma, who really likes working with kids, is a teacher's aide this summer at the Westfield Day Care Center. Monica graduated last year from Westfield High School, and will return to Barnard College of Columbia University in the fall, where she will be a sophomore.

Dorothy W. Cantor, Psy.D.

The National Academies of Practice (NAP) was established in 1981 to serve as the nation's interdisciplinary health policy forum. NAP is dedicated to addressing the issues of national health from the perspective of hands-on practitioners in an interdisciplinary fashion without regard to the special interest of any of the nine health care delivery disciplines.

The National Academies of Practice is made up of nine Academies: Dentistry, Medicine, Nursing, Optometry, Osteopathic Medicine, Podiatric Medicine, Psychology, Social Work, and Veterinary Medicine. Dr. Cantor is a member of the National Academy of Psychology.

Members are selected for their significant and enduring contributions to practice. Each Distinguished Practitioner is pledged to contribute time, energy, and their wealth of knowledge in the public interest.

The membership of NAP includes besides world renowned practitioners: university presidents, deans, society presidents, government leaders, National Academy of Science members, and industry executives.

NAP is dedicated to quality health care for all Americans and was founded based on the desire of its members to provide a realistic advisory function to Congress and Executive Branch outside of relying on national specialty societies.
