State Transit Officials Outline Their Plans For Station Platform

Renovations Made Necessary to Comply With Law
Aimed at Making Travel Easier for Handicapped

By BUZETTE STALKER
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader

A group of about 20 train commuters and others met last Wednesday with Westfield officials and representatives of new Jersey Transit during a public hearing and to discuss proposed modifications to the Westfield Railroad Station platform and tunnel in compliance with the new Americans With Disabilities Act.

The federal law mandates New Jersey Transit adjust its bus and rail facilities to accommodate disabled passengers, including those who use wheelchairs, so all travelers will have equal access to public transportation.

The hearing, presided over by the Westfield Town Council's Traffic, Transportation and Parking Committee in the Council Chambers of the Westfield Municipal Building, featured New Jersey Transit representatives Robert Peduto, Project Manager for High-Level Platforms on the Raritan Valley Line, and the Manager of the agency's Office of Urban and Community Relations.

They were joined by Stephen Lerner of Vollmer Associates, a New York engineering firm which has been working with New Jersey Transit to develop proposals for modifying the station. Westfield is one of three stations along the Raritan Valley Line which are earmarked for high-level platform work in compliance with the law.

Mr. Peduto noted his agency, which has been meeting with Westfield officials since the summer regarding planned rehabilitation of the station, also was anxious to exchange ideas with area residents and commuters "so you can guide us in what you want your station to look like."

The Manager explained the raised platforms, positioned between the two station buildings and installed on both the eastbound and westbound tracks, will be level with train-car floors.

Witnesses Still Sought In Hit-and-Run

Thirty-One-Year-Old Killed
Crossing Central Avenue

Westfield Police are continuing to seek witnesses to a hit-and-run accident and look for the driver in the October 16 incident, during which 31-year-old Steven Kopelchak of South Avenue was killed while attempting to cross Central Avenue near South Avenue, Westfield.

The Union County Crime Stoppers program has offered a reward of up to $5,000 for information leading to the arrest and indictment of the suspect.

Mr. Kopelchak was outside the Palmer Video store on Central Avenue at 7:25 p.m. on October 16, apparently waiting to cross the street, when the car struck him, according to Detective Sergeant Clifford D. Auchter.

Mr. Kopelchak who had moved from Roselle two weeks earlier to take an apartment above his father's apartment on South Avenue, was pronounced dead at Rahway Hospital less than an hour after he was hit.

The man was born in Monessen, Pennsylvania and had lived in New Jersey for the past 17 years.

The victim, who was single, worked in a Coca-Cola warehouse in Parsippany.

His father, Steven Kipelchak, said the younger man was a big sports fan and had gone to the video store to purchase a blank tape so he could record the World Series.

Although some witnesses have come forward, others are being sought, according to Police Chief Anthony J. Scutti.

The Chief noted a sign requesting information has been posted on Central Avenue. The sign is shown in the picture adjacent to this story.

Police also distributed leaflets seeking information about the accident in the neighborhood of the crash last Friday evening, the Chief added.

Those with information are asked to telephone the Westfield Police at 789-4008 and ask for Detective Sergeant Auchter or Detective Donald Fuentes.

ELECTION COVERAGE IN THIS ISSUE

Voters in Westfield, Scotch Plains and Fanwood will join their counterparts throughout Union County and the state on Tuesday in helping to elect a Governor, members of the New Jersey Legislature, a Register, three Freeholders and a number of local officials.

Also on the ballot will be a state-wide question on whether the recall of officials deemed unworthy to continue in office should be made a part of the state Constitution.

Westfielders will elect four Councilmen, one from each ward, while Scotch Plains residents will choose one member for an unexpired term on the Township Council and Fanwood residents will decide on three members of the Borough Council.

Complete coverage of each of these elections appears on Pages 18 and 19 of this week's Westfield Leader and The Times of Scotch Plains and Fanwood.

State Agency Begins Work On Bridge

Painting Will Continue
Seven Days a Week
Until Project Is Done

Work crews for a contractor for New Jersey Transit began painting the railroad bridge over the South Avenue traffic circle yesterday morning.

Police Chief Anthony J. Scutti announced prior to Tuesday's Town Council meeting the eastern lane going toward Scotch Plains would be barricaded as work on that section is done with barricades being moved along the roadway under the span and traffic routed around them as work progresses.

The work will continue seven days a week until it is completed, Chief Scutti noted.

Mayor Garland C. "Bud" Boothe, Jr. added the railroad bridge over Central Avenue is expected to be painted beginning early next year.

SENATOR LAUTENBERG CHAIRS TRANSPORTATION UNIT

Couple Says Airplane Noise Only Can Be Solved by Applying Pressure of Voters to Senator

Council Grant to State Noise Group Won't Result in Real Action, They Say;
Officials Reply Experts Must Present Alternative to Have Effect on Agency

By ROBERT R. FASZCZEWSKI
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader

The proposed appropriation by the Town Council of $1,000 to help fight the Expanded East Coast Plan, which has increased jet noise in the area, although supported by a husband and wife who spoke at Tuesday's public council meeting, does not go far enough in solving the problem, they said.

Michael Ancona of 101 Dickson Drive asked what the town's contribution to the efforts of the New Jersey Citizens Against Aircraft Noise will go for when the group already has sent out a postcard saying it has an alternative to the Expanded East Coast Plan and has received financial backing from the state for this plan.

Mr. Ancona added the town's efforts would be more effective by having voters try to influence United States Senator Frank R. Lautenberg, who is the Chairman of the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee for Transportation, which votes funding for the Federal Aviation Administration, to increase his efforts in opposing the Expanded East Coast Plan.

Mayor Garland C. "Bud" Boothe, Jr. said, under state law, the town cannot simply authorize a grant to a group of citizens. It must contract for a specific service, and Town Attorney Charles H. Brandt will meet shortly with the attorney for the aircraft noise group to determine which "pieces" of the group's efforts the town will finance.

The couple, who believe town residents may have become complacent about the problem because they believe the state noise group is handling it alone, agreed with Mayor Boothe that it is necessary to keep pressure on Senator Lautenberg and other lawmakers to keep working on the problem by writing or telephoning their offices.

They passed out a flyer which gives the telephone number of Miss Kathryn Forsyth — 1-201-645-3030 — of the Senator's office as the major contact on the problem for the Senator.

On another matter, the council promised to keep pressure on the county and to continue its own efforts to solve the problem of stray animals in Westfield.

A resident, Myron Gadol of 138 Summit Court, said this summer he had found two decomposed cats in his shed, and many stray cats had moved into his neighborhood since that time.

He noted Garden State Kennels, the town's contracted animal-control service, has told him he would have to buy or rent traps from the service and trap the animals himself in order to remove them.

Mr. Gadol added Mr. Brandt had written to the kennels on October 9 and still had not received a reply.

Town Administrator John F. Malloy, Jr. told Mr. Gadol the Board of Health would be discussing the problem at its meeting at 5 p.m. on Monday, November 1, in the Administrator's Conference Room in the Municipal Building.

Health Officer Robert M. Sherr is concerned about charges by the kennels for traps, Mr. Malloy noted, and the board, at its meeting Monday, also would be discussing the award of a contract for animal-control services for next year.

TOWN TAXES DUE THIS MONDAY

Westfield property owners are reminded property taxes are due on Monday, November 1.

The office of the Tax Collector in the Municipal Building will be open from 7 to 9 p.m. in addition to the regular office hours of 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Monday.

Westfield MainStreet Survey Will Try To Fathom Local Shopping Habits

Approximately 500 Households in and Around Town to Be Contacted

Beginning Thursday, November 2, Statistical Research Inc. of Westfield will telephone area shoppers to learn about their habits on behalf of the Westfield MainStreet Program.

Approximately 500 randomly selected households in and around Westfield will be called for interviews.

Your cooperation is urged if your household is among those randomly selected for this major undertaking on the part of the Westfield MainStreet revitalization effort.

"Thanks to an in-kind contribution by Statistical Research Inc. Westfield MainStreet will be able to gather basic market information about downtown Westfield that has never before been gathered," noted Westfield MainStreet Program Manager, Mrs. Michele Picou. "We will be able to use the analyses of the results provided by this firm to provide background for programs Westfield MainStreet will initiate."

This survey is the first of three surveys planned. The other two will be an "intercept" survey scheduled for sometime between now and year's end, and a "business" survey scheduled for after the first of the year.

The research firm is a full-service research organization, founded by Gerald Glasser and Gale Metzger, with telephone and computer services on the premises currently employing 70 full-time and 160 part-time staff members. A significant share of its work has been in media audience measurement. The firm is also frequently called upon to provide research for legal and administrative proceedings.

In January of last year Mayor Richard H. Bagger appointed a 24-member committee to consider the options available for revitalizing downtown Westfield. The Westfield Downtown Committee, headed by Robert L. Newell, selected the Main Street New Jersey Program as the mechanism for that revitalization because the Committee believes the Main Street Program provides the best solution for Westfield.

Westfield MainStreet's purpose is to preserve and enhance downtown Westfield's unique historic character while revitalizing its downtown economic center. Nearly 200 volunteers are working on projects started by Westfield MainStreet committees this year, including the Design & Economic Restructuring Committee's telephone surveys and personal contact surveying of business owners and shoppers. Results of the survey will be used to support recommendations for programs and initiatives to be undertaken by the MainStreet Program.

DEADLINES HELP PAPERS SERVE YOU

Those preparing press releases for submission to The Westfield Leader or The Times are reminded all copy should be in the hands of the Editor at 50 Elm Street, Westfield, by 4 p.m. on the Friday before the Thursday on which they wish it to appear.

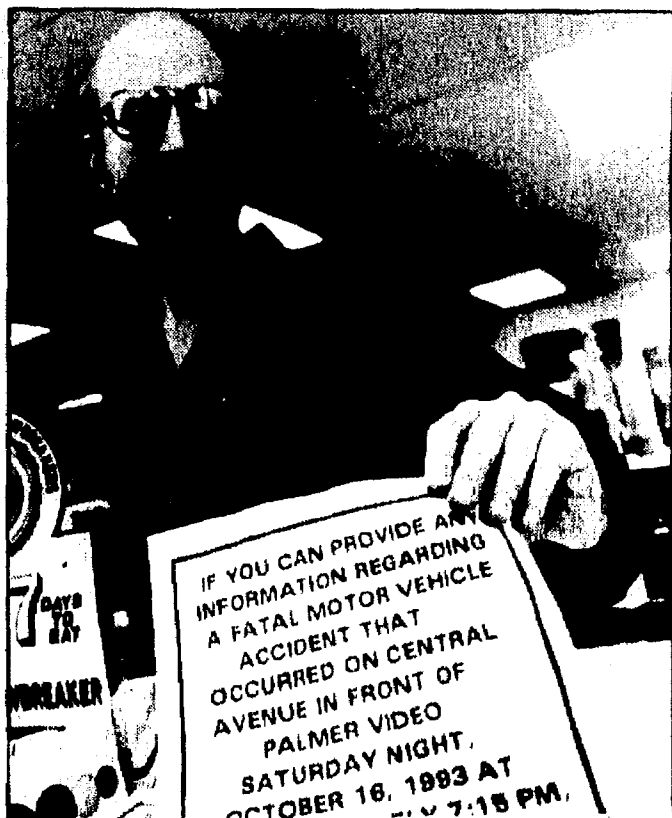

Leader releases also may be mailed to Post Office Box 250, Westfield, 07091, and Times releases to Post Office Box 368, Scotch Plains, 07076, to meet the above requirements.

For events which happen the weekend prior to publication, press releases should reach the Editor by Monday of the week of publication by 10 a.m.

Obituaries will be taken until Tuesday at 5 p.m.

For events which are planned weeks or months in advance, we encourage submission of stories as early as possible prior to the event.

The above deadlines are meant to enable us to prepare your copy carefully.

SET CLOCKS BACK THIS SUNDAY

"Time travels in diverse paces with diverse persons. I'll tell you who time ambles withal, who time trots withal, who time gallops withal, and who he stands still withal." — William Shakespeare from As You Like It.

Time will gallop backwards for the season this Sunday morning as Daylight Savings Time makes it exit and Eastern Standard Time replaces it.

Readers should set their clocks back one hour before going to sleep on Saturday evening.

Plains Recreation Commission Will Hold Halloween Parade

The Scotch Plains Recreation Commission will hold its annual Halloween Parade from the Municipal Building Parking Lot to Park Middle School starting at 6:30 p.m. tonight, Thursday, October 28. The participants in costume will then display their costumes to the audience in the school auditorium, receive a treat and then sit back and enjoy a performance by Corkey the Clown in "Circus Frolics." Children and adults are invited.

In the event of rain, everyone will go directly to Park Middle School Auditorium foregoing the parade to school.

Treat Trick or Treaters To a Very Safe Halloween

Children may be safe from ghosts and goblins on Halloween, but there are other real dangers facing trick or treaters. To help youngsters avoid the hazards of the holiday, the New Jersey State Safety Council and New Jersey Safe Kids offer parents and caregivers the following tips:

- When preparing costumes, use properly fitted shoes and keep hemlines short enough to avoid falls, the leading cause of injuries to children on Halloween. Select flame resistant materials in light, bright colors. Trim clothing and bags with reflectorized tape and add a flashlight to make trick or treaters more visible to motorists at dusk. Use non-toxic makeup instead of masks which may obscure vision. Attach the name, address and phone number, including area code, of young children to an inconspicuous place on their clothing.
- Limit trick or treaters' visits to familiar neighborhoods. Set a specific time for their return home. Do not allow children to be out after dark without an adult. Younger children should be supervised by an adult at all times. Make sure your child has change for a phone call and knows where to reach you should a problem arise. Insist that all treats be brought home for inspection before anything is eaten. When in doubt, throw it out.
- Help your children to avoid pedestrian accidents by teaching them to walk on the sidewalk, cross at corners, stop at the curb and look left, right and left again for approaching cars before entering the street.
- Use extra caution if driving this Halloween weekend as young trick or treaters may be starting their rounds earlier, after classroom Halloween parties tomorrow, Friday, October 29. Enter and exit driveways and alleyways carefully. Slow down in residential neighborhoods. Watch out for youngsters who might be walking in the street or who dart out from between parked cars. With a little extra thought and planning, you can make sure your children have a happy and safe Halloween.

Governor Florio Still Leading Mrs. Whitman; Five Days Left

As the race for Governor enters its final weeks, Governor James J. Florio leads Mrs. Christine Todd Whitman by a margin of 52 to 40 per cent and 8 per cent are undecided. Support for Governor Florio has increased five percentage points since the September poll and Mrs. Whitman's support increased two percentage points.

Among those most interested in the election and therefore generally more inclined to vote, there is a 6 percentage point margin between the two candidates with Governor Florio at 50 per cent and Mrs. Whitman at 44 per cent.

Mrs. Whitman currently has more support than Governor Florio among male voters and has increased her support among independent voters. However, Governor Florio's partisan support among Democrats is greater (79 per cent) than Mrs. Whitman's support among Republicans (70 per cent). Women are also more likely to support Governor Florio than Mrs. Whitman by a 2-to-1 margin.

In the last month there has been an increase in voters who are firm about their choice for Governor from 52 to 66 per cent. However, 34 per cent of the electorate are not committed to a candidate suggesting that there are still opportunities for both candidates to win the election.

Negative impressions of both candidates have increased in the past month. Mrs. Whitman's negative ratings are up 13 percentage points to 36 per cent and Governor Florio's have increased 4 percentage points to 40 per cent.

The latest Star-Ledger/Eagleton Poll of 601 likely voters, conducted by telephone between October 11 and 14, finds that among those who watched or read or heard news about the first gubernatorial debate, 37 per cent did not pick either of the candidates as a winner while 36 per cent said Governor Florio had a better performance and 26 per cent saw Mrs. Whitman as the victor.

The Race for Governor
Among likely voters, Governor Florio would receive 52 per cent of the vote and Mrs. Whitman 40 per cent with 8 per cent undecided if the election for Governor was held today.

Among those choosing Mrs. Whitman, 71 per cent say they are sure about their choice while 29 per cent might change their mind. Governor Florio has firmer support with 74 per cent feeling sure and 26 per cent reporting they might change their mind before Election Day.

The difference between the two candidates is closer among voters who have the most interest in the election. Governor Florio receives support from 50 per cent of this group and Mrs. Whitman has 44 per cent.

Governor Florio receives stronger partisan support with 79 per cent of the Democrats supporting him while Mrs. Whitman is the choice of 70 per cent of the Republicans. Mrs. Whitman and Governor Florio are about even among independent voters, 46 to 45 per cent. In the last month, Governor Florio's support among Democrats has increased 6 percentage points, while Mrs. Whitman's Republican support has dropped slightly from 73 per cent in September. However, there has been an 11 percentage point gain for Mrs. Whitman among independents, while the percentage of independents who select Governor Florio have not changed.

The gender support for each candidate is opposite what might be expected. Among males, Mrs. Whitman leads Governor Florio by a margin of 49 to 43 per cent. This is a gain of 7 percentage points in the past month. In contrast, among women, Governor Florio leads Mrs. Whitman by a margin of 61 to 31 per cent. An increase of 10 percentage points since September.

Governor Florio has stronger support than Mrs. Whitman among voters 65 years old and older (61 per cent to 30 per cent), those who are 50 to 64 years old (51 per cent to 43 per cent) and those 30 to 49 years old (49 per cent to 43 per cent). Among younger voters — 18 to 29 years old (47 per cent to 45 per cent) the race is about even.

While Governor Florio leads Mrs. Whitman in all regions of the state, the race is closer in South Jersey (49 per cent to 41 per cent) and Central Jersey (52 per cent to 44 per cent) than in North Jersey (34 per cent to 37 per cent).

Looking at Governor Florio as the incumbent, 47 per cent of the likely voters say he deserves a second term as Governor compared to 46 per cent who do not think he should be re-elected. From a partisan perspective, 74 per cent of the Democrats say he deserves re-election, 41 per cent of the independents, and 20 per cent of the Republicans.

There has been a slight decline in the percentage of likely voters who say that they are very or somewhat likely to vote for one of the 17 independent candidates who are also running for governor from 22 per cent in September to 17 per cent.

Knowledge, Impressions
Mrs. Whitman is becoming better known. The percentage of likely voters who can name her as the Republican candidate has increased 15 percentage points from 57 per cent to 72 per cent. In comparison, about 9-in-10 can name Governor Florio as the Democratic candidate.

It appears that as the voters get to know more about each of these candidates, their unfavorable impressions increase. In the last month, Mrs. Whitman's unfavorable ratings have increased 13 percentage points from 23 to 36 per cent and Governor Florio's have gone up 4 percentage points from 36 to 40 per cent.

Overall, 45 per cent have a favorable overall impression of Governor Florio, 40 per cent have an unfavorable impression, and 16 per cent say they do not yet have an impression of him. In comparison, about equal percentages of likely voters have favorable (33 per cent) and unfavorable (36 per cent) impressions of Mrs. Whitman and a similar 33 per cent either don't know Mrs. Whitman (5 per cent) or don't have an impression of her (28 per cent).

Another indicator of the impression voters have about the Governor is his job performance rating. In the past month the overall positive ratings have gone from 41 to 37 per cent and his negative ratings have changed from 57 to 61 per cent. While these overall changes are within the statistical margin of error, there has been a shift in the harshness of these evaluations with a 12 percentage point increase in the "good" rating from 19 to 31 per cent.

Media Watch
Thirty-three per cent of the likely voters say they watched the first gubernatorial debate that took place on Thursday, October 7. In addition, 27 per cent read or saw something about the debate after the event and 40 per cent were not exposed to information about the debate.

Among those who saw or heard about the debate, 37 per cent do not have an opinion on who won while 36 per cent feel Governor Florio got the best of the debate, and 26 per cent say Mrs. Whitman was the winner.

Among those who paid attention to the debate, this event did not do much to enhance or detract from Governor Florio's overall image. Seventy per cent say their impression of the Governor did not change and those with a more favorable (13 per cent) impression are about equal to those with a less favorable impression (15 per cent).

In comparison, more New Jerseyans who saw the debate or heard about it say they changed their impression of Mrs. Whitman. Twenty-five per cent say their impression of her became more favorable, 16 per cent less favorable, and 56 per cent did not change their impression of the Republican challenger.

Both Governor Florio's and Mrs. Whitman's television and radio advertisements are reaching almost all of the voters. Eighty-nine per cent have seen or heard Mrs. Whitman's advertisements, and 84 per cent have seen or heard Governor Florio's advertisements.

Most of those who have seen or heard these advertisements, say these messages will not make any difference in their support for either candidate. Fifty-five per cent say Mrs. Whitman's advertisements have not made a difference and 63 per cent feel that way about Governor Florio's advertisements. When the advertisements have made them more likely to support her, 28 per cent say they are less likely to give the Republican their support. There is a similar reaction to advertisements by Governor Florio with 15 per cent saying the advertisements have increased their support for Governor Florio and 22 per cent saying their support decreased.

Climate
Overall, 85 per cent of the likely voters say they have a lot (57 per cent) or some (28 per cent) interest in the upcoming election and 14 per cent have a little (12 per cent) or none at all (2 per cent). This continues the downward trend from 88 per cent in September and 91 per cent in June.

Recall Elections Can Help Residents Participate More Fully in Democracy

Tuesday's General Election presents residents of Westfield, Scotch Plains and Fanwood with the opportunity to exercise once again the most cherished duty and right of every citizen of a democracy — the right to vote for or against those who will govern them.

While regularly-scheduled elections present the best way to select among people, we believe qualified for office and of removing from office those who we feel have not performed satisfactorily, they are not the sole way of making these decisions.

Sometimes, hopefully infrequently, officials prove through malfeasance or misfeasance after only a short time in office they have not acted in the best interest of those they have been elected to serve.

Under current laws in many municipalities and counties throughout New Jersey, residents have the right to remove such officials by gathering signatures on petitions and demanding recall elections.

A proposal on Tuesday's ballot would extend this right to recalling the Governor, members of the Legislature, United States Senators and representatives from New Jersey. It is a system currently allowed in 15 states, and we believe it should be extended to the Garden State.

While we do not agree with the contentions of some that the power of recall should be used by special-interest groups to remove those with whom they disagree on a single issue, we do believe, after making a sound case against those who have shown a clear violation of the public interest, voters should be allowed to recall officials after a single year in office.

This power should not be taken lightly, and voters should not use it to remove from office politicians simply because changed circumstances have not made it possible to keep promises made in the heat of a political campaign.

With stringent requirements and carefully-framed definitions of how recall elections can be petitioned for and should be conducted as well as specific definitions of unacceptable conduct in office, we believe the process will go along way to increasing and improving participation in government in New Jersey.

Letters to the Editor

People of New Jersey Deserve Right to Recall Their Officials

On Tuesday, November 2, the people of New Jersey will have the opportunity to recapture control of the political process by voting to give themselves the constitutional authority to fire elected officials before their term of office ends.

Public Question No. 1 would subject every single elected official in New Jersey including United States Senators and Representatives, the Governor, state legislators, Freeholders, Mayors and school board members to recall by the voters.

Recall is the ultimate constitutional method for holding elected officials to their word. With recall, elected officials can no longer say one thing on the campaign trail while doing the opposite once elected under the assumption the people's memories will dim by the next election cycle.

With recall the people will no longer be condemned to sit impotently on the sidelines waiting for the final year of an elected official's term while that official violates the promises he made during the campaign. By signing a recall petition the people will be able to force that dishonest official back into the ballot for judgment by the people.

This constitutional amendment will make every single elected official in the state directly accountable to the people.

Under our current statutes the people of 168 of the state's municipalities and six of its counties have the right to recall local or county officials who have betrayed the people's trust.

On November 2 the people will have the opportunity to extend that right so all elected officials are covered.

A vote yes will give New Jersey voters the same rights currently exercised by the voters of 15 other states.

Councilman MacDonald's Record Isn't Clear on Affordable Housing: Mayor Stender

In response to Councilman Andrew J. MacDonald's letter, it is important to point out that despite his statement that he "stayed consistent with a common long held view and voted 'no' on the affordable housing ordinance," the facts are that on three separate occasions Councilman MacDonald voted yes to eight units of affordable housing for Fanwood.

The ordinance which Councilman MacDonald voted against creates definitions of zones and site plan details for a plan which he already voted to adopt. I believe elected officials have an obligation to vote for what they believe is right and in the best interest of their constituency. According to Councilman MacDonald's statements, he voted yes to a plan three times when he believed it was not in the best interest of Fanwood.

Fanwood has not been well served by Councilman MacDonald, and after nine years on the council, once again he has clearly displayed the hallmark of his tenure — which is rhetoric not results.

Mayor of Fanwood

Participants In Clothing Sale Given Thanks

The Auxiliary of the Westfield Day Care Center would like to thank the parents of the Westfield Day Care and the local communities for the help you have given in attending the auxiliary's used clothing sale for children on October 15 and 16.

It helped the financial needs of the center and is very much appreciated. The Auxiliary Westfield Day Care Center

Green Room Can Usher In Red-Letter Day

Green Room — a lounge in a theater or broadcasting studio for use by performers when they are not on stage or camera.

According to Charles Earle Funk, the first green lounging room was in London's Dorset Theater. A reference to such a room was made in a play by Thomas Shadwell entitled A True Widow, produced in that theater in 1682.

Several years later the Dorset and Drury Lane companies merged and moved into the latter theater. The Dorset members campaigned for a green room at the Drury similar to that at the old Dorset, and finally got it.

Why a green room? Some speculate the green color provided relief from the stage lights. Others concluded high-intensity Klieg or lime lighting was not invented yet, and, accordingly, these early theaters relied on far less intense candle lighting.

The use of the color green, therefore, had little to do with eye care. Green was probably a color selected at random by a decorator of the period. The green tradition, perhaps to insure good luck, has continued to this day.

Should you get a golden opportunity to be ushered into a Green Room we hope it will be a red-letter day for you, and that you will do it up brown.

Welcome Wagon Sets New Member Coffee

The Welcome Wagon Club of Westfield is planning a New Member Coffee on Monday, November 8, at 8 p.m.

The club is a way to meet people and enjoy many activities and events. If you are new to the area, or have resided in the area less than two years, or have experienced a change in lifestyle such as the birth or adoption of a child, then please consider joining the club.

Please call 233-2231, if you plan to attend.

POPCORN™

Demolition Man Falls... And Goes Boom

By Michael Goldberger

One Popcorn, Poor • Two Popcorns, Fair • Three Popcorns, Good • Four Popcorns, Excellent

Why is it that sci-fi yarns inevitably paint the future as an albatross peaceful, suffocating maze of fascist dehumanization. Our best writers of societal extrapolation always seem convinced that the First Amendment is sure to fall victim to a totalitarian will that would quickly trade creativity and free expression for law and order. Maybe it's because writers, consciously or not, deal with the fragility of the First Amendment on a regular basis.

In the year 2036, per Demolition Man, all seems serene on the surface. Have no fear — there is no hint of a Howard Stern to soil the air waves; hence, there is no vigilant testing our right to free speech on a daily basis via his vile, self-aggrandizing rantings. In fact, if the government overhears you uttering the least bit risqué item, you are fined.

Loads of other liberties have similarly fallen by the wayside, including kissing and so on, and so forth. Yup... babies are all of the last tube variety.

Though simplistic and vastly derivative, Demolition Man does offer an articulation concerning the tenets of civil liberty while concurrently purveying the sort of mind-boggling, gratuitous violence that has come to be expected of Sylvester Stallone. Helping him destroy the landscape, in two separate eras yet, is Wesley Snipes, also no shrink in the mass destruction department.

Obviously a garden variety, cop-and-sociopath saga surrounded by some surprisingly good speculations about the future, Demolition Man opens in the year 1996. Los Angeles is aflame and in complete turmoil. Among the torn threads in this horrific tapestry, Stallone as Detective John Spartan is in violent pursuit of evil Simon Phoenix, a cockling killer of the most heinous magnitude played by Wesley Snipes.

While Stallone's character collars Phoenix, he is charged with criminal negligence and inadvertently causing the deaths of innocent victims. Thus, thanks to a criminal justice system that now employs cryogenic to mete out punishment while hoping to also alter behavior, Spartan gets the cold treatment, too.

Fast-forward to the year 2036, to the aforementioned cowardly new world where there is no pain and no gain. Suddenly upsetting the apple cart of synthetic serenity is the unfathomable escape of Simon Phoenix, who immediately picks up where he left off by killing eleven people before he's even out of the prison complex.

Since the current-day cops have had no experience in dealing with such a menace, they are virtually helpless. But Officer Lenina Huxley, portrayed by Sandra Bullock, has an idea. She's an aficionado of things 20th century, a collector of memorabilia as well as a student of the social customs that prevailed in the previous 100 years. It is she who suggests that Spartan be paroled for the express purpose of hunting down the deranged psycho.

The big thaw is followed by some chilling discoveries for Stallone's super manhunter, who springs into action instantaneously. And it's no wonder that he and Lenina quickly form a buddy act, which facilitates cute quips of the double entendre variety and a host of other predictable character alignments.

Good cop that he is, despite his penchant for demolishing edifices that get in his way, it isn't long before Spartan smells something rotten in the future. Aside from the obvious decrease in guaranteed freedoms he witnesses with utter revulsion, there's certainly something curious about Dr. Cocteau, the man attributed with creating this Orwellian society.

Also, while out on the town one evening, the policeman extraordinaire notices a rather disturbing event. A gang of disheveled, hungry folks emerges from the sewers and attempts to steal some food. Cocteau tries to reassure Spartan, informing that they are Scars... folks who don't want to partake of the enlightened society. We know better; we instantly know they are revolutionaries.

You can trust good Americans to inherently know when something is unconstitutional and an enemy to freedom. A red flag pops up in the psyche — a shock shoots through the cerebrum. While John Spartan is hardly a Russell Baker or William F. Buckley, Jr., his everyman understanding of a world that has sold out for a false sense of security is effective on a primer level.

In addition, director Marco Brambilla's set design, though borrowing from THX-1138 and a score of other science fiction films produced in the last 20 years, does present its very own style and sense of paranoid prophecy.

But the political tack takes a backseat to the real reason why people come out to see Stallone and Snipes. Despite the positive-by-products noted here, violence remains king, and on that account it's easy to pick apart Demolition Man.

Ballerinas Don't Mix With Pirates

By LOUIE H. CLARK
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader

The strangest Halloween I remember happened when I was about 10 years old and was told by my mother I would have to take my kid sister out with me.

"Mel!" I yelled. "I'm going out with Tommy and the other guys. I'm going to be a pirate. You even promised you'd use lipstick to make it look like I had a real sword cut on my face."

"I will," she said calmly. "But you'll still have to take Lilly."

"What's the matter with Daddy?" I yelled. "He always..."

"Because," she said with deadly calm. "Your father is stuck in Allanta until November 3."

"Then why can't one of the other three fathers do it?"

"They're all on night-shift duty so you'll have to stand in for your dear father."

"First I got to talk to Tommy and the guys and make sure it's okay."

"I'm telling you it's okay," she said. "Lilly is going out with you and she's going to be dressed as ballerina. All white."

"Gee," I said. "Can't she at least go as a pirate so we could at least hide her?"

"No. She is going as a ballerina."

That afternoon I went into deep consultation with Tommy Regan our leader. Having two sisters he understood my predicament but that only made him more stubborn. "No girls," he said. Then we saw Johnny Persky walking slowly down the street kicking a can in front of him.

"I can't go out with you guys tomorrow night," he mourned.

"Sister?" I asked.

"Yes," he brightened. "You too?"

Like any good leader Tommy knew when to compromise.

"If we got to take girls," he commanded, "keep them in the middle and make sure they don't grab all the candy."

So that Halloween a group of seven, boys dressed as pirates and ghosts, were accompanied by three girls, one dressed as a ballerina, another a "pretty" witch and Cinderella, glass slippers and all.

We got into only two fights with other guys who called us "sissies" and got more candy than we ever did before.

My sister was happy because everyone told her what a beautiful ballerina she was.

Tommy was unhappy and declared next year, "No girls!"

When I pointed out we had gotten more candy than ever, he merely replied, "If we got to bring girls I don't go."

My mother was happy. My father didn't have such a good time when he got home.

All week long I kept hearing him say, "Is it my fault I have to make a living?"

I only understood what my father went through after I got married and had children.

Plains Departments

Hold Drill to Test Hurricane Preparedness

A country-wide hurricane drill, named "Judy" by the county emergency operations staff, was conducted in Scotch Plains on September 14. The drill's purpose was to demonstrate the township's emergency operating plans in the event of high winds, torrential rains, loss of power and telephone service as well as streets and roads being flooded and blocking access in certain areas.

The team members followed pre-hurricane warnings, when the hurricane "struck" operations were carried out to monitor flooded roads or streets, erecting barricades and possible evacuation of residents to shelters. Post-hurricane operations included clearing streets, restoring power where needed, assessing damage and reporting for possible insurance claims.

Upon concluding the exercise, department assignments returned to normal, and the team was congratulated for their successful completion of all phases of emergency procedures.

Participants included Donald Wormley, Norman O. Varandas, Jonathan Ellis, Mrs. Carol Dietl, Robert LaCosta, Frank Lestarchick, Daniel Sullivan, Mrs. Laura Swidersky and George Reider.

The first transatlantic airline passenger service began in 1939.

HALLOWEEN SAFETY TIPS

- Have a parent or older brother or sister go trick-or-treating with you.
- Never travel alone.
- Tell your family which streets you'll be trick-or-treating on.
- Cross only at corners.
- If there's no sidewalk, walk facing traffic.

Safety Tips Car Club Halloween Treat Offering

Making Halloween a real treat for everyone isn't hard — and no one needs to be a magician to do it. All it takes is some extra precautions on the part of motorists and parents, according to the New Jersey Automobile Club Foundation for Safety.

"Motorists must remember that young trick-or-treaters can concentrate on only one thing at a time — and it's usually not traffic. They're more apt to be thinking about the next candy bar or lollipop rather than cars," says Paul Kielblock, the club's Safety Manager. "It's up to us to keep trick-or-treaters safe."

The foundation offers these Halloween safety tips for motorists, children and parents:

- Motorists should be extra alert for children darting out from between parked cars. Turn on headlights at the first sign of dusk and take extra care when backing out of driveways.
- With some many children on the streets, a right turn on red can be dangerous, so slow down and watch out. Driving five to 10 miles under the speed limit in residential areas gives motorists and children a margin of safety.
- Children should trick-or-treat while it's still light out and wear comfortable light-colored costumes that make it easy to walk, see and be seen. Carry a flashlight and trim costumes with special reflective tape that shines brightly in headlights.
- Always trick-or-treat on well-lit streets. Never dart out from between parked cars. Walk on the sidewalk or, if one isn't available, walk facing traffic and as close to the curb as possible.
- Parents, be sure to enlarge eye holes on masks and have children remove masks before crossing the street. Better yet, encourage them to

Childhood Asthma Overlook Subject

If your child suffers from asthma, save the date of November 13. That's when Overlook Hospital will sponsor a workshop for families of asthmatic children aged 4 to 14 from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. in Overlook Hospital's Center for Community Health.

The asthma workshop will include presentations on pediatric asthma, family issues, the newest types of respiratory aids and coping skills for parents and their children.

Dr. Jacob Nutman, head of Overlook's Department of Pediatric Pulmonology in the Children's Medical Center, along with other health care specialists, will be featured. The workshop will include an entertaining performance by the Jersey Kids on the Block Puppet Troupe, sponsored by the American Lung Association of New Jersey. The fee for the workshop is $10 per family; parking tickets will be validated.

To register, please telephone 522-5353.

College Center Sets Monday Evening Hours

The Career and College Resource Center at Westfield High School will open for students and parents on three Monday nights in November.

Mrs. Rose Beeny, a guidance aide, said that the Career and College Resource will be open from 7:30 to 9 p.m. on November 1, 8 and 15 to provide services to students and parents considering career and college selection.

The evening hours for the resource center are purposefully scheduled in early November so students and parents can avail themselves of the center's information and guidance prior to the high school's annual College Night, scheduled for November 18.

In addition to Mrs. Beeny, the center is staffed with volunteers.

Retailers Group Supports Senator DiFrancesco's Bid

The Interested Merchants Political Action Committee, which represents over 1,400 New Jersey Businesses, October 18 announced its endorsement of Senator Donald T. DiFrancesco of Scotch Plains for reelection in the 22nd Legislative District, which also includes Westfield and Fanwood.

A Merchants representative praised the hard work of Senator DiFrancesco saying, "Senator DiFrancesco has been a strong advocate for small business and has worked tirelessly to get New Jersey's economy back on track."

"Senator DiFrancesco fought to lower the sales tax, helping to bring economic vitality back to New Jersey.

The reduction also helped to keep more money in the hands of those who earned it, New Jersey's working men and women," she added.

The recently lowered sales tax has increased business activity throughout the state, she said.

Senator DiFrancesco also supported the passage of civil recovery legislation for shoplifters. This legislation has made it possible for retailers to put a considerable dent in the volume of shoplifting, thereby reducing the extraordinary costs which consumers and merchants alike must bear as a result of shoplifting.

The group also endorsed the Senator for his support of legislation which prevented double taxation of sub-chapter S corporations. Senator DiFrancesco's support of the Industrial Site Recovery Act, a reform to untangle the state's burdensome regulations, was another reason stated for the endorsement.

"One item which must not get overlooked in the Senator's commendable record is his support of employee tax incentive legislation. The bill created incentives for New Jersey businesses to hire more employees. Senator DiFrancesco has been busy putting New Jerseyans back to work and for that he should be back in the Senate," she said.

The retail industry provides over 575,000 jobs, making it the second largest employer in the state.

Chief Scutti Issues Guidelines for Halloween

With Halloween on Sunday, Westfield Police Chief Anthony J. Scutti reminds residents and parents of some important safety tips to make this holiday a safe one.

1. Children should be accompanied by an adult and trick-or-treat during the day, staying within their own neighborhoods. If that is not possible, and children are out after dark, a flashlight should be carried, or reflective tape affixed to their costumes.

2. Children should walk on sidewalks where possible and never run out from between parked cars.

3. Costumes should allow for freedom of movement, especially when going up and down stairs, be flame resistant and ideally use a "cosmetic mask" rather than a stiff face mask. If face masks are worn, parents should be certain they have large enough holes for the eyes and cannot slip to cloud the child's vision.

4. Children should be reminded to stay out of the piles of leaves in the street since the piles can hide children from traffic. Motorists should be extra cautious and expect the unexpected.

5. All candy and goodies received should not be eaten before they have been examined by an adult to make sure there are no foreign objects in them. All loose, unwrapped candy should be discarded.

Residents also can keep Halloween safe for the children by making certain all debris, leaves and flowers are cleared away from the steps so there is clear access to the front door. They should keep porch lights on as jack-o-lanterns away from front-door traffic.

Support Group For Ostomates To Start Soon

Overlook Hospital will conduct a free support group for ostomates and their families on the first Thursday of every month. The November 4 session will be held from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. at the Center for Community Health.

This support program is led by a health care professional, sharing and supporting any ostomate and family members who have questions and concerns related to living with an ostomy.

Anyone interested in joining this group or who knows someone who would benefit from this support group, please call 522-2140 or 522-5353.

Garden Clubs Hear Talk On Botanical Painting

The annual joint member-guest meeting of the Garden Club of Westfield and the Rake and Hoe Garden Club was held October 13 in the Community Room of the Westfield Municipal Building.

Dr. Patricia Kay, Program Coordinator of the New York Botanical Garden, gave an illustrated lecture entitled "Botanical Art: It's Not Just Flower Painting." Dr. Kay's works have appeared in many scientific journals, nature magazines, gardening books and newspapers. She is Professor Emerita of Education at Baruch College, part of the City University of New York.

The speaker said, "While flower painting is meant to be esthetically pleasing, botanical art strives for accuracy. The art was developed as early as the second century A.D. to convey to physicians information about medicinal plants." She also displayed a number of her more recent works which she described as "departures from the formal traditions ... which depict plants in the environments in which they grow, or with a particular theme in mind."

Garden Club President, Mrs. Frank Sullebarger, thanked Mrs. S.W. Larnee of Rake and Hoe and her committee who provided refreshments, and reminded Westfield Club members of the October 26 Myra Brooks Workshop to be held in the community room and Mindowaskin Park beginning at 9:30 a.m. Craig Stock, a landscape designer, will demonstrate pruning techniques.

Daughter Born To Macaluso

Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn Macaluso of Hoboken announced the birth of their second daughter, Alexis Margaret Macaluso.

Alexis was born on Friday, October 15, at Overlook Hospital in Summit. Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. David Smits of Boca Raton, Florida, and her paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Macaluso of Westfield.

Influenza Shots Set for Today

The next available influenza shots will be held on today in the Westfield Municipal Building Community Room at 425 East Broad Street, from 7 to 8 p.m.

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL ANTHONY AROMANDO
(She is the former Miss Diane Elvira Dilorio)

Miss Diane E. Dilorio, Mr. Aromando Take Vows

Miss Diane Elvira Dilorio, the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Dilorio and Fred Dilorio, both of Westfield, was married on Sunday, August 15, to Michael Anthony Aromando of Verona, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Aromando.

Officiating at the mid-afternoon ceremony at St. Helen's Roman Catholic Church in Westfield was the Reverend William Morris.

A reception at the Chanticleer in the Short Hills section of Millburn immediately followed the ceremony.

The hand of the bride was given in marriage by her brother, Vincent Dilorio.

She wore a white silk bridal gown with beaded sequins and pearls, a beaded sequin and pearl headpiece and a full-length veil and carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis, lilies, Lady Diana roses, Queen Anne lace and ivy.

Miss Linda Dilorio of Westfield served as the maid of honor for her sister.

She wore a full-length satin gown and carried lilies and stephanotis.

The bridal attendants were Mrs. Donna Doyle of Edison and the Misses Carol Migliozi of Westfield and Donna Spinelli of East Hanover. Serving as the flower girl was Erica Pilkington of Randolph.

The attire and floral arrangements of the bridal attendants were similar to those of the maid of honor.

Antonio Santulli of Verona was the best man, and the ushers were Vincent Dilorio of Edison, Peter Aromando of Deltona, Florida, the brother of the groom, and Peter Aromando of Deltona, a nephew of the groom.

The ring bearer was Julian Dilorio of Edison.

The bride graduated from Westfield High School in 1980 and from Monmouth College in West Long Branch in 1984. She is self-employed by the Dilorio Group of Westfield in telecommunications and utility cost containment.

Her husband graduated from Essex Catholic High School in East Orange and Kean College of New Jersey in Union.

He is employed by Ulrich, Vorhees, Warner Associates of Somerset.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the parents of the groom at Repetti's restaurant in Kenilworth.

Following a wedding trip to Aruba the couple established a residence in Verona.

Lauren Flynn In Dance Show

Lauren Flynn, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Flynn of Scotch Plains, recently performed in the Lynchburg College Dance Company presentation of "Gotta Dance." Lynchburg College is a private school in Central Virginia enrolling 2,400 students in professional, liberal arts and graduate studies.

The performance was one of many events scheduled to take place during the Lynchburg College Parents and Family Weekend.

Miss Flynn, a 1992 graduate of Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School, is the historian of the LC Dance Company and a sophomore elementary education major at Lynchburg College.

The important thing is not to stop questioning.

MR. AND MRS. WESLEY BAIRD SMITTLE
(She is the former Miss Anne Lorraine Young)

Miss Anne L. Young Bride of W.B. Smittle

Miss Anne Lorraine Young of Tacoma, Washington, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Young of San Jose, California, was married on Sunday, September 19, to Wesley Baird Smittle of Fort Lewis, Washington, the son of Dr. and Mrs. Richard B. Smittle of Stouchsburg, Pennsylvania, formerly of Westfield.

Officiating at the morning ceremony in the garden of the Rose Garden Inn at The Alameda in San Jose was the Reverend James Atwood.

A reception at the Rose Garden Inn immediately followed the ceremony.

The bride's hand was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a full-length gown of white satin and silk organza bordered with a scalloped-lace hemline sweeping into a chapel-length train. The gown featured a low, straight neckline and a beaded lace bodice with leg-of-mutton sleeves accented with rosettes. She wore a beaded, pearl and lace headband veil.

The bride carried a bouquet of red carnations, white roses, stephanotis and white ivy.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Treston Preston of San Jose.

She wore a red Anne Kline II dress with a shawl and carried a bouquet of red carnations, white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Serving as the bridesmaid was Miss Barbara Young, the sister of the bride.

She wore a red jacquard dress with a V-neck and leg-of-mutton sleeves and carried a bouquet similar to that of the matron of honor.

The best man was Kris Koederitz, a life-long friend of the groom from Westfield, and the usher was the father of the groom.

The bride graduated from Foothill Independent Study Program in San Jose in December 1989 and from the Sawyer Business College in December of last year. She is employed as a receptionist in Tacoma.

Her husband graduated from Conrad Weiser High School in 1990 and entered the United States Army Infantry School in August 1990. He is stationed at Fort Lewis.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the parents of the groom at the Hotel De Anze in San Jose.

The couple established a residence in Tacoma.

It's All About Humble Pies, Cold Shoulders, Bakers' Dozens

"Etions," a word coined by John D. Jacobson, also known as "The Word Sleuth," will be the subject of his talk at the next "First Wednesday" Dutch treat luncheon to be held in Raymond's Restaurant, Westfield at noon on Wednesday, November 3.

Mr. Jacobson has developed his life-long love affair with world originals — etymology — into a second career. In addition to a weekly newspaper column in The Westfield Leader, "The Word Sleuth," which he co-authors with his wife, Josephine, Mr. Jacobson has written two books dealing with this subject.

The first book Toposaurus: A Humorous Treasury of Toponyms published in 1990, focuses on words that come from place names the world over. His second book, Etions, a coined word combining eat and idiom, traces the meanings of such words as humble pie, cold shoulder, baker's dozen and hundreds of other etions. His talk before the "First Wednesday" luncheon group will focus on the fascinating origin of words combining history, trivia and etymology interspersed with Mr. Jacobson's special brand of humor and social comments. Autographed copies of his books will be available for those who wish to buy them.

Although sponsored by the Westfield Historical Society, these monthly noontime luncheons are open to the public. However, Toastmaster William B. Shafer requests that reservations be made at least 24 hours in advance by telephoning 232-1776. Those who have attended recent luncheons are on a calling list and will be called regarding their attendance.

General Lee Court Martial Topic of Patriotic Sons

Dr. Mark E. Lender, Director of Advanced Study and Research at Kean College, will address the West Fields Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution at the Municipal Building on Wednesday, November 3, at 8:15 p.m. He will discuss the court martial of General Charles Lee, raising the question of whether the Revolutionary War trial was political or militarily justified.

Dr. Lender received his doctorate in American history at Rutgers and has been affiliated with the university since 1974 in both administration and in alcohol studies. He has written extensively on American history and on alcoholism. Among his published works are four books on New Jersey history.

Dr. Lender presently serves as executive producer and historian of a television presentation about General Lee's court martial. At the Battle of Monmouth in 1778, General Lee advanced with the American forces against the British, and then retreated. He asked for a court martial and was found guilty of misconduct in a trial long debated by historians.

The Sons welcome the public to its meetings which conclude with refreshments. Please use the East Broad Street entrance to the Municipal Building.

A teacher affects eternity; no one can tell where his influence stops.

Planned Parenthood Backs All Hopefuls In District No. 22

The Planned Parenthood Action Fund of New Jersey endorsed Republican Senator Donald T. DiFrancesco of Scotch Plains and Democrat Eli Hoffman for the State Senate in the 22nd Legislative District which also includes Westfield and Fanwood. For the Assembly, the group also endorsed incumbent Assemblymen Richard H. Bagger of Westfield and Alan M. Augustine of Scotch Plains, and their Democratic challengers Carlton W. Hanson and Mrs. Susan H. Pepper of Westfield.

Senate President DiFrancesco has held a pro-choice position for many years and has supported increased funding for family planning in the state. His opponent, Democrat Eli Hoffman, has also declared himself pro-choice.

Republican incumbent Assemblyman Bagger serves on the Appropriations Committee and supported an increase in funding for family planning funding. Republican Assemblyman Alan M. Augustine is pro-choice, as are his Democratic challengers, Mr. Hanson and Mrs. Pepper.

Ryuichi Saito Cited As Rutgers Scholar

Ryuichi Saito of Westfield, a student at Westfield High School, was one of several hundred of the state's brightest juniors to be selected to the University Scholars Program at Rutgers.

Nominated by their high school guidance director, the top-ranked students were selected according to their rank-in-class and their scores on the Scholastic Achievement Test. The scholars are assured of admission to New Jersey's state university after high school graduation. They will be eligible to compete for the Presidential Scholarship, which is based on academic achievement, extra-curricular activities and an essay.

Scholars will be invited to the campus by the Office of University Undergraduate Admissions to explore the educational options and the social and cultural aspects of the university.

This show is said to have been nationally recognized as the leading folk art show in the nation. Folk artisans from all across the country bring their quality handcrafted reproductions and country heirlooms. This show will have a great variety of handmade country accessories and collectibles to decorate the country home.

Some of the folk art items for sale will include quilts and wall hangings, Appalachian style baskets, uplilt and willow baskets, Shaker furniture and boxes, grape-vine wreaths and herbal arrangements, whittigigs, weather-vanes, thermoems, frakturts, rag rugs, teddy bears, scherenschnitte, country signs, decoys, dummy boards, wood carvings, spongeware, redware, calligraphy, cut and pierced lamp shades, stenciled lampshades, cabinets, dry sinks, settles, water benches, chimney cupboards, children's furniture, country clocks, fireboards and salt-glazed stoneware.

MUSIC TIME... The Rotary Club of Westfield welcomed two local guests to the regular luncheon meeting last week. President, Mrs. Gail Cassidy, right, is shown with Mrs. Jane Kelly, the General Manager of the Westfield Symphony and Brad Keimach, the Music Director and Conductor of the orchestra. Mr. Keimach invited Rotarians to attend the orchestral performances in the 1993-1994 season with special invitations to members who have never been to a symphony concert or who dislike classical music. He said attendees would be surprised and shocked at the first of the season's performances, a program of Beethoven's music including the Pastoral Symphony. Rotarians also were treated to a talk by Mr. Keimach outlining the story of Symphony No. 6 which was presented on October 23 at Westfield High School and outlines of future programs through the season. In closing, the Conductor repeated his thanks to members for a scholarship which he received from Rotary 21 years ago and which allowed him to study at the Juillard School of Music.

Mrs. Karen Rose Receives Hadassah Leadership Award

Mrs. Karen Rose of the Westfield Chapter of Hadassah has been named a recipient of the Seventh Annual Hadassah National Leadership

Association and currently serves on the Caring Committee.

She is on the Board of Directors of the University of Pennsylvania Club of Metropolitan New Jersey and has chaired many functions.

With 1,500 Chapters in the United States and Puerto Rico, Hadassah is the largest and oldest American Zionist Women's organization in the world, and this year celebrates 81 years of continuous service rooted in health care, education, child rescue and rehabilitation.

Cystic Fibrosis Conference Set For November 7

The Cystic Fibrosis Center at the University of Medicine and Dentistry in New Jersey will present the Family Day Conference on Sunday, November 7, at the Somerset Marriott in Somerset.

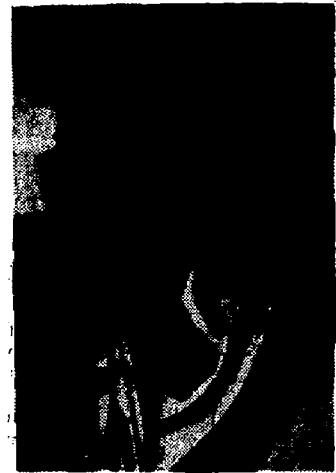

Approximately 30,000 Americans have Cystic Fibrosis. It is a genetic disorder which primarily affects the lungs and digestive system. Regular lung therapy and antibiotic treatments have raised life expectancy into adulthood, but now the exploding field of genetic engineering offers the hope of new breakthroughs and possibly a cure.

Dr. Ronald Crystal, one of the featured speakers at the conference, has been at the forefront of gene therapy research and is currently involved in the first round of tests on human patients. He will explain the process, present the very latest results and answer your questions. The other two speakers are also experts in their fields. Dr. Andrew Mulberg will discuss digestive problems and treatments, and Dr. Joanna H. Fanos will address emotional and psychosocial issues.

Miller-Cory Volunteers To Hold Craft Workshop

The Volunteers of the Miller-Cory House Museum will offer a craft workshop on Tuesday, November 9. Craftsman, Mrs. Anna Lanam, will demonstrate making a nine-inch heart shaped wreath of woven wheat with dried flowers and ribbon trim.

The workshop will be held at the Miller-Cory Museum in the Education Center at 7 p.m. Seating is limited and reservations and payment must be paid in advance. The fee is only $14 for members and $18 for non-members and includes all materials.

Mrs. Karen Rose

Award. The award was announced by Hadassah National President, Mrs. Deborah Kaplan, at the Hadassah 79th Annual Convention in Los Angeles, California.

These awards honor members whose leadership accomplishments within Hadassah and other civic, educational and cultural organizations reflect Hadassah's dedication to the principles of the volunteer ethic. Award recipients are selected by their peers within the chapter and represent a wide range of age groups and achievements.

"Karen exemplifies the best qualities of today's Hadassah woman," said Mrs. Shirley Ducatman, Chapter President. "We all share a sense of pride for the tribute bestowed upon her."

Mrs. Rose was a Charter Member of the Meira Group of the Westfield Chapter of Hadassah in 1975. She served three years as President of the Meira Group as well as Fund Raising Vice President and Art Show Coordinator. In the Northern New Jersey Region of Hadassah, she has chaired the Woman of the Year event at Myrtle Wreath Day and Regional Life Membership.

Mrs. Rose resides with husband, Gary, and sons, Adam and Alex, in Short Hills. At her children's school, Newark Academy in Livingston, she has served as President of the Parent's Association and as a Trustee.

At her temple, B'nai Jeshurun, she has been Treasurer of the Women's

Junior Women's Craft Fair November 13 at Plains High

The Scotch Plains Junior Woman's Club will hold a Craft Show on Saturday, November 13, at the Scotch Plains and Fanwood High School from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Local charities will benefit from the funds raised at the show. Contact We Care will be awarded the proceeds from the 50/50 Super Raffle.

The public will enjoy shopping for Thanksgiving, Christmas and Chanukah gifts for family and friends from more than 50 crafters that will display their original hand-crafted designs. Craft show visitors will be able to purchase stained glass sun catchers, Victorian Christmas decorations, wreaths, knitted children's items, dolls, jewelry, painted clothing and many other decorative items and gifts.

The Junior Woman's Club will be serving breakfast, lunch and other refreshments throughout the day as well as providing a table of home-baked goods, for purchase. A club cookbook may be purchased for $5.

Ample parking is available at the high school located on Westfield Road in Scotch Plains.

In lieu of admission, the Juniors will be collecting canned protein foods such as tuna, Spam, stew, beans or peanut butter for the New Jersey FoodBank, helping to feed the hungry in the state.

Miss Swindlehurst Reviews Her Background and Goals

Miss Cynthia L. Swindlehurst, a life-long resident of Fanwood, is seeking her first term on Borough Council. Since she has grown up in the community and has seen Fanwood change over the years, Miss Swindlehurst hopes to maintain Fanwood's image of a nice small suburban town by being a part of its future.

After graduating from Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School, she received her Associate of Arts degree from Union County College. She continued on to earn a Bachelor of Arts and a Bachelor of Science Degree, both cum laude, from East Stroudsburg University.

She has been active in the community for many years. Some of her activities revolve around her church commitments. While in high school she served as a deacon and from 1990-1993 served as an elder at Fanwood Presbyterian Church. Currently, she is a youth group leader, a member of the Christian Education Commission and handbell choir, while still a member of other groups in the community.

As Secretary for the Union County Advisory Board for Air Traffic Noise, Miss Swindlehurst has been a member for four years. This board has been actively working on air traffic problems as well as safety and health issues. She also serves on the Memorial Day Parade Committee which has already begun to meet for next year's parade.

Her goal is to be elected on November 2. She plans to pursue funding for parks to offset the cost of the required improvements mandated by the state. As a council member, she plans to make all decisions on the basis of what is best for Fanwood now and in the future.

Helping all residents solve problems will be an important goal in achieving success on the council, she said.

Adventure of Reading Plains Library Tape

The Scotch Plains Public Library will "Share the Adventure of Reading" and mark Children's Book Week by participating in a County-wide Readathon on Monday, November 15, between 6 and 7:30 p.m. in the Children's Department of the Library.

Each of the 21 public libraries that serve the half million people of Union County will host a Readathon for families. Special guest readers, including local officials and friends of the library, will share favorite stories in support of literacy and the love of reading.

All serious daring starts from within. Wellsy

ALL TOGETHER...The Fanwood Republican candidates and their families at a recent get together.

Fanwood Republican Hopefuls Tell of Experience, Families

Fanwood Borough Council candidates, Andrew J. MacDonald, Louis C. Jung and Donald S. Kolterjahn, have three things in common: They are all family men, civic leaders and businessmen. Additionally, all three specifically selected Fanwood as the place to raise their children, they said in a release to The Times.

Councilman MacDonald and his wife, Kathleen, have two sons and two daughters. His four children range in age from three to 19. Councilman MacDonald is a former Cub Scout leader and pitches in at the Fanwood-Scotch Plains Recycling Center for both the Boy Scouts and his church, St. Bartholomew's. He is also quite involved in many other church activities. Councilman MacDonald is also a member of the fire company and a former Fire Commissioner and Police Commissioner.

Mr. MacDonald is an Account Executive at Bell Atlantic and has extensive business knowledge and skills which he says he finds very useful in the effective operation of the town. Billing himself as frugal Scotsman, he admits to keeping a watchful eye on every dollar that is spent in the borough. He believes that, while government is not in business to make a profit, it can certainly function in a businesslike manner while delivering essential services in an efficient manner and cost effective manner.

Councilman Jung and his wife, Nancy, raised their twin daughters in Fanwood. Councilman Jung says he appreciates the wholesome environment that exists in Fanwood and enjoys assisting his daughters with their many extra-curricular activities. He is a former member on the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Board of Education.

Councilman Jung has 18 years experience in the engineering, budgetary, supervision and governmental affairs units of Exxon Corp. He holds both Bachelor of Science and Master of Science Degrees in Civil Engineering. Currently, there is no one on the council with engineering experience, Councilman Jung said.

Mr. Kolterjahn and his wife, Jean, have two young sons, Timothy, 3, and Robert, 1. Mr. and Mrs. Kolterjahn chose Fanwood to raise their family. He is a former Deacon of his church and is very active in the Children's Specialized Hospital and other charitable organizations.

Mr. Kolterjahn is a sales manager for General Office Environments and has a wide variety of business skills including management, negotiations and sales.

Technical Schools Host Advisory Committees at Dinner Meeting

Two hundred persons were in attendance when the Union County Vocational-Technical Schools hosted a dinner meeting for members of the advisory committees to its learning programs.

Labelled "In Step With Industry," the event took place on October 21 at the schools.

The guests were welcomed by Dr. Vito A. Gagliardi, Superintendent, while the main speaker was former New Jersey State Senator and Assemblyman Peter J. McDonough. Now a partner in the Princeton Public Affairs Group, Mr. McDonough also served as a member of the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders.

At the conclusion of the dinner segment, meetings between advisory committee members and instructors took place in individual classrooms with separate agendas. The program was coordinated by Ronald Weber, Supervisor of Job Placements and Apprenticeships.

The advisory committees are comprised of volunteers from many areas of business and industry.

They provide the schools programs with the expertise and experience necessary for maintaining top level instruction which is constantly in tune with the times.

Full details about the advisory committees and the quality of school graduates as potential employees can be obtained by calling Mr. Weber at 889-2926.

Rahway Hospital Offers Free Program on Menopause

"Women entering menopause are often looking for relief from the uncomfortable symptoms, but their physicians are also looking at their long-term health care needs. Estrogen replacement therapy is one treatment that may alleviate the concerns of both doctor and patient," states Dr. George Zobel, a Clark obstetrician and gynecologist.

Dr. Zobel will be the featured speaker at Rahway Hospital's free lecture, "Menopause & Estrogen Replacement Therapy," to be held Wednesday, November 17, at 7 p.m. in the hospital's Main Conference Room.

"I've heard so many myths about menopause, that vitamins C and E or herbal teas can ease hot flashes, or that overcoming menopausal depression is just 'mind over matter.' This just isn't true," he says. "Menopause means hormonal and physical changes that require a physician's care."

He explains that certain long-term medical concerns often accompany the onset of menopause, including osteoporosis, cardiovascular disease, loss of tissue elasticity and psychological distress.

Dr. Zobel states that in the past estrogen wasn't considered safe because of its potential link to cancer. He cites modern medical research in disputing any link and in establishing the effectiveness of estrogen therapy.

"Today's studies show that estrogen replacement therapy for women in menopause can have positive cardiovascular effects and can effectively treat osteoporosis and depression which are not pre-existing conditions. Additionally, there is no evidence that this treatment increases the patient's risk of cancer," he said.

Dr. Zobel stresses that while estrogen replacement can be an effective treatment, this type of therapy is not the "cure-all" for women following menopause.

"This treatment is not for every woman," he said. "Estrogen replacement therapy is an individualized approach which must take into account many factors. It is essential that women who are slender, have entered menopause at a relatively early age or have a family history of osteoporosis or cardiovascular disease be monitored through menopause. These women are frequently candidates for this therapy," he said.

No registration is required, and there is no fee for attending this program. For more information, please call 499-6193.

CASABAH BOUND...Mrs. Leslie Miller, Fundraising Vice President, left, and Mrs. Myrlam Gabriel, Co-President, address invitations to The Westfield Symphony Friends "Casablanca Night" on Saturday, November 13. All those interested in attending should call 789-8657.

Casablanca Night to Aid Symphony on November 13

The exciting world of Rick's Cafe from the classic Bogart movie Casablanca will be re-created by the Westfield Symphony Friends, a talented group of women who support the Westfield Symphony.

Interested in expanding their membership to those in Cranford, Scotch Plains, Fanwood, Mountainside and Plainfield, they are opening up their "Casablanca Night" on Saturday, November 13, in Westfield to all those who want to know more about the Westfield Symphony and The Friends, its volunteer organization.

The Westfield Symphony has been honored as a Distinguished Arts Organization by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts.

To enhance the fun of Casablanca Night, there will be a 50-50 raffle and a wine tasting along with home-made hors d'oeuvres and desserts. There also will be a chance to win two tickets to the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. The fee will be $25. If you would like an invitation, please call 789-8657.

Resolve Will Present Counseling for Children

Resolve Community Counseling Center, Inc. of Scotch Plains is beginning a support group for children, called "Children are People."

The group is for children from the ages of 5 to 15 and will begin on Monday, November 1.

The group will promote positive self-esteem, meaningful relationships and responsible decision making. Awareness of chemical abuse and dependency also will be explored. This group will help meet the needs of those children who are living in families where there are concerns relating to alcohol and/or drug abuse.

The group will be held at Resolve on Monday afternoons for eight consecutive weeks for approximately one hour. The program is free of charge.

It will provide a confidential setting where children can share their concerns. Group topics will include: Feelings, defenses, risks and choices and chemical dependency.

Resolve is a private, non-profit agency that works with people from all social and economical levels. The agency is dedicated to helping families and individuals cope with the problems of everyday life.

For further information and to enroll a child in the group, please telephone 322-9180, Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Sessions will be held at Resolve Community Counseling, 1830 Front Street, Scotch Plains.

Jewish Brunch Stated for Sunday

The Scotch Plains and Fanwood Community Division of the Jewish Federation of Central New Jersey invites the Jewish community to brunch on Sunday, October 31, from 10 a.m. to noon at the center, 1391 Martine Avenue, Scotch Plains.

There will be entertainment for the children. Stanley Stone, Executive Director of the Federation, will be on hand to meet the community.

Mrs. Linda Weisbrod and Steven Weinberg, Co-Chairman of the event, both of Scotch Plains, are being assisted by Mrs. Blyse Deutsch, Mrs. Holly Simon, Laufs Beckerman and Jon Ulanet.

There is no charge for the brunch; however, reservations are required. To make a reservation, please call 298-8200.

Who cares if you're exercising only half of your potential?

We care.

Because we care about you as a whole person.

At Delbarton, the entire community cheers your efforts in the classroom, on the playing field, in the arts, in clubs and activities, and in service to others. No achievements are valued out of balance.

The varsity athlete is no more respected than the editor of the school newspaper...or the president of the Science League...or the boy who volunteers Saturday afternoons to play basketball with handicapped children. Because at Delbarton it's not unusual for the same boy to do all of these things.

Just as Benedictine monks (the celebrated "Schoolmasters of Europe") have been doing for 1500 years, Delbarton develops each boy's diverse talents and broadens his vision of how he might use those gifts. We are a community of many talents, races, ethnicities and creeds working together to advance the finest tradition of the liberal arts—educating you, the whole person, for a full life of personal excellence and moral responsibility.

Midshipman Hughes In Acceptance Ceremonies

Midshipman Ryan Hughes of Westfield recently participated in Acceptance Day ceremonies at the Merchant Marine Academy in Kings Point, New York.

The event annually marks the official acceptance of the freshman, or plebe, class into the ranks of the academy's regiment of midshipmen.

A graduate of Westfield High School, Midshipman Hughes with some 250 plebes, was administered the academy and the Naval Reserve oaths by the federal maritime school's Superintendent Rear Admiral Thomas T. Matteson.

Midshipman Hughes was nominated to the academy by Senator William "Bill" Bradley.

The plebe class reported in July to the academy, which is operated by the Maritime Administration of the Department of Transportation, for training young men and women as future merchant marine and Naval Reserve officers.

Their initial two months were spent in regimental and academic training.

Pressure on Officeholders Needed to End Plane Noise

detailed and specific strategies for challenging the aviation agency's rule-making programs which have resulted in the Expanded East Coast Plan and the resulting routing of more aircraft over many suburban municipalities such as Westfield.

Contrary to statements made by Mr. Ancona, the Mayor noted, the Senator has been doing a good job of making his position on aircraft noise known.

However, Monica Felsing, Mr. Ancona's wife, said as the subcommittee Chairman who holds the "purse strings" to the aviation agency Senator Lautenberg "has the power to turn the planes off overnight."

She added the Senator may be reluctant to do this because, according to Project Vote Smart, the air transportation industry lobbyists donated $67,000 between 1985 and 1990 to his campaigns.

First Ward Councilman Anthony M. LaPorta responded after speaking with officials of the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, which operates Newark International Airport, he found it is difficult even to route airplanes over the ocean as the citizen group suggests because of conflicts with military air traffic and commercial traffic from Philadelphia, Washington, D.C. and Baltimore.

Headed the $1,000 will have some influence in formulating a specific response to the government plan because it will pay attorney and other fees.

First Ward Councilman Norman N. Greco said he could not understand the position taken by Mr. Ancona and his wife.

The town, he added, would make sure it was getting the most effective use of the money appropriated and the council would not stop its efforts until the aircraft noise problem was solved.

Fourth Ward Councilman Michael E. Panagos also noted, despite some claims by the Dickson Drive residents, the state citizens' group went from having no funding a year ago, and no alternate proposal to the government plan to a situation in the last six months where it has funding and has developed an alternative plan.

Fund Names Co-Chairmen For Town Business Drive

Local businesses are being asked to contribute to the annual drive of the Westfield United Fund by a committee headed by two local residents.

Christine Cosenza, a State Farm agent, and First Ward Councilman Norman N. Greco, owner of local service companies, head the Retail Business Division solicitation for the 1993 campaign.

"The United Fund relies heavily on monies from businesses in the area," says Roger Love, Campaign Chairman. "It is important to have local business people assist with this part of our fundraising efforts."

Among the agencies which receive United Fund assistance are: American Red Cross, Jewish Community Center, Westfield Community Center, Catholic Community Services, Westfield Neighborhood Council, and the Westfield "Y."

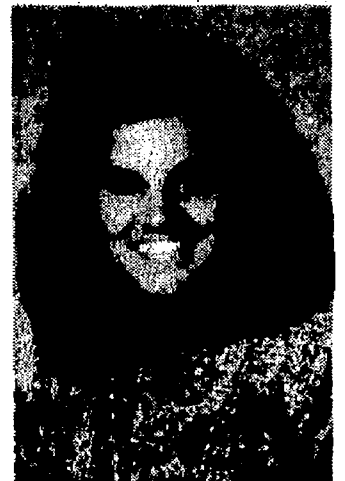

Christine, who is joining the volunteer team for the first time, holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from Bucknell University and a Master's Degree in Business Administration from George Washington University. She is a member of the National Association of Life Underwriters, the Westfield Chamber of Commerce and the New Jersey Association of Women Business Owners.

Councilman Greco has worked in past years on the United Fund Retail Business Division unit. He has served as President of the town's Chamber of Commerce, as a member of the Board of Directors of the Westfield "Y," as co-founder of the Westfield Softball League, as an Executive Board member of the Downtown Committee, and as a member of UNICO, the Westfield Rotary Club and the Republican Club. His hobbies include tennis, sailing, golf, baseball and reading.

Four People Injured In Westfield Accidents

Four people were taken to various area hospitals with moderate injuries when they were injured in traffic accidents in the town this week.

Last Tuesday afternoon, a pregnant Hillside driver, Mrs. Marian B. Quinonez, was taken to Rahway Hospital after she was hurt when her car collided with one driven by Martin S. Ziger of Westfield on East Broad Elm Streets.

Ziger was charged with careless driving.

That night, Robert F. Beese of Westfield had an apparent diabetic reaction, according to police, and the car he was driving drove over two lawns on Windsor Avenue near Ripley Avenue, crossed the roadway and struck a tree. He was taken to Overlook Hospital in Summit.

Wednesday morning, Rose M. Dutter of Scotch Plains was taken to Muhlenberg Medical Center in Plainfield with injuries she received when her car hit one driven by Mercedes M. Domingues of Kearny on Mountain and Alden Avenues.

In the fourth accident, on Monday afternoon, bicyclist Peter Wilson of Westfield was taken to Overlook with injuries received when his bicycle was struck by a car driven by Jeffrey R. Lamb of Malibu, California on Scotch Plains Avenue near Dorian Road.

INDIANS RECALLED...In commemoration of the Lenni Lenape Indian Tribe who once inhabited Tamaques Park and the celebration of Westfield's upcoming bicentennial, life-long Westfield resident, Warren H. Victor, center, has dedicated a plaque. At the dedication were Mayor Garland C. "Bud" Boothe, Jr., Mrs. Linda Maggio, Chairman of the Westfield Bicentennial Commission, Mr. Victor and guests. The plaque, erected on a specially selected, small boulder, surrounded by a ring of flowers, is located between the lake and entrance bridge to the picnic area of Tamaques Park.

Officials Outline Plans to Renovate Station Platform

firming the municipality's agreement with the state agency regarding the planned location of the raised platforms and tunnel at the station.

The agency will then need to have its proposal reviewed and approved by the state's Historic Preservation Office because the Westfield train station is a historic landmark. This approval process is expected to take about two months, according to Mr. Peduto.

Mr. Peduto reported, pending approval of the agency's plans, a design for the work would likely be completed by September of next year, with work estimated to begin the following spring.

WESTFIELD POLICE BLOTTER Roselle Woman Held in Forgery

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19

A Kearny resident reported someone damaged his car while it was parked in the town.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 20

Someone stole a motorcycle belonging to a South Avenue West man.

Pamela Spina of Roselle was arrested on six counts of passing forged checks and one count of theft by deception in Westfield.

A car was broken into and items stolen from it on Minisink Way.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20

Someone burglarized an apartment in Duncan Hill on Central Avenue.

Mr. DeSimone Leading Hopeful For Tamaques Principal

Salvatore J. DeSimone, Assistant Principal of Roosevelt Intermediate School, has emerged as the choice of Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Mark C. Smith, and a six-member Selection Advisory Committee to become Principal of Tamaques School.

Mr. DeSimone was selected from over 100 applicants for the position vacated in August when former Tamaques School Principal David Tuller became Director of Human Resources for the school system.

Dr. Smith will take his recommendation of Mr. DeSimone as Tamaques School Principal to the Board of Education for appointment at the board's next public meeting on November 9. The new principal will assume the position in December.

Miss Kathleen Zepf, a former principal of the school, has been serving as interim principal since August.

Mr. DeSimone is well known in Westfield; he began his career here 20 years ago as an English and Spanish teacher at Roosevelt Junior High School. In 1976, at age 25, he was named the English and Foreign Language Department head the youngest in recent history. After serving in that position for 12 years, in 1989 he was named Assistant Elementary Principal at Franklin School where he remained for three years. He holds bachelor and master's degrees from Seton Hall University of South Orange and has done postgraduate work at Kean College of Union.

During the principal selection process, 100 applications for the Tamaques School principal position were screened to 32 and that number was further reduced by the superintendent and his advisory committee to 10 semifinalists. The semifinalists were interviewed and reduced to three finalists who returned for a second round of interviews.

—Serving the Town Since 1890—

P.O. Box 250, 50 Elm Street • Westfield, N.J. 07091

Dear Westfielder:

The Westfield Leader has the highest readership of any paid weekly newspaper in Union County — with nearly two-thirds of our town's households numbered as paid subscribers.

Every week it enables its subscribers to receive the most complete coverage of any area newspaper of every event in Westfield from town and Union County government and politics to high school sports to weddings, engagements, complete obituaries, other social news and the many events sponsored by our town's numerous civic organizations.

It also offers viewpoints on a variety of topics — current films, senior citizen issues, humor, psychology and current events by experts in each field who are your neighbors.

Many of our readers give gift subscriptions to those in and out of town and also send The Leader to those in college. Perhaps, this is the time you might consider some of these possibilities.

The Leader, your hometown newspaper since 1890, is the official newspaper for Westfield and also an official newspaper for Union County.

Raiders' Boys Booters Win Over Cranford in Counties

By JONATHAN KANAREK
Specialty Writer for The Times

The Boys' Soccer Team at Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School is once again going strong this season.

That is not surprising considering the team is aiming for their third consecutive state championship.

Presently, the Raiders are involved in the Union County Tournament.

This past Saturday, senior Tony Perfilio scored two goals while juniors Sean Dambaugh and Russell Frame each netted one apiece to give the Raiders a 4-1 victory over Cranford.

Scotch Plains jumped out to a 3-0 half-time lead due to their pure domination of a weaker Cranford squad. The Raiders played particularly well in the first half of their quarter-finals match with Cranford. In the second half, both teams were out of rhythm during a stretch full of penalties and violations. As the game wore on, the Raiders regained control and kept it.

With that victory last Saturday at home, the Raiders have advanced to the semi-finals of the tournament where they will face Elizabeth on the road.

"Though we beat Elizabeth handily this season, we cannot overlook them," junior Mike Horev said.

On Tuesday, the Raiders played in Kearny. They were looking to get a tough, low-scoring game out of a strong Cardinals team.

"The rowdy fans there make it one of the toughest places to play," Horev says of Kearny.

During the summer, the Raiders were involved in three close encounters with Kearny, all of which they won.

Today, the Raiders will host rival Westfield. When Scotch Plains-Fanwood and Westfield meet, it's more like a war than a game.

The Raiders look as if they have the better team, but Horev doesn't feel an essential factor in today's contest.

"This is not going to be a game that will tell which team is better. It will show us which team is tougher," he said.

It appears the Raiders have made a full recovery from their only blemish earlier this season, a 1-0 loss at the hands of St. Benedict's.

With their balanced scoring attack led by Horev, Perfilio, Dambaugh and senior Eric Ruano, other teams have found they cannot just zero-in on one player.

Frame, senior Eric Finley and sophomore Daniel Hall have also played especially well in recent weeks.

Coach Tom Breznitsky's discipline leaves no room for fun, but it sure proves to be profitable, as the Raiders will tell you.

GETTING AWAY...Scotch Plains Raiders quarterback Kevin Rosander, No. 14, escapes a tackle by Steve Moninger of Westfield during Saturday's game. The Blue Devil defeated the Raiders 22-16 in the neighborhood rivalry.

Erwyn Lyght Runs for 104 Yards To Bring Devils Win Over Raiders

Erwyn Lyght again brought glory to the Westfield High School Blue Devils Football Team as he finished with 104 yards on 21 carries on Saturday to give the Devils a 22-16 victory over the Raiders of Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School in Scotch Plains.

Lyght broke loose for a 37-yard dash, and Chris Vogel's conversion kick brought the 2-2-1 Westfield squad to a 22-9 lead in the fourth quarter.

The 2-3 Raiders struck back and scored with two minutes on the clock when quarterback Kevin Rosander ended a 54-yard drive by keeping the ball on a four-yard run and Juliano DiNizio kicked the conversion.

SPORTS

The town squad finalized the win when it recovered an on-sides kick attempted by the township team.

Junior Devils tailback Lyght capped Westfield's opening drive when he raced into the end zone from the five-yard line.

Fullback John Mask paced the nine-play, 80-yard march with 44 yards on three carries, while Paul Baly ran for the conversion.

Scotch Plains cut the gap to 8-6 before the half when Rosander ran in from the three-yard line. The Devils then pushed their lead to 15-6 in the third quarter when quarterback Steven Check sneaked in from the one-yard line. DiNizio's 26-yard field goal had trimmed Westfield's lead to 15-9 early in the fourth period.

Raiders' Girl Booters Upset Clark in Tourney

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School Raiders Girls' Soccer Team upset the previously-unbeaten Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School Crusaders Girls' Soccer Team of Clark on Friday to advance in the Union County Tournament.

The township squad also tied Livingston on Saturday and defeated Kearny on Tuesday.

In Friday's game, Anna Keegan and Daine Sherry drove in second-half goals and Jennifer Koster held off 13 attempts by the Crusaders on goal to blank the second-seeded Crusaders 2-0.

Keegan, with an assist from Jaime Schnirman, gave the seventh-seeded Raiders a 1-0 lead at eight minutes and 17 seconds into the second half, and Sherry converted a feed from Christine Boyle 20 minutes later.

The Raiders will meet township rivals Union Catholic on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in Clark in the next round of the tournament.

In Saturday's match, the Livingston squad held a 21-4 advantage in shots, but couldn't get one past Koster as the two squads tied 0-0.

Koster made 14 saves for the Raiders, while Jessie Krol had two for the 7-5-2 Lancers.

Lacrosse Clinic Starts Saturday

A free fall lacrosse clinic will be sponsored by the Westfield Recreation Commission for boys in fourth to sixth grades at Edison Intermediate School Field in Westfield on Saturdays, from 3 to 5 p.m., on October 30 and November 6, 13 and 20, with raindates on the Sundays following each of the above dates.

Participants should bring a stick. Helmets and gloves will be provided by the Westfield Recreation Department.

Please telephone the Recreation Department at 789-4080 or Ed Joffe at 232-8703 after 7 p.m. for further information.

MOVING IT THROUGH...Westfield junior soccer player Dave Schaller moves the ball down field during Saturday's boys' soccer Union County Tournament game. Schaller scored a goal late in the first half to give the Blue Devils a 1-0 lead. They went on to defeat the Farmers 3-0 and move on to the next round in the tournament.

Devils Boys' Booters Team Blanks Union Farmers in County Tourney

By ADAM WEINSTEIN
Specialty Writer for The Westfield Leader

Having their game against Raritan and Plainfield cancelled, the Westfield Boys' Soccer Team had plenty of time to prepare for Saturday's game against Union.

The Blue Devils hosted Union in the quarter-final round of the Union County Tournament. The Farmers entered the game with a mediocre 7-7-1 record, but proved to be a formidable opponent.

Westfield had several opportunities to score early on but the game remained scoreless for most of the first half. With five minutes and 26 seconds remaining in the half, a goal by junior striker Dave Schaller gave the Devils a 1-0 lead. Schaller scored off a feed from sophomore halfback Alex Schmidt.

The Blue Devil offense was much sharper in the second half. Halfbacks Kevin Aldrich and Steve Flynn add insurance goals to push Westfield's lead to 3-0.

Goalie Mike Rosner needed only five saves to post the shutout. The Blue Devil defense shut down the Farmers, limiting them to only five shots on goal. Sweeper Keith Zadorian and fullbacks Gary McMillan and Scott Mueller dominated their half of the field.

The 3-0 victory left the Blue Devils with a 10-2-1 record.

They are ranked 11th in the state and on a roll as they prepare for the final stage of the season.

Today, they travel to play Scotch Plains for their toughest challenge of the season. The arch-rival Raiders are ranked second in the state.

Chargers Blank Hills Strikers 1-0

The Westfield Chargers Soccer Team came out fighting, keeping the ball in the opponents' side of the field.

Halfbacks Jack Kane, Gavin Shulman and Michael Schoenfeld continuously fed the ball to the forwards. Brian Bottini, in his first game since recovering from pneumonia, scored early with a shot on goal from the corner.

On two occasions the Somerset Hills team had breakaway scoring opportunities. The first was run down and followed by sweeper Rich Rowe, Matt Simone, John Henry Flood, Tim Carroll and David Seligman kept the pressure on with shots on goal and Ryan Hogan had several good passes, but the Chargers failed to get another score, leaving the score 1-0 at the end of the half.

In the second half the defense was tested, but Brendan Maher and Teddy Browns rose to the challenge. Skipper Kierren Silber, returning from injured reserve, used his strong foot to stem the tide of the attack. On a second breakaway of the game, left fullback Seth Fischer came across the goal to deflect the shot.

The final few minutes were tense as the visitors tried desperately to score, but Paul Johnson's tenacious goal tending preserved the 1-0 shutout.

Livingston Netters Take Devils From Tourney

By KELLY FEENEY
Specialty Writer for The Westfield Leader

The Westfield Girls' Tennis Team suffered a disappointing loss last Friday when Livingston edged the Blue Devils 3-2 to take home the Group No. 4 Section No. 2 state crown.

Westfield went into the match ranked first and Livingston was ranked second. The two teams were so closely paired that each match, excluding first singles, was pushed to three sets.

At first singles, powerhitter Shana Levinson of Livingston proved too experienced for sophomore Laura Faulkner. In straight sets Levinson won 6-0, 6-0.

Senior Liz Ryu hit strong ground strokes against Remi Salah at second singles. After losing the first set 5-7, Ryu picked up her game and handily won the second set 6-1. After a disappointing service break, Ryu lost the set 3-6.

Sophomore Heather Post relied on her smart shots to pass by Elyse Lettinger 6-0, 6-1. Post has been a constant contributor for the team all season, posting win after win at the third-singles slot.

Recording Westfield's second win were Lauren Kazanoff and Gloria Ko at first doubles. Ko and Kazanoff were down in the third set before making a strong comeback to defeat Lisa Weinstein and Shari Parson 6-4, 1-6, 3-6. In the last set, Ko and Kazanoff won the last six games in a row.

At second doubles, Jessica St. Clair and Sarah Tirone had a tough third set against Charina Regino and Lisa Lundy. Livingston had an extra break in the third and recorded a 6-4, 1-6, 6-3 win.

According to first-year Head Coach Lance Wildstein, "The match was winnable. We had our opportunities to win. We were ahead in two of the matches. Basically, we had a hard time closing out in the third set."

Unfortunately for Westfield, the loss knocked the team out of the state's Top 20.

Wildstein summarized, "It was a tough match to lose, especially since neither team had the advantage."

The team faces off against Irvington tomorrow at home at 3:45 p.m. at Tamaques Park.

Scotch Hills Women To Give Awards

The Women's Golf Organization of Scotch Hills Country Club of Scotch Plains had a different format for its Club Championship this year.

In the past it was played on three consecutive tournament days and many members could not participate because of vacations and other events. This year, the championship rounds started August 24 and were played along with the regular tournaments until September 21. The winners were selected by using their three lowest scores.

The Club Championship for 1993 is Laura Botta with a three-round total of 127, and runner-up is Helen Brown with 130.

In "B" Flight, Maria Guilleme is the winner with 181, and Jewel Foster is runner-up with 186.

In "C" Flight the winner is Ruth Luge with 189 and Marie Spector is runner-up with 172. Awards for this championship and others played during the golf season will be presented at the awards luncheon to be held on Tuesday, November 1, at the Ballroom Golf Club in Springfield.

Town Girl Booters Blank Oak Knoll to Advance in Tilt

By AMY MAGDELLI Specially Written for The Westfield Leader If the Westfield Girls' Soccer Team continues to play at their current level the Union County Girls' Soccer Tournament will have to be discontinued due to lack of competition.

turn into points." Westfield's next opponent in the county tournament will be Summit. The fifth-seeded Hilltoppers upset fourth seeded Cranford 3-2 to play the Blue Devils in the third round.

Westfield United, 5; Hillside Juniors, 0

The Westfield United Division No. 5 Soccer Team continued its winning ways with a dominating performance against the Hillside Juniors in Hillsdale. Griffin Maloney started off the scoring when he headed in a rebound from his left forward position.

The top-seeded Lady Devils played their trademark style of game, solid offense and stifling defense to defeat eighth-seeded Oak Knoll 2-0 in the second round of the county tournament last Thursday at Recreation Field in Westfield.

Leading the offensive charge was junior striker Suzi Folger, who converted a pass from sophomore halfback Gretchen Mansfield in 32 minutes and 10 seconds into the first half.

Junior striker Lexi Tourtellotte, rebounding from an ankle injury which saw her miss the last game against Livingston, scored the final goal of the game at 10 minutes and 57 seconds into the second half. Mansfield also assisted on this score.

Junior stopper Kelly Norton remarked, "The game against Oak Knoll was very important because it was a positive first step towards winning the county championship."

Freshman goalie Amy Williams had little to do other than watch as the Westfield offense pounded her Oak Knoll counterpart with nine shots on goal while the Blue Devils defense held the opposing offense to no shots on goal.

The Lady Blue Devils improved their record to 12-1 as they blanked the Hackettstown Tigers 2-0 Tuesday at Roosevelt Field in Westfield.

Though the score would tend to believe this was yet another typical game in which Westfield dominated play, Coach Pete Giordano disagrees.

"We did not play one of our better games. We got the job done. However, the girls were missing passes and were anxious with their shot selection. I think this is because we had such a long layoff when we played only two games in as many weeks."

Despite these criticisms, Westfield scored twice in the first half and maintained the tempo of the game, keeping play in the 'Tigers' end of the field for the majority of the game.

Senior halfback Nancy Schultz turned a pass from Folger at 31 minutes and 26 seconds for the first score of the game.

Folger netted a goal of her own on an assist from Tourtellotte at 38 minutes and 42 seconds into the game. She also had a goal called back late in the second half when she drew a foul for dangerous play on the draw.

Williams registered her fourth consecutive shutout and her 10th on the season as she stopped all three Hackettstown shots. The Devils had seven shots on goal.

The Lady Booters will play arch-rival Scotch Plains today at 2:30 at Recreation Field in Westfield.

IN MY CORNER...Westfield's Brooke Wiley, left, controls the ball in Saturday's girls' soccer matchup in the second round of the Union County Tournament against Oak Knoll of Summit. The Blue Devils blanked the Royals 2-0 to move on in the tourney.

Dr. Radcliffe Captures Squash Championship

Dr. Warren Radcliffe of Lebanon, who practices dentistry in Westfield, a member of the Chatham Club in Chatham Township, won the United States Squash Racquets Association national championship at the Bay Club in San Francisco, October 8 to 11.

For the unseeded Radcliffe, who was making his first attempt in a national tournament played with the international ball, which is softer than the old North America ball, the route to the finals was perilous.

"I could have lost to any one of three of the seeded players I faced," Radcliffe admitted, crediting the Chatham Club's Head Pro, Geoff Mitchell for helping him raise his game to the level he needed to win the 60-and-over title.

In the quarterfinals, where he met the third seed, Bert Alpert from Rhode Island, Radcliffe won a long, tough match, three games to one. He then topped the defending champion, Jim Kerr from Toronto, in the semifinal 3-1.

In the finals Radcliffe faced the fourth seed, Keith Parker from the Bahamas. This see-saw contest went five games and saw three games go into overtime.

Up 6-0 in the final game, three points from the championship, Radcliffe lost four straight points, but seized the next and the championship.

Eric Pepper Saves for Ithaca

Sophomore goalkeeper Eric Pepper of Westfield earned his second shutout of the season with nine saves for the Ithaca College Men's Soccer Team of Ithaca, New York as the Bombers defeated Binghamton 1-0 recently.

Three of the stops came during a Binghamton rush with only two minutes left in the contest.

Raider Junior Varsity Takes Aim at County Title

The 1993 Scotch Plains-Fanwood Junior Varsity Girls' Soccer Team is shaping up as one of the strongest junior varsity teams the school has ever had.

To date, they are undefeated and are seeded second in the Union County Junior Varsity Tournament.

To bring home the first Union County Championship Trophy, they would have to have beaten Summit at home on Monday, and defending champion Westfield at a site and on a date not yet determined.

Captained by Diana and Chrissy Li Brandy, the team thrives on team defense, quick transition to offense and solid goal-tending.

This team has survived and continued their winning ways even with the loss of Meghan Langevin, the starting sweeper, and Christine Boyle, the starting inside halfback, to the varsity.

Stepping up and continuing the level of skill and teamwork they previously provided are Amy Porfilio and Chrissy Li Brandy.

Boyle had six goals and one assist in her five games.

As her replacement, Porfilio already has scored six goals and two assists.

Season-long goal-scoring pressure has been provided by the injured Erin Zupkus, three goals and one assist; Christy Morse, six goals; Cari Rappaport, five goals and three assists; Amy Muselli, who doubles as goalie, four goals and three assists, and the other goalie, Marci Steinberg, one goal and one assist.

Other players who have contributed equally to the squad's success this year are: On offense, Lauren Biedell, inside defensive halfback, Michelle Giambalvo, Liz and Sara Kyllish and Lauren Trainer.

Also on defense, Tara Poropot, Debbie Hartelius, Kristen Schenk, Asra Ahmed, Angeliqne Leone and Chrissy and Diana Li Brandy.

As a team, the Raiders have outscored their opposition 34 goals to four.

It is the team's goal to end this season as the first undefeated and Union County Junior Varsity tournament champions at Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School.

Westfield United Takes State Cup

Westfield's United continued their winning ways following their first-place finish in the Northeast, New York tournament last week with a commanding victory in the New Jersey State Cup Tournament on October 25.

Robert Larson controlled the ball and passed to Josh Lutzner who placed a shot into the upper left corner to open Westfield's scoring. Cami Thiam then passed to Diego Vargas who shot on goal, and Andrew Odachewski was in perfect position to put in the rebound for a quick 2-0 lead.

Westfield's defense of Duffy Lee, Anthony Tomasso and Adam Yoffe maintained "The Blue Wall" game for the unbeaten victory with Tomasso performing flawlessly in goal.

Danny McAnally scored in a free kick from Thiam after Mike Capriato had cleared across the center line. Lutzner then did a goal header and pass to David Santorillo who broke away and scored a big shot past the defenses Vic's goal.

After some field time by Mike Natterawski, Gerrit III and Saf Pineda set up a pass to Lutzner who broke away, and beat the goalie for the final goal.

Griffin Maloney and Tommy Wade also played well for the United who are 7-0-1 in their last eight games.

Gymnasts Look Ahead To Sectional Tournament

By MIKE WEINLITZ
Specialty Writer for The Westfield Leader

As they enter the homestretch of the 1993 season, the Westfield High School Girls' Gymnastics Team find themselves in a somewhat precarious situation.

Despite an 8-3 record, the girls are uncertain if they will qualify as one of the six teams to compete in the sectional tournament on November 5. With this in mind, they realize each meet from here on will be extremely important.

Westfield showed they are determined to compete in the sectionals as they soundly defeated Roselle Catholic on Friday by a 97.55-93.45 score.

The Blue Devils' point total was their second highest on the season, thus helping to elevate their sectional status, the six highest averages for each team and three highest meet scores determine sectional eligibility.

Leading the way for Westfield were junior Jill Smith and seniors Dana Fizzell and Dana Fahey.

In a highly-anticipated matchup, Smith succumbed to nemesis Karen Maurer. The Roselle Catholic star finished first on the bars, floor and beam. Nevertheless,

Smith still performed well, placing first on the vault and second on the bars, beam and floor.

The experienced tandem of Fizzell and Fahey combined for one second- and three third-place finishes.

Although Westfield's team status for the sectionals is still up in the air, several girls have qualified for the sectionals based on their individual performances.

Smith has qualified for all four events, and the vault, and junior Brandi Kovac has been selected for both the bars and beam. Rounding out Westfield's representatives are Fahey, who will be competing on the bars, and sophomore Megan Clarke, who will perform on the floor.

The Blue Devils' next meet will be the Union County Tournament to be played tomorrow starting at 5 p.m. at Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School.

"The Union County meet is a big meet," stated Coach Ellen Kovac. "There's a nice audience and a lot of excitement. We have a good chance to win if everybody does well. But Scotch Plains has a lot of depth and they're the team to beat."

Kearny Defeats Devils For Conference Crown

By LAURA SILVERMAN
Specialty Writer for The Westfield Leader

Victory eluded the Westfield Varsity Girls' Cross Country Team as they were defeated for the championship by the Kearny team at the Watchung Conference meet.

The Pack of Seven contended with Kearny, East Side, Summit, Irvington and Scotch Plains-Fanwood teams as they lined up for the gun on Saturday, October 23.

Despite the five best seasonal performances achieved in the meet, the harriers failed to capture the first-place win they desperately desired.

The team did rejoice, however, in the victory first-year runner Allison Totams won as she placed first in the freshman race, becoming Westfield's first-ever freshman champion in the Watchung Conference.

Leading the varsity squad in her usual style was sophomore Karen McGuire, who arrived first to the finish line for Westfield and fifth overall in 21 minutes and 39 seconds, setting a new personal record on the course.

The sophomore stronghold held up as Xanda Martins blasted past the competitors for 13th place, Martins' 22-minute and eight-second finish was her fastest race to date.

Kellic Goncalves had her eye on the pack as she stayed close to Martins, coming into the chute at 22 minutes and 12 seconds, taking 14th place with her best seasonal performance.

Sharon Gambino attacked the course, racing across the finish line for 15th place at 22 minutes and 19 seconds.

Gambino also set a new personal-best record.

Junior Catherine Engell stuck with the pack, coming in at the important No. 5 runner for her team at 22 minutes and 26 seconds, winning 16th place in her best seasonal effort.

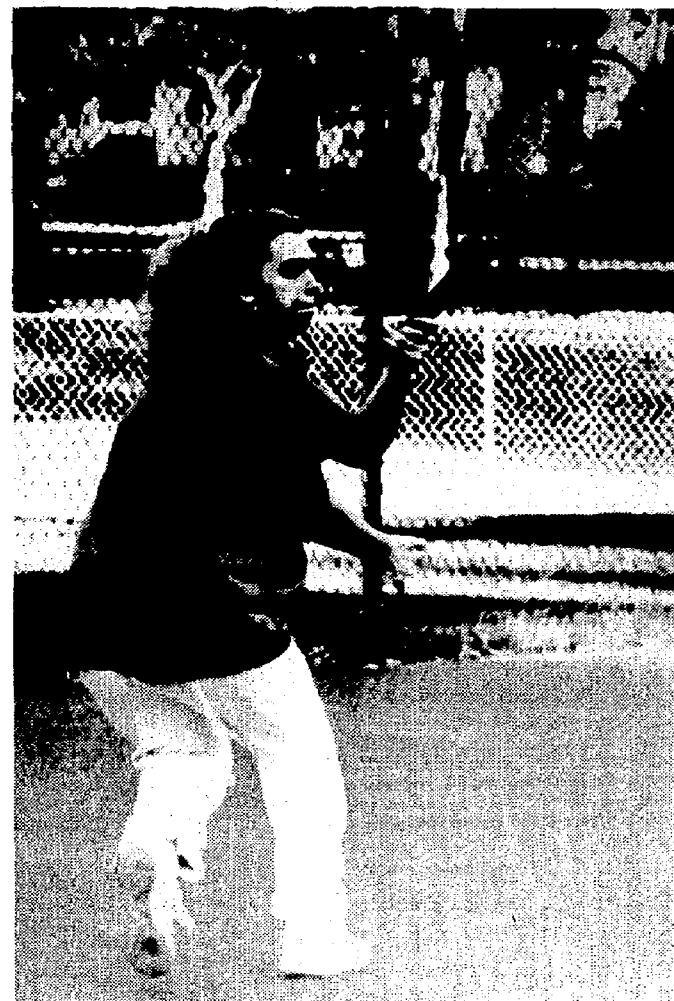

Just slightly behind the pack was junior Lisa Citrin. Citrin crossed the line at 24 minutes and 46 seconds, while junior Susan Connell finished at 25 minutes and two seconds. Neither runner was able to place in the top 20.

"Even though we can't be ashamed of the effort we put forth, we still felt the sting of defeat by our archrival Kearny. Nevertheless, we're still a force to be dealt with in the future," explained Engell.

In the freshman race, Totams took the gold as she finished first on the two-mile course in 16 minutes and 43 seconds.

The junior varsity team were tough contenders as juniors Jennifer O'Brien and Sarah Hintze turned in extremely competitive performances, finishing at 23 minutes and 38 seconds and 24 minutes and 32 seconds, respectively.

The team tackled Irvington on Westfield's home course on Tuesday, and then moved on to the state section meet on Saturday, October 30, where the varsity team hopes to place in the top 10.

BACK AT YOU... Kayle Becker, a doubles player for the Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School Raiders, returns a shot during Friday's match against Summit, which the township squad won 4-1. Becker and Regine Spector defeated Mary Kay Dunning and Liz Fricke.

Raiders' Girl Netters Top Two More Foes

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School Raiders' Tennis Team won two matches by identical scores of 4-1 this past week as they played in both Union and Essex Counties.

In Friday's match against the Hilltoppers of Summit High School, singles player Boitumelo Notoane of Scotch Plains defeated Leigh Van Dusen 6-3, 6-3; Alice Noll of the Hilltoppers topped Diane Kapner 6-4, 6-4, and Lauren Everitt of the Raiders won over Jackie Britt 6-2, 5-7, 6-3.

Doubles play saw Chris Taylor and Eileen Hannigan of Scotch Plains top

Melanie Palihnich and Meg McCulough 4-6, 6-3, 7-6 (8-6), and Raiders Regine Spector and Kayle Becker defeated Mary Kay Dunning and Liz Fricke 6-2, 6-0.

On Tuesday, Notoane topped Filomena Spina of Newark East Side 6-2, 6-0; Kapner defeated Sandra Costa 6-2, 6-2, and Chris Taylor won over Diana Liju 6-1, 7-5 in singles.

In doubles, East Side's Ana Rodriguez and Maria Liju defeated Kayle Becker and Michelle Knoller 6-2, 4-6, 7-5, while Raiders Shivani Batra and Kristen Haines won over Joy Lopez and Vicky Capra 6-2, 6-4.

The Raiders netters now are 13-2.

Boy Harriers Capture American Division Title

By ADAM BARCAN
Specialty Writer for The Westfield Leader

Every once on a blue moon an athlete comes along who is so precocious he dominates competition before he can even shave.

In Saturday's Watchung Conference, American Division Meet however, won by Westfield with 332 points in Warinanco Park, two such young athletes pushed their way to the top of the field.

Super frosh Matt Elmucio led the Devils over East Side by 16 points, finishing second overall in 16 minutes and 27 seconds. Adding fuel to the freshman fire, another first-year runner, Roger Munoz of Kearny, took third place 26 seconds behind "The Mooch."

Westfield, which won its third consecutive division title, next brought the pack of Andy Ruggiero, Don Cambria, and Geoff North across the line in the fourth, sixth and eighth spots.

Ruggiero, coming back from an over-extended vacation, led the enclave in 17 minutes and 10 seconds, but his mates refused to let him have it easy. Smelling medals like sharks in a feeding frenzy, the two followed six seconds and 11 seconds back, respectively.

"It was so cool to actually show up," said a very shocked Ruggiero afterwards, "I just felt those guys on my shoulder and got all excited as if I was being electrocuted. From then on, it was easy as pie."

Finishing up for the Devils were Ted Kilcommons, Lawrence Ho and Johnny O'Brien, with Kilcommons setting the pace by taking 13th place in 17 minutes and 35 seconds.

Ho, coming off a week of forced rest following wisdom-tooth surgery, followed five seconds back in 14th place, while O'Brien grabbed the 19th spot in 18 minutes and one second.

For the junior varsity team, Adam Barcan broke the proverbial tape to win the race in 18 minutes and 10 seconds.

The Devils, who claimed seven of the top 10 spots, also received top-five performances from Jim Nicoll and Evan Baldwin in the third and fourth places.

Nicoll crossed the line in 18 minutes and 28 seconds, with Baldwin two ticks behind and Ryan Stodler 13 seconds back in seventh place.

Rounding out the top seven was the sophomore trio of Adam Borchin, Philippe Gabriel and Sandeep Satwalekar in seventh, eighth and 10th place, respectively over the five-kilometer course.

"I just want to give a big hand to Philippe and Sandeep for their personal-best performances," said Borchin.

Completing the Westfield sweep, the freshman squad won its race with 36 points, sending Elizabeth and Kearny home with only the stinging agony of utter defeat.

Abdullah Samaika and Ryan Stefuik, who ran neck in neck over their 2.1-mile course, finished first and second in identical times of 12 minutes and 48 seconds. Also medaling for the team were Tom Basta, Mike Hewson and Chris Tefelski, in the fifth, 13th and 15th spots.

The Devils faced off with Irvington on Tuesday at home, putting their undefeated record on the line in the season's final dual meet.

Saturday, they return to Warinanco in hopes of three-peat as well in the state sectional meet, a varsity-only affair.

Here, the top five teams go onto the next Saturday's Group No. Four Championships in Holmdel Park, the last hurdle on the way to the Meet of Champions.

Field Hockey Squad Knocked From Tourney

By MEGAN O'BRIEN
Specialty Writer for The Westfield Leader

The Westfield Field Hockey Team suffered a disappointing loss to Cranford in the Union County Tournament on Saturday, but they were able to bounce back to beat Union two days later.

The Blue Devils played Cranford in the semifinal round of the county tournament. The sixth-seeded township squad lost to the second-seeded Cougars 3-2 after beating Roselle Park in the quarter-final round.

The Panthers scored the lone goal in the first half. Cranford managed to shoot the ball just to the right of goalkeeper Megan O'Brien on a penalty corner against Westfield.

The Devils were able to come out strong in the second half to tie the score with a shot by Laura Cashman five minutes into the half.

With 13 minutes and 20 seconds left on the clock, Jen Schwarzenbek made the go-ahead 'goal off' a feed from Erin McCarthy. Westfield's lead was short lived, for Cranford was able to score two goals within the last five minutes of the game.

Westfield's Allison Yockel, Jane Petrino and Kathleen Clabby led at the defensive end of the field. O'Brien halted 13 shots in the Devils' losing effort, while the opposing goalie had six saves.

On Monday, the Devils fought Union to a 3-0 win. McCarthy shocked the Farmers with a goal 30 seconds into the game off a pass from Cashman, while Schwarzenbek scored nine minutes later.

She leads the team with 12 goals this year.

Cashman scored her seventh goal of the season early in the second half to round out Westfield's goals, and O'Brien saved five shots for her seventh shutout of the year.

McCarthy said, "We are finally working together as a team and it is showing through in our games," when asked to comment about Westfield's play lately.

Coach Maggie McFadden has seen her team improve from a record of 2-3-1 at the start of the season to their present record of 8-4-3.

"I think the team has been playing outstanding," she said. "We should be able to get as far as we want in the state tournament, which would be the final," she continued, commenting on the team's potential for the rest of the season.

The Devils play tomorrow against South Plainfield at the high school.

Raider Boys' Harriers Take Division Crown

Jason Lily paced the Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School Raiders Boys' Cross Country Team to the crown with a time of 17 minutes and two seconds as he took second place to Robert Moiz of Rahway in the National Division, Watchung Conference championship at Warinanco Park in Elizabeth-Roselle on Saturday.

The raiders had 37 points to Summit's second-place total of 58.

Lily was joined by teammates Erik Graf, who finished fifth in the division in 18 minutes and three seconds, Scott Powell, who came in sixth in 18 minutes and 10 seconds, and Fred Salas, eighth in 18 minutes and 22 seconds in leading the township squad to the title.

The Summit High School Hilltoppers Boys' Cross Country Team was the defending champion in the division.

In the girls' contest, Tiana Brown of Scotch Plains came in at 21 minutes and 55 seconds to place third in individual times.

Summit took the crown in the girls' division with a score of 25 to 67 for the second-place Cranford High School Cougars.

Bandits Tame Cougars In Division No. 5

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Bandits Intercity Division No. 5 Soccer Team chalked up their fifth straight win, taming the South Orange-Maplewood Cougar Strikers 3-1.

Dustin Jefferson quickly started the scoring in the fourth minute off a pass from Ryan Brezinski.

The Cougar defense clamped down until the Bandits struck for two more in the second half.

Jeff Hiamel, regularly a key defender for the team, scored his first goal in his debut at left wing.

The goal was set up with Ray Dinao brought the ball across the box and passed it to Brezinski, who found Hiamel in scoring position. Brezinski scored the final Bandits goal with a sliding kick.

Co-Captains Michael Sullivan and Anthony Caruso lent valuable support to the Bandits' best team effort of the season. Sullivan burned the Cougar defenders up the wing with his speed and aggressive play. Caruso turned in another sparkling performance with seven saves.

Rugg and Nason Take Men's Doubles

SPECIAL ORDINANCE NO. AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE EXCHANGE OF LAND BETWEEN THE TOWN OF WESTFIELD AND NADIA IRENE LOUGHLIN.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Town Council of the Town of Westfield as follows:
WHEREAS, the Town of Westfield is the owner of property known as 1231 Sedgewick Avenue, Lot 2, Block 103, as shown on the Tax Map of the Town of Westfield, which the Town Council has determined is not required for public purposes; and
WHEREAS, Nadia Irene Loughlin, is the owner of property known as 1207 Sedgewick Avenue, Lot 39, Block 101, as shown on the Tax Map of the Town of Westfield, which the Town of Westfield is interested in acquiring for public purposes; and
WHEREAS, the two lots in question are located on the same street in close proximity to one another and are identical in size. Both lots are oversized and the lot owned by Nadia Irene Loughlin is contiguous to a large Town-owned parcel while the lot owned by the Town is contiguous to an oversized developed lot owned by Nadia Irene Loughlin. If the lots are exchanged and merged the developed lot in the ownership of Nadia Irene Loughlin would become more nearly conforming while the vacant lot owned by the Town would be conforming.
WHEREAS, Nadia Irene Loughlin has agreed to exchange the aforesaid parcel owned by her for that parcel owned by the Town of Westfield subject to the requirements that the parcel to be acquired by Nadia Irene Loughlin be merged into and become a part of Lot 1, Block 103 which is contiguous to it; and
WHEREAS, the Town Council has determined that the aforesaid parcels to be exchanged are equal in value; and
WHEREAS, the Town Council has agreed that such an exchange of properties is in the best interest of the Town of Westfield and is permitted by N.J.S.A. 40A:12-16;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Town Council of the Town of Westfield that the Mayor and Town Clerk are hereby authorized to enter into an agreement to exchange the aforesaid property owned by the Town, aggregating 4000 square feet, for the aforesaid property owned by Nadia Irene Loughlin aggregating 4000 square feet without further consideration.
BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED that the Mayor and Town Clerk are hereby authorized to accept a deed from Nadia Irene Loughlin and any and all other necessary documents to transfer title in the property hereinabove mentioned, subject to the Town Attorney's review of the title of same, and to execute a deed of conveyance to Nadia Irene Loughlin for the aforesaid property owned by the Town of Westfield simultaneously and exchange such deeds.
BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED that this ordinance shall take effect publication and final passage.

Sierra Club Backs Assemblyman Bagger In Re-election Bid

Assembly Richard Bagger is the author of a bill to limit development at the edges of New Jersey's Great Swamp in Morris, Somerset, Union and Essex Counties and has been recognized for these efforts by the Sierra Club's endorsement.

According to Club Officer Richard Isaac, who oversees endorsement campaigns in those counties, "Assemblyman Bagger has also taken stands in opposition to the 1992 Permit Extension Act, helping effectively to protect freshwater wetlands, and in support of re-funding the Green Acres program for acquiring environmentally significant properties."

"The Assemblyman has also helped the state's recycling efforts by voting for a 60 per cent recycling goal, and for a bill requiring all state agencies to purchase recycled and reusable products."

"The Sierra Club also appreciates Assemblyman Bagger's support on a bill to prohibit the use of lead solder in household plumbing systems."

In considering this endorsement, the Sierra Club's Political Committee considered endorsement requests from all major candidates in the 22nd District and interviewed all interested candidates. Assemblyman Bagger is one of only 43 candidates for 120 seats in the Legislature, statewide, who were honored by endorsement this year.

PARK PET ADOPTIONS... People for Animals, a non-profit, all-volunteer animal welfare organization serving Essex, Middlesex and Union Counties, in association with other animal welfare groups, is sponsoring a pet adoption fair on Saturday, October 30, from 11 a.m. until 3 p.m. at Nomahagan Park in Cranford. Many dogs will be available including Jeanne, a pretty 10-month-old spayed female. Jeanne is very affectionate and has lots of energy. She is medium sized and has a shiny black with rufous long-haired coat. Jeanne would make a great pet for a family with children and a yard to play. Another dog available is a small nine pound red terrier-mix named Half-Pint. Half-Pint was hit by a car and is recovering from a bruised leg. She is about two years old and has a red medium length wiry coat with big black eyes. Half-Pint is best adopted to a family with adults only. Numerous cats and kittens are also waiting to be adopted. They will not be at the park but anyone interested can call 355-6574 for cat and dog adoption and foster home information.

Third Annual Haunted House Set for Halloween Night

The third annual Haunted House sponsored by the Westfield Recreation Commission and the Westfield Municipal Alliance is just three days away. This special event will be held this Sunday, October 31, from 4 to 9 p.m. at the Memorial Pool Complex.

Last year's Haunted House saw a crowd of 3,000 residents come out to test their courage.

The Haunted House is another of the Recreation Commission's substance-free alternative programs provided by the funds from the Governor's Council on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse.

A nominal $1 admission fee will be charged with children under the age of 5 free. Any questions or persons interested in getting involved are asked to call the Recreation Department at 789-4080.

Kindness is contagious. The spirit of harmony trickles down by a thousand secret channels into the inmost recesses of the household life.

SOCCER HIGHLIGHTS

White Makes Gray Pale In Fifth and Sixth Loop

HOUSE LEAGUE FIFTH-AND-SIXTH-GRADE DIVISION
The White defeated the Gray 5-0 in the boys' division of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Soccer Association. Goals were scored by Steven Berkowitz, Eddie Jackson, R.J. Milligen and Russell Rabadeau, with two. Dave Fullerton and Bob Giordano provided great defense.

The Devils defeated the Demons in another 5-0 match. Red Devil Dan Gaetano found the net twice to go with singletons by Eric Puglia, John Borelli and Joe Mairic. Anthony Cary was superior on the back line. Scott Garrity, Greg Kerian and Mark Saunders put forth great effort for the Blue Devils.

The scoring came from outstanding wing play by David Baumwoll and Chris Rotondo supported by F.T. DeMauro and Matt Vanderheyden at halfback. The defense, anchored by Jay Cordes, Matt Metzger and Bobby Murphy, shut down the tenacious Central Jersey attack to ensure the victory.

The Division No. 4 Breakaway lost 3-1 to Berkeley Heights despite a strong second half when the breakaway could net only one of seven shots on goal. Danielle Kerner and Jennifer Miller shared the net-minding duties and handled 13 shots between them. Renee Zidonik was great on offense and scored the Breakaway goal assisted by stopper Kristen Mendes. Mendes' high kick could not be handled by the heights keeper and Zidonik touched it in. Mendes also was part of a great defense along with Dana Berkowitz, while Miller turned in a great half at midfield.

K-Co Shoots Down Top Gun Squad

THIRD-AND-FOURTH-GRADE BOYS' DIVISION
In the first match of the day, on a soggy, frost-covered field, a hard-played match saw the Neon Strikers win over the Terminators 3-1. Mark Domenick scored the lone goal for the Terminators, while John Fischer played sensational in goal. Terry Levine and Alex Hofer played tough defense.

After being shut out the entire first half, the Strikers came back to score three goals, by Nicholas Sblendorio, off an assist by Bruce Smith; Michael Hughes, assisted by Adam Garrity, and Smith. The Striker defense was led by Anthony Ottati, Jamie Kamilaw and Brian Abbot at halfback; Timothy Ryan, Tyler Stender and Raymond Bover at fullback, and Stephen Swenson and Michael Geason in goal.

Last Sunday, K-Co, in the Westfield Boys' In-Town Soccer League, took on a strong Top Gun squad. From the start, the game seemed back and forth between the two teams. K-Co's goalie Brian Williams stopped three shots; but the big story was K-Co's three big goals. Brian Williams, in the 18th, sent a line drive towards goal that deflected off the goalie and into the net.

Several minutes later, center half David Triber scored on a direct kick, hitting the right-hand corner of the goal, giving K-Co a 2-0 lead. But the shot of the day belonged to center forward Jack Gordon. Handling a cross from halfback Brian Kempf, Gordon, at the 18, sent a line drive towards goal that deflected off the goalie and into the net to end the half.

As the whistle started play, the Top Guns went on the offensive. K-Co's goalie Brian Williams stopped three shots; but the big story was K-Co's three big goals. Brian Williams, in the 18th, sent a line drive towards goal that deflected off the goalie and into the net to end the half.

With the defense taking charge, the offense went back to work. Chris Mayfield sent his throw in up the line to forward Bob Frommeling, who fed to right wing Genghis River. River, displaying some fine foot skills, sidestepped four defenders to find the far post for the fourth score. K-Co closed out the game with a corner-kick play that had Williams hit John Johnakis, whose high arc shot was back spinning so much it was difficult to handle by the Top Gun goalie, who made a valiant effort.

The loose ball immediately was recovered by an open John Kutler, who hit the horizontal and placed the sphere in net to end the game, and give K-Co their third win of the season.

Westfield Freedom Wins Its Second Tournament

The Westfield Freedom won their second tournament of the fall season by dominating the opposition in the Gill St. Bernard's - Somerset Hills Fall Classic on October 9 and 10.

John Humphreys, Mikey Todd and Mike Orlando anchored a close-marking, aggressive defense that limited opponents from Metuchen, Bridgewater, Morris and Mendham to just two goals in the tournament. Like the defense, the offense was a true effort, as eleven different boys assisted on goals scored by nine different Westfield players.

Willy Cashman and Albert Thrower scored key goals in the first match on Saturday, a 4-0 shutout of Metuchen. The second match of the day was expected to be Freedom's toughest of the weekend. Knowing this, the Westfield players played by far their best soccer of the weekend, routing the Bridgewater Challenge 9-1. Adam Jack registered a "natural hat trick," scoring three consecutive goals in the second half. Alexander Lau

Plains-Fanwood Baseball To Conduct Registration

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Youth Baseball Association will conduct registration for the 1994 season on Saturdays, November 6 and November 13, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., at the Fanwood Train Station.

Evening registration also will be held on Thursday, November 11, from 7 to 9 o'clock at the train station too.

Last year over 600 youngsters from Scotch Plains and Fanwood participated in the program, and one of the goals of the association is to try to have more children participate this year.

The association organization which was modified last year will be continued with the division age groups following:

SIX YEAR OLDS

Junior Tee Ball Division: An introduction to baseball where the players hit the ball from a batting tee.

SEVEN YEAR OLDS

Tee Ball Division: Youngsters will learn more about the rules, and may actually hit without a tee near the end of the season depending upon progress.

EIGHT YEAR OLDS

Pee Wee Division: This is an instructional division where the coaches will pitch to the players so there will be more opportunities to hit the ball, run the bases and field.

NINE AND 10 YEAR OLDS

Junior Division: This division will play regular baseball under Little League Major Division rules, and allow more playing time for this age group.

ELEVEN AND 12 YEAR OLDS

Major Division: Regulation Little League baseball is played at South Field and Valley Avenue.

THIRTEEN TO 16 YEAR OLDS

Senior Division: Regulation Babe Ruth League baseball is played at Terrell and Park Middle Schools and the high school ball field.

More details about the functioning of each division will be available during registration. A letter also will be sent through the public schools and St. Bartholomew's School providing further information.

For more information about registration, please telephone Co-Chairmen Tom Atkins at 889-5812, Bob Pudlak at 654-8066, or Jim Morris at 322-8387.

Questions about the association should be directed to the president, Tom Paterson at 322-4117.

TIPPER TOPS... Thoroughbred owner, William Martucci, presents Westfield's Arthur Goldberg with the trophy for the Cliff Hanger Handicap at the Meadowlands. Mr. Goldberg is President and Chief Operating Officer of Bally's in Atlantic City and part-owner of Excellent Tipper who won the Cliff Hanger on September 19. The victory was a class reunion of sorts as Mr. Martucci and Mr. Goldberg went to elementary school together. The Jockey is Craig Perret.

Trailside Will Present Lunar Eclipse Program

Late in the evening of Sunday, November 28, the full moon will begin to pass into the shadow of the earth. This event is called a total lunar eclipse.

At 11:40 Eastern Standard Time the eclipse will begin as the moon slowly moves into the shadow of the earth cast into space. The moon will be completely immersed in the shadow from 1:02 to 1:50 a.m. on November 29.

During this time the moon should appear as a dark orange or rusty red color. This is caused by the red wave lengths of light from the sun, passing through the Earth's atmosphere, and being projected on the moon in the shadow. The eclipse will be over at 3:15 a.m. Eastern Standard Time.

Trailside's Planetarium at Trailside Nature & Science Center at Coles Avenue and New Providence Road, Mountainside will hold a special eclipse-viewing session.

It will begin with a planetarium show at 10:45 p.m. about the eclipse, then viewing through binoculars and telescopes from 11:30 to 2:15 a.m. Registration is required.

Please telephone Trailside for space availability. The fee is $3 per person.

Governor, Legislators, County, Local Officials to Be Elected Tuesday

By ROBERT M. FASZCZEWSKI
Specialty Writer for The Westfield Leader and The Times

Voters in Westfield, Scotch Plains and Fanwood will have the opportunity to go to the polls in Tuesday's General Election to join other state voters in electing a Governor, legislators, a number of county officials and local office holders.

Polls in all three municipalities will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

To find out where you will vote, please see the poll listings for your community below.

There are 17,728 registered voters in Westfield, with 3,599 Democrats, 5,500 Republicans and 8,629 independents.

In Scotch Plains there are 12,698 registered voters, with 2,919 Democrats, 3,468 Republicans and 6,311 independents.

Fanwood has 4,478 voters, 902 of which are Democrats, 1,145 Republicans and 2,431 independents.

Locally, the only contested election in the three municipalities is in Fanwood, where Republican incumbents Andrew J. MacDonald and Louis C. Jung are seeking reelection to three-year terms on the Borough Council. They are joined on their ticket by Donald S. Kolterjahn, who is seeking his first term on the council and running for a one-year unexpired term.

Incumbent Democrat William E. Populus, Jr. is running for the one-year unexpired term and is joined on his party's ticket by the Misses Cynthia L. Swindlehurst and Katherine Mitchell, both seeking three-year terms.

In Westfield, all four Town Council incumbents up for reelection this year, Republicans Norman N. Greco in the First Ward, Mrs. Margaret C. Sur in the Second Ward and Kenneth L. MacRitchie in the Third Ward, and Democrat James Hely in the Fourth Ward, are unopposed.

Also unopposed in Tuesday's local elections will be Scotch Plains incumbent Republican Township Councilman Robert L. Johnston, who is serving out an unexpired term and is running for a full four-year term.

Statewide elections will see the selection of a Governor and all members of the Legislature.

The Republican gubernatorial nominee is former Somerset County Freeholder, Mrs. Christine Todd Whitman.

Incumbent Democratic Governor James J. Florio is seeking his second four-year term.

In the race for State Senate, incumbent Republican Donald T. DiFrancesco of Scotch Plains, who is President of the State Senate, will be facing Democratic nominee Eli Hoffman of Mountainside.

Republican Assemblymen Richard H. Bagger of Westfield and Alan M. Augustine of Scotch Plains will face opposition from Democratic nominee and Westfield Board of Education President, Mrs. Susan H. Pepper, and Carlton W. Hansen, Jr. of Chatham, who was chosen as the second Democratic Assembly standard bearer after the party's nominee for the second slot, Edward T. Kahn of Scotch Plains, dropped out of the race.

Democratic incumbent and Register, Miss Joanne Rajoppi of Union, will face Republican, Mrs. Darlene Lesniak Leary of Elizabeth. The Freeholder race will see Republican candidates, incumbents, Miss Linda-Lee Kelly of Elizabeth and Mrs. Linda DiGiovanni of Union, and newcomer and Springfield Township committeeman Harry P. Pappas, face Democratic organization candidates, Peter D. Corvelli, the Mayor of Hillside; Mrs. Linda D. Stender, the Mayor of Fanwood, and Miss Annette Quijano of Elizabeth.

She also is a member of the Memorial Day Parade Committee, the church handbell choir and the Christian Education Commission and a youth group advisory.

The candidate has Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science Degrees cum laude from East Stroudsburg University in East Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania and an Associate in Arts Degree from Union College in Cranford.

Miss Mitchell, a registered nurse, is the Social Concerns Coordinator of Immaculate Heart of Mary Roman Catholic Church in Scotch Plains.

A member of the Fanwood Environmental Commission from 1986 to 1988 and the Environmental Commissioner from 1989 to the present, she also has been a member of the Fanwood-Scotch Plains Recycling Association since 1986.

She was the President of the group from 1988 to 1990 and is a Trustee of the association and of the Interfaith Council for the Homeless of Union County.

The candidate is a graduate of the Elizabeth General Hospital School of Nursing.

Councilman Greco currently chairs the Building and Town Property Committee and is a member of the public Safety, Solid Waste and Transportation, Parking and Traffic Committees and is a liaison to the Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Education and the Downtown Committee.

He is seeking his second two-year term.

The councilman is the owner of Greco Carpet Cleaning Company of Westfield and a past President of the Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Westfield Rotary Club and Westfield UNICO and a former member of the Rescue Squad and "Y's" Men's Club.

A graduate of Westfield High School, he has children in the town's public schools.

Councilwoman Sur is completing her second term on the council and is the Chairman of the Public Works Committee in addition to being Alternate Acting Mayor and a member of the Building and Town Property Committee, the Public Safety Committee and the Solid Waste Committee.

She is the Chairman of the Friends of Mindowaskin Park and the council Liaison to the Recreation Commission.

The Councilwoman has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science from Notre Dame College on Staten Island.

Councilman MacRitchie now is in his second term on the council. He previously served as the Chairman of the Union County Utilities authority, the Secretary of the Union County

Transportation Advisory Board, the Treasurer of the Union County Pollution Control Financing Authority and a member of the Union County Revenue Sharing Committee.

He is Republican Committeeman in the First District of the Third Ward and is a member of the Republican State Finance Committee.

Councilman MacRitchie is an attorney and an accountant. He received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Susquehanna University in Selingsgrove, Pennsylvania and his Master's Degree in Business Administration from New York University in New York City.

Mr. Hely first was elected to the council in 1985. He has been reelected three times and now is in his eighth year on the council. He is married to Mrs. Louis Davis Hely, and they have three school-age children.

Policy Committee, he also is a member of the Laws and Rules and Transportation, Parking and Traffic Committees.

The Councilman attended kindergarten at the Lincoln School, Holy Trinity Grammar School, Edison Junior High School and Westfield High School. He graduated from Gettysburg College in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania and the Rutgers University School of Law in Newark. He is a trial lawyer with the Mountainside firm of Weisman Hely and has been designated by the New Jersey Supreme Court as a certified civil trial lawyer.

Councilman Johnston, appointed to the council in May, is seeking to complete the remaining year of the seat formerly held by George Brown. In his 28 years as a Scotch Plains resident, Councilman Johnston has volunteered and participated in numerous community and government activities.

Prior to assuming his position as Councilman, Mr. Johnston was a member of the Scotch Plains Planning Board for 17 years, serving as its Chairman for 12 of those years.

As a Councilman, Mr. Johnston has assumed the role as Liaison to the Environmental Commission, Recreation Commission, Board of Education and Parent-Teacher Association Council.

GOVERNOR
Mrs. Whitman's father, Webster Todd, was a state Republican Chairman and a Vice Chairman of the Republican National Committee, and her mother, Mrs. Eleanor Todd, served on the New Jersey Commission on Higher Education.

The candidate earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Wheaton College in Norton, Massachusetts in 1968. She worked for the United States Office of Economic Opportunity and the Republican National Committee.

In 1982, Mrs. Whitman was elected to the Somerset County Board of Chosen Freeholders, serving as Director and Deputy Director, before being appointed in 1988 as the President of the New Jersey Board of Public Utilities.

In 1990 she resigned from that position to run for the United States Senate against incumbent Democrat William "Bill" Bradley. Despite her loss, she managed to accumulate 49 per cent of the popular vote.

Governor Florio was elected to the state's highest office in 1989 by a margin of 538,180 votes after having lost the 1981 Election to Republican Thomas H. Kean by 1,797 votes, the closest election in the state's history.

A native of Brooklyn, the Governor served in the Navy from 1955 to 1958 and remained in the Navy Reserves until 1975, retiring as a Lieutenant Commander.

After leaving the navy, he enrolled at Trenton State College in Ewing Township, from which he graduated magna cum laude with a degree in social studies.

He studied under a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship at Columbia University and later moved to Camden and graduated from Rutgers University's Law School in Camden.

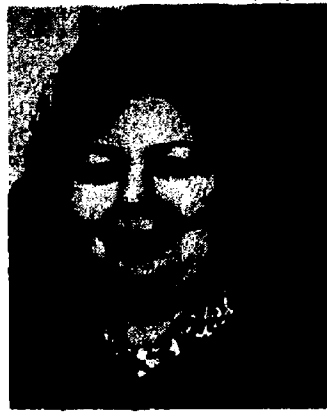

The Governor served three terms in the New Jersey Assembly and eight terms in the House of Representatives before assuming his current office.

Senator DiFrancesco has represented Westfield, Scotch Plains and Fanwood since 1992.

He was elected to the Senate in a special election in 1979 and was reelected four times, previously having served as Minority Leader in 1982 and 1984. He was an Assemblyman from 1976 through 1979.

Born in Scotch Plains, where he still resides, the Senator graduated from Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School and graduated from Pennsylvania State University in 1966 and Seton Hall University Law School in Newark in 1969.

He practices law in Warren Township.

Mrs. Tener Attends Summit On Real Estate Innovations

Mrs. Carol Tener of The Prudential Alan Johnston, Inc. met in Boston last month along with nearly 500 of the top real estate sales associates in the country for the "Summit Conference," a three-day gathering in which the state of the industry and some of the newest technological and marketing innovations in real estate were discussed.

Mrs. Tener, a member of the Chairman's Circle, which recognizes the top one per cent of the agents in the Prudential Real Estate network, entered the real estate field in 1983. Since that time, she has earned numerous awards and has consistently qualified for the New Jersey Association of Realtors Million Dollar Sales Club. She is a recipient of the New Jersey Association of Realtors Gold Award, which recognizes the top one per cent of real estate agents in New Jersey. Only 64 agents received this award last year.

Mrs. Tener said, "The three-day gathering gave us all a chance to not only examine some of the newest innovations in the industry, but it also enabled us to discuss our markets and exchange ideas that would benefit buyers and sellers in our market area."

The Prudential Real Estate network has nearly 29,000 sales associates, and Mrs. Tener is one of only 355 members of the Chairman's Circle nationally.

The Prudential Alan Johnston, Inc. has been a member of the network since 1989, the youngest and fourth largest real estate network in the country.

Post at Long Island University.

Sex Crimes Investigation Theme of County Seminar

"Sex Crimes Investigation" was the theme of a three-day seminar sponsored by the Union County Prosecutor's Office held at the John H. Stamler Police Academy last week. The seminar was attended by over 100 police officers, counselors and hospital personnel.

Two actual rape victims were willing to share their experiences with the attendees, and one victim allowed officers to question her as they would if she were on the witness stand in a court of law.

Union County Prosecutor, Andrew K. Ruotolo, Jr. of Westfield, in an open letter to all police officers in Union County stated, "There is no conventional, predictable or correct response by the victim to violence against them. A victim's failure to resist, to scream or protest, even her act of driving the rapist to his home, should never suggest a crime has not been committed. The recent strides made in the study of human behavior teach us that rape, by its very nature, is so singularly personal that there can be no model for what is an appropriate response."

"There is no conventional, predictable or correct response by the victim to violence against them. We cannot and will not turn our backs on a victim because we believe a jury will consider her response inappropriate. Rather, if we are satisfied a sexual assault has occurred, our course is clear; the victim will be treated with fairness, compassion and dignity; the rapist brought to justice. Addressing the post traumatic responses by a victim to the jury will be entrusted to skilled advocacy."

Chemocare Honors Two Benefactors

Beneficial Management Corporation of Peapack and Falcone and Associates of Chatham, recently were honored for their continued philanthropy towards Chemocare, Inc., a Westfield-based support organization for cancer patients being treated for chemotherapy or radiation.

During the New Jersey Corporate Philanthropy Awards Dinner on October 14, representatives of these companies and Chemocare received their awards in the category of health and environment. Twenty additional companies received awards in other categories.

Beneficial Management and Falcone and Associates were commended for eight years of assistance that enables Chemocare to reach many more people in order to improve their mental and physical health and survival.

Chemocare is a non-profit organization providing free and confidential emotional support for cancer patients, their family and their friends.

Eric Connolly Competes In Judo Championship

Seven-year-old Fanwood resident Eric J. Connolly competed in the annual East Coast Judo Championship at the New Jersey Institute of Technology in Newark on October 17.

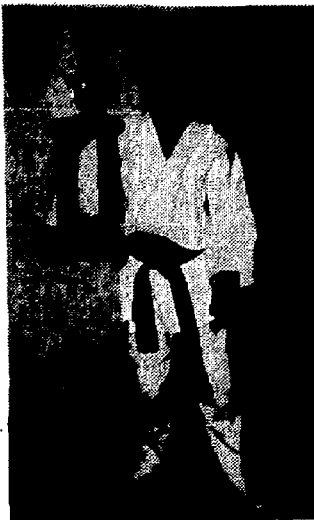

More than 450 youths entered the competition from all over the country and there were several competitors from as far away as Russia.

Eric was able to pin two of his opponents. The other match he fought was on points, and his fourth match was lost by one point to a competitor from Russia.

Much of Eric's success is due in part to his two senseis, Yoshisada Yonezuka, the owner of the Cranford Judo and Karate Club, and Ernest Labate, who has worked with Eric on a more personal level.

The Fanwood youth has been a judo student for about two and a half years at the Cranford club, averaging four to five hours of workout per week.

Junior Varsity Girl Booters Win in County Tourney

In a rain-abbreviated week, the Westfield Junior Varsity Girls' Soccer Team saw postponements of games with Cranford and Montclair, but were able to get in their county tournament game with Union Catholic of Scotch Plains and defeated the Vikings 10-0.

Westfield led off the scoring at the two-minute and 30-second mark when Casey Johnson led halfback Jordan McClelland with a pass to the corner and Jordan crossed it in front of the goal to a waiting Erica Tricaino, who slammed it past a screened goalie.

Erica then brought the ball down the left side and crossed to her line partner Terry Millette, who blasted it into the corner at the four-minute mark.

Fullback Anne Lutkenhouse hit a long pass to Terry, who raced down field and left a drop pass for Johnson, who drove the ball home. Right halfback Maura Triarsi took an overlap pass from Kaie Heinkel and fired it to the back post at the nine-minute mark.

At the 10-minute mark, Maura drove down field and hit her second goal of the day with another high shot over the keeper.

Laura Lombardi closed out the first-half scoring with a low drive into the corner of the net.

Westfield fullbacks Anisa Dujic, Jill Baker, Jordan McClelland, Megan Hogarth, Leigh Pravda and Lindsay Braun kept the ball in the Union Catholic end of the field the whole first half and made sure Blue Devil goalies Lauren McGovern and Kathleen McKeever were well protected.

Fullback Jessie Miller opened the second-half scoring when she intercepted a Viking clearing attempt and rifled home a 40-yarder just under the crossbar. Moma O'Keefe kept the pressure on when she took a McClelland pass and drove it in at the 15-minute mark. Striker Kris Toriello got an unassisted goal when she hit home a loose ball in front of the Union Catholic goal, and Katherine Ball closed out the scoring when she took a cross from Jessica Harris and hit it into the corner of the goal. Westfield fullbacks Elyssa Serrilli, Sara Mankoski, Jessie Miller and Anne Lutkenhouse made sure Westfield registered its ninth shutout of the season.

The coming week should be a very tough one for the girls as they face Hackettstown on Tuesday and Scotch Plains on Thursday as well as playing Governor Livingston in the next round of the county tournament.

Diana Richards leads the team with 15 goals, followed by Heinkel with nine and Millette with seven. Heinkel has taken over the assist lead with eight, while Lutkenhouse has six and Millette and Braun are tied with four each.

Warriors Lose Two In State Cup Competition

The Westfield Warriors in Boys' Traveling Soccer Division No. 4 lost two tough matches over a recent weekend, losing to a club team from Vineland in State Cup competition and falling short against undefeated Somerset Hills.

Vineland, 2; Warriors, 0

The select team from the Vineland area traveled to Houlhan field on October 16 for the State Cup competition game. The first half was a scoreless struggle with the Warriors having the advantage with scoring opportunities. Striker Adam Walker barely missed a goal with a hard shot from close range that was saved by the goalie. Strikers Kyle Vantovsky, Doug Minarik and Greg Odachowski played extremely well and kept the visiting defensive team busy throughout the game.

Sweeper Michael Farley, along with fullbacks Evan Molloy, Brandon Kape and Ryan MacDonald, used speed and foot strength to repel offensive drives from the visiting club. Goalie Nick Geissler came through with several big saves throughout the game.

The Vineland club scored their goals midway through the second half and near the end of the game to qualify for the next round in the State Cup competition.

Somerset Hills, 4; Warriors 2

Last Sunday, the Warriors played the undefeated and previously unscored-upon division-leading club from Somerset Hills. The high-powered offensive line from Somerset Hills exploded with three quick goals before the Warriors regrouped. After their initial lull, the town team outplayed their opponents in the first half and matched up evenly with them in the second.

Center halfback Brad Gillin scored the first goal of the season, using his agility to slide past two defenders before driving the ball into the left corner of the net. Halfback Greg Scanton and stopper Matt Hall, using aggressive attacks to the ball, assisted on the play.

A few minutes later, halfback Conner Mulvey brought the Warriors within one goal of a tie when he scored from the 20-yard line with a high shot over the goalie's head. Somerset Hills increased their lead with a tally late in the first half.

The second half was a scoreless, well-played physical match by both teams. Strikers Cam Anthony and Xander Rothschild stretched out the Somerset Hills defense by carrying the ball deep into the corners before delivering a crossing pass.

Geissler and MacDonald shared keeper duties and made several key saves.

Warriors Top Watching In Controversial Game

The Westfield Warriors Division No. 4 Boys' Traveling Soccer Team improved their regular season record to 3-2 by defeating Watching Hills in a controversial game played on October 24 in Tamques Park.

The Warriors went on the attack from the opening whistle and controlled the flow and tempo of the game throughout the first half. Aggressive defensive play by stopper Matt Hall, fullbacks Ryan MacDonald and Evan Molloy and sweeper Michael Farley kept the visiting club in a defensive posture for the entire first half.

Striker Greg Odachowski scored five minutes into the game with a chip shot over the large goalie from Watching Hills. Center striker Kyle Vantovsky and striker Cam Anthony assisted on the goal as they moved the ball down the field with short, crisp passes.

Halfback Conner Mulvey scored a goal a few minutes later with a volley from the 25-yard line over the head of the wandering Watching Hills goalie. Watching Hills closed the game with a goal shortly before the half to reduce the lead by the Warriors to one goal.

Solid, consistent defensive play the Warriors in the second half led the visiting club to frustration, yellow cards and ultimately an abbreviated game when they walked off the field after a disputed call.

Halfbacks Brad Gillin and Greg Scanton made several fine plays in the midfield to thwart offensive drives, with strikers Doug Minarik, Nick Geissler and Xander Rothschild dropping back to help with the defensive surge.

The escalating tempo of the game erupted when Scanton converted a penalty kick late in the second half following a take down of striker Rothschild in the penalty box. The visiting club abruptly left the field after the successful penalty kick when they refused to comply with directives from the referee to control unruly adults on the sidelines.

Warriors' goalies Geissler and Brandon Kape shared keeper duties in the hard-fought victory.

Three Police Grid Teams Take Sunday Victories

Westfield's Police Athletic League Football Teams were welcomed to Malapardis Park in Hanover Township on a sunny Sunday afternoon by the sounds of college fight songs and Sousa marches.

Despite the fact each Blue Devil squad had problems, the "A" team offense played without discipline, while some "B" and "C" team starters were benched for the purpose of discipline. Westfield kept the home teams scoreless for the day, recording their first sweep of the season.

Westfield C, 20; Hanover C, 0

Evenly matched, for a change, the "C" Devils played in the rain and snarled through the first half, alternating line bursts through the Hanover line with fumbled snaps and missed handoffs. The defense made up for it with the hard tackling of Matt Daly, Michael Ducks and Tim Young felling Tiger quarterback Dave Wiederman and running backs Dave Wiederman and running backs Dave Sealey and Andrew Outland.

Mike Mroz's line punt return to the Hanover 30 at the start of the third quarter got the Devils going. Two plays later, on third and four, he bolted 24 yards straight up the middle for the first tally of the game. Quarterback David King's keeper for the point after touchdown made it 7-0, Westfield.

After holding the Tigers on downs, despite Wiederman's fine 12-yard pass to Sealey, Westfield began the final period on Hanover's 38-yard line. Mroz went off tackle for 11 yards, then Hurley stomped right and barreled for another 18 yards to the nine. On first and goal, King bootlegged left, just making it into the corner of the end zone as he was being hauled down. Louis Mercer's plunge for the point was good, putting the Blue Devils ahead by 14-0.

The play of the game came on the next Hanover series. On third and 10 at the 25, left cornerback Travis Russo stepped in front of a Tiger receiver to pick off Wiederman's pass, running it back to the Hanover end zone untouched for the final Westfield points.

In their first win of the season, the "C" team doubled its point total and every player made it into the game for at least a full series of downs. Jeff Gabriel took advantage of the playing time to put a big rush on the quarterback.

Westfield moves to 1-2-2, while Hanover remains winless.

Westfield A, 2; Hanover A, 0

The Devils' motto: Safety first. And last. The Hanover center's snap over his punter's head and through the end zone for a two-point safety in the first quarter provided the only points of the game. Westfield's offense played with inept confusion throughout, blowing several golden opportunities to make their lead truly safe. Meantime, the defense bent but did not break, repelling a Tiger thread inside the 20 late in the game to preserve the victory.

Robbie McCullum had a second-quarter interception, returned to the Tiger 30, but the drive fizzled when Joe Murphy was stopped for no gain on fourth and 2 at the 22. Another bad snap on fourth down led to Greg Gorski's punt block leaving Westfield with first and goal from the four. But penalties pushed the Devils back to the 13-yard line and Jason Osborne's reverse fell far short of the goal.

Starting from deep in their own territory, the Tigers began moving the ball, with quarterback Mike Miller throwing short passes to Tom Foley and Jeff Soriano as the half ended.

In the third quarter, Osborne's punt return to the Hanover 35 started a Devil drive keyed by Rasheed Hawks' slants off tackle. But when it finally fizzled on fourth and goal at the eight, Matt Hughes ran on to try a field goal. His 25-yard attempt fell just short.

And again in the fourth quarter, Hanover drove deep into Westfield territory on the running of Foley, Paul McLaughlin and Ron Nisivocchia and Miller's short passes over the middle.

But on third and seven at the Westfield 18, Greg Montgomery's 17-yard sack of Miller, with help from Brendan Hickey and Blair Bartlett, took the Devils out of danger. Rasheed Hawks recovered a fumble on the ensuing play and Westfield ran out the clock.

Hawks, who was the workhorse runningback on offense, stood out for Westfield, while Chuck "The Animal" Bartell excelled for Hanover. The win puts the Devils at 2-3, while the Tigers dropped to 3-2.

Westfield B, 31; Hanover B, 0

Phil Orsini's two interceptions and Jim Korn's kicking highlighted the "B" team's impressive win, their 13th in a row and their fifth consecutive shutout.

The "B" are winning with sound, fundamental football and very disciplined play from some of the less-recognized boys in the trenches.

Like Tim Rich, whose block on a first-quarter punt return helped spring Todd Dowling's return, 45 yards straight up the middle and over every would-be Tiger tackler for Westfield's first touchdown.

Or, like Mike Stotler, who with a well-executed trap block gave Kevin McCormack the room to sweep around right end for 25 yards and the second score. Or Ben Gleason's perfect snap for Korn's straight and true 25-yard second-period field goal that made the score 17-0. Korn can run it, too and did on a one-yard plunge for a touchdown in the third period behind Andre Moore. The reliable McCormack closed out the scoring with his second touchdown of the day on a 30-yard reception from Brandon Doerr.

The defense preserved the shutout in the fourth period on sharp tackling by Pat McMahon, Randy Russell and Brian Russo as the Tigers mounted a threat. The thread was snuffed by Orsini's leaping one-handed interception at the 15 against a taller Hanover receiver.

Westfield moves to 5-0 in quest of the 1990 "C" team's record of seven straight shutouts. Hanover drops to 0-4-1.

Recreation Field Will Be Renamed for Gary Kehler

The Gary Kehler Stadium will be officially named and dedicated at half-time ceremonies during the Westfield-Summit Football Game on Saturday, October 30, in the stadium that is currently called Recreation Field. Kickoff time is 1:30 p.m.

Renaming the field is the result of efforts by citizens, Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Mark C. Smith, and the Westfield Board of Education to recognize Gary Kehler for his contributions to students and Westfield residents as Westfield High School football, golf and wrestling coach and athletic director over a period of 36 years.

Mr. Kehler, who resigned from his position as Athletic Director for the Westfield Public Schools on August 31, achieved a combined record of 719 wins, 110 losses and 23 ties during 22 years of coaching football, golf and wrestling.

Town resident Lee Hale, who wrote a book about Gary Kehler entitled The Coaching Edge, said: "His coaching years were the golden era of football in Westfield." Coach Kehler's football record — nine undefeated seasons, 17 Watchung Conference championships and 48 consecutive games without a defeat — surpasses the records of such legendary coaches as Bear Bryant at Alabama, Woody Hayes at Ohio State, Eddie Robinson at Grambling, Pop Warner at five colleges and Amos Alonzo Stagg at three colleges.

Gary Kehler has been cited not only for his coaching excellence but also for providing women athletes with opportunities for team participation at the high school during his tenure as athletic director. "More important than his winning record was Gary Kehler's impact on young people," said Dr. Smith. "As a teacher and a coach, Gary helped countless young high school students discover what they were capable of and to believe in themselves in sports and in life," he explained.

The Board of Education voted to officially change the name of Recreation Field to The Gary Kehler Stadium at its public meeting on September 7.

On Saturday, the Westfield-Summit football game half-time dedication ceremony will include remarks by Westfield Mayor Garland C. "Bud" Boothe, Jr.; School Board President, Mrs. Susan H. Pepper, and Presentation of a "Gary Kehler" plaque to the Board of Education by Roger Love and Lee Hale, two citizens whose fund-raising efforts resulted in private donations for bronze letters and a plaque for the stadium's new name.

'What Is God's Vision for Us?' Baptist Subject

Church member and Westfield resident, Dr. Phillip B. Gibbons, will preach on "What Is God's Vision for Us?" at the 10:30 a.m. service at the Baptist Church of Westfield, 170 Elm Street. He is one among many members of the congregation who are performing pastoral roles while senior minister Dr. Robert L. Harvey is on a study sabbatical at Harvard Divinity School.

"The sermons this fall by church members have been quite special," Dr. Gibbons said. "We all have a personal story to tell, a story about how God's love is made real to us and the insights we have gained. I am not trained to expound upon deep theological issues, but I can tell my story," he said.

Dr. Gibbons sermon will focus on the importance to Christians of having both a personal and a corporate vision of their role as members of the body of Christ. "All Christians want to serve God, but there are many avenues for service," Dr. Gibbons said. "The joy comes from determining the particular gifts you have and then applying them. Likewise we as a church need a vision of what we are, and what we are striving to be."

Dr. Gibbons, whose mother is a pastor in Browns Mills, is chairman of the Deacons' committee at the Baptist Church of Westfield. He is a member of the technical staff at AT&T Bell Laboratories in Murray Hill. An avid runner, Dr. Gibbons is a top finisher in many local road races, and won the Westfield Recreation Commission one-mile and five-mile races this past April.

St. Paul's Church Slates Sale of Books

St. Paul's Episcopal Church will hold its Annual Election Day Book Sale on Tuesday, November 2, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Bag Day will be on Wednesday, November 3, from 9 a.m. to noon. Book donations will be accepted until Monday, November 1, at 3 p.m. Records or magazines are not sought.

GRANDPARENTS ON BOARD... Redeemer Lutheran School celebrated Grandparents' Day on October 13. The annual event gives students and their grandparents the opportunity to share in the education process. As grandparents visited the classrooms, they told stories of their own days in school. Mrs. Diane Frusco, the school's second-grade teacher, led the morning worship service in the chapel which was filled to capacity. Bible passages were read reflecting stories about parents and grandparents and individual letter cards spelling out "Grandparents" were arranged in the shape of a cross. Four generations were represented by Mrs. Frusco and her family as her children, Kira and Jeremy, her mother, Mrs. Gretchen Dombro, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vollmer, participated in the event. Shown, left to right, are: Walter Frusco, Mrs. Gretchen Dombro, Jeremy Frusco, Kira Frusco and Mrs. Diane Frusco.

Jewish Center to Host Lecture on Genealogy

At the Jewish Community Center of Central New Jersey at 1391 Martine Avenue, Scotch Plains, on Thursday, November 11, at 8 p.m. Dr. Neil Rosenstein, a world-renowned Jewish genealogist and author of a number of important books on family history and research, will share his knowledge and expertise on Jewish genealogy.

Mr. Rosenstein, who in 1978 founded what became the first Jewish Genealogy Society with Arthur Kurzweil, Daniel Rottenburg and Steven Siegel, will speak predominantly on his 1976 work, The Unbroken Chain, a chronicle of the descendants of the MalhaRam of Padua, Rabbi Meir Katzenellenbogen, 1482-1565. Some of this century's most distinguished rabbis, talmudists and prominent Jewish personalities in Europe, Israel and America can trace their lineage through Rabbi Katzenellenbogen as well as approximately half a million people alive today.

There is a $5 fee for community center members and an $8 fee for non-members, and registration by Monday, November 1, is a must.

For further information concerning the program and how to register, please telephone 889-8800.

Republican Trio Cites Moves to Curb Ethical Abuses

Senate President Donald T. DiFrancesco and Assemblymen Richard H. Bagger and Alan M. Augustine urged 22nd District voters to carefully consider their efforts during the past two years to enact legislation to improve ethics in state government.

The 22nd District legislators said the 1992-1993 term "achieved watershed progress" toward the goal of prohibiting influence peddling, removing conflicts of interest and tightening campaign contribution and reporting requirements.

Senator DiFrancesco of Scotch Plains and Assemblymen Bagger of Westfield and Augustine of Scotch Plains each played an influential role in that effort, initiating or co-sponsoring a number of major bills designed to curb potential abuses of power attributable to ethical conflicts or political interference by state officials, according to a release issued to The Westfield Leader.

The efforts of the three legislators to encourage state government to perform in more business-like fashion, free of the taint of political influence peddling, helped earn Senator DiFrancesco and Assemblymen Bagger and Augustine the endorsement of the New Jersey Business and Industry Association.

"The fact that we were able to enact genuine campaign finance reform legislation is significant because this is an issue that past Legislatures struggled with unsuccessfully since the 1970s," noted Senator DiFrancesco, who took the lead in sponsoring this legislation.

"The new law limits the level of contributions that can be made by Political Action Committees and individuals to legislative candidates."

As a member of the Assembly Appropriations Committee, Assemblyman Bagger has spearheaded a litany of bills aimed at reforming the state's bonding practices to prohibit corruption and ensure competitive bidding for bond-related state contracts.

"Public faith in state government was jarred during the past four years through the use of financial gimmicks, such as the sale of a portion of Interstate No. 95 by the state to the Turnpike Authority using authority bonds that were financed by a toll increase," Assemblyman Bagger noted. "Since assuming the majority in January of 1992, Republicans have sent a clear message to New Jersey citizens that the Legislature will not tolerate further use of the bonding process as a way of rewarding political cronies and influential contributors."

Assemblyman Bagger is the sponsor of separate bills to start a New Jersey Bond Review Board, to authorize and oversee the issuance of state debt; require competitive bidding for investment of bond proceeds and mandate voter approval of any bond refinancing that increases the overall level of state debt.

The 22nd District Assembly team also played a key role in the enactment of legislation to clarify and prohibit "blind trust" investments by leading state officials who have a hidden financial stake in the profits of corporations or organizations that do business with the state.

Assemblyman Augustine noted, "My philosophy of government has always been that profit and public service simply do not mix. Fortunately, the Legislature has been taking swift action on several fronts to stop politically-connected bond firms and contractors from advancing themselves by resorting to the use of undue influence with a state official who has a vested interest in their business."

Senator DiFrancesco and Assemblymen Bagger and Augustine said they will continue to seek more restrictive ethics laws to hold lobbyists and Political Action Committees more accountable, provide closer monitoring of bonding by municipal governments and restrict pension padding by part-time office holders who seek lucrative full-time political jobs late in their careers.

County Museum in 1991. She was active in voluntary work for Rotary International on a part-time basis.

The candidate worked on behalf of former Assemblyman Charles L. Hardwick of Westfield in his unsuccessful bid for Governor in 1989. She served on former Representative Matthew J. Rinaldo's Finance Committee until his retirement and is a member of Representative Franks' Finance Committee.

She supports the abolition of the Register's position and returning the tax savings to the residents of the county.

Miss Kelly, currently the Chairman of the Freeholder Board, worked in the Union County Department of Law as an Assistant County Counsel from 1983 to 1989.

She graduated from Rutgers University with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Biological Sciences and later received a Master of Science Degree in Plant Pathology and Juris Doctorate from that university.

The Freeholder also did graduate work at Kean College of New Jersey in Union and attended the Summer Program in International Law at the University of Exeter in England. She was named to Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges.

The candidate is employed as an attorney by Robert C. Thelander in Summit.

This year, she serves on the Cultural and Heritage Programs Advisory Board, the Narcotic Advisory Board, the Committee on the Status of Libraries, the Prosecutor's Office Committee, the Union County Vocational-Technical Board of School Estimate, the Union County College Board of School Estimate and the Hospice and Home Health Care Advisory Board.

Mrs. DiGiovanni was appointed to the Freeholder Board last year to fill the unexpired term of Assemblyman Augustine.

She serves on the Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome Advisory Board, the Air Traffic Advisory Board, the Children's Shelter Advisory Board, the Criminal Justice Review Board, the Juvenile Detention Center Advisory Committee, the Mayors Municipal Advisory Council, the Motion Picture and Television Advisory Board, the Runnells Hospital Lien Committee and the Vietnam Prisoners of War/Missing in Action Citizens Committee.

The Freeholder also is a member of the Freeholders' Policy Committee, and Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges, and Who's Who in American Governmental, Cooperative and Legislative Affairs Committee.

She has more than 25 years of experience in the construction industry and currently is the Credit Administrator at Construction Specialties, Inc. in Cranford, where she has been employed since 1989.

The candidate has served as the Vice Chairman of the Union Township Republican Committee and was the 21st District Coordinator in 1991 for the successful legislative campaigns of Senator C. Louis Bassano and Assemblymen, Mrs. Maureen Ogden and Monroe Jay Lustbader.

Committeeman Pappas, a 20-year Springfield resident, has been a self-employed businessman for 24 years.

He is the President and owner of the Federal Restaurant Supply Company of Springfield.

On the Township Committee he is the Chairman of the public Works Committee and a member of the Public Safety and Finance Committees and the Board of Health.

He also is the township representative to the Freeholder Board.

The candidate served on the Springfield Board of Adjustment and the Union County Transportation Advisory Board in 1991.

Mr. Pappas also is a former county Director of Central Services, Director of Purchasing and Purchasing Agent.

He was educated in the Rutgers University Extension Division.

Mr. Corvelli is this year's Hillside Mayor and served in that capacity previously in 1980 and 1989, as Deputy Mayor in 1988 and 1992 and has served as Finance, Public Works, Fire and Police Commissioner.

He also served on the Board of Health as an Ambulance Squad, Community Center Committee and Recreation and Joint Meeting Representatives.

The candidate also served on the Planning Board, as the Veterans Affairs Representative, Senior Citizen Advisor Board Representative and on the Local Assistance Board, the Zoning Board, the Safety Council and the Library Board.

A medical technologist for 29 years, he is employed by St. Mary's Ambulatory Care in Orange.

The candidate holds Bachelor's and Master's Degrees from Felician College in Lodi, and he graduated from the St. Mary's School of Medical Technology and Orange High School.

Committee. She is the past President of the Fanwood Junior Woman's Club and served as the Second Vice President of the Union County Women's Political Caucus.

The Mayor holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree from American University in Washington, D.C. She is a life-long county resident.

Miss Quijano was born in New Jersey and is a child of Puerto Rican migrant farm workers.

A graduate of Rutgers University with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Management, she received her Law Degree from Rutgers University, where she served as the Executive Editor of the Women's Rights Law Reporter.

Shortly thereafter, she returned as invited guest speaker at the National Hispanic Bar Association Annual Convention.

Her legal career included a stint as Law Clerk to Judge Julio Fuentes of the Criminal Court, New Jersey Governor's Counsel in the Summer of 1990, and she is a practicing attorney and current member of Union County Board of Legal Services.

Miss Quijano is the Chief of Staff for State Senator Raymond J. Lesniak. She is a member of the Special Economic Advisory Committee to the New Jersey Economic Development Authority, the New Jersey Host Committee for the World Cup USA '94, the Tenants Association of Elizabeth, the Federation of Democratic Women and the Hispanic American Association for Political Awareness and serves as a New Jersey Congressional Redistricting Commissioner.

She is recipient of the Pepsi Cola Leadership Award, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Freedom Award and the Cemi Award as an Outstanding Board Member from the Puerto Rican Congress of New Jersey.

Mr. Carson holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Chemistry from Rutgers University and is a research chemist at Unilever Research in Edgewater, where he has worked for the past 11 years.

He has been a resident of Rahway for 15 years and is married with two children, both of whom attend the Rahway Public Schools.

The candidate also is a member of the Rahway Environmental Commission and the Rahway Youth Soccer Association, where he has been a coach for the past eight years.

He has been the Vice-Chair of the Concerned Citizens of Union County for the past four years. This community group has been organizing opposition to the Union County incinerator in Rahway on environmental, financial and public-health and social-justice grounds.

He is running as an independent on the New Party ticket under the slogan "Clean Up Union County."

PUBLIC QUESTION

State voters will decide on a single public question on Tuesday's ballot.

They will be asked whether or not voters, by petition, should have the power to recall officials at any level at any time during their terms if they feel the officials are not properly carrying out their responsibilities.

TERROR TOUR...The A.M. Kindergarten Enrichment class at St. Paul's Day School of Westfield took a walking tour up Elm Street recently to find the Mansard-style house that inspired the cartoon drawings of Charles Addams. PENNIES FOR THE CAUSE...Mrs. Marge Brewster, left, and Mrs. Sally Hedborg, two of the Chairmen of the Penny Drive.

Penny Drive to Benefit Westfield Day Care Center

The Westfield Day Care Center Auxiliary is planning a penny drive as their new fund-raising activity for the holiday season. The Auxiliary is asking the local communities to help by giving their extra pennies to help to respond to needs of the scholarship fund which covers expenses in the operating budget.

The Church Women United in February of 1967 formed the Westfield Day Care Center in order to offer a program which would provide excellent child care to families for varying socio-economic backgrounds regardless of ability to pay.

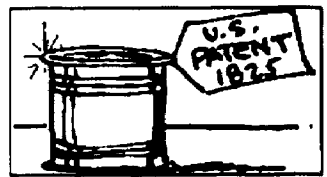

The philosophy remains the same today — they receive funding from our auxiliary, solicit donations from the community and local organizations and continue to determine tuitions on a sliding scale. The fact that the tuitions are based on a sliding scale allows over half of the families to receive scholarship funding.

The Westfield Day Care Center currently provides full day care for 85 full-time children and 22 part-time children.

The Chairmen of the penny drive are: Mrs. Marge Brewster, Mrs. Evelyn Ford and Mrs. Sally Hedborg.

The canisters for donating your pennies will be placed in local stores and businesses.

The tin canning process for food was patented by Ezra and Thomas Kinnet of New York in 1825.

Trailside Slates Programs On Convention Days

Trailside Nature and Science Center in Mountainside will be offering special programs for children and their families during teacher convention days on Thursday and Friday, November 4 and 5.

On November 4 from 10 to 10:45 a.m. or 11 to 11:45 a.m. pre-schoolers aged 4 to 6 accompanied by an adult will be able to come to Trailside's planetarium for Rodney the Rocket. The show will introduce pre-schoolers to the planets and other night sky wonders. A fee of $2.50 per person is payable at the door.

First and second graders will paint their faces, look for food sources and play Lenni Lenape games in Lenape Families from 10 to 11:30 a.m. The fee is $9.

Scientists estimate there are a million worms in one acre of soil. Third- through fifth-grade students will examine worms closeup and discover the benefits of worm composting and other interesting facts during Worm Wonders from 1 to 2:30 p.m. The fee is $9.

Pop-Up Surprises for students in first grade and up with adults from 1 to 2 p.m. will have participants turning ordinary pieces of paper into extraordinary pop-ups for holiday cards, invitations or gifts. Adults should bring an act knife if they own one. The fee is $6 for a family of four.

From 1 to 1:45 p.m. All About Orion, a planetarium show, will be presented for those aged six years old and up with an adult. For a fee, payable at the door, of $2.50 per person participants will learn how to find this constellation in the winter sky. A second show will be presented on Friday from 1 to 1:45 p.m.

On November 5, the program lineup will include Breakfast for the Birds from 10:30 a.m. to noon for families including those 3 years old and up with an adult. Families will learn the do's and don'ts of winter birdfeeding, visit the bird-attraction area and make their own feeding station to take home. The fee is $9 for a family of four.

From 10 to 10:45 a.m., The Planet Earth, a planetarium show all about the earth, how it moves in space and the phases of the moon, will be presented for families, including children in the first grade and up accompanied by adults. The fee, payable at the door, is $2.50 per person.

Families also can enjoy the crisp November air during a hike from 1 to 2:30 p.m. The Red and White Hike will take hikers 7 years old and older accompanied by an adult, babies in backpacks are welcome, on a hike in search of deer and clues left behind along the Red and White Trails. The fee is $6 for a family of four.

In addition to these special programs, Trailside's Visitor's Center and Museum will be open from 1 to 5 p.m.

Trailside is a facility of Union County Division of Parks and Recreation.

Registration is required for all programs except Planetarium shows. Class sizes are limited. For more information, please telephone Trailside at 789-3670.

Retired Persons To Hear Doctor On Arthritis

The next general meeting of the Westfield Chapter No. 4137 of the American Association of Retired Persons will be held on Monday, November 1, at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 414 East Broad Street, Westfield, at 1 p.m. A social period with refreshments precedes the meeting at 12:30 p.m. Guests will be welcome at this meeting.

Miss Dorothy Garris, Program Chairman, said Dr. David D. Bullek will discuss "Arthritis and Knee Replacement." Dr. Bullek, an orthopedic surgeon who specializes in sports medicine and surgery of the knee and shoulder, has recently joined in practice with Dr. Albert B. Thrower in Westfield.

Members and guests are asked to enter through the red door at the rear of the building and to bring a non-perishable food item as a contribution to the food cupboard; paper items and soaps are also needed.

Membership Chairman, Arthur Taylor, reports membership in the Westfield area chapter is open to all area residents 50 years of age and older who hold national membership. Meetings are held monthly from September through June on the first Monday of the month.

CRAFT CUSTOMERS...Westfield Twig II Co-Chairwomen, Mrs. Joan Callender and Mrs. Kathy Livaudais, show Mark Bistany, a patient at Children's Specialized Hospital in Mountainside, a sampling of the handicrafts to be sold tomorrow at the 10th Annual Westfield Craft Market at the Westfield Armory. Starting at 5 p.m., opening-night ticket and raffle proceeds will be donated to the hospital as well as 10 per cent of sales the first night of the two-weekend run.

SOMETHING TO CHEER ABOUT...These Roosevelt Intermediate School girls have all been selected to perform as cheerleaders in Our Miss Brooks, the musical to be held at Roosevelt tomorrow, Friday, October 29, and Saturday, October 30, at 8 p.m. The cheerleaders include: Brock row, Amy Coccara, Kelly Korwek, Cindy Koons and Jill Kelly; front row, Mari Roly, Abby Stoller, Amy Molnar and Colleen Donovan. Tickets for the show are $4 for adults and $3 for students. For more information, please call 789-4860.

LEGISLATIVE TRIBUTE...Assemblyman Alan M. Augustine of Scotch Plains presents a copy of a Joint Legislative Resolution honoring and congratulating Union County College on the 60th anniversary of its founding. Assemblyman Augustine, right, presented the resolution to Dr. Thomas H. Brown, the college's President, and John Burns of Westfield, President of the Student Government Association, at the 60th Birthday Party on the Cranford Campus.

SCARECROW WINNERS...Westfield Girl Scouts, left to right, Carol Rudnicki of Troop No. 36 at Franklin School and Maureen Cooke of Troop No. 778 and Rebecca Bruchman of Troop No. 495, both of Tamaques School, received prizes for their winning entries in the Scarecrow Decorating Contest during "Addams Family Weekend," a promotional event sponsored by the Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce Retail Promotions Committee. With the girls are Scott Beresford, Manager of Summit Bank, left, and Jeff Gofter, Manager of 1st Nationwide Bank. Not pictured is Frank Goffredo, Manager of Central Jersey Bank and Trust Company. These bankers donated the three prizes of $100 United States Savings Bonds. Many attractive scarecrows created by other girl scouts are on display in Westfield businesses, including the banks.

GREETING VOTERS...Third Ward Councilman Kenneth L. MacRitchie meets Theodore Frank at Mr. Frank's home on Eton Place.

Councilman MacRitchie Meets Third Ward Voters

Councilman Kenneth L. MacRitchie, seeking reelection on November 2, is nearing the completion of his customary door-to-door campaign in the Third Ward.

Councilman MacRitchie explained his door-to-door campaign enables voters to express their concerns regarding any public issues and enables him to distribute the literature of the various Republican candidates.

According to Councilman MacRitchie, issues presented by citizens in this year's door-to-door campaign included Mount Laurel, the second senior citizens housing project, the Wyoming Street paving proposal, the Pearl Street paving proposal, trash haulers' hours of operation, the contractors' yard behind the Girl Scout building, and assorted tree and road maintenance problems.

Councilman MacRitchie noted his practice of following up on all constituent concerns and responding in writing.

RAISE YOUR VOICES...The Wilson School of Westfield Slug-A-Long will be held Friday, October 29, at 9:30 a.m. Students will be entertaining with songs and poems. Some participants in the Halloween fun are fourth graders, left to right, Katie Maassenzo, Virginia Mammano, Michael Keller and Daniel Capraro.

Travel, Antique Courses Highlight Adult School

Two new travelogues and a two-session course on "Nineteenth Century American Antiques" will be given November 1 and 8 by the Westfield Adult School at Westfield High School, 550 Dorian Road.

"Stately Homes, Castles and Palaces of Europe" is a video tour of the treasures and histories of special properties in England, France, Germany, Austria and Switzerland. This class will meet November 1.

"Two Famous Train Trips" will focus on the legendary "Orient Express" five-day route across Europe and the "Glacier Express" trip from St. Moritz to Zermatt, Switzerland. This class will meet November 8. Tuition for each travelogue is $8, or both for $13.

"Nineteenth Century American Antiques" will be discussed in a two-session slide presentation which surveys changing styles during the Federal, Victorian and Art Nouveau eras. Specific topics include: Empire and Beller furniture, art glass, pressed and cut glass, repoussé silver and Jacquard coverlets.

Prospective travelers and collectors may register for these classes by telephoning 232-4050.

Miller-Cory to Teach Art of Broom Making

The Miller-Cory House Museum, located at 615 Mountain Avenue, Westfield, will demonstrate the art of broom making on Sunday, October 31.

Broom corn, a type of corn stalk which bears no corn ears, is grown strictly for the long tassels. Broom corn can be seen growing behind the Frazee Building. These tassels are cut and dried to become stiff bristles. They are then bunched and tied together around a central handle.

The Miller-Cory cooks will demonstrate open-hearth cooking in the Frazee Building fireplace.

It is a difficult task to prepare a full meal on an open fire, but one which adds a distinct flavor to real home cooking, especially in these days of microwave ovens.

Historical note: Cooking in an open fireplace accounted for the second leading cause of female deaths during the Colonial period from burning or infections from burns.

The main farm house, circa 1740, will be open for tours beginning at 2 p.m. with the last tour starting at 4:30 p.m.

For more information, please telephone the office at 232-1776.

Local Red Cross Chapter Hosts Financial Seminar

A free workshop, hosted by the Westfield-Mountainside Chapter of the American Red Cross, on financial security will tackle subjects such as:

- "Safe Money — Making Your Nest Egg Grow Safely."
- "Tax Strategies for Highly Appreciated Investments."
- "The New Tax Law, Trusts, Probate and You!"

The workshops will be presented in layperson's terms, and people of all ages are encouraged to attend. For those wishing to ask personal questions in private, a free hour of consultation will be available at a later date. Reservations are appreciated, but not required by calling 232-7090.

The two sessions will be held on November 3 at 10 a.m. at The Mansion Hotel, 295 South Avenue Fanwood, and on November 10 at 10 a.m. in the Mountainside Library, Constitution Plaza, Mountainside.

Chamber Network Backs Area Legislative Republicans

The New Jersey Chamber Political Action Committee Network October 21 announced its endorsement of candidates for the New Jersey State Legislature in all 40 legislative districts. The endorsements were announced by William F. Faherty, Jr., Vice Chairman, and William R. Healey, Executive Director.

The New Jersey Network is the political action committee of the Chamber of Commerce movement in the Garden State.

Receiving endorsements were 27 Republicans and 12 Democrats seeking seats in the New Jersey Senate and 52 Republicans and 18 Democrats running for seats in the General Assembly, including Senate President Donald T. DiFrancesco of Scotch Plains and Assemblymen Richard H. Bagger of Westfield and Alan M. Augustine of Scotch Plains, all in District No. 22.

Cranford Singers Join Town Seniors in Songfest

The Musical Director at the Cranford Recreation Center brought her singing group to Westfield Senior Citizen Housing on October 5.

They were greeted by Mrs. Elizabeth Shea, the Choir Director at Westfield Senior Housing and the choir members, Mrs. Alice Fink, Richard Steffan, Mrs. Violet Clark, Mrs. Irene Lamendola, Mrs. Rose Esposito, Mrs. Jean Hogben, Mrs. Alberta Dilger, Mrs. Marie Kirsch, Mrs. Florence Brown, Blaine Ryan and accompanist, Joel Trompe.

The groups took turns performing for each other and then combined talents and sang a few rounds of well-known tunes.

The joint venture was a success, and they decided to meet again.

A meeting was held at the senior housing on October 7 to make plans for a bazaar to be held at the complex on Saturday, November 6, from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Residents have volunteered to man booths selling cakes, jewelry, boutique items and folk art made by the tenants.

Other organizations may rent table space at the cost of $3 and 10 percent of the sales donated to the Manor Park Tenant's Association.

Please telephone Mrs. Joan Rose for information at 233-1733.

Marketing Ideas Topic Of Chamber Breakfast

The Cranford and Westfield Area Chambers of Commerce invite their members and other local business owners to a Business Breakfast with Donald Peppers. The event will be held Wednesday, November 10, from 8 to 10 a.m. at The Westwood, 438 North Avenue, Garwood.

Mr. Peppers is author of the new book One to One: The Future of Marketing, published by Doubleday this year. He will describe how people can gain a bigger percentage of their target markets and improve their businesses through specific advertising and promotional ideas.

Mr. Peppers has been profiled in Business Week, Manhattan Inc., Ad Week, and Advertising Age. According to The New York Times, "Mr. Peppers' track record has made him one of the best-known scouts for new business."

Mr. Peppers is President of Marketing I:1, an independent consulting firm in marketing technology. In the last 12 months, his clients have included MCI, Chase Manhattan Bank, Ford, Pitney-Bowes, Simon & Schuster, Bell Atlantic, Harley-Davidson and others in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Mr. Peppers recently co-authored a book about the technology of marketing and the future of business competition. The book, The 1:1 Future: Building Relationships One Customer at a Time, will be available and on sale at the breakfast meeting.

Reservations for the breakfast and program costs $11 for Chamber members and $15 for non-members. They may be made by calling the Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce office at 233-3021. The reservation deadline is Friday, November 5.

FLAGS AWAY...On October 17 the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Marching Band performed in competition in Montville. Six bands participated in the competition. The Raider Show Band captured a Superior rating in Class AAA and Second Place Overall. A point score of 90 or above rates a Superior which is the highest rating that can be achieved. Only one other band in the competition also received a Superior rating. The Front Squad is shown practicing their routine before taking the field for competition at Montville. The Front Squad performs intricate flag routines and dance steps that enhance the music and marching formations.

TALL TALES...Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shea play a bit of American Gothic in front of their eight-foot canna lilies that are towering over their Scotch Plains backyard. Mrs. Shea, Mrs. Shea, a landscape designer, believes it is the good Scotch Plains soil that made these plants double their size. "I have been gardening for many years and have never grown plants that were so vigorous as these canna lilies," she said.

LIGHTS, ACTION, CAMERA...These students from Roosevelt Intermediate School in Westfield are part of the production crew responsible for the lighting, scenery and other backstage functions of the school's upcoming musical Our Miss Brooks. ENTOMOLOGIST SCHOOL CALL..."Mom, do you want to do an experiment in the kitchen with fungus?" No, no! said Mom. This is how the presentation started when Dr. John Roberts, an Evergreen School father and microbiologist, visited the school's first- and second-grade classes recently. Dr. Roberts talked to the Scotch Plains and Fanwood children about non-green plants, mushrooms, fungus, mold and yeast, as the children sat there mesmerized with wonder. He showed the children the structure of various mushrooms and explained how mold was used to create penicillin. The different mushrooms and fungus samples then remained in the main hallway of Evergreen for the entire school to look at.
