FLEXIBILITY WILL ALLOW SCHOOL TO BEGIN BEFORE LABOR DAY

Board of Education Presents Draft Policies on Calendar, Entrance Rules for Kindergarten

Body Probably Will Be Able to 'Fine Tune' Each Year's Listing at February Vote

By TUCKER TRIMBLE
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader

At the Westfield Board of Education meeting on Tuesday board member, Mrs. Melba Nixon, the Chairman of the Programs and Policies Committee, presented to the board a school-year calendar policy and a kindergarten-entrance policy.

The draft policy on a school calendar, she said, is recommended by the Programs and Policies Committee in order to reduce annual controversy over the school calendar and to provide more consistency and certitude to the annual school calendar.

There is presently no policy concerning the school calendar.

Mrs. Nixon stated the proposed calendar follows the traditional school-year calendar in Westfield, with the exception of a provision to begin school before Labor Day on two years when the date of Labor Day is particularly late—September 6 and 7.

School will begin, according to the policy, on the Wednesday following Labor Day except when September 1 falls on Tuesday, school will begin for students on Wednesday, September 2, and when September 1 falls on Wednesday, school will begin for students on Thursday, September 2.

The policy provides for two days for the New Jersey Education Association Annual Teachers Convention, a long weekend in November to encompass Thanksgiving and vacations of at least one week in late December encompassing Christmas and New Year's Day, in February encompassing President's Day and in April at an appropriate educational break period.

Based on discussion as to the board's power to fine-tune the calendar each year, a proviso will be added to the policy to give the board that power when the calendar is voted on, probably sometime in February, according to Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Mark C. Smith.

When school board members attempted to discuss specific days on the sample calendars given, particularly for school year 1994-1995, Dr. Smith urged them to "focus on the policy; it's not constructive to talk about individual years."

The policy concerns itself about three major issues, continued the Superintendent, the starting date, the issue of individual days such as the second day of Rosh Hashanah and Columbus Day, and the length of the February and April vacations.

Michael Seifer, the President of the Westfield Education Association, told the board the association endorses the calendar policy.

"It gives consistency for the teachers and students. We definitely endorse it," he said.

The policy will be available for first reading at the board business meeting next Tuesday, and will have a final vote at the following board meeting, thus allowing the public three opportunities for comment.

Mrs. Nixon also presented a revision of the kindergarten-entrance policy. The sole change, she said, is to eliminate the provision for an exemption to the October 1 entrance date. This exemption provision was added to the entrance policy in 1989.

The initial purpose for this provision, she continued, was to ease the transition period for the change in the entrance date from December 1 to October 1 beginning in 1990.

Over the four years of this provision, 27 parents have requested an evaluation by the district's Child Study Team, and only one child has entered kindergarten as a result of the policy's evaluation provision, Mrs. Nixon said.

As it stands, the policy states children who reach the age of 5 years on or before October 1 of that year may be admitted to kindergarten during September. It also states the same for children entering the first grade, with the requirement they be 6 years of age by October 1.

The only exception, Dr. Smith pointed out, is when a student has successfully completed a year of kindergarten, for example at the "Y" program, a private school, or even coming from out of district where the cutoff dates are different from that in Westfield.

In these cases, the Superintendent will decide whether or not the child will enter the first grade based on an assessment by the Special Services Department.

Like the proposed policy on the school calendar, this policy will be available for public input at the next two board meetings.

In other business, the board unanimously approved a proposed four-day field trip for advanced journalism students at the high school to Washington D. C. from Thursday to Sunday, November 18 to 21.

The purpose of the trip, said Dr. Smith, will be to attend and participate in the annual National Scholastic Press Association's High School Journalism Convention.

"As few as 12 and as many as 20 students will attend," said Dr. Smith, noting the cost of the trip will be covered by the high school field trip account, the Hi's Eye, the high school newspaper, and the students partici-

Buyer of Second Lot in Norgate Subdivision Must Meet All Town's Deed Requirements

Resident Tells Council Plans for New Home, Shows It Is Not Like Others in Area; Architectural Unit to Review It

By ROBERT K. FASZCZEWSKI
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader

The purchaser of a lot created by a subdivision of a lot on Norgate which was approved by the Planning Board on June 7 will not be able to build on the lot until he meets the requirements of the approval and other legal requirements.

A resident of the street, Mrs. Rosemary Milet of 761 Norgate, was told that by Fourth Ward Councilman Michael E. Panagos at Tuesday night's regular meeting of the council when she said she feared a new home planned for the lot would not be in conformance with the homes already in the area.

Although the Architectural Review Board normally handles only proposed improvements to businesses, Town Attorney Charles H. Brandt said, and its opinions usually are advisory to the council only, the fact the subdivision approval on Norgate was based in part on review by the architectural board made the decision of that board in the subdivision case more binding.

In addition, according to the Attorney, the deed for the second lot was filed prior to the filing of a subdivision deed and the deed which was filed did not contain restrictions which the Planning Board placed on the lot when the subdivision was approved.

Therefore, he noted, both deeds would have to be filed again.

In any event, Councilman Panagos said, only a street-opening permit for utilities has been issued, and construction on the home cannot begin until a construction permit is issued and the other requirements are met.

Mr. Brandt will write the purchaser of the second lot informing him of the requirements.

In other action, the council:

Approved a land exchange between the town and Mrs. Nadia Irene Loughlin of Sedgewick Avenue which will join two previously-separate pieces of town land.

Agreed to the demolition of an abandoned home at 509 East Broad Street. A parking lot and new office building will be erected on the site, First Ward Councilman Norman N. Greco said.

Authorized the sale of an undersized lot at 117 Cacciola Place to the adjacent property owner.

Approved the appointment of Kenneth B. Marsh and the new Town Engineer and Second Ward Councilman James J. Gruba as Commissioner and incoming Town Administrator Edward A. Gontko as Alternate Commissioner, respectively, of the Suburban Joint Insurance Fund.

Awarded a $34,720 contract to R. Jones & Company for the improvement of Washington Street between Carleton Road and the Boulevard.

Second Senior Site Moving on Schedule

By ROBERT K. FASZCZEWSKI
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader

It would be reasonable to expect the second Westfield Senior Citizen Housing Complex to be completed by the end of next year, Matthew Sheehy, a member of the board of the Senior Citizen Housing Corporation, told the Town Council at its conference session last Wednesday.

Partial clearing of the site began last Tuesday and continued last Wednesday, Mr. Sheehy said.

Borings for the foundation were set to begin this past Friday, he added.

Although the remainder of the roadway closest to the entrance circle would be cleared shortly, the board member added, the site of the parking area nearest Columbus Avenue would be cleared as close to the completion of the clearing work as possible in order to maintain most of the woods surrounding the site as a separation from surrounding homes as long as possible.

Areas where sewerage pipes are to be installed, near the detention basin and around the "footprint" for the foundation must be cleared by the end of this year, Mr. Sheehy said.

The developer of the complex already has invested sums equalling six figures, Mayor Garland C. "Bud" Boothe, Jr. said, and he expects to have enough of the project completed to meet the Friday, December 31, 1993, deadline for federal tax credits.

Mr. Sheehy added the closing date for the project probably will be Monday, November 15, with deep trench work to be done around Monday, November 22.

Any legal action to stop the project, Mr. Sheehy said, would be frivolous because it is a "clean" project which required no variances and has received approval from both the Board of Adjustment and the Planning Board.

On another matter, Mayor Boothe announced the appointment of Council Finance Chairman James J. Gruba as the town's Commissioner to the Suburban Joint Insurance Pool with incoming Town Administrator and current Town Engineer Edward A. Gontko as the alternate.

The pool currently is reviewing resumes of the positions of Counselor, treasurer and other compensated posts, Councilman Gruba said, and they most likely will favor people already on the payroll of communities which are members of the pool.

The next meeting of the pool, the Councilman noted, is scheduled for today.

On another matter, First Ward Councilman Norman N. Greco noted two violations of the 6 a.m. starting time for garbage hauling have been reported, and one of those charged, Fanwood Disposal, has said it will fight the charge based on state jurisdiction over its tariff.

Solid Waste Committee Chairman Anthony M. LaPorta said residents with complaints about violations of the ordinance should not telephone haulers themselves.

Rather, he noted, they should telephone the police and try to have police observe the violations. Failing this, the Councilman said, residents can file their own complaints with police.

Councilman LaPorta also reported his committee on Monday, November 29, would hold one of a series of meetings at which it would solicit suggestions on reducing the costs of garbage collection for low volume generators of waste.

County solid waste officials would attend the November 29 session, he

Town Seniors Do Better Than Students in the State And the Nation on Scholastic Aptitude Tests

Results Do Not Compare as Favorably to Those Achieved by Westfield Students Tested 23 Years Ago

Recently-released results of the 1993 Scholastic Aptitude Tests show Westfield High School students doing considerably better in average total scores this year than their counterparts in the state and nation, areas far poorer than Westfield, but not nearly as well as seniors at the high school 23 years ago, in 1970, the earliest year for which statistics are available from the school's Guidance Department.

Statistics were not available for comparison to students in districts with similar socio-economic backgrounds to that of Westfield.

This year, according to the Guidance Department report, the average total score on the test for Westfield was 993, while the average score in the state was 892 and the average score in the nation was 902.

In 1970, however, the average Westfield total score was 1,026, while that in the nation was 948. No state statistics were kept in 1970.

Fifteen years ago, Westfielders scored an average total of 972, compared to 870 in the state and 897 in the nation, while the scores 10 years ago were 959 for Westfield, 873 for the state and 893 for the nation.

Scores on the verbal section of the test were 462 for Westfield this year, 419 for the state and 424 for the nation.

On the same section of the test in 1970, Westfield seniors scored 492 and those in the nation 460.

Verbal scores in 1978, 15 years ago, were 464 for Westfield, 419 for the state and 429 for the nation.

Ten years ago, in 1983, Westfielders scored 463, while their counterparts in the state scored 419 and those in the nation 429.

Average scores on the mathematics section of the test this year for Westfield were 531, while those in the state were 473 and those in the nation 478.

Twenty-three years ago the mathematical average scores were 534 for Westfield students and 488 for those in the nation.

Fifteen years ago the Westfield scores in the same section of the test were 509, compared to 451 in the state and 468 in the nation.

This year's total average score for Westfielders is the same total as last year, seven points below the 1991 score, and, excluding that year, the highest total average since 1973.

A total of 93.5 per cent of the students at the high school took the tests this year.

Kenneth B. Marsh Appointed to Post Of Town Engineer, Replacing Mr. Gontko

Kenneth B. Marsh has been named Town Engineer in Westfield, effective on Monday, November 29.

Mr. Marsh succeeds Edward A. Gontko, Westfield's Engineer for the past 14 years, who will replace the retiring John F. Malloy, Jr. as Town Administrator in January.

The selection of Mr. Marsh followed review of a number of applicants, out of whom nine were interviewed by Mr. Gontko and Mr. Malloy.

They recommended three applicants who were interviewed by Mayor Garland C. "Bud" Boothe, Jr. and Second Ward Councilwoman Mrs. Margaret C. Sur, the Chairman of the Public Works Committee, James Hely, the Chairman of the Personnel Policy Committee, and James J. Gruba, the Finance Committee Chairman.

Mr. Marsh, who has been a Westfield resident for 16 years, has served in comparable positions for Clark and Cranford Townships in recent years, and also has been the Manager of Operations for Concept Engineering Consultants of South Amboy.

As Director of Environmental Engineering for Union County from 1973 to 1985, he administered county wide stormwater management programs and provided assistance to municipalities on environmental engineering matters. He worked on the early development of the county's solid waste management plans, including recycling.

The new Engineer holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Civil Engineering from Newark College of Engineering and a Master of Science Degree in Environmental Engineering from the New Jersey Institute of Technology in Newark.

He is licensed as a professional engineer and professional planner and is a certified municipal engineer.

Mr. Marsh has served with a number of environmental organizations, including the Somerset-Union Soil conservation District and the Union County Environmental Advisory Board and is the Vice Chairman of the Hazardous Materials Advisory Council of Union and Middlesex Counties.

As Town Engineer in Westfield, Mr. Marsh will be a member of the Westfield Planning Board and also serve as the Recycling Coordinator.

Mr. Marsh and his wife, Mrs. Joyce Marsh have a daughter, Erica Marsh, and two sons, Kenneth and Ethan Marsh, the latter a sophomore at Westfield High School.

"Westfield's charter provides this appointment by a selection and designation by the Town Administrator with the concurrence of the Mayor and then the full council," Mayor Boothe said. "In view of the importance of this position to the entire community, I wanted members of the Council to participate in the process. The entire council met with Mr. Marsh on November 3 and agreed with the recommendations by Mr. Malloy, Mr. Gontko, the three council members and myself."

"I am very pleased we have selected a person with extensive experience in both local government and the private sector, who has managed both engineering projects and public works activities and personnel. The fact he has lived in our community for years is a definite plus," the Mayor added.

Survey Seeks to Find Student Growth Areas

Parent volunteers will conduct a door-to-door survey of the Jefferson, McKinley and Tamaques elementary school districts in Westfield looking for children eligible to enter kindergarten in September of next year and in September of 1995.

The survey will be conducted from Sunday, November 14, through Monday, November 22, so it will be completed in time for school budget planning for the 1994-1995 school year.

Results of the survey, commissioned by Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Mark C. Smith, will be used by the Board of Education to better plan use of school facilities as elementary school enrollment rises.

Leaders of parent-teacher groups in each school are in charge of parent volunteers for the survey. They include Parent-Teacher Association Presidents, Mrs. Kim Block and Mrs. Kathleen Elken of Jefferson School, Patrick Hall of McKinley School and Mrs. Nancy Biggio and Mrs. Ronnie Caravello of Tamaques School.

The survey is modeled after surveys conducted last year in the Franklin, Washington and Wilson School districts.

"We are surveying the Jefferson, McKinley and Tamaques School areas because we are experiencing a surge in elementary enrollment, and we need to be certain that we have school facilities to take care of children in the school district," Dr. Smith said.

Surrogate Honored By State Educators

Union County Surrogate, Mrs. Ann P. Conti, was honored by New Jersey Alpha Delta Kappa International Honorary Sorority for Women Educators at their State Founders Day Luncheon on October 16.

Alpha Delta Kappa was chartered in 1947, incorporating it as a national sorority for women educators with state organization privileges.

At the New Jersey convention in May the chapter delegated voted to name Mrs. Conti a state honorary member.

The selection as State Honorary Member was based on Mrs. Conti's outstanding contribution to education and the humanities on a state level.

After graduating from Seton Hall University's School of Education and while raising her family, Mrs. Conti taught neurologically-impaired children and tutored handicapped students.

Later, she directed and taught on the early-childhood level until entering law school with the goal of combining her educational background with legal interests.

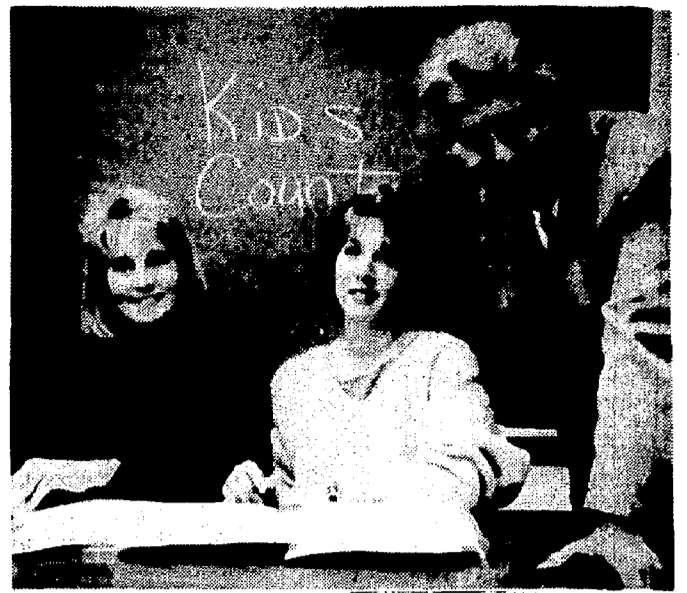

Mrs. Conti completed Seton Hall Law School and was admitted to the New Jersey Bar and to appear before the Supreme Court of the United States. She then served as a Law Clerk for Union County Judges and as an attorney for the Union County Board of Social Services. In 1982 she was elected as Surrogate of Union County and after two re-elections continues to serve in that office.

Master Gardeners Set Holiday Bazaar

The Master Gardeners of the Rutgers Cooperative Extension of Union County Master Gardeners will host a Holiday Bazaar on Saturday, December 4, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Dreyer's Farm, 831 Springfield Avenue, Cranford.

Gardening questions will be answered by members of the Garden Hotline. Rutgers Fact Sheets and soil test kits will be available. An assortment of hand-crafted items, all made or grown by the Master Gardeners, will be offered for sale. Proceeds will benefit the Master Gardeners, whose main purpose is to educate the public on home gardening. Refreshments will be served and admission is free.

For directions or more information on the event, or on the Master Gardener Program in Union County, please contact the Cooperative Extension Office in Westfield at 654-9854.

COUNTING HEADS. To gain more accurate enrollment data and to address space needs in the elementary schools where enrollment is growing, Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Mark C. Smith, has commissioned a door-to-door survey by parent volunteers in the Jefferson, McKinley and Tamaques School areas of children eligible to enter kindergarten in September of next year and in September of 1995. Pictured planning the Tamaques School survey are Parent-Teacher Association Co-Presidents, Mrs. Ronnie Caravello and Mrs. Nancy Biggio, and Salvatore J. DeSimone, who was appointed principal of Tamaques School at the School Board's November 9 meeting.

Mrs. Iammatteo Re-Elected Vocational Board President

Mrs. Gail Iammatteo of Scotch Plains has been re-elected to her second one-year term as President of the Board of Education of the Vocational Schools in Union County. When first elected as year ago, she became the first woman to ever serve as leader of the board. Charles Mancuso of Hillside was renamed Vice President.

Other members of the board include Robert H. Schmidt of Linden, Dr. Leonard D. Fitts, Union County Superintendent of Schools, and Mrs. Jane Lorber of Scotch Plains. Reappointed to board posts were State Senate President Donald T. DiFrancesco of Scotch Plains, an attorney, and Edward H. Mellage of Elizabeth, Treasurer.

Mrs. Iammatteo, who was also appointed by the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders to another four-year term as a member of the Board of Education, has been very involved in county and Scotch Plains activities. She is a member of the Scotch Plains Board of Adjustment, the Union County Republican Finance Committee and serves as a Republican Committeewoman in Scotch Plains.

Mrs. Iammatteo is also the Republican Delegate to Union County for Scotch Plains. Past affiliations include the Scotch Plains Cultural Arts Committee.

For 14 years she was co-owner of Johanna's Bridal Shops in Edison, North Plainfield and Matawan. The holder of a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mathematics and Education, awarded cu laude by Richmond College in Staten Island, she also earned 28 credits in education and mathematics at the Richmond College Graduate School.

Mr. Mancuso is now Executive Director of the Linden Economic Development Corporation. The former Mayor of Hillside has many years of diversified experience in the banking and management professions. He currently acts as consultant to professional groups regarding financial management and planning as well as educational policies and procedures. Mr. Mancuso has been active on the County Vocational Education Board for the past 28 years.

The board governs the operations of the Union County Vocational-Technical Schools located at 1776 Raritan Road, Scotch Plains.

Civil War Spies Library Program

Dr. Alan Axelrod, an author and historian, will be the guest speaker on Sunday, November 14, at 3 p.m. in the Program Room of the Westfield Memorial Library. His topic will be "Abe Lincoln's Reluctant Agent and Jeff Davis's Rebel Rose: The First Two Spies of the Civil War."

The program is sponsored by the Friends of the Library and sets the stage for the town's bi-centennial year. Admission is free.

Free Breast Tests Slated at Overlook Hospital

As part of an ongoing effort to promote breast cancer awareness, Overlook Hospital's Women's Health Service is offering free classes on breast self-examination to interested residents. According to the American Cancer Society, one out of every nine women will get breast cancer. This year, 182,000 new cases of breast cancer will be diagnosed nationwide — professional at least every three years. Upcoming lectures through the end of 1993 include:

6,900 in New Jersey — and 75 per cent will be among women over age 50. Women over 65 will account for nearly half of all new breast cancer patients.

The society recommends, that to encourage early detection and improve cancer survival rates, women between the ages of 40 and 49 should perform a breast self-examination monthly, have a breast test by their health care professional every year and have a mammogram every one or two years.

• Wednesday, November 3, Wallace Auditorium, 7 to 9:30 p.m., free lecture on hormone replacement therapy by Dr. Sheila Buchbinder, an obstetrician and gynecologist on staff at Overlook.

• Monday, December 6, Westfield "Y," 220 Clark Street, 7 p.m., free lecture on cancers of the female reproductive tract by Dr. J. Eric Christman, Medical Director of the Women's Cancer Center at Overlook.

Mobile Meals Marks 25 Years of Service

Acting Westfield Mayor Michael E. Panagos recently signed a proclamation that commends the staff of Mobile Meals of Westfield for 25 years of service.

At the proclamation signing were: former Mobile Meals President Kenneth Bachman, current President, Mrs. Judy Dombrowski, and former Presidents, Mrs. Nancy Ochi and Mrs. Jean Gunn.

A non-profit organization, Mobile Meals serves the nutritional needs of disabled residents of Westfield, Mountainside, Scotch Plains, Fanwood, Garwood, Cranford and Clark.

Crews of volunteer food packers and drivers deliver, prepare and distribute low-cost dinners each week-day. Recipients pay a nominal fee and may, for a slightly extra charge, receive a cold supper at the same time.

For more information please telephone Mrs. Mae Frantz at 276-2264 or Mobile Meals at 233-6147, since packers and drivers always are needed and donations are appreciated.

Colonial New Jersey Remnants Historians' Address Topic

"What Remains of Colonial New Jersey?" is the topic of an illustrated presentation by Dr. Richard N. Durbin to be delivered to the members of the Westfield Historical Society on Wednesday, November 17.

Slated to begin at 8 p.m., the talk will be given at the First Baptist Church, 170 Elm Street, Westfield.

Long active in many historical associations, Professor Durbin was first elected to the Board of Trustees of the Royal Governor's Mansion in Perth Amboy, of which he will speak during his presentation, in November of 1976.

After 25 years of service at the City College of New York, he has recently retired and has become Professor Emeritus of that institution. He holds a doctorate from the University of Pennsylvania in his teaching field, the history of education.

Professor Durbin is a Trustee of the Old Barracks in Trenton, President of the New Brunswick Branch of the English-Speaking Union, Historian and a member of the Council of the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of New Jersey, Vice President of the Society of War of 1812 in New Jersey and Middlesex County Historian and a member of the Middlesex County Cultural and Heritage Commission, the National Railway Historical Society, the New Jersey Historical Society, the Sons of the American Revolution and the Society of Mayflower Descendants.

He is a resident of New Brunswick and has a summer place at Norway Center, Maine.

Vocational Open House To Explain Career Choices

The Union County Vocational-Technical Schools will hold their annual Open House at the Raritan Road Campus on Wednesday, November 17, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Stewart Mills, Supervisor of Admissions and Recruitment and coordinator of the event, stated all sections of the school's will be available so visitors can get a first-hand look at the top-flight occupational and skills training.

There will be guided tours, demonstrations, displays and drawing for prizes along with many more activities. Instructors as well as trades people will be on hand to answer questions. Refreshments will be served and there is ample space for parking.

The Open House, according to Mr.

Mills, provides an opportunity for everyone to learn all about the Union County Vocational-Technical Schools which, over the past 27 years, have started many thousands of men and women, young and old alike, on their way to successful and rewarding careers.

Those coming to Open House will be invited to view the roomy campus, excellent facilities and state-of-the-art instructional equipment. Mr. Mills explained. There will also be complete details about the many full and part-time, day and evening programs offered by the schools in a wide variety of skills and trades.

Anyone seeking additional information should contact Mr. Mills at 889-2999.

The schools are located at 1776 Raritan Road in Scotch Plains.

October Was Moderate In Terms of Precipitation

October was a moderate month in terms of precipitation, reports Professor Raymond J. Daly of the United States Cooperative Weather Station at Union County College in Cranford.

The total rainfall, 4.69 inches, last month was 2.45 inches below the record precipitation of 7.14 inches, which was set in 1990.

The greatest amount of rainfall in 24 hours in October was 1.5 inches on the 12th, while the number of days with measurable rainfall was 10, and there were eight days with .10 inches or more.

Making the record for the lowest October rainfall on record was 1963, when .37 inches fell.

Total precipitation this year through October was 39.99 inches, compared with 34.76 inches over the same period last year.

The greatest precipitation on record through October was in 1989, when 56.95 inches fell.

Maximum relative humidity of 100 per cent was achieved last month on the 12th, 14th, 17th, 20th, 21st, 30th and 31st.

The minimum of 51 per cent was hit on the 25th.

Average daily humidity was 75.96 per cent, and there were three days of fog.

The month also was not the warmest on record, with the highest temperature, 80 degrees, being reached on the 9th. This was seven degrees below the record high temperature of 87, which was achieved in 1979.

October's minimum temperature of 28 degrees was reached on the 11th, and this was six degrees below the record minimum of 22, which was reached in 1982.

The maximum average temperature for the month was 65.6 degrees. The highest daily average, 64.5 degrees, was reached on the 9th.

The minimum average reading for the month was 41.5 degrees, which equaled the lowest daily average which was reached on the 11th and 14th.

Supermarket Tour To Be December 15

Participants will learn to read and understand the new food labels by registering for a Rutgers Cooperative Extension of Union County "Smart and Healthy Supermarket Tour" to be held on Wednesday, December 15, from 1 to 3 p.m. at the Springfield ShopRite.

The tour will teach consumers how to lower the percentage of fat calories in their diet along with choosing foods lower in salt and sugar.

Dr. Karen M. Enslie, a registered dietitian and Extension Home Economist, will be the instructor. The tour fee for materials is $5.

Financial Seminars Adult School Offerings

Westfield Adult School presents two final classes of the fall semester devoted to financial strategies. Prospective students are invited to register for these classes by calling the Westfield Adult School Registrar at 232-4050.

A new course entitled "How to Buy Local Tax Liens" will be given Monday, November 15. According to the teacher, Merlin Coslick, a licensed New Jersey Real Estate Broker and Appraiser, this course will be of interest to conservative investors looking for alternatives to low-yielding traditional opportunities.

"Wills, Probate and Intestate Succession" will be given November 29. This lecture by Roch T. Williams of the Westfield law firm of Ely, Sneydly, Ely, Williams & Gurrieri, will describe the process and legal instruments by which assets pass upon death from one person to another.

Rose colored glasses are never made in Italy. Nobody wants to read the small print in documents.

Transportation Trust Fund Maintains Roads, Bridges and Boosts Economy

It recently was announced by State Senator Donald T. DiFrancesco, who represents Westfield, Scotch Plains and Fanwood, that the three communities would receive a total of $320,000 from the state Transportation Trust Fund for road-reconstruction projects.

The funds are part of the $100 million in county and municipal aid provided in the state's 1994 budget through the trust fund, and $35 million of the $100 million total was made possible by lifting the cap on the fund — this was a Republican-sponsored initiative.

The Transportation Trust Fund enables local government entities such as those in the town, the township and the borough to repair and maintain roads and bridges without assessing local taxpayers totally for each specific project.

At the same time, it puts people to work in a construction industry which has been one of the businesses hardest hit by the economic downturn.

This will help put the Garden State on the road to economic recovery.

At the same time, it spreads the burden of looking after roads and bridges, which are used by motorists from throughout the state, among taxpayers of all communities rather than forcing those who happen to live along those roads to bear the total burden.

We support the program.

Letters to the Editor

It's Not the Planes and Geese, But the Blowers, Radios and Cars

I am puzzled by the passion aroused by airplane noise, when our own yards and streets are blighted by far worse noise pollution year round — lawn mowers, leaf blowers, snow blowers, limb loppers, hedge trimmers, work-shop equipment, roaring cars, racing motorcycles, blaring radios — all of which are like having that offensive airplane encamped next door.

Years ago it was birds we heard, and people raked leaves and shoveled snow. Now most of those birds are gone because their habitat has been destroyed, yet people complain bitterly about the honking of Canada geese. The altitude seems to be that geese and airplanes in the sky are an easy target, whereas the worst noise must not be alleviated because that would compromise our own convenience.

Let's call me a hypocrite for using a lawn service, how many of you have taken a plane lately? Why not fight for quieter machines and greater restrictions on their use?

Fanwood Candidates Thank Residents for Their Votes

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the people of Fanwood for the overwhelming vote of confidence they showed in us on Election Day.

We will take our responsibility very seriously and your valuable inputs during our extensive door-to-door campaign will be extremely useful as we serve the people of the borough.

We also would like to thank the many wonderful people who worked so long and so hard in this campaign on our behalf in so many ways.

Finally, we congratulate our opponents, Councilman Bill Populus and candidate, Kathy Mitchell and Cindy Swindelhurst, who ran a hard-fought and positive campaign.

They have made many positive suggestions and observations and it is our hope they will remain active in contributing their time and thoughts to the borough.

We also extend a special thank you to Bill Populus for serving this year on the council and for his focus and efforts on behalf of the business community.

Character of Downtown in Doubt If Proposed ShopRite Is Given Approval

The proposed ShopRite superstore will be much more than a grocery store. According to Frank Sauro, ShopRite general council, ShopRite will sell anything it can get in bulk at a good price and sell for profit.

Examples of items sold in other superstores are bicycles, baseball bats and gloves and other sports equipment, toys, small appliances, refrigerators, televisions, sofas, lawn furniture, just about anything for a profit, and large volume is the name of the game.

This ShopRite giant, which calls

Foodtown a "convenience store," will be in direct competition with our local merchants. I spent time this week soliciting from downtown merchants for a local cultural group. Without exception, local merchants interviewed were against the construction of the ShopRite.

They cited aggravation of already serious traffic problems and loss of business to this giant as major concerns. One long-time merchant said, "The day of the Mom and Pop store in Westfield will soon be gone."

I might also add that local merchants are interested in and supportive of local organizations in spite of difficult economic times. Chamber stores send solicitations to distant central headquarters and are never heard from again.

Our local merchants are a treasure. Project "Westfield Main Street" seeks to preserve and revitalize what we have. ShopRite presents a threat to the character and integrity of our downtown.

The next ShopRite hearing will be held on Thursday, November 18, at 7:30 p.m. at the Westwood on North Avenue. This matter is not yet decided. If you care about this issue, please come. The presence of large numbers of people would send a message to our planning board.

Haunted House Successful Thanks to Many

The third annual Haunted House sponsored by the Westfield Recreation Commission on Halloween, was a resounding success and attracted over 2,000 area residents despite the bad weather.

With the backing of the Westfield Municipal Alliance and Preventing Alcohol, Narcotic and Drug Abuse and funds from the Governor's Council on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse, this year's Haunted House was even better than that of last year.

Many area families came out to this safe, alternative program and enjoyed the chills and thrills it provided. The Haunted House featured many creative sets, special effects and lively characters which all added to the uniqueness of the program.

Thanks to the support of the Optimist Club, many high school students and numerous Recreation Commission and community volunteers, the event was enjoyable, safe and successful.

Those Who Helped Aid Dying Man Thanked by Family

On Friday evening, October 15, our husband and father, Gene Novobilski, was stricken with a fatal heart attack while we were shopping in Drug Fair in Westfield.

We would like to extend our deep appreciation to the nurse who administered cardiopulmonary resuscitation until the police and paramedics arrived. We never got her name, but hope she will read this and know how grateful we are.

We also want to thank the Westfield police who worked so hard to save Gene. We know they did everything humanly possible.

Town Residents Win Prize

Edward Universo and Matthew Higgins of Westfield were members of a group which impersonated the rock group Kiss to take first prize at the J.J. Rockers Club Halloween party in Scotch Plains.

ShopRite Store Will Present Serious Town Traffic Hazards

At the last two meetings of the ShopRite application before the Westfield and Garwood Planning Boards statements have been made comparing the youth recreation fields at Gumpert Field and Elm Street (opposite Foodtown) in an effort to minimize the traffic safety concerns at Gumpert.

I cannot wait for the last of these many meetings, when statements versus questions may be heard, to comment on such a poor comparison.

The traffic-safety problems are significantly greater today at Gumpert where children, and adults, have to cross Chestnut Street from one field to another or from a parking lot to a field; no such problem exists at the Elm Street location. The doubling of traffic on Chestnut Street, if a ShopRite is allowed, will clearly jeopardize the safety of these children and adults. There will be accidents here!

There are good economic reasons not to put a ShopRite there — a successful ShopRite of this size will certainly force A&P out of business and probably Foodtown also; thus no tax advantage to Westfield, but my main concern is the safety of the children.

I cannot understand the lack of citizen and particularly parent uproar over this obvious potential safety problem!

I urge the Planning Boards to fully evaluate this problem considering the safety of our children as the primary issue and reject the application of such a high-volume store at this location.

Low- and Moderate-Income Areas Should Be Provided For in Town

With regard to recent articles on the "Mt. Laurel threat," I believe the way to avoid fear of expensive and time-consuming litigation with taxpayers' money is for the town government to meet the Council on Affordable Housing's requirements.

The town should comply with the state's fair housing law and zonesome of its remaining empty land for higher density than is now allowed.

Higher density does not mean slums. The Central Avenue and Forest Avenue garden apartments are constructed 13 units per acre; those at Prospect and Copperthwaite are built 18 units per acre. The present very attractive senior citizen housing has 24 units per acre.

If a developer wants to build affordable housing in Westfield, why shouldn't we zone to allow him to make a fair profit? Doing some research in the spring of 1990, I found that 77 per cent of Westfield's police force lived out of town, almost 50 per cent of the firemen, 62 per cent of the teachers and 70 per cent of the school administrators. Surely it would be desirable to provide more affordable housing here for some of these town employees. They are the ones who can afford to own low- or moderate-cost homes, not poor people.

POPCORN™

Fatal Instinct Provides Case for Dr. Kevorkian

By Michael Goldberger

One Popcorn, Poor • Two Popcorns, Fair • Three Popcorns, Good • Four Popcorns, Excellent

Bored out of my wits, only the knowledge Fatal Instinct would ultimately have to end provided your film critic with hope during a recent screening of this pathetically-unfunny spoof. This film deserves to be put out of its misery.

The suffocating ennui promulgated by filmmaker Carl Reiner's sorrowful send-up of several romantic mystery-thrillers is akin to the irritating, repetitive entertainment one may garner from hearing someone's relentless attempt to start an old Chrysler Corp. car.

Pity is, Armond Assante and fellow actors give it the old college try, posturing and speaking in appropriately Chandleresque tones.

But the script, co-written with David O'Malley, grabs at paltry jokes with embarrassing lack of taste or scrutiny. The painful strain is obvious. If you manage to stay awake, the few bona fide witticisms that do work are hardly justification for having a potentially good snooze disrupted.

Keying-in specifically on Fatal Attraction, Basic Instinct, Sleeping With The Enemy and Double Indemnity, Fatal Instinct also takes random shots at anything that happens to come to mind.

This lack of discriminatory judgment in a vainglorious attempt at wowing our collective funnybone adds insult to injury.

Mr. Assante stars as Nick Ravine, a fellow whose dual career represents a contradiction in terms and a one-joke affair that runs out of steam long before you can say, "not funny."

Nick is both a hard-boiled detective and an attorney. The height of absurdity is reached after Detective Ravine arrests his wife for murder and then proceeds to defend her in court. What he doesn't know at the time is his wife Laura, played by Kate Nelligan, is in cahoots with a handsome stooge of an automobile mechanic; they plan to ice Nick for his triple indemnity insurance policy.

Another dangerous lady who makes Mr. Ravine's existence a rather tentative affair is client Jolly Gunn, a femme fatale realized to lascivious perfection by Sean Young. The other L in Nick's life is his loyal gal Friday, Lana.

Mr. Assante assumes his role with the stoical perseverance of the good sport who continually undergoes a water-drinking at a local fair. However, that occupation usually is done for some humanitarian or otherwise purposeful reason.

The dour-faced Mr. Assante performs in this unharassed silliness for naught, as one all-too-obvious spoof is followed by yet another failed attempt at stimulating our sense of humor.

The bits are ill-timed, overly telegraphed and generally half-baked.

The resulting lack of comedy produced by Fatal Instinct does eventually end, attaining a much-deserved death.

ALL GHOULED UP...Meridian Associate Director Patrick Foley and resident, Sanford Herzfeld, in costume for Meridian Nursing Center - Westfield Halloween Costume party.

Meridian Residents Mark Halloween With Party

The families, residents and staff of Meridian Nursing Center of Westfield, 1515 Lambert Mill Road, celebrated Halloween with a costume contest, parade, prizes and refreshments on October 29. Residents dressed up as witches, goblins, clowns, and many had a brief stroll down the runway for a hand of applause and a chance at prizes.

Each resident winner will be entitled to select a meal of his choice to be delivered from area restaurants. Miss Jeanette Cruzak won for most unusual; Armond Santina and Sanford Herzfeld tied for funniest. Mrs. Helen McMaster won for most creative, and Mrs. Helen Hyle and Mrs. Marc Brunner received honorable mention.

Staff prizes went to Mrs. Judith Scott, Housekeeping Director, for most creative, to Assistant Director of Maintenance Tai Pham and Brook keeper Kathy Smith for funniest, to Miss Lisa Ritthaler, Admissions Director, for most original and to Nurses Aide Sharon Cummins and resident Kevin McCarra for best couple. The unit from Marchon Hall won the prize for best group.

Women, Men Respond Differently

By LOUIS H. CLARK
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader and The Times

A long and expensive project has resulted, according to a national television news story, in the amazing discovery that women think differently than men.

And to be fair so I don't lose my franchise, men think differently than women.

Bumbling along just like the researchers — a man and a woman — who announced the results of this 12-year survey, "This is not to say one is better than the other — it merely means each sex reacts differently to certain stimuli."

At last Professor Higgins would know why women act like their mothers instead of their fathers — sometimes.

From now on if a man is accused by his wife of being a selfish, chauvinistic boor because he didn't immediately notice the new Priscilla curtains, let alone go into raptures over them he will have a scientific defense.

"I'm a man," he'll plead. "Curtains don't impinge on my brain."

On the other hand, my wife tells me she knew all about it since she was age 6.

"There was a movement in those days to make boys and girls play with each other's toys. Well I didn't like my brother's G.I. Joe, and he didn't like my Barbies. We cried so hard my mother gave up and let us resume our natural antagonisms and everyone was happy."

How many times have you heard guys saying, "I just don't figure women. What do they want?"

Now you can tell them, "You're not supposed to figure them. They think differently."

"I know that" the guy will say, but how do you get to know what they're thinking?" "How should I know? I wear pants."

"So do they," and a nice peaceful discussion will degenerate into a brawl.

On the other side, how many television shows or movies can you see where you don't hear "He is not ready for a commitment. I just don't understand him."

Answer? One out of every 20 and that's because the 20th is about a fish.

The researchers didn't go into the fact the female of the species is a lot tougher than the male.

Ask any hunter who has come up against a fox or a bear or even a cat who is guarding her young.

And in business. As one who has worked for both male and female bosses, they are exactly the same. Both are hungry for power, money and status. I have worked for mean and unreasonably male and female bosses; smart and dumb; relatives and non-relatives. There is no difference.

As to the reaction to different stimuli I go along with that one the whole way.

What a boring place this world would be if we all reacted the same way. To whom could we explain the fine points of baseball? Who could tell us the different taste that cumin can bring to a casserole?

Vive la difference!

Floozies Dress Down Reputations

Floozy (floozie or floozy) — a gaudily-dressed and often immoral woman; not necessarily a prostitute, flitiation.

Tart, having basically the same sense of an immoral woman, along with floozy are late 19th-century North American words, are somewhat archaic.

Most sources feel floozy is a perversion of flossy, meaning saucy, impertinent or fresh.

In the 1930s, nonsense songs such as Slim Gaillard's hit of 1938, Flat Foot Floozy with the Flozy Flozy were very popular.

Like today's rap songs, this ditty had an interesting cryptic message. For this innocent-sounding and alliterative title and lyrics actually described a professional prostitute, flat foot, gaudily dressed, floozy, probably with a venereal disease, floozy floozy.

If you think this song was bad you should definitely not try to decode the lyrics of modern rap songs.

Like cockney slang, rap lyrics have a hidden agenda. But unlike cockney lingo, rap's orientation is mostly sexual.

An Invitation to Plan Your Child's Future

By DR. CAROL B. CHOYE
Superintendent of Schools, Scotch Plains-Fanwood

At our district's opening meeting for the year on September 6 I shared with the staff of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Schools my vision of the values and beliefs that guide education.

Now, as we as a school community begin strategic planning, I put this vision before you, the local residents, to spark your thoughts on and interest in the future schooling of our young people.

We understand the fiscal realities facing us today.

However, no matter what the ebb and flow of financial resources, I believe these values and beliefs remain constant:

1. The ultimate goal of education is to enhance each child's inherent love of learning so each child continues to be imbued with that intrinsic motivation. The process of education of a child who is intrinsically motivated by learning will continue throughout his or her lifetime.

2. We help all students achieve standards of excellence not by imposing ceilings on achievement by the talented, but by motivating all students and strengthening their skills, knowledge and understanding.

3. Our schools should constantly strive for equity in meeting the needs of our diverse population, focusing on the fairness of results rather than the sameness of treatment.

4. All students should develop a strong sense of self-esteem. They are more likely to do so if they set high standards for themselves and if they develop work ethics necessary to achieve skills, knowledge and understanding that support a sense of personal worth.

5. All our graduates should be able to communicate in the broadest sense — to read, write, listen and speak effectively.

6. Every student who graduates from our schools should be an active problem-solver, be able to work equally well as an independent thinker and as a collaborative learner, be proficient with changing technology and be prepared to contribute to an ever-shrinking, every more interdependent world.

7. The vital interest, involvement, support and commitment of the community — both inside and outside the school walls — are essential to the success of our schools and our students.

These are seven tenets I value, but I believe it is equally important to be able to share and consider your beliefs and values in setting the mission and direction of this school district. Through the process of strategic planning, we will build consensus on the future of education for the children of Scotch Plains and Fanwood.

Some of you have indicated an interest in participating in strategic planning as part of the planning team or the action team.

Preliminary invitations are in the mail to members of the planning team. If you — staff members, parents, and members of the community-at-large — would like to join an action team, please telephone Dr. Faith Spitz.

However, if you wish to share your vision and ideas so we can incorporate them in the planning process, please submit them in writing to the Office of the Superintendent of Schools by Wednesday noon, November 24.

Thank you. Members, we will discover what we value about education in Scotch Plains-Fanwood, and we will determine what direction we will take to implement and preserve these values in the years ahead.

Future Business Leaders Take Tour of Hyatt Hotel

The Future Business Leaders of America chapter at the high school went on a field trip to the Hyatt Hotel in New Brunswick on October 18.

Upon their arrival, the members were greeted by Rick Budd, the Director of Human Resources at the Hyatt.

Mr. Budd gave an orientation which included the history of the Hyatt and the Hyatt's business philosophy. The members were given a behind-the-scenes view of how the hotel's daily functions are accomplished in addition to how the management works.

Immediately following the presentation, a tour of the hotel was given. Next, the members had the opportunity to work at a variety of different jobs in the hotel ranging from working in the kitchen to working at the front desk.

Once a decision was made as to where a student was interested in working, they each were fitted with uniforms and sent on their way. After working for about an hour and a half, the students had lunch. Lunch was prepared by the students who were working in the kitchen for the previous hour.

After savoring the lunch, the group members then boarded the bus and traveled back to Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School.

The group members were accompanied on the field trip by their advisor.

Technology Committee To Issue Report

The Westfield Board of Education will hold its regular monthly meeting at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, November 16, at 8 p.m. in the high school library.

The agenda includes a report from the 19-member staff and citizen Technology Committee.

The meeting location was changed from the usual Board Meeting Room at 302 Elm Street to the high school library at the request of committee members, so they can utilize some of the library facilities in their presentation.

The Technology Committee, which was appointed in October, was charged with "studying the use of technology to enhance teaching and learning and to improve administrative and student management tools in the Westfield schools for the coming decade."

According to the charge to the committee, the report should include specific recommendations on the use of technology in the schools, curricular implications of increased use of technology, technology equipment and software recommended for purchase or lease and related staff considerations. Each recommendation of the committee should include estimates of immediate and long-term costs.

Dr. Robert C. Rader, Assistant Superintendent for Business and Board Secretary, is Chairman of the committee. The committee includes 14 staff members.

Pipe Shop Wins Cigar Firm Contest

Westfield Pipe Shop owner, Mrs. Ruth Marcus, announced her store has recently been awarded first prize for the window-display contest sponsored by Arturo Fuente Cigar Company.

The display, which still is present for public viewing at 214 East Broad Street, Westfield, depicts the cigar-making process using a variety of materials and models. The re-enactment was created by John McCarthy, a store employee and local artist.

First prize is a five-day trip to the Dominican Republic, where the winners will tour the Fuente Brothers' tobacco operations.

Mrs. Marcus and her daughter, Miss Amy Marcus, who manages the Pipe Shop, will fly to their destination on November 9.

UNDERWAY... Construction is underway in Elizabeth of J&J Recycling's Bulky Waste Facility, which will handle the disposal of certain types of waste generated within Union County. Materials that will be brought there include construction and demolition debris. Looking over the plans for the new facility, which will be complete by the end of the year, left to right, are: John Wohlrab from J&J Recycling, Union County Utilities Authority Commissioner William Wolf, John DiMarco of J&J Recycling, Utilities Vice Chairman Angelo J. Bonanno of Hillside, Utilities Executive Director Jeffrey S. Callahan of Westfield and Utilities Commissioner Chester Holmes of Rahway.

Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony Set for Washington Addition

The first school ribbon cutting in about three decades will take place at 8:30 a.m. on Monday, November 15, for the new four-classroom addition to Washington School.

Mrs. Connie Odell, Principal of the school, will cut the ribbon, assisted by students from classes that will be housed in the addition.

The four-classroom $568,000 addition was constructed to cope with enrollment increases.

"The good news is that this construction came in at budget and on schedule," Mrs. Susan H. Pepper, President of the Board of Education, said. "I applaud everyone involved in this construction project which was under the direction of the architectural firm of Faridy Thorne Fraytak."

The addition will provide needed classroom space for three classrooms.

"When these three classes move into the addition, space will be freed up in the main building to give us back our library," said Mrs. Odell. Two classes were temporarily housed in the library, with the school's collection set up in the school auditorium.

This was the first ribbon cutting since the 1960s when additions were constructed at Edison, Roosevelt and Wilson Schools. School enrollment increased steadily in the 1950s and 1960s, peaking at 8,852 students in 1967-1968. A steady decline followed, with a low enrollment of 4,335 in 1989-1990 when enrollment began slight increases annually. This year, Westfield has 186 more students than last year, with two-thirds of that increase in the elementary schools.

Bicentennial Commission Tells November Dates

Westfield's year-long 200th birthday celebration may not begin officially until January; however, the Bicentennial Commission today announced some very important dates for November.

The commission met with Mayor Garland C. "Bud" Boothe, Jr. on October 28 and reviewed these upcoming Bicentennial dates and events.

November 17 is the official opening of the Bicentennial Shop under the direction of Mrs. Joan Hogan and a committee of volunteers. The shop will offer a variety of items, including notepaper and pens, aprons, historical coasters, glassware, carafes, coffee mugs, sweatshirts, pitchers, key chains and Julian Rockmore prints of old Westfield. These items will be for sale at Periwinkle's Gift Shop, 33 Elm Street, and the United Fund Office, 301 North Avenue, and several items at Sealfons, 233 East Broad Street.

All proceeds from the shop's sale will help defray costs of Bicentennial events, such as a fireworks display on the Fourth of July. Excess proceeds will be given to the Westfield Historical Society for renovations of the Reeves House on Mountain Avenue when it becomes available as a permanent site for a town museum.

"Right now," Mrs. Hogan stated, "we have some posters for sale, at $10 rolled up and $20 framed, depicting Westfield landmarks." The posters are available at Periwinkle's, the United Fund Office and the Main Street Office on Broad Street.

On November 22 a limited edition of Bicentennial Calendars will be published. The 500 calendars are being offered on a first-come, first-served basis at $8 each.

On November 20 a ticket promotion begins for the Bicentennial's first official event: A grand costume ball on January 22 in Temple Emanu-El. Mrs. Eva Wiley and Mrs. Bebbins Yudes, who head the ball committee, will accompany Samuel A. McCauley, Westfield's official Town Crier, on a poster posting trip through town. The poster will advertise the sale of 1,000 Grand Ball tickets which will be offered, also on a first-come, first-served basis, beginning on December 1 at Periwinkle's "Golden Egg" Shop, Rorden Realty and the United Fund Office.

Support Group Will Meet On Monday

A discussion sponsored by the Support and Sharing Group for Parents of Children with Developmental Disabilities in Union County on "Families Taking Action, Changes Affecting Early Intervention," will be held on Monday, November 15, from 7:30 to 9 p.m. at the State Parent Advocacy Network Office at 516 North Avenue, East, Westfield and on Wednesday, November 17, from 9:30 to 11 a.m. held at the Scotch Plains Public Library Lower Conference Room on Bartle Avenue, off Park Avenue, Scotch Plains.

Guest speakers will be: Mrs. Frances Grupp, a parent; Mrs. Diana Cuthbertson and Mrs. Pamela Kuster of the advocacy network, Mrs. Sue Danch, Special Child Health Service Coordinator, Miss Anne Marie Owens, the Executive Director of Union and Essex Early Intervention Collaborative.

There will be opportunity for group support and sharing following speaker presentation.

For more information, please telephone Mrs. Vicki Hart, the resource parent, at 889-0950.

MR. AND MRS. CHRISTOPHER DAVID DILLON
(She is the former Miss Molly Dyke)

Miss Molly Dyke Bride Of Christopher Dillon

Miss Molly Dyke of New York City, the daughter of Dr. Peter C. Dyke of Dana Point, California and Dr. Perry H. Dyke of Redlands, California, was married on Saturday, September 18, to Christopher David Dillon of New York City, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dillon of Scotch Plains.

Officiating at the early-afternoon ceremony at St. Mary's Church in Lakeville, Connecticut was the Reverend John Paul Mahoney of Providence College in Providence, Rhode Island.

A reception at the White Hart Inn in Salisbury, Connecticut immediately followed the ceremony.

The bride wore her mother's wedding dress.

Serving as the maid of honor was Miss Katherine Huggin, the cousin of the bride from New York City.

The bridal attendants were Miss Susan G. Wright of Aspen, Colorado, Mrs. Melanie Dyke of Richmond and Mrs. Catherine Dyke of Charlottesville, Virginia, both sisters-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Kathleen Daly of Scotch Plains, the sister of the groom.

Serving as the best man for his brother was Michael P. Dillon of Chicago.

The ushers were Stephen Dillon, a brother of the groom from Wembleton, England, and C. Mac Dyke of Richmond, Peter Dyke, 2nd of Charlottesville and Timothy Dyke of Honolulu, all brothers of the bride.

The bride graduated from Phillips Exeter Academy in Exeter, New Hampshire, in 1983 and received her Bachelor's Degree in Political Science and French in 1987 from Duke University in Durham, North Carolina.

She also graduated cum laude from the Boston University School of Law in 1990 where she was a member of The Law Review.

The groom graduated from Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School in 1979 and received his Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration summa cum laude from Boston College in 1983.

He also graduated magna cum laude from Boston College Law School in 1988 where he was a member of The Law Review.

Both the bride and groom are attorneys with Shearman and Sterling law firm in New York City.

Instead of using rice or birdseed, guests showered the couple with dried rose petals gathered by friends from several Redlands gardens and carried to the East Coast by the bride's mother.

Following a six-week wedding trip to Spain, France and Redlands, the couple established a residence in New York City.

MR. AND MRS. BLANE A. BALCH
(She is the former Miss Harley Cozewith)

Miss Harley Cozewith Weds Blane A. Balch

Miss Harley Cozewith of Houston, formerly of Westfield, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Cozewith of Watchung, was married on Sunday, October 3, to Blane A. Balch of Houston, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Willard Burton Balch, Sr.

Officiating at the late-morning ceremony at the Warren Hotel in Spring Lake was Rabbi Nathaniel Benjamin. A reception at the hotel immediately followed the ceremony.

The bride's hand was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Amy Cozewith Giddon of New York City served as the matron of honor for her sister.

Another sister of the bride, Mrs. Sarah Cozewith Conrad of Dunellen, served as the bridal attendant.

The best man was Byron Balch of Chicago, the brother of the groom.

Serving as ushers were Daniel Cozewith, a brother of the bride from Berkeley Heights, and Burton Balch, a brother of the groom from Houston.

A graduate of Westfield High School and of Pennsylvania State University, the bride is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority. She also is a licensed landscape architect and is the Director of Visitor Services at the Houston Museum of Natural Science.

Her husband graduated from Texas Technical University in Lubbock, where he was a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity. He is a petroleum engineer and works in the Real Estate and Energy Division of the First Interstate Bank in Houston.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by Mr. Balch at the Wharfside Restaurant in Point Pleasant. Following a Caribbean cruise the couple established a residence in Houston.

Son Born To Herons

Mr. and Mrs. Shawn Heron of Scotch Plains announced the birth of their son, Kyle Dallas Heron.

Kyle, who weighed nine pounds, seven ounces and was 22 inches long at birth, was born on Wednesday, September 29.

His maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Barry Durand of Scotch Plains, and his paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Heron, also of the township.

Kyle's maternal great-grandmother is Mrs. Evelyn Durand of Scotch Plains, and his maternal great, great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Thorleif Johnsen of Easton, Pennsylvania.

Daughter Born To Smiths

Mr. and Mrs. Brett K. Smith of Westfield announced the birth of their daughter Emily Rachel Smith.

Emily was born on Tuesday, September 28, at Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center in Plainfield.

She weighed six pounds 11 ounces and measured 20 inches at birth.

Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Downing of Norfolk, Virginia, and her paternal grandmother is Mrs. Mildred F. Smith of Chesapeake, Virginia.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD LEVINE
(She is the former Miss Julia Mulholland)

Miss Julia Mulholland Married to Mr. Levine

A hawk circled over the meadow beneath a falcon aerie in the Targhee National Forest where Miss Julia Mulholland and Edward Levine were married the afternoon of Thursday, September 9.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Mulholland of Westfield. She was escorted up a trail to the wedding site by her father.

The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Levine of Oneonta, New York.

Witnesses were Mrs. Paul Salvatore, a sister of the bride, and Matthew Erickson.

Mayor Kirk Olsen of Victor, Idaho, presided.

A dinner reception followed at the Alpenhaus in Alpine Junction, Wyoming.

A pre-wedding dinner was hosted by the parents of the groom at the Wort Hotel in Jackson, Wyoming.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Colorado State University and are pursuing graduate degrees.

They will reside in Boise, Idaho, where they are employed by the Idaho Fish and Game Commission.

The bride will retain her maiden name.

Genealogists Will Hear Address on the Titanic

Michael Findlay, a Trustee of Titanic International Inc., will address the Genealogical Society of Westfield on Sinking of the Titanic, Picking Up the Loose Ends on Saturday, November 13, from 10 a.m. to noon at the Westfield Public Library, 550 East Broad Street.

Somewhat over 81 years ago, the liner struck an enormous iceberg and sank off the Grand Banks of Newfoundland with the death of 1,523 passengers.

Mr. Findlay will begin with action on the night of the collision, describe the heroic actions of the crew and passengers and conclude with the subsequent search relatives and descendants of both survivors and passengers.

Mr. Findlay's presentation will be preceded by a short business meeting, followed by refreshments. The public is cordially invited. Further information may be obtained by calling 276-5175.

Daughter Born To Leaders

Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Leader of Philadelphia announced the birth of their daughter, Catherine Elizabeth Campbell Leader.

Catherine was born on Sunday, October 24, at Pennsylvania Hospital in Philadelphia.

Her maternal grandparents are Mrs. Marjorie Wright Wieseman of Westfield and the late Carlyle J. Wieseman, and her paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Leader of Philadelphia.

Ashbrook Conducts Drive for Food

Ashbrook Nursing Home is conducting a Thanksgiving food drive to aid local families in need.

The nursing home is accepting non-perishable food items, such as canned vegetables, meats, dried fruits and cereals, as well as personal items and pet foods. Ashbrook's dietary department will donate turkeys and pies prepared by the staff.

Nursing home residents will distribute food baskets to needy families and individuals November 24, the day before Thanksgiving.

For more information, please call 889-5500.

Ashbrook Nursing Home is a member of the Mega Care family of private, non-profit nursing homes. The health care center is located at 1610 Raritan Road, Scotch Plains.

Erratum

Several pieces of information were reported incorrectly in a wedding announcement for Mr. and Mrs. John Palazzolo in last week's Westfield Leader and Times.

The reception took place at The Westwood, not the Westfield; Mrs. Laurie O'Brien, the matron of honor, lives in Scotch Plains, not Westfield, and one of the attendants, Mrs. Lisa Appavito, lives in North Brunswick, not in East Brunswick.

Westfield Seniors Map Calendar for Two Months

On Wednesday, November 17, at 8:30 a.m., the bus sponsored by the Westfield Seniors will leave Lord & Taylor for Boscobel, a federal estate at Garrison-on-the Hudson, New York.

The bus will wind its way through the lower Catskills to Bear Mountain. While crossing the Hudson River on the Bear Mountain bridge, participants will get a view up and down the Hudson Valley.

Then north on New York Route No. 9 to Garrison to enjoy the estate of Boscobel, the mansion, the carriage house, the spring house, the orangerie and the herb garden.

Also to be seen will be the overlook with a view across the Hudson to West Point. Then the group will go up the mountain to Route No. 9 on the old Albany Post Road, the road the stagecoach traveled with mail from New York to Albany before stopping for dinner at the Bird and Bottle Inn, an old stagecoach stop.

They also will visit Lindhurst, the magnificent, baronial mansion of the late financier Jay Gould in Tarrytown.

On Friday, December 10, at 10 a.m. the bus will leave the Nights of Columbus Hall for North Avenue near Charley Brown's for the Tides Dinner Theater.

Instead of a Christmas Show, there will be a Christmas Party at the Fides in North Haledon with singing, eating, drinking and dancing. Then

Fortnightly Group Plans 'Tour' of White House

"Discovering the White House" will be the program for the Friday, November 19, meeting of the Fortnightly Group, the evening membership department of the Woman's Club of Westfield.

This program about the nation's most famous house will be presented by a member of the New Jersey Bell Speakers' Society.

"Discovering the White House" highlights the history of the executive mansion and provides insights and anecdotes about the Presidents and their families who have occupied it during the past two centuries. A chronological view of the architectural changes and the importance of the various rooms also will be discussed.

The hostesses for this evening are Miss Helen Whitcomb and Mrs. Jean Everitt.

Atlas Lodge Gives Donations to Charities

Atlas Pythagoras Lodge No. 10 of the Free and Accepted Masons of Westfield held its annual charity night on October 29.

Invitations were extended to representatives of numerous community organizations to attend the program for the purpose of receiving donations to assist them in continuing their respective charitable efforts.

Continuing a tradition of many years, the Westfield-based Masonic Lodge distributed checks to representatives of approximately 20 groups to recognize their charitable endeavors and to illustrate charity is one of the principles upon which the Masonic fraternity is founded.

Included among the recipients were Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center of Plainfield, Overlook Hospital of Summit and Rahway Hospital, the Fanwood, Garwood, Scotch Plains and Westfield Rescue Squads; Spaulding for Children, the Keystone Community Residence, the Westfield Historical Society, the Friends of Mindowaskin Park, the Westfield Chamber of Commerce, the town clock and bell project, the Union County Sheriff's Department, Mobile Meals of Westfield and Masonic-sponsored scholarship and hospital visitation programs.

Following the distribution of the checks, each recipient gave a synopsis of the type of work his or her organization is performing.

To conclude the evening, refreshments were served, which afforded an opportunity for all present to exchange thoughts and ideas.

Free Pictures With Santa At Irma's November 21

Attention parents and good little boys and girls: Mark your calendars for Sunday, November 21. On that date Santa will fly into Fanwood to make his yearly visit at the 15th annual Irma's Hallmark Holiday Open House.

Kids of all ages can have their picture taken with Santa for free noon to 3 p.m. There will also be treats for the kids, gourmet food demonstrations, a register-to-win drawing and weekend sale promotions.

To add to the holiday spirit, there will also be a special performance by the Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School Select Choir. They will be performing on Sunday, November 21, from noon to 3 p.m. during Santa's visit.

Irma's Hallmark is ready for all the upcoming holidays.

They have a generous selection of cards, gifts and gourmet items for Thanksgiving, Hanukkah, Christmas and New Year. This year, Irma's Hallmark is also offering a full line of foreign language cards, and Kwanzaa cards. Kwanzaa is the celebration by many African Americans as an acknowledgement of their heritage. It is observed the week of December 26 to January 1.

Irma's has recently opened their Department 56 Showroom. This is a "must see" for everyone, especially those who collect any of the Heritage Villages, Snow Village or Snow Babies.

Irma's Hallmark has been honored for the seventh straight year with the prestigious "Gold Crown" for retailing excellence. As a convenience to shoppers, Irma's will be open expanded hours for the holidays starting November 20: Monday through Saturdays, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Sundays, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. They accept American Express, Visa, Master Card and Discover credit cards.

If you need more information about the Open House Weekend, please call 322-4008.

'Be Heart Smart' Program Wednesday

A one-hour lecture course for the lay person will be held at Overlook Hospital in Summit on Wednesday, November 15, at 8 p.m. Some of the topics to be covered will be the risk factors, signs and symptoms of a heart attack, and the latest treatment for the person having a heart attack. Come and find out why it is more important than ever before to access the Emergency Medical System as quickly as possible. A question-and-answer period will follow the program. Registration is required.

For more information, please call 522-2365.

Corn Husk Figures For Thanksgiving Miller-Cory Topic

The Miller-Cory Volunteers are offering a workshop on Wednesday, November 17, to learn the craft of making corn-husk figures that will be perfect for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Eileen O'Shea will teach participants in the early craft. Due to the popularity of the Miller-Cory workshops, Mrs. O'Shea is offering two sessions, one at 12:30 and one at 7 p.m.

Mrs. O'Shea reminds us that corn, maize, is the only cereal grain of American origin, and grains were found in prehistoric tombs in Peru. It is said that it was corn that the friendly Indians shared with the settlers and the clams from the New England shore that kept the Pilgrims in Plymouth alive that first winter in the new world.

The early settlers learned from the Indians how to grow and use corn. It was used for food, bedding, brooms, pipes and toys. Cornhusk flowers adorned their drab one-room homes and cornhusk dolls were made and enjoyed by Colonial children.

Please call the office at 232-1776 to sign up. Payment must be made in advance.

WELL-ATTENDED DINNER... The Washington School Parent-Teacher Association of Westfield held its annual Pot Luck Supper on October 22. The highlight of the event, which was attended by over 200 parents and teachers, was a sneak-preview of this year's Washington School show entitled "Westfield General Hospital." The musical comedy was written by Kenneth Mirsky, a parent of a student at Washington School, and will be performed at Roosevelt Intermediate School on February 4 and 5. The show is being directed by Mrs. Lauren Flast and Richard Nuckson. The production will be handled by Mrs. Lori Vantovsky, Mrs. Judy Rough and Mrs. Kathy Maher. This play will mark the 46th year of production. The cast tryouts will be held on November 14 at 1 p.m. at Mrs. Rough's house and on November 21 at 2 p.m. at Mrs. Vantovsky's house. The dance placements will be held November 23 at 7:30 p.m. at Roosevelt School. The Hospitality Committee members, left to right, prepare to serve dessert at the annual Pot Luck Supper: Front row, Ms. Kathy Carlson, Mrs. Barbara Star, Chairwoman, and Mrs. Louise Loffredo; back row, Mrs. Kate Donahue and Mrs. Jane Tresnan.

Mrs. Lillian Block Named Hadassah Woman of Year

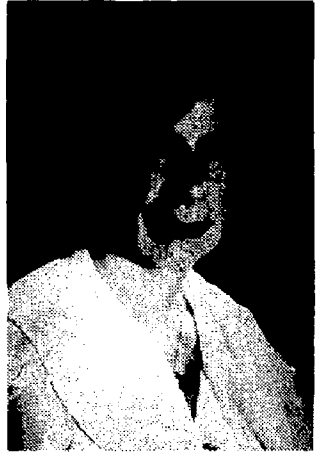

The Westfield Chapter of Hadassah has chosen Mrs. Lillian Block as its Woman of the Year.

She will be honored at the Myrtle Wreath Awards Luncheon on Sunday, December 5, at the Hanover Marriott Hotel.

Mrs. Block is a life member of Hadassah and has been active in the chapter for nine years.

Her main involvement has been as Vice President of Membership. Due to her efforts the Westfield Chapter earned the highest membership award, Sabra, for two consecutive terms. She also has hosted many membership teas at her home to attract new members.

A former nursery school teacher, the honoree hosted foreign students for four years through the American Field Service. She helped to translate a book into Braille, was a Den Mother and was active with the Girl Scouts. She also volunteered at Kessler Institute and Overlook Hospital. Presently, Mrs. Block teaches

Martin Jewelers Holds Antique Jewelry Event

Martin Jewelers' year in the making event, offering a vast array of antique and estate jewelry all priced below replacement value, starts today. The three-day-only sale is being held in-store at 12 North Avenue West, Cranford, today, Thursday, November 11, through Saturday, November 13.

"Although Martin Jewelers has become one of the tri-state area's premier sources for antique and estate jewelry throughout the year, greatly expanded selections are being presented during three day sale. This more comprehensive collection reflects Martin Jewelers' special standing as gemological experts, providing them with unusual opportunities for direct purchase of estates, plus a committed effort to grow the depth, excitement and customer savings potential of this annual event which has become a tradition," according to Miss Ellen Ramer, Manager of the store.

Long ago, according to Miss Ramer, "We recognized that antique and estate jewelry offered our customers two very special advantages. The first was outstanding value for their money, since items could be sold below replacement value. The second, and equally important bonus, was the opportunity for individuality. Many of the items are one-of-a-kind!"

Miss Ramer takes pride in noting that the Martin Jewelers' concept was ahead of its time. "Today, there is great emphasis on the uniqueness, beauty of craftsmanship and diversity in expression offered by antique and period jewelry," she added.

A recent article in The Wall Street Journal noted, "Right now, antique jewelry dating from the early 1800s through the 1940s is perhaps the single strongest sector of the art market." The article quoted the President of Sotheby's Holdings Inc.'s North American auction operations as saying that collectors are paying "incredibly strong prices for period jewelry."

Miss Ramer emphasized that Sotheby's auction of such famous pieces as those owned by Barbara Hutton may have garnered more than originally expected, but Martin Jewelers continued to offer only those objects their experts appraised as worthwhile values.

Many of the jewelry items being offered during Martin Jewelers' sale coordinate with this year's fashion trend for revival of classic and period looks. This included "Retro" pieces, jewelry from the 1940s, featuring bows, rose colored gold and colored gemstones. Another caters to today's new-old fashion detail of suspending a cameo from a choker of simple black ribbon.

"Although these fashion trends highlight the desirability of selected old pieces, the true advantage of the antique and estate sale is that there is no specific style or period features. Instead," according to Miss Ramer, "this event serves the optimum goal of jewelry buying: it allows the purchaser to define and demonstrate his or her own individuality and taste."

An invitation has been extended by Martin Jewelers to anyone interested in viewing the master craftsmanship and historic beauty of the collection as well as prospective purchasers. Special store hours will be in effect throughout the three day sale: Thursday, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m., and Friday and Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Evergreen School Holds Parade for Halloween

In recognition of the athletic abilities of women, the Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School Raiders Football Team has decided to admit women to the squad -- or so it appeared at the Halloween parade held by the elementary students and faculty at Evergreen School in Scotch Plains.

Teachers at the school entered into the spirit of the occasion by dressing as the football team as they marched around the field, and appeared ready to march all the way to the Meadowlands.

Not to be outdone, the students also appeared in an array of costumes.

The ghosts and goblins were joined by a giraffe, kindergartner Zack Hvizdak, and a zebra, kindergartner Loni Kaye, cowboys and cowgirls, princesses and monsters.

There were appearances by storybook characters Little Bo Peep, kindergartner Kelly Dougher, the Queen of Hearts, Chanette Nickerson, the Scarecrow, Judy Wheeler.

Reggie Flowers showed he had a head for computers and Caitlin McNelis came dressed as a table.

In another fine example of equal opportunity, Christopher Heather was a green-faced witch.

Halloween festivities continued later in the evening on October 29 in a series of parties at the school.

Six hundred people attended a total of three parties for an hour including spooky crafts, games and refreshments along with music and dancing.

Parent volunteers included Mrs. and Mrs. Timothy LiVolsi, Mrs. Linda McNelis, Mrs. Patricia Paraboschi, Mrs. Vicky Roback, Mrs. Nancy Lambros and Mrs. Barbara Flowers.

DOING THEIR PART... Members of the Junior League of Elizabeth-Plainfield recently helped to renovate the future home of Raphael Life House, a non-sectarian transitional residence for homeless pregnant women. Located at 231 Court Street in Elizabeth, this facility will offer on-site services such as job training, childbirth classes, crisis counseling, parenting classes, group counseling and tutoring. Junior League volunteers, shown, left to right, are: Mrs. Suzanne Labetta, Miss Sally Wright, Mrs. Linda Swaynos, Mrs. Mary Landriau and Mrs. Jeanne Willyard, all of Westfield, and Mrs. Margaret Green of Cranford.

Vocational Schools Holiday Boutique Set for Saturday

The second annual arts and crafts Holiday Boutique, sponsored by the Union County Vocational-Technical Schools Awards Committee, will be held indoors from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, November 13, in Baxel Hall on the Raritan Road Campus in Scotch Plains.

Heinz Ricken, coordinator of special projects, announced there will be many tables manned by vendors from throughout the area and beyond who will be offering a wide variety of arts and crafts for the holidays.

According to Mr. Ricken, all proceeds will be distributed to deserving students during the annual Awards Night ceremony held in June. He added these funds will assist the young people with scholarships and monetary gifts in order to further their education.

Admission to the Holiday Boutique is free and the expansive campus offers unlimited parking.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Full details regarding crafter contracts and table reservations can be obtained by calling Mr. Ricken at 889-2923 or by writing: Awards Fund, c/o Mr. Ricken, Union County Vocational-Technical Schools, 1776 Raritan Road, Scotch Plains, 07076.

Erratum

In a caption in last week's edition of The Westfield Leader it was incorrectly reported Westfield psychologist, Dr. Patricia Steckler, had formed a coalition between Pathological Association and the New Jersey Association of Black Psychologists.

The first group is, in fact, the Psychological Association.

Landmark Gives Advice On Chimney Maintenance

Keeping a chimney clean and well maintained can save lives.

"Most chimney fires occur on Christmas Day," said Michael Sadowski, chimney sweep of Landmark Management, a Westfield company that has cleaned chimneys for 10 years. "People throw in gift wrappings, and this sets off a chimney fire."

A chimney fire may cause cracks in the chimney, and smoke and heat then leaks into other parts of the house, which sets off a house fire.

Chimneys should be inspected and cleaned once a year if dry and seasoned wood is used, and a cord of wood, a stack eight feet long by four feet wide by four feet high, is burned. If more wood or soft wood, like pine, is burned, the chimney should be checked twice a year, although soft wood is not recommended.

The culprit in chimney fires is creosote, a natural byproduct of wood which is highly flammable, Mr. Sadowski said.

Creosote can be anywhere — in the smoke chamber, the fire box, the damper or in the flue.

Another potential cause of chimney problems are animals which nest in the flue. Keeping them out is one of the most important reasons why homeowners need chimney caps.

The most important reason to keep animals out of the flue is to protect a family from the diseases that animals carry. Raccoons are a special danger because they carry in their feces a ringworm which is incurable when spread to humans.

"Once a chimney is cleaned and capped homeowners should burn any hard wood, such as oak, that is dry and has been aged at least one year," Mr. Sadowski said.

A smoldering fire, which can result from soft woods or damp, underaged wood leads to more creosote build up, he added.

It is essential to store wood off the ground, since on the ground it will soak up moisture and rot. Most chimney sweeps sell firewood racks which allow for good airflow, the town-based chimney sweep added.

Before lighting a fire, he noted, make sure the damper is open.

For more information, please telephone Landmark Chimney Sweeps at 654-5803.

DRESS-UP TIME...Getting into the Halloween spirit, the Brunner School morning kindergarten class of Scotch Plains celebrated with one of its favorite characters, Mother Goose, portrayed by teacher, Mrs. Donna Lauricella. The festivities continued with classroom parties and an afternoon parade of costumes to lead into the holiday weekend.

Mrs. Nakatani Selected For Rutgers Institute

Miss Laura Nakatani, a resident of Westfield, is one of 41 trainees in the 1993-1994 class of the Leadership Management for Urban Executive Institute sponsored by the Center for Strategic Urban Community Leadership.

Miss Nakatani participates in a 10-month long program at the Camden campus of Rutgers University focusing on the problems plaguing urban communities.

She is the Special Projects Manager for Community Coordinated Child Care of Union County, a non-profit child-care services agency. She oversees a wide spectrum of programs including school-age child care, special needs and teacher training.

A former teacher, Miss Nakatani holds a Master of Arts Degree in Elementary Education from Teachers College of Columbia University in New York City and a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Studio Art and Architecture from Wellesley College in Wellesley, Massachusetts.

The goal of the program is to prepare people for the role of "broker" between local, state and national officials and those living in urban areas.

Community Coordinated Child Care, located in Hillside, was established in 1974 in an effort to improve the quality and availability of child-care services.

The United Way member agency provides a free child-care referral service for parents, conducts training programs and workshops for child-care providers and manages a variety of government-funded programs.

Assault-Prevention Lecture November 22 in Township

"Life Without Fear, An Assault-Prevention Class for Women," will be held on Monday, November 22, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Scotch Plains Library at 1927 Bartle Avenue.

The workshop is directed at those who work in urban areas, live alone, like to go hiking alone, feel fearful in their own home or have been victims of assault.

Covered will be statistics on the prevalence of assault, the profile of the attacker, the characteristics of likely victims, how to protect oneself from assault and how to deal with an attacker.

The workshop will be conducted by Dr. Robin Boudette who, as a clinical psychologist, has specialized in women's issues for five years.

She has trained in self-defense. Please telephone 754-0019 to register. Space is limited.

Meridian Shows Therapy Techniques

As part of National Physical Therapy Month, Meridian Nursing Center of Westfield, 1515 Lamberts Mill Road, demonstrated new and traditional physical therapy techniques and equipment on October 20.

Staff, residents and families participated in games involving physical therapy exercises. Prizes were awarded to the winners. New equipment was introduced and the therapy staff demonstrated its usefulness. The staff demonstrated the balance board, the standing table and the various weights and dumbbells used for strength conditioning and muscle restoration.

Meridian Rehabilitation Services offers physical, occupational and speech therapy five days a week both in house and as outpatient services. Home evaluations are performed to ensure that candidates return to a safe environment and have an easy transition home.

For further information on Meridian Rehabilitation, please call 233-9700 for the booklet on coordinated rehabilitation services or ask to speak with Miss Lisa Rittaler.

 pating. The cost to each student is $168.53 plus food, and financial assistance is available.
 "There will be mock press conferences," the Superintendent pointed out. "We think it's a valuable learning experience."
 Board President, Mrs. Susan H. Pepper, reported, after discussion with Parent-Teacher Organization Presidents, and to perhaps increase attendance at board meetings, the board will hold one meeting this winter at an elementary school on the North Side and one meeting in the spring on the South Side.
 After board member, Mrs. Susan Jacobson's observance that, as people go south in the winter, perhaps should the board hold a winter meeting on the South Side of town, and after she further pointed out, "there are a lot more hills on the North Side," the board President assured her this would be taken into account as the time drew nearer.

 In a followup to an earlier request at a previous board meeting by Juvenile Bureau Detective Ronald Allen to allow ninth grade and Police Athletic League football teams to use the varsity football field, Gerry McMahon of Boulevard reported to the board the request, which had been granted, gave great pleasure to the Police Athletic League team which used the field on Sunday.
 "They were thrilled," he said.

 noted.
 The council also concurred with a suggestion by the Transportation, Parking and Traffic Committee to reduce the speed through Tamaques and Mindowaskin Parks from 25 to 15 miles per hour.
 Town Administrator John F. Malloy, Jr. noted this would have to be approved by the state.
 Awarding of bids for animal-control services for the new year has been delayed, Mr. Malloy said, because the Board of Health wants to question Garden State Kennels, the current service and low bidder, about pickup of dead animals agreed to in its contract.

 Although there has been some dissatisfaction with Garden State, the Administrator said, the Board of Health is not sure it can justify accepting a $36,000 bid, almost double the price, from the Associated Human Societies of Newark if there is not a considerable difference in service provided.
 Public Works Chairman, Mrs. Margaret C. Sur, will follow up with Mountainside on its proposal to have the county provide an alternate service, possibly at a site in Mountainside.

We should all be concerned about the future because we will have to spend the rest of our lives there.

Burglaries Reported In Three Homes in Town

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2
 Marilyn Heller of Westfield was taken to Overlook Hospital in Summit with moderate injuries after the car she was driving was struck in the rear by one driven by Maryann Huhnwerer of Westfield on North Avenue West near Clark Street. The first car was forced across the road and through hedges in front of the Lord & Taylor parking lot, and it struck a car in the lot. The second motorist was charged with careless driving.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5
 Jeffrey Longo of Westfield was arrested for disorderly conduct and assault on a police officer, and Thomas Grasso of the town was charged with the obstruction of the administration of law after the two men allegedly behaved belligerently to police officers called because of a report of a disturbance on Munsee Way and Prospect Street.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6
 A Westfield man reported his wallet was stolen at a Central Avenue home.
 Lit firecrackers reportedly were thrown into a mailbox on St. Mark's Avenue.
 Several jewelry boxes were overturned and a television was stolen from a Harrison Avenue residence.
 Burglars smashed cellar windows in a Parkview Drive home and stole a television, which later was found on the driveway of the home, and removed a bottle of vodka which was found open in the home.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 7
 Carl Lonko of Westfield was released on $325 bail after being arrested for driving while under the influence of alcohol on Boynton Avenue.
 After pushing in a basement window on a Mountain Avenue home, burglars ransacked the master bedroom and stole jewelry, a video-cassette recorder, a cassette player, a computer and a computer printer.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 3
 A window was broken on one car and another car was stolen from Embree Crescent.
 David Graf of Westfield, a former employee of an Elm Street video store, was released on his own recognizance after being charged with stealing a video game system and two video games. His court date is Thursday, December 9.
 A tire on a work trailer was punctured on South Avenue.

Arts Workshop Offers Seminars On Wrapping, Theme Baskets

The New Jersey Workshop for the Arts will offer two "Seasonal Seminars" for those who want an extra touch of elegance during the holidays. Both classes will take place in the Workshop's downtown Arts Center at 152 East Broad Street, Westfield.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cutrofello will present "It's a Wrap" on Tuesday, November 30, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. This class will show many gift wrapping techniques from the simplest to the most imaginative. In addition to the usual paper, she will show how to use baskets, bottles, tubes, plastic containers, cans, and boxes to present a gift.

A week later on December 7, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m., she will present a seminar "Creating Theme Baskets." Mrs. Cutrofello will teach techniques that professionals use in creating and filling individualized baskets that center on a holiday or a special person's hobby or profession.

The deadlines for registration are November 23 for the wrapping seminar and November 30 for the theme basket class. For information, please telephone 789-9696.

Thanksgiving Meal To Be Held at 'Y'

A Thanksgiving meal for those who have lost a spouse or loved one or whose family lives a distance from them or are experiencing personal difficulties will be sponsored by the Westfield "Y" and area merchants on the holiday from noon to 2 p.m. at the "Y" at 220 Clark Street.
 Transportation will be provided if needed.
 For more information, please telephone 789-1909.

Students of Month Chosen at Wilson

The Wilson School of Westfield students selected as the November Music and Fine Arts Students of the Month are Kate Trimble, Musician of the Month on clarinet; Daniel Ramage, Musician of the Month on cello; Julie Muroff, Vocalist of the Month, and Sarah Caprario, Artist of the Month.

Mark Twain, author of "Tom Sawyer" and "Huckleberry Finn," also invented a game called "Mark Twain's Memory-Builder, a Game for Acquiring and Retaining All Sorts of Facts and Dates." He sold the game in 1891, but it proved too complex and was a commercial failure.

President Grover Cleveland was best known by his middle name; his first name was actually Stephen. Likewise President Woodrow Wilson, whose first name was Thomas.

However brilliant an action it should not be esteemed great unless the result of a great motive.

The Westfield Leader

—Serving the Town Since 1890—
 P.O. Box 250, 50 Elm Street • Westfield, N.J. 07091

Dear Westfielder:

The Westfield Leader has the highest readership of any paid weekly newspaper in Union County — with nearly two-thirds of our town's households numbered as paid subscribers.

Every week it enables its subscribers to receive the most complete coverage of any area newspaper of every event in Westfield from town and Union County government and politics to high school sports to weddings, engagements, complete obituaries, other social news and the many events sponsored by our town's numerous civic organizations.

It also offers viewpoints on a variety of topics — current films, senior citizen issues, humor, psychology and current events by experts in each field who are your neighbors.

Many of our readers give gift subscriptions to those in and out of town and also send The Leader to those in college. Perhaps, this is the time you might consider some of these possibilities.

The Leader, your hometown newspaper since 1890, is the official newspaper for Westfield and also an official newspaper for Union County.

With all good regards,

Union Catholic Hands Devils Defeat in County Tournament

SPORTS

By AMIT MAGDIELI
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader

In 1980, California Governor Ronald Reagan defeated President Jimmy Carter, John Lennon was shot by David Chapman and the Westfield Girls Soccer Team shared the Union County crown with New Providence in the inaugural year of the Union County Soccer Tournament.

In 1993, three Presidents and a music revolution later, the Westfield Girls Soccer Team relinquished the crown for the first time in 13 years.

The top-seeded and heavily-favored blue Devils suffered their first Union County Tournament defeat on Sunday night 3-2 at the hands of Union Catholic of Scotch Plains at Williams Field in Elizabeth.

"We were expected to win. We did not come out strong and Union Catholic was more motivated than we were," stated senior sweeper Christie McGovern.

The third-seeded Vikings, intent on revenge for their 3-0 loss in last year's county final, came out on fire against a defense that played "lethargically," according to Westfield Coach Pete Giordano.

Union Catholic beat out Westfield on what was thought to be an off-sides pass by many Westfield supporters for the first score of the game 25 minutes into the first half.

The Blue Devils retaliated 56 seconds later on a corner kick. Senior halfback Abby Bomba sent the ball to Nancy Schultz, who headed it to junior striker Emily Dexter, who drilled it in.

The Devils had the next score of the game. However, it was on their own goal. Freshman goalie Amy Williams tried to block a direct kick but collided with a Union Catholic player. A Westfield player tried to clear the loose ball but instead placed the ball into the net at four minutes and 39 seconds into the second half.

Union Catholic increased their lead to 3-1 at 26 minutes and 14 seconds into the second half after chasing down a loose ball.

However, Westfield, refusing to collapse, came back with a barrage of shots in the last 10 minutes of the second half. Included was a corner kick from Bomba, which was fired into the back of the net by junior striker Lexi Tourtellotte with nine minutes remaining in the game.

The Blue Devils kept up the pressure but were unable to score again for the remainder of the game.

Williams tallied nine saves while the Westfield offense mustered 10 shots in the losing effort.

"We came out flat," commented Giordano. "The girls did not go to the ball and it appeared Union Catholic wanted it more. It is hard to win the county tournament every year. This team has so much pressure to win in general it is just not fair to expect them to win every time they play. It is more important they play their hardest."

The Blue Devils bounced back this past Tuesday, crippling Bloomfield 3-0 in the state sectional semi-finals at Recreation Field in Westfield.

The netsters, seeded second in Section No. 2, played listlessly for the first three quarters of the game. Fortunately, Bloomfield's sub-par play made for a scoreless match for them.

Approximately half way through the second half Westfield's offense exploded to score three goals in 13 minutes.

The first and ultimately decisive score of the game came off the foot of Suzy Folger. Folger shot a pass from Schultz into the back of the net via a deflection off of a Bloomfield defender at 22 minutes and 56 seconds.

Bomba recorded the second goal of the game four minutes later on an assist from senior halfback Antonia Loffredo.

Tourtellotte generated the final point of the game on a pass from Schultz with four minutes remaining in the competition.

"We came out slow," said Giordano. "It took us a while to get going. They played a tight defensive game. However, once we scored and they were forced to open up we were able to score more easily."

To reach the semi-final round Westfield's squad had to stave off Columbia in the first round.

They accomplished this task in fine fashion handing Columbia a 2-0 loss last Thursday in Westfield.

Folger began the scoring at four minutes and 32 seconds into the second half on a pass from Tourtellotte.

Junior halfback Sydney Barrow scored her first goal of the season at 35 minutes and 33 seconds into the second half on Tourtellotte's second assist of the game.

Westfield will attempt to repeat as sectional champions when they play the winner of the Randolph versus Montclair game today.

Top-seeded Randolph is expected to advance in the tourney. If so the game will be in Randolph, but if Montclair wins then the game will be at Recreation Field in Westfield.

Town Blue Devils Upset Raiders To Capture Union County Crown

Editor's Note: The following are two views of boys' soccer action in the area, focusing on the Union County Tournament Championship on Saturday, where Scotch Plains defeated Westfield. The first story is by Jonathan Kanarek of Scotch Plains, and the second is by Adam Weinstein of Westfield.

Disappointment is basically the only word to sum up Scotch Plains-Fanwood's 3-1 loss in the Union County Tournament final against Westfield last Sunday in Elizabeth.

The Raiders and Blue Devils had played to scoreless tie in Scotch Plains a few games back, but this time the outcome was different.

The Raiders had been the top-seeded team in this year's tournament, but that didn't really matter when second-seeded Westfield and Scotch Plains-Fanwood got together in what has been an almost annual meeting in the tourney.

Throughout the first half of play, the two powerhouses played to a 1-1 half-time. The Raiders seemed to dominate much of the opening half with great ball control.

Just as in the teams' first encounter about two weeks back, the Raiders were having trouble cashing in on their scoring opportunities. Many of their shots were sailing over the crossbar.

Nevertheless, the Blue Devils drew first blood off a misplayed ball by senior Eric Finley. Late in the first half, senior Phil Kane was fouled, setting up a Scotch Plains-Fanwood penalty shot.

Senior Eric Ruano came through scoring off Westfield goalkeeper Mike Rosner to knot the score at one apiece. For Ruano, the goal was his 50th of his career on the Raiders.

Raider Coach Tom Breznitsky was pleased with the squad's first-half performance. If the Raiders' good passing and strong ball movement was to carry over into the remaining half, Scotch Plains-Fanwood would have an excellent chance to pull out the victory.

Unfortunately for the Raiders, they came out in the second half not looking nearly as sharp as they did in the previous half. They made a great deal of ill-advised passes and shots and misplayed many balls. In addition to that, many shots were sailing over the crossbar.

The key point in the game occurred when Westfield midfielder Jim Corcoran, who missed a penalty shot in the previous game with Raiders that cost the Blue Devils a victory, blasted a bullet from the top of the box directly at the junior Scotch Plains-Fanwood goalie Lee Vechionne.

Vechionne made the save, but he couldn't maintain control of the difficult shot.

Blue Devil Jim Pipher had a collision with the Vechionne and scored to give Westfield a 2-1 advantage, which they would never relinquish.

That goal looked like it caused the Raiders to panic a bit, but they still had one great scoring chance with about five minutes left in the contest when Ruano took an indirect kick.

Rosner made a nice save, similar to Vechionne's. Finley and sophomore Dan Hall both went for the rebound of the loose ball, but a cluster of too many Westfield jerseys in front of the net would not permit the Raiders to score.

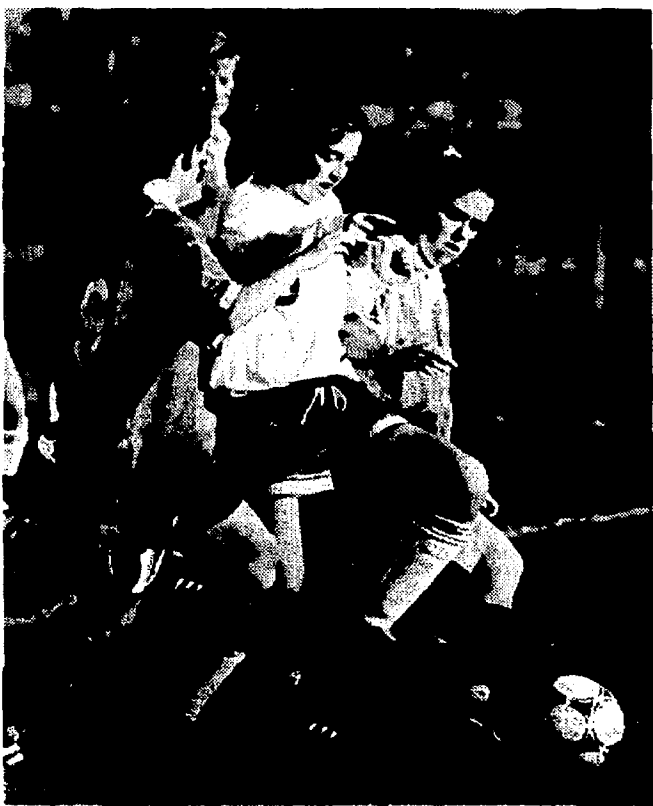

Thus, the Raiders came away empty-handed, with only a couple of minutes left to play. Corcoran had a direct kick. He shot the ball around a wall of improperly-set Raiders and surprised Vechionne as he put it through the net to extend the lead to 3-1. That was the way it ended.

"I feel we played a successful first half of soccer. When Pipher scored that goal in the second half, we were devastated and we were forced into a lot of errors," noted Hall, who was ejected with less than a minute to play.

Senior Keith Joy, one of the Raiders' star performers during this season, could only play about 15 minutes, all in the first half, due to an injury.

Scotch Plains Gymnasts Win Sectional Crown

By MIKE WEISSLITZ

Specially Written for The Westfield Leader and The Times

Perhaps it's the proximity of Westfield and Scotch Plains that accounts for the ultra-competitive rivalry between the two teams.

Regardless of the source, the level of competition between the schools was at its usual high level as they squared off against each other in the gymnastics North Jersey Section No. 2 finals on Friday.

After all was said and done, it was Scotch Plains which won the battle, edging out the Blue Devils for the sectional title and automatic state-tournament berth by a score of 102.9 to 100.7.

Finishing in third place was Arthur L. Johnson Regional of Clark followed by Randolph, Parsippany and Montclair.

Individually, it was Karen Maurer of Roselle Catholic who stole the show. Her 36.7 individual score enabled her to place first overall in the section.

Finishing second was Lisa Dec of Union.

Scotch Plains was led by the dual attack of Tracey Brown and Danielle White, who finished sixth and eighth, respectively.

Westfield was led by standout Jill Smith. The junior finished fifth overall by placing 12th on vault, 11th on bars, sixth on beam and seventh on floor.

Smith's individual performance resulted in an invitation to the state tournament at Shawnee High School on Saturday, November 13.

Also performing well for Westfield were Dana Fizzell, who finished 11th on the floor, and Brandi Kovac, who tied with Scotch Plains' Shannon Buckley for 12th on the beam.

Unfortunately for Westfield fans, Smith will be the town's sole representative at Shawnee, since the team failed to qualify.

In order to reach the state tournament, a team must either place first in their sectional tournament or have a high

Westfield Devils' Boy Harriers Take Their Third County Crown

By ADAM BARCAN
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader

Signifying the ultimate three-peat, the Westfield Boys' Cross Country Team ran away with the Union County title last Wednesday in Warinanco Park, topping runnersup Union 38-86. In doing so, they became the first team in the history of Westfield High School to capture county, conference and sectional titles in three consecutive years.

As in most contests this season, wonder boy Matt Elmucio crossed the line first for the Devils, taking second overall, behind Roselle Park's Antone Debenedictis in 16 minutes and 37 seconds.

With its trademark tail-a-bobbing behind him, "The Mooch" finished only 10 seconds behind the Roselle Park lad, who has not bowed to a New Jersey runner this season.

"The gun fired and he shot across the field like the Tasmanian devil that he is," Elmucio said. "I took off after him like a man possessed, but he got away. I tried to just sit on his tail and focus."

Next in for the Devils were junior Don Cambria, who took fourth place in 16 minutes and 52 seconds, and senior Geoff North, who snagged eighth 35 seconds back.

The tight trio of Larry Ho, Ted Kilcommons and Johnny O'Brien followed in the 10th through 12th spots, engulfing their competition like amoebas performing phagocytosis.

Sophomore Ho paced the crew in 17 minutes and 34 seconds, while the Irish duo followed four and seven seconds back, respectively. Senior Jim Nicoll took the 22nd spot in 18 minutes and eight seconds.

In an even more amazing display of utter and total domination the junior varsity squad shut out its competition with a perfect 15-point score.

Adam Barcan led the way with a first-place finish in 17 minutes and 58 seconds, while sophomore Ryan "Travolta" Stotler placed second, seven seconds behind. Stotler remained calm in the face of success, however.

"It was cool," he said. "I liked it." Evan Baldwin took third in 18 minutes and 29 seconds, followed closely by sophomores Philippe Gabriel and Adam Borchin. Running in the fourth and fifth spots, the duo trailed Baldwin by three and 10 seconds, respectively.

Although their performances will be tinged by asterisks in the record books, rendered unofficial by an obscure county rule, seniors Neal Sharma and Paul Wengerter also ran quite well.

Even though seniors cannot score in a county junior varsity race, this pair showed up with their game faces on and their legs ready to roll. When all was said and done Sharma crossed the line in 18 minutes and 37 seconds, while Wengerter followed valiantly a mere second behind.

For the freshman, who also won with 47 total points, Ryan Steufik took first overall in a speedy 12 minutes and 26 seconds. Abdullah Simaika finished two seconds back in second place, while Tommy Basta chipped in with a fifth-place finish in 13 minutes and 15 seconds.

This Saturday, the varsity squad makes the trek to Holmdel County Park, eager to compete in its most important race to date.

The Group No. 4 championships await the Devils, who must place among the top three teams to continue on to the November 20 Meet Of Champions.

Westfield, ranked 10th in a recent cross-country poll, looks to smash powers Highland, Shawnee, Eastern and Vineland to bits as it ascends to immortality.

Police League Gridders Win One and Lose a Pair

Westfield's Police Athletic League Football Teams played their first games at the newly-inaugurated Gary Kehler Stadium on Sunday, coming away with one win in their three contests against visiting Berkeley Heights. That victory was the "B" team's seventh straight shutout, tying a league mark.

Berkeley Heights C, 20; Westfield C, 0

A Westfield fourth-down rush that fell just short of a first down at the Berkeley Heights four yard line in the second quarter seemed to turn the game. Down 7-0 at the time, the Blue Devils had mounted a solid eight-play drive behind the powerful running of Glenn Hurley. On fourth and two at the six, Hurley plunged up the middle to the four, but the official measurement was in favor of Berkeley Heights. Three plays later, Jeremy Ferguson burst through the Westfield line and raced 90 yards for a touchdown that made the score 13-0.

Then, in the third quarter, after holding the Heights on downs, a penalty for too many men on the field gave the visitors a gift first down. With a new lease on life, Berkeley ran off another eight plays, with Keith Goveia carrying the ball 10 yards for the final score. The game ended as Westfield drove toward the end zone.

Hurley was the offensive star for the Devils, gaining 88 all-purpose yards on quick hitters up the middle and swing passes from quarterback David King. His big gainer was a 36-yard burst straight up the middle on the ill-fated second-quarter drive. Jacob Duping and Cam Keily led the Blue Devil defense, with able assistance from Matt Daly, Mike Mroz and Tim Young.

Ferguson, who scored the game's first touchdown on a 13-yard run in the first quarter, carried the load for Berkeley Heights, with help from Brian Pawlowski and quarterback Tim Marcantonio. John Perna, Nick Bilotta and Tim Butler stood out on defense.

Westfield's record drops to 2-3-1, while Berkeley Heights climbs to 4-1-1.

Berkeley Heights A, 12; Westfield A, 6

This was a bitter loss for the Blue Devils, who held a 6-0 half-time advantage and intercepted Heights quarterback Bruce O'Donnell four times. The Devils' lone score came off one of the three picks made by Jason Osborne, who raced 55 yards down the right sideline near the end of the first half to put Westfield up by six at the break. Matt Hughes' kick for the two extra points was no good.

As in the C game, a penalty played a key role. Here, Westfield was called for pass interference on a third-and-10 toss by O'Donnell in the third quarter.

With a fresh set of downs at their 43, Berkeley Heights turned to their tall running back, Jeff Smith. Smith pounded out big chunks of yardage, running both inside and outside on a 16-play drive that consumed most of the quarter. Smith punched the ball over from a yard out, but his run for the extra point was stopped short of the goal line, leaving the score knotted at six going into the final stanza.

Then came the fateful play. After Osborne's third interception of the day on a fourth-and-26 play gave the Devils the ball at their own 20-yard line, Heights linebacker Chris Petracora ran a blitz up the middle on first down and got to ball carrier Greg Montgomery as soon as the ball did. Petracora's hit popped the ball into the air, from where he snatched it and waltzed into the end zone for the deciding touchdown with three minutes and 25 seconds remaining. Smith's kick for the points was no good, but it didn't matter. Dan Norton, Dan Mcgaro, Greg Gorski and Blair Bartlett made the big hits for Westfield, while Petracora, Vincent Gabriele and Vince Billeci bottled up the Devil offense. The Blue Devils fell to 3-4 as Berkeley Heights advanced to 5-1.

Westfield B, 28; Berkeley Heights B, 0

It's hard to imagine a team not being discouraged by having four sensational touchdowns played back by penalties.

But the B Devils, led by the inspired play of quarterback Brandon Doerr, didn't let it bother them as they rebounded with four other scores en route to their seventh straight shutout victory.

After starting sloppily in the first quarter, the Devils got cranking on a 16-yard fourth-and-goal romp by Lamont Turner, only to see it called back. No matter. Turner reeled off a 25-yard touchdown run early in the second period, set up by Doerr's twisting 45-yard gallop through traffic, to put Westfield ahead. And on the Devils' next possession, Turner was at it again, racing 35 yards around left end to lengthen the Westfield advantage at the half.

On their first series of downs in the third quarter, the Devils had two scores nullified. Turner's 20-yard run followed by Doerr's scoring pass to Ragnar Gearhart two plays later. Turner's later 52-yard punt return also was erased.

But rather than weakening in the face of adversity, the Devils got stronger. Doerr led a fourth-quarter onslaught, scoring from 24 yards out on a keeper around left end, and setting up Chris Giaccone's third-yard plunge with a thrilling 57-yard trip down the left sideline.

Jim Korn kicked all four point-after conversions, Phil Orsini gathered in another interception and Greg Freisen, Mike McCue and Kantu Barr led the defensive charge for the 7-0 Devils. The running of Kris Lecomte, Brett Vanderveer and Mike Cooper stood out for the Heights, who fall to 3-30.

AROUND AND THROUGH...Scotch Plains-Fanwood football players Adam Cote, No. 1, and Brian Anglin, No. 30, get past a Shabazz defender during Sunday's game, which the Raiders won 16-14. Cote ran in a one-yard scoring throw during the game.

DiNizo Field Goal With 28 Seconds Leads Raiders to 16-14 Victory

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School Raiders Football Team scored a 16-14 victory over Shabazz of Newark on Sunday on a 28-yard field goal by Juliano DiNizo with 28 seconds left on the clock on the Raiders' home field.

A four-yard touchdown run by Eddie Cooper and the subsequent two-point conversion pass had given the 3-4 Bulldogs a 14-13 lead in the fourth quarter.

Irving Callendar of the Newark school had an 11-yard scoring run.

Warriors Defeat Flemington 3-1

The Warriors stuck it to the Flemington Sting on a 3-1 defeat on a wet and windy Houlahan Field on October 30.

Strikers Nick Gelsler, Kyle Vantovsky and Xander Rothschild moved the ball patiently up the field throughout the game with short controlled passes spreading out the Sting defense. A perfect back pass from Rothschild to halfback Connor Mulvey at the 10-minute mark produced the first goal when Mulvey's shot found the back of the net.

The entire offensive unit of the Warriors was abuzz with back passes and overlap plays while in the Sting territory. Center halfback Brad Gillin pierced the Sting defense for the second goal with a line drive shot that deflected off the goalie's hand into the net. Center striker Adam Walker and Greg Odachowski assisted on the goal. Striker Cam Anthony scored the final goal for the Warriors when he punched in a loose ball five yards out from the goal.

The Warriors defense dominated the midfield and did not allow the Sting to threaten any sustained offensive attack. Halfbacks Greg Scanlon and Evan Molloy and stopper Matt Hall closed the middle of the field to the Sting. Sweeper Michael Farley and fullbacks Ryan MacDonald and Doug Marink easily defended against long volleys by the Sting offense.

Brandon Kase played the entire game in goal and came through with saves when challenged.

Minutemen Take Charge To Defeat Blue Devils

By BRIAN HAMILTON
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader

For the Westfield Blue Devil Football Team, Saturday's contest with Elizabeth was a game in which intensity and emotion ran at a fever pitch, perhaps at the highest level of 1993 to date.

"I felt we were ready to play," stated Head Coach Ed Tranchina. "But realized at one point we were losing 21-0. It would have been very easy for our kids to pack it in. But they fought their way back."

Unfortunately, team focus was unable to overcome the talent of a top-20 team, as the Elizabeth Minutemen pulled away with a 21-12 victory over Westfield.

The contest began rather inauspiciously for the Devils. To begin with, junior tailback Erwyn Lyght, who has rushed for over 650 yards on the season, was still slowed by the ankle sprain suffered the previous week versus Summit.

He did start, but the injury and a defense which keyed on him curtailed his production.

"In addition, Elizabeth got a break right off the bat. Westfield halted the home team's potent offense, but defensive tackle Ron Nobil was flagged on a questionable roughing-the-kicker penalty, keeping the Elizabeth drive alive.

On the next play, Quinton Spotwood connected with Sam Williams on a 48-yard pass, and Kareem Bowser then plowed in from the three to stake Elizabeth an early 6-0 lead, as the extra point failed.

The Minutemen looked to be on the road to a blowout with a quick score on their next possession. A short Blue Devil punt gave the Minutemen the ball at the Westfield 42.

After a penalty and a short gain, Bowser raced 42 dazzling yards for a touchdown, and with the conversion pass the lead was 14-0.

Bowser hurt the Devils in the first half, rushing for 75 of his 83 total yards and the two scores. Meanwhile, the Devils had trouble moving the ball.

Westfield produced only 73 yards of offense before intermission, compared to 192 for Elizabeth. Quarterback Steve Cheek was on target with his passes, but at least five were either dropped or sailed through the hands of Westfield receivers.

The second half began in perhaps the most wild fashion in recent years. The Blue Devils received the opening kickoff, but Lyght mishandled the ball, fumbling it to Elizabeth at the one-yard line. Bowser ran it in for his third score, putting Elizabeth on top 21-0 less than 30 seconds into the half.

Westfield came out of the locker room filled with intensity, but the fumble curbed Blue Devil emotions — for the moment. If the team needed a lift, junior speedster Marcus Cognetti provided the fix.

On the ensuing kickoff, Cognetti replaced Lyght. He caught the ball at the 13, and from there he was off to the races. Cognetti dashed 87 yards to the Elizabeth end zone, electrifying the entire audience at Williams Field in Elizabeth. The Blue Devils sensed an opening, getting on the board 21-6.

"It was tremendous, a great play by Marcus," commented Tranchina. "It got us some emotion back and then the offense started to move the ball."

From there, the Devils captured the momentum with the defense stepping up the most.

The third quarter saw Elizabeth run 17 plays to Westfield's three, but the Minutemen couldn't put any points on the board.

The Elizabeth offense managed 116 yards in the second half, 76 less than in the first.

Bowser carried for only eight yards, as he was met by a horde of Westfield defenders on almost every play.

"I think the defense overall played well, however once again consistency was a concern," stated Defensive Coordinator Ron Barner. "More specifically, we let them off the hook a couple of times on key third-down situations. But, we showed improvement in our tackling against a superior team, so I'm encouraged."

In the fourth, the Devils cut the deficit to 21-12 when Cheek, under pressure, hit tight end Mike Mitchell with a screen that went 18 yards for a score. On the seven-play, 80-yard drive Cheek threw for 44 yards, while fullback John Mask contributed with a 26-yard dash.

From that point, Westfield moved to its hurry-up offense, but could not move upfield.

Despite the outcome, several positives were apparent for Westfield.

Lyght, hampered by the ankle, carried 11 times for only 24 yards, but the offense did pick up some of the slack. Cheek was six of 22 for 91 yards, but as mentioned above his passes were on target but dropped by receivers. Mask provided a solid six-carry, 50-yard effort, going for big gains when the Blue Devils most needed them.

"Cheek was excellent. We had our best day passing the ball," assessed Tranchina.

"They were determined to stop Erwyn. But John ran well. We still have to do a better job catching the ball, and then we'll be real tough."

Saturday, the Devils met Linden in the first contest after the re-dedication of the Field House to Gary Kehler Stadium. Kickoff is at 1:30 p.m.

C-Co Ties One Foe, Loses 2-1 to Another

Last weekend K-Co met two worthy opponents and played two magnificent games of soccer in the Westfield Boys in Town Soccer League.

On Saturday, they entertained the Leathernecks. The first half belonged to K-Co. The front line of Sam Sobel, John Jurek, Chris McClean and John Kotler made sure they were first to the ball. Their skillful passing was rewarded as Kotler positioned the ball in the right corner to Sobel, who crossed center forward McClean, who left-footed the first goal of the game. Halfbacks Tadashi Matsura, Kevin Riley and Adam Brundage left K-Co's fullbacks with little to do as they maintained half possession in the Leathernecks' half of the field throughout the first half.

The second half brought the rebirth of the Leathernecks. At the start, K-Co maintained control of play as halfback Motok Mitsurra hit center forward Brian Kempis who settled and shot a line drive towards net. Leatherneck goalie Craig Wroth deflected the ball, but Brian Riet, K-Co's other center forward, headed the rebounded sphere into goal to give K-Co a 2-0 lead.

With 10 minutes to play, Leatherneck left wing Paul Kazards took a clearing pass and maneuvered his way to K-Co's goal and his left foot netted his team's first score. At 2-1, play intensified as both teams rewarded the spectators with sound play.

With two minutes remaining, a direct kick was awarded to the Leathernecks.

Center halfback Mark Kovites shot was on goal, but K-Co's versatile David Trisler's timely block set up a Leatherneck corner kick. With under a minute to play, Kovites let fly a perfect corner kick which found the net. Zimak's shot was deflected, but Leatherneck forward Drew Wittingham wisely followed Zimak's shot and his right foot put an end to these two teams' great play at 2-2.

Sunday saw K-Co host the Rangers. It was another great day for soccer as the two teams battled to a 0-0 tie.

K-Co's halfback trio of Seth Auguststein, Brian Williams and David Trisler along with the Rangers' halfback crew jockeyed for field position with neither team gaining an advantage.

The second half opened up with the shot of the day as Sam Sobel, K-Co's right wing, chipped a 20-yard shot over the Rangers' defense for the game's first score. The lead was short lived as several minutes later the Rangers answered as their right wing found the far post to knot the score at 1-1.

K-Co's front line of Danny Egan, Kenneth Niver and Bob Frumling controlled their halfbacks' lead passes with a fine display of one touch, turn and shoot, but the Ranger goalie displayed his skills as well in rejecting all tries on goal.

K-Co had several opportunities with corner kicks and even a penalty shot, but it was not to be K-Co's day. With time expiring, the Rangers converted on a beautiful center field pass to tie the game 2-1 and give K-Co their first loss of the season.

Three Police Squads Victorious in Football

The Westfield Police Athletic League Football Team met Chatham on a cold, rainy Halloween afternoon, earning three wins at Edison Intermediate School Field.

The "A" and "C" teams played their finest games of the season in leveling their records, while the "B" team continued its string of shut-out wins.

Westfield C, 20; Chatham C, 0
Mike Mroz swept left end on the third play of the game and raced 65 yards for a touchdown to set the tone for the C team's win. With the offensive line moving the Patriots off the ball with authority, Mroz sprang loose on another touchdown jaunt on the Devils' second possession, this time for 40 yards on a fourth-down play. Jacob Dupont and Glenn Hurley plunged over for the extra points, giving Westfield a quick 14-0 lead.

Chatham started to mount a drive when the teams changed ends for the second quarter, but aggressive defensive play by linemen Jim Mitchell, Terence Jenkins and Robert Stroh bottled up the Patriots. Then quarterback David King tossed a swing pass to Hurley, who took it in for the third score. Jacob Dupont snuffed out another Chatham threat with a fumble recovery as the half ended.

Up by three touchdowns, the Devils played their reserves in the second half and held off a determined effort by Chatham. Joe Martucci, Ben Koket, Chris Freisen, Kirt Giresi, Pat Daly, Mike Tullo, Jon Roina, Jeremy Owens, Sean Faust, Matt Nackson and Matt Morrison all earned honors for spirited play.

Westfield A, 6; Chatham A, 0
Quarterback Bobby Baykowski scored the game's only points on a busted play in the third quarter. Scooping up a Blue Devil fumble on the Chatham 13-yard line, the sure-handed Baykowski churned around left end as Patriot defenders swarmed the site of the fumble. Though Matt Hughes' conversion try was blocked, the outcome had already seemed certain to favor whichever team could make the one big play, and Baykowski's recovery from disaster sealed the outcome.

Though Baykowski got the points, Westfield's secret weapon was Greg Montgomery. Ordinarily a tightend on offense, this day Montgomery carried the ball on quick hitters up the middle that were the key to Westfield's ball-control offense.

On defense, Greg Gorski made the big plays, with an interception and a fumble recovery, both returned for substantial yardage.

Westfield B, 21; Chatham B, 0
Bone-jarring Westfield blocks and solid tackles in the damp chill kept Chatham off balance in the B game. Todd Dowling, Ragnar Gearhart and Chris Giaccone scored for Westfield, with Jim Korn converting all three extra-point tries.

The play of the day was Gearhart's 10-yard reception from Brandon Doern on an out pattern in the second period. Kevin McCormack's precise hit on a would-be tackler sprang Gearhart for an additional 20 yards and a touchdown. The Devil defense held Chatham to just 15 total net yards on offense. Brian Russo, Dan Wanat and Greg Freisen earned accolades for their all-round fine effort.

Westfield was at home to face Berkeley Heights this past Sunday.

Hockey Squad Loses In Bid for State Crown

By MEGAN O'BRIEN
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader

The second-seeded Westfield Blue Devils Field Hockey Team hosted third-seeded Vernon in the semi-final round of the state tournament on Tuesday.

The Devils came out a bit rusty, not having played a game in 10 days, and lost 3-1.

Twenty-one minutes into the first half Vernon took a shot which was saved by Westfield goalie, Megan O'Brien. O'Brien then slipped on the slick field and the ball was pushed into the goal on the rebound. Vernon scored their second goal seven minutes into the second half.

Westfield's offense took charge late in the second half when Alison Konet scored the team's lone goal with two minutes and 26 seconds left on the clock, a penalty corner was called against the Vikings. Konet took the corner and cut in front of the goal to wait for a pass. She received the feed and directed the ball into her net.

The Vikings were not satisfied and scored an insurance goal with a minute and a half left in the game.

O'Brien caused a foul. As a result, a penalty stroke was called, her first of the year. The ball was shot into the lower right corner of the cage just out of O'Brien's reach.

Senior Tri-Captain, Bridget Keegan said, "I thought we played a great game, we just didn't capitalize on all of our opportunities."

Westfield took five shots while Vernon had 13.

The Blue Devils' offense consisted of Laura Cashman, Alison Konet, Jen Schwarzenbek and Erin McCarthy, who were supported by halfbacks Colleen Gleason, Joanna McGonigle and Kathleen Clabby.

The Devils' defense consisted of Allison Yockel, Jane Petrino and Keegan. O'Brien halted 10 shots while the Vernon goalie saved four.

"It was an extremely disappointing way to end a terrific season," commented Laura Cashman.

Westfield finished with a 9-5-3 record, and went 6-2-2 in their last 10 games.

"We'll win next year," she concluded.

Town Wrestling League Will Hold Registrations

The Westfield Boys Wrestling League will soon begin its 33rd year and invites boys in the second through eighth grades to sign up.

The league's objectives are to give boys a basic program in wrestling and through competent instruction and competitive matches, to teach the sport.

INSTRUCTIONAL DIVISION

Including boys in the second through sixth grades who have little or no experience. Boys are matched by age, weight and ability. Practices are held one or two evenings a week at Westfield High School with occasional meets on Saturday mornings from December to February.

TRAVELING DIVISION

Includes the boys in the third through sixth grades who have qualified on the basis of competitive tryouts. Experienced boys who do not qualify are placed in the Instructional Division. The Traveling Division competes against similar teams from neighboring towns. Competition runs from December to February. Optional state tournaments continue to mid-March. Practices and home matches are held at the high school.

SENIOR DIVISION

Includes boys in the seventh and eighth grades, both novices and experienced wrestlers. Practices are at the high school on weekday evenings. Dual meets have been scheduled against similar teams from neighboring towns.

All signups will be held on Tuesday, November 16, and Friday, November 19, from 7 to 8 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

The league fee of $40 includes a T-shirt, a U.S.A.-Wrestling card and insurance.

Trophies and medals are awarded to all participants in the Instructional League Year-end Tournament.

Several other tournaments are optional.

Additional information is available by telephoning Ken Sullivan at 233-7461.

Plains Bandits Rattle Hunterdon Sabres

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Bandits, in Division No. 5 of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Soccer Association, rattled the North Hunterdon Sabres 6-0 on Sunday with blistering offense and tough defense.

Six Bandits scored, starting with Dustin Jefferson, who converted a pass from Michael Miller for the first goal.

The "Josh Boys," Lenoff and Wesler, each scored their first of the season. Lenoff missed on a penalty kick, but he quickly atoned by lofting a soft chip over the charging goalie and into the net. Wesler blasted an 18 yarder from the corner of the penalty box.

Tony Bruno served up an assist to Steve Doremus, who scored on his third shot on goal. Bruno spread the wealth and snuck a pass in traffic to Michael Sullivan, who scored his first goal of the season.

Ricky Fleisner played hard-core defense, but moved the ball up in the second half, dribbling through three defenders to score from close range.

Keeper Anthony Caruso snuffed the Sabres' best chance at a goal by coming on a breakaway. The Sabres' striker beat the defenders and raced to the top of the box.

Caruso charged off the line, dove on the ground and smothered the ball. Though he took a kick to the ribs for his effort, Caruso gamely continued enroute to his fourth shutout.

Junior Varsity Booters Defeat Raiders for Title

Westfield opened the scoring at the four-minute mark when halfback Maura Triarsi crossed a ball behind the Scotch Plains fullbacks and Laura Lombardi rammed it home at point-blank range.

The remainder of the period was scoreless and featured a battle for control of the midfield area with both teams fighting for loose balls. The halfback corps of Nicole DeSantis, Triarsi, Lindsay Braun, Jordan McClelland, Megan Hogarth, Leigh Prayda, Morna O'Keefe, Jill Baker and Anisa Dujmic went toe to toe with the Scotch Plains players to protect goalie Lauren McGovern.

Scotch Plains moved goalie Anne Messillo to the field and moved sweeper Ann Porfitto upfield to get the tying goal

Devil Girls' Harriers Capture County Crown

By LAURA SILVERMAN
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader

The Westfield Girls' Cross Country Team proved nothing can stop them as they captured first place in the Union County Championships at Warinac Park in Elizabeth last Wednesday.

Sophomore Kellie Goncalves took the lead early in the race, capturing second place overall with a time of 21 minutes and 21 seconds, her best seasonal performance.

Keeping with the sophomore pack was Xanda Martins, who raced in at an impressive 21 minutes and 49 seconds, winning fourth place. Martins set a new personal record for the dual-meet course.

Sophomore Karen McGuire raced in at 22 minutes and 12 seconds for sixth place.

Sharon Gambino, who suffered a brief setback last week because of asthma, was back in the action with her eighth-place finish at 22 minutes and 44 seconds.

Leading the junior pack was Catherine Engell. Engell stayed up with the front runners to take 10th place in 22 minutes and 33 seconds.

Junior Jennifer O'Brien crossed the line next for Westfield, 22nd overall, at 23 minutes and 45 seconds.

Junior Sarah Hintze gave an impressive effort, running her best race yet on the course, in 23 minutes and 58 seconds for 25th place.

Westfield won the championship with 30 points. Second and third were Union and Summit, with 81 and 95 points, respectively.

On the junior varsity squad, impressive efforts were made by junior Jodi Bartelson, who achieved her best time of the season at 25 minutes and 31 seconds.

Captain Janna Chernetz also finished with her personal best time, crossing the finish line with Bartelson at 25 minutes and 31 seconds.

First-year runner, Allison Totams, Westfield's first Watching Conference freshman champion, proved her power, racing in at 24 minutes and 49 seconds.

The varsity team has successfully defended the county championship for three years.

On Saturday, November 13, the team will be at Holmdel Park for the Group No. 4 Championship, where it hopes to place among the top 10.

PUBLIC NOTICE

TOWNSHIP OF SCOTCH PLAINS
NOTICE is hereby given that at a meeting of the Township Council of the Township of Scotch Plains, held in the Council Chambers in the Municipal Building of said Township on Tuesday, November 9, 1993 there was introduced, read for the first time, and passed on such first reading, an ordinance, a true copy thereof is printed below, and that said Township Council did then and there fix the stated meeting of said Township Council to be held on the evening of Tuesday, November 23, 1993 beginning at eight-thirty o'clock as the time and the said Council Chambers as the place, or any time and place to which a meeting for the further consideration of such ordinance shall from time to time be adjourned, and all persons interested will be given an opportunity to be heard concerning such ordinance.

The said ordinance as introduced and passed on first reading as aforesaid is in the following words and figures:

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING AND SUPPLEMENTING CHAPTER 23 ENTITLED "ZONING OF THE GENERAL ORDINANCES OF THE TOWNSHIP OF SCOTCH PLAINS"

BE IT ORDAINED by the Township Council of the Township of Scotch Plains, in the County of Union and State of New Jersey, that:

Section 23-2 entitled "General Provisions" of Chapter 23 entitled "Zoning" of the General Ordinances of the Township of Scotch Plains is hereby supplemented and amended by adding the following new subsection 23-2.3r entitled "Special Use Permits;"

r. Special Use Permits.

1. It is recognized that it may be in accordance with the purposes of the Land Use and Development Ordinances of the Township of Scotch Plains and the Municipal Land Use Law (N.J.S.A. 40:55D-1 et seq.) to permit activities for a limited period of time, under very specific conditions, which activities may be prohibited by other provisions of the aforesaid ordinance, if such uses are of such a nature and are so located that at the time of petition they would:

(i) not exert a substantially detrimental effect upon the uses of land and activities normally permitted in the district in which the activity is proposed;

(ii) contribute materially to the good and welfare of the Township or its residents;

(iii) be temporary in nature and not substantially undermine the Township Master Plan and/or Land Use and Development Ordinances; and

(iv) not substantially intrude into the Board of Planning Board or Board of Adjustment control.

2. In the event that Township Council finds the above to exist, the Township Council of the Township of Scotch Plains may, in its sole discretion, grant a special use permit for such activity, and no other application or action shall be required of the petitioner in receipt of such special use permit. The Township Council may refer such special use permit request to any agency, department, or board prior to its decision for comment, but the Township Council shall not be bound by the same. The Township Council shall limit the time period for which the special use permit shall be valid (not to exceed one year unless extended by the Township Council) and shall impose any conditions upon the special use permit which it deems appropriate.

3. If required by the Township Council, the applicant for a special use permit shall give notice of the application to the owners of all real property, as shown on the current tax duplicate, within two hundred (200) feet in all directions of the property which is the subject of the application. The notice shall contain a designation of the property which is the subject of the application by lot and block and street address and shall contain a description of what use the applicant is requesting and also at what meeting the application will be heard (address, date, and time of meeting) and that the recipient of the notice shall have the right to be heard relative to the application. Notices shall be given by (i) serving a copy thereof on the said duplicate to his agent in charge of the property, or (ii) mailing a copy thereof by certified mail (return receipt requested) to the property owner at the address as shown on the said tax duplicate. The applicant shall also cause a copy of the aforesaid notice to be published once at least five (5) business days before the Township Council meeting at which the application will be heard.

4. The applicant for a special use permit shall pay to the Township, at the time the application is filed, a One Hundred Dollar ($100.00) fee to cover administrative expenses, the same being non-refundable.

BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED that this Ordinance shall take effect twenty (20) days after the publication or otherwise provided by law.

Jay Harris Attends Course For Gifted

Jay Harris of Fanwood has been attending classes on the Kean College campus in Union since 1990, but doesn't expect to receive a college degree until around 2004.

Jay doesn't attend the college itself, but is one of the gifted elementary and middle school students enrolled in the enrichment program of Expanded Dimensions in Gifted Education, which uses the college's facilities for its Saturday morning classes.

The program now in its 18th year, offers a wide array of courses for preschoolers through those in eighth grade. Each class is an independent course module, so students can participate in a few or as many sessions as they wish.

Courses offered now through Saturday, November 20, include chemistry, enriched mathematics, poetry, storytelling, and Lego machines, which uses the popular construction kit's educational series to teach principles of physics.

Devil Girls' Netters Close Year With Win

By KELLY FEENEY
Specialty Writer for The Westfield Leader

The Girls' Tennis Team closed out a smashing season last Wednesday with a 4-1 win over Union. The win lifted the team's season record to 18-2.

Seniors took the stage, playing most positions in their last match of their high school career.

Gloria Ko, a former singles player and doubles player this year, played her usual tough game but fell short to phenom Tammi Zawacki 2-6, 4-6.

Liz Ryu, playing at her season spot of second singles, ended her season in smashing style, with a 6-0, 6-1 win. Lauren Kazanoff pulled a 6-1, 6-7, 7-6 winner at third singles.

The dynamic duo of Sarah Tirone and Jessica St. Clair had no trouble at first doubles. They crushed Union 6-0, 6-1.

At second doubles, Lindsay Napor and Ellen Rudofsky had the upper hand, and posted a 6-2, 6-4 win.

The win proved the Devils' dominance in the conference. Overall, the team captured the Watchung conference title, second place in the Union County Tournament and second place in the Group No. 4 Section No. 2 state finals this season.

"I think we had a good season. We went farther this year in the states, and the matches we lost were extremely close," commented Head Coach Lance Wildstein.

Raider Netters De-Claw Cranford's Cougars

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School Raiders Girls' Tennis Team continued its winning ways by defeating Cranford last Wednesday 4-1.

In singles, the Raiders' Boitumelo Notoane defeated Rachel Severs 6-2, 6-2; Courtney Silvern of Cranford played to a 4-6, 4-2 draw with Diane Kapner due to darkness, and Lauren Everitt of Scotch Plains topped Kelly Harnett 6-2, 7-6 (7-4).

In doubles play, Laurie Shekell and Amy Oriscello of Cranford drew 4-6, 3-2 with Regine Spector and Eileen Hannigan due to darkness, while Kayle Becker and Alex Foster of Scotch Plains topped Bonnie Gittlin and Alexis Welc 6-2, 6-1.

SOCCER HIGHLIGHTS

Scotch Plains-Fanwood Plans Soccer Signups

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Soccer Association House League Vice President Herman Jamnik has announced a final registration for the spring 1994 season. All registrants should report to the Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School Multipurpose Room from 7 to 9 p.m. on Wednesday, November 17. Applications will be accepted for boys and girls in the third through eighth grades.

INTRICATE DIVISION
The association's Division No. 4 Hoishoots defeated the New Providence Shooters 4-1 in very muddy conditions. The locals played most of the match in front of the Shooter goal and relied on superior control and outstanding passing. Scoring came from Kellie LaForge, with two goals, Kerri Quinn and Megan Reddington to go with tremendous midfield play by Jillian Koscielo, Jamie Benteas and Stephanie Heath. Lindsay Pennella, Laura Klastava and Amanda Wells were great on defense.

The Division No. 5 Spirit upped its record to 4-2-1 with a 5-0 whitewash of Flemington. Offense was set up by fine midfield play by Andrew Elko, Donald Sidon and David Baumwolf. Goals were supplied by Michael Kobiska, Brian Larkin, Michael Zotti, Michael McLaughlin and J. T. DeMauro. Keeper Howard Smith led the defense with outstanding support by Matt Metzger, Brian Schiller, Matt Vanderheyden and Matt Schaible.

The Breakaway played to a tough 2-2 draw with Montclair in many conditions. Renee Zidonik had two goals with one assist to Jenny Doyle. Strong defense came from sweeper Kristin Mendes and stopper Janet Chisholm.

Zidonik and Chisholm were at it again with both goals in the 4-2 loss to Cranford.

INTER-COUNTY LEAGUE
The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Raiders locked up first place in the National Division of the Inter-County League with two more wins. The weekend started with a 5-0 shutout of the Iselin Broncos with goals by Michael Simberg, with two, Neil Stender, Michael Holzbach and Brian Bianco. Eddie Cooney and Jason White dominated the midfield. Next the Raiders edged the Clark Sharks 1-0 as Ryan Kerian netted the only goal of the match from the penalty spot late in the first half. The outstanding defensive effort was keyed by Nick Cveticovich, Tony Zaridecki, Daniel Goscicicki, Ryan Bennett and Chris Hughes.

PROUD MOMENT... Rain didn't dampen the spirits of participants in the Gary Kehler Stadium dedication, held at halftime during the Westfield-Summit football game on October 30. Kehler, who retired in August, was recognized for the outstanding record he achieved as Football Coach and for his contributions as Westfield Coach, Soccer Coach and Athletic Director in Westfield. At the ceremony, shown, left to right, are Board of Education President, Mrs. Susan H. Pepper; Mayor Garland C. "Bud" Boonhe, Jr.; School Superintendent, Dr. Mark C. Smith; Fund-Raising Co-Chairman Lee Hale, Kehler and Fund-Raising Co-Chairman Roger Love.

Candle Making Feature At Miller-Cory House

The Miller-Cory House Museum at 614 Mountain Avenue will feature candle making on Sunday, November 14, from 2 to 5 p.m.

Candles are a source of light and have been used since ancient times. Although candles were replaced by kerosene lamps and later by the incandescent electric lamp, candles still remain a popular source of decoration.

During Colonial times the greatest source of light in the home was the hearth. Candles, however, were a necessity since they provided light throughout the home. Since the process of candle making is very time consuming, people living in Colonial times were very protective of their candles. Mrs. Eileen O'Shea will conduct a step-by-step demonstration on how to make candles using the hand-dipping method.

Members of the cooking committee will offer visitors a chance to see colonial open-hearth cooking. Tours of the pre-revolutionary home will also be conducted throughout the afternoon by authentically costumed volunteers.

Visitors are welcome to stop by the museum gift shop as well as tour the grounds and gardens.

For information about the museum and its programs, please call 232-1776.

Veterans Post To Receive Chart

Leonard J. Sanders Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 11467 will receive its state charter on Thursday, November 18, at the Westfield Community Center at 558 West Broad Street, Westfield.

The ceremony will commence at 8 p.m.

All qualified veterans wishing to attend may get more information by telephoning Commander Owen McWilliams at 233-2608 or Senior Vice Commander Larry Smith at 232-0571.

Refreshments will be served.

Every man feels instinctively that all the beautiful sentiments in the world weigh less than a lovely single action.

OPEN HEARTH...Visitors can see foods being prepared over the open hearth on Sunday, November 14, at the Miller-Cory Museum.

The first modern battleship was the Dreadnought, built for the British Navy in 1906.

TOUGH FIGHT... Westfield Girls' Soccer Team forward Suzy Folger, No. 2, was tightly marked throughout Sunday's Union County Championship game against Union Catholic, which the Vikings won 3-2.

NOT A SCORE... Westfield goalkeeper Mike Rosner watches a Randolph shot drift wide in the overtime shootout of Thursday's North Jersey Section No. 2, Group No. 4 Tournament match. The Blue Devils won their initial outing in this year's tournament 2-1.

Blue Devils Upset Raiders, Take Crown

Joy, a midfielder, has played well in jousting the Raiders' offense. He was sorely missed in the second half.
 On Monday, the squad traveled to Union to take on the Farmers. In the earlygoing Scotch Plains-Fanwood played rather shaky, perhaps because of their shocking defeat suffered on Saturday.

Some of the players weren't hustling enough and scoring opportunities were not being created. Suddenly, with about eight minutes into the game, junior Mike Horev received a crossing pass which he headed in to give the Raiders a 1-0 lead. The Farmers would be in for a long game.

Still in the opening half of play, Horev was on the giving side of things as he fed the ball to sophomore Jason Brelinsky, who then beat an opposing player to a spot outside the box.

He shot a waist-high ball into the net past the Union goalkeeper to extend the lead to 2-0. Senior Dave Roskin closed out the first half scoring with a goal of his own as the Raiders went into the halftime with a 3-0 advantage.

Early in the second half, senior midfielder Tom Solas fed the ball left to senior Steve Ferrara. Ferrara made a perfect cross to Horev, who was positioned at the far post. Horev's header was impossible for the goalie to even have a chance at stopping.

Senior Jamie Kelleher, who was making his return from being sidelined with mononucleosis for several games, almost scored on a shot from the penalty line. Junior Sean Dambaugh added a goal and Scotch Plains-Fanwood was through pummeling Union, shutting their opponents out 5-0.

In just three years, the current seniors on the Westfield Boys' Soccer Team managed to win just about everything. They captured a state championship, several conference championships, and defeated all of their opponents at least once, except Scotch Plains.

That was until Sunday night when the second-seeded Blue Devils beat the arch-rivals, the Raiders, in the Union County championship in Elizabeth.

After three ties and several heart-breaking losses in recent seasons, the Blue Devils finally beat their nemesis, 3-1.

Scotch Plains controlled the ball early. However, Westfield scored first on a goal by halfback Steve Flynn.

Flynn sent a low shot past Scotch Plains goalie Vecchione at 13 minutes and 33 seconds.

Scotch Plains got several runs into the Westfield box but goalie Rosner made three key saves to maintain the one-goal lead.

The Raiders tied the score a minute before halftime on a well-placed penalty kick by senior Ruano. Ruano was awarded the shot when Kane was taken down in the box.

Westfield dominated play in the second half. They confused the Raider defense by shuffling their lineup, moving Keith Zadorian to the midfield and Corcoran to the front line.

With 20 minutes and 57 seconds left to play, Vecchione bobbed a shot by Zadorian and Pipher knocked in the rebound for a score. The goal put Westfield ahead for good. Corcoran added an insurance goal late in the game.

enough score to qualify for a wild card berth.

In total, 10 teams compete in the state tournament. Westfield missed the tenth position by a mere tenth of a point.

On Westfield's failure to reach the state tournament, Kovac felt, "It would have been really tough for us to duplicate last year's finish, second in the state. We knew the odds were against us from the beginning. Hopefully Jill (Smith) will represent the team well in the tournament."

Wilson Students Celebrate Heritage

In recognition of each child's ancestry, the main hallway of Wilson School in Westfield has been decorated with heritage dolls and flags as part of the school-wide multi-cultural project.

Mrs. Edith Cecchini, Wilson's art teacher, supplied students with pictures of authentic costumes from every culture. Students then personalized cut-out dolls to represent their own heritages. The display will be up through the end of this month.

Coles Girl Scouts Go to Sandy Hook

Junior Girl Scout Troop No. 857 from Coles School in Scotch Plains, enjoyed a day at the beach at Sandy Hook on October 7. They hiked the Holly Trail, collected shells and picnicked in the sand.

Among those attending were Alex Cirraco, Megan Grubel, Nicky Mendez, Allison Hessemer, Laura O'Neil, Anna Paes, Gina Cangialosi, Jennifer Alonzo, Yench Jones and Sierra Mendez.

Chamber Seeks Donations For Holiday Lights Fund

As the 1993 Holiday season approaches, the Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce is appealing to members, local businesses, landlords, organizations and individuals for financial support of the Holiday Lights Project.

Contributions are needed to fund the annual display of illuminated decorations that brighten the central business district and welcome visitors and shoppers to Westfield during December.

"The generosity of Holiday Lights Fund donors last year will allow modest expansion of the lighted area, primarily filling in gaps on several streets," William Moore of Classic Studio, the Chairman of the project, said. "In addition to our appeal to local businesses and organizations, we encourage the heart-warming practice of those who make contributions in memory of loved ones."

Before the decorations go up around Thanksgiving, the tree-shaped displays are removed from storage, all bulbs are checked and replaced as necessary and branches are repaired.

The Holiday Lights project will install 115 displays this year, plus four new ones to be installed on South Avenue West and one on North Avenue at Clark Street.

New electrical installations are made by Public Service on their utility poles. Arranging 120 displays carefully takes about a week.

For many years, the Chamber has taken responsibility for administering the traditional holiday decorations, which benefit the whole community. The Chamber pays for materials, labor and utility expenses through the Holiday Lights Fund.

The project is funded solely by contributions.

Checks, in any amount, payable to "Holiday Lights Fund," may be mailed to the Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 81, Westfield, 07091.

All contributors will be publicly thanked.

Westfield Chamber Presents Train Rides With Santa

The Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce will cooperate with the Jersey Central Railway Historical Society in sponsoring the annual Santa Claus Train Rides on Saturday, December 4. Trains will leave Westfield at 9:45 a.m., 11:45 a.m. and 2:45 p.m. for round trips between Westfield and High Bridge.

Tickets, costing $9 for adults and $6 for children under 12 years old, are now available. They may be purchased at Brunner Opticians at 100 East Broad Street in Westfield or Harrison's Card & Gift Shop on North Avenue in Cranford. They may also be purchased by mail before November 20 by sending a check, payable to Jersey Central Railway Historical Society, to Jersey Central, P.O. Box 110, Martinsville, 08836, enclosing self-addressed, stamped envelope for return of the tickets. Please state first, second, and third preferences for trip times at the time of ordering.

Because of the popularity of this event last year, three trips are being offered instead of two. Trains depart from the Westfield Train Station at South Avenue, where there is plenty of free parking in the South Avenue commuter lot. Westfield Area Girl Scouts will distribute candy canes at the station.

The Chamber will provide coloring books for young passengers. Santa will give out candy canes as he visits with children on the train. Jersey Central will give away three train sets to lucky ticket holders on each trip.

Further information, please call 755-7456.

Mrs. Cuccaro Attends Summit On Real Estate Innovations

Mrs. Marge Cuccaro of The Prudential Alan Johnston, Inc. met in Boston recently along with nearly 500 of the top real estate sales associates in the country for the "Summit Conference," a three-day gathering in which the state of the industry and some of the newest technological and marketing innovations in real estate were discussed.

Marge Cuccaro, an ember of the President's Circle, which recognizes the top 3 per cent of the agents in the Prudential Real Estate network, entered the real estate field in 1984, since that time, Mrs. Cuccaro has earned The New Jersey State Million Dollar Bronze Award for 1985 through 1991, The New Jersey Silver Award for 1992, The Prudential Sales Leader of the Year Award for 1991 and has been a member of the President's Circle for the past two years.

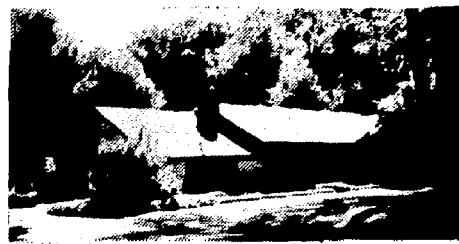

Mrs. Cuccaro said "the three day gathering gave us all a chance to not only examine some of the newest innovations in the industry, but it also enabled us to discuss our markets and exchange ideas that would benefit buyers and sellers."

Marge Ellum Cuccaro, originally from Cranford and a resident of Scotch Plains, joined The Prudential Alan Johnston in 1990. The Pruden-

Peter Bridges New Organist At Scotch Plains Baptist

Peter Bridges

Peter Bridges of Westfield is the new Organist and Choir Director for the Scotch Plains Baptist Church, announced the Reverend Dr. James A. Brix, Pastor.

Founded in 1747, the church is the oldest congregation in the township. James Manning, the founder of Brown University, was a member, and the old burial ground contains the graves of many revolutionary War veterans.

Mr. Bridges is a long-term Westfield resident who has taught music at Roosevelt Middle School since 1980. He is listed in Who's Who in Education and received the Governor's Teacher Recognition Award in 1991.

A graduate of Ithaca College in New York, Mr. Bridges has done post-graduate work in Sergeantsville and Warren as well as in Bronxville, New York. While a student at Ithaca College, he served as Organist and a Choir Director for the college chapel.

Theatrical music is a special area of interest as well. Mr. Bridges has directed music for over 65 productions since 1980, for such groups as the Cranford Dramatic Club, the Westfield Community Players, the Scotch Plains Players, Seton Hall University, and the Union County Music Theater.

Mr. Bridges traveled overseas in 1982 and 1988 singing and accompanying for Westfield First United Methodist Church's choir tour.

At the church, Mr. Bridges will play the pipe organ, direct the choirs and provide musical leadership for various worship settings.

The Pastor of the church invites the public to attend services any Sunday at 11 a.m. For more information, please call 322-5487.

El Avram Revue Sets Appearance in Township

World-class entertainment will come to Scotch Plains this Chanukah when Avram Grobard returns to Temple Israel with the El Avram Revue.

The internationally-known entertainer and his troupe, featuring singer Miss Angela Oren, will perform at the temple on Saturday evening, December 11.

Mr. Grobard is the former host of the El Avram nightclub cafe in Greenwich Village, a recording artist, a performer at places such as Carnegie Hall and Tel Aviv's top nightclubs and a television and radio personality.

Mr. Grobard was born in Kfar Saba on the outskirts of Tel Aviv. He grew up in Israel and served in the Israeli Army as a parachutist. Now a United States citizen, he often returns to Israel to learn new songs, visit relatives and to entertain the troops.

The evening's featured vocalist, Miss Oren, born in Bucharest, has earned an international reputation as one of the finest interpreters of Israeli folk music. She has appeared on television and radio, in Israeli night clubs, at Carnegie Hall and Town Hall in New York City and in concert tours throughout Europe.

In addition to the El Avram Revue, the evening will feature Middle Eastern horns d'oeuvres and a dinner buffet beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The cost is $28 per person. All seating is reserved and payment must accompany reservations.

Those wishing to attend may mail in their reservation and check to Temple Israel, El Avram Revue, 1920 Cliffwood Street, Scotch Plains, 07076 or telephone the temple office for more information at 889-1830.

This event is being sponsored by Temple Israel of Scotch Plains and Fanwood in association with the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Division of Jewish Federation of Central New Jersey.

Japan's Cultural Influence On America to Be Explored

The Presbyterian Church of Westfield will hold its annual mission luncheon on Thursday, November 18, in the Assembly Hall at the church.

Phillip Dennis Cate, Director of the Jane Voorhees Zimmerli Art Museum of Rutgers University, will present a lecture on "East Meets West: Japanese Influence on American Culture."

Professor Cate established the International Center for Japonisme at the Zimmerli Art Museum in 1986. At the Zimmerli, the International Center for Japonisme is known worldwide for its programs dedicated to the study of reciprocal artistic and cultural influences between Japan and the Western world.
A core collection of turn-of-the-century French and American art serves as resource for the study of the Japanese influence.

Professor Cate, whose memberships include the Association of Art Museum Directors and the Grolier Club, travels and lectures at art galleries and museums worldwide, participates in major exhibitions, and is an essayist and contributor to many catalogues and art publications.
At the International Symposium on Japonisme at the Setagaya Museum in Tokyo in 1991, he served as a panelist on "America's Introduction to Japan and Its Arts, 1854-1876."
Professor Cate will present his program following the luncheon and annual meeting beginning at 12:30 p.m.
Reservations can be made by calling hospitality chairman, Mrs. Laurie Clancy, at 232-4819, or Mrs. Marge Ziemianek at 232-6147.

Prayer to Be Delivered At Memorial Dedication

Editor's Note: The following prayer will be delivered today, Veteran's Day, at the dedication of the Vietnam Women's Memorial in Washington, D.C. by Peter Hogaboom of Westfield, the Chaplain of the New Jersey State Council of the Vietnam Veterans of America.

Crop Walk Raises Funds for Needy

The annual Crop Walk for Hunger was held on October 17, and 80 residents from Fanwood and Scotch Plains volunteered to walk the 6.2 miles. The walkers sought donations from friends and family, and the funds are being sent to the World Church Service to combat hunger and to help educate the needy to become self-reliant in impoverished areas of the world.
The committee, headed by the Reverend Cynthia Wickwire of the Fanwood Presbyterian Church, wish to publicly thank all the individuals responsible for making the event a financial and successful venture.

Dear Lord,
We gather today for the dedication of The Vietnam Women's Memorial. This memorial along with "The Three Soldiers" and "The Wall" complete a "Vietnam Trinity of Healing" for all American who survived the trauma of Vietnam.
We stand near the healing well, the monument which records the names of our brothers and sisters who will never grow old.
We ask you to help us settle the war which still rages in many of us. Help us to receive your healing grace to put our war and grief behind us.
Help us to live for today and tomorrow, so we can be free of yesterday.
Amen

Help us to live for today and tomorrow, so we can be free of yesterday.
Amen

COMMODITIES TO BE DISTRIBUTED

GOVERNOR'S CONFERENCE... Westfield Rotary Club President, Mrs. Gail Cassidy, welcomed Rotary International No. 7510 District Governor for 1993-1994, Richard L. Johnson to last week's Rotary meeting. Mr. Johnson will visit all of the 71 clubs in this section of New Jersey during his year in office. During his talk to members he stressed his belief in the importance of vocational service, one of Rotary's four avenues of service, and was pleased to know the Westfield club considers this important also, as shown by the actions in organizing Youth in Business Days and Ethical Decision-Making in the Workplace seminars, both for the benefit of high school students. Mr. Johnson asked Rotarians "to take the road less traveled" in their search for community vocational projects, since "there are gems and precious stones to be found" in being of service to the community at large.

'Jews in Cults' Topic of Hadassah
A discussion on "Jews in Cults" will be held at the Monday, November 15, meeting of the Westfield Chapter of Hadassah at 12:30 p.m. at Temple Emanu-El at 756 East Broad Street, Westfield.
Rabbi Robert Kaplan of the Jewish Community Relations Council of New York will speak about why Jewish children are vulnerable, what children find in cults that Jewish life does not provide and if Jews particularly are vulnerable.

Jodi Heimlich Cited at College
Jodi Heimlich of Westfield is the Chairman of the comedy sub-group of the student-run Lafayette Activities Forum at Lafayette College in Easton, Pennsylvania, which won a regional award this year at the annual meeting of the National Association of Campus Activities.
The forum organizes and administers over 20 programs a month in entertainment, films, issues forums and other special events for the Lafayette College community.

Meridian Nursing Center Builds New Care Unit

In line with current reassessments of American medical care, Meridian Nursing Center of Westfield, 1515 Lamberts Mill Road, will add a new care center to fill a gap between hospital care and home care.

The new Center for Subacute Care will meet the needs of individuals with complex medical problems who cannot be cared for at home, yet whose stable condition does not require all the resources of an acute hospital.

Patients in the 22-bed unit will receive round-the-clock, quality care by a multi-disciplinary team, including registered nurses, physicians, dietitians, therapeutic, recreation, physical, occupational, speech and respiratory therapists.

The unit will have its own entrance, dining and recreational room. Patients will be adults of all ages, who will normally stay from several days to several months for short-term, medically complex care.

"Our new unit will bridge the gap for those patients who no longer need the acute care of the hospital, yet require more than can be provided at home," said Miss Linda Stevens, Administrator. "We will provide care at significantly lower cost than a hospital, perhaps half the cost. Adults with complex medical and rehabilitative needs, especially those who have a high risk of complications, can receive quality care in a more residential setting."

Women Voters Discuss Free Trade Accord

The Westfield Area League of Women Voters will have meetings on the North American Free Trade Agreement on Tuesday, November 16, at 12:45 p.m. at 408 East Dudley Avenue, Westfield, and on Wednesday, November 17, at 7:45 p.m. at 1800 Lake Avenue, Scotch Plains.

Members will present the results of their study of this subject and discuss the possible effects on the citizens of New Jersey. Members of the public may attend.

Plains-Fanwood High Distributive Clubs To Host Thanksgiving Dinner for Homeless

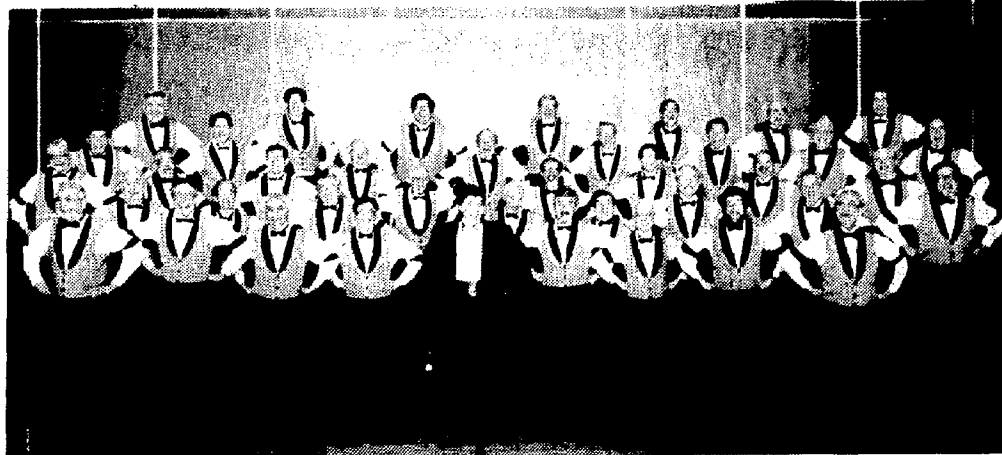

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School Distributive Education Clubs of America chapter will sponsor its third annual Thanksgiving Day Dinner for the homeless and needy families on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 25, at the Community Center, located on the corner of West Seventh Street and Central Avenue, Plainfield.

The dinner will include a home-cooked turkey with all the trimmings, and will be served between from noon to 3 p.m. The students, with the help of their parents, will be cooking the dinner.

All children attending the dinner also will receive a holiday gift from the students, who are planning the dinner with the Plainfield Welfare Department and the Interfaith Council of Union County.

The students can accommodate up to 200 at their dinner, so if any organization or agency has clients who would be interested, they should telephone the student group at 889-8600. Large-group transportation will be provided by the chapter.

The Rahway Valley Jerseyaires

Barbershop Singers Set Annual Show December 4-5

"Mem'ries: A Musical Yard Sale, Barbershop Style" will be presented by the Rahway Valley Jerseyaires on Saturday, December 4, and Sunday, December 5, at Westfield Senior High School, Rahway Avenue and Dorian Road, Westfield.

The show is a Broadway-style musical comedy about an estranged husband doing his best to part with the many treasures that he and his wife had accumulated over the years. His conflicts are resolved in a very non-typical way for these modern times.

In addition to the 55-man Jerseyaires chorus and its chorus quartets, "Mem'ries" will feature the well-known, Manhattan-based comedy quartet, "Variety Pak." Show times are 8 p.m. on Saturday and 2:30 p.m. Sunday. Tickets are $10 for either performance with a special $2.50 youth ticket for those aged 12 and under for the Sunday matinee only. Tickets can be obtained by contacting Kenneth Friedlander at 272-1503 or any Jerseyaires member.

A portion of the proceeds for the show will be donated to "HeartString," formerly the Institute of Logopedics, in Wichita, Kansas. "HeartString" treats children with speech, hearing and learning disabilities and has received over $10 million from the worldwide Barbershop chapters.

This news is old enough, yet it is every day's news.

WHAT DO THESE PRESIDENTS AGREE ON? NAFTA.

A trade agreement that:

- Creates as many as 200,000 new American jobs.
- Saves 700,000 existing American jobs that are dependent on exports to Mexico.
- Lowers barriers to U.S. exports so we can sell more products to Mexico and Canada.
- Creates the most powerful trading bloc in the world — with the United States in the lead — to help us compete with the emerging blocs in Asia and Europe.
- Takes the first real step in stemming the tide of illegal immigration into the U.S. by stabilizing the Mexican economy.
- Is endorsed by twelve Nobel-prize winning economists.

It's your right

Under New Jersey's Open Public Records Act, you have a right to inspect most documents of local county, and state governments and their subdivisions.

The law says that except in certain circumstances any record that is required to be kept by government is a public record.

You have a right to copies of public records within a reasonable amount of time and for a reasonable fee. There are exceptions, of course; for example, to protect personal privacy and the integrity of a criminal investigation.

To illustrate, you have a right to see the resume of the superintendent of schools, but you do not have a right to the superintendent's medical records.

The purpose of the Open Public Records Act is to ensure that public business is conducted in public.

It's your right. Use it. Protect it.
