Your house shall not be an anchor but a mast.

You should not fold your wings that you may pass through doors, nor bend your heads that they strike not against a ceiling, nor fear to breathe lest walls shall crack and fall down.

And though of magnificence and splendour, your house shall not hold your secret nor shelter your longing.

For that which is boundless in you abides in the morning mist, and whose windows are the songs and the silences of night.

"ALMUSTAFA, THE CHOSEN AND THE BELOVED, who was a dawn unto his day, had waited twelve years in the city of Orphalese for his ship that was to return and bear him back to the isle of his birth.

"And in the twelfth year, on the day of lelool, the month of reaping, he climbed the hill outside the city walls and looked seaward; and he beheld his ship coming with the mist.

"Then the gates of his heart were flung open, and his joy flew far over the sea. And he closed his eyes and prayed in the silences of his soul.

"But as he descended the hill, a sadness came upon him, and
he thought in his heart:

"How shall I go in peace and without sorrow? Nay, not without a wound in the spirit shall I leave this city.

"Long were the days of pain I have spent within its walls, and long were the nights of aloneness; and who can depart from his pain and his aloneness without regret?

"Too many fragments of the spirit have I scattered in these streets, and too many are the children of my longing that walk among these hills, and I cannot withdraw from them without a burden and an ache.

"The sea that calls all things unto her calls me and I must embark.

"For to stay, though the hours burn in the night, is to freeze and crystallize and be bound in a mould.

"Fain would I take with me all that is here. But how shall I?

"A voice cannot carry the tongue and the lips that gave it wings. Alone must it seek the other.

"And alone and without his nest shall the eagle fly across the sun.

"It is not a garment I cast off this day, but a skin that I tear with my own hands. Nor is it a thought I leave behind me, but a heart made sweet with hunger and with thirst.

"Yet I cannot tarry longer."

—Kahlil Gibran
The Prophet

All quotes in book are from The Prophet

A C T I V I T I E S

"If you cannot work with love but only with distaste, it is better that you should leave your work and take alms of those who work with joy.

"For if you bake bread with indifference, you bake a bitter bread that feeds but half man's hunger.

"And if you grudge the crushing of the grapes, your grudge distills a poison in the wine.

"And if you sing though as angels, and love not the singing, you muffle man's ears to the voices of the day and the voices of the night."

"There are those who have the truth within them, but they tell it not in words."

Creates unique excitement . . . A team of nine energetic girls.

TENNIS

Singles and doubles — Love and sixty . . . Dashing white-clad figures race around the court . . . Serve, volley, lob . . . game, Set, MATCH.

TRACK AND FIELD

Beads of sweat on a warm spring day, appear on the muscular arms and legs of powerful young men . . . They forcefully hurl the javelin . . . They make the shot-put churn through the air . . . They skillfully throw the discus . . . Legs fly high, as broad jumpers, pole vaulters, sprinters, and hurdlers strive to exceed their past records.

of your knowledge.

"The teacher who walks in the shadow of the temple, among his followers, gives not
of his wisdom but rather of his faith and his lovingness.

"If he is indeed wise he does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom, but rather leads you to the threshold of your own mind.

"The astronomer may speak to you of his understanding of
space, but he cannot give you
his understanding.

"The musician may sing to you of his understanding of
space, but he cannot give you
his understanding.

"The musician may sing to you of the rhythm which is in all space, but he cannot give you the ear which arrests the rhythm nor the voice that echoes it.

"For the vision of one man lends not its wings to another man."

"Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.

"It was but yesterday we met in a dream.

"You have sung to me in my aloneness, and I of your longings have built a tower in the sky.

"But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over, and it is no longer dawn.

"The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day, and we must part.

"If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.

"And if our hands meet in another dream we shall build another tower in the sky."
