Do you know where you're going to? Do you like the things that life is showing you? Where are you going to, do you know? Do you get what you're hoping for? When you look behind you there's no open door. What are you hoping for, do you know?

The sharing of knowledge is a gift from one human being to another.

> The acceptance of that gift is an effort to formulate ideas and shape the mind, in the continuing process of learning and living.

-THE CONTINENTAL

STUDENT CONGRESS OFFICERS

Peter Guarino, president, Reva Cohen, vice-president, Robyn Baron, recording secretary, Edward Decter, corresponding secretary, Bonny Goldstein, treasurer, Miss Judith Risse, advisor.

The Student Congress and Senior Class officers worked especially hard to build enthusiasm and spirit. The Congress sponsored its annual magazine drive and then ran a very successful holiday toy drive for a nearby orphanage. The Senior Class officers began a new tradition when they held a Senior-Formal Dance. The officers led their class to the senior trip and breakfast while instilling a bicentennial feeling throughout Mountain.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

Kim Ragoni, president, Laurie Mantell, vice-president, Kim Campbell, secretary, Julie Bogwald, treasurer, Mr. Richard D'Aries, Miss Loretta Holmok, advisors.

The Junior and Sophomore class officers began administrations aimed at preparation for future years. The sophomores spent much time raising funds for later programs. The burden of the prom, however, rested on the shoulders of the junior officers who sponsored successful dances and fundraisers. The most important function of these students was to bring out a sense of pride among their classmates and a desire to aid in the programs at Mountain. They met the challenges head on and set the pace for an exciting year.

Backgammon swept through Mountain collecting many interested participants and observers. Along with the Chess Club, the Backgammon Club afforded students an opportunity for competition and informal instruction.

The Computer Club was one of the most popular groups at Mountain this year. Its expanding membership sponsored field trips, computer contests, and demonstrations in the hopes of creating a lasting enthusiasm for computers.

¿QUÉ PASA?

The Spanish Honor Society is dedicated to the promoting of interest in the Spanish language and the culture of the countries where the language is spoken. Honor students are invited to join upon the recommendation of their Spanish teachers.

The organization sponsored Mountain's first two carnivals to raise money for a school in Ecuador and a charity for Hispanics in Newark. It publishes a newspaper and sponsors a banquet yearly for inductees.

This year the society participated in the Bicentennial celebration by dedicating a day to our ethnic heritages, placing emphasis on the contributions of the Spanish and the French.

The Honorien Chapter of the National Honor Society continued to maintain its standards in the areas of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. The group added to the courtyard garden in the bicentennial style of 1976. NHS also contributed by purchasing a revolving paperback book rack for the library and carrying on its tutorial programs.

Host Corral will never be the same, but those who attended the class trip felt little sympathy for the innocent bystanders caught in Mountain's avalanche. The students wanted a good time and did all that was possible to fulfill their intentions. Various seniors took advantage of different facilities, but everyone enjoyed a terrific holiday.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

SENIOR CLASS BREAKFAST

Armed with smiles, unbrellas, and undampened spirits, the Class of '76 raided the Livingston Holiday Inn on Thanksgiving morning to enjoy Mountain's annual Senior Class Breakfast. While Seniors feasted on a delicious pre-game buffet, the room was filled with congenial conversation, friendly laughter, and the music of the player piano.

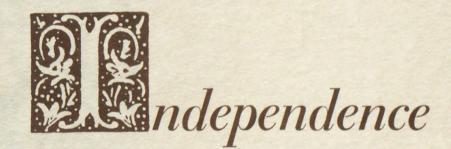

Many of us went and many of us wished we had gone. Three months of worrying, planning, and preparing, ended in one exciting evening. With anxious expectations, 208 couples entered the main ballroom of the Wayne Manor. Every detail of time and place was arranged, but not until the people came and put life into those plans was it truly a success. The Prom was more than a social event—it was visible proof of the spirit of '76.

Desirous of freedom and armed with an unequaled determination, our founding fathers obtained liberty for all ...

> Today, we strive for our individuality, another freedom to be secured by those of strong-will and determined mind.

Whether I'm right or whether I'm wrong, Whether I find a place in this world or never belong, I want to live, not merely survive, And I won't give up this dream of life that keeps me alive!

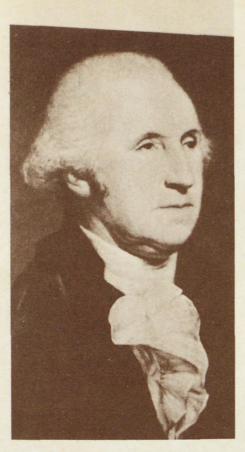

I've gotta be me! I've gotta be me! What else can I be but what I am? Independence . . . the unchaining of the soul . . . the struggle between want and necessity . . . the ability to stand up in support of one's ideals, beliefs, and desires.

Freedom . . . the essential piece in the puzzle of mankind . . . the single most important concept that man may ever comprehend . . . the right to survive as an individual.

Since the first stirrings of life occurred on the earth, all creatures have striven for the same ultimate goal — the opportunity to exist unobstructed by anyone or anything. Battles have been fought, lives taken, victories and defeats experienced, all in the name of liberty.

These battles continue even today. In the fast, complex society which encompasses our lives, freedom may be the only stabilizing force which remains. It is a state of mind which allows one to cope with the conflicts surrounding him and to enjoy life to its fullest.

The spirit of the soul knows no bounds. Armed with our freedom, we may enter the world ahead of us unthreatened and follow the dreams which lie in our hearts. That far away prize, a world of success, it's waiting for me if I heed the call.

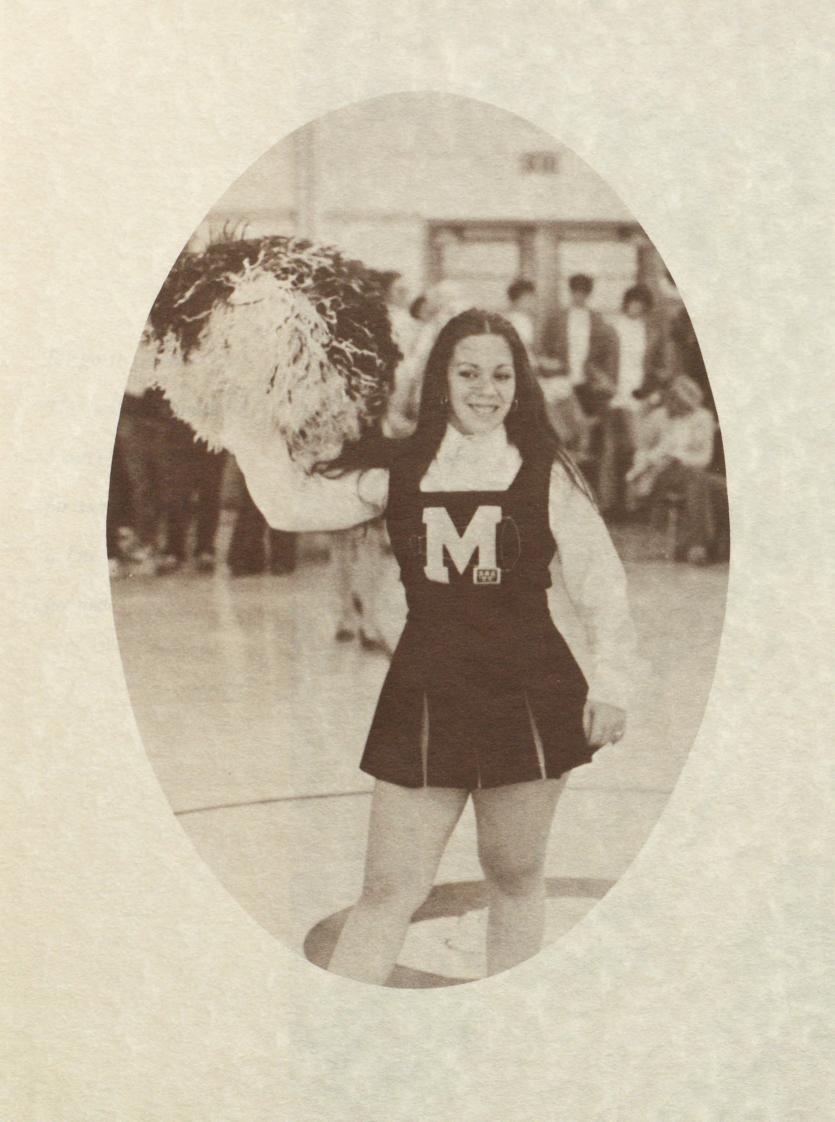

I won't settle down, or settle for less, as long as there's half a chance that I can have it all! I'll go it alone. That's how it must be. I can't be right for somebody else if I'm not right for me!

I've gotta be me! I've gotta be me! The dream that I see makes me what I am!

I've gotta be free! I've gotta be free! Daring to try to do it or die!

I've gotta be me!

EILEEN REILLY

JIM REILLY

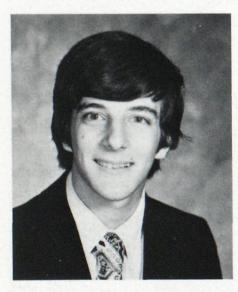

LYNDA REILLY When we put our faith and trust in Christ, we find life. Start living!

CAROL ROLLI I am not afraid of tomorrow, for I have seen yesterday, and I love today.

NANCY ANN RONALD Ideals are like stars; you will not succeed in touching them with your hands.

STEVEN ROSENBLOOM To be or not to be is in question. To be – that's my suggestion!

Journey to a spot - exciting, mystic, and exotic.

BERNADETTE ROSSETTI We've done so many foolish things; and yet the days have served us well.

JODY E. RUBIN Have come a long way in life, but still have my goal to reach.

PATTI RUBIN If we had the chance to do it all again, would we? Could we?

KAREN RUBIN Looking at the things that pass me by, wondering if where I've been is worth the things I've been through.

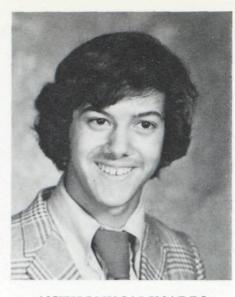

CATHY RUDNICK Preserve your memories, that's all that's left you.

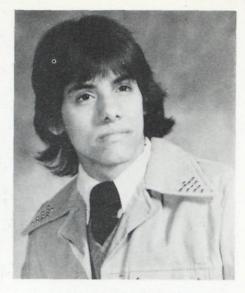

NANCY RUSIGNUOLO Here we are again at the start of the end . . . but there's always more.

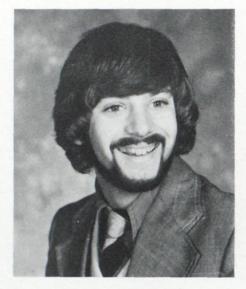

ANTHONY SALINARDI

TYRONE SANCHEZ

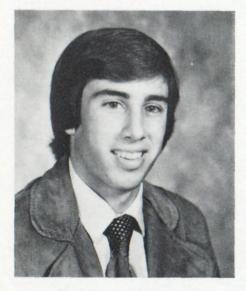

JUDY SAPOFF Learning follows various roads. We note the start but not the end.

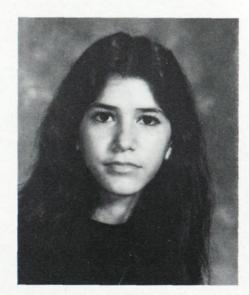

ALAN SARNER I never think of the future. It comes soon enough.

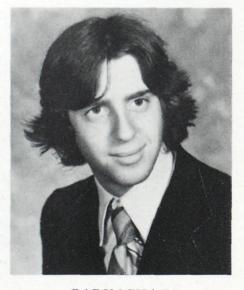

TERRI SARNI There's so much left to know, and I'm on the road to find out.

DAVID J. SCALERA

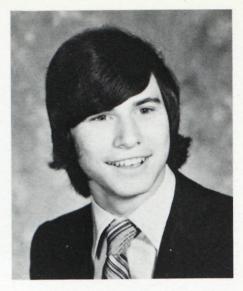

DONNA A. SCARDILLI Nothing is difficult for one who tries.

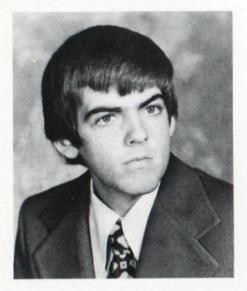

GARY SCHAIN

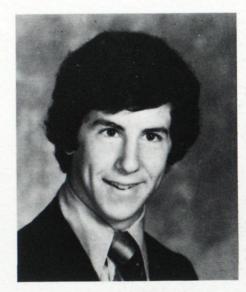

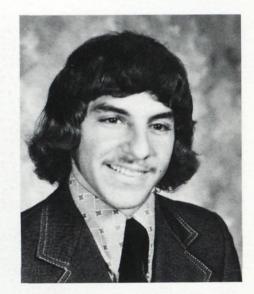

STEVEN SCHENKEL

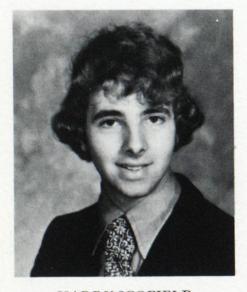

JAMES F. SCHERER Freedom and responsibility are like Siamese twins; they die if they are parted.

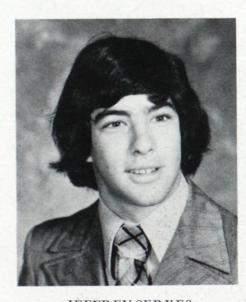

RUSSELL SCHUB Aim for the stars . . . there's one up there waiting just for you.

DAVE SCHUMAN C'mon you boychild; winner and loser. C'mon you miner for search and delusion. Shine!

HARRY SCOFIELD Mountain High: a memorable and rewarding experience.

JEFFREY SERKES If you can't be with the one you love, love the one you're with.

And in the sweetness of friendship, let there be laughter and sharing of pleasure.

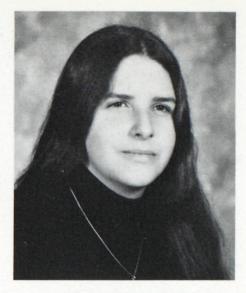

Kahlil Gibran

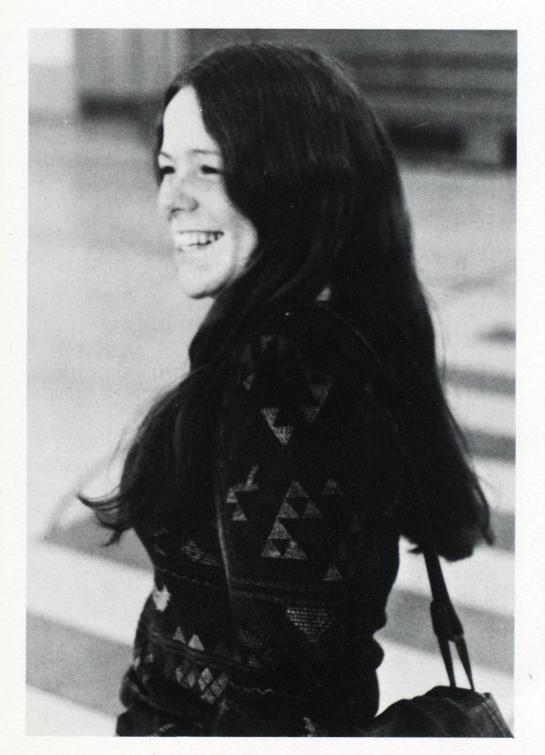

RICH SETTINERI The roots of education are bitter, but the fruit is sweet.

SUSAN B. SHAFARMAN If you smile at me, I will understand because everybody smiles in the same language.

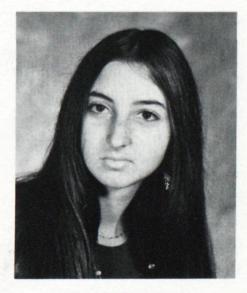

HOPE M. SHALLIS

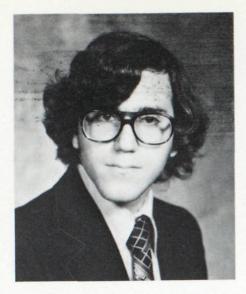

CARMEL W. SHARKEY So sad, so fresh, the days that are no more.

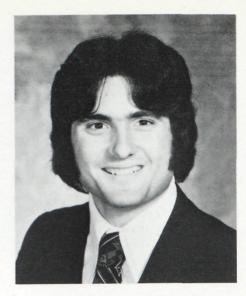

DEBBIE SHERMAN Everything has its beauty, but not everyone sees it.

JONATHAN SILVERMAN

SHELLI SILVERMAN

PETER SIMUNOVICH

LINDA SKARBNIK To dream of the person you'd like to be is to waste the person you are.

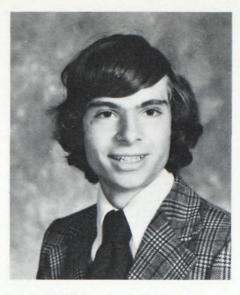

CAROL SMILLIE

KRISTINE SNYDER Friendship is just a small word; it's those certain people who make it big.

MICHAEL C. SOPKO

AMY SPECCHIO

Music is playing inside my head Over and over and over again My friend, there's no end to the music

Ah, summer is over But the music keeps playing And won't let the cold get me down

Pictures are forming inside my brain Soon with the colors they'll rain together and grow Then don't you know, don't you know there'll be music

Ah, it's not always easy But the music keeps playing And won't let the world get me down Music is playing inside my head

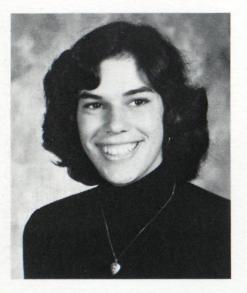

Carole King

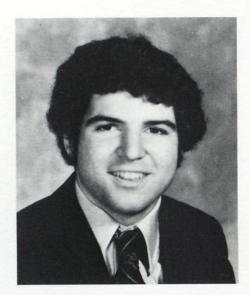

SUSAN SPECCHIO You never realize how much something means to you until it's lost forever.

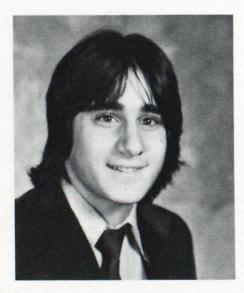

ELAINE PATRICIA SPINA It is comforting to know that whatever happens, my friends will always understand.

DONNA MARIE SPINELLI Shining hours, carefree days and happiness always; I may never pass this way again.

BEN L. SPINELLI The unfairness of the world is overwhelming, but we must persevere.

SCOTT STATHIS There's still a little magic in the air . . . I'll weave my spell.

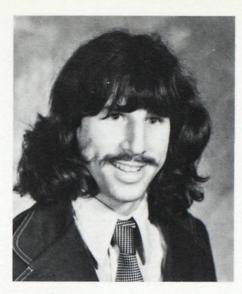

HEIDI STERN Hey tomorrow, where are you goin'; do you have some room for me?

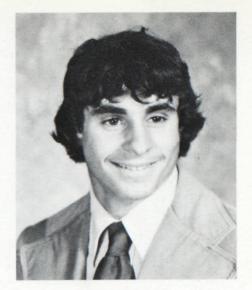

LISA STERN Soon, oh soon, the light, ours to shape, all time, ours the right.

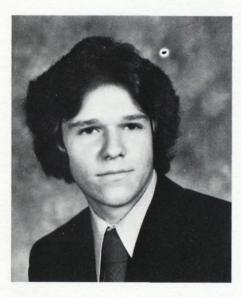

LIZ STOLLER And in the end remember it's with you. You have to live.

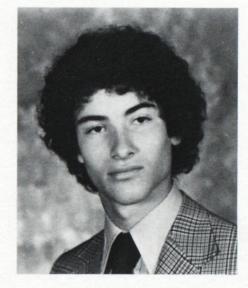

DAVID STRAUSS I don't believe in an afterlife, although I am bringing a change of underwear.

JAY STRAUSS Don't take life too seriously.

CHRISTOPHER STRONCZAK Faith is what makes you feel the comfort of the hearth while you're chopping the wood.

SIMON TAYLOR All things must pass.

ANDREA TERRY

MICHELE TESTA Feelings like I've never lost you and feelings like I'll never have you again.

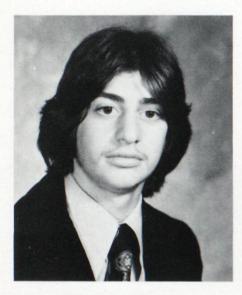

BARBARA TODISCO We have the power to make this the best generation ever - or the last.

The life of every man is a diary in which he means to write one story, and writes another; and his humblest hour is when he compares the volume as it is with what he hoped to make it.

Sir James Matthew Barrie

MICHAEL TOLKOWSKY It is not enough to have a good mind. The main thing is to use it well.

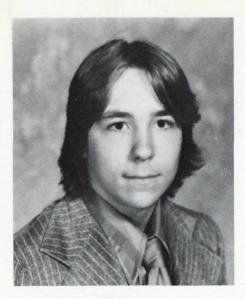

FRANK ANGELO TOMASIELLO

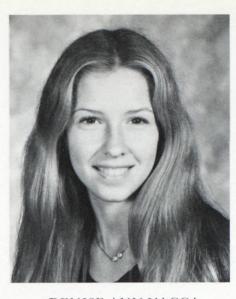

BRUCE TRINKER They are never alone that are accompanied by noble thoughts.

JAMES S. UNDERWOOD, JR.

DENISE ANN VACCA So quick bright things come to confusion.

PATTI VAN CAUWENBERGE And now we leave . . . each his own separate way. We accept what has passed and look to our future.

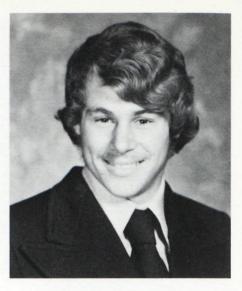

CHRISTINA VASILAS You can say I want to be free ... I can say someday I will be.

GERRY VITIELLO Speak not of other's until you have first taken a good look at yourself.

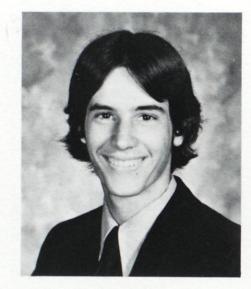

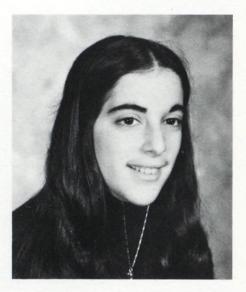

STEPHEN VITKOVSKY A cozy cabin nestled in the snowy wilderness; golden flames dancing in the hearth.

PATRICIA WAGNER I am not afraid of tomorrow; for I have seen yesterday, and I love today.

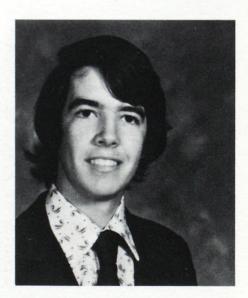

ROBERT WAGNER A new day will dawn for those who stand long; the forests will echo with laughter.

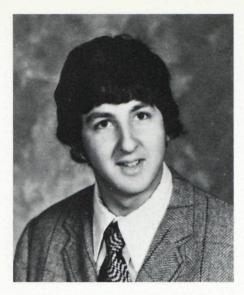

ELAYNE WALDSTEIN Walk in the sunshine; be all those things you're able to be.

RICHARD WEBER Any fool can tell the truth, but it requires a man of some sense to know how to lie well.

MICHAEL WEINBERG

PAMELA LYNN WESTON There is no wisdom that can take the place of humanity.

NANCY WETTSTEIN Love isn't love until you give it away.

ROBIN WHELAN We have power over ourselves to do and suffer. What, we know not 'till we try.

RENE WHITE

CAROL A. WILLIAMS

DARLENE ANN WILLIAMS For everything we take with us, we leave a little something behind.

LES WILLIAMS All I feel is all I've learned; all I know is all I think.

CAROL WILLIAMSON

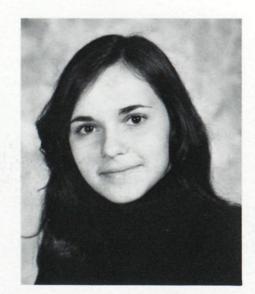

BRUCE J. WISHNIA

BARRY WRIGHT

LORETTA WUENN

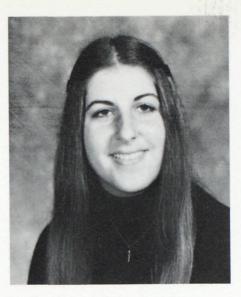

FRANCES ZACCARDI Where am I going, and what will I find?

LAURA ZENTE

PETER ZIERING Perseverance is the pathway to success.

KATHLEEN ZIRKEL Why take life seriously; you'll never get out of it alive.

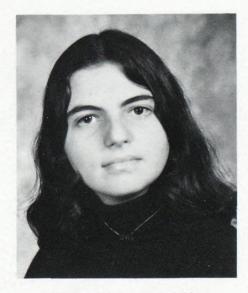

NATHAN ZISKIND

EDWARD DECTER Life is a bowl of cherries; not enough fruit and too many pits.

BARBARA SHULMAN See the other for what it is, not what it means to you.

FRED SOLOMON

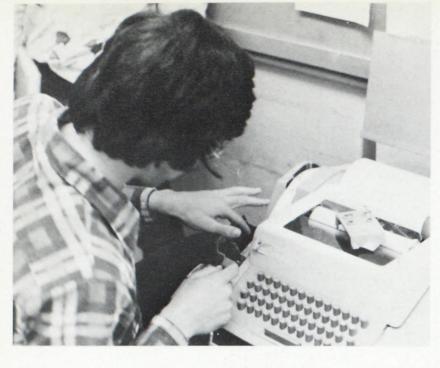

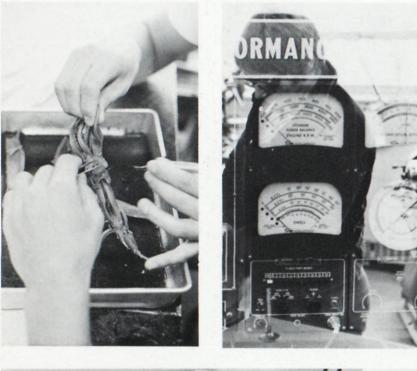

When it all comes true Just the way you'd planned, It's funny, but the bells don't ring, It's a quiet thing.

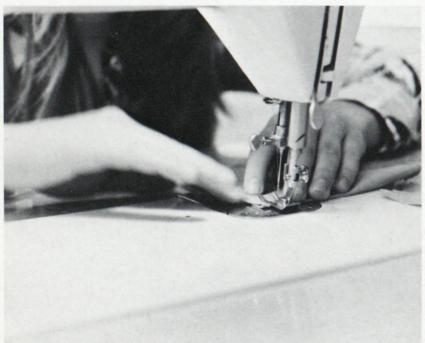

When you hold the world In your trembling hand, You'd think you'd hear a choir sing. It's a quiet thing.

There are no exploding fireworks. Where's the roaring of the crowds? Maybe it's the strange new atmosphere Way up here among the clouds.

But I don't hear the drums, And I don't hear the band, The sounds I'm told such moments bring. Happiness comes in on tiptoe. Well, what do you know— It's a quiet thing, a very quiet thing. Fred Ebb

Curiosity is one of the permanent and certain characteristics of a vigorous intellect. Every advance into knowledge opens new prospects and produces new incitements to further progress. Samuel Johnson

We cannot advance without new experiments in living, but no wise man tries every day what he has proved wrong the day before.

James Truslow Adams

It is the close observation of little things which is the secret of success in business, in art, in science, and in every pursuit in life. Human knowledge is but an accumulation of small facts, made by successive generations of men—the little bits of knowledge and experience carefully treasured up and growing at length into a mighty pyramid.

Samuel Smiles

A prayer to be said when the world has gotten you down and you feel rotten, and you're too doggone tired to pray, and you're in a big hurry and besides you're mad at everybody. Help.

Take it easy Don't let the sound of your own wheels drive you crazy. We may lose or we may win, But we will never be here again.

Eagles

many a sun set since i last saw you when we played in our tree hut and planned our lives, you, a teacher-to-be, me, a writer-to-be.

now, fifteen autumns later, we meet. you, smelling of lemon cosmetics, dressed in the latest fashion, me, with my faded jeans and turtleneck. you, with three little children that look just like you, me, with my three unpublished manuscripts. you, with your shiny dishwasher and wall to wall carpeting, me, with my paper plates ....

but you living your life through others and me living my own life with others. we parted with tears, each looking at the other with pity. knowing that we had very little left in common, we both wished that perhaps there were enough to keep our friendship alive, even if just to meet each other occasionally to see how another segment of the world lives. susan polis schutz

Now looking back at all we planned, we let so many dreams just slip through our hands. Why must we wait so long before we see how sad the answers to those questions can be?

Once we were standing still in time, chasing the fantasies that filled our minds.

And you knew how I loved you but my spirit was free, laughing at the questions that you once asked of me. Do you know where you're going to? Do you like the things that life is showing you? Where are you going to, do you know?
