TO EVERY THING, A SEASON

PREFACE

a time to enlighten—
curriculum and experience,
book and life
a synthesis

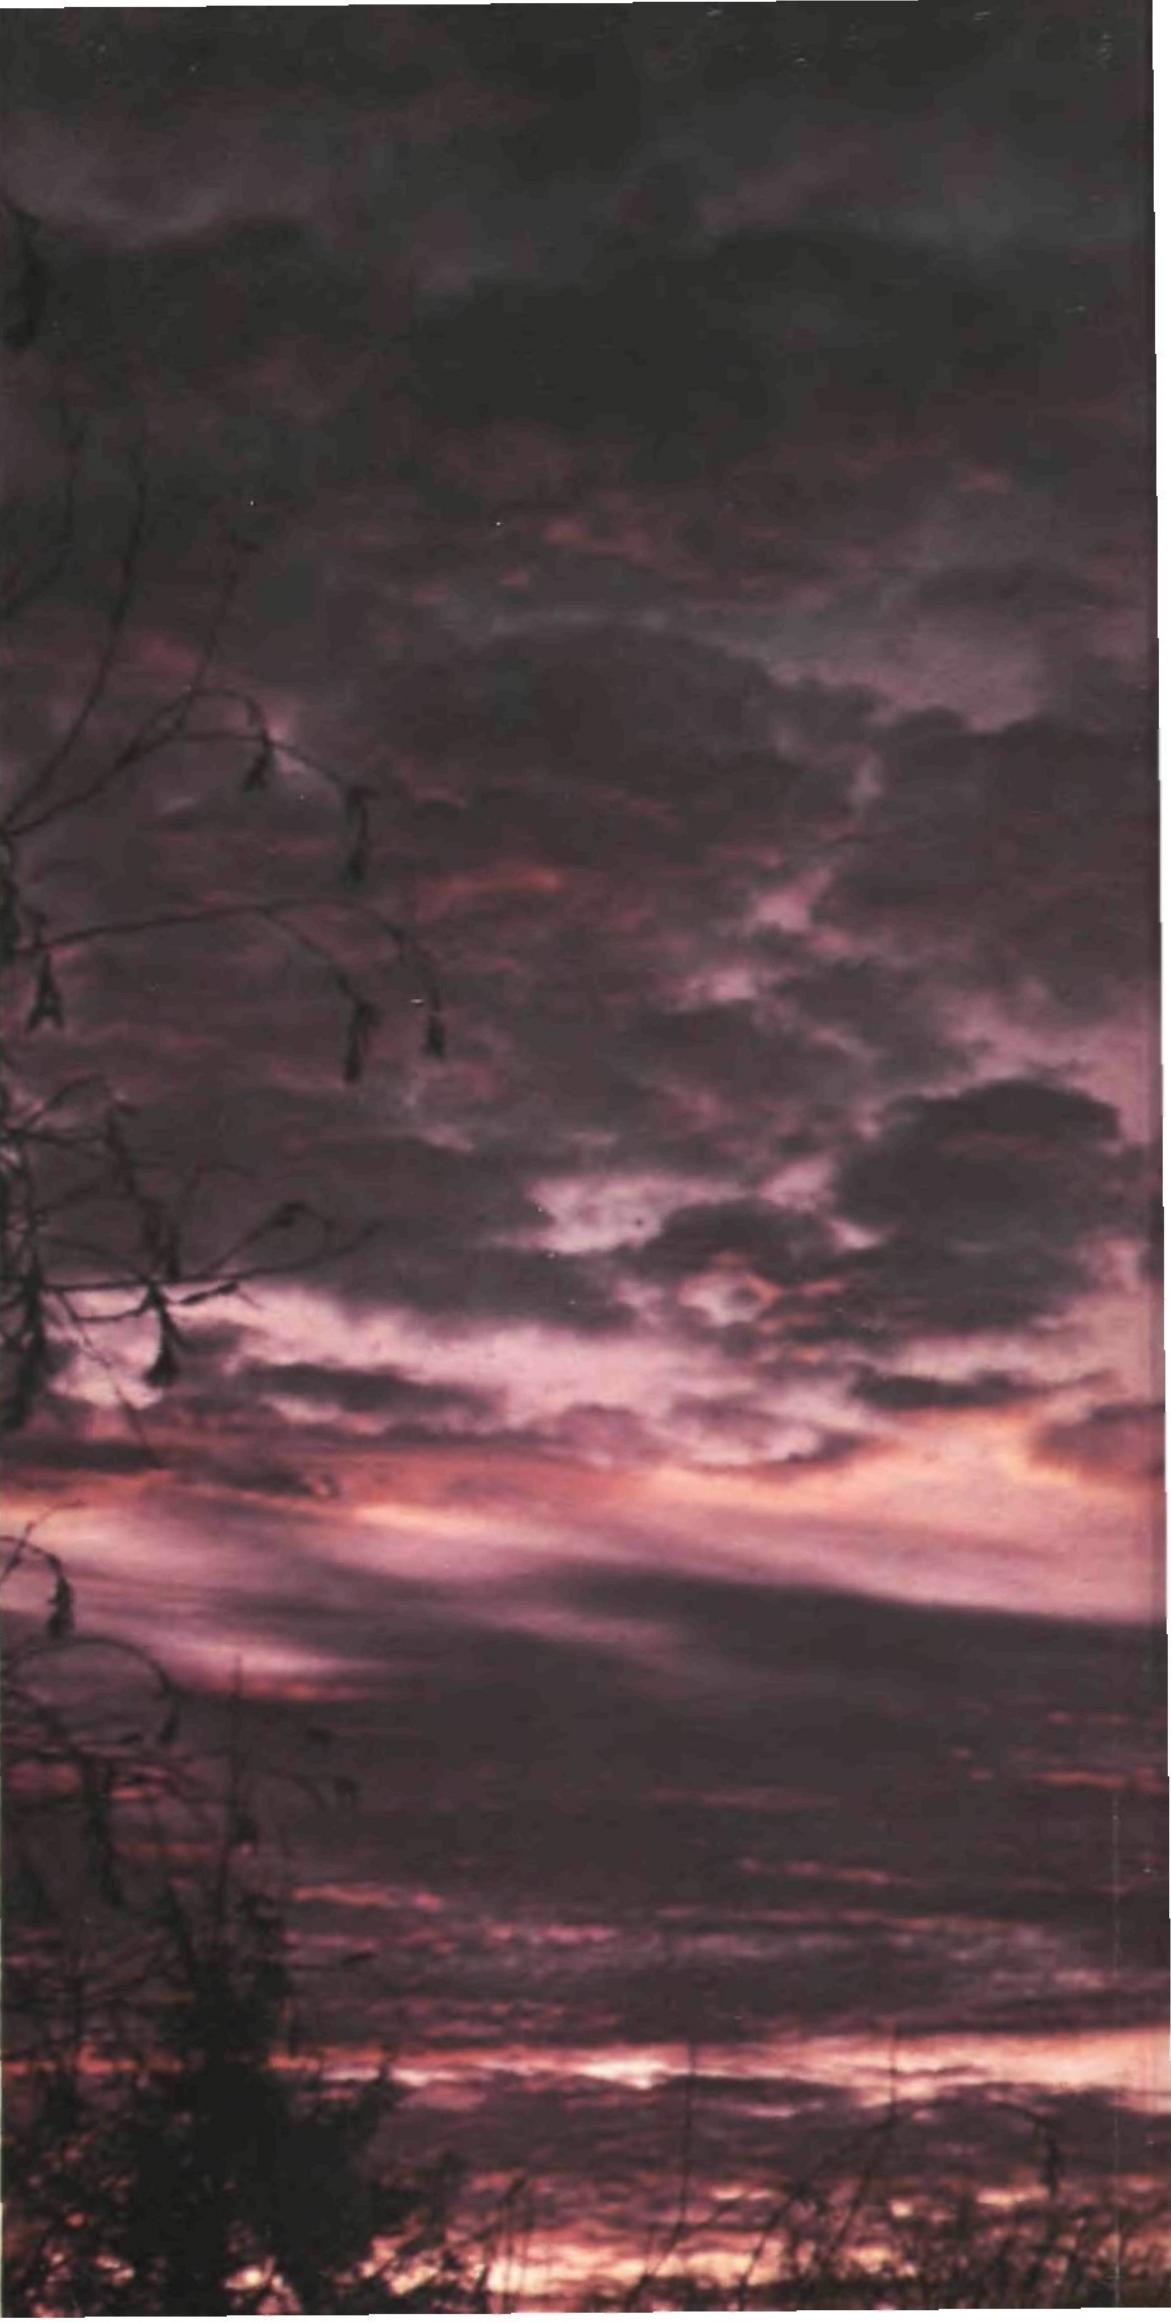

a time to expand—
creation and growth,
watching and doing
never satisfied

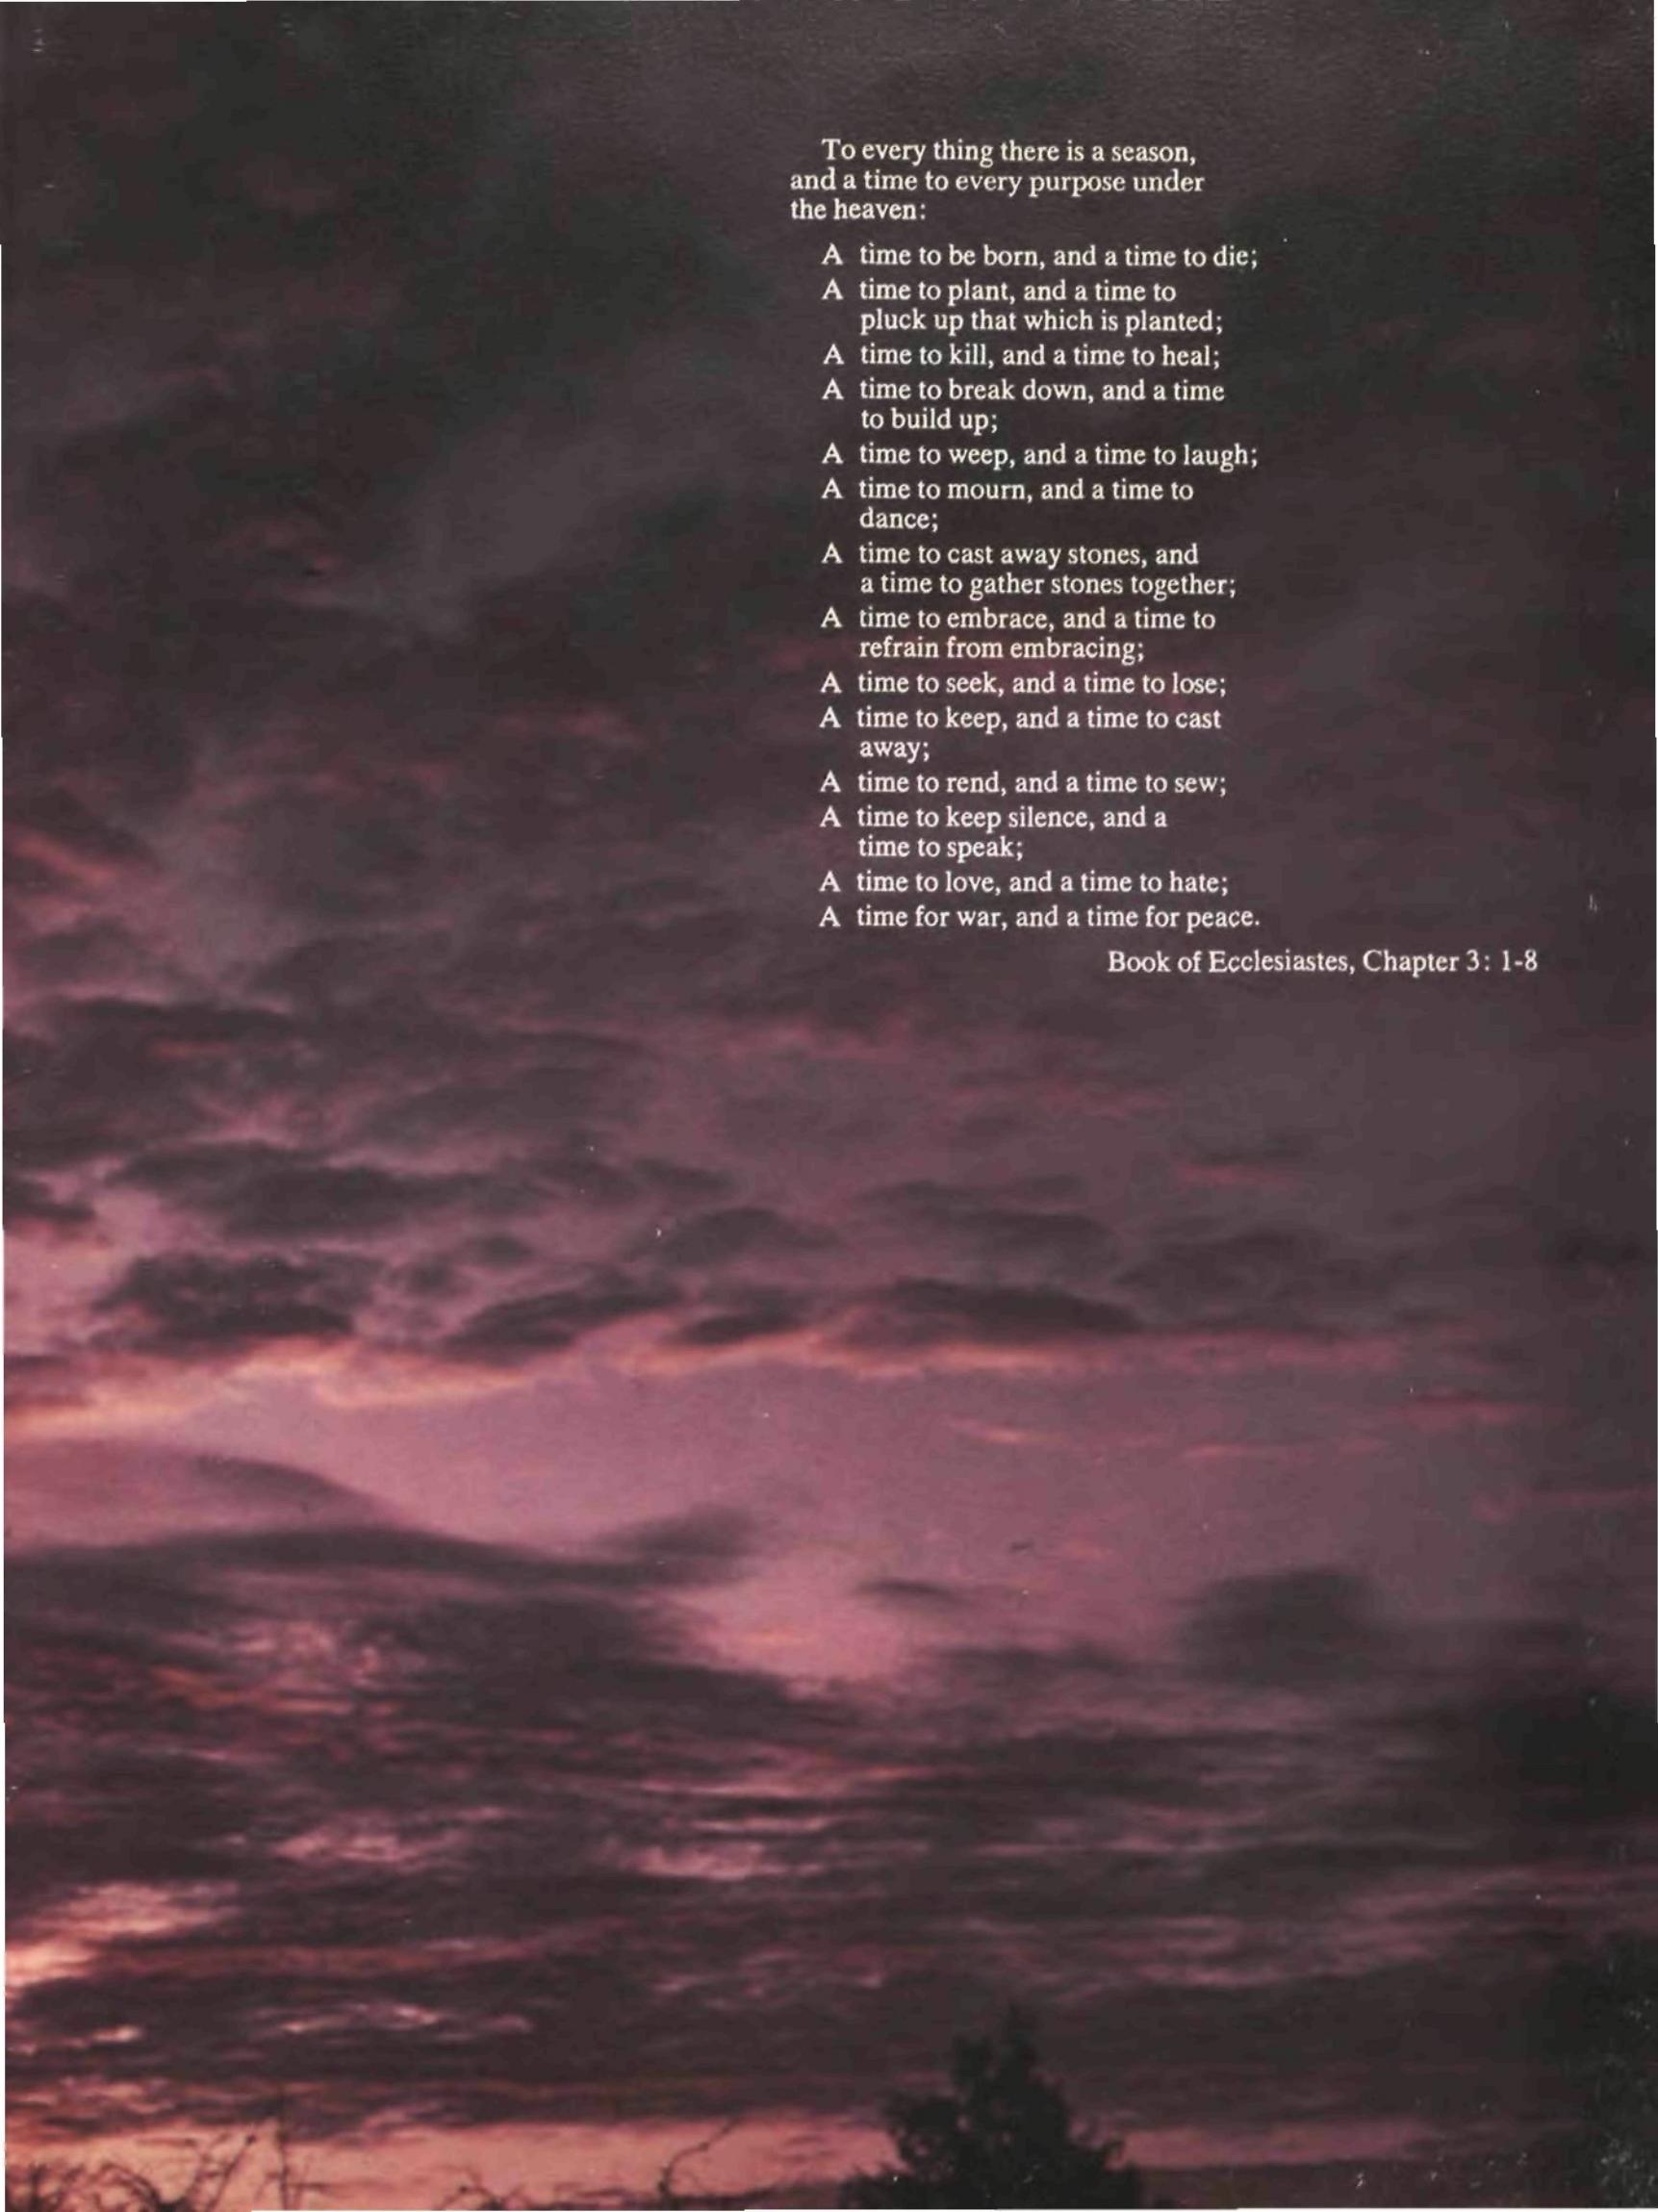

a time to encounter—
confronting the new,
rejecting and accepting
prelude to leadership

a time to reflect—
projections,
attitudes and ambitions,
appraisal

our season in history approaches—
to make it one of beauty or peace
or fulfillment
we must find a time
to every purpose

John Lewis
Editor-in-Chief

To every thing there is a season,
and a time to every purpose under
the heaven:

- A time to be born, and a time to die;
- A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
- A time to kill, and a time to heal;
- A time to break down, and a time to build up;
- A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
- A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
- A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
- A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
- A time to seek, and a time to lose;
- A time to keep, and a time to cast away;
- A time to rend, and a time to sew;
- A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
- A time to love, and a time to hate;
- A time for war, and a time for peace.

A time for war, and a time for peace.

ENLIGHTEN

like naked children
we swirled and sailed,
lost in a gyration
of cultural heritage,
beliefs, attitudes, and purposes,
enveloped in the offerings
of ethical and esthetic values,
until slowly—
slowly—
we felt our feet firmly press the ground
as we stroked the silken costume
of our enlightenment

ANOTHER SIDE

the "other" side of our faculty is our school's greatest asset—
a desire to share,
in the happiest activities
and in our lives and personalities—
a wealth of warmth and friendship awaited those who sought it.

Continuing dialogue between students, faculty, and administration is essential to an academic atmosphere. The forums have been especially effective in fostering this communication.

top right: The production of ARSENIC AND OLD LACE proved to be the best dramatic effort West Orange High School has seen in many years.

top center: One assembly featured two ex-drug addicts, who delivered words of experience and advice.

right: The SPURLOWS, an entertainment troupe sponsored by Chrysler, combined musical revue with the theme of safe driving.

SPECIAL EVENTS

The academic world is currently undergoing a trend towards emphasis on programs that are significant and relevant to our personal lives. One such event of the past school year was the visit of Willie Wright, a militant black leader in Newark, whose lecture included a denunciation of suburban white apathy.

wide-eyed, open-armed
we played in our World of Innocence, embracing our whims to explore a dream
which we had now begun to live

our arms enclosed new worlds
as we experimented with ideas
and we gathered them, as one gathers
the falling leaves of autumn . . .

with every laugh, with every word and gesture
then, waking from our fantasy
we stood straight
and dropped our arms

we sensed the ways of learning surroundings
as the gathered bundle fell, scattering all the colors and shapes of
our knowledge
across a neutral sky

we shall
begin again,
wide-eyed,
open-armed
