WEST ORANGE HIGH SCHOOL 1979

The "experience" of high school can be viewed as the sum, interaction, or SYNTHE-SIS of the influences and events of the preceding years. This concept, SYNTHE-SIS, is applicable to descriptions of personalities, friendships, organizations and the high school population as a whole and is an appropriate way to organize the presentation of the events and moods of the senior year of the Class of 1979.

Specifically, there are four major areas of influence.
The faculty gives direction to our academic and extracurricular pursuits. Participation in sports and related activities promotes a sense of group purpose and individual goal-setting. Interactions between contemporaries lead to moral, social and intellectual growth. Extra-curricular activities offer outlets for intellectual and physical expression.

Just as each of us is a product of these influences, and more, so too is this yearbook a fusion, or SYNTHE-SIS, of literary and graphic crystallizations of this past year.

FOOTBALL

On Thanksgiving Day, our Cowboys trounced the Dayton Bulldogs, 27-7, to climax an incredible season. In completing their 5-4 record, West Orange amassed their highest victory total in 35 years, and set new standards for future Cowboy teams.

Quarterback Darren Dawson spearheaded the attack, and his receivers included Mike Mellilo and Sam Santomo. More than once, the tandem broke open a close game with a long reception. John Casolaro, Larry Castoro, Greg Cuccinello, and Anthony Dorey formed a potent backfield, giving West Orange a variety of offensive weapons.

The defense played well all year, not relinquishing a single point through the first two games. With ten seniors starting, this was an experienced group of athletes which learned to play as a unit, and play well. Steve Avedian filled the position of nose-guard, and flanked by tackles Steve Binney and Rich Hughes (the leading Cowboy tackler) formed a solid line. Dan Parisi and Al Tangretti were the linebackers, and the secondary included Dawson, Castoro, Casolaro, and Don Puffer, who shared punting duties with Parisi.

Other seniors on the squad include Guy Lytle, Mark Simmons, Ron Bennett, Rich Tarentino, Dave Alcock and Wayne Riker.

Perhaps the team's finest moment came not in victory, but in defeat. West Orange gave Madison Borough, the number 2 ranked team in the state, it's toughest game of the year and came within a referee's whistle of pulling off the major upset of 1978. They may not have come away from Madison with a victory, but the 13-7 setback gained an enormous amount of respect for the Cowboys. Pride was evident that day in the eyes of Coach Miller and the coaching staff. The players, the managers, the student body and the faculty also displayed a sense of pride which lasted the entire season.

From the first day of practice through the season-opening 34-0 victory over arch-rival Valley right through the final ticks of the clock on a chilly Thanksgiving Day, there was an enormous amount of self-esteem and respect.

SOCCER

This year's Varsity soccer team got off to a frustrating start, but was able to turn things around and finish with the second best record in WOHS soccer history (4-9-2). During the season, the team set two marks: Most consecutive games without a loss (4), and most consecutive wins (3). This year was highlighted by a 1-0 defeat of Cedar Grove in the second game of a night-time double-header, in which Mountain also won its game. The two night games were a great success and showed that the two high schools could cooperate in such an endeavor, successfully. All hope that this tradition will continue in the future.

The Cowboys were led by Captains Joë DelBuono, Dave Desantis, and Donald Burton. Other seniors on the squad were Chris Misthos, Howard Hansen, Rick Sutherland, Scott Reich, Ralph Ruggiero, and Barry Geltzeiler. There were also many fine juniors on the team including two transfer students who proved to be invaluable: These were Dave Zucker and Steve Kim. The other junior members were Kwame Lambert (high goal-scorer), Sigi Lembo, Scott Trevisan, Frank Gonnella, Robert Hillman, and goalie Maurie Cohan.

The Cowboys had trouble finding consistency this season, but Suburban Conference coaches will agree that this team had skill and talent enough to stay in the game with the best of competition. The Summit coach was particularly surprised as West Orange nearly came away with an upset victory, outhustling and outplaying the Hilltoppers in their second match-up. This year's team was certainly to be reckoned with and next year's group looks promising.

The West Orange Cowboy basketball team was able to recover from the loss of coach Matthew Lombardi early in the season, due to illness, and complete a successful year. The squad's final record was 13-9 overall and 9-5 in the Suburban Conference- good enough for a third place finish behind Summit and arch-rival Verona.

Former assistant coach John McCarthy took over the club, and with the help of the skills in his back-court, Mike Roberts (3rd year Varsity) and "Pistol" Pete DiGiore, the up-front rebounding of Darren Dawson, Ross Spector, and Carl Pridgeon and the much needed bench support of Dave Melnick, Mike Filan and Larry Stern, was able to take the Cowboys into the NJSIAA Tournament.

The Cowboys charged into their tough Suburban Conference schedule winning 10 of their first 13 games, five wins in a row at one point. In the first Winter Tournament ever held at West Orange, the team defeated Bloomfield Tech and then advanced to play Nutley in the final: The Cowboys were beaten by a point, 47-46.

During the regular season, some memorable games were played, among them, the first West Orange-Summit game won by the Cowboys (44-39), and the fierce rivalry between the Verona Hillbillies and the Cowboys-in particular, the staggering overtime loss, 54-53, which quite possibly could have given the Cowboys second place in the conference. One game Ross Spector won't forget is his career-high 20 point effort against Cedar Grove. Finally, there was the disappointing final game against Clifford Scott, in which the Cowboys were eliminated from the NJSIAA play.

Special thanks go to senior managers Donald Burton, Anne Marie Rondinella, and Cathy Gilroy. Their services will be missed.

The Cowboys will be expecting another winning year, next year, with returning varsity lettermen such as Carl Pridgeon, who turned in a fine game against Scott, and Mike Filan, a good ball-handler and fast-driving guard. Also expected to play next year are Kwame Lambert, Greg Blumberg and Larry Stern.

Mike Roberts was chosen to the 1st team All Conference, while Darrin Dawson and Pete DiGiore were selected to the 3rd team.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

The Girl's Basketball team finished with an undistinguished seasonal record, coming out victorious only once. Their record was not a reflection of the effort the girls put into the season, nor of their basketball ability. The Junior-varsity team compiled a winning season, leaving much hope for a bright future when once again the Cowgirls will be among the conference leaders. Seniors Tracy Rosenberg, Julie Bendziewicz, and Ardelle Walter will be missed by Coach Doyle and the rest of the squad as their leadership, both on-and-off the court, proved invaluable.

The 1978-79 wrestling season was one which will long be remembered. There were many satisfying moments for the Cowboys, both as a team and for several individuals.

As a unit, this year's grapplers had a record of 6 wins and 6 losses. There were also two cancelled matches which coach Bill Lutkins felt sure his team could have won. The Cowboys finished fourth of eleven teams in their district. Both of these records are the best in the 16 year history of the sport at W.O.H.S.

The Cowboys were led by a gallery of senior of whom we should all be very proud. This year's upperclassmen were: John Casolaro (Co-Captain), Dave Felsenheld, Tim Buchanan, Pete Resciniti, Bruce Miller (Co-Capt.), Jim Goldfinger (Co-Capt.), Wayne Riker, Sam Santomo, Steve Binney, Rich Hughes and Ron Bennett. Although all of the wrestlers mentioned performed well, the achievements of a handful shined above the rest.

WRESTLING

Casolaro, also known as "Boo-Boo," started the season wrestling at 122 pounds but then dropped to 115. His tough, aggressive style led him to second place finishes in the Bloomfield and District Tournaments, and a third in the Regional Tourney. His final season for W.O., after lettering his sophomore and junior years, was a successful one to say the least, ending with an 18-6 slate.

Goldfinger, the team leader, had the best record on the squad (18-3). His strength and quickness helped him to seconds in the Bloomfield and Essex Coaches Tournaments, in the 148 lbs. division.

Hughes fared the best of any of the Cowboys, in post-season action, capturing a District title. Calling this heavyweight strong and aggressive would be an understatement. His record was 9-5.

In his first high school season, Santomo, at 170 lbs., displayed great power and earned a 12-9 record and a second in the ECT.

Miller wrestling at 141, and sported a 9-6 record. He was a gutsy competitor, who, on more than one occasion, wrestled despite illness or injury.

Riker was 4-5 at 158 lbs., but that does not reflect the value of his performances. He came on strong later in the season and picked up some key victories for the team.

Bennett was the Cowboys' other heavyweight and had several good efforts as his 3-1 record indicates.

HOCKEY

Once again the West Orange High School Hockey team, under the guidance of coach Lester Ray, compiled a winning season.

The awesome Cowboy fire-power was put on display in an early season match against Madison. Five different West Orange skaters, led by seniors Howard Hansen and Dave DeSantis, each with hat-tricks, combined to score 11 goals as West Orange rolled by Madison 11-3. Shortly afterwards, the Cowboy skaters demolished Hudson Catholic by a score of 12-1.

Perhaps the most impressive game of the season was the 4-2 loss to the powerful "A" division team from Montclair. The game, a challenge match for the final berth in the Gordon Cup playoffs, featured repeated comeback attempts by the determined West Orange skaters, which, unfortunately, fell short. Goalie Danny Parisi turned aside 14 Montclair shots en route to his finest performance for West Orange. Seniors Howard Hansen and Rick Sutherland tallied for the maroon and white early in the game.

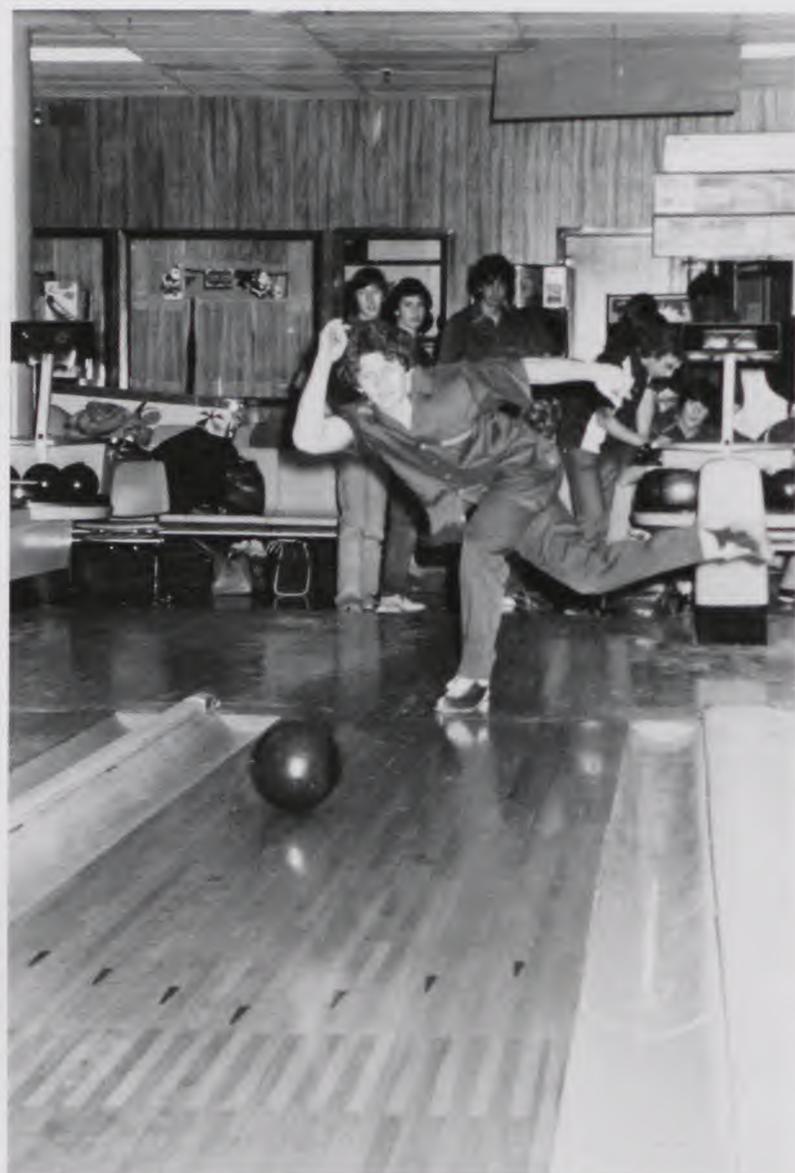

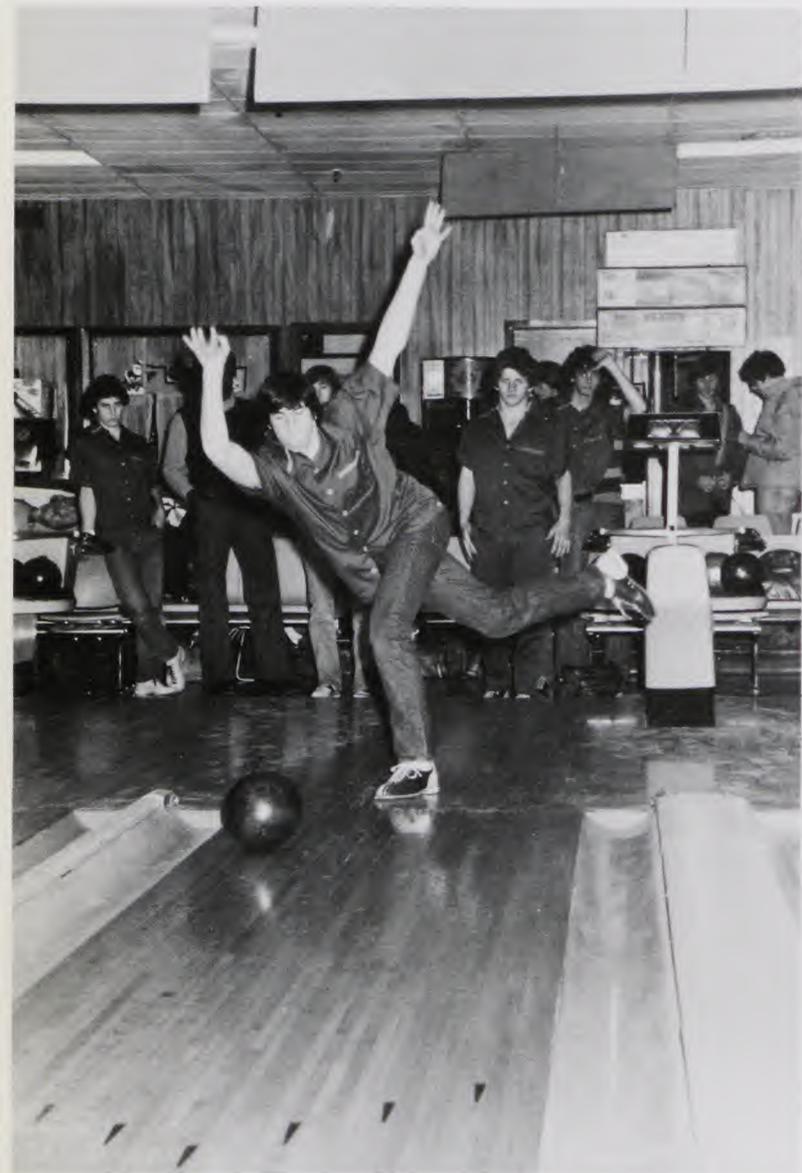

Howard Hansen and junior Doug Katz handled the bulk of the defensive chores this season. Also helping out at the "points" were juniors Dave Silverstein and Joe Cicalese.

The Cowboy offense was highlighted by the 43 point effort of junior Jamie Liguori. Liguori, who led the division in scoring, combined with Cicalese and team captain DeSantis to form the explosive front line. Senior Rick Sutherland and freshman Jim Hoimark, along with Silverstein, made up the hard-working second line.

Selected to the first team, "B" division, were goalie Danny Parisi, defenseman Howard Hansen, and linemen Dave DeSantis and Jamie Liguori. Hansen, who scored 19 goals, was voted the Most Valuable Player of the division.

BOWLING

The bowling team recovered from a disappointing season by sweeping past all opponents in the Suburban Conference Tournament. Bowling for team, pairs, and individual scores, the Cowboys placed second, third, and fifth for the doubles competition, and Captain Steve Hanley took a second place individually, falling short by five pins.

Senior John Davimos led the team all season with a 172 average, followed by Hanley with a consistent 168. Senior Jeff Kirschbaum, junior Dave Zucker, and sophomores Bob Meusel, Eric Demel, and Brian Drucker contributed greatly.

The 1978-79 Bowling Team would like to thank coach Laura Sherman for her support. John, Jeff, and Steve would like to wish the remaining team the best of luck for the next season.

SWIMMING

The swim team continued to show a strong competitive spirit. The season record was 7 and 7, with every swimmer improving his time.

The team was captained by senior John McCrone. John swam the 50 and 100 yard freestyle events, while his brother, Mark, a junior, swam the 200 and 500 yard freestyle. Sophomore Mike Singer swam the 50 and 100 yard butterfly. His times in the butterfly and freestyle events were the team's fastest. Junior John Dougherty and sophomore Tom Wahlers swam the backstroke. Freshmen Larry Markowitz, Laura Collinson, and Andrew McCrone excelled in their events. Seniors Jeremy Littman and Karen Petroll, along with juniors Darrick Fu and Bruce Whichard, and sophomores Betsey Lucas, Jonathan Littman, Billy Greenberg, and David Drylie swam in the relays but were always ready to swim in individual events. Freshmen Mike Calabric, Noreen Riker, Andrew Burton, Mark DeBenedette, and sophomore Dom Bertoldi also added strength to the team.

On February 4, the swim team placed 5th in the County meet at Montclair State College. John McCrone, Larry Markowitz, Laura Collinson, Mike Singer, John Dougherty, Tom Wahlers, and David Drylie all qualified for the finals at the meet. John Dougherty won a third place medal in the 100 yard backstroke event.

Coach Kirk agreed that the involvement of a large number of freshmen and sophomores promise to make the swim team stronger in the next few years.

"Ideas are clean. They soar in the serene supernal. I can take them out and look at them, they fit in books, they lead me down that narrow way. And in the morning they are there. Ideas are straight —

But the world is round, and a messy mortal is my friend.
Come walk with me in the mud ..."

The Ocean: childhood dreams; sleeping in grandma's bungalow attic and watching the breeze blow the curtains, like wisps of ghosts at night.

playing on the beach; building sandcastles by the sea, only to be destroyed by the ocean's mighty tide;
watching seagulls swooping down to the ocean's edge and finding shells that sing the ocean's song.

The Ocean: childhood experiences; letting your feet sink into the sand while the waves splash around you; getting caught in the tumbles of a huge wave and getting sand in your pants;
trying on grandma's big sun hat and washing your hands in a bucket of ocean water.

The ocean brings to me these childhood dreams, images that I for I have changed, while the ocean remains the same.

Take the intrigue and plot entanglements of Agatha Christie, the electronic world of James Bond; add the diabolical horror of Baron Frankenstein; stir in some sophisticated, martini drinking detectives and one has a recipe for laughter and lunacy.

Ingeniously packed into this script is a parody of every mystery plot, hero and villain created in the past fifty years. The story alternates between reality and imagination as five mystery writers wrestle with the problems of writing a television mystery series.

All around them, murders occur and each writer takes a turn at solving them in his own style. Surprise follows Surprise and just when the audience appears to have figured out 'whodunnit,' the ultimate trap is sprung.

Everywhere Done to Death has played, critics have reacted positively to the play with terms such as, 'Lunacy is too mild a word to describe this play,' and 'out ragesous comedy,' 'a thrill a minute.'

Sit back and hold your sides for surely they'll burst with laughter. And now, on with the show.
