SPECIAL THANKS TO:

Mr. Seldin, Mr. Connors, West Orange First Aid Squad, Dr. and Mrs. Wachtel, Al and Harold Beim, Stewart Slocum, Darrick Fu, Anita Uotinen and Kevin Testa.

The senior year marks a turning point in our lives. We have spent a good portion of our time together and many of us will not realize until next September that the crowd of familiar faces is gone. The purpose of a Yearbook is to capture this special moment.

In this sense, the importance of the 1980 Yearbook is not for now but for the future. There will always be times when something reminds us of a small incident from the past. The Yearbook will enable us to remember ourselves as we were — to relive the serious moments, the silly moments, the happy and the sad.

The Yearbook staff sincerely hopes that you enjoy this book, the product of months of dedicated work, and continue to appreciate it for years to come. Best of luck.

Editor-in-Chief

All we need to make the day go better
is to remember our friends, or maybe
one friend's face.

“Time runs through your fingers –
you never hold it at all ‘till it’s gone.”

CREATIVITY

Who is this man who can turn any tool, any color, all material, to his needs; whose eyes simply see more than those of other men – whose eyes have offered deeper vision to us all.

Who is this man to whom the meaning of “life” and “art” is the same; who sees space and surface
as challenges to be met in combat upon those broad plains of the imagination where his own hand
rules supreme.

Who is this man whose silence is so commanding that no one
violates the frontier of his mind
when he journeys to the land of his visions seeking new faces to populate that world which he created.

Who is this man who sees all life
as a stage; and yet, even as he stands silently watching, he himself
is playing a major part.

I stared into
the stars

and I saw origins

sweeping dust across
the skies

like tea leaves
in a gypsy's cup.

by Lisa Klein

To laugh often and much;
 To win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children, to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure
 the betrayal of false friends;
 to appreciate beauty, to find
 the best in others, to leave the world a bit better whether
 by a healthy child, a garden
 patch, or a redeemed social condition; to know even one
 life has breathed easier
 because you have lived.
 This is to have succeeded.

It seems like the end of a dream, so many faces in and out of my life, some will last,
some will just be now and then. But for now
my friends, good luck and goodbye again.

SUSAN ANNE FIERSTEIN

Those were the days my friends, we thought they'd never end. We'd sing and dance forever and a day, we'd live the life we'd choose, we'd try and never lose, those were the days, oh yes those were the days.

The Thanksgiving Day game will be remembered as the game we played with pride and character. After game captains Randy Herko and Joe Pelose went out on the field for the second half, we decided that we were going to fight to the last second and overcome the 13-0 deficit. Key plays like Tommy Savvides' first down reception and Ariya Gothelf's fumble recovery in the fourth quarter set up the winning touchdown scored by Rich McEnroe. The satisfying victory (21-13) ended the season on an exciting note.

Seniors Bob Vale, Bart Edelstein and Joe Dorey deserve great credit for their leadership. In addition, Gregg Blumberg, Rick Gonzalez, Mike Groves and Larry McNeil, all of whom were injured during the season, were sorely missed.

The highlights of the season were undoubtedly the dual victories over archrival Millburn. These two contests found us at an incredible level of both unity and willful desire and our play throughout reflected this. The final game of the season, played under ominous darkness, enabled us to culminate the year on a positive note as we defeated a very highly regarded Belleville team by a score of 2-1.

The team congratulates seniors Sigi Lembo, Dave Zucker and Scott Trevisan for achieving Suburban Conference honors. Other senior members who should receive credit for their determination and never-ending spirit are Maurie Cohen, Michael Dill, Frank Gonnella, Steve Gorelick, Robert Hillmann, Orang Jobeen, Doug Katz, Steve Kim, and Kwame Lambert.

In some ways this year was very discouraging for the marching band. At the end of last year the band was told that it would have new uniforms for this season. Unfortunately, they failed to arrive until a week after the Thanksgiving game.

However, the year also showed a renewed spirit by band members. Many members were not in band class and had to practice music during lunch and at home. The only time they had to practice marching was on Saturdays before games or at special rehearsals at night or after school.

Under the coaching and supervision of Laura Sherman, our team was the best in the history of girls' tennis at West Orange High. With an unprecedented number of victories over such schools as Dayton, Caldwell, Whippany and Saddlebrook, the team captured the Group II championship.

Co-Captains Nanette Hansen and Judy Lehman, both of whom received Suburban Conference honors, filled the number one and two spots respectively. Jackie Rowe played third singles while the first and second doubles teams consisted of Maureen Skillman and Judy Hanauer and juniors Anne Marie Maraoui and Debbie Capko. Except for senior Lisa Klein, the whole team will be returning next year.

The cross country team, coached by Mr. Suriano, had high hopes of repeating last year's record. Although we were never able to pull it together, the team never lost its spirit and dedication. This dedication was shown by all racers in the grueling 400 mile summer schedule and the daily workouts, often starting at 5:00 A.M.

The cross country squad was mainly made up of juniors and sophomores. Our team was led by Co-Captains Nina Lambert and Bruce Whichard. Conference and all-orange honors went to Nina Lambert, Keith Forbes, Billy Smith and Andrew McCrone.

The success of the 1979-1980 wrestling team was due to the attitude, leadership and commitment of the following seniors: Co-Captains Kevin Bradley and Ariya Gothelf, Frank Connella, Joseph Pelose and Rich Paradise. These fine Athletes have left the W.O. wrestling team with something to remember. Their inspiration should lead the W.O. wrestlers to new heights in future years.

This year cannot be judged by the teams record. After capturing the championship last year, this years squad had a difficult feat to repeat. Building the team for years to come is how the Cowboys approached this season. Leaving this years squad are captain Doug Katz, utility man Joe Chicalese, leading scorer Jamie Ligouri, and rookies: Scott Trevisan, John Ligouri and Carlo Guarente. By Doug Katz

The 1980 swim team under the coaching of Mr. Kirk finished the season respectably with a record of 7-7. Captain Mark McCrone led the team by swimming both free style and backstroke. Seniors Bruce Whichard and Darrick Fu were key free stylers for the team. Freshmen and sophomores made up the majority of our team. Even though they were inexperienced they pulled through for us. Our team's 400 yard free style relay was highly successful. It consisted of Mark McCrone, Steve Salvitch, Larry Markowitz, and Mike Singer. Singer achieved persoanl achievement by breaking the school record with a time of 3:54

All in all our team had a successful season. The swim team has high hopes for many returning experienced swimmers.

The 1980 bowling squad survived through a disappointing start to finish the season just a couple of games short the .500 mark. Led by seniors Dave Zucker and Dave DeRonde the team attained their biggest victories over Millburn. Other Cowboys bowlers were six underclassmen; juniors Eric Demel and Sandy Mallon, and sophomores Mike Greenfeig, Andy Waldman, Lenny Garber and Richard Cohen.

The team enjoyed a personally rewarding year and an attitude of team unity and sportsmanship abounded to make the season successful regardless of the record.

The girl's basketball team has had their best season in recent years. There is a great feeling of team spirit which contributes to the success of the team. Captains Maria Santomo and Maureen Brannick exhibited leadership qualities which unified the team, motivating them to do the best they could. With the impressive shooting of Patty Vitiello, the skillful ball handling of Maureen Skillman, and the aggressive rebounding of Joanne Grabowski, our team scored many upset victories over conference powerhouses. Sophomores Chris Gaynor and Karen Schulz contributed greatly to our team's success. The girl's basketball team would not have been able to achieve such an outstanding season without the patience and wonderful coaching of Keith Doyle.

"Your Host . . ."

Things that were hard to bear are sweet to remember

"Before we end and then begin we'll drink a toast to how it's been . . .
and so it's time to change our ways:
But, oh — I've loved these days!"

— Billy Joel

Congratulations and best wishes to the Class of 1980.

We believe the sports program has been an important part of your education. On the surface, athletics are very physical, very immediate, and very tough. Nevertheless, they are responsible for a major portion of school spirit and loyalty; they evoke memories that linger forever; and they account for some of our tenderest moments of comraderie and caring. The long hours and sometimes painful discipline of practice and preparation create and nurture a sense of responsibility and commitment necessary for success throughout life.

We hope that our support and recognition of your sports and related activities have helped to enrich your school experience and that you will carry with you the values that are unique to team effort.

Keep the spirit!

My great brother
and friend!

REMEMBER YESTERDAY,
DREAM ABOUT TOMORROW,
BUT LIVE FOR TODAY . . .

*We should all be so lucky as to have a pair of air conditioned Liz Claiborne's. *"D" is for Drive, "R" is for Reverse. *All my passengers wear seat belts!! *Are you sure Katherine Gibbs accepts penguins? *Riunite on ice, that's nice. Could you please recommend a chilled bottle of sweet wine? I have company waiting at home. TOUCH-DOWN!!! *WARNING: Leaves may be harmful to the health of the transmissions of green Mustangs . . . and watch out for Freddie, the green frog! *Do you believe we actually wasted a whole hour a day on GH? But the rape made it all worth while. *A WHOLE NEWSPAPER?! *You know how to do it right, you weren't even heavy. *Diamonds are a girl's best friend. *Je t'aime! *Betcha none of you ever scored with Barney Rubble! *What color blush are you wearing? OH! I-N-G! *Budley, is it really your birthday tomorrow? *Is Jesus really an intellect? *Oh no, a tiger just . . . *Does anyone else have balls in their ears . . . or steering wheels on their fingers? *Kinky cream cheese? *I got Doogs first!! *Do you run for your health, or for the fringe benefits? *The choice is yours: Who's really better, Ron Guidry or Bucky Dent? *Look at those legs . . . ha! ha! *WANTED: Two girls last seen running through N.Y.C. with a hot bottle of Pina Colada! *A busload of boy scouts? Isn't that a little kinky? *Can a senior really keep a sophomore entertained? *To hell with the world, we're seniors! *Just call me Bluto. *Muldoon's Point: for senior citizens only. *I found my thrill on Strawberry Hill. *Give her an "E" for effort. *Pictures for the prom, for Pete's sake. *Isn't there a Constitutional amendment that says I don't have to do this without my lawyer? SHUT UP AND OPEN YOUR MOUTH!! *What do you get when you cross a bunny with a motorcycle? A YAMAHOPPER! *Chapter Two was a real bruiser, that captain sure is a fighter! *We've enlisted! See that guy? That's your goal — shoot it! Mortar? As in the Latin? *You know . . . the essentials! *Those great propositions on 42nd Street. *There's a fly in my mousse. *A lovely evening at home with porcupine face! I owe you one . . . *I won't get mad at you if you put your arm around me! *Lynn's dream . . . poor Karen! *Phantom locker notes — for god's sake get out! *The ideal body of our best looking redhead! *INMATCHER! salt on cucumbers — of course! *Debby, John's mine . . . he's too good for you! *I'm sorry, but I must give you a receipt. *I'll take the scenic route — past the gas station!! *But I don't have a mailbox!
