The purpose of this yearbook is to help us remember our years at West Orange High School. The Yearbook Staff set to work with this in mind. We were faced with the difficult question: How to represent a year in the lives of two hundred seventy-six students?

The task was even harder than we had anticipated. But we tried our best to include a little of everything which makes Senior Year as great as it is.

The Yearbook staff hopes you enjoy the book. In later days, when you speak of these years, think of us kindly.

retrospect 1981

No, we didn't run out of candid photos for the Class of '81. The reason you will find candid photos of previous classes on the next five pages, is that this is West Orange High School's 50th Yearbook.

Short History:

In the fall of 1928, West Orange High School was opened. In 1931, it graduated its first class. This class produced a yearbook which was called "The West-O-Ranger."

Even if you could care less about the history of our school, look at the next five pages and laugh at the previous classes that are pictured. And remember, fifty years from now we'll look just as strange.

Freedom's just another word
for nothin' left to lose,
And nothin' ain't worth
nothin' but it's free.

—Kris Kristofferson

In the 1970's, high school students often appeared to be "rebellious." From 1931 on, the Yearbook was known as "The West-O-Ranger." The 1971 edition marked the last time the name "West-O-Ranger" was used. The 1972 staff decided not to use the traditional name. The theme of the 1971 Yearbook was "Reflecting on Values."

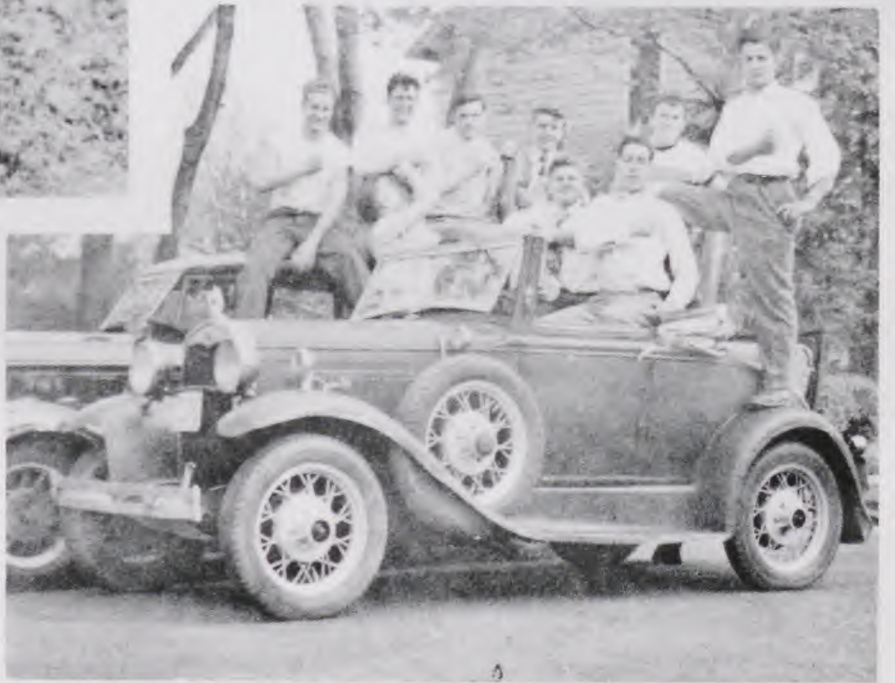

retrospect 1971

retrospect 1961

retrospect 1951

If you didn't know it, our present Governor of New Jersey, Brendan Byrne, lived in West Orange. Here is a picture of him as he looked when attending WOHS in 1941.

retrospect 1941

retrospect 1931

Dorothy Robertson was a member of the first graduating class. In the 1931 yearbook it said about her, "She's practicing for her future position as secretary. She ought to make a capable one." This prediction came true as Miss Robertson can not be replaced at West Orange High.

WEST-O-RANGER

CHEERLEADERS

MUCH of our success during the current athletic year has been due to the cheering section. Led by six cheerleaders, the rooters have cheered our team on to astounding heights. Through thick and thin, the cheerleaders have led our loyal fans; and as a fitting reward, the Athletic Association has voted to award them a special block, significant of their loyal efforts during the past year. Although four of the cheerleading squad are of the 1931 class, two remain to urge on our rooters in 1932. These last two are Herbert Hamilton and Charles (Bill) Schaller. The seniors who led the squad this year are Donald Fritts, Jack McCoy, William Oatis and Walter Sudo.

Forget what life used to be; you are what you choose to be. It's whatever it is you see that life will become.

JUDITH WEINSTEIN

"But when you get there,
There's no there there,

THOMAS WAHLERS

Strive to be better than average,
Because being average is like
Not being at all.

JOHN WARNICK

Don't get mad . . . get even.

STEVEN WEISER

Why reach for a cloud,
When you can reach for a star?

RENE WILLIAMS

Tomorrow — a golden opportunity we receive. To live . . . to love . . . and to achieve.

DAVID WILSON

You must persist until you win. You must persist until you win at your goal, at your daily routine and in your spiritual life.

I have found that more people in this world are about as happy as they make up their minds to be.

— Abraham Lincoln

DONNA WNEK

When you come to the end of your rope, make a knot . . . and hang on!

STEVEN WOLLERMANN

JANICE WOLTAG
Having abandoned my search for the truth,
I am now looking for a good fantasy.

DEBORAH ZUCKER
Although no one can go back and make a new beginning my friend, anyone can start from now and make a brand new end.

LYNDA ZARILLO
The moments of high school have come to an end; but always remember that at the close of every moment there're memories...
Memories that will last forever...
