What's The Difference?

Differences are evident in every aspect of life at Cranford High School. Diverse trends in fashion, music, sports and clubs set people apart and make them distinct. In many other high schools, these differences might divide a student body.

However, at Cranford, this diversity encourages a cohesiveness where the students are able to express who they truly are and explore what they hope to become. Congratulations to the students, faculty and administrators whose individual differences have led to the diversity and distinction of Cranford High School.

The students at Cranford High School added a touch of something special to the everyday routines of high school life in 1994. That special something was enthusiasm. Although each student was unique and had different interests, the entire student body cooperated in order to make functions, such as Pasta Night, the fall play and College Night, fun and successful.

Freshman Larry Holzenthaler said, "CHS has a distinct blend of people. There are many activities so that even students with the most varied interests can find something to participate in."

A "Special" Education

Some of Cranford High School's students are a diverse, special group that has a very colorful schedule. Everyday they participate in a variety of activities that range from woodshop to gym to preparing for the Thursday faculty luncheon. However, they don't just prepare the food, they also serve it and even take a weekly shopping trip to Pathmark to purchase groceries.

So look for these friendly smiling faces as they walk the halls of CHS.

Growing Pains

There is one class in the high school where the students are not all teenagers. The Child Development class, taught by Carol Migliorini, is unique because it is where Cranford toddlers learn to trust others with the help of Juniors and Seniors.

Aside from the teaching of cutting, coloring, and sharing, special bonds develop between the students and their charges. Fun activities, such as the annual Halloween party, serve to enhance this bond. Senior Alana Fredericks feels "that once we step inside the child development room, fifteen totally different students are connected by the shared love for the children we teach."

Getting A Head Start

The Co-Op Program Provides Students With A Strong Sense Of Responsibility And Hope For The Future.

Students often wish to be transported from the classroom, straight into their dream jobs. In reality, this rarely happens. However, the Cranford Cooperative Education program provides high school Seniors with hands-on experience in the career field of their choice while they continue to attend classes.

Currently in its twenty-fourth year, the Co-op program is divided into two divisions: Business Co-op, headed by Ms. Clara Doland, and Home Economics Co-op, which is advised by Mrs. Anne Walsky. Business interns work at such respected companies as Schering Plough and Register and Transfer. On the other hand, Home Economics students have the opportunity to choose between a teacher's aide position at one of the local elementary schools or a support service position at a local restaurant.

Senior Michelle Simeone, who works at Orange Avenue School, believes that Co-op has given her "... a sense of responsibility" and has truly helped her to discover her future. Likewise, working at FabricLand this year has also influenced Heidi VanHouten to continue pursuing a job in interior design. Obviously, Cooperative Education gives CHS students an important taste of the real world while they are still in the career, decision-making process.

PEER DEVELOPMENT

"Close your eyes and grab the shoulders of the person in front of you," was the command from head peer advisor Kitty White during the first trip of the year to Carmel Retreat House. These directions were the prelude to a trust walk that helped Peer facilitators develop confidence and a belief in others. Every year, the program takes two trips that involve activities like this, in addition to attending a Drug and Alcohol awareness workshop in Cranford.

The Peer Development program is well known and respected at Cranford High. There are forty-nine facilitators this year, twenty of whom are second year facilitators. Five of the second year facilitators run the Steering Committee. They consist of Kristen Johnson, Nicole Capece, Liz Pavics, Julie Newman and Cheryl Mitchell. The Steering Committee is in charge of running the school store and helping plan retreats and trips. Peer is led by Kitty White, George Huff, Lou Loprete, Natalie O'Donnell and Assistant Principal Joan Wilde.

Peer facilitators meet in small groups every week with their freshmen to help them adjust to high school life. They mutually discuss important topics such as family concerns, divorce and drug and alcohol abuse. All of this communication has truly helped the facilitators listen and communicate effectively with the faculty and the remainder of the student body.

Cranford's Ghastly Ghouls

Every year, ghosts and goblins haunt the halls of CHS. However, dressing up is only half the fun of Halloween. Students also participate in various activities to commemorate this terrifying holiday!

Along with the traditional trick-or-treating and parties, the Art Club and Art Honor Society put their creativity to work at their annual pumpkin and face painting sale.

The Student Government also sponsors a Halloween costume contest for the best-dressed witch, ghoul, or monster. This year's winners included Sophomore Andrea Meola as a clown, Senior Ali Saifi as a cross-dresser, Senior Janel Mays as a pregnant woman, Junior Katie Kabel as Little Red Riding Hood, Senior Heidi Van Houten as Raggedy Ann and Junior Carrin Fernandes as Bam Bam from The Flintstones. Obviously Halloween at CHS was a frightfully, freaky sight to behold in '93.

Proud To Be Drug Free

The Drug Free Youth Club is made up of approximately fifty to sixty active students and is advised by Student Assistance Counselor, Angelo Pierri. These members have made the personal, and difficult decision to be drug free and support their peers who have also made this decision.

Drug Free Youth Members come from all four grades at the high school and from many different backgrounds. DFY members enjoy parties, field trips, free club T-shirts, dances and other activities that correspond with one of DFY's mottos, "We have better things to do than drugs." For example, DFY activities such as dialogue night, attempt to help students better understand how drugs and alcohol can affect teenagers emotionally, socially and academically.

IT'S A MAD, MAD,

"It's A Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World." This is the only way to describe this zany and unique show. The Mad Show, taken from the popular Alfred E. Newman publication, Mad Magazine, pokes fun at many of society's problems. It is a creative show full of skits and songs which mock subjects from "Lassie" to Bob Dylan.

Directed and choreographed by Michael Marcus, and Gary Cohen, the show couldn't have been cast better. The actors and actresses included: Maura McGowen, Dan Wiener, Taylor Hill, Kate Wilson, Genni Johnson, Amy Blitz, Paul Concalves, Dave Devito, and Stephanie Karmol. Larissa Hannon was this year's talented Assistant Director. And now . . . on with the show!

College Night, Future Choices

The gym is a buzz with Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, but it is not time for class. Instead, over 100 colleges and universities fill the floor of the gymnasium as well as the cafeteria, for the annual College Night. Parents and students busily confer with college representatives from the tri-state area about requirements, scholarship opportunities, sports teams, and campus life.

The College Fair is run in conjunction with the CHS Guidance Department and visiting representatives from the Eastern United States. Every year, College Night is successful because it provides ample opportunity for the kids to get real exposure to small, local colleges, large universities, and even Ivy League schools.

Right: The Kean College advisor speaks to Seniors Mike Maguire and Phil Ledet about the new experiences they will have if they attend Kean.

Club Fair, An Option For Everyone

This year's Club Fair was successful and informative because it introduced Freshmen to the many diverse organizations at CHS. There was something for everyone, from the "Gourmet Club" to "Youth for Understanding." Some, like the language clubs and "Contemporary World Affairs," served as a fun extension of academic courses for interested students. All of the groups provided creative demonstrations that successfully enticed future club members to join.

Dare to be Different

Spirit Week December 13-17

The students, as well as the faculty of CHS, "dared to be different" as they displayed their school spirit by dressing origionally during the week of December 13-17.

On College Day, sweatshirts and T-shirts bearing college emblems could be seen on everyone. Hat Day was also a great success as students showed enthusiasm for their school. Freshman Steve Comantini, who dressed creatively in a turban, stated "Why be normal? I wore a turban to be different."

Wednesday, Flannel Shirt and Blue Jeans Day, was the most comfortable way to show school spirit for teachers and students alike. On Thursday, Santa Hats were seen everywhere in the halls. Holiday Day was a special favorite for Junior Jen Edmonds who sprouted antlers for the occasion.

The week ended traditionally with Blue and Gold Day. Students actively supported their fellow teammates at the winter Pep Rally which capped off spirit week with a Bang!

Working For A Living

Having a demanding and often time-consuming afterschool job requires a great deal of responsibility and personal commitment. However, many CHS students are willing to dedicate themselves to a job in order to explore career options and to raise money for clothes, cars and entertainment. In a recent survey of two hundred and five Cranford Seniors, over 71% indicated that they hold a regular job. In our current economy, a job is more than a valuable commodity, it is a necessity.

Senior Kara Fortunato works in the Walgreen's Pharmacy on weekends as well as afterschool. She averages twenty-five hours a week in her position as a Pharmacy Technician.

When asked whether Kara enjoys her job, she stated, "Pharmacy work is more educational than just working behind a cash register. You learn a lot. Confidentiality is a vital part of the job."

Obviously, jobs not only provide an opportunity to have fun but they also help students prepare themselves for their careers.

Being involved in school sports is a way students dare to be different. Whether they are on a successful team like Field Hockey, or are involved in an individual sport like surfing, students who work hard to achieve their goals set themselves apart from others. Every sport requires commitment, determination and spirit.

Fortunately, Cranford is distinct because it is filled with people who are up to this challenge, and who willingly dedicate themselves to their sport.

Service with a smile

Consistency, spirit, and hard work are what made this year's Girls' Tennis Team victorious. With only three starters returning, this year was meant to be a rebuilding and learning experience for the program. However, as head coach Jim Farrell said, "This year turned into a very surprising and phenomenal year."

The team boasted an unexpected 16-7 record, surpassing everyone's expectations.

Leading the team at first singles was Junior Rachel Severs. Junior Courtney Silvern played second singles, and Kelly Harnett took third singles. The first doubles team consisted of Senior Co-Captain Laurie Shackell and Freshman Amy Oriscello. Sharing the duty of second doubles was Senior Co-Captain Bonnie Gittlin and Junior Sarah Jane Mariano. Juniors Lexi Welc and Greta Lange also saw playing time at second doubles.

Co-Captain Bonnie Gittlin predicts an even more successful season next year. She believes that "As for next year, the team should be outstanding. This year everyone was relatively new to their positions but next year the remaining team members know what to expect."

B est season yet!

It is getting late, the fans are ready to head home and even the girls on the field are satisfied with a tie. Then, with less than a minute remaining in double overtime, Junior Christine Baumann powers the ball past the hands of the Scotch Plains goalie. For the first time ever, the Cougars had defeated the Scotch Plains Raiders by a score of 2-1. Was it luck? Hardly. Senior Co-Captain Joanne Toth has the answer. "This year we really pulled together and worked as a team."

The Girls' Varsity squad combined their talents with a tenacious spirit to come up with their most impressive season ever this year, ending with a record of 10-6. The team found confidence in winning big games against a never before beaten Summit team, by a score of 1-0. The underestimated Cougars, led by spirited Senior Co-Captains Michelle DeVito and Joanne Toth, crawled their way to a fourth place seat in both county and state tournaments, but were unfortunately defeated at both levels. However, the team worked long and hard and brilliantly for their much deserved success. Next season, they intend to drive even harder to be successful. The key to the teams accomplishments? Christine Baumann put it best, "The blend of old and new players and the desire to win allowed us to have our most winning record ever."

G oing for goooal!

When you think of the 1993 Boys' Varsity team, two things come to mind: dedication and determination. This year, the team's record was a solid 7-6-5, which reflected the players' continued stamina and spirit throughout a long season of play.

The Varsity team was skillfully led by Senior Co-Captains Ken Hartmann and Dan Wilken. Two additional Seniors, who led the team in goals, were Mike Swackhamer with 8 and Mike Smith with 7. Don Andretta, Adam Ferreira, Matt Kawczynski, Craig Morano, and Matt Taglialavore also contributed to a great season. Coach Ray was a continual inspiration to everyone, often telling the team to play hard, regardless of the outcome of the game.

The team impressed a lot of schools this year by putting in strong effort despite their injury problems. The team qualified for States but lost to Morristown in the first round of play by a score of 1-0. However, the most memorable games of the year were the 5-2 victory over New Providence in the County Tournament, and the ties with Eastside and Elizabeth in regular season play.

Although it was a good year the team was plagued by injuries. These injuries definitely had a negative effect on the team's ability to play consistently.

This year, the team is graduating nine Seniors. However, the dedicated and determined underclassmen are looking forward to a bright and successful future next year.

Heart and soul

In spite of playing a demanding and difficult season schedule, the Varsity Football Team managed to remain competitive throughout the 1993 season. Their schedule consisted of playing many state powerhouse teams including Summit, Plainfield, and Elizabeth, who constantly challenged the young Cougar team.

As Head Coach Nick Brown looks back on the season, he knows his team gave all they had in every game. For example, in the game against East Side where Cranford unfortunately lost by a score of 14-7, the Cougars made a valiant comeback. Senior Keith Lewis had a 42 yard reception off Quarterback Mike Fitzpatrick's hail mary pass that put Cranford on the three yard line with one second left. On the next play, Junior Running Back Sam Richardson crossed the goal line but the officials ruled that he had fumbled the ball. In that game, Richardson rushed for an impressive 65 yards on 14 carries and had one touchdown to his credit.

Senior linemen John Fay, Jason Schultz, Mike Maguire, Steve Bazilus, and Kevin Sargent were also a reliable unit all season. This group encouraged their teammates and refused to give up.

As he reflected on this year, Coach Brown felt that although the Cougar's 0-9 record was rather depressing, he wasn't disheartened and in fact felt proud because "The kids played with heart and desire for all nine games."

Tops in their field

Did you see the Girls Varsity Field Hockey Team in action this season? If you didn't, you missed some astonishing plays that landed the team in the State Sectional round of competition. Although the team lost against unbeaten West Essex by a score of 3-0, the team won the County Championships and surprised a lot of people with their spirited play.

This year, the team ended their season with an impressive 14-2 record. Senior Jessica Dreyer felt that the highlight of the year was winning the county championships against Kent Place by a score of 4-3. On the other hand, many players felt that their best experience was giving Coach Renee Dorfman her 250th career win. Coach Dorfman commented that "It was a nice milestone achievement, but it was even better to share it with such a wonderful group of kids."

Megan Lightcap, with ten goals and two assists, Donna Polito, with eight goals and three assists and Kristen Johnson all finished as top scoring leaders. Cara Degenhardt, with a record of three goals, leads the county in assists with seventeen. All-County honors went to goalie Carrie Gordon. In addition, Kristen Johnson, Donna Polito and Kara Dackermann were named to the Second All County Team. Obviously, the Field Hockey Team finished with a tremendous record, successfully bringing the county title back to Cranford. Next year, the team expects to do even better.

A shot in the right direction

The 1993-1994 Varsity Basketball Team posted a promising 6-13 record. With a young team comprised mostly of Juniors and one Senior, the squad was able to play and compete with more seasoned teams in the Watchung Conference.

One of the season's biggest highlights was the Cougars defeat of Solomon Schector. The Cougars powered back from a 26-20 halftime deficit to beat the team by a final score of 50-45. Pete Dittmar led the team with 18 points, followed by Keith Lewis with 11. Dittmar also lead the team to a confidence building win against Summit. In that game, Dittmar dunked for 20 points, followed by David Crosby with nine. Both of these powerful defeats gave the Cougars the desire to keep working hard to attain their goals. In the team's biggest upset of the season over Union by a close score of 53-52, Keith Lewis also became the team's leading rebounder.

Captain Lewis anchored a strong group of juniors including Bubba Baker, Dittmar, Chris Kaltreider, Justin Berger and Jeff Carney. In Coach Lafferty's third season, the team came back strong after a slow start and advanced to the conference playoffs. With four of five starters returning next year, the Cougars look forward to a prosperous season.

They keep going, and going and . . .

Tenacity and hard work were two factors that contributed to a successful season for the Boys' Cross Country team. This year they finished fifth in the Union County Championships. The team was lead by Senior Claudio Tarsi, an exchange student from Italy, who showed great enthusiasm for the Cranford Team. The Juniors who stood out were the Co-Captains Andy Bostrom, Brian Jobe and Chris Zehnder. Sophomore Chris Zambell finished the season as the number one runner for the Cougars.

For many runners, the season highlight was when the team lost to Summit and Elizabeth during the regular season and then, came back to defeat those teams in the County Tournament. Coaches Ray White and Keith Carroll are looking forward to next year's season because they anticipate that many of the runners will be returning to enhance their techniques.

The Girls' Cross Country team placed fourth in the Union County Championships this season. The team was led by Senior Jamie Saladino and Junior Laurie Dunkerton. The highlight of the season, according to Melissa Guthrie, came when the girls lost to Elizabeth during the regular season but came back to place higher than them in the County

The girls team got great contributions from runners Jen Zehnder, Kristen Foulds, Iwa Ching and Melissa Guthrie. The girls team believes that they will definately improve next fall as a result of continual practice, intense dedication, and the return of many promising athletes.

Let's Get Fired Up!

"Got spirit! Let's hear it! Got spirit! Let's hear it..." This cheer is just one of many that adds excitement and enthusiasm to fall sports events. With their megaphones and pom-poms, the peppy fall cheerleading squad is a welcome addition to any game. Co-captained by Colleen Rae and Mandy Keeley, the rest of the Varsity squad consists of Ali Zakrzewski, Erin Sharkey, Becky Gregson, Ailynne San Juan, Nicole Warbeck, Nicole Maron, Janel Mays, Lashonda Singley, Maura Slattery, and Jessica Curia. This year's fall advisors are Isla Hinkley and Carol Migliorini. Without this group of talented supporters, field hockey, soccer, and football games would lack some of their sparkle.

Winter Spirit

This year, the winter cheerleading squad approached each game and match with an enthusiastic, positive attitude. Even though the weather forced many cancellations, the squad was always there to lend their voices of support for the basketball and wrestling teams. Throughout the season, the squad also attended clinics, cheered at Rutgers University, and held fundraisers to support their various endeavors.

G race under pressure

The graceful, yet aggressive Cougar gymnasts remained a competitive team in the 1993 season, despite a 2-10 record. The gymnasts competed well throughout the season, at times coming within a tenth of a point of their adversaries.

The young team started their season with a clean slate. Under the direction of new Head Coach, Mike Dow, and Assistant Coach, Diane Bryant, the team learned innovative routines and perfected more standard moves.

As a result, Freshman Alexie Kupka competed exceptionally well at the Dayton Tournament, placing sixth on the balance beam to qualify for the State Sectionals. Along with Kupka, Junior Co-Captain, Lauren Weiss, qualified on beam for the Sectionals. In addition, Senior Captain and seasoned competitor, Tara Gorman, competed on the floor exercise. All three girls did well based on their individual scores, performance, and high degree of creativity.

The Cougars definitely experienced many memorable moments throughout the season. Junior Nicole Giacone believes, "... that despite our losses, we gained a competitive edge because of our continuing teamwork and a fresh perspective from Coach Dow."

Nothing but net

This has been one of the hottest seasons on record for the Lady Cougars, according to Senior Erin Malkowski. Over the course of the 1993-94 season, the Girls' Basketball team has finally overcome many previous obstacles. In the midst of the season, Cranford surprisingly defeated Union Catholic by a score of 47-25. This was the first time since Mr. Melleno started coaching 9 years ago that the team beat Union Catholic, which helped give him his 100th win. In addition, Cranford defeated Shabazz and won the Christmas Tournament for the third year in a row. To top it off, the Lady Cougars are also the current Watchung Conference Champions.

This year, the team consisted of four dedicated seniors: Jessica Dreyer, Cara Degenhardt, Erin Malkowski and Erin Farrell. Juniors Katie Donnelly, Shalie Wright, Laurie Dunkerton, Rachel Severs and Lauren Weiss along with sophomore Donna Polito and Freshman Abby Dreyer have all contributed to the Cougar's magnificent 16-2 regular season record.

Senior Jessica Dreyer is the current leading scorer, averaging 16.5 points per game. This year, Dreyer has also achieved a milestone by scoring her 1000th point during their opening season game against Rahway. Shalie Wright is the leading rebounder, averaging 11.5 rebounds per game. Shalie also had the distinction of achieving the most rebounds ever in a game with 25 against Shabazz.

Overall, the season has been a tremendous success and the Lady cougars continue to fight and push ahead through the semi-final and final round of county and state competition.

Skating to success

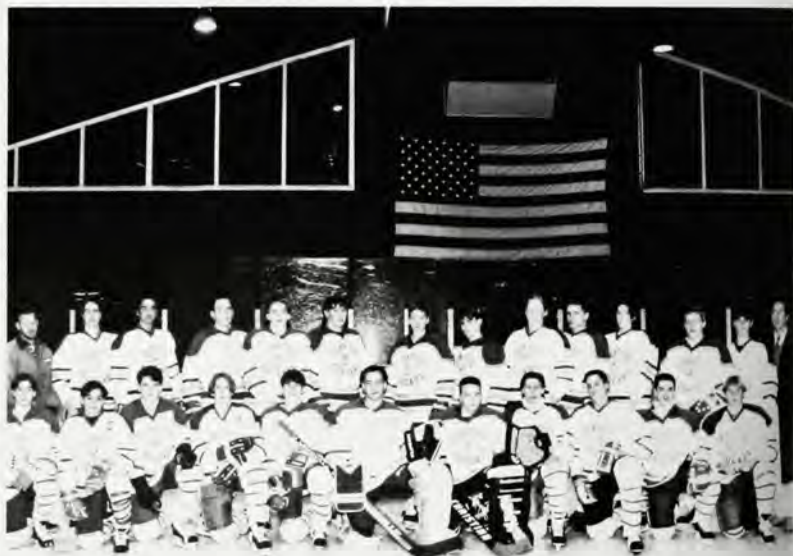

What a difference a year makes! In its second season in the National B Division of the New Jersey State Hockey League, the Varsity Ice Hockey Team achieved many "goals". Besides making the state tournament and finishing with a 13-2-1 record, the team displayed a desire to win and work co-operatively. That factor alone put them ahead of other league teams.

For example, in the game against Livingston which Cranford won by a 7-1 margin, scoring leaders Pat Slocum and Mike Swackhamer pulverized their competition. Likewise, in the game against West Orange, Keith Macksoud scored 3 goals as the team skated to a 9-3 victory.

Throughout the season, the team was led by sophomore scoring sensation Pat Slocum. At the conclusion of the regular season, Pat finished with 38 goals and 29 assists. Also, Captain Keith Macksoud finished with 16 goals, 35 assists, Mike Swackhamer finished with 38 points and Freshman Brian Beirne tallied 30 points to make a significant contribution to the overall success of the team.

Goaltender Drew Provini recorded one of the best records in the league with 3.52 goals scored against him.

Seniors Tom Barrett, Dave LaVeglio, Brad Meehan, Doug Petchow, Mike O'Donnell, and Jack Mahoney stepped up to play well when needed. At season's end, several players were named to All Conference teams.

Making Waves

The Cougar Swim Team was on the move this season. With an impressive 7.5 record, the team surprised many supporters and swam their way into the hearts of Cranford fans.

At the County Tournament, the girls finished seventh overall while the boys finished eleventh. Led by captain Alison Brunner, the team faced the toughest teams in the county this season and proved that they could handle the pressure and win.

This year, several Cougar swimmers placed in Counties. Freshman Linda Haustein and Alexie Kupka placed eleventh in the 200 freestyle and ninth in the 100 freestyle respectively. Sophomore Jessica Snyder also did well, placing third in the 100 butterfly and Junior Erica Blake came in eleventh in the 100 backstroke.

Senior Kelly Imus made a huge comeback this season after suffering from mononucleosis, placing twelfth in the 500 freestyle. Junior Daichi Iida placed seventh in the 100 breaststroke to help the boys.

Even though the team is losing five hard-working Seniors, the team hopes to make some waves next season as they work to improve their overall record.

Cougars take down competition

You could feel the intensity in the air; it was as thick as fog as Junior heavyweight Sam Richardson walked onto the mat. Cranford hadn't beaten Union in seven years and if Sam won his match, Union would be defeated. The crowd roared and cheered for Sam, who in the end was victorious. The final score was 35-33, and more importantly, Cranford had beaten Union. The crowd went wild because this single match represented the high point of the 1993-94 Cranford Wrestling season.

Even though the returning wrestlers had to adjust to a new head coach, Jamie Shriner, it didn't seem to effect their mat performance. With the Cougars boasting a record of 8-2-1, the matmen lived up to their winning tradition. Having four strong captains, John Cuccolo, Chris Sullivan, John Grady, and John Fay, helped the team stay together despite missed practices and canceled matches due to inclement weather.

Another season highlight was the Union County Tournament where the Cougars placed sixth. Senior John Cuccolo repeated as Union County champion, this year at 119 lbs. Junior Sam Richardson also finished on top in the tournament at heavyweight. Senior Chris Sullivan took third at 135 lbs., Freshman Bill Crecca placed at 112 lbs., along with Senior John Grady at 189.

While Seniors Mike Montague and John Fay kept a lighthearted atmosphere at practice, the intensity of the Cougar tradition always came first, which motivated their teammates Senior Dan Hudson and Junior Scott Friedman. The phrase "never give up" fits Dan well. Even with his tough matches, Dan always let the stress roll off his back. Junior Scott Friedman also contributed to the team with an impressive personal record of 11-3.

On the right track

The Boys' 1993-94 Winter Track team was striding for excellence this year and they sure made it. With two strong Captains, Craig Morano and Greg Kleinsorgen, always pushing the underclassmen, their hard work paid off. During their meet in East Stroudsburg, the 4 x 200 relay team, consisting of Morano, Kleinsorgen, Mike Feeley, and Dave Bober, took third place. During the Rockland County meet, the boys' sophomore mile relay which was run by Dave Bober, Brian Williams, Todd Prutzman and Dan Watnee, took the gold. Similarly, Joe Sobon hurdled his way to the top in the majority of his meets and Bill Hanson sprinted to the finish in the 60 yd. dash.

According to Head Coach Ray White, the fairly young team managed to remain competitive because of their physical strength. He is expecting strong performances from the team next season.

The Girls' Winter Track team also exploded onto the scene this year at the Union County Relays where they took fifth place overall. The mile relay team, consisting of Jaime Saladino, Monique Brown, Michelle DeVito, and Margot Iglesias, won second place while the distance medley relay team and the two mile relay team, consisting of Christina Morehead, Tracy Swackhamer, Courtney Silvern and Jen Zehnder, both took third place. In addition, the 880 relay team of Brown, DeVito, Iglesias and Tenisha Coleman left with a fifth place award while Lisa Mucica and Traci Prutzman leapt into sixth place in the high jump.

The ladys' dedication and effort this season certainly paid off.

Strikes and spares

The Bowling Team followed up last year's terrific year with another great season. Posting a record of 11-1 and becoming conference champs, the Cougars were a force in 1994, leading the Watchung Conference American Division. The team won ten in a row to finish the season, winning key victories against Union Catholic and archrival Linden, with scores of 5-2 and 7-0 respectively.

The varsity club was led by Senior co-captains Stan Garbowski, Ellen Eichenlaub, Don Montefusco and R.J. Wallin. Rounding out the squad was sophomore Mike Driscoll. Garbowski led the team with a 180 average followed by Wallin with a 179. Eichenlaub and Montefusco each had 174 averages, followed by Driscoll with a 171.

The end of the season will mark the loss of four varsity Seniors. The Cougars will have a young team next season, but with strong coaching and plenty of talent, don't count Cranford out.

The Sporting Life

Although the high school offers a variety of sports and activities, there are some people who find enjoyment in sports that take place outside of the high school's organized setting. Sports such as cycling, skiing, hacky-sacking, dancing, traveling team soccer, and surfing are some examples of extra-curricular sports.

Freshman Eric Ferreira said "There is a difference between traveling soccer team and the school soccer team. The level of competition is much harder and the games are much more challenging."

Junior Stephanie Kovac and Sophomore Leslie Ditta said that they would like "More opportunities to dance in school but since there are very few, we participate in as many out of school classes as we can."

Senior Brad Meehan, an avid surfer, also believes that enjoyment doesn't have to come from only school-sponsored sports. He states that, "There are no coaches to pressure you when you surf. You're on your own and you just do what you want to do for yourself."

Lend A Helping Hand

The HAND IN HAND CLUB provides service to the school and to the community. This year, the group conducted a successful food drive for the homeless, decorated nursing homes for the holidays and will give their assistance during the upcoming Special Olympics. In addition, the club is involved in a new project this year. The club members are currently working closely with Cranford Cares for Kids, an organization which helps children with long-term illnesses.

Advisor: Mrs. Karen Shaw, President: Adrienne Steltzer, Vice President: Nicole Maguire, Secretary: Amy Laskowski, Treasurer: Suzanne Kessler.

Making people feel comfortable and wanted when going to see a CHS production is what the USHERS CLUB is all about. Advised by Mrs. Marie Moran, the club members are in charge of handing out programs and seating patrons at both dramatic and choral productions.

Advisor: Mrs. Marie Moran, President: Jaime Saladino, Vice President: Michele Eickman, Secretary-Treasurer: Ali Zakrzewski.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY members are a group of highly respected students with superior academic averages. At CHS, these students assist others in their classes and also provide tutoring for those students in need of it. This group upholds the academic standards of Cranford High and offers a much needed service to the student body.

Advisor: Mr. Richard Jones, President: Bernadette Matten, Vice President: Guy Patterson, Secretary: Keith Macksoud, Treasurer: Dan Wilkin.

Exploring Culture

The FRENCH CLUB, advised by Mrs. Susan Rivkind, holds many activities throughout the year such as the Holiday Party, French-Spanish Foods Banquet, annual volleyball game against the Spanish Club, and the foreign language picnic at the end of the year. The French Club's major fundraiser, the Oo-la-la lollipop and chocolate sale is held in February to subsidize the club's June outing to Chez Catherine, for exclusive French cuisine.

Officers: Alana Fredericks, Su Kim, Copresidents; Carrie Brady, Secretary; Jose-Luis Riera, Treasurer.

The FRENCH HONOR SOCIETY recognizes students who have excelled in French. The group also functions as a tutorial organization for other French students. The most memorable event that the club participates in is the Candlelight Induction Ceremony in June. The French Honor Society combines with the French Club in many of its activities.

Advisor: Jillian Ritchie; President: Peter Dittmar; Officers: Jeremy Platt and Kelly Harnett.

GERMAN CLUB members promote increased interest in the German language through fund raisers and local outings in the Tri-State area. The club enjoys the cultural experiences of the German people as they celebrate Oktoberfest and participate in the Foreign Language Fair.

Officers: Jaime Saladino, President; Carrie Brady, Vice President; R.J. Wallin, Secretary; Tiziana DiLello, Treasurer.

and Foreign Lands

The SPANISH CLUB strives to increase awareness of Spanish and Latin American cultures. Activities include making and designing original piñatas which are filled with candy or small gifts. These are later donated to charity. The club also celebrates their own piñata party, dines in Spanish and Mexican restaurants and prepares their own "international banquet."

*Advisor: Joan Watkins,
President: Cara Macaluso,
Vice President: Nicole Maguire,
Secretary: Erin Sharkey, Treasurer: Erica Blake.*

Members of the SPANISH HONOR SOCIETY support Spanish Club activities, such as pinata making and the annual foreign language picnic. The club is advised by Mr. Donato Zoppi and is open to students in Spanish 3 or above with an A or B average.

The LATIN CLUB fosters learning about Greek and Roman culture as well as keeping the Latin language alive. Advised by Dr. Barbara Merry, the club holds many events to coincide with Roman holidays, such as Saturnalia (Christmas). The club also participates in the annual certamen tournament, which measures students knowledge of Latin. The club also takes part in the language picnic. The Latin Club's major fundraiser is the October Slave Auction, in which upperclassmen bid on new members as their "slaves" for the year.

Officers: Triumvirate, Michele Eickman, Karen McFadden, Julie Newman, Hiba Quaraman, Amy De Angelis.

What's in the News?

Throughout the year, the SPOTLIGHT staff rushes to meet deadlines, gather information, and conduct interviews with members of the student body and staff of Cranford High School. The objective of Spotlight is to bring topics of controversy and pertinent interests to our school to keep us informed of current issues and special school activities. Included in the newspaper are feature articles, athletic and academic information and reports on important students, faculty, and administrators in our community. Advised by Mrs. Connie McNamara, Spotlight not only provides a service to the school, but also a forum where students are clearly able to express themselves.

The LITERARY SOCIETY, advised by Mrs. Eileen Dachnowicz, of the English Department, meets bi-weekly on Tuesday mornings to discuss the outstanding literary works. This year Edgar Allan Poe's short stories, poems, and a novella served as the basis for many interesting and chilling morning discussions over donuts.

Led by president Karen McFadden and executive officers Amy Golden, Christina Chang, Michele Eickman and Dan Wiener, the group enjoyed an activity-filled year. In addition to the annual holiday get-together at Ms. D's house, the club held many socials at members' homes, listened to guest speakers, attended plays and took a literary tour of Greenwich Village, a tradition of the society.

“C” What We Can Do!

Above: Tim O'Brien and Jeff Hatfield discover a shocking statement in the yearbook during this year's Club Fair. Is it too late for Ms. Hilborn to edit?

The 1994 Golden C staff is a social, cooperative and creative group. Every day during the first semester, the Senior staff meets to produce the publication. Although the yearbook class is one semester in length, a large part of the book and the supplement is produced during frequent afterschool and evening meetings throughout the early spring.

The production staff is advised by Ms. Jennifer Hilborn and is assisted by Co-Editors-in-Chief Mandy Keeley and Lori Scanlon. Photography is done by the staff and the Photo Club which is advised by Mr. Jay Smith. Mr. Richard Phillips and his business staff provide the sales and distribution of the book. Senior business staff members are Rachel Illing, Pratik Patel, Luise Rapp and Craig Willig.

This year, underclassmen continue to play an important role in the creation and sales of the Golden C. Ms. Hilborn's period four "Introduction" to Publication" class writes copy and produces final layouts. In addition, for the first year, a ten person underclassmen production staff edits copy and designs original layouts. Their assistance, along with the enthusiasm of our Jostens Representative, Mrs. Bonnie Blackman, are essential ingredients necessary for the success of the Golden C.

History and Government in Action

The STUDENT GOVERNMENT is a community service organization formed to foster better relations between students, administration and faculty. Important charity fund-raising activities include the Valentine's Day Carnation Sale and the Powderpuff Football game in April.

Advisors: Charles Kiamie and Carolyn Finnegan, President: Mellisa Nordstrom, 1st V.P.: Julie Newman, 2nd V.P. Nicole Capece, Secretary: Carrie Brady, Treasurer: Heather Murray, Historian: Patty Turowski, Parliamentarian: Meredith Whitefield.

The AMERICANA CLUB provides its members with an opportunity to enhance their knowledge of American history. Among other activities, they also visit local historic sites, such as The Stage House Inn in Scotch Plains.

Advisors: Ronald Spinella; President: Chris Brotea; V.P.: R.J. Wallin; Treasurer: Alana Fredericks; Secretary: Andy Murphy.

Global and Environmental Issues

The purpose of STUDENTS FOR ENVIRONMENTAL ACTION is to encourage the students of CHS to be more aware of the current problems facing our environment today. Activities include a T-shirt sale fund raiser, button sale fund raiser, earth day activities, planting trees on the school grounds, river/ocean clean up, and improving the recycling program in CHS. The advisor of SEA is Ms. Cara Vignone, and the president of the club is Mike Stabile.

CHS Rod + Reel

ROD AND REEL is the growing club that plans one to two fishing trips a year. The club focuses on the basics of fishing and fun. This year the club plans to go fishing at Sandy Hook on the Shark River. The advisor of ROD AND REEL is Ron Pizzi. The presidents are R.J. Wallin and Chris Silvern. The Vice President is Jeremy Platt. The Secretary is Dan Bombaci, and the Treasurer is Danny Toto.

The purpose of MODEL UN is to simulate the United Nations. Students increase their awareness of international issues and their understanding of the United Nations and how it relates to the world community. The students participate in a Model UN Assembly in Hershey Park, Pa. on Dec. 10, 11, and 12.

Under the direction of Mr. Gerson Horowitz, the 1993-94 JAZZ BAND performs at many special CHS events, such as Pasta Night.

This year's members include: C. Arias, J. Baldoni, A. Bostrum, D. Donovan, S. Garbowski, A. Grobe, C. Holland, K. Imus, B. Jobe, C. Kroyer, C. Lowe, C. Macaluso, J. Marmo, N. Maguire, M. McGowan, C. Morano, A. Murphy, J. Ondrey, T. Parsons, J. Riera, B. Silkenston, G. Sokoloff, C. Soltis, D. Toto, A. Wright.

The LAW CLUB is a growing club that exposes students to a variety of activities that will clarify the purposes and values of our legal system. The club offers numerous activities such as trips and guest speakers. Many Law Club members participate in Mock Trial to further their knowledge of American Justice.

Advisor: Bernard Flashberg, President: Karen McFadden, Vice Presidents: Nicole Maguire, Marc Grunberg, Treasurer: Julie Newman, Secretaries: Brian Maher, Dave Thorn.

The MOCK TRIAL is designed to help students develop an understanding of the American legal system. It helps students cultivate a sense of teamwork, cooperation, as well as competition. This year's case, Nugent vs. Murphy, is about a discrepancy over a will. The case will be debated in February at the Union County Courthouses in Elizabeth. The club is advised by Mr. Bernard Flashberg and Attorney Bruce Bergen.

MODEL YOUTH IN GOVERNMENT is a club that helps the young people of New Jersey explore their state government. They begin preparing in January for their three day conference which is held in Trenton each March. The club writes bills that they would like to see passed by the New Jersey Legislature. The goal is to have students become more active members of their government by having two or more bills passed by the New Jersey Legislature.

Advisor: Albert Berke, President: Deena Brozek, Vice President: Chuck Kiamie, Secretary: Carrie Brady.

Crews, Cars and Costumes

In order for the 1993-94 Cranford High productions of The Mad Show and Bye, Bye, Birdie to become a success, the STAGE CREW must produce a setting. In the past, the Stage crew has done a wonderful job and this year, with all of their hard work, the settings should be works of art. Advised by Mr. Chorazak, the crew works late nights in order to ensure attractive, well-constructed sets.

Advised by Mr. Joe Leva, the AUTO CLUB is designed to allow students to do simple maintenance procedures on cars. Shop time before and after school is available so club members can work on their own, as well as on faculty automobiles. This year's members include: President: Ed Billson, Nick Arace, Dan Whitmeyer, Joe Martinez, John Cuccolo, Anson Chang, Dave Lettieri, Mandie Burisch, Jim McElwee, Joe O'Donnell, Pete Ellam, Steve Patton, and Mike Sorrentino.

The COSTUME CLUB provides and maintains a wardrobe of costumes for the various theatrical productions throughout the school year. The members design and sew costumes, working hard before each production to create a unique look for each show. The club is advised by Anne Walsky and this year they plan an impressive array of costumes for the spring musical, Bye, Bye, Birdie.

HERO is a national youth organization and a branch of Future Homemakers of America. HERO provides opportunities for personal development and preparation for adult life. It also provides vocational preparation for home economics careers.

During club meetings, members work on projects, listen to speakers, and plan fundraisers for any trips they plan.

The group is advised by Anne Walky and each year, they attend the fall Regional meeting and the annual state meeting in addition to working at the Childrens Specialized Hospital.

The mission of FBLA is to bring business and education together in a positive working relationship through innovative leadership development programs.

The Cranford Chapter of FBLA has been successful in both state and national competitions. Advised by John Podbelski, all members participated in the North Central Regional Competition held at Middlesex County College in January. Cindy Reynolds received a certificate for placing sixth in Business Communication competition, while Tracy Drahos placed eighth in Business Procedures to receive a certificate.

Advisor: John Podbelski, President: Kimberly Swenson, Vice President: Cindy Reynolds, Secretary: Tracy Drahos, Treasurer: Pam Wishart.

Advised by Mrs. Narus, the GOURMET CLUB is designed to provide students with culinary skills and teach them how to cook with a variety of foods from the food pyramid. Each year, the Gourmet club travels to Hyde Park, New York to the International Culinary Institution to where they enjoy new taste sensations and explore future careers in the culinary field.

Advisor: Barbara Narus, President: Michelle Simeone, Vice President: Alexis Richel, Secretary: Maria Campanelli, Treasurer: Meghan Kavalus.

Experience the Difference

YOUTH FOR UNDERSTANDING CLUB members unite to explore different cultures of international students around the world. Advised by Ms. Jillian Ritchie, the club meets and discusses the concerns of students in the world today. This year the club is planning a large charity ball to benefit the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

The OUTDOOR EDUCATION CLUB is unique because of its focus on New Jersey's physical and natural environment. The club helps students gain a better understanding of the wilderness as they learn to appreciate our outdoor wonders. The club's activities include learning activities such as lectures and slide presentations in addition to trips to the Pine Barrens and hikes to Raccoon Ridge and Sunfish Pond along the Appalachian Trail.

Advisor: Hank Burke and Jim Cassidy, President: John Ondrey, Vice President: Chuck Halgren, Secretary: Jenn Edmonds, Treasurer: Chris Silvern.

The DUNGEONS AND DRAGONS CLUB brings together students interested in the game, Dungeons and Dragons. The game, based on ancient legends, has various players take on the roles of characters as they face unique challenges. The club is an opportunity to match wits and maneuvers in a game of skill.

Advisor: Ron Sassi, President: Andy Morris, Vice President: Greg Waldron.

Distinction in Science

The main goal of the PSYCHOLOGY CLUB, which consists of 30 members, is to expand the students' perception of what psychology is. This year, president Mike Morley, played an active role in the club by helping organize meetings and a play trip to New York to see Miss Saigon.

Advisor: Mrs. Lillian Wiener. Officers: Mike Morley, President; Melissa Majewski, Vice President; Louann Solomita, Secretary; Ali Zakrzewski, Treasurer.

The Cranford High School CHEMISTRY LEAGUE participates in the New Jersey Science League, sponsored by the Institute for Advancement through Education. The Chemistry League meets monthly to practice and to compete in the written examinations.

The SCIENCE LAB ASSISTANTS CLUB involves students working with science teachers in the preparation of labs, breakdown of labs, and the care of plants and animals. Advised by Ms. Fran Chmiel, this club offers opportunities for students with an interest in science to get together and "experiment."

Distinction in Science and Math

The SCIENCE CLUB, advised by Charles Brown, is a club open to any student in the high school interested in science. The club was developed to encourage students to consider a career in the science field.

The New Jersey MATH LEAGUE is a statewide organization that meets six times during the school year so students can participate in contests sponsored by the New Jersey Mathematics League Inc. The Math League also helps develop mathematical skills and brings together students with common mathematical interests. The 1993-1994 Math League has over 200 members.

Advisors: Mrs. Carol Fedoryk, Mrs. Janet Doliner and Mr. Hank Burk. Officers: Guy Patterson, president; Dave Thorn, vice president; Alyssa Wright, secretary.

Lizards, turtles, and snakes, oh my! The REPTILE CLUB is a unique club open to students with interests in cold blooded creatures. The club provides an opportunity for interested students to meet and discuss their favorite reptiles.

Advisor: Charles Brown, President: Steve Buydos, Vice President: Jessica Mattis, Secretary: Rebekah Meyer.

Diversified Interests

The ANIMAL RIGHTS CLUB, advised by Edith Strauss and Joyce Delpopolo, is a specialized group of students who have the chance, both in and out of school, to work towards the safety of animals and their environment. Members include Heather Messner, Caren Demian, Laura Desiderio, Julie Schweitzer, and Danielle Chilinski.

CONTEMPORARY WORLD AFFAIRS CLUB, informs students about current events and focuses on foreign policy issues and other cultures. The club not only deals with national events, but international as well. This club is advised by Joyce Delpopolo. Members include: Carrie Brady, Michael Morley, Erin Small, Kerri Bruzenas, and Steve Patton.

SPORTS CARD COLLECTING CLUB meets to trade sports cards with interested fans. Advised by Richard Geis, the group discusses statistics with the other members as they evaluate the worth of the cards being traded.

Artistic Expressions

The ART HONOR SOCIETY members are selected from students with A and B averages in art. They support and participate in art club activities such as the pumpkin sale and the creation of care boxes. This year, members have been especially helpful in promoting art courses and using their talents to raise money to do craft projects at a specialized children's hospital.

Advisor: Josephine Harris, President: Karen McFadden, Vice President: Christine Kain, Secretary: Tara Parsons, Treasurer: Michele Eickman.

The ART CLUB brings together creative student artists interested in exploring their talents. This year, the group is committed to helping those less fortunate by creating and offering care boxes to the homeless during the holiday season. In addition, the club also sponsors a popular painted pumpkin sale in the fall. Over the course of the year, members visit museums and art galleries in the New York area to view and critique art.

Advisor: Josephine Harris, President: Gordon Bramwell, Vice President: Genni Johnson, Secretary: Amy Golden, Treasurer: Maura McGowan, Historian: Jeff Hatfield.

The purpose of the COMMERCIAL AND GRAPHIC ARTS CLUB is to provide C & G art services to the school district and to develop the commercial and graphic art skill of the club members. Advised by Doris Cudworth, the club provides a unique opportunity for artistic expression as well as a chance to explore the C & G art industry.

The school literary magazine, PROLOGUE, is published annually and contains a variety of student artwork and writing. The magazine is produced using only student talent and school facilities. Each spring, several monetary prizes are awarded for outstanding art and writing submissions. The Prologue editorial staff is advised by Mr. Albert Hein. Production is under the direction of Mr. Jay Smith.

Many students fail to realize that the CHS PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB is perhaps one of the most active clubs in the school. In addition to shooting for personal enjoyment, club members dedicate large amounts of time to Golden C and Spotlight photography. The photo club members have various fundraisers throughout the year. Money raised is used for the annual canoe trip and to support members as they go on to college.

Advisor: Mr. Jay Smith, President: Lori Scanlon, Vice President: Amy Golden, Secretary/Treasurer: Heather Jenkins.

Battle of the Brains

The CRANFORD ACADEMIC TEAM, advised by Julius Gottilla, is a unique opportunity for students to compete with other schools in a variety of academic competitions. Questions cover many subject areas, such as literature, biology, current events, and even sports. Not only are the competitions challenging and fun, but they give students a chance to meet new people from schools across the state.

Advised by Karen Bailin and Julius Gottilla, FORENSICS gives students a chance to compete in debate and speech tournaments against other New Jersey high schools. From September through March, these dedicated students practice before and after school preparing for the competitions. All competitions are held on Saturday in day-long events. Competing for the trophies becomes secondary to the poise and confidence the students acquire as a result of their involvement in the group.

The CHALLENGE TEAM competes against other New Jersey high schools in a question and answer program sponsored by Suburban Cabellvision TV3. Intelligence, knowledge of trivia, and quick reflexes on the buzzer are all necessary ingredients to being a successful team member. The team is coached by Karen Bailin.

*There is a distinct,
positive attitude present in the students of Cranford High School. In a Society where uniqueness is not often prized, Cranford High is distinct because its administration, faculty and support staff continually encourage and challenge students to be themselves. Yet, the students are also inspired to interact, cooperate with one another, and mutually strive for excellence.*

FROM START TO finish

Above: Look how far Aimee Niemyk and John Fay have come: from playschool graduation and leisure suits to field hockey and football.

Right: It sure was a girl's night out at Cara Degenhardt's all-girl slumber party in fifth grade.

Right: Born actresses: These ladies show off their costumes and smiles in Orange Avenue's eighth grade "Logers Lament".

1994

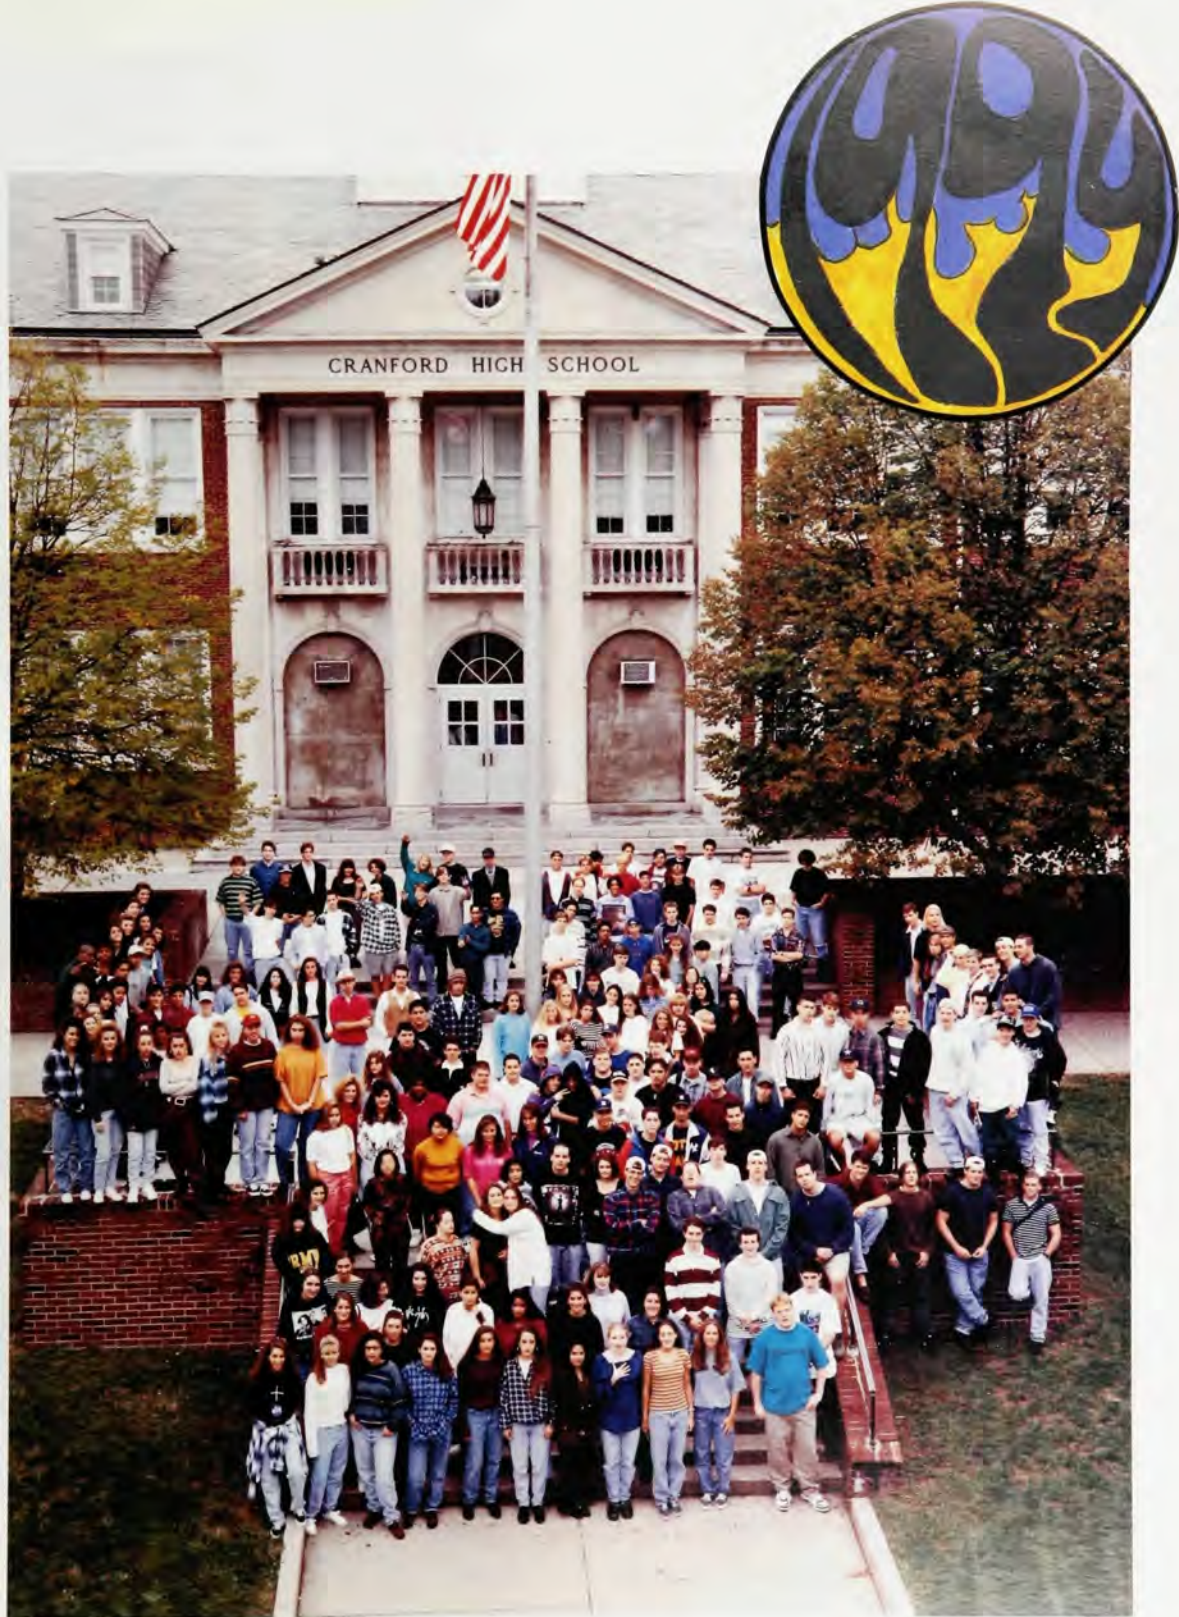

These are the Days

These are the days
so we are told to have in our hearts and always to hold.
These are the memories never to end the memories of good times spent with our friends.
Our beliefs and our morals are all our own but we've all learned together and in turn we've all grown.
These are the days
we're all sure to remember because these are the days
When we're all together.

Through The Years

The Senior Class of 1994 has always been a very special group. From sleepovers and birthday parties, to plays and concerts in elementary school, this class has established themselves as a unique and diverse one.

Now, as they look to the future, the members of the class of 1994, are setting goals and facing new challenges. In a recent survey, 191 out of 206 seniors plan to attend either a two or four year college after graduation. The remainder intend to move out into the working world next year.

In addition to planning for the future, the seniors of CHS focused on the changing music and fashion worlds. 1994 was a year where alternative and rock groups such as Pearl Jam and Billy Joel seemed to prevail. Old clothing such as baggy jeans and Doc Martens remained in style as clogs, combat boots, peasant dresses and the 50's style became popular again.

Regardless of their preferences and differences, the Senior class of 1994 will always be able to look back and reflect on the many wonderful memories they shared at CHS.

That's The Difference!

The students, faculty, and administration of Cranford High School strive toward difference, diversity and distinction in their everyday lives. Being a member of an organization like the Outdoor Education club or a sports team such as Swimming, set people apart as individuals. However, the spirit that the students generate during these activities brings us all together at CHS. Over the past year, we have learned many lessons, set and achieved personal and group goals, and formed everlasting friendships that continually reflect our . . . Difference, Diversity, and Distinction.

Colophon

The 1994 Golden C was published by the 17 member Yearbook Staff, advised by Jennifer Hilborn, of Cranford High School, Cranford, New Jersey. The book was printed by Jostens Printing and Publishing, State College, Pennsylvania, a division of Jostens. The company representative was Bonnie Blackman.

The 550 copies of the Golden C were printed on 80 pound matte paper, 9x12 in size, and 192 pages in length with an additional 16 page Spring Supplement. The print is in black ink. The 1994 addition has 48 pages of full color MSTC prints with 16 pages of Pantone paper in the opening section. The type style is Korinna. The type set is 8 pt. for caption copy, 10 pt. for body copy, and headlines vary from 12 pt. to 96 pt. Division page headlines are hand lettered in the style of the cover.

The cover is an original Lithograph picture, designed by Jostens artist Rick Brooks. The cover is 150LB board and High Gloss laminant 478 in Royal Blue 287 and Metallic Copper 876. The backbone is inked in Metallic Copper ink. The endsheets are earth-friendly and printed on recycled paper. All original art work and poetry were created and designed by Cranford High School Seniors. The final cost of the production was $29,500.

All student portraits were taken by Normandy Studio of Plainfield, New Jersey. Candid photographs were taken by Normandy Studio representative, Paul Tighe, and student photographers, under the direction of Jay Smith. The four-person Business Staff was headed by Richard Phillips.

Special Thanks To . . .

Mr. Robert Seyfarth, our Principal, for being open to experimentation and for accepting and supporting our innovations in the 1994 Golden C.

Mrs. Joan Wilde, our Assistant Principal, for always taking the time out of her busy schedule to give encouragement and needed layout advice.

Mrs. Anne Montross, Mrs. Phyllis Truglio, and Mrs. Sharon Guthrie, for always being willing to supply endless class lists, spellings, and student schedules at the last minute.

Mrs. Bonnie Blackman, our Jostens Representative, for her originality, inspiration, and willingness to support our sometimes far-out ideas.

Ms. Hilborn's fourth period Introduction to Publications Class and Underclassmen Yearbook Staff, for their never-ending proofreading, typing, and completion of layouts. Without them, we would never have met our deadlines.

Kimberly Swenson, our unofficial yearbook typist, who took on this responsibility when we needed it most.

The Students and Faculty of CHS, for their Difference, Diversity, and Distinction which continually inspired us throughout the year.
