

BOATS AND BILLBOARDS.

ORDERS GIVEN THAT THEY MUST BE TAKED.

Instructions to This Effect Have Been Sent to All Monmouth County Assessors—State and County Tax Boards Interested.

The Monmouth county board of taxation, as the result of instructions from the state board of taxes and assessors, has just let down to all the assessors of Monmouth county that all boats and advertising billboards must be taxed. Each assessor in the county has received three letters, two on the subject of boats and one on the subject of advertising signs.

One letter states that an assessor in an ocean front county has made complaint that assessors in districts adjacent to his do not assess boats, and that consequently all such property is being moved to districts where no tax is levied. The letter says that while the state board does not believe this condition is general, there is need that attention should be drawn to the matter so that boat owners may not escape their just share of taxation.

The other letter about boats gives advice about how such property should be assessed. The letter states that the courts have held that boats and other movable property should be assessed at the residence of the owners, unless the boats have acquired permanency of value elsewhere. In part the letter reads as follows:

"The duty of the assessor with regard to this class of property, when it is located in his taxing district on October first and is not a boat, is to assess it or subsequent to that date, to assess it at its market value. If the owner of the property is not a resident of the taxing district and an assessment has been levied on the property at his place of residence, the matter can be adjusted by process of appeal, in the regular way."

"The courts have held that in case of doubt, the doubt should be resolved in favor of the property owner, as the taxpayer has his right of appeal."

The letter about billboards is as follows:

"Another matter which the board considers of sufficient importance at this time to bring to the attention of the county boards of taxation is the taxation of advertising signs."

"This property consists of poster panels, bulletin boards and general advertising signs of all kinds. Some of these signs are cheaply constructed, while others are built of very expensive material, and a great many of them are defaced."

"Apparently in many taxing districts of the state no tax is levied on property of this kind. The board therefore directs you to see that all assessors in the various municipalities in your county assess these signs at their true value. The basis of valuation is of course the same as that of all other property taxable under the general tax act: Market value on the assessment date."

DANCE AT PLAYERS' CLUB

BIG ATTENDANCE EXPECTED AT AFFAIR TONIGHT.

It Probably Will be the Last Dance of the Season—New Year's Eve Party and a Skating Carnival Are Among Winter Plans.

A Thanksgiving eve dance will be the attraction at the clubhouse of the Players' club at Fair Haven tonight. In all probability this will be the last dance at the clubhouse this fall, as the usual Saturday night hop and the house committee has appeared a plan to make tonight's affair a fitting close to an active season.

Chet Arthur's orchestra, strongly augmented for the affair, will play for dancing and the dance numbers will be interspersed with professional vaudeville numbers volunteered by members of the theatrical colony of the Fair Haven district.

The Players' clubhouse has been the scene of several dances the past summer, which have proven social and financial successes. The annual barn dance and the annual Halloween dance brought out large gatherings that taxed the capacity of the clubhouse. Tonight's affair promises to be equally as large. No reservations are being made. It is a first come, first served program as to table arrangement.

The club has deferred the installation of a steam heating plant until next season. The banquet hall and balcony are being heated by a series of automatic heaters which can be moved from place to place. Seven of these heaters have been installed, which gives the place all the warmth necessary.

The clubhouse will be kept open all winter and if conditions permit there will probably be held a skating carnival under the auspices of the club sometime during the coming winter. There is also a talk of holding a New Year's eve celebration at the club.

WONT TAKE OVER ROAD.

SHREWSBURY TOWNSHIP'S REQUEST IS TURNED DOWN.

The Township Committee Wanted the County Board of Freeholders to Take Over the Road Between Tinton Falls and Lincolet.

For some time past the township committee of the township of Shrewsbury has been trying to get the board of freeholders of Monmouth county to take over a certain road between Lincolet and Tinton Falls. This road is a connecting link between two roads which are paved with concrete. It is a short cut to the shore districts and occasionally when county roads were paved the freeholders had signs put up directing traffic over this road. The road is partly in Shrewsbury township, partly in Middletown township and partly in Atlantic township. Due to the large amount of traffic which it has to accommodate it is in bad condition.

A short time ago the Shrewsbury township committee called the attention of the board of freeholders to the foregoing facts and asked the freeholders to take over the road. A letter in reply to this request was read at the meeting of the township committee last Thursday. The board of freeholders had passed a motion not to take over any more township roads as public roads and that therefore the request of the Shrewsbury township committee would not be granted.

That this reply was a surprise to the committee is stated in the case mildly. They had been unanimous in their belief that their request was reasonable. Moreover, there was a belief that the board of freeholders had passed a motion to take over any more township roads as public roads and that therefore the request of the Shrewsbury township committee would not be granted.

During the hearing Mr. Magee became incensed against Mr. McCampbell and Mr. Johnson. He warned them to keep off his place or he would treat them as trespassers.

Mr. Boutan protested at the hearing that he had a gunning license but that he did not have it with him. He said he would go home and get the license if given an opportunity to do so. Before imposing the fine the justice of the peace consulted a law book. He interpreted the law to mean that a hunter must have his license with him and that a penalty must be imposed if the hunter does not have his license in his immediate possession. The justice of the peace called up Arthur Davison, the county game warden, on the telephone and asked his opinion on the matter. Mr. Davison replied that it was mandatory for a justice of the peace to impose a fine under such circumstances. In imposing the fine Mr. Boutan said he would suspend his license and that the Assessor's office would show as such on the next day. The gunner produced his license the next day and under the suspended sentence he has not had to pay the fine.

A HUNTER IN TROUBLE.

ASBURY PARK MAN ARRESTED AT HOLMDEL LAST WEEK.

At First He Was Charged With Hunting on Posted Lands but Later the Complaint Was Changed to Hunting Without a License.

Edward Boutan of Asbury Park was arrested at Holmdel last Friday on a charge of gunning on posted lands owned by Bernon S. Prentice. He was arraigned before Justice Edward Boughton of Lincolet, and a $200 fine was imposed. However, the fine was not made for gunning on posted lands but for gunning without a license. The arrest was made by Theron McCampbell, who owns three large farms at Holmdel and who is a deputy game warden. It was Mr. McCampbell who made the charge which resulted in Mr. Boutan being fined. The charge of gunning on private lands was dropped.

Last Friday Charles Bennett, who is superintendent of Mr. Prentice's farm, notified Mr. McCampbell that some one was gunning on the place, despite the fact that the property was posted against hunting. Mr. McCampbell and Mr. Bennett went to the farm, but they did not find the man they were after. He had disappeared. However, just as they were about to leave another man was found gunning on the property. This man was Mr. Boutan.

The first charge against Mr. Boutan was made by Ralph F. Johnson, who is superintendent of Mr. Prentice's farm at Holmdel. Mr. Boutan was brought before Justice Boughton of Lincolet, and he was held in bail for a hearing Saturday night. The names of Mr. Boutan and Hunter, but they are spelled differently and the two men are not related. Elwood Magee, who owns a farm near Holmdel, became Mr. Boutan's bondsman.

When the hearing was held Saturday night Mr. Johnson stated that he wanted to withdraw the charge which he had made against Mr. Boutan. He said that Mr. Prentice had asked him to withdraw the complaint. The charge of gunning without a license was then made and on this complaint Mr. Boutan was fined $20. Mr. Boutan had admitted when he was arrested by Mr. McCampbell that he had no gunning license with him.

During the hearing Mr. Magee became incensed against Mr. McCampbell and Mr. Johnson. He warned them to keep off his place or he would treat them as trespassers.

Mr. Boutan protested at the hearing that he had a gunning license but that he did not have it with him. He said he would go home and get the license if given an opportunity to do so. Before imposing the fine the justice of the peace consulted a law book. He interpreted the law to mean that a hunter must have his license with him and that a penalty must be imposed if the hunter does not have his license in his immediate possession. The gunner produced his license the next day and under the suspended sentence he has not had to pay the fine.

THE RIVER PLAZA LAKE.

DAM AND SPILLWAY TO BE COMPLETED BY CHRISTMAS.

Property Owners Have Selected "Shadow Lake" as the Name of the New Body of Water, Which Will Be Twelve Feet Deep at the Dam.

"Shadow Lake" is to be the name of the lake now being made in Nutswamp brook meadow at River Plaza. This name was selected last week by the property owners adjoining the lake. The names of the property owners who were considered but rejected fell upon Shadow Lake because of all the names submitted that seemed most in keeping with the quiet, restful aspect which the lake and its surroundings will have and also because at whatever time of the day or night the sun or moon is shining there will be shadows on the lake cast by the tall trees which almost completely surround it. The branches of the lake which extend northward from the main lake will be overhung by great trees which in places will form an arch over the water. Here especially there will be shadows at all times of the day, intermingling with the play of sunlight on the water.

The land surrounding the lake, which is to be developed into a residential park, will be known as Shadow Lake Park. The work of surveying and mapping is well under way and is expected to be completed about the first of the year. George D. Cooper, who is the engineer in charge of this part of the work, is now engaged in mapping the streets and lots. The parts of the map already completed indicate that the park will be very beautiful and quite different from any other residential section hereabouts. The streets or paths will be long, with here and there a straight stretch of roadway and with occasional small parks at intersections. There will be some lots of one-third to one-half an acre in area, but most of them will be an acre or more in extent, with a few of two to five acres each. Only high class houses of approved architectural design will be permitted to be constructed on the landscape.

WEDNESDAY NOV. 27, 1929.

A Fine Site For a State Park.

A lot of properties are being bought by the state of New Jersey for public parks. None of these public parks is located in Monmouth county.

The tract of land which is so desirable for public park purposes is the Hartshorne property at Highlands.

The land has been in the Hartshorne family for generations. In one way it is a sort of family heirloom.

A state park at this place would provide not only the finest scenery in Monmouth county, but it would also afford the pleasures and joys of the river and ocean.

So far as known no official action has been set on foot to obtain these grounds or to ascertain if they could be purchased for park purposes.

Red Bank should have a night school supported by public funds, but lacking this it is fine to have the need supplied by a church organization.

The best proof that Red Bank needs a night school is shown by the large enrollment when held by the such a school in gratifying to see a private organization carrying on the work.

Just why the night school was abandoned has never been explained. At any rate it is gratifying to see a private organization carrying on the work.

Overhead Wires and Their Dangers.

One part of Red Bank will soon be without overhead wires. The fire alarm wires on the business section of Broad street are soon to come down and to be placed underground in copolite owned by the telephone company.

It is unfortunate that this is not true of every street in the town. Poles and overhead wires are ugly, dangerous and inefficient.

A firmer attitude towards public service corporations is needed to bring about reform.

Frequently it is said that public service corporations are a law unto themselves and that it is impossible to make them do things which they don't want to do.

Such an instance occurred in Middletown township four years ago when the telephone company uglified the landscape in front of the Fair View cemetery property by putting up poles.

It happened that the company was trying to get a renewal of its franchise at that particular time.

This incident shows that big corporations, despite all their power and wealth, can be made to respect public rights if determined men are in office ready to take advantage of every opportunity to make these corporations do what is right.

Red Bank should have a night school supported by public funds, but lacking this it is fine to have the need supplied by a church organization.

Ample proof exists that there is need for such educational facilities. The initial enrollment shows there are many ambitious foreign-born young women and men who are anxious to have a large educational outlook.

Perhaps also there may be some American-born citizens deprived of educational opportunities when they were boys and girls who will embrace this opportunity.

Tests made in the army during the world war showed an astonishing amount of illiteracy among the male descendants of old-time American families.

Just why the night school was abandoned has never been explained. At any rate it is gratifying to see a private organization carrying on the work.

The Jewish young folks deserve the thanks of the community. What they are doing will make Red Bank a better place to live in.

Every support and encouragement should be given to them, and if ever they need help for this great work, financial or otherwise, it should be ungrudgingly granted.

HAPPENINGS OF OLD IN AND AROUND OUR HOME TOWN.

Incidents Culled From The Register of the Last Week in November Twenty Years Ago, Thirty Years Ago and Forty Years Ago.

A "Jack the Peeper" had been annoying many women by peeping into their windows at night. Mrs. Warren Haviland of Spring street saw the man looking in her window and she set her dog on him, but the man got away without being bitten.

Burd Hance, who owned a farm of 168 acres on the Fair Haven road, between Red Bank and Fair Haven, cut the farm up into lots. The lots were priced at $150 to $500 each.

Miss Elizabeth Bowne Bergen, daughter of John B. Bergen of Broad street, and John Stilwell Applegate, Jr., son of John S. Applegate of Riverside avenue, were married at the Red Bank Baptist church by Rev. Charles E. Hill. A reception was held at the bride's home and the couple started on a wedding trip. A very large number of handsome and valuable gifts were received by the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Longstreet Harvey of Eatontown celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary. Mr. Harvey was 53 years old and his wife was eighty years old. They were married in 1839 and had five living children, Mrs. Charles P. DeCamp, Mrs. Gilbert White and David D. and Wellington R. Harvey of Long Branch, and Edwin A. Harvey of Eatontown.

Nathan Brown of Belford closed his store and restaurant at the Port Monmouth steamboat dock for the season and went to Brooklyn. His store was well patronized by people who carted produce to the Port Monmouth dock. They were very fond of pies and Mr. Brown sold several thousand pies during the summer season.

Miss Lily Carhart, daughter of Mrs. Alfred Carhart of Spring street, was married to William H. Elliott, son of Isaac C. Elliott, by Rev. E. C. Hancock. The couple went on a wedding trip to Philadelphia and Camden and on their return they began housekeeping on Throckmorton street.

John Wilson, Jr., of Oceanic, was married to Miss Margaret McInnes of West Orange at the home of the bride's sister at that place. Samuel Brill of Oceanic was one of the wedding attendants. The couple began housekeeping at Oceanic a few days after the wedding.

Arthur Roberts, son of John M. Roberts of Eatontown, broke his arm in four places between the elbow and the wrist while he and some boy friends were playing circus.

Aviation endorses AIR-COOLING

RELIABILITY...

NO FREEZING... NO OVERHEATING... CONTINUED TOP SPEED WITHOUT LOSS OF POWER

In all endurance planes and in 80% of all other airplanes, the air-cooled type of engine is employed. There are, of course, very good reasons why aviation has turned to air-cooling. Stamina, force, durability and flexibility are demanded of airplane engines. These can be obtained in far greater degree when air-cooling is used.

And so in the Franklin the air-cooled engine gives unsurpassed motor car performance—the type of performance that has enabled Franklin to capture all major road records. In addition to unusual performance Franklin's engine offers trouble-free performance. There is nothing to fill, drain, mix, tighten, replace or repair—there is no water to freeze, boil or leak. Consider the many advantages of air-cooling before you purchase a car.

It must have Screen-Grid tubes to be NEW...but...it must have a specially designed Screen-Grid Circuit to give perfect Screen-Grid performance...

Zenith alone gives you both

Radio owners appreciate more each day, what radio engineers have long since recognized...the modern radio receiver MUST EMPLOY SCREEN-GRID TUBES.

It remained for ZENITH engineers, however, in their unceasing research, to go far beyond the screen-grid tube itself. For here was amplification beyond all former standards. Instead of following the prevalent method of adapting the screen-grid tube to the circuit, ZENITH adapted a circuit especially to the screen-grid tube...a circuit, unhurriedly built from the ground up.

In sharp contrast to other makes of radio employing screen-grid tubes, the new 15th Anniversary ZENITH Receivers cannot choke or distort at ANY volume. ZENITH engineers went another pace ahead, adding DOUBLE Push-Pull Amplification, assuring double control of the extra output of the set.

Here is design, construction, and forethought that anticipate every condition of screen-grid operation.

A brief demonstration will quickly show you how far ahead ZENITH has gone...not only in screen-grid operation, but in other great advancements. ZENITH production expansion has brought ZENITH prices within purse-reach of everybody...see how much more ZENITH GIVES YOU!

Thanksgiving

308 Years Ago and Now

Grateful that their lives had been spared and an ample harvest reaped, the Pilgrims set aside the first "Day of Thanksgiving" in 1621. They knew nothing of the comfort of an automobile, the pleasure of radio, the convenience of gas. How different had they lived today!

"Light Is a Foe of Crime"

PROWLERS have great fear of light...

A darkened home, however, is a working paradise for them. But with a sudden light they drop their tools of the night and scurry away.

The cost is almost insignificant. To burn a 25-watt lamp for eight hours costs only about a penny and a half.

How often have you been disgusted with the filthy, germ-breeding places where some cigars are made ... dark, stuffy factories ... warm, dingy shops and windows ... where cigars are rolled by careless, dirty lips and fingers and spit on the ends! One is May, the other Margy—but who can tell which is the "original" and which the "copy"? As Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer stars, the famous Angus Twins have left millions perplexed. Watch for them on their present coast to coast tour over the Keith-Orpheum Circuit.

Has Same Flavor AS EXPENSIVE SPREAD FOR BREAD

"As much alike as we are ourselves," say these celebrated twins, puzzling over the Jelke Challenge Flavor Test. "We can't taste any difference."

For, although GOOD LUCK costs only about half as much, two spreads for bread could not resemble each other more closely. The 60-cent taste—fresh, delicious, wholesome—of GOOD LUCK defies detection. Are you profiting by this truth? If not, prove GOOD LUCK today.

Many prominent men and women have tried in vain to answer this puzzling question. Your family, too, are certain to fail.

overwhelming demand for the new-processed "STANDARD" Gasoline . . . thousands of motorists prove for themselves the superiority of this wonderful HIGH-TEST gasoline . . .

It's barely four weeks since we announced the new-processed "Standard" Gasoline. But in these four weeks thousands of motorists have bought AND TESTED this extraordinary fuel. They have written to us. They have talked to our pump men. They have even telephoned their local dealers.

They called its performance record "startling"—"the best yet"—"wonderful in traffic for women drivers"—"I pass everything on the road"—"a new lease of life for the old 1923 model"—"fine for cold mornings"—and so on.

To meet the increasing demands of our enthusiastic and loyal friends, we have speeded up at the refinery. Speeded up our service at the pumps. Tried to make even more perfect than before our entire scheme of operations.

And in case you have not been fortunate enough to test for yourself this really superior gasoline, and watch it deliver the goods under any or all road and weather conditions, we ask you to do it today.

On sale everywhere. At no advance in price. At all "Standard" pumps.

HOLMDEL NEWS.

Good Prices Paid at Mrs. Garrett
Stryker's Auction.

A large attendance and good prices featured Mrs. Garrett Stryker's auction on Chrissy Holmes's farm last Wednesday. A team of young horses sold for $475 and single horses averaged $90 each. Cows sold at $200 to $240 each and six hogs brought $25 to $30 each. These were top notch prices, but farm machinery did not do so well. Mrs. Stryker has moved to Keyport. Mr. Holmes's farm will be operated the coming season by Norman Morgan, who is now living on one of Theron McCampbell's places.

Bernon S. Frantice has been employing four watchmen to patrol his place since the hunting season opened. The watchmen warn all gunners of the property, and if the warning is disregarded more strenuous measures are employed.

No trace has yet been found of the miscreants who damaged school property in the Crawford's Corner and Hillcrest districts, despite the fact that the Holmdel township school board has offered a reward of $100 for their apprehension and punishment. There is criticism of the state troopers because they have apparently showed little interest in the matter.

CRANE'S
The Most Famous Philadelphia
ICE CREAM

CRANE'S ICE CREAM won its first public approval when Robert Crane introduced it as a dessert in his select Philadelphia restaurant in the early '90s.

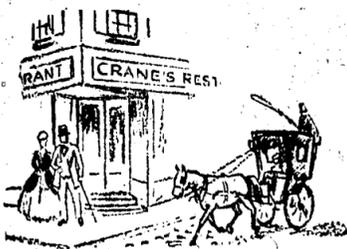

On the fleet wings of delighted palates, the fame of CRANE'S ICE CREAM soon sped to every part of the United States. Then—as it is today—Philadelphia ice cream became the byword for the acme of ice cream perfection.

There is no secret behind the tremendous popularity of CRANE'S ICE CREAM. It is so popular only because it is so good.

When you enjoy the creamy richness of CRANE'S ICE CREAM—the lusciousness of its ripe, juicy fruits, berries and natural fruit flavors, you are eating an ice cream which, for 40 years, has been the standard of excellence by which all ice cream quality is judged.

AN OLD TIME SLEIGH RIDE.

Steel runners gliding over the glistening snow and merry laughter ringing loud and clear—truly one memory of the "good old days" when Red Bank folks actually lived that old ballad "Jingle Bells! Jingle Bells! Jingle all the way. Oh, what fun it is to ride in a one-horse open sleigh!"

The spirit of fun is always abroad at Christmas time and you can make next Christmas even more cheerful if you become a member of our Christmas Club now. Motorists Slow Renewing Licenses—Fishermen Buy New Boats.

(The Red Bank Register can be bought and sent by mail to the stores of Morris Weisman and H. Ledwith.)

So far about 100 automobile licenses for 1930 have been issued at Zobel's showroom. The appeal of Commissioner William L. Dill to motorists to get their licenses early has had very little effect in this locality.

Last year more licenses had been issued at this time than have been issued this year. Those issuing the licenses state they will not be able to accommodate everyone if they wait until the last few days before New Year's. Last year about 3,000 licenses were issued. At the Seabright agency this year the licenses begin at 23.50.

John Olson has a new fishing schooner 66 feet long and his brother, Arne Olsen, has ordered a new sloop sixty feet long. Codfish are plentiful, but the market prices are low. Some of the fishermen will leave soon for Florida, where they will spend the winter.

Dr. and Mrs. James J. Reed will leave shortly for their winter home at Pasadena, California.

The Seabright pharmacy will be closed in a few days for the season. The owner, Dr. Charles Pannacl, and family will leave for Florida for the winter.

The Sons and Daughters of Liberty lodge held an old fashioned party Friday night after the regular business session. The members were dressed in costumes bygone days.

Members of the Sons and Daughters of Liberty and the Odd Fellows' lodges attended the Methodist church Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stevens of Seabright and Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson of West Park are spending a few days at Niagara Falls. They are making the trip by automobile.

Herbert Young of Church street has bought a new Buick car.

"MY NEIGHBOR TOLD ME--"

Characteristic of Oldsmobile ownership everywhere is a certain spirit of neighborliness about motor cars—an expressed desire to share a good thing with others. This active owner loyalty is probably the most conclusive proof that could be found of the long, faithful service that Oldsmobile cars give their owners.

Thousands of messages, evidence of the universal high regard which Oldsmobile owners have for their cars, and the fact that Oldsmobile is a General Motors product, sold me very strongly on the car. —Milwaukee, Wis.

"Oldsmobile's all-around high-class performance is the best in its price field. I think it's the most car for the money. I notice that all the owners I meet speak highly of its easy riding, smoothness, speed... and the semi-conservative styling of its bodies." —Marysville, Ohio.

The VIKING EIGHT—the new 90-degree V-type Eight at medium price—built in the Oldsmobile plant by Oldsmobile craftsmen, and sold through Oldsmobile dealers. It is an outstanding in value in its field as the popular Oldsmobile Six, the fine car of low price.

Just like MONEY in the bank

Two major qualities of the Pontiac Big Six—its reliability and long life—offer motorists a definite cash advantage which is just like money in the bank. For not only do these qualities effect big savings in the cost of operating every Pontiac... but in addition they increase still further the demand for used Pontiacs. And that means that the Pontiac Big Six you buy today will have a high resale value when you are ready to turn it in.

Pontiac has many other important qualities to offer you. It has the highest top speed, fastest acceleration and the greatest power to be found in any low-priced six. It offers more style in its bodies by Fisher—and more safety in its non-squeak, dirt-and-weather-proof internal four-wheel brakes. And as for Pontiac economy, a large corporation operating 996 automobiles of 33 different makes found the operating cost of their Pontiacs during 1928 to be one cent a mile less than that of any other low-priced six.

TREED A BIG RACCOON.

RED BANK HUNTERS GOT ONE WEIGHING 27 POUNDS.

They Also Captured a Live Opossum and Thomas Springsteen Added This to His Live Opossum Stock in a Shed on His Place.

Walter Anderson, Thomas Springsteen, Ernest Elakely, Guy VanNess and Morris Holmstead of Red Bank went raccoon hunting last Wednesday night on John Grant's farm near River Plaza. They used two dogs, one owned by Mr. Springsteen and one owned jointly by Mr. Springsteen and Mr. Anderson. The dog with two owners was bought in North Carolina for $65 a short time ago.

The dogs treed a raccoon and Mr. Springsteen shot it. The coon was an unusually fine specimen. It weighed 27 pounds. The hunters were out nearly all night and just before they started home an opossum was captured. The opossum "played dead" when the dogs cornered it, and Mr. Springsteen had no trouble in picking it up and putting it in his automobile.

In a shed back of his house on Mechanic street, Mr. Springsteen has seven live opossums, including the one which he caught last Wednesday night. Mr. Springsteen intends to keep two of the opossums for breeding purposes, to keep the other opossums until early in the spring when the fur will be in best condition and will bring the highest price.

Mr. Springsteen is one of Red Bank's outstanding Nimrods. He is a carpenter and he spends considerable of his spare time in hunting.

HUNTED IN MAINE.

Three Red Bank Nimrods Got a Deer and a Good Ducking.

Dr. R. Browning Wilson of Broad street, John A. Kennedy of Harding road and Garrett Chamberlain of Bridge avenue returned last week from a hunting trip to Maine. A deer weighing 100 pounds was shot by Mr. Kennedy, but the others did not get any big game. The men received a ducking when their canoe upset on a lake as they were returning to camp. Mr. Kennedy swam to the shore while the other two grabbed hold of the capsize canoe. Mr. Kennedy returned in a rowboat and rescued Dr.

Wilson and Mr. Chamberlain. The camp was near by and the men had dry clothing on in a short time and suffered no harmful results from their experience. Dr. Wilson and Mr. Kennedy lost their guns in the water when the canoe upset. The guns were not found.

A NEW HEALTH CENTER.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR IT AT CAMPBELL'S JUNCTION.

It Was Donated by Mrs. Robert Hartshorne—Health Committee Met at Red Bank Yesterday—Increase in Contagious Diseases.

Mrs. Lewis S. Thompson of Lincoln announced Monday afternoon at a meeting of the health committee of the Monmouth county social service organization, that the plans had been completed for the new health center at Campbell's Junction in Middletown township. The center was donated by Mrs. Robert Hartshorne of Highlands. The health committee meeting was at the social service headquarters at Red Bank. This committee is composed of the chairman of all health organizations in the county and included in its members are representatives of the Red Cross, public school parent-teacher association, county board of education, and state health department.

The center was held at Red Bank yesterday. The health committee meeting was at the social service headquarters at Red Bank. This committee is composed of the chairman of all health organizations in the county and included in its members are representatives of the Red Cross, public school parent-teacher association, county board of education, and state health department.

Dr. Henry C. Cotton, superintendent of the state hospital at Trenton, has called a meeting of all dentists in Monmouth county at the state hospital. The purpose of the meeting is to provide plates for the ex-patients of the hospital. Dr. Cotton believes that most mental trouble is caused by decayed teeth and that the principal topic of conversation at yesterday's meeting.

Dr. Albert E. Sweet of Freehold, district health officer, said there were more contagious diseases in Monmouth county the past month than in any one month during the last three years. He said the health department could do more efficient work if all cases were reported as soon as possible.

None of the children in the county who have undergone the toxin-anti-toxin treatment had contracted diphtheria. There are only a few diphtheria cases in the county, he said, and these patients have never received the toxin-anti-toxin treatment.

Miss Elizabeth Hynes, superintendent of the Allenwood sanatorium, reported that the new addition to the hospital would be ready for use in about two weeks. The addition will accommodate twenty beds.

Miss Harriet B. Cook, county tuberculosis supervisor, said there were 22 Monmouth county children now at the Farmingdale preventorium. One malnourished patient was admitted to the preventorium from Monmouth county during October. Ten tubercular patients were admitted at Allenwood and two at Glenwood during October.

In regard to the immunity treatment for pre-school children against diphtheria, reports were made by Mrs. John Ellis of Rumson, chairman of the Rumson, Seabright and Fair Haven nursing association; Mrs. Howell Woolley of Long Branch, chairman of the Long Branch public health nursing association; Mrs. Henry C. Ackerson of Red Cross and chairman of the Rumson, Seabright and Fair Haven nursing association; Mrs. Howell Woolley of Long Branch, chairman of the Long Branch public health nursing association; Mrs. Henry C. Ackerson of Red Cross and chairman of the Rumson, Seabright and Fair Haven nursing association.

Other members of the health committee are Mrs. W. Strother Jones, Miss Evelyn Walker, Edwin Gilchrist and John L. Montgomery of Red Bank, Mrs. Louis Miller of Oceanport, Mrs. William Greenwood of Middletown, Miss Helen Kerrigan and Bertram H. Borden of Rumson, Mrs. W. J. Roberts of Atlantic Highlands, Mrs. C. Snyder, Miss Matilda Hillson and Miss Gertrude Woodward of Freehold, Mrs. J. W. Child of Avon, Budd O'Connell of Asbury Park and Dr. Alan Ireland of state department of institutions and agencies.

The New Jersey public health and sanitary association will meet at the Monterey hotel at Asbury Park on Saturday of next week. The meeting will start at ten o'clock in the morning, and it will be open to the public. A demonstration of the nurse's part in the health program will be given under the direction of Miss Walker. Many of the public health nurses in the county will take part in the demonstration. The New Jersey conference of social work will be held at the Stacey Trent hotel at Trenton Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. That will also be a public meeting.

IT MAY BE REPEATED AT RED BANK NEXT SUMMER.

American Power Boat Association in Favor of Holding It Here Again—Red Bank Yacht Club to Discuss Matter at Dinner in January.

The Gold Cup race, one of the important speedboat events in the country, may be held at Red Bank again next summer. Last night Clarence Legg, a member of the Red Bank yacht club, stated that the American Power Boat Association at a meeting last week at New York voted in favor of holding the race again on the Shrewsbury river. The matter now rests with the Red Bank yacht club and will be discussed at the club's annual dinner at the Hotel Astor at New York in January.

The yacht club sponsored last year's regatta, which was one of the largest sporting events ever held on the Shrewsbury river, and its desirous of repeating the Gold Cup classic next year. However, before making a decision, the club will endeavor to learn the attitude of the business men and others on the question.

A short time ago Gerald Holbrook, commodore of the Red Bank yacht club, donated a valuable trophy to be awarded to the winner of a new speedboat event to be known as the Red Bank sweepstakes. This race will be held every year at Red Bank and will bring together the fastest boats in the country.

GREAT STORE OF HONEY.

EIGHTY POUNDS FOUND IN A HIVE IN A HOUSE.

Honey Bees Made a Nest in William T. Hendrickson's House Near New Monmouth and on Saturday the Toothsome Sweets Were Removed.

When William T. Hendrickson returned to his farm at New Monmouth on his orange plantation at West Palm Beach, Florida, last week he made up his mind that one of the first things he would do would be to get rid of a hive of honey bees in his house. The bees had entered the house through a small hole in an outside wall on the second floor. They had settled in the house almost two years ago, in a space under a floor, and in warm weather they were a nuisance because they entered the building when windows were opened on that side of the house.

Mr. Hendrickson made a bargain with Jasper Morrell of Port Monmouth to get rid of the bees. Mr. Hendrickson thought there was honey in the house where the bees had made their nest and he offered to give half of the honey to Mr. Morrell if the latter would drive the bees out of the house. Mr. Morrell is building a house across the road from Mr. Hendrickson's farm for Mrs. Alda Taylor.

The contractor enlisted the aid of John O'Neil of Campbell's Junction, who is employed by him, to war on the bees. The two men set about their task Saturday. To get at the hive they had to take off one of the weatherboards of the house and to remove several floor boards. Under the floor they found seventeen rows of honey. Sulphur was burned. This killed most of the bees. Others few boards were nailed back in place and the hole through which the bees entered the house was plugged up.

The honey was put on scales and it weighed eighty pounds. Forty pounds of it was kept by Mr. Hendrickson as his share of the bargain. Mr. Morrell and Mr. O'Neil divided the other forty pounds.

PREVENTED RAIL WRECK.

TWO HAZLET YOUNG MEN FOUND A BROKEN RAIL.

They Flagged Trains for More Than Two Hours at Hazlet Saturday Night—The Rail Replaced with a New One.

What would probably have been a train wreck was prevented Saturday evening by LeRoy and Daniel Clark of Hazlet, with the aid of Frank Applegate and Earl Stults of Keyport. The two Clarks are constables. About half past six o'clock they heard a peculiar sound on the rails as a train passed through Hazlet. By the use of red flashlights the constables found a badly broken rail on the south-bound track, about 600 yards south of Clark's crossing. From all appearances if another train had struck the rail the locomotive and coaches would have been derailed and would very likely have gone down a twenty-foot embankment. Possibly many passengers would have been killed and injured.

The young men got a red lantern and they stopped the next train, which was a Pennsylvania express. They told the engineer about the broken rail and after an examination the train passed over it at a very slow rate. The conductor in charge of the train was told by Dan Clark to stop at Red Bank and to make a report about the trouble. The Clark brothers stopped every train from half past six o'clock until nine o'clock, when the foreman of the Matawan section gang arrived on the scene with his men. The broken rail was replaced with a new one.

NEW LIGHTS—NEW DOCK.

MUNICIPAL IMPROVEMENTS FOR FAIR HAVEN.

New "White Way" to be Installed on River Road—Ordinance to Build Dock to be Proposed—"Stop Street" Ordinance Introduced Last Night.

The Fair Haven commissioners last night took action on two important matters—new lights for River road and a municipal dock at the foot of Fair Haven road.

At the last meeting the question of installing new street light fixtures on River road was discussed and the matter was left to the public utilities committee with power to act. Samuel C. Cleland, Jr., chairman of that committee, reported last night that the proposition with the Jersey Central power and light company had been accepted. The company will replace the present lights on River road with new fixtures and 400-watt lights at an increased cost of $700 a year. The lights now on River road are not uniform in brightness, but all the new lights will be alike.

Three ordinances pertaining to the new municipal dock were ordered prepared and will be introduced at the next meeting. One ordinance is for building the dock at a cost not to exceed $10,000, another is for procuring the riparian rights at the foot of Fair Haven road, where the dock will be built, and the other ordinance is for leasing part of the dock for use as a gasoline service station for motorboats.

A "stop street" ordinance was passed on its first reading. River road and Ridge road have been designated as main thoroughfares in the ordinance and "stop street" signs will be erected at all intersections to these two main streets. Bills amounting to $779.72 were ordered paid. A tax receipt check for $56.60 was received from the Boro business company.

At the next meeting of the commissioners a public hearing will be held on the assessment report of the school and building improvement on Fair Haven road.

HIS DEATH A MYSTERY.

JOHN CHAPPELLINNY MET A VIOLENT END.

He Was Found Unconscious and Badly Injured Near the Elizabethport Railroad Station Last Week and He Died a Few Minutes Later.

John Chappellinny, who lived near Middletown village, met a violent death last week. He was found badly injured and in an unconscious condition near the Elizabethport railroad station and he was taken to the Elizabeth city hospital, where he died twenty minutes later.

Mr. Chappellinny was 45 years old and he had lived near Middletown village a number of years. He is survived by a wife and four children. The funeral was held last Wednesday at St. Mary's church at New Monmouth and burial was made at Mount Olivet cemetery.

Mr. Chappellinny was employed at Elizabethport by the Central railroad company. On the night he died he arrived at the Elizabethport station too late to ride home on the train which he had intended to take. He waited near the station for a bus with the intention of riding to Newark and of boarding a train there for Middletown.

While he was waiting something went wrong with the whistle of a locomotive. The whistle blew without cessation for an hour or so and a number of autolists in the vicinity thought it was a summons to a fire. There was a great rush of cars to the supposed fire, and it is thought that one of the automobiles struck and knocked down Mr. Chappellinny. Another theory is that he was hit by a train. He was near the tracks when he was found. All efforts to clear up the mystery have been in vain. The only thing which is certain is that Mr. Chappellinny was hit by some heavy moving object which caused injuries resulting in his death.

NOW IN HAVANA.

A Newspaper There Gives a Writeup to Eddie Collins.

A Havana newspaper recently published the following article concerning Eddie Collins, who has a summer home at Rumson. Mr. and Mrs. Collins left for Cuba several weeks ago and will remain there until spring.

"Sixteen years ago when Oriental Park opened for its first racing season, one of the first racing men to arrive on the scene was Eddie 'Dutch' Collins. At the end of the meeting 'Dutch' was among the last to leave.

"Every season since that time Eddie has been one of the first to arrive, and did not leave until the park was closed.

"He is sticking to that record. With Mrs. Collins, he arrived in Havana a few days ago and registered at the Hotel Florida.

"Mr. Collins is known to every person who attends the races at Oriental Park, where during the years the track has been in operation he has been connected with the publicity department and as betting commissioner.

"Dutch" was a close personal friend for many years of the late Charles F. Flynn, and while recounting incidents that occurred during this friendship and in speaking of the passing of Mr. Flynn, Eddie's eyes were moistened with tears.

"When the racing season opens next month 'Dutch' will be on the job."

A RACCOON AS A PET.

AN UNUSUAL GIFT MADE TO WALTER NULT.

Pete, the Pet Raccoon Who Has Been Living at Grover Parker's Store, Has a New Home at an Automobile Service Station.

Pete, the tame raccoon, who has lived the past year or more at Grover Parker's bicycle and motorcycle store on Mechanic street at Red Bank, now has a new home. Last week Pete was given by Mr. Parker to Walter Nult, who has charge of the Tydol automobile service station on Broad street at Shrewsbury. The service station is owned by Mr. Parker and he leased it a short time ago to Tydol company. Mr. Nult conducted the station for Mr. Parker several years. He and Pete are great friends, and Mr. Parker gave the raccoon to his former employee in appreciation of faithful service.

Pete has quite a history. He was captured when he was a baby raccoon. A family at Little Silver kept him as a pet. Pete grew to maturity and he became a gentle, friendly and tame as a dog. The Little Silver family moved to New York, but before doing so they liberated Pete. One of the members of the family took Pete to a woods and turned him loose, thinking that in so doing he was conferring a kindness.

But Pete did not want freedom. He stayed in the woods and he people all his life, and the call of the wild seemed to be entirely absent from his make-up. He went to the vacant house where his human friends had lived. Fred Ziegler, the chief of police at Little Silver, found the raccoon disconsolately wandering about the yard of the house. Pete stood up on his hind legs and showed signs of pleasure because a human being showed interest in him. Mr. Ziegler found out from neighbors the facts about the raccoon. Part of his duties as chief of police consists of being poundkeeper for the borough.

Mr. Ziegler discharged his duties as poundkeeper, so far as Pete was concerned, by picking up the raccoon and bringing him home. He let it be known that the best pet raccoon he would give to anyone who would provide a good home for it, and as a result the raccoon found a new home in Mr. Parker's store. The little animal attracted a great deal of attention. Sometimes it slept in the front window of the store. In cold weather Pete sleeps a great deal. Sometimes he will sleep two days at a stretch. The old hibernating habit of the kind is repeated in him even though he is civilized to feel the call of the wild.

Pete was a great pet at the store, especially among children. A large part of the time he was tied outside in the yard. Frequently children would bring things for him to eat. No animal is cleaner than a raccoon. Pete never eats anything without washing it first. When he eats, his favorite proverbs, he will eat many other things. Every time he is fed it is necessary to place a pan of fresh, clean water near Pete so he can wash his food.

Pete is an unusually big raccoon and he is very fat. One day some one lifted him up and put him on the trunk of a car. The raccoon tried to climb up the tree, but long before he got to the top he was exhausted. A man had to climb up the tree and take him down. Pete was so tired that he spread out flat on the ground and panted for half an hour. The raccoon became friendly with most of the dogs on Mechanic street and he frequently played with them. Occasionally a dog would show signs of wanting to fight. Whenever this happened Pete would always follow one course and it was always effective. He would lay flat on his back and strike at his antagonist with his sharp hind claws. The claws are hooked and long like the talons of an eagle and the average dog will quit before receiving much of this punishment.

Raccoons of this type are attracted by any kind of food. The raccoon will play for hours with articles of this sort. He is always good natured except when eating. He will not even stand for petting at that time but will bite anyone who touches him. Folks who are acquainted with Pete say he is the tamest raccoon they have ever seen. 'Coons, if captured, usually their instincts will instinctively cause them later in life to leave their owners and live among their kind.

Many employers have a custom of making cash Christmas gifts to their employees. For many years these presents were made on the day before Christmas, but a change has taken place in late years.

These cash gifts are frequently used for Christmas shopping. The theory of advancing the date of gifts to employees is that the receivers have a better chance to do their shopping early and have opportunity to make their purchases from larger and more varied stocks.

The chief merits claimed for the change are that it would stimulate business, decrease the last minute shopping rush and give to the employees a larger and more varied assortment of goods to select from.

About the only thing that might be said against the change is that it comes so far in advance of Christmas as not to be properly in the Christmas atmosphere.

Parking Space for Holiday Shoppers. The chamber of commerce of Red Bank met with two prompt responses to its appeal for the use of private lands in or near the business center of the town for automobile parking during the Christmas shopping season.

Leo Berlow has donated the use of land back of his store on Monmouth street for automobile parking and the Elks club has donated the use of land back of the lodge home on East Front street for parking space during daylight hours.

WESTERN CORN HUSKERS. One of them husked 35 bushels of corn in eighty minutes. (From the New York Times.)

The machine age has not yet taken all the joy out of farm labor in the Middle West. A contest for the championship in corn-husking by hand, such as occurred at Platte City, Missouri, draws a gallery of thousands, and the fun, like the work, is fast and furious.

In the regular work of the farm, husking is paid for according to the number of bushel baskets filled in a day. The demand for the services of fast huskers is therefore constant.

Williams of Toulon, Illinois, in 1928. Where corn is king, these husking rivalries will continue indefinitely.

KEANSBURG NEWS. Ordinance Changing Names of Streets Is Introduced.

(The Red Bank Register can be bought each week at Keansburg at the store of Louis Voland, N. Santa Lucia, Phillip Keller and Charles Vogel.) An ordinance changing, correcting and making new names for 21 streets was introduced at the meeting of the Keansburg borough council last week. For a number of years the large number of streets that have had duplicate or similar names has been an inconvenience to strangers as well as local residents. A recent survey of street names disclosed that 21 were confusing, with the result that an ordinance was prepared, which designates the following changes: Willow will hereafter be known as Magnolia Place; Linden place changes to Vogel street; Locust avenue will take the name of Lohsen avenue, named after Borough Manager Clinton B. Lohsen; Wilson place will be no more and in its place will be substituted Chestnut street; East Beacon place will be simplified by a change to Holly street; Beacon place changes to Garden boulevard. In change of Beacon avenue a thought was made of bringing back memories of long ago, when this community then a part of Raritan township, was known as Waakkaak, its original name. The change from Beacon avenue to Waakkaak avenue will be agreeable to old time residents, but to strangers it will be hard to pronounce. Washington place will retain its name but the latter name will be left off and avenue substituted. Seeley road takes the name of Circuit street, with no change in Seeley avenue; Park avenue in the future will bear the name of Poplar street; Forest Park avenue will be just plain Park avenue; Maple street and Maple avenue, while apparently were one street, will be consolidated and will be known as Maple avenue; Ocean boulevard will be transformed into Twilight avenue. Carr place loses its name and East street substituted; with no change in Carr avenue; Grandview place changes to Lawrence street and Fairview avenue will be known as Sunset street. Van Camp place loses part of its name and changes to Camp View place. Center street and Center avenue are consolidated, remaining avenue; Wood avenue changes to Thorn street; Bay avenue, Ocean avenue, Ocean boulevard, and Bayside Park-

RED BANK'S UNUSUAL CAT

IT HAS SIX SEPARATE TOES ON BOTH FRONT FEET.

Mrs. Charles Bennett of Monmouth Street Owns This Unusual Animal, Which Would Rather Fight Dogs Any Time Than Cats. One of the big New York daily papers recently published a story of a Texas cat named "Boom" with six toes on each of its front feet, under the heading "Wonders Never End in Texas." Mrs. Charles Bennett of Monmouth Street, Red Bank, has a cat just as different from other cats as is the Texas pussy. Mrs. Bennett's cat is a big male short-haired tiger cat and its name is George.

George also has six toes instead of the regulation equipment of five toes. The extra toes are not divisions of a single toe, but are separate from the other toes and fully formed. George has no difficulty in handling his extraordinary front feet and finds them a distinct advantage in fighting.

George is about four years old and he has learned a number of tricks. Among other things he is able to sit up and to shake hands. He is a vegetarian, invariably taking vegetables in preference to meat. He will not eat meat under any circumstances unless it has been cut in small pieces.

A few days ago a strange dog was strolling by George's home when he was attacked by a dog, owned by one of Mrs. Bennett's neighbors. The dogs had been fighting only a few minutes when George broke up the scrap and chased his neighbor back to the dog's house. George has never been known to fight another cat, but trouncing dogs almost four times his size is a common occurrence with him.

Mrs. Bennett felt slighted when she read the featured story of "Boom," which she claims is no more unusual than her George. She says she will write to the paper which carried the article about the Texas cat, explaining the abnormality of George's physical make-up and telling of his many tricks. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett say that as far as cats go, Texas will have to present one more abnormal and unusual than "Boom" to outdo Red Bank.

RED BANK BOXER WINS.

DONATO GETS DECISION OVER ANDY THOMAS OF NEWARK.

The Main Bout Thanksgiving Night Will be Between Willie Patterson of Red Bank and Eddie Marks of Perth Amboy. The opening fight last Thursday night was the liveliest bout on the program. Nick Perna, a Red Bank barber, fought a draw with Kid Boston of Matawan. Slugging sported skill and there was action from start to finish. It was a fight which made the fans shout with delight. Kid Boston's biggest asset was a wide right-hand swing which landed frequently on Perna's shoulder and back. In the first and second rounds the Matawan pugilist was like a windmill. In the third round Nick fought Kid Boston's face with straight left jabs which the Matawan boxer did not like very much and which took good effect of fight out of him. In the final round both boys were quite tired and arm weary, but Nick was the stronger and kept poking his left in his opponent's face. The second bout was between Frank Sharaba of Red Bank and Eddie Goodwin of Elizabeth. It was the second successive fight in which the Red Bank fighter was the victor by a technical knockout. Sharaba shot his left frequently into Goodwin's face with telling effect and at the end of the round Goodwin's face was smeared with blood. The referee stopped the fight in the middle of the second round and held up Sharaba's arm. Goodwin was not in bad shape, but he was completely outclassed and his face was getting some severe punishment. Johnnie Vogel of Cranford and Jessie Jones of Newark, each weighing 145 pounds, were the principals in the third bout. Jones' main object was to bring his opponent's driver down on the back of Vogel's neck. It landed frequently. Vogel knew it was coming because Jones would stand upright in the center of the ring with his right fist raised above his head and after hesitating a moment he would bring it down like a pleasuring and it would land on Vogel's neck somewhere in the vicinity of the back of his neck. Vogel finally managed to get under the blow and he punished Jessie with blows to the face and body. The decision was awarded to Vogel. In the semi-final of six rounds Jimmy Donato of Red Bank defeated Andy Thomas of Newark. From the standpoint of fighting skill this was the best bout of the night. Donato and Thomas have fought before and in their previous meeting at Red Bank the bout was a draw. Donato displayed excellent judgment Thursday night. Instead of going after Thomas early in the fight he waited until his opponent had spent his force and then he became master of the situation. Thomas caught Donato in the early rounds and landed some square blows on the jaw. In the fourth round there was plenty of action and as the gong sounded Donato and Thomas were exchanging blows toe to toe. The fifth was Donato's by a wide margin and in the final round Donato continued his fast pace while Thomas appeared to clinch frequently. Donato sent Thomas' head to the ground three times in the sixth with hard blows to the chin. Andy Sakowitz of Red Bank and Philly Griffith of Newark put on an eight-round bout which was very slow and uninteresting to the crowd. Griffith was awarded the decision. Willie Patterson of Red Bank and Eddie Marks of Perth Amboy, junior welterweights, will be the principals in the eight-round bout at the armory tomorrow night. These boys have met twice previously and each fighter has won a decision over the other. Patterson defeated Marks at Red Bank a few weeks ago. On the card are two six-round bouts and three four-round matches. The six-round bouts will be fought by Tiger Hall of Long Branch and Mack Long of New Brunswick and Young Gans of Red Bank and Al Rodgers of Perth Amboy. Oscar Bass of Long Branch will meet Martie Eckel of Keyport in one of the four-round matches. Mickey Travers of Red Bank and Jimmy Howe of Newark will fight another four-round bout and the opening bout will be contested by Bezy Thomas of Red Bank and Mickey Quall of Newark. The American Legion will conduct a booth at the armory tomorrow night for the sale of hot water, fruit, candy, cigars and cigarettes. This booth will be in charge of John Saville.

Leon's Column TIMELY COMMUNITY TOPICS. By W. A. Sweeney.

While Red Bank has a number of important problems on its hand at present, among them the parking question and community chest idea, these problems are not Red Bank's alone. In my article in The Register on November 13th, concerning the parking situation, I said that a good place for the cars of business and professional men during the holiday shopping season would be at home, in the garage. Picking up the New York Evening World of November 22d I find, under a dispatch from Evanston, Ill., dated November 20th, that the business men of that town are being asked to ride in street cars or buses to help their own business. Thomas F. Airth, new president of the Chamber of Commerce, said he would devote his administration to inducing business to stop the practice of parking their own cars in front of their business places, thus driving away prospective customers. I don't know whether The Register's circulation extends to Evanston, Ill., or not. Perhaps it just happens that the minds of the presidents of the Chambers of Commerce of Red Bank and Evanston run along the same channels. Anyway Red Bank thought of it first. During the question and answer period of the Dr. S. Parkes Cadman period over the radio on Sunday afternoon the question was asked: "Do you believe in the Community Chest idea?" Naturally I was interested, since Red Bank is considering the same question. Dr. Cadman did not give an unqualified approval of the idea but said it had worked well in places where he had observed it, notably Cleveland, Ohio. I heard another thing over the radio on Sunday which I think ought to be mentioned, despite the fact that I have enjoyed myself not to discuss politics or religion in this column. Dr. Kelgwin, pastor of the West End Presbyterian church, New York City, announced that the Thanksgiving service would be a union of his own church, a neighboring Methodist church and a Jewish Synagogue, and that the sermon would be preached by the Rabbi. I will not discuss this, but I hope the significance of it will sink in.
