Summit's Quota Is 2,000

Mayor Cornish, in a formal proclamation published in the HERALD on Tuesday, has called upon all citizens of Summit to renew their allegiance to the American Red Cross during the annual roll call which opened yesterday and will continue through November 20th.

In his proclamation the Mayor declares that "every man, woman and child should welcome this opportunity to express approval and lend moral and financial support to an organization which stands over ready to extend a helping hand to the unfortunate in our community, in the nation and all over the world."

"The American Red Cross has been called the nation's badge of mercy." Its charter from Congress designated it the official agency for extending relief in disasters both in this country and in foreign lands.

"I therefore call upon all citizens to seek to share in its humanitarian activities by answering the roll call for members which opened November 11th, Armistice Day."

Miss Ehlman, who is in charge of the local roll call, has expressed the hope that the full quota of 2,000 members will be enlisted during the drive.

Mendelssohn Program By Methodist Church

On Sunday evening, Nov. 14th, at eight, in the Methodist Episcopal Church the choir will render a musical service of worship consisting of selections by Mendelssohn. Several selections from the oratorio "Elijah" will be rendered as will also the motet "Hear My Prayer," the latter well known because of the chorus "O for the wings of a dove."

Mendelssohn undoubtedly emphasized melody, but not to the exclusion of other means of expression. He was one of the few composers to whom, in his best moments, all the resources of his art were equally available.

With the explanation that our tendency in modern life is ever in the direction of complexity so that the satisfaction of even our simplest wants today is not a simple process, Dr. John M. Thomas, president of Rutgers University, last evening addressing the first meeting of the Athenaeum at Lincoln School, gave the education for the mighty impetus of education has received since the war, in two words—"economic necessity."

Responding to the introduction, Dr. Thomas, with a fine wit that drew prolonged laughter and applause of the audience, professed himself as happy that they were going to have a next month, and twice more during the winter, and humorously suggested that it testified to Mr. North's high opinion of him.

Beginning with the picture of the crude process of seed-time as implied in Christ's parable of the sower and comparing that with the process of seven years of education, when his father sowed his wheat by hand and reaped it with the "cradle," Dr. Thomas found little of difference in the methods.

Washington School: We hope that parents and other friends of the school will visit our classes at any time during the week, and see the regular daily work of our pupils.

Armistice Day Address at H. S.

Rev. H. L. Lambdin Declares War, Once Necessary, Now More Destructive Than Constructive

Interesting Program Given: The Utopian plea that the ideas of war be ended by the shapers of thought, the leaders, the educators, the journalists, the preachers, who should ask that they themselves as acknowledgment of their failure to do away with war, instead of the flower of youth which is not responsible, be put into the trenches between the guns when war looms, was expressed by Rev. Henry L. Lambdin yesterday noon before an audience of parents and students at the High School auditorium in observance of Armistice Day.

War was disposed of by Mr. Lambdin as one of those things in human life, that was once necessary but which now has served its purpose and presents more of the destructive than the constructive phase. In the respect of non-responsibility he placed it in the same category with absolute monarchy, once necessary for people, but which has been rightly superseded, in large part, by democracy in spite of the faults of the latter.

Mr. Lambdin planned for a new journalism, above the tabloid type with its false judgment of news value; he called for a new statesmanship which should preserve justice and understanding among nations; he asked for a new student fraternity which could not fail to promote a higher understanding among nations; and last of all he sought for a new religious insight internationally established.

The pastor of the Summit Methodist Church was introduced by Albert J. Bartholomew, Principal of the High School, under the auspices of which the Armistice Day observance was held. The entire audience, led by the students, rose to greet the speaker. This little attention which the students accord their speakers, is one of the courtesies which visitors cannot fail to notice about Summit High School and which makes the carry away with respect for the gently bred appearance of the students.

Major Guy Bates followed Rev. Lambdin in speech-making. He delivered a very interesting talk on map-making from pictures taken from aeroplanes, a phase of war which he said has been the cause of some of the greatest evils of the world during the war. His descriptions of the "methods of camouflage" were exceedingly well told and his anecdotes proved highly interesting.

Other speakers included Miriam Gude, representative of the student committee on the Junior Red Cross, who spoke on the work of that organization; George Musser, who spoke on the "War Record" a book edited and illustrated by the students of the High School and showing Summit High's part in the war; and Earl Ohlson, who read the Honor Roll of Summit.

The program was ended by a moment of silent prayer, the Lord's Prayer recited in unison, and the singing of America.

American Legion Dance Is Pronounced Success

Pronounced success met the efforts of the Summit Post of the American Legion in its annual dance held at Masonic Hall Wednesday evening. The attendance reached nearly 200. The Aeolian Orchestra, the official orchestra of the Summit Post, enjoys the distinction of having Leona's Trio, cornetist in the Madison Square Garden band, as one of its members, furnished the music on the occasion.

Most impressive was the coronation of the 10 o'clock ritual presented by a team from Elizabeth, assisted by F. M. VanTrunk, commander of the Summit Post, and L. Taormina and Miss Anna Moran, of Summit, as singers. More than one throat was cleared as the slowly recited "Flanders Field" was responded to by America's reply. Then an anthem from Erna's "Thanatopsis," and a prayer.

The service occurred in the semi-darkness of the room and was followed by solemn music. The Elizabeth team presenting the service was composed of the following: Edward Mansfield, post commander of Elizabeth; Arthur Kerley, Rudolph Kull and Frank Mulhern, who was the first man to compile this ritual. The guests at the dance were treated to a classy exhibition of the Charleston given by an out-of-town couple. A prize balloon race resulted in a tie between Masie Thron and Miss Mary Maguire.

Prominent among those present was the county commander and his staff. Delegations from Elizabeth, Hillside, Roselle and other posts in the county were present.

Employer-Clerk Dinner Plans: Bankers' Triple Quartet To Be Feature of Affair Planned By Business Men's Association

Live Program Planned: New this is something like it. This will be real music! As a part of the program at the second annual employer-clerk dinner to be given next Tuesday evening at the Beechwood under the auspices of the Business Men's Association, the bankers' triple quartet, with an even dozen, composed of members from the three banks in Summit, will sit a stevedeck of popular songs and the product isn't fine flour it won't be the fault of these musicians. Every man of them has been trained to handle a wide range of notes and can run up the scale from the lowly 55 to the $1,000 bank note, without batting an eyelash. In fact, it might be said that you can bank on them. People who have had dealings with these men say that a lot of interest develops from contact with them. Those present are kindly asked not to present checks during the music.

But it is not the bankers alone that will make this occasion a regular time. The after-dinner program will include two excellent speeches on the general subject of employer-employee. The principal speaker of the evening will be Fred Pitzer, personnel director of the Equitable Life Insurance Company. It is expected also that Sharon E. Jones, secretary of the Pennsylvania and Atlantic Seaboard Hardware Association, will be present and give a short talk on a similar theme.

Besides the speakers there will be professional entertainers. The team of Cassler and Derby, of note along Broadway, will present a class musical number in which almost every instrument that can be blown, pushed, scraped, banged or shot dead, will figure. Another number will be presented by Evon Davies, a clever monologist.

Interspersed during the psychological moments in the dinner everyone is toying with the tools and wishing for the next one, songs will make their vocal appearance. They will not be difficult nor painful. Try them.

After the banquet is over the ball room will be cleared and the evening will end in dancing to the swinging strains of the Aeolian Orchestra.

Arthur Mansor, president of the Business Men's Association, who, with Robert Hallan, chairman of the entertainment committee, has been instrumental in arranging the details of the banquet, said yesterday that indications were that more than two hundred people would attend the occasion. The dinner will begin at 6:30.

The Business Men's Association will have as its two guests, Mayor George D. Cornish and former Mayor Ruford Franklin.

Mixup of Trolley Car and a Concrete Mixer

The service of the Morris County Traction Company on Morris avenue, was "boomed" last Wednesday evening around 6 o'clock by the J. A. R. Construction Company when, as the result of a rear-end collision between a trolley car belonging to the traction company and a concrete mixer that gives assistance to the J. A. R., a boom protruding from the rear of the mixer smashed in the front vestibule of the trolley—and then the boom "busted". The trolley, operated by Maurice Eldrich, of Summit, was running toward Chatham. The concrete mixer was ahead and running in the same direction. Between Aubrey street and Prospect avenue where the trees accentuated the darkness, the car approached the concrete mixer. It was claimed that the mixer was running without lights. Anyway the front of the trolley struck the rear of the other vehicle, damaging both to the extent noted above. The passengers on the trolley were shaken up but no one was badly injured.

"THE LITTLE DOGS DO BARK AND BITE"

"The little dogs do bark and bite." The fact that they bark is immaterial except to those who like to sleep, but the wisdom expressed in the fact that the dogs do bite is general. It prompted the police to begin a dog-catcher crusade this week on unmuzzled dogs. Licensed or otherwise, when the minnows journey around town all the dogs whose catch are not considered rich or poor, must take a little ride in the four cylinder go-cart and report in person to the dog-pound. Several trips made this week in an endeavor to bring about the right enforcement of the Mayor's proclamation concerning the muzzling of dogs until the danger from rabies has disappeared, have noted in the neighborhood of twenty of the nabobs. Some of these have been reclaimed, others, it is presumed, if they have not already had their day, will have to forego its benefits. The dogs, it is understood, will be kept after capture, for forty-eight hours in the contingency of their being claimed. Licensed unmuzzled dogs may be reclaimed by their owners at the cost of $5; unmuzzled dogs may be redeemed at a cost of $7.

Rev. O. B. Hawes Asked To Withdraw Resignation

Following a closed congregational meeting at All Souls' Church, last Wednesday evening, Rev. Oscar B. Hawes, pastor of the Church, by a unanimous vote of the Board of Trustees, was asked to withdraw his resignation from the pastorate, which he read to the congregation at the last Sunday services. The resignation, which was tendered as the result of a call from another parish, called forth expressions of keen regret from individuals and from those with whom Mr. Hawes is affiliated. Several letters were read by Herbert J. Lyall, president of the board, at the congregational meeting, testifying to a high regard for the pastor and regret at his action in resigning his charge. Among these was one letter prepared by a committee from the Kiwanis Club, of which Mr. Hawes is a member, expatiating on the value of Mr. Hawes as a Kiwanian, his breadth of interest, his activity in good works and sports and his good fellowship. The letter carefully re-stated the reasons for the action on the part of the trustees but expressed regret at the resignation.

A statement of the Board's decision to ask for a withdrawal of the resignation, was presented to a committee from the Kiwanis Club, which was understood that Mr. Hawes is reconsidering his action.

Methodist Women In Monthly Meetings

The women of the Summit Methodist Episcopal Church observed their regular monthly church day last Tuesday. The morning business period was followed by a unique presentation of the department of literature by Mrs. W. W. Weller, and was followed by the noontide devotional hour led by Mrs. H. E. Snodgrass, of Westfield, formerly of Summit. Mrs. Charles Chrysal's circle served a delicious luncheon to a group of the church members. The favorable weather conditions. The feature of the afternoon session was an address by Miss Ruth Manchester, on "Furlough from her work in the Inhabella Theobald College in India. Her description in simple but vivid words portrayed the lovely setting of massive white buildings amid the green of foliage and grass, dotted with the white sails of the native girls and the more western costumes of their English and American sisters to whom the college ministers. A beautiful and happy place to live, this first of the colleges for women in Asia. Alumnae scattered far and wide over the world are now doctors, nurses, teachers, and mothers in Christian homes.

Time demanded that Miss Manchester choose some special section of the work from the vast amount of interesting activity which the college performs. She spoke therefore of the Muslim girls who study there. With a generous and tolerant attitude, she mentioned the desirable characteristics that the Muslims bring with them as they come into association with Christians. The belief in practice of prohibition; a conception, though austere, and faith, in one God, and earnest and habitual prayer. The physical, mental and spiritual bondage of the Mohammedan woman is being gradually broken by a slow but sure educational movement. Veils are being discarded, response to high ideals, music, good books—all these lead slowly to social and religious reform. Polygamy is being rigorously attacked by non-Christian women of the Moslem world, and in spite of the reports from American papers of lynching of Christians and apparently unjust immigration regulations, in spite of the effect of the Great War and of economic exploitation which often forms their first contact with so-called Christians, they are learning that God is a God of love, and that the teachings of Jesus Christ are admirable and significant.

Galaxy Of Grid Satellites To Represent Summit Thanksgiving Day

Mark Of .444 Nets Bel Evans Premier Batting Honors Of Lackawanna Loop

Bel Evans Tops Batting Average List For The Lackawanna League Season

Second Place Goes To Kull, According To Official League Figures—Gene Sacco, Chatham Star, Takes Most Honors—Only One Summit Player In 200-Most Honors—Only One Summit Player In 300.

Honors for gaining the highest batting average in the Lackawanna League go to Bel Evans, the veteran Prudential diamond cutter, who turned in a mark of .444 for the ten games in which he did duty. Evans rapped out a total of sixteen safe blows, of which four were of the two-base variety, in thirty-six official trips to the platter to garner the highest average of those who performed in ten or more loop tilts.

Gene Sacco, member of the championship Springfield outfit, captured second place honors with an average of .433 registered by slugging out twenty-two safeties in fifty-two official times at bat.

Sacco Gets Most Honors For all-around batting ability Eugene Sacco, the dependable Chatham bludgeon-wielder, takes the honors. Gene compiled an average of .382 for the twenty-one games he played in which he went to the plate officially eighty-nine times, six more than anyone else in the league. Gene got the most hits—thirty-four, just five more than Charlie Muller, who turned in the next highest number of safe blows. Included among Sacco's hits were seven doubles, a pair of triples and four circuit-blows.

Seven doubles rapped from his bat enabled Gene to tie Tom Reynolds, of Summit, and Jack Mitchell, of Madison, for the distinction of hitting out the most singles of that dimension. Four home runs likewise enabled Gene to tie for the honor of slugging out the most clouts of the year, Charlie Muller, of New Providence, having turned in that many circuit drives.

Rich, of Morristown, takes fourth place among the leading sluggers with an average of .362, and Charlie Muller, leading batter of last year, finished fifth with a mark of .357 made on twenty-nine hits in seventy-nine trips to the platter.

Rizzolo Scores Most Runs Howard Lusardi, who alternated as catcher and second baseman for the Flower City team, turned in the most three-base blows. The Madison slugger slugged out four in the twenty games he played. He also posted an average of .301 for the season.

Pole Rizzolo, of New Providence, grasped the honors for scoring the most runs by dashing over the home plate with a score on twenty-eight occasions. Pete's teammate, Mike Salvia, came through with nineteen markers, which was the next highest number of runs scored by an individual.

Roy Baum was the only member of the Summit cast who compiled an average of more than .300 for ten games or more. He netted a mark of .321, which was made in seven games. Les Cole just missed getting in the select .300 class by getting .289.

Henaby Leading Hurler "Sticks" Henaby, of the Stars, was the leading hurler. The lanky Roselle Park boy heaved his team to eight wins in ten starts for an average of 8.00. "Snake" Sullivan, of Morristown, was next with seven wins in nine starts for a mark of 7.77.

Gordon Murray, the Hill City hurling ace, compiled what is believed to be a league record when he whiffed one hundred and forty-nine of those to face him. Murray accomplished that feat in nineteen games. He won nine and lost ten of his contests for an average of 7.77.

Premier heaving honors of the season go to Ray (Ace) Sanson, who at the very start of the season worked from the mound for the Stars. Ray won all three of the games he pitched in sensational style, registering as many as

SUMMIT HIGH FIVE TO FACE LIGHT SCHEDULE

The Summit High School basketball combination is to face the lightest schedule in the history of the institution, but twelve contests comprising its slate, according to Manager Ray Romanol. A pair of games with Chatham, Millburn, Madison, Westfield, Rahway and Roselle makes up the card, which has not been announced as yet.

Undoubtedly this is the lightest basketball schedule ever arranged for a Red and Blue team. Compared with other schedules of the past it looks like a pre-season card, a list of games to be played for practice. Back some four years ago the High School basketball slate consisted of twenty-seven games against some of the best scholastic teams in the State.

Summit High vs. Morristown

Game To Be Played This Afternoon At Morristown—Local Team Badly Bruised

Home Team Favored

The Summit-Morristown High School grid clash, which had been billed for tomorrow, is to be played this afternoon at Morristown instead.

Today's contest marks what is believed to be the first football re-lations of the two schools, and if the game proves a success to both the two will probably meet again next year on the so-called grid-iron.

Summit will enter the fray this afternoon badly bruised and battered. The Westfield tussle of last Saturday was exceptionally hard on the red and blue-clad grid warriors. Two of their number, Cam Shaw and Aniel Adams, were injured so badly that they are out for the season, Cam with internal injuries and an injured leg, which requires him to hobble about on crutches, and Adams with an injured leg.

The locals have had things pretty easy since the Westfield game. Monday there was no practice. Tuesday it rained, causing the practice scrimmage with Millburn to be postponed until the following day. Then after that scrimmage with Millburn on Wednesday the boys yesterday went through a light practice from which several of the regulars were missing.

Summit's line-up at the start of the game today is to differ from that which started against Westfield, of course. The backfield will be revamped considerably and several changes in the line may be made. The Morristown team is a fairly strong one and will enter the game the favorite to win because of its more impressive showing to date.

winner, taking premier honors in the 30 and 45-yard swim in time of 16 and 28 1/2 seconds, respectively. Other marks set up were as follows: 45-yard breast stroke race, won by M. Siegel in 40 seconds; 45-yard backstroke race, won by W. Green in 45 seconds; plonzo, won by R. White, with plunge of 41 feet in 25 seconds.

Next Wednesday the juniors will continue their competition. Events to be run off at that time include a 50-yard swim, an under water swim and diving.

Under the supervision of Howard C. Schoch, swimming instructor, the junior swimmers of the local Association held a swimming meet in the "Y" tank Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of setting up marks which will be shot at in the future by the youthful mermen.

D. Sheldon was the only double twenty-one strike-out victims in one game and averaging fifteen strike-outs for the three games. Ray went with the Jersey City club and left the Stars, who then took up "Sticks" Henaby.

DeMolay Chapter To Stage Game With Brooklyn Chapter—Willever To Call Signals and Many Other Well Know Athletes To Be Seen In The Game

A galaxy of college, prep and high school grid luminaries called from the ranks of the De Molayians of Summit and vicinity will compose the aggregation representing Loyalty Chapter, Order of De Molay, of Summit, in a football contest to be staged Thanksgiving Day as the feature of the monster program billed for that day by the local chapter.

The team which is to be pitted superior to that which played last year. Many football players of note against that of the Brooklyn Chapter, Order of De Molay, of Brooklyn, N. Y. could rightfully be termed a "wonder team," being composed of the cream, so to speak, of players who in recent years or at present are sparkling on scholastic or collegiate gridirons. Summit needs be stronger than last year, for the Brooklyn team was subdued by a 19-6 tally last year and the aggregation which is to represent the Willever To Call Signals Jack Willever, regarded as one of if not the best player ever to sport the colors of the local high school on a football field, is expected to bark signals for the Hill City eleven, just as he did last year so capably. Jack, as everyone in and about Summit knows, is a crack player; if he had continued his college career he might have graced some of the All-American teams named at the conclusion of each season by the football experts. Things looked mighty rosy for Jack at Swarthmore two years ago, his first at the Pennsylvania college. Jack, after playing four years with the Summit High School eleven, went down to Swarthmore and annexed the quarterback post on the Garnet before he had a chance to play football again, and since he has played only with the Summit De Molay crew.

Fiftieth Yale-Princeton Game Brings Up Memories

Arthur Poe's 100-Yard Run After Stealing Leather From Durston in 1898 High Light of Classic, Which Is Oldest In American Football

By DANIEL M. DANIEL Standing out in the football schedule for tomorrow is the semi-centennial meeting between Yale and Princeton in the oldest series which the grand old game boasts. While it will be the fiftieth contest between the Bulldog and the Tiger, the classic is 53 years old, dating back to November 15th, 1873. Among our American sport fixtures only the Harvard-Yale rowing regatta, which goes back to the '60s, is more venerable.

When Princeton scored that impressive 25 to 12 triumph over Yale last year the Tigers passed the 15th hoodoo in safety. It was Nassau's fourteenth victory over Yale. The Bulldog has won 25 games and nine were ties. Two of those deadlocks were called "no contest" because darkness fell before a decision could be arrived at.

Another loose football. Again he picked it up on the dead run and again nobody could catch him. He dashed 60 yards for a touchdown, and Princeton won by 6 to 3.

But things have changed a lot. Football of the highest type is played on the Pacific Coast, as well as on the Atlantic seaboard. Even in the East the supremacy of the Big Three has been broken down. Great elevens are seen in the South, in the Middle West, in the Southwest.

Down the field scooped Poe, with the Yale eleven in hot pursuit. Down the field he ran, and nobody got him. One hundred yards for a touchdown—and Princeton won by 6 to 6.

On the day of the game the gay boys toiled up Fifth avenue in tallcoats, on coaches—in any sort of rig which would hold 15 or 20 outlaws.

All Star Grid Team To Be Seen In Action

team, will make the Hill City backs' tasks much lighter. All seven of the forwards are players who have been playing regularly during the current season, either with college or school teams.

to strengthen the Hobart forward line. Dayton Parcells, another former Summit High School football player, who is now playing with the Blair Academy team, is to fill in the other tackle berth.

Former Roller-Skating Champion Now Quietly Residing In Summit

Like brass balls, the sport of roller-skating is now practically extinct. But, just as we have ex-bartenders, now bootleggers, who revive memories when they see and hear of a skimming brass rail, we have roller skaters, now retired, who recall the days when roller-skating as a sport occupied much attention in the public eye.

And right here in Summit we have a man who ten or more years ago, when roller-skating was at the height of popularity, figured as prominently as any in skating circles. The person to whom we refer is J. J. Constable, who with his wife and two children resides in their modest home on Tully street.

County Committee Named For Better Policing

The committee sought in a resolution presented by William I. McMane at the last meeting of the Board of Freeholders, to consult with the Prosecutor of Common Pleas and the police chiefs of the county in an endeavor to effect better police protection throughout the county, has been appointed with the following membership: William I. McMane, chairman; Emory Littlebridge, Richard J. Harzigan and John Z. Hatfield. An informal meeting of the committee was held on Wednesday, when it was decided that the first meeting with the Prosecutor will be held next Monday.

FARMS IN NEW JERSEY

New Jersey's Secretary of Agriculture has counted up the takings of the farmers in the State in 1925 and puts the total at $75,000,000. This is a pretty good showing when it is borne in mind that our neighbor is forty-fifth among the States in area and for a good many years has regarded suburban homes, vacation resorts and manufacturing as its principal business. A great many of its broad acres that once supported a rural population are now given over to golf links, the necessity of providing more putting greens to meet modern requirements has enabled numerous former truck farmers to divert their energy to coupon cutting.

Thanksgiving Appeal For 'Blind Babies' Home

The annual Thanksgiving appeal of the Arthur Home for Blind Babies was issued today by Mrs. Cynthia Westover Alben, President General of the International Sunshine Society as follows:

Dear Friend of the Blind Children on the Hill:

We come to you as usual at Thanksgiving time for your donation to the sightless children that form the Arthur Sunshine Home and Kindergarten on Pine Grove avenue, Summit.

These offerings have always been thank offerings for one's own eyesight, and I trust you will remember the Home again this year.

We have a number of New Jersey blind babies which the Institution is wholly supporting because the State does not pay for the care of its infant blind.

The per capita cost last year was $2.51 a day, so the deficit caused by the six New Jersey children alone would be quite an item. Therefore, we count much on the Thanksgiving donation from the citizens of Summit and the surrounding towns.

The Institution has made good average between 40 and 50 children the year round. There are a number of very wee babies. One was seven months old when it came to us and weighed only 5 pounds. Another baby admitted only yesterday weighs only 7 pounds and it is also seven months old. A New Jersey baby, 15 months, has no eyes, but is very bright. Then there is a little albino baby with pink eyes and white hair, white skin and rosy cheeks. He looks like a live doll.

Last week a baby only three days old was reported to us. The mother, a beautiful girl 18 years old, is dying and she holds the little one tightly in her arms all the time. As soon as she passes away the baby will be sent to the Arthur Home. Little Jean, not quite one year old, was born without eyes. Her twin brother was perfect.

Our society is a philanthropic one—the officers all serve without pay.

We haven't an apple in the house—could you send us some? The shelves of the cellar, which were filled last Thanksgiving, are quite empty now. We are also trying to fill the coal bins.

Any money sent in we will devote first to a fund for coal, and hope this letter will be the means of raising enough to order the coal bins filled.

We run seven stoves all winter and a couple of them day and night.

Gifts of apples, vegetables, fruit, clothes, toys, candies and jellies will be called for if you phone the Home, 976 Summit. We enclose herewith envelope for your thank offering.

I hope you can help it only a little.

Sincerely yours,
MRS. JOHN ALDEN,
President General and Founder of the Institution.

LOUD SPEAKERS AT AIR RACES

The 12,000 persons who attended the American Legion Aerial Circus at Curtis Field, Minerva, L. I., were able to hear the speakers and entertainers distinctly as a result of the use of Western Electric loud speakers. The event was staged by the Nassau County, N. Y., organization to raise relief funds for war veterans and their families.

Hauford McNider, Assistant Secretary of War, speaking over the microphone, congratulated the Nassau County Legion on the cause for which the air meet was staged. Edward L. ("Swanee") Taylor was also at the "mike" and kept the crowd laughing with bits of humor between events.

Taylor did the same at the National Air Races in Philadelphia. On that occasion, for the first time, an airplane equipped with loud speaker flew over the field announcing the events.

How to Run Your Furnace and Run it Economically

Clean ash dust and soot from heating surfaces of furnace and soot from smoke pipe and chimney to give free draft.

Keep damper in smoke pipe nearly closed to prevent hot gases from escaping up chimney. Keep ash-pit clean and admit air to fuel bed from below.

Carry thin clean fire, as it is more economical than thick and dead fire.

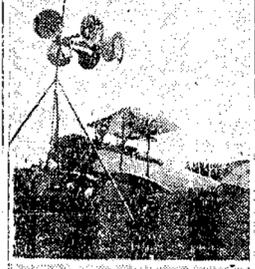

Shake at frequent intervals, but do not shake live coals into ash-pit.

Keep damper in firing door closed to prevent cold air from cooling off gases. Admit air to fire only through damper in ash-pit.

Regulate the fire by check draft, which admits cold air into smoke pipe and chimney, reducing draft through fire.

Cover steam and hot water heaters and their pipes with insulating material.

"Matching" Her Lips

To "light up" her lips, lady can now go to the corner drug store and ask for a package of "Matches!"

No foolin'! The newest types of lipstick are being made almost identically after the pattern of matchboard package matches that men carry. Each "stick" looks like a match—it's about the same length—and, instead of the head being inflammable, it is tipped with a tiny globe of rouge. That tiny globe, in turn, contains enough of the lip "war paint" to satisfy any flapper's daily need.

The girl above demonstrating the new cosmetic aid is Miss Petty, of Boston. Her opinion of it was that she considered the idea a "very super-sanitary accessory to her makeup kit."

American Education Week As Planned In the Summit Public Schools (Continued from Page One) The P.-T. A. on Monday afternoon, November 15th, at 3:30 and it is suggested that many mothers might come early that afternoon and take the opportunity to visit the classes before the meeting. At 11 o'clock each morning the second grade will have a period when they will demonstrate their plan of work in several subjects. The work will be given in this order: Monday, music; Tuesday, (thrift); Wednesday, English; Thursday and Friday each day next week. The usual program of work will be followed daily except on Thursday when the two assemblies necessitate special plans. Those visiting the first grades will find a wheat project in course of development in 1-F. This interest originated in a visit to a bakery. In 1-M, a farm project is adding zest to the day's work. The second grades are engaged in a study of Indian life, and the third grades in the study of Holland. In these classes the art work and the sand tables have furnished opportunity for creative expression. Visitors will be interested in this phase of the work. day, reading; Friday, health. Grade 3-L will give a play on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Brayton School: The pupils and teachers of Brayton School will be at home to Brayton School 3-A, the Good Citizens Club will tell what they are attempting to do for their school and community. The fourth grade at present is using its curio table, to which additional are being made daily, as a basis for its oral English. They have many things of interest to tell about. Pupils in 5-H are doing some worthwhile work on a series of practical health problems, while those in 5-F are making a study of various methods of transportation in New Jersey. One of the sixth grades is "Traveling" in Czechoslovakia where they have collected some pictures of this country and its people, and articles typical of its various industries. Another sixth grade is working on graphs for representing both class and individual progress, as well as for supplying other information. Children's Book Week, November 8-15, has been observed in Brayton School as "Early-a-Book Week," and a number of pupils have earned money to buy books for their own libraries. Arrangements have been made with local book dealers to bring to the school on Friday afternoon of next week an exhibit of children's books from which pupils may make selections. From Monday to Friday of next week the school will have a health exhibit in Siebert's window, if they like to see "what every pupil knows." Those visiting the school next Thursday will employ their time to advantage if they will keep in mind the following time schedule: 9:00-9:30—Primary Assembly. 9:30-10:00—Grade 1-3. 10:30-11:15—3-A and 3-M. 10:30-11:15—Intermediate Assembly 11:15-11:45—Miss Powell and Mr. Thomas will take groups in physical education in the auditorium. 1:00-1:30—Grades 2-B and 2-H. 1:30-2:15—Grade 5-H and 5-F. 2:15-2:50—Grade 6. Parents of the pupils will receive further announcements through the school bulletin. Patronize HERALD advertisers—they have something to offer you.

New Providence Boro

Miss Katherine Homan of Springfield avenue is at Overlook Hospital, where an operation was performed for appendicitis Wednesday morning.

Joseph Ayers of Orange was in town Wednesday renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Ayers was a former resident of this place.

Miss Ruth Rawson of Fairview avenue entertained the Sunday School class of "five wires" Thursday evening. Mrs. P. C. Greenly addressed the class on Home Missions.

The New Providence headquarters for the Red Cross drive will be in the Public Library, which will be open for that work Saturday afternoon and evening, Nov. 13th; Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 16th; Thursday afternoon, Nov. 18th, and Saturday afternoon and evening, Nov. 20th. The librarian will be in attendance and will gladly enroll members.

Book week was observed in the school and library. Approximately 300 children visited the library and were entertained with a talk on books and a story hour for the younger children. About fifty new books were added to the library, most of which were for the younger children.

A number of new houses are under construction in Lackawanna Park.

Tonight, Friday, the Community Service will entertain its patrons with the picture, "The Ancient Highway," a melodrama and an action picture of tremendous force that all will enjoy, with Jack Holt, Billie Dove and Montagu Love.

Linden Adams is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto F. Adams of South street.

Thursday, Nov. 11th, the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church will hold their annual fair and supper in the chapel.

At the Methodist Church Sunday morning there will be a father and son service consisting of ten-minute talks by two fathers and answered by two sons.

Over one hundred and eighty persons were present at the Father and Son Banquet held under the auspices of the New Providence Men's Club at the Presbyterian Chapel Tuesday, Nov. 9th. The ladies of the Presbyterian Church prepared a most delicious dinner that touched the hearts and stomachs of all those who were present.

Scratchley, professor of mathematics at Stevens Institute, gave the address of the evening. He said:

In Summit Churches

Rev. Samuel I. Herberster, pastor, will preach at 11 o'clock on Sunday morning in St. John's Lutheran Church, his subject being "The Grace of God—What is It?"

The pastor, Rev. S. B. Hiley, will preach on Sunday in the First Baptist Church, as follows: 11 a. m., "Consecrated Memories," evening worship, in charge of the young people's society.

At the morning service in Calvary Church Sunday morning, Rev. J. I. B. Larned will speak on the "Nation-wide Campaign" and at the vesper service the curate, Rev. A. E. Gabriel, will officiate.

Ruford Franklin will speak at the devotional meeting of the Luther League on Sunday evening, November 14th, in the parish house near Broadway road. The meeting will be preceded by a tea which will be served at 6 o'clock.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, 23 Ruthven place. Sunday service at 11 a. m. Subject: "Mortals and Immortals." Golden Text: Rev. 21:7, "He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son."

Rev. Henry L. Lamodin will preach Sunday morning in the Methodist Episcopal Church on "Felix Before Paul." The evening service will be featured by a musical program of selections from Mendelssohn and the installation of officers of Young People's Society.

At the Central Presbyterian Church, Rev. Rockwell S. Brank, minister, will preach at 11 a. m. on "The Power of Religious Joy." At the evening service he will speak on "Jubal, the Father of Music," which is a continuation of "Be royal fathers; it is your duty to become spiritual leaders of the race. Train your boys in religion and in education. Fathers, we have not done very well so far; they were proven by the terrible war of 1914-1918. It is harder to be a wise father than an obedient son. And the boys of today are no worse than the boys of yester years."

A very impressive exercise of the boy scout law was enacted by three honor scouts and the scout master, D. T. Jones, of South Orango. Mr. Jones also spoke on the value of the scout organization to boys above the age of twelve. Mayor A. G. Balcom sang a bass solo, "The Road to Mandalay." Douglas Spicer, New Providence lad, sang, accompanied by his father, H. L. Spicer.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The feature picture this evening will be James Oliver Curwood's "The Ancient Highway." Jack Holt, Billie Dove and Montagu Love are featured in the principal roles of the production, adapted for the screen by James S. Hamilton and Eve Unsell.

Holt, as Clifton Brant, after adventurous wanderings all over the world, comes back to Canada to settle an account with the man who had ruined and killed his father. He finds that Ivan Hurd (Love), the big lumber king, is not only his own enemy but the enemy of a beautiful girl (Billie Dove), whose fortune and good name are both in danger.

Brant, to wipe out his own debt of vengeance and because he has fallen in love with the girl, enlists in the unequal battle against one of the biggest and most powerful men in the country, though his love is unwelcome to her and she accepts his help only because he forces it upon her.

The climax of the struggle comes during the great spring log-drive, in which the man has to pit his own unaided strength against not only a ruthless millionaire with every resource at his command but against the forces of nature as well.

The picture ends with the thrilling break-up of the log-jam, and he hero, after risking death, comes back to life to find himself, under surprising circumstances, married to the girl he loves.

May Reduce League Membership To Six

A committee to wait on A. G. Balcom, president of the Lackawanna League council and manager of the New Providence A. A., and to discuss with him the advisability of reducing membership in the circuit to six clubs, of taking in the Millburn A. C. as one of the six and of taking steps to alleviate some of the things which marred the past season, was appointed at a meeting of several of the league managers held last night in the office of Robert J. Murphy on Union place.

Because of a prior engagement Mr. Balcom was unable to attend last night's session, but he had expressed his wish to most representatives of the other clubs at some other time.

Rev. Stuart Tyson, D.D., will preach in All Souls' Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Hawes will preach in the church in New England to which he has been called and on his return will announce his decision as to whether or not he will remain in Summit.

At the Forum meeting at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Dr. Tyson will lecture on Isaiah and the period that followed after the Prophets.

David Butler to Speak at D. Y. P. U. Service This Sunday evening at 8 o'clock the Baptist Church service will be in charge of the Baptist Young People's Union. David Butler, having had much experience with young people's organizations, will speak on the subject, "Church and Young People."

With a male quartet, a violin solo by Carl Carlson, and Miss Gladys Butterworth as leader, a very pleasant and educational service is assured.

Chatham vs. Millburn At Chatham Tomorrow

An interesting grid tilt which is sure to attract many local football enthusiasts is billed to take place tomorrow afternoon at Chatham between the high school eleven of that town and Carl Smith's Millburn High School eleven. The Millburn team will enter the fray the favorite to win in view of its more impressive record.

Five visits town to take on the Hill City quintet in the "Y" gym.

Last night some thirty-odd aspirants for a berth on the team went through light practice sessions consisting of two tilts between teams picked from the candidates. This method of practice has been employed almost entirely so far, but starting next week it is expected that a varsity squad against whose members will be pitted the other candidates will be picked.

Concentrated work on passing, shooting and running off of plays will be in order for next week and until the season's lid is pried off.

Manager William W. Lucas is rapidly completing the schedule, which to include several new opponents. Some of the dates are to be arranged Monday night at a meeting in the Orange "Y" of the members of the northern district of the State Y. M. C. A. Physical Directors' Society.
