

School Budget Jumps $234,211 for Record Total of $2,316,189

A record high school budget of $2,316,189 for the 1960-61 year will be presented by the Board of Education to representatives of PTA and civic groups at a meeting to be held in the Wilson School cafeteria on Monday at 8 p.m. The proposed expenditure represents a $234,211 jump over last year's budget.

Mole Named Member of School Board

Mayor Ogden D. Gensemer on Monday announced the appointment of Harvey E. Mole, Jr., of 17 Essex road to the Board of Education for a five-year term, ending January 31, 1965. Mr. Mole will replace Mrs. G. E. Low, of 16 Canterbury lane, who completes a five-year term at the end of January.

The proposed budget calls for $2,316,189 to be raised by local taxation, while $213,102 will be obtained from state aid.

Salaries Hit $1,419,714 Of the total amount of the budget, $1,419,714 is earmarked for salaries for teachers, librarians, guidance and psychological department, bedside teachers, kindergarten helpers and substitute teachers. This represents an increase of $74,570 over this year's budget, with the notable increase coming in regular teachers' salaries, in the amount of $74,030.

In addition, the budget calls for $54,450 for salary increases for teachers, principals, supervisors and clerks in school offices. There is no indication, as yet, whether this increase represents across-the-board increases for all teachers, or whether it represents the usual increment accorded all teachers each year for satisfactory work. In addition, it is known that some teachers in the system have back-pay due from last year, when the Board of School Estimate chopped $11,126 from the budget before approval was forthcoming.

Other increases in the proposed budget include $2,900 for administration, $4,120 for clerks, supervisors and instruction, $7,660 for instructional supplies and other expenses, and $5,875 for operations. In addition, there is a general increase of $5,050 for maintenance, $4,975 for student body activities, $950 in fixed charges and $78,785 in capital improvements.

Services Held for Dr. W.H. Lawrence Overlook Founder

Funeral services for Dr. William H. Lawrence, 81, founder of Overlook Hospital, were held yesterday at the Methodist Church, following his death Sunday at Savannah, Ga. Services were conducted by Rev. James M. Boyd, Jr. Interment followed at Fairmont Cemetery, Chatham.

A resident of Savannah for the last three years, Dr. Lawrence came to Summit before the turn of the century, when he was known as "the boy doctor from Summit." He founded the Overlook Hospital in 1905, although the institution did not open until October 1, 1906. Actually, his first "hospital" was in his home on DeForest avenue, where he had installed an operating room and a patient's bedroom.

In order to start Overlook Hospital, he borrowed $15,000 to finance the 30-bed building. During the first year, according to hospital records, 241 patients were treated, and although the hospital was a private one, care was given to all in need. By 1911, more room was needed, so Dr. Lawrence borrowed $50,000 and built two additions. Years later, he reported he was finally able to repay the loans.

Dr. Lawrence retired from active practice in 1941, following a heart attack. During World War I, he organized Ambulance Co. 33 of Summit and went overseas with the organization. He was later put in charge of the entire medical corps of the Fourth Division in Europe. He also founded with Dr. ... (Continued on Page 2)

Personal Mail to Port Authority on Jetport Likely to Wind Up in Papers

Friends of Port of New York Authority commissioners who write personal letters regarding the Great Swamp jetport are quite apt to have their correspondence made public.

This week the Port Authority released to all newspaper copies of personal letters sent to Donald V. Lowe of Tenafly, one of the New Jersey commissioners, as well as to Austin J. Tobin, executive director, from two area residents.

The replies by the Port Authority to the writers have the general theme, "this is going to hurt us worse than it does you, but ..."

A letter from Warren Kinney of Lee's Hill Farm, New Vernon, to "Dear Don," (Donald V. Lowe) is fondly replied by Mr. Lowe to "Dear Warry."

In his reply, Lowe says that it good to hear from his old friend and refers to what is apparently contacts through past years by Mrs. Lowe ("Charlotte") and Mrs. Kinney. After brief amenities he gets to the nub of the matter and states, "I am sorry that such an unhappy situation (jetport plan) is the immediate cause of this renewed contact."

Is "Distressed" Mr. Kinney's situation is one of those which "distresses me particularly," Lowe writes, "not only because of the personal impact on your personal affairs, but more especially, because of the feeling which I have that, had as it may prove to be, the picture has not been developed in such a way as to give you all the facts and the complete understanding which are necessary for objectively appraising a problem of this sort."

After discussing the reasons for the creation of the PA, Lowe says "Speaking for the Commissioners, I think I can say that this is the most distressing question which, so far, has been put before them."

For me personally, this is one of the most unpleasant experiences I have had so far in many years of public service. Friends whom I have made, many through the experience of serving the public, will doubtless be unable to appreciate, much less agree, with my point of view. It is not pleasant to contemplate the loss, through such basic difference of opinion, of friends like George Batt, yourself, Walter Margetts, and many others too numerous to mention."

Pulls Heartstrings Commenting upon an invitation from Mr. Kinney to make a personal visit to the Great Swamp area, Lowe says, "But to assume that I do not know ..."

YM Membership Triples in Two Years to 5,724

Membership figures have tripled since the new YMCA addition was opened two years ago, according to a special report issued this week by Allan R. Devenney, general secretary. Mr. Devenney said that Y aggregate membership during 1959 will be at an all time record of 5,724 men, women, boys and girls registered as dues paying members. His report was released in a fact sheet prepared for the local association's observance of National YMCA week.

The increasing demand for the YMCA program in Summit and surrounding communities is a tremendous challenge to the Y's leadership, resources, and facilities and as we move into the next decade there is every indication that the pace will quicken," Mr. Devenney said. "The directors of the Y are keenly aware of the population and cultural pressures and are already planning a major self study of the Association's future needs. It is expected that during 1961—the Summit YMCA's 75th anniversary—a long range development policy will be completed, and that further steps can be taken to improve and extend the facilities so that families in the Summit area will not be denied the services of a modern YMCA."

The Y executive said that programs in 1959 which were most successful included the Bonnie Prudden Fitness Clinic, the Indian Guides camping program, the competitive swimming program, family swims and the men's basketball team.

The Family membership has gone beyond all estimates, now enrolling nearly 445 family units. The physical department reported more than 60,000 at- (Continued on Page 10)

Schmitz Elected President of Recreation Board

The newly-elected president of the Board of Recreation Commissioners is Alan J. Schmitz of 141 Canoe Brook parkway, it was announced this week.

Lucius K. Collier of 5 John street, was named vice-president.

It was also announced that Mrs. Winthrop A. MacMaster of 42 Laurel avenue has been elected treasurer, while Harlan S. Kennedy was re-appointed director and secretary.

Mr. Schmitz was appointed to the Board on January 1, 1957 and has served as vice-president and treasurer, while Mr. Collier has also served as treasurer. Mrs. MacMaster, who was president in 1957, was vice-president in 1958. Secretary to the Board for 25 years, Mr. Kennedy has been director for 26 years. Robert D. Leisher was re-appointed assistant director and secretary as well as director of Edison Recreation Center. Mr. Schmitz succeeds H. Winthrop Green as president.

City May Use Its Credit on High School

Unless use is made of the city's borrowing capacity, no new high school can be constructed until 1968, a crowd of some 1,000 persons heard Council President Fletcher P. Thornton, Jr., indicate last Thursday at a forum held at the high school auditorium under the auspices of the League of Women Voters.

Other members of the panel included Ralph Sayre, president of the Board of Education, and Dr. Brockway McMillen, member of the education committee of the Board. Mrs. Henry Dearborn was moderator.

While noting that it was not his intention to destroy the financial ratings of the city to get a new school, Councilman Thornton did indicate that Common Council is prepared, however to "encroach" on the city's borrowing capacity in order to build the new high school. Mr. Thornton said the city would have sufficient borrowing capacity in 1962, but the degree to which this borrowing power would be tapped and when, has not as yet been decided.

Mr. Thornton also commented that other school activities in which bonds are involved would tie up Board of Education money until 1967.

Other expenses cited When questioned about other expenses facing the city, Mr. Thornton listed a garbage incinerator, at an approximate cost of $500,000 to $750,000, traffic in the center of town and its regulation as guided by the McCroskey Report, a new Public Library and addition to the Fire Department which will also need more equipment.

Low-Cost Home Group to Hold Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Summit Civic Foundation to be held Monday at 8 p.m. at the YWCA lounge will mark attainment of the organization's first goal in providing modern low-cost housing for the city's low-income groups formerly housed in slums.

Ten 2-family unit homes have been completed by the Foundation on its Dennis Place property and 20 families are now residing there.

The Foundation now plans to raise additional funds, estimated to be $30,000, for the construction of four other units on land at the Dennis Place site which will house another eight families.

Financing for the completed ten units was done by the sale of 3 per cent notes to local residents plus mortgage loans from local financial institutions. The proposed four new units would be financed in a similar manner.

The annual meeting also will include the election of trustees for the coming year. Present trustees are Rome A. Betts, Oscar D. Dennis, Prentice C. Ford, Harold T. Graves, Jr., Raymond H. Hartlaub, George E. Moore and Stanley O. Morgan.

Mr. Morgan is president, Mr. Dennis, vice president, Mr. Ford, secretary and Mr. Graves, treasurer. The Foundation has issued a call for help for the planting of shrubbery this spring at the Dennis Place site to beautify the homesites.

New Building Fails to Top 1958 Figure

Although new construction in the city last year topped the $5,000,000 for the third time in history, figures were more than $1,000,000 below the record $6,264,955 racked up during 1958, the monthly building inspector's report revealed this week.

With $90,000 in new building reported in December, final figures for the year stand at $5,131,810, a $1,133,145 decrease from the previous year's high. Last month's total represents a $25,000 increase over last November, but a $45,000 decrease from December, 1958.

Top months last year for new construction were April with $1,547,900, May, $858,995, and June, $847,875. Figures for the comparable months in 1958 showed, April, $467,500; May, $84,200, and June $411,050. New construction during 1958 reached its peak in March when $3,137,000 in permits were issued, of which Overlook Hospital accounted for nearly $2,000,000 for its new 12-story structure. Last March new building totaled $412,000.

Other month by month totals during 1959 as compared to 1958 show January, $156,600-$85,200; February, $120,040-$131,000; July, $252,325-$286,150; August, $219,000-$206,795; September, $214,500-$419,500, and October, $137,750-$273,100.

New construction in the city last year included a $700,000 Oratory School building on Morris avenue, and a 55-home development on Baltusrol road built by the Horton Corp. of Union, at an average price of $17,000, each. The first year that new construction topped the $5,000,000 mark was in 1956.

Those issued permits last month included Dwellcraft Builders, Inc., 52 Drum Hill road, $24,000; Robert R. Harrison, 20 Upper Overlook road, $16,000; A. Caplan, 14 Joanna Way, $22,000, and Ann Carbone, 23 and 27 Caldwell avenue, $14,000 each.

Alterations Top 1958 Mark With new construction for the year lagging more than a $1,000,000 behind the record-breaking totals of 1958, alteration-aided permits during 1959 reached the $476,955 mark, to top by $94,602 the $382,353 in permits reported throughout the previous year. Alterations in December stood at $24,060, as compared to the $24,665 reported in December, 1958. (Continued on Page 21)

Visiting Nurses All Set To Open Drive Saturday

Final organizational plans for the 1960 fund raising campaign of the Visiting Nurse Association of Summit, New Providence and Berkeley Heights were set in motion at the January meeting of the board of trustees held last Tuesday evening. The fund drive opens Saturday and will continue through January 30. The goal is $20,380.

Mrs. Alex W. Sielcken, general chairman, Mrs. J. B. Mumma, Mrs. G. E. Sawyer, co-chairman for Summit, Mrs. A. Nelson, co-chairman, Mrs. A. Goedwaagen, assistant co-chairman for New Providence, Mrs. W. Hartig, co-chairman, Mrs. H. Benner, assistant co-chairman for Berkeley Heights, reported the completion of solicitation teams for all communities served by the agency.

An auditing committee was named and will include Mrs. Frederick E. Steele, chairman; Mrs. Samuel E. Jones, secretary; Mrs. George E. Sawyer, Mrs. Nathan C. Lenefster, Mrs. Samuel A. Smith, Jr. and Mrs. Robert O. Peterson.

Cheaper than Route 22

It will cost at least $32,000,000 less than the widening and revitalization of Route 22, the alternate plan with the most support, the department spokesman said.

Highway Department Spokesmen Say They Are Unable At This Time To Pinpoint Contract Dates For the Construction But As Soon As Federal Funds Become Available They Will Immediately Start Buying Right-of-Way Land Either Late 1960 or Early in 1961.

Summit Angle Hinged in Probe of Vote Material

Freeholder Thomas G. Dunn appeared before the September Grand Jury last Thursday to elaborate upon his complaints about election campaign material. The Grand Jury is probing into last November's election practices, particularly the distribution of personal attacks upon candidates in "throwaways" and political pamphlets.

Although it has not been confirmed, reports are that Summit figures in the investigation. One of the "throwaways," an attack against State Sen. Robert C. Crane, was allegedly printed in this city and submitted to the printer by a local political figure. Senator Crane, who has complained about the material, has already appeared before the Grand Jury.

Freeholder Dunn, a Democrat, was not a candidate in the November election but he had said he would discuss a questionnaire distributed during the campaign concerning his activities as executive director of the Elizabeth Parking Authority.

Following last week's hearing both Freeholder Dunn and Assistant County Prosecutor Ralph DeVita declined comment about the session.

Mrs. Gilson graduated from Kent Place School and Cedar Crest College. She was formerly associated with the Newark News as society page reporter and feature writer, and subsequently editor of the society page. She is a member of the Montclair Operetta Class and the Summit unit of the Morristown Junior League. She has served as a Red Cross nurses aide and been affiliated with previous fund drives. This year's goal is again $40,750 and the drive begins officially on March 1.

 Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Life" is the Golden Text from Psalms (42:5): "The Lord will command his lovingkindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life."
 From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following: "Because Life is God, Life must be eternal, self-existent. Life is the everlasting I AM, the Being who was and is and shall be, whom nothing can erase" (389:32).
 Scriptural passages will include the following from

Temple Sinai to Hold Seminar for 35 Area Churches
 Temple Sinai of Summit is inviting the ministers and Sunday School teachers of 35 churches in the Summit area to a seminar on Judaism. Last year 200 ministers and teachers representing 19 churches attended. The response was so great that additional churches have been invited.
 Two sessions repeating the material will be held so that the groups will not be too large for discussion. They will be on Sunday afternoons, February 7 and 14, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.
 The subjects to be presented are: "Has Judaism a Creed?" "The Covenant Idea" and "The Three Major Branches of Judaism." There also will be a program of old and new Jewish liturgical music.
 Participating in the seminar will be Rabbi Morrison D. Bial of Temple Sinai, a graduate of the Jewish Institute of Religion and a member of the faculty of the Hebrew Union School of Education, and a member of the Central Conference of American Rabbis; Rabbi Edwin Schoffman, a graduate of the Jewish Theological Seminary and confirmation teacher at Temple Sinai, and Cantor Henry Weintraub, a junior at the Hebrew Union School of Sacred Music.
 Ministers, church leaders and teachers are requested to communicate with Temple Sinai to obtain invitations.

THE TRUTH about the NEW JET AIRPORT in New Jersey!
 The news that the Port Authority plans to build a jet airport in Morris County hit North Jersey like a bombshell.
 The reaction was instantaneous. Residents of the quiet communities of Morris County and their neighbors in a half a dozen other counties rose up in protest.
 Visions of screeching jets thundering over their homes sent them hurrying to stormy mass meetings. Petitions were hastily drawn up, committees organized and angry pledges of a fight to the finish bombarded the Port Authority.
 In another New Jersey county — Burlington — committees also were organized and funds raised. These committee members also were angry — angry because their pleas for a jet airport were snubbed.
 They are organizing an all-out fight to convince the authorities that Burlington is the ideal site for the jetport that Morris doesn't want!
 What is the truth about the fight AGAINST a jetport in Morris and the fight IN FAVOR of one in Burlington?
 The Editorial Staff of The Sunday Star-Ledger has probed the subject in every detail... the advantages and disadvantages... the threat to property values... the noise factor... the traffic problem... the aircraft of the future... the congested air traffic lanes...
 How will the jet airport affect YOU?
 Should New Jersey have a jet airport — and if so, where should it be located?

We Applaud the Mayor

Among newspapermen we have a phrase—"Afghanism." It implies that many an editor finds it more convenient to discuss matters many thousands of miles away rather than deal with the current problems in the home town. It is safer. Why not, say the Afghanists, forget home affairs and avoid a blast by commenting instead upon the situation in France, or even a neighboring state.

Distance may lend enchantment and peace of mind but it does no good in bringing before a community a matter of vital concern, such as Mayor Ogden D. Gensemer's proposal that all capital improvements be shelved until we can draw up a Master Plan for guidance in the future.

The Herald applauds the Mayor's proposal—with one small reservation, and that is the tabling of a new High School. We wholeheartedly agree with the Mayor that it is far more important to get our financial house in order before proceeding with capital improvements and then possibly ruing the day they were started.

The Mayor is probably right about the high school falling into the category of projects that should be shelved temporarily. But if there is any way that sufficient extra financing be squeezed without periling municipal credit, then we say earmark it for the school.

The Donkey and the Rabbit

Once upon a time there lived in close proximity a donkey and a rabbit. Each was content with his lot: There was plenty of sweet green grass for the donkey to nibble, and the rabbit found no end of lettuce and carrots to appease his appetite.

Each had a snug little house and was quite happy and friendly with the other. Many times the donkey and the rabbit would sit together, discussing the fate and future of the world. The rabbit, who had a tendency to be a bit pessimistic, often wondered what would happen if anything came along to ruin access to his lettuce and carrots. On the other hand, the donkey was eternally optimistic, and often cautioned the rabbit not to be a stick-in-the-mud and to recognize that change was for the better.

One day when the pair met for their daily chat, the rabbit was extremely excited because he had found that one of his fields of lettuce seemed to have mysteriously evaporated overnight and had become a concrete platform. The donkey was sorry for the rabbit's loss, but pointed out to him that there were many more fields of lettuce and probably the owner of the concrete platform would be of benefit to the community for wouldn't he contribute taxes, and taxes on industrial property were much higher than on fields of lettuce.

Naturally, the rabbit was not fully consoled, but he determined to be a bit more optimistic and sadly went off to his other fields of lettuce for his meal.

The next day, the rabbit and the donkey met again; and this time the rabbit was again extremely agitated, for his favorite field of carrots had become a dumping ground for discarded railroad cars. But, again, the donkey cautioned him not to be so pessimistic, because obviously some scrap firm had bought the carrot patch and wouldn't it be a tax asset to the community?

When the rabbit asked where the railroad cars came from, the donkey noted that train service had been stopped and others in the town had to use other means of transportation to get to their jobs. But, the donkey was quick to point out that this did not concern either himself or the rabbit, for they were going no place.

One day, however, when the pair met, the donkey was extremely disturbed, for he found that one of his fields of sweet green grass was swarming with men, who were methodically destroying one of his

The Mayor fears that "progress" and outside forces may quickly revise our future life and his thinking is given weight with the story in this week's issue that the State Highway Department intends to push its new expressway through the Summit Area within the next five years. To us in the Summit Area, that news is ominous and perhaps disastrous.

And the Mayor's warning about an end to commuter service and the Great Swamp Airport are equally ominous. If any or all of these occur there might not be any need for a new high school, or a new library. Or it could be that they would bring such a change that we'd need more than one new high school and a far larger library than is now considered.

We in Summit, along with the rest of North Jersey, are in a state of limbo. We can not, with any assurance, plan ahead until the planners at Trenton, Washington and the Port Authority complete their plans, or day dreams.

Also, we must not put ourselves in the position of the 30s when Summit was flat broke and over its corporate head in debt. It was a long haul to reestablish our credit and that experience should convince all that the pay-as-you-go policy must be maintained regardless of the hardships and the disappointments.

LETTERS

Suggests Jet Noise Sample Editor, Summit Herald:
Two letters in your January 7 issue provide two of the three keys to the problem of defeating the Port Authority's Great Swamp jetport plan.

Congresswoman Dwyer's letter provides ample evidence of a good politician's sensitivity to public opinion and Mrs. Murray's letter clearly indicates the direction to take in the State Legislature in order to permanently block the passage of the enabling legislation which is necessary before this outrage can be perpetrated on a large segment of North Jersey's population by the Port Authority.

As Mrs. Murray states, the votes of Union and Morris county legislators are not enough to defeat the proposal. The problem then is to enlist legislative support from other parts of the state to assure its defeat.

Having just returned to North Jersey after a two year residence in Garden City, Long Island, where the jet noise is increasing very day, I suggest herewith a sure fire way to enlist enough support for the certain defeat of this scheme from Essex, Somerset and Middlesex counties. The residents of these counties are living in a fool's paradise if they think the jet noise problem will be confined to Morris and Union counties with a jetport in the Great Swamp. Nor do many residents of Morris and Union counties have the remotest idea of the drastic change in noise level that will occur with local jet operation.

There are two reasons for this state of affairs. First New Jerseyites never hear jet plane noise because they fly too high on flights to and from the west in and out of Idlewild. Therefore, they do not know that the noise they hear from planes out of Newark is like a mother's lullaby in comparison to the simulation of the roar of Niagara Falls by the big jets.

Secondly, no one has described the takeoff and landing patterns of these giant aircraft to show how large an area will be affected by operations centered at the Great Swamp site.

On take off, the 707 weighs 248,000 lbs. fully loaded for a west coast flight. This enormous weight must be accelerated from zero to a speed of 180 m.p.h. in 30 seconds to get it off the ground. The noise is deafening 1/4 mile or more in the rear of the take off, but it diminishes very rapidly along the flight path, because of the almost unbelievable rate of climb of these planes. The rate of climb is so rapid out of Idlewild that the noise is hardly heard over Manhattan much less New Jersey on westbound flights.

It can be stated in all fairness that takeoff noise will not extend beyond the boundaries of Union and Morris counties most of the time. In these areas as any temporary resident of a motel near the Los Angeles or San Francisco airports can attest, one should be prepared to be shaken out of bed in a reasonable imitation of an earthquake if the wind is blowing toward you.

Such is not the case with landing noise. This covers an enormous area as thousands of residents of Long Island from Garden City west can now attest. Eastbound jets come in over Allentown, Pa., at 30,000 feet or more dropping 3,000 to 4,000 feet per minute. In eight minutes they are over Ambrose Lightship and with a northwind they are down on the Idlewild north south runway projecting into Jamaica bay 3 minutes later. No one hears this noise except the poor devils living close by the airport. They are already bludgeoned into a state of shellshock by the much greater take off noise so this doesn't matter much.

However our prevailing winds are northwest-west-southwest in this area. Therefore, most of the time, the planes continue east past Ambrise Lightship make a very wide turn over Garden City and head west down the middle or along the shore of the Island for touchdown at the eastern end of Idlewild's east-west runway fifteen miles west of Garden City. As they fly west, they also descend subjecting hundreds of thousands of residents of western Long Island to increasing noise levels with the approach to the touchdown point.

The Port Authority cannot repeal the laws of motion or change the direction of our prevailing winds. It should become obvious to everyone living within a circle with a fifteen mile radius centered on the Great Swamp that they are going to become victims of an unprecedented noise level increase with which they have had no previous experience. Get out an auto map and draw such a circle for a real surprise. Yes, innocent reader you probably live within the noisy circle, don't you?

If this case, there is no teacher except experience. So as the third key to the problem I suggest that our Congressional Representatives, Mrs. Dwyer, Mr. Frelinghuysen and Senator Case can render a signal service to the residents of Essex, Somerset, Middlesex, Morris and Union counties by obtaining a military 707 plane from the Federal Government for test purposes for a week or so.

A series of simulated landings and take offs centered on the Great Swamp around 7 p.m. when the younger children are trying to sleep and another series around 5 a.m. when most of us are interested in continuing our repose should do the trick. With emphasis on simulated landings into our prevailing southwest, west and north winds, I am sure Essex, Somerset and northern Middlesex county residents will re-

Our Retired Professors
(Boston Globe)

Retired college professors, one of their number testified, are being treated with less consideration than the Army gave its old mules. Speaking as president of an organization of retired university and college professors, Constantine Panunzio of Los Angeles went on to tell a Senate subcommittee that he has case after case of retired teachers reduced to the most humiliating expedients to eke out their living.

Forty-two per cent of his group, he had an average monthly income of $101. If the figures are true, they are frightening. Here is a real opportunity for one of the numerous foundations with millions at their disposal to promote a study of the present and future conditions under which retired college professors in this country must live.

If our universities are going to be able to staff their departments with enough able men to teach the multiplying number of applicants for degrees, they will have to assure such men twilight years without penury.

In addition to his brother, Joseph, he is survived by two other brothers, Carl O. Peterson of Sweden, and two sisters, Mrs. Ina Nelson and Mrs. Ellen Svensson, both of Summit.

Funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon by Rev. Harry S. Carlson of Faith Lutheran Church at the Burroughs & Kohr Funeral Home, 307 Springfield Avenue. Burial was in Fair Mount Cemetery, Chatham.

Miss Beatrice Haxton Word has been received from Erie, Pa., of the death in that city of Miss Beatrice Haxton, who from 1947 to 1952 resided at 55 Mountain Avenue here. Miss Haxton, 86, died December 2.

She was an aunt of Miss Elizabeth Carew, a teacher at the high school until her retirement on June 30, 1959, and who is now a resident of Vero Beach, Fla.

Burial was in the family plot at Greendale Cemetery, Meadville, Pa., on December 26.

As a constructive suggestion to Port Authority engineers, it is obvious from an elementary study of jet landing requirements that a seaside location will provide the least disturbance to the smallest number of people in the State of New Jersey with its prevailing southwest-west northwest wind patterns. This is true from the standpoint of both take off and landing noise. There are many choices of seaside sites along the coast below Asbury Park. It is much better to downgrade a small segment of our seashore which is used in the main two months out of the year by vacationists than to ruin the nerves of the residents of the most populous portion of our state on a round-the-clock basis.

Dana A. Griffin, 139 Beekman Road

Fears Jetport Apathy

Editor, Summit Herald: In connection with the Port Authority's proposal to place the world's largest jetport in the heart of this residential area, I have on several occasions come across the following reaction, "I'm against it, but how can we fight progress and anyhow, if the Port Authority wants it we are powerless to fight them—they will get their own way."

"Progress" is not necessarily defined by the Port Authority! I think most people realize that there will exist a need for another jet airport on the east coast. Technical progress in this direction however must be accompanied by a primary consideration of community acceptance and safety, and not merely by the existence of an air traffic problem. There are several other sites available in New Jersey and New York, anxious to welcome a jetport. Proper public service would compel the Port Authority to strain every nerve and use all possible ingenuity, vision, invention and imagination to overcome alleged technical obstacles to these sites. A choice of the Morris County site represents progress for the Port Authority, period.

And when did Americans give up in advance merely because their opponent was large and powerful? Sustained effort and determination on the part of residents in this area can carry the day and force the Authority to look for a more suitable location.

Mrs. John K. Bangs, 42 Hawthorne Place

Real Cost of Jetport

Editor, Summit Herald: A note on some of the real costs of the proposed jet airport in Morris County.

I live in Summit, some three miles from the port. The proposal is roughly equivalent, noise-wise, to putting me under the old Third Avenue elevated roadway. The costs I can expect including the following:

- 1. I can expect the value of my house to decrease more than $10,000.
2. I can expect all my neighbors' houses to decrease much more since theirs are newer—many, just built.
3. I can expect taxes to go up since the reduced valuation must still carry the city.
4. I can expect no more suburban residents to move into the area, and the present residents to move out. Would you choose to live under the Third Avenue El?

The cost to Summit alone will be something like $50,000,000. But Summit is only a small part of the area affected. The research lab where I work also lies under the gun. Its plant is one of the finest in the United States worth many tens of millions. I believe it will have to move. How can it attract the kind of people whose work requires peace and quiet, which they can get elsewhere?

Since the area will be replaced by a new large city, the Port Authority calls it "progress". In other words, destruction of values is called "progress" because people in authority have not the vision, the will, the determination to protect a residential area. They think that letting the country deteriorate is "progress" just because it is change.

The total loss has been estimated as high as $3,000,000,000. The social result is the wiping out of one of America's fine suburban areas. I cannot vouch for the accuracy of these cost estimates; but if you want to see what happens, just look at the area around O'Hare Airport in Chicago.

If the people who get the benefits had to pay the costs, I firmly believe that this port would not be built. It simply isn't worth that much to ride to Los Angeles in 5 1/2 hours instead of 8.

Who pays the costs? Not the Port Authority. Not the air travelers. I and others like me pay the costs—in deteriorated values, in loss of homes, in abandoned research laboratories. The country at large pays the costs—in government subsidies, in destruction of fine cities.

The Port Authority expects to recover its money, with interest. Our much greater loss is gone forever.

My conclusions are two:

- 1. To build a jet airport in Morris County is social and economic foolishness. If the real costs had to be paid by the Port Authority, it would never be built.
2. If the airport is needed enough to justify the real costs, let it be built in farming country southwest of New York. Good connections to the city are available via the Turnpike, and the area is anxious for development.

Robert M. Ryder, 21 Sunset Drive.

Drafts Hit to Women

Editor, Summit Herald:

I would like to make use of your columns to thank publicly the League of Women Voters for the panel meeting on the new high school which its members so expertly staged on Thursday last. At that time the facts were finally and to my satisfaction completely divulged, with a minimum of recriminations, propaganda or hokum. Anyone who attended this meeting now knows first hand what motivates the divergent points of view concerning this essential undertaking. And points of view regardless, he also knows that by September, 1962 there will be a new high school in operation.

This meeting was merely the latest example of the excellent work continually done by this volunteer non-partisan organization. First of all, its members are, God be praised, women. As voters, they are in addition the most intelligent and best informed group in our community.

John A. Lawler, Jr., 25 Sheridan Road

Again Asks Bar Curfew

Editor, Summit Herald: Gentlemen:

New Year's Eve, the second most dangerous night in the year, has again lived up to its reputation with over 369 deaths as the toll over the week-end. As previously reported by the National Safety Council, alcohol is a factor in up to 50 per cent of these cases.

Even when none occur in Summit, only research would reveal whether alcoholic beverages drunk in this jurisdiction were the cause of accidents or death in other areas. Moreover, in late hour drinking, some person may have got started on a career of alcoholism which in 10 or more years may result in disaster. Recent reports of the Yale School of Alcohol Studies have demonstrated that the facilities for obtaining drinks to a large extent determine the number of alcoholics. It is therefore, unfortunate that our Common Council supported this trend to alcoholism by increasing the hours of sales in Summit.

May we hope that during the coming year they will make a contribution to community and national welfare by returning to midnight closing on New Year's Eve.

H. Walford Martin, President

Jetport Is Dubious Progress

Editor, Summit Herald:

The New York Port Authority has proposed the world's largest airport be constructed in Morris County, New Jersey. The suggested site lies within the heart of one of the State's finest residential sections, and encompasses an area of over 250,000, taxpaying citizens. It involves the homes and future of business men representing one of the highest per capita income groups within the state and the nation. This income is not derived from fox hunting, and I dare say, the talleyho set, if it ever existed, long ago ceased following the hounds. The Federal Aviation Commission has termed this location the "textbook answer". A textbook can form the basis or stepping stone of a normal education, but certainly does not guarantee a practical solution to any problem. I am not qualified to discuss the physical aspects of the proposed site from the standpoint of aircraft safety patterns and deployment. I do feel I am sufficiently far sighted enough to anticipate the tremendous physical and economical change which must develop within the entire area.

Such an installation requires an enormous day to day working force, plus a multitude of service organization which will be established in the near-locality. Such service facilities will not only involve heavy and light industry, but truck depots, motels, and any number of other similar establishments. As the world's largest international airport, we will also be faced with a tremendous influx of daily travelers and visitors.

I do not believe any intelligent business man will voice an objection to inevitable industrial growth, and I feel likewise. On the other hand, it would seem such a growth would be more suitable in an area adaptable to industrialization which is not of a residential nature. If this project is approved, long established residential communities now held in the highest respect and admired by the majority of citizens in New Jersey, perhaps New York and possibly Connecticut will be destroyed. I note with amusement, if anything is amusing in a situation such as this, that there is not one member of the board of the Port Authority advocating this project living in the immediate area.

Completion is supposedly ten years away. In the meantime, people within our community, as well as those adjoining are already forming plans to move elsewhere. The entire area has been thrown into a state of confusion and indecision by the untimely and high handed methods of the New York Port Authority.

Various groups have proposed other sites, perhaps the most prominent one being in Burlington County. It is my understanding elected representatives as well as the public would welcome such a project with open arms. There is apparently adequate room for the airport and its many service requirements without imposing on the individual rights of homeowners. The Port Authority's main objection stems from the fact that such an airport would be approximately 50 miles from metropolitan New York. They have not pointed out the close proximity of Philadelphia which would undoubtedly benefit and possibly be vitally interested. It seems reasonable if the city of Philadelphia would derive direct benefits, they would also be willing to contribute financial and moral support.

Maguire Air Force Base has also been brought into the picture. This might possibly be the obvious and most economical answer for the average taxpayer. The Armed Services readily admit the days of manned-aircraft are numbered, and many of our present installations may be available for other use. I am not familiar with possible local, state, or federal roadblocks which might retard the further consideration of Maguire, and I, therefore, await with interest our legislature's examination of this possibility.

Apparently, the Port Authority has not seriously considered and alternate in either the State of New Jersey or New York. Mr. Tobin, assuming the attitude of a schoolboy whose feelings have been hurt, has publicly announced it will be the Morris County site or nothing. Thus, the millions of citizens not directly affected possibly feel he must be taken on his word and supported. I hope each of these citizens realize just whose money is being spent.

Many people have briefly touched upon the already common practice of transporting passengers from outlying airports to the metropolitan area by helicopter. I feel we should elaborate. It is a fact and not off the cuff information the military, because of the obvious decline of manned-aircraft in the future, is not only looking into, but advocating, the increased utilization of the helicopter for transporting troops and supplies. This will mean new demands on the manufacturer for design, increased efficiency and ultimately a stepped up form of mass production. As mass production dictates lower costs, we can look forward to more economical vehicles in the future. It is a fact a greatly improved helicopter is now on the drawing boards and capable of going into operation within one or two years time. It calls for a passenger capacity in excess of fifty persons and a speed of 150 miles per hour. The same drawing boards are visualizing machines carrying up to 100 passengers at the same or greater speed. There are now three major airlines within the U. S. making active use of the helicopter. Since inception date, approximately seven years ago, didn't write threatening letters suggesting that they had "put their finger in a hornet's nest."

 "In a growing metropolitan area such as northern New Jersey," Tobin wrote, "these painful adjustments are an inevitable part of the passing of time and the growing demands and necessities of the whole community. No public official can escape or run away from these unpleasant and unhappy aspects of progress and welfare. The Bergen Expressway, the Garden State Parkway, the Long Island Parks, the Port Authority Bus Terminal, the Round Valley Reservoir, the Narrows Bridge, New York International—all involved the taking of homes which were dear to the families who built and owned them. Their distress and unhappiness was just as real and sincere, as understandable and as human, as the distress you express."

Cites Brooklyn Case
 Citing the Narrows Bridge, Tobin says, "its Brooklyn approaches required the taking of 2,500 homes. Do you think that those of us who shared the responsibility for that decision thought it was a pleasant task? That area of Brooklyn is one of quiet, modest 1 or 2-family houses. They were bought and paid for by people who worked hard to do so, who brought up their families there and who, in your words, are dedicated to the preservation of their home life. . . . But there was no possible or practicable alternative . . . other people were just as dedicated to their homes as the people of . . . Brooklyn, or the people of Morris County."
 "It is said," he continues, "that the new airport, so essential to the future welfare and continued prosperity of all the people of northern New Jersey, should be built in the pine barrens of Burlington County. I assure you that if that would do the job, everyone here in the Port Authority would throw their hats in the air and thank their stars for deliverance from such torments as those which you threaten me. But the fact is that Burlington County will not do the job. . . . What then? You would say, I suppose, then any county but Morris County. Any area but the area around the Great Swamp. And what do you think the people of that other county will say? Do you think that the people of that county will be less dedicated to the preservation of their home life?"

Both Mr. Kinney and Mr. Batt said they gave no permission, nor were asked, that their letters be made public.

Annual Scout Hobby Show Promises Huge Variety

Among the variety of hobby show exhibits to be shown at the annual Boy Scout hobby show on February 13 will be those of several interesting artists.

Elizabeth Lansdell Hammell will display her water-color paintings of flowers. Many of Mrs. Hammell's paintings have appeared on Woman's Home Companion covers. One of her paintings was awarded the Beck Prize at the Philadelphia Academy of Fine Arts for having been judged the finest water-color used commercially in the USA during 1959. In December of 1959 the C. S. Hammond Company published a book on pets, plants and animals, which included 200 illustrations of flowers, fruits and vegetables by Mrs. Hammell. Mrs. Hammell will be working on a painting during the show where visitors can watch and talk with her.

Will Hammell, who has had a long and varied career as an artist will exhibit some colorful coats-of-arms. For many years Mr. Hammell did illustrations for books, magazine articles and covers, and advertising. He operated an art agency in New York City and is a charter member of the Art Directors Club of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammell studied at the Art Student's League of New York under the late George A. Bridgeman. Franklyn T. Hansen of C. S. Hammond Company, Maplewood, will cut silhouettes for the hobby show crowd. A technique has been developed at Hammond's for making "3D" color relief maps for their books. Mr. Hansen will exhibit several of the colored plaster models (one a map of Canada) which were made recently for this purpose. When there is a change in geography, Mr. Hansen goes to the lobby of the New York Daily News building in New York City and makes the necessary changes on the world's largest globe located there.

The hobby show will take

Greco, Famed Flamenco Dancer to Appear Here

The foremost living exponent of the Spanish dance forms, Jose Greco, and his troupe, will be presented by the Summit Community Concerts Association on Tuesday, January 19, at 8:30 p.m. at the Summit High School Auditorium.

A naturalized American, Greco was born in Montorio, Italy. The boy's first manifestations of his superb innate dance talents were his attempts to emulate the itinerant dancers of his remote Italian birthplace. When he was seven, he was taken to Seville, Spain, where for three years he spent countless hours around the inns and cafes absorbing the techniques of the traditional Flamenco dances.

The boy came to New York when he was ten years old with his parents and continued to study dancing. When he was 14 he left high school to concentrate on art study. Although he displayed a marked talent for painting, Spanish dancing remained his first love and he continued to take instructions. Jose Greco's first professional appearance was at New York's Hippodrome in "Carmen." At that time the great dancer Escudero, was in New York. When he saw the young Greco dance, he told him, "If I had been able to dance like that when I was your age, I should now be the marvel of the world."

For five more years, Jose Greco danced and studied, broadening his scope to include a concentrated study of the Spanish people, their history and politics, art and literature. His aim was to know more and more about Spain and her people to enable him to interpret her dance forms. From 1941, until 1945 Mr. Greco was the partner of La Argentinita, and after her death he danced in Spain for three years with her sister, Pilar Lopez.

Choreographed Film Sequence
Greco was invited to choreograph a Spanish dance sequence for "Manolete," a motion picture filmed in 1948. Organizing a small troupe of dancers from among his friends and colleagues, he worked with them until the ten-minute ballet was a creation of beauty, excitement and virtuosity. The success of the film led Mr. Greco to form his own company in Madrid in 1948, opening in Barcelona to much acclaim.

Following a tour in 1950 through the Northern countries of Europe, the Spanish and British governments united in sponsoring Jose Greco's first appearance in London at Covent Garden. Those who saw him and his company were so impressed that they arranged for a month's engagement at Sadler's Wells Theatre during the Festival of Britain. Between the two engagements, in London, the Greco troupe repeated its European successes in several countries of South America.

Now in America, Jose Greco holds the distinction of being the first artist to ever have been booked into the Empire Room of the Waldorf Astoria for two engagements within a six month period. In addition, Greco and his troupe have appeared at the Sahara Hotel, Las Vegas, the Hollywood Bowl and the Statler Hotel Los Angeles. He has appeared on television on Ed Sullivan's program and on "Omnibus." Recently he has been seen in Mike Todd's production of "Around the World in 80 Days." Following the completion of their recent European tour in mid-September, Mr. Greco and members of the company appeared in the Walt Disney motion picture production titled "Dances of Spain," which has

Marital Talks Being Held For Clergymen

The Clergyman as Marriage Counselor will be the topic of the third annual clergyman's conference of the Union County Association for Mental Health it was announced by Mrs. W. Caphart Harney, of 63 Oakridge Avenue, chairman of the program service committee. The conference, for clergymen of all faiths, this year will be co-sponsored by the Westfield Ministerial Association and will take place on Wednesday, January 20, at the Woman's Club of Westfield.

The program service committee making arrangements for the conference are Mrs. Harney, Mrs. Woodruff J. English, 22 Blackburn Place, Mrs. Kenneth W. Ericson, 2 Woodcroft Road, Mrs. Julius N. Dieman, 22 High Street, and Mrs. Walter R. Good, 49 Rowan Road.

Boro Handed Diabolical Plan to Halt Jet Planes

Out in New Providence they float a barrage balloon over the believe in fighting fire with fire. And, they are not above a bit of dirty tennis once in awhile, if it will solve an annoying problem, like a jet airport. The Borough Council has received a request from two residents, Frank H. LeBart of Countryside Drive and A. F. Turbak of 9 Schindler Place, to jet planes, flying saucers and other sundry soaring objects. Naturally, it all would be done in the interest of Civil Defense. The petition to Boro. Council reads: "As you know, New Providence, like most other American communities, has been unable to arouse much interest in civil defense matters. New Providence also shares an interest with other communities in the vicinity of the Great Swamp in controlling what potentially may be undesirable aircraft of domestic origin. "In the interest of serving both of these worthwhile objectives, it is proposed that the borough purchase a World War II type barrage balloon with sufficient cable to extend the balloon to a height of at least one mile. This of our responsibilities to civil defense and would serve effectively to deter low flying aircraft of either foreign or domestic origin. "As an optional feature, messages could be painted on the balloon. One side could say Support Civil Defense. The other could carry some other appropriate message, such as Port Authority Go Home. "Once New Providence set an example, it is hoped that other communities in the area of the Great Swamp will follow suit. This should help to assure rural tranquility for our citizens and a happy sanctuary for New Jersey wildlife."

State Moves to Widen Route 22 at Hillside

Trenton, January 14 — The New Jersey State Highway Department will hold a public hearing February 3 on widening U.S. 22 in the vicinity of Liberty avenue in Hillside. Highway Department engineers will present proposals for widening the highway for over half a mile between Tlooy avenue and a point 200 feet east of the Liberty avenue viaduct.

Each of the existing roadways is 29 feet wide adjacent to the viaduct, providing motorists with six narrow lanes. But on the viaduct itself roadway width narrows to 25 feet, room for only two lanes in each direction. Widening on the viaduct will be accomplished by adding 28 feet of pavement on the north side of the road on new steel structure. Relocating the center barrier will then result in one 12 and two 13 foot lanes for each direction of traffic.

Kaffeeklatsch To Hear Talk By Area Woman
 Mrs. Elizabeth Linn Drake of Chatham, locally known as a traveler, will make her annual appearance at the next meeting of the YWCA Kaffeeklatsch Wednesday morning, January 20. Mrs. Drake will give a lecture illustrated by colored slides on the subject of Russia Today. She has also recently visited Central Asia and will describe some of her impressions of that area.

Mrs. Drake's observations of the life, customs and social progress and current thought in many spots not ordinarily reached have won the acclaim of many audiences. Her association with the U. N. as a member of the speakers research committee has opened doors which are customarily closed to individual tourists.

Coffee will be served at 10 a.m. followed by the program at 10:30. The usual concurrent dance and rhythm classes for boys and girls 3 to 5 years of age, as well as baby sitting services for infants 18 months or over, will be available for youngsters of mothers attending Kaffeeklatsch.

A call to the YWCA at CR. 3-4242 will put the name of interested persons in the area on a list to receive a schedule of the Kaffeeklatsch programs for the remainder of the season which ends May 18.

Junior High PTA Meeting Stresses Curricula Choice

The second Junior High School P.T.A. meeting will be held on Monday, at 8 p.m. in the High School auditorium. The meeting is designed to help parents understand what the school has to offer for next year's curriculum so that they in turn may be in a better position to help the students plan their academic careers. Each grade will face a different problem involving a choice of subject matter. Seventh graders may elect a foreign language for the next year; eighth graders, for the first time will have an extensive choice in next year's curriculum; and ninth graders will face the problems involved in entering the high school. The group will split up after a brief outline of the entire program, into three parts; parents of seventh and eighth graders going to the gym; parents of ninth graders remaining in the auditorium. Each group will have a special counsellor discuss the particular problems of the grade. It is urged that parents attend the meeting since important decisions regarding curricula and eventual careers need thorough understanding by both parents and children.

Clean as your electric iron! That's flameless electric cooking. The pots and pans are in direct contact with the clean, flameless cooking units. There are no by-products of combustion, no grease or grime to soil kitchen walls and ceilings. And if something spills on the cooking unit, it burns right off. A light once-over with a damp cloth keeps the rest of the range spotless. All this plus the fact that it's the coolest and most accurate way to cook makes it easy to see why more and more people are switching to flameless electric ranges every day.

Record Earnings In '59 Reported By Summit Trust

In his annual report to the stockholders, depositors, and staff members of the Summit Trust Company, Harold T. Graves, Jr., president, reported today a new high total of deposits, a record level of loans, and new highs in total operating income and in net operating earnings.

The latter figure which is of special interest to stockholders, has increased in each of the last 14 years with the single exception of 1955 when the rate of interest paid by the bank on savings deposits was doubled. The results for 1959 are over six times the 1946 figures. During these 14 years, capital accounts, including asset reserves, increased 155 percent and deposits rose 128 percent.

The very strong loan demand that characterized national banking operations this last year, was experienced in modified degree even in the relatively well-to-do, non-industrial Summit area. As a result the total of loans and mortgages rose by $3,166,019 during the year. This increase in loans contributed substantially to the favorable earnings experience.

The year end total of loans and mortgages was the equivalent of 46 percent of aggregate deposits. The Passaic Valley Office building is virtually completed and the statement invites stockholders, friends and customers to visit the building on Saturday when an open house will be held. Banking operations will begin in the new building the following Monday. Total assets at the close of business on December 31, 1959 showed $47,615,449.06, as compared to the $45,425,562.56 at the close of business on December 31, 1958. Net operating income showed $331,484.01 as compared to $302,725.36, while capital surplus and undivided profits totalled $2,769,341.85 as against $2,660,195.55 in 1958.

YM Men's Cage Team Wins to Perth Amboy
 The YMCA men's varsity basketball team last week dropped its second contest of the season to a strong Perth Amboy YMCA 67-53. The locals couldn't stop "Red" Tauber, star center of the Perth Amboy Club, who hit for 14 of his 19 point total in the first half.

Summit trailed by 33-30 at half time, but in the second half the jump shooting of Kravovich and Joe Kalinowski was more than the locals could cope with.
 High men for Summit were Frank Patterson and Vee Gris with 13 points. John Reynolds had 12.
 The Summit team will play the Fairlawn Recreation Team on its home court tomorrow at 9 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

YM Boys' Quint Rumps Over Peapack 61-33
 The YMCA boys' basketball team won its second straight game in the Inter County boys league, last week by defeating

Madison Nips Senior High Quint 58-56 in Overtime
 Summit High School eagles suffered another defeat last week but was involved in the most thrilling game of the season as the Madison Dodgers and the Hilltoppers fought their way into a 51-51 tie at the end of the fourth quarter. The game went into a three minute overtime period, and Madison emerged victorious with a score of 58-56 over Summit.
 The play was fast as the score was continually close throughout the entire contest and it was anybody's game going in to the closing minutes. Summit played the best game of the season with 4 out of the 5 starters scoring over ten points. Max Fry led the attack with 15 points, followed by So Steplight, who dunked in 14. Lee Smith who accounted for 12, and hard-driving Lenny Brown who scored 10.

 The Maroon and White offense was good, and defensively, they thwarted the Madison attack, but found it difficult to stop the fabulous outside shooting of Dave Brown, who scored 17 for the Dodgers, and Sophomore harlie Little, who was not only capable, but did "bomb" from various places on the court to rack up 14 of the final score.
 At the end of the fourth period, the score was tied and before a very excited crowd, the overtime was played. The score jostled back and forth, but Senior Dave Brown, who had led the Madison attack throughout the game, dropped the winning shot from outside.
 Sol Steplight played a top game both defensively and offensively. Despite a difference in height between Sol and Madison's Brown, high jumping Steplight managed to control the major portion of rebounds and did a fine job in controlling the ball downcourt against the nimble Charlie Little.
 Max Fry worked under the boards a little more than in previous games, and it paid off, as he was fouled several times, and made most of the foul shots. Lee Smith, the smallest on the team, did an excellent job of play-making and sank several difficult shots from the outside.
 Summit's next home game will be placed tomorrow at the High School and will be against Verona. The J.V.'s will play first at 7.

3 Leagues Place City Cage Play In Full Swing
 The three basketball leagues sponsored by the Board of Recreation are now in full swing.
 In the Intermediate League, the Gung defeated the Nuggets 23-20 with Paul Fraisher scoring 7 points for the winners, as high scorer, and John Malloy scoring 15 for the losers. The Stags defeated the Bullets by a score of 22-9 with Brent Cromwell leading the attack with 11 points for the Stags.
 In the Major Basketball League, the Royals defeated the Knicks 35-22 with LaMont Johnson leading the attack with 8 points for the Royals. David Quimby scored 12 for the losers. The Celtics took the Lakers 33-25 supported by Don Willey's 12 points in the first half to hold a four point margin over the Lakers throughout the rest of the game. Steve Greens scored 11 points for the losers.
 In the Minor League, there are two divisions: The Washington and the Franklin. In the Washington division, Ned Ennis dropped in 17 points to lead the Nikes to a 24-19 victory over the Thors. The other game saw the Vanguard defeat the Atlas team 15-11.
 In the Franklin Division, the Shooters defeated the Brakers 18-16 with Miele Steel scoring 8 for the winners. The Rebounders had a close match with the Passers, in which John Flanagan scored 10 to support a 21-20 victory over the Passers. The Dribblers defeated the Screeners 34-22 with Ronald Eger dropping 19 for the winners and Bill Dohme 13 for the losers.

High Scoring Marks Play in Berkeley Loop

Runaway Pin Race Seen in Holy Name Loop
 A three game sweep by the Rockets last week increased its lead to 40 games won in the St. Teresa's Holy Name League as Don Quidia's 498 series was strong for the winners.
 The Scooters, strongly supported by a fine 540 series by Jerry Vernotica, which included games of 202 and 198, blanked the Shamrocks despite another fine series of 544 by Mike Digirono.
 The Fakers, now tied with the Scooters, took the last two games from Walt-N-C with Paul Falco's outstanding 609 series. In his series, Paul rolled a pair of 214 games. For the losers, Sam Fusco rolled the evening's high game, a 230.
 The Keglers blanked the Duds with Lou Marinaccio's 175 game high for that match. High team

Johnston Puts Squeeze Play On Frantzen
 Ken Johnston's still remained one game away from the leaders in the City Girls League, Chell Frantzen, as both teams blanked their opponents in last week's match.
 C. Leonard rolled the high series for Johnston's with a 432 and for Chell Frantzen, Mary Pennucci's 443 series was high.
 Sweet Kleen laundry took two games from third place Strand Market with L. Zombito's 464 series tops for that team. Summit Trust blanked the Deluxe Sweet Shoppe, while Meta and Edwards took the odd game high for that match. High team

St. John's B Boosts Lead in Church League
 St. John's Lutheran "B" team increased its lead in the Summit Inter-Church League last week as it took 3 points from the St. John's Lutheran "A" team. Christ Church, the second place squad, took two points from Temple Sinai.
 There was no change in the third and fourth place teams as Faith Lutheran dropped three points to Oakes Memorial as the Presbyterians took three points from the Methodists. The Combined Churchmen offered the only clean sweep of the evening as it moved into a fifth place tie with Oakes Memorial by blanking the Jewish Community Center.
 Ed Mcmane's 239 was the high game for the evening as other high games were rolled by: Ray Lutz 213, Bob Lewis 211, Frank McKain 206, Sam Polikoff 204, and Sam Kessler 202.

HEATING COSTS COME DOWN... WHEN YOU CHANGE TO A WINKLER LP LOW PRESSURE OIL BURNER

Are you supporting an oil hog in your basement? Get rid of it now—put in a Winkler LP. You'll save oil—cut service costs—enjoy the most carefree heating you've ever known. Here's what owners say—

At last I am completely satisfied with oil heat. The day my burner went to pieces, I felt quite badly, but now I can see it was really a lucky day. After you installed a Winkler LP burner, and I saw what it would do, I wouldn't be without it. Why should I, with a saving this year of 40%?

Mrs. Shirley Hill, Portsmouth, N. H.

Costs less than hand-fired coal

Last winter, the Winkler Oil Burner required only $125.00 worth of oil and in previous years we burned nine to ten tons of coal at $17.50 per ton. I will certainly recommend this oil burner to anyone desiring trouble-free and economical heating.

BORO'S NEWEST BUILDING—Above is the new Colonial-style Summit Trust Co. office at New Providence which will be opened for public inspection this Saturday from 1 to 5 p.m. and for regular business on Monday. The handsome brick structure brings area residents complete and full banking services, including safe deposit boxes, a drive-in teller's window and ample parking facilities. A highlight of the interior is a scenic mural of rare wood blocks depicting Revolutionary War incidents.

Summit Trust to Open New Building Saturday

The Summit Trust Company presents the latest ideas in bank construction, equipment and decorations.

The Colonial-styled building with traditional red brick and white trim is a "U" shaped, one-floor structure 72 feet wide. A portico supported by four white columns and a traditional black slate roof are in harmony with the Colonial design which is continued in the interior. Custom designed fixtures and furnishings are blended with authentically reproduced items which retain the Colonial atmosphere while providing the utmost in convenience and efficiency.

Behind the teller's counter a scenic mural, "War of Independence," is a decorative highlight of the interior design. This is a limited wood block print, imported from France. The wood blocks are the only ones in existence—and are over a century old.

The mural is a panorama divided into four principal pictures; the first representing the capture of a fort on Weehawk Hill, the second the surrender of Gen-

Top Barber Shop Singers Coming Here

The ringing chords of old-fashioned barbershop quartet music and some "visiting firemen" clad in gay nineties garb will highlight harmony night, Saturday, February 6, at Summit High School.

Presented annually by the Summit chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, the show will feature the Summit chapter chorus and three visiting quartets, as well as several local chorists who sing in recognized SPEBSQSA quartets.

The Del-Cords from Lansdowne, Pa., one of the leading comedy quartets in the east, will entertain with its brand of nineteenth century humor in harmony. Organized in 1954, the Del-Cords have played to more than 100 audiences across the nation, and have received national recognition for their stage presence.

Also sharing the Summit spotlight will be the Easternaires of Jersey City, third place medalists in the international finals of SPEBSQSA competition. The Easternaires have sung all over the nation to receptive audiences, and have made several recordings.

 The high school, Mr. Sayre pointed out during the 1960-61 school year, but that it was too soon to predict what would happen during the 1961-62 year. He noted that facilities were being used at the YMCA, the Presbyterian Church, the old Bohne house on Elm street, and the old Paradise house on Morris avenue. He added that if at any time any of these facilities were withdrawn, the problem of finding adequate space would be intensified, but he promised that everything possible would be done to stay clear of double sessions.

In answer to a question from the audience about accrediting procedures when a school is on double session, Mr. Sayre pointed out that accrediting stops if a school is on such a schedule for more than two years. He added that Summit is no longer considered a leader in facilities throughout the state, ac-ording to the advice of a state official, but he hastened to add that such a view was not caused by either the teachers or the curriculum, but was a matter of facilities.

In presenting the Board of Education's view on the high school construction, Mr. Sayre said the high school plan was not a "crash program," but that plans for expansion of facilities had been started in the fall of 1966. He reviewed the Board's action since then. At one time, Mr. Sayre added, plans included consideration of expansion of facilities at the present high school site, but was found not to be feasible by Common Council and the Planning Board. It was decided early last year to build a separate building to house 1,050 students. It was from this decision that 18 acres were purchased in the Kent Place boulevard, Morris avenue area for the new building.

Containing that 29% classrooms were needed today for 877 students, scaling up present figures for 1,050 students meant that 36 classrooms "were needed in the new building."

Mr. McMillan also noted that the high school had to be planned for growth in the academic program, and that courses of study instituted at the junior high school level now would have to be carried on at the senior high school level.

Problem is Financial

According to Mr. Thornton, the problem of high school construction is a financial problem. He reviewed the city's and the board's statutory debt limit requirements, and noted that the school board was responsible for educational facilities, and that it was the responsibility of Common Council to find the necessary funds within the debt limit. The problem, he noted, was when the school building program exceeded the debt limit and to find the proper proportion of debt interest assigned to the school system in relationship to other city activities.

However, Mr. Thornton said, the Board of Education has not been willing to cut the size of the building, except to propose that the auditorium be eliminated. When questioned about the possible elimination of the auditorium, Mr. Sayre noted that such a cut had been proposed since it would not affect the academic program of the high school but would cut approximately $250,000 from the cost of construction.

In answer to a question regarding how many other communities are exceeding their debt limits at this time, Mrs. Dearborne, speaking for the League, pointed out that 40 per cent of nearby communities are at present time beyond their borrowing capacity.
