Council Approves Zone Change for Rescue Unit Center Near Junior Hi

Common Council officially cleared the way for the Rescue Squad to build a permanent headquarters at the corner of Elm street and Morris avenue Tuesday night by unanimously approving a Zoning Board of Adjustment recommendation that a zone variance be granted.

The request for a zone variance was made necessary since the proposed building will have less side and rear yard areas than required by law.

A public hearing on the variance request was heard by the Zoning Board on December 2. The new building, which will be constructed in the city parking lot adjacent to the Junior High School, is expected to be completed by late spring. Triangular in shape, the building will be of modern design and house two ambulances and an additional disaster unit which could be added later.

Shell to Cost $30,000
Cost of the building, to be borne by the squad, would be $30,000 for the shell, plus an additional $10,000 to $15,000 for completing inside work.

Currently the squad has nearly 60 members with facilities now located in a garage at 233 Broad street owned by Michael H. Formichella, president of the Squad.

Architects for the new building are Kuhn and Drake of Beechwood road.

The squad was originally organized in August, 1962.

In another zoning action, common Council approved by a 6 to 1 vote a variance which would permit Dr. Philip A. Foti to construct an addition to a building at 709 Springfield avenue for use as a dental office.

Voting against the measure was Councilman-at-Large Philip N. Trowbridge who claimed that use of the area for business would tend to bring additional traffic into the district. The property is zoned for residential use.

In other matters, Council extended to January 31 the date for final closing of title for land the city recently auctioned off to Overlook Hospital located at Mountain and Morris avenues.

Bid was $16,000
In its request for additional time before title closing, Overlook cited difficulties incurred in the title search. The tract comprises 3.4 acres. Overlook was the lone bidder for the land which was auctioned off at $46,000 last December 3.

Council also passed a resolution fixing 7 per cent as the interest rate to be charged on delinquent taxes and assessments for 1964.

In other resolutions, Council named eight banking institutions as official depositories for municipal funds during 1964. Those designated included Summit Trust, Union-County Trust, National State Bank, Summit Federal.

Public Urged To Attend Budget Talks

Precedent will be set on Monday, January 20 when Common Council will invite for the first time the general public and press to attend an informal hearing on the 1964 municipal appropriations budget at 8 p.m. in City Hall.

Others invited to the annual meeting are representatives of 22 civic organizations as well as heads of all municipal departments.

In previous years the informal hearing had been limited to representatives of local civic organizations. Of the 22 groups invited to the meeting, nine represent school PTA groups.

Invitations have also gone out to heads of the various municipal boards including education, health, library, recreation, zoning, planning, standard housing, local assistance and civil defense.

Copies of the proposed appropriations budget have been sent to various organizations. Department heads and members of Common Council will be present at the hearing to answer questions.

According to the present time schedule, following the January 20 informal hearing, the budget will be officially introduced on Tuesday, February 4, at Common Council, while on Thursday, February 13, it will be published in the Summit Herald. A formal public hearing will be held March 3.

Extra copies of the budget may be obtained at the City Clerk's office, City Hall, 512 Springfield avenue.

Auto Injury Toll for Year Already at 3

The city's 1964 road injury toll already began to climb last Friday in the wake of two car accidents which injured three.

Shortly before 7:30 a.m., two persons were hurt in a two-car crash at Summit avenue near Morris avenue. Taken to Overlook Hospital for treatment of injuries were Rita Bowen of 133 Mountain avenue, a passenger in a car driven by John Bowen of the Mountain avenue address, and Ralph W. Adams of 66 Ashwood avenue, driver of the second car, who suffer a fractured nose and right arm.

The mishap occurred, according to police, when both cars crashed head on. At the time of the accident, Mr. Bowen was driving north on Summit avenue and Mr. Adams south on Summit. Both cars were heavily damaged and were towed from the scene.

The second mishap, shortly after 12:15 p.m., injured Ardath L. Doty of 80 Dogwood lane, Berkeley Heights, when the parked car in which she was sitting was struck by another at Springfield and Woodland avenues. She was treated for leg cuts and shock.

Police said the accident occurred when George M. Jeffrey of Short Hills, was driving south on Woodland and, instead of turning at Springfield avenue where Woodland ends, continued across the street and allegedly struck the parked car in which Mrs. Doty was seated, which in turn smashed into a car operated by Francis C. Essig of 69 Blackburn road, who was also seated in the vehicle at the time of the accident. All three cars were towed from the scene.

Cites Overtaxed Facilities

Albert Stone, manager of the Hotel Suburban, testified that the building's present facilities are now overtaxed and in order for the firm to "remain competitive" with other area hotels, especially with the one now under construction in Morristown, the Suburban "is now in need of additional space." He added that constant overcrowding results in turning away business, which, he said, "hurts the community."

Another witness speaking on behalf of the hotel, Rudolph deRoode, a former president of the Board of Realtors of Summit, New Providence and Berkeley Heights, testified that the new 22-room addition would have "no ill effect" on the area but would be a stabilizing factor. He also said that the addition would put the land to proper use since the area would be properly landscaped and "the ugly garages at the rear" would be replaced by "attractive buildings."

Attached to Rear
It was pointed out during the hearing that the addition would be attached to the rear of the present building and book up with the outdoor garages which would be remodeled into modern.

Calvary to Mark Annual Feast of Lights Sunday

Members of the Senior Young People's Fellowship of Calvary Episcopal Church will enact various roles in the traditional Epiphany service of the "Feast of Lights" to be held Sunday at 4:30 p.m.

Mrs. Joshua Ward will be producer assisted by Mrs. Austin Towner, Mrs. John M. Leavens, Mrs. Charles Marcy, Mrs. Kenneth Pinnell, Earl Lamb, Kenneth Pinnell and Rev. Russell Gale.

The Epiphany commemorates the coming of the Magi to the Christ Child and so proclaims the Messiah as the "light to lighten the Gentiles." By tableaux, candles and scripture readings, the story of Christianity will be traced including the Nativity in Bethlehem, the coming of the shepherds and the Wise Men, the choosing of the Twelve Apostles, the Apostasy of Judas, the calling of St. Paul, the three-fold ministry of the church and the expansion of the church around the world.

The cast includes: Narrator, Rev. Elmer F. Francis; Joseph, John Rafferty; Mary, Sue Marion; Angels: Christine Limbach, Nancy Limbach, Nancy Farrington, Joan Corcoran and Virginia Hearn; Shepherds, Paul Wade, Christopher Outwin and Donald Roberts; Wise Men; John Batzer, John Griffith and Christopher Lamb; Bishop, Robert Smith; Priest, William Mason; Deacon, Michael Marcy; Mission fields, Judy Sims, Oswald Moira, Barbara Beard, John Corcoran, Robert Kessner, Richard Sims, Mitchell Wilk and Tom Ulrich; Acolyte, Stephen Woodhull; Crucifer, Joseph R. Smith, jr.

Special Christmas and Epiphany music will be provided by the choir under the direction of Howard W. Vogel. The church will be lighted by candles as on Christmas Eve and the congregation will carry tapers into the community at the conclusion of the service. Directing the program will be Mrs. John S. Tenant, 2nd.

Jewish Center To Hear Talk By Chaplain

Rev. David Wyatt, chaplain at Overlook Hospital, will be guest speaker at the Friday evening service, 8:30 p.m., January 10, at the Jewish Community Center. Mr. Wyatt's sermon will be "Religion and Health." Rabbi William Horn, spiritual leader of the Center, will conduct the service.

By virtue of his experience at the hospital, Mr. Wyatt has the unique opportunity to observe relations between religion and health, as well as the psychological and emotional facts present in various kinds of illness. He received his B.A. from Texas Christian and his Th.M. from Cliff Seminary, Denver, Colo. Mr. Wyatt took his clinical pastoral training for one year at Austin State Hospital, Texas, and one year at St. Luke's Episcopal, Houston, Texas.

The public is invited and refreshments will be served after services.

Candles have been used to measure time and light. King Alfred the Great of England ordered the manufacturer of some keeping candles, six of them sized to burn in 24 hours.

Plane Makes Emergency Landing at Canoe Brook

A light single-engine plane made a forced landing late Sunday afternoon on the south course at Canoe Brook Country Club near the eighth hole.

The plane, piloted by Michael P. Rowan, 24, of Philadelphia, put down on the course at 5:45 p.m. when its fuel supply ran low. It was first spotted circling low over the golf course by Millburn police who radioed for fire engines. However the plane landed safely and the pilot walked toward Morris and Essex Turnpike where he was picked up by police.

On Monday the wings were removed and the plane was towed to Morristown Airport where it was reassembled and flown back to its home field.

"I WAS TEMPTED TO GIVE UP EATING"

There's nothing like the weekly stampede at the food store to convince a man (a) that doing the shopping is a tedious time consuming job and (b) that the wife was right in needling me to let her use the SUMMIT FOOD MARKET's shopping service. I was about to give up eating when I called Sam at CRestview 7-4500 and gave his service a try. Well, it's terrific. The shopping was done perfectly, according to instructions and delivery was made in our kitchen. Didn't cost a dime, our purchase was over ten dollars. If it had been less than ten, all it would have cost is 35c. You can bet on how we shop every week from now on.

To Organize Friends of the Library

New Providence — "Greater community awareness of our present public library facilities, services, needs and plans for future expansion is my major reason for encouraging organization of a Friends of the Library group in New Providence," stated Mrs. J. Robert Proctor speaking before the planning group for a future Friends of the Library.

"There is a great need for expanded services in this community. We are bursting the seams in our present building as anyone who uses the library must know. In a recent survey, Mrs. Frances Smith, Public Library Consultant of the Division of the State Library, suggests the development of a record collection and if the library budget is not sufficient then it might be possible to interest a local organization in making this their project. My thoughts immediately turned to a Friends group. This is only one of many ways in which this organization could be of service. I feel that we desperately need a group of citizens in the community who have a common concern for their library's active expansion and participation in community life. We must bring these people together into an organization. People who are convinced that good library service is important to everyone. The profession staff and the Board of Trustees need to work closely with the community in developing future plans for expansion. We need an organization which will serve as a liaison between the community, the Trustees and the staff."

Marvin Weiss, chairman of the planning group, presented a list of possible objectives that have been found to be of interest to other Friends groups.

To create public support for an expanding library program

To encourage gifts, endowments and memorials for the library

To provide direct financial assistance by purchasing for the library special and unusual items which would be of great benefit but cannot be purchased from the budget

To work for library legislation or appropriations

To increase hours of service by the library

To intensify community awareness and use of the library

To campaign for a new building or the modernization and expansion of an existing building

To sponsor programs designed to add to the cultural life of the community

To aid in public relations, by informing the community about the library's services and problems

Communicating the needs of the community to the staff and library board

Calling public attention to outstanding achievements of the staff

Mr. Weiss suggested that the Friends might be interested in using one of several of these objectives or in developing some of our own as the organization becomes a reality.

The Planning Committee plans the initial meeting of the Friends of the Library for February 6 at Hillview School. Dues are $1 per person. Those who wish to join or who have any questions concerning the organization may contact one of the following members of the planning committee: Marvin Weiss, chairman; Sidney Abrahams; Mrs. Milton Anderson; Fred Armstrong; Jack Callahan; William Gehrke; Charles Leé; Mrs. James McGrady; Mrs. Dohald R. Young.

A poster will also be placed on the bulletin board at the library for new members.

No Decision On Name Change

Berkeley Heights — Residents of Passaic Ave. were told Monday night by the Township Committee that change of the name of their street to Kennedy Dr. was still under consideration.

Luke Magliaro of 79 Passaic Ave., expressed concern over a news story which stated that Wentworth Dr. in the Sherman Development would be named Kennedy Dr. "We do not think this is fair. Passaic St. has been here 50 years. There are other presidential streets in our area — Garfield, Washington, Lincoln, and Kennedy will be suitable."

A woman resident of Passaic Ave. asked if it didn't make any difference that Passaic Ave. residents had asked first. Laughter ensued when Mr. Magliaro said he hoped that the decision would not be based on the condition of their road which was not their fault.

About 25 per cent of the consumer food dollar is spent in public away-from-home eating places, says the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Swim Meet In Summit Saturday

Summit—Pam Cash and Marilyn Walkey of the Summit YM-CA Girls Swim Team scored victories in an AU meet last weekend at the Ridgewood YMCA.

Pam won the 100-yard individual medley for 10 years olds and under, with her teammate Ruth Dudley second. Marilyn won the 100-yard butterfly for 13-14 year olds.

There will be an AAU meet at the Summit pool at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday. The top girl swimmers in the State will take part in the eight-event program which is open to the public.

Feature races will be the senior women's 100-yard butterfly and 400-yard medley relay championships. Summit's Sue Pitt is favored in the butterfly, an event in which she holds the world's record at 200 yards, while Summit's medley relay team of Miss Pitt, Ginny Duenkel, Cheryl West and Sally Current also is expected to triumph. This team finished fourth in the National AAU meet last summer.

Miss Duenkel and Miss Current are among the favorites in the 100-yard freestyle for 15-17 year olds. Summit has a strong entry in the 13-14 age group events with the Hackett twins—Jane and Joan, Joanne Greim and Sue Parker.

Summit also is favored to win both events in the 11-12 age group. Sally Guthrie is the favorite in the 100-yard butterfly, while the Summit entry of Dot Mich, Del Sinsheimer, Lynn Rohrey and Miss Guthrie is expected to take the 200-yard freestyle relay.

What of the Future?

We do not like to start the new year on a note of gloom and doom, but we do think it is pertinent to warn all those in this area that the jetport problem is still very much with us and is by no means a dead duck.

As expected, the Port of New York Authority has turned down proposed sites in Burlington County and Orange County, N. Y. In our opinion, the Port Authority has never taken its eye off the Great Swamp.

Governor Hughes, properly, waits a jetport in New Jersey. There is no argument over the economic benefits to be derived by having the major airport of the Metropolitan Area located in New Jersey. But the big question is where. Any site selected by the Governor is a long shot for, in our opinion, the Port Authority has made up its mind and the spot it wants is the Great Swamp. The Authority can afford to play a waiting game.

Many in this area have grown complacent and sincerely believe that the steps taken to remove the Swamp from the list of suitable sites are lasting. We do not think so.

Although a New Jersey statute prohibits a jetport in the counties of Morris, Somerset and Hunterdon, there is always the possibility that some future Legislature will amend that statute. Sentiment is not likely for such an amendment at present, but in the future the lure of more jobs and more dollars could be a very persuasive argument.

Then there is the creation of a wildlife refuge in the Swamp, supposedly putting a vast acreage out of the hands of the Port Authority. Right now, this refuge is comforting to all of us. But again, what of the future? If a jetport is ordered for the Great Swamp by the Department of Defense, rather than the Port Authority, and turned over to the Port Authority for operation, all of us, including the birds, better seek refuge elsewhere. There have been many instances of national park lands being gobbled up for military uses and there is no reason to believe that this can't happen here.

One fact should be kept in mind at all times by all who live in this area and that is, the Great Swamp is still the best site by any yardstick for a jetport. How long it can be kept out of the hands of engineers is questionable. Probably no move will be made in that direction for many years but in the meantime no community near the Swamp should be lulled or let down its guard.

Girls and Boys

There just isn't a more fascinating subject for reflection than girls and boys and how much they are both alike and different. A recent survey by Youth Research Inc. added to this fascination by discussing the matter of New Year's resolutions.

When it comes to dreaming big dreams it looks like the boys are more capable of deluding themselves in making their resolutions. To illustrate the point the survey says that 3 percent of the boys in the survey expected to stay away from girls during 1964. Girls, realists that they are, were more honest and not one girl indicated a desire to swear off boys in '64.

As a further illustration of this capacity for self-delusion which predominates among boys, the survey indicates that while girls are three times more likely to make any New Year's resolutions than boys, the males are convinced they will do a better job of keeping those promises they do make. Forty-two per cent of the boys who make resolutions say they will keep them 40 percent of the time while the girls claim only 32 per cent performance.

There were indications from the survey that girls, in addition to being more realistic about keeping resolutions are also more critical in their self-appraisals and in deciding whether they need to improve themselves. This self-improvement is of course the reason for nearly all New Year's resolutions in the first place.

The four most commonly voiced resolutions are vows to study hard, to get along better with other people, to improve one's self and to obey one's parents. Among 1,081 youngsters included in the survey these four resolutions were expressed by from 37 to 20 per cent. Curiously more girls mentioned these top four resolutions than boys which leads to the conclusion that boys are either more satisfied with themselves or less inclined to do anything about it if they aren't.

The nature of the four most popular resolutions should be heartening to those who look upon teen-aged girls and boys as creatures belonging in another world. The popularity of resolutions for self-improvement indicate the youths not only recognize their drawbacks but want to do better by themselves and others.

By way of proving what dreamers boys can be we also note that 7 per cent of the boys vow to cut-down on fights with their brothers and sisters in 1964. This would be the greatest boon imaginable to the parents of America. On the other hand only 3 per cent of the girls want to cut down on fights with their brothers and sisters. That proves the girls are either more realistic or, as most boys claim, they're the ones that start all the fights around home.

To See Ourselves As Others See Us (Hartford Courant)

The Scottish poet Robert Burns would surely approve of the new psychiatric technique being used at a Southern hospital. Down there they are taping pictures of patients when they arrive, and at intervals thereafter, then later showing these recordings to the patient to see the progress he has made. This is in fulfillment of Robert Burns' wish "to see ourselves as others see us." The purpose of making the tape was, at first, merely to use it as a kind of case history, or to show it at staff meetings. But as an experiment it was shown to a few patients with beneficial results.

There are a good many of us who even though classified as normal, to the extent that we are not hospitalized, would not like to see ourselves as others see us. Actually it is almost necessary in this sharp-edged world to nourish a few illusions about oneself, to create an image that can be lived with. The result is that most people, no matter how ungifted, nurse some mild vanity.

This was demonstrated recently on a new television show where people are asked to give a candid opinion about this and that. To the question, Do you think you are better looking than average? nearly all blurted out that they thought they were above average in looks. But if some of them could see themselves as others see them, the answers would have been different.

An even greater tragedy than nursing a vanity is to denigrate oneself. Many of the people who need hospital care have done just this thing.

Where Will Business Go?

(Hartford Courant)
Where will industry build its next new plants? The answer, according to a poll taken by Fortune magazine, is not encouraging for New England. For the purposes of the survey, the 48 contiguous United States and the District of Columbia were grouped in nine regions. New England came out in eighth place. It is encouraging that within its region, Connecticut stands first as a site for new industrial building, followed by Massachusetts and Rhode Island. But none of the industrialists queried have any plans for expansion in Maine, Vermont or New Hampshire.

In Fortune's study, the presidents of the 1,000 largest United States industrial corporations were questioned about where they would probably build future plants, including warehouses and laboratories. More than 300 corporations reported they were planning new locations within the next five years, and 27 per cent said they would most likely choose the East North Central area for them. The states included in this Number 1 ranking region are Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan, in that order of expansion choice.

The Middle-South ranked second in choice, the states by preference being North Carolina, Virginia, South Carolina, Tennessee, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia, Kentucky, and District of Columbia. Third was the Deep South (Florida, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Arkansas). The Middle Atlantic states ran fourth, the Pacific Coast fifth, and West North Central sixth, and Southwest seventh. Then after New England and at the foot of the list, were the mountain states. In fact, no firm queried said it planned to build in Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Utah or Wyoming.

The industrialists' choices are understandable on the surface in many instances, and not surprising. But if New England is not favored in this particular poll for new business plants, Connecticut at least is doing very well with the old.

He joined the financial paper more than 47 years ago as an advertising salesman and left it during the 1920s to become an editor of the defunct Financial Press. In the 1950s he returned to the Chronicle doing editorial and promotional work. He was a frequent contributor to the letters column of The Summit Herald and for many years wrote an annual Christmas-New Year's message for the Herald.

She resided in Philadelphia, Trenton and Jersey City prior to her marriage. Then she moved to Linden where she resided 40 years. She subsequently lived in Elizabeth for five years and in Summit the last 10 years.

Mr. Winans was a road builder from 1912 until his death 20 years ago.

Mrs. Winans was a member of the Linden Methodist Church and was active in its Sunday school and choir. She also was a member of the Fortnightly Club and the Elizabeth Oratorio Society.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. R. Robinson Chance Jr. of Ocean City and formerly of Summit, and Mrs. Clifford Maynard of New Britain, Conn.; a son, Clarence H. Winans of Mountainside; seven grandchildren and one brother, Col. Harry G. Spillinger, USAR (Retired), Seattle, Wash.

The funeral was held last Friday from the Burroughs and Kohn Funeral Home, 309 Springfield avenue.

Art Center to Open 2 Exhibits This Sunday

Two shows will open at the Art Center on Sunday, including "Fabrics and Stitches" by Sheila T. Feustel, and paintings by George G. Kaff. Both shows will remain at the Art Center, through Sunday, January 26, and are open to the public Saturday and Sunday afternoons from 3 to 5 p.m.

"Fabrics and Stitches" is an exhibit of wall hangings and fabric pictures. Mrs. Feustel, who recently retired, taught biology 17 years in Montclair High School, graduate and undergraduate sciences at Pliny School, Vermont, at Middletown, New York schools, the American Museum of Natural History and the Brooklyn Children's Museum.

The technique of stitchery and fabric-pictures Mrs. Feustel has developed is self-taught, although she has received formal art training at the Brooklyn and Montclair Museums, Montclair State College and Adult School, and at the China Institute. She has participated in group shows and has had one-man shows of her stitchery works at the Montclair Women's Club, the Patterson Museum and the Community Hospital in Montclair.

Mr. Kaff, a resident of Summit, will have more than 30 paintings for the exhibit, predominantly oils. He has exhibited in several shows at Bucks County, Pa., especially in annual exhibits at Tinicum Church. Mr. Kaff's works have been accepted in the juried shows at Montclair Museum, Hunterdon County Art Center and Pompano Beach Art Center, Florida.

Mr. Kaff studied under Jacob Getler Smith in New York, using oils and watercolors. He has studied at the Art Center with Al Brown and Joe Loeber, and for many years with the late Joe Jones.

Mr. Kaff is with W. R. Grace and Co., Inc. He is monitor of the regular year-round Tuesday evening life class at the Art Center, and has been on the outside exhibitions committee for several years, and was co-chairman twice.

There will be a reception and tea on Sunday, from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. Hostess for the event is Mrs. Stuart P. Lloyd of Summit.

Art Center members will have three group shows during January: YM-YWCA at Newark; Fairleigh-Dickinson University Gallery Lounge, Madison, and the new Public Library here, beginning January 13.

Winter-Spring art-classes will start January 30. Enrollment is during regular class hours, beginning January 23, at the Center, 17 Cedar street.

On Wednesday evenings there will be a new sculpture class, instructed by William Umbreit, Jr. Nicholas Calvano will return on Wednesday evenings to conduct his "Introduction to Painting" class.

Conference for State's Planners

"Preserving New Jersey's Heritage Through Planning" is the theme of the 1964 New Jersey State Planning Conference, to be held Tuesday, February 4, at the Hotel Stacy Trent in Trenton.

In announcing the theme for the Tercentenary Year Conference, Robert A. Roe, Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development, said the featured speakers in the morning will be Ronald F. ... Director of the National Park Service, and Dr. Richard P. McCormick, Professor of History at Rutgers, The State University.

Governor Richard J. Hughes will address the luncheon session, and William F. Gillette, President of the New Jersey Federation of Planning Officials, will deliver the welcoming address. The all-day session is sponsored by the New Jersey Federation of Planning Officials and the Division of State and Regional Planning in the Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

In the afternoon, panel sessions will be held on: (1) The Role of Urban Renewal in Historic Preservation; (2) Making Use of New Jersey's Tercentenary Celebration; and (3) Preservation of Community Appearance Through Zoning. Round-table discussions also will be held on Zoning, Subdivisions, and Master Plans and the Continuing Planning Program.

Commissioner Roe said conference programs and pre-registration forms are being sent to members of planning boards and government officials. "I hope that other interested persons will plan to attend as well," he added.

The Stars and Stripes first were flown over an American man-of-war at Portsmouth, N. H., on July 4, 1777. The ship was the famous Ranger commanded by John Paul Jones.

and trimmed the Nationals, 18-8, while the Warriors nipped the Knicks, 8-7, and downed the Lakers, 19-11. In other games, the Celtics edged the Packers, 20-16, while the Hawks took the Knicks, 17-10.

Harner Sets Scoring Mark With 35 Points

Summit—Will Harner set a new league scoring record last week in the Summit Board of Recreation-sponsored Intermediate Basketball League as he scored 35 points for the Royals who trounced the hapless Bulls, 47-16. Harner canned 16 points in the first half and came back with 19 more tallies in the second half to rack up his record-breaking total.

The undefeated Celtics streaked to their third straight win, a 48-38 decision over the Nuggets. Don Prather with 15 points, Ray Glaser with 13 and Bruce Conners with 11 markers, paced the well-balanced Chief attack. Jim Glose was again top scorer for the losing Nuggets with 18 points.

The Jets roared over the Stags, 40-35, to record their first win of the season. Dick Rothschild tossed in 11 points to pace the Jets.

Summit Player On U. S. 'Stars'

Bill Theuler of Summit is a member of the United States All-Stars team which will leave Feb. 29 to compete in the world team handball championships in Prague, Czechoslovakia. The first game in the world championships will be March 5 against Israel.

The United States team qualified for the world championships by splitting a two-game playoff with Canada. The U.S. was declared the winner on the basis of total points in the series, 32-31.

A victory over Israel would put the United States in the semifinals against West Germany on March 7. Before competing in the world tournament the team will play exhibition matches in Iceland, Holland, Germany and Hungary.

Summit High Cagers Last of Undefeated

By Jim Ellowitz
Summit — Summit High School, which produced Union County's only undefeated football team last fall, was sporting the county's only undefeated basketball team at the start of this week's play.

The Hilltoppers, who carried a 4-0 record into last Tuesday's Suburban Conference opener with Millburn, were left alone in the undefeated class when St. Patrick's of Elizabeth and Hillside bowed last Friday.

New Providence burst St. Patrick's victory bubble with a 61-41 rout after the Elizabeth team had won six straight. Hillside was upset by Westfield, a team Summit had whipped earlier last week.

While enjoying their standing in the elite of undefeated teams, Summit is far more concerned with the winning of the Suburban Conference crown it captured last season. The Hilltoppers are the pre-season favorite for the crown, so everyone will be shooting to knock off the defending champions.

Tomorrow night Summit will entertain the Pioneers of New Providence in a crucial game. This traditional neighborhood rivalry has always produced exciting games—the two teams have always split their two games in past seasons.

This year the games with New Providence take on added significance because the Pioneers are in the Suburban Conference and are determined to take away the Hilltoppers' conference crown.

The Hilltoppers have improved since last season in two major areas. The rebounding has been excellent. The leaders in this important category—Sid Rhines and Brent Cromwell—are tall for forwards at 6'0", but both are standout high jumpers in track and use this ability to control the backboards.

As for the other major department—foul shooting, Rhines also is the leader, having made 17 free throws in four games. The scoring has been fairly well-balanced. Cromwell leads with 49 points, while John Malloy, Jim Royer, and Rhines follow closely with 47, 42 and 38,

Two Teams Share Lead In Boro

New Providence—Chicago and Los Angeles, by winning two straight games, have moved into first place in the New Providence Recreation High School Basketball League. In last week's contests, Los Angeles beat Detroit 30-26; Chicago downed Milwaukee, 32-20, and Boston stopped New York, 36-26.

Trailing 24-19 at the start of the fourth period, Los Angeles held Detroit to a single basket and scored 11 points itself in the final eight minutes. Chris Zimmer, who sparked the rally with seven points, topped his team with 19 tallies and 14 rebounds. Larry Wayne also contributed with nine rebounds and five points. Steve Gries notched 12 markers and Mike Bonnell six for Detroit.

Chicago used ball control and accurate shooting to overwhelm Milwaukee. Both teams had only three players in the scoring column. John Donio tossed in 14 and George Gehling and lay up by Ted Garrison to lead 5-2. The Pioneers then held on to leave the court at halftime with a 23-20 advantage.

Heuer opened the game by tapping in a basket, but New Providence came back on a jumper by Bob MacDonald, a free throw by Rick Badgley and lay up by Ted Garrison to lead 5-2. The Pioneers then held on to leave the court at halftime with a 23-20 advantage.

Two buckets by Larry Rovelstad at the outset of the third period gave New Providence its largest lead of the night, 27-20. However, Garrison, the Green and White's leading scorer and rebounder, included his fourth personal foul and was bench ridden for most of the half.

Rovelstad and MacDonald picked up the slack, though, and New Providence maintained a slim lead until midway through the final quarter.

At this point, two baskets by Adamiak closed the gap to 40-38. Rovelstad countered with a bucket but field goals by Heuer and Adamiak knotted the score and Bob Lynch put the Highlanders ahead 43-42 with a foul shot with 1:40 minutes remaining. Garrison then checked back into the game and fed Badgley in an ensuing fast break. Rick made the layup to recapture the lead for New Providence.

Moments later a long pass from Rick Severson to MacDonald was good for another field goal and a three-point Pioneer edge. However, with only 20 seconds left, Dave Jubanowsky hit on a jumper to put Governor Livingston back in contention. The Highlanders regained possession, but, with only seven seconds remaining Jubanowsky slipped on the end line as he attempted to drive in for the winning basket.

New Providence put the ball in play illegally and, after a protest by Berkeley Heights' Coach Don Woodcock, the final seconds were replayed. MacDonald was fouled with six seconds left and after he sank both ends of the one-and-one situation for a 48-45 lead, the Pioneers allowed Heuer to drive in for a harmless layup as the game ended.

Rovelstad and MacDonald emerged as the game's stars for New Providence. Rovelstad, in addition to his usual fine defensive play, topped the Pioneers with 16 points. MacDonald, who did some great clutch shooting, grabbed 10 rebounds, tallied 13 points and blocked several key shots. Garrison and Badgley also aided the Pioneer attack with 11 and six points, respectively. John

Pioneer Cagers Win Fourth Straight

By Roger Smith
New Providence — The New Providence High Basketball team will go through the toughest days of its schedule this week as Coach Ed Lieder's boys face Suburban Conference competition for the first time this season. The Pioneers made their conference debut last Tuesday at Verona and face the traditional Friday night clash with undefeated Summit tomorrow.

Last week the Pioneers pushed their record to 4-1 with a Governor Livingston Regional of Berkeley Heights and a 61-41 triumph over previously unbeaten St. Patrick's of Elizabeth. The Pioneers have won four games in a row.

The Berkeley Heights game was a nip-and-tuck affair all the way. New Providence had to rely on superior shooting (37% to 29%) as 6'6" Bob Heuer and husky John Adamiak gave the Highlanders a 47-37 rebounding edge.

Heuer opened the game by tapping in a basket, but New Providence came back on a jumper by Bob MacDonald, a free throw by Rick Badgley and lay up by Ted Garrison to lead 5-2. The Pioneers then held on to leave the court at halftime with a 23-20 advantage.

Two buckets by Larry Rovelstad at the outset of the third period gave New Providence its largest lead of the night, 27-20. However, Garrison, the Green and White's leading scorer and rebounder, included his fourth personal foul and was bench ridden for most of the half.

However, with only 20 seconds left, Dave Jubanowsky hit on a jumper to put Governor Livingston back in contention. The Highlanders regained possession, but, with only seven seconds remaining Jubanowsky slipped on the end line as he attempted to drive in for the winning basket.

New Providence put the ball in play illegally and, after a protest by Berkeley Heights' Coach Don Woodcock, the final seconds were replayed. MacDonald was fouled with six seconds left and after he sank both ends of the one-and-one situation for a 48-45 lead, the Pioneers allowed Heuer to drive in for a harmless layup as the game ended.

Rovelstad and MacDonald emerged as the game's stars for New Providence. Rovelstad, in addition to his usual fine defensive play, topped the Pioneers with 16 points. MacDonald, who did some great clutch shooting, grabbed 10 rebounds, tallied 13 points and blocked several key shots. Garrison and Badgley also aided the Pioneer attack with 11 and six points, respectively. John Adamiak was high for the game with 17 markers. Against St. Patrick's, New Providence played one of its poorest games of the season. The Celts, trying to preserve their undefeated status, out hustled and outscraped the more talented Pioneers. Nevertheless, the Green and White's superior height and shooting ability was too much for the Celts.

New Providence got off to an early lead but after two minutes of the second period St. Patrick's closed the gap to 15-14. The Pioneers then ripped off 15 points to the Celts' four to gain a 30-18 halftime lead.

The Green and White began to pull away in the second half until the desperately pressing Celts made one last effort, rallying to within nine points, 48-39, with only three minutes remaining. New Providence then empoaked on a 13-point spree to win the game going away.

Rovelstad was again high scorer with 17 points, his career high, while Garrison and Badgley netted 16 apiece and MacDonald eight. Garrison, with 15 rebounds, and MacDonald, with 10, once again controlled the backboards.

Although the Pioneers' zone defense stopped St. Patrick's cold, the Lieder men had little trouble finding the range. The Green and White marksmen made 45 per cent (22 of 49) from the field and 63 per cent (17 of 27) from the foul line. Rick Badgley was especially effective, canning seven of eleven from the floor and making both of his foul tosses.

The New Providence Junior Varsity continued to post easy victories. The J.V.'s rode rough shod over Governor Livingston, 51-32, as Anthony Caruso scored 12 points, Bill Pozanski, nine, John Edinger, eight, and Rich Katherman, in his first starting assignment, seven.

In the 65-50 win over St. Patrick's, Dave Conroy tossed in 16 points, while John Castaldo played a fine game with 10 tallies and nine rebounds.

Lieder Sideline
Seven Lieder, one of four seniors on the New Providence squad, underwent surgery for the removal of knee cartilage last Friday at Overlook Hospital in Summit. The 22-year-old sharpshooter may possibly return to action in time for the post season basketball tournaments.

George Mea, star junior varsity forward, will miss several games after a bout with the measles. George currently leads the J.V. in rebounding.

The two sections of the Symbol's base represent people and purpose; the tree form, progress and growth. The triangle points to the future.

Symbol OF 300 YEARS OF PROGRESS

New Jersey is truly a great state. Over the period of its 300 years' existence, its people with their God-given advantages have created an industrial-agricultural complex second to none. It is a powerful component of our national economy. It has an ever brightening future vested in the rapid growth of its applied and basic research facilities and expansion of its industrial and agricultural operations.

During this year of celebration we urge all the people of the state to reflect upon the history of New Jersey — what made it great; why it is still great; and how it will become even greater. And when at the World's Fair be certain to visit the New Jersey Pavilion. You will learn more about this amazing state.

People work a little more to get a lot more

Do hospital stays cost more these days? Of course they do, in terms of dollars and cents. But, in terms of hours worked for wages, the hospital stay for many operations costs much the same today as it did a little over two decades ago. Take an appendectomy for instance:

|--|-------------|---------------|
| Average hourly wage for N.J. production workers: | 1941 $.77 | Today $ 2.59 |
| Average number of hospital days to recover from appendectomy: | 11.9 | 8.7 |
| Average Blue Cross payment to hospital for appendectomy: | $76.23 | $156.14 |
| Number of work hours needed to equal payment for appendectomy: | 99 | 60.7 |

And... with phenomenal advances in medical science and hospital techniques, people are not only spending less time in hospitals today than in 1941... they recover faster and more comfortably... and they live longer!

With appendectomies, as with all medical care, your health protection dollar goes further than ever before when you're covered by New Jersey Blue Cross for hospital bills and Blue Shield for doctor bills.

It costs a little more to live a lot longer!

Regional Wrestlers Pin Hillside, 30-13

Berkeley Heights — Off to a winning start for the first time in the school's four-year history, the wrestling team of Governor Livingston Regional High School is hopeful of coming up with a winning season for the second time.

A better line on the Highlanders' strength will be provided this week in matches with Clark Regional here last Tuesday afternoon and with Watchung Hills Regional at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow in Warren Township.

Couch Jim Nedoti's team will then face its biggest hurdle of the early season next Tuesday afternoon when they travel to Piscataway. The Chiefs won the District 8 State title last season and are loaded again this season. Piscataway won five individual titles in winning the Middlesex County Holiday Tournament.

The Highlanders spotted Hillside High a 5-0 lead in their season opener, but then won eight of the next 11 matches to win handily, 30-13.

Bob Johnson (105) and Tom

Massa (114) scored decisions to give the Highlanders a lead they never lost. Phil Hof (122) and Rick Johnson (129) then came up with pins to put Governor Livingston in front 16-5.

Gary Spivey (140) got a draw and Ron Koons (147) and Tom Piccinino (156) scored decision victories to make it 24-10 for the Highlanders. John Ferrerzera (177) and Roger McMahon (heavyweight) wrapped up the triumph with decision victories.

Oratory Quintet On Road

Summit — Idle during the Christmas holidays, Oratory School's basketball team returns to action this week, hitting the road for the first time this season.

The Rams will carry a 1-1 record and high hopes for a successful season into the new year.

Oratory was very impressive in beating St. James of Newark in overtime and dropping a two-point decision to Immaculate Conception of Montclair, one of Essex County's top-rated quintets.

Coach Tom Cicalese's cagers played Bayley-Ellard Regional High last Tuesday in Madison and tomorrow afternoon will invade Westfield to take on Holy Trinity High.

Oratory rates the favorite's role over Trinity on the basis of showings against the team's only mutual foe—St. James. The Newarkers bowed to Oratory and defeated Trinity decisively. Trinity, however, has bounced back with two straight victories and if their scoring ace, Stan Stanley, has recovered from a sprained ankle, they will be tough to handle.

Boro P.A.L. Cagers Take League Opener

New Providence — Playing their first N.J. State P.A.L. Basketball League game, the New Providence team trounced the Hillside P.A.L., 61-53, with a fine display of teamwork and effective shooting.

The New Providence boys, coached by John Wills, took an early lead and held it despite frequent substitutions. Dennis Whejan with 12 points, Chris Zimmer with 10, Frank Steffy with 13, and Rick Hake with 12 led the New Providence squad.

The next State League game will be against the Elizabeth P.A.L., the defending champions.

A practice game played in Lincoln School, New Providence lost to the Irvington P.A.L., 82-73, in a game that was not decided until the last minute. High scorers for New Providence were Whelan, 23 points; Zimmer, 10, and Mike Bonnell, 13.

New Coach
An addition to the girl's basketball and softball coaching staff was announced by Juvenile Officer Vincent Tragno, on the acquisition of Mrs. Charlotte Leonard, 286 Elkwood Avenue, who has been an All-American selection the past 10 years as a softball pitcher.

Mrs. Leonard, playing with the Elizabeth Marauders, has appeared in Women's Softball Championship games every year since 1949. Her team has toured Canada, Mexico, Bermuda, and some of the United States, with plans now being formulated for an extensive U.S. tour. At the completion of this tour, Mrs. Leonard anticipates retiring from active competition and devoting all of her free time to the P.A.L.

At the present time, Mrs. Leonard is assisting John Wills, Carl Ehnis and Lou Cucco with girls' basketball every Monday evening at New Providence High School.

To Attend Meeting
Juvenile Officer Tragno and Patrolman Cucco will attend the 18th annual National Police Conference on P.A.L. and Youth Activities in the Sater-Hilton Hotel in New York City January 13-14.

Officer Tragno, who is the national secretary of the organization, was instrumental in arranging the two-day program, which will include talks by Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy of New York City; U.S. Attorney Robert M. Morgenthau and Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City.

Police Chief Carl H. Ehnis will attend the Monday afternoon session revolving around Youth work in municipalities and the development of cooperation with youth-interested organizations. Overtures will be made to visiting representatives to participate with the New Providence P.A.L. when the local organization celebrates its 14th year of bringing activities to the Youth in New Providence at the annual Award Dinner which is planned for the early part of March or April.

Tough Losses Hurt Highlander Cagers

Berkeley Heights — A tough schedule, close defeats and fouls continue to plague Governor Livingston Regional High School's basketball team which carried a disappointing 2-4 record into this week's action.

Coach Don Wodock's Highlanders bowed to New Providence, 48-47, and to Springfield Regional, 52-46, last week in road games and now are burdened with a three-game losing streak.

The Highlanders were hopeful of ending the string of losses last Tuesday afternoon when they traveled to Rahway to take on the winless Scarlet cagers. Wodock's cagers continue their rugged slate tomorrow night when they visit South Plainfield to take on the undefeated Tigers. Governor Livingston will conclude a streak of five consecutive road games next Tuesday afternoon when they journey to Hillside to take on Pingry School.

Rahway didn't figure to be too tough for the Highlanders last night, but Wodock remembers last spring's county tournament when Rahway carried the heavily favored Highlanders into overtime before losing.

South Plainfield rates as one of Middlesex County's top teams. The Tigers have won their first five games in easy fashion and are anxious to repay the Highlanders for past indignities. Governor Livingston has enjoyed great success against South Plainfield in past seasons. The Tigers are a high-scoring combine and are averaging 69 points per game. They have been led by Laney McLaughlin, who is averaging 16 points per game. Other standouts are Greg Gisson, who is scoring at a 13-point-per-game clip, and Richie Steele, the playmaker and a 10-point-per-game scorer.

The Tigers figure to provide a severe test for the Highlanders' strong defense. Governor Livingston's shooting, however, will have to perk up if the Highlanders are to handle the Tigers.

Murray Hill Mailmen Lead

Murray Hill retained first place in the Tri-County Post Office Bowling League by sweeping three games from Union No. 1. Murray Hill leads Short Hill's No. 2 by 2½ games, with Short Hill's No. 3 another four games back.

Summit No. 1 is in fourth place, seven games out of the lead and one game in front of Summit No. 3 and Short Hill's No. 1. Summit No. 5 is tied with Union No. 2 for seventh place, while Summit No. 4 is 10th and Summit No. 2 is 13th in the 14-team league.

Bob Staub's 241 game and 603 "honor roll" series paced Murray Hill to victory. He had help from Frank LaMagna, 204, 202, 572; Joe Perillo, 202, 570; Dayton Mallock, 524, and Rudy Bebert 226, 567.

Summit 'Y' Swimmers Win 5th

Summit — The Summit YMCA Boys Swim Team captured 20 of 22 events in trouncing Jersey City's YMCA, 126-49, last Saturday in the Summit pool. It was the fifth straight victory for Summit in the State YMCA League.

Summit will place its perfect record and league lead in jeopardy at 5 p.m. Saturday when it travels to Ridgewood to engage the league's runner-up team.

Winners for Summit in the 10 years and under class were: Nick Cantarella, freestyle; Glen Johnson, backstroke; Bill Jemison, breaststroke, and Duff Powell, butterfly. The 11-12 group also scored a sweep as Terry Lindgren (freestyle), Dyke Edwards (backstroke) and Doug Tallamy (breaststroke and butterfly) scored wins.

In the 13-14 group John McCoubrey was a double winner in the backstroke and butterfly and Dave Bedell took the freestyle. Summit Girls Star In Philadelphia Meet Summit — Sparked by outstanding performances by Ginny Duenkel and Sue Pitt, the Summit YMCA Girls Swim Team turned in a top-notch showing against the East's top swimmers last weekend in Philadelphia. All events were 100 yards or longer.

Ginny won the open 200-yard backstroke and 500-yard freestyle events, placed third in the 400-yard individual medley, and swam on the victorious 400-yard freestyle and medley relay teams.

Sue won the 200-yard butterfly, was second in the 400-yard individual medley, and swam on both winning relay teams.

Both girls also qualified for the National AAU championships in Pittsburgh, Pa., April 8-11, on the basis of the times they achieved.

Sally Current was second in the 200-yard backstroke and also qualified for the National meet. Cheryl West was a finalist in the breaststroke and backstroke. Both girls also swam on the winning relay teams in the 15-17 years of age group.

In the 11-12 group, Summit's four representatives—Lynn Rohrey, Sally Guthrie, Dot Mich and Del Sinsheimer—won the 200-yard medley relay and tied for first place in the 20-yard freestyle relay.

Miss Rohrey was a finalist in the 100-yard breaststroke and 200-yard freestyle, while Miss Guthrie was a finalist in the 100-yard backstroke and butterfly events. Lynn broke the National record for the 11-12

The Hurricanes won three points from Sherman Brothers. Stratton Realty, Toparista Importing and Boro Cleaners split their matches with M. & M. Liquor, Brennan Dairy and Towne Delicatessen, respectively.

Lena Scheller had a 204 game and a 506 series to take scoring honors. Eleanor Moser had a 185 game and Kathy Youse rolled a 182.

 ern living quarters, in addition between the present building and garages would be crescent shaped, and overlook a proposed swimming pool and patio. The new living quarters would be connected with the main building by a walkway which would also lead to the pool. Guests would still register in the lobby of the main building off Springfield avenue. Plans also call for enlarged parking facilities as well as complete landscaping.
 The new hotel units would be of modern design and two stories high.
 The addition would also call for the relocation of a service road which leads onto Locust drive. Action on this portion of the hotel's plan would be taken up at a later date, the Board said.
 It was also learned that the hotel had entered into negotiations to purchase a tract of land at 41 Locust drive owned by the John H. Meehan estate. The land abuts hotel property. Representing the hotel at the hearing was H. Russell Moss of Fernwood road, former Union County prosecutor.

For Sale: Three (Slightly Used) 40-ft. Steel Towers

Anyone looking for a bargain in used steel towers? If so, three of them, each 40 feet tall and each with enclosed fencing, will be offered for sale by sealed bids by the Army Corps of Engineers. The towers are now at the closed Nike base in the Watchung Reservation and must be removed from the premises within 40 days after sale.

Bids will be opened at 2 p.m., January 15, at the U. S. Army Engineer District, New York, 111 East 16th Street, New York City. Applications for bids can be obtained at the same address. What can you do with a 40-foot steel tower (fencing included)? Well, one could improve your TV reception or make a handy arrangement for the family wash. Surely there must be someone who can use a steel tower.

Assemblyman To Address Hi-Y Clubs

Frank X. McDermott, Union County Assemblyman-elect from Westfield, will be the featured speaker today when the Hi-Y clubs of the YMCA convene in the auditorium at 7:45 p.m. The assembly will launch the

Hi-Y's annual youth and government program in which members study the needs of their state, draw up bills to meet these needs, and prepare to participate in the model legislature held in Trenton in March.

Mr. McDermott will be introduced by John Mullen, president of the "Spartans" Hi-Y Club which is in charge of the evening's program. Club adviser of the "Spartans" is Stephen Rockstroh, teacher at the High School.

Mr. McDermott will discuss with the Hi-Y members the tax law needs of New Jersey—what the broad-base tax would mean to Union County and what the Turnpike bond issue would have meant had it been passed. He will also discuss labor supply and demand, commuter transportation, and jet-airport situations. Howard B. Merrick, youth director of the YMCA, is in charge of the program.
