The so-called "white suburban community", such as Summit, was placed on notice twice this week that it cannot be divorced from the problems of the urban poor which has spawned the concept of Black Power and violence as a means to an end.

United Fund Hears Civil Rights Aide

In a speech delivered to the annual dinner meeting of the United Campaign Monday night, Val Coleman, public relations director of the Mobilization for Youth, New York City, sounded the alarm that it was "not the year of the dilettante" and that the "puny efforts" of social institutions were directed toward the "fracture, not with the flesh wound".

Mr. Coleman, who in the past has been a poet and playwright, as well as an employee of the entertainment arts, said that racism in this country would not disappear until the interdependency of the economic life, the political scene and intellectual thought was established.

While avowing that "Racism is as American as cherry pie", Mr. Coleman maintained that integration must be set aside, and that the Negro must set up an ethnic base for economic survival. He urged the black man to take steps to establish himself politically as there is "little time for the fruition of Martin Luther King's dream."

Referring to inner city rioters, Mr. Coleman said riots were a reflection of a "social spasm", which "cauterized" a century-old wound, while at the same time the rioters "may be bent on public suicide."

Pointing out that private industry and business was just beginning to understand the problems of the Negro poor because the previously unseen market was now visible, Mr. Coleman urged that the black man free himself through political activity.

Weekend Car Mishaps Injure Four Persons

Four persons were injured during the weekend in six car accidents.

Last Thursday, two persons were injured when the cars they were driving collided at Hobart and Springfield avenues.

Police identified the injured as Marsha Kesselman, 17, of Short Hills, operator of one car, and Leonore E. Koster, 29, also of Short Hills, operator of the other vehicle.

Police said the mishap occurred when both cars collided in the intersection when the Kesselman car was driving north along Hobart and the Koster vehicle, east on Springfield. There is a stop sign at Hobart avenue.

Investigating the accident was Patrolman Scott Ketcham.

Herald to Begin New "News" Column

In an effort to keep Herald readers informed of various events of interest occurring outside of the Summit Area, a new column, "News Briefs," begins today.

"News Briefs" will contain information regarding various activities which occur around the Summit Area that could be of interest to local residents.

"News Briefs," however, will in no way diminish the usual in-depth coverage of local events found weekly in the Summit Herald.

Police Hit By Newark "Y" Worker

As executive director of the Community Branch of the YM and YWCA of Newark, Mrs. Violet Henry, speaking at a meeting of the Community Council last Wednesday night, stated that all persons have a stake in Newark and in the future and security of the city.

Mrs. Henry, who is the first Negro woman admitted to practice law in Canada, maintained that the problems of Newark can be attributed to police-community relations, housing, jobs and education.

Maintaining that it has "always been the police which have triggered riot activity," Mrs. Henry said "a great deal of physical brutality, as well as psychological," was present in Newark. She maintained that police "do not differentiate among Negroes" as individuals "so that Negroes become non-persons."

While noting that housing in Newark is old and in a state of deterioration, Mrs. Henry also highlighted the job problems, with particular reference to the problems of migrants and discrimination against qualified applicants.

Admitting that she disregarded the political situation in Newark, Mrs. Henry said that education was a problem because it was of low quality, with no relationship to the lives of the children involved. She also cited overcrowding and an inappropriate curriculum.

Also speaking at the Council meeting was David Ludlow, local architect, who expressed the hope that the "wall of apathy" seemingly apparent in the suburbs about city problems may really be ignorance.

Council Hit On Passaic Ave. Stand

Hinting that Common Council may be reflecting a "sense of financial irresponsibility" in regard to Passaic avenue, C. B. Elitch, chairman of the executive committee of the Passaic Avenue Association, says this week in a letter to the editor of the Herald that area residents still reject widening of the road beyond its present width.

Mr. Elitch's letter, which is a copy of one sent to Common Council, says that the Board of Freeholders has shown a willingness to put Passaic avenue in "A-1 condition with a repair and resurface job" to the extent of 5 to 5-1/2 inches of new asphalt topping and shoulders. "This we feel," Mr. Elitch says, "is a very fair stand on the part of the Freeholders and very adequate for the residential character of the street."

Mr. Elitch adds that "for the city to ignore this proposal of the Freeholders would reflect a sense of financial irresponsibility and especially so, in this period when we should all be striving for means of tax savings."

Representative of the Passaic Avenue Association, Mr. Elitch says, have been in contact with agencies of the State Department of Transportation and have been advised that nothing less than a 46-foot roadway will be considered for (Continued on Page Two)

For Sale: A 1951 City Ambulance

A classified advertisement in today's Summit Herald has for sale a 1951 Pontiac ambulance owned by the city. The 17-year-old vehicle has been replaced by a brand new ambulance recently purchased by the city.

The advertisement advises prospective buyers that the ambulance can be inspected at Fire Headquarters, Broad street; that offers must be made in writing to Harry C. Kates, city clerk, on or before February 15 of this year, and that full payment must be made at time of delivery. The advertisement also says that no equipment is included in the sale and that only the vehicle is available.

Summit: Present and Future "Highway Spill-Off" Among Top Problems Now Facing Summit Area

Problems facing New Jersey are all related to the fact that New Jersey is now the most densely populated state in the nation. These general problems are narrowed but not simplified in the Summit area, for here the focus is on traffic congestion, more specifically known as "highway spill off".

These observations come from one who may help to solve the problems-Hugo M. Pfaltz, jr., of Prospect street, newly elected Assemblyman representing Union County District 9C, which includes Summit.

Opening a map of the state to make clear the geography involved, Pfaltz points out that all major highways, in existence and under construction, are east-west in direction. The new super-roads will of course increase the volume of traffic. If only a small percentage of this traffic leaves the highways, Union county will be faced with ever more serious road congestion.

Pfaltz maintains. In order to reduce the local traffic from this highway spill off, Pfaltz is recommending the construction of a "circumferential north-south parkway", which would connect with the John F. Kennedy parkway at Route 24 and move south along the west side of the Passaic river to a point in Union Village where it would meet Interstate Route 78.

Drawing a large oval on the map just west of the Garden State parkway and parallel to the parkway, Pfaltz points out that there are between one and a half and two million people living in this area, yet the area is serviced only by the county roads that cut through the heart of every city along their paths. There are no limited access or multiple lane thoroughfares, with the single exception of the Kennedy parkway.

Wason To Again Head United Fund

Paul O. Wason of 21 Gloucester road was reelected president of the board of directors of the 14-member United Campaign during the group's annual meeting held Monday night at the Hotel Suburban.

Other officers reelected included Howard J. Wallis, vice-president; Walter P. Ulicny, treasurer; and Donald J. Storch, assistant treasurer.

New members at-large appointed to the board of directors include Dr. R. W. Buchanan, last year's fund drive chairman; Dr. Robert G. Salisbury, Dr. Fred A. L. Holloway and Mrs. Robert L. Strong. Renamed as board members-at-large were John I. Kirkpatrick and Robert J. Wimer.

Named as new members of the budget review committee were Mrs. John Cave, William R. Wang, P. Henry Mueller, Robert L. Tabbot and Dr. Raymond K. Clark.

Thomas A. Ganner of 69 Portland road was appointed this year's United Campaign drive chairman, replacing Dr. Buchanan.

Those leaving the board this year include Mrs. George E. Low and William T. Snyder, who was chairman of this year's nominating committee.

About 150 agency representatives, board members and guests attended the meeting which included reports by Mr. Wason, Dr. Buchanan and Mr. Ulicny, who told those on hand that expenditures from the fund to agency members totaled $205,123 during 1967, as compared to $194,370 in 1966.

Other members of the nominating committee included Dr. Robert C. Specht, Mrs. Richard K. Miller and Maxwell D. Rudge.

Thomas M. Reamer

Reamer to Quit United Fund Post

Thomas M. Reamer, executive director of the United Campaign here for the last three years, will resign February 7 to accept a position as associate director of the United Community Fund of Newark.

The announcement was made during the United Campaign's annual meeting held Monday night at the Hotel Suburban. No replacement has been named as yet.

During Mr. Reamer's association with the United Campaign, two new agencies, Youth Employment Service and the Urban League, were added to the Campaign to bring to 14 the current number of fund members. Mr. Reamer, as executive director, was responsible for United Campaign goals of more than $200,000.

In his new position, Mr. Reamer will help coordinate the United Community Fund of Newark's estimated yearly goal of $3,000,000.

Budget Time Rolls Into High Gear

Budget time will be rolling into high gear next week when the Board of School Estimate holds a public hearing on proposed 1968-69 expenditures, and Common Council introduces its municipal operating budget for this year.

On Monday the Board of School Estimate will hold a hearing at 8 p.m. in City Hall on its $4,690,355 budget which represents an increase of $432,215 over the previous budget. The following night, Tuesday, at 8:30 p.m. Common Council will officially introduce its proposed operating budget which this year totals $3,460,777, an increase of $236,447 from 1967. A public hearing on the measure is scheduled for Tuesday, March 5 at 8:30 p.m. in City Hall.

Since the county budget is still unknown, it is still too early to determine a city tax rate for 1968. The 1967 rate stands at $6.07.

Beginning today ambulance services in the city, including the First Aid Squad, will be coordinated and dispatched from the Police Department.

Before the new regulations went into effect, ambulances could be obtained for emergency use by calling either the Rescue Squad number or the Police Department at 273-0051. In some instances, such an arrangement led to the dispatching of an ambulance without proper coordination. Under the new setup, all requests for an ambulance will be handled through the Police Department.

At present there are three ambulances available within the city with the Rescue Squad having two, and the city owning a recently-purchased brand new vehicle.

Under the new regulations, with the Police acting as the coordinating agency, all calls made to the First Aid Squad, at 273-5200, will ring at Police Headquarters. The Squad number is being phased out only at the discretion of the Squad.

When the First Aid Squad headquarters is manned, all calls received at the Police Desk for ambulance service will be immediately relayed to the Squad for dispatch by use of the Electron Radio system.

In an emergency, if squad headquarters is not manned, the city ambulance will be dispatched. Otherwise, the Rescue Squad ambulance will be used.

The new regulations require that the city ambulance will be used only for emergency cases within city limits. However, it can also be used for transporting welfare patients to institutions and hospitals outside the city.

Assessment List Down $1,384,245

A downward difference of $1,384,245 from 1967 is expected in the 1968 tax assessment list, Michal J. Heaney, city tax assessor, said this week.

In 1967, total taxable items came to $109,093,000. This year the figure is $107,698,755, or a decrease of $1,384,245.

In 1967 land and building were assessed at $104,754,500, as compared to the 1968 list of $106,088,700, for a gain of $1,334,200. Business personal in 1967 was assessed at $4,328,500. This year the sum is $1,610,955, for a decrease of $2,717,545.

According to Mr. Heaney the loss, can be attributed to recent legislation which exempts all business personal except telephone and telegraph companies from local taxation. It is anticipated, however, that the state will distribute replacement revenues as a substitute for local taxation. The replacement is expected to reach the same total revenue as last year's $4,328,500.

considerably longer. “Such a parkway would tend to relieve the heavy flow of traffic on Passaic avenue in Summit and to remove congestion on Springfield avenue in Summit, New Providence, and Berkeley Heights,” Pfaltz declares.

Pfaltz plans to work with the State Department of Highways on this, so that “hopefully, it would not need separate legislation initiated in the Assembly.”

The problem of transportation is but one of about seven areas having a “high priority” before the new legislature in Trenton. Other areas are: higher education; the preservation of the remaining open spaces for recreation and wild life; urban sprawl and highway disfiguration; the assurance of jobs; equalization of the welfare burden, which now falls disproportionately on the residents of some counties; and revision of the formula for state aid for public instruction. Specific problems such as river and air pollution, Pfaltz sees as “being related to the heavy population density. There are extensive pollution laws on the books and this becomes a problem in enforcement.”

The location of a proposed jetport has been the subject of much controversy over the last several years. Pfaltz would prefer to see the jetport built in Burlington county for several reasons—the amount of land needed is available with a minimum of disruption to existing residences, the people living there want the port, and, although there are complaints of its being too far from New York City, it would serve both New York and Philadelphia.

Turning to urban renewal, Pfaltz feels that the state will need to offer imaginative assistance for people in the ghetto areas. “A number of bills will be introduced,” he thinks, aimed at the problem from many directions—direct aid, education, environmental aid. As he is not a member of the committees which normally handle legislation in these areas, Pfaltz could not pinpoint the type of legislation which is likely to evolve.

Pfaltz is vice chairman of the banking and insurance committee, and he will be influential in shaping any HISTS AT LUNCHEON—The Montclair Bank and Trust Co. entertained the Women's Association of Temple Sinai with a luncheon and program at the Chanticleer last week. Mrs. Henry Gross, program chairman, Mrs. Stuart Zekendorf, vice president of the group, and Mrs. Nathan Sherman, president, held a pre-luncheon conference with Kenneth Evans, Robert J. will be dealt with by the legislators, that there is the possibility of a revision of the antiquated criminal statutes, and that inequitable bills now being set will be looked into.

Pfaltz has already played a significant role in the Assembly, as leader in the fight to repeal strikers benefits ($1) from $400 which was passed last year. Pfaltz thinks the new legislature may consider other aspects of $400. Two aspects in particular may be adjusted benefits for those who are unemployed and seeking work, may be increased, and there may be some tightening up on “dubious employment” claims.

The state must seek answers to two difficult problems in the field of education, Pfaltz says. The formula for state aid must be changed so that urban schools will have more resources, and more assistance must be given to higher education in order for more New Jersey youngsters to have an opportunity to attend college. The all-pupil busing bill will face revision, Pfaltz states. “Already legislation has been introduced to reduce the area of transportation from 20 miles to 10 miles. Personally, I favor repeal of the bill or limitation of the area of coverage to within a respective school district.”

How does Pfaltz like his new post? “I find the legislature an exciting corner to be in, especially as a member of the majority party. Having the leadership, we have the ability to control legislation. This increases the work load, of course, but it is very stimulating.”

Also a member of the law and public safety committee, Pfaltz is chairman of the subcommittee on state Police. He anticipates that the problems of narcotics and riot control the new buildings, he indicated, were partially completed as of last October 1, and will be picked up as added assessment during this year.

In a breakdown of real property, Mr. Heaney has indicated that there are 5,269 residents in the city, with a total assessment of $74,403,700, or 70 per cent of the total.

Commercial enterprises comprise 306 items assessed at $14,244,500, or more than 13 per cent of the total, while 20 industrial properties assessed at $9,015,800, which represents more than eight per cent of the total.

Apartment properties total 59, assessed at $7,306,900, or more than six per cent of the total, while there are 389 items of vacant land, assessed at $1,136,400, which represents a little more than one per cent of the total.

The report also shows that 220 items are exempt from taxation and include properties owned by the city, the schools, churches and charitable organizations, the state, Post Office, cemeteries and those who are disabled veterans. Total valuation for tax exempt properties is $22,402,900.

In addition, 1,679 veterans are entitled to a $50 tax deduction, while 291 senior citizens are entitled to an $80 deduction, for a total of $107,230.

Net total increase for the year at $1,334,200 includes new homes and additions and alterations to homes and other properties at a total assessment of $740,500. Other assessment additions add an additional $728,900 but some are exempt because of the nature of the organizations.

It is also expected that the increase in real property is larger than last year's $952,400 increase, which reflects new commercial and industrial construction. Some of approval with the use of state funds.

Mr. Elitch's letter stems from a note sent to the Board of Freeholders from Council President Elmer J. Bennett early this year which indicated that Common Council would be “willing to go along” with a 40-foot width if the County would rescind its order to turn the street back to the city.

The state and county have agreed on a 42-foot width, while residents along the street have fought for a maximum 36-foot width road. In November, the county said it was willing to return the street to the city after it (the county) had prepared the roadway at its present width. Residents along the avenue said they would be willing to go along with such a proposal.

Local College Student Gets Chance to Plot Own Course

If you don't like the curriculum, make one of your own! That is precisely what Trinity College junior, William Mason of Summit has done, although not because of any dissatisfaction with Trinity's curriculum.

Mason is assisting in the leadership of 14 students conducting the Trinity College Seminar Program, a plan under which Trinity students lead discussion groups on topics chosen from their major field of proficiency. The student-run program was started a year ago to provide secondary school students from the greater Hartford, Conn. community with "an opportunity for an exchange of ideas" and "to provide for intellectual pursuit" in a course not generally offered in high school. The program is designed "to attract intellectually keen students who might not be considering college." Mason is a 1965 graduate of Summit High School, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mason of 37 Valley View avenue.

Boosters Open Fund Drive

The Summit Schools Booster Association composed of parents and others interested in encouraging participation in Junior and Senior High School athletic programs will launch its annual combined membership and fund raising drive this week.

The Association, under the direction of H. C. Biertuempfel, seeks funds to sustain a recently expanded scholarship program. Other Association activities include the annual All Sports Dinner which features a sports figure of national recognition, and the promotion of athletic activities throughout the year.

C. J. Sperco, membership chairman, in commenting on the importance of the drive, invited everyone in Summit to participate by means of a contribution. Checks or donations should be made payable to the Summit Boosters and mailed directly to Mr. Sperco, 7 West Lane. Mr. Sperco expressed a hope for "substantial response from the parents of all students so that the Association can continue to encourage and recognize those who are participants in the school athletic program."

Thieves Use Phone To Get Information

Don't give out information on the telephone to any stranger who claims to be conducting a survey for any company, radio or TV program, the Summit Area Chamber of Commerce warned area residents this week.

Thieves are using the telephone more and more frequently these days to find out just when the occupants of a house will be away from home. They often pose as agents conducting surveys for reputable, well known companies and programs.

The Chamber cautioned people to be very careful of what they say on the phone to any stranger. They also urged residents to avoid inviting the caller to visit the home.

Parents should also instruct their children to be wary of this kind of phone call.

YM Staff Dinner Has International Flavor

Thirty seven of the YMCA's full and part time staff met for dinner at the Y last Wednesday to mark National YMCA Week and meet officially with Kenneth W. Pearl, the Y's new general executive.

The staff, numbering 45 in all, includes office workers, maintenance crew, desk and control room attendants, instructors and lifeguards. President George B. Martin welcomed the group on behalf of the board of directors, and Mr. Pearl gave the main address.

Two part time workers, who are also residents in the YMCA dormitory, lent an international flavor to the affair. Keun Pea Yu, better known as Kenny Yu, from Seoul, Korea, is 19 years old and a student at Summit High School. He has been in the U.S.A. since December, 1965 and has lived at the Summit Y since last June.

He worked as a junior counselor at Camp Cannondus last summer, simultaneously improving his English and swimming skills. He is active in the photography and ski clubs at Summit High and works part time in the control room at the YMCA. He hopes to study chemical engineering at college in the U.S., perhaps at Rutgers University, and ultimately expects to return to Korea to pursue a career.

Subhash Jani, a native of India, has been a resident of the Summit Y since April, 1967. A graduate of Gujarat University, Ahmedabad, India, Jani is studying for his masters degree in chemistry at Fairleigh Dickinson University which he hopes to receive in about a year. He works part time with a local insurance company and as a desk attendant at the Y on weekend.

Mr. Jani studied English in high school in India, as well as Gujarat, Hindi, and Sanskrit, but credits television as a great help in learning American English. His ultimate ambition is to get practical experience in chemistry in the U.S. after completion of his schooling and then return to India to pursue his career.

Orchestra Founder Returns to Podium

The Summit Symphony Orchestra will celebrate its 30th anniversary with a concert on Wednesday, March 6 in the auditorium of Summit High School at 8:15 p.m. J. Frederick Muller, founder and first conductor of the orchestra, will return to Summit to conduct the orchestra for the occasion.

Mr. Muller is well known to many area residents. He was supervisor of the Department of Music in Summit from 1934 to 1948. Since then he has served on the faculties of New York University, Temple University and the Juilliard School of Music. He is presently director of the educational division of Scherl and Roth Inc., Cleveland, Ohio.

Three charter members of the Summit Symphony still perform with the orchestra. They include Caleb Hill, current chairman, Edward Parfando and Gladys North.

Former members of the orchestra include Councilman Robert S. Stafford, Louis and Peter Dapero, A. J. Bartholomew, retire principal of Summit High School, Thomas Reinauer, John Bencivenga, John Bunnell and Daniel Kautzman, chairman of the music department of the Summit school system.

A diversified group of musicians including engineers from Bell Labs, a mathematician, an architect, chemists, salesmen, professors and teachers are presently playing with the orchestra.

Harry S. Hannaford, conductor of the Summit Symphony for the past 20 years announced that the Orchestra will hold a reception for Mr. Muller following the concert.

A Man of Our (Second) Choice

Since Gov. Nelson Rockefeller still has not indicated that he can be dragged to the podium at the forthcoming national convention of the Republican Party to make an acceptance speech, we are becoming somewhat apprehensive over a candidate of our liking to lead the party in the November elections.

We still hold hope that Rocky will accept and become a candidate but it makes good sense to have a second choice. And we think we have found the man. He is Chief Burning Wood of Atlantic City.

Chief Burning Wood is the choice of the American Indian Party and he will enter the New Hampshire primary elections on March 12 running on an "Indian Power" platform.

In announcing his candidacy last week, the Chief said: "The white man has ruined the land, he has polluted it and poured concrete over it. Only the Indian knows how to care for the land, so give it back to the Indians."

We envision Chief Burning Wood sitting in the White House passing the peace pipe to the North Vietnamese, writing an executive order calling for an immediate halt to all road building, and ordering the Justice Department to bring in the scalps of Stokely Carmichael and his cronies.

The Chief could easily solve the gold drain by re-introducing wampum and he could put our foreign aid on a new basis by substituting maize for dollars. There is practically no end of things that Indian Power could bring about that could restore this land of ours to its former glory.

Chief Burning Wood will have more than our support, too. If former Assemblyman Fred E. Shepherd could win Union County elections with the support of the Indians living in this county, as he used to claim, then think how well a full-blooded Indian will do in Union County. Mr. Shepherd when once pinned down as to the extent of the Indian vote in this county admitted there were "only six or seven" so obviously the white man will have to help out a bit.

If Rocky persists in staying in Albany then we might possibly hit the trail for Chief Burning Wood of Atlantic City and his platform of Indian power.

Jersey Discipline

An eighth grade teen-ager who stayed away from school to protest the Vietnam war and apparently did so with the consent of his parents has caused a problem to some Long Island school officials.

The 13-year-old boy's mother also says that poor marks her son is getting is his way of protesting against his being made fun of by his classmates because of his protest against the war.

All of which makes us think of William Shakespeare's words, methinks the lad doth protest too much.

The school officials say that they are not so much concerned over the boy's protests as they are over the large number of absences he has piled up while making his protests and whether or not they are lawful absences. Several were claimed to be because of illness. Court action has been brought but the family contends this is because of the boy's involvement in peace movements.

Think back. When you were 13 years old and wanted to "butt" school for a day what reason did you give? If you are nearing or in your 60s did you tell your parents, "I am staying away from classes to protest the Mexican Border incident." If you are somewhat younger than that, at age 13 did you tell your father, "I'm not going to school because I am against going to war with the Axis powers."

And can you think what would have happened if you did this?

In most homes amazement would have been followed by father sternly warning you to get to school, or else. And it was that "or else" that mattered.

Of course time marches on and this is an age when kids let their hair down and let their hair grow. But common sense says that 13-year-old kids should not skip school to protest world affairs. This may be the case of a normal boy seeking an excuse for some unscheduled holidays or a boy with problems looking for a way out. But whatever the reason, he certainly appears to have some negligent parents.

In contrast is Mrs. Richard J. Hughes, wife of our governor, who when asked if her sons wore their hair long, replied, "They did, but they don't. The Governor has a loud voice when irritated and a firm personality."

What's wrong with discipline as practiced at Morven?

Letters

Stand Unchanged

The Editor, Summit Herald: Attached is a copy of a letter sent to Elmer J. Bennett, president of Common Council with reference to the Passaic avenue road project.

We would appreciate your printing this letter in your next issue of the Summit Herald.

Thank you for your cooperation.

C. B. Elitch, Chairman
Executive Committee
Passaic Avenue Association
Mr. Elmer J. Bennett
President, Common Council
Summit, New Jersey
Dear Mr. Bennett:

This letter has reference to the recent newspaper notification stating that the Summit Council requested the Freeholders to appeal to the State Department of Transportation for approval of the road project on Passaic Avenue widened to 40 feet.

Representatives of the Passaic Avenue Association have been in contact with the applicable agency at the State Department of Transportation and have been advised that nothing less than a 46-foot roadway will be considered for approval with the use of state funds.

Therefore, the residents of this area take the position that we do not want Passaic Avenue widened beyond its present width of 22 to 24 feet with shoulders on either side of the street. The Union County Board of Freeholders has affirmed its willingness to put this street in A-1 condition with a repair and re-surface job to the extent of 5 to 5-1/2 inches of new asphalt topping and shoulders. This we feel is a very fair stand on the part of the Freeholders and very adequate for the residential character of the street. For the City of Summit to ignore this proposal of the County Board of Freeholders would reflect a sense of financial irresponsibility, and especially so, in this period when we should all be striving for means of tax savings.

Very truly yours,

C. B. Elitch, Chairman
Executive Committee
Passaic Avenue Association

Questions Expense

Editor, Summit Herald: "On the fields of friendly strife are sown the seeds, that on other fields, on other days, bear the fruits of victory." High School athletics are great! Once I enjoyed them as a competitor, and now as a spectator.

But can the Summit Board of Education afford to spend $3,000 (5% of the entire supplemental educational budget) for a swim team?

A total of $60,000 has been budgeted for supplemental education for a school year 1968-69. Is this enough? Is it possible that this $3,000 swim team appropriation might be more wisely spent? Using Board of Education figures i.e. a supplemental teacher, teaching three hours per day, five days a week, at

Our Wooded Areas

Editor, Summit Herald: Our bird society is continually changing in order to meet the existing terrain.

Statistics show there is more human population per square mile in New Jersey than any other state.

As a result of this population explosion, we, in Union County, have lost many wooded areas, natural brooks and beautiful ravines. The gorgeous tapestry of virgin woodland is being replaced by a monotonous, undulating sea of shining house tops.

Birds and humans, believe it or not, have many characteristics in common. We are all strongly affected by the existing conditions of nature. The more we destroy nature, the more we are destroying the finer and more sensitive qualities of birds and humans. We often hear the expression, "What price progress."

Man's rapid advancement in many phases of science and technology will determine the kind of world we will face in the future. It is to what use we put our knowledge that will be the determining factor.

Giving the situation careful thought, we will realize that man holds the very life of birds in the hollow of his hand. If we preserve our virgin woodlands, our brooks and natural undergrowth, the Wood Thrush which is our most beautiful song bird, will continue to stay with us. They do not fit into a materialistic world, their song reflects a serenity of life.

Every evening at dusk, the thrush's song is like music that lifts you above the cares of the world and makes you feel that all is well. As Henry David Thoreau, the naturalist and essayist said, "It lifts and exhilarates me, affects the flow and tenor of my thoughts."

The Wood Thrush has been a native bird of this area for years. Even though it is a bird of the woods, it welcomes the friendship of man, but it is being frustrated by bird society of the aggressive and fighting nature. Gradually we are "pulling the rug out from under its feet" by destroying our natural state of privacy, which goes hand in hand with shade trees and undergrowth. This creates a vacuum which is automatically taken over by several species of birds - the quantity - not for school expansion, and salary increases and equipment, and relentlessly increasing costs of building.

However, in my view there seems no end in sight of cost increases and I am in favor of not waiting until the 1970's for a new municipal center. Although we have municipal bonds outstanding, I doubt if we have nearly exhausted our legal borrowing capacity, and a bond issue is the logical means of financing this building, since municipal bonds are tax-exempt.

In the near future I would like to suggest some constructive proposals. Shirley Farnum

Seeks Our Stand

Editor, Summit Herald: I find your silence on the Vietnamese conflict most disturbing. While I realize that the Summit Herald is a local news media, I feel that you should as in the past (i.e. campus disturbances in the United States), take a stand.

Dear Mr. Editor, while your wish for the New Year is the solving of the parking problem in our city, my wish also includes the end of the war, a war which you are completely neglecting. Gary Pastor 327 Morris avenue

(Editor's note: The Summit Herald also wishes that the war would end. However, we are not certain how this can be accomplished without sacrificing in vain all those, on both sides, who have suffered from the conflict.)

County Trust

Lists New

1967 Highs

During 1967, Union County Trust Co. recorded new highs in all significant areas of operations, according to Raymond W. Bauer, president. Net operating earnings for the year reached a peak of $1,573,501, a gain of 11.8% over 1966. As reported, the above-average gain in earnings was accomplished despite continuing upward pressures in operating costs. Gross income in 1967 increased to a new high of $9.6 million. Deposits totaled $172,894,007 at December 31, a gain of 11% over the previous year end. Time deposits, including the bank's electronic savings accounts, accounted for 62% of the growth and exceeded $85 million at the close of the year. Demand deposits gained $6.4 million to a total of $77,864,611.

At year end, loans of all types totaled nearly $113 million, as compared with $100 million at December 31, 1966. According to Mr. Bauer, the year's accomplishments were highlighted by a merger with Hillside State Bank on May 12. The merger created the thirtieth banking location for Union County Trust and contributed modest gains to deposit and loan totals.

On September 25, the bank opened new permanent quarters for its Rahway Avenue office at 470 Rahway avenue. In projecting growth plans of the bank, Mr. Bauer announced the proposed construction of a new Summit office and an "autobank" to serve the Wood Avenue (Linden) Office in 1968.

Union County Trust Co. has been among the area's lead banks in the use of advanced electronic data processing techniques for both internal accounting systems and the development of customer computer services. In early 1967, the bank installed an IBM 360 computer system to increase its capabilities in these areas.

In cooperation with New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, the bank will complete installation of an electronic Centrex telephone system in May, 1968. The Centrex system will provide the bank with improved internal and external communications.

A FLURRY OF FASHION - The models for St. Teresa's annual bridge luncheon and fashion show on Valentine's Day (Wednesday, February 14) at the Chanticleer were delighted with the "new spring look" the fashion coordinator of Tepper's on-the-Mall chose for them to try on when they visited the store this week. Mrs. James Bartz, Mrs. Joseph Arace, this year's Mrs. New Jersey, and Mrs. Joseph day thanks to a brand new technique of quieting down pre-mature labor. Little Beth Anne Cunningham, who weighed in January 23 at a satisfactory 5 lb. 5 oz., would never have arrived in this world safely were it not for the "alcohol" technique, a new means of intravenous infusion used to prevent the onset of too premature birth.

Ruzicka also discovered that different accessories can give a costume a completely new look. The show will be built around this idea. Junior models Shawn Lock and Susan Hughes wanted to remind everyone that "Hearts Are Trump" at the all-parish luncheon. For reservations call Mrs. John J. McClellan, 277-2037. (Rowe Photo)

Intravenous "Cocktail Party" at Overlook Safely Delivers Infant

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn W. Cunningham of Basking Ridge, today cradled their little daughter - all the more precious because she is their first child in eight years of marriage - and said fervent thanks to the miracles of modern obstetrics.

"I wondered if we'd ever make it," said Mrs. Cunningham, beaming. "I never dreamed I'd have to get piliated to have my baby," she laughed.

But the alcohol infusion technique is a lot less fun than a cocktail party, according to Mrs. Cunningham, who was first put under treatment in early October, at the beginning of her fifth month of pregnancy, when she began to go into premature labor. "I don't remember much about the 'high' stage, I guess I must have come to once in a while," she confided. "After that it was just sort of vague."

According to obstetricians at Overlook, the techniques involve initially administering an intravenous solution of alcohol at a rate fast enough to make the prospective mother pass out completely within an hour. This quiets the uterus, which stops contracting. The alcohol infusion rate is then slowed down until the mother's condition indicates that it can be safely stopped.

In Mrs. Cunningham's case, when severe uterine contractions began at the beginning of her fifth month, in early October, she was rushed to Overlook where she was immediately placed on the I.V.-alcohol therapy an intravenous solution of 5 per cent alcohol. After nine days her contractions subsided enough to return home, with an oral uterine relaxor medication, plus recommended frequent generous highballs! Bourbon and gingerale, incidentally, and not too much of that, was all Mrs. Cunningham could keep down in her delicate state. On October 25, strong contractions began again and she returned to Overlook Hospital for another week of I.V. treatment. This time, to play it safe, she stayed until just before Christmas when, at seven months of term, her baby would have a good chance if it did come.

But little Beth waited until January 23, just two weeks before full nine months term, completing a happy, if sometimes hectic, family picture for the Cunninghams. All in all, Mrs. Cunningham spent a total of 69 days in the hospital to insure the safety of her baby girl.

"The nurses were wonderful-I can never thank them enough for their interest and encouragement," she commented.

"The last month things quieted down enough-although there were still mild contractions-so I didn't have to drink what a relief!" Mrs. Cunningham added with a twinkle in her eye.

Mrs. Patricia Cunningham (nee Maurer) is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Maurer, former Summit residents, and taught the fourth and fifth grades at Washington School. Her husband was a resident of nearby New Providence, where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Cunningham, reside at 76 Laurel drive.

The alcohol technique was originated by Dr. Fritz Fuchs of Cornell University and its merits confirmed by two California obstetricians, Drs. Stanley Zerne and Masao Nakamoto, who reported that the alcohol treatment delayed delivery at least a week, and sometimes for as long as eight weeks, in 80 per cent of their patients in pre-mature labor.

Mrs. Cunningham's delivery at Overlook was delayed by 13 weeks, certainly one of the longest recorded, according to Dr. Arthur Perell of Summit, her obstetrician.

"The probability of the baby's survival when Mrs. Cunningham first went into labor at the beginning of her fifth month was very slim," Dr. Perell commented. "Fetal weight at that point is about three quarters of a pound-only a handful of babies in medical history have survived at less than a pound birth-weight."

"The babies seem livelier and more alert for their stage of development, than is normally observed, even when labor is not stopped," Dr. Perell commented.

According to Dr. A. Starr Ingram, chief of the obstetrics and gynecology department at Overlook, Dr. Perell and his two associates, Drs. John R.

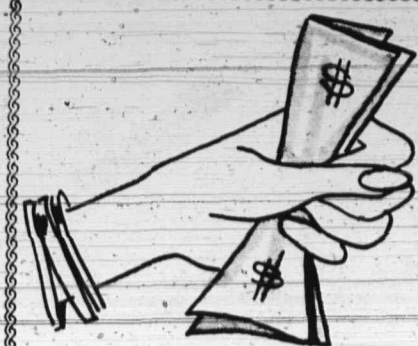

Skowronski and Gardner C. Bennett, reported their work in this new field to the OBGYN Department several months ago and have used the therapy in some ten cases. Fifty per cent, or five, of the infants survived, a far higher percentage than could have been expected without the I.V.-alcohol therapy-perhaps only one of those five babies would have made it alone," Dr. Perell estimated.

The technique of intravenous alcohol-therapy in pre-mature labor is still relatively rare in the United States, although its usage is beginning to develop since Dr. Fuchs reported on it at the American College of Obstetrics held in Australia last summer.

Summit High Cagers Upset Cedar Grove

By Tom Kizzia

SUMMIT—The Summit High basketball team finally seems to have caught fire. After struggling to a 2-9 record, the Hilltoppers upset Cedar Grove, 64-51, last week and followed this with a 72-37 trouncing of Madison.

The victory over Cedar Grove was surprisingly easy, despite some harrowing fourth-quarter moments. Cedar Grove brought a 9-4 record into the game, but Summit came up with a truly balanced attack.

Summit's hopes of winning hinged on its ability to stop the Panthers' 6-6 Jim LaCorte, the Suburban Conference's leading scorer. This difficult task went to Bob Stiner and Wayne Tucker, who succeeded magnificently. The rest was easy. LaCorte was held to a season low of 10 points and Summit walked away with its biggest win of the season.

SUMMIT RALLIES

Coming from behind in the second quarter, Summit tied the score at 12-12 with an eight point effort by Bob Stiner. Moments later a layup by Stiner gave Summit a 16-14 lead that it never lost.

Boys' Rec. Basketball Loop Results

The Wildcats defeated the Nuggets, 29-24. At halftime, the Nuggets led by three points, but failed to maintain it. L. Kelly was high scorer for the Wildcats with 10 points. Dunn, playing for the Nuggets, also collected 10 points.

The Beavers defeated the Eagles, 14-12. K. Denman was high scorer for the Beavers with six points, while Bray scored 10 points for the Eagles. The Bulls downed the Bears, 26-24. Scott scored 15 points for the Bulls, while Muldowney scored nine points for the Bears.

Franklin School

The Pirates defeated the Rams, 23-7. Bob Owen scored 11 points for the Pirates, while Flanagan collected three points for the Rams. The Tigers downed the Lions, 26-19. Bill Ochs scored 15 points for the Tigers, while Tim Riordan scored 14 points for the Lions.

The Vikings downed the Trojans, 29-24. The score was tied at halftime, 13-13, but the Vikings outscored the Trojans in the second half by five points, 16-11. Bob Ochs collected 26 points for the Vikings. D. Minkler scored 10 points for the Trojans.

Edison Recreation

The Bombers downed the Patriots, 59-21. Gwathney and McCullough scored 18 and 16 points, respectively, for the Bombers, while J. Gross scored 15 points for the Patriots. The Mustangs downed the Jets, 39-38. Owen scored 12 points for the Jets, while Proctor and Markey scored 15 and 16 points, respectively, for the Mustangs.

The Bullets defeated the Greyhounds, 30-29. Gianis was high scorer for the Bullets with 19 points. G. Gross was the high scorer for the Greyhounds with 12 points. The Chiefs downed the Indians, 36-23. Slowey collected 20 points in leading the Chiefs to victory. Paxon scored eight points for the Indians.

The Warriors defeated the Hawks, 44-42. The score remained close throughout the game with a 22-20 halftime score. Barlexa was high scorer for the Warriors with 15 points, while Gilbert scored 12 points for the Hawks.

The Knicks downed the Royals, 49-35. Partenheimer was the high scorer of the day with 27 points for the Knicks. Brady took top scoring honors for the Royals with 19 points.

Boro Skaters Upset Leading Montclair

CHATHAM-BORO—Chatham Boro High's ice hockey team now must be rated as the favorite to win the regular-season championship of the North Jersey Scholastic Hockey League.

Coach John Trecartin's Eskies scored their biggest victory of the season last week, downing pace-setting Montclair High, 5-3, at South Mountain Arena in West Orange.

By winning, Chatham Boro boosted its league record to 9-1-1, which is good for 19 points. Montclair (8-2) still leads the league with 20 points, but had played one extra game

Balish, Titans Triumph

SUMMIT—Balish fought off a bid by the improved Chubb & Sons' five to avert an upset and down the Insurers, 91-82. By winning, Balish moved two games in the lead in the Summit Men's Basketball League as the Summit Titans won 103-97 over Hill City Cleaners.

The addition of two scoring stalwarts—Green and McClain—enabled Chubb & Sons to keep on even terms in their battle with Balish during most of the contest. The teams left the floor at halftime tied at 37 points.

Severson, scoring 16 of his 26 points in the second half, provided the slim margin that Balish was able to maintain. Wayne and DiParisi each contributed 16 points to the Balish attack, while Tackas dropped in 11 and Zimmer 10.

Green, with 23 points, led Chubb & Sons. McClain scored 22 points and Whiting 19.

The Hill City Cleaners—Summit Titans game was hotly contested throughout. The 29 points scored by the Titans at the foul line to nine for Hill City, offset the Cleaners' 44-37 edge in field goals.

A season high of 49 points by Mitchell kept Hill City in contention. After Topar, who scored 20 points, fouled out, the Hill City threat slackened.

The Titans, who have played good ball this season, had all five starters score in double figures. Konzelman led with 24 points, with Borden and Medelena each popping in 23. Poransky tallied 22 points and Korlesky 11.

The Standings:

Team	W	L
Balish	5	0
Hill City Cleaners	3	2
Summit Titans	2	3
Chubb & Sons	0	5

Oratory Cagers Lose Two

SUMMIT—Oratory School's basketball team started last week in impressive style, rolling to a 16-4 lead over Sacred Heart High of Elizabeth, but the Rams couldn't maintain their form and wound up losing to Sacred Heart and powerful Immaculate Conception High of Montclair.

Sacred Heart rallied to down Oratory, 61-49, while Immaculate, which scored its 11th win in 12 games, romped to a 97-54 victory. Both games were played at the Oratory gym.

Oratory's 12-point lead evaporated in the second period as Sacred Heart exploded for 24 points to gain a 28-28 tie at halftime. The Hearts took command with a 14-6 bulge in the third period to carry a 42-34 lead into the final period.

Humberto Fernandez scored 30 points for Sacred Heart, including 13 during the Elizabeth team's second-period comeback. Kevin Wentworth scored 18 points for Oratory while Bob Meyers scored 16 for the Rams.

Immaculate defeated Oratory for the second time this season and again had little difficulty. The Montclair cagers stormed in front 19-9 in the first period and clinched the game with a 33-point second period. Immaculate led 52-22 at halftime. Immaculate had a two-point edge in the third period and then finished with a 25-point outburst to just miss the 100-point mark.

Immaculate's Mike Johnston set a school record by taking down 36 rebounds. He also scored 37 points, including 13 during the decisive second-period surge. Pete Fess scored 24 points for Immaculate to boost his career total to 993 points.

Wentworth again led Oratory with 20 points, while Gerald Fox scored 13 and Meyers 11.

Hyperboles, Celtics Win In H.S. Loop

SUMMIT—The league-leading Celtics, runner-up Hyperboles, and Grey Balloons won their games in the Board of Recreation High School Basketball League.

The Royals threw a first-half scare into the Hyperboles, trailing by only one point, 21-20, at intermission. John Montgomery had 17 of his team's 20 points.

The second half was evenly played until midway in the period when the Hyperboles' superior height began to tell. Ken Hinman battled valiantly but was up against two and three players continuously for the rebounds.

The Hyperboles outscored the Royals, 40-25, in the half for a 61-45 victory. High scorer for the game was John Montgomery with his season's high of 29 points on 11 field goals and seven foul shots. Hinman followed with 10 points. For the winning Hyperboles, Norm Torkelson had 17 points, followed by Doug Herr with 15.

The first-place Celtics upended the Huskies, 49-30. The Celtics, minus the high-scoring Don Prather, were hard pressed at times, but still found enough scoring punch with a fine team effort.

Magk Edwards had one of his best all-around games for the Celtics, scoring 16 points, then rebounding well as he stayed out of foul trouble. Brayton Smith had eight points as no Celtic scored under five points. Paul Nix had 14 points for the Huskies.

The Grey Balloons beat the winless Fantastics, 48-24. In the first half the Balloons pulled out to a 21-8 lead that was too much for the Fantastics to overcome. Glen Tomson and Gordon Hartley had 12 and 11 points, respectively, for the Grey Balloons. Gary Smith again led the Fantastics scoring with 10 points.

Regional High Cagers Score Two Upsets

BERKELEY HEIGHTS—Governor Livingston Regional High's young basketball team gave strong indications last week that it was coming of age. Coach John Kay's Highlanders came up with a pair of upset victories over Springfield Regional, 58-57, and South Plainfield High, 69-50.

The wins boosted the Highlanders' season record to 5-10 and assured Governor Livingston of its best mark in the last four years. The win over Springfield was the Highlanders' second in 11 Watchung Conference games and boosted Governor Livingston to a tie for seventh place with Clark Regional.

The win over Springfield was particularly satisfying for the Highlanders as they staged a fourth-period rally to win. Governor Livingston has been a frequent victim of last-period rallies this season.

AVENUE LOSS

The Highlanders came from far back to avenge a previous loss to Springfield. The Bulldogs exploded for a 16-4 edge in the second period to take a 30-15 lead at halftime. The Highlanders started their comeback in the third period, rallying for 18 points, but still trailed 43-33 going into the final period.

The Highlanders continued to surge in the final period, but still trailed 55-50 with less than three minutes to play. Governor Livingston then scored eight straight points to go in front 58-55. Baskets by Jeff Burdette and Paul Goldstein brought the Highlanders up to 55-54. Mike Hiotis' jump shot put the Highlanders in front, 56-55, in the last minute of play and Goldstein's jumper gave Governor Livingston a three-point edge.

Goldstein's basket proved to be decisive as Springfield scored a basket in the final seconds, but fell one point short of a tie.

John McElgunn paced Governor Livingston with 18 points, while Burdette scored 11 and Hiotis 10. Goldstein was scoreless until he came up with his two vital baskets in the final minutes.

South Plainfield was figured to win handily over Governor Livingston, but suffered a shocking 19-point shellacking. The Highlanders got off in front, 22-19, in a free-scoring first period and then rolled up an 18-4 edge in the second period to lead 40-23 at halftime.

BURDETTE SCORES 21

The second half was played on virtually even terms as the Highlanders were content to sit on their huge lead. Burdette led the Highlanders with 21 points, including nine on free throws. Joe Dowling added 12 points for the Highlanders, while McElgunn scored 10 and Eric Wichelhaus eight. All are underclassmen except Dowling.

South Plainfield went down to its seventh loss in 15 games.

Pioneer Wrestlers Divide Matches

NEW PROVIDENCE—After boosting its record against non-Suburban Conference foes to 6-1 last week by routing Kenilworth Regional High, 35-11, New Providence High opened its conference schedule with powerful Madison High and the Dodgers rolled to an impressive 37-5 victory over the Pioneers of Coach Phil Esposito.

Undefeated John Ferrara, 106, came out of the Madison match as the Pioneers' only unbeaten matman. John scored his seventh pin in eight bouts to account for all of New Providence's points.

Two other previously unbeaten matmen for New Providence—Ron Ferrara, 98, and co-capt. Dave Darling—went down to their first defeats. Ferrara, a freshman, dropped a tough 2-1 decision for his first loss in four bouts.

TOUGH LOSS

Darling, who had won seven bouts wrestling as a 130-pounder, moved up to 136 pounds in the absence of a New Providence regular and lost a 2-0 decision. Ron Smith, 178, who had won six of seven bouts, battled Madison's Chrisi, Kate to a 2-2 standoff, but was ruled a 3-2 loser on riding time.

John Ferrara scored a pin in 2:57 minutes and continued to establish himself as a strong threat for a district championship in this month's State Tournament. Lou Del Monte, 157, and heavyweight Greg Freaney, both with 5-3 records for the season, lost one-point decisions against Madison. Del Monte bowed 2-1, while Freaney was beaten 6-5.

John Ferrara's sixth pin

Gladiator Skaters Triumph

Continuing its drive for fourth place and the final playoff berth in the North Jersey Scholastic Hockey League, Chatham Township High's skaters blanked Morris Knolls High, 8-0, last week at South Mountain Arena in West Orange.

The win gave the Gladiators a 6-4-1 record for 13 points and left them just one point back of fourth-place Livingston High, which has a 6-2-2 mark and 14 points. The Lancers, however, have played one less game than the Gladiators.

Goals by Bob Muller and T. Young gave the Gladiators a 2-0 edge over Morris Knolls in the first period. Alan Brill and Muller added second-period goals to boost Chatham Township in front 4-0.

The Gladiators wrapped up the victory in the third period, scoring four more goals, two by Muller, who had four goals for the game, Craig Ellsworth and George Turbett accounted for the other Chatham Township goals.

Regional High Cagers Win, Rally to Tie

BERKELEY HEIGHTS—Governor Livingston Regional High's wrestlers boosted their hopes for a winning record in Coach Mike Sorrentino's first season at the helm when they defeated North Plainfield High, 35-13, and battled South Plainfield High to an 18-18 tie.

The win and tie gave Coach Sorrentino's Highlanders a 4-3-1 record for the season. Lee "Rip" Howard extended his undefeated string through 11 bouts this season as he pinned his North Plainfield foe and scored a 6-0 decision over his South Plainfield rival. Heavyweight Ward Rau also won twice to boost his season mark to an impressive 9-2.

Rau came up with a key victory in the tie with South Plainfield, scoring a 4-3 decision over South Plainfield's Bill Reininger to bring the TOP SWIMMER—George Heath of 27 Sheffield road, Summit, a sophomore freestyler, is the leading sprint swimmer on the Wittenberg University, Springfield, Ohio, swim team. The Tigers had won 11 consecutive Ohio Conference meets before losing to Oberlin, Heath, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Heath, is a former Summit High athlete. After three meets he ranked second in scoring for Wittenberg with 17 points. He has been hampered by a torn chest muscle which will probably keep him out of action for at least two meets. George holds the Wittenberg record for the 50-yard freestyle with a 22.7 seconds clocking.

Summit Team Upsets Trenton In Volleyball

SUMMIT—The Summit YMCA women's volleyball team scored its third victory of the season by topping the strong Trentonettes of Trenton State College, 17-15, 15-12, 15-3.

Trenton, which had been undefeated in the N. J. Women's Volleyball League until the Summit win, gave the locals a tough battle.

In a thrilling first game, Trenton led 8-1 and at one stage only needed one point to win the game. The "Y" girls rallied and tied the game at 14-14 and then went on to win. Summit also trailed in the second game, but good team work and strong serving won this game.

Playing for Summit were Nancy Zwigard, captain; Sylvia Pott, Eleanor Kerby, Pat Reed, Joan Hannas, Mary Lou Roux, Pat Umbs and Ann Bottelli. Louis T. Choquette is coach.

Summit J.V. Wins 2 Games

SUMMIT—Summit High's junior varsity basketball team won a pair of close games last week to boost its record to 8-5. After downing Cedar Grove, 50-44, Summit squeaked past Madison, 51-48.

Summit took an early 13-7 lead over Cedar Grove, but fell behind at halftime, 29-24. The Hilltoppers came back to tie it at 42-42, and shots by Rich Graef and Tom Olcott made it 46-44 with a minute left. Sheldon Woodbury was fouled twice in the closing seconds, sinking four foul shots to clinch the game. Graef had 21 points.

The game against Madison was even closer. At no point did either team lead by more than four points. The lead shifted back and forth until Tom Olcott broke a 46-46 tie with three minutes left.

Rich Graef made a free throw to put Summit ahead 49-46, but a jumper with 30 seconds left closed the gap to one point. Graef sank a pair of foul shots, however, to make 51-48.

Jim McCullough was high scorer for Summit with 15 points, followed by Sheldon Woodbury with 12 points.

Red Wings Win Two of Three

SUMMIT—The Summit Red Wings sandwiched a close 3-2 loss to Livingston with victories over Ridgewood and Cranford to boost their season record to 11-5-1.

Summit shut out Ridgewood, 5-0, in a one-sided game. Jim Stockbridge scored twice for the Red Wings. Chuck Levanchy, Dave Rosell and Pete Helmuth each added a goal.

Livingston jumped off to a 2-0 lead, but Summit pulled back to 2-2 on goals by Chuck Levanchy and John Idak. A final-period goal by Livingston proved to be decisive when Summit couldn't score in the last four minutes.

Regional Wrestlers Win, Rally to Tie

BERKELEY HEIGHTS—Governor Livingston Regional High's wrestlers boosted their hopes for a winning record in Coach Mike Sorrentino's first season at the helm when they defeated North Plainfield High, 35-13, and battled South Plainfield High to an 18-18 tie.

The win and tie gave Coach Sorrentino's Highlanders a 4-3-1 record for the season. Lee "Rip" Howard extended his undefeated string through 11 bouts this season as he pinned his North Plainfield foe and scored a 6-0 decision over his South Plainfield rival. Heavyweight Ward Rau also won twice to boost his season mark to an impressive 9-2.

Rau came up with a key victory in the tie with South Plainfield, scoring a 4-3 decision over South Plainfield's Bill Reininger to bring the

Matmen Bow as Illness, Injuries Riddle Ranks

The Summit High wrestling team, with half its starting squad unable to wrestle, dropped a 30-12 match to Metuchen High on Monday.

Six of Summit's 12 starters were either injured, ill, or overweight, and after jumping to a 6-0 lead, Summit lost six matches in a row to bow.

Regulars Steve Riggs (98) and Tom Luntz (106) won their matches by scores of 6-5 and 17-2 respectively to give Summit its early lead. The Hilltoppers then dropped six in a row, including two pins and a close 2-1 decision by Scott Votey (123), his first loss of the season. Skip Schroeder (157) brought Summit out of the slump with a 6-0 win, but Summit had fallen behind 22-6.

Substitute Rick Sherman (115) was Summit's first loss, followed by Votey's and pins of Chris Hart and Tom Williams. Roger Hill and Fred Genualdi lost before Schroeder came up with his win.

Summit was down 25-9 after Jim Defeo (168) lost 9-2, but Bob Hudkins win in the 178-pound class made it 25-12. Heavyweight Bill Jemison was ill, so Summit had to forfeit that match and gave up Metuchen's final five points.

FILM

By Jon Plaut

The four prize-winning films at the Essex County YM-YWHA (Northfield avenue) comprise an event of the first magnitude. It is rare that a suburban area is graced by a film festival of any type, no less one with such intelligent programming.

Usually, when the motion picture has been studied, noted, appreciated, or enjoyed by a local film class, club, or organization, the schedule has varied from "The Guns of Navarone" to "Casablanca." Only occasionally is a film included from which the audience may learn as well as enjoy.

But the "Y" series of four modern, foreign, classic films to be shown over the next few months, on Saturday evenings, is different. There, at a cost of only one dollar per viewing, we shall see films of unsurpassed appeal which reflect the artistic development of the medium. That they represent four distinct modes of expression is the bonus we derive from the organizers' choice.

Each film will be discussed in depth in this column after it has been shown. For now, I will just briefly mention what is ahead.

Teshigahara's "Woman in the Dunes" (Japan) is a highly contemporary examination of men finding purpose in the narrowness of life. The film is stylized in the Japanese cinematic tradition, highly erotic but relevant, and very cerebral. Truffaut's "Shoot the Piano Player" (French) is high camp, funny, melodramatic, in short a tremendous time. It signalled the arrival of the new wave and its adaption of the Hollywood gangster film of the thirties to the swing of today. Antonioni's "L'Avventura" (Italian) is the highly fragmented and symbolic study of our inability to relate and our lack of desire to do so.

Probably with "8 1/2" the most individualistic effort of the Italian post-neorealist film explosion, it asks the viewer to bring himself to this most abstract form of the commercial art film. Bergman's "The Seventh Seal" (Swedish) is the great master's all-encompassing and engrossing study of good and evil, life and death, and man and his fate; examined in the context of a civilizing Sweden in the throes of the plague.

"Wait Until Dark" was rather good, certainly worth seeing. There is, however, little one can say about it. Alan Arkin and Audrey Hepburn are better than adequate and the final excitement is more than most audiences can bear. Also, there are some fine moments of real cinema, such as the impression of terror for the blind girl conveyed by showing her in deep focus behind her metal cage.

John Huston's "Reflections in a Golden Eye" is a failure that could have made it. Without exception, it is too broadly done. Once again, Mr. Huston simply did not trust his audience. Apparently, all the actors did what he told them; he just told them wrong. What a waste of an exquisite book, Marlon Brando, and some very creative tinting.

Someone in there doesn't like me! Each January my year-end selections get botched (cut) — probably at midnight under full moon. For the record, if anyone keeps it, I thought "Blow Up" to be the best film I saw last year, and Yves Montand ("La Guerre Est Finie") and Pia Degermark ("Elvira Madigan") gave the best performances. The best foreign language film was "La Guerre Est Finie", with "Elvira Madigan" and "My Sister, My Love" close behind.

Church Elects Councilmen For New Term

The congregation of Faith Lutheran Church, Murray Hill, elected six new Church Councilmen during its annual meeting in January. The Rev. Russell E. Swanson, Pastor, conducted the meeting which featured action on reports from nine standing committees and the building commission.

Thomas Scoones, Alexander Simon, Mrs. Herbert Wheaton, J. Dale Davison, Robert Bell and Richard Schaab were elected to three year terms at the meeting. They were officially installed by Rev. Swanson at services on Saturday, January 28.

The congregation officially named the new social hall of the Christian Education Building the "Franklin S. Nelson Hall." Mr. Nelson has been a life long member of the parish, and has served as vice-chairman of the council. He has also acted as chairman of the Building Commission.

Visiting Nurses Play Key Role In Looking After City's Health

The Visiting Nurses each March join with the Red Cross and the Mental Health Association in the Combined Spring Drive which solicits Summit's support of these three needed agencies.

"Day in and day out the Visiting Nurses help by your contributions, take into the homes of this area comfort, security, release from pain without regard to the patient's ability to pay or any other consideration," noted Mrs. Longley Walker, chairman of the Visiting Nurse - Home Care Service Advisory Committee.

The Visiting Nurses are professional Registered Nurses with special training in the Public Health field. In 1968 they made over 4,750 visits in Summit. Mrs. Amos Hiatt, one of the founders of the Visiting Nurse organization, commented: "These nurses are experienced in understanding people, wise in helping with both health and human problems, and notable for giving tender, loving care. They know our community and can refer their patients to other agencies and sources of help when there is need."

The Visiting Nurses teach families how to look after the sick and the aged, how to prepare proper diets, and how to care for newborns and older infants. In the health field through special courses and seminars and through participation in the National League of Nursing and the American Nurses Association, they keep knowledgeable about current medical and nursing advances.

In answer to the question of who uses the services of the Visiting Nurses, Dr. R. W. Buchanan, advisory committee member, replied: "You and your neighbors do. The infant needing dressings for a burn, the grandmother needing stroke therapy, the crippled child needing corrective exercises, the family man needing post-operative attention - anyone needing skilled part-time nursing at home may telephone the Visiting Nurses. When you give your contribution to the Combined Spring Fund Drive volunteer, you are helping make miracles possible."

To maintain their service in Summit the Visiting Nurses are asking for $24,300 in the Combined Spring Fund Drive. The Visiting Nurses may be reached at 277-3766. A first visit may be made in an emergency, but subsequent visits must be on a doctor's order. The address is Visiting Nurse-Home Care Service, Overlook Hospital.

Commissioner Robert A. Roe of the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development announced today the award of a $10,350,000 grant to New Providence under provisions of the Land and Water Conservation Fund Program. This grant will be used to develop phase 2 of the community park complex.

This grant will permit the development of water and sewer lines to the shelter house, landscaping and the installation of storm drain facilities.

Total estimated cost of the project, Commissioner Roe said is $20,700,000 of which New Providence will receive a grant of $10,350,000.

When Queen Elizabeth and husband, Prince Philip, attended the theater they prefer a show that is light and entertaining.
