Crime On Upswing In City

Crimes in Summit during 1968 jumped 34 percent over the previous year, according to a state report on crime in New Jersey released this week.

The 188-page report is the second one compiled since the N. J. Uniform Crime Reporting System was inaugurated on January 1, 1967. The system involves the uniform compilation, classification and analysis of crime statistics reported by all police agencies in the state.

Included in the report is a section devoted to municipal offense data. The crime index consists of seven offenses and is used as a guide.

In 1967, Summit had 277 offenses, compared to 372 last year, an increase of 95.

Total assaults in 1968 totaled 35 and of these, 30 were rated non-atrocious. The previous year there were 32 assaults.

There were 75 breaking and entry cases, with all but one rated as forcible entry. In 1967, breaks and entries totaled 57.

Larceny thefts were 236 in 1968, compared with 166 the year before. Last year's breakdown of larceny is: 35 over $200; 87 between $50 and $200, and 114 under $50.

There were 25 auto thefts in 1968, only three more than the previous year.

In the robbery category, there was one listed last year and none in 1967. There were no rapes, murders or manslaughters reported in the city in either year.

Crime Up In State

In the profiles of all the communities in the state, Summit's estimated density per square mile is set at 4,183.3 while in 1960 it was put at 3,946.2. Its character is listed as suburban, and the city had a six percent population increase over the eight-year period from 1960 to 68. The estimated population last year was 25,100.

On the overall state statistics, more than 172,000 serious crimes were reported in 1968, a 23.5 percent hike over '67. According to the report, over 50 percent of all persons arrested for serious crimes were under the age of 18.

There were 8,716 reported robberies last year, an increase of 51 percent, and one out of every two persons arrested for Narcotic Drug Law violations was under the age of 21. Thirteen percent were 16 years of age and under.

A special statewide robbery survey, conducted in November, 1968, showed more than 10 percent of all robberies were residence robberies, 33 percent of robbery victims sustained physical injury and of these 10 died of their injuries. Of all those arrested for robbery that month, 75 percent had prior arrest records and 20 percent had previous arrest records for robbery.

School Board Gets Ford Motor Co. Offer to Swap Land at High School

TO THE VICTOR—Don MacLeod, chairman of the Summit Area Chamber of Commerce's annual summer outing held last Wednesday at Forsgate Country Club, Jamesburg, presents the Summit Herald golf trophy to Ben Marcelliano, who accepts the prize on behalf of the PostOffice, winner of this year's tournament. Looking on as the presentation was made is John Ratigan, Tony Marcelliano, members of the winning team; Mark Model, Chamber president, and Jim Luciano, another member of the Post Office's winning team. An estimated 150 Chamber members, friends and guests were on hand during the day-long affair which was topped with a roast beef dinner and the awarding of golf and fishing prizes. (Wolin Photo)

A proposal from the Ford Motor Co. to exchange a portion of the Senior High School property for two parcels of land adjacent to the school site is under consideration by the Board of Education, it was learned this week.

Under the proposal, the school board would acquire almost four acres of useable land in exchange for slightly more than 1½ acres of board-owned land most remote from the senior high school building. The parcel of school property involves approximately 69,000 square feet in area, with a 340-linear foot frontage on Morris avenue.

It was reported no cash would be involved in the proposed transaction.

According to the Board of Education, the Ford Motor Co. proposes to acquire the Lager property adjacent to the High School playfield which lies west of Morris avenue, and also the Nicholas C. English property on Kent place boulevard immediately

Chairman Says Rights Group is "Challenge"

Rev. John P. McGovern of St. Teresa's Church, newly-elected chairman of the city's newly-formed Commission on Civil Rights, this week described the creation of the group as a "challenge."

He said he was "enthusiastic" in regard to the commission's potential in eliminating whatever prejudice or grievances there might be within in the city.

In describing the function of the local Commission on Civil rights, Rev. McGovern said the agency would work largely toward "educating people" in lessening the degree of intolerance. He said the Commission would be "open to all" and added that he did not want the group to be a "paper agency."

Plans for the Commission to meet for an organizational meeting are set for shortly after Labor Day, according to Rev. McGovern.

Would Seek Advice He added that after the Commission formulates a program, it would seek suggestions and advice from the New Jersey Commission on Civil Rights in an effort to work within the framework of the state agency.

Besides Rev. McGovern, other members of the Commission include Mrs. Edward Reisen, 2 Wentworth road; Jesse A. Williams, 2 Dennis place; Joseph N. Cooper, jr., 303 Morris avenue; Joseph DeFeo, 15 Argyle court, Nicholas C. English, 149 Kent Place boulevard, and Ward I Councilman Edwin S. Votey, 105 Canoe Brook parkway.

In announcing the appointments last week, Mayor David E. Trucksess indicated that he chose seven as the "ideal" membership number because the Commission would be "small enough to be effective" and "capable of accomplishing results consistent with the purpose set forth in the New Jersey Civil Rights Act."

Ordinance Requiring Chains Or Snow Tires Under Council Consideration

Common Council has been asked by the Union County Board of Freeholders to consider an ordinance requiring snow tires or chains on vehicles traveling on county roads in the city during snow emergencies.

In a letter to Mayor David E. Trucksess, the freeholders explained they are interested in starting a program to help alleviate some of the problems on the county road system during severe snow storms.

The proposed plan would prohibit parking on certain troublesome county thoroughfares and require chains or snow tires on the entire 156 miles of county roads. The parking would not affect Summit.

The freeholders, in a suggested draft of a chain and tire measure, included the following county thoroughfares: Baltusrol, Chatham and River roads, Glenside, Morris and Mountain avenues, Constantine place and Broad street for their entire lengths; Ashland road, between the New Providence line and Morris avenue; Summit avenue, between Morris avenue and the Morris and Essex turnpike; and Orchard street, between Morris avenue and the Springfield line.

The ordinance, as proposed, would provide for a maximum $50 fine and a jail term not exceeding 15 days, or both, for failure to have snow tires or chains.

The freeholders also suggested that the city could include municipal roads in the measure if it so desired.

The ordinance and letter from the freeholders will be studied by Common Council's public safety committee.

Playgrounds Hold Final Competitions; Successful Summer Program Nears End

Good weather and the final week of competition for the four coveted trophy awards on each playground combined to provide an interesting and activity-filled program at each recreational area. The 24 finalists received their awards at Memorial Field on Community Night. Also, the 24 children on the six playgrounds who record the highest number of points during the final week of contests and events will again be guests of the Dairy Queen and enjoy banana splits.

EDISON

Nature Week on Edison playground ended with the compilation of the summer's competitive points and the naming of individual playground champions. All winners deserve much credit for their competitive spirit which was evident on the playground all summer.

In the junior girls division, Patty DeGroot led all summer to win the first place trophy. Runners up were Debbie Della Piazza, Susan Dillingham, Denise Christy, Sharon Russel and Jennifer Adams. Leading in the junior boys division all summer and finally nailing down the top spot was Kevin Connelly. Bill Russell, Mark Files and Mark DeSimone followed in that order.

Eric Anguoni won the senior boys trophy, nosing out runner-up Carl Ganger on the last day of competition. Following were Paul Piccione, Rick Carbone and Bob Files. The hottest competition all summer was seen in the senior girls division where Kathy Connelly, Sandy Files, and Mary Ann Connelly were within a hair's breath of each other all summer. Kathy Connelly held on to win the 1st place trophy. Other winners in this division were Gerri Luppino, Gail Fricke, Patty Karpenski and Linda Coiro.

Two big events took place during the week for playground participants. For playday many youngsters found their way to Memorial Field for individual novelty events. Winners from Edison were numerous. After a free outdoor lunch, 15 Edisonites played hard in the playground dodgeball tournament and wound up in third place.

In the other big event the boys travelled to Tatlock and for the third straight year emerged victorious in the boys' tournament of champions. Special commendation must go to champions Bob Files and Eric Anguoni for their first place finishes but since Edison's victory was due to a superb team effort, the following boys deserve much credit: Kevin Connelly, Mike DeSimone, Steve Bales, Mark Files, Paul Piccione, Frank Innacola and Carl Ganger.

The girls travelled to Tatlock to make up a postponed softball game. After a shaky start and finding themselves behind 9-0, they settled down to play their usual fine brand of softball. The original deficit, however, proved to be too much as the girls finally bowed by the respectable score of 13-9.

Art for the week took on many forms. In multi-media art, a combination of coloring and painting, much ingenuity was shown by the two first place winners, Joan Oldroyd and Marisa Caporaso. Second place was earned by Darlene Luciano, while third place was won by Roseann

Drug Use Charges Answered

Two Summit residents pleaded guilty and the cases of two other area residents who pleaded not guilty, were adjourned until September 3 following their appearance yesterday in Municipal Court to answer charges of drug use.

Pleading guilty to the charges were James Colangelo, 27, 35 Milton avenue and Michael Carter, 21, 302 Springfield avenue. Each was given a six-month suspended jail term, one year's probation and ordered to attend the Out-Clinic at the Union County Narcotics Bureau, Elizabeth.

Those who pleaded not guilty and whose cases were adjourned until next month were Walter Winouski, 21, Emerson Lane, Berkeley Heights, and Donald Rex, 23, Walnut street. Each requested to be represented by counsel. Winouski was released in $500 bail, while Rex was remanded to Union County Jail as of yesterday afternoon

Housing Authority Seeks To Buy Orchard St. Home

In a brief meeting Tuesday night, the Housing Authority passed a resolution to enter into negotiations to purchase a two-family house at 34½ Orchard street.

The house would be used to provide living quarters for one or two families which, though dislocated by the Glenwood Place apartment complex, would not be able to live in the housing project because of family size or income requirements.

The Housing Authority has the obligation to provide housing for all residents whose current living quarters would be razed to make way for the 40-unit Glenwood place low income housing project. But because there are some families which are too large for the two four-bedroom units in the complex, alternative housing

Utility And City To Exchange Land

A resolution approving the exchange of land between the city and the Jersey Central Power and Light Co. has been adopted by Common Council.

In exchange for a right-of-way and easement for electric lines across city property near the municipal garage on Chatham road, Jersey Central is deeding to Summit a parcel of its land next to the garage for possible future expansion.

In addition, the utility is paying $850 to the city for the easement and right-of-way.

Meeting Date Set

The August meeting of the Board of Recreation Commissioners will be held on Monday, August 25, at Edison Recreation Center, at 8 p.m.

NOW you can write all the checks you want at absolutely no cost to you. And enjoy all the privileges of a P.A.C.E. Checking Account.

You can save from $15 to $50 a year when you qualify for a P.A.C.E. Checking Account. Because P.A.C.E. Checking Accounts are service charge free. And there are no monthly maintenance charges. You get a regular monthly statement and there is no minimum balance required.

WHAT'S P.A.C.E.?

P.A.C.E. stands for Permanently Available Credit Extension. Which means that your checking account is backed by a cash reserve of anywhere from $400 to $5,500, which you may draw on at any time to meet emergency or extra expenses. To receive your free P.A.C.E. Checking Account all you have to do is qualify for the minimum $400 cash reserve. Whether you use the reserve or not is entirely up to you. Use it or not, your P.A.C.E. Checking Account is still service charge free.

If at any time you do find reason to use your P.A.C.E. Cash Reserve all you do is write a check for the amount you need. Your checking account balance is then covered up to the limit of your reserve in multiples of $50. You may also draw on your cash reserve by filling out a P.A.C.E. Transfer Slip in any amount (in multiples of $50) up to the limit of your reserve.

You control the cost of your P.A.C.E. Cash Reserve Loan completely. You may choose to repay 1/36 of the borrowed reserve on a monthly basis with minimum monthly payments of $20. A FINANCE CHARGE on the borrowed reserve is calculated by multiplying the average daily balance during the billing cycle by the monthly periodic rate of 1%, which is an ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of 12 percent. The money you repay automatically rebuilds your credit reserve so that you may use it again and again.

HOW TO QUALIFY

You do not have to be a SETCO customer. Anyone 21 years or older is eligible to qualify for a service charge free P.A.C.E. Checking Account. Simply fill out coupon and mail to SETCO.

Think of what it can mean to you. The savings of a service charge free checking account, plus the convenience and security of a P.A.C.E. Cash Reserve. And for added convenience you can bank by mail and we'll pay the postage both ways.

Mass Held For Youth Killed In Car Crash

A Requiem Mass for Richard A. Gormley of 57 Marion avenue, Berkeley Heights, who was killed in an automobile accident, Friday, was held Tuesday in the Church of the Little Flower.

The 18-year-old was injured fatally when his car was struck by another auto in the east bound lane of Route 22 in front of Ray's Sports Shop. Police identified the driver of the vehicle that hit the Gormley car as Thomas Grasso, 32, of Short Hills.

A lifelong resident of Berkeley Heights, Richard was graduated in June from Governor Livingston Regional High School where he was on the football, basketball and track teams. He planned to attend St. Francis College in Loretto, Pa.

 Swap Explained
 The Ford Motor Co. would then exchange the rear portion of the Lager property of approximately 63,000 square feet in area and the English property of an estimated 104,000 square feet for the 69,000 square feet of school property. Thus, the school board would acquire almost four acres of useable land area in exchange for slightly more than 1 1/2 acres.

It is reported that negotiations for the exchange are in preliminary stages. Recent surveying activity on the site was necessary to prepare legal descriptions of the properties involved.
 Before any formal action can be taken on the Ford Motor Co. proposal, it would will be submitted to the Planning Board and Zoning Board of Adjustment. Details of the Ford proposal have not been submitted to any public body and no formal discussion of the proposal with Ford has been scheduled as yet with any of the boards involved.

The exact use of the land swap by the Ford Motor Co. is not known at this time. However before any approval of the proposal can be made, the exact use of the property would have to be made known.

It is also unknown what use the additional property on the high school land would be put to if the proposal gains approval. From time to time it was understood that plans were being made to expand the school's physical plant. It is also understood that at one time some consideration had been given to construct a municipal swimming pool which would be jointly used by the Board of Recreation and the senior high. Proposed plans now call for a pool to be constructed on land at the rear of Jefferson School.

"The Altogether Thing" Opens Next Week at Mall

Plans are nearing completion at the Mall, Short Hills, as the day nears for the outdoor back-to-school fashion show, "The All Together Thing."

"This is the most exciting event we have ever undertaken at the Mall," commented Ernest Denton, president of the Mall at Short Hills Merchants Association, Inc. "We think it will be remembered by everyone for a long time," he continued. "The Mall enjoys a reputation for maintaining the highest standards in all that it presents to the public. Our show on Aug. 20, co-sponsored by Seventeen and Esquire, will present an enlarged image to the public and it will be in keeping with the same high standards of quality and good taste which our friends expect of us."

In the Short Hills Room, the 57 girl and 15 young male models are scheduled in groups of ten for fittings, under the supervision of Barbara Nagle and Carolyn Aakjer, fashion coordinators for B. Altman Company and Tepper's, respectively. The models were selected from 300 girls who tried out before a panel of judges in July.

Tryouts for special dance numbers are directed by Jean Mattox, a member of the teaching staff of the New Jersey Ballet School. Miss Mattox is choreographer for the show.

For days, cameramen from the Gemini Light Show have been roaming the Mall, filming shots which will be part of the psychedelic light show, a special feature of the event.

Music for the fashion show will be provided by the popular "rock" group, the Soul Survivors. They also will play for the dancing which will follow the program. The 110 fashion outfits which will be shown, are original numbers presented by Seventeen at its show held in June at the Waldorf Hotel, New York. Supplementing the numbers will be male attire drawn from the men's shops at the Mall. The format of the show will follow almost identically that of the New York program.

The light show will begin at 8:30 and the fashion show at 9 p.m. It will be held on the upper level and there will be no admission charge. It is suggested that those who attend bring chairs or blankets, inasmuch as no seating will be provided. In the event of rain, the performance will be moved to the covered parking area.

PROMOTED - William S. Taylor, 11 Portland road, has been promoted to assistant vice-president of the United States Trust Company of New York, it has been announced. Mr. Taylor, who joined the company in 1961, is an account executive in the investment division, handling personal trust and individual portfolios. He is a graduate of Choate School, Wallingford, Conn. and Yale University.

Straight talk about your savings account

In recent months you've seen financial advertising that featured unrealistic interest rates on savings—6%... 7%... even higher. Unfortunately, these offers did not always explain that this percentage figure was subject to all sorts of restrictions... and only possible if you left your money untouched for several years.

Montclair National did not follow this trend. We believe that your money deserves solid savings plans without misleading frills and gimmicks. The Federal authorities seem to agree. Effective August 1, a new ruling prohibits banks from showing compounded or projected interest rates past one year.

This means an end to exaggerated claims and the confusion they have created. Now you can compare savings plans and earnings to select the best for you and your objectives.

At Montclair National, you have three savings plans from which to choose:

5% SAVINGS CERTIFICATES: An ideal plan for individuals and non-profit organizations with surplus funds to invest. Nine to 12-month certificates are available which pay 5% interest a year. Start with $2,500 or more in multiples of $100.

4-1/2% SAVINGS CERTIFICATES: For greater flexibility, six, seven and eight-month certificates are offered which pay 4-1/2% interest when held to maturity.

4% REGULAR PASSBOOK SAVINGS: Still the most popular savings plan. Start with any amount—deposit what you wish—when you wish. Your savings earn 4% interest a year, compounded and paid four times a year. This is the highest rate of interest which can be paid by an insured commercial bank on this type of account. Deposits received by the 10th of any month earn interest from the first of that month.

Automatic deposit plans can be arranged. You can make deposits to your savings account by mail and Montclair National pays the postage both ways.

Maybe it's "old fashioned" to play it straight and serious—but our customers seem to feel that way about their money. Compare—then come to Montclair National for your savings plan. If you live or work in Suburban Essex, you'll find an office nearby.

Driver Of Car That Killed 2 Found Guilty

Edward Shepack, 18, 15 Pembroke road, driver of a car which crashed and killed two teenage girls last year, was convicted last week of juvenile delinquency.

He was charged with causing death by reckless or careless driving. At the time of the accident, June 7, 1968, Shepack was 17. It is understood that the court's decision is being appealed.

There were three passengers in the Shepack auto when it crashed head-on into a tree on Kent Place boulevard near Madison avenue.

Ann Bollinger, 15, of 248 Summit avenue, died almost instantly. Three days later Shelly Smith, 16, of 32 Old Tree drive, New Providence, also died of injuries. The other passenger, a 16-year-old boy, suffered cuts and a concussion.

Children's Film Program at Library

A film program for children grades two through six will be presented at the Public Library on Tuesday, August 19, at 2:30 p.m.

Three short films, all in color, are scheduled. "The Fish Teacher" is a fantasy in which French school girls transform their teacher into a fish. "Bear Circus" is a film of a famous Russian circus where trained bears walk a tight rope, ride horseback and do various other tricks. "The Golden Fish" is an Academy Award winner about a little boy, his pet goldfish and a big, hungry alley cat.

The program which will last 65 minutes, is planned for children from seven years of age and up. Parents are requested not to send pre-schoolers.

The Commission on Civil Rights

With the appointment this month of a seven-member Commission on Civil Rights by Mayor David E. Trucksess, Summit joins the ranks of many other communities throughout the nation in attempting to create justice for all amidst an atmosphere of racial tensions.

Although we are of the opinion that Summit's racial atmosphere is hardly at the blow-up phase, such a Commission on Civil Rights can do much to decrease whatever tensions that now exist.

There are those perhaps who feel that a seven-member board is too small and is not representative of the city. We disagree since the board named by the Mayor represents an excellent cross section of our town. Since most of us know the members, we see there are two Blacks, one Jew, one Italian, one so-called WASP, a Catholic priest and a member of Common Council, who represents all. If racial and religious balance was desired, we feel the Mayor has come up with what can be an effective body.

The task now is to implement the board's desire to aid the cause of civil rights with an effective program to make this new city agency a working body.

Any town the size of Summit with its mixture of races, creeds and colors is always subject to periodic heightening of tensions. Although we cannot expect the new Commission on Civil Rights to put an end to such tensions, the Commission on Civil Rights can play an integral role in the life of Summit.

We wish this new commission all the success in the world and we know that its primary aim is to protect the rights of all. Civil rights means just that.

Blame It on the Moon

Are you one of the many dissatisfied with this summer's weather? Did the rain wash out your vacation? Or was it too chilly on some occasions and unbearably humid on others. Are you sick and tired of having the grass grow by inches daily? Do you welcome those rare glimpses of the sun with fervent thanks?

If you did then you have complied with the requirements for joining the weather complainers club. More than that, you have a suitable explanation for this weather we have been having and you have someone to blame.

The reason for this dark and damp summer is because we have been meddling with the moon. The people to blame are those who direct the activities of NASA.

This is not fancy. Ask any meteorologist anywhere in the country. They've been flooded with complaints, written and oral, that this summer's weather got off to a bad start ever since we began playing around with the moon. Apollo 10 went close by and Apollo 11 put men on the moon. Ever since it has been rain, rain, and more rain.

In the eyes and mind of those who look for signs, moon exploration holds all the answers. This group believes we have broken all the laws of nature by dancing on the moon. We are witnessing the "great signs and wonders" quoted by Matthew and we are headed toward the Armageddon cited in Revelations.

None of this is new. There always are people who look to the supernatural for answers to the natural and they will seize on progress as the whipping boy for their beliefs.

Current Comment

Young at Heart - Verona-Cedar Grove Times

Europeans probably never will understand Americans, and vice versa. Some visitors to the U. S. from Europe actually have gone home with the conviction Americans are nothing but adult children.

Where they got that impression is difficult to say. Why, Disneyland last year - and everyone knows that is a child's paradise - played host to more than 2 million children, and undoubtedly they had the time of their lives. Along with the 7 million adults who accompanied them.

All right, what is wrong with someone on the other side of the generation gap liking the same things kids do? Grandad would probably enjoy taking another ride on one of those long-hanging swings once found in every park - the kind that take your breath away on the downward arc - and why not?

Perhaps one of the things wrong with critics of the U.S. is that their cultures, their traditions, their lower living standards - something - has made them a little bit stuffy. They think anyone beyond the age of puberty must put away his playthings and concentrate on the drudgery of work.

There is nothing wrong with work, and many people enjoy it - almost as much as they enjoy their favorite recreation. And some persons work almost as hard at play as they do at work. But somehow they manage to enjoy it more.

OLD LANDMARK - The old Dr. John Burling house at 333 Springfield Avenue at the northeast corner of Summit Avenue, now the site of Sherwin-Williams Paints, is shown shortly before it was demolished in 1949. Built in the 1840s by John Daggett Hunt, the house was Dr. Burling's home and office until 1935, when it became a tea room until 1945. From that year until the house was razed, it was the Red Cross headquarters. (Courtesy Summit Historical Society)

Appointment Questioned
Editor, Summit Herald:

The League of Women Voters of Summit has, for several years, been concerned with the fact that four out of the five appointed members of the Board of Education have lived in the same school district. Recognizing the fact that appointments must always be made of the most able and highly qualified from among those considered, we do question the wisdom of having a Board of Education composed of members overwhelmingly from one area. It is for this reason we are disappointed in the recently announced appointment to the Board of Education of another resident of the Franklin School District.

It is not our intention to question the qualifications or talents of Mr. Caming, or any other member of the board. However we do sincerely doubt the advisability of having our public school system, which belongs to and needs the support of the entire community, directed by a Board of Education composed mainly of members from one section of the city.

Summit is a community with a variety of ethnic, racial and socio-economic backgrounds among its population. This variety is reflected more strongly in some school districts than in others. All districts have their share of interested, qualified and dedicated people who would like the opportunity of serving their community and its school system in particular. It is our hope that in the future this source of talent will be called upon.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

We are wondering what considerations you use in selecting a member of the Board of Education. Each of your choices seems to have some qualifications, but in the last two instances at least qualifications not related to education or the Summit school system.

Two qualifications seem to many of us to be primary: 1) involvement in and support of the Summit public school system; 2) participation in such community affairs as to result in a broad knowledge

Sex Education: Top Controversy

Educational history will remember 1969 as the year the great sex-education controversy erupted. In New Jersey and throughout the land, citizen groups suddenly formed to de-sex the public schools.

Few parents argue with the premise that children should know the "facts of life," says the New Jersey Education Association. But differences arise over what agency should teach sex education, what materials should be used, and what children should participate.

Ideally, knowledgeable and enlightened families instruct their own children, but parents traditionally have sought outside help. In the past, the responsibility often went to the clergy. Churches still make a useful contribution, says NJEA, but no longer can do the job alone.

Basic sex education has been taught in public high schools for decades, usually in courses called health, hygiene, or family life. Pressures have long been rising for the schools to expand sex education. But, because the subject is so touchy, school authorities generally resisted.

Then, in 1960, the Sixth White House Conference on Children and Youth urged that "the school curriculum include education for family life, including sex education." Thereafter, endorsements came from UNESCO, American Medical Association, American Social Health Association, National Education Association, PTA, National School Boards Association, U.S. Office of Education, many state education departments, National Council of Churches, YMCA, YWCA, Synagogue Council of America, and the U.S. Catholic Conference.

As a result, reports NJEA, school boards throughout the nation have expanded or considered new sex-education programs. Then came reaction. This year, an organized movement spread to New Jersey and - at least 34 other states - to halt all sex education.

Violent Opposition

That sex education would be controversial, says NJEA, was not unexpected. The subject is closely tied to moral values and religious beliefs. What was unexpected, however, was the violent and emotional nature of the organized opposition.

Organizations such as the John Birch Society, Liberty Lobby, Christian Crusade, Let Freedom Ring - all admittedly from the extreme political right - denounced sex education as a communist conspiracy to corrupt American youth.

School authorities retorted that their concern was to reduce divorce, teenage pregnancy, and venereal

Deaths

Mrs. Ernest Musslewhite

Mrs. Geraldyn Musslewhite, 58 Martins lane, Berkeley Heights, wife of Ernest Musslewhite, died on Monday at Overlook Hospital of cancer. She was 46.

An immediate past-president of the Summit Art Center, Mrs. Musslewhite had also been a member of the Berkeley Heights Board of Recreation. Born in Pennsylvania, she had been a resident of Berkeley Heights for the last 16 years.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Musslewhite is survived by a son, Peter, a daughter, Kim, both at home, her father, Frank Nowik, and a sister.

Burial will be private and a memorial service will be held at the Unitarian Church early in September. In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate contributions to the Overlook Hospital building fund.

Zoning and Planning

With the growth of the metropolitan suburbs, municipal planning has been recognized increasingly as essential for the orderly and efficient development of each municipality. As the competition for land use increases, more critical planning is necessary if the old and the new are to be integrated harmoniously.

The first planning board in Summit, then called the Planning Commission, was established in 1924. As early as 1928 one Perry MacNeille laid out a comprehensive plan for Summit. Other reports, made by professionals, have been the Goodrich Plan in 1943, the McCoskey Traffic Report in 1954, and the Master Plan which, adopted in 1963, was drawn up with the assistance of a planning consultant.

Six city boards are responsible for the general and specific changes which take place in Summit building. They are: the Planning Board, the Architectural Board of Review, the Zoning Board of Adjustment, the Substandard Housing Board, the Building Code Board of Appeals, and the Housing Authority. Compliance with and enforcement of the various codes dealing with property development, such as zoning, subdivision, and building is administered through the Building Inspector's office. A building permit is issued when the preliminary steps comply with all these codes. A certificate of occupancy is issued after completion of construction if actual compliance has taken place.

When code terms and standards are not met and if the interested parties wish to appeal, the building inspector informs them of the appeal procedures to follow. The Zoning Board of Adjustment hears appeals on zoning, the Planning Board on subdivision, and the Board of Appeals is responsible for the Building Code.

Planning Board

The Planning Board consists of nine members which include the Mayor during his tenure of office, one member from the Common Council appointed by the Council, one city official (usually the city engineer) and six citizens appointed by the Mayor for six-year terms. The Planning Board is designated as a referral agency with the Council reserving the right of final decision.

The Planning Board functions under two state laws which give it these basic powers:

1. To serve as a zoning commission. It can prepare zoning ordinances for Council action and recommend amendments to present ordinances.
2. To draw up and adopt a master plan. The board can make or have made surveys and studies of past and present conditions and projections of future growth, needs, and development.
3. To recommend regulations for subdivisions.
4. To review all subdivisions, parking lots and proposed developments.

Architectural Review

The Architectural Board of Review, a sub-committee of the Planning Board, was established by Council in 1959. Five members of the Planning Board are selected by its chairmen to form the board. Their terms coincide with their membership on the Planning Board. The board receives and passes judgment upon appeals from the building inspector's ruling on proposed architectural features which might harm the surrounding neighborhood, such as excessive uniformity of exterior appearance, excessive dissimilarity, or inappropriate design.

Zoning Ordinance

The present zoning ordinance was recommended by the Planning Board and adopted by the Council in June, 1968. Thanks to far-sighted city officials, Summit had a zoning ordinance as early as 1923. There have been many amendments and revisions throughout the years. In June, 1968, a complete revision was adopted by the Council, greatly simplifying the 1955 ordinance.

New Jersey enabling acts provide that a zoning ordinance may be adopted, amended or repealed only after a public hearing, notice of which shall be published at least ten days before the hearing.

of the various groups of people who make up our population.

Your latest appointee meets neither of these elementary qualifications. He has instead rejected the Summit public schools for his child. How can we who are working to strengthen our schools trust someone who has never been involved and who has now given up on the public school system?

Since about 1961 four out of the five Board members have come from the Franklin School district. Although we know from personal experience the fine people who have been active in Franklin School for the last 16 years, we also know many others from the other six districts who would make as effective Board members and who also could bring greater diversity of experience and judgment. If as Mayor you don't know such people in all parts of town, why don't you make an effort to search them out and to listen to recommendations that come to you from appropriate sources such as the Lay Committee on Education and the PTAs?

In Summit the major decisions seem to turn only on the cost-factor of dollars and cents - not on the cost-factors of loss of human potential in inadequately educated children, and waste of human resources in not using able volunteers and in blocking faculty spirit and growth. These are the hidden costs to us and our children when you appoint people who are uninformed, uncommitted, unquestioning and unquesting. We all deserve better than this.

City's Conservation
Editor, Summit Herald:
The conservation of the grass, flowers, plants, shrubs and trees on all the public property in Summit is the responsibility of the Park and Shade Tree Department. We in Summit should congratulate the Park and Shade Tree Department, which consists of the City Forester, Mr. Calnan, nine permanent and five summer employees.
The Park and Shade Tree Department plants ground cover, shrubs, flowers and trees. They also answer bee complaints by destroying or removing bee hives in publicly owned trees.

Many trees require spraying each year to minimize the number of trees dying. In 1968 17 trees died and required removal.

The department also picks up litter. In 1968 2,500 man hours were spent collecting the litter which is carelessly thrown around by citizens.

Conservation items performed include the maintenance of trees, cutting of firewood, clearing rivers, pruning, watering and mowing. They also remove snow, spread cinders and collect Christmas trees in the winter.

Among the many areas requiring conservation are city owned properties, such as parks, parking lots, streets and sidewalks. There are also conservation projects performed on Board of Education and Board of Recreation property.

Mr. Calnan and his employees do a great job conserving Summit's resources.

Comment on Film

by Jon Plaut

In many ways this will be the most difficult review I have written for this column in a long time, because it is the most personal. Personal in the sense that my comments will largely be drawn from my own life.

First let me deal with the routine comments I have to make about "Goodby Columbus". This movie, from the book by Phillip Roth is enjoyable, more than routinely good, and certainly worth seeing. The direction by Larry Peirce is competent if not overly exciting. There are some obviously modern technique, like overlapping sound editing, but generally the making of the film is straight forward and unobtrusive.

The two lead actors, Richard Benjamin as the young man who is so close to Philip Roth that it is hard to separate them, and Ali McGraw, as his only somewhat emancipated girlfriend, are little more than routinely acceptable. There is one really sterling performance in the movie, and that is by Jack Klugman, who plays the girl's father.

For those who are not initiated, Philip Roth, the creator of "Portnoy's Complaint", writes about the rising Jewish middle class in the American environment. "Goodby Columbus" as a book was set in Newark and Short Hills, but for some reason, in their omnipotence, the film people decided to make it the Bronx and Westchester instead. The basic content of the story remains the same; the young writer to be, with all his sensitivity, family and religious hang-ups, and his deep awareness of people, has a brief affair with the daughter of an upper middle class Jewish suburbanite. When the summer ends so does the affair, and with it goes the final vestiges of the innocence of a frame of mind, a desire for easy comfort, and a time in American history. The film has been generally criticized for not being more relevant to contemporary problems; Vietnam, the poor, the black, and the student. It has been suggested by a number of critics that more of the problems of today should have been worked into it. I think most of these writers recognize that the film has a weakness (it definitely has), but have not really understood the nature of that deficiency.

The book "Goodby Columbus" is a period piece. It concerns a certain time (before the Vietnam war) and a certain frame of mind when most of the most intelligent youth still aspired to stability and economic security. The story of that beautifully written Novella works questions which seriously mar the lasting value of the film. It is possible to enjoy it as a love story, but no more.

because the protagonist comes to realize in a different time period, as he sees the society around him more clearly, that he must say goodbye to that type of existence and those types of goals. The fact that the girl will not join him in throwing this off (as represented by her final decision in regard to her family) indicates that he is somewhat out of place in his judgment. The question of why he is not concerned with the problems of Vietnam, or the University, or the poor, just did not exist generally as an issue at that time. Those questions were yet to raise themselves and would occur as the result of the disaffection of so many young people in the years immediately after the period about which this book was written. To a large extent the greatness of the book "Goodby Columbus" is due to its documenting of this era, just before the revolution of youth and the rise of new concerns in place of social stability and the accumulation of wealth as goals.

The film "Goodby Columbus" takes the problem of the young Roth and injects it into the society of today. The young man is clearly out of place and the question keeps reoccurring: Why doesn't he join one of the many causes which must attract him? He cannot, because he is acting out his part in the wrong era. The makers of the movie simply have not faced the fact that they should have either chosen to make the hero more modern and up to date (as he surely would have been) or place the whole film back in the time period which the book describes.

All this is clear to me and not to my older-fellow critics, perhaps, because I am of about the age of the protagonist in the novel "Goodby Columbus". My then as yet undefined dissatisfaction with the system in the days of college and after was the same as his. I shall never forget a wedding party I attended in Philadelphia which had a stock of characters almost identical to those the protagonist encounters in the film. Nor do I doubt that the uneasy displeasure I always felt at the large ethnic weddings of my relatives is a mirror to the questions the hero is asking himself while at the wedding finely presented in the film. I preceeded these kids who now so often feel so disaffected with the goals of their parents. The book, you see, is about me at twenty, not them. It is the particular genius of Philip Roth that he recognized this in the novel "Goodby Columbus" and was able so subtly to present it. The placing of the time of the film at the present destroys this subtlety and raises questions which seriously mar the lasting value of the film. It is possible to enjoy it as a love story, but no more.

Steering Column

By Winton Fletcher
38 French drivers recently competed to see which one could cover the LEAST distance in 12 hours (without stopping). No results are available; the judges probably fell asleep.

How long should you keep a car? Experts say the point of best return is three years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first.

The Federal Highway Administration says that last year on the open road, the American driver whizzed along at an average 59 mph. This was an increase of 1 mph over 1967.

Liquid natural gas is a low-pollutant auto fuel, but it evaporates in the tank at 7% a day. For fuel economy you'd have to keep driving until you're dry...

A year ago we read a lot about the second coming of the electric car. Not much talk of that lately. Maybe the drive for electric cars ran out of gas?

If you've decided not to wait for the electrics, come to Fletcher Lincoln-Mercury, 86 Franklin Pl., Summit 277-0940 for a great new car... tomorrow!

In arts and crafts awards were won by Tommy DeGroot, Susan Dillingham and Patty DeGroot for their efforts in bead crafts. Winning awards for their mobiles were Joan Oldroyd, Jean Ragatz and Mary Ann Connelly.

An another form of art, rocks were cemented together and painted to form "Rock Babies". Winners were John Fricke for "Smokey the Bear", Patty Karpenski for her "Mini-turtle", Gail Fricke for her "Golden Guernsey Cow" and Kathy Connelly for her "Black and Blue Pussey Cat". Other creators were Erich Anguioni, Lucy Anguioni, Kevin Connelly, David MacAdam, Sandy Files, Mark Files, Mary Ann Connelly, Patty Byrne and Karen Byrne.

In still another expression of art, the sandbox became the scene for many budding architects. Mansions and castles were constructed but the grand prize winners, Mike DeSimone, Mike Borman and Bob Ragatz used their current scientific background to construct "Tranquility Base" complete with moon craters, LEM, and even the U. S. flag. After a bubble gum hunt, a bubble contest was held amidst thunder, lightning and rain drops. The fastest bubble was recorded by Kathy Connelly and the biggest bubble was blown by Andy Weeks. Holding her mini-bubble the longest was Susan Dillingham.

Following a delicious watermelon party, the annual seed spitting contest took place. Best in this event was Mark Mallon. Others placing were Mary Ann Connelly, Kevin Connelly, Mike Borman, Sandy Files, Kathy Connelly and Susan Weeks.

In an event to test ones knowledge of nature, Gerri Luppino won first. Other winners were Bill Russell, Rick Carbone, Anthony Schippani and Eric Dillingham.

In nok=hockey, individual division winners were Rene Grisbe, Daryl Toney, Mary Ann Connelly, and Erwin Ruerup. Runners up were Patty DeGroot, Michelle Toney, Mark Mallon, Janice Karpenski, and Eric Dillingham.

For the more athletic minded, the annual bike races were instituted to test ones skill in maneuvering around the grass track. Andy Weeks won the event for the junior boys in the closest race of the day, nosing out Kevin Connelly at the finish. Carl Ganger won the senior boys race with Tom Finch and Paul Piccione finishing second and third. The senior girls division was won by Sandy Files with Kathy Connelly finishing second and Donna Carbone finishing third. Special mention must be made of Donnas amazing preliminary heat victory after chain trouble necessitated not only a pit stop but eventually a complete change of bikes.

A volleyball tournament was also held for Edison's athletes. Three teams played in a double elimination tournament. The eventual winning team was composed of Erich Anguioni, Mike Rivero, Lucy Anguioni, John Fricke and Billy Lynch.

LINCOLN
With only one week left in Summit's recreational program, things have been happening. Stickball seems to have been the game of the week as a number of boys took part Jim Armstrong, David, Dan, and Dennis Lyons, Bob and Mike Haley, Andre and Robert Theoret, Ron Ruppert, Jon Cook and Walt and Jeff Rutzler.

A cross country race and clover pick proved to be a worthwhile adventure for a lot of kids. Ricardo Trujillo, however, captured both events for the boys and Janet Haley won for the girls.

An activity in which Lincoln usually participates fully is playday, and this year was to be no exception. Although our dodgeball team didn't win, individual ribbons were won by Andre and John Theoret, Walt Rutzler, Mike Haley, Remi and Jacques Libchauer, Carol Kasper, Jim Armstrong and Jane Haley.

As of last Thursday, the point system ended and the results were as follows: Junior boys trophy winner, Ron Ruppert, second, Walt Rutzler; third, Andre Theoret; fourth, Kevin Cotter; and tied for fifth were David Lyons and Mike Haley.

Senior boys trophy winner, Bob Haley; second, Fran Fitzgerald; third, Dickie Close; fourth, Erwin Ruerup. Junior girls trophy winner, Janet Haley, second, Tara Ruppert, third, Marilyn Duffy, and fourth, Marie Kasper. Senior girls trophy winner, Carol Kasper, second, Janie Kasper; third, Chris Smith; fourth, Mary Beth Close.

Despite threatening clouds and some occasional sprinkles Mable playground was the scene of bustling activity this past week. After two weeks of torrential downpours Mable kids emerged with clothing damp but spirits undampened.

The week commenced with a massive clean up program to rid the playground of the debris which was carried in from the streets by the rain. Donnell Grant, Shelley Howell, Larry Howell and Damon Gilyard all pitched in and in no time the job was finished. Next showing off their prowess on the see-saw were Diona Bey and Betty Hill. They staged a marathon "Balance-In" which lasted for twenty minutes.

Also active on the apparatus were Shelia Miles, Sydney Green, Wendy Zackery, Michelle Stepney, Kim Hart, and Shelley Howell.

Next on the agenda was a spirited game of "out!" Esther Pryor, Gloria Elliot, Marilyn Elliot, Jessi Jordan, Garnet Green, Diona Bey and Betty Ann Hill all competed with Esther emerging the victor. This event was followed by a frisbee throw through the tunnel contest. Daryl Moore, Elliot James, Ken Miles, Mike Horn and Lionel James all took part in this exciting contest. After the final tabulation Lionel James was the winner.

Finally on the schedule was a pole climb, swing fling and a co-ed softball game. Anthony Zackery, Ken Shamblee, Lionel James, Elliot James, Mike Horn, Ken Miles, Damon Gilyard and Daryl Moore all took part in the pole climb with Anthony coming up on top. Next in the swing fling were Betty Ann Hill, Gloria Elliot, Diona Bey, Jesse Jordan, Esther Pryor, Wendy Zackery and Michelle Stepney. Betty Ann Hill was the winner of this event. The day ended with a spirited all-playground co-ed softball game with the team captained by Ray Robinson coming in on top.

Monday was another active day at the playground despite threatening weather. Daryl Miles, Jay Green, Shelley Howell, Dora Montgomery, Vernice James and Laurie Foster all tried their hands at sand castle building. This was followed by a rousing game of spud which included Peter Everett, Daryl Miles, Wilbur China, Sydney Green, Wendy Zackery, Vernice James, Shelly Howell, Laurie Foster, Dora Montgomery and Gay Green.

Thursday saw the sun come out for the first time in many days and with it a very competitive nok-hockey tournament. Ron Wilkerson, Damon Gilyard, Sheldon Green, Lionel Stepney, Wendy Zackery, Tony Everett, Peter Everett, Shelia Miles, Elliot Stepney, Tony Everett, Mike Horn and Geraldine Stewart took part with Ron Wilkerson the winner.

Wednesday saw the action move to Memorial Field for the annual playday. During the day the kids took part in many events with the following results: Charlene Moore, third place in the midget girls softball throw for accuracy; Cindy Green, third place in the junior girls softball throw for accuracy. The playground dodgeball team placed second in that competition. Tony Everett was able to consume eight dogs during the short space of time allotted for lunch. A playground record!

Thursday saw a baseball game with Wilson playground which saw Mable take an early lead which was never headed. Members of the victorious Mable squad were: Daryl Moore, Elliot Stepney, Tony Everett, Mike Horn, Anthony Zackery, Ken Shamblee and Sheldon Green. High scorer for Mable was Anthony Zackery with 29 points

MEMORIAL
The Memorialites spent the week engaging in a potholder contest, the result of which was a colorful array of creative woven potholders. The potholders of Nancy Wrough and Mary Maulbeck were judged to be the best. Rosanne Tulman and Susan Elman also submitted interesting entries.

After Monday's watermelon party, the inevitable seed spitting contest took place. Lisa Bricker won in the girls' division, and Bruce Davis out-spit Chris George in the boys' contest.

The game of jacks has been gaining in popularity all summer. Lisa Bricker nimbly won the latest jacks tournament, with Leann George second and Mary Maulbeck third. The Mini-Mites and junior girls took a crack at tetherball, and Joyce Hulm defeated Paul Hughes and Mary Maulbeck. Miss Maulbeck bounced back to win at bingo, with Mike Fusco coming in second and Lisa Bricker third.

Another popular contest has been the coloring contest. Aline Storey has won the latest contest with Mary Maulbeck second and Dana Storey third.

A large number of contestants turned out for the sand modeling contest. "A Holy Experience" by Lisa Bricker and Ann Paasha was judged the winner. Other interesting entries were "The Fusco Place" by Joe Fusco and Greg Maulbeck, "Birds Eye Stadium" by Chris O'Mahoney and Nancy Wyrrough, and "Two-Man Town" by Theresa and Mike Maulbeck.

Memorial playground's maze of fences, sliding boards and swings provided an interesting and difficult obstacle course. Wendy Walker turned in the best time for the junior girls and Nancy Wyrrough sped to a decisive victory in the senior girls division. Mike Fusco turned in the best time of the day to win the junior boys' race, and Joe Fusco won in the senior boys' division.

This year's play day was particularly successful for Memorial. Beginning with the balloon release by Leann George and ending with a decisive victory in the dodgeball tournament, the day was filled with exciting moments for the Memorialites.

The hotly contested point system has finally ended. Beth Rauch is the trophy winner for the mini-mites. Leann George finished only 10 points behind for second place. Cathy Pinzino and Cindy Zarro tied for third, Blair Latawic finished fourth and Mary Ann Drummond, fifth.

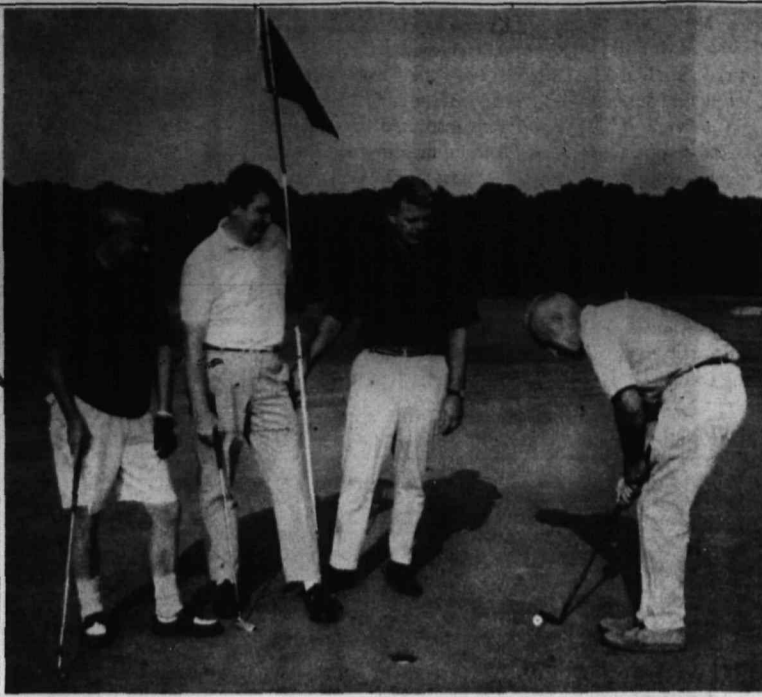

Mary Maulbeck is the champion of the junior girls. Second was last year's winner Ginger O'Mahoney. Sandy Green finished third, Susan Elman fourth, and Sally Hughes fifth.

Lisa Bricker dominated the senior girls' division this year, finishing with the highest point total of the entire playground. Ann Paasha narrowly edged out Chris O'Mahoney for second place. Chris finished four points ahead of Nancy Wyrrough to take third. Leslie Hulm was fifth.

Mike Fusco turned in the most impressive point victory of all and it was apparent that he would win the trophy weeks ago. Dan Rauch was second; David Dumas and John Dilonno tied for third and Greg Maulbeck and Tom Pinzino tied for fourth.

In the senior boys' division, Joe Fusco is the trophy winner. Vincent Slowey was second, Mike Maulbeck third, Rich Comstock fourth, and Chuck Rauch fifth.

Perhaps the most important award of all is the citizenship certificate. This year's winners are Mary Maulbeck and Ann Paasha, and the directors thank them for their help and consideration. This week's winners of arts and crafts were: Denise Zaremba, Barbara Zaremba, Maureen Paul, Beverly Zaremba, Cathy Gisoldi, Debbie Bontempo, Lisa D'occhio and Sue Ann Bontempo.

In the junior checkers tournament, Kelly Jones took a first place with Andrea Buik in third place. In the peanut gallery division, Steven Osmulski was awarded five points for first place in the nok-hockey tournament. Andrea Buik and Esteven Maas were also winners.

In the senior division, Gail Smith took first place in checkers and tetherball with Cuddy Marx placing second. The winner of the ping pong championship was Ellen Smith. Points were given for clean-up to Valerie Buik, Sara were held for boys at Tatlock Field this week. All points scored in competition this season were tallied in order to determine the trophy winners for this year at Tatlock Field. The results were James Caporaso, first place in the junior boys and Orlando Vasquez, first place in the senior boys' division. These boys were awarded trophies at the annual Community Night program.

Heon, Penny Mudd and Terry Lyons. The Tatlock girls' softball team defeated Edison 13-9. The members of this championship team were: Kelley Jones, Ellen Smith, Kim Jones, Mary Jane Linker, Cuddy Marx, Patty Cotterell, Patter Sheeran, Diane Maluso and Gail Smith.

The citizenship awards were given to Patricia Cox, Kelley Jones and Diane Maluso.

At the close of this year's point system, the first place winners were: senior division, Gail Smith; junior division, Kelley Jones, and peanut gallery, Patricia Cox. The citizenship awards were given to Patricia Cox, Kelley Jones and Diane Maluso.

Citizenship award winners were Joseph Caporaso and Brian Reynolds. Other finalists in the points score competition this year were: junior boys: second place, Joseph Osmulski; third place, Frank Osmulski; fourth place, Phillip Gwathney; fifth place, Todd Jones. Senior boys: second place, Paul Bush; third place, John Reynolds; fourth place, Jon Goldberg; fifth place, Brian Reynolds.

The Tatlock boys

performances at the annual tournament of champions

held July 29 and 31 were: checkers, third place to Charles McMahon; chess, third place to Paul Bush; tetherball, first place to John Reynolds; nok-hockey, third place to Joe Osmulski; foul shooting, juniors, second place to Joe Osmulski; foul shooting, seniors, first to Brian Reynolds; horseshoes, singles, third to Tito Vasquez; table tennis, singles, third to Jon Goldberg. As a result Tatlock placed second in the tournament. A fine job done by all!

The seventh week of the playground season saw much participation and enthusiasm for the boys and girls of Wilson playground. The week was highlighted by such events as a pyramid building contest, a four leaf clover hunt, bombardment, wiffleball, sand castle building.

The pyramid building contest saw great enthusiasm. The contest was won by a team composed of 16 members. They were: Tim Mahoney, David Kaiser, Alicia Arellano, Alan Kaiser, Flavia Mauro, Mike Arellano, Mike Pier, Belinda Mauro, Brian Mahoney and Greg Raffensperger. The pyramid was constructed by the children kneeling on each others backs and went as high as six levels. Roddy Mauro was on the peak.

After the pyramids, the children participated in a four leaf clover hunt. While many people fail to find a single four leaf clover in a lifetime, a total of eight were found in one afternoon at the playground. Terry Mahoney emerged as the winner as he found three himself. Flavia Mauro found two and Belinda Mauro, Alicia Arellano, and Brian Mahoney all found one each.
Meanwhile, a capture the flag game was held. The winning team was composed of Charles Herse, Jerry Shaw, Alan Kaiser, Craig Mardaney, John Howe, David Kaiser, David Rice and Doug Bennet. The losers were made up of Tim Mahoney, Mike Pier, Tom Cotterel, Amy Nakamura, Mike Arellano, Kathy Bennett, Alice Pond and Rick Bates.
Although a pick-up stix tournament is a bit unusual the boys and girls were very eager to participate. The girls game champion was Flavia Mauro with Debbie Hoffman, Amy O'Shea, and Carolyn Heil finished in second, third and fourth places respectively. For the boys, Alan Kaiser was termed champion while Terry Mahoney and Manuel Arellano came in second and third.

The concluding event of the week was the pet show. Many categories saw various winners. Flavia Mauro's pony, "Don Quiote", won the most unusual and biggest category; Gail Hill's two hamsters won for the prettiest pets; Vicki Dawson's dog, "Chipper", won as the hairiest pet; Greg and Todd Raffensperger's rabbit won as the cutest pet; and Belinda and Roddy Mauro's two kittens won as the friendliest pets. The most playful pet was a dog, "Sir Gregory," owned by David Helck.
The week also saw such events as arts and crafts, tether ball, -horseshoes, a water fight and a bubble gum blowing and molding contest. As the week ended, so did the point system. The senior boys point champions with 193 points was Terry Mahoney. His brother Tim Mahoney ended up in second place with Pat Riley in third place; Alan Kaiser in fourth place; and Glenn Havelock in fifth place.
For the junior boys David Kaiser was the point champion with over 150 points. Brian Mahoney came in second place with Jeff Lutton in third; Fred Herse in fourth, and Greg Raffensperger, in fifth.

For the senior girls, Alicia Arellano won with 189 points. She was followed closely by Flavia Mauro in second; Debbie Hoffman, third; and Lynn Nakamura in fourth. The junior girls point championship was won by Lynn Nakamura in third; Fred Herse in fourth, and Greg Raffensperger, in fifth.

The purchase of the Orchard street house, owned by Nicholas Caparoso, would be a first step in the acquisition of alternative housing.
There are now 36 families residing in Glenwood place buildings which will be torn down at the site of the low income housing project.
Most of these families, as well as some from other, substandard dwellings in Summit, will move into the Glenwood place project.

Files Suit Against Propane Gas Company

John F. Ruffin of 50 Ashwood avenue has filed a Superior Court suit charging the Suburban Propane Gas Co. with negligence. He claims his house in New Gretna, Burlington County was damaged when the company shut off service without notifying him.

According to the suit, Mr. Ruffin, discovered the gas off in March, 1968 and found a notice of the shut-off near the outside tank. Lack of heat, he said, caused extensive damage and frozen utilities.

He is seeking judgment for damages and costs in a trial by jury.

Let's Keep Those Letters Going

A guide for citizens who want to make their voices more effectively heard in Washington is now available in Summit from the League of Women Voters, according to Mrs. Richard Vaillancourt, local League president.

The booklet, entitled, "When You Write to Washington," contains suggestions for writing attention-getting letters to members of Congress. It also features a checklist of "do's" and "don't's," a list of Congressional delegations by state, and membership on major committees.

Priced at 50¢ the booklet may be ordered through Mrs. Henry Liss, 1 Wentworth road, or from the League of Women Voters of the United States, 1200 17th street, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20036.

GOP Plans Rally

Gubernatorial candidate William T. Cahill and the Union County Republican Committee will be honored at a rally, "Campaign '69," September 8 at Wieland's Steak House in Mountainside, from 8 to 10 p.m. The event is being sponsored by the GOP candidates for assembly, freeholder and local offices. Mrs. Joan Geer, vice-chairman of the county committee and Fanwood's municipal chairman, is in charge of the party.

Authority Discusses Future Plans To Meet Housing Needs in Summit

From time to time, the Housing Authority will discuss items of current interest in the program to meet the low-income replacement housing needs in the City. This will be designed to answer questions that may be on the minds of Summit residents on various aspects of the Authority's program.

Status of Glenwood Place
The Authority has been working through the summer on many pre-construction details of the 40-unit Glenwood Place project. There have been several meetings with HUD officials in Philadelphia and have filed all necessary papers and documents requesting Federal assistance. "The process of Federal review involves more time than we would like," a spokesman said. Ultimate approval of a large Federal dollar commitment, however, is near at hand on the basis of all information now available. When that approval is obtained, the Authority will soon thereafter be able to start construction. The Federal funds combined with the money from the highly successful private campaign will assure the full development of the Glenwood Place project. Meanwhile, the Authority's architects, Kuhn and Drake, are making progress on developing final plans and specifications. Also, test borings and surveys have been completed.

Property Negotiations
Simultaneously, the Authority has been negotiating with property owners on Glenwood place. Agreement has been reached on several parcels of land. Where agreement may not be possible, the Authority will acquire the properties through condemnation. It is expected that title will be taken to all of this property in the next few weeks.

Turnkey Projects
What is turnkey and what is the Authority doing in this area? It may be remembered that several months ago, HUD approved an application for assistance in replacing 90 substandard dwellings in Summit. Of these 90, 40 will be developed on Glenwood Place under the so-called "conventional" method, which means the Authority has the complete responsibility for the development of the project with Federal Assistance.

Fifty substandard, dilapidated dwellings remain to be replaced beyond the

Public Opinion Survey Scheduled

Western Girl, Inc., Morristown, will conduct a public opinion survey on August 21 on the streets of Summit.

Miss Jean Guerriero, manager of the Morristown office, will conduct the survey in an attempt to determine the length of employment as well as the types of employment for the average female in the Morris and Essex County areas.

Glenwood Place project. The Authority has advertised for proposals from developers as to how these replacement dwellings might be provided by private builders. The 50 units could be provided in one or more locations, but the potential developer must either own or have an option on the property or properties. If he does, and his proposal is satisfactory, the developer handles the entire project and turns it over to the Authority by a purchase contract when it is completed. Thus, the name "turnkey." The Federal Government provides the financial assistance to enable the Authority to purchase the completed project from the builder.

The "turnkey" approach is theoretically faster and less costly. Whether it will work in Summit remains to be seen. The proposals will be opened by the Authority on September 19.

Try Cold Platter Meal to Refresh Summer Appetites

Anne L. Sheelen
County Home Economist

Every good cook knows the importance of pleasing the eye as well as the palate. Such a fact needs to be kept in mind even more so during hot weather when appetites tend to wither.

A gelatin mold, cool and gleaming, usually looks appetizing and refreshing even on the hottest day. For a cold platter lunch or dinner, a menu which features a fruit-salad mold provides a pleasant change of pace. Attractively arranged on a cold cut platter and served with tossed salad greens, the result is a meal which is elaborate but is simple to prepare.

FRUIT SALAD MOLD

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1 cup cold water
1 can (6 oz.) frozen orange juice concentrate, kept frozen
1 can (1 lb.) apricot halves
1 can (1 lb.) fruit cocktail
1 cup salad dressing
Sliced chicken or turkey, and ham.

Sprinkle gelatin over water in saucepan. Place over low heat; stir constantly until gelatin dissolves, 3 to 5 minutes. Remove from heat. Add frozen concentrate; stir until melted. Gradually blend syrup from fruit into salad dressing in mixing bowl; blend into gelatin mixture. Chill until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from spoon. Cut apricot halves in 4 pieces. Add to fruit cocktail and fold into gelatin mixture. Turn into 6-cup mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on large platter; arrange slices of chicken or turkey and ham on platter. Serve with salad greens.

The 30-second oven cleaner 7¢

(It takes just 30 seconds of your time to whisk away the dirt. Costs less than you're now paying.)

Ladies, get your heads out of the oven. Now you can have an electric range with an oven that cleans itself automatically, for an investment of about 7¢ and 30 seconds of your time per cleaning.

With most models (check the instructions first) you can even put the surface-unit drip pans into the oven. Then, when you turn the switch to "Clean", spills and spatters disappear from the oven, racks and drip pans during the average 1½ hour cleaning cycle. Only a trace of powder remains. You whisk that away in about 30 seconds.

There's no worry about scrubbing the surface units either, because spills disappear from them while you're still cooking. Only electric ranges can give you this "total cleanability".

So throw out the expensive oven cleaners, the cans of stuff, the brushes, the steel wool, and the dirty rags. Buy a new electric range with a self-cleaning oven. You'll find a large selection at the local appliance dealer displaying the familiar Reddy Kilowatt seal. He's open right now.

Charline Nine Wins Pennant Charlines clinched the Summit Mens' Recreational Softball League regular season title last week with two wins, putting them out of anyone's reach.

Charlines trounced their only rival, Balish, with a convincing 15 to 1 victory. Both teams scored once in the first inning.

Charlines led at the end of five innings, 7 to 1. Then Jim Pentini, for Beacon Hill, stepped to the plate and blasted a homerun in the sixth, setting Beacon Hill up for a four run rally.

Chubb and Beacon Hill, two of the three teams still fighting for two playoff positions, met last week with Beacon Hill coming out on top 7 to 4.

The playoff games for the league started this week and will continue through next week with the top four finishers of the regular season schedule.

Giants Minor Loop Champs; All-Star Game to Nationals SUMMIT - Rain curtailed most of the final action in the Summit Board of Recreation Minor League last week and no significant changes were made in the final standings which saw the Giants win the 1969 pennant.

In the only games played the Dodgers won their third straight as they nipped the Braves, 8-7. Trailing 5-3, the Dodgers rallied for five runs in the bottom half of the third inning, Billy Specht unloading a three-run homer, his third of the year, to highlight the uprising.

The Cardinals picked up two runs in the last inning to edge the Pirates, 7-5. With the game tied at 5-5, Frank Osmulski singled in Andy Merchant and Steve Osborne in the top of the sixth with the winning runs.

The Pirates had better luck as they rapped the Cubs 11-2, to end the season in second place. After an inning of play the score was tied at 1-1. In the bottom of the second the Bucs put the game on ice as they scored six times.

In the Intermediates (completed 6th and 7th grades), J. P. Dunn won 6-3, 6-1, against Tim Herman and Caddy Marx defeated Pat Thodes, 6-1, 6-0.

In the Advanced (completed 8th grade and above), Jim Hartman defeated Bob Gordon, 6-0,

Joe Ruzicka paced the Cubs. Exploding with four runs in the fifth inning and three runs in the sixth the Mets salvaged a 9-4 win over the Reds.

The annual All-Star game was played last Friday with the Nationals winning 14-9 over the Americans. The Nationals paced by the pitching and hitting of Rich Gross raced to an early lead and were never headed.

Trophies were presented to the winners in each group.

New Football Loop Not City Sponsored A program sponsored by the Summit Youth League to teach tackle football to boys 11 to 14 years of age, is in no way connected with the Board of Recreation's annual Football clinic slated to begin September 13.

In a story published in last week's Herald, confusion arose over the Summit Youth League's statement that if an estimated $5,000 is not raised locally, it was unknown whether the program could be started and that "some 250 Summit boys will have to do without organized football instruction this fall."

Summit Began Sept. 13 SUMMIT - The Summit Board of Recreation will sponsor a football program for boys in grades 4 through 8 beginning Saturday, September 13. Each boy will be placed on a squad according to an age and weight co-efficient.

The program will last eight weeks and consist of (A) warm-up and lecture (B) football fundamentals and (C) game participation.

Each boy will need a helmet, shoulder pads, jersey and football pants. The program will last for two hours, starting at 9 a.m.

Registration forms may be picked up at the Board of Recreation Office, Memorial Field or Edison Recreation Center. Each registration must be signed by parents and accompanied by a doctor's certificate. The registration deadline is Wednesday, September 10.

Summit Began Sept. 13 SUMMIT - Winning three games of their final four last week, the Tigers won the championship of the Summit Board of Recreation's Major Baseball League.

The champs rode to the title on the strong pitching arm of Jim Gross. Jim started the week off by setting down the Twins on three hits, as the Tigers won, 8-1.

The second-place Orioles had kept their hopes alive by nosing out the Twins, 8-7. The Orioles scored their eight runs on only one hit as wildness plagued Twin hurler Larry O'Mahoney, who doled out nine walks.

The Cardinals picked up two runs in the last inning to edge the Pirates, 7-5. With the game tied at 5-5, Frank Osmulski singled in Andy Merchant and Steve Osborne in the top of the sixth with the winning runs.

The Pirates had better luck as they rapped the Cubs 11-2, to end the season in second place. After an inning of play the score was tied at 1-1. In the bottom of the second the Bucs put the game on ice as they scored six times.

In the Intermediates (completed 6th and 7th grades), J. P. Dunn won 6-3, 6-1, against Tim Herman and Caddy Marx defeated Pat Thodes, 6-1, 6-0.

In the Advanced (completed 8th grade and above), Jim Hartman defeated Bob Gordon, 6-0,

Joe Ruzicka paced the Cubs. Exploding with four runs in the fifth inning and three runs in the sixth the Mets salvaged a 9-4 win over the Reds.

Trophies were presented to the winners in each group.

Summit Nine Finishes With Four Wins in Row SUMMIT - Summit's Suburban League nine closed the season last week by defeating Verona, 8-3. The win was Summit's fourth in a row and brought its season record to six wins and six losses.

Roger Hudgins pitched the victory for Summit, his third of the season, allowing nine hits, striking out eight and walking three. Hudgins' eight strikeouts enabled him to set a new season record of 42. The old record of 41 was held by Steve Baker.

After dropping behind by one run in the first inning, Summit bounced back with six runs to take a commanding lead. The Hilltoppers scored the six runs on only two hits, being greatly aided by four bases on balls and one Verona error.

Summit added single runs in the fifth and sixth innings to close out the scoring. In the fifth inning, Roger Hudgins beat out an infield single, advanced to second on Jeff Keating's sacrifice, and scored on a Verona error.

Hudgins' pitching was aided by some standout fielding. Leo Helme made a running catch of a line drive to center field in the first inning, keeping Verona's rally to just one run.

Registration forms may be picked up at the Board of Recreation Office, Memorial Field or Edison Recreation Center. Each registration must be signed by parents and accompanied by a doctor's certificate. The registration deadline is Wednesday, September 10.

Gross Pitches Tigers To Major League Title SUMMIT - Winning three games of their final four last week, the Tigers won the championship of the Summit Board of Recreation's Major Baseball League.

The champs rode to the title on the strong pitching arm of Jim Gross. Jim started the week off by setting down the Twins on three hits, as the Tigers won, 8-1.

The second-place Orioles had kept their hopes alive by nosing out the Twins, 8-7. The Orioles scored their eight runs on only one hit as wildness plagued Twin hurler Larry O'Mahoney, who doled out nine walks.

The Cardinals picked up two runs in the last inning to edge the Pirates, 7-5. With the game tied at 5-5, Frank Osmulski singled in Andy Merchant and Steve Osborne in the top of the sixth with the winning runs.

Trophies were presented to the winners in each group.

twirling to capture the nightcap by a 6-5 count. John Osborne and Mike Jemison belted out two hits apiece for the Tigers in the opener, while Bill George belted a home run and Paul Audet had three hits for the Birds.

Leisher Top Hitter In the race for individual honors Colin Leisher gained most of the batting titles, while Jim Gross was by far the top pitcher. Leisher's .548 batting average not only captured the title but broke the old record held by Mike Mahoney at .545.

The pitching honors all went to Jim Gross, who notched all 10 of his team's victories against a single defeat. Jim struck out 142 while walking only 22.

The annual tri-meet among the swim teams of New Providence Community Pool and Clearwater and Crestview Swim Clubs held at the Clearwater Club last week, brought the large crowd of cheering spectators to their feet time and time again as the teams battled it out in very close finishes.

The title was in doubt right up to the last event which clinched the trophy for Coach Bruce Coultas's hard-driving team from Crestview. The final scores were: Crestview, 275; Clearwater, 260, and New Providence, 251.

Trailside to Show Movie On Frisco

"The Wonderful World of San Francisco," a color, sound movie, will be shown at the Union County Park Commission's Trailside Nature and Science Center, in the Watchung Reservation, on Sunday, at 2 p.m.

The film takes the viewer on a tour of San Francisco with visits to the fishing wharves, recreation areas, and historic sites. The movie received the Cine Golden Eagle award.

Also on Sunday, at 3 p.m. and again at 4 p.m., Donald W. Mayer, director of Trailside, will present a program entitled "Man In Space" in the Trailside Planetarium. Mr. Mayer will discuss the race for space and the accomplishments of the United States in space exploration. The same program will be presented on Wednesday evening August 20; and Thursday, August 21.

As the Trailside Planetarium can seat but 55 people at a performance, tickets on the days of the performance on a first-come, first-served basis.

Lots Of Food, Lots Of Fun For Children At Playday

One of the most eagerly anticipated days of the Board of Recreation's playground season is the annual playday where children from every part of Summit are bussed to Memorial Field to enjoy what every child likes best—plenty of free food and lots of fun! Both of these ingredients were evident in abundance last Wednesday.

After the playing of the National Anthem, each playgroup lusterly cheered as six helium balloons were borne aloft, representing the six playgrounds — Edison, Lincoln, Mabie, Memorial, Tatlock and Wilson. Postcards with return addresses were attached, asking finders in distant parts to indicate where the individual balloons were grounded. The next lunar mission has been alerted to be on the lookout for any of our unguided missiles!

A series of novelty events ensued — balloon contests, shoe scramble, one-legged race, cup balancing, flying saucer contest, and softball throw for accuracy with boys and girls in respective age groups contesting for the special ribbon awards.

These events were followed by lunch, with all the children as guests of the Board of Recreation. It can be truly said that everyone ate hot dogs and drank soda to his heart's content.

After lunch, the blue, red and white ribbon awards were presented to the three place winners in each event, with each playgroup cheering its winning representatives. The activities were brought to a close for the day with a dodgeball tournament, with teams drawn from the various playgrounds. Memorial Field Playground outlasted Mabie Playground in the finals to win the championship.
