Cinec Play Friday Evening

"Adam and Eva" the Club's Third Annual Production

Next Friday evening will see the third annual production of the Cinec Dramatic Club staged at the High School. "Adam and Eva" has been chosen to furnish a pleasant evening's entertainment.

The scene of action in the first act takes place in the library of the home of James King, a man with many children and portrayed by Charles Gebhardt. He has a gift for business organization, but it has never occurred to him that this capacity might be applied to domestic affairs. His daughters, Eva King, played by Kathryn Eskholme, and Julie DeWitt, played by Kathryn Eskholme, have been known just what it is not to do money at their father's and call as far as Clinton DeWitt's son-in-law is concerned—well, he is satisfied to live a life of ease with Father footing the expenses. Alan takes the part of DeWitt, while part of maid is taken by Dorothy.

Next Abby Rocker, sister-in-law of King, played by Dorothy Wadsworth, Horace Pilgrim, uncle, portrayed by John Carrough, seem also inclined to be a carefree and easy life while King, feeling powerless to stop the flow of money, in vexation decides that all are going to move to some fifteen miles from Newark where they will spend the summer. One can imagine the consternation at this sudden turn of events. It is accordingly set afoot to have Delameter, played by Jack Robinson, decide that King has the symptoms of a disease which will require him to travel to another climate. purpose leaks out, but King believes he will follow the plan through and engages the business manager of firm to come out and run matters in his absence.

Adam Smith, enacted by Vail Ram, goes himself at home and proceeds to budget all expenses. Hilarious applications result. Lord Andrew, son, would-be-son-in-law of King, is vexed by Horace Baldwin, vies with Delameter in the meantime for hand of Eva.

Adam decides that something drastic must be done and tells all that he has lost practically all his money through disastrous speculation. This means moving to other place to live and in much less sumptuous surroundings.

The third act opens on a chicken coop in New Jersey, with all hands trying to raise money to keep alive. King, farcical to learn just what each is doing to make a living.

Unexpectedly King returns from America and the hoax is exposed. Further happenings come in quick order, with an ending suit to all.

Many in the cast believe this production will furnish more comical situations and more comedy than the previous plays which the club presented.

The Mosaic Orchestra will furnish music for the occasion, giving a concert previous to the curtain, rendering selections between each act and giving several exit marches.

Miss Esther Forbes will sing several soprano solos and Mrs. Beatrice Peterson will render several piano solos between the acts. Both are members of the club.

John R. Carrough, president of the club, is generally supervising the progress of the production this year.

Over 1,000 tickets are now out and served seats went on sale yesterday at Kaden's drug store.

The patron and patroness committee desires that all those who wish to be in the club by having their names appear in a special part of the program to kindly send their names and addresses not later than Saturday.

Police Would Watch Cafes

Belleville Chief Asks for Ordinance Providing Authority

In an effort to obtain for Belleville police authority to raid alleged speakeasies, Police Chief Michael J. Flynn Tuesday night asked the Town Commission to enact an ordinance requiring soft drink parlors to be licensed as cafes.

This, the chief said, will permit police to raid suspected places and to bring the proprietors before the local recorder. Under the present town ordinances, he added, police are without this authority. If the proposed ordinance is passed a maximum fine of $200 can be imposed on offenders, he explained.

The chief's recommendations, made by letter, will be considered by the commission.

Sewer Plans Shown

The municipal departments filed annual reports, the Bureau of Engineering submitting tentative plans for a storm water sewer in Belleville Gardens section. The bureau reported that it had collected $22,095.83 in fees and revenues last year. Anticipated revenue from the bureau in the town's 1928 budget was estimated at only $17,000.

The police department reported 203 accidents, of which 160 were traffic mishaps. Only one fatality was listed. Thirty-four stolen cars were recovered and forty-seven missing persons were found. The police ambulance answered eighty-six calls and the department responded to 661 telephone summons. Sixty-five dogs were destroyed.

The road department reported that 2,076 miles of road had been swept. It recommended that a new dump truck be purchased and that William street be shoulder-paved. The department's operating cost for the year was given as $5,534.93.

$1,970,750 in Buildings

According to the building department's report, permits were issued for construction valued at $1,970,750, bringing $6,635 in fees. Permits were issued for 141 one-family houses, twenty-nine two-family houses, four four-family buildings, two apartment houses, six stores, fourteen public garages and 242 private garages.

The water department reported the installation of 548 services.

John B. Brown, town attorney, was authorized to act as counsel for Patrolman Kenneth Smith, who is charged with false arrest by two citizens, John and Harry Adams.

Application was received from Mrs. R. Gilmondy of 121 Washington street for permission to conduct a restaurant at that address.

Because of the inauguration of Governor Larson Tuesday, the board will meet Wednesday night.

An ordinance of Commissioner Frank J. Carragher appropriating $9,000 for repairs and reconstruction in the Town Hall was held over for further discussion Saturday afternoon, when 1929 budget will be considered.

MY WISH FOR YOU

By Alice Wilson Oldroyd

I do not wish in your life's sky That clouds will always pass you by, For clouds sometimes mean healing rain— An aftermath of joy, for pain; And joy and pain mean life, and so I only wish you need to grow, Courage to feel that birds will sing When Nature has done wintering, Strength to stand straight and, smiling, view Storms that would have their way with you.

I do not wish that you shall be Easy in Summer's vagrancy. Summer is subtle, flower-sweet, And it is not the year, complete; So I will wish that you be true When Fall has overtaken you, Even that life will sometimes bring Snows of the Winter, tears of Spring. Clearing your eyes, you will discern How you have grown to live and learn.

May each new vision rise until You shall attain and shall fulfill All that is worthy to attain, All of fulfillment that is gain, Peace and divine unrest to do— Here is my earnest wish for you.

Board Indorses Insurance Plan

Blanket Policy Is Planned by Belleville for School Safety

Following a survey of several months by an insurance expert, the Belleville Board of Education Monday night adopted a blanket policy for the covering of the school buildings against loss by fire.

The old system of insuring the buildings necessitated 165 different policies, which aggregated $965,000 insurance for the buildings valued at $2,155,500, and for which a premium of $20,018.17 was paid yearly.

Under the blanket policy the insurance is increased to $1,832,175 with only a 10 per cent increase in premiums, or $22,067.96. The manifold policy plan meant the renewal of policies yearly while the blanket policy remains in effect for five years. Much bookkeeping is eliminated, according to James J. Turner, business manager of the board.

The 1929 school budget was discussed by the board and indications are that it will show an increase over 1928. The bond account for school buildings will be increased $20,000 and the appointment of additional teachers and salary increases are expected to boost the budget considerably.

Father and Son Haled to Court

Two Pedagogos Fined for Motor Law Violation

Max Pedagog of 99 Broad street, Newark, was arrested three weeks ago by Officer Harry Scott, charged with not having driver's or owner's license in his possession. When he appeared in court he said he had lost his license since receiving the summons. The judge ordered him back in one week and bring his license. When he appeared he said he had written to Commissioner Dill but had received no reply. Recorder George A. Fitzsimmons ordered him to report last night.

On January 3 he was again arrested, together with his father, Harry, who was charged with operating a car without driver's license and Max with driving a Buick with plates belonging to Dodge sedan. Both were ordered to return last night while police made an investigation.

The police investigation disclosed that Max had a conditional license in 1927, but it was permanently revoked by Commissioner Dill in 1927 for being physically unfit to drive. In 1928 he received another license by making alleged false statements and that license was permanently revoked by Commissioner Dill in 1928. Last night the court asked him if he had received any word from Dill and he said, "No, the Commissioner must be busy; he gets a lot of mail."

When confronted with the facts he admitted that his license had been revoked on two occasions.

Max was given a severe reprimand and fined $50. Recorder Fitzsimmons told him that if he was found driving a car again he would be sent to the county jail, as he was a menace not only to pedestrians but other drivers as well as he had several accidents in the past. The father was fined $25.

The organization meeting will be held at a later date.

Moan of Agony Won For Him

The cloud upon his brow, crouch of his shoulders over steering wheel—everything—beside the burden of complexes that weigh him down. Even the traffic officer noted it as he approached after shrill peep-peep-peep of the traffic whistle had brought the shiny coupe to a shuddering stop.

"Officer," he said, pitiously, in the wrong, absolutely in the wrong again. I don't know just I've done this time, but, officer, know I'm in the wrong, and—

"Sa-ay!" interrupted the studying his prey as traffic began pile up for blocks astern. "I never mind. You win. Drive on."

The complex carrier still does not know what he had done to cause traffic policeman to hail him down and if the truth were known the traffic policeman probably is wishing he had detained his prey at least long enough to sniff his breath or to learn whether he actually had driver's license. The whole thing is a sort of mystery.

A Year of Great Achievement for New Jersey

Achievement

1. Opening of Newark Municipal Airport.
2. Port Newark—Shipping arrivals and departures increased from 285 vessels in 1927 to 361 in 1928, with a consequent increase in cargo tonnage.
3. Approximately 150 manufacturers established in northern New Jersey, and several large research laboratories opened.
4. Completion and authorization of new waterways connecting with Port Newark.
5. Bridges—Opening of two bridges over Arthur Kill connecting Staten Island with New Jersey. Fort Lee—157th Street Bridge, authorized and now building. This will be the largest suspension bridge in the world.
6. Lackawanna Railroad will electrify 134 miles of track throughout the suburbs, and the Pennsylvania Railroad will shortly begin the electrification of their lines between New York and Philadelphia, thus simplifying the commuting problem.
7. During the year approximately 8,678,625 motor vehicles made use of the new Holland vehicular tunnel between New York and New Jersey.
8. In northern New Jersey alone, $15,000,000 authorized for new roads by State Highway Commission.

THE year 1928 has been one of achievement for New Jersey. Probably at no time during the history of the state has there been a year of corresponding civic, industrial and financial growth.

Port Newark with its rapidly expanding harbor facilities, the completion of the Newark Municipal Airport, and the completion and authorization of new channels and waterways adjacent to the Newark territory, are forerunners of outstanding developments in the Metropolitan area.

Approximately 150 manufacturers have established their operations in northern New Jersey during 1928. This migration of industry illustrates the recognition of the territory as a shipping and manufacturing center.

In addition to the manufacturing and industrial growth there are the state and municipal developments such as the state highway and county road program that has been started during the year. This highway program opens up new homes that are situated ideally for those who prefer to live in the country yet within easy commuting distance of their offices.

to others. Always remember to "unto others as you would have them do unto you," help the widow orphan, be charitable towards the faults, remembering always your serious failing in that direction, a smile, smile, smile. Editor The News:

Very glad to note your bridge whist articles, by Wynne Ferguson, which are very interesting and instructive. The fact that there is a public demand for such articles was proven when the Newark Evening News discontinued their articles and evidently received enough requests to consider it worth while to reinstate them.

213 LIBRARIES IN NEW JERSEY
HOUSE NEARLY 4,000,000 VOLUMES

There are 213 libraries in New Jersey, each of which has more than 1,000 books on its shelves. Altogether, says the U. S. Bureau of Education, they own more than 4,000,000 volumes, while 500,000 readers hold their borrower's cards. In addition to income received from $13,000,000 in endowment funds, some $3,000,000 yearly is spent for operation.

As schools and libraries afford educational advantages to the people of a State, so do public utility facilities help to provide material advantages, and in the Public Service System the State has utility resources which contribute greatly to the public welfare.

A CURIOUS STRIKE

TAXICAB drivers in all the big Spanish cities are on strike as a protest against stringent laws imposing heavy penalties for chauffeurs who kill or injure pedestrians.

Paris is famed as the metropolis where taxi drivers are most relentless in pursuit of scurrying victims, but Madrid and Barcelona, judging from this strike, are determined not to be distanced. Pedestrians grumble a good deal over long waits at busy corners in American cities, but they might also be grateful for the better protection they get.

THE PEAK REACHED

THE good news comes from the public health officials at Washington that the peak of the present epidemic of influenza has been reached. There is noted a decided drop of about 40 per cent. It arouses hope that the country has seen the worst of the visitation and that the East will get off rather lightly.

The medical men seem to think that this is only a first wave and that it will be followed by another and more severe one. They point to the scourge of 1918 as a sort of promise that its features will be repeated this year. But that is not at all certain. One of the peculiar things about the "flu" is that it is difficult to predict what it will do, and that it rarely does the same thing twice.

So as long as the number of new cases appears to be on the down grade, we will not worry.

A TWO-BATHROOM COUNTRY

WHEN Mr. Hoover, during the campaign, spoke of America as becoming a "two-car garage" country he coined a striking phrase, even if it was a bit premature. Judging from the real estate advertisements of homes and apartments for sale and for rent, America is also on the way toward becoming a "two-bathroom" country.

A house or an apartment with any pretensions to ultra modernism now boasts of two bathrooms. The plumbing supply makers, with their gorgeous advertising of splendiferous bathrooms, have done their work well. They have aroused in masculine as well as feminine minds a desire for luxurious bathing surroundings. They must have shower as well as tub baths. Walls must be tiled in colors and fixtures must match them.

This shrewd advertising has rewarded the manufacturers (as well as the landlords and builders) handsomely.

AT THIS SEASON

AT this season of the year and under present weather conditions two things are to be guarded against—warming up a motor in a closed garage, and skating on thin ice. If you have an inclination to do either, stop, think, and don't. Either is a painless method of "shuffling off this mortal coil," but you will be a long time dead.

Everyman's and Fewsmith Even In Church League

Results When Bible Team Loses to Grace Quintet

League Standing
Everyman's	21	12
Fewsmith	21	12
Montgomery	20	13
Grace	16	17
Reformed	15	18
Christ Episcopal	6	26
High team score—Fewsmith, 894.
High individual score—O'Connor, 84.

Schedule for Thursday Night

Montgomery vs. Christ Reformed, 8 p.m.

Everyman's vs. Christ Episcopal, 8 p.m.

Grace vs. Fewsmith, Montgomery, 8 p.m.

And, again things are tied up in the Belleville Church League. Fewsmith went into a tie for the lead in the Everyman quintet, with the Montgomery five close on their heels, in the game behind.

The Fewsmith five swept into the lead by taking two contests from the Reformed outfit, while the Bible crew was dropping two to the Grace quintet. Montgomery turned in a double win over the Episcopal five, who offered plenty of resistance.

In taking two games from the Reformed team the Fewsmith pinners came up the evening's high total in the first tilt, hitting 894. The final count was 894-784, with Whipple knocking the bottles for 201 in this engagement. The Reformed quintet also fell before the Fewsmith onslaught in the second game, but came back to cop the third, 862-812.

O'Connor turned in a brilliant bowling performance in this game, establishing a new high mark for the league. His total of 234 is seven pins better than the old league mark.

Grace upset the dope by taking two contests from the league leaders, the Fewsmith, by a comfortable margin and the third by the slight margin of three pins. A strike by Mayer in the final frame proved to be the winning marker in this last tilt. The class team managed to stick in the lead by taking the second game, 849-774.

The Montgomery and Episcopal quintets pinned three hard matches, with the former coming out on top in the last two tilts. The Episcopal five got off to an early start to take the first, 792-770. The Chapel five duplicated in the second, but the third was a thriller, being a close struggle from beginning to end. The Montgomery quintet finally emerged victorious in the final frame when F. Harris came through with a strike to give them the game by four pins, 774-770.

The "Bells" won the first and last games, dropping the second one. In both of their victories the local five hit the bottles for over a 1,000 score. Their marks were 1,011 and 1,027.

McManus and McNair rolled particularly well for the Antlers. McManus had a score of 246 in the first game, while in the final tilt McNair rolled a 247. Faust's mark of 270 was the highest of the night, being rolled in the first game.

Belleville High Wins Close Tilt With Bloomfield

The Belleville High School court five travelled to Bloomfield Tuesday afternoon and returned with their second victory of the year, downing the Bloomfield five in a close tilt, 28-26.

Displaying a splendid exhibition of passwork, coupled with some fine shooting by Armour and Mayes, the local five managed to eke through to a win over the strong Red and Black team.

The game was featured by many spectacular plays, with the lead sawing back and forth. The score at half time was "even steven" at 11 all. The final period was a hectic stanza of fast basketball, with first one team drawing ahead and then the other. A last minute rally by the local quintet was sufficient to give the Blue and Gold victory by two points.

Les Armour was the high scorer for the locals with thirteen points, resulting from five field goals and three free throws. Mayes was close behind with four goals from the field and three fouls for eleven points. Short put up a splendid guarding game, holding Friedman, the Bloomfield scoring ace, scoreless.

Hopkins was the whole shooting match for Bloomfield with fourteen points. Schummell of football fame played a steady floor game besides tallying four points.

Belleville High will travel to Weehawken Friday night to engage the

Nutley High to Travel To South Orange

Interesting Tussle With Columbia High Is Predicted

Tomorrow evening Nutley H. S. will travel to South Orange to tackle the Columbia High School of that town and an interesting tussle should be the result. After the game fans from Nutley and Belleville can get a line on their favorites for the bottles, Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays.

Nutley should come out the winner as they present a veteran and formidable quintet. In the Alumni game last week a few kinks were noticeable in the work of the team, but Coach Stanford has kept his team at practice all week and ironed out the rough spots. With the team working smoothly and on all five cylinders, it will take a strong South Orange team to come out on top. Although Coach Marvel always has the knack of bringing out strong basketball fives.

BELLEVILLE HIGH PRIES LID OF '29 SEASON WITH VICTORY

Belleville High School, led by Les Armour, auspiciously pried off the lid of their 1929 season by trouncing South Orange, 32-24, last week. The "marvel" coached boys came to Belleville anticipating an easy victory, but instead were greeted with a great surprise.

The Bell Boys showed plenty of stuff and exhibited signs of a successful year. The local quintet gained the lead in the first few minutes of play and held it throughout the entire contest. The South Orange five threatened in the final quarter, but a snappy Blue and Gold rally cut them short.

Les Armour was the offensive luminary for the local team, garnering six field goals and three fouls for fifteen points. Mayes was next in line with two goals from the field and three free shots. Paul Short played a strong game at guard. He also contributed five points to his team's total.

Allen and Ruth did best for the visiting squad, the former getting five field goals for ten points and the latter four goals and one free toss for nine tallies. Kelly played a strong floor game. The score follows:

South Orange	G.	F.	P.
Skoppna	1	1	3
Allen	5	0	10
Ruth	4	1	9
Kelly	1	0	2
	11	2	24

Belleville	G.	F.	P.
Armour	6	3	15
Mayes	2	3	7
Knowles	1	3	5
Bennett	0	0	0
Short	2	1	5
	11	10	32

In a preliminary tilt the Belleville scrubs defeated the South Orange second stringers in a close and interesting fray. A basket by "Mac" Lamb in the final minute of play proved to be the winning marker, as the locals came out on top, 12-11.

"Mac" Lamb and King played best for the home five, while Duggan showed most for the visitors.

Antlers Hang Up Thirteenth Win

Kearny Triangles Stopped After Winning Seven Games

The Nutley Antlers kept their slate clean when they scored their thirteenth straight victory of the season Monday night at their court at Cleveland School. They defeated the Kearny Triangles, 26-25, in a hard fought game.

This was the Triangles' first defeat in seven starts.

The tie will be rolled off this Friday night, the best two out of three games to decide the winner. Due to the recent spurt of the Timbers, they are looked upon to turn this trick and come out on top.

NEW YORK—The perfect man, who does not chew, smoke, swear, drink, philander or show temper—a mechanical man which talks, rises and sits down, arrived last Wednesday on the Cunard liner Berengaria, although it was not named in the passenger list. It was brought to this country in a casket-like box by Captain W. H.
