Carragher Believes Erie May Agree To His Dual Plans

Says Kenworthy Promises To Have "Surprise" Next Tuesday.

Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy Tuesday night at the Town Commission meeting promised Commissioner Frank J. Carragher something "that would surprise Carragher, as far as the Erie Railroad is concerned, at next week's meeting."

Carragher surmises that it is that the Erie may open up Watchung avenue in Silver Lake, which has been closed with iron fences, and permit the town to tunnel under the tracks or the tracks may be elevated at Roosevelt avenue. Both spots have been bones of contention. Greylock avenue is blocked off by a girder and Silver Lake is also blocked off by the fences.

Carragher—Single Handed Carragher has been a consistent and strenuous protester against both situations and in many cases has fought a single-hand battle with his colleagues to have the situation cared for. Cooperation with him until recently was lacking.

A week or so ago Carragher caused no end of concern when he charged that some of the grade crossings of the Erie appear to be above grade of streets. He says if this is the case it will cost the company "thousands of dollars to remedy things." He intends to further investigate. His idea is to have an engineer check the grades. According to state law, he says, the grades must be the same as the street.

Drill Engine Carragher, Wednesday, with a representative of this paper, inspected the Silver Lake situation and on arrival there found drill engine No. 125 blocking traffic in Franklin street. From 11:13 to 11:20 A. M. the gates were down at Franklin street, halting twenty-two automobiles. From 11:20 to 11:22 the gates were up and from 11:22 to 11:24 they were down again, blocking eighteen automobiles. They went up 11:24 and down again at 11:25 from which time until 11:26, one minute, fifteen stalled cars piled up.

Carragher remarked: "What would happen if an ambulance or fire engine came along?"

Honor Comm. Clark On His Birthday

Commissioner William D. Clark was surprised on his birthday, Saturday, with a party given at his summer home on Lake Glenwild. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Gifford, Mrs. Bessie McCurdy, Mr. Edwin McCurdy, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Berry and daughter, Eleanor, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Harold MacWright, Mr. W. D. Clark, Jr., and Miss Catherine Clark, all of Belleville, Mr. Charles Speed of Pequannock, Miss Lillian Neimeier of Bloomfield, Mr. and Mrs. B. Waltz and Mr. and Mrs. R. Earles of Bloomingdale. Mrs. W. D. Clark, Jr. was unable to be present owing to illness.

Games and dancing were enjoyed by all and refreshments were served at midnight. Mr. Clark was the recipient of many useful gifts.

After the business meeting the Girls' Glee Club of the local high school, under the direction of Miss Indra Bryant, entertained with a few selections. Miss Jean Tallman was at the piano. Miss Tallman also gave two violin solos and Miss Bryant in conclusion rendered a piano solo.

There will be a card party at the club house on Monday afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. Harold Miller will be chairman and she will be assisted by Mrs. Herbert Hardman, Mrs. Ira Cornell, Mrs. W. K. Davey and Mrs. Kreston Peterson. The hostesses for the day will be Mrs. Everett Hicks, Mrs. Fred L. Flohn, Mrs. James Irwin, Mrs. Eugene Gavey and Mrs. Frank Wadsworth.

The Woman's Club has accepted an invitation from Father Fields of St. Peter's Church, to attend the dedication of a memorial to the glory of all the boys of Belleville who have made the supreme sacrifice in the several wars of our nation. The services will be held on the grounds of St. Peter's rectory on Memorial Day, at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. John S. Kirkpatrick would like all the women who are going to assist her on the Salvation Army Drive to meet at the Town Hall to night at 8. There is to be a meeting of all the committees at that time.

When asked for a few remarks about this revival of an innovation that was extremely popular twenty years ago, Exalted Ruler Estell said: "This is only the first of a series of surprises that have been scheduled for the 1929-30 season. Never before have the Elks planned as many social activities in which the general public may participate. The dance starts at 8:30 sharp and if anyone misses this opportunity for a pleasant evening it will be his or her own fault."

It Depends Whose Ox Is Gored

Whether Belleville as a whole will be benefitted by the factory in Belwood Park section is a mooted question. Certainly the immediate owners of homes oppose it and they are the ones most vitally concerned. Personally, we would consider ourselves unfortunate if we lived in Belwood Park—for instance where Mayor Kenworthy does—or even closer to where the factory is proposed. We would prefer, if fortunate enough to be in a position to own a home, to have it and our life savings protected against factory encroachment. This is what Commissioners Waters and Carragher are fighting for.

The factory is being permitted to come into Belwood Park by a three to two vote—just a shade one way—which just as well might have been against. The vote of all is sincere.

Aside from the angle of home owners is another point. Have we forgotten that the Durkin Lumber Company was fined $200 for violating the residential A. zone—actually a stone's throw from where the proposed factory will be? Have we forgotten that Corporation Counsel John B. Brown was paid for appearing in court against Durkin, by order of the town, when Chief Justice Gummere of the Supreme Court upheld our recorder? That cost the town money and cost Durkin money. We must be consistent. Monday his case will be heard in Trenton before the Court of Errors and Appeals.

We believe these fines were in accord with law. But, we can not reconcile ourselves to the belief that it is right to change a zone for a factory, when two people were fined, who if they were permitted to remain would rub elbows with the Keller plant, which is the factory involved.

It would have been an easy matter to change the zone for those fined, as well, if factories and industries were to be permitted in Belwood Park. It will be claimed the town wants to regulate the kind of industry in the section. All well and good, but is a lumber yard any more objectionable than a dye factory?

We think, (and we have always believed in factories as reliable producers) that Durkin and the man who had the repair business have a just cause to feel peeved, especially since the town officials made known that the zone a short time ago was changed to residential from business. The voice of the home owners needs no explanation. It is safe to say how they feel.

Leave It To Micone

Talk about your signs of the times. Perhaps more than a few noticed a sign perched rather conspicuously on top of the Micone Hardware Co. store near Mill street.

During the time of the Newark Commission election, the sign politely but loudly proclaimed the candidacy of one John F. Murray, Jr. Being so near the City line it almost began the sign board publicity in our neighbor's environs.

Well, what was our surprise yesterday morning, but to see a newly painted, neatly lettered sign board, saying, "Re-elected, 40,141. John F. Murray, Jr." That is one side of the story. Driving back into Belleville shortly thereafter, the observer looked upward and saw the mate to the aforesaid sign, and there in letters two feet high there blared out, "Thanks," John F. etc.

BELLEVILLE ELKS TO OPEN SOCIAL SEASON WITH NOVEL AFFAIR TOMORROW EVENING

Belleville Elks will open their social season with a shirt waist dance at the Club House at 8:30 tomorrow evening.

As the clock strikes the half hour the "Everglades Dance Orchestra" will play one of their torrid tropical tunes and the fun will be started. All Elks and their friends have been invited and a very large crowd is expected as every one may dress as cool and unconventionally as they please.

When asked for a few remarks about this revival of an innovation that was extremely popular twenty years ago, Exalted Ruler Estell said: "This is only the first of a series of surprises that have been scheduled for the 1929-30 season. Never before have the Elks planned as many social activities in which the general public may participate. The dance starts at 8:30 sharp and if anyone misses this opportunity for a pleasant evening it will be his or her own fault."

WAY IS PAVED FOR FACTORY IN BELWOOD PARK SECTION

Carragher And Waters Stand Firm To Back Petition Of Home Owners There Who Object To Building

Backing up the desires of Belwood Park residents that their high class residential development be kept such Commissioners Patrick A. Waters and Frank J. Carragher Tuesday night were in the minority when three other members of the board, Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy and Commissioners James Gibson and William D. Clark favored on first reading an ordinance to change a zone in the section from residential to factory.

Mayor Kenworthy told why he favors a factory in Belwood Park. He repulsed former Recorder Samuel Figuerelli when Figuerelli tried to get in a word edgewise that he was only a recorder for a fraction of the time during the regime of an administration the Mayor said was really "under investigation."

The Mayor claimed his innings—and according to the best time pieces in the house, it was twenty minutes to tell the taxpayers why he wants a factory not far from his own backyard, in a section where the homes are on a par with some of the best in town.

Bad, Too, For Some! Said the Mayor: "Belleville is faced with one of two things. We must either bring this town real rates or face annexation to Newark."

Figuerelli last week said Belleville could stand lots of investigation. So the Mayor spoke this week.

He continued, saying ample opportunity had been given citizens to speak and it was his turn. He branded as a "contemptible lie" the statement of a rumor made by a citizen last meeting that a permit already had been issued for the factory. He cited alleged instances where misrepresentations had been made to obtain signers of the opposing petition. Rumors of odors from the factory and use of the word "dye" instead of "die" to describe the industry where "foolly" circulated, he said. In reply to his question, John Lanza, who circulated a petition in the Soho section, said 201 signers favored the factory. About 125 signatures accompanied the opposing petition.

Apartment Not Mentioned "My policy has been to favor proper rates and this I'll continue to follow out. I'm doing everything I can to bring this factory to town," he said. "My own neighbors petition against the factory, but in weighing the matter I'm satisfied the property is suitable for nothing else than a factory and not for any reasonable type of residential development. I favored classing the section as B residential, so as to control the industry that goes in there."

Commissioner Carragher who had a million and one things to do during Tuesday before the storm in the commission room broke said:

"I'm up a tree . . . don't where I'm at. What are we to do? Put the lumber yard? This board accused me of getting a permit for the Durkin Lumber pany in Belwood Park. I did it and I won't put a factory. Look at it in a businesslike way. People don't want a factory."

BROTHER BARNABAS DIES; WAS NOTED BOY WORKER.

Eagle Scouts of Albuquerque, New Mexico, acted as Guards of Honor at the funeral of Brother Barnabas, member of the Christian Brothers, known throughout the world for his work among boys and with the Boy Scouts. Brother Barnabas was one of the holders of the Silver Buffalo Award of the Boy Scouts of America, given for outstanding work to the youth of America.

In addition to his efforts with boys, Brother Barnabas had done extensive work for the Knights of Columbus. He was the founder of the Lincoln Agricultural School at Lincoln, N. Y., and the Phillips home in New York City. During the past five years he was Director of Boy Scouts for the Knights of Columbus and also director of Boys' Life work at the University of Notre Dame and several other universities and colleges of the United States and Canada.

The funeral was held at St. Michael's College at Santa Fe and Brother Barnabas was buried on the grounds of St. Michael's College.

GOOD TURN

An unknown Boy Scout of Philadelphia, Pa., did a real "good turn" recently. When a fire broke out on Water street near Thirteenth street, an unknown Boy Scout left the scene of the fire after rushing into No. 3 Fox Court, wrapping a negro woman who was lying on the floor, her clothes in flames, in a blanket and dragging her to safety.

The woman, Bessie Reed, forty-five, of that address, was taken to the Howard Hospital in a serious condition.

The Scout, after dragging the woman to a place of safety within the house, ran to the street and notified E. Henderson, negro, who succeeded in getting the woman out of the house. In the meanwhile, the Scout ran to a nearby alarm box and sent in the alarm.

MUSEUM FOR TEXAS

A museum of natural Texas history will be one of the feature buildings in the new 256-acre camp of the Fort Worth Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America, located near Fort Worth, Texas. A corps of 400 Scouts from the various Troops in the Council will do the actual construction work on the museum, and will be directed in their activities by two experienced builders. The natural stone with which the building will be constructed will be obtained on the land. The exhibition to be shown at the museum will be collected and mounted by the Boy Scouts.

GOOD TURN

When heavy spring rains made the walk from the Geraldine High School at Geraldine, Montana, impassable this spring, Boy Scouts volunteered their services to school officials and within a few weeks had built a high and wide cinder path from the schoolhouse to the main street, a distance of three blocks.

UNITES FOR FLAG

The old American flag at the Court House Building at Fort Worth, Texas, which was replaced recently by a new flag, was burned with due ceremony by the Boy Scouts of Troop No. 32 of that city.

Eagle Scout William Davis, of Pecan street, was in charge of the ceremony. Scout Davis appeared before the Commissioners and obtained permission to dispose of the flag, since a new one had been ordered by the county for flying on the courthouse dome flag pole. The Scouts were readily given consent to dispose of the flag, and following the instructions of the National Flag Code Committee, they burned it with due ceremony.

TREE PLANTING

5,500 seedling trees were planted at the Boy Scout camps of the Philadelphia Council of the Boy Scouts of America recently. 3,000 were planted at Treasure Island and an additional 2,500 at Camp Kearsley. The 80 boys and leaders who participated in these reforestation projects not only greatly aided the camps and did a worthwhile job, but also earned part of the requirements of the Forestry and Conservation Merit Badges, according to the foresters who supervised the work.

WAR ON DIRT

10,000 posters asking for the cooperation of the residents of the borough of Queens, N. Y. in a "clean-up" campaign throughout the municipality, were distributed by Boy Scouts of that city who are working with Borough President George U. Harvey. The Scouts are working with the municipal officials to make Queens the cleanest borough of New York.

FIGHT FIRES

When a big grass fire broke out in the barrens southeast of Oxford, Pa., recently, Boy Scouts of that city volunteered their services to the Fire Department which was battling blazes in other parts and soon extinguished the flames. They were commended for their work by fire officials.

HAGEN ON GOLF

"The best advice that I can give to the readers of BOYS' LIFE who are beginning the game of golf," says Walter Hagen, the world's greatest professional golfer, "is to start at the beginning and learn every step of the game properly." And in the June BOYS' LIFE, in an interview with Irving Crump, he tells boys where to begin, and gives some valuable hints on the primary steps that must be mastered by the golf aspirant.

Open N. J. Crusade On Enemies Of Bird Life

Methods that helped to materially increase the small game and bird resources of Virginia, through scientific control of predatory enemies, such as hawks, owls, cats and other vermin, are advocated for adoption in New Jersey by the Rev. Noel J. Allen of Fort Humphries, Va., famous in the South as the prophet of game conservation. In recent talks before sportsmen's clubs and in public schools, Mr. Allen, who has been engaged by the New Jersey Fish and Game Commission as a vermin control specialist, declares this state can profit both economically and from the standpoint of sport by an organized campaign to save the valuable birds.

The number and value of birds that protect farm crops from insect pests can be more than doubled and there will be a great increase of game birds that furnish both food and sport, says Mr. Allen, when the hawks and owls and cats are combated as public enemies. He will tour the state in a series of talks on the importance of preservation of useful wild life. Methods of controlling vermin also will be discussed with wardens.

Virginia is recognized as a leader in the movement to control vermin and Mr. Allen had an important part in that crusade. His interesting and educational discussions aroused a wide public interest in a subject therefore largely ignored. His work in Virginia was followed by scientific campaigns successfully conducted in other states.

The Fish and Game Commission has announced that as far as possible in his schedule, Mr. Allen will address Sportsmen's Clubs, Granges, civic clubs, high schools and other organizations in every county in New Jersey. Arrangements for the presentation of Mr. Allen's unique program can be made by organizations through wardens or directly with the commission.

Artificial Manure For The Garden

Most home gardeners find it difficult if not impossible to obtain stable manure to apply to their garden soils. As a result, the organic matter supply of many home gardens is becoming low, which means poor yields and quality in the crops produced.

Is there any substitute for stable manure available to the home gardener? An excellent plan for many people is to make a compost heap of such waste materials as lawn clippings, tree leaves, selected kitchen wastes, garden residues, old hay, straw and similar sources of organic matter. This is a good time of year to start such a compost heap for the next year's supply of artificial manure. As the above named materials, are put on the heap it is a good plan to scatter every week or two a few shovelful of soil on top. It is also a good plan to apply occasionally a few shovelful of lime and a little commercial fertilizer containing nitrogen. The lime and fertilizer hasten the process of decay.

At least two or three months of warm weather should elapse between the completion of the heap and the use of the material as manure. During this period the heap should be forked over at least once so that the materials may become intimately mixed; this process also hastens decay.

Some home gardeners find it desirable to have two or more heaps in various stages of development, thus assuring themselves that the supply of artificial manure will be available at any time of the year it may be needed.

Season Tips On Ornamentals

Prune severely before planting any shrubs that have already started to grow. This warning is necessary because the few days of unprecedented weather in April has advanced the planting season of trees, shrubs and herbaceous perennials.

Many shrubs that have already started to grow are being delivered for planting and when this condition is found, the advisable practice is to cut back much more severely than usual. Such plants are handicapped unless this pruning is done because they have lost a large part of their root systems and the food stored in the remainder of the roots has started to move and to be utilized.

Special For Annuals
In tender annuals, planting should be delayed until May 15, to insure against frost.

The preparation of the soil plays a large part in the success of a garden. This operation should be performed some time in advance of planting, for by digging and then raking for several weeks, the soil will be put in a fine state of tilth and, equally important, many weeds will be killed before they start to grow, thus saving summer work.

In preparing the soil, dig deeply. If manure has not been added every year, fork the soil over, add manure and fertilizer, and spade over again to mix thoroughly. If no manure is available, resort to other forms of organic matter decayed in a compost heap.

If the seedlings of annuals are growing too rapidly, they should be transplanted again, or else be pinched back. This latter practice is advisable with many of the annuals, because it forces branching and the development of bushy plants. Such plants as everlasting, strawflowers, lupins, coxcombs, and others of a similar type of growth, however, should never be pinched back.

Outlines Preventive For Brown Canker Of Roses

How to prevent brown canker, a serious and widespread disease of roses, is explained by Dr. R. P. White, research specialist in ornamentals for the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station, in a statement to floriculturists and home gardeners.

Rose families that are particularly susceptible to attacks of brown can-ker are the Pernetiana, Mybrid Teas, Teas, and Hybrid Perpetuals.

When attacking canes of the rose plants, the disease is characterized by cinnamon-buff-colored cankers which girdle and kill the canes. Then if the diseased canes are not removed, the fungus grows downward to the crown of the plant, and the entire bush is destroyed.

Blossoms in the bud are also attacked and killed, the outer petals turning to a light brown color. Brown spots also may be found on diseased leaves.

"In controlling this disease an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," states Dr. White. "Make sure when buying new bushes that none of the canes show brown cankers, which if found, should be pruned out before the bush is set. If cankers should develop during the season, they too should be promptly removed and destroyed.

"In addition to these precautionary and sanitary measures, rose bushes should be kept thoroughly sprayed early in the season with weekly applications of bordeaux mixture."

Musical Program At High School Assembly

In acknowledgment of National Music Week a musical program of rare entertainment value was arranged by Miss Ina Bryant, head of the High School music department, at Friday morning's high school assembly.

The opening number was a group of three selections, "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes," "Give a Man a Boat," and "O, Mary Don't You Weep," especially well rendered by the High School Boys' Glee Club.

This was followed by a real treat in the person of Jacqueline Storms, a diminutive grammar school pupil, who gave two well-played and pleasing selections on the piano. This was especially well received by the student body.

"Goblins," a delightful musical selection, was next rendered by the High School Orchestra led by Miss Bryant.

The Girls' Glee Club, not to be outdone by the boys, offered "Chiquita," "Daffodils," and "Phodora," in a highly commendable manner and were also well received.

As an extra treat Miss Bryant played a selection by Fritz Kreisler on the piano. It was a splendid effort and worthy of the long applause it evoked.

A vocal solo by Donald Gariss, a pupil from No. 3 School, entitled, "A Brown Bird Singing" by Haydon Wood was then offered. He was at once a hit with the audience and an encore, a bright little piece, "My Shadow," was also heartily approved by the student body.

As a proof of her versatility Miss Bryant followed this with a cornet version of "Mighty Lak a Rose."

In conclusion the High School Orchestra rendered two well played pieces. It was a fitting ending to a well rounded and highly entertaining program.

Checks On Traffic In Nutley Finished

Hawley S. Simpson, traffic expert for Essex County, announced Saturday traffic checks had been completed to learn conditions at three main traffic intersections in Nutley. They were made Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week, to be used in ascertaining whether automatic signal controls should be placed at the intersections.

The checks were made at Franklin avenue and these intersections: Chestnut street, High street and Kingsland road, over a ten-hour period, from 8 A. M. to 6 P. M. The results will not be known until the checkers have completed and compiled their reports.

Mr. Simpson said similar checks would be made in various parts of the county in order to determine whether automatic or manual signals should be placed.

It was stated further that, by use of a new device, it will be possible, by attaching it to an automobile, to determine the number of miles covered, the speed by miles and the seconds consumed. These facts are recorded on a card chart.

By means of this device, he explained it will be possible to learn the average speed on various highways and the time taken to cover certain distances and to exercise better judgment in the timing of automatic signal controls.

State Game Wardens Work In Four Units

In order to more effectively enforce fish and game laws and to promote co-operation in all activities of their department, wardens of the New Jersey Fish and Game Commission have been formed into four divisions, each division to be in charge of an assistant protector. These assistant protectors, who will serve as wardens at large, will have the added duty of supervising the work of wardens in their respective areas. The new arrangement of the force will become effective July 1.

Desire of commissioners to make the wardens one of the crack organizations for game enforcement in the United States is the motive behind the reorganization of the force, as announced by Chief Protector James M. Stratton, New Jersey's game and fish resources are yearly becoming more important, and their conservation through alertness of the wardens, is one of the chief problems of the commission.

Under the new grouping, it will be possible to quickly mobilize wardens when serious violations are reported from any district. The warfare on vermin that prey upon small game and birds will be more energetically pursued and each district will seek more efficient co-operation of sportsmen's club and other organizations interested in fishing and hunting.

The four divisions have been formed with the following assistant protectors in charge:

District No. 1, Harry E. Cudney, Hackensack; comprising counties of Sussex, Hunterdon and Somerset.
District No. 2, Thomas Kelley, Jersey City; Passaic, Morris, Bergen, Essex, Union and Hudson.

District No. 3, Arthur Davison, Belmar; Middlesex, Mercer, Monmouth, Ocean and Burlington.

Warning Sounded By Mills As Regards Many Foreclosures

Candidate For Sheriff Gives Benefit Of His Knowledge To The Public.

Under-Sheriff Rupert F. Mills, who is a candidate for the nomination for Sheriff, to fill the vacancy that will be caused this year by the present Sheriff whose term of office expires, sounded a warning this week to prospective home owners.

"I find," said Mr. Mills, in dealing with this subject, "that many people are attaching to their property, mortgages of various sizes, and as a result in a great many cases, they are unable to carry the burden. In 1928, there were no less than 1,400 Sheriff's deeds given the Sheriff as a result of foreclosures. The total value amounted to $4,926,922.19. This shows an alarming increase over the previous year of over two millions of dollars. It is a matter of simple mathematics to show that the average mortgage, irrespective of whether it was a second or first mortgage, amounted to about $3,500 so that in the main, it was the working man and the 'little fellow' who were hard-hit.

"This information might be taken with little or no anxiety if conditions were on the mend and had righted themselves, but the records of the Sheriff's Office show that if the months of January, February, March and April, are to be taken as a criterion, this record will far exceed that of last years. In memory of present employees, there has been no day that can anywhere near equal the real estate sales made at the Sheriff's Office recently.

"I feel that it is incumbent upon me as public officer and in possession of these facts, to give the benefit of my knowledge to the public of this county. I think that a great good can be done by the employers of salaried men, if they would give the benefit of their experience to their employees who are about to go into real estate transactions. That representatives of labor should confer with men in labor organizations and lay before them an analysis of the situation. I believe that building and loans have the added duty of giving advice to contemplated mortgagees and not merely look upon the transaction from the standpoint of whether or not the property is valuable enough to carry a mortgage."

Old Buildings Fall To Make Way For Police-Fire Structure

The two old landmarks in Chestnut at Warren street, site of the proposed new Police and Fire department building, resounded to the blows of sledges as razing began Tuesday morning. The Social Service Bureau, which has been using the first floor of one of the buildings for offices, moved two weeks ago.

It is planned to start construction on the $115,000 building as soon as the land is cleared. It is expected the new headquarters will be finished by fall.

Plan Demonstration Of Voting Machine

The annual meeting and tea of the Nutley League of Women Voters will be held at Grace Church Parish House, Highfield Lane, Thursday, May 23, at 2:30.

The speaker will be Mrs. L. H. Robbins. There will also be a demonstration of the voting machine.

Pike Fishing Season Opens On May 20

Fresh water anglers of New Jersey are preparing for the celebration of another big holiday of sportdom, when the season for pike, pickerel and pike perch, opens on Monday, May 20. From the dark waters of the streams that rise in the cedar swamps of South Jersey to the clear, cold lakes of northern counties, these fish will be found in quantities sufficient to furnish sport through a long season.

Voracious enough to take the bait under almost any weather conditions, gamey to a degree and with a fine table fish, the pickerel is ever a popular quarry for the angler in this state. It is one of the few fish that seems to hold its own in the streams, despite heavy depletions by anglers, without artificial stockings.

The law protects these fish during a short breeding season and also forbids the taking of pike, pickerel or pike perch less than twelve inches in length, at any time. Fishing for these species and for any other game fish in New Jersey waters is prohibited between 9 o'clock in the evening and daylight.

This evening he will address the Rotary Club.

Six Fined

Six were fined by Recorder William Smith in Nutley Monday night for disorderly conduct. Rocco Corbo, 47 Glenridge avenue; Daniel Pennisi, 81 Glenridge avenue; and Joseph Piccolo, 5 Clover Hill place, all of Montclair, were fined $10 each and Louis Buckhard, 71 Spring street, and Kurt Bloss, 18 Ackerman street, both of Nutley, and Otto Zinich of Olzeogoe street, Verona, were fined $5 each.

A complaint of disorderly conduct against Jules Ferris, constable, of 489 Nye avenue, Irvington, was dismissed when Mrs. Marie Nelson of 276 Harrison street, complainant, did not appear. In her complaint she alleged Ferris struck her when he went to her home to seize furniture.

FRIENDLY FEELING EXISTS AS BOARD ENTERS SECOND YEAR

Commissioners Exchange Well Wishes And Exchange Bouquets At Regular Meeting Tuesday.

HONORED BY COLLEAGUES

If anyone thinks Nutley commissioners have any feelings toward each other the skeptical ones should attend board meetings.

Tuesday night Director of Revenue and Finance Raleigh S. Rife called attention to the fact that yesterday represented the first anniversary of this commission. He also praised Director of Streets and Public Improvements Charles Sherwood for having the pictures of the mayors under commission government placed above Mayor Ernest P. Cook's place in the commission chamber.

"And I notice our present Mayor has had the longest term of office under commission government," added Mr. Rife.

Mr. Cook has served two terms, earning in the last election the honor of sweeping ahead of a large field of capable candidates.

The board members congratulated each other and extended well wishes for good health for the coming year. Cognizant of the good work done during the year, this paper takes the opportunity to also extend its well wishes, inasmuch as it played a small part in the election of the present board.

A resolution authorizing lease of 1,500,000 gallons of Nutley's capacity in the Passaic Valley Sewer to Hawthorne was adopted. The contract, revised after negotiations extending through two years, provides a rental fee of $75,000 a year. The original contract provided for an outright sale. It was cancelled by Nutley.

Two ordinances, providing for installation of six-inch water mains in Sherwood place and Willow place at a cost of $2,000 and construction of sidewalks, curbs and pavements in those streets at an estimated cost of $11,000, were passed for hearings May 28.

Commissioner Sherwood reported investigation of an assessment for grading Raymond avenue showed it included legal charges for damages to be paid by the town at large. Hearing on the assessment was held over last week pending decision of the question, raised by a property owner. The assessment was referred for collection.

Fight

Objection of Joseph Ruzzo, a junk dealer of 284 North Belmont avenue, Silver Lake section of Belleville, to his daughter keeping company with the son of John Pravata, a baker of 276 North Belmont avenue, culminated in a fight between the fathers. The former was fined $10 by Recorder Fitzsimmons on a charge of assault and battery preferred by the latter.

Belleville Babies Demonstrated At Orange Hospital

Child Hygiene Nurses Took Them There As District
Program

Dr. Julius Levy, director of the State Bureau of Child Hygiene, Trenton, gave a lecture to the student nurses of Orange Memorial Hospital, Friday.

The Belleville nurses were asked to bring babies of different ages from their district for demonstration, that had been supervised and found to be up to the normal standard. After demonstrating to the nurses the development of a normal baby Dr. Levy also showed them a baby which had not had sunlight and proper nutrition, thereby developing a severe case of rickets. The babies used for demonstrating were: Cecelia Grace Hanley, three months; Ruth Carswell, eight months; Alvin Outcalt, one year; Elizabeth Manning, eighteen months and Myrtle Could, three years.

Fingers Serve As Gun To Thwart Thief

Two fingers poked in his ribs in the dark Sunday morning were the undoing of Alfred Reinhardt, twenty-two, of Buffalo, who thought he felt a revolver and raised his hands. Leon J. Nightingale of 138 Joramoon street, who improvised the "weapon," held the young man until police arrived. He was arrested on a charge of petty larceny, accused by Nightingale of pilfering automobile accessories, and was sentenced to a year in the county penitentiary by Recorder Fitzsimmons, Monday.

Nightingale said he had been playing cards at the home of Charles Porter of 615 Belleville avenue. While walking across the lawn to his car he saw Reinhardt. The arrest was made by Patrolmen Spatz and Demgard.

On Reinhardt's person were found two motor meters, a vaporizer, a rule, two cans of paint and an empty purse. He formerly boarded in Belleville. He was sentenced the first of the year to ten days in jail for stealing candy from a truck at night.

The Worst Lawn Pest

Crab grass causes more "crabbing" among those who would have beautiful lawns than any other weed. If you have noticed a low, 6 to 13 inch weed of a creeping habit of growth, and with reddish stems, covered with fine hairs, you have this worst of lawn pests. The flowering spikelets are 3 to 6 in number and resemble the outspread hand with fingers pointing up at angles. (Often called "finger grass").

For control methods, never allow the plant to go to seed and if this is done you can eradicate the weed in two years. Before mowing, rake it up so the mower cuts it off. At first rake it up two or three times and mow it after each raking. Grass seed and a bit of soil used in the worst spots will tend to establish a thick turf in its stead. Well grown, thickly seeded grass will keep any weed down.

Many weed destroying chemicals can be used effectively to kill all vegetation on certain spots. Reseeding is then necessary. Another use made of the destroyers is to squirt a few drops on the root stocks of plantain and dandelion after cutting them off. Still another use is for keeping weeds and grass out of walks and driveways. A bulletin on "Better Lawns" can be had free by telephoning County Agent, R. E. Harman, Caldwell 572 at the County Extension Service.

Edward A. Lay

Funeral services for Edward Ashcraft Lay of 404 Union avenue who died at his home Tuesday morning after an illness of several months, were held yesterday afternoon at the Funeral Home of William V. Irvine, 276 Washington avenue. Burial was in Christ Church Cemetery.

Born eighty-three years ago at Lime, Conn., Mr. Lay was of the family which originally settled that town. He lived in New York City many years, where he worked for the Central Cigar Manufacturing Company, and moved to Belleville fifteen years ago when he retired.

He leaves one son, James Edward Lay of the Union avenue address.

REVERSE THE PROCESS

President Hoover recently declared that the solution of the problem of law enforcement was more vital to the preservation of American institutions than any other question. All crime, from murder to forgery, he said had increased in the United States to the point where life and property were relatively more unsafe than in any other civilized country in the world. We are not suffering from an ephemeral crime wave but from a subsidence of our foundations," he said.

"A surprising number of our people, otherwise of responsibility in the community, have drifted into the extraordinary notion that laws are made for those who choose to obey them. And in addition, our law enforcement machinery is suffering from many infirmities arising out of its technicalities, its circumlocutions, its involved procedures, and too often, I regret, from inefficient and delinquent officials.

"What we are facing today is * * * the possibility that respect for law is fading from the sensibilities of our people. Whatever the value of any law may be, the enforcement of that law written in plain terms upon our statute books is not, in my mind, a debatable question. Law should be observed and must be enforced until it is repealed by the proper processes of our democracy. The duty to enforce the law rests upon every public official and the duty to obey it rests upon every citizen."

President Hoover is right. The remedy is not in the passage of more legislation further restricting law-abiding citizens on the theory that this will curb the crook. Each new law passed makes more law-breakers and less enforcement.

We must reverse the process and have more enforcement and less legislation if we would reduce crime and create respect for law.

A DANGEROUS INSECT

President Hoover has signed the bill transferring $4,250,000 from the $6,000,000 appropriated last year for the purpose of fighting the Texas boll weevil, to a new fund to help Florida in its battles with a far more insidious and dangerous insect foe, the Mediterranean fruit fly. It has been announced at the White House that agents of the Department of Agriculture are already on their way to Florida to take charge of the fight against the pest.

The fruit fly is the most pernicious little "critter" that grows. It is hardly larger than a flea, but the damage it can do to citrus fruit is incalculable. If it is not checked it threatens to destroy the State's orange and grapefruit orchards. It has already got in its baleful work on grapefruit in four Florida counties near Ormond. We of the North, who regard Florida grapefruit as the best in the world, have some interest in that.

Like most of our insect pests, the fruit fly is a foreigner. How he got into the country is a mystery. The theory that he arrived in the straw that surrounded bootleg liquor is a bit fantastic.

TAXES IN 1940?

Fair taxes stimulate progress, high taxes result in inertia and retrogression.

At the present time a large part of the European powers are struggling under a burden of debt that saddles business and the citizen with a terrible weight of taxes. We, in the United States, can observe and learn.

It is an unquestioned fact that the cost of government, particularly state, county and municipal, has been on the up-grade. Part of this can be laid to the cost of needed improvements and unavoidable expenditures; part also is due to too zealous an ambition which has resulted in large bond issues for public luxuries.

American citizens might do well to consider what the total tax bill will be ten years hence if it continues to increase as fast as it has in the past few years.

STILL ROOM ENOUGH

We often hear gloomy prophecies about the immediate future because the world will be so densely settled that there will hardly be room enough to turn around. In this connection, it is worth while to note that one of the balloons in the race just recently ended came down in the Adirondacks.

The two airmen took 36 hours to find a settlement. And this was in New York, one of the most thickly populated sections of the globe.

Automobilists indeed who drive through Rhode Island, which has more inhabitants per square mile than any other State, see more farm and wooded land than closely built city street. Sometime the earth will be overpopulated, but it does not seem exactly imminent.

GET ADVICE, NOT "TIPS"

When you buy a $500 town lot you demand an abstract and have a lawyer examine to see that the title is clear and you are safe in making the investment.

When you buy $500 bonds or stock the common practice is to pay money on a "hunch" or on a "tip."

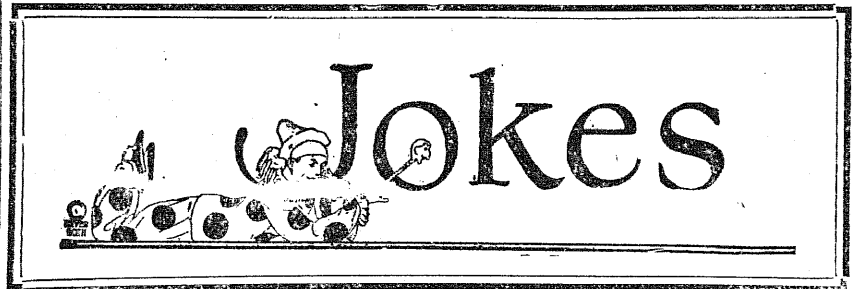

Sound investments can be made on the advice of investment bankers brokers who are members of leading stock exchanges.

Why not show the same good judgment in making such a security purchase that you would in buying a piece of land?

NOISE AND SILENCE

It all depends upon what you are used to. Mr. and Mrs. Claude B. Tidd, who live 400 miles from the nearest settlement in the Canadian wilderness, went home in a hurry, after a brief visit to New York. They wanted to get some sleep and found it impossible in the noisy city.

But put a New York couple in the Tidd house and they could not sleep. The silence would keep them awake. The unaccustomed sounds of wind in the trees and the river rushing along would make sleep impossible. Most of us can get used to almost anything except violent change.

Waitress—"You look a w f u l l y sleepy, son. What's wrong?"
 Frosh—"Somebody told me if I waited in front of Cornwell Hall, I'd hear the college yell; and it didn't say a word all night."—Temple Owl.

Mrs. Alden was about to engage a new servant-girl. "And do you have to be called in the morning?" she asked the applicant.
 "I don't have to be, mum," the girl replied, "unless you happen to need me."

Hootmon who lives in Chicago, was standing in front of his auto giving his chauffeur directions when a shot rang out and struck the chauffeur in the leg. "Highland imps," ejaculated the Scotchman, "that was a narrow escape. It might have punctured a tire."

Laundry Clerk—"You say a shirt is missing. What were the laundry marks?"
 Customer—"Frayed collar and cuffs and two holes burnt in the back!"

"Strange," said the first tramp meditatively, "how few of our youthful dreams ever come true!" "Oh, I dunno," said his companion; "I remember I used to dream about wearing long pants and now I guess I wear 'em longer than any one else in the country."

Farmer—"Be this the Woman's Exchange?"
 Woman—"Yes."
 Farmer—"Be ye the woman?"
 Woman—"Yes."
 Farmer—"Well, then, I think I'll keep Maggie."

"Mr. Jiggers," asked the professor in the freshman class, "what three words are used most among college students?" "I don't know," said the student. "Correct," replied the professor.

Little Boy—"Mother, wasn't that a funny dream I had last night—Mother—How in the world should I know anything about your dream? You were in it."
 Little Boy—"Well, you ought to. You were in it."

Bill Planer, the village carpenter, had given so generously of his time and services in building the little memorial church, that it was decided to allow him to speak at the dedication exercises. Bill hated to do it, but he also hated to offend his friends, so he made a try. "Ladies and gentlemen," he stammered. "I realize I am a good deal better fitted for the scaffold than for public speaking—" Then, amid roars of laughter, he sat down.

Here and There

"In the spring a young man's fancy" etc. After strolling through the parks, these beautiful spring days, we are convinced that young men's fancies (and older men's too) turn to the making of other things than love. In fact we are forced to believe that they are gathering the vital ingredients of Whoopee Water.

It is no longer necessary for a man to wear horn-rimmed spectacles and a flowing tie in order to be regarded as a nature lover. If you hear bottles popping in his cellar in the fall, you know that he was interested in flowers, especially dandelions, in the spring.
 The day has passed when kids regarded a shabbily dressed man with a bag over his shoulders as the "Boggy Man." They now speak of him as "Pop, old gathering the makins."

And then there's the timid soul who gathers leaves and all, so the neighbors will think it's going to be used for salad.
 The flowers that bloom in the spring, tra-la,
 Is a very peculiar thing, tra-la.
 Just fill up a keg,
 Next fall draw the peg,
 One drink, and you're ready to sing, tra-la.

We want to take this opportunity to congratulate the new national heroine who has sprung up in our midst. We mean that brave woman of South Jersey who had enough courage to shoot an embryonic musician who insisted on practicing in the evening. If the truth were known, a great many of us, at some time or other, had the urge to commit a similar deed, but never had enough nerve.

If this report is circulated widely enough among saxophone players, it may result in more livable apartment houses and more enjoyable radio programs.

"Commission Candidate Is Threatened by Baths Superintendent."—Headline in Newark Star-Eagle. This sounds like another one of "Jeff" Burkitt's methods of cleaning up politics.

Since the recent canary robbery in Maplewood, we have heard of several otherwise cautious husbands, who are leaving their windows unlocked at night in hopes that some morning they will find their wife's pet parrot gone.

Great thing, this advertising business. College professors and clergymen are now endorsing cigarettes. It is not so long ago when cigarette smoking was considered the pastime of rowdies and gangsters.

An Argument For "Drys"
 Judging from the ever increasing number of licenses being revoked because of drunken driving, we can at least thank prohibition for aiding in relieving congested traffic conditions in the city.

"Mrs. Warder Dies, Waiting Bank Probe."—headline in Newark Ledger. We wonder how many people have died so far waiting for a probe into the Rothstein case.

"Will exchange valuable shore property for good automobile."—advertisement in Newark Ledger. This property was evidently bought on a salesman's description. If so, we can't blame the owner for wanting to get away from it.

Today's Puzzle.
 An article recently appeared in the Newark Star-Eagle in regard to the numerous letters Mr. Edison has received in response to his quest for somebody to carry on his work. The last paragraph of this article reads as follows:—"Ninety percent of the writers have been advised to take the matter up with their respective school board. Dr. Clayton A. Mentzer pronounced Beyers under influence of liquor and unfit to operate a motor vehicle." Figure it out for yourself, we give up.

A smile is contagious. Let's start an epidemic.

Citizen Cites

A debt of gratitude is generally the hardest kind to collect.

The actions of a father frequently speak louder than words to his son.

Experience often broadens a man's views at the expense of his pocket book.

There are no shade trees and hammocks along the road to success.

You must have faith in yourself before you can inspire faith in others.

A new broom may sweep clean, but it always wears out.

It takes a good mixer to scatter seeds of kindness while sowing a crop of wild oats.

Enough is as good as a feast, but the average man wants a surplus.

Some people get rich on nothing, while others keep poor on plenty.

The woman who knows just how to manage a husband is the woman who never had one.

Heaven won't seem like home to some of us unless there is something to kick about.

The person who buys popularity generally gets stuck.

It is not always the most staid people who have the most staying power.

Blessings come disguised. Most of us get what we deserve without recognizing it.

Many a man burned his bridges behind him, only to swim back.

The friends you buy are never worth the price.

In their frantic efforts to make both ends meet some people break in the middle.

Practice make some people perfect and drives their neighbors crazy.

Only an ignorant man will lock the door of his mind against reason and throw away the key.

A kitchen mechanic is one who is good at opening cans.

If a man would only pay his bills as promptly as he pays his grudges his credit would be better.

Another good way to retain your faith in you fellowman is to make him sign on the dotted line.

Stop Snapdragon Rust With Resistant Varieties

Snapdragon rust, a serious disease which often dwarfs and frequently kills plants growing outdoors, may be avoided by planting rust-resistant varieties.

The list of resistant varieties includes Queen of the North, Pure White, Rose Dore, Giant White, Crimson, Giant Blood Red, Giant Yellow, Striped Varieties, Phelps White, White Queen Victoria, Fire Brand and Mont Blanc.

Varieties of snapdragons to be avoided because they are especially susceptible to rust are Half Dwarf, Rose Queen, Fiery Belt, Crimson Queen Victoria, Ruby, Carer's Pink, Delicate Rose, Dwarf Golden Queen, Sulphur Yellow, and Venus.

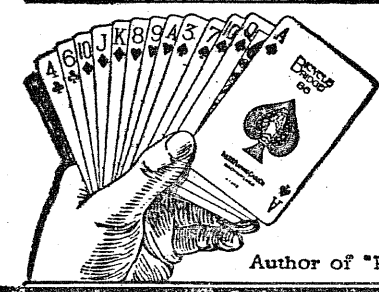

This rust disease is limited to snapdragons and it is not the same rust that occurs on asters, iris, and other garden plants. It attacks both stems and leaves, causing dark brown dusty spots at the point of infection. These dusty masses are made up of thousands of small seeds or pores of the rust fungus, which are disseminated by use of infected cuttings, wind, water, and insects.

Precautions To Take

Never syringe or spray the plants with a hose if this disease is present. The droplets of water forced under pressure from a nozzle to the plants, when hitting one of the dry spore masses, will scatter the spores over a wide area. When watering is necessary, use a hose and allow the water to run slowly over the bed rather than spraying it on the plants. Insects must be controlled as they often disseminate the infection.

How to Play BRIDGE

Series 1928-29 by
Wynne Ferguson

Author of "PRACTICAL AUCTION BRIDGE"

ARTICLE No. 21

Good "Card Manners" should be cultivated by every card player, not only because they make the game more pleasant but also because they are a winning proposition. A player has a much better chance to win with a partner who is satisfied and happy than with one who is upset by constant and unpleasant criticism. Try it out and you will be surprised at the good results.

One player in particular of the writer's acquaintance has perfect card manners: He makes every bid in the same even tone of voice (how often players improperly convey a meaning by making a bid emphatically or hesitatingly!) He never hesitates in playing a card with the object of making the opponents think that he has something in his hand which actually is not there; and if he has a bad partner, he seeks every opportunity of congratulating him on a correct piece of play and never refers to errors. Thereby he gets the best out of the bad partner. Cultivate good card manners and you will automatically increase your winnings.

In the preceding article twelve problem hands that appeared in an English competition were given for the reader to decide upon the proper bids. The hands were as follows:

Z is always the dealer and the other players are sitting around the table as follows:

Y
Z

PRIZE HANDS

1. A B one game; Z Y 8 and A B 10 in second game. Where the bidding was: Z, "One No-Trump"; A, "No Bid"; Y, "Two Diamonds"; B, "Two Spades"; Z, "Two No-Trumps"; A, "Three Spades"; Y and B, "No Bid", what should Z say, holding Spades, K, 7; Hearts, K, 8, 6, 4; Diamonds, A; Clubs, A, K, Q, J, 10, 5?

2. Z Y one game; Z Y nil and A B 24 in second game. What should Z bid, holding Spades, K, 2; Hearts, K, 6; Diamonds, 4, 2; Clubs, A, K, Q, J, 10, 5, 4?

3. Z Y 24 and A B 27 in rubber game. Z bids "One No-Trump"; A, "Two Diamonds"; Y, "Three Clubs"; B, "Three Hearts"; Z, "Four Clubs"; A, "Four Hearts". What should Y now say, holding Spades, 9, 8, 7; Hearts, 7; Diamonds, 6; Clubs, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2?

4. At love all in first game, what should Z bid, holding Spades, 9, 8; Hearts, Q, 10, 6; Diamonds, A, K, Q, 10; Clubs, A, K, 2, J?

5. Z Y one game, Z Y nil and A B 27 in second game. Where Z bid "One Diamond" and A "No Bid", what should Y say holding Spades, A, K, 6, 2; Hearts, A, Q, Diamonds, Q, 10, 7, 6, 5, 3; Clubs, K?

6. At love all in rubber game, where the bidding was, Z, "One Diamond"; A, "No Bid"; Y, "Three Hearts"; B, "Four Clubs"; Z, "Four Hearts"; A, "Five Clubs"; Y, "Five Hearts"; what should B now say, holding Spades, Q, J, 10, 6, 4; Hearts, 8; Diamonds, 6; Clubs, A, K, J, 10, 7, 6?

8. At love all in rubber game, what should Z bid, holding Spades, A, K; Hearts, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3; Diamonds, K, J, 10, 5; Clubs, 10?

9. A B one game; no score in second game. Where Z bids "One Club" and A doubles, what should Y say, holding Spades, A, 7, 6, 4; Hearts, K, 5; Diamonds, Q; Clubs, Q, J, 7, 6, 5, 3?

10. Z Y 18, A B nil in rubber game. Z bids "One Spade" and A "Two Hearts". What should Y say, holding Spades, none; Hearts, Q, 10, 6, 5, 2; Diamonds, A, K, 7, 4, 3; Clubs, A, 8, 5?

11. At love all in rubber game, where Z bids "One No-Trump", what should A say, holding Spades, Q, J, 10, 6; Hearts, K; Diamonds, A, 4; Clubs, A, Q, 10, 9, 6, 3?

12. Z Y 28, A B nil in rubber game. What should Z bid, holding Spades, 4; Hearts, K, J, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 2; Diamonds, 6, 3; Clubs, 4?

The decision of the English judges, all experts as to the proper bid in each hand is as follows:

1. "Three No-Trumps."
2. "One No-Trump."
3. "No Bid."
4. "One No-Trump."
5. "No Bid."
6. "No Bid."
7. "Five Spades."
8. "No Bid."
9. "Four Clubs."
10. "Double."
11. "No Bid."
12. "Three Hearts."

The majority vote of the English contestants as to the proper bid with the foregoing hands, is as follows:

Bid Percentage
1. "Three No-Trumps." 55
2. "Three Clubs." 28
3. "No Bid." 51
4. "One No-Trump." 44
5. "One No-Trump." 25
6. "Two Spades." 28
7. "No Bid." 45
8. "No Bid." 65
9. "Three Clubs." 32
10. "Double." 35
11. "Two Clubs." 30
12. "Three Hearts." 51

The writer agrees with the vote of the English judges in all the hands except three. In Hand No. 3, the writer would bid five clubs over four hearts. Y's hand is hopeless as a trick taker except with clubs as trumps and it looks like a sure loss of game and rubber at the four heart bid. If A B should bid five hearts and Z should double, Y should pass and hope that Z can take three tricks.

With Hand No. 8, the writer would bid one heart. The hand contains so many top cards that there is a danger of it being passed out by the other three players if Z passes.

With Hand No. 12, the writer would pass. There is sure to be a bid on this hand and therefore a second chance for Z to show his heart suit. It is a very dangerous hand with which to bid three hearts. The opponents are almost sure to bid and, if the partner helps the heart bid, Y Z may lose a big penalty. It seems much better tactics to pass with this hand on the first round and await developments.

Severely infected plants should be destroyed by burning. Early in the season, before the plants have reached the blooming stage, they should be dusted regularly with dusting sulfur. This will prevent rust from getting an early foothold, which would serve as the center for a later and more serious infection. Sulfur cannot be used after plants start flowering due to the danger of injury to the bloom.

GOOD OR BAD?

What kind of results do you get from the coal you are now burning—satisfactory or the reverse? Nutley A. C. Downs Benedict Nine

The Nutley A. C. engaged in an exhibition tilt with the St. Benedict Catholic Club nine and emerged victorious, 8-2, last week. The Saints represent Newark in the suburban league.

The locals played sterling ball and showed plenty of stuff. The losers tallied twice in the first inning on two hits, but did not see home plate for the rest of the contest. Barbata tied the tally with a home run in the second frame and in the fifth and sixth the locals' bats rang off and loud to tally six runs.

The game was cut short at the end of the sixth by a downpour of rain. Rohrer pitched a steady game, allowing four hits and never being in any difficulty after the first frame. Kelley, Kappler and Barbata were the clouting luminaries for the locals while Jack Bauman turned in a stellar game at the key stone sack. Hen Wilhelm batted best for the losers.

Motor Boat Exhibit At Lake Mohawk

From noon May 18 until 2 o'clock May 30, a motorboat exhibit will be open to the public at the clubhouse of the Lake Mohawk Country Club, Sparta. All types of lake craft, racing boats, sail boats and canoes will be shown, with an additional display of the latest models of the leading types of outboard motors. Among the exhibitors will be the Berry Hardware Company of Dover who will feature the new Dee White Lake Cruiser, Old Town boats and canoes, Boyd Martin racing boats, Penn Yan sail boats and Johnson motors. Hockenjos and Hockenjos of Lake Hopatcong will feature the well-known Baby Whale Craft, Sea Sled and new model Evinrude motor. Arthur Dillon of Ridgewood will represent the Geswein Boat Corporation of Brooklyn and display the new Thoroughbred Watercraft, inboard and outboard. Barnes Brothers of Mt. Arlington will exhibit The Dodge Water Car and Carl Bush of Newark the Thompson Boat and Lockwood Motor. Several of the exhibitors are arranging for demonstrations on Lake Mohawk during the two weeks of display.

The clubhouse will be open from 2 until 4 P. M. week days and all day Saturdays and Sundays. This represents the first effort to gather the different agencies together at a place where the boats can be shown to the best advantage to those most interested—the connoisseurs of our North Jersey lake resorts.

Outboard racing has come into nationwide popularity within the last few years and this exhibit is to lead into a motorboat regatta and series or races on Lake Mohawk, Decoration Day in which the public can see the boats in action. A number of prizes will be offered by the Lake Mohawk Country Club for both amateur and free-for-all events. Harry M. Wildauer of East Orange is Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements for the Lake Mohawk Country Club and W. Leo West, care of Birch & Birch, Dover, will handle applications for the races.

The Lake Mohawk Country Club on the Lakeside Promenade offers an ideal setting for an exhibit of this kind and there is room for the parking of hundreds of cars in the Lake Plaza.

TUSCARORA CANOE CLUB PLANS MANY EVENTS THIS SEASON

Clifford W. Zeliff Has Been Appointed By Commodore Jules Brandmaier As "Spring Frolic" Chairman

Many events are being planned by the Tuscarora Canoe Club for the coming season. This evening, a public card party will be held at the club house, 230 Main street, and a large turn out is anticipated. Games will start at 8:30 o'clock and at the close refreshments will be served. The committee is in charge of Percy Pearce, while the following members will assist him: Theodore Peiter, Stanley Nelson and Russell Holmes.

Spring Frolic Plans
Clifford W. Zeliff has been appointed by Commodore Jules Brandmaier to serve as chairman of the "Spring Frolic" committee. The event will run for a week, starting on Monday evening, May 27, and ending on Saturday night, June 1. The grounds adjoining the club house are being put into condition for the many feature amusements and for the accommodation of one of the largest gatherings that ever turned out in the town.

Chairman Zeliff who managed a similar affair so successfully many years ago has many surprises in store. There will be a special feature each evening and a popularity contest which will interest everyone in the town whether young or old, a great midway elaborately decorated, the usual rides for the kiddies and many other attractions. Efforts are being made to have Mayor Samuel Kenworthy, Congressman Fred L. Hartley, Jr., and several other prominent officials share the honors of opening the big frolic.

The regatta committee will be headed by Charles K. Emmons, and several sets of races are being considered. A committee from the Nereid Boat Club will hold a joint meeting with the paddlers and combine in their efforts to put across a regatta which will surpass any that has ever been staged on the Passaic River. Due to the "Tusksies" holding the National Championship last year, it was impossible to repeat this season, but never the less a large delegation that competed here last year will again put in an appearance.

Novelty Regatta
A novelty regatta and many other features have been considered but no dates have been set. Several members of the crew have been out on the river throughout the winter and are in good shape. A general call for the remainder will be made this month. The club has room for many junior members and a drive will be started in the near future to get them interested.

SPARKS CIRCUS IN MONTCLAIR

The circus, the name of which is a household word in the United States and Canada, and now the largest giving a daily street parade, will exhibit in Montclair on Monday, May 27. It's Sparks Circus, one of the oldest and best. Enlarged in every department this season, carrying eight hundred people, five hundred horses, and the largest collection of trained wild animals in the world it will surely exhibit in Montclair on the above date.

Among the outstanding features of Sparks Circus this season is the Nelson Family, the world's premier acrobats, seven in number. The three herds of elephants, all being handled by ladies, under the careful guidance of their trainer, Walter McLain. Sixty laugh producers headed by America's foremost clown, Paul Wenzel, will see that you have plenty of laughs during the performance.

Other great features include among the many, Mlle. Rosina, the world's most daring high wire artist; Madame Harriette, Guilfoyle and her leopards and Franz Woska and his tigers. Flora Bedini and Walter Guice troupe of riders furnish the sensational riding acts. Carlos and Etta Carreon handle the manege and high school horses, and the Sparks' rotation horses, sixteen in number. The performance concludes with a gorgeous spectacle, "Lily of the Nile," featuring Alice Sohn, Prima Donna, and George Sohn, Concert tenor.

Don't forget the date, Monday, May 27.

New Members Named To Fish And Game Board

Increase in membership of the Board of Fish and Game Commissioners from seven to nine members was an important feature of fish and game legislation at the session of the Legislature that closed this month. Eleven fish and game bills, in all, were passed and signed by Governor Larson.

The statute increasing membership was designed to give South Jersey more equitable representation on the commission. Benjamin W. Cooper, of Moorestown and George S. McCarty of Newfield, were appointed by the Governor to the new posts.

The new fish and game laws are as follows:

Assembly No. 6.—Reduces daily bag limit on woodcock from 6 to 4, from 50 to 25 and Wilson snipe from 25 to 20, to conform to Federal Regulations.

Assembly No. 7.—Makes close season on female English or ringneck pheasants until April 1, 1934.

Assembly No. 8.—Fixes the season on woodcock from October 15 to November 14, both dates inclusive, instead of from October 1 to November 30; also closes season on greater and lesser yellow legs, to conform to Federal Regulations.

Assembly No. 9.—Makes a close season on wild turkey until April 1, 1932.

Assembly No. 248.—Makes optional with the Board of Fish and Game Commissioners the wiring and posting of signs on game refuges leased by the Board.

Assembly No. 57.—Provides for the issuing of a special license to hunt woodcock from October 15 to November 9.

Assembly No. 244.—Makes a close season on ruffed grouse for one year in Warren, Sussex, Morris, Passaic and Bergen counties.

Senate No. 112.—Repeals the act prohibiting the taking of eels in the seaside creeks, bays and thoroughfares, including Tuckahoe river and its tributaries in the township of Dennis and Upper, in the County of Cape May, with any fyke, pot, net or seine from August 1 to December 1st.

Senate No. 115.—Increases the Board of Fish and Game Commissioners from 7 to 9 members.

Senate No. 245.—Authorizes the Board of Fish and Game Commissioners to issue licenses for vessels to take fish other than menhaden in the Atlantic Ocean with shrimpers and purse seines, otter or beam trawls, at a distance beyond 2 miles from the coast line. License fee $50. Penalty for violation $1,000. Menhaden licenses to be taken out hereafter.

Assembly No. 419.—Prohibits the sale of any black or Oswego bass, except for propagating purposes, and prohibits their importation into or exportation from the State for commercial purposes.

The Big Game

It was baseball season. The game opened with "Glue" at the stick and "Measles" catching. "Cigar" was in the box. "Shortcake" played short and "Corn" was in the field. "Cabbage" was manager because he was a good head. "Egg" was umpire and he was bad. "Songs" made a hit and "Sawdust" filled the bases. Then "Soap" cleaned up. "Cigar" went out and "Balloon" started to pitch, but he went up in the air. "Ice" went in and kept cool until he was hit by a ball; then you should have heard "Ice Cream." "Lunatic" was put out because he was off his base. "Lightning" finished the game by striking six men out.

BELLEVILLE HIGH DEFEATS WOODROW WILSON TEAM

In a close game Belleville defeated Woodrow Wilson High School at Weehawken, last Friday, 4-3.

The game was a pitcher's duel with Bonavita, Blue and Gold pitcher yielding but two hits. The feature of the game was a long home run by "Mac" Lamb with one man on base in the fifth inning. Hickey, pitching for the home boys, hurled a good game, but Belleville got all their hits at opportune times.

Byrnes started the game well for Belleville with a long triple to deep left field. He later scored on Bonavita's double.

From then on to the fifth inning the pitchers were supreme, no runs being allowed either side. In Belleville's half of the fifth, Byrnes drew a pass and scored ahead of Lamb on the latter's homer, a beautiful drive far over the center fielder's head. This left the score 3-0 in Belleville's favor.

In their half of the fifth Weehawken scored their first tally without the aid of a hit. Two passes, a stolen base, and a wild heave by N. Bonavita, Blue and Gold catcher, accounted for this marker.

Belleville added another run to its total in the sixth and later events proved it to be the winning marker. In this inning Fornorotto led off with a single to right field, stole second and tallied on Byrnes' single.

Weehawken tallied twice in the sixth when Baycich walked and Hammer reached first on an error sending Baycich to second. Baycich stole third on this play. Bonavita next walked Bauer. On an attempted double steal Bauer was tagged out stealing second but Hammer scored. Goetz, the last man up then tried to sacrifice, but he hit into an easy double play, J. Bonavita to Byrnes ending the inning.

Belleville failed to score in their half of the seventh inning. In Weehawken's half with one man on first base and one out, Hickey, the loser's pitcher came up to bat with a "do or die" expression. He then proceeded to hit a long drive to deep left center that looked good for two bases at least, but Fornorotto, Blue and Gold center fielder was off at the crack of the bat and after a long run made a sensational one hand catch. He then relayed the ball to Lamb who threw it to McCarthy. Belleville's first sacker, in time to double up the runner on first base who had thought it a sure hit. It was a fitting ending to a close, exciting game.

Bell-Nuts Nose Out St. Anthony's Team

In a game marked by fine pitching the Bell-Nuts handed the St. Anthony's their first defeat of the season on Thursday, 3-2.

Giordano, on the mound for the St. Anthony's nine, allowed the winners but four hits, but they were bunched in the first three innings to permit the Bell-Nuts to score all their tallies. Moniot, the Bell-Nuts hurler, permitted six hits off his delivery but he kept them well scattered.

The game, which lasted but six innings because of darkness, was a nip and tuck battle from the beginning with the Bell-Nuts' early lead the deciding factor. "Artie" Lamb, Bell-Nut center fielder, was the individual star of the fray with a beautiful running catch in the outfield and a long clout to center field good for a triple. His work in the league thus far has been nothing short of sensational and should easily earn him a berth on the all-star team when it is organized.

In the third inning, Raddy, the St. Anthony's catcher was injured and forced to retire from the game. Gentello, St. Anthony's heavy hitting first sacker, again led the "Saints" attack with a pair of clean drives.

In each of the first three innings the Bell-Nuts scored single tallies while holding their opponents to one run. Although the St. Anthony nine rallied in the fifth to score their second and final run. The early scoring of the Bell-Nuts was too much to overcome and they suffered their first league defeat by virtue of it.

Balltossers Win

The baseball team of the First National Bank, playing steadily behind the excellent pitching of Dingle, administered a 14 to 5 defeat to the team representing the Franklin-Hamilton Trust Co. of Newark Wednesday.

The game was a twilight affair, played at Hillside Park. Dingle pitched an excellent game for the locals, fanning eleven of the opposing batsmen. On two occasions with the bases loaded, he worked himself out of the bad spot by striking out the men facing him.

Howley gave a good fielding exhibition at third base besides giving a good account of himself with the bat.

The First National team has arranged a series with the Peoples' Bank, and will play other bank teams during the early part of the summer.

Bachelors Defeat Parks, 14-0, in Benefit Game

On Saturday the Bachelors won a benefit game with the Parks for a Bachelor player who has been injured. The Bachelors showed their superiority from the start and overwhelmed the Park boys with a deluge of sixteen hits and fourteen runs while holding their opponents scoreless.

Phelps on the mound for the Bachelors pitched airtight ball allowing the Parks but seven widely scattered hits and registering a clean out shut out. He was aided considerably by his teammates' flawless support. The Bachelors' sluggers were led by Hughie Clark who contributed three long doubles to his team's hefty hitting. Every regular of the Bachelor team secured at least one hit off the Park pitchers, three in all. Lawlor, the Bachelor third baseman, contributed some nice defensive work besides garnering two safe wallops. Vogel, Park second baseman, and a new-comer to the league, starred for the losers with three safe clouts. He also played a good defensive game.

In their next starts the Bachelors will take on the Kearny Red Sox, Saturday and the Verona Junior Order, Sunday. Both games will be played at Capitol Field.
