Mr. and Mrs. Spencer A. Jones and family of Baltimore have concluded a visit at the home of Mr. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Jones of 133 Academy street.

Hairline Hints

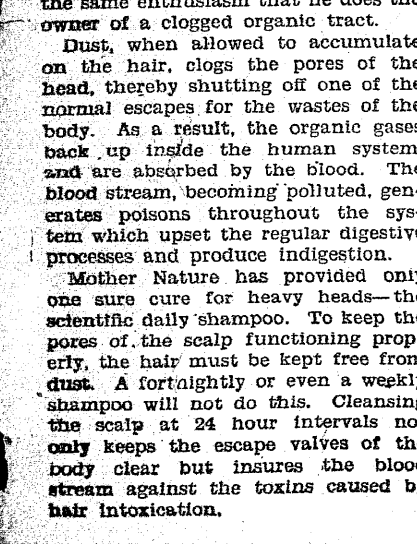

By GEORGIA O. GEORGE

Heavy, heavy hangs the head that bows before the shampooer's font but once a week. For unclean hair is as bad for the digestion as a diet of cream puffs.

So-called sick headaches are often caused as a result by accumulations of dirt on the scalp as excesses of food in the stomach. The little demon, indigestion, is no discriminator. He attacks the possessor of an unclean head with the same enthusiasm that he does the owner of a clogged organic tract.

Dust, when allowed to accumulate on the hair, clogs the pores of the head, thereby shutting off one of the normal escapes for the wastes of the body. As a result, the organic gases back up inside the human system, and are absorbed by the blood. The blood stream, becoming polluted, generates poisons throughout the system which upset the regular digestive processes and produce indigestion.

Mother Nature has provided only one sure cure for heavy heads—the scientific daily shampoo. To keep the pores of the scalp functioning properly, the hair must be kept free from dirt. A fortnightly or even a weekly shampoo will not do this. Cleansing the scalp at 24 hour intervals not only keeps the escape valves of the body clear but insures the blood stream against the toxins caused by hair intoxication.

GEORGIA O. GEORGE

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ness of 2 Bremond street entertained at cards Thursday night. Guests comprised Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ballentine, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Blamire, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Breunich, Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Van Inwegen and Mr. and Mrs. William M. Walker. Decorations suggested Hallowe'en. Mrs. Ness before her marriage this fall was Miss Gladys Ebel of 81 Van Houten place.

Mr. and Mrs. William Abramson and daughters, Frieda and Evelyn, have returned from Ithaca, N. Y. where they visited their son, Maurice, who is studying medicine at Cornell University.

Mrs. Mary Whelan of 318 Washington avenue was hostess to the Woman's Democratic Club of Belleville Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Plans for a theatre party were made. Scheduled for last Tuesday, the session was postponed because of the weather.

Mrs. Michael Volpe of Smallwood avenue entertained her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Dahl, of Jersey City, at a luncheon bridge Wednesday. Mrs. Dahl has been spending the past ten days with her daughter, Mrs. J. Clark of Smallwood avenue.

The Signet Club, a bridge group, met at the home of Mrs. Nora Salmon of VanRensselaer street, Thursday night. A surprise luncheon was served at the close of the games. Present were Mrs. Michael O'Keefe, Mrs. Clement Connelly, Miss Constance Connelly, Mrs. Margaret Travers, Mrs. William Hood and Miss Nita Reilly. High scores in bridge were made by Mrs. Salmon, Mrs. Travers and Miss Connelly. Mrs. Hood received the house prize. The club plans a masquerade party for members.

Dr. H. G. Tappan of 16 Overlook avenue will move soon to 2 Bremond street.

Mrs. John DeGraw of 207 Washington avenue was hostess at bridge Thursday afternoon to a Newark and Belleville group. Guests were Mrs. P. V. A. Brett, Mrs. C. L. Brett and Mrs. Joseph Thomas Jr. of Newark and Mrs. William H. Jacobson, Mrs. C. G. Jones and Mrs. D. S. Tillou.

Good-bye Stained Teeth

New Safe Treatment Bleaches Dark Teeth in Three Minutes

Dentists have discovered a new safe treatment which bleaches stains from teeth, giving yellow discolored teeth a beautiful flashing whiteness. It is called Bleachodent Combination, and consists of a remarkable liquid which cures or softens the stains—and a new kind of paste, which instantly removes the softened stains, and prevents new stains from forming. Simply brush the teeth with a few drops of the liquid—then use the paste—and even the dulled teeth are quickly whitened. Tobacco stains disappear after first few applications. Bleachodent Combination was first made for children's teeth to avoid the use of harsh gritty pastes which are so harmful to children's soft sensitive teeth. While Bleachodent Combination will instantly remove surface stains, do not expect it to remove stains caused by silver fillings, as these are below the enamel, and Bleachodent Combination is not intended to act on the enamel in any way. Fins for the gums. Bleachodent Combination is widely used and recommended. Costs just a few cents, and money back if not delighted. Get it today at all good dealers, such as:

Walker—Ryan

The marriage of Irene A. Ryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Ryan of Belleville, and N. Crosby Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Walker of Orange, was performed by the Rev. Edwin J. Field, of St. Peter's Church, Saturday evening, October 19. They were attended by Mrs. John F. Brix of Newark, as matron of honor and Edward F. Chi-soine of East Orange acted as best man. The couple are now residing in Orange.

VanDusen—Stell

The marriage of Miss Shirley Meredith Stell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford B. H. Stell of 207 Little street, and Alfred Whitlock VanDusen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Van Dusen of 176 New street, took place Friday night at 8 at the bride's home. Palms, ferns and chrysanthemums formed an improvised altar.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Peter R. Deckenbach, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, Harry H. Hacker of Rutherford, and uncle of the bride, played the wedding march and Mrs. Ernest A. Burkhardt of Maplewood sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by Mrs. Walter Forrester, of Belleville as matron of honor. Misses Ethyl and Marlene VanDusen, twin sisters of the bridegroom were bridesmaids. John David Boyd of Belleville was best man.

The bridal gown of ivory satin moire was a princess model with circular skirt reaching to the ankles in front and lengthening to a train at the back. It had a close fitting, long waisted bodice. With it the bride wore a veil of ivory illusion falling from a close fitting cap of the same material and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor wore a coral moire frock with deep circular flounce. Gardenias outlined the low-cut neckline. The bridesmaids' gowns were of flesh colored pussywillow taffeta and tulle, close fitting to the hips and terminating in a full skirt. Long streamer bows fell from the low-cut necklines. All dresses were ankle length in front and longer in back. The attendants wore picture hats and carried Chrysanthemums in shades of pink.

The bride's mother was attired in silver green chiffon taffeta and the bridegroom's mother in black transparent velvet. Both had corsage bouquets of pink sweet peas and roses. The bride wore a traveling dress of brown satin back crepe with a close fitting brown felt hat and brown balger trimmed coat.

A reception for seventy-five at the home was attended by guests from Allentown and Orwigsburg, Pa.; Pearl River, N. Y., Floral Park and Richmond Hill, Long Island; Brooklyn, Montclair, Maplewood, Belleville Newark and nearby.

After a short trip in the South the couple will reside at 268 Hornblower avenue, where they will be at home after November 15.

Mr. and Mrs. VanDusen were graduated from Belleville High School. Mrs. VanDusen also is a graduate of the Edith Young School of Art, Newark. Mr. Van Dusen is an alumnus of Muhlenburg College, where his scholarship won him membership in Kappa Phi Kappa, an honorary fraternity. He also belonged to Phi Kappa Tau.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP No 11

Captain Miss Bernice S. Begeman Oak Troop No. 2 held its regular meeting at the Recreation House on Friday, October 25. Classes in Tenderfoot work, second class requirements and map-making were held. Several new songs were learned during the meeting.

Mrs. N. A. Manderson entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening for Mrs. C. W. Morgan, Miss Nasalee Bakalian, Miss Bernice Begeman, and Mrs. Edward Culbertson.

On With The Show

By ARLINE DE HAAS
Copyright 1929, Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.

"ON WITH THE SHOW," is the first 100% natural color, Vitaphone picture. It is a Warner Bros. picturization of this novel.

SYNOPSIS
Willie Durant, financial broker of the stranded show, "Welcome Home," is friendly with Nita French the star, but refuses to put up any more money. He becomes attentive to Kitty, the stage-struck check room girl, and induces her father, "Dad" Malone, stage doorman, and her sweetheart, Jimmy, head usher, to invest their life savings. Jerry Connolly, the manager, accuses Durant of allowing the show to go broke to gain a hold over Kitty. They quarrel, and Jerry takes a revolver from Durant. The box office is robbed and Jimmy is suspected. Bert, the butler, faints, and Jerry goes on the play his part.

"Two weeks' salary," Jerry exploded, "I'm laughing. I've got—"

"Well," Harold sighed, "I suppose that's better than nothing." He took the bills and counted them carefully. "Thanks, awfully, old chap; there's my cue!"

"He hasn't had anything to eat," Jerry explained. "It's a crying shame. See if we can pick him up."

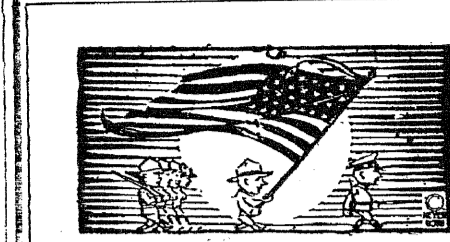

"What's de bad news, now?" Pete stopped as he saw Bert lying on the floor. "He hasn't had anything to eat," Jerry explained. "It's a crying shame. See if we can pick him up."

"What's happened?" The high pitched voice of Bert interrupted as she came down the stairs and saw the commotion. "What's wrong?" Betty followed her twin.

"Jerry has to go on for Bert," Sarah answered. "He fainted." "Who? Jerry?" the twins demanded.

"No, stupids, Bert." "I don't feel so good myself," Betty looked around for sympathy.

"They'll be sticking your mug—" Betty began.

OBITUARY

Funeral Held For Mrs. Bridget McEnery

Died Thursday Following Long Illness At Her Home

Mrs. Bridget McEnery died at her home, 176 William street, last Thursday, following a long illness. Mrs. McEnery was born in Ireland 78 years ago and came to this country at the age of five years. For the last 60 years she was a resident of this town. A solemn high mass of requiem was held at St. Peter's Church at 10 o'clock Monday. With Rev. Thomas J. McEnery, her son, of St. Aloysius Church, Caldwell, the celebrant; Rev. John Nelligan of St. Peter's, deacon; Rev. Father Fallon of Our Lady of Good Counsel, sub-deacon; and Rev. J. J. FitzPatrick of Sacred Heart Villa, Caldwell, master of ceremonies. Thirty-two priests were in the sanctuary, 12 Sisters of Mercy, including Rev. Mother Catherine of Mt. St. Mary's, Plainfield, and Rev. Mother Joseph of Mt. St. Dominic Academy, Caldwell, accompanied by sixteen Dominican Sisters, who occupied seats near the altar. Five grandsons, Frank, Raymond, Joseph, Augustine, and Thomas Mc Enery and a nephew, Edward Glancy, were pallbearers. Interment was in the church cemetery. She is survived by one brother, Henry A. Connolly, of Nutley, and four sons, Rev. Thomas McEnery, of Caldwell; William F. Henry E., and Leo P. McEnery, of town; and one daughter, Sister M. Philomena of St. Mary's Convent, Trenton, and fifteen grandchildren, the pallbearers and Misses Mary Rose, Katherine, Margaret Mary and Rose Mc Enery, of Belleville; William McEnery of East Orange; Mrs. Ellen Caragher, of North Arlington; and Francis, Henry and Thomas McEnery, of Belleville. She was the widow of Thomas Mc Enery who died a number of years ago, a sister of the late Monsignor Patrick Connolly of Phillipsburg and Augustine Mc Enery, a son, suburban editor of the Newark Evening News, who died four years ago and Sister M. Victorine, a niece, of Dover. She was a member of the Third Order of St. Francis, Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association, and Rosary Society.

James Scaine Passes Away At 78

James J. Scaine of 106 William street, died at his home Sunday night. He was seventy-eight and had been ill a year. Born in Belleville, he lived here all his life except for a fifteen-year interval in Newark. He was formerly a wire weaver. He was a member of the Holy Name Society. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Ana T. Glennon of Belleville, and Mrs. William Leach of Clifton, and a brother, John Scaine of the Belleville address. Others in the family to die this year were two nephews, Walter and William Scaine, and Mrs. Richard P. Scaine, wife of another nephew. The funeral was from the home of a niece, Mrs. Harry Donnelly of 29 Washington street, Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock. A high mass of requiem was held at St. Peter's church, at 9 o'clock. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Otis Apgar Funeral

Funeral services for Otis Apgar of 15 Washington street, who died at St. Mary's Hospital, Passaic, Monday after an operation for appendicitis, were held at the home yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Paul G. Dennis, pastor of the Sanford street Methodist Episcopal Church, East Orange, officiated. Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery. Born at Cokesbury thirty-four years ago Mr. Apgar lived in Newark ten years and six years in Belleville. He was a photo engraver for the DeLarve Company, 829 Broadway, Newark. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Helen Travers Apgar, daughter of Frank Travers of William street, a daughter, Elizabeth, Ave; his father, Mathew Apgar of Jamaica, Long Island; a brother Theodore of Newark; and two sisters, Mrs. Harvey Freed of Belleville and Mrs. Charles McKee of Chicago.

Boy Scout Banquet In St. Mary's Hall

The annual Nutley Boy Scout banquet was held Tuesday evening at St. Mary's Hall, Nutley. Speakers were Charles Gammons, Mayor Congleton of Newark, Arthur Poynter, president of the Bloomfield-Nutley Council; Emil Witsch, former Mayor of Nutley; W. Quickmire, scout executive, and John D. Ryan. The invocation was given by Rev. James J. Owens. Merit badges were presented to several Nutley Boy Scouts by Frank E. Evans, scout commissioner.

GIRL SCOUTS HAVE BUSY WEEK AND MUCH IS AHEAD FOR A BUSY FALL AND WINTER

Troop No. 3, held its regular weekly meeting on Tuesday at Wesley Methodist Church with thirty girls present. Instruction in signaling was given by Edna Baun, to girls studying for second class. Those preparing for first class studied measurements, while Mrs. May Holden, captain, instructed six new girls in tenderfoot work. Preparations for the Halloween party next Saturday at Mrs. Holden's home were discussed and Ruth Kimberle was appointed chairman. Grace Martling, who has been ill, tendered her resignation as secretary and appointed Allen Schenck to serve in her place, with the consent of the Troop members. Freda Martin was appointed color bearer. New members are Lucille Balzer, Blossom Loughlin, Anna Stark, Lydia Hamer, Catherine Mazza and Margaret Young.

A Surprise Captain Lena Rovielo arrived for her Troop Meeting last Friday evening at the Reformed Church and there was not a soul present! In dismay over many tardy and absent mark, she prepared to depart when down from the gallery came "such a clatter." With shouts of "surprise," down came a swarm of gypsies, clowns, chinamen, witches, etc. Halloween games and stunts, and a grand march to display the costumes. The prize was awarded to Beatrice Rollin for the most original, she coming as a painter, in paint-daubed overalls and cap, and carrying a pot of paint. The refreshments were plentiful and several girls passed cooking tests with a display of cake they had baked themselves. Those present were Beatrice and Mildred Rollin, Emma Bauman, Iva Crowning, Mabel Yochum, Marjorie Frost, Gemma Del Grosso, Emma Gerow, Olive Bohrer, Edith and Viola Miller. Two new members were admitted, Viola Murren and Carol Conklin. Mrs. Elsie Martling and Commissioner May T. Holden were special guests.

Patrol Contest Troop No. 4 held its regular meeting at Christ Church on Tuesday. This Troop has started a contest for patrols. Points are awarded each week for inspection, payment of dues, punctuality, game and attendance. Janet Forbes was invested as a full-fledged tenderfoot, although he earned that honor some months back she was not quite of age.

Committees were appointed for games, refreshments, etc, for the Halloween party next Tuesday afternoon.

Girl Scouts of all Troops who signed up for the different classes will please attend promptly as the corps of instructors are giving their time and materials freely. Most of the Girl Scouts are forgetting this. The classes are: Miss A. Chapman, 1 Essex street, Monday, 7 P. M., first aid for first class instruction; Mrs. L. Halloween Party For Dramatic Club On Monday Night

Galloping witches, white-sheeted "ghosts" funny looking jack-o-lanterns, galloping dominos, and what have you play second fiddle to an old fashioned Halloween party which will be given by the St. Peter's Dramatic Club on Monday evening, November 4, for the members of this organization exclusively. The last of October in days gone by, was the time for match-making, fortune-telling and all kinds of optimistic predictions regarding the outcome of affairs in general, and while of course, the organization itself must of necessity hold its social on the following Monday it will not detract from the interest as well as the enthusiasm of the individual members in their anxiety to keep the spirit of the occasion with them until that evening.

The committee arranging for the affair will not and cannot voice the result of their consultations since their appointment as, to just what the individual may or should expect on that evening, but they predict that from the time of his or her entrance into the affair they must expect everything and anything but who cares since it is all in fun, except for the fact that it is to be hoped that some of the members of the organization who play football Sunday with the Clintons-on-the-Hill will not become excited to the extent of using some of the members for a football.

The tickets for the affair labeled "The Dramatic Club's Halloween Racket" are very unique in their makeup and of course is in spirit with the keeping of the night it commemorates. The committee has made extensive preparations to see that the affair will attract the entire membership and have guaranteed a night of fun and hilarity expecting of course that each and every one will come dressed for the occasion it represents, and to guard against the latter they will inflict a special fee of seventy-five cents to those who do not. So you Halloween masqueraders keep the date in your head and remember this if it is only your sister's dress and shoes or your brother's old suit come prepared and enjoy the evening with the rest of the members.

Give Parties

Miss Jean Sheldon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Sheldon of 425 Cortlandt street, entertained at a Halloween party Saturday evening, at their home for a group of her little school friends and school mates. The decorations were carried out in Halloween colors of orange and black. Lamps and lights were made into cats, witches and ghosts. Orange and yellow balloons and hats child received theirs before the game.

The refreshments were served during the evening. Sandwiches, cheese and cracker and ice cream was served. Games were played and prizes awarded to Pearl Lindenbaum, Roland Snitzer, Beth Gridley, Clarence O'Nere, Adeline Walsh. Mrs. Sheldon and daughter Yolanda told stories, played games, etc. to help entertain the kiddies. Those present were: Clarence O'Nere, Roland Snitzer, Gerard Stutmann, Walter Mulvahill, Mrs. Snitzer, Gertrude Stutmann, Isabelle Wilson, Dorothy Grosch, Beth Gridley, Ruth Gridley, Adeline Walsh, Annabelle Rhodes, Elaine Rhodes, and Jeannette Rhodes. Miss Yolande Sheldon, another daughter gave a Halloween party at the home Friday, for a group of friends including class mates of Belleville High.

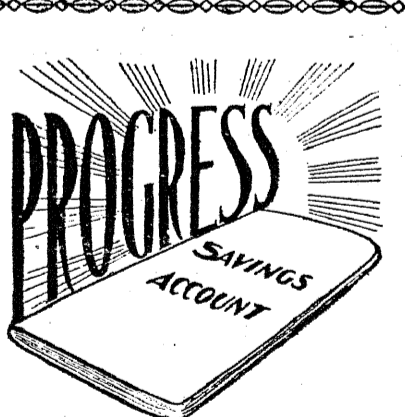

Pigskins is pigskins—but the grand old game will have to look to its laurels! The time may come when garrulous old co-eds of the class of 1930 will get together in reunions and talk about the good old days when they "held 'em on the first ball!" in an intercollegiate billiards classic. Now pocket billiards is part of every well-regulated education for women. And don't ever let anyone tell you the girls aren't learning the arts of higher education in the game. They must know their angles and curves, their laws of probability and averages. Since pocket billiards became the after-dinner sport of co-eds, they shoot from the hip and they shoot to win!

The decorations were carried out in the original Halloween colors, orange and black. Lamps and lights were made into cats, witches and ghosts. Cornstalks and pumpkins helped to make the home resemble a field. The center piece on the table was a large fruit basket filled with various kinds of fruits to carry out the color scheme and bowls containing marigolds and autumn leaves were placed at each end. Refreshments of cider, ginger cookies, cakes of all kinds, cheese, crackers and coffee were served. The guests were: Mark Cochran, Robert Holden, Bill Gridley, Will Griffin, Robert Gridley, Richard Smith, Joseph Piller, Bert Bade, Harold Bade, Jack Otis, Edward Kaig, Jack Ashemback, Teddy Van Horn, Kenneth Franet, Mae Watson, Jane Conway, Madeline Cilico, Janet Arthur, Elizabeth Clien, Inabelle Collins, Virginia Crockett, Elinor Robinson, Genevieve Zmuda, Emma Joiner, Dorothy Bagoon, Louise Bagoon, Ruth Gridley and Jean Sheldon.

KATHERINE PARRY CLARK

Clark of 121 Floyd street, and Charles Henry Speed, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Henry Speed of Pequannock, took place Wednesday evening in the Reformed Church. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Struyk. Palms, autumn leaves and chrysanthemums were used in decorating the church and the home of the bride's parents, where a reception followed.

The bride was attended by Mrs. E. T. Berry as matron of honor and by Miss Frances Lander of Belleville and Miss Mae Tremmel of Newark as maids of honor. There were four bridesmaids: Miss Margaret Ross of Short Hills, Mrs. Harold MacWright and Mrs. Richard Jackson of Belleville and Miss Alice Crawford of Caldwell. Little Eleanor Berry was flower girl and Arthur Speed Jr. of Pequannock, nephew of the bridegroom, ring bearer.

Mr. Speed had as best man his brother, Arthur Speed of Pequannock, the ushers being Andrew Curtis of Staten Island, Everett Walker of Nutley, James Speed Jr. of Pequannock, William D. Clark Jr. of Arlington, E. T. Berry of Belleville and E. B. McCurdy of Bloomfield.

A gown of ivory satin, made princess style and trimmed with rose point lace, and a veil of ivory tulle arranged in cap effect was worn by the bride. Her bouquet was bride roses and pale pink roses with a shower of lilies of the valley. For traveling she wore an ensemble of brown transparent velvet with hat and accessories to match. The matron of honor was gowned in orchid satin and carried rust chrysanthemums. The maids of honor, in sea foam green satin carried yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids wore crushed peach satin and carried orchid chrysanthemums and the flower girl yellow georgette, carrying a basket of rose petals.

Mrs. Clark, the bride's mother wore sapphire blue panne velvet and corsage bouquet of orchids, the bridegroom's mother wearing beige lace and corsage of tea roses. Before the ceremony Mrs. Clarence De Witt Van Sickle sang "Because" and "O, Promise Me," accompanied by Arthur Ackerman, who later played

Telephone Company To Add Numerals
To Central Office In Metropolitan
Northern New Jersey Next June

Measure Paves Way For Extension Of Dial
System Service Throughout The Area;
460,000 Phones Concerned

Next June 460,000 telephone number in metropolitan northern New Jersey will be revised by adding a numeral to each central office name, paving the way for extension of dial system service throughout the area.

The central office name Belleville, for example, will become Belleville 2 and a number such as Belleville 1234 will become Belleville 2 1234. Similarly, the names of other central offices in this vicinity which will be affected will become Bigelow 2, Branch Brook 3, Essex 2, Humboldt 2, Market 2, Mitchell 2, Mulberry 4, Terrace 3, Vaverly 2 and Nutley 2.

The number revision will be the largest made at one time in telephone history and will affect the area roughly extending from Woodbridge and Dunellen almost to the New York State line and from Chatham to the Hudson. Telephone engineers state that the number revision is part of a plan looking far enough into the future to allow direct dialing by subscribers to as many as 5,000,000 telephones.

According to an announcement today by G. W. McRae, vice president and general manager of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company the addition of a single numeral to existing central office names will overcome difficulties now in the way of dial service extension and the broader service it will bring, and will also avoid the necessity of changing central office names having local significance, for many years to come.

"Without conceding that any other community is getting better telephone service than we are giving, in New Jersey the management of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company believes that adequate provision for the future needs of the northern part of the state calls for certain important advances in our methods," Mr. McRae explained. Extremely rapid growth in the last few

Airport Marker, for Guidance of Aviators, Placed on Top of Big Harrison Gas Holder

How Harrison Gas Holder, With Airport Marker, Looks From the Air. Inset Shows Close-up of the Marker.

FOR the guidance of aviators flying over Newark and bound for the Newark Airport, a marker has been placed on top of the big Harrison gas holder of Public Service Electric and Gas Company. This holder, with a capacity of 15,000,000 cubic feet and 358 feet high, is one of the largest in the world, and the highest structure in the Newark area.

The marker, first of several to be placed on gas holders in this territory, has been approved by the Department of Commerce and its field is designed in chrome, or aviation, yellow. Gas holders at Caldwell, Dumont and Somerville will also have the markers.

The Harrison holder marker is a circle eighty feet in diameter on the inside of which is the letter "M," twenty feet high, indicating that the Newark Airport is in the metropolitan class. Outside the circle are two large signs, 172 feet long, spelling "Newark" in letters twenty-eight feet high, which can be read from an altitude of 3,500 feet. An arrow seventy feet long with a large "N" in the center, points to the true north. Another arrow, fifty feet long, with a large number "2" in front of it, tells the distance and direction of the airport.

CONSERVATION WORK OF BOY SCOUTS RECOGNIZED BY STATE OFFICIALS

Eradication Of Blister Rust In New York And Fire-Fighting Work In Illinois And Washington Wins Commendation Of Forestry Boards

Although the work in the forest fire fighting and conservation done by the Boy Scouts of America in every part of the United States is considered as work done in the line of duty and so is not especially recognized by the National Council, the work of Scouts in three widely separated parts of the country has won signal recognition.

Fight Blister Rust
That Brooklyn Boy Scouts performed a really worthwhile service in the interest of forest conservation while at their camp in Sullivan County this summer is indicated by a report issued by the State Conservation Department.

The report showed that 93 Brooklyn Scouts headed by two members of the Conservation Department, covered a total of 1,485 acres of forest land, removing 27,829 ribs, which are growths that cause blister rust. Part of the work was done on privately owned land.

Mr. Lindsley F. Kimball, Scout Executive of the Brooklyn Council, pointed out upon receipt of the report that this is the second year that volunteers of Brooklyn Council have engaged in this work. He said that in all about 3,000 acres of forest land has been protected against the blister rust by Brooklyn Scouts.

Forest Fires
Boy Scout Campers of the Northwest and West Side Districts of Chicago are to be awarded certificates of the Michigan State Department of Conservation because of the very fine assistance they gave in fighting a forest fire north of the Blue Lake Town Hall in Northern Michigan, according to a report made by Director Stanley R. Miller of Camp Chesaugau.

The fire was discovered Sunday morning, August 11th, by Mr. W. E. Palmer of the Big Blue Fire Tower who called Camp Chesaugau of the Owasippe Scout Camps for assistance. About six of the older Scouts headed by George Pecaro, the camp naturalist, responded to his call for help by quietly leaving camp armed with shovels, pails, and other necessary equipment. Because of a rather strong wind and the extremely dry condition of the woods, about ten more Scouts were asked to join the others in fighting the flames.

They battled the fifteen-acre fire and patrolled the area that night making complete rounds of the fire area, every twenty minutes. The next day West Side Scouts from Camp Black Hawk patrolled the area in the morning and the Northwestern District Scouts resumed the work in the afternoon. By night the fire was practically extinguished. Later a heavy downpour of rain completely put out the fire.

Mr. Palmer commended George Pecaro a student of forestry at the Iowa State College, and the Scouts on the ability which they displayed in meeting the situation and the splendid job they did in fighting the fire.

First Aid To Workers
Responsibility of giving first aid to scratches, burns and bruises to scores of men who fought the wall of flame which ravaged much of the Naches forest in the state of Washington during September, was the assignment filled by Scout George Bunce, 15 years old, of Yakima, Washington. Equipped with regulation first aid material, the Scout spent several weeks hurrying from camp to camp to keep them in condition to give their best efforts. Wounds from rolling stones, which scattered fire brands, poisonous bee stings, skinned knuckles and sprained joints were all treated by the Scout trained first aid man.

Demand For Nash Eight Calls For New Method Of Shipping

Kenosha, Wis., Nov. 1—Pressing national demand for the Nash Twin-Ignition Eight—the brilliant new leader of the Nash "400" Series for 1930—has made it necessary to augment the usual shipping methods employed by the Kenosha manufacturing plant with fast express shipments, and to face one of the most insistent public demands for immediate new car delivery in company history, sales officials declared today.

Twenty-two fast express loads of the great new straight eights have been dispatched to Atlantic points in the last ten days to supply a small part of the orders taken by Nash distributors and dealers during the formal announcement rush which brought thousands of interested buyers into Nash show rooms early this month. Regular shipments of all three of the new Series, the Eight, Twin-Ignition Six and Single Six, are going forward as rapidly as the famous Nash precision production lines can supply the new cars, but a big administrative problem lies in the just distribution of all cars to all points of the country.

"Nash factories are using every available facility to meet this inspiring flood of orders for the new '400's'", C. H. Bliss, general sales manager, said today. "No more striking assurance of public endorsement of the new Nash product is needed than this insistent demand. All of the new Nash buyers seem to want the car of their choice the minute they sign their order, and of course we are doing our best to meet their wishes. This type of public demand is gratifying in the highest degree, but it also creates a delicate problem in the matter of dividing available cars equally among members of our sales organization.

"Nash plants are working full time and some departments are on night shifts to supply this big demand and to adequately meet the certain industrial success revealed in this stirring indication of public appreciation and approval."

Nutley Women Voters Hear Election Talk

Coming elections, offices and duties of those filling them were discussed by Miss Emma L. Mott at a non-partisan meeting Thursday afternoon of the Nutley League of Women Voters held at the home of Mrs. Emil Diebitsch, Walnut street. A Committee composed of Mrs. Ward W. Pickard, Mrs. Edgar H. Bostock and Mrs. C. E. Hebert was named to formulate a revision of the constitution. Mrs. F. J. Steck, vice chairman of the second Ward, was appointed to represent the league at meetings on Child welfare work.

Mrs. Frederick B. Smith announced that twenty-eight tables had been sold for the benefit bridge which is being given at her home and that of Mrs. Ernest A. Bickell November 7.

Nutley Church Plans

A meeting of the Church Service League of Grace Episcopal Church, Nutley was held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the parish house with Mrs. Dean Welch presiding. Mrs. William H. Arnold spoke of her recent trip to the Orient. Troop I, Girl Scouts had a Hallowe'en party in the evening under charge of Captain C. A. Parkes. Communion will be celebrated Friday morning. All Saints' Day, at 9:30 o'clock.

An all-day meeting of the sewing guild of the Woman's Missionary Society of Franklin Reformed Church was held Monday. The pastor answered questions Wednesday night at the church night gathering. A Hallowe'en party will be held by the Christian Endeavor Society Friday night in the Community House. The pastor's class in religious instruction will continue Saturday morning.

A meeting of Circle 6 of Vincent Methodist Church was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. A. Breese of Vreeland avenue. Circle 4, Mrs. Joseph Mutch, leader, held a luncheon yesterday at the home of Mrs. Louise Sutcliffe of Ridge road. "How We Got the Old Testament" was the subject of Rev. Charles W. Wright's talk Wednesday night.

There was a meeting of the confirmation class of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and a rehearsal of the junior choir this afternoon.

Fines in Nutley

Charged with speeding and operating a motor-cycle without a driver's license; Carmine Torre of Columbus avenue, Belleville, was fined $37 by Recorder Charles Young in Police Court Friday night. Carmine was arrested by Patrolman Valentine Wilks October 20.

A fine of $11 was imposed on Henry Cantschy of 218 Lafayette avenue, Hawthorne, for speeding. Reuben Coehn of 215 Hillside avenue, Newark, was fined $6 for speeding.

Anthony Raimondo of 318 5th avenue, Jersey City, was required to pay a fine of $6 for reckless driving. Stop street fines of $3 each were paid by Charles Amagrande, 29 Bower street, Passaic; David Swift, 77 Warren street, Paterson; Joseph Breidenbach, 56 Roseville avenue, Paterson, and William Smith, Oldham road, Clifton.

Rotary Speaker

The members of the Nutley Rotary Club had as their guest Thursday Yountak Country Club, G. H. Ottinger of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company. Mr. Ottinger delivered an illustrated lecture on "Telephotography."

OFFICERS WHO WILL LEAD NUTLEY JUNIOR WOMEN'S CLUB

These members of the Nutley younger set will manage the affairs of the Nutley Junior Women's Club during the season, planning the social and business activities. They are, left to right: Miss Ruth Keenan, president; Miss Constance Kahre, recording secretary; Miss Viola Sherwood, vice president; Miss Jeanette Quinby, secretary; Miss Jane Mullin, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Fred Young, councillor.

Social Worker Takes Montclair Position

Mrs. Eloise Griffith, executive secretary of the Nutley social Service Bureau, who tendered her resignation recently, has accepted a position as case worker with the children's welfare committee of Montclair. She is the first to fill this position, which is the result of a survey of children's problems in that locality.

Mrs. Griffith has been in Nutley eight years. She has always wished to specialize in work for children. She will continue studying at New York University and will also keep up the study of Italian.

A farewell meeting of the executive and case committee of the Nutley bureau will be held in her honor this evening at the office in Passaic avenue.

Contract Awarded For Nutley Sewers

A contract for construction of sanitary sewers in Ridge road, Highland avenue and Olsen avenue was awarded to the William J. D. Lynch Company of Nutley Tuesday night by the Nutley Town Commission. The bid was $6,986.50. Sammara & Co. of Nutley was second low with $7,360.50.

A delegation of property owners in Whitford avenue voiced objections to an ordinance for resurfacing the street with macadam from Highfield lane to Rutgers place. The ordinance was passed.

Many property owners favored the improvement, but objected to the assessment. Commissioner Sherwood said the assessors would tax owners in proportion to benefits received. The commissioner said the town was persuaded to do the work because of complaints property owners filed with the engineering department.

Another ordinance passed will enable the town to widen Park avenue from twenty-four to thirty feet from Passaic avenue to Weston street.

More Seats For Football Games

Business Manager James J. Turner, announces that the Board of Education has sanctioned the purchase of 1,000 additional seats for Clearman Field. The seats have been ordered and will probably be in place for the Dover game. This will bring the seating capacity of the field up to about 1800 which will insure seats for those who wish them.

Joint Meeting Held For Annual Bazaar

St. Peter's Folks To Hold Affair Week Of November 18

A joint meeting of the various societies and parishoners of Saint Peter's Church was held Thursday evening to make arrangements for the annual bazaar which will be held November 13 and continue for a week.

Carragher Continues Check Of Grades

Temporarily Bill For Maps Is Held Up By The Board

The Town Commission Tuesday night refused to pay a bill of $100, submitted by former Town Engineer Frank T. Shepard for maps showing elevations of railroad crossings at various streets.

The decision to hold up the bill temporarily was made when the present engineer, Albert S. Blank, declared last week the town officials passed a resolution to request of Shepard maps showing grade of streets at railroad crossings.

The maps of Shepard were submitted by Commissioner Frank J. Carragher, who has stated the Erie grade crossings are high all over town. Carragher feels the Erie can be forced to lower the tracks at the crossings and has intimated that by pointing this out to the company Belleville may be able to get other concessions it is looking for from the railroad.

Says Some Up 8 Feet The maps showed elevations in 1888 and 1929 with a difference in elevation from one and one-half inches at Little street to three feet one and one-half inches at Rutgers street.

Fish Hobby Causes Drowning In Old Quarry Hole In Nutley

Irvington Man, Seeking Food For Tropical Fishes, Falls In Water As Wife And Child Look On

George Schilling, 38, of 338 Sturvesant avenue, Irvington, is dead today, a martyr to a hobby of breeding and raising small tropical fish. He was drowned Sunday afternoon, as his wife and 12-year-old daughter, Selma, looked on, when he fell into an abandoned quarry hole in Nutley, while gathering a special food for his fish.

Schilling, his wife said, had been experimenting for a long time with various fish foods. Sometime ago he found that young fish thrive extremely well on daphnia, a fresh water animal that is commonly known as "water lice." Early last summer he discovered that there were countless numbers of daphnia in the quarry hole at Washington and Park avenue, Nutley.

Since that time it has been his custom to visit the quarry on Sunday afternoons for a week's supply for his fish.

His wife and daughter sat in their auto on Park avenue Sunday as Schilling with a net and gill net, clambered down the ninety-foot embankment at the other side of the quarry. Several times he scooped up nets full of daphnia and then when he leaned far out from the rock ledge on which he was standing he lost his balance and fell into twenty-five feet of water.

The frantic screams of his wife and daughter, who saw him fall, attracted persons living in the neighborhood and the police were notified. Under the direction of Chief Brown they immediately began grappling from the shore. This proving unavailing a rowboat was procured and after about two hours' search the body was recovered.

Several thousand persons lined the quarry banks and road as the search for the body was being conducted. Traffic congestion became so acute that for a time the police were obliged to close Park avenue between Washington avenue and River road.

Besides his widow and daughter, Schilling leaves a son, George P. S., and a sister, Mrs. John Maurer of Irvington. Services were held at the Clarke Funeral Parlor, Myrtle avenue, Irvington, at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon, with the Rev. Melville Peiton of the Second Christian Church officiating. The body was cremated at the Linden Crematory.

Epworth League Has Large Attendance

An attendance of fifty prophesied several weeks ago was reached and surpassed at the last Sunday evening meeting of the Epworth League of Wesley M. E. Church.

Fifty-six were present and joined heartily in the entire service. The general discussion on the topic "What Shall We Do on Sunday?" will be continued at a future meeting due to the lack of time following the long service, announcements and the fine musical program.

Eight new members became affiliated with the League and an ever larger turnout is expected at the coming Sunday evening service as the League is sponsoring the appearance of Miss Helen Smith, ten-year-old evangelist. A short meeting will precede the regular church service at 7:45.

Notes

Sunday morning the subject of pastor McCombe's sermon will be, "The Guest Chamber." Men today are seeking to better their condition. The youth seeks the way to the triumph of success. All irrespective of present condition in life seek to be somebody. At the Grace Church Sunday, 7:45 P. M. the pastor will speak from the subject, "Getting There."

Prof. Adam Smith says, "We can never break God's laws, we can only break ourselves against them."

Last Sunday was a great day at the Grace Church. Large audiences morning and evening. At the morning service Mr. McCombe showed what one of the greatest statesmen of his day thought of the deeper things of life. It was a message of a red blooded man to red blooded men. In the evening the impressive rite of baptism by immersion was administered. In a devotional and reverent spirit, the audience witnessed this ancient rite.

The young people of Grace Church are hard at work on a play that is to be given in the near future. Mr. Herbert Wells of Nutley, who has large experience in this sort of work has kindly taken over the responsibility of giving to the people of Belleville, an evening of joy and mirth.

Tuesday evening the church meets in fellowship and Bible study. The meetings which are under the direction of the pastor, are growing in interest. An evening of profit is promised every Tuesday, for the remainder of the church year.

Thursday evenings are to be given up to the training of a young people's chorus. Mrs. Robert Moreland is in charge and will welcome any young man or woman who loves to sing.

Fifth Anniversary Plans

A meeting of the various committee chairmen has been called at the church at 7:30 next Sunday evening in order to confer with the pastor regarding final arrangements. The following committee chairmen have been appointed: V. W. Stewart, dinner; H. E. Naylor, program; F. G. Stimson, entertainment; Mrs. F. Packrell, decorations; Mrs. C. W. Morgan, publicity; and Mr. Henry Squier, attendance. Invitations have been sent to church members to attend the Anniversary dinner to be held at 6:30 November 21. Mr. Squier desires all members to respond by November 8, in order that the dinner committee may have a definite number to prepare.

Envelopes have been distributed to those attending Fewsmith in order that the church ground indebtedness may be decreased during this anniversary week.

The regular business meeting of this Society will be held in the church parlor on Wednesday evening November 13, at the close of the Teachers' Training class.

A cake sale will be held by this organization on Saturday, November 2 at one o'clock. The Guild is noted for the fine home made cakes, bread and biscuits which they offer at these sales. The committee is headed by Mrs. Frank G. Stimson.

On Monday the Guild prepared and served the annual luncheon held by the Woman's Club of Belleville. Mrs. William Bain was in charge of the kitchen and Mrs. B. S. Rowland headed the dining room committee. An organ recital was presented before the luncheon with Mrs. J. M. Moore, a Guild member at the organ.

Fewsmith Junior Choir
Ann Putscher Van Sickle, director, has announced that the choir practice will be held at 2:30 Saturday afternoons instead of Friday evenings as heretofore. Miss Edith Stauffer has been elected president; Helen Peck, secretary and Margaret Allen, treasurer. The following appointments have been made: Adell Peck, assistant pianist; Helen Peck, assistant director; Helen McNair, second assistant pianist; Carlyle Close, publicity; William Strycker, assistant publicity chairman; Maida Hancock, head librarian; Marian Landis, assistant librarian and Adell Peck, entertainment chairman.

Next Thursday there will be an all day meeting of the Missionary Society. In the morning sewing and bandage work will be done for a hospital group and in the afternoon there will be a business session and a talk on the work of "Missionaries among the Southern Mountaineers." Dr. O. Bell Close will be the speaker. As the work for these hospitals is done only once a year, members are asked to make a special effort to attend in order that Fewsmith may send in a creditable amount of work.

Arrange Banquet For O. R. Ebel
O. R. Ebel, former leader of Everyman's Bible Class, will be tendered a testimonial banquet by the class on Friday evening, November 8, in the dining room of Wesley M. E. Church.

The speaker at next Sunday's session of the class will be Leonard R. Memmott who will have for his topic "Trading Today for Tomorrow."

The Mayor's telegram read: "The Town of Belleville congratulates you on the opening of your latest office. We are sure that this progressive and timely event will be mutually beneficial to our municipality and to your company. Success."

There will be two all-day bicycle messengers on hand and deliveries will also be made by automobile at night. The office will be open from 7:30 A. M. until 9 P. M., including Sundays, subject to change if it is found other hours would better suit.

HEROES OF BYGONE DAYS

One generation ago the small boy whetted his appetite for adventure and double-eyed heroism on the exploits of Diamond Dick and Nick Carter, and many a paper-backed yarn of these worthies was worn to rags in the attic or behind the woodshed in secret indulgence in the vicarious thrill provided by their pages.

GREEN GOGGLES FOR GRASS

An old but plausible story comes from Oklahoma, where Mr. Gottlieb, ranchman, solemnly relates the manner in which he solved the problem of dried pastures and non-fattening cattle.

AN "ALUMNI COLLEGE"

Of the common laments of college professors is that the average student once he becomes absorbed in his business or profession, loses all of the cultural or intellectual activities in which he showed during at least a superficial interest.

WHAT SPEED IS SAFE?

Who shall decide when experts disagree? Experts at the meeting of the National Safety Council in Chicago disagree on the question of the safe speed of modern traffic.

35 miles an hour." that as speed is increasing so is the number of deaths from automobiles, and that the idea that high speed is necessary or desirable or safe is at the bottom of our traffic troubles.

In a sense both speakers are right. The benefits of speed are seen on all sides. Our whole business and social life is based on the speedy hauling of goods and persons. But this doesn't necessarily mean that the great need of the day is highway traffic at 100 miles an hour.

GOOD WORK

It is a source of gratification to the people living in the Greylock and Oaks sections to behold the large electric lights being installed at street intersections throughout those parts of town.

The reason for these lights, which include a large frosted globe, is apparent. Many accidents, which could have been averted, were caused at these intersections by insufficient lighting.

Commissioner Clark, although he lives in the Greylock section, is interested in all parts of the town and announced that he has a comprehensive plan which will provide lighting facilities for all dangerous places throughout the community.

During the recent Prohibition plebiscite in Ontario, a prominent Ottawa man, who is an ardent prohibitionist, was surprised by a visit at his office of his small barelegged son.

Citizen Cites

Life is made up of paradoxes. For instance, many a dark secret comes to light.

The oldest co-educational institution is matrimony.

Riches mean nothing if the stomach is empty.

A man's logic should be equipped with a life preserver. Otherwise it might be drowned by a woman's tears.

If you have nothing to say, don't make the fatal mistake of trying to put it into words.

People are growing more optimistic; you seldom see nowadays a man wearing both belt and suspenders.

A husband is a man who feels peeved because a meal good enough for him isn't good enough for "company."

A tongue three inches long can tear into threads a good character a mile long.

The stylish-stout is grateful for anything that ruins her appetite—even bad news.

That the steady increase in business of the wide-awake business concern is due to Newspaper Advertising.

That new lines of merchandise make their way according to the way they are advertised.

That advertised goods are sold by dealers who realize their customers want the best.

That live merchants know their customers are entitled to the best, especially when the cost is no more.

That stores that advertise have snappy, attractive looking stocks. The absolute reliability of their merchandise makes them satisfactory to the people.

That people who buy nothing but advertised goods always have a satisfied feeling.

That some inferior merchandise cannot be judged by its appearance. That some people are deluded into buying inferior merchandise.

This Week

by Arthur Brisbane Self-Reliant Rum. Women, Men and Strife. Mme. Curie's Visit Pearl for a Lady.

GOVERNMENT prohibition enforcement made an interesting discovery, capturing a well-organized bootlegger on the highlands of New Jersey, near the Narrows, where the big rum ships come sailing in.

It was a well equipped fort, with sawed off shotguns, machine guns, pistols, searchlights and radios to direct rum vessels.

The government believes this one bootlegger institution did a business of $1,000,000 a week.

The government seizure did not disturb bootlegger leaders, well entrenched and self-confident. Their chief said to a reporter: "This is just a little incident. If you want to order a thousand cases of whiskey, I'll deliver it to you in twenty-five minutes. We'll be doing business as usual in twenty-four hours, with our men out on bail."

The Bishop of Manchester fears "strife for mastery between men and women."

That strife will never be dangerous. Women manufacture the men, which is the highest kind of work, and men do the work.

Man hasn't the faintest chance of competing with woman in motherhood. No woman has ever competed with men in what we call works of genius.

There never has existed even a fifth rate woman painter, writer, sculptor or musician.

Men and women supplement each other and get along very nicely.

Woman comes first, for the creator is greater than the thing created. Michael Angelo was greater than his finest work. His mother was greater than he.

A poet may say: "I am the master of my fate, 'I am the captain of my soul.' But it is unwise for a lady who wants to testify in court at Charlotte, North Carolina, to take that stand.

Mrs. Miller, 20 years old, called "communism labor agitator," told the court that "man controls his own destiny." She is impeached as an atheist, therefore not worthy to be a witness.

Russia's government, going in the other direction, is opening nine more "anti-religious universities" to preach atheism.

Russian trade union organizations are ordered to appropriate from "cultural funds" a sum every month for organization of militant atheists.

Organized atheism will not go far. And organized intolerance, telling a man what he may or may not believe in the United States, will not go far either.

The French will go to the Naval Limitation Conference with definite restrictions.

France will not consent to reduction in her cruiser tonnage.

France will not consent to abolition of submarines, or even to the suggestion that they be limited in size to 600 tons.

The Italians have the same idea, but they don't even take the trouble to state it. A few words from Mussolini will make that clear.

Mme. Curie, who helped the discovery of radium, comes here to accept for the new radium institute at Warsaw, one gramme of radium costing $50,000, paid for by American women.

You could put in a small valise radium worth more than all the wealth of Rockefeller, Ford, Secretary Mellon and George F. Baker, combined, if such a radium quantity existed.

Our sun, with its source of terrific energy only guessed at by science, may contain millions of tons of radium.

We can't get at that. But we might give more poor children the benefit of the sun's light, which is accessible and costs nothing.

A diver in the Persian Gulf went "all naked to the hungry shark," and avoiding the shark, came up with a perfect pearl weighing fifty grains, worth $250,000.

The pearl will go to some lady, not very young, probably. Young husbands of young wives cannot afford such pearls.

The lady will wear it occasionally at first, then keep it in a safe deposit box most of the time, losing $15,000 a year in interest, and wear an imitation pearl that even she won't know from the genuine after a few days.

Overwork is not so dangerous, but violent emotion is extremely dangerous, says Dr. C. P. Emerson, learned student of the human body.

A strong emotion can inflict a physical injury just as truly as can a knife," says the doctor.

However, a life that amounts to anything is made up of strong emotions.

SAILING THE SEAS

Big Paulo and little Gretchen ran up and down the beach, for salt breezes from the ocean would have nipped their hands and faces quickly enough had they stood still.

Suddenly Gretchen saw out over the ocean, a group of moving, glimmering lights.

"See, Paulo!" she shouted. "Lights! Is it a ship passing?"

"Aye," answered Paulo. "Would you like to pretend something, Gretchen?"

"Oh, yes, Paulo."

"All right, lass. We'll make believe many, many years have slipped away. We'll journey back thousands and thousands of years and look at ancient ships of many lands. Already now? All aboard!"

Paulo had been to sea once upon a time. He knew much of ships and sailor men, and as he stood pointing outward over the dark night sea he told Gretchen of the ships that you find here.

"See, Gretchen," began Paulo, "far out there on the sea, sails an ancient Grecian warship. One great orange-and-yellow sail in the center, one small one over the bow and one middle-sized one over the stern, carry it swiftly on its destructive errand. See the two sharp points on its bow. Those are to ram an enemy ship. Down inside the vessel, where you cannot see, are more rowers, all slaves chained to their places and forced to work hours without rest. A man with a whip walks back and forth among the slaves watching for any slow or lazy ones."

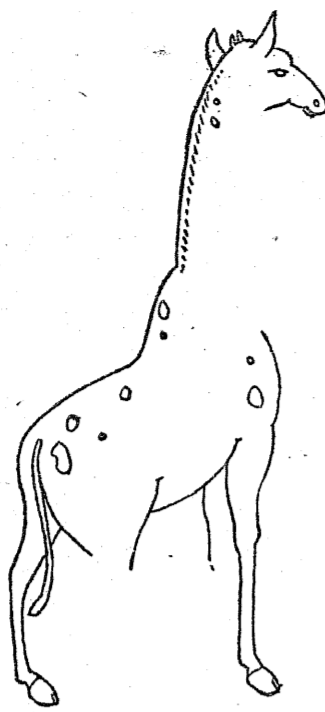

And what a strange, fantastic vessel is this next one! A Viking ship!

In one of these ships it is said, very daring adventurers journeyed even before Columbus was born. See, it is steered by a huge oar fastened to the right stern side. You've heard of the starboard side? Long years ago it was the "steerboard" side or the side upon which the steering oar was placed. How splendid are the warriors' shields hanging in rows over the side of the ship! They look like large round buttons from a distance, but close by, you can see their beautiful designs.

"Go on, Paulo," whispered Gretchen, "oh, please go on. What ship is next?"

"Just appearing above the horizon," continued Paulo, "if you watch closely is a more splendid ship, the Venetian

Argosy. It is built of rarest woods and rigged with silken sails of gay and varied colors. Rich nobles and merchants spend hundreds of dollars trying to outshine their fellows in magnificent riggings. Galley slaves are again at work, not because their strength is needed, but because the merchants think that the more oars they can display, the finer will be their ship. On the forward deck we see a striped tent in which, perhaps, the merchant displays his most valuable wares or the nobleman who sails grandly in this, his floating palace, finds a pleasant shelter.

"What is this beautiful vessel sailing so swiftly, with sails full set, toward us? An American clipper, noted the world over for speed and dazzling spread of sails! Not silken sails, not painted ones, but plain, strong, white ones of canvas that will catch and hold the most fickle breeze. See, Gretchen, this ship has cabins and it is built to cut through the water in record time. No make-believe splendor about this one, but only strength and swiftness like the wind itself—one of the first ships to be built for long voyages.

"How different it is from the little Chinese Junk with awkward matting sails and lost sides inviting every wave to dash over them. John Chinaman doesn't care about his sails, however. They are quite all right to carry his cargoes up and down the rivers. The breeze makes a strange musical sound as it plays against the strips of matting, and such heavy loads are carried that the little low ship travels very slowly and lazily along its way."

"And now comes a strange sight, indeed! The little sails over bow and stern are not in use at all. They seem to be there only in case they should suddenly be needed. A large wheel at one side of the boat turns over and over, pushing it on its way. Smoke rises in black clouds from a smokestack. It is the brave little Clermont, plying its way along the river. Its steam power is so new and untried that it could not venture on the ocean, but it is proud to show this much of change and progress. Sometimes it must use its sails when the engine won't work just right, but wait, Gretchen, a few more years pass by and another ship looms before us."

"After thousands of years, the greatest ship of all comes gracefully steaming across the vast sea. It is big enough to carry five thousand people back and forth across the ocean. No sails can be seen on this great giant of today, for its engine power is great enough and sure enough to need no further help. While it used to take several months in a sailing vessel to cross the sea, it takes now only six or seven days, and sometimes less than that."

As Paulo finished talking, the moving lights of the ship they had seen, passed from view.

The ocean was once more dark as far as he could see, and the wind was cold.

"Well, Gretchen, which of all those ships do you think you really saw sailing across the sea?" he asked.

But Gretchen was fast asleep, dreaming, no doubt, of them all, just as Paulo had told of them.

and their friends something unusual in the way of public entertainment. The girls' gymnasium instructor, Miss Mayo, has called for volunteers to start a girls' hockey team. To date all the classes have had their opportunity for practice. Miss Mayo announces that the teams probably will not be picked until spring. At present instructions are limited to the rudiments of the game, as this is Belleville High's first year at hockey.

Although the practices have not been very strenuous as yet, several girls have been seen walking lamely to their classes due to over enthusiasm.

The north end of Clearman Field has been laid out into a hockey field with lines, goal posts, and whatnot.

Miss Helen Hollberg's enterprising German class has started a candy drive in the high school and one may see divers members of the fair sex, displaying their wares to high school students, who regard their approach with due wariness.

The sophomores were given a verbal berating by Miss Ina Holden, member of the debating team, Friday afternoon, in an address before the entire assembly. She did this because the sophomores made such a poor showing in supplying candidates for the debating team. Up and at 'em sophomores!

Miss Walters promises within two or three months to present to the students of Belleville High School

Irene Bordoni, Vivacious Star, Happy Over Return of Curves

"Who Said Slat-Like Figure Was Beautiful"? Says Famous Stage Beauty

THE return of curves and the passing of the fence rail figure is good news to Irene Bordoni, vivacious stage star and ardent exponent of the well-rounded figure. Standards of beauty that have been applied to women for centuries, she said, have never given place to the self-starved, emaciated form.

"Only in America has the thin form ever been accepted as a standard of beauty," Miss Bordoni says. "In European countries such a figure would be regarded as a monstrosity, something to weep over. And now we are beginning to realize here in my adopted country that charm is best expressed by an abundance of feminine curves and rounded contours.

"It is a source of wonder to me that women have for one moment entertained a thought that the emaciated figure is attractive. Women admit they dress to please men, yet I have never heard one man go on record as admiring the slat-like figure."

Miss Bordoni is glad that theatrical producers have turned thumbs down on the hipless, flat-chested chorus girl. Florenz Ziegfeld, George White and other Broadway moguls of musical comedy, she said, are to be commended for their stand which will force frivolous minded young girls who want to become stage stars to give their bodies as much attention as their baby-doll faces.

"Curves and dimples are being sought by all the large producers this season," she continued, "and the slim maiden is in danger of professional ostracism as well as the still greater danger of a physical breakdown."

On the question of health, Miss Bordoni can speak with authority. Her role in her latest success, "Paris," in which she has starred for the past year, is fraught with emotional climaxes. The mental and physical strain while facing an audience permits no relaxation, she said, and in a role of long duration there is an additional strain of effort to prevent the let-down, inevitable after a long successful run.

Irene Bordoni

Only by maintaining the highest degree of health efficiency is it possible to play night after night to an audience increasingly exacting in its demands and for that reason, Miss Bordoni added, she has no sympathy for the food faddists who urge the elimination of sugar and other essential energy building foods from the diet.

Joings in the Field of Sports

This Whirl of Sport

By Arthur Bloemke

that harvest of points for the High gridders against last Saturday, it seems to in order to mention a little in regard to this record.

Without taking into account the long back of punts, at which the were also particularly statistics compiled after the show that five members of the Gold's regular backfield a grand total yardage of 90 for the afternoon's walking into the figures we find a little speedster of the backfield, Jimmy Byrnes, walked off with a run of 32 and 20 yards respectively. Any group of statistics can show the manner in which the power of strength for the local ran the ends for gain after gain, all as ripping huge holes in the defense with his devastating plunges. It was also a treat to see the huge local delegation present to watch him extend a mere unpretentious thrust at the Boonton forward into a long run of great value, being along two or three Boontowers with him on each gain.

Another Paulie in the Bell-boy was also a tower of both the offense and defense. He must hand it to Captain Short in the manner in which he rips off punts and for the sureness with which he clutches those long formations thrown by Schwieker. It certainly did the fans a lot of good to see him pluck that twenty-six yard pass out of the waiting arms of a Boonton player in the second quarter to gallop across the goal line to Belleville's third touchdown of the productive afternoon. At run-ends he was a terror to the defenses throughout the game, over a hundred yards during the fray at this department.

Number of injuries received by members of the Boonton seems to mind a salient point to Belleville's recent success in rigorous training, which Belleville boys have experienced the tutelage of Coach Erickson. Tony Pascal, has put them in splendid condition where injuries are few and far between. We especially to Short, who, despite a large number of shocks and sustained so far this season, has not on the injury list.

It is a credit for consistent ground gain to go to the remaining members of Belleville's illustrious "Four Aces," "Ooky" Anderson, who spent time after time short through the line at critical moments when these gains meant the team.

At Elks' pinnars, who compiled fine records last year in Morris and Essex and the County loops, opened auspiciously though not victoriously in the circuit Thursday night and the crack Euclid Masonic Club of Hoboken.

The team, with practically the line-up as last year, seems to be going along at a great pace with aggressiveness and ability distinguished its highly successful streak of the previous season. Sportsmanship is the key-note of the local Elks' play. One is always to hear a good hand for a visitor-bowler who bowls well as well as the home star.

Ability and sportsmanship is a perfect combination for the output of winning teams and we feel sure the Belleville Elks possess this highly valued combination.

High School Squad To Go To West Point

Saturday, being an open date in the Blue and Gold schedule, because of Election Day's game with Irvington, the Belleville High football squad, composed of the first and second teams, will travel to West Point and see the Army tackle South Dakota in one of the important inter-sectional games of the college season.

The trip was arranged through Major Tate of the West Point faculty last year, when he invited the Belleville gridders over to an Army game at their first open date. Next Saturday will be Belleville's first open date and when Mr. Tate was informed of this he immediately wired tickets to the game.

It promises to be a wonderful holiday for the local squad and they richly deserve it, if past performances mean anything.

Elk Bowlers Drop Inaugural Match

The Belleville Elk pinnars, who copped second place in the Morris and Essex loop last year, opened the season in that circuit by dropping a close match to the strong Euclid Masonic Club, two games to one at Hoboken, Thursday night.

The local boys, playing their first important game of the year, displayed splendid form all evening, especially in the second game, when they, as a team, accounted for a record 1030 score. This score is made even more remarkable when it is considered the pins were of new wood and it was the first game for the locals.

Tom MacNair, Belleville's anchor man, was in great form all night, accounting for two 200 scores. His 245 score in the second game was easily the highest of the match. A brilliant string of seven consecutive strikes materially aided his great score. Whitten rolled five strikes in a row in that same game, with a fine 220 score indirectly resulting. Faust was the other member of the Belleville quintet to break into the 200 class, rolling a nice 202 mark in the second game.

Werner, shone brightest for Euclid, bowling a pair of 214 scores. He also drew much applause when he made several difficult wide-open splits. Pichetto was steadiest for the homesters with three 200 scores. Jarrett, who won the singles bowling crown at Stockholm for America in the Olympic games, was also a thorn in the Elks' side throughout the match. He had one 200 game.

"THAT LITTLE GAME" RAGGIN'

Newark Central High Falls Before Nutley Attack 26-0

Revealing potential championship class, the Nutley High School football warriors crushed Central High of Newark Saturday afternoon at the Park Oval, 26 to 0.

The victory helped to wipe out the stigma of a defeat handed the Nutleyites several years ago, when they were in the running. Led by "Zumo" Sentner, who George Stanford declares will be one of the greatest backs ever to wear the Maroon and Gray, Nutley tallied four touchdowns and two extra points.

Central was never dangerous and showed little in the way of offense. Its line kept the tally down, the fine tackling of Jordan and Scheffer being the feature for the losers. This makes the fourth straight loss the High street aggregation has suffered.

Sentner Starts Dashes

Nutley by its victory put itself in the front ranks of teams that are to be considered for the State toga. It seems to have only South Side to hurdle before being given final consideration.

Following the kickoff Sentner started away for fifteen yards. Hank Stager took a hand in advancing the ball and after a march of fifty yards the oval rested on Central's two-yard mark. The line held and Nutley was temporarily halted.

Central kicked and Baykowski ran the ball back. The first of a number of passes from Baykowski to Sentner was successful and "Zumo" went over for the first six-pointer. Crawford made good on a place kick and Nutley was in the lead, 7 to 0.

Jones Dashes 35 Yards

"Sparky" Jones, who had taken the place of Captain Wallace at right half in the second period, was responsible for the next score by reason of a 35-yard end run which placed the oval on Central's eight-yard stripe. After an offside penalty,

Stager crashed through Hough for the second touchdown. Crawford made good on the extra point.

Although Charley Schneider injected numerous substitutes, Central's endeavors to get in a scoring position were futile and as a final effort Tony Sodano, the crippled captain, made his appearance, but to no avail.

The Blue and White seemed to have fathomed the Nutley offense during the third period and held it scoreless. At the beginning of the fourth stanza Crawford snatched a forward pass and darted forty yards before he was downed by Kroll. Line smashes brought the ball to the final line and Stager went over for his second score.

Passes Bring Last Score

The Baykowski-to-Sentner air service opened up and the Maroon marched down the field. Sentner caught a heave and darted over the final chalkline.

Nutley displayed a strong line lead by Edson, Kramer and "Klem" Van Horn. The backfield worked well and the fact the score was not larger was due in a measure to the fine playing of Jordan, Scheffer, Kroll and Gladstone.

The lineup:

Nutley	Central
Lucas	L. E.	Gladstone
Edson	L. T.	Wereschek
Wetherill	L. G.	Hough
Van Horn	Center	Scheffer
Kramer	R. G.	Rothbard

Crawford	R. E.	Babiak
Baykowski	Q. B.	Kral
Sentner	L. H.	Gainous
Wallace	R. H.	Naporano
Stager	F. B.	Bogner

Score by periods:

Nutley	7	7	0	12	26
Central	0	0	0	0	0

Seats Wanted By Grads At Games

Editor Belleville News:

Among our travels, following the Belleville High School team in their different games, we have noticed that most of the schools have enough seats at their playing fields for the majority of the rooters. When we come to home games, we are obliged to stand, while the few seats there are, are occupied by youngsters, who, in many cases, get into the field by climbing over the fence, hours ahead of the game.

We think that owing to the increasing number of fans attending each game, some provision in the way of seating should be made. Since the majority of games remaining are home games, this should be attended to immediately and better arrangements made for the benefit of the Belleville fans.

A Group of B. H. S. Grads.

P. S.—How about negotiations for future Belleville-Nutley games? If a game cannot be arranged in the near future then a beginning should be made for them to start as soon as possible. These teams should play every Thanksgiving Day and the time to arrange them is NOW.

A Group of B. H. S. Grads.

Two men were discussing their radios. Said one: "Ours is the best little set in the world. The other night we got Los Angeles and Havana."

"Well," said the other, "ours is a selective set. I heard a violin and banjo playing Sunday night at Pittsburgh and I tuned out the violin."

Belleville High Second Team To Oppose Rutherford Second Squad Armistice Day

Picking on state champs seems to be the especial forte of Belleville High's high-flying second team. Having already easily disposed of Bloomfield's second squad by a 14-0 score, the local scrub eleven will take on the junior varsity of Rutherford High, whose regulars were co-holders of the state Class A diadem with Bloomfield last year, Armistice Day at Clearman Field.

The Bell-boys will probably start with the same line-up that found Bloomfield such easy pickings, with that fleet little "pony back-field" of N. Bonavita, Ryder, Roberti and Griffin taking care of the ball-carrying end. The other members of the eleven include O'Neil, Goodrich, Vuono, Mullen, Luciano, Brumbach, and DeJura.

Coaches Erikson and Pascal of the local squad are trying to arrange a regular short schedule for the Belleville Jayvees and already have a game pending with the second stringers of Passaic High. It is hoped that a game may be arranged towards the end of the season with the South Orange seconds, who claim the scrub championship of the state, through gaining four consecutive victories without having their goal line crossed, as a grand finale.

McMaster, Belleville High Guard, Out For Rest Of Season With Broken Collar Bone

Howard McMaster, regular Belleville high guard, who had played a stellar game all season, received a broken collar bone in Saturday's skirmish with Boonton and will probably be on the sidelines for the remainder of the season. The news, learned shortly after the end of the game, was the only ominous note in the Blue and Gold's great showing against Boonton.

The story of this boy's injury is a fine example of sheer grit, if ever there was one. Immediately after Belleville had scored her first touchdown in the initial quarter, McMaster was hit pretty hard on the first play and was conscious of a "sore spot" near his shoulder. Notwithstanding this, he determined to stick it out at all costs, with the result that no one knew of the serious injury until after the game, when a doctor's examination brought it to light. Even between halves he gave no sign of the pain he must have suffered and when Coach Erickson, unaware of his injury, substituted another man for him in the closing minutes of the final half, it was because of his desire to give the scrubs a chance and not because of the in-

Elks Open Bergen County League With Win Over Bergenfield

Displaying a superlative brand of bowling throughout the Belleville Elks' pinnars, last year's champs, opened the Bergen County Elks' League season with an auspicious three game win over Bergenfield, Tuesday night at Belleville.

The local Elks won the first two games with ease, but were pressed somewhat to take the third game from the Bergenfield lads, who made a nice come-back.

The local team, being content only to hold the Bergenfield bowlers in check, remarkable high scores were not the order of the evening. Buttons got the only 200 score for the locals rolling an impressive 204 game in his initial performance for the local bowlers. Kesterle, Bergenfield's anchor man and most consistent performer of the match, accounted for the only 200 score for the losers, bowling a mean 206 in the second game. His other scores were 181 and 189 to give him the steadiness prize.

The Belleville Elk quintet of Faust, Buttons, McManus, Waldie and MacNair functioned in its usual brilliant form, to make the outlook rosy for another Bergen County championship.

The scores:

High Second Team Battles To Scoreless Tie

Nutley High School second and the Montclair High res-tled to a scoreless tie in a battle staged Monday afternoon at Park Oval, Nutley. The Nut-leville team had an opportunity to penetrate the Montclair defense in the fourth period but was unable to do so. The game was a series of successful plays on both sides, with the Nutley team's goal

Belleville High Displays Great Form Against Boonton Team

Blue And Gold Have No Trouble Running Up A Large Score Against Highly Touted Opposition

Displaying a merciless attack that swept all before it, the Belleville High gridders gained their third consecutive triumph Saturday afternoon at Clearman Field with a crushing 38-0 win over Boonton.

From the start of the game when the Belleville crew made an irresistible 72-yard march down the field after the kick-off until the final whistle, the Boonton boys were completely outclassed at every department of the game to give the Blue and Gold warriors their most impressive win of the season.

Short and Schwieker did the bulk of the ball-carrying with remarkable success, while the forward wall and the remainder of the backfield were also giants on both the defense and the offense. Even that great little "pony backfield" of F. Plenge, N. Bonavita, Roberti and Ryder, rushed in when the regulars had an insurmountable lead, more than held its own with the Boonton huskies, who outweighed them considerably.

Receiving the opening kick-off on their own twenty-eight yard line, the classy local aggregation of gridders pierced the Mountaineers' heavy line for one substantial gain after another, with "Ooky" Anderten carrying the ball the majority of times. This fine drive advanced the pigskin to Boonton's one yard line, from where Short easily carried it over with a deceptive end run for Belleville's initial touchdown. Anderten's plunge through center for the extra point was unsuccessful.

After the score Boonton again kicked off, Byrnes running back the punt to Belleville's thirty-three yard stripe following an unsuccessful end run, Anderten reeled seven yards off tackle and the fleet Byrnes twelve more by the same process. A brilliant sprint around end by Short, as only he knows how netted the Bell-boys another twelve yards, to be followed on the next play by another Shortian effort around left end good for seventeen yards. This last dash placed the ball on Boonton's fourteen yard mark with another touchdown inevitable. Anderten ripped three yards off right tackle to set the stage for Schwieker's plunge off tackle through the entire Boonton team for eleven yards and touchdown. An attempted forward by Schwieker for the extra point was blocked. This made the score 12-0 in Belleville's favor, while the luckless Boontonites had yet to have the ball in their possession.

Schwieker kicked off to Boonton's twenty-five yard line from where the Mountaineers were forced to kick, being able to gain but four yards in three tries at the strong Blue and Gold line. The resulting kick by Makosky was poor and rolled out of bounds on Belleville's forty-five yard line. The Bell-boys were also unsuccessful in penetrating the massive Boonton forward wall, Short's ensuing punt being run back by Boonton to their own thirty-nine yard line on a pretty piece of broken field running by Noll, visiting quarterback. Boonton then resorted to the aerial attack successfully, gaining twenty yards by the method before the end of the quarter.

At the start of the second quarter the visitors lost the ball on downs, to give the local squad the pigskin on their own thirty-five yard mark. The Bell-boys then launched another of their powerful drives and on exactly five plays carried the ball the needed sixty-five yards for their third score of the fracas. Schwieker, who had been circling the ends for tremendous gains all afternoon, was the main factor in this final drive, reeling off successive runs of fifteen and thirty yards respectively around end that fairly stunned the opposition. With the ball in Belleville's possession on Boonton's eighteen yard stripe, Short made one of his noted sweeping end runs for the needed yardage and his second touchdown of the fray. The Boonton stalwarts, who were being repeatedly placed on the hospital list throughout the game, seemed to wilt especially at this juncture, three of their number being hurt in an effort to stop Short. O'Neil's drop-kick for the extra point was a little wide giving Belleville an 18-0 margin over their rivals.

Shortly after the ensuing kick-off, Coach Erikson sent in his "pony back-field," who had previously enjoyed so much success at the hands of the Bloomfield second squad. They proceeded to keep the ball in Boonton territory for the remainder of the half. Nick Bonavita, of this quartet, was especially prominent in breaking up the visitors' aerial attack.

Upon receiving the kick-off at the beginning of the second half, Boonton was unable to advance the ball the required yardage from their own thirty-one yard stripe and promptly

Recreation Group To Foster Junior Bowling-Basketball

It won't be long now, before the pig skin will become just another remnant among the moth balls, and the inevitable winter and its accompanying indoor sports must take its place on the horizon.

In anticipation of this, the local Recreation Commission has begun plans for a basketball and a bowling league for the younger boys.

The bowling league is to be a "closed" affair, that is, only teams representing the different churches in town may enter. On the other hand, the basketball league is to be open to all boys' clubs, limiting the weight of each player to 120 pounds and under.

Furthermore, there are plans under way for a senior loop for those young men who work.

But before such arrangements can be made possible the names of eight or more teams who would enter this league must be had. The reason for this action is that the basketball courts in town are limited and therefore in great demand.

All teams who wish to enter any of the above leagues must forward their names, with the name of an individual who will represent his respective team at a meeting in the very near future, submitted with each entrant.

Address all communications to Anthony Pascal, in care of Belleville Recreation Commission, Recreation House, Belleville, before November 8.

JOSEPH ARNT TELLS PLANS OF NORTH NEWARK BOWLING LEAGUE

SPORTS EDITOR:

We are endeavoring to have eight teams enter the North Newark Bowling League; the more the better.

There will be but three rounds if less than eight teams enter, or two rounds if sixteen teams enter by the time the league opens. It will possibly bring the season to a close about April 15.

Each team against a different team in the league on so arranged alleys of the North Newark Bowling Academy each week for the first round and so on.

The entry fee will be paid in advance, the amount to be $30 which will be deposited in the bank until the end of the season when awards will be made.

There will be a list of ten men which you may register from which you may have a pick of five at any time during the season. No other man will be qualified to bowl in the league unless registered. In order to qualify for individual awards, the total of 75 per cent of all the games will have to be rolled.

The cost of each man for each evening will be $1 which, of course, will cover the cost of the alleys, pin-balls, and so forth. Out of this there will be $3 deducted for a blind score. In case of ties the blinds will be qualified to roll in the following week's first game. There will also be an award for the high score of $2 for three scheduled games.

Intertowns Retain Midget Loop Lead

The Intertowns A. C. battled it out with the Questions Sunday morning at Yantacaw Park, Nutley, winning 7-0. Although the Questions put up a game fight they were unable to penetrate the Ints' clever and strong line.

Santamassimo, the Questions' star, was stopped in his tracks by the Ints. The strong Int line aided the backfield in the execution of plays. This was noticeable when Jack Tuozzolo ran around end on a trick play for the only touchdown after travelling fifteen yards. He also made the extra point.

Loquori, J. Tuozzolo, Longo and DeBrowski proved effective on the defense for the Ints and Cappy and Tuozzolo on the defense. L. Jannarone, F. Zampono and Joe Romana starred for the losers.

In a game preceding this tilt the Red wings and Washington Cubs fought a draw, 6-6. Lordy was the man of the hour, nabbing a forward thrown by Juliano to run for a thirty yard gain, followed by another march for twenty-five yards. Lefty Juliano starred for the Reds. "Potato," "Tubby" and T. Lioro carried off honors for the Cubs.

Park A. C. Drops Hotly Contested Grid Battle To Caldwell

The Park A. C. gridders travelled to Caldwell Sunday afternoon and dropped a close 13-6 decision to the strong Caldwell Comets in a game that was hotly contested throughout.

The Parks were outweighed considerably by their undefeated opponents, who were composed for the most part of ex-high school stars, but nevertheless gave a good account of themselves in their first away from home game.

The local squad opened up the game with a bang, getting away to a 6-0 lead before the home boys realized what it was all about. Excellent work on the part of the Park backfield planted the ball deep in Caldwell territory early in the first quarter. A long twenty-yard pass, Chambers to Murphy, a moment later accounted for the touchdown to get off to an early lead.

In the second quarter the Belleville boys battled hard to protect their slim advantage, but were forced to give way under the power of the Comets' strong line, the ball finally resting on the Parks' thirty-yard line after a steady Comet march down the field. Then the Caldwellites resorted to an aerial attack with success. On the first attempt Borton completed a long twenty-five yard heave to one of his teammates, who raced the remaining distance for the touchdown to even the count.

The third quarter found the opposing sides pretty well matched with the result that the ball was kept in mid-field for the major part of the period. Timely tackles and all-around defensive work of Cansolosi and Fortini of the Parks during this period prevented the winners from getting away for long runs and subsequently scoring.

Held even also for the larger part of the final quarter the Caldwellites suddenly found themselves in the closing minutes of the period and started a series of line plunges to force their way into Park territory. With the ball in the Comets' possession on the Parks' one-yard line, the locals suddenly braced and the Comets couldn't gain an inch on three consecutive line smashes.

This great defensive work was spoiled, however, when on the next play the Comets took to the air and a short forward pass enabled them to score the winning touchdown with about a minute to go. They added the extra point on an end run to make the final tally 13-6.

Next Sunday afternoon the Parks will attempt to break into the win column against the crack Union A. A. of North Arlington, who gave the Clintons such a hard battle a few weeks ago.

Some people have to work for success; others have it presented to them.

Clinton's Swamp Grove A. C. Of Irvington, 25-0, As Clinton Seconds Beat Ramblers

The fast stepping Clintons added the much heavier Grove A. A. of Irvington to their growing list of victims last Sunday afternoon at Belleville Park with a great 25-0 victory. The speed and power of the Clinton attack was too much for the Groves, who had won their three previous contests.

The Clinton backfield, behind the fine work of its forward wall, ran rough shod over the losers with a fine assortment of line plunges and end runs.

Coach Sullivan's charges got right after the Groves at the opening whistle and continued their devastating punch throughout the entire game. Ray Perry received the opening kick-off for the Clintons and ran it back to his own forty-two yard line. With Mallow, Proven and Gorham alternating at carrying the pigskin, the Clintons had little trouble advancing the ball to the Groves' seven yard line on a steady march down the field. Marty Mallow, who was a hard-working, consistent ground-gainer all afternoon, added the needed seven yards for the touchdown on a neatly executed cross-back behind excellent interference from his mates. The try for the extra point was unsuccessful to make the score 6-0 in favor of the Clintons before the game had hardly got under way.

Receiving the next kick-off from the Clintons, the Groves' backfield, which has displayed so much power in running up 54 points in earlier games, could not get started before the fast charging line of the locals and lost the ball on downs. Scoring two additional touchdowns in the remainder of the half and a fourth in the second half, while holding their opponents at bay, the Clintons outplayed the losers at every department of play to register their most impressive win of the season.

Coach Harry Sullivan seized the opportunity this game afforded to send his entire first string squad into the contest in preparation for next week's game. While hardly needing to resort to his extensive bag of tricks, that had to be used last week, Ashworth, the Clinton field general caused much favorable comment with the fine manner in which he handled the general play of the team.

The scoring for the day was evenly divided among the four mainstays of the backfield, Mallow, Howley, Gorham, and Proven, while Herb Otto played his usual brilliant game at end.

The game afforded the many spectators present an opportunity to witness the team in action that will take the field next Sunday afternoon when the strong Bloomfield A. C. will furnish the opposition at Belleville Park. The Clintons, with their complete array of backs, who can run, pass and punt with impunity, and the line playing a great, feel confident of victory over Bloomfieldites, who have registered 61 points to their opponents in the previous games they have played.

The Clinton second team, headed by the great showing of the Ramblers, overcame the Forest Hill Ramblers easily, 20-0 in a preliminary set-to.

Manning, Herkness and McGowan showed up well for the Clintons, while Byrnes gave the crowd a thrill with a beautiful 45-yard run for the Clinton's first score. speedy seconds, led by Hearn, a treat to watch in action and a promise of much latent speed. Reynolds featured for the Ramblers.

The line-up:

Clinton's (25) and Groves (6) player lists. Clinton's: H. Clark, Dacey, Gilchrist, Dunn, Perry, Donnelly, Otto, Ashworth, Mallow, Gorham, Proven. Groves: L. E. Forrest, L. T. Sha..., L. G. Ints Elect Officers

The Intertown Club held election of officers at a regular meeting Friday as follows: L. Luzzi, president; P. Tuozzolo, vice president; J. Tuozzolo, treasurer, and J. Riccardi, secretary. A Cappy was made baseball captain of the 1930 squad. Cappy will lead a squad of fifteen uniformed men to the field. The squad is practically the same one that ran up the nineteen victories of the past season.

Roof Tree Branch Will Meet Wednesday

Roof Tree Branch of The International Sunshine Society will meet November 6 at the Recreation House and plans will be made for Thanksgiving Cheer, and to assist Sunbeams with their Doll Show.

PLAN TO FORM HIKING CLUB

Hiking Clubs in various sections of Belleville are to be organized by the Recreation Commission. There has been a demand for this sort of recreation and for the present such clubs will be organized among the grammar school boys who do not have an opportunity to go off hiking with trained leaders as the Boy Scouts do.

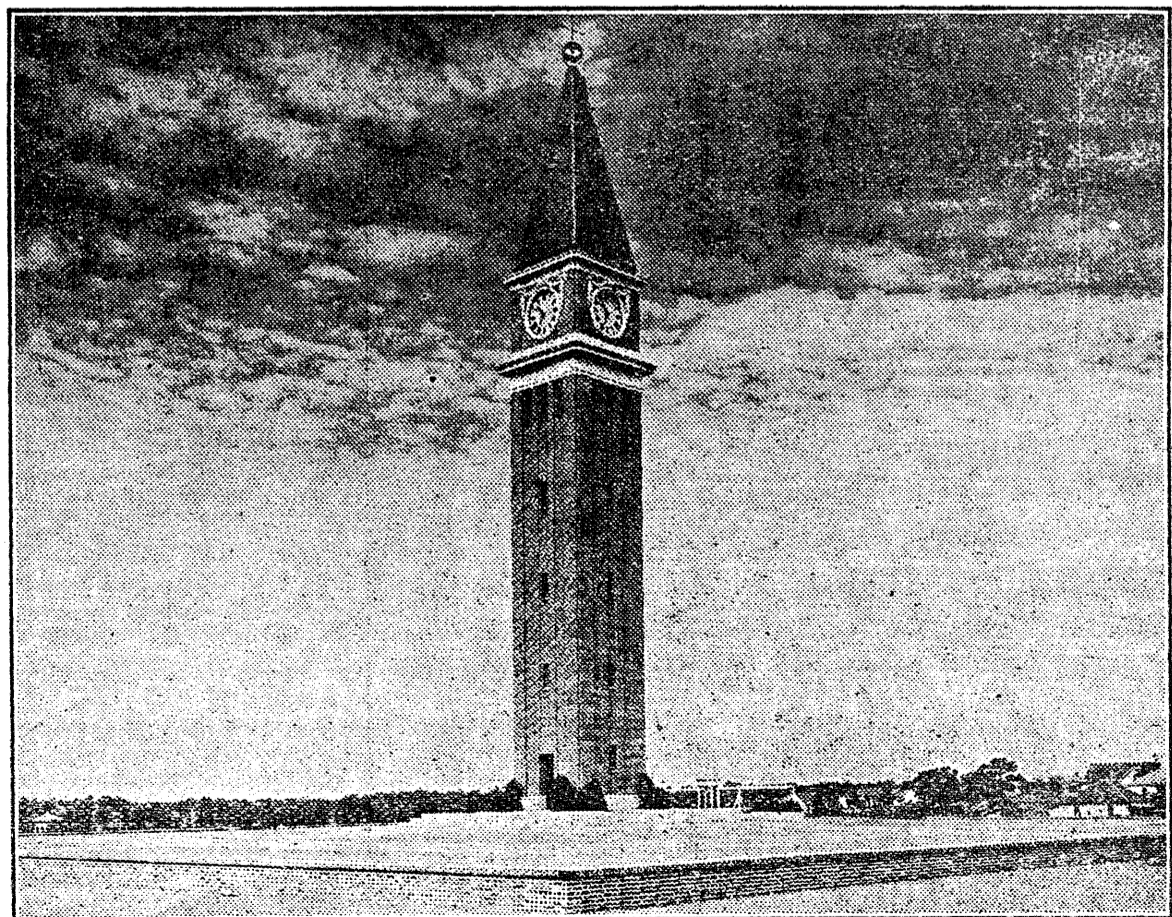

This activity will be conducted by Anthony Pascal who has recently been appointed director of boys' activities. Mr. Pascal is a graduate of Muhlenberg College and a student at the National Recreation School in New York City. For the past four years he has been active in playground work in Belleville and the outlook is that, in a short time, Belleville will boast of a splendid boys' program.

Cheap Borders While the eighteen-day diet fad is at its height it would seem to be a good time to invite the dieters to visit for a couple of weeks.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Cotton Mill Employees Erect Beacon to Memory of Founder

Workers in the mill established by the late Fuller E. Callaway, at La Grange, Georgia, voluntarily raised the funds for the erection of this clock tower and airplane beacon, in memory of Mr. Callaway, who died two years ago.

EMPLOYEES in the cotton mills of Cason J. Callaway at La Grange, Georgia, have dedicated a beautiful clock tower and airplane beacon which they erected by voluntary subscription among themselves to the memory of Fuller E. Callaway, founder of the business. Mr. Callaway, an international figure in cotton textiles, died two years ago.

The tower, which stands in the center of an eight-acre park, landscaped by the employees, rises ninety-seven feet over the ground and overlooks La Grange. It is patterned after the Campanile di St. Marks in Venice. An 8,000,000 candle-power revolving beacon surmounts the spire to guide aviators flying between Atlanta and New Orleans. The

also a directional light pointing the way to Callaway Air Field two miles distant. On each of the four faces of the tower is a clock. Mr. Callaway announced his wish would close each year on his birthday, with pay to workers, in order that their manifested by them in erecting
