Club Decides To Donate $50 To Community Chest

The regular meeting of the Woman's Club was held at the club house, 51 Rossmore place, Monday afternoon, with the president, Mrs. R. Clifford Whitfield, in the chair. Mrs. Whitfield gave a brief talk on Armistice Day while Mrs. Norman Cooper played appropriate songs softly. Mrs. Cooper also played for the community singing. During the business meeting reports of the various committees were read, and the following women were accepted as members: Mrs. Carl Struble, Mrs. Priella R. Rubin and Mrs. A. K. McBride.

It was voted that $50 be contributed by the club to the Community Chest and all members were urged to give their loyal support. The following members, under the supervision of Mrs. John S. Kirkpatrick, will assist in the drive: Mrs. H. K. Shoop, Mrs. H. Grandy, Mrs. M. A. Helminger, Mrs. E. L. Johnson, Mrs. R. J. Stephens, Mrs. T. C. Stewart and Mrs. L. A. Wilford.

Mrs. Frederick E. Dodd reported that to date the proceeds from the annual fall bazaar are $650 with, perhaps a few small amounts to come in.

Mrs. W. P. Adams gave a report on the conference of New Jersey State Federation of Women's clubs held at Princeton.

After the business meeting an illustrated lecture, "The History of Communication," was presented through the courtesy of the N. J. Bell Telephone Company. Mrs. G. R. Ottinger was the lecturer. Mrs. Ottinger explained in detail the primitive means of communication and showed the gradual progress made up to the present day when the wonderful system now in use was completed. The views were most interesting and instructive. The speaker said that the day was coming when passengers on ocean liners would be able to pick up the receiver and be connected with friends on land.

Mrs. Dudley Drake, chairman of the Hospitality Committee, assisted by Mrs. A. S. Blank, Mrs. E. Johnson, Mrs. H. K. Shoop, Mrs. Norman Cooper, Mrs. James Irwin and Mrs. Jean Whitbeck, served the club tea.

A sale of home cooked food was held under the direction of Mrs. Porter Sheldon. These sales are held once a month and the food is donated by various members of the club.

The next afternoon card party will be held at the club house Monday afternoon, November 18, and playing will start promptly at 2:30. This will be the third game in the bridge tournament and all members and their friends are cordially invited. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Frank Brohal, chairman, Mrs. Porter Sheldon, Mrs. W. H. Jacobson, Mrs. H. B. Vail, and Mrs. James Gibson. These members are all trustees and one way that appreciation could be shown for the way they have worked to beautify the club house would be to attend the card party.

On Thursday, December 5, the Seventh and Eighth Districts will hold their luncheon and conference at the Upper Montclair Woman's Club, 200 Cooper avenue, Upper Montclair. Tickets may be secured and luncheon reservations made by communicating with Mrs. William Adams, 34 Rossmore place before December 2. Mrs. Adams is Federation Secretary.

6,000,000 Lives Lost In Revolt Film Pictures

Deaths In Dervish Rebellion Almost As Numerous As Those Of World War

A war in which the casualties were almost as large as those of the world conflict forms a thrilling background for Paramount's "The Four Feathers," current venture of Merian C. Cooper and Ernest B. Schoedsack, soldier-of-adventure producers.

"Late statistics place the loss of life in the World War at 8,543,515," asserts Schoedsack, "while the Dervish Rebellion against the British in the African Sudan in 1881 cost more than 6,000,000 lives."

"Native losses were many times those of the British. Unschooled in civilized warfare and inspired by their religious feelings, the blacks proved absolutely fearless. Prominent in these gory battles were the Fuzzy Wuzzys who Kipling has immortalized in song and poetry as 'first class fighting men.'"

And it was in the Fuzzy Wuzzy country that Cooper and Schoedsack re-enacted battle scenes of the Dervish Rebellion. Hundreds of Fuzzy Wuzzys who appeared in the film sequences of this story by A. E. W. Mason, are the sons of men who actually fell before the guns of rifle-men.

Upon their return from the Dark continent with 60,000 feet of exposed film of battle scenes and thrilling wild animal close-ups, Cooper and Schoedsack directed the plot sequences at the Paramount Hollywood studios, with Richard Arlen, Fay Wray, Clive Brook, William Powell, Theodore von Eltz, Noah Beery and George Fawcett acting the principal roles. The plot deals with the regeneration of a cowardly soldier who goes to Africa and braves the perils of native warfare and jungle wild-life to save his former comrades from death at the hands of the tribesmen.

The picture has been rated as the best spectacle-thriller of the year 1929. It comes to the Capitol Theatre for a two-day run beginning on Monday, next.

"Once There Was—" Set For Next Friday

Ticket Sale Speaks Well For A "Sell Out" This Year

One week from this evening the fourth offering of the Wemec Dramatic Club of Wesley M. E. Church will be presented before a large audience if ticket sales continue to progress as rapidly as they have within the past several weeks, according to reports of the club members.

"Once There Was" the play which the club has chosen to produce, is a romantic comedy in three acts, preceded by a prologue and ending with an epilogue. There are fifteen in the cast which will be the largest since the club organized.

The last regular business meeting was held in the church parlors on Tuesday evening, when twenty-one members were present. Reports from all committees were read and while many were of the opinion that all matters were progressing, there was a prevailing thought that many more tickets would have to be sold in order to reach the goal of 1,000 set by the club a month ago. President Gebhardt, John R. Carrough, ticket chairman, and Neil Horne, business manager, urged every member to concentrate on ticket sales during the remaining time before the production. It was stated that the show was always a large affair and the price of tickets was nominal for the entertainment. Following the reading and discussion of bids by several orchestras to play for the occasion, the club decided to notify the Mosaic Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. George Snodgrass, that their bid was accepted.

The orchestra will present a short concert from 7:45 to 8:15 when the curtain will rise. Numbers will be rendered between each act, including popular and classical hits.

Miss Elizabeth Tempest, coaching members of the cast for the production stated at the rehearsal immediately following the business meeting that the cast would be in readiness for the dress rehearsal next Wednesday evening at the High School.

Posters will be in evidence tomorrow further reminding all of the play which should not be missed on next Friday evening at the High School.

For those who desire good seats for the affair, the club states that these may be secured at Kristensen's, near the High School. About one hundred are still available it is said.

Excellent Apartment available; 1st floor, 194 Greylock parkway, cor. Floyd street. Five rooms and sun parlor, with garage. Ready December 1. Call Belleville 1671.

Bankers Will Talk Economics Over The Air

Newark Financiers Plan A Series Of Business Discussions For High School Students

Of special interest to high school students and to those who take an interest in economics, especially as applying to banking and investing, will be the series of talks by prominent bankers as arranged by the Essex County Chapter, American Institute of Banking, in behalf of the American Bankers' Association.

These talks will be broadcast over Station WOR beginning Tuesday, November 12, at 3:15 p. m., and continuing on each Tuesday thereafter at the same hour until December 17.

The talks are occasioning considerable comment among bankers, particularly those interested in educational work, throughout the country, and bespeak the progressive spirit of this Chapter of the A. I. B.

They have been arranged principally for high school students, and each school in New Jersey has been informed of this series of talks and in all probability will cooperate in every way to make them a success.

The object of these talks is to tell the public something about the practical application of economic business. It is felt that there is an increasing number of men and women who are interested in banking and economics and that by broadcasting an interesting series of talks over the radio the American Institute of Banking will be doing a valuable service.

The talks are being given by bankers who stand as authorities in their particular fields and there is every reason to believe that they will be very enthusiastically received.

The speakers with the subjects they will discuss follow:

November 12—"What Is Wealth?" Leopold A. Chambliss, assistant vice president, Fidelity Union Trust Company.

November 19—"The Nature of a Bank." Spencer S. Marsh, vice president, National Newark and Essex Banking Company.

November 26—"Protecting Your Savings." Howard Biddulph, vice president, Howard Savings Institute.

December 3—"How Banks Help Business." Ray Mayham, president, West Side Trust Company.

December 10—"The Federal Reserve System." E. Allen Smith, vice president, Merchants and Newark Trust Company.

December 17—"How Banks Help Foreign Trade." Percy Menagh, treasurer, United States Trust Company.

Mrs. Robert Bowden of Hillsdale avenue entertained ten members of her Sunday school class of Grace Episcopal Church at dinner Sunday and took them to afternoon service at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. Mrs. John Bulkeley and Miss Hazel Bulkeley of Jersey City also were guests.

Waters Wants No Flim Flam On Parkway For River

Wants To Know What County Plans To Do As Regards Beautification Of Banks Of Passaic

An understanding will be sought this week between Belleville officials and the Essex County Park Commission regarding plans of the commission for beautification of the banks of the Passaic River in Belleville. This was indicated at the Town Commission meeting Tuesday night.

Commissioner Patrick A. Waters said it seemed that a through parkway was not planned because several shops and houses had been moved back from the State Highway Route 21 right of way to newly constructed cellars.

"That doesn't look as if they're going through with the parkway," he said. "Would they let the houses be moved, only to buy later at a higher price? It will be a shame if they don't make a solid stretch of the parkway."

The commissioner feared the park commission's intention might be to skip a strip of land along the river or to include them in the parkway only on condition the town buy and deed the strips to the county. Residents were led to believe when a $5,000,000 bond issue was voted for park purposes three and a half years ago that entire beautification would be made, Mr. Waters declared.

"If it's up to the town to buy the land—and it would cost $100,000—where is the money authorized being used?" he asked.

Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy said he had not been able to learn the plans of the park commission because of adjourned meetings. He attended a meeting of the commission Wednesday afternoon.

Robert S. Sinclair, president of the Park Commission, said he did not wish to make a statement until after a conference with state engineers within a few days.

Michael Carr, fireman, has decided to enter the cat rescue business. About two weeks ago, "Mike" rescued a pussy-cat from a sewer at Division and Washington avenues.

Last Friday he performed a stunt that beats that one. He climbed to the top-most branches of a tree in front of 7 Van Rensselaer street and rescued a starving feline.

The cat had been in the tree two days and was pretty nearly starved when Fireman Carr rescued it and brought it to earth. The fireman bought it a bottle of milk which the cat consumed eagerly, and then Mr. Carr returned to the fire house happy in the thought of having done a good deed.

Good-bye Stained Teeth

New Safe Treatment Bleaches Dark Teeth in Three Minutes
Dentists have discovered a new safe treatment which bleaches stains from teeth, giving yellow discolored teeth a beautiful shining whiteness. It is called Bleachodent Combination, and consists of a remarkable liquid which cures or softens the stains—and a new kind of paste, which instantly removes the softened stains, and prevents new stains from forming. Simply brush the teeth with a few drops of the liquid—then use the paste—and even the darkest teeth are quickly whitened. Tobacco stains disappear after first few applications. Bleachodent Combination was first made for children's teeth to avoid the use of harsh gritty pastes which are so harmful to children's soft sensitive teeth. While Bleachodent Combination will instantly remove surface stains, do not expect it to remove stains caused by silver fillings, as these are below the enamel, and Bleachodent Combination is not intended to act on the enamel in any way. Fine for the gums. Bleachodent Combination is widely used and recommended. Costs just a few cents, and money back if not delighted. Get it at all good dealers, such as—

SYNOPSIS

Willie Durant, financial backer of a stranded musical comedy, is friendly with Nita French, the star, but refuses to put up any more money. He is unsuccessfully attentive to Kitty, the stage struck check-room girl, and has inveigled her father, Dad Malone, and her sweetheart, Jimmy, to invest their life savings to gain a hold on the girl. Jerry Connolly, the manager, quarrels with Durant over the matter and takes a gun from him. The box-office is robbed. Joe the detective, suspects Jimmy. Kitty is followed to the prop room by Durant, who tries to make love to her. Jimmy discovers them and hits Durant.

"How should I start being myself?" Kitty asked, sparring for time to think.

"Well, in th' fir's place, you could come over here an' sit down an' be a li'l more sociable." He patted the empty space on the couch beside him. "An' then suppose we have a li'l drink. Jus' a li'l snifter." He pulled a tall silver flask from his pocket, shook it, and then reached across to a cupboard beside him where various and oddly assorted glasses filled shelves. He arranged two tumblers and poured the drinks. "If I do," Kitty began. "Will you—will you forget about the robbery and save the show?"

Durant grinned. "That's a big order for a li'l girl, but I might." He rose to his feet, picking up one glass, and handed it to Kitty. "Isn't it worth taking a chance?"

The girl hesitated. "Yes," she said slowly. "I guess it is." She took the tumbler from his outstretched hand and with a wry face downed the liquor. The strong alcohol burned her throat. She spluttered and coughed, the tears coming into her eyes.

Durant patted her back, laughing at her discomfort. "You're even cute when you choke," he caught her hand, pressing it to his lips. "I'm mad about you, Kitty. I'd do 'nuthin'—'nuthin' in the world' for you."

"Give me a drink of water, then," Kitty managed to gasp, between coughs.

Still laughing, Durant took her empty glass and went over to the grimy sink, turning on the water. He filled the tumbler and brought it back, holding it to the girl's lips. "Oo-o-oh! How anyone can drink that stuff for pleasure!" Kitty swallowed some of the water and looked up at Durant, wiping the tears from her eyes.

"You'll learn," the backer assured her, taking up his own glass and downing the Scotch in one hasty gulp. "No kidding, honey, I'm crazy 'bout you—jus' crazy 'bout you. I love you." He seized her hands and held them tight.

"Really?" Kitty questioned. She tried to make her tone light and bantering to conceal the fear that was stealing over her. But she made no effort to withdraw her hands. "What kind of love?"

"Practical love! The kind that comes wrapped up with jewelry. That's what I'm offering you—you sweet, silly li'l kid. The sort of love that doesn't fade with th' moon. Don't you understand, Kitty? I could do a lot of nice things for you if you'd only let me. Don't you understand? You're green. Get some 'experience an' get it from me."

"Maybe I am green," Kitty spoke slowly, as though pondering over the man's words.

"Awful green," Durant shook his head, sorrowfully. "Hurts my eyes, you're so green. Have t' wear smoked glasses when I look at you, but what it takes t' remove green Willie's got!"

He ran his hand experimentally along her arm, and still Kitty voiced no protest. Durant felt that he was making headway, and about time, too. Everything was in his favor. He was alone with the girl in a room far removed from the activity of the stage, and he was playing a familiar game—a game in which he held the trump cards. And best of all, Nita would be occupied with her scene for some little time. Slowly his arm encircled her neck.

Kitty tried to edge away without seeming to repulse her admirer. She still hedged for time, hoping against hope that fate would intervene to solve all the difficulties. She could feel Durant's breath warm on her cheek as his face came closer to hers.

"Oh, gee, oh gosh, you're the sweetest! I'll thing I've ever met." Durant drew her to him, but before he could kiss her, Kitty had suddenly extricated herself and was standing on the other side of the table Durant blinked.

"Remember I haven't promised anything yet." Kitty smiled seductively, her head perked on one side. "But if I do, will you give Jerry a check for Sam and the cast?"

"Um-m-m, maybe," Durant hesitated. "But don't rush me. I don't like t' be rushed. Come on, give us a kiss t' be rushed. Come on, give us a kiss to close the deal—jus' a li'l kiss to close the deal."

"No—not right now," Kitty clung to her side of the table, trying not to appear frightened.

But the sight of her so near, and the sweet remembrance of her arms made the backer forget everything but that he wanted her and was determined to have her. With a swift movement of his hands he flung aside the table and kissing the full red lips, the white throat, the gra-grant hair.

Madly Kitty fought him off, pushing his head away, trying to escape his strong arms that held her crushed to him. Tears of anger and chagrin filled her eyes, blinding her, faced him and hurled the vase dis-strong, young arm she slapped him squarely across the mouth. He fell back, clapping his hand to his face where Kitty had struck him.

"Say, what's the big idea?" he demanded, a storm of rage and passion shaking him into a kind of sobriety. "What d' you think you're pulling, after telling me we were going to be—"

"Get this, you big fourflusher," Kitty's voice was sharp and stinging, cutting like the lash of a whip.

"We're not going to be anything. Now beat it before —" She seized a vase and raised it menacingly.

"I'll teach you to string me along." With one leap Durant cleared the overturned table, his hands outstretched to grasp the girl.

Ducking aside, Kitty evaded him and ran towards the door. Durant after her. With a quick turn she faced him and hurled the vase directly at his head. He dodged. The china shattered against the wall. She was in the backer's arms, struggling. One scream, and his hand covered her mouth. In another instant the door swung open and in its yawning width stood Jimmy.

CHAPTER X

The usher stared, mingled amazement and conservatism written on his face. He seemed to be trying to understand the situation. The sight of Kitty in Durant's arms held him spellbound, but as the light of understanding dawned, the rehearsing came back to him. He flung himself upon Durant, whirling him about.

"You may be my boss, Mr. Durant," he fairly shouted. And then the rehearsed words deserted him, and a natural reaction rose to the fore. "You dirty rat!" With one blow of his fist he caught the backer squarely upon the chin and the man landed on the floor in a heap.

With an effort Durant slowly pulled himself up, shaking his head groggily.

"Get th'—get out of here before I kill you." Jimmy was standing in front of the backer, his fists clenched, his eyes gleaming.

"Jimmy!" Kitty seemed suddenly to become aware of what was going on. Horror, surprise and relief all took possession of her at the same moment. She was relieved because she had been extricated from a hateful position and yet horrified because Jimmy dared to strike Durant. Not that Durant didn't deserve it, but because he was the one person who could save Jimmy and pull the show out of its present predicament.

"I'll fix you, you fresh punk!" Durant had come to enough to regain the use of his voice but he didn't care to linger longer. He turned on his heel and staggered through the door, still nursing his battered jaw.

Jimmy, so angry and excited that he scarcely realized what he was doing, started to follow the man. Kitty seized his arm and shook him.

Newspaperman Likes New Hupmobile "8"

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 14—The vivid new beauty and original styling of the 1930 Hupmobile Straight Eight has induced unusual comment from all who have seen it.

Perhaps the following opinion expressed by the automobile editor of the Springfield, Massachusetts, Republican, is typical of the new favor expressed for the new Hupmobile.

"Have you seen that new Hupmobile Eight yet?"

"The more I look at it, the more I admire Hupmobile's daring in going so far in the direction of modern art in the lines, features and fittings of these new cars."

"And they will be successful because, while radically new in appearance, there is not an inharmonious note from stem to stern."

This comment, coming from a man whose job is to study and know automobiles and automobile design, is duplicated in thousands of letters and verbal statements approving the new Hupmobile.

There are two design features which have attracted outstanding comment. The first is Hupmobile's complete departure from conventional exterior appearance. The second is the introduction of a complete design harmony for all exterior and interior hardware, body fittings and accessories.

In body design, Hupmobile has introduced the science of geometry as a basis for the style plan of the new car. Straight lines and complementary angles predominate.

The radiator is longer and narrower. The chromium hinge is smartly flared at the rear. Bodies of the new Eight are divided at the rear into a separate plane effect on either side by a smart line. This distinctive line is noted in the center of the rear top quarter and extends downward to the rear window, the bottom edge of which has a corresponding peak. Below the windows of the Sedan and Town Sedan the line is again picked up and carried to the foot of the body. In the coupe and Cabriolet the median line on the rear deck is supplemented by the converging belt lines which are extended onto the decks in a smart point.

Hupmobile terms the new equipment a 'single, modernistic motif.' It is more than that. It is a unified design on all accessories and fittings which enhances the modern new lines of the car body.

Geometry again provides the source for this design which consists of superimposed planes or facets. This theme has been likened to the baguette design now characterizing the finest and most expensive jewelry.

This single design is first noted on the bumper separators and on the head and parking lamp rim tops as well as the mounting of the fender lamps. It is incorporated in the new styled wheel hubs.

Interiorly the same theme is carried to even greater length. It is included on the instrument panel light, on the steering wheel rim and spokes and on all door and window garnish mouldings. The windshield crank, accelerator pedal, rear quarter lights and dome light switch emphasizes this new design. Even the foot rest bracket and robe rail attachments feature the new theme.

Mrs. Rounder—I see the Heehaws have moved out of their apartment. I wonder why?

Mr. Rounder—Animals are not allowed in it. Everyone says Heehaw's a jackass, his wife's a cat, his son's a puppy and his daughter is a bird.

Additional Cable Authorized Hereabouts By Tel. Co.

More than 37,000 feet of additional telephone cable between Newark and Orange, and Newark and Elizabeth, together with other construction work and changes in the Essex and Bigelow central offices here, have been authorized by the directors of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company. The work probably will be undertaken during the spring.

Calling between Newark and the Oranges and the Elizabeth district has been increasing at such a rapid rate that new lines will be necessary shortly to handle the growth. More than 13,000 feet of cable will be laid between Newark and the Oranges to add to present facilities. Between four and five miles of new cable will be needed for the same purpose between Newark and Elizabeth.

In preparation for the start of dial service in the Essex central office next year, and also to provide new lines for growth in the Irvington section, upwards of 22,000 feet of cable will be laid there. The work includes more than 500 feet of new underground conduit as well.

Combined Exhibit By Camera Club

New Jersey historically, scenically and industrially will be portrayed November 19 to 26 in the first combined exhibit of the camera clubs of the State.

The camera-lens view of the state will be presented in Vail Hall, the auditorium of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company's Headquarters Building, 540 Broad street, Newark. The clubs participating include the Bridgeton Camera Club, Elysia Camera Club of Hoboken, Newark Camera Club, Orange Camera Club and WeKearnyan Camera Club. Photographic entries by individuals unconnected with a club, and by industrial concerns, will supplement the clubs' exhibit.

The display is being sponsored jointly by the clubs and the telephone company, for the purpose of making the beauties and advantages of the state more familiar to a larger number of Jerseymen and women, it is announced. For this reason the exhibit hall will be kept open to the public evenings as well as days while the display is on.

Because of the nature of the display and its purpose no prizes will be awarded, but the public balloting will determine the photographs adjudged best by the visitors in each of the three divisions of the exhibit, the scenic, historic and industrial sections, and the public verdict will be contrasted with the judgement of three judges of the exhibit to be selected.

Notice to the public

SUPPOSE you are today paying 50c a tube for your tooth paste (and there are many very good dentifrices selling today at that price).

Suppose, like most people, you buy about twelve tubes during a year. Now if you knew that you could buy as good a dentifrice as can be made and still save each year the price of 25 loaves of bread or 60 bars of soap or 40 pounds of sugar or a box of fine cigars—could you conscientiously fail to take advantage of such an opportunity?

That is exactly what you do when you buy Listerine Tooth Paste at 25c for a large tube. Figure it out for yourself.

WILLIAM "DOC" HOOD HOLDS RECORD AS BASEBALL ARBITER

William "Doc" Hood holds high honors as umpire for a record number of different high schools. He has officiated for no less than thirteen different high schools in New Jersey. He has been umpire for the Dickinson-St. Peter's Prep annual baseball tussle for the last fourteen years and for Nutley High School for the past seven years.

The schools that "Doc" has umpired for include Belleville, Nutley, Barringer, Central, East Side, South Side, St. Benedicts, Seton Hall, Dickinson, Montclair, St. Peter's Prep, Newark Academy and Montclair Academy.

"Doc" started umpiring for the old Woodside A. A. about twenty-five years ago at the age of twenty-nine. The grounds at that time were located on the west side of Summer avenue at Irving street. Among the members of the team were Comiskey, William Reilly, James "Pop" Westlake and George "Chippy" Blum, all of Belleville.

"Doc" umpired his first Belleville High School game in 1912, when Belleville played Central. It was at this game that "Stoney" Machette, coach of Belleville High, introduced "Doc" Hood to Harry "Doc" Sargent, coach of Central High, and in consequence Mr. Hood was appointed chief umpire of the Newark City League after umpiring the Barringer-Central game.

He began umpiring at Columbia Oval with the opening of the field in 1910. It was at this time that the Forest Hill Field Club had its organization and "Doc" was the first umpire for the team, which began playing at Columbia Oval that year.

About this time he began serving as umpire for the Morristown A. A., where he officiated in that capacity for four years, for Saturday and Sunday games. During this time he umpired for the Morristown team, of which "Osby" Lawson is now a noted member against such big league teams as the Brooklyn and Boston Nationals as well as the Newark Indians of the International League, when these teams were barnstorming.

From the Morristown A. A. Mr. Hood went to the Commonwealth Club of Upper Montclair, where he umpired Saturday and Sunday games four years. While there he worked as umpire for the New York City Metropolitan A. A. U., calling the balls and strikes for such teams as the Crescents of Brooklyn, Englewood, Forest Hills, L. I., New York A. C. Montclair A. C., and the Commonwealths.

For seven years he was umpire of Nutley Club ending his services about 1927. Besides these leagues and teams "Doc" umpired for Seton Hall Prep and College for two years. He obtained for Alexander "Bun" Derbyshire, the present American Legion League of Belleville umpire his first high school game at Nutley. He also umpired in the Belleville Manufacturers' League.

He broke his collar bone twice from foul balls striking him, the first time at the St. Benedicts-Central tilt and the second time at Forest Hill-Arlington game. "Doc" has played baseball somewhat himself. He was a member of the Tabs of Belleville, the Young Men's Catholic Association of Belleville and the Bloomfield Lyceum nine. He also played three games with the Belleville Woodstocks, the members of the team at that time being Nick Comiskey, pitcher; Jim Noonan, catcher; Chief of Police Michael A. Flynn, left field; Sergeant Jim Flynn, second base; Jack Comiskey, right field; Jim Byrnes, third base; James Comiskey, first base; and Dennis O'Neill, short-stop.

He was born on Lincoln avenue, Newark, November 3, 1875. His first job was with the Hardman Rubber Company, where he received a remuneration of $2.50 per week. He later worked with the DeWitt Wire Cloth Company and for twenty-eight years was with the Heller Tool Company. He is at present employed as head janitor at School No. 7.

He married Miss Jessie J. Woods of Bloomfield and has three children, Grace, Leo and Charles. Leo is a graduate of Seton Hall College.

"Doc" was the organizer of the first Catholic Boy Scout troop in Belleville at St. Peter's. This troop sold close to $200,000 in Liberty Bonds during the war. He also organized a troop in St. Mary's Church of Nutley.

Mr. Hood, who is a veteran of the Spanish-American War, is a member of Franklin Camp, United Spanish War Veterans. He is an honorary member of George A. Younginger Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars and secretary of the Columbus Club.

Herbert W. Hahn Elected Justice Of Peace, Maplewood

Herbert W. Hahn, associated with the Wegner Motor Car Company, Studebaker dealers of Belleville for the past two years, was elected Justice of the Peace for Maplewood, with the privilege of jurisdiction throughout Essex County. He is a graduate of New Jersey Law School, Class of 1925, and was associated in the law business with his father, Supreme Court Commissioner Henry Hahn of 9 Clinton street, Newark.

After being there about a year, Mr. Hahn joined the Studebaker company here in Belleville where he has been since. Mr. Hahn is a 32nd degree Mason and affiliated with Triluminal Lodge, F. & A. M. of Newark and the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine of Salaam Temple.

Mr. Deckenbach's sermon topic will be, "When I Awake."

Evening Prayer and sermon at 7:45 P. M. Sunday. Mr. Deckenbach's subject will be "The Jerusalem Road." Sunday school is at 9:45 A. M. every Sunday. Sylvester P. Denison is superintendent.

On Sunday evening at 6:45, the Young People's Council of Belleville comprising all the Young People's Societies of the Protestant churches in town, will have a "Get Together" meeting of Wesley Methodist Church. Mr. Deckenbach will be the speaker, and his subject will be "Youth in Action."

There will be a report meeting on the Every Member Canvass, at the parish house, on Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock.

This afternoon the members of the Ladies' Guild and their friends, will meet at the corner of Broad and Court streets, Newark, at 2 o'clock, and will proceed to Janovius and Sons' Carpet Cleaning Plant, located at 112 Arlington street, where an unusual and very interesting trip through the works will be made. Souvenirs will be given.

There will be a meeting of the Vestry this evening, at 8:15, in the parish house.

Tomorrow at Trinity House, Newark, there will be held the Annual Diocesan meeting of the Girls' Friendly Society. This will be an all-day meeting, with box luncheon. There will be the election of Diocesan Officers of the Girls' Friendly Society, reports and several speakers. Mrs. George A. Kelsall, Branch President, and some of her associates will attend.

On account of the stereopticon lecture by Canon Dunlap, of the Cathedral Staff in Washington, D. C., on "Building a Cathedral," which took place on Wednesday evening, at the parish house, the meeting of the Girls' Friendly Society was omitted and the members attended the lecture, which was most interesting and educational.

The regular meeting of the Men's Club, which was scheduled for Monday evening, will be omitted on account of the Every Member Canvass. The Ladies' Guild will meet at the parish house, on Thursday afternoon which is one week earlier than the regular day, on account of Thanksgiving. The president, Mrs. Mary Lloyd, will preside.

BELLEVILLE REFORMED

Rev. John A. Struyk

Last night the Intermediate Christian Endeavor Society met in the chapel, Miss Violet V. Ripper, leading.

Tonight, 7 o'clock — Girl Scout Troop, No. 9, meets in the chapel. 8 P. M. — Consistory Session in church parlors. Reports of committees on church condition will be given.

Sunday, November 17, 9:45 A. M. — Church School. H. L. Sturgess, superintendent. Classes for all ages. 11 A. M. — Preaching Service. Pastor's sermon: "An Up-to-Date Commandment," the sixth in a series.

7 P. M. — Senior Christian Endeavor will meet with other Societies at the M. E. Church. 7:45 P. M. — Popular preaching Service. Sermon topic, "How Long?" Good music and a friendly atmosphere.

Tuesday, 7:30 P. M. — Boy Scout Troop, No. 89, meets in the chapel. Wednesday, 8 P. M. — Congregational mid-week service. Everybody invited to this spiritual service, which is led by the pastor. The desire is to increase the attendance of this service. There is a real need for a service of this kind for the church.

November 24, 7:45 P. M. — The Ladies of the Eastern Star, Arene Chapter, No. 73, will attend in a body. A splendid program is being arranged. This ought to be an inspiring night for the ladies.

November 25, 8 P. M. — In the chapel the Senior Christian Endeavor Society will give "Missionary Sketches." Refreshments will be served. A real delightful evening for those attending. An invitation is extended to everybody to come. Miss Evelyn Johnston and Miss Edith Lutz have charge.

December 29, 8 P. M. — Thomas Noonan and his gang from Chinatown will pay us a visit. Reserve the date.

The Consistory has set aside the month of November to gather pledges to cancel the debt incurred at the renovation of the church. Many pledges are coming in and it is hoped that by December 1 the debt be wiped out. The church that has stood 232 years has a right to ask the support of maintaining the old pre-Revolutionary church. Its history began in 1697.

Sunday morning the pastor of Grace Church will have as the subject of the morning discourse, "A Great Faith." In these days of wonderful inventions and enterprises, it requires something out of the ordinary of affairs, to be classified as a great faith.

The evening service begins at 7:45 P. M. with song service by the people. The spirit of song in the hearts of the people of Grace Church is not excelled by any other congregation in the city. Mr. McCombe will speak from the subject close to the heart of the common people, "A Noble Ambition." You will want to hear this discourse. You have ideals. You have ambitions. What is your standard? You will be interested in this sermon.

Our young people are showing a determined spirit to make things go. Their meeting place was filled to overflowing last Sunday evening. It begins to look as if a larger room will be needed to take care of this eager and loyal band of young people. It is fortunate that our plant can supply this need.

Tuesday evening last, was one of the best fellowship meetings that we have had under the present pastorate. Mr. McCombe is wearing the smile that won't come off, at the evident interest the people are taking in the discussion of the church covenant. Those who miss this service Tuesday evenings are missing something worth while. The meetings are open to all who care to attend and who enjoy good fellowship.

The Men's Club of Grace Church are doing their best to gain the lead in the Church League. They are now in second place, but do not intend to stay there very long. Any man looking for good fellowship and clean sport will receive a hearty welcome from the men of Grace Club. Bowling is a fine clean sport and you would enjoy it.

If you hear the younger element of Grace Church talking about a mummy do not be alarmed. No medical school has been robbed. Do not be afraid; it is only something about the play that they are to give in the near future. If you do not want to laugh please do not buy a ticket for this mirth provoking play, which the young people are to give soon. The play is teeming with mirth and joy. You will like it. Watch the Belleville News for the date.

Friday of this week we are to have a rare treat. Doctor Williamson of New York, is to be present and will have something worth while to tell us. Doctor Laegeler will come out with him. The people always enjoy hearing Doctor Laegeler and he will have a part in the meeting that will begin at 7:45. You will be welcome Friday evening, if you care to come.

FEWESMITH MEMORIAL

O. Bell Close, pastor

Sunday morning service, 11:00 — "The Antidote to Anxiety."
Sunday evening service, 8:00 —

"The Higher Patriotism." Dr. O. Bell Close, Pastor.

The regular Sunday evening service of the Christian Endeavor will not be held as there will be a joint meeting of all the Young People's Societies in Belleville held at the Wesley Methodist Episcopal church. Reverend Peter Deckenbach of the Christ Church will be the speaker. Members of the Fewesmith C. E. are requested to be present as each church group will endeavor to have as many as possible attend.

Next Sunday morning, November 17, the C. E. Society will begin a drive to secure contributions of trees, shrubs and money in order that the work of beautifying the church grounds may be completed. This undertaking by these young people is very worthy and members of the church are asked to donate as generously as they can.

Fifth Anniversary
From the report made Sunday evening by the attendance chairman, Mr. Henry Squier, indications point to a large and interested group of church members at the dinner to be held next Thursday evening, November 21, at 6:30. In order that the members who have inadvertently overlooked sending in their reservations may not be disappointed, Mr. Squier has arranged to extend the time to Sunday evening, November 17.

A most entertaining program has been arranged by the program committee which consists of Mr. F. G. Stimson, chairman; Mrs. H. E. Morgan, Miss Florence Breen, Mrs. J. M. Moore, Mr. Everett Nestell and Mr. E. B. Collard. Miss Breen will have charge of a program for the children directly after dinner. It has been arranged that the children adjourn to another room in order that their program may not conflict with the one arranged for their elders. Songs, instrumental music and monologues will be offered by a group of church members and others.

Fewesmith Missionary Society
Mrs. J. Hamill was in charge of the sewing group who met last Thursday morning in the church school rooms. A great deal of work was accomplished by the ladies attending and this constitutes Fewesmith's annual sewing contribution for the missions. Mrs. Porter Sheldon was chairman of the committee which served luncheon at a nominal cost and those attending were high in their praise of the luncheon served.

After a short business session and devotions led by Mrs. Samuel Millar, a most inspiring talk was given by the pastor, Dr. O. Bell Close on the Southern Mountaineers. No more sympathetic and understanding viewpoint could be given than was presented by Dr. Close and a new understanding of the obstacles surmounted by the missionaries, was expressed by the members who heard Dr. Close.

Reports were given by various members on the fall meeting of the Newark Presbytery.

The next meeting will be held on the afternoon of December 5.

Fellowship Circle
Tonight members of the Fellowship Circle will give a special performance of scenes and songs of "Ye Olden Times." An enjoyable evening has been promised for old and young. Admission at twenty-five cents.

ROOF TREE BRANCH

Roof Tree Branch of the International Sunshine Society met November 6 in the Recreation House, and voted to send the proceeds of the card party, given last month in the home of Mrs. Edward Swick, to the Arthur Home and Kindergarten for blind children at Summit. A check was received from Mrs. Sara McG. for Thanksgiving cheer, and she can rest assured the Branch will see it goes where there is suffering and want. Thanks, Mrs. McG. Only a short time ago this kindly lady gave the same amount to Sunbeams, and they used it for towels for the Arthur Home, and it will go shortly as a towel shower.

The president Mrs. Anna Ruff has many calls for assistance these cool days, when coal comes to be a necessity, and these are investigated by Welfare chairman, Mrs. Rudolph Luhr.

The next meeting of the Branch will be held at the recreation House November 20 at 2 P. M.

SUNBEAMS

Sunbeams, the junior branch of the I. S. S. held a "Doll Show" Saturday, at 31 Bell street.

The "Doll Show" opened with a recitation, "Mary Had a Little Lamb," rendered by Lorraine Ransom. Janet Smith and Marjorie Hansen were seen in a tap dance, which evoked considerable applause. "The Pagan Love Song" and "Honey" were sung by Jane O'Connor, Marjorie Hansen and Janet Smith. Janet

Dear and Helen Ruff exhibited some clever dancing.

After these preliminaries came the "Doll Show," which consisted of an exhibition of a select group of China dolls, mama dolls, kewpies, Indians and the like.

Mrs. H. Mellon and Mrs. C. Borcham made awards to the following children: Wilma Baxter, Miriam Rosenblum, Joyce Van Selt, Janet Dear, Carol Carswell, Gloria Luhrs, Harriet Mellon, Audrey Luhrs, Jane O'Connor, Beatrice Harter, Doris Davis, Doris Rosenblum, Ruth Rodenbeck, Gladys Louett, Margaret King, Dorothy Carpenter, Helen Ruff, Bernice Ruff, Lorraine Carpenter, Marjorie Manlen, Dorothy Lidlow, Anne Stringer and Marilyn Cannon.

Mrs. George Cole was in charge of the candy, Helen Ruff in charge of dancing, and Miriam Rosenblum in charge of tickets. The "Doll Show" was a big success.

Testimonial Dinner

Given O. R. Ebel

In honor to O. R. Ebel of Van Houten place, who is retiring from active leadership, about 150 members of the Everyman's Bible Class attended a dinner in the social hall of Wesley M. E. Church last Friday evening.

The president of the class, William H. Bradshaw, introduced the toastmaster, W. W. Stewart, who very ably presided. Many songs were sung during the evening, and the Mosaic Orchestra performed in their usual good style.

Among the speakers were Rev. Peter Deckenbach, Christ Episcopal Church, Rev. O. B. Close, Fewesmith Presbyterian Church; and Rev. Edgar M. Compton, of Wesley Church. Glowing tribute was paid to the retiring leader, whose splendid interpretation of Bible truths and their practical application to daily living, has attracted large attendance to the class regularly.

Col. Wallace Winchell of the Salvation Army, and Dr. Lyall M. Rader of Maywood, also spoke.

The early history of the class was told by C. G. Hemingway, stating the growth from 25 to nearly 400 members, and John B. Brown expressed what Mr. Ebel's leadership has meant to the class members and to the community in general.

Mr. Ebel will address the class next Sunday morning and assist occasionally until a successor may be found. He was presented with an onyx desk set with the hope it may serve as a daily reminder of the pleasant association of the past.

Charles F. Tarbox

Charles Franklin Tarbox, retired Public Service trolley car inspector and resident of Newark forty years, died at the home of a son, Charles W. Tarbox, 37 Tiona avenue, Monday night, the result of a stroke a week ago.

SCHOOLS

By JAMES REILLY

As part of the Friday morning assembly Principal Charles L. Steel had a visitor from Australia, M. P. Greenwood Adams, talk to pupils of Belleville High School.

Mr. Adams has lived in Australia for twenty years and has spent the other twenty years of his life in travel. He entertained the assembly by a series of picture slides on which he gave brief talks. His subject was Australia, and especially north-west Australia.

It takes three weeks by steamer to reach Sydney, Melbourne from San Francisco, and in speaking of Sydney harbor it is to be said that Sydney harbor ranks among the finest, he said. There is to be found swimming at all times of the year at this wonderful place. There the trees never shed leaves but shed bark. There are over 300 kinds of flowers, he added, many are fragrant and some are not. Of all the various forms of wild life to be found in Australia the snake lives in greater number and is most dangerous. Another creature but perhaps a bit rarer than the snake, is the Duckbill, a creature with the webbed feet of a duck, spurs on the rear feet like a rooster, fur like a muskrat, burrows like an otter, has a head like a cat and a bill like that of a duck. The Enu is a large bird like the ostrich in appearance and known for its spitefulness.

The Henry Ford of Australia was H. B. McCay. He died about two months ago and is survived by his brother.

This great country that is almost the size of the United States, is one of the greatest of all wool countries. The famous Marino sheep which are raised are of Spanish origin, approximately one century old.

A record selling price was made a short time ago at auction for a marino ram, $25,000.

The pearl industry is a great one and a dangerous one for the blacks, who act as divers, Mr. Adams said, adding the deaths average one a day. The men go down at 9 and come up at 12 o'clock.

The head hunter, cannibal and what not of Australia is the Aborigine. The term given to him by writers of fiction is "bushman" which Mr. Adams asserted is not correct. The term "bush" in Australia means woods or forest man. Another fictional error is the calling of these savages, "pigmies," for the majority of them are seven feet tall. The true beach combers of Australia are the Arabs and the Frenchmen who have spent from forty to fifty years of their lives roaming about on the sand driven, coral reefed shores.

The sea cow which lives in the water off the coast of this country is a distant relation of the manatee, which used to come up as far as the Jersey shores, not many years ago. It is so named because of the resemblance of the inside of the body to that of a cow which gives milk.

There are two distinct kinds of turtles in Australia, they are the green turtles which are good for soup and the loggerhead which is of no value. With the assistance of four blacks and another white, one night they managed to catch one hundred giant turtles which Mr. Adams claims is a record catch and has not been beaten.

The clams that abound in the water in and about Australia sometimes weigh as much as two tons. At times divers are trapped by these unseen horrors and only through quick work are they saved.

The Aborigine excels in disfigurement and has his body covered with huge scars. These scars are made by scraping the surface of the skin with a sharp shell and drawing blood. As soon as the blood appears mud or ashes is rubbed into the cut, thereby making the skin irritated and when healed leaves an upraised section of flesh. It is a painful process and many wonder why blood poison does not set in and take away life, but it is said that this race is closest to nature and perhaps that accounts for it. The chief weapons of the black is the spear and next comes the boomerang. The boomerang is made after much effort and much patience. The weapon is made flat on one side and is beveled on the other, similar to the aeroplane wing. When in flight the missile of destruction rotates like an aeroplane propeller. It is used in the killing of game and in warfare. The spear is similar to others except perhaps in length for the Australian spear is fifteen feet long and has been known to have hurled 200 yards.

A recent addition to the Belleville High School orchestra is Robert Haythorne who is to play the Alto horn.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Schweiker accompanied by their son, Paul, and a group of fellows from Belleville High School spent the Armistice Day week-end at Swartswood lake. Coach Erikson also went.

The trip was made by automobile. Some piled into Paul's car and some made their way in Coach Erikson's. The group started Saturday afternoon and after a cold trip arrived at Camp Belleville. All proceeded to have a merry time. "Morrie" Udansky, it is said, was the chief disturber, who found great glee in throwing water on certain members and performing other tricks under cover of darkness. It was too bad that the fellows did not have their guns for while some of them were out walking they scared no less than nine partidge out of the brush.

A few ventured out on the lake in a canoe but soon came back due to the cold. A big log fire was started in the fireplace and kept going all the time. The folks returned Monday afternoon.

Belleville Elks Plan To Attend Newark No. 21 Winter Frolic

Members of the Newark Lodge No. 21, B. P. O. Elks and many thousands of visiting Elks and their friends will frolic for a week at the Sussex Avenue Armory, Newark, December 2 to 7, in a setting of bunting, banners and circus tents, to provide funds for cheer and help to the underprivileged boys and girls and worthy poor of Newark at Christmas time.

For six days, the Sussex Avenue Armory will be transformed into a veritable Circusland, ablaze with thousands of colored lights, and with forty booths filled with merchandise and goodies, manned by volunteer Elks, all for the enjoyment of visitors and the gathering of funds for the Ninth Yuletide distribution of baskets and charities of the Order.

Articles of many kinds will be sold. Vaudeville, music and dancing, twelve circus acts, novelties and contests are all featured by the Committee to make this year's Frolic the biggest ever held by the organization.

The opening night will perhaps be the most interesting event of the Frolic, it was announced by chairman Edward A. Reilly. On that evening, scores of kiddies, from one year up to ten, will come in cute costumes, to hold a Grand Promenade. The prize winners, according to competent judges now being appointed by the committee, will receive loving cups as awards. All parents who wish to have their children entered in this contest, are asked by John B. Rooney, the secretary of the Frolic Committee, to send in their names for registration at the Elks' Home.

Another feature of wide-spread interest is a contest for the "Best Type of American Business Girl." Newark firms are being asked by the local Lodge to enter their employees in this contest. Looks alone will not be the deciding factor, according to Mervin G. Wiener, one of the judges.

"The search is for the typical American Business Girl. Of course she must be attractive," states Mr. Wiener. "That means she must have charm, poise, intelligence, grace and good manners." Manner of dress is also of importance. In other words, she must have personality." Girls who desire to be considered, the committee announces should immediately have their photographs taken at Drew Peter's studio, 52 Milford avenue.

SEEN ON THE FIELD

By EDDIE TAYLOR

Did you see the crowd at the Dover Belleville football game, which Belleville won, 6-0? Every available inch of space was taken by the rooters. We saw many whom we know. So did every one else.

Genial Phil Taylor, who was away attending a family reunion, was the man responsible for the painting of the players helmets, white. The backfield men had black stripes on their white helmets.

Our Mayor, Samuel S. Kenworthy occupied a prominent place in the bleachers. So did president of the Board of Education, John P. Maher.

Be it known to all the football squad has sweethearts. Here are some of them and how they did cheer: Jane Applegate of Dover; Janet Lawrence of Bloomfield; Madeleine Nagel of Kearny; Helen Harrison, Jane Vessie, Ruth Heller, Helen Leiss Eileen Mazza, Betty Allen, Edith Wear, Cora deHass, Roma Hayward, and Kathleen Ryan, all of Belleville. Brother Joe escorted Miss Applegate to the game and brother Matt escorted Miss Ryan.

Much credit must go to the police department for the way the crowd was handled under the leadership of Bob Anderson and ably seconded by Richard Nourse, Thomas Bride, Nicholas Rowe, Nelson Demgard and Roy Hilton.

Bob Cole had his performing dogs cut capers on the side lines.

Miss Mary L. Dye, Spanish teacher at the high school, cried "Bueno, bueno" when "Chang" Schweiker carried the ball. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Pendleton certainly did help the cheering squad. Mrs. Pendleton is also a high school instructor.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schweiker came early to the game. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lawrence of Bloomfield. The latter are the parents of Janet. That explains everything.

Tommy "Red" Dunn was without a hat as usual, exposing his flaming locks to the breezes.

Commissioner Frank Carragher had his iron hat, cigar, and red necktie with him.

Jimmy Dunn and Harry Ward represented the Town Hall employees.

Charles Wilde had on a nice new gray top coat.

James "Pop" Westlake, whose son is on the Dover squad, was there without his banjo. He is a former Bellevillite.

William Rawlings argued with "Shorty" Tuite over the fine points of the game.

The police department was represented in the stands by Sergeant Charles Pearl, Harry Scott, Ray Demgard and John "Sugar" Flynn; the fire department by William Flynn and Richard Beck.

We are wondering what has become of Bill Entekin. We looked for him at every game but his smiling countenance failed to appear amongst those present.

Charles Van Riper and Ray Weyer did a lot of yelling, which did them a lot of good, and the rest of us no harm.

The Hoople Club's cheering section was led by Mike Bartley.

"Chuckles" from the Whiteway Diner was there, apron, et al.

Former Commissioner John De Graw had his inevitable pipe going

Appeal Will Open With Dinner This Thursday At Elks

Belleville's appeal for $16,000 with which to operate its Community Chest in which five organizations will take part is taking form. Monday the committee in charge reported a dinner is scheduled for Thursday evening, November 14, at which time workers and captains will be addressed by Stanley Nauright, who is connected with the speakers' bureau of the Newark Chest.

Further decision was reached to have a speaker at the Veterans' of Foreign Wars meeting Thursday evening in Valley Hose House, the Military Ball in the Elks, Home, Monday evening, at the Valley Improvement Association meeting, November 14, in churches for five-minute talks and in the Capitol Theatre, the Wednesday and Friday prior to the start of the campaign. William Stewart will speak at the Military ball affair.

"Underwriting Obligation"
Charles Granville Jones, chairman of the chest, urged Belleville folks to look upon the campaign as "underwriting an obligation." He said that "the honor of the town and its organizations is at stake."

This Small Amount Would Eliminate Five Drives A Year

Would you contribute one cent a day or $3.65 a year to see the needy of the town cared for by the Community Service Bureau and work of the Salvation Army, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Red Cross, carried on? If each person in Belleville gives $3.65 all these agencies will be cared for for one year. There will be no more appeals to the town to help them carry on their noble work.

Won't you help? This is not much to give. Belleville knows how to do it. Let's all put our shoulders to the wheel and show the outside towns that Belleville can and will help its civic spirit grow like other municipalities.

The Community Service Bureau especially will aid the needy. The Salvation Army has worked its way into deserving sympathy of all the world. The Red Cross, enough said, and the character building of Boy and Girl Scout endeavors has been proven.

One cent a day. Would you give it to help? Certainly you would and so would we. That's why we are devoting this much space to a worth while appeal. Let's all help—

PROCLAMATION

VICTORY MONTH will be celebrated this year by the most important event in the history of the Town of Belleville; namely the organization of the Community Chest, the purpose of which shall be to secure the necessary funds for various worthy organizations of our Town. It is the duty of every citizen to not only co-operate in putting across this drive to the full extent of its quota, $16,500.00, but to give personally to the Chest to the fullest extent of the individual's means. These most worthy organizations, the Boy Scouts; Girl Scouts; the Red Cross; the Salvation Army and the Community Welfare Service are the bodies benefitting through this drive. Each of these organizations individually are of the most vital importance to every citizen of our Town, and to properly carry on their work must have, not only the moral but the financial support of our citizens. The co-ordination of their appeal to you, instead of individual drives conducted by the units, is the most economical method of securing these necessary funds. I most heartily urge our citizens to give 100 per cent support to our first Community Chest Drive.

SAMUEL S. KENWORTHY,
Mayor.

Belleville is about to step into a class with 356 other progressive cities in handling its charitable, social welfare, and character building work. This is to be accomplished through a Community Chest, so that a careful study of our needs can be made and the financial campaigns of the five organizations coordinated, these are the Red Cross, Salvation Army, Community Service Bureau, Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts.

This method means one campaign once each year instead of five separate calls for help. The minimum amount required to support these agencies for 1930 is $16,000.

We all admit that each of these organizations have a place in our economic life, without them we would be called upon to meet certain problems in a much more expensive way. It is our duty as American Citizens and residents of Belleville to get behind this movement; this is a civic obligation we cannot discharge without financial support.

From November 15 to 25 a campaign will be conducted to raise the amount required. A canvasser will call at your home sometime during this period. Remember there are five organizations appealing to you at one time. Decide now the amount you will give.

Belleville High Eleven Trims Dover, 6-0

Jimmie Byrnes Saves The Day For Locals

Led by the human battering ram Paul Schwieker, the Golden Horde of Belleville High successfully repulsed Dover's speedy offensive and rang up their fifth successive win of the season by a 6-0 count, at Clearman Field, Saturday.

After being outplayed in the first half, the local squad came back with hurricane-like swiftness in the third period to score the lone touchdown of the game before Dover could get its bearings. Belleville was on the threshold of the Dover goal line before the fans could realize what had happened.

Starting from its own forty-five yard line the Bell-boys, with Schwieker carrying the ball four of the five times necessary for the touchdown, marched down the field irresistibly with a bewildering series of off tackle smashes and end runs.

Schwieker got the local team off to a good start in the first period, making a fine kick-off, which Dover managed to run back on the first play, Dover was held by the Belleville line and was forced to kick. Receiving the ball on their own forty-two yard line, Belleville opened up with its first sustained drive of the day, carrying the pigskin to Dover's twenty-two yard line before they were stopped. "Milo" Salters was mainly instrumental in this great work with a twenty-five yard sprint through tackle for the first large gain of the day.

Following this successful rush on the part of the Blue and Gold, Dover, employing a trick play through center, as well as a number of nicely executed end runs, carried the ball thirty-four yards to Belleville's sixteenth yard line. They lost the ball on downs as the Belleville line broke up play after play with Uduky and D'Elia receiving the brunt of the attack. Belleville had advanced the ball to its own twenty-five yard line when the quarter ended.

With Dover gaining considerable ground through the Belleville forward wall in the second period, "Butter" Brand, the lanky center, was inserted to stop the advances which he did satisfactorily. A short while later Anderten and Byrnes were sent to the backfield for defensive purposes, to stop a last minute Dover assault as the half ended.

At the start of the third period Schwieker suddenly found large holes in the Dover defense and placed the ball on Dover's twelve-yard line with a pair of twenty-yard line smashes. On the next two plays Schwieker gained five through center and Short five more around end to place the oval in scoring position. Schwieker then took it over from the two-yard line. Short's fake kick for the extra point failed.

The huge crowd of 6,000 present went wild with joy over the scoring of the touchdown. Hats were tossed in the air and it was generally a scene of great hilarity.

For the remainder of the third period and the beginning of the last quarter the play was centered in mid-field, due mainly to some fine work on the part of Jackson and O'Neil, who time after time broke through the Dover defense to smear an embryo end run. Estelle and Galluba were bulwarks of strength, making several fine tackles on attempted smashes through their sectors.

It was in the closing minutes of the first period with Belleville making a final attempt to score and the Belleville fans standing on their seats in frenzied excitement, pleading for another touchdown, when Schwieker attempted a forward pass to Short.

The followed a play that gave nearly every Belleville fan heart failure. Kunzer of Dover intercepted Schwieker's well-meant forward and began what turned out to be a seventy-yard dash down the field. He began the run with plenty of interference, which was responsible for the holding off of several Belleville players, who made lunges at the speeding back.

The last man, to make an attempt to tackle him was Captain Short, who was taken out by an interference man, and the way seemed open for a Dover touchdown, with a tie and a possible Belleville defeat looming in the offing.

Then from nowhere emerged a single diminutive golden-clad figure, outstripping his teammates in pur-

P. S. Stock Sale Is At High Level

Fourteenth Of Popular Ownership Sales Proves Greater Than Ever

In the second offer of its $5 Cumulative Preferred (No Par Value) stock under the popular ownership plan, Public Service Corporation of New Jersey sold 52,911 shares to 17,655 subscribers from October 1 to October 31. Public Service employees were the salesmen.

Before this offer was half over, more shares had been sold than during the entire month of the first offer of the same stock in October of last year. The final figures in last year's offer were 39,150 shares sold to 12,497 subscribers, and 10,124 shares taken by 2,180 stockholders under rights issued by the Corporation.

Public Service has conducted fourteen popular ownership stock campaigns. The first was launched in May, 1921 when eight percent cumulative preferred stock was sold. Second and third offers of eight percent, cumulative preferred stock were made in November of the same year and in May, 1922. Altogether, 66,176 shares of eight percent stock were sold to 17,134 customers. Four offers of seven percent, cumulative preferred stock followed, the first of these being in March 1923. The remaining three offers were made in 1923, 1924 and 1925. The total sales in the four offers of seven percent stock were 268,561 shares to 66,062 subscribers.

In 1926 Public Service made its first offer of six percent, cumulative preferred stock. There were five of these and in them 277,280 shares of that stock were sold to 52,741 subscribers.

When the first of the customer ownership campaign was started in 1921, Public Service Corporation of New Jersey had some 2,500 stockholders. Before the beginning of the sale which ended October 31, there were, eliminating duplications, 81,072 stockholders on the books of the corporation. The present offer has largely increased this number.

Comets Score Victory On Nutley Gridiron

The Comet Athletic Club defeated the Carlisle Indians, 7-0, in Yanticaw Park, Nutley, Sunday. Eddie Hohenstein scored the only touchdown in the closing minutes of play. Bill Reilly added the extra point with a drop-kick.

The contest was witnessed by a large crowd. The Comets threatened to score several times during the game, but not until the final period spurt was a score realized.

Mike Connors starred for the losers, performing well on both offense and defense. He made several long gains but when the Comet goal line was threatened, could not gain.

suited of the touchdown-headed Kunzer and in a single second had caught up and downed him, preventing the defeat of Belleville.

Jimmie Byrnes, until now just another backfield man, stepped into the limelight by this single tackle.

The period ended a few minutes after this sensational play, to give Belleville its hardest earned triumph of the season and incidentally spoil Dover's unbeaten record of six games.

Ex-Convict Caught In Nutley Tool Shed

Chanceman Harry Kirk Sees Man Prowling In Back Yard

Chanceman Harry Kirk of the Nutley police Thursday night caused the arrest of an alleged burglar in a tool shed in Overbrook terrace, Nutley. While making his rounds, Kirk noticed a man prowling in the back yard of a house owned by John Young of 50 Overlook terrace, Nutley.

Kirk said he saw the man, who later gave his name as Harry Fuchs of 18 Franklin street, Philadelphia, break the lock and enter the tool shed.

The chanceman hurried to the shed and ordered the man to come out. His orders disobeyed, Kirk fired a shot into the air and the prowler quickly surrendered. He had a flashlight and a pinch bar.

Fuchs was taken to the police headquarters and was arraigned before Recorder Charles Young, Friday.

Fuchs told Chief William Brown of Nutley he had just served a year in the county penitentiary for trespassing on Lackawanna Railroad property in Millburn. Previous to this he admitted having served a six-year jail sentence in Trenton for burglary in Camden.

The shed which Fuchs entered is owned by Eugene Henkel of North Haledon avenue, North Haledon. There were four boxes of tools in the shed.

Telephone Service Facilitated To Points In South

Telephone users in Belleville who call Richmond, Va., will have their calls routed over a direct circuit from the Newark long distance switchboard, after the middle of this month. The direct circuit will materially improve telephone service to Richmond and points reached from the Richmond toll center, including Raleigh, N. C., which is frequently called from here, it was stated today by C. R. O'Neill, manager for the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company.

The new line will be 330 miles long. Repeater stations along the route will "boost" the volume of voice transmission.

Direct circuits have been established to numerous cities where the quantity of telephone calling from Newark and vicinity, and from these cities to Newark and places served by the Newark long distance switchboard, have warranted. The circuit to Richmond will be one of the longest, enabling the operator in Newark to ring directly the operator in Richmond.

Cuts Fingers Breaking Fire Alarm Box Glass

The cuts were treated by Dr. Rush C. Bauman of Nutley.

The Nutley firemen extinguished the blaze with little damage. The incident occurred in Bloomfield avenue, near Center street, Nutley.

GARFIELD MOTORCYCLIST IS KILLED IN CRASH WITH AUTO IN NUTLEY

Driver Is Arrested; Mother And Son Hurt

One man was killed and two persons injured when a motorcycle and an auto collided Thursday night on River Road, Nutley, opposite the grounds of the Yountakah Country Club. The dead man was Alexander Kopec, 38, of 50 Orchard street, Garfield.

Kopec was riding the motorcycle, which struck an auto driven by Joseph Grecco of 6 Summer avenue, Lodi. Grecco's mother, Carmela, and her son, Benny, 23, suffered lacerations of the scalp. A daughter, Rose 14, was not hurt.

Grecco was charged with manslaughter. He was lodged in the Nutley police station and was taken to the prosecutor's office Friday. Dr. Martland, chief county medical examiner, performed an autopsy on Kopec's body and said the man's skull, four ribs and both legs had been fractured.

According to Grecco, he saw the motorcycle approaching without lights and swerved to one side in a vain attempt to avoid an accident. His car went into a field. The injured persons were taken to the Lyndhurst police station, where Dr. Liva, Lyndhurst police surgeon, rendered first aid. They were then removed to their homes.

Rutherford Seconds Down Locals, 13-0

The feature of the game Armistice Day afternoon at Clearman Field in which the Rutherford seconds down the Belleville scrubs, 13-0 was the great punting of "Moon" Mullins of the local squad. Some of his long kicks travelled fully fifty yards and nearly as far skyward, giving the Belleville forward wall ample opportunity to get down under them and break up plays before they had got fairly underway.

The first Rutherford score was the result of a "break" the first of two that permitted the winners to gain the contest. At the start of the game Rutherford, deep in its own territory and held for downs, punted out of danger. A "fluke" in which the ball hit Robert's shoulder and rolled to the two yard line, where a Rutherford man pounced on it, paved the way for the visitors' first score.

On the next play Rutherford kicked off to Belleville and Bill Griffin of the local squad, receiving the ball on his own ten yard line, had the many fans on their toes as he raced down the field for a run-back of thirty-five yards, being downed on his own forty-five yard line. Following this Nick Bonavita, Bell-boy back, carried the ball around left end for another long run of twenty-five yards and it looked like another easy victory for the sensational Blue and Gold seconds. However, Belleville was held for downs and forced to kick, their impetus seemingly having been lost.

In the second quarter Ralph Casale was injected into the game at right end and his coming proved a tonic to Belleville's failing defense. Time after time Casale, whose speed stood him in good stead, dashed through the line, breaking up interference and getting his man invariably. One tackle he made threw the Rutherford ball-carrier for a ten yard loss, preventing the visitors from making a first down, just when they seemed headed for a march down the field.

The second touchdown was scored in the fourth period by Miller of Rutherford on the only bad kick made by the husky Mullins during the game. Mullins attempted a punt late in the period from his own twenty-yard line. The ball sailed straight up in the air and came down to the right of him on the same line from which he had kicked it, Rutherford recovering. On a series of straight line plunges Rutherford advanced the ball to Belleville's five yard line, where the locals held for three downs. On the fourth down Rutherford attempted a last minute pass successfully, Miller catching the ball over the goal line. Miller also added the extra point on a center rush. The ball was in mid-field as the game ended a few minutes later.

A BUILDING FOR 30,000

The majority of the projects to build record-breaking skyscrapers in New York never get beyond plans on paper. More than the usual amount of credence may, however, be given the announcement by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company that it will build a 100-story office building in Madison Square.

The extraordinary feature of this projected building is not so much that it will overtop all other office buildings, spectacular as that will be, but that it will house exclusively employees of the company which is going to build it. No less than 30,000 of them will work there, enough people under one roof to be as populous as a good many cities. It there is another proof quite so dramatic of the size of American business corporations, we have not heard of it.

BANKING BY TANKS

Los Angeles must be a more dangerous place than even Chicago for persons with money. One Los Angeles bank has fitted out a great armored tank, which makes the rounds of different districts in the city and suburbs.

The tank stops at various designated points. Four armed guards station themselves in front, at the rear and at the side. Inside the tank are other guards back of machine guns, whose muzzles protrude from the conning tower.

Customers transact their business before a small barred window. Only an army of gunmen could hope to cope with such a fearsome contrivance. It furnishes a grim atmosphere for the business of banking.

GROWTH OF COMMERCIAL AVIATION

Commercial aviation in the United States has attained its highest point in California where the far famed equitable climate insures good flying conditions throughout the year. The air transportation business between San Francisco and Los Angeles has now assumed such proportions that fifteen passenger carrying planes depart from each of these cities every day to accommodate the public and the bookings on these airships are nearly always so heavy that space for this journey, which consumes twelve hours on a railroad train and three hours by air, has to be taken several day in advance.

Air transportation has attained such importance in California that the railroads and the air lines are now engaged in something approaching a rate war. The railroads, in self protection, are now planning to enter the field of aviation and are now considering the establishment of regular air lines to operate in conjunction with the other services the railroads are offering.

All of this is due, of course, to the fact that the people on the Pacific Coast have become air minded. Air transportation in California is considered safe, comfortable and superior in many ways to the service which is offered by the railroads. It has also gained the reputation of being thoroughly dependable so far as the maintenance of schedules is concerned. Airplanes engaged in this service are always on time and do not vary more than a few minutes in making this long journey between San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Eventually such transportation service as aviation affords will become just as popular and be well patronized in the Eastern part of the United States as it is on the West Coast. It is only a question of time before this happens, so those who are well informed believe. The difficulties of navigation which the airplane pilots have to overcome in the East because of the climatic conditions are being met by new methods and appliances and while these conditions are not as favorable in this part of the Country as they are in California it will not be a very great while before air transportation will be able to keep on the prescribed schedules just as satisfactorily on Eastern air routes as is now the case on the Pacific Coast.

AMERICAN CULTURE

Many aspects of American life have been discovered and described by visiting foreigners. The dazzling architecture of New York, the charming parkways about Boston, the crime of Chicago, the superlative organization of industry—all these have been observed. It remains for Count Hermann Keyserling, the philosopher of travel, to discover "America's Hope, the South."

As he describes it in the November Harper's, it is not as the casual onlooker might think, the awakened industrial South. It is in the deeply human and wholly superior native of Virginia that he finds rich possibilities, through the inevitable predominance of that type. And only so, he states, can an enduring culture be developed in America. Perhaps Count Keyserling knows, but only time can tell.

NEW YORK'S TRAFFIC

The $1,000,000,000 plan to relieve New York's traffic conditions is apparently a good plan. But, even if it is adopted, it will take years to finance it and to complete the great project involved in it. And by that time, there will be almost enough new skyscrapers on Manhattan Island to make the daily congestion as bad as it is now.

Russia's five-day week, or even a four-day week, with a law making it compulsory for every worker in New York to keep away from his office or factory one day in each four or five, may become necessary there. New building keeps up so easily with new plans to speed up traffic that the problem looks unsolvable.

Jokes

Doctor Pearson (after bringing himself to) How did you happen to take that poison, Rastus? Didn't you read the sign on the bottle? It said "poison."

Rastus—Yessah, but ah didn't believe it.

Doctor Pearson—Why not? Rastus—Cause right underneath it was a sign what said "Lye."

Vick—If you spend so much time at golf you won't have anything laid aside for a rainy day.

Resinol—Won't, eh? My desk is loaded down with work I've laid aside for a rainy day.

Crack—What did he say? Wise—I don't know—I hung up.

She (during quarrel)—If it wasn't for one thing I'd leave you and go home to mother.

He—And what is that? She—Mother's coming here—she's leaving father.

Gershwin—Did you hear the good joke on Dr. Fizzley?

Bundascho—No—out with it. Gershwin—Why he treated a man for jaundice for 12 years, then found out that his patient was a Chinaman.

Chorus Girl (recently married to rich broker, applying at bank)—"I would like to open an account here."

Clerk—"Yes, madam, and how much do you wish to deposit?"

Chorus Girl—"Oh, I mean a charge account, as I have in the stores."

"I'm at my wit's end," sobbed the editor as he sat by the bier of his deceased joke writer.

THE PAUPER'S FIELD

My friend pause and listen, To a story all true,
'Tis gruesome, inhuman, and will surprise you,
In our City of culture, of wealth and of fame,
There exists a matter, unworthy a name.

'Tis true that life's pathway, always has an end,
Each Soul, rich or humble, death's reaper will send
To a burial plot, or a mausoleum grand,
Both will cost you money, the cost you must stand.

But what of the brother, that comes to life's end,
With no one to help him, where, where do we send
His poor broken body, that once stood erect,
Now silent his being, We call him a wreck.

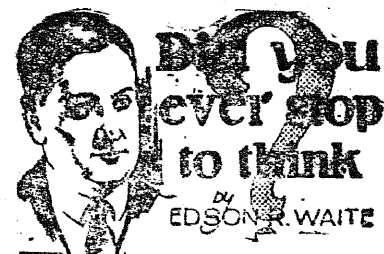

He grew into boyhood, met manhood's hard strife,
No matter what his life, whether righteous or ill,
He now asks the City, for a grave He may fill.
A small tiny object, He came into life,

And what do we give him, a hole in the ground,
Where soon will the water, and dampness abound,
'Tis over a bridge, that's lonesome and long,
Where insects are buzzing, a weird gruesome song.

And this is the present, Our City gives free,
To those who are stranded, who e'er they may be,
Who come to life's end, with no funds to pay,
For a burial plot, at the close of life's day.

This condition should cease, It ne'er should have been,
We're proud of our City, and its wonderful men,
We pray our Commissioners, this matter to heed,
Give our poor and friendless, burial decent we plead.

MYRON W. MORSE.

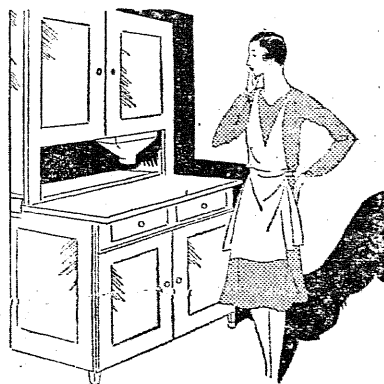

That it is said that milk is man's first food and probably his last. When Nature undertakes anything, she does it well. In producing milk, which is a drink and food combined, Nature gave mankind a masterpiece unmatched.

For rich and poor, sick and well, fresh, sweet and wholesome milk is the only thing doctors agree is best for us, and we may safely drink all the milk we want, provided it is good milk. Now, of course, the doctors mean by good milk that which is bought from dealers who have complied with all the laws of city and state in offering it to the public.

Milk should come from healthy cows and be handled with the most sanitary methods from the time it leaves the cow until it is delivered.

There is an old saying, "Drink milk and grow young." The modern way should be, "Drink milk and stay young." It seems that all the women in America drink milk, because they all look young—no matter what their age.

Dealers in milk should advertise in local papers the source of their milk supply and how it is handled from the cow to the purchaser so people may know from whom to buy the best milk.

How to Play BRIDGE

Series 1929-30 by
Wynne Ferguson
Author of "PRACTICAL AUCTION BRIDGE"

Copyright, 1929, by Hoyle, Jr.

ARTICLE No. 6

An interesting competition has been conducted by a company manufacturing Bridge tables, and the hand in question and its proper bidding has been forwarded by many correspondents for the writer's opinion. The competition is now closed, and my opinion can now be freely given.

The hand is as follows:

Hearts—6, 5, 3
Clubs—Q, 8, 4
Diamonds—9, 4
Spades—A, K, 4, 3, 2

No score, first game, (a) What is the correct bid by dealer? Answer—One spade. (b) What is the correct bid by second hand, dealer having bid one no trump? Answer—Pass. (c) What is the correct bid by third hand, the dealer and second hand both having passed? Answer—Pass. (d) What is the correct bid by third hand, the dealer having bid one no trump and second hand having passed? Answer—Two spades.

The fourth question (d) is the most difficult as it involves the question as to the proper type of take-out of partner's no trump, second hand having passed. This hand represents a sound major suit take-out for it is a hand that contains a justifiable original bid. See the first question (a).

In the preceding article the following hands from an English competition were given for the consideration of our readers:

Z is always the dealer and the other players sit around the table as follows:

Y
X

1. Z Y 18; A B nil in rubber game, where Z bids "Two Spades," and A and Y say "No Bid," what should B say, holding Spades, 8, 6; Hearts, A, 10, 9; Diamonds, A, K, 4; Clubs, A, K, Q, J, 4?

2. At love all in the first game, where Z says "No Bid," A, "One Heart"; Y, "Two Clubs," what should B say, holding Spades, J, 10, 9, 6, 5; Hearts, 9; Diamonds, A, K, 9, 5; Clubs, A, 10, 7?

3. At love all in rubber game, where Z bids "Three Spades," what should A say, holding Spades, K, 9, 7, 6, 5; Hearts, K, Q, J, 10, 8, 3, 2; Diamonds, 4; Clubs, none?

4. Z Y one game, no score in second game, where Z bids "One No-Trump" and A "Two Hearts," what should Y say, holding Spades, K, 5, 4, 3, 2; Hearts, K, J, 10, 9, 7; Diamonds, none; Clubs, A, 8, 6?

5. At love all in rubber game, where Z bid "Two Spades," what should A say, holding Spades, Q, 6; Hearts, A, K, Q, J; Diamonds, K, Q, J, 5; Clubs, A, J, 4?

6. Z Y nil, A B 18 in rubber game, where Z bids "One No-Trump" and A "Two Diamonds," what should Y say, holding Spades, A, 9, 6, 4, 3; Hearts, 9, 6; Diamonds, 7, 6, 4; Clubs, 8, 5, 3?

7. At love all in rubber game, where the bidding was: Z, "One Heart"; A, "Two Clubs"; Y and B, "No Bid"; Z, "Two Diamonds"; and A, "No Bid," what should Y say, holding Spades, J, 6, 4; Hearts, Q, 7; Diamonds, 8, 6; Clubs, A, K, 10, 8, 4, 3?

8. At love all in rubber game, where the bidding was: Z, "One Spade"; A, "Double"; Y, "Two Diamonds"; B, "Two Spades"; Z, "Two No-Trumps"; A, "Double"; Y, "Three Diamonds"; B and Z, "No Bid"; and A, "Double"; Y and B, "No Bid," what should Z say, holding Spades, A, Q, 9, 5, 4; Hearts, K, 10, 5; Diamonds, none; Clubs, K, Q, J, 6, 4?

9. At love all in first game, what should Z say, holding Spades, J, 9, 8; Hearts, A, 9; Diamonds, A, K, Q, J, 9, 7, 5; Clubs, 5?

10. Z Y 20; A B 18 in rubber game, where Z bids "One Heart" and A "One Spade"; what should Y say, holding Spades, 4, 2; Hearts, 9, 8, 5, 2; Diamonds, 3, 2; Clubs, Q, J, 6, 4, 3?

11. At love all in rubber game, what should Z say, holding Spades, K, Q, 8, 6; Hearts, K, J, 7; Diamonds, K, Q; Clubs, 10, 6, 5, 3?

12. Z Y 18; A B 12 in rubber game, where Z bids "One No-Trump"; A, "Double"; Y, "No Bid"; B, "Two Spades"; and Z, "Three Hearts," what should A say, holding Spades, K, 10; Hearts, A, K, 4; Diamonds, Q, J, 9, 4, 3; Clubs, K, 10, 5?

The decision of the English Judges was as follows:

1. Double 7. No Bid
2. Two Spades 8. No Bid
3. No Bid 9. One No-Trump
4. Double 10. No Bid
5. Double 11. One No-Trump
6. Two Spades 12. No Bid

The writer would concur with these decisions, except in hands No. 7 and No. 9. With hand No. 7, the proper bid is undoubtedly two hearts. Y has better assistance in hearts and that suit is also the first one bid by his partner and therefore the one that he prefers. With hand No. 9 the proper bid is one diamond. To bid one no trump with this type of hand, with two suits unprotected, is very unsound. The diamond bid will give the other players a chance to bid and thus give the dealer a better line on his chances for game, at diamonds or no trump. The original bid, Z bid "Two Spades," what should A

This Whirl Of Sport

By Arthur Bloemke

A Belleville-Nutley game would certainly please the thousands of fans that attend Belleville High School football games regularly. We also know that the Nutley fans are as anxious as Belleville to have this game take place.

We have been informed, by those who know, that an attempt to hold such a game was made several weeks ago by the combined American Legion posts of Belleville and Nutley and their efforts came to naught.

We are wondering just why these two strong organizations could not compel the powers that be to amicably settle their differences and to arrange for a game.

The task of holding such a game this year now seems hopeless, for one of the leading lights in the settlement of differences is Belleville High School Principal Charles L. Steel, Jr., who is also past commander of the Belleville American Legion. And if he lent his efforts towards settling this little understood trouble, as we believe he did, it will surely take something superhuman to compromise.

Next Monday Belleville High School will start its basketball season by holding its first practice in the high school gym under the leadership of Coach Albert K. McBride. While it is poor policy to attempt to pick a team before the season starts there are certain regulars back this year whom we must mention as enhancing Belleville's chances considerably during the coming campaign.

The regulars back from last year and those who played on the second team will not have an easy time making the varsity this year, as we understand there are several "dark horses" coming up, who give promise of competing strongly for berths on the team.

Among those who will be "out" this year are eight football players. They are Paul Short, Bill Bennett, Harold "Butter" Brand, Stanley Goodrich, Bob Jackson, Ralph Casale and Jerry and Nick Bonavita. The other two are Dutch King and Malcolm Lamb.

The team this year bids fair to equal if not surpass last year's fine record, when it climaxed a brilliant season of play by upsetting Morris-town's chances in the first round of the state tournament.

Few local football fans are aware of the fact that among the leading point scorers of state Class A ranks is one member of the Belleville team, who is the idol of every Belleville rooster. He is none other than our own Paulie Short, who through dint of hard work and unceasing effort has made of himself a football player whom we suspect will be mentioned for all-state honors this season.

He has scored forty-nine points so far, placing him in third position on a par with Manchess of Asbury Park. The two leading point-scorers are Goddard of Asbury Park with seventy-two and Lifson of South Side, with sixty-two.

Short by this record has placed Belleville in the limelight and himself in an enviable position among the better players of the state. Last year Short was also a leading point-scorer, despite the fact that Belleville had a less effective team.

The girls' hockey squad of Belleville High School is developing several good players. Hockey, which is played in a field, has been going full blast under the tutelage of Miss Muriel Mayo, high school gym instructor, for the past three weeks.

Several days each week one sees at Clearman Field a large group of young girls, clad in bloomers and middies, cavorting on the field armed with hockey sticks, similar to those used by ice-hockey players.

Miss Mayo reports that there are about fifty freshmen girls out in the squad, approximately thirty sophomores and about twenty-four juniors and seniors. The large number of freshmen girls is due not only to the larger size of the class but also to the increased interest in the game displayed by that class.

Miss Mayo announces that the girls' basketball team will report for practice, Tuesday afternoon after school. She has no idea at present how many will report for the squad as the freshman class is showing a great interest in school sports and will probably report in large numbers at the first day's practice.

The girls will also have a baseball team next spring. Please do not be excited as the game is not played

Belleville Elks Drop Three Tilts To Englewooders

The Belleville Elks bowlers could not cope with the record-breaking Community Club of Englewood Thursday and were the victims of three of the best games turned in so far in the Morris and Essex loop.

Playing on their home alleys, the Englewood team could not be denied, despite two fine team scores of 959 and 990, turned in by the locals. The winners succeeded in matching these scores with two brilliant games of 1052 and 1043.

Bob Whitten, who rolled consecutive games of 213 and 237, was the man of the hour for the local Hello Bills, while McManus continued his steady game, which has marked the Elks' play to date, turning in successive scores of 215 and 212. Faust, with an even 200 in the first game, and Bechtoldt, who burned up the boards with a fine 204 in the second, also excelled for Belleville.

Valley S. C. Bowlers Challenge Bachelors

The Valley Social Club, which has recently organized a strong bowling team, is anxious to arrange a match or a series of matches with the Bachelors, present members of the Belleville American Legion Bowling League.

The Valley squad, composed of such well-known pin knights as Franks, Otto, Becker, Jinks, Ruff, Anderson and Kinsley, has engaged in several practice sessions already and under the expert eye of Coach Muzzio has rounded into tip top condition. The Bachelor manager, if favorable, should address all communications to Coach Muzzio, care of the Valley S. C., Cortlandt and William streets, town.

Such friendly rivalries as this should be cultivated to the fullest extent in order to insure bowling of that great competitive interest deriving from football, baseball, and other sports, whose popularity is unquestioned.

It's your move next, Bachelors. Don't let this challenge go unanswered.

with a hard baseball, but what is commonly known as a mush ball.

We might add that the girls' hockey team is not allowed to play inter-school games, but will probably play inter-class games next spring. The regular season for hockey is the same as for football.

Valley A. A. Wins Over Newtons, 22-8

Local Team Pried Off Lid At Newark School Court

The Valley A. A. of Belleville opened their 1929-1930 basketball season Friday night with a 22-8 victory over the strong Newton A. A. at Newark Street School, Newark.

Herb Otto, playing forward for the local quintet, displayed a sterling, early season game, both defensively and offensively. He found the net for five baskets and three free throws for a total of thirteen points, over half of his team's total. Brand and F. Bloemke were also leading lights in the Belleville team's victory. Cohen, lanky Newton center, was easily outstanding for the losers, rolling up eleven points, besides featuring on the defense.

The Valleys, who are entered in the newly organized Belleville Recreation Basketball League, have announced a recent acquisition in the person of Jimmy Petrie, star forward of the local high school squad last year. The remainder of the squad is composed of Otto, F. Bloemke, Wilson, Brand, Comiskey, and A. Bloemke.

American Guard Basketball Game

The American Guard opened its basketball season by playing the strong junior Hillside. On account of little practice by the former team, the lighter, but faster Hillside defeated them with a final score of 25 to 16.

First Quarter
The sailors had a slight advantage. Mossucco starred for them, making the lone goal that was scored during the quarter. Brilliant playing by Chenoweth and Stoddard of the Hillside failed to score for that team.

Second Quarter
Miller was substituted for Sattler by the American Guards. The Hillside were now thoroughly warmed up. Even though the fast combination of Miller and Mossucco of the naval outfit brought their score up to six, the faster Hillside combination ended the half with eight to their favor. "Faresta was substituted for B. Shoudy by the Hillside.

Third Quarter
This quarter was decidedly in the favor of the Hillside, Miller of the Guard making the only goal for that side. The Hillside finished out the quarter by the scoring of nine points making the score 17 to 8 in favor of the Hillside. B. Shoudy substituted for Faresta.

Fourth Quarter
This final seemed brighter for the sailors, but they could not hold their own against the strong combination of Stoddard and Chenoweth. However, some good playing by Miller and Mossucco brought the Guard score up to 16. Chenoweth and Stoddard did most of the playing for the Hillside as did Miller and Mossucco for the American Guard.
