FORMER FOOTBALL STAR SUCCUMBS AT HOSPITAL

Two men were hurled to their deaths in the crash of a high-powered roadster in Franklin avenue near the Soho Hospital, Belleville, at 1:30 yesterday afternoon.

The dead are Hobart Stager, thirty-four, a pedler, of 12 Mt. Vernon street, Nutley, and W. Richard Chambers, a former Nutley High School football star, of 10 Mt. Vernon street.

Both were riding in the front seat with Eugene Kucinski of 120 Franklin avenue, the driver, who was going north in Franklin avenue at twenty-five miles an hour when Chambers stepped on his foot which was pressing on the accelerator. The car lurched ahead and then suddenly turned over, hitting the fence of the county golf links.

There were no witnesses but the car was thought to have attained terrific speed as it was almost completely wrecked with pieces of the body broken and twisted like the fabric of a wrecked airplane.

Two doctors of the Isolation Hospital and ambulance drivers Hines and Mackay rushed Chambers to the Mountainside Hospital but he died at 4:45. Stager was removed to Huelsenbeck's morgue.

Kucinski was treated by Dr. Slaskin of the Isolation Hospital for a severe cut on the right wrist which required five stitches to close and was then taken to Belleville police headquarters to report. He said he did not know whether it was Chambers' intention to press on the accelerator in fun or whether it had been accidental.

Stager leaves, besides his wife, two children, Henry, thirteen, and Evelyn, ten; two brothers, Buck and William; three sisters, Mrs. Lulu Sutcliff and Mrs. Mabel Sharp of Nutley, and Mrs. Harry Smith of Belleville. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

To Amputate His Right Leg

FUNERAL RITES YESTERDAY

Three operations and two blood transfusions failed to save the life of George Gorham, fifty-eight, of 48 Cedar Hill avenue, one of Belleville's oldest members of the police force. He died Saturday afternoon at St. Michael's Hospital, Newark. The last operation was to amputate his right leg above the knee and toes had been amputated in previous operations. Blood

TO CELEBRATE FORTIETH YEAR OF ASSOCIATION AT MONTGOMERY CHURCH

Montgomery Presbyterian Church is planning a special children's service September 21 in place of the usual morning worship at 11 o'clock, in honor of the fortieth anniversary of Rev. Wilson E. Phraner's association with the church. Visiting ministers from Belleville and Bloomfield will be present at the evening services.

The Aid Society met Tuesday evening to make plans for a reception to be given for Rev. Phraner in the church September 23.

TO PASS SUNDAY 'ICE' ORDINANCE

Dealers Petition Commissioners
And Get Satisfaction;
No Protest

RECALLS HARDWARE CLOSING

Members of the Board of Commissioners acquiesced Tuesday night to a petition from the ice dealers of town that an ordinance be enacted to prohibit the sale of ice on Sundays except when ordered by a physician or the Board of Health. They agreed to introduce an ordinance for first reading at next Tuesday's session in the Town Hall.

No reason was given for making the request. A similar measure was passed last year in which hardware stores were ordered closed on Sundays. Vigorous protest was made against that ordinance by Anthony S. Micone, hardware dealer of Washington avenue, but no objections are expected to be made by ice dealers of town.

NOT ONE FAILURE AMONG THIRTEEN GRADUATES WHO TOOK NORMAL SCHOOL TEST

Belleville schools have just been notified that all thirteen graduates of the High School in June, who desired to enter the teaching profession were accepted for entrance either at Montclair State Teachers' College or Newark State Normal School.

All candidates had to pass entrance examinations, made especially severe because of the large number of applicants. To have all thirteen from Belleville accepted is a creditable showing for the local schools.

FLANAGAN LOSES LICENSE

Martin Flanagan, foreman of the Road Department, who lives at 217 Greylock parkway, was deprived of his automobile driver's license Friday by Commissioner of Motor Vehicles Harold G. Hoffman. The charge against Flanagan was petit larceny. He was accused of extorting money from motorists under the pretense of being a police officer.

Williams Put On Stand By Three Former Officials Led By Gibson

EXPLANATIONS FAIL TO MAKE ALL FACTIONS HARMONIOUS

Refuting Commissioner William H. Williams' charges of "inefficiency" in the department of revenue and finance and "political tinkering" with tax assessments in town, three former officials including James Gibson, former Assessor James L. Davidson, and former Deputy Assessor James J. DeRossett, became bitter in their counter attacks against the present incumbent at the Commission meeting in the Town Hall Tuesday night and former Commissioner Gibson called out at one stage of the controversy, "Commissioner Williams, you're a quitter, a cur, and without the courage of a louse."

His attack came when persistent prodding to find out whether Williams would like to have all assessments in Holmes street and DeWitt avenue raised met with evasions.

Williams had declared two weeks ago that assessments on these

POLICE NEED NO PRACTICE

Belleville police will not be represented in the Intercounty Police Pistol League, which was recently formed by Lt. Howard Hoffman of Caldwell, Chief of Police Michael Flynn announced Tuesday. "Belleville police are all excellent shots now and need no practice," was his comment.

CAR SOMERSAULTS BUT IS UNDAMAGED; DRIVER ESCAPES WITHOUT INJURY

Samuel Rosenblatt, twenty-two, of 647 Bloomfield avenue, Montclair, miraculously escaped death when his car overturned at Franklin and Magnolia streets last Thursday afternoon.

Rosenblatt, riding south in Franklin street, was compelled to make a sharp left turn as he was driving directly behind a truck which made a sudden stop. The truck was driven by Salvatore Grieco of 124 Franklin street, Silver Lake. Neither the car nor truck was damaged.

LIONS TO SEE 'RATTLESNAKES'

Raymond Smith Will Show Moving
Picture At Meeting
This Noon

BALL GAME IN NUTLEY TODAY

"Rattlesnakes" is the title of a moving picture to be shown at the Lions Club today by Raymond Smith, proprietor of the Capitol Pharmacy. The picture will be supplemented by a lecture. It has recently been shown at meetings of the boy scouts and will soon furnish entertainment to girl scouts of town.

The picture is regarded by critics as exceptionally interesting with heretofore unknown facts about the poisonous rattlesnakes being revealed.

Following the regular noon session, a baseball team from the club will play one from the Nutley Lions Club at Park Oval, Nutley.

'MONKEY CASE' DISMISSED BY JUDGE FITZSIMMONS

"Monkey business has no business in a police court," ruled Recorder George A. Fitzsimmons Monday night in the case brought by a Lyndhurst man against Fred Steffanelli of Hancox avenue, said to have sold a monkey that did not belong to him.

The history of the case is that Steffanelli, after diligent and patient coercion, brought the monkey down from a tree near his home where it had been lodged for almost a week after escaping from its Lyndhurst master. He then sold it to a friend, Jack Woodhouse, proprietor of the old "Halfway House" at Bridge and Mill streets at a price said to be $10.

The original owner, hearing of the monkey being found and the subsequent transaction, appealed to the police of his town. They referred him to the Belleville police. Recorder Fitzsimmons, however, declared it to be a civil case, out of his jurisdiction.

OFFICIALS PLAN MORE EXTENSIVE CHARITY DRIVE

But Budget Committee Does Not Anticipate Greater Requirements

WOULD COVER TERRITORY NOT TOUCHED HERETOFORE

Although the amount to be raised this year by the Community Chest is not expected to exceed last year's figure which was $16,000, officers announced after a meeting in the home of Watson Current last Thursday that Belleville will be covered more extensively than ever before.

The town will be divided into twelve or fifteen districts, each supervised by a major and captains and worked by teams. 200 canvassers will be required, present plans indicate. A committee is working on an enlarged list of subscribers in the effort to reach homes that have not heretofore been included.

The Ways and Means Committee, meeting at the home of Charles Granville Jones in Academy street last night, made tentative plans to secure the workers and appoint district leaders, while the budget committee is making a study of the amount necessary to raise.

W. W. Stewart has been named to handle a group for "individual subscriptions."

The 1930 campaign for funds, which will be held during October, will represent the third time that all charity organizations of town will rely on one campaign to raise funds for the ensuing year's expenditures.

transfusions were made from a nephew, Herbert Harold of Flushing, and Patrolman Robert Anderson. Mr. Gorham suffered from sugar diabetes and gangrene. His wife likewise was a sufferer from diabetes but was more responsive to curative treatments.

Funeral services were held yesterday morning at the home and at St. Peter's Church where a high mass of requiem was said at 10 o'clock. Burial was made in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Sergeants William Sullivan and George Wirtz, Patrolmen Thomas Cruthers, Joseph Gorman, Walter Drake and John F. Flynn.

Long Service

On the Belleville police force for the past twenty years, Mr. Gorham distinguished himself for excellent service and had a wide circle of friends in this and adjacent towns. Before joining the Belleville department he was a constable at the Newark court house. He was a native of New York City but moved to Belleville when still a young man and had lived here ever since.

Until a year ago he lived at 188 Academy street, but is better known to residents of William street where he lived twenty-three years. In one house on that street, where he lived fifteen years, five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Gorham, one of whom has since died.

The others are Mrs. Frank Leckaiter of 402 Belleville avenue; Mrs. William Boldernan, Mrs. Thomas Smith and Thomas Gorham, all of the Cedar Hill avenue address. Three grandchildren also survive.

Mr. Gorham was a member of St. Peter's Holy Name Society and the Policemen's Benevolent Association.

COMPENSATION NOT MADE WHEN PROOF FAILS, SAYS HARTLEY, SPEAKING HERE

Inability to prove that they were under medical treatment by the government for one year after their discharge from the army in a majority of cases is given as the reason why relief cannot be obtained for the disabled veterans, according to Congressman Fred A. Hartley in speaking to about 200 people gathered at the meeting of the Belleville Council No. 163, Jr. O. U. A. M., at the Masonic Temple Tuesday night.

He cited the cases of twenty-one veterans admitted to a tubercular base hospital, sixteen of whom died within a year. None of them received compensation although they were strong and healthy in 1918 when they enlisted and are physical wrecks today.

Other speakers were State Counsellor Gustave Hardman of Irvington; Past State Counsellor William Wakefield of Belleville; member of state laws committee, Arthur Bellis of East Orange; Deputy State Counsellor Nelson Stoddard of Passaic. The meeting was in charge of Victor H. Schleicher, vice-counsellor. Refreshments were served.

Welcome Disappearance

A writer in a business magazine says the "go-getter" type of salesman and business man is falling into disrepute. And rightly. It was too hard on the type to which the majority of us belong—the weak, defenseless, victimized Come-Takers.—Detroit News.

Tea Drinking in England

Tea was not brought to England until 1637 and was introduced into the English court by Katherine of Braganza. From the first it was patronized by royalty. When the custom originated, tea was drunk much weaker and in smaller cups than prevailed later. In the second half of the Eighteenth century afternoon tea became a smart social function.

Bureau Did Not Give Doles To Coeyman, President Says

To the Editor of THE TIMES:

Dear Sir: I noticed that in your issue of September 4 in your article headed "Police Break Up Whoopee Party" that you state "James Coeyman has been virtually supported for the past year by the Community Service Bureau and other charity groups."

We wish to correct this statement so far as the Community Service Bureau is concerned. While this case has been investigated by Miss Kline, executive secretary of the Community Service Bureau, no financial support has ever been given by the Community Service Bureau to James Coeyman, but considerable efforts have been made to get the proper medical attention for this boy.

On August 27 a letter was received by the Community Service Bureau from Edgar Suydam stating that James Coeyman was living at their house without paying any board and that they could not continue to keep him without pay. Two days later Mr. Suydam came in the office and was given $5 to pay for a week's room and board until hospital care could be arranged.

Beside having a prescription, ordered by St. Michael's Hospital, charged to the Community Service Bureau, this is the only money which has been distributed by the Bureau in this case and nothing has ever been given to Mr. Coeyman.

PHILIP DETTELBACH
President.

REPUBLICANS MOBILIZING

Republican county committee members will meet in the Town Hall tonight to discuss the coming fall election campaign. Thomas Berry, Belleville chairman, will preside. Tentative organization plans will be made.

Mr. Berry and Mrs. Julie Alexander, vice-president of the local unit, conferred Tuesday night with Jesse R. Salmon, county mogul of the Republican organization, at the Newark headquarters.

Speaking of Sermons

A young fellow from Fargo who should have known better than ask the question, inquires "if there are many women preachers in the United States?" "Millions," sighed the Tribune editor, gazing at his wife's picture on the desk. "Millions, my boy; and they're not all in the pulpits, either."

SEVEN-YEAR-OLD BOY IS BETTER

Richard Keeler, Believed Fatally Hurt By Automobile Saturday, Will Recover

NUTLEY DRIVER IS PAROLED

Richard Keeler, seven years old, of 166 Tappan avenue, was severely injured Saturday when he was struck by an automobile driven by Anthony Masandukas of 38 Freeman place, Nutley. The boy was taken to St. Mary's Hospital, Passaic, in the police ambulance by Officers Spatz and Fleischauer, where at first little hope was held out for him to live, but he later rallied and doctors expressed the belief he would recover. Yesterday at the hospital it was said his condition was "quite good."

The boy, who was riding a bicycle at the time he was struck, at Division and Union avenues, lives with an aunt, Mrs. Mary Scott, and had his trunks packed to depart to a boarding school the previous Monday.

When Dr. Martin Meehan gave him emergency treatment, it was found that he had suffered broken ribs and a puncture of the chest, almost exposing the heart to view.

Police took Masandukas to the station where he was paroled pending the outcome of the boy's injury, but they held his car, which showed defective service brakes, it was said.

HIGH SCHOOL BOY RECOVERED

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Keir and family of Cedar Hill avenue have returned from their summer bungalow at Murray Hill, where they spent July and August. Mr. Keir reports that his son Charles Jr., a pupil at Belleville High School, who was hurt when their car was in collision with another in Summit August 8, is now fully recovered. Charles was confined at Overlook Hospital for ten days.

streets were lower than on Rossmore place, even though the former were as good if not better streets than the latter.

Gibson sought, after disputing Williams' assertions, to find out how the present director of revenue and finance would assess these streets if he were setting valuations.

Williams contended that Gibson was trying to cloud the issue which he was trying to raise: that there was no need for Davidson to reduce assessments after he had once made them and that 1284 tax bills representing a total of $87,000 had not been delivered to the taxpayers.

Not Hidden

Gibson stated that the bills had not been "hidden away" as suggested in Williams' charge; that the condition was unavoidable due to the death and removal of taxpayers. He said all bills were properly filed in one box and that the town lost no money through its failure to deliver the bills.

Mr. Gibson, speaking of the charge made by Williams that an assessment on the Riviera Park property had in 1928 been reduced $170,000 without the knowledge of the tax assessor who was then W. George Hunt, called on DeRossett to tell about the case.

Photostatic Copy

DeRossett, at that time a deputy assessor, produced a photostatic copy of a letter, signed by the three members of the Board of Assessors and sent to the owner of the Riviera Park tract, fixing the assessment at more than the previous year.

Williams' answer to DeRossett's testimony was that a tentative assessment had been made by Hunt amounting to $325,000 and that it had been eventually reduced to $175,000 for that year.

Williams said, however, that it was embarrassing for owners to receive tax bills three years late when they were asked to pay all back taxes. He said that there was no logical excuse for not sending out the bills and that already a great number of addresses that "couldn't be learned" had been learned.

Gibson said that it had always been a practice to make an effort to deliver the bills but when they came back through the post office the town could not be held responsible.

Gave The Reason

Williams said that he had received the same statement from Tax Collector Brooks and it had been such an answer that had caused his suspension. "The proper supervision of the tax collector would have prevented the present situation," Williams declared.

The argument, drifting to the failure of Brooks to hold tax sales, reached another climax at this point. Gibson said he had advised the tax collector to postpone the sale because of the failure of Nutley to realize any commensurate amount on a similar sale because of a low money market.

Williams said he did not care about that. "It is the law to hold these sales and it is not up to the director of a department to advise his subordinate to violate the law."

Given Free Hand

Former Assessor Davidson, succeeding Gibson as Williams' interrogator, began by saying that he had always been given a free hand in the matter of making assessments and that he had not even conferred with Gibson, his superior, in respect to assessments.

Taking up Williams' charges, one by one, he brought out that assessments could not be made the same by two men and that Williams' valuation was not his (Davidson's). "If my valuations are at fault, I'll stand for them," the former assessor emphasized.

Explaining his assessments on the Rutgers street apartment, Davidson said it had been made October 1, 1929—when the building was not completed.

Williams charged two weeks ago that the apartment had been valued by the owners at $350,000 and assessed for only $50,000.

Humor By Carragher

Spectators, numbering almost 400, came to watch proceedings and crowded the room and hallway so that it was impossible to get in and out of the commission chamber.

Laughs were furnished several times during the meeting, once when Carragher jumped to his feet as Davidson asked permission to question Williams and cried in alarm, "One minute, Mayor. Do we have to fight the whole town?"

The crowd went into hysterics later in the meeting when Carragher, in a sudden gust of feeling against alleged "still operations" in Soho made a motion which was not seconded to the effect that the Mayor appoint a committee to investigate "every cellar in town."

Insisting that he had been hurt in an accidental fall, but declared by police to have been dealt a blow on the head with a bottle wielded by his wife, James Mays, thirty, of 235 William street, was taken in the police ambulance Saturday to St. Michael's Hospital, Newark, where he was treated for a cut on the left side of the head, including a severed artery.

Officers J. Anderson and Slater responded to the ambulance call, at which time Mays told them he had received his hurts by falling down a flight of stairs at his home. Sergeant Pearl and Officer Flynn investigated later and brought in the domestic battle version of the case.

Field officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Mr. Kane, who was a Spanish War veteran, was fifty-five years old, and a native of Belleville, having lived here all his life. He was a member of Franklin Camp, U. S. W. V. of Newark and George A. Younginger Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Belleville. He was an employee of the du Pont Viscaloid Company in Arlington for twenty-two years, until three years ago, when illness caused his retirement. Surviving him besides Mrs. O'Neill, is another sister, Mrs. Patrick Heaney, of Dow street. He was unmarried.

A firing squad from Franklin Camp assisted in the military funeral services, which preceded the rites at St. Peter's.

Tiny Tot Golf Course

44 Washington Ave. near Essex Station

Major Freelance's Column

By Frank G. Andrews

Twenty years ago the Wright Brothers went down South and flew the first airplane. This was at Kittyhawk.

After that nothing of importance happened in the entire south, except the Florida land boom, until five years ago. Then miniature golf was discovered and a fellow built a small course on Lookout Mountain, near Chattanooga, Tenn. That was the first one built in the United States. Now there are 25,000 in this country and a thousand a day will be added if the rage keeps up.

The new game is really hurting bridge.

Miniature golf alone is not so harmful but when they mix radio music with it, then people have just reason to complain. This is the case in Trenton, where the City Commission has passed an ordinance banning radio programs or other noise-making devices.

In Trenton it costs $1,300 to secure a building permit for a miniature golf course. Other cities are passing similar ordinances.

These brilliantly-lighted courses are being used for dress parades. Society folks who patronize these amusement places are dolling up in high fashion, clothes having been designed especially for this particular use. A night on the links will become a society affair before long, it is predicted.

A sharp-witted citizen capitalized on this new craze. He had a house which nobody wanted to buy. Miniature golf came along and he placed an ad. in the weekly newspaper. He sold the place in a jiffy. The ad. read:

For Sale—Four-room house with good well and cistern. Only three doors from a new Tom Thumb golf course.

A lot of people are mad because they were not included among the fifty-nine leading citizens of America named by former Ambassador James W. Gerard.

He didn't mention Jack Dempsey or Mayor Walker or Al Capone and naturally a good many feel sore about it.

Only one man in New Jersey was named and you are wrong if you guess Frank Hague, Mickey Walker or Goose Goslin.

The biggest man in New Jersey is the fellow who won the pole-sitting contest, although his name escapes us for the moment.

Likewise the boy who made the most laps on a bicycle.

When Mr. Gerard gives us a list of the most notorious men in this country, then New Jersey will figure in a very large way. There are some very notorious men on this side of the Hudson river.

Labor Day, which we celebrated this week, is a holiday for laboring men but we don't know why they still call it that, with 4,000,000 of them out of work.

Mary Pickford has decided not to go on the stage after all, due to the fact that she can't find a play that suits her. Instead she is to remain in pictures and will soon start on the filming of "Kiki," in which she will be the star.

Lon Chaney, the popular screen star, is dead. While his funeral was going on hundreds of picture houses were showing "The Unholy Three," his first talking picture.

There is something gruesome in looking at a picture where the main character is dead. It was so when Valentino died. It was so in the case of Chaney.

Still, the moving picture magnates have to squeeze all the money they can out of the pictures. It is purely a commercial proposition. Sentiment does not figure.

How different it was in the early days of the picture industry. When John Bunny, the fat comedian died suddenly, the Vitagraph Company immediately announced that Bunny's pictures would be withdrawn and that not another one of them would ever be shown. And not another one ever was shown.

You can't help pitying the poor circus companies. Other things have come to take people's money, notably automobiles, radios and movies, and the circus that formerly visited the larger cities is now hitting the tank towns, playing to hundreds where once they drew thousands.

Circuses and horses do not figure in the picture very heavily any more. Neither does minor league or semi-professional baseball.

We know a small town editor who runs a weekly column, at the head of which appears this line: "Reproductions forbidden except by permission of the editor." That editor is an optimist.

When there is no other excuse, lay it to the automobile. The latest complaint comes from the State Game Commission. They say that the automobile is depleting our rabbits—killing them by the wholesale. So great is the slaughter that the Commission will be obliged to bring 5,000 more Missouri rabbits to Jersey this year for stocking purposes, bringing the total up to 20,000.

One thing may be said about the scarcity of fish—they can't blame the automobile for that.

"What To Do In Case of Snake Bite," is the heading on a magazine article.

In Sussex county even the smallest children know what to do. Sussex is in the heart of the applejack belt.

We have a fellow here who advertised a few days ago that his wife had left him cold and that he wanted merchants and others to know that he would not be responsible for any bills contracted by her.

The joke of it is that the fellow already owes everybody in town and couldn't buy a shoelace without he laid the money on the counter first.

As a matter of fact, his wife has been keeping him for the last eight years.

They say some murders are committed because of an irresistible impulse.

It is the same thing with fresh paint. Most people can't read a sign "fresh paint" without feeling of the paint to see if the sign is lying or telling the truth.

Heard a pretty good one the other day.

A man running for public office got a lot of cards printed to paste on automobiles advertising his candidacy.

There was nothing the matter with the cards but there was plenty the matter with the man.

He was such an unpopular fellow that nobody would put them on.

As a result this candidate doesn't feel so sure of himself politically and otherwise as he did two weeks ago.

It is getting monotonous to read in the newspapers of men being arrested on the charge of driving an automobile "while under the influence of liquor."

Why not say say "while drunk and save words?"

By the way, it is not the drunken man who is most to be feared. They call doctors and other experts into court to pronounce a man drunk, but the truth is a really drunken man is not so dangerous on the road as the youth who has taken three drinks and thinks the world is his.

It is not alone the drunken driver who should be looked after. It is the fellow who is half drunk, but sober enough to get by the physician who is called into court to give a scientific opinion.

We hear a lot about giving local men employment on public works during the business depression and we look at the highway work going on and note that most of the laborers are Mexicans and southern Negroes.

Why is that?

When a man is convicted these days by a jury, that does not necessarily mean that he is doomed. Judging by the way it has been going of late, about one convicted man in ten goes to prison.

HOW FAST DO YOU DRIVE?

Eleven states have abolished a maximum speed limit for automobiles, according to a compilation of speed laws made by the Keystone Automobile Club. The states, in which conscience is the guide of the motorist and in which he is permitted to drive at any speed so long as it is "reasonable and proper" considering road and traffic conditions, are Connecticut, Florida, Indiana, Iowa, Maine, Michigan, Montana, Tennessee, Vermont, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

On the other extreme, Massachusetts clings to a twenty-mile an hour maximum, while Missouri worries along with a twenty-five-mile limit. Eight states keep pace with Pennsylvania in making the limit forty miles an hour. They are California, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, New Jersey, South Dakota and Washington.

Eleven states hold that forty-five miles an hour is a good driving speed. In this category are Alabama, Illinois, Louisiana, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Texas and Virginia. States where a thirty-five-mile maximum is in force are Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Delaware, Idaho, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island and West Virginia. A thirty-mile limit is imposed by Utah, New York, Mississippi, District of Columbia.

Only one legalizes the speed most commonly noted on the open road—Nevada—which thinks fifty miles per hour is about right. All of which seems to prove that our laws are well behind our actions and habits, as usual.

BEAUTIFUL ROADS VS. PROFITS

Where beauty interferes with profit the result of the ensuing struggle can usually be foreseen. So the State Highway Commission is turning its attention to no mean job when it starts to beautify its highways as well as build them. Announcement has been made at Trenton that the first effort will be made on the road from Trenton to New Brunswick, and that where zone laws are not operative to prevent flimsy roadside stands and unsightly signboards it is hoped to use moral suasion with property owners.

Just what this moral suasion will be, we have no idea, but we do know that if it is possible to convince property owners along State highways that they will make more money in the long run by helping to create beauty instead of disfiguring their property, the State Highway Commission will succeed in its efforts. If it isn't possible to convince the property owners of this fact, or if it isn't a fact, the roadside stands and signboards are likely to remain stubbornly with us for quite a while.

THEATRE TICKET REFORM

The New York theatre ticket situation seems to have settled down for the coming season to an honest and united effort on the part of the owners of fifty-eight out of New York's hundred-odd theatres, various producers, authors, actors and others concerned, to get rid of the speculator and the insolent box office man. One of the purposes of the League of New York Theatres is given in a recently distributed "primer" as being: To make theatre-going easy for the public. That about covers the whole ground, although there are plenty of more details as to how tickets are to be distributed and not more than seventy-five cents charged by sixteen accredited ticket brokers who are working with the league. Unless or until the League shows by its actions that it isn't really trying to be decent to the public, the latter should go out of its way to support the league.

AN ETERNAL PROBLEM, APPARENTLY

They have another "burning issue" in Belleville—nothing but that old bugbear of municipal governments—tax assessments. Certainly this is one of the most persistent and annoying problems that face town officials. Neither new methods nor new assessors seem to do much toward solving the vexed question of how much each of us is to pay as his share of the general expense. Perhaps it is just one of those things that never will be solved. At least the way in which the wrangle revives year after year in almost every municipality makes it look pretty hopeless.

An investigation by this newspaper several summers ago revealed that at no time during the vacation season more than thirty per cent of the people are away from home, except over weekends. Nevertheless it is remarkable how the town seems to come to life when the schools open, bringing everybody back. The absent thirty per cent must be the difference between the town appearing asleep and the town much alive.

Will Rogers Picks A Story For This Spot

By WILL ROGERS

THERE was a young man that made a great hit with a girl, crossing the Atlantic, lately. She was a sure-enough little beauty, and he wasn't so bad with his line of conversation. There was quite a lot of things she didn't know about a ship, and he didn't know any more than what he had read in the travel booklets, but he was always telling her something that was new, even if it wasn't so.

When the ship finally came into the harbor at the end of the trip, the young man was hoping to get himself dated up for the week at the girl's aunt's house, so he kept telling her more and more stuff about the sea. He heard a great noise and he says, "There it goes! They've dropped their anchor!" "Where'd they drop it?" she says, kinda scared.

"Why, into the water." "Oh, my!" she says. "But I knew it would happen. Hasn't that anchor been hanging out there, just ready to drop, ever since we left the other side?"

Mrs. Vreeland Recalls Place In France Called Belleville

A reception was held at the Valley Hose House last Wednesday night in honor of Mrs. Harry Vreeland, gold star mother, who has recently returned from a visit to her son's grave in France, by the George A. Younginger Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the ladies auxiliary. The hall was decorated in the national colors. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Elizabeth Morgan, chairman of the reception committee, who presented Mrs. Vreeland with a bouquet of flowers from the town commissioners.

Mrs. Joseph McKenna, president of the auxiliary, escorted Mrs. Vreeland to the platform, where she was saluted and given a seat of honor. George Perks, commander of the post and Mrs. Henrietta Derringer, president of the Sedgewick Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., gave welcoming addresses.

PLACE CALLED BELLEVILLE

Mrs. Vreeland spoke with much enthusiasm and appreciation of her experiences and the splendid treatment received on the trip.

When she mentioned passing through a place in France called "Belleville," some of the veterans present recalled what a thrill the name had given them when they had tramped over the same road during the war. She told of how the war mothers placed a wreath on the grave of the unknown soldier and of the mother who died en route before reaching her son's grave.

The badges worn by the gold star mothers were made at Tiffany's and George Perks, who is employed at their Newark plant, was one of those who worked on them. Mrs. Vreeland will furnish the post with an enlarged photograph of her son's grave.

"ANOTHER KIND OF BANKRUPT"

When a business house or an individual operator has more debts than credits they may be called "bankrupts." When a business house or merchant does not offer value for the price asked, they may also be called, in the figurative sense, "bankrupts." The merchants and business men whose ads appear in this directory are not "bankrupts"; they give value in their merchandise and service offered. You get full measure every time. It will pay you to give them your patronage.

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen" (Hebrews 11:1).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook. "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When we come to have more faith in the truth of being than we have in error, more faith in Spirit than in matter, more faith in living than in dying, more faith in God than in man, then no material suppositions can prevent us from healing the sick and destroying error" (p. 368).

PLEDGE $1,000 TO PURCHASE WESLEY M. E. CHURCH ORGAN

Two organizations of Wesley M. E. Church, the Young Women's Auxiliary of the Ladies Aid Society and the Wemec Dramatic Club have pledged $1,000 each to the church toward a new organ. The action in both cases was taken at meetings held Tuesday evening, the former at the home of Mrs. Edgar M. Compton and presided over by Mrs. Frank Dorman, vice-president, in the absence of the president, Mrs. LeRoy H. Bunnell. The Wemec Club met at the church.

At both gatherings plans were discussed for raising money and the ways and means committee of the dramatic club presented a schedule showing different means by which this could be accomplished. Social activities were discussed and plans for a card party begun. A special meeting will be held next Tuesday to pick the play and cast for a production to be given at the high school early in November. A large attendance is expected.

Fewer Farms In Jersey, But They Produce More

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 1.—Preliminary census figures which indicate that the number of farms in New Jersey have declined 17.3 per cent since 1920 do not portray a true picture of agriculture in the State, William B. Duryee, state secretary of agriculture, emphasized this afternoon.

"Instead of declining, as a superficial consideration of the figures tends to show, agriculture in New Jersey has been marked by signal progress. One of its features is the change in the type of crops raised in the State that has taken place in the decade," the secretary declared.

"The production of such crops as grains and hay, which mean comparatively small money returns to the farmers, has decreased. On the other hand, there has been a noticeable increase in the production of more highly profitable crops. The acreage devoted to vegetables in New Jersey increased from 94,996 in 1919 to 136,345 acres in 1929," he explained.

More Fruit Grown

"Similarly, the production of apples, peaches and pears also highly important crops to New Jersey farmers, increased in the same period from 3,721,329 bushels to 4,818,000 bushels. That there is no decline in the value of the State's annual production of all crops, exclusive of dairy and poultry products, is indicated by the fact that in 1929 it was $60,341,440 as compared to $53,358,510 in 1928," Secretary Duryee continued.

"Since 1920 the State's egg production has increased enormously. In addition, from 1920 to 1925, milk production in New Jersey increased from 64,000,000 gallons to 76,000,000 gallons.

"According to the preliminary census figures, the number of farms in New Jersey declined from 29,702 in 1920 to 24,563 this year. Not so much the number of farms, but the amount and comparative value of production and the acreage of cultivated land are indications of the State's agricultural status. Figures on these items have not yet been released.

"Even the expressed decline in the number of farms might be accounted for in various ways," the secretary pointed out. "According to census regulations, a tract of land of three or more acres or of smaller size which produces $250 worth of products a year is a farm.

"Taking this definition into consideration, differences in the activity of enumerators undoubtedly would account to some extent for changes over the period."

Fingerprints

There are 800,000 combinations of ridge characteristics in fingerprints, and from this may be realized the extreme unlikelihood of any two persons being identical. Definite conclusions are usually reached within a very few minutes when working with finger-prints. Finally, where the human body may grow or change, the ridge lines of the fingers never do.

EIGHTY HUSKIES OUT FOR FOOTBALL

BUT GRIDIRON PROSPECTS SEEM TO BE UNCERTAIN

Coaching Staff Improved With Two New Men Under Carl A. Erikson

LINE WILL BE STRONG BUT BACKFIELD WEAK

Eighty candidates reported for football practice last Thursday. Coach Erikson seemed well pleased and made it known that there are many positions yet to be filled on the team.

Belleville High this season will have one of the best coaching staffs hereabouts. Besides Coach Erikson, who is well known to local fans, there are two other men who know their football from A to Z. They are Albert K. McBride, former American League basketball player and a crackerjack football player in his college days and Brennan, also a college star.

The latter, like McBride, is a member of the Belleville High faculty and has taken a coaching course under Knute Rockne. It will not be the fault of the coaches if Belleville High School does not have a good team this year.

BACKFIELD WEAK

The situation at this stage is just the opposite from last season. Erikson had a veteran backfield then with plenty of reserve power. Now, however, he has a veteran line but only one backfield veteran. Yet this is nothing to worry over. The line developed fast last year. Perhaps the former Ridgfield Park coach can muster a strong backfield this year.

On the line, all are lettermen from end to end. At center is "Butter" Brandt, a regular pivotman last year and a lad who saw considerable service the season before. He is one of the best passers in schoolboy ranks and on the defense can hold his own with any of the local High School centers.

The Blue and Gold has three strapping youngsters for guards, three who would rather play football than eat. They are Harold Bade, Fat Udansky and Red McMaster. Bade and Udansky played regularly last year and McMaster saw service in most of the games until he was hurt towards the latter part of the season.

Bade played a sensational brand of ball in the last three games and if he keeps it up, will go far in the game. Udansky is the plugger type, always in there fighting and never giving up. It looks like a tight battle between McMaster and Udansky for the starting call.

VETERAN TACKLE

At tackle, Lou Galluba, a 190 pound veteran of three years' experience is available. Galluba has been elected captain this year, which should give him added incentive to play better than ever. He was chosen as the most valuable lineman last year.

At the other tackle berth is Homer Estelle. Homer did not play regularly last year because of a serious injury early in the season. Homer was a veteran two years ago and seems assured of a regular berth this year.

The Blue and Gold is fairly well fortified with endmen. Two veterans, Jerry Bonavita and Ralph Casale will be out again for berths. Jerry has played two seasons already, while Casale saw considerable service and is regarded by many as the best tackler on the squad.

Prospects are not bright for a good backfield this year. The loss of Short, Schweiker, Anderten and Mark Byrnes will be seriously felt. These four and Fritz Plenge, who played last year, formed one of the best backfields in Belleville's history. Milo Salters will also be the missing.

Erikson will have his troubles. He must mould an entirely new backfield around Fritz Plenge. Fritz played a good game the latter part of last season but was not flashy.

LAST YEAR'S SECOND STRINGERS

Bill Brumback, Bill Griffin, Nick Bonavita, "Fuzzy" Ryder and Joe Roberti, all second stringers last year, will carry the burden. Griffin and Nick Bonavita should develop fast and these two appear to be in line for regular berths.

Brumback has an ideal build for a backfield man, but lack of experience may decide against him. "Fuzzy" Ryder and Joe Roberti look good, too, but they are both light. Len Hodgkinson, another member of last year's squad may win his way to a regular berth.

There are other youngsters fighting for line berths who are not yet out of the picture. They are Stan Goodrich, who took part in three or four games last season. He was a tackle but Erikson may convert him into an end. Other strong contenders are Herb Wellhofer, Eddie Mutch, Joe Schmidt, Tony Vuono, Lou Westra and Art Leadbeater.

TO ORGANIZE HANDCRAFT CLASSES FOR WOMEN AND GYM CLASS FOR MEN

Two women's handcraft classes, one to meet at the Recreation House and one at the Community House, Silver Lake, are soon to be organized by Mrs. M. Zita Lonergan. Mrs. Lonergan's recent handcraft exhibition, showing work done by playground children during the summer, received praise from many sources.

The playground season ended Saturday, August 30. Closing exercises, consisting chiefly of track meets, were held at each playground and letters were awarded to the winners.

C. H. Ross, recreational director, hopes to organize a Community Dramatic Club and a Business Men's Gym Class to meet in the High School gymnasium. Plans are as yet incomplete. Definite announcements will be made later.

CHARLES A. HODAPP MADE HILLCREST ASS'N. PRESIDENT; SMOKER PLANNED OCT. 6

An election of officers was held by the Hillcrest Improvement Association at the Recreation House Monday night. The new president is Charles A. Hodapp of New street. Vice-president is James L. Davidson of Joralemon street; secretary, George Trenkler of Cedar Hill avenue; treasurer, R. F. Ball of Mertz avenue and representative to the affiliated group, Howard Virtue of Mertz avenue. Committees will be appointed at the next meeting October 6.

A smoker is planned for the next gathering. Charles L. Steele, principal of the High School, will furnish the talent and will be in charge of the program.

B. ON H. IMPROVEMENT ASSN. PLANS FOR FIRST MEETING

Officers of the Belleville-on-the-Hill Improvement Association who met at the home of Frank Wolenski of Forest street last night, made plans for the opening meeting to be held at Fewsmith Church September 16. The business session will be followed by entertainment, dancing and refreshments. A committee was appointed to plan a surprise for the members and friends who expect to be present.

The officers of the association are: Frank Wolenski, president; Sidney Straker, vice-president; George Harrison, treasurer; Frank Giraud, secretary; and John Herrmann, Leo Dempsey and Robert Stivers, directors. Joseph Steinmetz of Montclair was also present.

PATROLMAN SCARES THIEVES

Two men who tried to break into a store at 14 Belmont avenue between 3:30 and 4 o'clock Sunday morning were frightened away by Patrolman Carruthers, on patrol nearby. The intruders arrived and departed in a taxicab. The directory lists Henry Core, beverages, at the Belmont avenue address.

MRS. MANDERSON HEADS NEW GIRL SCOUT ACTIVITY

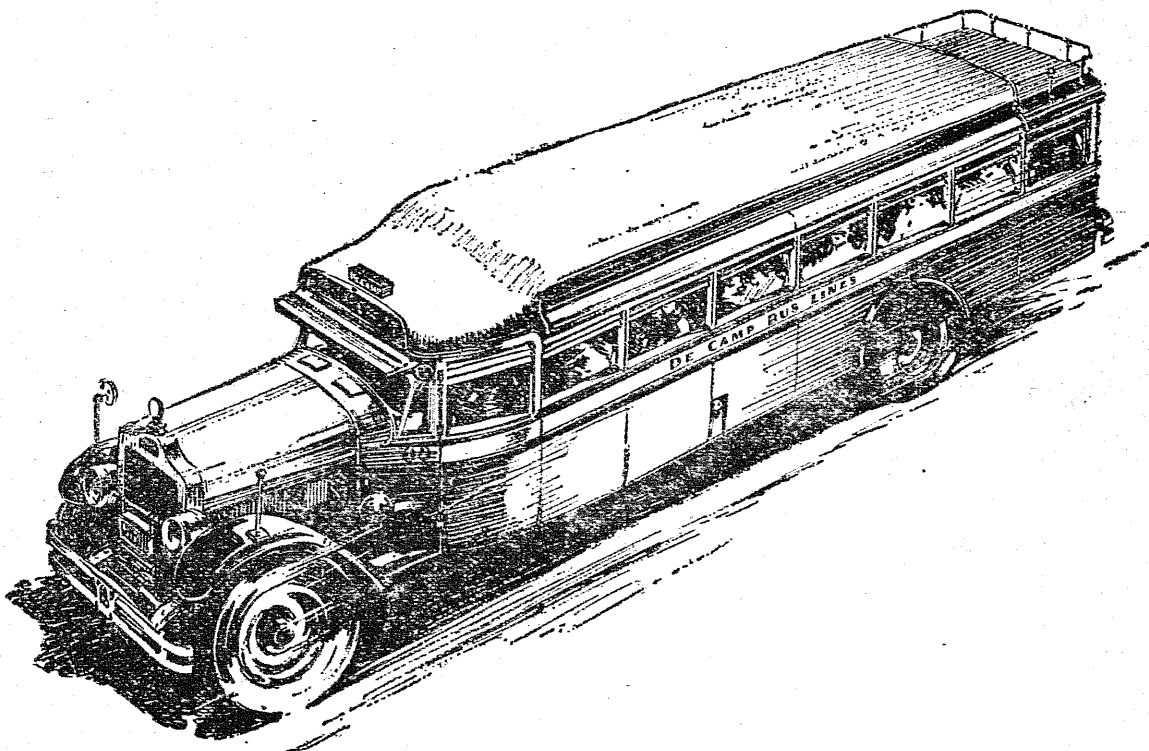

Mrs. Norman Manderson was made chairman of a new committee appointed for instruction and classes at the council meeting held in girl scout headquarters Thursday evening.

On days to be stipulated later the scouts will be asked to make small rag rugs to add to the hominess of their rooms at headquarters and members of each troop in turn will be hostesses there for a week, taking care of the dusting and arrangements.

Legion Jrs. Humbled By Montclair

Lose League Title Chance On Two Successive Defeats

Errors Prove Costly As Margin
Of Scores Are Slim In Both Games

SECOND PLACE, ONLY HOPE

The Belleville American Legion Juniors dropped a pair of games this week to the Montclair Legion nine. Wednesday night the locals dropped a 3 to 2 decision and Saturday they lost another heart-breaker by a 6 to 5 score. Both games were played at Belleville Park.

A victory in either of these games would have given the Legion Jrs. second place. As matters now stand they will play Montclair Sunday morning at Belleville Park for second place.

Belleville was the first to score in Wednesday's game. Shorty Dbrowski began by doubling to right center. He advanced to second on Dick O'Neil's sacrifice and scored a moment later on Joe Costa's fielder's choice.

MONTCLAIR COMEBACK

Montclair took the lead by scoring twice in the third. Two singles and three infield outs gave the Montclair boys their tallies. Belleville scored again in the fourth inning. Costa reached first safely on an error, advanced to second on a wild pitch and scored on Dave Shelley's single.

Montclair scored the winning run in the fifth. Henry led with a single. He advanced to third on an error and scored shortly after on another error.

Harold Boschman twirled for the locals, turning in a masterful exhibition. Two costly errors in the fifth inning cost him the game, however. Pomeroy toed the mound for the winners, allowing only three hits.

REPETITION

Saturday's game was a repetition of Wednesday's affair. Errors again played a prominent part in the Montclair victory. Catalano, twirling for the locals pitched good ball, but his support was not good.

Belleville got off to a good start by scoring twice in the opening frame. Two errors, a single and a base on balls gave them their runs but Montclair went the locals one better by making three runs on three doubles and a single. Catalano settled down after this, but two errors in the sixth cost him a possible victory.

Belleville scored twice in the third, thanks to a triple by Catalano and a single by Dbrowski, while Calabrese clouted a homer in the ninth for Belleville's final run. The scores:

BALL PLAYERS SET FOR FETE

American Legion Junior League
To Be Given Bigger and Better 'Grub-Fest'

TO MAKE UNUSUAL AWARDS

"Bigger and better than ever," would be the best way to describe the coming American Legion baseball banquet to be held at the Elks Home Saturday evening, September 27.

Good eats, good entertainment, good fellowship, good prizes given out and countless other things which should make it an occasion worth attending. Banquet details are in the hands of Joseph Williams, president of the American Legion baseball league and Laurence Keenan, treasurer of the American Legion.

Mr. Keenan has announced that prizes will be unusual. Instead of awarding cups and trophies for individual prizes, merchandise will be given.

TO GET WINDBREAKERS

For instance each member of the pennant-winning St. Peter's nine will be presented with a wind-breaker. The most valuable player on each team will receive a money order from a sporting goods store and he may purchase whatever he wishes for the sum designated. The winner of the batting crown will be given a merchandise order and the league's leading base stealer will be given a similar prize.

Members of the team winning the pennant in the junior league will receive solid silver baseballs. It has also been announced that each player in both the junior and the senior league will receive a medal. Handsome cups and trophies will be given for team prizes.

Garden Notes

FALL-BLOOMING BULBS

Two of the little-known fall bulbs are the crocus and the colchicum. They are very much alike in their habits and appearance but they belong to two entirely distinct families of plants. The crocus is a member of the iris family, while the colchicum belongs to the lilies. They resemble the spring crocus in bloom but most of them are larger in size. Bulbs of the crocus and colchicum should be procured as soon as possible. They are now in the American trade.

These bulbs should be planted by September 1 to make a good fall bloom the following year. Some bloom early in September others not until October and even late November. They are all hardy, and, planted in borders, give color and some flowers late in the fall when nothing outdoors is blooming except chrysanthemums.

They also do well forced in water and will bloom without showing any foliage growth. Both of these bulbs bloom in the fall and do not make leaf growth until the following spring. Some of the best colchicums are autumnale and speciosum. The best fall crocus are iridiflorus, sativus, speciosus aitchisonii, and zonatus, although any of the kinds are good and very interesting plants.

Here and There

By Harry Metz

How this summer did fly. Why, it seems only a few weeks ago that the baseball league season started. Now it's all over. No more twilight games, no more Saturday afternoon games. The main topic of conversation now concerns football.

At least twenty people have asked us, "Well, how do things look for the High School this year? Will they have as good a team as last year?" Although it is really too early for prophecies, we cannot see how this year's eleven will come up to last year's powerful combination.

Former Coach Charles Steel, principal of the local high school, was asked the following question recently. Is it true that smart students make brainy football players?

Mr. Steel believed that smart students are slow thinkers on the athletic field. We had the same opinion, but of course there are exceptions. Albie Booth, Yale football star and honor student, is one of the brainiest college players today. Barry Wood, crack Harvard athlete, can also play sport and play it far better than the average player and they say he is one of the best students at Harvard.

other garden, flower or agricultural questions may be obtained from the County Extension Office, R. E. Harmon, Co. Agri. Agent, Caldwell, (phone Caldwell 6-0572).

GARDEN SCIENCE

The rock garden during the year should have something blooming in it from early spring until frost. One rockery visited this week contains nearly 150 kinds of plants; most of them well adapted for the purpose.

The latest craze in the line of flower gardening is making a rockery. Now is a good time to check up on the plants you want to replace (or add) to the rockery.

The following are worthy of trial: the easily grown annuals such as portulaca, sweet alyssum, verbenia, and dwarf calliposis, lobelia, godetia and nemophila and minulus. The above give an abundance of color during summer and fall whereas the majority of alpine plants are chiefly spring bloomers.

Others worthy of trial are dwarf campanulas, yellow creeping charlie, sedum album, thymus seraphyllum, annual phlox, blue fescue, incana veronica, Dianthus, armeria siberia, cerastium, helianthemum, ceresium, silene, iberis, tanica saxifrage, potentilla, deltorides, sedum storecrop, showy sedum, goldmoss and many others.

The many varieties of dianthus and sedums should not be overlooked. Most of the rockery plants are of easy culture and multiply fast. No two rockeries are made alike and their popularity is chiefly because they open a field in which the gardener must use his initiative. It is not uncommon for a person to change his rock garden, rebuild it a half dozen times.

Nutley A. C. Wins Third From Legion

2,000-Fans Watch Visiting Team Hammer Locals Under

Gordinier, Former Rutgers Flash, Baffles Belleville Nine From Mound

RALLY IN SEVENTH INNING

Fans numbering 2,000 saw the Nutley A. C. emerge triumphant in the third and deciding game of the annual A. C.-Belleville American Legion series Saturday afternoon at Clearman Field. The Nutley nine started out as if they were going to make a runaway of the game by pounding out three runs in the opening frame and following it up with two more in the third and another in the fourth and fifth frames.

Carl Gordinier graced the mound for the Nutley combine, turning in a sparkling performance. The former Rutgers flash was invincible until the seventh inning when the Legion nine suddenly came to life and hammered his southpaw slants for five hits and four runs.

MALLACK REPLACED

Jim Mallack twirled for the Belleville nine but was not nearly as effective as usual and after the Nutley team piled up seven runs in the first five innings he gave way to Butch Kastner. The latter took the situation into hand and for the last four innings held the Nutley boys scoreless.

It was a lucky break for the Nutley nine that Kastner did not start the game. Nutley had four left handed batters in the line-up and Kastner is a southpaw.

HOW AND WHY

Harry Jacques started off the Nutley half of the first frame by singling to left field. Whitey Stager attempted to sacrifice but popped up to Jim Mallack. Savino shot a bulletlike single to left center, sending Jacques to third.

Savino stole second and scored with Jacques a moment later on Hub Crawford's long double over the left field fence. Kappeler sent Crawford scampering home with a neat single.

Gordinier retired the Belleville nine in order the first two innings. The Legion nine made four hits up to the seventh, but were not dangerous after that.

In the third the A. C. pounded out two more runs. Whitey Stager led off with a walk and promptly stole second. Savino clouted one far and wide to left center which was good for two bases and scored Stager. Hub Crawford singled to left to score Savino. Mallack then settled down and forced Kappeler to pop up and fanned Hank Stager and Romano.

In the fourth with one out Gordinier singled. Jacques also singled and when the former was caught in a "pickle" between first and second Gordinier scored. It was fine base running on the part of Jacques. Singles by Kappeler, Romano and Ted Sentner gave the Nutley nine another run in the fifth.

Belleville stock took a considerable boost in the seventh when they scored four runs. Butch Kastner started off the inning by singling. Joe Curran also singled and Kastner took third. Biddy Carragher popped up but Art Lamb beat out an infield out and Kastner scored, with Curran taking third.

Gelshen walked to fill the bases. Jim Mallack proved a good man in the pinch by shooting a single over second scoring Curran and Art Lamb. Tommy Dunn, always a good batter in a pinch, lived up to his reputation by singling, scoring Gelshen. Lawlor forced Dunn at second and John Mallack popped up to end a hectic inning.

Gordinier retired the side in order in the eighth and got the first two men in the ninth. Jim Mallack, the next Belleville man up, doubled to right field. Tommy Dunn again came through in the pinch and scored Mallack with a single to left field. Lawlor hit a hot one to Crawford, but the dusky star made a great stop and a neat throw to end the game.

MURDERED THE BALL

Nutley had their bats working overtime, hammering out fifteen hits. Belleville was not far behind with eleven safeties. Kappeler was the batting star of the day with four hits in five trips to the plate, his collection including a triple and a double. Harry Jacques made three singles while Crawford and Savino, with two hefty clouts each, also helped the Nutley cause.

Jim Mallack led the Belleville offensive with a double and two singles. Tommy Dunn, Joe Curran and Jack Lawlor were next in line with a pair of safeties apiece.

MARION KAYOS McCUE; SIXTH CONSECUTIVE WIN

Jack Marion, Silver Lake heavyweight, scored his sixth consecutive knockout Monday night at the Velodrome A. C., beating Gene McCue of Newark. The bout, scheduled for six rounds, went only a few minutes in the first canto. Marion felled his opponent with a heavy right to the jaw.

Harry Mandel, Velodrome match-maker is seeking a return engagement between Marion and Gunboat Williams, the only pugilist to hold a knockout over the Silver Lake battler. The Marion-McCue scrap was a special six-rounder supporting the Carnera and McCarthy card, which the huge giant from the Alps won in two rounds. The weights were: Marion, 180; McCue, 178.

WINS BY QUICK KNOCKOUT

Nutley's sensational featherweight, Eddie Patterson, scored another knockout Monday night, one minute and thirty-six seconds after the gong starting the second round of a bout with Sonny Suggs of White Plains at the Fairview arena, New York.

NUTLEY BANK TEAM FAVORITE

Each having one miniature golf match, two teams from the First National Bank of Belleville and the Bank of Nutley will meet for the play-off at the Town Hall Golf Course, Nutley, Friday afternoon. Nutley won the first match at its home course and Belleville won on the Jackie Coogan course. The third match, on the home course of the Nutley bank, places them as favorites to win.

Danger in Leg Crossing

The habit of throwing one leg over another should be discouraged, according to a well-known medical authority, who says that it is conducive to palsy. The disease, a type of paralysis, is caused by a direct pressure on one of the main nerves in the back of the leg, the peroneal nerve, and that middle-aged persons who are specially devoted to leg crossing are the chief victims.

St. Anthonys Win Postponed Ball Game With Cardinals; Now Are Ready For Play-off

Championship Of Junior League Depends On Crown Tilt With Clintons

SAINTS HAD NO TROUBLE WITH CARDINALS; SCORE 10-2

St. Anthony Jrs. earned themselves the right to meet the Clintons for the championship of the junior league Saturday by decisively defeating the Cardinals 10 to 2. The game was a peculiar one inasmuch as it was played on two different dates. It was originally scheduled for a week ago Friday but as only three innings were completed both teams agreed to play the remaining four innings Saturday afternoon at Clearman Field. For the first two innings a week ago Friday it appeared as though the Cardinals might be victorious as they had a 1 to 0 lead and were working smoothly. The third inning, however, found the Silver Lakers coming to life. Lordi, Saint's starting twirler, led off with a single. He stole second and advanced to third on an infield out.

FIRST ON HIT

Nick Bonavita took first when he was hit by a pitched ball. Three Cardinal errors, two bases on balls and another single were then recorded by the Saints and by the time the inning was over they had scored five runs.

The Cardinals were easy pickings in the second and third innings, their one run being scored in the first when Mac Lamb hit a triple and Riccio, Saints catcher, interfered on Pat Dunn's intended sacrifice bunt.

The Cardinals began to "stall" in the fourth and St. Anthony's did likewise. After a consultation it was decided that the game would continue Saturday starting with the fourth inning with the Saints leading 6 to 1.

WENT RIGHT ON

The Silver Lakers continued where they left off, adding four more runs to their impressive total, whereas the best the Cardinals could do was to score one more run.

Lordi and Gallagher divided the pitching honors for the Saints, each allowing the Cardinals one run, the former twirling three innings and the latter finishing Saturday. Joe Comiskey and Ashworth, for the Cardinals, were not effective although they were handicapped by poor support.

Biase and Fred Riccio led the batting attack for the Silver Lakers, the former clouting out three singles and the latter accounting for two safeties. Bill Byrnes with two singles led the Cardinal attack. The score:

The Woman Citizen

By ANNE E. GILSON

Mrs. Lillian Feichert was a back seat guest at the celebration of the tenth anniversary of woman suffrage at Sea Girt last week, at which 1,000 women from all over the State participated, and is reported as having been "amused and entertained" at the sight of Senator Kean, and other former opponents of votes for women, speaking at such a gathering.

Not that the Senator was inconsistent with his former attitude. According to those who heard him, he was only moderately enthusiastic over the results of women's votes.

Senator Baird was also a speaker and gave his usual advice about party loyalty, quite unnecessary if you ask me, for with most women voters as with men, it's my party, right or wrong.

First they blame us for herding along with the men, then they urge party loyalty.

Is woman suffrage a success, judging by the past ten years? Of course it is. Just what do those people expect, who think it has failed? Women are just the other half of the human race, made out of the same kind of mud. Just as bright, just as dumb, just as good and just as bad, on the whole, as the other half. And each one is an individual person entitled to equal consideration.

The trouble seems to be that not everyone understands how women can be different and yet be equal. It requires fine distinction. On account of her potential motherhood and the peculiar economics of marriage, women seem to require certain legal protection. To decide what is true equality, what handicaps are beneficial and what are not, has divided thought at this time. Here is where a little good old common sense should come in.

There is just one branch of the woman movement. The Woman's Party, which takes the radical attitude for equal rights which calls for a blanket amendment to the constitution, reading, "Men and women shall have equal rights throughout the United States and every place subject to its jurisdiction." This would be a monstrous mistake, according to a study made by Ethel M. Smith for the National League of Women Voters. For one thing it uses terms which have never been defined, and infers a sort of eighteenth century individualism—each man for himself, and let the devil take the hindmost.

Now with the philosophy of social responsibility and social justice, we believe that true equality gives protection to those who need it. This amendment would destroy or seriously impede the operation of valuable legislation affecting millions of women who are subject to great hardships. It would be better to make whatever changes are desired by legislative action covering specific needs, says the league.

Some women who ardently believe in the World Court and Prohibition, are apt to question woman suffrage when they see women like Mrs. Medill McCormick of Illinois and Mrs. Mary Norton of New Jersey, in public office. But why be like that? We can't expect all women to think alike, any more than the men. Women are making new records for themselves in all walks of life, and it is all so new we are proud when one of them distinguishes herself. But we are not solidly back of women just because they are women. The Woman's Journal gives Ma Ferguson of Texas a black eye and frankly "would deplore her election."

"Now that women have equal rights," writes a young man, "should a man give up his seat to a woman?" Ans.: Not if he is ill, old, or has flat feet. By remaining seated you will quietly proclaim some such weakness and the lady will understand.

Women of New Jersey have equal representation on all party committees, but complain that they are not in on the preliminary conferences. They find everything cut and dried for them when they get to meetings. Well, that's just another hazard they will have to get over. There's a way.

In the Woman's Journal this month the respective merits of the two major parties are discussed. Mrs. Louise M. Dodson, former director of the woman's division of the National Republican Committee, makes a case for the high protective tariff policy of her party and claims that it is a measure of social justice, because it makes possible higher wages, shorter hours, elimination of child labor, sanitation in factories, etc.

To the objection that high tariffs engender ill will abroad and are provocative of war she claims that since we export only ten per cent of what we produce, consuming the other ninety per cent at home, we are not among those who are driven to war by the necessity of finding foreign markets, and should protect the home market against foreign competition. She states that Canada and Australia and the Argentine Republic have higher tariffs than we have. Sixty-four per cent of the commodities listed in our present tariff are on the free list. She does not believe that our eight per cent of the world's population is called upon to level itself in order that "the international financiers and industrialists whose hearts have followed their treasure to foreign cheap labor markets," may profit.

Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, vice-chairman of the Democratic National Committee, "smeared" Mr. Hoover for the panic, unemployment, unfulfilled campaign promises to agriculture, inconsistent stand on prohibition in minding the Morrow candidacy, claims has borrowed a Democratic idea advocating a Tariff Commission Experts, where he once insisted leaving the subject to Congress at the President.

She asserts that the Democratic party is the party of progress, that it has a "more honorable record" and has to its credit achievement of high economic and humanitarian value, among which she lists the Interstate Commerce Act, the Anti-Trust Law, the Civil Service, Parcel Post and Postal Savings Acts, the Federal Farm Loan Act, the Agricultural Extension Act and the Federal Trade Commission Act. The creation of a Department of Labor, the Federal Reserve Act and the Income Tax Law are also listed as Democratic achievements.

On this honorable record, and because of offences in high places among the Republicans and continuous class favoritism and the failure of the Hoover Administration to rise to its responsibilities, she asks us to restore to the Democrats the control of the United States Congress.
