Although several veterans are on the sidelines with injuries, the Belleville High eleven is confident of chalking up its first victory Saturday. Reports that Passaic has a strong eleven this season have not worried the Belleville boys. The game with Passaic will be played at the Passaic stadium. Noted for its strong basketball teams, Passaic is beginning to get recognition for its football powers. Last year they lost but one game during the season and that to Rutherford on Thanksgiving day. Last Saturday Passaic opened the season with an 18-6 victory over Garfield.

TO PROTEST BUS SERVICE, WEEDS

Ladies Auxiliary Of West Belleville Improvement Association
Seeks Town Aid

BLAMES THE PUBLIC SERVICE

Members of the West Belleville Improvement Association and the Ladies Auxiliary will protest about the inefficient bus service in their section at the Town Commissioners meeting Tuesday night, it was decided at a meeting last Monday night. Mrs. W. I. Suydam will be spokesman. Protest will also be made about the impassable condition of the sidewalks due to an overgrowth of weeds.

Both of these matters were discussed at the meeting of the auxiliary in the Recreation House Monday night. It is claimed that since the Public Service took over the North Newark-Nutley bus line a year ago the service has grown steadily worse and that during the rush hours passengers sometimes have to wait for a bus from thirty minutes to an hour.

Mrs. Suydam, Mrs. Mary Andrews, Mrs. Robert Curry and Mrs. William Kent have been appointed a committee for the card party to be given at the Recreation House Friday, October 17.

RECEIVE BRUISED LEGS

Bruises about the legs were the only injuries received by two men working for the Jannarone Construction Co. at Academy street near Stephens street Tuesday afternoon when a bank of the sewer excavation in which they were working caved in, burying them to their necks.

The men were Louis Barbata, sixty, of 33 East Centre street, Nutley and Jerry Sylvestro, thirty-five, of 42 Eugene place, Belleville. Both were treated by their own physicians after being taken home by police.

An alarm brought ten policemen to the scene with picks and shovels with which they worked for an hour and a half before finally freeing the two men. Those responding were Patrolmen Gallagher, Rowe, Burke, Lukowiak, Dotterweich, Fleischauer, Robert Anderson, McArt and Nourse. The latter drove the police ambulance but the men were not seriously hurt.

WILLIAMS CALLS UPON PHILOLOGICAL AUTHORITIES TO DISCLAIM 'VISCIOUSNESS'

Criticized for calling Commissioners Clark and Waters "sweethearts of the Mayor's" and all of them "the Three Musketeers," Commissioner William H. Williams resorted to March's Thesaurus and Kipling to clear up the argument at the Commission meeting in Town Hall Tuesday night. His debate with Commissioner Clark follows:

Commissioner Clark, why do you term 'Three Musketeers' a vicious name? I never heard of it as an expression other than one of admiration. Let me read from 'Black-Jack,' page 125, 'Day to Day with Kipling.'

"As the Three Musketeers share their silver, tobacco, and liquor together, as they protect each other in barracks or camp, and as they rejoice together over the joy of one, so do they divide their sorrows." Does my authority for the term 'Three Musketeers' express one vicious thought or one vicious word?"

Mr. Clark replied, "What about other words?"

Commissioner Williams asked, "What is your authority for saying such a word as 'sweethearts' is vicious?" By what interpretations do you conclude these words are

The curtain came down Tuesday night on what is believed to be the final act of the Williams-Commission controversy over "political tinkering" and "delinquent tax bills."

Commissioner William H. Williams answered in detail the questions read to him at the Commission meeting last week by Charles M. Nutt, who said he represented interested citizens, and attempted to satisfy Commissioner William D. Clark that he had called no vicious names when he described him (Clark) and Commissioner Patrick A. Waters as "sweethearts of the Mayor's."

Although Williams could not inveigle Clark into an admission that the Department of Revenue and Finance had not been efficient in the administration of its affairs in the past, the latter Commissioner, by his demeanor, indicated that he would prolong the argument no further.

Clark Not Convinced

A resume of the dialogue between Williams and Clark, ending in the latter's final direct statement that he did not believe the facts aired by Williams proved the truth of his charges, follows:

Williams said, "Am I right in saying that sewer assessments have been hanging over Belleville citizens for the past seventeen years and that the town has been forced to raise, in its budget every year, $35,000 to $40,000 to pay the interest on these sewer bonds?"

"This Board is not responsible for the acts of the previous Boards," Clark responded. "What did your Board accomplish?"

"Our Board was the first to take the matter of making sewer assessments under consideration. We began a year and one-half ago and have been working on the matter."

But Williams said, "Public officials are judged by what they accomplish—not what they set out to do. But another point: Was it efficient management to allow insurance and bond contracts to be made by the departments of the

If expenses were maintained for the balance of the year at the same rate as the present, it is estimated that there would be a deficit of approximately $1,000. The

VICTIM IN NEWARK HOSPITAL

Garbage collectors of East Orange fought out their differences with an iron pipe in the Silver Lake section of Belleville Monday afternoon and one of them is in the Newark General Hospital in a serious condition with a possible fracture of the skull and arm, while the second is a fugitive from Belleville police.

More efficient collection services and the consequent winning of new patrons caused the attack on Angelo Milo of 143 Palm street Newark, by Peter Roseli of Clinton street, East Orange, local police said. Roseli was said to have met Milo at the Silver Lake dumps and took him to task for taking away his (Roseli's) customers. It wound up with a one and one-half inch pipe being used on Milo's head and body.

Love Triangle Leads Young Lothario Before Recorder

Charges of assault and battery against John Brohal, twenty-one, of 430 Union avenue, growing out of an eternally triangular affair at a party given by Miss Catherine McCluskey of Stephens street Saturday night, were dismissed by Recorder George A. Fitzsimmons in court Monday night.

The complainant, Mrs. John Eaton, mother of Miss Bernice Eaton of 474 Franklin avenue, Nutley, who received a deep gash on the head, declared that Brohal had pushed her daughter, causing the injury, but the defendant said he was only trying to separate three girls in a pantry whom he knew were fighting over him.

The feminine dispute, Brohal told the judge, was caused by his coming to the party with Estelle Baker of 65 Edgar place, Nutley. His "steady sweetheart" was Miss Edna Merritt of 64 Washington avenue and she was upset over the apparent duplicity of his affections.

In a mild scuffle that followed his peace efforts, he said Miss Eaton had fallen or tripped, striking her head. Brohal admitted having several highballs.

Stewart Tells Rotarians About
History and Romance Of Sound
Up To Present

CONDUCT SCHOOL CONCERTS

At a meeting of the Rotary Club yesterday noon in the Nereid Boat Club, George E. Stewart of Smallwood avenue spoke on "The Romance and History of Music." He outlined in a comprehensive manner, the growth and development of sound from its inception to its present highly developed stage.

He said, "Unlike other material art, music has no visible production but is entirely an art playing on the sense of hearing. Without rhythm we have no music."

Mr. Stewart, assisted by A. S. Ackerman, is arranging, under the supervision of the Board of Education, a series of six band concerts in the public schools, beginning Sunday, October 26 at 3 p. m.

The artists will all be residents of Belleville. Selections of those to take part in the first program include: a mixed quartet, a string trio, a contralto soloist, and a cello soloist.

Completing his talk, Mr. Stewart, accompanied on the piano by Mr. Ackerman, gave several violin solos including "Love's Old Sweet Song," "Slumber Boat" and the "Prelude," by Chopin.

John DeGraw presided.

The Rotary Club gave a testimonial dinner to Phil Murray, a member, a week ago Tuesday at the Hotel Windwere, Greenwood Lake. Dinners said to be enough for five persons were served to each of the thirty-two members present and the outing was voted a complete success. Mr. Murray was lauded by fellow Rotarians.

This afternoon fifteen to twenty miniature golf players from the club will match themselves against a representation from the Lions Club at Jackie Coogan's golf course, Union avenue and William street. Edward Yerg is in charge of the affair for the Rotary.

Mr. Clark replied he would not discuss this authority. Then Commissioner Williams said, "Mr. Clark, my authority is Professor March, senior professor of English language, Lafayette College, president of the American Philological Association, and Professor March, Jr., professor of English literature, Lafayette College, editors of the Thesaurus of the English language."

"Sweetheart in its broadest interpretations including synonyms, covers: a lover or one loved, a favorite, a crony, a person liked very much, a warm admirer, a devoted friend, one esteemed above others, a man of one's own heart."

"Now, Mr. Clark do you accept March's Thesaurus as an authority on the interpretation of words?"

"No."

"Notwithstanding, this authority is accepted by every educational board?"

"If you do not approve of my interpretations as checked from universally accepted authorities, then your duty is to recommend to the Board of Education of Belleville and to the Library trustees, to remove March's Thesaurus of the English language and Kipling's works from our High School and library."

"Do you now wish to take the opportunity to amend the minutes, Mr. Clark?"

Mr. Clark would not reply.

UNIQUE SIGNS ON THESE NEW BUSES

The latest additions to the DeCamp fleet of buses in service between New York and local New Jersey points are pictured above. They represent the last word in bus engineering. One of the innovations is illuminated destination signs on the right hand side, back of, and above the new type folding door. This type sign will be standard equipment on all DeCamp buses just as fast as they can be put in place.

The new buses can seat more passengers. They have a new roof line and the baggage racks above the seats go the whole length of the car on one side and allow just enough room on the other side for the emergency door toward the rear.

Like most DeCamp equipment the new buses are the product of the White Co. of Cleveland and were driven over the road to Livingston, N. J., by three expert DeCamp drivers at a pace that prepared them for regular service upon their arrival.

THE OUNCE OF PREVENTION — STORM WIND

The old proverb about an ounce of prevention being better than a pound of cure applies to sash windows. PREFER SINGLE TEACHERS--WRITER

Belleville Schools Guilty of Menacing Practice-Said

In connection with the widespread evil of unemployment, which is today a condition menacing the very existence of our industrial system, it may be well to call attention to one phase of the situation which, in the opinion of the writer, calls for immediate and radical correction. I refer to an aspect of our educational system which, although perhaps not generally known, has prevailed for a long period and worked great hardship to a large and worthy group of individuals whose purpose it is to make teaching their life work.

The present practice of retaining women teachers in the public schools after marriage, which has long been in effect in this State, has seriously handicapped normal school graduates in their effort to secure positions and is responsible for a large and ever increasing waiting list of unmarried eligible teachers whose chief hope for a livelihood depends on their being absorbed into the teaching forces of our educational units.

To cite but one case, which is typical of the situation, the writer at the instance of certain fraternal organizations has for nearly two years been endeavoring to secure a position on the teaching staff of Belleville for a capable young woman, a normal school graduate living in Newark, but without success.

The fitness of the applicant for the work has not been questioned and the sole reason for her inability to secure recognition appears to be the unfair advantage which the prevailing system gives to married women teachers.

Mr. Gerard and the Board of Education are apparently in no way responsible for this result, as I have been authoritatively informed that many girls graduated from the local schools and now prepared to accept teaching positions cannot be placed owing to the practical monopoly of the otherwise available positions enjoyed by married teachers.

Are Organized

In some sections married teachers are organized with a view to securing greater advantages than they now enjoy which is, to say the least, the most arrogant presumption.

Owing to these conditions many prospective young teachers, who have devoted years to preparation for their profession, have been obliged to accept employment in other lines in order to exist.

It may be contended that the married teacher is more efficient than her unmarried sister making her initial entrance into the educational field and who, consequently, lacks the experience of the former. While experience is an asset to be duly considered, efficiency is largely determined by personal characteristics and natural endowments; therefore it would appear that no broad deduction as to efficiency, based on term of service, is justified.

Should Compel Retirement

It is to be presumed that when a teacher marries her status becomes such that she no longer requires the income derived from her profession and, as experience has shown that she is generally unwilling to retire voluntarily, effective measures should be taken to compel such action.

In this situation laws looking to the protection of women who must make their living in the teaching profession are urgently needed and the purpose of this article is to arouse public opinion to the end that well devised legislation may be adopted which will effectually remedy these conditions. If such action is not taken it is not too much to expect that we shall eventually see our normal school graduates practically barred from their chosen profession.

All anybody knew at that stricken home was that the young people were motoring south along the coast, expected to average 200 miles a day and had been gone 4 days.

They must be found... told of the illness... started homeward!

The L. D. Operator ("Long Distance") took exactly one hour, scouring the coast by telephone, to catch up with the young folks in Charleston, and turn them back.

This bit of Long Distance helplessness was picked up in New Jersey's largest Toll Center—one of the largest in the country—at Newark.

It illustrates the readiness and ability of the L. D. Operator and her 6,500 sisters in New Jersey to help in an emergency—the instant reach of the Telephone System—and the swift personal contact with folks elsewhere, no matter how far away, that only the Telephone can give.

SENIOR CLASS ACTORS CHOSEN

Fifty Try Out For Parts In Mystery Play; Proceeds For Trip To Washington

ORGANIZE 'CHEERING SQUAD'

The cast for the senior play, which this year is a mystery story entitled "In the Next Room," has been chosen. Judges were Miss Tempest, coach; Mrs. VanderVeer and Miss Underwood. The seniors give a play each year to raise money for their annual trip to Washington, D. C. Fifty seniors had tryouts last week. Those selected were:

Hyland MacIvaine and Robert Haythorne as Philip Vantine; Norma Byles and Jeannette Granatelli as Lorna Webster; Charles Perry and Alfred Cocks as James Godfrey; Gordon Brown and Wallace Winchell as Rogers; James Kerr (other part is uncertain) as Parks; Willard Wharton and Gilbert Freeman as Felix Armand; Frederick Ford and Joseph Tamborra as Inspector Grady; Tony Giordano as Simmonds; William Lennon as Tom Morel; Matilda DeNave and Frances Gibson as Madame de Charriere; Filomena Calicchio and Asunta Pomponio as Julia.

The play is to be held two nights with a different cast each night as this provides the chance for more students to participate.

The election of the junior officers was held Monday afternoon in the lunch room. Those elected and the capacity in which they serve are: Leonard Hodgkinson, president; William Brumbach, vice-president; Ena Holden, secretary and treasurer.

Tuesday morning assembly was in charge of the seniors. William Lennon read the Bible and Stanley Goodrich led the seniors in their class song, "A Regular High School Bum," which was composed by William Lancaster of the class of 1915. The song has been sung by every senior class for seventeen years.

As Friday mornings are disliked by the students, Charles Steel, principal, has promised to arrange a program for that morning. The programs may be arranged by members of the student body or by outsiders.

Last Friday morning Harry Butts, well-known speaker, urged the students to better appreciate the education that their parents are struggling to give them. The student body seemed to like him and were moved almost from laughter to tears as he spoke.

The Monad staff held a meeting Monday afternoon in room 8. The main object was to discuss the "contribution boxes" which have been made to receive contributions for the school paper. One will be placed on each floor of the school in the effort to secure more copy.

Ina Belle Collins of the literary department was shifted to "Our Line" department. She said she was more capable of filling that position.

With expectations that include entertaining the entire High School a harmonica club, consisting of ten students has recently been formed under the leadership of Robert Cocks. Rehearsals are scheduled for Friday afternoons in the music room.

Cheer practice was held Tuesday afternoon and students were asked to sign up for the cheering squad. The object is to have a group of students who will keep up a continuous cheering throughout the football games. They will all sit together in a special part of the bleachers.

BOY SCOUT BOARD OF REVIEW AT TOWN HALL TOMORROW

The Belleville Board of Review will meet in the Town Hall tomorrow for those scouts who need to be reviewed for merit badges or star, life, eagle and eagle palm awards.

Four tickets will be allotted to each scout for the October Court of Honor meeting in the High School Friday evening, October 24, when awards will be made. Scouts are requested to invite their parents and notify headquarters the number of tickets required.

Two new applications for membership were filed with Scoutmaster Shattuck of Troop 88 last Monday night. A week ago Mr. Shattuck had charge of a group which went to North Arlington to pass cooking and fire-making tests for second class requirements.

The entire troop participated in semaphore signalling instruction. A wood grill used mainly for cooking meats over an open fire was demonstrated to the troop. This troop will have charge of the cider and doughnut table at the fair of Christ Episcopal Church.

BRIDGE PARTY FOR FATHER

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Metz of Joralemon street entertained Saturday night at two tables of bridge Hesse of Belleville, and Mr. and Mrs. William Bechtoldt of East Orange. Mrs. William Bechtoldt made high score and Mrs. Hesse low. Mr. and Mrs. Metz had as dinner guests last Wednesday Mr. Metz' mother, Mrs. Sue Metz and her son Harry of Tappan avenue.

An Efficient Organization

MORE than ten applications per day are filed with the DeCamp Bus Lines for the position of driver. These applicants know that DeCamp drivers are the highest paid corps of drivers in the nation. It is significant that less than one out of twenty-five applicants can pass the rigid DeCamp tests of mind, physique and character. You who ride in DeCamp buses appreciate the care and thoroughness with which DeCamp drivers are selected, trained and managed. Even the superb mechanical equipment of this organization is no more important than its men, when it comes to your comfort, convenience and safety.

Important Glands

The ductless glands which control the height of man are the thyroid and parathyroids. As far back as 1856 the medical profession recognized the relation of these to the growth and development of the human body.

Officials Procure Surgical Treatment for Youngsters

Through the co-operation of Mayor Samuel Kenworthy, Commissioner William D. Clark, and Health Officer Eugene T. Berry, twenty-eight children of school age have been given a new lease on life.

As a result of the annual physical examinations in the schools, many defects are discovered in school children. It is then the duty of the child hygiene nurse to report to the parents and assist them in having the corrections made.

It was during this routine work that the school physician discovered a number of children suffering from diseased or enlarged tonsils and adenoids. Miss Mary Millar, R. N., one of Belleville's child hygiene nurses, followed up in the homes, explaining to the mothers the need for medical attention and the dangers of neglect.

Mayor Kenworthy, Commissioner Clark, Dr. E. L. Smith, and Mr. Berry took an active interest in these children and assisted Miss Millar in arranging for the operations. Some of them were operated upon at Soho Hospital and others at the Newark Memorial Hospital. All of them returned to school this fall in much better physical condition and more able to take their places with other children in their classes.

Real Danger

Serious cases of heart disease often result from diseased tonsils and make invalids of young children. Mental and physical retardation may also result.

Miss Millar is one of the five child hygiene nurses in Belleville. She works with the mothers in the homes, teaching them how to keep well babies well. She also is interested in the expectant mother and is prepared to advise her in regard to her proper care and the importance of early medical supervision.

The child of pre-school age is the infant growing up and special emphasis is made on the early infant and pre-school period as being the most important period in preparation for adult life. It has been definitely demonstrated that through such close supervision during this early period, babies' lives have been saved and many of the defects found in school children have been prevented. This nurse who visits in the homes, also visits the schools, carrying over to the school child her interest in prevention.

FORECASTS GOOD YEAR OF STUDY

Superintendent Of Schools Reports High Grades Made By Students

FEW FAILURES IN HIGH SCHOOL

The promise of a good year for scholastic attainment in the local schools was forecast Monday night by Superintendent of Schools George R. Gerard in a report submitted to the Board of Education at their meeting in the High School.

Of 4,658 registered during September, 4,070 made a passing mark, the superintendent's report showed. No. 3 School with 92.3 per cent led all other schools. No. 5 was next with 91.4 per cent and No. 9 third with ninety per cent.

In the High School failures numbered only 279 for 3,541 passing marks given, amounting to a percentage of scholastic success of ninety. In addition to this, ninety-nine High School students were on the honor roll for having maintained an average of ninety or better.

The School Board agreed to change the boundary line between Schools No. 5 and 7 following a request made by Joseph Baldino of 33 Emmett street, that his six-year-old son be allowed to attend No. 5 in preference to No. 7. Mr. Baldino said that No. 5 was nearer to his home. They would not, however, acquiesce to the similar request made by Mrs. Casper Gilbert of 60 Emmett street until an investigation has been made.

ANOTHER CUT IN RATES FOR GAS HOUSE HEATING

Third Reduction Made in Last Eighteen Months Brings the Ideal Heating System Within Reach of Additional Thousands of New Jersey Home Owners

THE NEW RATE!

The rate now effective is 7½ cents per 100 cubic feet, providing the customer guarantees a minimum revenue of $150.00 for the heating season of eight months—October to May, inclusive—representing a consumption of 200,000 cubic feet.

The rate formerly charged was 8 cents per 100 cubic feet, with a minimum revenue of $160 for the heating season.

Until such time as the total of gas consumed reaches 200,000 cubic feet, the customer pays a minimum monthly bill of $18.75, but any amount added to make the minimum is credited to the customers account, after the 200,000 cubic-foot minimum is passed.

INVESTIGATE COST!

The advantages of gas house heating are known to everyone. It keeps your house at any desired temperature with no more trouble than the adjustment of a thermostat. No dust, no ashes, no storage of fuel, no furnace tending!

The comparative economy of using gas as a house heating fuel is not so well known. Yet it is not luxury for the rich, but rather a convenience available to many. A new conversion burner may permit use of present equipment.

Let us give you the facts—tell you almost exactly what it will cost to heat your home with gas, and of the many benefits and savings that come to you by reason of its use. There will be no charge for our services.

MANY ACCIDENTS SHOW DRIVERS' LACK OF THOUGHT, COMMISSIONER HOFFMAN

As long as railroad tracks and highways cross at the same grade, and it doubtless will be so for many years, the motor car operator will have a thinking role to play in preventing grade crossing accidents. Making this point, State Motor Vehicle Commissioner Harold G. Hoffman declares that there are many instances in which the role individual drivers play is far from a thinking one.

"Some fairly startling figures on this subject recently were developed in a neighboring state," says Mr. Hoffman. "Of fifty-one grade crossing accidents to which specific causes could be assigned, twenty-six, or more than half, occurred at crossings which were protected by mechanical signals or by watchmen."

"The figures sound almost as if they were prepared by the railroad companies with the definite idea of shunting the blame for a majority of accidents upon the motorist's carelessness. That is not the case, however. The statistics were developed by the motor vehicle department of the state in question. Such a department has no bias in favor of the railroads."

"The situation should give every motorist pause for thought. It denotes an attitude that is altogether too common in connection with such mishaps, in which the ratio of fatalities to non-fatal accidents is 1 to 2.2, a remarkably high figure."

Pointing out that the United States Supreme Court has held that if a driver cannot be sure of a train's approach, he should leave his car and make sure before crossing, Mr. Hoffman says the figures which reveal more accidents at protected crossings than at unguarded ones become doubly significant.

"What they show," he says, "is lack of thought, a tragic failure to recognize the obvious. Clearly, then, the motorist does not assume his thinking role in grade crossing safety, the only reasonable one if such mishaps are to be reduced."

ALL-EASTERN STATES AIR RACES AT MERCER AIRPORT

Captain Frank Hawks, who arrived in New York last week from Detroit, setting a world's cross-country flight record averaging 254.7 miles per hour, has assured Herbert H. Blizzard, president of the American Legion Memorial Chapel Association that he will be present at the All-Eastern States Air Races at Mercer Airport, Trenton, October 18 and 19. The races are being held under the auspices of the Chapel Association to secure funds for the erection of the Cathedral of the Air, the aviation memorial shrine at Lakehurst. Mr. Blizzard also announced that arrangements have been completed with the National Broadcasting Company for the radio broadcast of the meet by Miss Elinor Smith, who announced the arrival of Major Kingsford Smith and his companions from Ireland and Captain Dieudonne Coste and Lt. Maurice Bellonte from Paris.

Assistant Postmaster General Irving Glover in charge of air-mail has granted the use of a special cancellation to be used during the races. A special mailbox will be installed in the Trenton Chamber of Commerce office where mail may be deposited to be mailed at Mercer Airport on the days of the races.

Walter Lochner, secretary of the Trenton Chamber of Commerce, which is cooperating with the committee planning the benefit program, has announced the following donors of trophies for the various races: Mercer Pottery Co., J. Harry Hearn Co., A. Exton Co. and the Switlik Parachute Co.

Washington, D. C., October 8—Atlantic City is to add one more to its conventions this month in the form of a state conference of the American Red Cross, which takes place in the Hotel Madison, Tuesday, October 14, with speakers from the national headquarters at Washington in attendance.

A feature of the conference is a luncheon session at which James L. The presiding officer is Major Frederick Hickman, chairman of the Disaster Preparedness Committee of the Atlantic City Chapter.

At the morning session, the dele-

Harrison Heckman, Red Cross field representative for New Jersey, will tell what the chapters have accomplished. The Junior Red Cross is very active in Newark, and Charles Grant Shaffer, principal of the Elliott Street School and junior chairman for that city, will describe what this organization does. "How the Red Cross Brings Health to the Home," is the subject of a talk by Mrs. Caroline R. Shreve, chairman of the Nursing Activities Committee of the Atlantic City Chapter. The last speaker is Walter Davidson of the American National Red Cross staff, who talks on the Red Cross as a factor in home and community life.

the Town of Belleville*

Fire, one of the greatest destructive forces in our country today, can be controlled to a point where losses of life and property will be almost negligible, if we will each do our share towards its prevention. The people of Belleville owe it to themselves, to this community, and to the nation at large to do everything within their power to help stop this great annual loss.

Woman's Club Notes

The Woman's Club will have its official opening of the season October 13 at 2:30. The meeting will be held at the clubhouse, 51 Rossmore place, and will be presided over by Mrs. R. Clifford Whitfield, president. After the business meeting Miss Bertha Kline, executive secretary of the Community Service Bureau, will speak on "The Work of the Community Service Bureau." Miss Alice Lakey will also talk about the "Bond Issue for the Water Supply."

The Board of Directors will meet at the clubhouse Friday afternoon, October 10, at 2:30 o'clock.

The annual bazaar held Friday and Saturday was a gala event. All booths were well patronized and the tea room did a rushing business. Clubhouse rooms were decorated in fall colors by Mrs. W. D. Cornish and her committee and the effect was pleasing.

The candy booth was sold out the first day but the table was replenished by the following day, thanks to the members of the committee. Miss Helen King, graphologist, gave many amusing character readings and was kept busy through the two days.

Mrs. W. P. Adams was chairman of the bazaar with Mrs. T. C. Stewart, vice-chairman. Mrs. Adams reported that the bazaar was a success even though all returns have not been received.

The fall conference of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs will be held in Elizabeth October 16. Mrs. Whitfield will head the delegation from the local club. The morning session will open at 10:30 in the Elks Club. Speakers will be Senator Arthur Pierson and Mrs. Andrew Steelman. Mrs. M. Casewell Heine, State president, will preside. In the afternoon the speaker will be Sidoni Gruenberg, who will speak on: "The Parent Faces a New World."

WHOOPING COUGH MAY BE SERIOUS

Says Health Officer Eugene Berry, Seeking To Avoid Spread Of Mild Epidemic

ELEVEN CASES IN GREYLOCK

At present whooping cough is prevalent in Belleville, especially in the Greylock section. While this slight outbreak is not alarming (eleven cases being reported for September), the Department of Health feels that a statement regarding this disease may help check its spread.

In New Jersey during the ten years, 1914-1923 inclusive, whooping cough caused over 2,800 deaths, more than half as many as were caused by diphtheria; over twice as many as were caused by scarlet fever.

Whooping cough frequently is followed by pneumonia. It favors the development of tuberculosis. It is especially dangerous in young children. Ninety-six out of every one hundred persons who die of whooping cough in New Jersey are less than five years of age. A physician should be called to see all known or suspected cases of whooping cough as he may help to prevent pneumonia or other complications.

If a child can escape whooping cough until ten years of age, he may entirely escape the disease, or if he does contract it, his chances of recovery are much greater. A child having whooping cough should be kept away from all persons who have not had the disease, including those in the same household. Every effort should be made to keep young children away from persons having whooping cough.

Whooping cough is considered contagious for a period of at least three weeks after the beginning of the disease, and as long thereafter as the spasms of coughing occur. Even though the most thoroughly sanitary measures are used by the Board of Health and school authorities, the spread of whooping cough cannot be checked unless parents do their part.

FISH WERE SMALL, BUT THE STORIES WERE O. K.

Judson K. Stickle of Bremond street was host to a group of his friends Saturday on the yacht "Dauntless," belonging to the A.

and S. Transportation Company, of which he is president. The party left Newark in the morning, bound for Sandy Hook. They returned, according to Mrs. Stickle, with some big stories and a few small fish.

In the group were Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy, Henry Jacobus and Arthur Davis of this town; D. H. Dale and E. W. Steele of Maplewood; Councilman George Ernst and William Keever of Bloomfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Stickle spent Sunday visiting friends in Sussex and Hamburg.

ESSEX PAYS AND PAYS.

Talking about the hundred million dollar bond issue which will appear on the ballots next month, the Cape May County Times exclaims with delight that while its passage will mean that residents of the southern-most county will pay an additional $40,000 in gasoline tax they will get back in the elimination of other taxes a total of $130,865. And this is quite true of most of the counties in the central, southern and northern parts of the State.

Essex, Hudson, Bergen, Union and Mercer will put up enough more than they get back so that the less populous counties can get back more than they put up. It is plainly a case of taking "from them as has," but that jolly procedure has been going on in Jersey in road construction and school affairs for decades, and it has resulted in progress for parts of the State which never would have been able to pay their own way. Even if this immediate neighborhood must ultimately pay far, far more than its share of the hundred million dollar issue, we may as well vote for it, for the day is gone when metropolitan Jersey can ignore the condition of the rest of the State.

Incidentally, in case you haven't bothered reading anything more than the headlines, the hundred million is made up of eighteen to eliminate grade crossings; ten for State institutions; seven for water sheds, and sixty-five for State roads. All necessary.

OFFICIAL RACKETEERS

The Baltimore Sun points out, in a recent editorial, that one of the reasons for our failure in handling crime is the character, or lack of it, of many politically-minded judges and prosecutors. "Obviously, much remains to be done to modernize legal concepts, court machinery and procedures," says the Sun. "But * * * the most important check on the crime industry is not a matter of court practice at all, but some assurance that the prosecutor, who makes the preliminary investigation, or the judge who consents to the bail bond or the postponement, is not just another racketeer."

This side of the crime problem has been given a new interest by the recent astonishing exposures of the sale of magistrates' seats in New York. Undoubtedly, the vast majority of judges and prosecutors are honest and incorruptible. But one high official, by making political bargains or forming affiliations with criminals for one reason or another, can defeat justice.

Neither corruption and dishonesty in high circles nor crime in the underworld will be remedied by the passage of more legislation which simply restricts the rights and privileges of law-abiding citizens.

TOUGH ASSIGNMENT FOR AN AD

The national organization of musicians has been spending a lot of money in the last year telling the public of the evils of canned music, by which we assume they mean all the mechanical devices which are used in theatres; the music we get from radios and phonographs and so forth. These advertisements are attention-getting, but we wonder if a single person who hasn't some special interest in a musician who is out of work because of this modern tendency, has been convinced to the point of doing anything about it.

Canned music seems to be a development of the age, just like chain stores, and business mergers. Would it have the slightest effect on the public if those whose financial interests are affected by chain stores and mergers advertised to the public to dislike these developments? We doubt it. Legislation has even been tried against both without effect. It looks to us as if the musicians will have to convince the public of the superiority of music personally produced over the canned variety by actually producing it, if they are to get any action. And if they are superior we doubt if those ads are necessary.

HOW TYPICAL

The Anti-Saloon League in this State was left without a candidate for the Senate after the voters got through with the primary election so it has returned to plans for an "educational campaign," which is outlined in its house organ, the American Issue. And sure enough, the press is to receive attention. League sympathizers are told:

Then, too, there is the answering by letters to the public press and to your local papers the statements that are there published that are often either highly colored or absolutely false. If this can be accomplished in multiplied communities, prohibition will have found its voice again.

Any newspaper that prints anything on, or disagrees with the League, is false." Nice people!

Will Rogers Picks A Story For This Spot

By WILL ROGERS

THE Worst Story I heard today was told to me by another Englishman. He is a railroad conductor, and he used to run between Glasgow and Edinburgh, in Scotland. Well, he had lots of times a lot of trouble about getting tickets from Scotchmen that was trying to ride free or at a reduced rate, but he said the worst he ever got stung was by a fellow with a very red face, when the train stopped at Larbert Junction for collecting tickets.

This red-faced fellow couldn't find his ticket, and kept ransacking his pockets and stewing around in awful excitement. Finally, the conductor saw that the fellow was holding the ticket in his mouth.

"There it is, you fool, in your mouth," he said, and grabbed the ticket.

He was told, after the Scot got off, that the guy had turned to one of the other passengers and said: "Awm nae sich a fule as I looked like to yon collector. 'Twas an auld ticket, an' I was suckin' the date off."

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases. And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick" (Luke 9:1, 2).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Entirely separate from the belief and dream of material living, is the life divine, revealing spiritual understanding and the consciousness of man's dominion over the whole earth. This understanding casts out error and heals the sick, and with it you can speak 'as one having authority'" (p. 14).

town other than the Department of Revenue and Finance? Also, I would like to ask the Mayor to issue an order to the heads of all departments requesting that they refer matters of securing insurance and issuing bonds to the Department of Revenue and Finance if I can show that other departments are handling such matters now."

The Mayor said, "Submit your report," and Williams continued again, addressing Clark.

"Hanson and Goodman were assessed in 1928 for $3,750. They should have been assessed for $37,500. This error was not revealed until a tax search made two years later."

Commissioner Frank Carragher interposed, "The Board realized that."

Apartment

Williams queried, "What did they do about it?" then went on, "An apartment building at Passaic avenue and Joralemon street in 1928 was assessed for $20,000. In 1929 it was reduced to $6,000 and raised again in 1930 to $37,000. It is very hard for me to swallow any propaganda that has been passed out that I have not the facts to prove my contentions. If conditions are as I quote, and I quote the records, how can you gentlemen continue to insist that the Department of Revenue and Finance was properly managed?"

Counsel's Advice

"When I charge laxity I call your attention to an assessment on Main Street Realty Company. Their building was assessed in 1928 at $3,900, when it should have been $39,000. This error has never been corrected and I now ask the town attorney to confer at the earliest possible date to advise me of the legal right of the Town of Belleville in the collection of the proper amount of tax."

"If the town fails to collect on this matter it loses approximately $1,400."

"I also find a house on Malone avenue which was assessed in 1927 for $300 while in 1928 and 1929 the same property was assessed for $4,200. This is a loss to the town of about $150."

Cheap Publicity

"I would like the guidance of the town attorney in the collection of this money."

"Do you, Commissioner Clark, call that efficient management?"

"I would say that such conditions need investigation but why didn't you bring these matters before the Board in conference instead of airing a lot of generalities? You talk about stockholder of a corporation. How would they settle such matters? Not by telling the whole world about it just to get some cheap publicity."

"This whole matter cropped out when, after being absent from one of the Board meetings, I returned to find the Board discussing the assessment of Riviera Park. It was to stop interference with affairs of my department that I made these charges."

"Commissioner Clark, did you not attend a meeting of the Board and the assessors in 1928 in the engineer's office?"

Clark answered affirmatively.

"Was it not true," Williams continued, "that Mr. DeRossett refused to attend that meeting because he did not feel the Commissioners had any right to discuss assessments?"

"I never heard of Mr. DeRossett expressing such an idea."

Williams turned to Carragher, "Commissioner, did you refuse to attend that meeting?"

"Yes."

"And now may I ask the town attorney if it is not true that the assessors are vested with complete authority to make assessments?"

John B. Brown answered, "Yes. But I see no reason why they could not ask for suggestions from the Board of Commissioners on some particularly difficult problem."

"That conference," stated Williams, "was to substantiate my charge that the assessors are vested with complete authority to make assessments. May I ask the town attorney if it is not true that the assessors are vested with complete authority to make assessments?"

"Yes, I do!" Clark said defiantly. There was an audible commotion among the spectators that crowded the Commission chamber and Mayor Kenworthy rapped for order. Then, Williams continued:

Interesting To Note

"It is of interest to me to note that the owner of 338 Washington avenue received a reduction in 1930 of $2,500, bringing his assessment from $14,000 to $11,500."

"It is of further interest to know that a two-family house just to the rear of this house has escaped being taxed for at least two years and this error was committed by two different assessors who served under my predecessor. And it is intensely interesting to know that this very fortunate property owner was interested in both properties."

"This case was caught by my assistant just before a tax search was made, thereby preventing the town from taking a loss of about $100. In answer to this Clark said:

Not Specific

"The general work of the department is important—not specific errors made."

But Williams interjected, "Wait a minute Commissioner. I have more instances—by the yard."

"The plot at 485-487 Cortlandt street, 50x100 is assessed for $30 a front foot while the property at Hornblower avenue and Clearman place, one of the best residential sections in the town, is assessed for less than $30 and it measures 50x129. I contend that my statements are consistent."

Former Tax Assessor James L. Davidson then declared that the house on the latter property actually fronts on Hornblower avenue, thereby calling for a lower assessment.

It was pointed out, however, that the fifty-foot side of the property fronted on Clearman place, while the depth ran along Hornblower avenue, and a check-up with the assessment records later revealed that the assessment had been made from Clearman place.

Understand?

Mayor Kenworthy suggested in reference to Williams' charge that the Cortlandt street property was assessed comparatively high, that the reason might lie in the fact that the land is being held for industrial purposes. The indication that he was right was brought out by Tax Assessor John F. Coogan who said that there were no buildings on the property.

Later on in the meeting Commissioner Williams read his answers to Mr. Nutt's questions of the previous week. They are given here in full:

Question 1. Advise me how to correct a citizen's impression that our Commissioners have no respect for each other?

Ans.: Inasmuch as your question states Commissioners, I can only reply for one-fifth of our Board. My reply is, "I do hold respect for each Commissioner but I reserve the right to express my own opinion at all times."

"Yes It Is"

Question 2. Manufacturer asked if Belleville is a good location for industry; also stated he was skeptical of town's standing?

Answer: Believing his skepticism of town's standing refers to financial standing, I will send him a certified copy of the financial statement of our town if you will submit his name and address to me. Advise him to note the substantial bond companies bidding next week on the $1,000,000 bond issue. Advise him that for the first time in seven years Belleville has a Director of Revenue and Finance who is sufficiently interested to fund many different issues of bonds which heretofore were renewed annually at considerable expense for each renewal. This financial procedure means elimination of expense and substantial saving sold $223,000 of short term bonds at interest rate of 2.7 per cent. A local bank official advises me he regards the rate of 2.7 per cent on $223,000 as a fine financial transaction and a local bank official expressed surprise such a favorable rate was possible. You, Mr. Nutt, and your inquiring friend must agree with me when our bonds are bought by bond houses at such rates that our bank men are surprised that Belleville's financial standing is above question.

Question 3. Is Belleville a good location for industry?

Answer: Mr. Nutt, believing you are motivated purely by civic spirit, may I have the name of this inquiring manufacturer? I want to place before him the wonderful assets Belleville can extend to industrial leaders. I want to show him plants such as the Westinghouse Co., Sonneborn Co., the Rafter Machine Co., the Federal Leather Co., the Wallace and Tiernan Co., the Eastwood Wire Co., and Hendricks Copper Mills. I want to have him meet the progressive leaders of these and many other widely known industries of Belleville. It will be a pleasure to introduce him to our Board of Commissioners, I feel sure all the members will be glad to aid any manufacturer in the establishment of a clean, properly located plant.

This manufacturer's viewpoint will change when Belleville's transportation facilities are outlined to him. The Passaic river on which the National Government is spending in excess of $800,000 and the Erie railroad whose officials will be glad to aid in our development, will appeal to him. We soon will have four fine roads running north and south the length of Belleville and three fine roads crossing the width of town, and in addition our highly developed road system throughout town will be approved. Belleville's proximity to New York City via the proposed improved road and Holland tunnel and our local anticipation for docking facilities will be of interest to him.

Our supply of skilled, technical and unskilled workers will be of interest to him.

Skilled Labor

Our wonderful school system and our great number of beautiful churches will give him assurance of the high moral fibre of our community. Our residential and commercial accommodations will please him, our recreation and club facilities will be recognized by this man as of advantage to his employees.

Will you, as a civic duty, give me the name of this manufacturer so a committee of our Commissioners may place before him the residential, industrial and educational assets so we can work towards a bigger, busier and better Belleville?

Question: Has Belleville lost money or will money be lost as a result of 1284 non-delivered tax bills?

Answer: To first part, I answer "Yes," money has been lost. Forest Hill Golf Club is composed of two parcels—one of twenty-one acres and one of thirteen acres.

Only One Bill

1930 assessment was made at $2,000 per acre. The Forest Hill Golf Club received only the bill on the twenty-one acre parcel, and Mr. Reock, representing them, called at the Town Hall for his tax bill on the thirteen acre parcel. He was given a tax bill for the thirteen acres at $1,000 per acre and paid the first half on the $1,000 bill and appealed the assessment

Part 1. Tax assessor duty by law covering del tax bills.

MAC NAIR LEADS PACK ON ALLEYS

Has Won Ten Games and Lost
Only Five, Holds High
Average

TWO LEAGUES SOON TO START

The annual Belleville Elks bowling tournament is progressing in fine style. Some of the competitors have been pounding the maples in better than mid-season form. The veteran Tom MacNair, hero of many Elk victories is leading the pack.

MacNair has been rolling sensationally to say the least. In one match he rolled three games of 209, 241 and 210. Dutch Faust, off to a good start, dropped several games this week by close scores and is two games behind MacNair. Charlie Waldie and Sel-bert have fewer games lost than MacNair, but they have rolled less games.

"Butch" Kastner, crack southpaw Elk twirler, has a fine record and is tied with Faust and Brogan in the standings. Art Mayer is still in the running with a record of eight games won and ten lost.
Dutch Faust with a score of 246 has the high individual score. Mac-
Nair is leading for high average.

The Elks will start rolling in the Morris and Essex League October
23. Last year they finished third in this circuit which is one of the best in the state. Competition in the Bergen County League will start October 28. Belleville, after winning the pennant in this league for two years straight, finished second last year.

Tom MacNair was recently honored by being elected vice-president of the Morris and Essex League for the second successive year.
MacNair is also captain of the local team in this league. Charlie Waldie is captain of the Bergen County quintet.

SPECIAL PRIZES ARE OFFERED

Although the Belleville Lions are represented this year in the Northern New Jersey bowling league and several of the good players are not available for the regular Lions bowling tournament, the local club will swing into action tonight at the Elks alleys. Four two-man teams will stack up against each other in competition expected to continue until the end of Novem-

Teams formed consist of: Wal-

Hart and George Mead; John Car-

Milton Brasher and A. Edward Locher. Averages last year of the four captains indicate close com-and while the potency of several of the anchor men is unknown, it is expected that they will balance the slight differences in strength among the captains.

Hart, chairman of the Athletic Committee, announces that prizes will be offered to the winning team and to individual players with high and low averages.

Bloomfield Victory Thrust Was Follow-Up of Penalty

Strong Belleville Line Could Not Hold Four Times On One Yard Line

BLUE & GOLD OFFENSE WEAK

Once more the Belleville High eleven played gallant football for three quarters of the game, only to lose out in the final few minutes of play last Saturday afternoon to Bloomfield High at the latter's grounds. A crowd of 4,000 fans saw the battle.

The Blue and Gold were still strong when the fourth quarter opened, but Lady Luck frowned and a fifteen-yard penalty placed the ball on Belleville's one-yard line. Bloomfield then smashed through for the first score of the game.

Took Long Time

Although finally defeated, the Blue and Gold had Bloomfield worried for the greater part of the game. The Maroon and Gray piled up a number of first downs, but lacked the punch at important moments.

Belleville played a defensive game, being content with an effort to keep Bloomfield from scoring.

The disastrous penalty came in the final quarter with about five minutes to play. It was Bloomfield's ball on the seventeen-yard line, first down and ten to go. Schummel skirted right end for a gain and when a Belleville player used his knees instead of his hands the Blue and Gold was penalized fifteen yards.

This brought the ball to the one-yard line with four downs to make the touchdown. Belleville held on the first down, but Berlinski, Bloomfield quarterback, squirmed through for a score on the next play. Frank Schummel then kicked the point after touchdown to make it 7 to 0.

Bloomfield scored again just before the close of the game. With a minute left to play, Davis skirted left end for thirty yards, bringing the ball to Belleville's five-yard line. The same player then went crashing off right tackle for a touchdown. Again Captain Schummel kicked the goal to make the score 14 to 0.

Shortly after the game had been under way it appeared as though Bloomfield would have an easy time with the Blue and Gold. Schummel made a first down on two line plunges. Davis then crashed through for three yards, but Bloomfield was off-side on the next play. Schummel was held for two yards and then kicked to the twelve-yard line.

Belleville elected to play safe and Fritz Plenge kicked back to the thirty-six-yard mark. Once again Schummel made a first down on two plunges. Davis made three yards and Schummel crashed through for another first down. It looked bad for the locals, but two off-side penalties were welcomed by Belleville.

After three rushes failed Schummel threw a long forward which was grounded. The teams kept see-sawing in this manner with Bloomfield having the best of the argument. The Maroon and Gray went wild until they got near the goal line. Whenever Bloomfield threatened the Belleville line was like a stone wall.

Bloomfield came close to a score late in the first quarter when Schummel threw a long forward over the goal line. Davidson, however, was too anxious and the ball slipped through his fingers. Fritz Plenge's good kicking aided in holding the Foleymen this first quarter.

It was the same story in the second quarter except that Belleville had its grand chance to score. After Belleville had held the Bloomfielders deep in their own territory, Schummel kicked high in the air. A strong wind, aided by a bad bounce after the ball struck the ground, gave the locals the ball on Bloomfield's seven-yard line.

Four downs and seven yards to go for a touchdown. The Belleville fans went in an uproar and a score seemed certain. The Blue and Gold offense was weak, however, and as a last resort they threw a short forward pass that was batted down.

Shortly after this Schummel got away for a run of twenty-five yards, but the whistle blew for the half as the ball rested on the forty-yard mark.

The third quarter was a punting duel between Plenge and Schummel. Plenge had the better of the argument with the wind in back of him.

The fourth quarter was smooth until the final few minutes. Bloomfield threatened several times but Belleville held until those fatal, final few minutes. After Lou Galluba had gained five yards on a line plunge he was tackled so hard by Schummel that he dropped the ball. Then Bloomfield gained five yards on an end run and then came the penalty.

Schummel, Davis and Berlinski were important figures in the Bloomfield offense. All three got off for several pretty runs.

The Belleville offense was woefully weak. Everything they tried was squashed by the Bloomfield line. Not one first down was made by Belleville.

Homer Estelle and Harold Bade put up a great defensive game, however. Everyone expected a lot of Bade because of his performance in the opener the week before, but Estelle surprised and pleased beyond expectations.

Chuck Plenge deserves a big hand. It was his first game at center. Butter Brand's injury gave Chuck his chance and he put up a fine battle. Lou Galluba tried his hand at fullback. He was not bad, but lacked the necessary experience.

Harvey Brumback, who took Lou Galluba's place on the line, will probably be out for the rest of the season with a broken ankle. Brumback was playing a whale of a game up until the time of his injury. Stan Goodrich replaced Brumback and kept up the good work.

Hearts In the Right Place, Two Football Fans Explain

Albert A. Gold and Sam D. Wasserman of the Utility Plumbing Supply Co. of Washington avenue wish to correct an impression which they believe is extant, concerning a promise they made after the Belleville-Central game. They want it known that whether the Blue and Gold wins the State championship or not, they will give a wrist watch to the most valuable player on the local squad.

They also stated after that game, that they would present a cup to the Belleville team if the State championship was brought to town. The loss of one game generally puts a team out of the State championship running but few fans will be able to condemn Mr. Gold and Mr. Wasserman for making an offer which they sincerely meant to be an incentive for the Blue and Gold.

NELSON TO GET SECOND CHANCE

Opposes Tony Lambert In Newark Tomorrow Night; Seeks Revenge

FRANK CORSE ON SAME CARD

Johnny Nelson, Silver Lake lightweight, will make an attempt to reverse the decision which Tony Lambert of Newark holds against him, when they meet in the star ten round contest at Lewellyn Hall, Orange, tomorrow night.

Nelson has been going through heavy workouts each day and will be in tip-top shape for the rugged Newarker. Johnny has boxed two rounds each day with Ernie Ratner for the past week.

Lambert, a heavy hitter, has crossed gloves with the leading lightweights in the East. His record shows fights with Bennie Levine, Nat Arno, Nick Abate and Al Rossi. According to the promoter, Nelson will get a return fight with Bennie Levine, popular Jewish slugger, if he disposes of Lambert. Levine holds a much disputed decision over Nelson.

On the same card in a special six-rounder, Frank Corse, fleet-footed lightweight, will box an opponent to be selected.

This will be Corse's initial appearance in the Metropolitan section of New Jersey. He has been making rapid strides in southern Jersey and New York.

Both boys are being tutored by William Armirata of Newark.

INITIAL GAME PLEASES COACH

Line and Aerial Attack Smothers Newark Team Through Entire Game

LOOK TO YEAR OF VICTORY

Despite the fact that the World Series was being broadcast last Sunday, 1,000 fans saw the Belleville Clintons open their season with a 26 to 0 victory over the Newark Aonakas. The Clinton played in mid-season form all from the opening kick-off it was apparent that they outclassed their rivals.

Their line and backfield worked in perfect harmony. Soon after the game got under way George Ashworth darted over the line for a touchdown. Other scores were made by Marty Mallack, Bungo Gorman and Hughie Clark. These four boys, known as the "Clinton four horsemen," certainly lived up to their reputation. Points after touchdown were made by Marty Mallack, who drop-kicked an extra point and Bungo Gorman who added a point on an end run.

Manager Andy Monahan and Coach Gil Howley were well pleased with the line and the aerial attack. The light, but speedy Aonaka backfield could not make much headway against the Clinton forward wall although they completed several forward passes.

Manager Andy Monahan has announced that starting Sunday there will be games every week at Belleville Park. Some of the best amateur football teams in this vicinity have been booked. Last year the Clintons lost but one game during the entire season. This year they hope to go through the season undefeated. The line-up:

TRAVELING BAG MISTAKE

THE TIMES wishes to correct an error made in last week's paper in the story under the heading "Party For Organist." It was stated: "Mr. Moore presented Mrs. Moore with a fitted traveling bag," and it should have said: "Robert Oliver, on behalf of members of Fewsmith choir, presented Mrs. Moore with a traveling bag."

worry the Belleville line which stopped Schummel of Bloomfield last week. He doesn't rate with Schummel.

Coach Finds Lamb

Coach Erickson will have a revamped line-up for the game Saturday. He has unearthed a find in Mac Lamb, Blue and Gold baseball and basketball star. Lamb reported for football Monday and Wednesday was playing with the varsity. He has already proved himself the best punter and forward passer on the squad and is a shifty broken field runner.

Another pleasant surprise is the return to form of Tony Biase. Tuesday Biase played with the scrubs and turned in such an impressive performance that it would not be surprising to see him start Saturday's game. Lamb and Biase should add the needed punch to the Belleville backfield.

The line will be practically the same although a last minute shift may see Jerry Bonavita starting at halfback instead of end. If Lou Galluba plays in the backfield as he did last week, his tackle post will be taken care of by Stan Goodrich. Eddie O'Neil will take Jerry Bonavita's place at end if the latter starts in the backfield. O'Neil has been going strong this week in scrimmage.

Nick Bonavita injured his kneecap in the Bloomfield game and may have to watch the game from the sidelines. Harvey Brumback,

TOWN OF BELLEVILLE, IN THE COUNTY OF ESSEX, NEW JERSEY
Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Belleville, in the County of Essex, New Jersey, at the Town Hall, Belleville, New Jersey, until Tuesday, October 14th, 1930 at 8 o'clock P. M., when they will be publicly opened, for the purchase, at not less than par, of bonds of the Town of Belleville, in the County of Essex, of the following authorized issues, viz:

$268,000 Water Bonds, maturing serially, $7,000 of bonds on October 1st in each of the years 1932 to 1948, inclusive, $9,000 of bonds on October 1, 1949, and $10,000 of bonds on October 1st in each of the years 1950 to 1963, inclusive.

$830,000 General Improvement Bonds, maturing serially $40,000 of bonds on October 1st in each of the years 1932 to 1938, inclusive, $50,000 of bonds on October 1st in each of the years 1939 to 1943, inclusive and $60,000 of bonds in each of the years 1944 to 1948, inclusive.

All of the bonds will be dated October 1, 1930 and will be coupon bonds, registrable at the option of the holder as to principal only or as to both principal and interest. All of the bonds will be of the denomination of $1,000 each. Interest will be payable semi-annually April 1st and October 1st, in each year. The principal and interest of the bonds will be payable at The First National Bank, in Belleville, New Jersey, in gold coin of the United States of the Standard of weight and fineness existing on October 1, 1930.

The bonds will bear interest at one of the following rates, viz: 4 per cent, 4½ per cent, 4¾ per cent or 5 per cent. Each proposal must name the rate of interest desired and must name the same rate for all of the bonds of each issue. In awarding each issue of bonds, only proposals naming the lowest rate named in any proposal for such issue of bonds will be considered.

The amounts necessary to be raised by the sale of the two bond issues are as follows: Water bonds, $268,000. General Improvement bonds $830,000. No more bonds of either issue will be sold than will produce the amount necessary to be raised by the sale of such issue and an additional sum of less than $1,000 for such issue (exclusive of the amount of any interest accrued on the bonds.) If less than the maximum authorized amount of either issue is sold the unsold bonds of such issue will be those last maturing. The bonds of each issue will, unless all bids therefor are rejected, be sold to the bidder or bidders complying with the terms of sale and offering to pay not less than the amount necessary to be raised by the sale of such issue, and to take therefor the least amount of bonds of such issue, commencing with the first maturity, and if two or more bidders offer to take the same amount of bonds of the same issue, then the bonds of that issue will be sold to the bidder or bidders offering to pay therefor the highest additional price. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The right is reserved to reject all bids.

Any bidder may condition his bid on the award to him of the two issues of bonds, but in that case, if there is a more favorable bid for one of the issues for which he bids, his bid will be rejected.

Proposals should be addressed to the undersigned Town Clerk of the Town of Belleville, in the County of Essex, New Jersey, and enclosed in a sealed envelope marked on the outside "Proposal for bonds." Bidders must at the time of making their bids deposit a certified check for 2% of the face amount of the bonds bid for, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company to the order of the Town of Belleville, in the County of Essex, to secure the Town against any loss resulting from a failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be returned upon the award of the bonds.

The successful bidder will be furnished with the opinion of Messrs. Reed, Hoyt & Washburn of New York City, that the bonds are valid and binding obligations of the Town of Belleville, in the County of Essex.

By order of the Board of Commissioners. Dated: September 30, 1930.
JOHN J. DALY, Town Clerk.
