CAR REPAIRING FIGHT GOES ON

Mrs. Dickinson Repeats Charges Of Zone Violation Against
Jacob Zandee

WILL TRY AGAIN, SAYS MAYOR

Charging that Jacob Zandee of 115 Carpenter street was violating the zoning ordinance which prohibits commercial enterprise in a Class A residential zone, Mrs. Charles Dickinson of 111 Carpenter street Tuesday night appealed to the Board of Commissioners at their formal meeting in the Town Hall for an order to have his "repair shop" closed.

Mr. Zandee, according to Mrs. Dickinson, for the past six months has been operating an automobile repair shop, working late into the night and hammering on metal in such a manner as to cause loss of sleep and frayed nerves to members of her household.

No Relief

Repeated complaints, she said, had availed no relief and she was making a final plea for action.

Mayor Kenworthy said the Board had attempted to remedy the situation but neither policemen nor the Building Inspector had ever been able to catch Mr. Zandee in the act of making repairs.

To which Mrs. Dickinson replied, "Of course not. The Building Inspector visited the place during the day when Mr. Zandee is away at work on his regular job."

But Mayor Kenworthy said that the policemen likewise had not been able to find Mr. Zandee at

ROSS MAY START SUIT FOR $500

Announces Intention Of Insisting On Full Salary To December 31

COMPROMISE IS ANTICIPATED

Suspended Recreation Director Clifton H. Ross is seeking through his attorney, Louis J. Goldberg of East Orange to secure full pay for the balance of the year, according to the terms of what he said was a contract with the Recreation Commission.

He said Monday that he may start suit against the town for $500, the amount he claims he would have received as salary if activities of the department had not been suspended because of an unlooked for shortage.

Goldberg conferred with Town Counsel John B. Brown Tuesday but the outcome was not divulged. It is believed that some compromise will be made. Commissioner Frank Carragher said Ross was willing at first to accept $154.70 in full settlement but Ross now indicates that this is not agreeable to him.

EXPECTED OPPOSITION FAILS; NUTLEY SCHOOL BOARD GIVES ASSENT AT SPECIAL SESSION

That a post-season football game between the Belleville and Nutley High Schools would take place on December 6 became a certainty last night at 10 o'clock when the Nutley Board of Education unanimously acquiesced to the plan as suggested by letter from Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy.

Discussion lasted an hour and a half, and uneasiness was expressed over the fact that the Nutley team was not physically fit, because of its schedule of regular length, to play another game. Dr. Horace Tatum, chairman of the athletic council and vice-president of the Nutley Board, although the strongest believer that the season should come to an end with the South Side game Thanksgiving Day, voted "yes", on the motion favoring the plan as made by Walter F. Reinheimer.

An amendment was made by Chester A. Shannon that permission from the parents of players be secured before the game was actually played.

Advocates of the plan were Edgar R. Leete who represented the Nutley Rotary Club and Daniel J. Sullivan of the Nutley Lions Club. The latter said that such a game would produce a greater amount for charity than an alternate game suggested.

Mr. Leete also expressed the desire to see Nutley and Belleville resume football relations and Mr. Reinheimer said that the Nutley Board would be willing to go on record as being in favor of such a game next year.

Mr. Sullivan speaking about probable receipts, believed that $4,000 would be the least that would be received. Miss Emma L. Mott, Nutley poormaster said that others who had talked to her believed the net receipts would amount to $6,000.

The plan is to have service clubs

TIMES STARTS ITS 22D YEAR IN BELLEVILLE

Growth Of Paper Has Kept Pace With Expansion Of Its Town

LOOKS FOR BRIGHT FUTURE

THE TIMES, with this issue, starts on its twenty-second year. During that time Belleville has changed from a sleepy little village to the bustling suburban town that it is today and almost as many changes have occurred in THE TIMES as in the town which it has served so long.

From a circulation of a few hundred it has grown steadily until it now reaches nearly 4,000 Belleville people each week and its advertising patronage has grown from nothing at all to a substantial representation of Belleville's business houses as well as those of nearby cities.

Its Early Owners

Started by James J. Kennedy and the late Augustus McEnery, both Belleville residents and both connected with newspapers in Newark, THE TIMES, after a few months, passed into the control of the late John W. Smith, also a Newark newspaperman, and a resi-

COMMUNITY CHEST OVER SUBSCRIPTION

John Ray Announces Receipt Eight Cents More Than
$19,400 Quota

EXPECT STILL MORE MONEY

Satisfaction reigns in the office of the Community Chest Campaign workers who Monday night completed their extra week's work succeeded in putting the drive at the top by the amount of 8 cents.

The oversubscription was announced by John Ray with the dead statement that still more be expected with the final job cleaning up odds and ends. A quota of $19,400 was set and $19,400.88 was reported received Monday night.

Of this, the Special Gifts committee was credited with raising $7,006.88; the industrial division $4,855.21; schools, $1,925; commercial, $633.85; lodges, clubs and other organizations, $610; bank $80; individual subscribers, $4,289.14.

With the exception of the industrial division, increases over last year's reported by the chairman of the committees. William F. Weyland, head of the Industrial Division, fell just short of the $5,000 mark, soliciting more than double the amount of last year's committee and Gerard, head of the school division, reported a similar percentage of increase.

BOMB PLANTED AT FERRI HOME

Blackmailers, Disappointed When
$2,000 Is Not Sent, Thought Responsible

MAY BE CLUE FOR POLICE

Blackmail threats received by Dominick Ferri of Emmett street during the past two months were climaxed yesterday by the finding of a bomb near his home with the fuse giving evidence of having been lit.

Chanceman Paul Rowe, sent in answer to Ferri's telephone call to police, threw water on the bomb and took it to headquarters. It was found to be made of a tin filled with dynamite and having a cap and fuse.

Three weeks ago, according to Ferri, he received a letter offering him to bring $2,000 to the railroad crossing at Broad street and Elizabeth. Failure to comply with the demand would result in death, the letter read.

This was shown to police two weeks ago and Police Chief Flynn has been conducting investigation. The bomb may be a definite clue to the identity of the blackmailers.

WIDOW AWARDED $45,000; HUSBAND TRAIN VICTIM

Supreme Court Justice Finds Railroad Guilty Of Negligence
In Accident

Supreme Court Justice Leander B. Faber in Queens County Tuesday, set the sum of $45,000 as the value of the life of John W. Cremeans, thirty-seven-year-old brakeman who met death July 7, 1929, while at work for the Pennsylvania railroad at its Sunnyside yard in Long Island.

The jury awarded this amount to the widow, Mrs. Margaret Cremeans of 243 Linden avenue, Belleville, after Thomas J. O'Neill of 260 Broadway, her attorney, proved that the accident which resulted in Cremeans's death was due to the negligence of the railroad.

Although there were no witnesses, O'Neill showed that Cremeans' body came in contact with a yardmaster's shanty which protruded from a structure in such a manner that it became a dangerous instrumentality.

In addition to his widow, Cremeans left three children, Robert, ten years old; Rea, six and Joseph, five.

MAYOR NAMED TO GROUP STUDYING UNEMPLOYMENT

Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy was Friday appointed to a committee for the study of employment problems and relief by Colonel Charles R. Blunt, State Labor Commissioner. The Mayor's appointment increased membership to forty.

What the functions of the committee will be could not be definitely learned in an interview with the Mayor Tuesday, who has not yet attended a meeting. Notification of his appointment was received he said, but no date for a meeting announced. The committee has already held one meeting but business was mostly concerned with organization.

MAN THREATENS MOTHER -- JAILED

Christopher Serritella Held In Bail Of $2,500; Complaint
Made By Brother-

REFUSED DEMAND FOR $200

Christopher Serritella of 46 Magnolia street found himself in serious trouble Tuesday night after an alleged threat to his mother Mrs. Vitella Serritella of the same address, that he would "put her on the spot" if she did not give him $200 by 6 o'clock that night. His demand was made Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Serritella said she would not give him the money and intended to wait the threat out but another son, John Serritella, took matters seriously and communicated with police. Recorder George A. Fitzsimmons signed a warrant for Christopher's arrest Tuesday night an hour before the time set for the threatened killing and police went to the house.

It was not until 8:15 however, that Christopher appeared at the house. At headquarters, Recorder Fitzsimmons held him under bail of $2,500 for the Grand Jury.

MENTAL EVENTING RLET FEVER

Dr. Eugene Berry Tells of Epidemic As He Describes Symptoms

PARENTS AGAINST TAKING ANY CHANCES

Editor of THE TIMES:

Sir: Due to a slight outbreak of scarlet fever in town, the Department of Health wishes to warn parents of its prevalence. We do not feel there is any immediate danger of an epidemic, but most of the cases are mild, and parents should be on their guard that a correct diagnosis can be made and its spread to other children prevented.

During the past three weeks, fifteen cases have been reported. Following are a few facts about the disease which parents should know:

The onset is usually sudden. Vomiting, sore throat, headache and fever are the first symptoms noted; vomiting is not evident in all cases there may only be a state of nausea. The rash usually appears within twenty-four hours, and is seen first on the neck and the upper part of the chest. It appears as a fine pin point eruption, evenly diffused and bright red. Later the skin peels in scales, in flakes or large pieces.

Parents are urged to co-operate with this department to help check this slight outbreak. If your child complains of not feeling well and should develop a slight sore throat, accompanied by a slight rash and fever, do not take it for granted that due to the fact he is not real sick, it may be a stomach rash or measles, for it may be scarlet fever.

If any of the above symptoms should appear, your family doctor should be called at once.

EUGENE T. BERRY.

MILITARY RITES FOR J. J. OLDHAM

Caisson Drawn Through Streets
With Veterans And Police
Escort

SAW SERVICE IN WORLD WAR

Escorted by local police and the full membership of George A. Younginger Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, the body of World War Veteran John J. Oldham was Monday carried in a slow procession from St. Peter's Church to Holy Cross Cemetery, North Arlington.

In a casket draped with an American flag and resting on a military caisson drawn by six horses, the former Democratic leader was taken to his last resting place. Preceding the caisson was a motorcycle patrolman, a sergeant and seven patrolmen on foot, two automobiles loaded with flowers and the Veterans' band.

TRAFFIC HELD FIFTEEN MINUTES

Following the casket were other members of Younginger Post and twenty-seven automobiles. Traffic was held up fifteen minutes while the cortege moved down William street to Washington avenue, then to Rutgers street and across Belleville turnpike bridge.

Mr. Oldham was thirty-six. He died a week ago Wednesday after a week's illness at St. James Hospital in Newark.

Born in Belleville, he lived here all his life. At the outbreak of the World War he joined the Seventy-Eighth Division and served two years overseas.

WAS GASSED IN WAR

On his return he was employed by the Town Water Department as a meter reader and later opened a restaurant at Mill and Dow streets, operating that place until his death. A weak condition of health due to effects of being gassed during the War was thought responsible for his failure to rally from an attack of pneumonia.

Besides being a member of the Veterans Post, Mr. Oldham belonged to Belleville Lodge 1123, B. P. O. E., the Knights of Columbus and St. Peter's Holy Name Society.

He leaves a wife, a son John Anthony, his father and step-mother, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Oldham of 92 Dow Street; three brothers, Joseph and William of the William street address and Samuel of New York; six sisters, the Misses Jean and Zita Oldham of the Dow street address; Mrs. Frank Walker and Mrs. Lloyd Struyker of Belleville; Mrs. James Wagner of Asbury Park and Mrs. Herbert Fournier of 128 Church street, Nutley.

MAN CHARGED WITH TWO TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS AFTER AUTO TRUCK HITS HOUSE

Francis Dillon of 135 Bergen avenue, Kearny, attempted to defend himself before Recorder George A. Fitzsimmons in court last night on charges made by Josephine Brodzinski of 15 Davidson street, Belleville, that he had allowed minors to drive his truck.

On Tuesday of last week, according to the complaint, Dillon allowed a thirteen-year-old boy to turn the truck around. The boy lost control and the truck crashed into Mrs. Brodzinski's house, knocking off the front porch.

Police issued a warrant for his arrest but when they went to the home given by the license bureau at Trenton they found that he did not live there. A summons issued to him had previously been ignored. A tracer was sent out and he was arrested in Kearny. He was also tried on the charge of not notifying authorities of his change of address.

Proof of Wisdom

There is nothing so like a wise man as a fool who holds his tongue.—St. Francis de Sales.

Sleepy!

Hugh Latimer, an English bishop who died in 1535, once told a story of a woman of London whose neighbor met her in the street and said, "Mistress, whither go ye?" "Mary," said she, "I am going to St. Thomas of Acres to the sermon. I could not sleep all this last night, and I am going now thither; I never failed of a good nap there."

INDIAN CIVIL WAR SEEN BY CLUB SPEAKER

Rotarians Hear Views Of Newark
Man Who Has Just Returned From Trip

SAYS TOURIST ATTRACTIONS ARE BUILDINGS, WORSHIP

Charles Stauback, member of the Rotary Club, recently returned from India, declared in a speech before the local Rotary Club yesterday noon at the Nereid Boat Club that India is not yet ready for independence.

"The rank and file of the people do not want it," the speaker said, describing that the constituents of India's many religions were constantly at loggerheads. He also believed that the people as a whole were too ignorant to vote.

"While the present London-India conference will probably establish a modified provincial government, it is a question just who will be able to operate intelligently a parliament," Stauback said.

WORST KNOWN

He described sanitary conditions as being the worst known anywhere, and advised those contemplating a visit against using milk or water cured there. The only safe water was said to be French bottled water and even that was often "leg."

Three main attractions of themselves to the tourist however, Indian architecture was described as the most beautiful in the world, the places and methods of worship as being a feature of consuming interest; and the spectacle of India's teeming city life, a third feature.

It was the speaker's opinion that Indian independence would be immediately followed by a civil war which would throw the power into the warlike and more barbaric tribes of the North. Two reels of motion pictures were used to illustrate the talk.

The league held its regular monthly business meeting at the church Monday night. Thanksgiving baskets are being prepared for the poor families in the town. "Contribute freely for those who are less fortunate than you," those in charge urge.

JUDGE REFUSES TO NAME RECEIVER FOR LOCAL CONCERN

Efforts to have the Atlantic Enamel and Lacquer Works, Inc. of 691 Main street declared insolvent and in need of a receiver were frustrated Saturday by the decision of Federal Judge Guy L. Fake who ordered disputing officials to keep the business going and settle their differences.

Henry G. Lapidus, represented by Lawyer Irving Schwartz asked that a receiver be named, saying that the corporation was insolvent. He held the office of vice-president until Friday when a restraining order against him was issued by Vice-Chancellor Church. The action was contested by Simon Schack, president of the concern.

Officials of the corporation are alleged to have held grudges for the past year and this is thought the cause for a slight decrease in the volume of business.

DI BARTOLA'S WRIST BROKEN IN ATTEMPTED BARREL JUMP

Frank Di Bartola, seventeen, of 40 Frederick street, Silver Lake, was taken to St. Michael's Hospital last Thursday night with a fracture of the right wrist after an attempted feat of prowess at Franklin and Magnolia streets, failed.

Di Bartola and several of his friends were endeavoring to, accomplish a difficult jump, such as was done by Nicholas Ferri, who vaulted from a standing position to the top of a three-foot barrel. He made one attempt and that was disastrous. He fell backwards and landed on his hands in order to avoid striking his head on the sidewalk. He was taken to the hospital by Patrolman Monaghan.

Five hundred new shares of stock were subscribed.

The annual report shows a steady gain, the assets at the present time being $1,584,133.00.

CAR REPAIRING FIGHT GOES ON

work. He reminded her that Mr. Zandee had been summoned before Recorder George A. Fitzsimmons only to have the case dismissed because she did not appear against him.

No Evidence

Mrs. Dickinson said she had no concrete evidence to submit, having been unable to learn whether Zandee had actually received payments for the work.

She pointed out at that time, in answer to the defense of Zandee, that he was doing the work without pay for friends only, that he must have a great many friends when he could continually have five cars on his property for repair all the time.

She believed that the reason he received so much work was because he cut prices, "As he can afford to do because of not having to pay a large rental for a garage in a business zone."

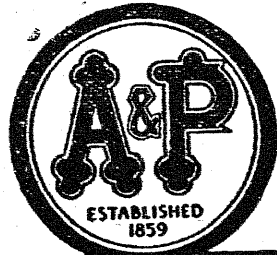

Despite previous failures to secure evidence against Zandee, the Mayor finally assured Mrs. Dickinson that another effort would be made to learn the truth of her allegations and bring Zandee to justice.

OWNERS PROTEST PAVING CHARGES

William Street Claimed To Be A Public Improvement By Lawyer

PARKSIDE DRIVE DISPUTE

William street assessments for paving were contested before the Board of Commissioners Tuesday night in the Town Hall by Lawyer James F. X. O'Brien of Newark, representing property owners Aime Lariviere and John Travers, who claimed that it was a public improvement, not private.

He said the making of it a one-way street from Belleville avenue to Union avenue, offered proof of this contention. The Board postponed action, pending further study.

A complaint had been made two weeks ago by two other property owners who charged that they had received no notice from the Town Clerk that the improvement was to be made and therefore did not feel that the town was justified in making assessments.

Could Have Proceeded

It was stated that John Travers, a large property owner on that street, had made the petition and it was on his request that the repaving was done. Tuesday night, however, it developed that he did not own sixty per cent of the property, it was found that the town could have proceeded with the improvement even without the signatures of sixty per cent of the owners on a petition.

A second protest was made for the same clients by Lawyer O'Brien for assessments on Parkside drive. In this case the contention was that local assessments could only be levied for one-half the width of the street, the other half being town property.

Commissioner Patrick Waters disagreed, arguing that the property owners on that street had petitioned for the work and therefore could not expect the town to pay.

Action in this case was likewise postponed.

AFFAIR BROUGHT TO CLIMAX

Edward Ming of 25 Overlook avenue is a skeptic, at least in matters relating to his wife and Hollis Kennerly of Stuyvesant avenue, Kearny.

That characteristic is believed to be the reason why he refused to accept ordinarily good evidence that the alleged paramour of his wife was in Bremen, Germany, deeply apologetic for having caused any breach in Ming's marital relations.

According to evidence brought out at a hearing before Recorder Fitzsimmons a week ago Wednesday when Ming was being tried on a charge of hitting Kennerly over the head with a newspaper which surrounded a three-quarter-inch lead pipe, the trouble began five months ago.

Kennerly met Mrs. Ming at a party in their home and the two were attracted to each other. The story went that they held secret trysts at the Essex street station of the Erie railroad until Ming learned through friends of the clandestine meetings. He promptly told his wife that she would have to find another roof to shelter her and she, according to the story, went to Kennerly.

He engaged an apartment for her at the Lucerne Hotel, Newark, and for a month everything quieted down. One night Ming met Mrs. Ming on Broad street, Newark, and succeeded in having her return home.

A week passed and Ming received a letter postmarked "Bremen, Germany." It was signed by Kennerly and said that he was sorry for having broken up the family. He was penitent and was in Germany, to try to forget Mrs. Ming.

But Mrs. Ming continued after that to slip out of the house. Her husband's suspicions, as a consequence, became stronger and stronger. He did some detective work and learned that a Hollis Kennerly was still employed at a plant in Port Newark.

He then conceived the idea of having a girl call Kennerly on the telephone, say it was Mrs. Ming, and make an appointment for that night at the Essex street station. The ruse was successful but Kennerly was not quite satisfied about the sound of the voice over the wire and so instead of going to the appointed place he stayed on Washington avenue, a block away.

There he could command a view of the exact spot that he was to meet Mrs. Ming and yet not be near enough to get into harm's way.

However, Ming came up to Kennerly and tapped him on the shoulder. From here on, in the court hearing, the testimony was disputed. Kennerly said he was hit by a lead pipe and offered some evidence to prove it. Ming said he used his fists. The injured man said he did not want to press a charge, but Recorder Fitzsimmons said he could not excuse the use of a lead pipe and ordered Ming's trial by Grand Jury. He was later paroled in the custody of his lawyer, C. William Caruso of Newark.

dent of Harrison. After being conducted by Mr. Smith for a few months it was purchased by Stephen H. Blaydes who came to Belleville about that time from Boonville, Mo., where he was born and passed practically his whole life.

Mr. Blaydes, assisted by his wife, Mary H. Blaydes, conducted the paper successfully for many years, the former becoming a familiar figure on Belleville's streets for he believed in maintaining personal contact with all of his readers and advertisers. On October 22, 1928, Mr. Blaydes died after a long illness, but active control was continued by his wife for about a year, after which she yielded to the promptings of a strongly religious nature and entered a convent in Maryland.

Paper Is Enlarged

The steady enlargement and improvement of THE TIMES went on, however. In the latter part of 1927 its pages were increased from six to seven columns in size and on July 11, 1929 it increased again, becoming an eight-column newspaper, the standard size throughout the country.

While these changes were in line with the growth that was going on in all departments, the popularity of the tabloid size newspaper was increasing by leaps and bounds and on August 8 of last year it was determined to give Belleville this most modern type of newspaper—terse news, pictures and high visibility for the advertisers.

As these changes went on THE TIMES' circulation gradually climbed and its advertising increased until the present finds its sphere of influence wider than at any time in its history. Having attained its "majority," THE TIMES looks forward to many years of service in its chosen field.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR GROUP SELECT THEME

The Senior Christian Endeavor of Belleville Reformed Church has chosen for its theme during November and December, "My Life a Witness for Christ." The prayer meeting in the chapel Sunday evening was in charge of Miss G. Martling, who chose for the topic, "Jesus, an Example of Stewardship." During the week each member is expected to join in the Quiet Hour. The topic for Sunday's meeting at 7 p. m. will be, "Things for Which We Should Be Thankful," with Miss B. Rollin leading. Each member will be asked to win at least one person to Christ during the week.

A sun-rise service to be held in the church at 6:30 a. m. Thanksgiving Day will feature a musical program and short talks by special speakers. The public is urged to be present and share in the inspiration to be gained from this meeting. Miss E. Bauman will lead the service the following Sunday evening. The topic will be "Our Responsibility to Spread the Gospel." During the week each member will strive to live in complete harmony with Christ.

Dr. Sutherland, superintendent of the Newark Home and Rescue Mission and a group of his followers will be welcomed to a luncheon at the church Sunday evening, December 7. At 7:45 he will open the church service, which will consist of a Tom Noonan type of program with one of New Jersey's great men as its leader. It will be the effort of each member during the week following to conscientiously live up to all membership obligations.

"How to Make Others Happy" will be the subject December 14,

SE EVANGELIST,
FORMER SPEAKER HERE,
A BRIDE IN NEW YORK

A recent marriage which took place at the Training School for Christian Workers, Gramercy Park, New York, will be of interest to many Belleville people.

The bride was Miss Alice Ling, a chinese missionary worker, who has been a frequent visitor at the home of Mrs. Edgar M. Compton and Mrs. J. V. Thetford of Bremond street. She was the speaker two years ago at a mother and daughter banquet in Belleville and has also talked at Epworth League meetings.
Rev. Edgar M. Compton was the officiating pastor at her marriage last Friday to David Yu, a law student at Columbia University. Miss Grace H. Hamilton, principal of the training school, gave the bride away and fifty of the students attended the ceremony.

The bride wore a pink gown, white being considered mourning in China. Refreshments, served by fellow students, consisted of the usual menu for Chinese weddings, rice cakes, signifying plenty; jasmine tea, which is served because of its sweet odor and chinese nuts, meaning cooperation, or working together.

Mr. and Mrs. Yu were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Compton last Sunday. The couple are sailing today for China where they will do evangelistic work.

Mrs. John Burgess of Jamaica L. I., will entertain several Belleville friends at luncheon and bridge Saturday. Guests will be Mrs. Gordon R. Kyle, Mrs. Louis Hodgkinson, Mrs. J. Harry Hardman and Miss Lillian Hassett of this town, and Mrs. James Knox of Maplewood, Latin teacher in the local High School.

The Day of Good Things

Thanksgiving was set aside by the Pilgrim Fathers as a mark of appreciation for having plenty to eat and a shelter in which to keep warm and dry. From its original significance the day is now thought of as a time for feasting and going to a football game in the afternoon. This year it is more than ever necessary to celebrate in a big way. Buy a bigger turkey, more fruit and nuts, more plum pudding and be sure to go to a football game. Keep in mind that you should

SCOUTS HEAR LECTURE ON HISTORY OF FLAG

"History of the United States Flag" was the subject of an address given by Harry Louderbough, high scout commissioner of Jersey City, at the rally of Boy Scout Troop 90 held Friday night in School No. 10. In his talk Mr. Louderbough traced the flag from the one first placed on American soil by Cortez in 1619 to our "Old Glory" of the present day, illustrating his outline of its history by showing numerous miniature duplicates of flags which have preceded our own in America.

E. D. Kelly, chairman of the program committee also spoke to the boys. Scouts Thomas Whychell, Henry Potter, Ray Vosburg and Robert Reed gave a first aid demonstration and George Piercey and Thomas Whychell illustrated signaling. George Piercy showed how to make a fire with seel and flint and Hurl Vreeland started a fire by friction in twenty-five seconds.

Edwin Curtin won the scout ax which was donated by Mr. Kelly to be given as a reward to the boy responsible for the largest number of persons present.

Harvey Maden, assistant scout executive of the Newark Council, led the community singing. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Sheen entertained with vocal selections and John Cunningham played the violin.

The committee assisting Mr. Kelly comprised W. S. Potter, R. E. Lloyd, F. B. Moore, scoutmaster, A. D. Kittle, assistant scoutmas-

BELLEVILLE SHOWED ITS WILLINGNESS

This is being written before Nutley has decided whether a team from the high school of that town will meet Belleville in a post season game for charity. The news columns tell the decision. But it is pertinent to remark that no matter what the decision of the Nutley authorities, Belleville, both as a town and as a school system has shown its willingness to go more than half way in a worthy cause.

It is often said that personal touchiness on the part of school officials in both towns has kept these two natural rivals from meeting in athletic sports for years. Whether this is true or not, it is generally believed. Belleville has now shown that even if true we are big enough to rise above personalities, and to show Nutley that as far as we are concerned old sores are healed and can be forgotten.

If the story told in the news columns shows that the Nutley authorities agreed to the game they are to be commended for their action. If the opposite is true we can only point out that Nutley is cutting off its nose to spite its face for this town already has another team to insure a charity game being played, and those who require aid this coming winter in Nutley will be the only ones to suffer.

TROUBLE COMING HOME TO ROOST

Sadly enough Senator Fess is pretty nearly right when he says that the Republican party will go down to defeat if it comes out for repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. Republican leaders on the wet side can call him blind all they wish, it doesn't alter the fact that the irreconcilable dries in the Republican ranks will vote for a wet Democrat rather than a wet Republican if the latter party deserts their cause.

The G. O. P. has plenty to worry about in 1932 aside from the dismal augury of the recent bye-elections. Unless important dry leaders can be convinced between now and 1932 that prohibition as at present constituted really is a failure and that a new start must be made, the Republicans face danger whether they go wet or stay dry.

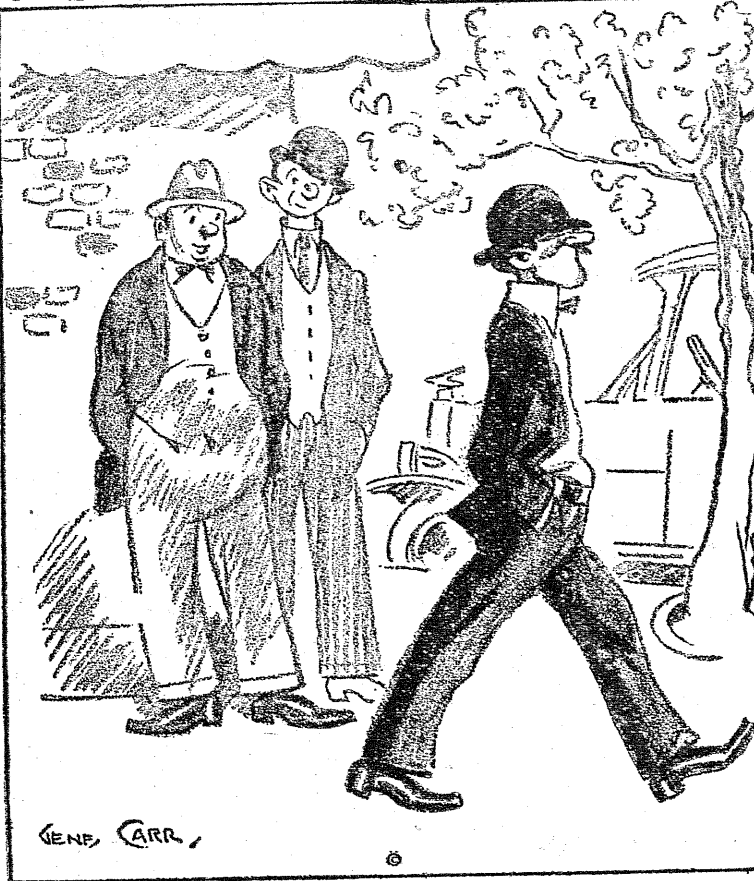

Added to all the other causes for defection wet Republicans will vote Democratic in 1932 if the party stays officially dry, and dries will either jump the fence or refrain from voting if the party goes wet. There may even be a serious attempt to start a third party. It wouldn't be at all surprising if the Republican party found it necessary to pay for ten years of being on the wrong side of the fence with at least one national defeat.

A HUMANE PRACTICE

A slight indication of the number of homeless wanderers who are constantly on our streets is given by the men who apply for—and receive—a night's lodging at police headquarters. This extra-legal device which the police give in almost every town is humane and wise. We notice that in Ridgewood the police have been authorized by the Board of Commissioners to see that hot coffee is available for such unfortunates in the morning, and it seems to us such an act, particularly when the very low cost is considered, a fine thing to do. Other departments might well imitate Ridgewood's plan where there are facilities to do it.

Will Rogers Picks A Story For This Spot

By WILL ROGERS

THE Worst Joke I heard today was told to me by another Englishman, but it's a good Burglar Story. A Burglar was robbing a house as quietly as possible, but his shoes were not padded and they were making a noise. He had just reached the door of the bedroom when he heard a woman's voice, "If you don't take off your shoes when you come into this house there is going to be trouble! He it's been raining for three hours and you dare tramp over my carpet with your muddy feet! Go downstairs and take 'em off!" He went downstairs without a word but he didn't take his shoes off. He went into the night again and the Pal who was waiting outside for him saw a tear glisten in his eye as he replied, "I can't rob this house. It's too much like home."

New Jersey, Second to Rhode Island, Census Figures Show

Final population figures for the State of New Jersey have just been issued by the Census Bureau in bulletin form. The total population of the State on April 1, 1930, was 4,041,334, which represents an increase of 885,434, or 28.0 per cent, as compared with the population at the census of 1920. This is the largest numerical increase New Jersey has ever shown and the rate of increase is greater than in the decade ending in 1920. At the first census of the United States, taken in 1790, New Jersey, one of the original thirteen states, had a population of 184,139. From that date until after 1840, its growth was comparatively slow, but in contrast to most of the other states, its rate of increase has been higher in recent decades than during the early period of its history as a State.

SECOND IN DENSITY

The total land area of New Jersey is 7,514 square miles, and the average number of inhabitants per square mile in 1930 was 537.8, as compared with 420.0 in 1920. New Jersey now ranks second among the States in density of population, only the State of Rhode Island having more inhabitants per square mile.

There are twenty-one counties in New Jersey, all of which have increased in population during the past decade. The greatest rate of increase, 73.2 per cent, was recorded for Bergen county. Union county was next, with 52.5 per cent, and Cape May, third, with 51.5 per cent. The other counties vary from 49.3 per cent in Ocean county to 0.7 per cent increase in Salem county.

FIFTY-FIVE OVER 10,000

There are fifty-five cities, towns, boroughs and villages in the State which had a population of 10,000 or more in 1930. Newark, the largest, has a population of 442,337, which represents an increase of 27,813, or 6.7 per cent since 1920. Jersey City is next in rank, with 316,715 and a 6.2 per cent gain over the enumeration of 1920.

The next four cities, each of which had a population of more than 100,000, are, in order of population, Paterson, Trenton, the capital city, Camden, and Elizabeth. Six other cities and one town have between 50,000 and 100,000 inhabitants. These places, in the order of their population, are Bayonne, East Orange, Atlantic City, Passaic, Hoboken, Union City and Irvington.

Cities in the population class of 10,000 to 50,000 vary in size between Clifton, with 46,875 inhabitants, and Dover, which is barely admitted to the list with 10,031 inhabitants. Union City, the population of which is presented for the first time in this bulletin, was formed in 1925 by a consolidation of the towns of Union and West Hoboken.

FIFTY NEW TOWNS

The list of incorporated places in New Jersey includes in all 329 cities, towns, boroughs, and two villages. Of these, fifty were incorporated between 1920 and 1930, and their population is shown for the first time in the bulletin just issued. The largest of these newly chartered places is Fairlawn, in Bergen county, showing a population of 5,990, and the smallest is North Cape May, in Cape May county, with five inhabitants.

This is also the smallest population recorded for any incorporated place in the State. South Cape May, in the same county, has six residents. Of the total number of incorporated places, only ten have fewer than 100 inhabitants.

FORMER BELLEVILLE GIRL SENT TO PARENTAL HOME

Mary McGillis, seventeen, of 76 Race street, Nutley, formerly of Belleville, was committed to the Essex County Parental Home by Recorder Charles Young of Nutley last Friday. The girl was adjudged incorrigible and wayward as charged in a State warrant signed by her mother, Mrs. Nina McGillis of the same address.

The girl disappeared from home November 4, telling her mother that she was going to work on a farm. She did not say where the farm was located but her mother suspected that it was in Bevans, near Newton.

She told her suspicions to State Police and Wednesday Mary was arrested. Chief William Brown and Captain John Jameson brought her to Nutley headquarters where she was kept until Friday morning.

Order For Canvass To Make Signs Opens Three Plants Formerly Shut Down

VICE-PRESIDENT DESCRIBES EFFECT ON INDUSTRY

The extent to which the industrial structure of America leans upon the automobile, was vividly illustrated following the placing of an order incidental to announcing Chevrolet's 1931 model.

The order called for 171,846 feet of material, or a ribbon of canvass thirty-three miles long and thirty-six inches wide, to be made up into banners for dealer's showroom displays and for signs to be used in sales meetings being held throughout the country.

Less than 5,000 yards of the material were available in Detroit. Due to low inventories resulting from curtailed operations this year, a search of wholesalers, bleacheries and mills in strategic parts of the country, revealed a supply of white canvas on hand still 20,000 yards short of filling the order.

On 24-hour Schedule

To meet the demand within the specified time, a mill in South Carolina which had lain idle got into production on a twenty-four-hour day schedule. Mills in other parts of the country were put to work overtime. To produce the finished banners and drops, two plants manned with artists, sign painters, carpenters and laborers had to work on three eight-hour shifts a day.

"This one order resulted in the opening of three plants not then in production and the employment of hundreds of men," explained H. J. Klingler, vice-president and general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company, who directed the purchase. "Yet this order was not measurably larger than others we have placed from time to time for similar materials to meet the needs of our dealers."

From Youth to Age

There are three trying periods in a woman's life: when the girl matures to womanhood, when a woman gives birth to her first child, when a woman reaches middle age. At these times Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restores normal health.

25000 miles a day

John Saacke has driven Telephone cars for twenty years without an accident injuring anyone. He is dean of 1,800 drivers of telephone motor vehicles in New Jersey who drove more than 760,000 miles last month safely.

1800 men driving a fleet of trucks and light cars 25000 miles every day, on the crowded highways and byways of New Jersey with safety to pedestrian and motorist, is no accidental occurrence. It is the direct result of unceasing war against accidents in which every Telephone driver is enthusiastically enlisted, a war which has driven the accident enemy back, month by month.

The drivers are proud of their record, and so are we: it is a record of good citizenship as well as good service.

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it" (Malachi 3:10).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Giving does not impoverish us in the service of our Maker, neither does withholding enrich us" (p. 79).

Century Setting For Bamberger Xmas Float

than a month, carpenters, electricians and painters have been at work on a Fifteenth Century village upon the fifty-foot platform which constitutes the Bamberger Christmas float. The greatest care has been taken to see that the setting is perfect in every detail. On the float are four carolers led by Harvey W. Hinrichs, recognized to be an authority on Christmas carols. The carolers will appear in costumes of the period as will the boy who has equipped him with an unusually long trumpet.

The float will visit 200 schools in nearby municipalities. The performance on the float is in the form of a skit. The carolers appear singing outside of the houses of the village. The float proves to be a tavern where the host comes to the door, to the music and, by facial expression, gives vent to his apoplexy. He then disappears but reappears a moment with a tray of refreshments. As he moves towards the carolers, he offers them refreshments, but they have great difficulty in taking his feet and keeping his from falling to the ground. He attempts to sell his carols, but the carolers spurn him and return in disgust without him. But again the carolers return. This time he is enthralled by the end of the song he hears and gives the singers presents without asking for them. So elated is he with the performance so thoroughly is he immersed in the gay spirit of Christmas that he juggles snowballs and finally picks icicles off the roof of one of the houses and offers them to the carolers.

Arrangements have been made in the schools at the following places: Summit, Dumont, Mount Pleasant, West Englewood, Boonton, Newark, Roselle, Hillside, Milford, River Edge, Mayfield, Springfield, Somerville, Dunellen, Fairlawn, Morris Township, Scotch Plains, Fairview, Ridgefield Park, Lyndhurst, Elmora (section), Irvington, Orange, Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Bergenfield, Stelton, Pisces, Clifton, Delawanna, Rockaway, Cranford, Glen Rock, Hackensack, Union Township, and Brook, Raritan, Middleborough, Montville, Madison, Westfield, Garwood, Nutley, Lutherville, Highland Park, Orange, West Orange and Irvington.

BAZAAR WORKERS PLAN FEATURES FOR ANNUAL EVENT AT ST. PETER'S

The officers and workers of the general committee preparing for St. Peter's Bazaar, which will be held during the first week of December, are pleased with the interest shown, and are exerting all possible means to continue the spirit, to the end that the Bazaar will be the desired success.

The officers are grateful for the present support and invite all, who to date are not actively interested, to come to the meeting tonight in St. Peter's Auditorium and register their interest by their presence.

The novel features of the Bazaar not advertised, will be assuring of pleasure. The opening night will be an expression of the earnest desire of the committee to assure the patrons of a spirit and hope to entertain and please. The orchestra of excellence which will furnish the music will be the feature talk for weeks to follow the Bazaar, and the repetition of its numbers will be demanded on the evenings following the opening night. The card party, chaperoned by the Social Society, will be an innovation in awards and entertainment. The Holy Name Society as usual, is hustling to maintain its prestige and the Catholic Daughters and the Knights of Columbus, the Choir, Dramatic Club, Ladies' Auxiliary, A. O. H. and the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association are seemingly unusually interested, and the combined efforts of the committee and organizations argue well for the success of the Bazaar.

The committees are happy to announce articles of general excellence and the hope of social success is primary to that of financial endeavor.

Thursday afternoon will be given in compliment to the children and the usual merriment, personal to the children, will find open expression.

The Parochial authorities are grateful for the expression of interest evidenced by the chairlady, the committees and organizations.

GIRL LEADS SENIOR CLASS ON OCTOBER HONOR LIST

Geraldine Rhoads, a senior, again led the High School with an average of 97.2, the honor roll for October shows. The juniors were led by Eleanor Stockton, who had an average of 96. Virginia Holland led the sophomores with 97, and the freshmen were led by Leonard Barton, whose average was 93.

The increase in the High School honor roll was listed as follows: seniors had nineteen in September and twenty-two in October; juniors in September had twelve and in October, twenty-three; sophomores had thirty-three both months, and freshmen went from thirty-seven to fifty-one. Totals for the school were 101 in September and 129 in October.

Students numbering 150 crowded the High School gymnasium Monday afternoon and danced to the music offered by the Silver Crescent orchestra. The dance was thought a complete success. Due to the rain, members of the football team were allowed to attend. A "Paul Jones" afforded amusement. Net revenue was $25. Orchestra services were gratis.

Prizes which are to be awarded for the best contributions in the next month's issue of the Monad, the High School paper, were announced this week. For juniors, sophomores and freshmen, one year's subscription to the Monad, and for the seniors, an emblematic letter, the same as is given to those on the staff.

Basketball practice has been started for the girls. Freshmen girls' practice is on Monday afternoons, sophomores on Tuesdays, juniors on Thursdays, and seniors on Friday afternoons.

Tuesday morning the juniors had charge of the assembly. William Brumbach read the Bible and Ena Holden led the juniors in their newly adopted class song. John Cataldo, accompanied by Miss Tallman, played several selections on the violin.

CAUTIOUS BLUE AND GOLD GETS T

Strong West Orange Gridmen Checked By Belleville Defense

Galluba Blocks Punt In First Period Leading Way To Touchdown

WHISTLE STOPS ENEMY SCORE

The Belleville High eleven scored an upset Saturday afternoon when they held the strong West Orange eleven to a 6-6 tie at the West Orange stadium. Almost 1,000 fans witnessed the contest which was played in deep mud. It was a heartbreaking decision for West Orange. Previous to this game, they were undefeated and tied only once.

Belleville scored first after the game had been under way five minutes. West Orange had the ball on their own twenty-yard line. After two line plunges had netted but four yards the home team attempted to kick. Captain Lou Galluba blocked it and the ball rolled back to the five yard line, where it was recovered by three Belleville players.

GOAL HARD TO MAKE

Five yards and four downs to go for a touchdown! Mac Lamb hurled himself off-tackle for a two yard gain on the first try. Leadbeater was stopped for no gain on the next play. The West Orange boys were fighting hard now.

Lamb gained a yard on the third down. With fourth down and two to go, Lou Westra, Belleville quarterback, used good judgment and sent Mac Lamb around left end for the touchdown. A forward failed for the extra point.

Neither team was able to gain for the rest of the quarter. West Orange did not even threaten in this first quarter. One reason for this was the splendid kicking of Fritz Plenge, who even with a wet ball, got off several beautiful punts.

CAUTIONS

The start of the second quarter found both teams playing safe football. It seemed that both elevens were waiting for the breaks. Towards the end of the quarter the West Orange eleven started an offensive drive which nearly proved disastrous to Belleville hopes.

The drive started at the home team's thirty-four yard line. Two reverse plays around left end netted sixteen yards, bringing the ball to the fifty. Three successive off-tackle plays netted fifteen more yards. Cataldo was boxed on the next play for a seven yard loss. Two more plays failed, but on the fourth down a neat forward, Cataldo to Hannon was good for twenty yards and a first down.

A CLOSE CALL

An off-tackle play gained four yards. Time was getting short and West Orange realized it. Another pass, Cataldo to O'Connell, brought the ball to the one-yard line. There were ten seconds left to play. Olson hurled himself at the Belleville line, but the Blue and Gold held and the whistle blew for the half.

The start of the second half found the West Orange eleven playing inspired football. Belleville kicked off and West Orange took possession on their own forty-five yard line. A tricky reverse play on the first try was good for eleven yards and a first down.

Cataldo reeled off nine more yards on an end run. Olson made it first down on an off-tackle play. The next play was the most exciting feature of the game, Kearns circled left end and behind perfect interference ran to the three-yard mark where Westra finally downed him.

ON FIRST RUSH

Olson plunged for a touchdown on his first try. Cataldo attempted to circle right end for the extra point, but was brought down on the three-yard line by Fritz Plenge.

Belleville had the ball in West Orange's territory but once in this period, the result of a fumble on an attempted kick. The Blue and Gold, however, was unable to gain and kicked deep into West Orange territory. The third quarter ended with West Orange having the ball on their own thirteen-yard line.

A poor kick gave Belleville the ball on the West Orange thirty. After three line bucks failed the locals threw a forward pass which was intercepted on the West Orange thirty. The home team kicked out of danger and Belleville took possession on their own thirty. At this point West Orange was penalized fifteen yards for holding.

GETS ELEVEN YARDS

Jerry Bonavita, who replaced Mac Lamb at the end of the third quarter, made one of the few Belleville first downs by dashing eleven yards off left tackle. Two more line bucks netted but two yards so Belleville kicked. Jerry Bonavita's kick was poor and West Orange had the ball on their own forty-five.

On the third try, West Orange fumbled and Belleville got the ball on the fifty yard line. After one line buck failed, Westra played safe and Bonavita kicked to the West Orange twenty-one. Two end runs by Cataldo promptly gave the West Orangers a first down.

Time was short. The West Orange field general gambled on an aerial attack. The first pass was intercepted by Santamassimo who ran to the thirty-yard line. With about a minute left to play the locals still played safe, evidently figuring a tie was as good as could be expected.

PLAYED SAFE

At any rate after one line plunge was good for three yards Jerry Bonavita tried to kick to the corner of the field, but his kick was off direction and the home team took the ball on their own twenty-six.

Again the West Orangers went on the air. One pass was grounded, the next forward was good for fifteen and a first down. Another was tried, but it was grounded and the whistle blew, ending the game. The hard charging Lou Galluba was responsible for the Belleville score. It was he who blocked the kick which led to the score. Galluba received a dislocated elbow shortly after the start of the second quarter.

Mac Lamb was never able to get going on the west field although he did manage to squeeze his way around left end for Belleville's only touchdown.

Bill Daly and Chuck Plenge both played strong defensive games. One of the outstanding features of the game was the splendid punting of Fritz Plenge.

Frank Cataldo and Kearns were outstanding for West Orange, Cataldo because of his splendid forward passing with a slippery ball and Kearns because of his end running. Kearns is what is known in racing circles as a "mud horse." The mud and rain did not seem to effect him at all. Cataldo also got away for several pretty runs. O'Connell played a splendid defensive game for the home team.

NELSON-LEVINE SCRAP A DRAW

Fans Disapprove Decision, Believing Silver Lake Boy Deserved A Victory

MOSCO DRAWS WITH ARNO

Speed and heavy slugging earned a draw for Johnny Nelson of Silver Lake against his lightweight rival, Bennie Levine of Newark, at the Newark Armory a week ago last night. The bout went eight rounds.

The decision was disapproved of by most of the 10,000 fans present. Nelson gave Levine a severe beating. Boxing southpaw, he did all the leading.

The first two rounds were even. The third went to Levine as he dropped Nelson for a nine count. Nelson got up however, and punched his atagonist soundly in the remaining five rounds.

It was the second engagement of the pair, Levine having earned an unpopular decision at Dreamland Park last summer. Nelson weighed 143, Levine 145.

On the same card in a special eight rounder, Harry Mosco, another Silver Lake boy made a pleasing show when he held Nat Arno of Newark, to a draw. Both boys are lightweights.

The Romans took to Britain a large edible snail, which they cultivated for food, and this still survives in some parts of England. If it had not been for the fact that the almost helpless creature could retreat quickly into its shell it would have disappeared long ago.

Martin-Dennis held its one-game lead in the Manufacturers' League by making two wins over Thomsons Friday night at Ferrara's alleys. Tiffanys kept pace with the league leaders by defeating the Jeffery-Mayer five in two out of three games.

Other matches found Atlas Fence winning two from International Ticket; Sweeneys scoring a clean sweep over the Hanlon and Goodman quintet; Federal Leather winning all three from Sonneborns, and Wallace and Tiernan taking the odd game from Hoyt Brothers.

The Tiffany-Jeffery and Mayer match found both teams hitting the maples for good scores. Jeffery and Mayer won the first game by 917 to 829. Tiffanys came back in the second to win by 931 to 929 and in the third 913 to 741.

Teddy Skidmore featured for Tiffanys with three nice games. Art Mayer hit 204, 215 and 185 for the losers.

Third Game Slump

Martin-Dennis, after winning the first two games from Thomsons, slumped in the final to lose by fifty-two pins. Payne was the big gun for the league leaders with three nice scores. Melchoir was outstanding for Thomsons.

Although not up to their usual form, the Wallace and Tiernan pinners managed to win two out of three games from the weak Hoyt Brothers five. The "Tiernanmen" lost the second game by four pins. Tronicke hit nice scores for the winners with Lind featuring for the losers.

Sonneborn players were away off form and dropped three games to the Federal Leather quintet. Scores were low in this match.

Sweeneys at Peak

Sweeneys were at the top of their game Friday night and whitewashed Hanlon and Goodman in all three games. The winners had to fight hard for the second game which was deadlocked at 834. In the roll-off Sweeneys won by 108 to 94.

Brogan of Sweeneys murdered the maples for scores of 209, 187 and 234. Merz also had two double century scores for the lithographers. Shirlcliffe and Bert Mooney were best for the "Bushmakers." The International Ticket-Atlas Fence match was devoid of good scores. Not even an 800 game was recorded in this match. Hallett helped his team to win two from the Ticketmakers with two good scores in the last two games. Blume was best for International.

Here and There

by Harry Metz

Those who braved the "drizzle" last Saturday afternoon at West Orange to see Belleville tie the strong West Orange eleven were well pleased. West Orange made more first downs and gained more yardage than the Blue and Gold, but the final score was 6 to 6 and that's what counts.

In previous games Belleville made more first downs and gained more yardage than Central, Passaic and Irvington, so all things being equal, the Blue and Gold was entitled to a break.

Old-time football players who saw the game were unanimous in their opinion that they had never seen a muddier field than the West Orange gridiron was on Saturday. It was remarkable that both teams did not fumble more than they did.

Belleville boys seemed like a Princeton team last Saturday. They waited for the breaks and got one. When Lou Galluba blocked a kick the locals scored. Princeton teams have the reputation of waiting for fumbles or blocking kicks.

Belleville fans will be pleased to hear that Paul Short and "Chang" Schwieker are making a name this year at their respective schools. Short is ripping things up for the Lehigh freshmen and Schwieker is toting the colors of Dean Academy.

Short recently played a big part in his team's defeat of Hun School. Belleville's "Galloping Ghost" is the leading scorer for the Lehigh freshmen. Incidentally, he is expected to win a regular berth on the varsity next season. Schwieker is still throwing passes galore and has developed into a fine running back.

Two other Belleville youngsters are making headway in collegiate ranks. They are Tony Parillo and

TO CONDUCT FISHING PARTY

The Intertown Rod and Gun Club of Belleville opened the hunting season with very good results Saturday and Sunday. Four members hunted the Club's 400 acre farm at Neshanic and the other members made the trip to Sussex.

The Neshanic party made up of President Raymond Beckett, Secretary Edward King, Jack Beckett of Nutley and J. C. Du Bouse were the most successful, bagging sixteen rabbits and eight pheasants for the two days. The other party made up of Oscar Lawson, Joe Rue, J. Baker and J. Fleming did not have as good luck, as the region which they hunted was not as large. Their report was eight rabbits and two pheasants.

At the last meeting of the Club Friday at the home of Mr. Beckett, 29 Adelaide street, members arranged a fishing party at Long Branch for Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Beckett offered the club the use of his summer home for the weekend.

Members will fish from the Long Branch pier Saturday. Sunday morning they will try their luck at surf fishing from Spring Lake.

Sunday afternoon a trap shooting contest will be held at Spring Lake. All eighteen members are expected to participate.

The next regular meeting will be held tomorrow at the home of Edwin Ackerman of 25 Adelaide street.

Johnny Watters. Parillo, a former All-State tackle while at Belleville High, is playing regular for Muhlenberg.

Watters, a Belleville resident, who played the gridiron game at St. Benedicts, recently played part of a game against Kentucky Wesleyan. Johnny must have the stuff as those Army candidates are no sugar babies. Last year Watters was a regular on the Plebe team.

Basketball, which has been a dead issue in this town thus far, got under way Tuesday night. The American Legion League started its season. The undefeated Bachelors of last year have even a better club than ever while the Valleys, who finished second in the Recreation League, are also stronger. It will be a battle to the finish when these two quintets meet.

About a month ago this writer suggested that it would be a fine thing for the town to have a central team in basketball to play the leading teams of the State. Thus far nothing has been done. There has been talk of starting a team, but local organizations seem to think the venture would be a "financial flop."

It is fairly certain that if a team composed of local players could show the fans a good brand of basketball they would get the support. We could name eight players off-hand residing in this town, who would form a strong team. Furthermore we are quite sure that the boys would be willing to meet the promoters half way.

Organizations who have backed local basketball teams in the past and have "gone under," have no one but themselves to blame. Two years ago the Belleville A. A. had a team. For the first two months only three local boys were on the squad.

The team won the majority of its games, but fans weren't interested in this. They wanted to see players perform whom they knew. Realizing this after two months had elapsed, the A. A. secured all local talent and attendance showed a surprising pickup despite the fact that the team did not win all its games.

Since then there are several local boys who have come up in the basketball world. Your correspondent has seen and played with some strong teams during the past two seasons, but few would defeat a picked Belleville quintet.

THEATRE'S MICKEY MOUSE CLUB CHOOSES OFFICERS

The first meeting of the Mickey Mouse Club at the Fox Franklin Theatre elected temporary officers to serve for one month. They are: Chief Minnie Mouse, Dorothy Sherwood, 8 Windsor place, Nutley; song leader, Michael Niccolette, 50 Mitchell street, Belleville; cheer leader, John Villacari, 184 Passaic avenue, Belleville; courier, Edward Patton, 47 High street, Nutley; Chief Mickey Mouse, Hamilton D. Cherry, manager of the Fox Franklin.

The color guard was furnished by the Nutley Girl Scouts, and the meeting enlivened by the appearance of Harriett Klein who rendered a selection on her harmonica. Helen Lowe and Dale McCarthy danced, Dot Mullin did a tap dance and the stage entertainment closed with Mary M. Flynn and Gladys Brattin. Master of Ceremonies Jack Herron introduced all the officers and after the official Mickey Mouse song the members enjoyed the program.

With an enrollment of more than 300 children at this meeting it is expected that the membership will be more than doubled at the second meeting this Saturday afternoon.

The Belleville Lions bowlers strengthened their hold on first place in the County League by scoring another clean sweep Wednesday night over the Montclair Lions at Rogers alleys in Bloomfield. Belleville hit their highest score of the season in the first game when they rang up a total of 950.

In the next two games the locals slumped, but their scores were good enough to win. George Mead's 207 and John Dailey's 200 helped in the first game while "Steel" Mayer made a 196 in that game.

Mead and Dailey, after their fine scores in the first game were not so good in the next two. Ernie Scholl, on the other hand, hit 173 and 204 in the next two. "Steel" Mayer was next high man for the locals.

Pavlisco, crack Montclair A. C. bowler, was outstanding for the losers. The scores:

While the Eagles were rolling to keep up their averages, the Starlings perked up to win a brace of games from the second place Owls and thereby thrust themselves into third place, ahead of the Crows. The scores:

Christ Episcopal scored a surprising upset last Thursday night by whitewashing the Fewsmith Presbyterian pinners in all three games and sending the latter quintet into second place. Fewsmith Men's Club, by virtue of the "Varsity's" three defeats, went into undisputed possession of first place. Christ Reformed won two from Dutch Reformed and rolled themselves into third place.

It was a bitter pill to swallow for the Presbyterian quintet. They figured on winning at least two games and so hold their lead. Fewsmith Men's Club had it figured out that they would win all three from Italian Baptist and tie the "Varsity" for the lead. But calculations were all wrong.

Go To Fourth Place

Christ Episcopal, as a result of their three victories rolled themselves into fourth place, one game behind Christ Reformed. Fred Ford, John Ray and Dan Mayer were all instrumental in the Episcopal team's clean sweep.

Italian Baptist won the first game from the Men's Club although the Silver Lake pinners rolled only 667. The present league leaders made a good comeback in the next two games and won without much difficulty. Woodruff and Eckersley were best for the Men's Club.

Christ Reformed, like the Men's Club, slumped in the first game, but came back with two good scores in their match with Dutch Reformed. Russ Stout rolled three fine games for the winning quintet while Williams hit 226 for that team in the second game. Belden was outstanding for Dutch Reformed.

The scheduled match between Montgomery and Grace Baptist was postponed because of the death of Fred Harris. Harris was leading the Montgomery team in individual averages and was known as one of the league's best bowlers.

POLICE HOLD MAN INSANE FOR THREAT TO RECORDER

James Young of 89 Baldwin street, Newark, formerly of Walnut street, Belleville, is being held by Newark police for observation as to his sanity after his arrest in a Newark telephone booth last Thursday as he was threatening the life of Recorder George A. Fitzsimmons.

Young telephoned the Recorder four times that day insisting that Fitzsimmons meet him in Newark on a matter of business. When Young refused to divulge the nature of his business, Young is reported to have said, "You'll never live the day out."

Recorder Fitzsimmons flashed the telephone operator to find out where Young was calling from and Newark police arrested him. He had previously been penalized by Recorder Fitzsimmons on complaints made by his wife.

Railways Found Wanting

In 1825 it was stated in the British house of commons that the experiment of conveying goods on a railway had been tried, and had completely failed. The best locomotive that could be found had been selected, and the average rate on a plane surface was less than three and three-quarters miles an hour, which was slower than canal conveyance.—Detroit News.

Elks Roll 1047 and Capture Two Games of Euclid Series

Bob Whitten Again Batters Maples Getting 248 and Good Average Of 206

MAC NAIR'S MARK KEEPS HIGH

The Belleville Elks continued their winning ways in the Morris and Essex League by winning two out of three games from the Euclid Masonic quintet last Thursday night at Hoboken. Belleville won the first two games easily and for the third successive week they posted a score over 1,000.

In the opening games they hit the maples for 1,047. Bob Whitten who seems to have at least one high score every week, came through with a 248 in this game. Charlie Waldie had 220 and Tom MacNair 215 in the opener. Belleville also took the second game by a big margin. Euclid made a splendid comeback in the third to win 971 to 945. Belleville's team average for the night was 969-2.

BIG AVERAGE

Bob Whitten, with his 248, was high man for the locals and had an average of 206 for the evening.

Tom MacNair averaged 204 for his night's work. MacNair now has an average of 207 for the twelve games in the Morris and Essex League. "Dutch" Faust added a couple of points to his average by hammering out scores of 189, 212 and 190. Charlie Waldie also had a good night, averaging close to 200.

Bill Bechtoldt continues to be in a slump, but the situation is not alarming as Bechtoldt will probably soon hit his stride. Beck rolled best for the Euclid pinners. The scores:

Autoist Under $2,500 Bail After Man Dies of Injuries

Alfred Hahn of 220 Ralph street was Tuesday released in $2,500 bail by the prosecutor's office on a charge of manslaughter. The automobile he was driving in Washington avenue near Riviera Park Sunday night struck James J. King, thirty-two, of 53 Grove street, Newark, fatally injuring him so that he died Monday afternoon at St. Michael's Hospital.

Another serious accident with less serious consequences however, took place at Washington avenue and Rutgers street the same night when Miss Nasalee Bakalian of 543 Washington avenue, getting off a trolley car, was struck by an automobile driven by Walter Kulikowski of 261 Nineteenth street, Newark.

She was taken to St. Michael's Hospital in Newark where it was found she was suffering from severe skull injuries and a deep laceration over the left eye requiring seven stitches to close. Miss Bakalian is prominent in musical circles, having organized the Newark Operatic Art Club which numbers many local singers as members.

At the hospital last night it was said that she was resting comfortably.

Garden Notes

Plant Stands are good. To keep house plants in order, and do away with overflowing saucers and other petty annoyances plant stands have recently come into use. The stand that seems to fill the need best is made much like a low bench, with a top about twelve inches wide and as long as the width of the window. This has sides about one inch high. The upper edge of the stand should be on the same line as, or an inch or two lower than, the lower glass level in the window.

This stand can be made of any type of lumber that happens to be available and then stained and varnished to match the furniture in the room. Galvanized sheet metal or tin is used to cover the top and sides, thus completing a small water-proof table much like those used in fish markets.

This style of plant stand has many advantages. When pebbles like those used in fish aquariums are placed on the top, the ideal surface on which to place potted plants is provided, perfect drainage maintained, and a constant evaporation of surplus moisture raises the humidity, thus providing a condition favorable for both plant and animal life.

Crowd Of 500 Attended Auditorium Month Ago; Joseph Reilly Is Optimistic

ESPECIALLY WANTS FIGHTERS FROM BELLEVILLE AND NUTLEY

The Social and Welfare Committee of the Elks, headed by Joe Reilly, announces that the second amateur boxing tournament of the Belleville Elks will be held Friday evening, December 5, at the Elks Home.

The last set of bouts held the night before Election day attracted a crowd of 500 and the general consensus of opinion was that the bouts were a success. Mr. Reilly, who is handling the entries for the bouts, is anxious to secure the signatures of a number of Belleville and Nutley boys. He also wants to hear from amateur fighters from Passaic, Paterson, Garfield, Rutherford and other towns from Bergen and Passaic counties.

The Bayonne A. C. will again send over a team. This club sent over several good fighters at the last bouts and no doubt local fans will be anxious to see them again in action.

CAPITOL WILL GIVE AWAY TURKEYS, TOYS TO PATRONS

Orders for Thanksgiving turkeys will be given to patrons of the Capitol Theatre Saturday night, Elliot Kadison, manager, announced yesterday in describing the special pre-holiday attractions he has arranged.

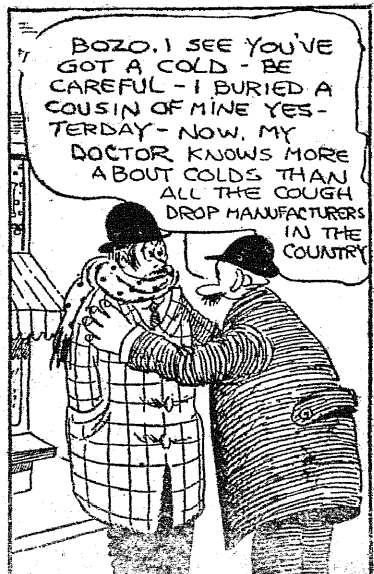

Those getting the orders will have the turkeys delivered to their homes Wednesday morning, the day before Thanksgiving.

At the matinee performance, children attending the theatre will be the lucky ones. Manager Kadison will distribute footballs, skates, dolls, erector sets, puzzles, games and pool tables. There will be a contest to decide who will receive the presents and fun for everyone is assured.

A surprise party was given at his home Saturday night in honor of the birthday of Arthur Becker of Forest street. Table decorations were in white and gold. Mr. Becker received many gifts from friends in Belleville, Nutley and Atlantic City.

as a last resort, and then only a pot cover. As such, it may be very useful. When correctly used there should be an ample air space between the sides of the pot and those of the jardiniere, and the pot should be set up on a brick or stone otherwise the plant is apt to suffer "wet feet."

of Nutley and Belleville handle arrangements and the sale of tickets. Coaches Stanford and Erikson of Nutley and Belleville respectively, said before the Board reached a decision that they would be ready with teams if the game was scheduled.

Details, such as the scene of the game, are to be settled later.

MAYOR TAKES CONTROL

Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy Monday night was given permission by the Board of Education to book a game between Belleville and any other team, preferably Nutley, although Supervisor George Gerard, Watson Current, member of the board and Principal Charles Steel all agreed that they did not want to take any part in making arrangements for such a game.

They all believed that a game with Nutley would draw the biggest crowd, but because of the breach in football relations dating from 1928, did not want to make overtures to officials in Nutley.

The Mayor, however, with his eye on big receipts for the Poor Department, immediately began negotiations and had several conferences with Dr. Horace Tantum, Coach Stanford and Dr. Paul R. Radcliffe of the Nutley Athletic Council. Their attitude was lukewarm, but Colin Linn, business manager of the Board was asked to call a special meeting for last night.

FORESAW RED TAPE

Dr. Tantum based his opposition to the game on the fact that it would necessitate going to the parents of all the boys and securing their permission to play in another game; that the boys were actually in no condition to play because of injuries; and because the eight weeks' schedule was considered exhausting enough. "I do not believe it is to exploit growing boyhood practices," he commented.

A great post-season between two all-star teams game between the best players in Asbury Park on the one side and the Nutley Park of Nutley's football highlights on the other side, was his suggestion on the raise money for charity. Action to

This idea was identical to the one held by Coach Stanford, with the one of calling Coach Flynn at Asbury Park for the purpose of booking such a game, only to find that Flynn had already written to that Nutley Collegiate with a request that they play Asbury Park's star team in that city.

ASBURY ACCEPTED

When Flynn heard Stanford's proposition, he immediately switched in favor of an all-star Nutley team as opponents for his team. One game to be played the Saturday after Thanksgiving at Asbury and a return game in Nutley the following Saturday.

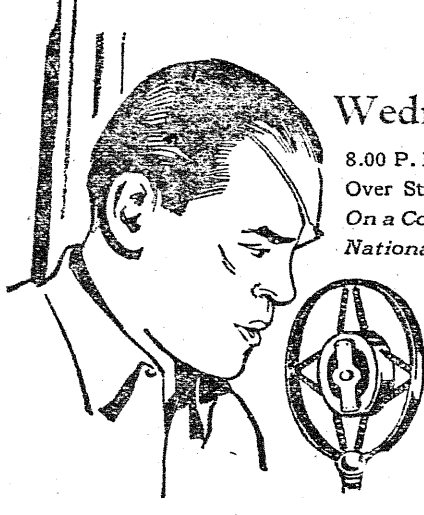

Profits for charity in the respective towns from such games would be more than from a game between high school teams where the profits would have to be evenly divided, Stanford believed. That was one reason for his failure to favor a Belleville-Nutley game.

Dr. Tantum believed that profit would be assuredly large because tickets would be put into the hands of churches, schoolchildren, the Chamber of Commerce and both service clubs.

While matters were still pending, Mayor Kenworthy heard from officials of Kearny, who asked for a game with Belleville and proposed selling tickets on a similar plan. While a Kearny game would be a drawing card, it was felt that some definite word should first be received from Nutley.
