Little Theatre Guild Furthers Play Plans sen.

"First Night" Will Be On Gordon Crisp The Boards On

March 5

A former Governor of New York will take part in the Little Theatre Guild performance at the high Arthur Layne Is Scheduled school, March 5. Many townspeople will find he bears a striking resemblance to "Bill" Rachel and they may even think he is "Bill" Rachel but to all intents and purposes the former Governor will be there in person, or something. "First Night," a thrilling mystery drama, has in its cast many well known Belleville people. The Guild has been particularly fortunate in having Hudson Fawcett, one of its new members, take the leading role doing an excellent piece of work and Miss Eleanor Glenck in the leading woman's role, shows much talent

Others in the cast are Marjorie R. Parmer, Gordon Eska, Corbin D. Lewis, Ian Munro, Thomas W. Fleming. Russell Green, Harvey B. Thompson, Robert Sutherin, Samuel Figurelli, Joe Evangelista, Paul Brennan, C. D. Evans, William Knowles, Martin Sauer, William Chapman and Gene McNabb.

Among the new 1932 patrons are Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Deetjen, Mrs. Frederic E. Dodd, Mr. and Mrs. George Kelsall, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Naylor, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Frazer and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Adams.

A full audience sat in its seats anxiously awaiting the rise of the English Silver Tea curtain as the time drew near for the show at the Town Hall Theatre to commence, Tuesday, there having been no 5 o'clock rehearsal.

The hour struck eight. High was the suspense as the actors trooped in-one, two, three-but here they stopped, for four and five were missing. The cast was incomplete, but with the old motto, THE SHOW MUST GO ON, the reduced group

Rumors were rampant, but Big Shot (see all-hear all) doesn't place much faith in rumors because he once heard that a rumor (or was it a roomer) was employed by the town. Of course, he knew that His Honor, Samuel Sampson Kenworthy, wasn't at the conference two weeks ago-but that he should so forget his public doesn't seem like HIM, somehow. Big Shot surmised that it might have been the SHOCK of the electrical business, although he failed to see Sam at the old Eck Dynamo Plant (where it is said that the Hurd Electric Company holds forth). Big Shot wondered what KIND of a business it was, anyway. Reminded him. somehow, of the story going the rounds about a company which had Paint, Powder And failed to pay for its hardware (or something)-but was able to obtain credit because a prominent person (a mayor or something) was interested in it. However,, not only was the Honorable S. S. K. missing, but Clark, too, did a Jimmy Walker. This reminded Big Shot, that, while minding some business (not his own) at Manhattan Transfer, he happened to espy the strangely familiar figure of a tall gentleman.

Big Shot stole a glance into the pullman occupied by the man and saw a ticket marked CHICAGO. Immediately, a million questions enterthere a recall system in the Chicago Police Department?—Does this have anything to do with the payment

BY ARTHUR BLOEMEKE

THE WHYS AND WHEREFORES

FTER seeing the Belleville High basketball steam roller iron out Dover A for its sixth straight victim, the question once more arises, "Why don't Blue And Gold Wins

The query, as asked by most of the fans, is in itself an altogether proper one. In winning that sextet of contests and also several early season ones, the Bell-boys have looked the part of champions. But what about that Jayvees Also Defeat Lyndstring of reverses at the hands of Passaic, Clifton, Orange, West Orange? One could hardly judge their performances first class in those.

Then again, a slump is natural to the most powerful teams in any line of sport.

The team seems to be good enough to at least give it a whirl.

But after all a team's record is not the only consideration. There are others. These, as voiced by Coach A. K. McBride and the other athletic authorities at the school, appear significant, to say the least.

Two reasons for not entering stand out glaringly. In the first place | heatings of the year, 35-14, to 1 the season of nineteen games, played twice a week, seems entirely long enough, and secondly the tourney, as conducted at present, is not a fair test by which champions should be decided. This is in no way leveling criticism at the tournament officials, but merely stating a fact that appears unavoidable while attempting to pick the best team of a school system, state-wide in its scope.

The first reason seems sufficient in itself. Nineteen games, not mentioning the daily practices necessary in between times, appears a heavy enough schedule for the average school-boy.

Enlarging on the second, the uncertainty of the courts on which the games are played, the possibility of playing two games in one day, i, e. an afternoon and night contest, the fact that some of the best fives in the state, such as Montclair, are not entered, all tend to prove it not a fair test How can the winner of the state tourney proclaim itself champion, when teams that have been bowling over some of the best quintets in the state

More specifically, too, this year, with such all-powered squads as South Side, Passaic and Trenton, entered, the locals could hardly hope to win. Entrance this year would not even assist in giving the members of the team tournament experience, as they are all seniors and will be graduated this

The results obtainable hardly warrant Belleville High's entrance.

Bloomfield Game Is This Afternoon; Not Night

The Belleville High court tilt, originally scheduled for tonight, will be played this afternoon at the local gym, because of the Craftsmen's Club show at the high school tonight.

Coach A. K. McBride will trot out his regular cast of Lamb, Smith, Bohrer, Bonavita, and O'-Neil, in an effort to chalk up No. 7 for the locals. This will mark the last home appearance of the season for the Bell-boys, as they take to the road, next week, to wind up their season with four away tilts.

The Belleville Moose basketball Clintons Wind Up ossers found the National Turners a bit too tough in a pair of games over the week-end, and lost both to the Newarkers, who now enjoy a twelve game winning streak. Saturday night, the locals dropped a 40-23 decision, after leading their strong opponents, 13-11 at the half. Sunday night's game at the Turner Hall was a bit closer, the Bell-boys coming out on the short end of a 37-25 tally after a thrill-crammed battle in which no quarter was asked or BELLEVILLE MOOSE

High Scoring Bell-boys Make It Six Straight

Dover Was Swamped, 35-18, Tuesday Afternoon Here

The high-scoring basketball aces margin on Dover, Tuesday afternoon, at the local gym, to chalk up their six i straight win. Captain "Mac" Lamb's fourteen points, tallied from all corners of the court, were the big features of the Blue and Gold attack. Injured Hank Bohrer, play-Lois Albey, twelve year old daugh- ing only part of the final quarter, rolled up six points in his brief stay. The wonderful Blue and Gold second-stringers made their season's record thirteen wins in fourteen games in swamping the Dover seconds, 34-15, in the prelim. Knight

National Field Staff Will Be In Belleville

Miss Helen Oppenlander To Comedy Scheduled To Go Attend Local Council

Dinner

Miss Helen Oppenlander, a member of the national field staff of the week for the Belleville Cfratsmen's Girl Scouts, will be in Belleville on Club musical comedy "Up and Up" Belleville Girl Scout Council.

Miss Oppenlander, whose home is in Coopersburg, Pennsylvania, is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke College. She taught high school in Highbridge, N. J. and later was associated with the Neighborhood Teachers' Association. She became a member of the Girl Scouts in May, 1931. Since that time she has taken training courses at Camp Edith Macy, nationcliff Manor, New York. Miss Oppenlander's present position on the New Faces Appear national staff is that of organizer and promotion consultant.

Mrs. Holden, director of Belleville Girl Scouts, is in Lyndhurst tonight, speaking before a group of Girl New Production Expected Scouts of that town.

On Tuesday of this week the members of Troop No. 3 prepared a surprise party for their captain, Mrs. Mary Holden. Upon her arrival, the girls slipped away, and Lieutenant, Beatrice R. Vogel escorted Mrs. Holden to the dining room. As the doors swung open there stood the entire troop drawn up in rows-all shouting surprise and a long supper table spread with a generous repast. All were present except one, and that child was absent because she felt too badly to enjoy a party when her pet, a poodle, had just been killed

Speeches were made by many of the girls. Troop No. 3 never before had known there were so many good speakers in its midst before, 'After the tables were cleared, games were played and a new "good night" song

Troop 5, appeared at troop meeting, Tuesday evening, in full uniform. This troop is working to have every member in uniform soon.

Last Saturday afternoon the members of Troop No. 9 came to headquarters for an interview with the director. They came up wondering what it was all about, and found a gaily decorated table, gay in red and white with folly pop place cards and candy center piece. RESOLUTIONS

AT the last meeting of Court Sancta Maria No. Gl. Catholic Daughters of America, of Belleville, New Jersey, held the first Tuesday in January, 1932, the following resolutions were adopted:
Resolved, that the uncertainties of life having recently impressed themselves upon us in the sad loss of our beloved and highly esteemed pastor and chaplain, Rev. Father Edwin J. Field, in the unswerving loyalty and devotion and good judgment at all times manifested by him to the Catholic Daughters of America, of Belleville, New Jersey.
It is resolved, therefore, that in the death of Father Field our society has lost a wise connsolor and its best friend; the parish an indefatigable worker in the Gourt Sancta Maria

We cannot call ourselves Insurance Specialists because it covers too much ground, but we assure you that we have made an intensive and honest study of the various branches of insurance, exclusive of Life Insurance, and we feel that we are qualified to advise you as to whether you are properly covered or not, at a minimum cost, and with the proper companies. We would consider it a privilege and a pleasure for you to permit us an opportunity to assist you with your insurance needs. It is just as important to protect your possessions by insurance as it is to protect your legal rights by consulting an aftorney, or your physical well being by consulting a physician, and as insurance is our job, we trust that you will consider us when you are placing any new insurance, and in the meantime, if you so desire, allow us the opportunity to analyze your existing coverage.

Real Estate

There are so many important details in determining the value of a parcel of Real Estate that it requires a very careful analysis, which is the result of very extensive experience, to set an actual value upon same—the location—the size—the type of the land-the public improvements upon the street or road that the land is located on-the materials-the workmanship-the accessories in the house itself-and with so many things to be taken into considcration, it is most unwise for the average person to trust their own judgment as to what or what is not good value for the money they are spending when they are in the market to purchase real estate. We therefore, would be glad to offer our services to anyone who is in the market now or who is contemplating a purchase in the near future. We have listed very exceptional buys even for these times, in all classes of real estate—in homes—in apartments—in business properties-and in vacant land. Our services are at your command. We also have for rent, at very reasonable prices, apartments, houses, stores, etc.
