Judge Dill Speaks To Democrats Here Attacks Present Taxing of Utilities As Unfair to Others

The Young Men's Democratic Club of Belleville was addressed at its headquarters at Washington avenue and William street by Judge William L. Dill, Democratic gubernatorial candidate, prior to making his radio address over station WOR Tuesday evening. He invited the gathering to listen in to his address and that of Mary E. Norton, candidate for Congress.

Dill declared that the public utilities are evading their fair share of the cost of government to the "tune" of over $4,000,000 at the expense of other property. Dill proposed the repeal of the gross receipts tax, substituting the assessment of personal property of the utilities, and condemned the present system, declaring that the utilities throughout the state reaped an unfair financial advantage.

The club pledged its wholehearted support to Judge Dill and accorded him a rousing reception. The last day for filing of transfer registrations is October 25, and all members were urged to make a thorough canvass. The membership committee is continuing its drive and the roster is increasing daily. A social will be held at headquarters at the next meeting. John Baney, chairman, and his committee are working for the next rally.

The play, coached and directed by the Rev. Joseph M. Kelly, is of a very humorous slant on the trials and tribulations of the average American family. The presentation will take place in the school hall in William street.

The cast has been selected and gives promise of an excellent show, one that the club feels sure will keep pace with the high precedent set by its former ventures. Miss Marguerite T. Mann as Marian, plays the lead and supplies the heart interest. She is assisted by Greta M. Kinnealy as Mrs. Hardy; Helen M. Grey as Aunt Milly; Eleanor M. Stockton as Estelle, and Agnes Jordan Leonard as Myra. James A. Leonard as Wayne Trenton, a young mining engineer who has come to the middle west to seek a career, and James J. Lukowiak as Andy, the kid brother of Marion, supply the heart interest for the opposite sex.

William J. Brady as Judge Hardy is rather worried by family troubles and the coming nominations and elections. William J. Friel as Stubbins, a politician and John J. Roberts as Grandpa, who touches the heart with his absent-mindedness and his reminiscences about Grandma, complete the cast.

Dancing will follow the performance on both evenings and the entire proceeds will be turned over to the fund for the new school.

Funds of Defunct Club Provoke Controversy

The question of the disposition of funds of an inactive organization, the First Ward Civic Club, recently created a controversy which was heard in police court before Recorder Everett B. Smith Wednesday night.

Both David Wells and William Wells, cousins, claimed that they were the rightful treasurers of the association, and should distribute the $106 remaining in the treasury to the surviving members of the club, which passed out of active existence about nine years ago. David Wells claimed that he had been elected at a special meeting of the remaining members called by him recently, while William Wells, former treasurer, held that the election was illegal.

Judge Smith held that the matter was outside the jurisdiction of his court, and should be taken to a court of chancery, but the matter reached an amicable settlement when both sides agreed to allow William H. K. Davey, attorney, to hold the bank book and distribute the funds.

P-T. A. Membership Drive Progressing Increased Number Present At No. 9 School Meeting

The drive for increased membership and attendance, sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association of School Number 9, is being carried on with much determination. An increased attendance was noted at the meeting held Thursday evening in the school auditorium. As a result, the fifth grade was awarded the pennant for having the most parents present.

The president, Raymond Williamson, informed the association that the curtain track for the school stage curtains was causing much trouble whenever the curtains were parted or drawn together.

Thomas Gryczka, principal; George Rawcliffe and Ernest Brown, were appointed a committee to look after this matter, and at a special meeting held Tuesday evening, to consider bids, selected a Newark department store to do the work.

Referendum Petition For Civil Service Rejected By Board Clerk Must Have Fifteen Days To Check Names, Attorney Holds

A movement to place all town employees under civil service, understood to be sponsored by Herbert Scott of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and other veterans, was halted Saturday when the board of commissioners, at a special meeting, rejected a petition demanding a referendum on the question at the coming general election.

The board held that the petition was presented too late for proper checking of the signatures and that it lacked sufficient names to call for a referendum. Town Attorney Lawrence E. Kennan gave an opinion that the town clerk, Mrs. Florence R. Morey, should have fifteen days to check signatures. Since the county clerk would have had to be advised of the referendum by Monday, checking was impossible.

Mrs. Morey also advised the commission that the petition lacked the required number of names to demand a referendum. The law is that 5 per cent of the voters who voted at the last general election must back such a move. In Belleville, this would amount to 661 signatures.

It is understood that the petition was circulated after the recent appointment of two new patrolmen by Public Safety Director George R. Gerard. Neither of the men was a veteran. Commissioner Gerard explained that his appointments were based on the ability and records of the men, who had served as chancemen, and on the need of their families. One of the men appointed, Edward Fletcher, was instrumental in the apprehension of a group of bandits while a chanceman.

Under the civil service acts, veterans are given preference over other persons in seeking appointments. An employee cannot be dismissed without a public hearing on the charges.

"I want to be able to fire any employee in my department without a legal battle," said Commissioner Patrick A. Waters. "Civil service here would turn the employees into bosses instead of the department heads."

"It is possible that a department head might have a good reason for dropping an employee, yet the reason might not be satisfactory legally," commented Mayor William H. Williams. "The legal expense involved in getting rid of an unsatisfactory employee also would be prohibitive."

Commissioners Joseph King and William D. Clark also were opposed to the inauguration of civil service here.

"Civil service protects the good employee, but it also prevents the discharge of a poor worker," a prominent town official stated recently.

The question of civil service and its advantages and disadvantages will be discussed by Victor H. Schleicher, attorney, at the next general meeting of the Belleville Taxpayers' Association at the Recreation House November 7.

Youth, Captured By Belleville Resident, Confesses Murder

Walter Groner, 25, of 135 Washington avenue, this town, an attendant at a gasoline station at 405 Market street, Newark, was responsible for the arrest of Clair K. Rambler, 23, who has admitted the murder of a Negro on a train in Pennsylvania, police say. Groner was sent a letter of congratulation by Police Chief McRell of Newark last week.

Groner locked Rambler and a companion, John Gerich, 18, in a wash room at the gas station September 27 when they acted in a suspicious manner and called police. The pair were held on a loitering charge until transportation could be arranged to their homes, which they said were in Newark.

Rambler and Gerich were given ten-day sentences as disorderly persons after they became abusive and tore out the plumbing in their cell at the Third Precinct station. Officers at the county jail discovered that Rambler had concealed a knife-pistol firing a .22 caliber bullet and Gerich a small revolver.

After being questioned by police, Rambler admitted the murder of Robert Turner, colored, an ex-convict, while on a train near Wilkesburg, Pa., they say. According to police, Rambler said that he shot the Negro twice in the head and threw the body under the wheels after Turner tried to ride the same blind baggage as the other youths.

Walter Groner Lauded By Newark Police Chief For Action

Henry Mason addressed the board, asking that building permits be refused in sparsely settled areas unless the contractor would pay for water mains, curbs and sidewalks. Commissioner Joseph King, who is in charge of the building department, promised to follow this course.

Receipts of the town for September, as reported by Tax Collector William C. Knapp, amounted to $88,256.16.

The board adopted an ordinance to forbid marathon dances in Belleville. There were no objections.

A group of residents of the section near the play street in Tappan avenue complained of it as a nuisance. Director Gerard said his attention had already been called to the condition, and he had ordered it closed.

Cuozzo St. Residents To Get Water Main

Board to Halt Building in Sparsely Settled Sections Of Town

A water main to serve Cuozzo street, part of the cost of which will be borne by residents, was agreed upon by the town commission Tuesday night, after Anthony Nisivocchia of 56 Cuozzo street again asked prompt action in the matter.

The board decided to adopt as a definite policy the refusal of building permits for sparsely settled sections of town, unless the builder should pledge himself to pay for the installation of necessary improvements in the section.

A delegation of residents of the street, appeared at a conference two weeks ago to ask a water main, but action was postponed until David Preston of 29 Cuozzo street learned whether a right of way could be secured through property adjoining his. Nisivocchia said Tuesday that the right of way could not be obtained.

Commissioner Patrick A. Waters and Town Construction Engineer Matthew J. Sheehan reported that a main could be laid to a corner of the street for $500, but extended the length of the street, where there are only four houses, would cost $2,300. The residents agreed to place their own two-inch main in the street if a town main were built to its end.

Commissioner George R. Gerard at first opposed extension of the main because of the small tax return from the neighborhood, but agreed to the measure when Commissioner Waters suggested that the board of health might force the town to extend the main to all homes, at prohibitive expense. Town Attorney Lawrence E. Keenan was instructed to draft an ordinance for the construction of the main.

Loving Care Fails To Save Pet Turtle

"Pete Keenan," a much-beloved pet turtle owned by "Mike" Keenan, 8-year-old son of Town Attorney and Mrs. Lawrence E. Keenan, is no more. Impressive funeral ceremonies, culminating in the placing of the body of the tiny reptile in a little grave covered by a blanket of flowers, marked the last tribute of the children of Mertz avenue to the pet, which survived a forty-day journey only to perish two days later of its harrowing adventures.

Six weeks ago "Pete" disappeared, and "Mike" was censured by his parents for the loss of the pet. Subsequent events proved that the loss was not the boy's fault, however, as Saturday the turtle emerged from a drain pipe, and it turned out that it had entered the refrigerator and escaped by the drain, after crawling steadily ahead for forty days.

"Pete," blind and half-starved, received loving attention. His eyes were bathed with tea and boric acid, and tid-bits were placed before him, but to no avail. He breathed his last Monday.

And "Pete" was only four months old.

A PAIR OF FALSE TEETH

By LILLIAN THOMAS

(A true mystery and murder that invaded the cloistered calm of Harvard University).

When Dr. George Parkman, wealthy and public-spirited citizen of Boston, was invited to attend the opening ceremony of the Medical College at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, he had himself fitted with a complete set of false teeth. Oliver Wendell Holmes, then Professor of anatomy, admired Dr. Parkman's false teeth very much.

It was the discovery of these admirable teeth, three years later, in the furnace of the Medical School, that led to the arrest and conviction of Dr. Parkman's murderer. Parkman met his death in the very college which his generosity helped to build.

On Friday, November 23, 1849, Parkman disappeared. Shortly before 2 o'clock that afternoon he was seen in the vicinity of the Medical School, but from that moment all certain trace of him was lost. The police were mystified. In their search for the missing man, they could find no clue, nothing that might shed a light on what became of the well-known doctor, whose peculiar personal appearance and eccentric habits combined to make him something of a character in the streets of Boston.

It remained for Ephraim Littlefield, the janitor of the Medical School, to discover the facts.

Littlefield became suspicious of John W. Webster, at that time Professor of Chemistry and Mineralogy in Harvard University. It was known that as early as 1842 Professor Webster had borrowed $450 from his friend, Dr. Parkman. Up to 1847 he had repaid Parkman only $100 of his debt. Parkman was a just and generous man, and extremely punctilious in matters of business, but he was uncompromising in his resentment of falsehood or deceit. There were those who were sympathetic with Webster's continual financial embarrassments, but Parkman's forbearance and patience, where Webster was concerned, was utterly exhausted. The day came when he threatened Webster with an action at law. Webster had no means to meet his debt, but Parkman was unrelenting.

With Parkman's disappearance, Littlefield was struck by the uneasiness of Webster's bearing. His manner was confused, his face pale, he seemed unable to look anyone in the eyes. He kept the door to his lecture room and laboratory either locked or bolted at all times, which was a thing that Webster was not in the habit of doing.

Littlefield tried again and again to gain entrance to the laboratory, but the doors remained fast. However, he could hear the running of water in one of the sinks, and this increased his curiosity.

The mysterious activity of Professor Webster seemed to Littlefield more than unusual. His perplexity finally gave way to apprehension when he discovered that the outer wall of Webster's laboratory was intensely hot. On the other side of this wall was a furnace that Webster used for chemical experiments, but Littlefield recalled that Webster told him on Tuesday that he should not be requiring any fires during the remainder of the week. Why, then, was this wall so heated? Littlefield proposed to investigate, and when Webster left the building that afternoon, the janitor, armed with a crowbar, succeeded in penetrating the wall that led to the laboratory. There, in a vault, he found the pelvis of a man and two parts of a human leg. In the furnace he found a pair of false teeth! Save for these teeth, there was not sufficient evidence to identify the remains found in the college as those of Doctor Parkman.

When Webster was arrested and questioned by the police, he exclaimed: "That is no more Dr. Parkman's body than mine. How in the world it came there I don't know! I never did like the looks of Littlefield, the janitor."

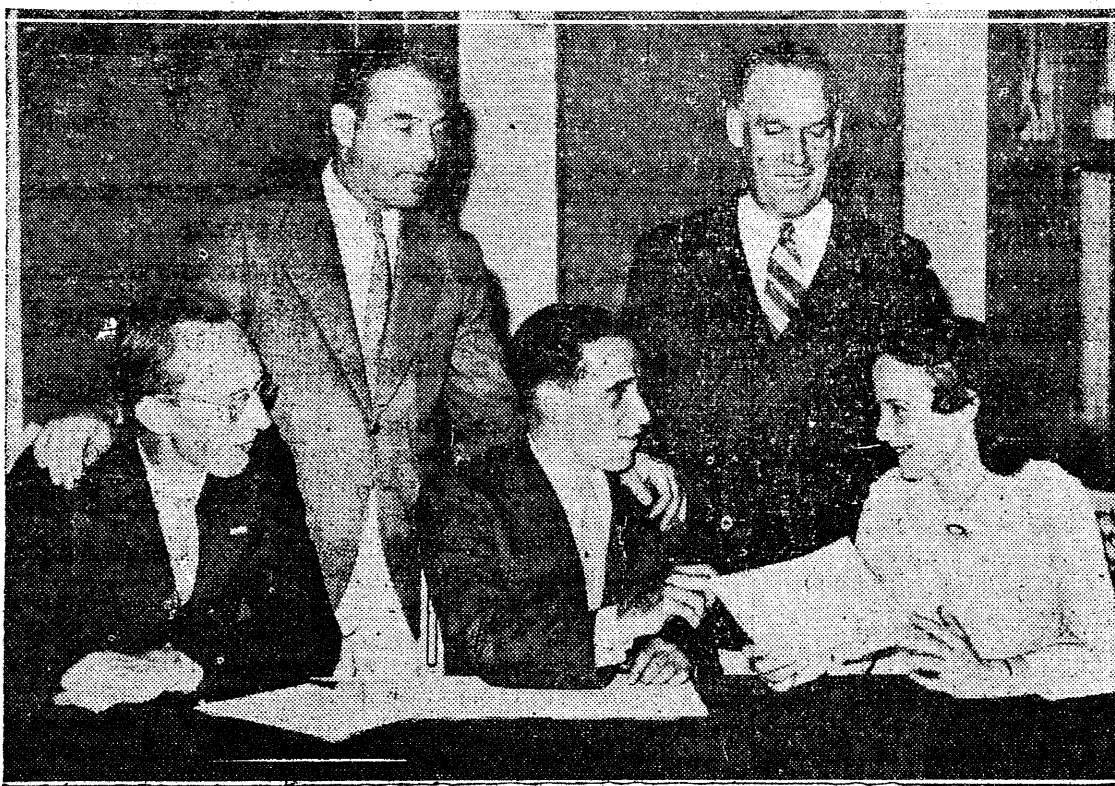

After an inquest lasting nine days, the coroner's jury declared the remains found in the college to be those of Dr. George Parkman, and that the deceased had met his death at the hands of Professor J. W. Webster.

Webster denied all pre-meditation. While in custody he tried to take his own life by draining a small bottle of strychnine, but when he came out of the violent spasms that overtook him, he confessed that when Parkman visited him the last time and demanded payment of the money he owed him, he struck the doctor on the head with a heavy stick. This, he said, was done in a moment of rage, and induced by the doctor's threats and taunts. Appalled by his deed, he locked himself in the laboratory and proceeded with desperate haste to dismember the body, which he placed in the sink, where a steady stream of water carried away the blood.

Webster was found guilty and sentenced to be executed. He met his death with fortitude and resignation. He said to the keeper of the jail:

"I feel that if the yielding up of my life to the injured law will atone

Coveted Award Is Extremely Rare and Highly Valued
By Proprietor of Belleville's Largest Dairy

SIXTY-NINE COWS ARE EXCELLENTLY HOUSED

Philip Lempert's big dairy on Joramalemon street has been awarded a highly valuable certificate of health by the United States Department of Agriculture and the New Jersey Bureau of Animal Industry. The award, a very rare and highly prized proof of the excellent conditions surrounding the Lempert dairy is reproduced on this page and shows an "Accredited Herd Certificate of Cooperative Tuberculosis Eradication" issued by the Government and the State jointly, following the third annual herd test by both authorities, showing the Lempert herd to have been absolutely free from any tuberculosis trace for the third consecutive year.

Lempert's Dairy One Of Best In State

The Lempert Dairy is located at the top of the hill at 482 Joramalemon street, adjoining the school. It is ideally situated for dairy purposes and every one of the buildings is the very latest and up to date in every respect. That the large herd is and has always been absolutely free from any taint of tuberculosis or any other ailment that would affect the cattle or the products is due to the greatest care that is exercised in every way to provide the best surrounding, housing and accessories known to dairy science. The surroundings of the dairy farm are healthful and invigorating and the men who take care of the cattle find real enjoyment and pleasure in their task.

Sixty-nine Cows Comfortable and Happy

The Lempert herd consists of sixty-nine healthy, happy and contented cows that are watched every minute of the day. Should it happen at any time that a cow shows signs of being off her feed or otherwise not up to scratch, the animal would be immediately segregated from the herd. But they are so well kept that this action has not been necessary.

Philip Lempert has been in the dairy business on Joramalemon street for the past fifteen years during which time he has built up a very extensive business in all dairy products. He recently erected a large and well-equipped creamery building which is the last word in equipment and efficiency.

Customers Receive Very Best Products

The customers of the Lempert Dairy are doubly assured by the accompanying certificate that they are receiving the very best in dairy products from Lempert's Dairy. Their milk and cream and other products are unsurpassed in this or any other state. This is the purpose of the certificate to assure the dairy's customer's that their purchases are the very best and that the conditions surrounding their production are absolutely free from any unhealthful conditions. In this respect the certificate has a meaning not only to Mr. Lempert but to every customer and prospective customer of the dairy's products. It means health and perfection in every detail.

Mr. Lempert Merits His Fine Reputation

Having been in the active dairy business at his present location for the past fifteen years during which time Mr. Lempert has always given the best service, he merits the fine reputation he and his dairy enjoy throughout this area.

Anyone Interested Welcomed at Dairy

Any persons interested in dairy operation who would like to visit Lempert's Dairy and inspect the plant will be gladly welcomed by Mr. Lempert and his staff and shown every courtesy on a tour of inspection. They will be greatly interested and will see at a glance why the dairy bears so high a reputation and is so highly awarded by the State and the Government.

Present Spirituals Program

The Southernaires, famous quartet of the National Broadcasting Company, will present a program of spirituals, folk songs and slave songs at the Universalist Church of the Redeemer, Broad and Hill streets, Newark, Monday night, October 22. The concert sponsored by the Centennial Committee as the first event in a week's centennial celebration, is open to the public.

The popular group of Negro singers is composed of William Edmondson, bass; Jay S. Toney, baritone; Homer Smith and Lowell Peters, first and second tenors; with Clarence Jones at the piano. Like many other successful combinations this organization came together quite by accident but "clicked" with the radio public from the very start. Their first radio appearance was with WMCA in 1930. They then changed to WRNY where they broadcast for several weeks. It was at this time that NBC scouts discovered them and secured their services, featuring them on an NBC network.

Mrs. Ann Stevens of the Belleville ERA spoke at the first fall meeting of the Woman's Club Monday afternoon. She said one of every five Belleville families is receiving aid. She asked for donations of cook stoves. The club was presented a clock by Mrs. Samuel H. Bootes. Mrs. William F. Entekin presided. The afternoon card party series will begin Monday at the club house.

'Treasure Island' At Capitol Theater

Wallace Beery and Jackie Cooper Are Again Co-Stars

Wallace Beery and Jackie Cooper are united again as a screen team in "Treasure Island," which opens Sunday at the Capitol Theater in Belleville.

As Long John Silver, ferocious sea-raider, Beery is chosen as a friend of young Cooper portraying Jim Hawkins, boy adventurer and hero of the famous book by Robert Louis Stevenson. Lionel Barrymore plays the blustering and bullying old Billy Bones, who finally dies of heart failure when given the "black spot" by the pirates.

Captain Smollett, who commands the ship Hispaniola on the treasure cruise, is played by Lewis Stone, who is himself a captain of a fine sailing vessel in Pacific waters. Otto Kruger's forceful personality adds strength to the character of Dr. Livesay, who provides medical attention for the expedition.

The whimsical and half mad Ben Gunn, who finds the treasure while marooned on the island, is played with comedy touches by "Chic" Sale; Nigel Bruce adds English bluster and vigor to the role of Squire Trelawney; tiny Cora Sue Collins provides youthful romantic interest for Jackie Cooper in early sequences.

Many well known character players also distinguished themselves in the cast, including William V. Mong, Charles McNaughton, Douglas Dumbrille, Edmund Breese, Olin Howland, Charles Irwin, Edward Pawley, Richard Powell and James Burke.

Dice Players Robbed

Three bandits, armed with revolvers, held up a number of men throwing dice Sunday and robbed them of $20. The holdup occurred in woods near Maier street and Cedar Hill avenue. Police are seeing the robbers.

Hague Attack Far Fetched

Editor The News:
Mayor Hague's attack upon Commissioner Hoffman for non-interference in the McCutcheon impeachment trial is indeed far fetched. Political meddling with the courts has never been considered praiseworthy; and the Senate is a court when it sits in an impeachment case, its members taking a solemn oath "truly and impartially to try and determine the charge in question according to evidence." Of course Mr. Hague says nothing about a conviction having been prevented by lack of Democratic votes.
But no wonder he is a bit desperate. The way Hoffman has set the pace in the campaign without any sacrifice of the high standards which have characterized his whole career of service and victories must have him groggy. Moses, candidate for Governor in New York, adds to Hoffman prestige by following his example of insisting upon waging the contest of state issues—the honest course.
State and national issues are different. It is customary for politicians to seek to confuse them and mislead voters for their selfish purposes. What, for instance, has Hague Bossism—the irresponsible autocratic rule of one man who nominates his party candidates by a nod or shake of the head and makes appointments to high offices in the same way and kills or enacts legislation by his "N. G." or "O. K."—to do with national questions? Nothing of course. But the boss would like to continue his reign by riding on the coattails of Roosevelt—of whom he thought so little before his nomination.

Fortunately, however much some may seek to smoke-screen the fact, Jersey voters have as an alternative to Hague Boss rule the courageous, constructive, forceful Hoffman leadership.

Press Institute Held At Rutgers

Newspaper representatives from all parts of the State of New Jersey gathered at Rutgers University Monday for the Thirtieth Annual Newspaper Institute held under the auspices of the New Jersey Press Association.

A feature of this year's institute was the lay jury of award which judged the competitive exhibit of state newspapers. In past years the awards have been made by journalism experts. The committee felt that a more worthwhile criticism would be made by newspaper readers representing various spheres of social and economic life.

The morning was devoted to a discussion of the exhibit by members of the jury of award. Leopold Chambliss, of the State Bankers' Association; Dr. Frank App, president of the New Jersey Farm Bureau Federation; Mrs. Patrick Henry Adams, of the New Jersey Federation of Women's Clubs; Chester I. Barnard, president of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company; and Rev. J. Cordie Culp, of New Brunswick, stated clerk of the Presbyterian Synod of New Jersey, criticized the exhibit from the respective viewpoints of the bankers, rural interest, the woman reader, the business man and the churchman.

Speakers listed for the afternoon and dinner sessions were Colonel Robert R. McCormick, of the Chicago Tribune; Henry E. Mooberry, chief of the New Jersey Bureau, Associated Press; James W. Barrett, editor, Press

3-Year-Old Child Wants to Try Bike At Nutley Saucer

Belleville Tot's Long Ride Interrupted by Kindly Police

Three-year-old Teddy Klein of 98 Belmoor street, Belleville, is going to be a champion cyclist when he grows up.

Even today Teddy feels that an ordinary sidewalk is not a suitable place for him to display his talents on the velocipede, so Tuesday afternoon he set out to ride to the Nutley Velodrome, where a board track would give him a chance to get some real speed out of his machine.

He pedaled away from home without the knowledge of his parents, and an hour later Chanceman Thomas R. McGovern of Nutley found him at Washington avenue and Center street, Nutley, within two blocks of his goal.

Teddy and his tricycle, appropriately named "Rover," were transported to Nutley headquarters in a police car. There Desk Sergeant Frank McCrea quizzed the youngster, but the only reply to questions of identity was a cherubic smile.

The only satisfactory reply received by McCrea was Teddy's "yeth" when asked if he were tired.

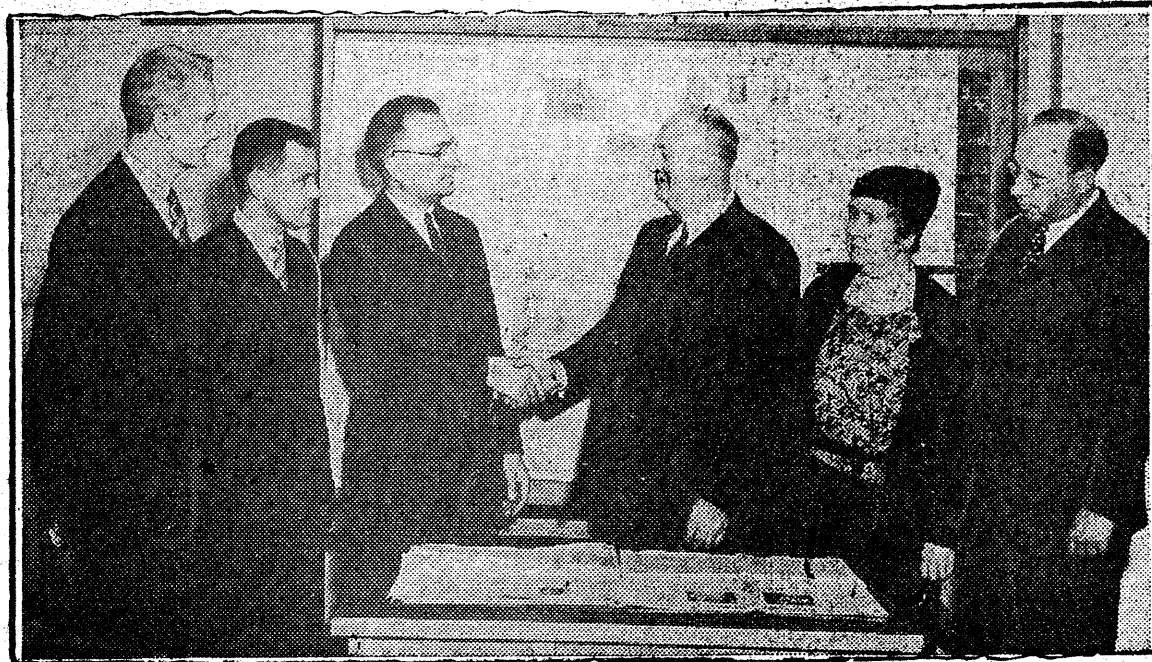

A few minutes later a teletype message asking the tot's whereabouts was received from Belleville police, and little Teddy, weary but unafraid, was taken home by Patrolman Donald Smith.

Parts in the play, "Big-Hearted Herbert," which the Little Theater Guild will give November 24, at the high school, will be taken by William Chapman, Mrs. Jean Lambert, Mrs. Robert Sutherland, Mrs. Helen Nestell, Miss Arlene Cadiz and Richard Newman. A Halloween party is planned for October 20.

The Cameo Club will hold a public card party October 24. The committee is Mrs. George Barnett, Jr., Mrs. Harry Miller, Mrs. Thelma Foss and Mrs. John J. McEvoy.

Radio Bureau; Professor Hubert R. Ede, Rutgers department of Journalism; James H. Furay, vice president United Press Associations; Elisha Hanson, Washington representative, American Newspaper Publishers' Association; and Paul B. West, Managing Director Association of National Advertisers.

The Hahne and Co. upholstery department will install a new stage curtain in the auditorium of No. 9 school. The committee members, Thomas Gryczka, George Rawcliffe and Ernest Brown, decided in favor of the Hahne & Co. bid which was $58.10. This was not the lowest bid but the track was a superior one.

Fascist Demonstration

Held In Silver Lake

An elaborate street parade and impressive ceremonies marked the affiliation of Belleville Chapter, United States Union of Fascists with the Khaki Shirts of America, at a meeting at 375 Lake street, Silver Lake section, Sunday afternoon.

The event marked a partial healing of the rupture between the rival organizations caused when Gaetano Astone, former official of the Khaki Shirts, organized the United States Fascists last March. Art J. Smith, with whom Astone was formerly associated, organizer of the Khaki Shirts, is still in jail in New York for perjury, but continues to direct the affairs of the order from there.

The acting commander, Lee Losi of Newark, spoke Sunday, but Astone, present as a spectator, did not address the gathering. Several speakers asserted that the organization, while modeled on that set up by Mussolini, is an American society and has no European affiliations.

New York Trip

A group of ten students from the sixth grade elementary ancient history class will visit the Egyptian Assyrian and South American antiquities wings of the Metropolitan Museum of Art Sunday afternoon, October 14. They will be accompanied by their teacher, Thomas Gryczka.

Since many of the illustrations in the class text may be found in the museum in clear original state it was decided to visit the museum to obtain the first hand information. Many of the students are looking forward to their first ride in a subway and the upper deck of a Fifth avenue bus.

THE TRUTH

ABOUT HAIR AND HAIR TREATMENTS

You may be one of millions who has wasted time, hope, money on "tonics" and treatments... Now Charles Nessler, inventor of the permanent wave, leading hair scientist, author of "Story of Hair", makes a simple but revolutionary discovery that ends

BALDNESS • DANDRUFF
OILINESS • THINNING HAIR
In the past, tonics and treatments tried to stop hair from falling. That is as useless as to try to stop an animal from shedding! What you must do is make your scalp replace the hair that falls—in short, complete the hair growing cycle. It is on that scientific principle that Charles Nessler's Pro-Ker is based. 30,000 tests have proved that Pro-Ker produces results. Hair for hair, it makes the scalp replace falling hair with new hair.

The regular open meeting of the Affiliated Republican Clubs of Belleville and the Kean-Hoffman Club, was held last Friday at the Kean-Hoffman headquarters.

The chairman, Eaker Hyde, introduced Mrs. Olive Sanford, Henry Young Jr., and James R. Guliano, all candidates for the assembly, each of whom gave a short address urging the election of Harold G. All of the addresses were received with keen interest and extreme enthusiasm by those in attendance.

Mayor William H. Williams gave a short talk and reported that his committee of programs and arrangements was working on plans for the monster Belleville Republican rally to be held at the Elks Hall on a date to be announced later. The mayor, together with Tom Berry, chairman of the finance committee and Al Williams, chairman of the publicity committee, will meet sometime during the week to complete and announce final arrangements.

WEAK AND SKINNY MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Saved by new Vitamins of Cod Liver Oil in tasteless tablets.

Pounds of firm healthy flesh instead of bare scraggy bones! New vigor, vim and energy instead of tired listless ness! Steady, quiet nerves! That is what thousands of people are getting through scientists' latest discovery—the Vitamins of Cod Liver Oil concentrated in little sugar coated tablets without any of its horrid, fishy taste or smell. McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets, they're called! "Cod Liver Oil in Tablets", and they simply work wonders. A little boy of 3, seriously sick, got well and gained 10½ lbs. in just one month. A girl of thirteen after the same disease, gained 3 lbs. the first week and 2 lbs. each week after. A young mother who could not eat or sleep after baby came got all her health back and gained 10 lbs. in less than a month.

You simply must try McCoy's at once. Remember if you don't gain at least 3 lbs. of firm healthy flesh in a month get your money back. Demand and get McCoy's—the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablets — approved by Good Housekeeping Institute. Refuse all substitutes — insist on the original McCoy's — there are none better.

'Treasure Island' At Capitol Theater

Wallace Beery and Jackie Cooper Are Again Co-Stars

Wallace Beery and Jackie Cooper are united again as a screen team in "Treasure Island," which opens Sunday at the Capitol Theater in Belleville.

As Long John Silver, ferocious sea raider, Beery is chosen as a friend of young Cooper portraying Jim Hawkins, boy adventurer and hero of the famous book by Robert Louis Stevenson. Lionel Barrymore plays the blustering and bullying old Billy Bones, who finally dies of heart failure when given the "black spot" by the pirates.

Captain Smollett, who commands the ship Hispaniola on the treasure cruise, is played by Lewis Stone, who is himself a captain of a fine sailing vessel in Pacific waters. Otto Kruger's forceful personality adds strength to the character of Dr. Livesay, who provides medical attention for the expedition.

The whimsical and half mad Ben Gunn, who finds the treasure while marooned on the island, is played with comedy touches by "Chic" Sale; Nigel Bruce adds English bluster and vigor to the role of Squire Trelawney; tiny Cora Sue Collins provides youthful romantic interest for Jackie Cooper in early sequences.

Many well known character players also distinguished themselves in the cast, including William V. Mong, Charles McNaughton, Douglas Dumbrille, Edmund Breese, Olin Howland, Charles Irwin, Edward Pawley, Richard Powell and James Burke.

Dice Players Robbed

Three bandits, armed with revolvers, held up a number of men throwing dice Sunday and robbed them of $20. The holdup occurred in woods near Maier street and Cedar Hill avenue. Police are seeing the robbers.

"NERVES"

Here's a good way to quiet "NERVES"—A Dr. Miles' Effervescent Neurotic Tablet, a glass of water, a pleasant, sparkling drink. Nerves relax. You can rest, sleep, enjoy life. At your drug store. 25c and $1.00.

"Pay 50¢ for tooth paste? Let me laugh!"

"I used to think that to get quality in a tooth paste, I had to pay 50¢ or more. Then somebody told me about Listerine Tooth Paste at 25¢. I have had better results than I ever had with other tooth pastes and I save about $1 a year."

Many thousands of men and women have the same idea. Why not try Listerine Tooth Paste yourself? You will be delighted with it. Lambert Pharmaceutical Co.

LIFE BEGINS
AT 7:40-

WE BEG TO DIFFER—but politely—with a successful playwright that Life Begins at 8:40. Out our way, it's nearer 7:40 and A. M. at that.

The hustle and bustle getting a breakfast on the table before the parade gets downstairs, checking on the neck and ears before the youngsters go to school. Hoping the water is warm enough for dad's shave. Well, at least one has to be alive around the place at about 7:40 A. M.

Call on automatic gas service to help you ease the mad rush of early morning. The automatic gas water heater will care for the hot water question. Economically and without fuss or bother it will furnish you hot water at any time of day or night. The automatic gas range will quickly get your breakfast of foods which have been stored close by in an automatic gas refrigerator.

For a small monthly charge you can enjoy the many benefits which automatic gas service brings to the home.

Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real? will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 14.

The golden text is: "The Lord is our judge, the Lord is our lawgiver, the Lord is our king; he will save us" (Isaiah 33:22).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "And they came unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four. When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee. I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house" (Mark 2:3, 5, 11).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The principle and proof of Christianity are discerned by spiritual sense. They are set forth in Jesus' demonstrations, which show—by his healing the sick, casting out devils, and destroying death, 'the last enemy that shall be destroyed,'—his disregard of matter and its so-called laws" (p. 210).

Bloomfield Wallops Belleville, 21-0, In Mud And Rain

Zergiebel's Kicking Keeps Bell-boys On The Defensive

The fairly large group of local football enthusiasts that travelled to the Bloomfield stadium in spite of the rain, found ample proof of the prowess and whereof of Bloomfield's state championship ranking of last season and its superiority over Belleville High on the gridiron.

The conclusive 21-0 victory for the Wallops continued Bloomfield domination over Belleville on the chalked gridiron, a mastery that has prevented a single Bell-boy victory.

Belleville went into battle, perhaps, better equipped physically of the two teams. They lacked, however, the things that finally proved their doing.

The first, was an efficient punter. The second, the guiding genius of a play. Anent the latter, we think of the brilliant Bloomfield triumph, expected as it was in many quarters, was about the finest tribute to Bloomfield coach imaginable.

Belleville got off on the wrong foot from the start, and never could go. They were forced to play defensive football immediately, and the handicaps of the wet field and the equally sodden ball, were to their disadvantage.

Their only solace, if solace may be called, was the fact that Bloomfield did not pile up a large score, as they blew many scoring opportunities.

Yellow Jackets, employing the use of four or five would-be punters, had no less than seven kicks, partially or completely blocked. They led directly to a touchdown and the others kept Bloomfield continually in Belleville territory right smack in scoring position. Mike Kochal, Bengal tackle, did most of the blocking.

In direct contrast, Martin Zergiebel, Bloomfield back, gave a remarkable exhibition with the wet ball, punting out of bounds inside the Bell-boy twenty yard stripe time and again.

To add to the complete obliteration of the Blue and Gold, they could not make a single first down all afternoon, while the winners piled up eight.

All the Bloomfield points were scored in the first half, two points on a safety in the first quarter, and the remainder with three touchdowns in the second. The Bell-boy eleven, especially the line, came back in the second half to give a remarkable display of courage and defensive football, but could do nothing on the offense.

Many contended, following the game, that Belleville would have done much better on a dry field, but that of course remains to be seen. The fact is that the local squad played right into the hands of Foley and his squad from the start, by receiving the kick-off, and then being tied up for the balance of the game.

Bloomfield certainly got the "breaks." But they just as certainly made them, thanks to the thinking equipment supplied them by their coach.

We purposely spared most of the horrible details. But to those analytically inclined we submit the following:

Two successive bad passes from center on the first plays following the kick-off caused young Emmet Ryder to be tackled back of the Belleville goal line by Nicosis and Daniels for a Bloomfield safety and the first two points of the game.

A blocked kick by Godleski permitted Zergiebel to sprint ten yards for the first Bloomfield touchdown at the start of the second quarter.

A thirty-four yard march by Bloomfield featured by a twenty-five yard pass completion, Zergiebel to Mazur, tallied the second six-pointer. A ten yard push through center by Tony Grigoris scored another with but a minute of the quarter to play. Ambrogio registered the extra point on a rush.

And there you have the story. The lineups and summary:

Belleville Crescents To Have Basketball- Dance Program

Manager Lamb's Quintet Is To Play At Recreation Center

"Mac" Lamb's Belleville Crescents will again be represented on the basketball court this winter, but the scene of this highly popular basketball-and-dance project of last season has been shifted to the reconstructed Recreation Center, opposite the high school.

Manager Lamb has already signed up five of his men, with several others still being sought. Two of them are new-comers: George Jordan, All-City performer and high scorer last year with the Good Counsel High team of Newark, and "Red" Ondre, former East Side High star. Al Culkin, ex-Belleville High captain and flashy forward, Carl Wittish, another former Blue and Gold ace, and Johnnie McGuire, of the Essex County League runners-up of last season, comprise the other three. Lamb, himself, who is getting primed for a big season, will also be available.

Saturday night has been selected as the night for the running of the programs.

The Crescent management wishes to inform all its patrons, especially the women, that the renovation of the Center, will assure them of the best in comfort and safety. Co-operation by the fans in the form of suggestions for the betterment of the project will be greatly appreciated by Lamb, as expenses must be met to enable him to continue.

Games this year will start at 8:30 P. M. sharply, with dancing after the game only. This makes for three hours of dancing as well as the game for the small twenty-five cent admission charge.

Nereids to Race On Raritan River Today

The Nereid Boat Club of Belleville has entered an eight-oared crew in a race against several college and club crews, this morning, as a feature of New Brunswick's three-day celebration of the centennial of the opening of the Raritan Canal. The race, which will be conducted over a Raritan River course, is the main feature of a twelve-event regatta scheduled.

Rutgers, Pennsylvania and Manhattan universities and the New York Athletic Club have also entered crews to compete with the Nereids.

MAKES YOU LOSE UNHEALTHY FAT

A young woman of Norwich, Conn., writes: "I lost 16 lbs. with my first bottle of Kruschen. Being on night duty it was hard to sleep days but now since I am taking Kruschen I sleep plenty, eat as usual and lose fat, too." To take off fat—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but little—test it at any drugstore in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the SAFE and HARMLESS way to lose fat—your money gladly returned. Don't accept anything but Kruschen if you want to reduce safely.

"One-Eyed Connollys" Take Advantage Of Nutley's Fence "Meant For Snow"

Periscope Reporter Figures Run By Caldwell Player Was Occasioned Because Ball Toter Was Scared By Fence

Fences Come.
Fences Go.
But Nutley's Fence
Was Meant For Snow.

"Sno use trying to kid us," wailed an old-time gate-crasher, as he viewed the stockade around what used to be Park Oval. "That fence won't hold water."

Whereupon, so help us, came last Saturday, the emulator of one-eyed Connolly pried his nose between two pickets and slightly cross-eyed to be sure, squinted through two others as twenty-two stalwart sons of Nutley and Caldwell high schools lashed or splashed at each other down in the what was once termed the "old mud hole."

Jimmy's Version
Jimmy Carroll, Nutley's first and only stage coachman, says he has solved the whys and wherefores of the fence. Says Jimmy: "It wouldn't be a bad idea to raise turkeys in that fine lockup and when the time arrives kill them off and feed them to the relief roll."

But we must get back to the fence, which looks like those erected along New England highways in winter to prevent snow from drifting over the fields into the roads. Any youngster, who seeks knotholes at a ball park, would be in his glory along this fence. There is a hole every two inches or so and as high as the fence itself, where the slats are joined, which is our reporter's manner of taking the longest way about to describe a new fence. Many and many fans were there who stole a free peep through and over that fence as George Stanford's lads pranced in the rain to smear Caldwell which has just started to swish the pigskin. Nutley carted off the biggest part of the pie, according to our reporter who periscope the game over the fence.

Checking up on his score sheet the reporter found that Nutley had a figure 12 credited on its slate while someone had smeared an eraser all over Caldwell's blackboard until only a 6 appeared. To the uninitiated the score was 12-6, with Nutley the winner.

That fence, however, is the thing that had the reporter all hot and bothered. When Bill Babcock, playing his first game for Caldwell, tucked the pigskin under his arm and scooted 106 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter, the reporter was convinced the fence was to blame. How else, he mused could a team, which hasn't been on the lots for a decade, produce such a man unless a miracle had happened.

Reporter Blames Fence
"It's the fence," said the reporter. "That boy just got one good look and ran like a deer. The fence scared him — out of him and if he hadn't splashed in the mud out near the goal posts he might be running yet, toward Caldwell."

All of which gives Coach Stanford another problem. How can his boys "bring home the bacon" if the fence is going to scare the opposition into making touchdowns. Our suggestion would be to invite the schools Nutley will play this year at Park Oval for a visit at least one week before the game. Offer these schools the use of the field for practice so that the players will learn before game time that the fence is up to snare in some cash customers.

Fact of the matter is one of the Velodrome cyclists who went to Detroit last week for the six-day grind, which winds up Saturday, wrote us he wished a similar fence had been built around the Tigers' field. Before the bike race started he paid to see a series game.

"Could I have seen the games free here?" he asked. Could he? We ask, also.

But back to the game.
The reporter tried to figure out Babcock's 106 yards when the playing field is only 100 yards in length. Just as Babcock started off the reporter found 200 pounds of flesh blocking his vision and failed to see the Caldwell lad get under way six yards back of his own goal line.

Nutley registered its triumph behind the brilliant playing of Kenneth (Bucky) O'Connor, who tallied both touchdowns.

Babcock's run came in the second quarter and it provided the Caldwell team with a 6 to 0 lead at half-time. Nutley launched a powerful drive down the field, which was halted on the enemy's four-yard line.

Taking the ball from center on a fake kick formation six yards behind the ball under his arm and raced around right end for forty yards. Then he reversed his field and darted to his left, eluding several Nutley tacklers to cross the line.

With Nutley trailing at the start of the third period, O'Connor broke away for a thirty-five-yard run. Other substantial gains by O'Connor and Dick O'Neil brought the ball within striking distance of the Caldwell goal line. O'Connor squirmed his way over the line for a touchdown. A pass for the extra point failed.

Toward the close of the third quarter O'Connor broke away for more substantial yardage, including twenty, eighteen and twelve-yard dashes. Then he crashed over the line for the touchdown, which represented the margin of victory.

Nutley made twenty first downs to Caldwell's one. O'Connor, carrying the ball nineteen times from scrimmage, gained a total of 192 yards, an average of ten yards at a clip.

Bowling Notes

All the leagues using Ferarra's North Newark alleys are now in full swing.

The Manufacturers' circuit got off to a fine start last week with twelve teams competing. Only one of this group was able to sweep three games, which is a sure indication of the balance of the clubs. It looks like a dog fight right down the line.

The Thursday night house league, started with Lee's Tavern posting a 1076 right off the reel. Some of the boys appeared a bit rusty due to lack of practice, but that will be remedied as the season lengthens.

The Saturday evening sweepstakes have begun. Pete Schneeman, one of the more successful entrants of last season, hasn't been "hot" yet, with the result that the boys have been "taking" him. But Pete's only answer is, "Look out, when I get warmed up."

"Dutch" Faust copped high score for the first week in October with Mrs. Brothers and Mrs. Greenelch of Nutley tying for the ladies' prize.

Manager "Doc" Haycock of the alleys is now organizing a ladies' league for Thursday afternoons. Any woman who would like to bowl in this league can have all the details by contacting "Doc" at the alleys.

Undeclared Varsity Club Eleven Slated To Meet Strong Newark Cyclones Sunday

Nutley Gridders Tied Second Time This Season With Newark Iroquois—Penalty for Delay Spoils Locals' Sole Chance for Touchdown

The biggest attendance of the year is expected Sunday afternoon at Feuerbach Park, where the undeclared Nutley Varsity Club faces the formidable Newark Cyclones. The crack Newark eleven has a following of from 500 to 1,000 fans and figures on shattering the record of the local players, who have been held to tie games in their last two starts.

The Cyclones have been playing as a unit for many seasons, and have one of the strongest elevens in these parts. They are handled by Jimmie Russomano and Red Burnett, former Barringer and Brown stars respectively, and their personnel includes some of the foremost Italian aces to graduate from the Newark high schools. Last year the Cyclones were the only New Jersey team to be invited to play at Sing Sing, where they lost by a low score. They wound up the season by taking the round robin tournament at the Schools Stadium.

Meanwhile, Coach Stanford has been attempting to instill new life in his Varsity Club performers, who seemed slowed up against the Iroquois eleven. The Nutley mentor realized the potency of the Cyclone threat and has impressed his men with the thought that their record will be rudely shattered by the sterling Newarriors unless they go to town Sunday.

With Ray Gibney, another triple-threat man, added to his cast, Coach Stanford has a man to alternate with Alex Baykowski who can kick, pass and rush the ball. Aim Barbata is also expected to display some of his old time form after a week additional of practice. The Nutley starting backfield is in doubt, as Johnny Bridges, Tony SanGiacomo and Archie Scotland proved last Sunday that they were in fine form, while also available in addition to Gibney and Barbata is Captain Sparky Jones. The opening combination may be Jones, SanGiacomo, Baykowski and Gibney, with Bridges, Scotland, Barbata and Mike Connors serving as the relief troops.

Varsity Ties Iroquois
For the second week in a row, the Nutley Varsity Club football warriors were held to a tie decision, the Newark Iroquois pigskin chasers turning the trick at Feuerbach Park last Sunday afternoon by holding Coach Stanford's charges to a scoreless tie.

The light and aggressive Newark players displayed a strong defensive game all afternoon, and the Maroon was held at bay until the last quarter when a goalward march was interrupted by a questionable penalty and an incomplete forward pass. The Newarriors' offense likewise was held in check except for a few splurges in the first half.

In the first period the Indians made one long advance, which was featured by a 30-yard aerial from Moe Halperin to Ukie Wotznitzer. Wotznitzer also hit the Nutley line for several first down gains, but the Nutley forward wall held when in their own territory. The invaders made another advance in the second period, but this time the march was halted by Johnny Bridges, who intercepted a forward pass on the Maroon 36-yard stripe.

The Varsity gridders started to go to town in the third session, but a fumble by Tony SanGiacomo, who played a strong offensive game, all afternoon, blocked the march. Kicks and forward passes were made profusely in this period, but neither side gained much of an advantage.

The only real advance of the game was staged by the local gridders midway in the closing period, following SanGiacomo's catch of an Iroquois punt on his own 30-yard marker. Johnny Bridges tunneled his way through for an even dozen yards, Baykowski picked up five yards off right tackle and then Bridges made another first down in midfield. Tony SanGiacomo skirted left end for six yards on a triple reverse, Bridges added two and then Archie Scotland tossed his bulk against the Newarriors' forward wall for a six-yard gain and another first down. Bridges then reeled off eight yards and after SanGiacomo was stopped cold, Scotland once more shot through center for another first down.

Penalty Spoils Chances
On the next play Bridges collected five yards, and then came the unfortunate decision which probably caused Nutley a touchdown. After a time out Nutley went into their usual huddle, but Referee Stager ruled the locals' offense was in session too long,acking on a five-yard penalty. With en yards to make instead of five, the locals went to the air, but a toss to Tellett failed, and then SanGiacomo was stopped without a gain. On the inal down, with the ball only twelve yards from the goal, Gibney flicked a pass over the goal line, but the alert Iroquois secondaries knocked it down, and Nutley's touchdown opportunity was gone, as the game ended shortly afterward.

Outstanding in the work of the local eleven was the ball-lugging of SanGiacomo, Bridges and Archie Scotland, while Moe Kitzman played a brilliant game on the Nutley forward wall. Irv Sheps, giant Iroquois tackle, contributed a marvelous defensive game for the visitors, as he broke up almost every Nutley play headed in his direction and in addition swarmed over the Nutley backfield on other occasions during the title. Lou Schwartz, former University of Maryland end, also was an offensive gem for Newark.

Biase Yellow Jackets Swamp Cards, 20-0

"Bundles" Biase's 70-Yard Run Features

The Biase Yellow Jackets swamped the East Orange Cards, 20-0, Sunday. "Bundles" Biase, Yellow Jacket back, galloped seventy yards behind perfect interference from kick formation late in the third period for the most sensational play of the game. This run tallied the winner's final six-pointer.

The Jackets lost little time in scoring, Compagna, center, recovering a Card fumble on the second play of the game. Two line smashes ate up most of the twenty yards to the goal line, with Bonavita finally carrying the ball over. Biase's try for the extra point was wide.

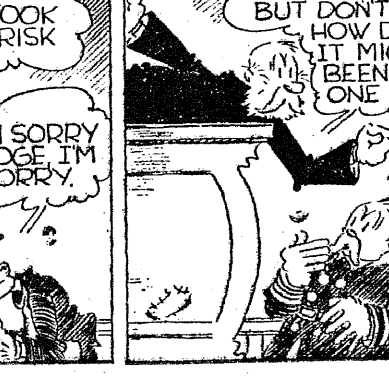

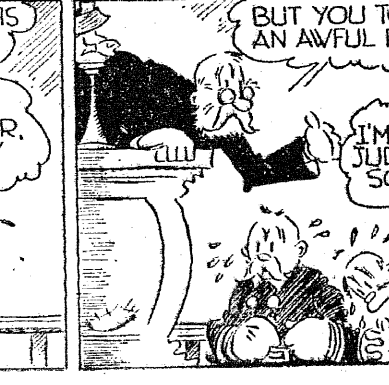

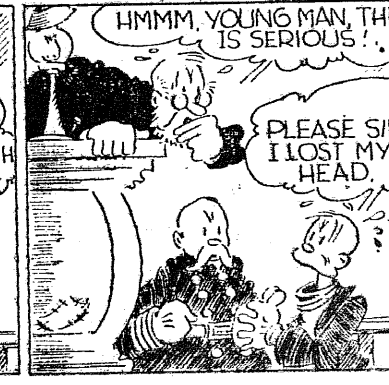

A few minutes later, the Biase boys again took advantage of a "break" in the form of a second Card fumble. Ral Casale, end, recovered this one in midfield. On the first play, Bonavita ran forty-five yards on a spinner, and A. Biase went over from the five yard stripe on the second. Kelly made good his placement for the extra point.

A forward pass, Bonavita to Casale, scored the extra point after Biase's sensational dash for the final touchdown.

"Bungo" Gorman, big Yellow Jacket back, proved his ability as a blocker as well as a line plunger in the contest.

Owing to the staging of the Holy Name parade, Sunday afternoon the Biase team will be forced to travel. Rutherford will be their destination, where they will encounter the Rutherford Alumni at the high school stadium.

Rene Antolini, who played on Colgate University's undefeated 1932 team, will act as coach and player for Rutherford. Others to represent Rutherford include Jack Wilson, formerly of Hamilton College; Phil Port, Washington and Jefferson captain in 1932; George Gryson, captain of the St. Lawrence University team in '32; Yackachack, former all-state player with Rutherford High, and Marty Love of Villanova.

Church Pin Loop Race Tightens Three Way Tie For First Place Now Exists

The race in the Belleville Church Bowling League tightened up considerably, last week, as Grace Baptist, Fewsmith Men's Club and the Watsessing Men's Club teams moved into a triple tie for first place.

Jerry Sawyer and Garrabrant of the Christ Episcopal quintet, however, furnished most of the individual fireworks. Sawyer's 245 in the final game was high individual score for the evening, while the latter came through with successive tallies of 205, 211 and 224, for the best three game average.

Cowboy Contests Will Be The Next Thrill In Sports

THOUSANDS of rodeo fans in the New York area will welcome the announcement that the World Championship Rodeo, ninth edition, will be held at Madison Square Garden, October 10 to 28.

One hundred and fifty cowboys and cowgirls, the best "hands" competing in western rodeos, will take part in the contests at the Garden, which will be for the benefit of the Milk Fund.

The daring riders and ropers from the open spaces will be lured to New York by exactly $36,225 in cash prizes. These will be distributed among the winners of the various events such as bronk riding, steer wrestling, calf roping, bareback bronk and steer riding and trick and fancy riding and roping.

The rodeo will be under personal direction of Colonel W. T. Johnson of San Antonio, Tex., who will furnish the bucking horses, wild steers and agile calves that will test the skill of the contestants. Colonel Johnson has directed the Garden rodeo for several seasons and has brought this form of entertainment to its peak in life and color. From the moment the spectacular grand entry closes, the rodeo is a slap-bang affair, one grueling contest following another in rapid succession.

Last year's champions will be on hand to defend their honors, and a large number of young and promising contestants will be in the arena, eager to wrest the championships from the veterans.

The rodeo will open Wednesday, October 10 and will continue through Sunday, October 28, with matinees every Saturday and Sunday and a special matinee on Friday, October 12, Columbus Day.

Oldham and Keystones Tied for Legion Lead

Haycock's 265 Tally High For Evening

Johnny Baney's Oldham Association and the Keystones moved up into a tie for first place in the Belleville American Legion Bowling League, Monday night, at the North Newark alleys. The Baney quintet had its hands full taking two of three from the strong W. H. Williams Association team, while the Keystones were mowing down the Belleville Animal Hospital five, three straight.

Johnnie Lawlor's El Club took the odd game from the Neary Association in a high scoring match. A single-pin, hair-line decision in the last game gave Frank's Diner two out of three from the Waters Association, the Carragher Association won two from the Gebhardt Association, and the Knights of Columbus swept its series with the

Trojans Down No. Arlington A. A. Manning Brothers Feature 12-0 Victory

The Belleville Trojan football eleven trounced the North Arlington A. A., 12-0, Sunday afternoon, at Belleville Park.

The first Trojan score resulted from a blocked kick by "Red" Metz, which was recovered by Dick Owens, midway in the second quarter. Ed Manning plunged over for the second six-pointer in the third period, after the Trojan backs had alternated in carrying the ball on a steady march from midfield.

Long runs by George Manning also featured the Trojan offensive.
