Little Theater First To Present Comedy

"Big Hearted Herbert" To Be Given At Ith

School

It was a feather in the cap of the Little Theater Guild when it "secoped" the state in the presentation of a Broadway play last season, by offering "Counsellor at Law," before any other amateur group. Now you can add a medal to that feather—for the local thespians are again preparing a New York hit, "Big Hearted Herbert," for presentation before any other group of this type in the state. "Big Hearted Herbert," is a three act comedy from the pens of Sophie Kerr and Anna Steese Richardson and will be presented at the high school next Saturday night.

In adidtion to "beating" all other small town theatrical groups in the presentation of this comedy, the local thespians came near "scooping" an important down-town movie house in offering this play. The Newark theater has the film version of "Big Hearted Herbert" scheduled for week's run, commencing just one night before the local group's presentation. The Newark play house will start the movie adaptation of the play next Friday, while the local organization's offering will be Saturday night

"Big Hearted Herbert," concerns a grumpy father who delights in constantly reminding his family and acquaintances that he is a self-made man and a college education is not necessary for a young man to become successful in the business world. This continual nagging of his family and and daughter bring about a "family "what is his meat, is someone else's poison.'

Coach J. Gordan Eska appears pleased with the adeptness being shown by members of the cast in handling their roles, as they enter the final week of rehearsals before offering this family-life comedy to the public. Reports from the committee in charge of tickets are also favorable. The general opinion is that amateur date most of the reserved section seats are sold and many of the general admission tickets have been taken. All of which promises the guild another the circumstances. I wonder if that successful season. Tickets may be is not the way we must approach the purchased from any member of the effect of the New Deal. It has made cation—in a world that wastes thouguild.

World aspects of the economic cri sis and the lapse in faith and morale were commented on by the Rev. Mr Deckenbach.

"In a world that spends $40,000, 000,000 in four years on munitions of war and kills more than 10,000,000 men, who, if they had been spared, would now have homes and familiesin a world that spends more three times as much on armaments as edu sane barriers to trade and intercourse, in such a world there is bound to be unemployment and misery and all the new deals the President or anyone else can formulate will not save the individual from suffering," he continued.

"Our nation is suffering from a moral sag that is sapping our strength impairing our confidence, exhausting our reserves. In the face of this situation there are many who have suffered no privation, whose indulgent ways have known no restraint, and whose vulgar habits and practises further menace our security and hinder the day of our recovery.

Lions Club to Hear Dr. Howard Johnson

Social Service Representative to Speak Here Thursday

The Lions Club of Belleville has invited a man to address it, one who is becoming well known to service clubs throughout the State, Dr. Howard Johnson, the Social Service Representative of the New Jersey State Housing Authority.

From what we can learn the Lions are due for a keen insight into the lives and problems of the low-wage earner who is less fortunate than they, as Dr. Johnson speaks on the subject, "The House that Hope Built" Eext Thursday at the Evergreen Club at 12:15 o'clock.

Dr. Johnson has a distinct message for his audience, and throughout it there will be reflected a recent statement by Secretary Harold L. Ickes to the effect that, "As a people we ought to be deeply ashamed of our slums. We have known that they are a disgrace to our civilization and if we in fine residential communities insist for ourselves upon a just share of light and air and space, if we claim for our children an opportunity to grow tall and straight and clean in healthful surroundings, we ought to demand the same rights for every other man, woman and child. To open up our crowded slum areas in the cities, to insist upon proper sanitation, to provide playgrounds for the children, will mean an investment that will more than pay for itself in actual dollars and cents".

Oil in tasteless tablets.

Pounds of firm healthy flesh instead of bare scraggy bones! New vigor, vim and energy instead of tired listlessness! Steady, quiet nerves! That is what thousands of people are getting through scientist's latest discovery—the Vitamins of Cod Liver Oil concentrated in little sugar coated tablets without any of its horrid, fishy taste or smell.

McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets', and they simply work wonders. A little boy of 3, seriously sick, got well and gained 10½ lbs. in just one month. A girl of thirteen after the same disease, gained 3 lbs. the first week and 2 lbs. each week after. A young mother who could not eat or sleep after baby came got all her health back and gained 10 lbs. in less than a month.

You simply must try McCoy's at once. Remember if you don't gain at least 3 lbs. of firm healthy flesh in a month get your money back. Demand and get McCoy's—the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablets—approved by Good Housekeping Institute. Refuse all substitutes—insist on the original McCoy's—there are none better.

A brief story follows, showing but a bit of the work the organization does. It might be your problem today or it might tomorrow.

John was weary. He sat down on a deserted park bench and thrust his planning a budget in order that they clenched fists into empty trouser pockets. All morning he walked the streets, pausing only to enter a building and inquire for employment. Jobhunting had become an unpleasant habit; asking for work and receiving young people. Rev. Edmont Hains a negative answer. But John continued, hoping that eventually something definite would be his good fortune-

> At home, a wife and two children waited anxiously for his return each evening. Jobs were few and far between these last four years. He had birthday by her fiancee, Russell Sundtried his hand at everything a man could attempt, but nothing he found seemed to last. But, he kept on trying for he had to face his responsibilities.

When he was released from his first position in an office, at the birth of the depression. John thought it would not be difficult to find employment. Months of seeking had discouraged him. He was forced to work at whatever he could find. His wife and chil dren had to be fed and rent paid Clothing did not matter greatly, as most people he met looked shabby anyway now.

To go home and recite the same story was a bit more than he could do this time. Yet, there was no alternative. No money, no food, and a rent that would not be permitted to go unpaid any longer. The situation had reached the final stage; it had become desperate.

His wife, Jane, only last night be yond patience with nerves shattered by nerve-wracking suspense and selfdeprivation, told him she wondered if he were "quite capable of supporting his family." A monotonous recital of If he says he doesn't like praise, don't failure in finding work finally was resultant in discord within a household. He had eventually become to his wife, in her mental anguish, despicable and defeated by life.

John thought this all over again and again in his mind, hoping a solution would visualize itself to remedy his plight, as a decrepit old man sauntered to the bench and sat down. ### Making The Home More Livable

With Lamps for the Away-from-the-wall Davenport

By Jean Prentice

TIRESIDE happiness depends very much on the kind of lamps provided for those hours of reading, sewing or just plain ease.

In many a spacious living room, and small ones also, the davenport is placed alongside the hearth, as in the accompanying sketch. Where there is no fireplace the lamp appropriate for the away-from-the-wall location is the

Just one lamp stands by the daven-port in the living room illustrated. But you can bank on that one! It knows all the tricks of good lighting, having been built according to speci-fications of the Illuminating Engineering Society, a national group of light ing scientists.

You'll note first that the lamp i placed at the back of the davenport. This balanced arrangement is possible because of the height of the lamp and the width of the shade which allow sufficient spaced of light for the en-tire length of the davenport . . . Johnale won't be out of range of good light regardless of where he sits on this

The reasons for the excellent light ing are apparent when the shade is litted, as illustrated in the smaller throws light up as well as down, thus eliminating glare and providing light as restful to the eyes as an eider down mattress would be to the body. Within the bowl is another bit of magic, an electric lamp, newly developed, which (because of two filaments) gives three different intensities of light at the turn of a switch. For sewing and the reading of fine print for long periods, the lights of the auxiliary candles, holding bulbs of from 40 to 60-watts, are added to that of the central bulb. "How about using a single lamp at the end of the davenport, rather than at the back?," I hear someone ask. Well, that depends on your davenport. If it is too long the lamp standard would have to be excessively and awkwardly high to shed its light the optical length. entire length.

End table lamps can of course be used, but are not always practical for the away-from-the-wall location in a smaller room where space must be conserved.

If the davenport is of the Love Seat ype, a lamp similar to the smaller one sketched, and using a 100-watt lamp, may be placed on a table behind it. This is also an approved I. E. S. Study and Reading Lamp, a multitude of lovely designs for which have been made by many manufacturers.

It is higher than table lamps you've been using, no doubt. But that's a new style note!—In the interest of eyesight Belleville Dentist

He described a complete set of artificial teeth found in the mouth of a mummy and the gold bridges, for the purpose of holding ox teeth in the human mouth, found in Etruscan tombs. Romans, Hebrews, Hindus, Tibetans and Arabians also made artificial teeth, he stated. The dentist described the artificial teeth made of ivory by the Dyaks of Borneo and the Eskimos at the present day.

"I have but briefly tried to sketch some of the ancient history and folklore about toothache, and more generally the practice of dentistry itself,' concluded Dr. Kaden. "If modern dentistry seems to fall short of civilized requirements, I should like you to keep in mind some of these old-time methods of alleviating pain, and the subsequent attempts to replace lost teeth. I firmly believe that our profession has kept pace with science and research, and is well able to cope with the many problems of our

Mrs. Robert Winternitz to Preside at Gathering Monday

A panel discussion on "Taxation" with reference to Real Estate will be held Monday, afternoon at L. Bamberger & Co. (10th floor), at 2 o'clock, Mrs. Robert Winternitz, Nutley, state chairman of the Department of Government and Its Operation of the New Jersey League of Women Voters announced today.

"In formulating a program to meet the present situation in the New Jersey Governments, both state and local," said Mrs. Winternitz, "it has been generally agreed that the burden of real estate must be lessened. The tax base must be broadened. Shall we relieve real estate by a law which limits the maximum tax to be levied on real and personal property? How will this effect valuations and assessments? Are the present assessments in New Jersey high or low? What are the full facts concerning exempt property? What are the present laws which govern these matters?" These and other questions will be discussed during the session.

The purpose of the conference is to get the present situation with regard to real estate from the point of view of assessments and valuations.

Among the speakers will be John F. O'Brien of the Taxation Committee of the National Real Estate Board, who will present the real estate operator's point of view and also the ques-

Asparagus

DRILLAT SAVARIN tells a Brillian Sayardin tons a story of asparagus in the days when it was a food for kings and clergy, long before canners made it a food for people of all classes.

The Bishop of Belley was told one day that a head of huge size had just appeared above one of the asparagus beds of his kitchen garden. Everyone ran to the spot and perceived an enormous head that gave promise of an asparagus the size of a column. For days the asparagus continued to grow and the bishop gave order to the cutler to make a knife big enough for cutting the monster stalk.

Came the Day

When the appointed day for cutting came, a feast was held, after which the bishop advanced, knife in hand, and followed by the guests. To the surprise of everyone the knife would not cut. The asparagus was a wooden one. The joke had been played by a wood turner in the village, who carved the asparagus and each day stole into the garden and lifted up the imitation asparagus little by little to imitate the nocturnal growth. Today canners have found a way of packing even mammoth asparagus tips, so they come to us even more tender in the can than from the garden. And dietitians have devised these delicacies.

Asparagus in Lemon Rings: Remove asparagus carefully from two tall cans of .-sparagus, and place in a large flat skillet. Heat in its own juice. When ready to serve, slip four or five stalks through lemon rings and pour Hollandaise Sauce over the tips. This serves eight persons.

French Asparagus Salad: Drain and chill the contents of a 15ounce can of asparagus tips, then arrange on crisp romaine. ### Glee Club Prepares For Fourth Concert Local Group Was Organized

Three Years

Ago

The Glee Club is busily preparing for its fourth concert of the third season which will be given December 19 in the high school. The club was organized three years ago and presented two concerts at School No. 8, under the direction of Thomas Haney of Montclair, who is organist and choir director of St. Peter's Church. The following year one concert was given in the auditorium of the high school and was directed by Frank Church in Montciair. Mr. Scherer is also the assistant director and accompanist of the Glee Club of the Oranges and of the Montclair Glee Club. Both of these clubs are directed by! Mark Andrews. The accompanist for the Belleville club for the past three seasons is Arthur S. Ackerman who is organist and choir director of Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church.

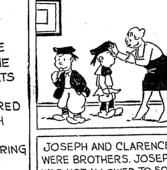

The results of the training received by the club thus far are quite apparent in the quality of tone now produced and in nuance and dynamics. Scherer also of oMntclair, who is ormembers singing in the program to be presented on December 19 at which time they will be assisted by Anita Powell, soprano and John Carroll, baritone. The songs to be sung by the Glee Club will include Christmas carols, in keeping with the Yuletide season. A feature of the concert will be the singing of Mark Andrews' musical setting to the well known ballad of Alfred Noyes "The Highwayman" which is arranged for male chorus and soprano solo.

Supremacy of Rival Grapplers to Be Decided at Laurel Garden

For the third time this season, Rudy Dusek, of Omaha, Neb., and Sandor Szabo, handsome Hungarian Adonis. will try and settle their little difference when they come to grips in a fine wrestling bill arranged by Promoter Ray Hanly for the Laurel Garden, Newark, on Tuesday night. They are billed for a two out of three fall match with a limit of 90 minutes. While this is their third meeting, both matmen have failed in their previous tilts to convince each other of their superiority. Dusek won the first battle when he pulled Szabo out of the ring after being on the floor for a short time, just as the referee was giving the final count. He barely made the inside of the ring as the referee yelled the final count. Szabo came back and took the second fray when he won Referee Doc Gehman's decision after each had scored a fall. Early in the game Pete Adams booted a 70-yard kick over the head of the Belleville safety man, the ball Johnnie McGuire, George Jordan, being downed on the three-yard line. A return kick by Emmet Ryder went out of bounds deep in Belleville territory, but the play was called back for an offside penalty. From there Belleville took to running plays and reached the Paterson ten-yard stripe after several long gains. Another offside penalty gave them a first down and after two unsuccessful attempts Tully flipped a pass to Ryder in the end

> In the second quarter the Eastsiders reached Belleville's five-yard marker, but a fumble destroyed a scoring opportunity. Another penalty against the Orange and Blue for holding brought the ball out of dangerous territory and Tully again whipped a pass, this time a 50-yard toss to Gauspell, right end, who galloped another 20 yards to the goal line. A pass, Tully to McDonald, scored the extra point.

Baykowski got off a shovel pass to Bridges for five yards as the final canto opened. McDonald hit off right tackle for no gain, but on second try and fourth down he tunneled through for the touchdown. Alex Baykowski's placement was high but too wide for the extra point.

The Maroon lost a fine scoring opportunity in the third quarter when they failed to put the pigskin over after having four tries from the fiveyard marker. Previous to the goal line rushes, Johnny Bridges intercepted a Toreadors' aerial on Nutley's 47yard strip. Bonavita slipped through for four yards and Mitchell for seven more. Two more plunges by Bonavita made it another first down and then McDonald tossed a long cross forward to Johnny Bridges, who made a beautiful catch, and dashed to the fiveyard line before being forced out of

THE RED CROSS

The annual drive for membership in the Red Cross has begun, and from now on the little button with red on white will be a symbol of the people's

It is a wonderful organization, covering the whole country in times of trouble—and, in fact, at all times. When distress comes, there stands the Red Cross to help in every conceivable way. As President Roosevelt said

"In the difficult twelve months which have elapsed since last November, Red Cross volunteers throughout the land have worked in close cooperation with the federal, state and local governments in their humanitarian labors. Their service has not been limited to aid in furnishing the actual necessities of life, but has extended to the equally important field of safeguarding public health and of training their neighbors in the proper methods of caring for the sick or the injured."

It costs little to become a member. Everyone who can should pay his dollar and be proud to wear the emblem of mercy.

MUST CUT COSTS

Warning has been given the railroads of the United States by Joseph B. Eastman, federal transportation co-ordinator, that they must cut costs and improve service if they are not to continue "slipping" in competition. And the railroads, hard pressed as it is, are wondering how they are to do the two things at once.

But Mr. Eastman is a practical man, with long experience in regulating the business of railroading. He advises the "prerequisite elimination of duplications and waste in operation," which certainly can be brought about. Then he says that "the investors must do their part by translating a large part of the present burdensome railroad indebtedness into a form which will knocked together. I hope that herecarry no fixed interest obligations." That is much more difficult. Investors are hard hit enough already without giving up entirely "fixed interest obli-

But that the railroads must do something to put themselves back on the road to prosperity is clear. What that something is needs a prophet greater than Mr. Eastman himself.

NEEDED INVENTIONS

There are thousands of inventions submitted every year to the patent office, but most of them would serve no good purpose even if they were approved. In England the Institute of Patentees have drawn up a list of neces sary inventions which will make fortunes for the inventors, and the list includes many surprises. Among the sure fortune-makers is a captive golf ball for use in winter, which will indicate where it would have landed if played in the ordinary way. A table napkin, with strings to prevent it from slipping off the knees, is another suggestion. These do not seem so important, but a non-skid road, which is also included, would certainly be important and would surely earn the inventor a fortune,

THE FEEDING OF CATS

What is claimed to be the largest domestic cat in the world, a thirty-five pound English cat, was raised on a diet which does not include milk. Most people think milk, and especially cream, is the foundation of cat diet. But this belief is entirely erroneous.

Milk which is diluted with 25 per cent water is better for a cat than straight milk. Many cats prefer condensed milk heavily watered to raw milk Cream should be given very sparingly to a cat.

All cat experts strongly advocate a reasonable amount of raw meat. Vegetables are also essential, but potatoes should be barred. Fish is good, preferably just warmed rather than cooked. Never give a cat cold food out of the refrigerator. But do not forget the raw meat and go light on the milk. Mix a little olive oil with the meat and vegetables once a week.

Follow this diet and your cat will grow large and lusty.

THE HORN PEST

The American Automobile Association is starting a drive which should receive much support throughout the country. The campaign will be directed against the traffic pest who insists on keeping his finger on his automobile horn whenever he is slightly delayed in traffic. Not only do the directors of the drive hope to achieve more peace and quiet, but they believe much can be done for safer driving by proper use of the horn. That device was intended as a warning signal, but not one of a hundred is used for that purpose, most of the blasts being simply a show of impatience. It is a campaign that is worthy of support.

SCHOOL DAYS

What Vocation Shall My Boy Choose?

By A. B. Clemens,

Director, Mechanical Schools, International Correspondence

We live in a changing world. Opportunities for success in the future will differ from those in the past. A young man's wise choice of his life work may do much to determine success or failure. How shall he choose?

Ground Aviation

FOR every aviation pilot in the air there are four to six men on the ground who are necessary to keep the pilot aloft. These are the men who build the engines and planes, who check them and keep them in condition.

Through good years and bad, air mileage has steadily increased. What the limits of this progress will be no one can now foresee, but as progress continues there is certain to be a constant increase in the need for skilled men on the flying fields and in the factories where the planes and engines are constructed. Few lines of work seem to offer better opportunities to the young man starting on his career.

To be an aviation technician requires both experience and technical knowledge. License requirements and other government regulations have made it impossible for any but highly skilled men to succeed. These requirements, however, have broadened the opportunities for the young man willing to work, to study and to learn.

The most direct start toward success in this field would be getting a job as a helper or apprentice in a plant where planes or engines are built, or in a shop at a flying field. If this is impracticable, the young nian can get a start toward the ultimate goal by obtaining a similar job in a shop where almost any type of high-speed internal combustion engine is built, assembled, or re-

The job itself, whether in aviation or a field allied to it, will supply valuable experience, while the necessary technical knowledge can be obtained through reading and study during spare time.

Laughing Around the World With IRVIN S. COBB

The Amende Honorable

By IRVIN S. COBB

THIRTY-ODD years ago a certain gentleman became very prominent, both socially and financially, in Denver. He chose to turn reformer and in this role made himself unpopular with certain of his fellowcitizens. Some of them, in retaliation, undertook to pry into his former life and his present business methods.

One of his most outspoken opponents was M. B. Carpenter, a veteran of the Civil War, a successful politician and a member of the State Senate of Colorado, in which body he had a reputation for having a caustic and witty tongue and not being afraid to use it.

One day in the course of a debate the name of his pet aversionthe professional reformer—came up.
"Oh, thunder," snorted Senator Carpenter. "Don't be throwing that fellow up to me. He pays three lawyers by the year to keep him out of the penitentiary." The libelled party went on the warpath forthwith. He demanded a complete retraction and apology and, in default of these, sent Carpenter word to be prepared to accept the dire consequences Next day, wearing a chastened look on his face, Mr. Carpenter arose from his seat.

"Yesterday, on this floor, I made a certain statement about the Honorable Mr. So-and-So," he said in a contrite voice. "I learn the I have wronged this gentlemen. So I must withdraw my allegation "I said he paid three lawyers by the year to keep him out of penitentiary. This was not true. I find he hasn't paid them yet" (American News Features, Inc.)

SOMETHING NEW IN FOOTBALL

On November 5, School Number Nine met Number One at the Cortlandt street playground. This was the first game of touch football which has been played between elementary schools.

It was won by Number One by the score of 12-0. The first touchdown was made on a pass from Byrnes to Byrd. The final touchdown was made when Miller intercepted a pass and ran twenty yards. The referee was Rider, a former Belleville High School player.

This type of football is safe but proves to be sufficiently exciting to hold everyone's interest. Many more interesting games are predicted. Paul McDonnell, 8A. Martin Byrnes, 8A.

The high development of the electric industry in this country is due, in large measure, to the demand of American women for ways and means of eliminating the burdensome tasks in the home.

In Appreciation~

She demanded a way to sweep easily, quickly and efficiently; she wanted mechanical methods of washing clothes; she wanted an automatic refrigerator; she wanted to get away from smelly, smoky lamps; in hundreds of tasks about the house she wanted mechanical aid.

The electric industry appreciates its opportunity to serve the American woman and has striven to furnish electric service economically and efficiently to the end that for a few cents a day she has at her command energy to do her arduous household tasks.

NOVEMBER HOLIDAYS

Although November is one of our shortest months it boasts of many holidays. In fact it has more than any other month of the year.

First comes Election Day with its talk of political parties, candidates and voting. Next follows Armistice Day, which falls on November 11 bringing with it thoughts of war suffering and finally peace. Last but not least appears Thanksgiving Day which traces its beginning back to the time of the Pilgrims. November is certainly a month of holidays.

A HALLOWE'EN PARTY

On Hallowe'en the first grades assembled in the playroom to enjoy a Hallowe'en party. Most of the kiddies came in costumes which were original and funny. They had a fine time ducking for apples, biting apples hanging by strings, singing songs and playing games. Cakes and candy brought the party to a grand finish.

OUR PARIS FASHION SHOW

Miss Pozzo's geography classes have been preparing a miniature fashion show-room for a Paris style show. We covered the top of our large work table with oak tag. We designed this in green and white blocks. This was the floor for our room. At the back of the table we made a card board wall in which were cut three arch-At these archways we hung green satin and gold cloth drapes which the girls sewed. A stairway leads up to the center archway. Paper dolls dressed in the latest styles are our models for the show. These are standing gracefully about the showroom. To make our show room more attractive we have doll's furniture and tables with bowls of flowers placed about the table. We are very pleased with our fashion parade and invite you to come to see it any time before school in the morning or after-

The pupils who helped the most on our project were Theresa Calabrese, Stella Pellicora, Rose Segreto, Marie Tronolone, Carmela Constantino, Lillian and Genevieve Pelzynski, Catherine La Badia, Virginia Paserchia, Margaret Scavone, Nick Petrillo, Charles Ilaria and Enrico Falco.

POLICE POSTS OF THE ARCTIC

One of the most interesting pictures shown in our assembly portrayed the establishment of a Canadian police post at Ellesmere Island. This region is in the extreme north, very near Greenland.

A large boat, the Arctic, carrying a group of Canadian police arrived at Ellesmere Island on August 21 more than one month before taken for the journey from Quebec City. Their trip was not without excitement. A large polar bear was sighted about five miles off the shore, killed and taken aboard. Later as the boat made its way through the icy waters a bearded seal was seen apparently sleeping on a huge cake of floating ice. ### KNOWLEDGE through the New England states and cated as education or knowledge week. Knowledge is something we can never get too much of. Today most people are civilized and know some knowledge. Only in the extreme parts of Africa and South America people are still uncivilized in the matter of knowledge.

The week of November 5 is dedi-

Each year more and more students attend colleges and institutes of higher learning. They are the machines which give the world knowledge.

The Belleville schools have chosen this week for education week. The children in School Number Eight in sixth grade have written these. Irving Berkowitz, 6A.

EDUCATION

Education today is a very important factor in our life. Without it we can not obtain the higher places in life. of the ballot. Lincoln as a boy did not have a good education, but in later life he had to study very hard to educate himself to become our president. Children who study and go to college have an equal chance. The reading of good books and concentration on our work will lead to future success.

Once there was a boy who went to high school. He did not study. He became, however, a football hero and to vote. his picture was in all the local papers. He thought he could go through high school by playing football. When he graduated from high school he went to look for a position but he could not do anything. So he went to night school and then went to college. He found out that an education pays. Peter Desmond, 6A.

A GOOD EXAMPLE

Once there were two boys who were in the same classroom. Their names were Bill and Jack. When Jack left school he grew and had no education. He had to take any job that came along, and had to be satisfied.

When Bill grew up he had an education. He was a lawyer and worked in an office. He was an important man.

One day they met. Bill and Jack talked of different things. Bill asked child. Allouette is a French song. Jack if he were working at present. Most of the class like to sing it. Jack answered, "No." He was looking for a position for quite a long time, and thought there might be a job in

Bill noticed the change in him and moisture. told him so, and asked him the reason to which Jack answered, "Education, Bill, I never knew how important it was until I had an important job." Catherine Jenkins, 6A.

THE IMPORTANCE OF EDUCATION WEEK

The whole nation now sets aside one week as Education Week. In this to the fact of how important an education is.

We enjoy music in the fifth grade of School Number Eight.

MUSIC CLASS

We have a record called Funeral March of a Marionette. You can hear the marionette fall and die. Then you hear people going to his funeral. Most of the class like that record the best. There are many songs we like to sing. I like the Crocodile Song because it is very funny. Billy Boy is a complete story of a mother and a Lila Link, 5.

7B's SCIENCE CLASS

In our class we are studying about water. We made a list of words that were a direct result of water. A large variety of words were found. The highest amount was 189.

We are trying some experiments in our science class. One was to prove though he tried his best, Bill found that plants give off moisture. We watered a school room plant. Then Jack was disgusted and felt like the pot was wrapped in cellophane with the exception of the stem and leaves. Over this we placed a glass globe. We found out for ourselves | Dear Dot: that plants do give off moisture through their leaves because we found the inside of the globe beaded with

A THANKSGIVING FEAST

In England there lived a king who wanted all the people to worship God who did not want to worship God like he wanted them to.

Because of this a group of people decided to go to Holland to live. After living there a few years they saw that their children were learning the ways of the Dutch, so the mothers and fathers decided to go to the new country which Columbus discovered They came in a boat called the Mary flower. When they landed they fall knelt down and thanked God for bringing them safe to land. The Indians showed them how to plant corn and crops. After their crops yeere gathered they invited the Indian's to a feast. They called it a Thank sgiving feast. # $6950 buys both an ELECTRIC WASHER and IRONER

This is the regular price for this equipment and this is standard equipment selling at that price. The washer with its ironing attachment are part of the standard Thor line and Thor products have justly earned their reputation for long and satisfactory service.

The Thor washing method is to set six currents of water at work, keeping the clothes moving about so they cannot bunch. At the same time twelve other currents are thrown directly on the clothes and the force of the water is sufficient to loosen and remove the dirt. The balloon type rubber rollers on the wringer are so smooth and soft that fasteners pass through without

By removing the wringer and putting the ironing attachment in its place, you convert the washer into an electric ironer. You can do all your pressing on it. It cuts ironing time in half or even to a third.

Thor electric laundry equipment has been tested at our laboratories and the reliability of its performance proved.
