TOWN OF BELLEVILLE

PRICE TWO CENTS

New Year's Frolic At Capitol Theater

Five-hour Stage And Screen Show Planned At Local Playhouse

A special stage and screen show will be presented at Warner Brothers' Capitol Theater in Belleville New Year's Eve, from 7 P. M. until after midnight.

Three screen features, seven acts of vaudeville and a number of selected short subjects are promised by Ben Weshner, manager, for the five-hour entertainment.

This will be the first time a program of such an extensive nature has been presented on a New Year's Eve in Belleville, Mr. Weshner announces.

Christmas Services At St. Peter's Church

Solemn High Midnight Mass Will Be Celebrated By Pastors

Special Christmas masses have been arranged at St. Peter's Church. The program follows:

A solemn high midnight mass will be celebrated by the pastor, the Rev. Fr. Joseph M. Kelly, assisted by the Rev. Frs. John S. Nelligan and James A. Hughes.

The masses on Christmas will be at 6, 7:30, 8:30, 9:30 and 11 o'clock. Special music will be sung by the children of the parish at 8:30 and solemn benediction will be given after the 11 o'clock mass. This will conclude the services for the day.

On Christmas Eve the chorus choir of the church, under the direction of Thomas A. Haney, organist, will sing the following program:

Organ prelude on Christmas themes "Silent Night" and processional by the church choir; Kyrie, Gloria, Credo, Sanctus and Benedictus from the "Blessed Sacrament Mass" by Edmund Tozer, and offertory music, "Adeste Fideles" as arranged by Vincent Novello.

The benediction will be to the accompaniment of "O Salutaris," Guilmant; "Tantum Ergo," Du Bois; "Adoremus Te," Palestrina, and "Holy God," sung by the entire congregation.

Belleville Resident Commits Suicide

W. E. Hughes, Despondent, Slashes Throat With Razor

Winfield E. Hughes, 47, of 607 Washington avenue, committed suicide early Tuesday by slashing his throat with a razor, police say. The body was found by his wife, Mrs. Clara E. Hughes, after her repeated calls to breakfast brought no response.

Mrs. Hughes called Dr. Anna R. Schultz of Newark, who summoned police. The body was later removed to Huelssenbeck's morgue, Newark.

Mr. Hughes had been in the hardware business in Newark until a year ago. He lost his position at that time, and relatives believe that despondency over his unemployment drove him to end his life. He was born in Newark, and moved here a year ago.

Surviving, besides his widow, is his mother, Mrs. Jennie Hughes of the Washington avenue address.

Recreation Commission Plans Christmas Party

A Christmas party for 125 children will be held by the Belleville Recreation Commission Sunday afternoon at the Recreation Center in Washington avenue. Admission will be by ticket only.

Music will be furnished by a twenty-six-piece ERA orchestra. There will be a lighted Christmas tree and each child will receive a box of candy and a toy.

Belleville Post Office Will Be Open Sunday

The Belleville post office will be open Sunday afternoon from 1 to 5 P. M. for the sale of stamps and the mailing of Christmas parcels.

Library News

The Belleville Public Library will be closed for repairs December 22 and 24, re-opening December 26.

New Jersey Motor Co. is now the authorized Ford dealer for Belleville at 318 Washington ave. (nr. Overlook).

Community Chest Reports Received

Workers Thanked for Aid In Annual Charity Drive

The Welfare Federation of Belleville, at a meeting held December 13, received a report from Lawrence E. Keenan, general manager of the Community Chest campaign which has just been completed, which divulged that those conducting the campaign through Mr. Keenan's leadership had been successful in securing subscriptions aggregating a sum in excess of $10,000.

Notwithstanding the fact that the total raised is somewhat lower than the quota of $17,000 which was set by the board of trustees, it is particularly gratifying to note that the sum raised this year is only $700 less than that raised last year. This excellent result makes it possible for the trustees to allocate to the participating agencies the same pro rata share apportioned last year.

The trustees felt unanimously that this gratuity should be extended to Lawrence E. Keenan, general manager of the campaign; Herbert C. Schmutz, the publicity director, and to George Weston, leader of the house-to-house campaign. The work done by the local government league in assisting the publicity director and in assuming the responsibility of the contributions from clubs and associations was particularly noteworthy.

The thanks of the trustees were extended also to Mayor Williams, who took charge of contributions of public employees; John Portenstein, who managed the manufacturer's portion of the campaign; to Wayne R. Farmer, who conducted the campaign among school employees; to Philip Dettelbach, who had charge of special gifts; to Sweeney Lithograph Company and to the Civic League of Belleville.

The trustees were also pleased by the encouraging report submitted by John P. Dailey, treasurer of the Welfare Federation, reflecting from Mr. Dailey's efforts the collection of over 95 per cent of subscriptions for the year 1934.

The rather difficult and unpleasant task of canvassing from house to house was handled particularly well by the division captains and workers, who gave unstintingly of their time.

"It is therefore with a feeling of encouragement and confidence in the support of the citizens of the town of Belleville as exemplified by their generosity that the trustees of the Welfare Federation approach another year of management of the worthwhile purposes of the federation," declared Everett B. Smith, president.

John J. Hewitt Heads Valley Association

Group Makes Arrangements For Annual Christmas Party

John J. Hewitt was elected president of the Valley Improvement Association of Belleville at the annual election held last week. Other officers elected for 1935 are: Vice president, Leonard Saarloo; secretary, Ora A. Current, and treasurer, Walter Gresham.

Trustees for 1935 are Carl Balzer, Angelina Botto, Howard Brown, William Buckley, Mr. Current, Mr. Gresham, Eva Hathaway, Mr. Hewitt, Margaret Kraft, John Peterson, Elmer Rizzolo, Mr. Saarloo and William Wanthouse.

The installation will be held January 10.

The annual Christmas party of the organization will be held next Thursday night at the Essex House in Stephens street. Mr. Wanthouse is chairman.

Belleville Men Held On Assault Charges

Frank Corsi, 20, and his father, Antonio Corsi, both of 16 North Nineteenth street, Belleville, and Philip D'Alessio, 19, of 926 North Sixth street, Newark, were ordered held for action of the grand jury in $500 bail each by Police Judge Klein in Second Precinct Court, Newark, Wednesday, on assault and battery charges.

The complainant was James Springer of 270 Belleville turnpike, North Arlington, an Erie Railroad detective, who charged that the men assaulted him December 1. He stated that at that time he was attempting to arrest a younger son of Corsi, who was stealing coal at the foot of Grafton avenue, Newark.

An Opportunity To Share Your Christmas Joy

Only three more days in which to send in that contribution to the Christmas Fund, sponsored by the Civic League of Belleville and the Belleville News. We urge you to do it now—to delay may mean to forget.

You are wishing others a Merry Christmas and you expect to have one yourself, but have you stopped to consider those most deeply in want and what this day will mean to them? The charm of Christmas lies in the thought that we live in the memory of our friends.

For some strange reason, many of us in the past few years have come to think that if a man is "down on his luck" or if he loses his job, all he or his family need to see him through is food. This is essentially true, being a necessity of life itself. But don't forget that his morale, courage, happiness and comfort are also to be considered—and these are very important factors. Let us help to rebuild, and let us start now!

One of the present-day tragedies is the unemployed man going from place to place looking for work, and always the answer is the same: "There is none!" He goes back to his family night after night to find only gloom—stories of the struggle that is going on to find means of support. He feels ashamed because he can find nothing to do. He feels he is not wanted and that he is of no importance in his community. Day after day brings hours of idleness. Personal pride is broken down, standards are undermined. The dangers are self-evident, and in this economic crisis you and I must do something to help carry him through with his ideals untarnished. Our job is to make him realize that he is of value to his community—and through the Civic League Christmas Fund this is possible.

Let us remind you again that we are appealing only for those who reside in Belleville. We also wish to reiterate that each and every dollar will be used to carry a little warmth, comfort and cheer into some of these destitute homes. There will be no administration expenses.

We have previously submitted nineteen cases. We close our appeal with a number of others. All have been investigated by a local charitable organization, whose assurance we have that these are all worthy and deserving appeals. The only means of identification will be a number for each case. Contributors are urged to read the descriptions carefully and to make personal selections when forwarding their gifts. Be thankful that you can give and let us endeavor to make this a Merry Christmas for everybody.

Checks and money orders should be made payable to the Civic League Christmas Fund and may be mailed or delivered to either The First National Bank of Belleville or The People's National Bank and Trust Co., or if you will telephone Belleville 2-2747, one of our workers will call for your offering. Each contribution will be acknowledged in the News shortly after it is received and a full accounting will be rendered of the funds turned over to the agencies for the care of the families.

FAMILY NO. 16:
Old Belleville residents. The man has had no work for over a year. His four children are in need of warm, winter underwear and clothing. $15 will outfit them.
AMOUNT NEEDED—$15.

FAMILY NO. 13:
Two little Belleville boys, whose mother is dead and father unemployed, are being boarded with a friend, but there is no money for clothing. The boys are becoming sensitive because they look very shabby in comparison to the other children at school. $15 will buy these boys new suits.
AMOUNT NEEDED—$15.

FAMILY NO. 42:
A family of three is scraping out its existence from the $14 earned by the husband. Soon another member will be added to the family. So far they haven't been able to provide for this newcomer. $10 for a layette will bring joy to that expectant mother's heart, and she will go through the next few months with a peaceful, happy contentment that there are pretty yet sensible little pieces of clothing for her new infant.
AMOUNT NEEDED—$10.

FAMILY NO. 81:
It is pretty difficult to cook economically enough for a whole troupe of hungry youngsters, especially if you are only a young girl, the oldest sister. And it is still harder to keep those children in clothes with the tiny income your father brings in. $20 will buy the two boys shoes and trousers, and will provide the little girl with shoes, a warm dress and much needed underwear.
AMOUNT NEEDED—$20.

FAMILY NO. 18:
The father of this family has been sick for two years. He may never be able to work again. His four children are in need of new winter coats, which can be bought for $15.
AMOUNT NEEDED—$15.

FAMILY NO. 10:
The home in one of our better residential sections which represents the savings of a life time is threatened. The man's hair is turning from the many worries. In former years his services were eagerly sought but now no one wants to employ an "old man." His son, to whom he turned for help, is out of work too. $25 will meet payments for two months on the home.
AMOUNT NEEDED—$25.

ERA To Distribute Christmas Food Bonus

35,000 Packages Will Be Given To Needy In Essex County

Center Market, Newark, is the scene of feverish activity today, where between 400 and 500 men, recruited from clients of the State Emergency Relief Administration, are engaged in preparing more than 35,000 packages of food stuffs, to be distributed as a Christmas bonus among the 35,000 families on relief in Essex County.

Something like 280,000 separate articles will go into the 35,000 packages being made ready for distribution. Included in the articles being provided by the relief administration are 70,000 cabbages, approximately 17,500 pounds of cheese, about 70,000 cans of broth, 35,000 cans of meat and 35,000 packages of rice. There are also 35,000 bags of potatoes, each containing twelve and one-half pounds.

The Belleville distribution center will be located at ERA headquarters, 248 Mill street. In Nutley packages will be distributed from 234 Franklin avenue.

In order to have the packages of food ready for distribution to the clients in time for Christmas, it was found necessary to suspend a number of projects in the county, the men engaged on them being temporarily assigned to the work of making ready the packages for delivery to clients.

Preparation of the packages is under the direct supervision of Maurice "Buck" Class, of the works division of the Essex County ERA office. When the packages are ready, those for Newark clients of the ERA will be distributed direct from Center Market, while trucks will transfer supplies to the suburbs for distribution to clients not residing in Newark.

Use of Center Market was secured through the cooperation of Commissioner Anthony F. Minisi, of Newark, and his deputy, Col. Richard Hartdegen. Arrangements were made by George W. Tranter, county operations supervisor. In the suburbs, mu-

Mayor Endorses Christmas Fund

Editor Belleville News:
I am happy to congratulate you and the members of the Civic League for the very fine manner in which you are co-operating to bring Christmas cheer into the homes of a few of our townfolk.

Many who are able to contribute to worthy causes desire that their contribution shall go to some definite cause, therefore through your columns the merits of individual cases can be studied and contributions made with the knowledge that 100 per cent of each donation goes for direct relief for some needy family.

May I, through your columns, appeal to our citizens to join you and the members of the Civic League in your highly commendable efforts?

I am enclosing check for $50 payable to treasurer of the Civic League Christmas Fund and ask your committee to select the cases appearing to you as the most worthy so that the above sum will do the most good.

Very truly yours,
WM. H. WILLIAMS.

Commission Confers On 1935 Budget

Officials Discuss Items in Schedule for Next Year

The first conference on the 1935 municipal budget was held at the town hall Monday evening by the board of commissioners. The session was closed to the public.

Departmental budgets, submitted for consideration last week, were discussed item by item. Mayor William H. Williams, finance director, told other board members that the legislature may pass bills to relieve municipal finances and prevent an increase in the tax rate.

Another conference will be held early in January.

Assemblywoman Talks At G. O. P. Meeting

Mrs. Mary T. Yuill Discusses Bill Relative To Education

The Belleville Woman's Republican Club met on Thursday afternoon, at the Women's Club house, 51 Rossmore place. The president, Mrs. John O'Brien, Jr. presided and extended greetings to the members and guests. Mrs. Mary T. Yuill, assemblywoman, spoke on Bill 169, relative to educational purposes, which was discussed and endorsed. Mrs. Abbie chairman Essex County Republican Committee, made an address, expressing her regard for the club, and giving her remarks with one of Edgar A. Guest's poems, in the spirit of filling the niche, and accomplishing the work, for which one is born. Mrs. Bertha Kline, executive secretary of the Community Service Bureau, gave a talk on her work in Belleville. Mrs. A. Joan O'Brien rendered the piano solos "Flower Song" by Gustav Larsson and "Magnolia" by M. Davis, and a vocal solo "Stay As Sweet As an Arc" for which she played her own accompaniment.

The club joined in singing "Bells" and "Silent Night," and "The Christmas Song." The program was in charge of Emily J. Mayer, program chairman.

Gets Six Months After Assault on O'Brien

Recorder Everett B. Smith sentenced Aaron Banks, 23, colored, to 21 Terrace place to six months in the county jail Monday after Banks' arrest Sunday on assault charges.

Called to the home by neighbors, Patrolmen Le Roy Hilton and F. McArt found Banks brandishing a butcher knife, they reported. McArt received a slight eye in an attempt to get him away from a table leg broken from a fracas.

Mrs. Edgar M. Compton will be the reader, accompanied by Mrs. George Davies at the piano, and Mrs. Ysbrand Bregman at the organ. Members of the junior choir will represent the heavenly host. The play has been directed by Mrs. Compton and Mrs. LeRoy Bunnell.

Sunday's services will be in keeping with the Christmas spirit. "The Christmas Story" will again be told by the pastor. The junior girls and boys' choir will supply the musical numbers and Christine Wellington Phillips, the instrumental. The girls' choir will render "Birthdays of a King" by Medinger, the solo part being taken by Mary Elizabeth Compton, and "O, Holy Night" by Adam. Both choirs will sing Gounod's "Nazareth." The solo part will be sung by Wilfred Potts.

In the evening, the Wemec Dramatic Society will give the religious play, "White Christmas." Following immediately Mrs. Ysbrand Bregman will present the senior choir in a series of Christmas numbers as follows:

"Adoration," Borowsky, violin, piano and organ. Edward Herbert will be the violinist; "A Joyous Christmas Song," Gavert, by the choir.

"Let Us Even Come Unto Bethlehem," George Nevin; "Alleluia! O Lord of All," Neidinger. Both anthems will be sung by the choir.

"A Song of Bethlehem," C. Minetti, will be sung as a soprano solo by Mrs. Ellsworth Akers.

The postlude, "Rejoice Greatly," Handel, violin, organ and piano.

Christmas morning at 7 o'clock a brief carol service will be held in the chapel. Everyone is invited to attend this inspiring service.

MONTGOMERY PRESBYTERIAN

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, December 23.

The golden text is: "Lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The Lord, The God of hosts, is his name" (Amos 4:13).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the Lord, so shall your seed and your name remain" (Isaiah 66:22).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Man is, and forever has been, God's reflection. God is infinite, therefore ever present, and there is no other power nor presence. Hence the spirituality of the universe is the only fact of creation" (p. 471).

The children of the Sunday school will render a Christmas program at 4:30 P. M.

Yountakah Club Plans

Christmas Celebration

Yountakah Country Club will celebrate Christmas with a party for children tomorrow afternoon and music for dancing from dinner to midnight on Christmas. Santa Claus will appear, together with a Punch and Judy show, at the children's party.

A dinner dance will be held New Year's Eve. Reservations have been limited to 275. Music will also be furnished New Year's Day.

Woman's Club

There will be a dessert bridge party held at the club house Monday, January 7, at 1:30 P. M. Mrs. Charles H. Kelly is chairman of hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Frank P. Brohal, Mrs. Edward A. Blossom, Mrs. Nathan Weiss and Mrs. John Huizer.

At the Christmas party held Monday, Miss Myra Zink, past president of the Junior Woman's Club, presented Mrs. William F. Entekin, president of the Woman's Club, with a Christmas greeting which, when opened contained a Christmas message and $25, a gift from the junior club in appreciation of the many kindnesses extended to it since its organization. Miss Alice Cornell is president of the Junior Woman's Club.

Mrs. William J. Vail gave an interesting talk on "A Christmas Peace Message." One should think and talk peace, she declared. In her talk she gave a description of the nativity of Bethlehem.

Mrs. Edgar M. Compton rendered four songs, "The Oxen," "The Little Road Through Nazareth," "Following the Star," and "No Candle There Was and No Fire." Mary Elizabeth Compton, accompanied Mrs. Compton.

There was a Christmas tree trimmed by Mrs. Alfred Treche and Mrs. William Cornish, gifts for the needy children and refreshments served by Mrs. Dudley Drake and her committee made a successful day.

The Woman's Club has extended its sincere thanks and appreciation to all who participated in the performance of "Pattie."

"We are deeply indebted to them and fully realize the time and effort so freely and cheerfully given; without them the performance could not have been presented. To each and every one we wish to express the gratitude of the Woman's Club for their splendid cooperation," declared Mrs. William F. Entekin, president, and Mrs. George F. Nealy, chairman.

municipal advisory boards are arranging for use of central distributing stations, where clients will call for the packages.

Executive County Director Arthur H. Jones today stressed the fact that these commodities are available only to regular registered clients of the ERA. Identification cards, advising clients where and when to call for their packages are to be mailed to clients, through special co-operation of the post office department. It is expected that the actual distribution of packages to clients will begin today.

Some idea of the magnitude of the project is indicated in the fact that there are three car-loads of cabbages in the foods being transferred into Center Market and several car-loads of other commodities. The entire lot of food stuffs are from federal surplus commodities, allocated to New Jersey by the FERA.

Distribution of the packages through the use of Center Market was decided upon because of the fact that approved grocery stores in Essex County are all well filled with regular surplus federal commodities, which the stores are now engaged in distributing. It was felt by the administration that it would be unfair to ask grocers to further fill up their stores at this season of the year.

IN SOCIETY

Miss Bertha R. Mumford whose marriage to Raymond H. Patrick will take place on December 29, was the guest of honor at a surprise miscellaneous shower given for her by the bridge club of which she is a member, at the home of the Misses Doris and Alberta Geiger, 26 Jerome avenue Friday evening. The gifts were displayed upon the dining table, under a suspended silver colored watering pot, from which was pouring silver rain. Others present were Mrs. Paul H. Dove, the Misses Ruth Farrington, Edythe Fobert, Ruth Hess, Grace Hopper, Lorraine Ross and Jean Tallman of Belleville; Bernice Le Compte of Newark, and Ruth Lloyd of Nutley. Three tables of bridge were in play, first honors going to Miss Alberta Geiger, second to Miss Lloyd and consolation award to Mrs. Dove.

On Saturday evening Miss Mumford was honor guest at a kitchen shower given by her cousins Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Batchelder, of Orange, at which twenty-five relatives and friends were present. The gifts were presented in a large clothes basket which was carried in by Betty and Francis Batchelder, daughter and son.

Young People Revive Old Fashioned Carol Singing in Town

Fewsmith Folks to Ride Hauled by Good Ole Dobbin

Belleville will be furnished a real treat on Christmas Eve, when the Fewsmith Young People's Society sing Christmas carols, riding in the old fashioned way of horse and wagon.

On Christmas morning the society is having an early Christmas service and breakfast at the church. Bert Knowles, president, will preside at the meeting and the breakfast is to be prepared by members.

Funeral Services

For John Wark, 87

Funeral services for John Wark of 113 William street, who died at his home Sunday, were held Tuesday evening at the William V. Irvine Funeral Home, 276 Washington avenue, with the Rev. Peter R. Deekenbach, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, officiating. Burial was in East Ridgeway Cemetery, Delaware.

Mr. Wark was born in Ireland eighty-seven years ago, but came to this country at an early age and settled in Belleville, where he spent nearly all his life.

He leaves a son, Harry, and two sisters, Mrs. Albert Hopper and Mrs. Lillian Harrison, all of Belleville.

Mrs. Harold Cory of 8 Tiona avenue will be hostess to the members of her bridge club this evening. Those playing will be Mrs. Earl E. Briggs, Mrs. George H. Cox, Mrs. Florence W. Estelle, Mrs. James R. MacArthur, Mrs. Edgar L. Tallman, Mrs. William W. Wilson and Mrs. Henry Squier.

Charles Zizzo

A solemn high mass of requiem was offered Wednesday morning at Our Lady of the Holy Rosary Church, Newark, for Charles Zizzo, 64, of 122 Badger avenue, Newark, who died Sunday at his home after an illness of ten months. Mr. Zizzo was the father of Mrs. Marie Rinaldi of Belleville.

Born in Italy, Mrs. Zizzo came to Newark in 1891, where he was an architect and founder of the Zizzo Construction Co., which was one of the firms which laid out Weequahic and Branch Brook Parks.

Besides his daughter, Mr. Zizzo leaves his widow, Mrs. Rose Colosimo Zizzo.

CHRISTMAS

We are now in the last, mad week of Christmas shopping. A real and lasting joy lies in this buying of gifts for those who are near and dear to us. We see it everywhere around us even in the tired faces of shoppers with their arms filled with packages. Surely at this time of year we all learn the meaning of the words, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." Of course, as the water of the years runs under the bridge of life, we incline more and more to be less responsive to the spirit of the Christmas-tide. We are more liable to feel the added task of selecting gifts a burden and say that Christmas is for the children. This, of course, is true but, although we voice this feeling in words, deep in our hearts we should be bitterly disappointed if no one remembered us at the holiday. It is not always the costly gift that counts. Sometimes one only needs sympathy, a little appreciation, a warm hand clasp, a word of encouragement. Our individual friends can be helped in widely different ways. This sort of Christmas spirit, choosing just what each one needs, will bring happiness of a great reward to ourselves on Christmas eve.

THE RED STAR

Another well known flag passes from the sea with the termination of the Red Star Line after 61 years. Today but three ships carry the flag—the Westernland, the Belgenland and the Pennland—but now it is said they are destined for the scrap heap. There has been talk that a London company might try to obtain them and inaugurate a cheap transatlantic service with a flat $50 passenger rate. Perhaps nothing will come of this. At any rate, those lovers of sea history and sea lore will regret that another well known flag is being hauled down.

BACKBITERS

Many men would be more of a success in life if they were not so afraid that someone else would be a success, too. Trying to block your neighbor in his upward progress will slowly but surely build a mountain of obstacles in your own path. If a man will just bury his envy, jealousy, and back-biting in a long deep grave and become a silent partner in the success of others, he will soon recognize that is a useful man in his community. To such a man, honest, level, on the square with himself and the world, success is as sure to come as day follows night. The man, who is envious and concerned over his neighbor's good fortune, never has time to the upbuilding of his own affairs. For such a one, sooner or later, lies the dregs of misery and failure. By laughing a lot, by living well, by looking for the best of others, by giving the best of ourselves, we can help not only our neighbors but ourselves along the thorny road to success.

FEED WILD BIRDS

Annually, as the winter approaches, the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, in co-operation with governmental departments, issues an appeal to people to feed wild birds during the cold and stormy months. It is an appeal that is usually met with support from bird lovers and those who are of a sympathetic nature. Birds in parks and other places are often taken care of by agents of the society, who scatter food in places. But householders are also asked to help. Winter food for birds according to the Department of Agriculture, should be made up largely of screenings and waste from grain mills and from scraps of food suitable for human consumption. Undoubtedly the appeal will find a ready response.

Ile de France Chef Suggests New Dish for American Menus

Cooked Fruits Add Distinction to Meals

FRENCH cooks and French cooking are justly famous whether afloat or ashore, and Gaston Magrin, Chef of the Ile de France, flag ship of the French Line, more than lives up to the culinary reputation of his home land. Further as director of a cuisine that must appeal to the palates of thousands of American travelers as well as to European gourmets, Chef Magrin is unusually well fitted to discuss ways in which the American menu might be given added zest by borrowing from abroad.

One of Chef Magrin's specialties is the fruit compote. Essentially the compote is a dish of cooked fruits—but cooked fruits with a difference. Into the compote as it is served in France and on France afloat goes all of the French cooks' love of artistry—artistry not alone of flavor but of appearance. The double appeal—to the eye and to the appetite—accounts for much of the distinction which the compote adds to the meal.

In France the compote is an almost universal dish. A meal without it is hardly a proper meal at all. Aside from all the other qualities that recommend it, when served as a side dish with the main course its flavor provides a pleasant contrast with the richer flavor of the meat and gives a keener edge to appetites. From every point of view, Chef Magrin believes, the compote deserves as prominent a place on the American menu as is given it in France.

Below are two recipes for compotes suggested by Chef Magrin.

Compote de Pommes

Peel and core whole apples. Place them in a bowl of cold water and some lemon juice to prevent discoloration. Place apples in baking dish and fill cavities with orange marmalade. Add some butter and water until apples are one-fourth covered. Add a little grated lemon rind. Cover and cook until tender. Remove each apple carefully to individual serving dish. Add a moistened teaspoonful of arrowroot to the liquor for each half pint. Bring to boiling point and stir in tablespoonful of orange marmalade. Pour over apples. Serve warm.

Chef Magrin of the Ile de France

Compote de Poires

Peel whole pears, leaving a short end of the stem. Place them in a bowl of cold water and some lemon juice to prevent discoloration. Place in a saucepan with enough claret to cover (if claret is not available water may be used.) Add about one and a half teaspoonful of sugar for each pear and a little vanilla, and a grated lemon rind. Cook covered until the pears are easy to pierce with a fork. Remove from fire, drain, and place each pear on an individual serving dish. Boil liquid down very quickly and when it has thickened pour some over each pear. Serve cold.

Just as a sweet at the close of a meal aids digestion, so will a sweet at when eaten with the meat course.

HEISLEY'S LETTER

Editor, The News:

Another year has nearly rolled, rolled away one year farther from the horse and carriage and the kitchen stove. That is to say we thought we were rolling, but over at the Madison Square Garden pet, poultry and what not show, we were brought back to the barnyard of the Nineties. Borden's milk cows were duly milked at 12 noon and 8:30 P. M. The megaphone speaker duly summoned the crowds away from around my Black Sumatra chickens, both of which, cock and hen, won first prizes, in their classes. Well it was interesting to see cows milked by suction tubes, instead of by hand.

Max, C. W. Buchenberger of 38 Lake street also had a fine display entry at the show. I don't see Arthur Vreeland of lower Prospect street out at the shows anymore. He used to hit them in the eye with his barred Plymouth Rocks at the good old garden show when held back at the garden's original site, beneath where John L. Sullivan, Paddy Ryan, Charlie Mitchell, Herbert A. Slade, the Maori, and numerous other fighters exchanged taps that weren't so light, after all.

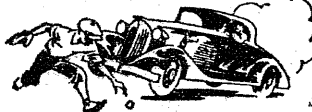

One of the features of the wild animal exhibits loaned by the celebrated Frank Buck was a chimpanzee, an African ape, more closely related to the human being mentally than any other, though anatomically less related than the gorilla. The chimpanzee showed its cunning in laying down straw for its bed working with great knack. It can stand erect on occasion, but when it runs it has to use the knuckles of its fore feet, although it stands naturally on its hind feet.

I was interested in seeing many persons from the rural districts—remember that much of the human material for city life is produced whence the sound of the mournful whang doodle makes the forests echo. People weary of the city, then move back to the country again. Some others must take their place, hence the depletion of old Osh Kosh continues, the miseries of Gotham increase. All is not gold that glitters.

At Christmas dinner remember that you are not to gorge until you go into a hibernation period, or the waist band tightens beyond endurance. Take it easier and enjoy it more than you did last Christmas dinner. This is all.

FREDERICK A. HEISLEY.

DRIVE SAFELY

ONE-EYED CARS

A ONE-EYED car is very seldom inexcusable. In the vast majority of cases it is simply the result of selfish disregard for public safety and should subject the offender to sharp discipline.

Three in every hundred cars observed on the State's highways recently were found to have only one front headlight functioning. Of course it is possible to drive several hours without detecting a burned out or defective lamp but in most of the one-eyed cases the drivers willfully neglect their responsibilities and continue to drive until some police officer blows them over to the side of the road.

The hazards of this practice are obvious, both for other drivers and for pedestrians.

Don't neglect your headlights!

The Christmas Seal

THE year's Christmas Seal commemorates the fiftieth anniversary of one of the most significant events in American medical history. It shows a picture of the little one-room cottage at Saranac Lake, New York, in which the modern treatment of tuberculosis began in February, 1885, and which marked the beginning of the sanatorium movement in this country. The building still stands, and is known as the "Little Red" because of its color.

The seals will go on sale throughout the country the day after Thanksgiving, marking the opening of the twenty-eighth annual appeal of the 2,000 affiliated tuberculosis associations for the support of their work.

Nutley Waives Interest

On Belleville Debt

Interest payments amounting to $814 owing Nutley by Belleville were cancelled Monday night by the Nutley Town Commission at the recommendation of Finance Director Raleigh S. Rife, after he had conferred with Town Treasurer T. Russell Sargeant of Belleville.

The charges were for interest on 1931, for sewer service for residences in the northwest section of Belleville. It was learned that Belleville had been unaware of the amount of the bill during that period, as no statement had been submitted by the Nutley authorities.

The FIRESIDE PHILOSOPHER

By ALFRED BIGGS

Learn to radiate happiness.

All wealth is produced by labor.

Indiscriminate giving is no help.

As well drink poison as be jealous.

It is hard for little minds to forgive.

Prosperity and humility rarely live together.

The rich are in bondage to their wealth.

If you cannot obey, you are unfit to command.

Peter A. Nugent, 83, Dies in Brooklyn

Native of Nutley Learned Trade at Belleville Plant

Peter A. Nugent, 83, a former resident of Nutley, died last Friday morning at his home in Brooklyn after a long illness. A solemn high mass of requiem for Mr. Nugent was offered Monday morning at St. John's Church, Brooklyn. Burial was held in Cedarlawn Cemetery, that place.

Mr. Nugent was born in Nutley and lived there thirty years. He was a wire weaver, and learned his trade at the Eastwood Wire Corp., now the Eastwood-Neally Corp. of Belleville.

He leaves two sisters, Mrs. Mary Freeman and Mrs. Marguerite Callahan, both of Nutley, and a brother, John H. Nugent of Newark.

Services Arranged For William Henry Drummond

Services for William Henry Drummond, 76, who died early yesterday at the home of his nephew, Frederick H. Holland of 176 De Witt avenue, will be held tomorrow afternoon at the William V. Irvine Funeral Home, 276 Washington avenue, with the Rev. O. Bell Close, pastor of Fawcett Memorial Presbyterian Church, officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Newark.

Mr. Drummond was for many years a carpenter and contractor in Belleville. Five years ago, at the time of his wife's death, he became mechanic for the Elizabeth Elks' Club and lived there until last August, when failing health forced his retirement. Since that time he had lived at the home of his nephew. He joined the Belleville Lodge of Elks many years ago, but recently transferred his membership to Elizabeth.

Besides his nephew, Mr. Drummond leaves a son, F. W. Drummond of Philadelphia, Pa., and a daughter, Mrs. Joseph C. Bunn of Newark.

Insurance Co. Expands

Local Agent Announces

Increased business and a favorable outlook for the future have caused the Lincoln National Life Insurance Company of Fort Wayne, Ind., to consider plans for enlarging its home office. Robert W. Brown of Belleville announced yesterday. The proposed increase in the home office building in Fort Wayne will add approximately 25,000 additional square feet of floor space an increase of about 20 per cent, he said.

The steady growth of the company in volume of business and number of employees, even during the last four years has made the increase in office space necessary, Mr. Brown said.

Relief Workers Cut

Firewood for Winter

Relief workers are cutting up fifty cords of firewood for the winter use of needy families. Part of the wood has been furnished by the Shade Tree Commission from branches trimmed from trees, while the remainder has been carried in trucks from the CCC camp in South Mountain Reservation.

Assembly Endorses Newspaper Guild

Recognition Effort Aided by Union County Labor Council

Entering the sixth week of their strike, forty-four editorial employees of the Newark Ledger were spurred forward by the passage in the State House of Assembly in Trenton Monday night of a resolution that endorses the efforts of the Newark Newspaper Guild to obtain recognition and secure for overworked, underpaid newspapermen and women a living wage, reasonable working hours and some measure of security in their employment.

Introduced by Assemblyman William Hamilton Osborne, Jr., of Essex County, the resolution received the unanimous vote of the legislative body. It was supported by both majority and minority leaders of both parties.

Striking Ledger reporters, editors, photographers and cartoonists interpret the resolution as a direct endorsement of their battle for the right of collective bargaining.

The resolution follows: "Whereas: the Newark Newspaper Guild, an organization composed of more than 150 editorial workers on daily and Sunday newspapers in Essex County is engaged in collective bargaining with certain Newark publishers, and

"Whereas: the objects sought by the Newark Newspaper Guild and associated guilds with an aggregate membership of more than 8,000 newspapermen and women in seventy cities throughout the United States is to obtain recognition for their organization, improve newspaper working conditions and raise the standards of journalism, and

"Whereas: the House of Assembly, has recently passed legislation sponsored by New Jersey newspapermen safeguarding freedom of the press through protection of confidential news sources and protecting reporters and photographers against unwarranted attack in the performance of their duties, now therefore,

"Be it resolved: that the House of Assembly endorse the further efforts of the Newark Newspaper Guild to obtain recognition and secure for overworked, underpaid newspapermen and women in the State of New Jersey a living wage, reasonable working hours and some measure of security in their employment."

Addressed by speakers from the strikers' forces, the Union County labor council Monday night went on record endorsing the Ledger strike. The council represents 50,000 union men in the county who adjourn Essex and had heavy Ledger circulation.

CHRISTMAS EVE

Santa Claus comes on Christmas Eve. He brings a large bag. With toys it is filled to the top. For every good child's stocking must be filled to the top. Children that are good. Throughout the year. Get their stockings filled to the top with toys! Children that are bad. Throughout the year. Get their stockings filled with coal instead of toys.
Dorothy Lontka, 5.

OUR TRIP TO THE MUSEUM

Last Wednesday afternoon our class and the fourth grades went to the Newark Museum. We got on a bus to go there. When we got off we went inside the museum.

We took off our coats and hats and put them in baskets. Then we went where some teachers were waiting for us.

The fourth and fifth grades were divided into four groups. The group I was with went to the second floor. We sat around a table and the teacher showed us some things the colonial people used. One thing the teacher showed us was a lantern. It had a little door where they put a candle. Next she showed us a foot warmer. She said the colonial people used it in church to keep their feet warm. Next she showed us a bed warmer. They put hot coals in it and then placed it under the sheets for a little while. She then showed us a gun used by colonial people. We saw a picture of a colonial kitchen. We saw in it many things which the teacher had shown us.

After she had showed us the colonial things she had on the table, she showed us some Indian things. We saw the totem pole, Indian moccasins, and a little blanket which they put over their horses.

After we had seen all the colonial things on the second floor we went to the first floor and we saw some more colonial and Indian things. We saw a Pueblo village. Next we saw the Hackensack Indians returning from a war party. The teacher said that when they had company they ate roasted dogs. We thought this very odd.

After we saw everything about colonial and Indian life, we had a little time before we had to go home so we went to the third floor and saw the bird exhibit. There were all different kinds of birds. We also saw some very large butterflies. Some had purple, blue and other colors in them. After we saw them all we had to go home. We got out hats and coats on and got on the bus. We got off at the school. We all enjoyed our trip very much.
Doris Kane, 5.

AN ARABIAN STORY

There was a little Arabian girl. Her name was Zumetta. Zumetta was a chief's daughter. She was a very nice girl. She lived on the desert. They did not have tents like the Indians did, for their tents were low because if a sand storm came the tent would not fall down. So one day she said to her father, "I do not like to live here. I do not like to stay in the tent all the while."

Her father said, "Where do you want to live?"

"I want to live some place where there is no sand so that I do not have to stay in the tent."

"But where is that," said her father.

"I think that I'd like to live in Egypt."

"Well," said her father, "we will have to start today."

And so they moved to Egypt and lived there happily ever after. Zumetta lived in Egypt in a mud house.

Santa Claus comes every year. And when he does he brings good cheer.

He fills my stocking for me. And puts things under the Christmas tree.

David Martin.

SANTA CLAUS

Santa Claus is coming soon. It won't be very long. But make sure he doesn't forget. For it would be too bad. So be a good boy or girl. Or else he will forget.
Anna Carnie, 3.

GRADE FOUR

We went to the Newark Museum on December 12. When we got there first we saw things of the Bedouins, such as guns and saddles with inlaid stones, boots, shoes and their water jug.

Then we went upstairs to look at the things of the Eskimos. We saw their big dish out of which they all eat, snow goggles, and bone knife which is used to cut snow. We also went to the nature corner and saw snakes, turtles, fish, a bat and an alligator.

Then the whole class looked around and saw many other interesting things.

We liked this trip very much.
George Crue.

GRADE FOUR

Christmas is a cheerful day, And it is not far away, When it comes it brings good cheer, But it only comes once a year.
Margaret Finan.

GRADE FOUR

It looks like rain, It looks like snow, But if you knew the weather, Then maybe you would know.
Robert Kane.

FEED THE BIRDS

Do you children who are warm and comfortable in your homes, ever think of the birds who have stayed up North this winter?

It is so difficult for them to find food. The weed seeds have blown away and the birds sit huddled up in the trees and bushes trying to keep warm.

Why not share a little food with them? It takes so little.

Crusts of bread and pieces of suet, the fat of which helps to keep them warm.

Don't forget, feed the birds!
Marion Butler, 6B.

Christmas Eve will soon be here. With our stockings hanging near. Santa Claus will look and see. If we are sleeping peacefully.
Ruth Puffer, 2B.

In our room we are going to make pottery like Indians of the Southwest. We will paint on Indian designs.
Ruth Puffer, 2B.

CHRISTMAS IN DIFFERENT LAND

In our room we are studying about Christmas in different lands. Here are some of the places we have already learned about: Italy, Germany and England. We will study many more. We are writing stories and drawing pictures about the countries.
Audrey Hyde.

THE KNIGHT

There was a knight Who loved to fight So off he quickly rode He met a man Who turned and ran 1000 miles or more, He knight pursued While chasing hard and steady He ate no food He caught the man And said to him, "Stop in the name of King Pie Pan." The man, he stopped And turned around What to do you think? This jolly old man Turned out to be old King Pie Pan.

CHRISTMAS IN ENGLAND

Christmas in England is jolly. The men bring in a Yule log. Then they push the log into the fire. While it burns the family sing and dance till the rafters ring. Then they go to bed. About midnight waits come around and sing carols.
Douglas Baird, 4A.

TREES

There are three trees in our back yard. We have fun in them. One we climb. We go up the rope which has knots in it. Another has two rope swings in it. The other tree is big.
Chad Shumard.

Seasonal Poetry

SANTA CLAUS

Santa Claus will be coming around, In our chimneys he'll be found, He will fill the stockings—one, two, three, And will forget neither you nor me. Marguerite Dorell, 8.

CHRISTMAS DINNER

"My, oh my!" said Pumpkin Pie, "Alas!" said Roast O'Mutton, "What's the use?" said Apple Juice, "He shall be forgotten." "I don't care," said Pickled Pear, "Nor I," said Turkey Gravy, "Hip, hooray for Christmas Day! 'We're all for Uncle Davey.'" Rose Furci, 8.

THE STAR

May the star that shone o'er Bethlehem, That holy Christmas night, Its gentle radiance shed on you, And keep your Christmas bright. Theresa Schiavo, 7B.

LITTLE CHILDREN

Little children think it's gay To slide down a load of hay, But when naughty Jack Frost comes, He takes away their summer fun. Eileen Mayers, 6A.

Christmas comes but once a year, Happy times again are here, Gifts galore, good things to eat, Here your friends you'll always greet. Friends and kinsmen everywhere Send you joyous greetings fair. Eileen Mayers, 6A.

WINTER

Winter is the time of year That fills the children full of cheer, Shortly ice and snow will come, Then they will have lots of fun. Janet Buish, 6A.

WINTER

Winter comes but once a year, And children are full of glee, 'Cause Santa Claus will come around With toys for you and me. Eileen Mayers, 6A.

CHRISTMAS EVE

On Christmas Eve when all is bright The stars shine and give us light, Santa Claus brings many toys To all good girls and boys. He comes with a plane or sleigh And makes everyone very gay. Carmella Andalora, 5A.

CHRISTMAS

Christmas Day will soon be here, Children are so glad its near, Old Santa is glad to be back With heaps of good things in his pack. Gloria Piscopo, 4A.

5A NEWS

Our good health store is finished. In it we have many empty food containers. We have a new book case in our room. In our library corner we have a reading chart. Nicholas Scarola read more books than any one else in the room. Thursday, December 20, will be Parent's Day. Our parents will come to school to see our work. The higher grade pupils will serve refreshments to our parents. Lowell Adams, 5A.

A MONKEY

I went to the zoo. I saw lots of monkeys. I saw one monkey in a cage. A man was putting Vicks on his neck. He had a cold. The monkey had two little babies. One baby was climbing bars, the other one was sleeping on the floor. Annette Condon, 3A.

2A

Our class conducted "Morning Exercises" last Friday. We had an Indian play. Six little girls recited a poem entitled "Six Little Dollies." Billy Burt.

1A

In our class we are preparing to give a program next week. It is a little play about Santa Claus. He forgot some dolls when he started out this year and his little boy, Santa Claus Junior tries to hurry, and catch him by the time he reaches School No. 7. We all wish our mothers and fathers a Merry Christmas.

A LITTLE DUTCH GIRL'S SURPRISE

Hilda and her parents arrived in America from Holland a few weeks before Christmas. They went to live in Richmond, Va., where her father expected to get work but he was taken ill and was unable to work.

One day as Hilda was walking along the avenue, she saw a pretty doll in a toy shop, which she decided would be just what she'd like for Christmas. Hilda asked her mother "Mother, is there a St. Nick in America like there is in Holland?"

"I think so," replied her mother who was fearful that St. Nick wouldn't find her little girl that Christmas as money was getting scarcer and scarcer.

"I am going to find out," said Hilda. Christmas Eve she took a blanket and a pair of her shoes and tiptoed downstairs to the front porch. She wrapped the blanket around her and put her shoes in front of her for St. Nick to fill. Soon she fell asleep.

About 10 o'clock, a little girl, who was riding by with her nurse, spied the pathetic little figure and said, "Oh, Nurse, I'd like to leave something to surprise that little girl. You know I have two gifts for Louis. May I give one of them?"

Thus it was that when Hilda awoke early the next morning she found a doll beside her and, wonder of wonders, it was just like the one she had admired in the toy shop window.

Hilda ran happily upstairs calling excitedly to her mother, "Look what I found by my shoes! Saint Nick does come to America too."

Elizabeth McKnight, 8A.

Dear Miss Gillette:

We are sorry you are sick. We want you to come back soon—tomorrow. Betty made a house. Pearl made a rabbit.

Pearl, Jean, Claire, Herbie, Teresa, Aileen, Billy, John, Pat, Alice, Joseph.

A BIG FIRE

There was a big fire across the Passaic River. Boy! was it big! A big factory burned down. Three houses burned down. One lady jumped in the water and thought that was the best way to save herself and drowned. Two thousand were killed. I even saw it and it was awful. My, my, twenty-two saved. But still and all I think too many were killed, don't you?

Barbara Sturges, 4B.

MY DOG

When I throw stones he runs after them. Sometimes he follows us to school. In the night he taps at the door. We always play with him when we come home from school.

Louis Cafone, 4B.

THE BOY THAT DIDN'T LOOK

There was a boy that was walking down the street. He fell in a big hole that some men were working in. He broke his leg. So he had to go to the hospital.

Howard Deuringer, 4B.

IF I WERE A BROWNIE

If I were a brownie, I'd go around at night, Even if it were a trick, I'd turn into a light.

Howard Deuringer, 4B.

RED

I had a cat. His name was Red. When I go to bed he tickles me. But when I move my feet he bites me. Then I take him off me. When I get up he chases me. He chases me all over the house.

Joseph Paul, 4B.

AT THE LAKE

Have you ever been to a lake? (Cont. on Page 4, Second Section)

went a month ago. Before I got there I thought I would have more fun on the beach. But I didn't. I had more fun in the woods. We went up on the rocks. We found one great big one. Then it was time to go home. I was walking along some high rocks when I slipped and slid down some mossy rocks. But it was a nice ride.

If I were a brownie,
Know what I would do?

PLAYING GAMES

When my girl friend was playing tag with some boys she ran across the street and a car was coming and hit her. Her hat, gloves and bow went all over the road. The man stopped and picked her up and carried her home. When I came home they told me what happened. So every day I would go to her house and bring something for her.

MOTHER'S CHRISTMAS

Molly, Tom and Bess were planning Mother's gifts.

Molly said, "I'm going to get Mother aprons."

"I'm going to get her a sewing set," said Tom.

Then Bess chimed in, "My idea is something practical for the home."

The children were quite sure they were ideal gifts.

These children had another sister, Joan, who lived in another city. She was arriving in the morning and the young folks all went to the station to meet her.

The Christmas gifts were told to Joan. She declared that she had a better plan to suggest and the children readily listened to her suggestions.

On Christmas Eve the children insisted upon Mother hanging up her stockings. Naturally she looked at the children in amazement. However, not wanting to disappoint them, she complied.

Imagine her surprise the next morning when she found that Santa really had filled her stockings and left some gifts under the tree for her too. She found a frilly lace bed jacket, a hanging robe with slippers to match, some gay-colored bath salts and a bottle of perfume.

Mother declared that she felt ten years younger and this was her first real Christmas.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Down the chimney comes old Santa Claus.

To visit us children once more,
He has balls, dishes, dolls and teddy bears, too;

Which he spreads around on the floor.
Oh here is my doll, and here is my sled.

And here, a nice book from dear Uncle Fred!

As happy as happy can be Old Santa Claus has remembered me.

Woman's Husband Surprised

One home tried. She said, "John, surprise for dinner." He sniffed. "What smells so good?" When she served the fish, "I got this new idea from Dunham's new meat-baked onions stuffed with his famous Sausage and this new potato dish. Well, Mary, it's a lot better already and after we will go to the theatre. A lot of this needs to be rewarded. My other always said Dunham's had a flavor." Wives who order Dunham's serve it to their husbands, and supply in the refrigerator for guests, are sure to be praised for their good judgment.

OUR ENGLISH

On page 128 in our English book we have found the best poem, the thought of which we think is very good. It is, "Why should any one speak at all if one does not speak clearly, distinctly and pleasantly? If one has anything really worthwhile to tell someone why not say it so people can hear it easily and enjoy listening to you?" When we say anything in class that is not spoken clearly our teacher goes to the board and just writes "page 128" on the board. We know what that means so we say it again more clearly.

GEORGE WASHINGTON

George Washington was born in the state of Virginia. His birthday was February 22, 1732. George grew up in the country with farmlands and forests near his home. His father managed a large plantation.

We are more fortunate than George Washington because he never saw automobiles, telephones, telegrams or railroads. George had to travel by horseback or stage coach.

George went to school like other boys. He enjoyed playing soldier.

HISTORY

The two sixth grades in School Number Eight are studying about the ancient Hebrews.

King Solomon, a Jew, is said to be the wisest man of all times. One day Miss Bechtoldt told us of one of his experiences.

Once there was a little baby. Two ladies claimed to be his mother. King Solomon heard of this. He thought of an idea. He ordered the two women to come before him. The king said, "I don't want to be unfair to either of you. Suppose we cut the baby in half and give a part to each of you. How about that?"

"Alright," said one. "That's fair enough."

"Oh, no," said the other. "I'd rather give the baby all to her than have it cut in half."

Naturally, King Solomon knew that no mother who loves her baby would want the child hurt. This is only one of the many interesting things we learn in ancient history. I like it very much.

A young woman of Norwich, Conn., writes: "I lost 16 lbs. with my first bottle of Kruschen. Being on night duty it was hard to sleep days but now since I am taking Kruschen I sleep plenty, eat as usual and lose fat, too."

To take off fat—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but little—get it at any drugstore in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the SAFE and HARMLESS way to lose fat—your money easily returned.

Don't accept anything but Kruschen if you want to reduce safely.

Saved by new Vitamins of Cod Liver Oil in tasteless tablets.

Pounds of firm healthy flesh instead of bare scraggy bones! New vitamin, vim and energy instead of tired listlessness! Steady quiet nerves! That is what thousands of people are getting through scientists' latest discovery—the Vitamins of Cod Liver Oil concentrated in little sugar coated tablets without any of its horrid, fishy taste or smell.

McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets, they're called "Cod Liver Oil in Tablets", and they simply work wonders. A little boy of 3, seriously sick, got well and gained 20½ lbs. in just one month. A girl of thirteen after the same disease, gained 3 lbs. the first week and 2 lbs. each week after. A young mother who could not eat or sleep after baby came got all her health back and gained 10 lbs. in less than a month.

You simply must try McCoy's at once. Remember if you don't gain at least 3 lbs. of firm healthy flesh in a month get your money back. Demand and get McCoy's—the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablets—approved by Good Housekeeping Institute. Refuse all substitutes—insist on the original McCoy's—there are none better.

SORE THROAT

Listerine kills the germs associated with the common cold—almost instantly! That relieves your throat, when germs make it sore. And Listerine is supremely effective, too, in preventing colds. A recent careful study of 102 people, during 2½ winter months, proved that those who gargled with Listerine had ½ as many colds—½ as long-lasting—¼ as severe—as those who did not gargle. MR. S. C. SMITH GOES
SHOPPING

Well, well, well. There goes Mr. S.
C. Smith. He is entering a store—a toy shop. He buys a few things and comes out with a load of bundles.
He is a little half pint, five feet tall, wearing clothes that he could swim in, beady dark eyes, hooked nose, big mouth and feet a foot long.
Now he goes into a sports shop and buys a few guns, fishing rods, foot-balls, soccer balls and other things.
You see Mr. S. C. Smith has fourteen children. He doesn't take his wife along for fear she'll buy a dozen of those half-pint hats. What a break.
She's sick in bed. He tries to feel sorry but he can't.
Do you know who Mr. S. C. Smith is? He is Mr. Santa Claus Smith.
Michael Cofone, 8.

Santa Claus will come to my house if I am good. He will come down the chimney and bring toys. I want a train and a bicycle so I am trying to be good.
Joseph Straka, 2.

Dear Santa Claus:
Santa will you come down our big chimney soon? Please Santa bring down your bag and don't forget my toys. I will be sleeping in my little white bed. Good bye, Santa.
Billy Gnat, 2.

FIRST GRADE NEWS

Our little first grade people have developed quite a Christmas spirit.
If you should by chance walk into their class you would see them hurrying about making wax candles and other Christmas presents for mother and father. They have their tree all dressed and ready to be used in their Christmas play, "Waiting for Santa Claus." This play will be given Friday afternoon, December 21. They would like you all to attend.
First Graders.

SUGAR

I was a two-inch piece of sugar cane and my looks were no different than my brothers. I was placed in kind hands. It must have been down South as the climate was very hot.
In several months I grew to a tall, sturdy, good looking stalk, which I heard several children call sugar cane.
Then came the time I dreaded most.
I was cut away from my root and put in a sack. I overheard some of my brothers say we were to be shipped to the North and made into granulated sugar for good little children.
Before I knew it we were in a very large factory with millions of others and put into a cotton bag. Again I was taken for a ride. This time it was to a grocery store. We were thrown into a shelf to wait for a customer. In walked a grumpy old man. Mr. Smith, the storekeeper, over to us and put his hand almost as positive that this was my end, but no he took one near me. Next came a young laughing child. Again sugar was wanted, oh how happy I was for it was me. I was then boiled into some sweet candy. I think the mistress called it fudge.

How everyone admired my flavor!
It's true that this is the end of me, but I died contentedly for all were pleased with me.
Henrietta Rader, 5.

ORANGES

Oranges have been growing in this country several hundred years. They were brought here by a Spanish missionary priest. For the last forty years men have been in business growing them. The best California oranges are the Washington Navel and the Valencia oranges.

Oranges are picked from trees.
Men with gloves pick them so that the finger nail will not injure the skin of the orange, because even a tiny scratch will open up the orange skin and germs will come in and decay the orange.

G. Harold Powell discovered this about the oranges. When the oranges are picked and sent to the packing factory they're put into an automatic washing machine which scrubs, the dust and dirt from them. The quality of an orange is judged by the color or the condition of the skin.
Many of the small oranges are better to eat than the larger ones.

Oranges are usually divided into grades. There are four classes of them. They are extra choice, choice, culls and standard.

Now that the oranges are packed and ready to be sent away. They are put in a refrigerator car which the oranges are carried in. In each refrigerator car there is 400 boxes of oranges. It takes eight days for the oranges to get to the eastern states.
Madeline Keating, 5.

SANTA CLAUS' TOYS

Santa has many elves working for him.

They make all kinds of toys such as boats, wagons and trains. If children are good Santa fills their stockings with oranges, nuts and toys. If they are bad Santa gives them nothing and fills their stockings with coal.
When the good children awake they are happy, but when the bad children awake they are very sad because they have been bad.
Paul Rogers.

CHRISTMAS JOY

On a dark snowy night in December jingling bells were heard. The children were smuggled sound and visions of sugar plums ran through their heads. Over the hills and down the chimney came good Saint Nick with joy and cheer. Stockings were hung for toys to be put into. A gallop, a jump away Santa ran over the hills and down the chimney. The next morning the children came downstairs to see their presents. One got a sleigh and another got a dog. The children bundled themselves up and went out sleigh riding with the new sleigh that Santa brought on Christmas Eve. They had lots of sweets, cake and candy. They went to bed after with lots of fun. Merry Christmas to all!
Marie Valvano, 7.

ONE NIGHT OF HAPPINESS

One night when I was playing with my toys, I asked my mother where my bike was. She said I wasn't going to get any so I kept playing with my other toys. Later on in the evening I asked my mother who was at the door. When she went to look she called me and when the door opened a man with a big box came in. When we opened the box, which we didn't do in a hurry, there before my eyes was my big bike. My mother and father were laughing because they told the man to bring it.
Paul Stootman.

MY CHRISTMAS TREAT

'Twas the night before Christmas,
When I jumped out of bed,
To see if old Santa had brought me
my sled,
I ran through the rooms not making
a noise,
When I looked at the Christmas tree
it was covered with toys.
A little red box sat under the tree,
I wondered if it was for Johnny or me,
I lifted the catch and off the lid flew.
It hit me in the chin, I was all black and blue,
I ran back to bed and feel fast asleep
And that was the end of my Christmas night treat.
Howard Wilson.

CHRISTMAS

One day there was a little girl and she wanted to see Santa Claus. When she saw him, Santa Claus said, "What would you like for Christmas?"

"I want a big doll with a pink hat, pink dress, pink socks and white shoes. I want the hair to be long, brown curls."

"The carriage I want it to be tan and I will put it near the fireplace."
Christmas Eve came. Santa came down the chimney and put a doll and carriage under the Christmas tree and filled her stockings.

The next morning the little girl went downstairs into the dining room, saw a big doll dressed in pink and a carriage and started to play right away. The little girl said, "Mother, look at my doll all dressed in pink, just like I told Santa Claus. The little girl was so happy that she played with them all day long.
Pauline Gerard, 7.

OUR CHRISTMAS TREES

The seventh grade and many other grades have Christmas trees. We have decorated them with bulbs, tinsel and snow. It looks very nice.

After we are done with it we are going to make a present of it to some family that isn't going to get a tree
this Christmas.
Bob Klein, 7.

CHRISTMAS BELLS
(Suggested by a story read once)

Once in a little town in England
there was a church where each Christmas Day the people used to bring presents and put them into a church box and the one who had the best presents and put them into a box and best gifts would make it ring.
In this town was a little boy about ten years old who had nothing for Christmas and he had no shoes and he found a quarter on that day. Instead of buying something to eat he brought it to church and dropped it into the box. The bells started ringing and all the people were wondering what gift had made the bells ring.
They went and saw this little boy standing there. The kings took him home and gave him lots of clothing and money and the little boy had a happy Christmas after all.
Andrew Scala, 8.

CHRISTMAS EVE

It was Christmas Eve and all was still
A sleigh came riding down the hill
The reindeer stopped when they heard Santa say
"Stop, this is the house we're visiting today.
He went to the chimney and went down
Pretty soon he was on the ground
He went to the table and what did he see
Coffee and cake just for he
The children left it there just so they Would get many things on Christmas Day.
Alice Papartis, 8.

THE FIRST SNOWFALL

"Oh, look! The snow is falling fast, We'll be able to coast at last!"
Red checked and smiling, the sleigh fast in flight,
New-fallen snow is the children's delight.
The river is frozen, oh joy of joys!
It soon shall be covered with happy girls and boys.
Shivering folk from the thick snow
may flee,
But all I can say is "Winter for me!"

What Vocation Shall
My Boy Choose?

By Samuel Baker,
Director, Schools of Civil Engineering, International Correspondence Schools.

We live in a changing world.
Opportunities for success in the future will differ from those in the past. A young man's wise choice of his life work may do much to determine success or

Building the Nation's Highways

It is estimated that during 1934 and 1935 there will have been spent over $4,000,000,000 on the construction, improvement and maintenance of the highways and streets of the United States. Road building is the most active branch of the construction industry.

According to the latest available figures, we have in this country approximately 3,000,000 miles of highways of which only about 130,000 miles have been provided with a high-type surface, and not more than 750,000 miles have been surfaced at all. Fully three-quarters of our roads are entirely unimproved.
Far more remains to be done than has already been accomplished.
Highway engineering offers a field of unusual opportunity for the young man planning his career.

Like all other branches of the engineering profession, highway engineering requires technical training. Surveying and mapping, the characteristics of various soils and the treatment each requires to serve best as a bed for a highway, the selection of the best route and most suitable surface for a proposed road, the proper methods of construction for various types of roads, highway lighting and beautification—these are only a few of the subjects that enter into the training of a highway engineer.

The necessary technical knowledge can be acquired through study at an engineering school, but if this is impractical the gate is not closed.
The present activity in road construction provides an opportunity for the young man interested in highway engineering to get started in that field with little or no special training. The technical knowledge he must possess for advancement, he can obtain through study in spare time. This is the course followed by many successful men in the profession. It remains open to any ambitious young man.

little boy,
And every Christmas Eve he is all pepped up with joy.
A week or more before time he fills the largest list.
He thinks of oh so many things and writes them with a glist.
Now there are other children that don't receive a thing

But some day for little Danny the Christmas bells won't ring.
If he'd only think of other ones it wouldn't be so bad
But all he thinks of is himself which is very sad.
Don't you think he's doing wrong to other little children
Who receive not anything in their Christmas stockin'?

Dot Newton, 8.

UNHAPPY CHRISTMAS

Christmas is coming on and I just lost my job. How unhappy I am going to be this year because of my disappointment. That means for me to try to get some money. Today I went and sold some papers. The money I made went toward my mother's Christmas present. A week later I had collected two dollars. When I was coming home from the store Christmas night what do you think happened. Of course my luck I had lost the money. How would you feel if this happened to you.
James Pucillo.

ST. NICK

The night was dark,
The dog heard a noise but would not bark,
And down the chimney came St. Nick
With a lot of candy sticks.
And he brought a lot of toys,
That he made for girls and boys.
Carmen Andreano, 8.

SANTA ARRIVES

Santa dear is here,
So's his reindeer
And all his boys,

IF YOUR BREATH HAS A SMELL YOU
CAN'T FEEL WELL

When we eat too much, our food decays in our bowels. Our friends smell this decay coming out of our mouth and call it bad breath. We feel the poison of this decay all over our body. It makes us sloomy, grouchy and no good for anything.

What makes the food decay in the bowels?
Well, when we eat too much, our bile juice can't digest it. What is the bile juice?
It is the most vital digestive juice in our body. Unless 2 pints of it are flowing from our liver into our bowels every day, our movements get hard and constipated and 2% of our food decays in our 28 feet of bowels. This decay sends poison all over our body every six minutes.

When our friends smell our bad breath
(but we don't) and we feel like a whipped tomato, don't use a mouthwash or take a bath. Get at the cause. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills which gently start the flow of your bile juice. But if "something better" is offered you, don't buy it, for it may be a calomel (mercury) pill, which loosens teeth, gripes and scalds the rectum in many people. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you want. See 2-654. ©1934, C.M.Co.

With Christmas toys.
For good children of the year.
Andrew Scala, 8.

Christmas comes at the end of the year,
When all the children are filled with cheer,
The children with their other chums
Eat plenty of goodies such as plums.
Sue Georgianna, 8.

SANTA

Santa went over the roof tops
Suddenly he came to a stop
He looked in a window
And saw a boy spinning a top
He said to the child, "Do you want any toys?
If so be a good little boy."
With a nigh of his head
He was off in his sled

And over the roof tops again.
Edward Effenberger, 8.
Frank Cronsher, 8.
CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

Christmas comes but once a year,
Makes all children full of cheer,
White cheeks change to rosy red,
Everyone asleep and tucked in bed.

Eyes shut tight, but ears open wide,
As Santa down the chimney slides,
Softly Santa creeps away,
As he goes to finish his day.
Violet Gentile, 8.

HOW JANE AND JIM SAW SANTA

In a small house Jane and Jim were talking. It was near Christmas and Jim didn't believe in Santa Claus.

Jane said "You had boy, you should believe in Santa Claus."
Jim answered, "We'll stay up on

TRUTH ABOUT HAIR AND HAIR TREATMENTS

You may be one of millions who has wasted time, hope, money on "tonics" and treatments... Now Charles Nessler, inventor of the permanent wave, leading hair scientist, author of "Story of Hair", makes a simple but revolutionary discovery that ends

BALDNESS • DANDRUFF

OILINESS • THINNING HAIR

In the past, tonics and treatments tried to stop hair from falling.
That is as useless as to try to stop an animal from shedding! What you must do is make your scalp replace the hair that falls—in short,
complete the hair growing cycle.
It is on that scientific principle that Charles Nessler's Pro-Ker is based. 30,000 tests have proved that Pro-Ker produces results.

Hair for hair, it makes the scalp replace falling hair with new hair.
Enjoy your birthright—beautiful, lustrous hair. Send for Charles Nessler's revealing booklet. Better still, buy Pro-Ker at your druggist, or mail the Christmas and see if he comes."

A little later Jane and Jim hurried to bed. All at once they heard a noise. They went down the stairs slowly and there stood Santa putting things around the Christmas tree. Soon he hurried away.

Jane and Jim soon went to bed and slept very soundly that night.

Bob Klein, 7.

THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS

It was the night before Christmas when pa and ma were asleep. I got out of bed without a sound on my feet.

I went downstairs to see what I got under the Christmas tree stood a beautiful box.

I lifted it up and oh how heavy I opened it up to see what it was. And guess what was there, A doll with beautiful golden hair.

Geraldine Leone, 7.

It was the night before Christmas when everyone was sleeping soundly. Santa was coming down the chimney top. He tip-toed to the Christmas tree, and he put a lot of toys under the tree. He filled the stockings with cakes and sweets. Then he climbed up the chimney again and away he went. The children woke up and ran to the Christmas tree. They were all so happy because they got just what they wanted. Mary got a doll, Susie got a hat and scarf and Joe got a sleigh.

Pauline Gentile, 7.

CHRISTMAS EVE

It was a dark and snowy night when Santa was coming down the street. He went down the chimney and opened the door. He tip-toed into the parlor and there was the Christmas tree waiting for him to fill it with ornaments. Santa started putting the packages under the tree. It was the next morning when the children got up and went to see what they got. Pauline got a doll and John got a sleigh. They were all so happy because they got what they wanted.

Susie Donatone, 7.

CHRISTMAS

Christmas comes but once a year and it brings us joy and cheer. The rest of the year you have all the toys to play with the rest of the year.

Shirley Forest.

CHRISTMAS EVE

The children couldn't wait till Santa Claus came. They hung their stockings up by the fireplace and they went to sleep. In the morning when they got up they went to see what they got. The children were happy because Santa Claus left the things they wanted. On Christmas Day the children played with their toys.

Jennie Costello, 7.

SOIL EROSION

Soil erosion when there is a heavy rain on the mountain the soil is pushed down to a lower level. After a few years all this mountain is washed away. The CCC boys are taking trees and rocks to hold up the mountain. They plant the trees around the top of the mountain. In this way the mountain cannot be washed away. If they let this go in a few years a farm that in the beginning was at the foot of the hill would be a few miles down the valley.

Thomas Lockwood.

SIXTH GRADE NEWS

We are studying about the British geography. We first took a trip to London. There is a very big city in London. We are writing paragraphs about places of interest to visit in London. Here are some stories.

Irene Rogers, Grade 6.

BIG BEN

I got a Big Ben clock in my room. Well, the one I am telling you about is far across the sea in London. It is a big clock built in 1859. It is a clock built in New Year's. The clock starts to chime and all the people make merry. It is only once a year when it is midnight. We can hear the Big Ben strike 12 o'clock over the radio if we are listening in.

By Grace Ryan.

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

Think if I went across the sea to London I would visit Buckingham Palace. The King and Queen live there. I could see the "Beef Eaters" maybe you don't know who they are. They are the guards of the palace. Buckingham is a very beautiful palace. I would like to go to the palace to see the King and Queen. I would like to see the King's garden and the Queen's garden. I would like to see the King's very much.

Charles Jones, Grade 6.

WICH OBSERVATORY

The eastern part of London on the River Thames, is the Greenwich Observatory. Greenwich is a building with a big telescope. It is used to study the stars. It is used to study the stars and other things in the sky. It is used to study the stars and other things in the sky.

THE CHRISTMAS TREE

It was snowing and Mary's father came home with a Christmas tree. He knocked at the door and Mary went to open it. She jumped for joy because she was always wishing for a Christmas tree.

The next morning her father put the tree in the parlor. In a little while Mary's mother asked her if she wanted to come with her and buy some ornaments for the Christmas tree. On the way there were so many pretty things that they didn't know what to buy. It was snowing when they started to go home and the wind was blowing. They were home at last. Father started to put the things on the Christmas tree. There were many beautiful things on the tree.

It was evening and we put the lights on the Christmas tree. It was beautiful. The stars shone so nicely. Mary was very happy. She went to call all her friends to see the Christmas tree. Her friends thought it was wonderful so they sang a Christmas song to the tree.

Assunta Valvano, Grade 6.

Christmas comes but once a year. Let the Belleville News have the cheer.

Because Santa is a happy man who rings the bells to let us hear. But the Belleville News is still with cheer.

Mary Leone, Grade 6.

LONDON BRIDGE

Have you ever heard the poem of London Bridge is Falling Down? Well it has fallen down. It was 25 years ago, that it fell down last. It isn't particularly big, only it's important to the people in London. It is a draw bridge and is near the center of London.

Nobody really knows when it was built but in Queen Mary's time it was a bridge with houses on it.

There were two bridges. The old one which burned down in the great fire in 1666 and the new one which is there now.

David Pitman.

WESTMINSTER ABBEY

I go to a small church on the hillside. I think it is very nice. But when my Aunt came from Great Britain she told me about a church she went to on Sundays. She said it was Westminster Abbey and said it was a very, very old church. It had to be repaired over and over again. In the church were buried many famous kings, queens, writers, soldiers and scientists. She said there were statues which the British honor and respect. This church is very different from mine and very beautiful. She said she saw the royal wedding too. I think the church is very nice. Some day I'm going over and see it.

By Irene Rogers.

THE BRITISH MUSEUM

When I was in London, I decided to visit the British Museum. Of course I thought I would find a museum like ours in New York. I was astonished at its largeness. It is the largest museum in the world. It would take more than a few days to go all through it. I saw very many odd and quaint things. This museum is a place where people bring curiosities from all over the world and place them in this museum. Many people come from all over the world to admire them.

Gwendolyn Shulze, Grade 6.

FOURTH GRADE NEWS

The fourth grade of No. 9 School have drawn pictures of what they want for Christmas. There are various kinds of pictures. Some of them want airplanes, some wagons, boats, tables and chairs, footballs, tin soldier sets, dolls, doll houses and lots of other things.

Michael Cofone, Grade 8.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Girl Scouts of No. 9 School had a cake sale at a Washington Avenue Restaurant Saturday, December 15. We sold all our cakes and made over five dollars.

The twentieth we are going to have a party. The admission is potatoes or sugar.

The 2nd we are giving a play at the Recreation Center for the poor children.

A Christmas entertainment is being prepared for Friday evening, December 21 at 8:15 P. M. in the school auditorium.

A two-act play entitled "The Christmas Child Comes In," will be produced by special arrangement with Walter H. Baker Co. of Boston. This play is a dramatization of Zola Gale's story "Christmas," and relates the story of what occurred in one small town when an attempt was made by its citizens to curtail the Christmas festivities, as a depression economy.

The cast consists of members of the eighth and third grades.

Between acts a group of students from the seventh grade will sing carols.

The play is under the direction of Mrs. Leona Reed and Miss Evelyn Racioppi.

SIXTH GRADE NEWS

For the third time this year we have won the home school banner for having the largest percentage of mothers present at the monthly meeting.

Last month the eighth grade took it from us, but now that we have it again we are determined to keep it and so win the $10 prize that goes to the class holding the banner for the greatest number of months.

Dorothy Soughan.

Plans are well under way for our big Christmas party which is to be held Thursday afternoon during our club period. The several committees appointed by our president, Doris Soughan are working hard to make it a pleasant time for all.

Doris Madison.

Our class has planned a short program for Christmas. We are going to give it in our classroom and invite our mothers. You would know it was holiday time if you stepped into our room. There are wreaths on the windows and Christmas scenes on the boards which were drawn by Frank Broo, Franklin Thalheimer, Mickey Petrelle, Louise Oslin and Gasper Siciliano.

Next week we will have a Christmas tree. We can hardly wait to trim it with pine cones that we painted silver. Under the tree we will put the gifts we made for our parents and the ones we brought for each other.

At Thanksgiving time we packed three baskets of food and clothing for a poor family. Next week we will do it again so we can feel we have made someone else happy.

Many of our classmates are sick with grippe so we have only eleven regulars left. They are Lorraine Fredericks, Mickey Petrelli, Beatrice Jennings, Irma Matt, Frank Claps, George Ferro, Donald Knoefel, Franklin Thalheimer, Henry Boniface, Gasper Siciliano, Kenneth Broo.

Irma Matt.

THE HERO

The dog's name is Darecark. He does not bite or scratch. He is all dog. His color is all white.

The man's name is Na-ka. He has a smile on his face all the time. He went hunting.

One day he was on a trip. He was caught in a storm. It was snowing and the master was sick. He told Darecark to fight his way through the snow. Darecark got out of the storm. He barked when he got to the village. He had saved the best man in their village.

The dog is now called the hero. Dan Knoepfel.

HUSKIES

The huskies have very thick skin so they are not so cold. Almost all the huskies are white.

Sometimes the huskies are part wolf.

The huskies are very strong. That is why they are called huskies. They do not like to play, but they like to do hard work.

Elsie Grund, 4.

THE HUSKIES

Ko-ko is half wolf and half dog. He is all white. He does not like anyone to pet him. He has thick fur.

He likes to play and work. He pulls the sleighs for the Eskimos.

Ernest Peter Boniface.

THE HUSKY

He looks like a wolf. He is all white. He is very strong. Sometimes he is part wolf or all wolf. He is different from other dogs.

If the leader sees the dog have a piece of meat he can take it away. He does his work.

Norma Jordan, 4.

THE WATER LINE

We painted the water line. We have a water line on our boat so you can tell if the boat is sinking. When you have too much baggage on the boat, the water line goes under the water.

Kenneth Green, Kgn.

OUR BANK

We got boxes. We got some boards and nailed them on to the boxes. We thumb-tacked the paper onto the boards. We put wire on the boards on the top. We hammered the wire on. Men take the money through the hole. We put our money there. Then we're going to buy our ticket for the boat.

Arthur Taylor, Kgn.

High School Flashes

The Parent-Teacher Association held its meeting Tuesday evening. The first event of the evening was a short business meeting. After the meeting the dramatics classes of the high school presented "A Christmas Carol" by Charles Dickens.

The opening scene took place in Scrooge's office on Christmas eve and the supporting cast was as follows: Scrooge, Warren Hodgkinson; Fred, Gary Vanderbilt; Bob Cratchit, Robert Brown; Marley's ghost, Stanley Reynolds; Spirit of Christmas Past, Ellen Conry; Spirit of Christmas Present, Dorothy Belansky; Spirit of Christmas To Come, Enid Benn, and boy, Gerhardt Liedholz.

Tableau included: Scrooge as a child, Joseph Distasio; Scrooge as a young man, Porter Sheldon, and the girl, Frances Sheldon.

The Cratchits' Christmas dinner: Mrs. Cratchit, Betty Schwab; Bob Cratchit, Robert Brown; Belinda, Margaret Walker; Tiny Tim, William Crispe; Martha, Janette Waldie; the young Cratchits, Adele Conroy, Isabelle Smith and Judith Hyde.

The play was under the general direction of Miss Frieda Reid, assisted by Dorothy Prendergast. The chairman of the various committees were as follows: Ralph Brown, lights and stage; Jeanne McClelland, properties; Helen Papartis, costumes; and Eilaine Mueller, make-up. The piano accompaniment was by Mary Elizabeth Compton.

After the meeting a social was held in the gym.

The class of 1936 has organized with Mr. Holbert, principal, as class adviser. The elections have been held and the results are as follows: James Tully, president; Wellesley Earle, vice president; Mary Elizabeth Compton, secretary, and Ellen Conry, treasurer.

December 11 the freshmen had a treat. The Kings Quartet visited them. The men in the quartet were as follows: E. B. Ser Vasse, tenor; Lloyd King, manager and baritone; H. Tom Lytt, second tenor, and Jake Gadowski, bass. The quartet sang many songs including their own version of the quartet from "Rigoletto."

They played the correct tune and sang their own version of the words. This was one of the most amusing numbers on the program. They also played ed on the Swiss bells. These bells are on the same principle as the piano having a separate bell for each individual note. There were about one hundred bells and the whole quartet played them. Jack Gadowski also played a few solos on the accordion.

December 14 three members of the debating club went to Westfield to meet the debating club of that school. The topic of debate was "Resolved, that the federal government should help the states in order to equalize education among the states." Belleville took the negative and Westfield the affirmative. Westfield won.

In the absence of Mr. Coulter, Wendell Allen accompanied the group to Westfield.

The morning assembly of December 14 heard Casey Jones from the Casey Jones School of Aeronautics. Mr. Jones spoke on the new type of planes.

On the afternoon of the same day Colonel Vaughn, also from the Casey Jones School, spoke. Colonel Vaughn was a second rating war ace in the World War and he told some very interesting experiences he had at that time.

Additional Notes, School 3

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Our class is making Christmas gifts. We are making lamp shades for the mothers, banks for the brothers, covering stones for paper-weights for our fathers.

We are having fun making these gifts.

Ethel Shumard, Grade 4.

Miss Ruhe's room now has a museum. We have on display things donated by Watson Stewart. There are exhibits as follows: A piece of peculiar stone called Tabby, a large pine cone from Bok Tower, Fla., a number of cotton balls, a cocoon from Florida, about twenty-five shells of different kinds from the Gulf of Mexico, some Spanish Moss from trees in Florida, and a piece of silvery colored shale from Alabama.

Preferred by millions to mayonnaise...

Choice ingredients whipped to amazing creaminess in the Kraft Miracle Whip machine.

Injured in Crash

Mrs. N. C. Richardson, 56, of 5 Terrace place suffered possible fractures of the pelvis and ribs and head injuries when cars driven by John Handsome of the Terrace place address and William Klein of 24 Cottage place, Bloomfield, collided at Riverside drive and Grafton avenue, Newark, Sunday night. Mrs. Richardson was taken to St. Michael's Hospital, Newark, for treatment.
