

Seen About Town

A pitiful picture of a mother looking for her dead daughter was presented to the tenants in the apartment at 6 Division avenue last week. Of course the mother was only a cat looking for her dead kitten but the story is tragic. Some boys who hang around the corner of Division avenue and Washington avenue chased the kitten out to the avenue where an automobile ran over it and killed it.

The following boys make model airplanes for their own enjoyment: Arthur Crommelin, Armand Love, Walter Powell, Robert King, Wallace Elliott, Charles Hearn and Lawrence Willett.

Two local detectives got up at two o'clock in the morning one day last week to search for thieves who were stealing bottles of milk from back porches. Their search proved futile and they returned home. When one of the detectives sat down to breakfast his wife discovered that some one had stolen their bottle of milk.

Cornelius Finn, fireman connected with headquarters company has purchased a canary yellow motorcycle so he can get to fires quickly. He practiced on the cycle during his vacation last week.

By careful mathematical analysis it has been ascertained that Postman Benjamin Pudney's route is two steps bigger than that of Joseph Rogen's. Since our statement that Rogen's route was the larger, Pudney has been protesting vigorously that he has the larger one. We make this statement unequivocally.

A printing shop and a domestic science room will be innovations in the local high school next semester. More equipment for the Industrial Arts room has been ordered.

John W. Meade Jr. of 124 Bell street is a member of the Federal Opera Guild of Essex County.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Anderten have moved to 103 De Witt avenue. Mr. Anderten with Harold "Dolly" Robert conducts the Washington Service station in Washington avenue. Both played football for Belleville High School in their school days.

A short time ago we mentioned in this column that Otto Holberg of 141 Floyd street expected to get a position in Washington, D. C. Through his own ingenuity and perseverance Mr. Holberg has secured a position with the Bureau of Hours and Wages, Department of Labor.

Fred Evangelista of 141 Little street is very popular for this reason. He delivers liquid refreshment, of higher voltage than water, for Barney Miller of 476 Washington avenue.

Belleville has another Jean Harlow in the making, in the person of petite Carol Bremer, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Bremer of 59 Malone avenue, who is a natural platinum blonde.

Jackie McNish, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McNish of 14 Kathryn street, has a penchant for golf. When he was about two years old on a certain day last summer he was supposed to be asleep in his crib. His mother heard a crash and rushed up the stairs to investigate. There she found Jackie with a curtain rod curved on one end in his hand having pulled down the entire curtain, rod and all. "What did you do that for," his mother remonstrated. "Me wanted to play golf," the urbane youngster replied.

William "Red" Kant, proprietor of a tavern in Jorammon street, went to every bingo party at the Elks home last winter and failed to win a prize—not even a bar of soap.

Ann Donovan of 98 Liberty street is a frequent visitor in Nutley.

William Bennett of 197 Linden avenue, formerly athletic instructor at Yantacaw Park, Nutley, has received an offer to be an athletic instructor in a Suffern, N. Y., boys' school.

John Sealey of 36 Shepherd place, Nutley, whose both forearms were cut off by a railroad train, is using artificial arms now.

That big Belgium Great Dane dog that is seen in the vicinity of Little street belongs to Thomas and John Proven, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Proven of 193 Little street. The dog's name is Major.

Miss Doris Cohen, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Cohen of 14 Malone avenue stakes her claim as the youngest Hi Li champion with a mark of 1058. Her daddy corroborated this claim.

Underprivileged Boys and Girls Find Happiness at Local Recreation Camp

Lions Club and Rotarians Help Make It Possible for Many To Enjoy Hot Weather Camping

Splash! Oswald or Jimmie, or who have you has landed kerplunk in the pool.

Over here Nellie and Flossie are playing jacks or hi-li.

What's it all about? You've guessed it. One hundred underprivileged boys and as many girls will be given a taste of camp life at Recreation Camp on Third River, which opened for its fifth season. Twenty-five boys will attend the camp each week for the next four weeks, after which the girls will have four weeks.

Edward Lister, Belleville recreation director, will have charge. He will be assisted during the boys' month by Joseph Parsells and Paul Donohue of his staff and Gus Gauspohl, a volunteer worker. The camp is maintained by an appropriation in the recreation commission budget. Those who will attend are selected by the town nurses.

Activities include swimming instruction in the new pool, games and handicraft. The first camp fire, a weekly event, will be held Friday night.

Continuing its custom, the Rotary Club will pay expenses of 25 boys for a week. The Lions Club will entertain five boys a week.

Tavern 'Kicks' Are Promptly Answered

Town Excise Board Hears Complete Record for Past Month

The town commission sitting as an excise board at the Monday afternoon meeting heard the complaints that had been made to the police department during the last three weeks concerning excess noise in taverns allegedly open after hours.

Patrolman Caruthers reported complaints had been answered at Neary's Tavern and at the Venice Beer Garden operated by Emanuel De Noia and that on each occasion he had found everything in order. Another complaint was received regarding the Chateau but proved to be groundless when the police visited the place. The actual reports were read by Public Safety Director Gerard so there would be no question as to the prompt answering of the complaints.

K. of C. Council Plans August Retreat

St. Mary's Group Hears Description of Benefits

Visiting District Deputy George Leary of Union City was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of St. Mary's Council No. 2346, Knights of Columbus held on Monday in St. Mary's Hall, Nutley, Grand Knight Leveritt G. Teague presiding.

Mr. Leary addressed the council on the retreat movement which is sponsored by the Knights of Columbus. He spoke of the part the retreat plays in furthering the work of the state and supreme councils in combating the evils of communism. He also showed the recreational aspect of the retreat for the mind and body of the retreatants. This, however, is only supplemental to the important spiritual rejuvenation and upbuilding which comes from a successful retreat.

The members of St. Mary's Council will make their retreat on August 13, 14 and 15 at the San Alfonso Retreat House in West End. All members should make their reservations through J. R. Kilpatrick, 146 Linden avenue, Belleville.

F. Harold Sachs spoke on the camping activity of the Boy Scouts. He extended an invitation to the members of the council to visit Camp Tamarack, the camp attended by Troop 11 of Nutley which is sponsored by St. Mary's Council.

The outing committee reported that the annual outing of the council will be held on or about September 19 in the vicinity of Nutley. Golf, softball and handicap races will be the principal activities of the day.

Two Women Injured In Crash Here

In an automobile collision at Rutgers and Main streets Monday, two women were injured. They were Mrs. H. Schult, 74, of 13 Graham street, Jersey City, and Mrs. M. Seidel, 36, of 8 Twenty-ninth street, Secaucus.

Both were passengers in a car driven by Charles Grimm, 36, of 422 Liberty avenue, Jersey City. Driver of the other car was William S. Knight, 40, of 28 Wakeman avenue, Newark. After treatment for minor cuts and bruises at St. Mary's Hospital in Passaic, both were sent home.

Mayor Williams has placed at the disposal of the motorists of the town of Belleville a limited number of official road maps obtained from the State Highway Department. These maps are being dispersed through the facilities of the Belleville News. As there is only a limited number, come and get your map as soon as possible.

FHA May Rule So As To Guarantee Foreclosed Properties

Mayor Williams Conferred On Matter with Bovard In Washington

Mayor William H. Williams and Thomas Ciochese, New Jersey councilman of the Federal Housing Administration, Friday conferred with Acting General Counsel Bovard of the FHA in Washington in an attempt to further Belleville's plan to sell $1,000,000 in foreclosed property now on the town books.

If "prudent lending institutions, banks and attorneys" consider property taken by municipalities under foreclosure for taxes "marketable" the Washington FHA will issue a ruling that loans on these properties may be guaranteed.

Thus stated Mr. Bovard when pressed for a definite ruling on the FHA position as regards tax titles. Mayor Williams asserted the prejudice against tax titles prevents sale of town-owned properties. Bovard believed tax titles were considered marketable in New Jersey, but

Silver Lake Gets Hydrant Sprinklers

Loss of Water Without Sprinklers Dangerous States Gerard

Commissioner Gerard announced at the meeting of the town commission on Monday afternoon that fire hydrants in the Silver Lake section of the town would soon be opened and equipped with sprinklers.

The plan is to have an occasional hydrant opened from 2 until 8 P. M. on hot days. Several of the hydrants have been opened without permission and, according to Commissioner Gerard the loss of water through hydrants not equipped with sprinklers is enormous and very dangerous in case of a fire in the vicinity.

Exhibit Marks Close Of WPA Semester

Adult Education Class Demonstrates Sewing and Classwork

The WPA adult education class had its semester closing recently with a worthwhile exhibit of classwork and sewing in keeping with the project.

Speakers included Theodore Wells, president of the Community League, who gave the welcome address, which sounded the keynote of the importance of the adult education in Belleville; Rev. Van Pelt, state prison chaplain, who impressed upon the students the fundamental needs for this type of education and the benefits derived therefrom, even though they were adults; Wayne Farmer, superintendent of schools, whose subject was "The Need of General Adult Education." He stressed the why, where and when of education. He pointed out by statistics, quotations and an impartiality towards racial circumstances the value of general adult education.

Mrs. Mabel Robinson, assistant state supervisor of Negro adult education, commented on what had been said previously.

One of the general committee members stated, "It is sincerely hoped that irrespective of petty antagonisms the adult education project in Belleville will ascend to greater heights. Its needs are boundless and its value is indescribable."

Coogan Gets Another Job As "Headache"

Re-election of Board Is Promised If Taxes Are Re-Adjusted

Mayor Williams at the Tuesday night commission meeting added to Tax Assessor John Coogan's many headaches by delegating to him the responsibility of "making the necessary adjustments" concerning a letter received from a Silver Lake resident who complained of his tax assessment and promised the re-election of all commissioners if the "Honorable dear Mr. Assessor" would come to his house and readjust his assessment.

The letter was printed and cut of a total of 136 words 103 were spelled. Mr. Coogan stated after the meeting that this was just one of many such letters from misinformed citizens who hope to use political means to have their assessments "properly" adjusted. The following is a short quotation from the letter. "I do realize all you back favors but as you can look the tax high that I cannot sustain it takes me to the cemetery. We in my house is half dead of the sorrows. Send me the honorable assessor. Dont worry. All you will be re-elected four years. I am satisfied."

Many peculiar requests come from Silver Lake residents and almost as many requests come from outsiders who desire information as to the summer resort facilities available in the "Lake." Only recently a request was received for folders and information from a promotion company, who decided to sell Silver Lake as the ideal summer resort nearest to New York. A story is told that several years ago a local citizen purchased sight unseen a plot of ground with shore front rights in Silver Lake on which he expected to build his summer home. Needless to say, the man was at that time a stranger in town.

An ordinance passed second reading authorizing the expenditure of $23,000 for the completion of the Greylock parkway storm sewer that has been under consideration for some time.

The total cost of the sewer will be approximately $53,000. The remainder of the cost will be met by the WPA which will furnish the labor for the project.

Commissioner P. A. Water's department released the information that work was expected to start as soon as the appropriation was finally approved by the WPA.

During the storms of the past weekend the sewers overflowed and caused great discomfort to the residents living in the vicinity. Agitation has been going on for some time to have this situation remedied.

Nutley Sewer Request
If the plan proposed by Dudley Shepard, Nutley engineer, at the Monday afternoon conclave of the town commission is carried out, the open broke which connects the terminal point of the Nutley storm sewer with the beginning of Belleville's storm sewer on Jorammon street near the cemetery will be enclosed on a share basis in which Nutley, Belleville and the Essex County Park Commission will participate.

Town Engineer Sheehan states that the distance is approximately 1,900 feet. The Nutley sewer is constructed of 36-inch pipe and the Belleville sewer is only 30 inches in diameter. However, the flow in the brook is never more than the capacity of the sewer that is now in operation.

Citizens who live in the vicinity have long complained of this open water. The present plan is to have the Essex County Park Commission enter into an agreement to stand part of the total cost. Water flows from the property which they now own into the open brook. The matter has not yet been proposed to either the Nutley Town Commission or the Essex County Park Commission but it is expected that their immediate cooperation will be obtained.

An offer of $20 per front foot for 300 feet on Berkeley avenue, corner of Seely avenue made by John Bianchi was turned down by the commission at its meeting Tuesday.

This offer was made on three parcels of land, one parcel was valued at $900 by Mr. Bianchi. The assessments on this were $1,961. The other parcels were valued at $8,000 apiece, making the total purchase price $6,900, or approximately $20 per front foot for the last two parcels. The assessments on these two properties totaled $7,584 approximately.

Fred M. Handlon, who is in charge of the town real estate department stated that a similar offer had recently been turned down. He felt that the minimum fair price should be at least $23 per front foot.

Military Spectacle in Newark, Sept. 19

Pre-National Bugle Corps Competition Will Be Outstanding

A comprehensive preview of one of the most attractive spectacular events placed before the public will be the staging of the pre-national drum and bugle corps competition sponsored by the East Orange Post, 78, drum and bugle corps, and Newark Post, 10, at the Newark Schools Stadium, September 19 at 2 o'clock.

Twelve nationally known corps of the American Legion which have been finalists or national champions will make their appearance on the field. Lawrence C. Knapp, of East Orange corps, which has also a national, state and local reputation, was instrumental in securing these groups.

Corps participating in the contest for the $1600 awards are Commonwealth Edison, Chicago; Harvey W. Seeds, Miami; Henry H. Houston, Germantown, Pa.; Morristown Post, 50, New Jersey; Malden, Massachusetts; Massillon, Ohio; Wilmington, Delaware; Stratford, Connecticut; Tarentum, Pa., and Curtis G. Redden, Danville, Ill.

Uniforms styled after the West Point Cadets, United States Infantry and United States Cavalry officers, Northwest Mounted Police, French Chasseurs and even the Spanish costumes will be evident when more than 800 veterans of the World War will give drills in a military manner. Their musical numbers have been arranged by noted composers of concert, symphony and popular music.

Highly trained, these brilliantly colored uniforms will send forth the strains of harmonized music and at the same time go through military maneuvers often mentioned as being superior to the noted West Point Military Academy, drills. During the past year the members of the corps accompanied by their color guards with National, Legion and Corps flags being closely guarded with muskets have devoted three to six hours each week for drill rehearsals. Prior to the competitions they devote twelve to fourteen hours during the week to perfect every detail.

Marching, so synchronized with music of bugles, drums and cymbals, is so well directed that few corps receive any commands after they pass over the starting line. The corps usually are directed as well as instructed by prominent band leaders or talented musicians who specialize in that type of musical repertoire. Great stress is laid upon rudiments and intricate military maneuvers executed by the corps. Technique of military movements plans of instructions, execution require marching cadence of 128 to 134 steps per minute.

Equipment costs to each corps amounts to $8,000 for uniforms and instruments. Instructions, upkeep of uniforms and equipment, transportation and other miscellaneous incidentals average about $5,000 per year. Though a majority of the corps are self supporting some are supported by manufacturing, industrial and other groups such as the Chamber of Commerce, townships or individuals. Income derived by these corps are mostly prize money in competitions, parades or special attractions. Various requirements are specified by score sheets rules for competitions.

Art Club Outing

The members of the Belleville Art Club enjoyed a day's outing at Keyport Sunday. Before leaving for the shore the members visited the studio of Hayley Lever, N. A., in Caldwell. Painting, swimming and fishing were the outstanding features of the day. Another outing is being planned for the very near future.

Peterson-Pole Wedding at Church

Miss Edith Alice Pole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Pole of 32 Mertz avenue, and Milton A. Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Peterson of 231 Stephens street, were married Saturday at 4 P. M. at Christ Episcopal Church. The rector, Rev. Peter R. Deckenbach, performed the ceremony.

The bride was attended by a sister, Miss Edna May Pole. Greydon Blunt of West New York was best man. The bride wore an afternoon dress of white crepe trimmed with Wallis blue, and a white felt hat. Her sister wore powder blue crepe with a halo to match. Both had corsages of pink roses and baby's breath.

After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson will live at 306 Washington avenue.

WRIT BITS

by John E. Smith

AGING AND AGELESS

They must grow old who cease to learn,
No matter what the age may be;
Though one may to the eighties turn,
Or still be only twenty-three.

'Tis not a thing of aging flesh,
Nor of a physical decline,
But of a spirit, young and fresh,
Without age, or a weakening sign.

Where there are visions, bright and clear,
And an expanding open mind,
And where horizons new appear,
Then, years will matter not, we find.

Timeless and ageless are the souls,
No limitations do they know;
Infinitely extend those goals,
For spirits who cease not to grow.

The soul's not limited to years,
Since life and growth within it lie;
It traverses eternal spheres,
And never, never can it die.

FOOD FACTS

Did you know that?

The first salmon was canned in 1864.
A number of English countries older than America still preserve the ancient custom of salting the apple trees at Christmas.
No law exists at present to restrict interstate shipment of wild poisonous mushrooms which may be used with fatal results.

Pasteurization does not change the butter-fat content of milk, does not change the chemical make-up of milk and does not change the flavor of milk. "Good milk is better milk when pasteurized."

The BUSINESS LETTER

By MARTIN COOK

News of the business world has, in the main, been favorable. To be sure, strikes in the steel trade, during June, caused production for the month to decline about 10 per cent but the industry is practically sold out for the third quarter and observers look for the last quarter to run on the same high level.

General Motors June sales were 11.4 per cent less than May and 18.9 per cent below last year. On the other hand chain, retail and mail order house sales increased from 11 per cent to 22 per cent.

Corporate earnings, in most cases, are well above those of a year ago. Allis-Chalmers estimates the net for six months as amounting to $2.35 a share. Wheeling Steel earned $5.18 against $2.31 a year ago. Consolidated Oil Co. returned $1.55 as compared with $.93 and is looking forward to a record year.

According to the Interior Department gasoline consumption to June 30 is at an all time high.

In the five months ending May 31 the comparatively new air-conditioning industry almost doubled its volume of orders.

Production activity, generally, has moved forward to the best rate since early in January.

Power output is now 10.3 per cent over last year. The holiday was the cause for a slight reduction from the previous week.

In the first six months of the year General Electric orders were 59 per cent more than the 1936 period. The second quarter was the best since 1929.

Added installations of telephone instruments points to a more confident attitude. In the first half of the year N. Y. Telephone Co. profits were $856,026 more than the same period in 1936.

The outlook for the railroads appears excellent. 32,435 more cars were loaded than a week ago. The total reported was 806,168 the largest figure for the corresponding week since before the depression.

Five months earnings for some of the mid-west systems show good gains over last year. Great Northern reported a net of $4,934,944 about $700,000 more than in 1936. Of this amount more than $500,000 was earned in May. Other roads show improvement ranging from $200,000 to $1,600,000.

Bank reports to the end of June reveal an increased demand of capital for commercial uses and a decrease in bank holdings of government securities.

With the improved labor situation the securities markets took on a new lease of life and stocks were quoted at the best prices for some time. Bonds were more active with quotations on a higher level.

Weather conditions aided by the government report on the wheat crop have kept the grain markets in a state of uncertainty. Quotations for most commodities have fluctuated widely.

Editor's note—Questions pertaining to securities and investments addressed to Martin Cook in care of this paper will be answered promptly.

Playground Dedicated To Mary DiVanni

Appropriate Services Held With Commissioners Participating

In memory of the late Miss Mary DiVanni who, for many years served the people of the Soho section of this town, as superintendent of the building at School No. Two, the playground recently opened there was dedicated to her on Friday afternoon with appropriate ceremonies.

Town Commissioner George R. Gerard, in whose department the supervision of the playground falls and who was largely responsible for its inception, gave to the supervisor, Miss Catherine Close, an American Flag as part of the dedication ceremonies. The flagpole was donated by Commissioner Patrick A. Waters who was unable to be present. Mayor William H. Williams made a short address instructing the children "to properly respect the flag and try to grow up to be good Yankees."

Mrs. Harry Fredericks, who has been well known for her civic leadership in the Soho section for many years, opened the ceremonies and introduced Commissioner Gerard. He said that, since no other name had been proposed for the playground, he was proposing to "memorialize the name of the woman who served the people of Soho so faithfully and well."

Recreation Director Edward J. Lister led in the flag salute and Miss Close led her children in the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner." Musical music filled the air at several occasions, rendered by the Belleville Grenadiers, a local drum and bugle corps.

The parents of the children who use the local playground were in attendance and expressed their happiness at the culmination of the efforts of the interested local citizens working in conjunction with several members of the town commission. The playground will be open from two o'clock to eight on week days and from nine until twelve on Saturdays. This paper was informed additional equipment is needed. If any one should care to help obtain this, they may get in touch with Recreation Director Lister.

Coogan

has brought a renewed interest in Belleville town-owned property. This was revealed by Fred Handlon, municipal real estate representative.

At a meeting of the town commission Monday night, Director Clark of the Department of Parks and Public Property presented an offer from Joseph Amato, Newark builder, of $24,000 for twenty-four 40-foot lots in Joramelon street and Passaic avenue.

According to Handlon, Amato intends to apply for an FHA loan to build houses and a three-story apartment on the property. The commission approved the sale and a public auction will be held shortly.

Belleville was being handicapped in its efforts to dispose of foreclosed property by an apparent prejudice on the part of attorneys and lending institutions against tax titles.

At a conference Friday in Washington with Acting General Counsel Board, Belleville officials were informed the PFA would guarantee loans on this type of property "if prudent lending institutions, banks and attorneys consider the titles 'marketable.'"

According to Mayor Williams, several title companies, among them the Lawyers Title of Newark, have agreed to guarantee tax titles as to marketability, providing the foreclosure proceedings were regular.

HOW TO TRAVEL WITHOUT BEING RICH

"HOW to Travel without Being Rich," by William M. Strong, is a new book that will prove a Godsend to the person with a short vacation and little money, who probably feels that travel is out of his reach.

The author's own photographs, it shows how you can see the world's most beguiling spots for the amount of money usually spent on an ordinary routine holiday. Better still, it equips you with enough practical information for just as exciting a time as if you had resources unlimited.

Mr. Strong, Princeton classmate of Richard Halliburton and a New York advertising executive, tells his readers how to obey Bernard Shaw's maxim, "Get what you like so you won't have to like what you get!" He shows you the way to a bargain basement for travel—how you can find a place to sleep in Sweden for 25 cents; how to get an even thousand dollars' worth of fun for $350; how to use free travel services; and how to see France without leaving America.

Mr. Strong adjusts your journey to your purse for you. He tells where you can go for $50, $100, $250 and up; how to tip, what to wear, how to choose a hotel, how to save railroad fare on the continent.

"How to Travel without Being Rich" (Doubleday Doran, $1.50) is a guide book that guides your budget as well as your footsteps. Reading it is a pleasant first step in gratifying wanderlust; in obeying that urge to go places and see things.

Proctor's Theatre Features

"Slave Ship" Extra Week

The heat has in no way impaired the inclination of movie fans to attend Proctor's RKO Theatre, Newark, it would appear, for so large have been attendances that the management will continue the current show featuring "Slave Ship" with Warner Baxter and Elizabeth Allan, as well as "Sing and Be Happy," with Leah Ray and Anthony Martin, an additional week beginning today.

A spectacular drama stands head and shoulders above the general level of film fare. It pictures the adventures of the last slave ship, with mutiny reddening the decks it sails on its last desperate voyage. A honey-moon ship of horror, the slave ship hulk Elizabeth Allan, who boards the vessel for a honeymoon and finds, too late, that she is off on a trip that brings her constantly face to face with danger and death. Mickey Rooney is also aboard as a spunky cabin boy who boasts stoutly that he is a man in a man's world and gets a chance to prove it.

To Warner Baxter falls one of the most colorful roles of his career, as a romantic scourge of two oceans, defying the navies of all the world, and fighting at last for love. Opposite him is Wallace Beery, as the villainous mate of the last slave ship. Beery makes the big-fisted, bull-headed seaman a figure of continuous interest, genial and treacherous to his dying breath.

Romance, comedy and music blend smoothly and gaily in "Sing and Be Happy," featuring five liling song hits and the screen's new song-and-romance team. Anthony Martin and Leah Ray, with Joan Davis, Helen Westley, Allan Lane and Dixie Dunbar.

American government will last only so long as the ideals of the founders persist.—William Allen White.

A LITTLE CLEARER

In order to clear up prejudice against tax titles on town owned property taken under foreclosure, Mayor William H. Williams Friday conferred with FHA officials in Washington, returning with the opinion of Acting General Counsel Bovard that if "prudent lending institutions, banks and attorneys" consider such property "marketable" ruling will be issued by his department that loans on the properties may be guaranteed.

If such a ruling is forthcoming it will make Belleville's effort to dispose of $1,000,000 worth of foreclosed property that much easier inasmuch as the FHA attitude influences other lending institutions.

If Belleville can turn $1,000,000 from a book to a cash item it will relieve the town officials of a lot of headaches. The town has acquired this property, according to law, and if it is not reclaimed in the same manner by those who have lost it, the local authorities are entitled to sell. Perhaps another cool million or some substantial part of it will clink into Belleville's treasury through this latest movement.

HUGE EXCHANGE FUNDS CAN CURB INFLATION, SAYS BRITISH EXPERT

International cooperation in the operation of large exchange funds can be one of the best cures for evils of inflation and deflation, declares Sir Charles Morgan-Webb, British money expert, in an article in the Rotarian Magazine.

Asserting that it is futile to attempt to prevent rising prices from running over into inflation by internal action only and that international cooperation is necessary, Sir Charles says: "Just as Britain, in 1932, transformed a steady downward momentum of world prices into an upward movement by the international operation of the Exchange Equalization Fund, so the six powers (the United States, Britain, France, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland), acting in cooperation, can, by the operation of much more powerful exchange funds, stay that upward momentum of world wholesale prices, and stabilize them at whatever level they wish.

"They have merely to control the volume and the velocity of the exchange funds in order to produce whatever world wholesale price level is deemed to be most conducive to the prosperity of industry and the welfare of mankind. The same instrument which created the rise in wholesale prices can stop that rise.

"Determination of an equilibrium for the world wholesale price level is a matter of some difficulty. Britain does not think that wholesale prices have risen sufficiently. The United States thinks that they have risen too much. As the two countries are now working in close monetary cooperation, these divergent views will undoubtedly be harmonized by some practical compromise.

"Once the most suitable world wholesale price level is determined, and then stabilized," he continues, "it should be a comparatively simple matter for each nation, on a stable international wholesale price basis, to manage its own internal currency in such a manner as to avoid the national evils of inflation and deflation of retail prices, and thereby to eliminate the disastrous and far-reaching effects of the business cycle.

"But the problem of inflation is twofold—wholesale and retail—international and national. It can be solved only by removing both of its causes, external and internal. The overcirculation of international currency cannot be ignored in seeking a solution. No internal national measures can have their full effect unless the international forces causing the rise in wholesale prices are brought under strict control."

BOMBING THE BLIGHT

The airplane may soon be just as necessary a tool on large New England farms as the plow. During the potato growing season at Ashland, Me., F. F. Page, principal grower and shipper of that territory, found a 100-acre field of his prize crop affected with the late blight. Within two days, so rapid was the blight spread, he faced a tremendous loss. It would take five days for a horse-drawn, wet-spraying outfit to cover the field. An airplane was called into service, the blight was bombed from the air by a process known as "dusting" and in three hours the loss had been averted. A company which is doing various kinds of spraying over the United States, scattering destruction to cotton, tobacco and orchard pests, now plans a regular base in Aroostook, The Wright brothers never could have dreamed that they had invented a farm implement which may be a standard need of the future.

EXPENSIVE SHOES

Russia is now embarked on her third five-year plan of industrial expansion, and even her own economists are beginning to despair that the Russian people ever will be good industrialists. The shoe industry is one example. Shoes made of leather cost a Russian worker half a month's pay, or about the equivalent of $50 in our money. This despite the fact that American machinery and organization have been imported to make them. The economists say that inherently Russians "fight" machines and never learn how to operate them properly. This shoe situation indicates that this might well be true.

LOCK YOUR CAR

With balmy, summery weather at hand, the number of automobile thefts rises sharply. This, of course, is because joy-riders are at large. They steal cars for a drive to the beach, to a roadhouse or for the pleasure of a trip. When they have done with their drive, they abandon the car. Meanwhile, driving at wild speeds, they cause heavy damage to the engine, if they manage to complete their trip without entirely wrecking the machine. When leaving your car on the street, make sure the doors and the ignition are locked. This is the best safeguard against these amateur, good weather thieves.

AN UNUSUAL HOBBY

In these days of emphasis on hobbies, one of the worlds hardest-riding hobbyists has been discovered in the person of George Arents, Jr., millionaire New York manufacturer, who in 45 years has collected what is probably the finest and most complete library on tobacco in the world. Mr. Arents has gathered 4500 first editions and manuscripts on the weed, and experts estimate them worth between $500,000 and $1,000,000. In a never halting quest of printed material on tobacco, its history, place in commerce, in medicine and literature, he has travelled over the world. Now he proposes to leave his collection to some public library or other institution, with a proviso that it be kept intact. With his declination to indicate the beneficiary he has in mind for the unique library, naturally arises speculation over what public institution could hope to make full use of such a peculiarly specialized aggregation of volumes.

TOO MUCH GOLD?

A famous London firm, the largest metal broker in the world, comes out with a stern note of warning regarding gold. They point out that for hundreds of years gold, by its rarity, has inspired confidence. Today gold is not as rare as it was, production has doubled in the past few years and people are losing confidence in its usefulness.

The fact that gold is not in circulation as currency and is replaced by paper proves that in itself all value is simply a question of confidence. It is also pointed out that most of the world's gold supply is in cold storage with commercial use declining and as this means no wastage the increased production is all the more potent.

The firm ventures the prediction that this situation may create a great upset.

"LET NO ONE SAY—"

The harassed amateur gardener, with his "Please Keep Off the Grass" sign, owes a debt of gratitude to the nature-lover who combined the cold reasoning of the psychologist, and the smooth words of the poet and the hidden rage of the rake and hoe wielder in this latest sign of the New York park department:

"Let no one say, and
Say it to your shame,
That all was beauty
Here until you came."

The four lines fit well on the neat signs New York has started to place in its parks and reservations. The signs should have far more command than the stern "Verboten" of Germany, or our own usual warnings of the penalties of the law.

STAR GAZER

Those who hold communion with the stars evidently know no caste. Proof of it is the award of the Pickering Gold Medal to a poor Japanese barber who spends his night times star gazing. The medal is for his contributions to the science of astronomy. He has been at it since 12 and is a genius in following his hobby. Let us hope the Japanese government, so keen in rewarding its military great, makes some provision so that the barber can devote his whole time, with excellent apparatus, to star gazing, with profit to the world and honor to his nation.

HOME OWNERS

A survey by the University of Chicago shows that 50 per cent of all families in cities in the North own their own homes. This is a good showing, particularly when it applies to cities only and does not take in towns where the percentage of home owners must be very much larger. Apartment houses and three and four flatters are so conspicuous in cities that the figures showing that only one in 10 families does not live in a single house are rather surprising.

The figure given for the value of the average single house in a city is $5000 in the North and $4600 in the South. But, this rather low average must be because in the smaller cities most houses are valued at less than $5000. In Boston, the average would be much above that and still higher in New York.

Women must like city life better than men for in the average city there are 97 men to every 100 women.

Jefferson, N. Y., must be an outpost as far as Uncle Sam's mail is concerned. The two letters following explain the difficulty one subscriber has in getting through the Belleville News.

"The Capitol"

Editor, News:

In three weeks I received one paper, the June 25th issue I received, the one before that, the June 18th I did not receive nor last week's, the July 2nd.

I am taking a daily paper and two other weekly papers besides yours and never have any trouble with the other papers, always receive them, therefore the trouble points at your office.

Certainly it is very provoking when one subscribes to a paper to have this trouble continually, and when I receive but one paper in three weeks, you can appreciate I have just cause for complaint.

Trusting you will give this matter your attention and adjust the matter, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Editor, News:

A thousand apologies—the July 2nd issue of your paper arrived yesterday 4:30 P. M., showing conclusively that the delay and loss of papers occur during transit.

Our country is the greatest country in the world, and we are the greatest people in the world—and yet "please excuse my hesitation as I am loathe to admit it," our mail service is the poorest in the civilized world. Why? Please, Mr. Editor, answer my humble question.

For every effect there is a cause. Perhaps you can tell us the cause for our poor mail service and thereby enlighten Uncle Sam.

Very truly yours,

Mr. Editor:
Please note.

The above letter is no reflection upon the employees of the Belleville P. O. I have visited many post offices in five different states, but the employees of the Belleville P. O. stand out in my memory as the most courteous, and for according the most kindly treatment.

To illustrate my point, I will cite one instance.

On December 1, 1933, I arrived at the Belleville P. O. 5:10 P. M. to send a money order which was imperative that it be sent December 1, but the window was closed. I explained to the gentleman in charge that I was not a "lady of leisure," but just one of the "foolish tax payers," who was obliged to work in order to pay the taxes on my property, while the state and the government cuddled, supported and protected my non-paying tenants, and "with a smile," remember, the gentleman opened the window and made out the money order.

On several occasions since the above incident, it has been my pleasure to visit the Belleville P. O., and always I was accorded the same prompt and courteous treatment.

In deep appreciation to the Belleville P. O. employees, I remain,
A Humble Subscriber.

The question of packing the Supreme Court transcends all state as well as party lines. I therefore take the liberty of addressing the citizens of your community through your columns. The question is the most critical since the Civil War. It has now been stripped of all camouflage.

It has emerged clearly as a question of principle, a principle lying at the foundation of all free governments. It is: Shall the courts be independent in their decisions and so

Children in Court

By Judge Malcolm Hatfield

The price of a half-fare bus ticket proved the means of landing a thirteen-year-old girl in the juvenile court today.

Twenty-four hours before her apprehension by juvenile authorities for scaling from a ten-cent store, this child had heard her mother tell a bus driver that she was eleven years of age. While the mother saved a small amount of money by misrepresenting her daughter's actual age, this proved to be the most expensive ticket she ever purchased for an example of dishonesty was set which the child was not slow in adopting.

Bears Feel Safe After Dizzy Pace Invade Northern Cities With Comfortable Lead

As a result of the dizzy pace they have been setting all season, the Bears, begin their second invasion of the northern cities with a comfortable margin over their opponents. But the lead is a nightmare to rival managers as the fans cry and shout "knock off the Bears." All of which causes more anguish to the opposing skipper for they realize Manager Oscar Vitt has a powerful team. Only last week, in Baltimore it was publicly proclaimed the Bears was the greatest minor league team in the past five years. Neither Vitt nor his men have in proclamations, for they have to win the flag they must come to pile up victories.

The Bruins open their stay in hostile territory today at Buffalo where they are due to play four games in three days. They end their stay in Buffalo, Sunday with a twin bill. The Bruins are waging a merry battle against the Montreal Royals for second place, and which berth Manager Ray Schalk hopes to see Herd will occupy by Sunday night by taking three out of four from the galloping Bears. The leaders will encounter plenty of opposition in the small Buffalo park. The Bruins hit well there and possess a powerful pitching staff. Some experts contend Schalk has the best staff of hurlers in the loop. Leaving Buffalo the Bears move into Toronto for four games with the hustling Maple Leafs. They end their stay Wednesday with a twin bill. Then the Bears go to Montreal for the week end. Most of the road games will be at night.

While consistent hitting has won many games for the Bears the pitchers have done their full share for the victory column. The most talked of hurler in the baseball world today is Richard Atley Donald, ace of the Bears' staff. Up until last Sunday, the Irish-Swede hurler had won 13 consecutive games without encountering a defeat. With it all the greatly publicized Bruin remains a quiet and unassuming chap. With utmost frankness he admits his string will end and then he intends to start over again. In fact, Donald never thinks of his string of victories when he goes the mound, for he has had several since breaking into professional baseball.

Glancing over his record, it reveals Donald has done well and has always been a winning pitcher. This spring at training camp, by many he was regarded as a rookie. Manager Vitt, however did not subscribe to that theory for he predicted Donald would win at least 20 games this year. The youngster was born, August 19, 1912 at Morton, Miss., but is now a resident of Kennedy Texas. He is a graduate of Louisiana Poly Tech. In the last two seasons, Donald has won 30 of his last 32 games. He has been playing league ball since 1934. He has plenty of courage and a good assortment of twisters. But when he gets into a tight spot he depends on his fast ball to get him out of the hole. There he is justified for he has blinding speed. In compiling his great record with the club, Donald gives plenty of praise to his mates for their great hitting and fine fielding support. He is the find of the season.

Triangle Club Wins Brace of Games Paul Brothers in Super Form Against Cardinals

The Belleville Triangles won a double victory Sunday at Capitol Field behind the excellent pitching of Tony and Adolph Paul. The brother outfit downed the Newark Cardinals, 7-0 and 7-5. Tony, who has two shutouts to his credit, added another Sunday allowing only 3 hits. He has allowed only eight hits in his last three games. The local boys gathered three runs in the first game, when Cappy singled, Zoppa singled and Bocchino doubled scoring both. Bocchino later scored. Cappy, Bocchino and Zoppa gathered six of the Triangles nine hits. T. Fantacone did a fine bit of fielding in both games to hold down the short stop position.

In the second game the younger Paul was nicked for twelve hits and five runs. Ralph Bocchino drove a home run which cleared the center field bank, a distance of 500 feet. Adolph making his first appearance since released from the Hilltops came through with a double to help score three runs in the first inning.

Tony Paul twirled the last inning of the nightcap when his brother suddenly weakened. John Zoppa will not be seen in the Triangle uniform for sometime due to a hip injury received at Pompton Plains several weeks ago. The Triangles have a record of twelve wins with one setback.

Race Against Time At Union Sunday

This Will Be Second Night Program at Bull Ring

UNION—The fourth speed session of the 1937 season will send America's leading dirt-track dare-devils in a race against time at Union Speedway here Sunday night. It will be the second floodlight program on the Route 29 bull ring, widest half-mile oval in the country.

Manager Andy Watts reports the course, which sweeps to 110 feet wide on the turns, in excellent condition and predicts new records when the screaming speed wagons unleash their horse power. The lighting system also has been improved, with the addition of 10,000 more candlepower.

The torrid Union Speedway gold cup point race attracts the attention of local racing fans. The feature of the approaching meet is another thirty-lap event. First place will give the victor ten credits and runners-up will gain from seven to one point according to where they finish down the line from second to eighth place.

John Ulesky, Newark's former outlaw king, faces the task of protecting his three-point lead over the field. He has seventeen points, gained in the three previous meets. Close behind, with fourteen markers, is Bobbie Sall, the bespectacled Patersonite, who finished last season as the No. 1 ranking A. A. driver in the southeastern sector and who held the eastern title in 1933.

Four stars are bunched in the next position, each with ten points, Frankie Bailey, New Brunswick's young driver who ranked No. 1 in the eastern states district last season; Tony Willman, veteran Milwaukee star; Wild Bill Holmes of Hoboken and John Duncan of Long Island are duelled.

Bailey, Willman and Holmes have scored victories in the earlier Union meets. The first-named has not appeared here since he won the May 8 opener, being on the sidelines with injuries.

The remainder of the sixteen men who have scored gold cup points are: Jack Moon of Garfield and Ed Stanek of Caldwell, 8 each; Duke Nalen of Chicago and Walt Brown of Long Island, 6 each; Earl Henderson of Akron, Ohio, 5; Honey Turck of Long Island, 4; Tommie Himmeshot of Laurelsville, Pa., and Walt Ader of Bernardsville, 3 each; and John Matern of Elizabeth and Hardy Cox of Dallas, Tex., 1 each.

Time trials will start at 7 o'clock and the first of the four, four-man four-mile qualifying events will go on at 8:30. A fourteen-lap consolation and the featured final will round out the program.

Old Favorite and Newcomer at Tri-City Lazy Lou Wilson and Field Helgason Part of Show

UNION—An old favorite will return and a newcomer make his bow on Wednesday night's motorcycle racing program at Tri-City, Stadium here.

Slender Lazy Lou was among the first of the big time Westerners to invade the East in 1934. Weighing under 130 pounds, he specialized in sprints of one and two-lap distances. He rode with the best during 1934, '35 and '36. At the end of the latter campaign he broke loose from the American Motorcycle Association, sanctioning body for the local races, and this winter raced in Australia and New Zealand.

Several weeks ago Wilson paid a $50 fine to return to the good graces of the A. M. A. and applied for permission to race. He received a trial license and was sent to the minor New England circuit to test his speed. So successful was Lazy Lou that he was graduated back into the big circuit.

Helgason, not yet 23 years old, is on his first racing jaunt. He has had a colorful career for a youngster. Beginning in 1935, it took Field, whose

Eagles Remain Idle By Disappointment Clevelanders of Newark Fail to Show Up for Game

The Belleville Eagles were idle Sunday because the Clevelanders of Newark failed to make an appearance. Sunday morning at Belwood Park the Eagles will clash with the East Orange Jacksons and Sunday afternoon will travel to Pittsburgh Oval, Newark, to play a return game with the Oxford Tigers. Johnson, Goglia and Brucaglia will do the twirling while Tobia and Krupinski will be behind the bat.

forebearers came from Iceland, two months to jump into the Pacific Coast Class A. Injuries twice put him on the sidelines for periods of two weeks and a month in 1935. He spent most of the 1936 season nursing a broken leg.

In trial showings in the East, the Portlander has shown enough promise to fit him into the limited quota of out-of-district riders. A spectacular, "win or spill" dare-devil, Helgason is among the most colorful of the younger broadsiders.

Manager Andy Watts will have both Wilson and Helgason face the strong field in the Class A events. With such stars as Crocky Rawding, Bo Lismán, Don Smith, Goldy Restall, George Matheson and others on hand, the newcomers will have stern inaugural tests.

Official batting and pitching averages are complete to date as follows. Leading in doubles are Bosiak with seven and Gonnello with five. Triples Bosiak and Caruso with two a piece. No home runs to date.

YOU'LL GET A BANG OUT OF THIS ONE!

DO you get a kick out of a golf ball's click when you really lean into one on the tee? Does your heart beat faster when the big fish strikes, and your singing reel almost smokes? Can a brisk breeze and a taut sail make you feel like a kid again, forgetting care in the sheer joy of action? Mister, if you're like that, what a bang you'll get out of this big Buick! You'll go for the way it goes for you. You'll like the quick, eager sport of its get-away, the buoyant, swiftest steadiness of its travel. You'll thrill to the businesslike manner in which it settles to the pull, its quiet, dogged competence in long, tough going.

You'll welcome the way it cradles you over the bumps, the neat, compact, handily mobile feel of it. You'll be proudly aware of its beauty, of the picture you make riding in its this-minute style. But don't forget this major thing—it's the buy of the season, price-wise as well as on performance! It's still selling at the lowest price in all Buick history—you can still get a big Buick eight for less than some sixes would cost you. So don't hold back. Good things, you know, can't last forever. Don't pass up a buy such as Buick is at its low prices now.

Quest for Titles on At Nutley Velodrome

Amateurs and Pros Continue Battle for Bike
Crowns

The quest of 1937 national professional and amateur sprint supremacy will continue at the Nutley Velodrome Sunday night, where Manager Alf Goulet has arranged competition in both divisions.

The pros, in the third of their series of twelve events, will compete at three-sevenths of a mile, with the deadlock now existing between the defending titleholder, Willie Honeman, and the German threat, Mathias Engel almost certain to be broken.

Each are now tied for the lead with eight points apiece, Honeman's the result of winning the inaugural at two-sevenths of a mile and placing second in the second at five miles. Engel's were accumulated in directly opposite fashion, trailing Honeman in the two-sevenths mile and leading him in the five.

There is also a tie existing for third place in the point standing, Anker Meyer Andersen, champion of Denmark, and Frank L. Keating of New York each having collected two. Bobby Echeveria of California and Guy Ricci of Plainfield trail, each with one.

With the improved riding condition of Cecil Walker, George Dempsey, Cliff Bullivant and Henryk Szamota, however, the leaders henceforth should receive more formidable opposition and Sunday's event may mark a sharp revision in the point standing.

The amateurs also will compete at three-sevenths of a mile in the second of their series of five. Mickey Francisco, defending champion, leads with five points, John Gervan has three, Angelo DeBatto has two and John Eiler one.

In addition to the titular tilts there will be open competition in both divisions, a miss-and-out and a two-mile handicap among the features for the money chasers. The first event will start at 8:30 P. M.

Schedule Lou Wilson At Paterson Track

Lazy Lou Has Cleaned Up
Race Tracks in Australia

Lou Wilson, the lazy man from the West, will come back to the motorcycle racing wars next Tuesday night to compete again in the speed ranks at the Hinchliffe City Stadium in Paterson.

Wilson, back from a triumphant clean-up of the Australian motorcycle tracks, probably will receive the greatest welcome ever tendered a rider in the eastern circuit. Always a popular star when he was riding at the Paterson track, Wilson has been missed. And his return Tuesday night is certain to be hailed by speed fans.

The "Lazy Lou" who mopped up in the motorcycle racing competition in this country before going to Australia is prepared for new laurels now that he is back in the eastern competitive wheel and brings with him a great record. The Wilson who will take the Paterson track Tuesday night is a more skillful, more sensational star than ever before and he is expected to prove a tough obstacle for the other riders in the motorcycle ranks.

Wilson was a consistent victor in Australia and on his return to this country immediately scored a clean sweep at Springfield, Mass., on his initial try of that track. Now he comes to the Paterson track, prepared to take over his old foes, Jimmy Gibb, Bo Lisman, Crocky Rawding, Goldie Restall, George Matheson and all the rest.

In addition, another new starter will be at the Paterson Stadium Tuesday night in Feld Helgerson, the Swedish star who is arriving from the West Coast after consistent success there. The appearance of Wilson and Helgerson should provide the strongest field of the season.

Promoter John Kochman has lined up a big program, starting at 8:45 P. M. "Opportunity Night" awards also will be distributed during the program.

to eight on week days and from nine until twelve on Saturdays. This paper was informed additional equipment is needed. If any one should care to help obtain this, they may get in touch with Recreation Director Lister.

Emeralds Drop Close Ten-Inning Game

Harrison Young Peoples'
Polish A. A. Victors
By 10-9 Score

The Emerald A. C. dropped another hard fought contest Sunday to the Young People's Polish A. A. of Harrison, 10-9, in ten innings.

An error by the Emerald second baseman allowed the winning run to score. Staniewicz and Brophy were the leading batters for the winners with three hits apiece, while Lynch, Lubben and Urna played best for the losers, the former getting three hits while the latter two each had two hits. Werck of the Emeralds made the best fielding play of the day. The absence of Leo O'Reilly, Bill Lister and Bill Fisk, the former batting .437 and the latter two .320 and .315 respectively proved too much to overcome and the Emeralds went down to defeat again.

The Emeralds had scheduled a Saturday contest for last week end with the East Orange Senators at Springdale Oval, East Orange, but due to a last minute cancellation by the Senators did not play the contest.

Tomorrow the Emeralds will play the Montclair A. C. at the Montclair A. C. field. An added feature of this game is the availability of the Montclair A. C. swimming pool to all traveling teams. The Gems defeated the Montclair A. C. last year 6-4 and hope to make it two in a row Saturday. On Sunday the Gems will play the Nutley I. C. A. at Branch Brook extension.

that the North Belleville Association has assets of $463,332; 533 investing shareholders, and invested shares totaling $380,568.

"Savings invested in shares of the North Belleville Building and Loan Association are now insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, an agency of the United States government," W. D. Clark, president of the association announced today, upon receipt of a certificate of insurance from the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, in Washington. "Each individual investor in the association is now protected against loss of his account up to $5,000."

"The Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, created by Congress in 1934, affords protection for investors in thrift and home-financing institutions, similar to that given depositors in commercial banks by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation but with one material distinction. The FDIC, organized in 1933, insures the liquidity of bank deposits, while the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation operates in the field of long-term savings and home-financing, insuring the safety of investors' funds. All federal savings and loan associations are required to qualify for insurance."

"That our association has been admitted to insurance of accounts means that our assets are rated at so high a grade that this agency of the government is willing to indemnify investors in this association against possible future loss," said Mr. Clark. "Since insurance is extended only to well managed thrift institutions, our association is thus approved as to policies and operating methods. All accounts now on the association's books and future additions thereto are covered by insurance up to $5,000 each, regardless of the time they were opened and, of course, all new accounts will be insured," Mr. Clark explained.

"The financial breakdown of a few years ago disclosed an imperative need for protection of long-term savings invested for income in the thrift and home-financing institutions of the country, which aggregate almost $6,000,000,000, held by nearly 8,000,000 people, largely wage-earners," continued Mr. Clark. "This condition brought about the creation of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation which has a capital of $100,000,000, subscribed and paid in by the government. The corporation is also building up a substantial reserve fund from annual premiums paid by insured institutions."

Mr. Clark said that the North Belleville Building and Loan Association is in a position to meet all home-financing demands made upon it and to give the borrower as great a service as to the saver. Perhaps the most attractive feature of the association's loan program is the direct-reduction plan of repayment through which the borrower reduces the principal of his debt by monthly installments paying interest on the unpaid balance only, the association president pointed out.
