KIVLEN SHOWS UP, DISRUPTING WPA CONFERENCE

Noll Invites Him In, Mayor Asks On What Authority

A conference between town officials and WPA heads Monday morning, which had been held over from Saturday because some of the commissioners could not attend at that time, was almost disrupted when Town Democratic Chairman Eugene Kivlen crashed the gate of the commission-sanctum sanctorum.

Saying that Kivlen actually got in as One-Eye Connolly might, is somewhat stretching the truth, for he was invited by Director of Parks and Public Property Louis A. Noll, who arrived at the conference late to find Kivlen standing outside the door of the office of Mrs. Florence R. Morey, town clerk.

As Noll approached Kivlen asked if he might attend the conference inasmuch as "some of the commissioners were sending WPA men" to him for job and, as a citizen, he would like to be in on the doings.

"As a citizen you are entitled to go in," said Noll. "Come on." In they went.

Mayor William H. Williams asked on whose authority Kivlen had been admitted.

"I told him to come in," said Noll.

"By what authority?" asked the Mayor.

"By my authority as a commissioner," said Noll.

The Mayor threatened to call off the conference, unless Kivlen left the room, but when Director of Public Works Patrick A. Waters said that there was little else left to discuss and Kivlen might as well remain, it was agreed he could do so.

"I think it was audacious of you to ask a political leader to sit in with us while we are discussing these projects which will be paid for by the taxpayers' money," Mayor Williams declared. "This board has handled the relief and WPA question for the last six years with-

HARTLEY GIVEN VICTORY PARTY AT ESSEX HOUSE

Local Association Arranged Reception For Its Standard Bearer

Members of the Congressman Fred A. Hartley, Jr., Association, Belleville, tendered a victory reception to the standard bearer of the association, last night at 8 o'clock in the Essex House, Stephens street. Walter P. Weiss was chairman, assisted by Anthony B. Di Leo, James Gallagher, Paul B. Kilby, and William Wakefield.

The committee presented a movie program by the Public Service Corporation, and a floor show of several numbers which had been obtained by Howard Oliver, Kearny, and Mayor Williams, who made the victory address.

A string orchestra provided music to balance the program. Refreshments were served.

MAY AID WPA'S BY SCHOOL JOB

PWA Offers No Help For School No. 3 Auditorium

While it is problematical that a PWA project may be put through as told exclusively in the Belleville News three weeks ago, President Herbert C. Schmutz of the Board of Education and Mayor William Williams will try again to get some action from Federal officials in the matter of an addition to Public School No. 3, as a WPA project.

PWA officials declare Belleville is "out on the end of the limb" because New Jersey has already exceeded its allotment in such expenditures.

It is believed the school addition job may take care of some 200 odd WPA workers, who are daily expecting to be laid off county jobs, as winter closes in. Belleville is faced with providing relief for the workers when, as and if they are laid off.

The State Department of Education has condemned the third floor of the building as unsafe and a fire-trap. Had the PWA grant been forthcoming a new auditorium and gymnasium would have been erected and the heating plant reconstructed.

Mayor Williams Entertains 3,000 School Kiddies At Xmas Party

3,000 To Participate At The Capital Theatre Affair

Over 3,000 Belleville school kiddies will enjoy themselves at Mayor William H. Williams' fifth annual Christmas party two weeks from today, Friday, December 30, in the Capitol Theatre.

Each year since 1934, Mayor Williams' Christmas party for the kiddies has been a banner event in town. It has always been held in the theatre through co-operation of the manager, Ben Weschner.

As usual, the first of two shows will start at 8:30 a.m., and the second at 10 a.m. There will be movies of Mickey Mouse, Merry Melodies, Krazy Kat, Pop Eye and Our Gang comedies and many others.

Gifts and sweet things will round out the occasion to make the youngsters happy.

Mayor Williams will provide the high light of each show with his personal prize award of a puppy with dog license No. 1 and another puppy with dog license No. 2, and if there is anyone who doesn't think there are 3,000 animated enthusiastic children waiting to hear their name called as a winner of one of the puppies—they don't know children.

Recorder Everett B. Smith is again acting as chairman and Mrs. William Irvine the duties of treasurer for this year's party, as last year.

Tickets will be distributed through the schools to students of the fourth to eighth grades inclusive, the students in these

St. Peter's Church Concludes Its Centennial Celebration

Solemn High Mass Was An Impressive Ceremony

This is the week of the celebration of the centennial of the consecration of St. Peter's Church and enthusiastic crowds have turned out to witness or take part in all the events of the week to date.

The week of observance was opened Sunday morning in the church with a Solemn High Mass, with Archbishop Thomas J. Walsh of Newark presiding and Bishop Francis Monahan of Ogdensburg, N. Y., in attendance.

The massed colors of the various military organizations of Belleville led the procession followed by members of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Knights of Columbus in full uniform.

About thirty priests were on the altar as Rev. John O'Brien, Jersey City, celebrated the Mass. Rev. James Owens, Nutley, and Rev. Eugene Gallagher, Montclair, were deacon and subdeacon respectively. The latter two priests were invited to assist because their present parishes were originally part of St. Peter's.

Rev. Joseph P. Dolan, present pastor in Bayonne and a curate at St. Peter's twenty-six years ago, delivered the principal address. He traced the interesting history of the church from its founding down to the present time. He was introduced by Rev. Joseph M. Kelly, pastor of St. Peter's.

Archbishop Walsh Speaks

Archbishop Walsh then spoke on the fine work that St. Peter's has done during the past 100 years and the lessons to be drawn from the hardy pioneering of the founders of the church. The St. Peter's choir sang the famed "Missa Sanctissimi Cordis Jesu" and Palestrina's "Panis Angelicus."

The social events of the week have run true to form thus far and those in attendance have been very enthusiastic over the entire program. Monday evening's card party was enjoyed by almost 300 persons. The men's smoker and entertainment Tuesday night drew over 600, who applauded continuously through a show which lasted more than three hours. Songs, dances and sketches were presented by the well-known Jersey City Safety League entertainers, all of whom are members either of the police or fire departments.

The Dramatic Club's production of "Meet the Duchess" was well received by all who saw it Wednesday. Prominent in the cast were Mary McGreevey Cort, Helen Grey Olsen, Greta Kinnealy, Dorothy Stockton, Emily Marshall McClintock, Doris Tracey, Anne Foley, Joseph C. Duval, James A. Leonard, William J. Brady and Andrew Monghan. Last night it was the children's turn and they took good advantage of it. They put on their own version of what a centennial celebration should be, and the audience liked it.

Two More Events

Two more events remain on the docket and it is expected that each will overflow St. Peter's Hall. A monster party to-night will be given under the auspices of the Social Society. The committee of 37 is under the chairmanship of Miss Teresa K. Salmon, president of the society for ten years.

Sunday night's concert by the choir, which made such a favorable impression at the Mass last Sunday, will combine both sacred and secular music. Among the former to be heard will be Rachmaninoff's "Glory to the Trinity" and Tchaikovsky's "Praise the Name of the Lord." In the more popular vein are "Danny Boy," "Auf Wiedersehn" from the Blue Paradise by Sigmond Romberg, "Deep River," "Kashmiri Song" and "Carmena."

The chorus will be under the direction of Thomas A. Haney and the soloists will be Miss Palma De Noia, pianist, and Andrew Brady, baritone.

CHIAPPARI HEADS BELWOOD PARK IMPROVERS

Other Officers Elected At Meeting In Rec House

A. E. Chiappari, Smallwood avenue, was re-elected president of the Belwood Park Improvement Association for 1939, at its monthly meeting in the Recreation House last week. Re-elected also were Philip Reide, treasurer, and Alexander Ross, secretary.

Leo Scanlan has been chosen vice president, and A. Sage, chairman of the Civic Committee. The Belwood Park Association has been in existence for a long time, and its purpose is the improvement and betterment of facilities of residents in that district. At present members are trying to have the Board of Education erect an enclosed playground at Public School No. 10. This school is one of the few that lack such facilities.

A resolution has been sent to the Board of Freeholders approving the Franklin avenue extension as a right step in the development of good transit facilities to the Newark Subway.

Protest WPA Layoff

The unit has adopted a resolution, which has been sent to Federal and State WPA officials, Congressmen and Governor A. Harry Moore asking that recent layoffs of widows and aged persons from WPA employment in Essex County be protested.

The resolution set forth that the affected "will be without Federal aid, pending disposition of Old Age Assistance applications, imposing unnecessary hardship at a time in their lives when adjustments are hard to make" and "if the dismissal must remain, could it not be made effective upon acceptance of Old Age assistance, thus preventing local relief expenditures, or could it not apply to those WPA employees who, by health conditions and habits as well as supplemental income in family groups, are more able to be maintained, or maintain themselves?"

From Senator W. Warren Barbour Mr. Hewitt received the following: "During the campaign I stated on numerous occasions that the increase in WPA enrollment during the spring and summer was largely for political purposes, and I predicted that immediately following election many of the unfortunate unemployed individuals would be dropped from the WPA rolls. Unhappily, my prediction has materialized.

"I share your concern over this situation. A strenuous effort will be made in the coming session of Congress to return the relief problems to the state with grants and aid from the Federal Government. Such an arrangement should prevent to a large extent political manipulation of the relief problem. You may be sure that I want to do everything possible to afford real and dependable relief for those who, through no fault of their own, are unable to find employment in private industry."

Governor Moore wrote, enclosing newspaper releases covering correspondence he had had with President Roosevelt which he said "indicates my attitude toward recent rulings from Washington."

"I sincerely hope these orders will be rescinded in the very near future," he said.

Mr. Hewitt succeeds William Redfearn, Overseeer and Director of Welfare, Bloomfield, who is now president of the N. J. State Association of Overseers.

Now is the time to select your CHRISTMAS CARDS. See our complete assortment. Armstrong, 313 Union avenue, corner Joralemon.

Flew The Coop

Belleville isn't much of a rural community anymore and chickens — the kind that are kept in coops — are seldom seen, but a few residents keep them, or hope to.

This week there were six pilfered from the coops of Mrs. H. J. Wiese, 97 DeWitt avenue, and nine from the coop of Peter Chemnitz, 222 No. Belmont avenue.

Woman's Republican Club Holds Xmas Luncheon-Party

Tables Decorated With Candles And Miniature Christmas Trees

The Belleville Woman's Republican Club held its annual Christmas luncheon and party on Thursday afternoon, at the Woman's Clubhouse, 51 Rossmore place. The table was decorated with red candles and miniature Christmas trees.

Mrs. J. K. Alexander, president, led in the salute to the flag, and Mrs. W. H. K. Davey offered grace. Mrs. John F. O'Brien, Jr., honorary president and organizer of the club, said that this was the fifth annual luncheon and Christmas party, and thanked the members for their cooperation in the past and pleaded for a continuance of the same for Mrs. Alexander.

She wished all a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. Mrs. Alexander extended greetings and announced that she had appointed Mrs. O'Brien chairman of the Legislative Committee to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Fred Van Duxyn, who resigned.

The club endorsed Mrs. Olive Sanford, as chairman of the Educational Committee, and Mrs. Constance Hand, as chairman of the Appropriations Committee of the Legislature.

First Vice-President Mrs. David Sundheimer, was welcomed back to the club, after her three months' severe illness. Mrs. Sundheimer responded and graciously thanked the members for the many flowers, cards, visits and letters of encouragement bestowed upon her, which she said greatly helped her recovery. The special award, a thirteen-piece luncheon set, crocheted by Mrs. J. Harry Edwards, was given to Mrs. O'Brien. There was an exchange of gifts, which were distributed by Mrs. O'Brien, who impersonated Santa Claus, with an improvised beard made of a handkerchief.

WOMEN FORMING CONSUMERS' TAX COUNCIL GROUP

Mrs. Louis A. Noll Is Head Of Local Organization

Mrs. Louis A. Noll, Jr., 627 Belleville avenue, has been named to undertake the formation of a local unit of the Emergency Consumers Tax Councils of New Jersey, according to word received here today from council headquarters in Trenton.

The object of the organization in Belleville, as elsewhere in the State, is to make the women of the community, particularly the housewives, more "tax-conscious" than they are today, and by so doing, to lower eventually the cost of living through the reduction in the cost of government and resulting high taxes.

Announcement of Mrs. Noll's organization of the commission to organize an Emergency Consumers Tax Council in Belleville was made by Mrs. Florence Biddle Zintl, chairman of the tax councils Organization Committee which has sponsored the birth of councils in more than 200 communities throughout the State. Every county in the State—twenty-one in all—is represented among the councils that have been formed and which already include a membership of nearly 10,000 women.

"The need for consumer enlightenment to New Jersey's tax problems," declared Mrs. Zintl, "is clearly indicated by the fact that we carry the second highest per capita tax load in the United States—$81.00 per person—and we are now faced with budget requests for 1939, from our own state department heads alone, which would add $5,000,000 to our present costs."

Local governments spend three-fourths of the state's tax revenues," declared Mrs. Zintl, "and if we expect to get the most out of our tax dollar, we must help our public officials by being constantly alert and well informed on all tax matters."

"Democracy can function more efficiently when citizens cooperate actively with their government officials. We must make it popular to have citizen participation in the affairs of our local government in order to show our officials that our interest in public affairs has not ended when we cast our ballots."

In addition to the Belleville Council, three other Emergency Consumers Tax Councils are now functioning in Essex County in East Orange, West Orange, and Verona. Plans are now under way to form more consumer tax study groups in this area within the next few weeks, to afford the greatest possible number of Essex County women the opportunity to participate in this statewide movement.

Stepping from behind a west-bound bus, which had stopped in Joralemon street in the short block between Garden avenue and Perry street, into the path of east-bound automobile, Mrs. Maud Panteny, sixty-five, of Joralemon street, was thrown to the pavement and seriously injured, Wednesday evening, police said. She was taken in the New Jersey Police ambulance, which was substituting for Belleville's which is under repair, to St. Mary's Hospital with a fractured collarbone, possible skull fracture, scalp lacerations and compound fracture of the right leg below the knee.

The driver of the car which struck Mrs. Panteny is James L. Brown, colored chauffeur for Robert Lockner, 56 Overlook avenue. Brown, who is thirty-eight years old, was arrested by Dr. Herbert B. Vail, town physician.

It Was Squirrels

It was an uncanny noise that kept Frank McCourt awake nights at his home, 278 Union avenue, until he discovered a bevy of gray squirrels were scampering there each night and gnawing holes in the roof. The police who know how to handle the squirrel situation chased them away, it is said.

NOLL WOULD STOP PHONE SERVICE OF TOWN

Says Appropriation Short To Wind Up This Year

Believing that the appropriation of $3,139.93, as provided in the municipal budget for 1938 for telephone operator and service, may be exceeded by $125, and receiving no transfer of funds from other accounts to cover the shortage, as he requested, Director of Parks and Public Property Louis A. Noll Tuesday informed the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company to discontinue all service at the municipal building as of last Wednesday.

A contract requiring ten days' notice of suspension of service precluded the shut-off Wednesday.

Town Treasurer Sargent and Mayor William H. Williams are endeavoring to find some account from which they may transfer funds to the telephone account to help out Noll, who feels that any commissioner who exceeds his appropriation is placing himself in the position of being charged with a misdemeanor.

"I have repeatedly told Town Treasurer T. Russell Sargent that we would be short about $125," said Director Noll, "but apparently he has been stalling me off, waiting for that and waiting for that. I handed the notice personally to Mr. Thomas McHale, manager of the local office, instructing him to shut off the service."

Noll said that he is now checking all calls from all departments "to cut down the telephone bill."

Noll lists expenditures for telephone as follows: January, voucher No. 28423, $150.98; February, No. 28556, $173.07; March, No. 28745, $173.40; April, the month before the municipal election, No. 29059, $219.51; May, No. 29362, $179.08; June, No. 29584, $173.54; July, No. 29783, $159.60; August, No. 30057, $170.90; September, No. 30265, $173.73; October, 30384, $174.50, and

"It's The Principle," Not Stubbornness In Smoking Against Edict Of Will

Local Girl Says $100 Was Placed In Trust Fund, Anyway

If Miss Florence H. Woodruff, 229 Joralemon street, secretary of the Dairy Products Company, 73 Mill street, quits smoking cigarettes for three years she gets $100, according to the will of the late Edmond P. Hains, Sr. 40 North Sixth street, Newark, who died suddenly in a City Subway car November 25. Miss Woodruff is a granddaughter.

But Miss Woodruff has other ideas. "I don't see why I should give up smoking just to satisfy my grandfather's whim," she says.

Senior clubroom and will then suspend activity until January. All Juniors are working hard on Christmas gifts for their various pet charities.

Communion Sunday will be held on Sunday at the 9 o'clock Mass. It is expected that pictures for "Highlights" will be taken immediately after Mass. The girls are requested to meet at the school shortly before 9 o'clock Sunday morning and then enter Church in a body.

The card party being sponsored by Troop No. 2 will in all probability be held sometime in January or February. Details will be available at a later date.

Woman's Club Notes

by Mrs. Laury G. Stem, Publicity Chairman

214 Joralemon St., Belle 2-3906

The meeting at the clubhouse this past Monday was strictly a business meeting.

On Tuesday evening the senior club was entertained by the junior group.

The garden department, of which Mrs. Norman H. Cooper is chairman, had a delightful day at the club Thursday. "Gifts from the Kitchen" was the lecture with demonstrations after which "Gift Wrapping" was explained.

The annual Christmas party will be held at the clubhouse on Monday, when gifts for the children and food for baskets will be received. Mrs. William P. Adams, program chairman, has charge of the program with Mrs. Edward O. Glaspey and the music department assisting.

The social service department will entertain the WPA Nursery School at a Christmas party on Tuesday, December 20, and conduct a toy shop all the next day at the clubhouse.

On Thursday, December 22, the garden department will make wreaths at the club, thus ending the year busy in club activities.

"It is a matter of principle rather than stubbornness," the girl says she could give up smoking if she wanted to, but she just doesn't want anyone to tell her she has to.

"I like a cigarette just as well as the next girl," she said. "But if I wanted to stop smoking I could—just like that."

Miss Woodruff says the $100 has grown from a $50 trust fund her grandfather started for her when she was a child.

"He meant it for me then and there were no strings attached to it. I don't see why there should be any now. My grandfather hated smoking, particularly by women and he did not smoke himself. I am surprised he put the stipulation in the will, but I won't sign any such agreement."

Miss Woodruff says she only smokes occasionally, anyway. Miss Mabel Emma Hains, daughter of Mr. Hains and executrix and trustee of the will, is directed to pay the trust fund from the West Side Trust Co. on condition Miss Woodruff "shall agree in writing" to abstain three years from the date she signs the agreement from "use of cigarettes."

The will was filed Friday at the Surrogate's office. It was dated April 3, 1934 and provides for Miss Woodruff a $100 outright bequest, independent of the trust fund.

Mr. Hains' four children receive $200 each and an equal division of his real estate and a $5,000 mortgage. His son, Rev. Edmond P. Hains, Jr., of Stamford, Conn., was founder of Newark Gospel Tabernacle. The decedent's wife, Mrs. Elnora Hains, was provided for, the will adds.

Mr. Hains retired twenty years ago after conducting a music store at 278 Washington street, Newark.

Parrillo Association Meeting

The next regular meeting of the Parrillo Association will be on Monday at 104 Harrison street. There will be election of officers followed by an old-fashioned Christmas party. Turkey and other refreshments will be served. Albert J. Kuhn has been elected chairman of the Fifth Anniversary dinner-dance to be held February 21.

Part of the order of the evening is a Christmas party and exchanging of gifts. Refreshments will be served by the committee consisting of Mrs. Helen Kelly, Mrs. Bessie Warren, Miss Helene Warren and Mrs. Gladys Colfax.

Taxpayers' Meeting

There was a meeting last night in Public School No. 8 of the Belleville Taxpayers and Civic Association at which city manager government was discussed by City Counsel Donald M. Waesche, Teaneck.

The municipal budget for 1939 was also touched upon, although the town officials have not as yet officially gone into the matter.

Each year the party is made possible through the courtesy of Mr. Weschner, who provides the theatre, and the contributions and gifts of the business men, manufacturers and citizens of Belleville and of many outside boundaries of Belleville.

From the expressions of who have participated in past years the fourth annual party will take its proper place as another success.

BELLEVILLE, A FINE TOWN

Do the residents of Belleville realize what a fine town in which they live? Visitors speak very highly of Belleville, of its well-paved streets and avenues; its attractive school buildings; the brightness observed on every side; its industrial activity, and the ease one encounters in getting about, because of the bus service.

There may be, and probably are, differences of opinion among the residents of Belleville concerning some specific internal matters connected with the governmental administration. But on the whole, from observation, the town looks inviting from every angle, and whatever opinions residents may have about this or that official action, the effect does not show itself to the visitor.

It would be difficult, indeed, to find any community so near an Utopia that no one would be able to criticize, in the slightest degree, any act of omission or commission on the part of those whom the people select to manage their community affairs.

This thought does not suggest that Belleville residents should not protest as vigorously as they choose, when in their judgment anything is done that does not meet with their approval. That, of course, is the right of every person, no matter whether he or she may live.

CHRISTMAS SEALS

Now is the time to send in your Christmas Seal contributions. To those who do not realize what this annual fund means, consider for a moment what the fund is doing, and has done in the past. It has been the means of saving thousands of children from the dreaded ravages of tuberculosis. If the fund were to be discontinued or allowed to fall short of its goal, many unfortunate children would become victims of this death-dealing disease.

Through the means of the Christmas Seals sent broadcast throughout this country, accompanied by appeals of local Red Cross groups, generous and sympathetic souls have done much to mitigate suffering. Be among these good people, all who contribute, and have the knowledge that your contribution goes to a worthy cause, which there is no better in this land. Belleville's help in this charity has been a most estimable benefit. A trained nurse is constantly available to help take care of Belleville cases, to give advice where advice is needed, and to assist wherever assistance is found necessary—and there is always plenty of room for help.

So, in this Yuletide time, when charity is all about you, don't wait. Send in your contributions, now, to the local Red Cross, and look into the blue of the sky with the knowledge that you have not been appealed to in vain.

KILLING THE GOOSE

The easiest thing in the world to do is to criticize. That is the reason that radicals can be so wordy when they start trying to show the defects in the American system. It is the reason politicians have a field day when they start badgering business.

But America and the American industrial system have brought us a long way, with all of its faults. We have come far through a constant process of evolution and progress. The sixty and seventy hour work week has dropped to forty and forty-five. The dollar a day wages have gone to that much an hour for many of our workers. Millions of us ride in automobiles. Almost every family has its radio set. We have every day comforts in even our poorer homes that would be luxuries for the rich in other lands. Figures of the U. S. Department of Commerce show that the employee gets more than eighty per cent of the manufacturing dollar.

Our danger is that, in trying to keep up with the demagogue who promises the moon with the ease of the irresponsible, we will kill the goose that has laid so many golden eggs on our march of progress.

PATRONIZE LOCAL MERCHANTS

These last few days before Christmas afford time for Belleville residents to put a little local holiday spirit in their home town by patronizing Belleville merchants. And local merchants who have not taken full advantage of the opportunity to tell Belleville residents all about their holiday merchandise still have a chance to do so, before the holidays are over.

Local pride in one's home town may be stretched to include helping the local merchant, without doing a bit of harm to the resident who thinks he is proud of the town as a place of residence and for the education of his children. As a matter of fact, the business of a community has a lot to do with the prosperity of a community. The more prosperous local business is, the better bargains business men will be able to offer the residents.

Cooperation between the residents and the merchant of any community will go far to help the interests of both.

INTERESTING AND INSTRUCTIVE

Recently the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co. of Belleville Base Plant conducted an exhibit in the local library in Washington avenue at Academy street. At the present time the Isolantite Co., Inc., has on display in the same building items of a ceramic nature that are manufactured here by that concern. Not only have the exhibits been attractive, but interesting and instructive. It is amazing in a town as small as Belleville how few persons know anything about its industries, which manufacture products to ship to the far corners of the earth. A trip through industrial sections of Belleville would prove enlightening to many taxpayers, who may wonder where the bulk of funds are derived to keep Belleville as the "town that pays as it goes." Too, most of the industries are civic-minded, Belleville's plants, as a general rule, are well kept, modernistic and many beautifully landscaped. The exhibits offer absolutely nothing for Belleville folks to buy—but they do offer an educational feature that might be termed: "Know Your Town and Manufacturers." Belleville was settled, historians record, before Newark. It has a definite historical background that has been somewhat neglected, as has New Jersey in general. Perhaps, 100 years from now, when the town celebrates its 200th anniversary, these exhibits, through publicity and literature which has been prepared, may give the future generations some inkling of what happened here in 1938. 100 years from now! How many of Belleville's present industries will be in operation and what will be the size of those that remain? An interesting speculation, indeed, born of rambling thoughts as one views the exhibit.

XMAS CHEER

With the jingling of Christmas bells and the hustle and bustle of busy shoppers in crowded stores, we are reminded that once more the Yuletide Season is upon us. Beneath all this hustle and bustle, if we look deep enough into ourselves or others, we'll find a warm, friendly cheerfulness that bubbles over. A feeling of peace and charity, of good will towards men.

In this season of giving, we are reminded especially of the charity of a fraternal organization which has endured through many years. The Elks' Christmas charity program is one that lives on because it is a giving not alone of material things, but a giving of cheerful joy. It's a remarkable thing that which our lodge of Elks do. They have found the secret of befriending those less fortunate than themselves and because they have, they've made Christmas a happy time. They've brought the spirit of the birth of Christ to a small child who might not have known otherwise how true that saying is, "Yes, my dear, there is a Santa Claus."

AMERICAN TOYS

The U. S. Department of Commerce is authority for the news that children in this country will enjoy more "Made in America" toys this season than ever before. Japan, because of its invasion of China and its shortage of raw materials, has shipped only about half as many toys to this country as it did a year ago. Other toy manufacturers are likewise sending fewer toys. All in all, this should make for a brighter, more cheery Christmas throughout America, for it means that thousands of men and women engaged in producing "Made in America" toys are finding greater employment.

THE OLD SHIRT NEEDS MENDING

THIS WEEK

by "Guardian"

The views expressed in this column are entirely those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Publishers or Editors of the Belleville News.

Possibly those who planned the All-American Conference in Lima, Peru, had in mind the particular fitness of such a conference in the Christmas season—for it is very timely that a Conference dedicated to promoting peace and good will, brotherly love and the "good neighbor policy" should be proceeding at the time of the year when all the Christian world is echoing the thought of "Peace on Earth, Goodwill to Men of Good Will."

It is very essential, in our judgment, that we have an understanding knowledge of what is going on in Lima and what is behind the conference.

Though George Washington in his farewell address, warned us against "entangling alliances," when in the early 1820's the Holy Alliance sought to enforce the right of kings and put an end to the growth of democracy, and proposed to direct their efforts to overthrow the new governments erected in South America out of the old colonies of Spain, President Monroe in his message of December 2, 1923 said in effect that the time had come to point out that the American continents were "not to be considered as subjects for future colonization by European powers."

Many interpretations have been placed upon that Doctrine which has been the subject of great discussion. It always was interpreted to mean that the United States would not meddle in European affairs and would not tolerate European nations meddling in South American affairs. Then came the World War when we did meddle in European affairs in a futile war "to make the world safe for Democracy."

Following that have come the dictatorships which we have discussed heretofore. And with the dictatorships came a thirst, almost a necessity, for new worlds for them to conquer, new fields to explore. And through propaganda, the dictator nations—probably with a bit of justification, feeling that since we had meddled in European affairs they had a right to meddle in South American affairs—have been preaching their doctrines of Communism, Fascism and Nazism in South American Republics.

Through the promotion of trade agreements, through special discounts and duties many European nations have succeeded in obtaining very large markets for their goods in South America—almost always to the detriment of the commercial activities of the United States.

If, which seems a very remote possibility—the dictator nations should obtain a foothold in South America which would enable them to establish naval and aviation bases—much of the protection that is ours because of the two broad oceans on either side of the United States would vanish. Therefore is aroused a vigorous sentiment that to protect the countries of South America, Central America and North America, there must be solidarity of viewpoint and common interest with reference to the continuance of the theory of "America for the Americans."

Fortunately in the past few Administrations of our National Government we have gotten away from the "shaking the fist" diplomacy which for so many years distinguished our operations with our neighbors to the south, and have substituted instead, a policy of friendly good neighborliness in an effort to demonstrate to our Southern neighbors that nothing could bring them larger return than friendly understanding and co-operation with the United States. Fortunately too, our representative of the people of the United States and is headed by a very fine citizen, Secretary of State Cordell Hull, who by many is regarded as the most competent member of the Cabinet.

It is very essential to the future welfare of this land of ours that this conference in Lima should succeed. If we understand something of what it is about, then our hopes and prayers for its success will be more meaningful.

Yours "til next week,

LOOKING BACKWARD

Five Years

The Wesley Men of Wesley M. E. Church held a card party in the Recreation House, Joram street and Garden avenue. Howard Virtue was chairman of the entertainment committee, assisted by Harry Hayes, Robert Kidney, J. C. Wiley, Christian Hansen and Charles Thompson, Jr.

Proof that the physical equipment of a school building is not necessarily related to the scholastic standards of the institution was produced at the Board of Education December meeting, where it was announced that Belleville High School for the first time had been placed on the accredited list of secondary schools of the Middle Atlantic States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. At the same meeting communications from Howard D. White, Assistant State Commissioner of Education, and from William P. Uhler, Jr., Assistant Director of Physical and Health Education, were read in which overcrowding and inadequate facilities at the school were severely criticized.

Belleville's newly acquired plant, the Bart Laboratories, formerly of 55 Grafton avenue, Newark, now at 235 Main street, began production of reflectors to be used in army searchlights. Belleville Lodge of Masons observed the fiftieth anniversary of the evening in December, 1889, on which John B. Kelvie, Ruthersford, was elected Worshipful Master of the local lodge.

Ten Years

The annual bazaar, which had added so materially to the reputation of the church indebtedness at St. Peter's, was in full swing.

The Boys' Glee Club of the High School sang several numbers under the direction of Miss Indra Bryant at a meeting of the University Club. Dr. Bruce Robinson, director of the Child Guidance Bureau, Newark spoke on "Mental Hygiene and Vocational Guidance."

Extended athletics in the grades as advocated by Coach Charles L. Steele, Jr., was the subject of a discussion at a meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association in Public School No. 5.

Announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Jennie Adams, town nurse, and G. R. Willson, American Consul at the Port of Yarmouth, Nova Scotia.

Fifteen Years

Belleville Council, Junior Order, planned a visit to Buck Council, North Newark.

The Ladies' Guild of Christ Episcopal Church held a novelty and fruit sale in the Parish House.

A canvass had been started by the police to round up stray dogs, giving owners five days' notice to procure a license. Such a drive is planned right now by the Town Commission, according to Mayor William H. Williams, who says $1,000 in revenue is waiting to be collected. The police will be used to check up.

As today the Red and Blues in the Everyman's Bible Class were engaged in an attendance contest.

Twenty Years

Writing to his father, James W. Cruthers, Stephens street, described the heavy fighting when the Americans started their big push in November. Elmer H. Reid, 410 Cortlandt street, was in the air service and his brother, John W., in the Navy. The two boys and their dad were members of the Thompson Machine Company Patriotic Society.

A party of twelve guests, including two British officers and an American officer, were entertained informally in the home of Miss Mabelle Bierling, De Witt avenue. Following a reception in the home the party motored to New York and danced at the Ritz.

Private James W. Batty, son of George Batty, 182 Washington avenue, was listed among the seriously wounded in action.

The tie vote on the appointment of a town attorney was broken at a meeting of the Town Commission when Commissioner Hannen voted for Joseph A. Connolly. Mayor Waters and Commissioner Livingston also voted for Mr. Connolly. Commissioners Minion and Mathes favored H. A. Miller. When Mr. Connolly was elected Mr. Mathes moved to make it unanimous.

Editor, The News:

I, James H. R. Johnson, 36 Schuyler street, appeared before the Town Commission on Tuesday evening, December 6, to inquire why the driveway to my home had not been laid, since that of everybody else on the street had been finished for at least six months. The only reply to my request was made by Commissioner Waters, who has charge of the Public Works Department, who said it was not under jurisdiction of his department. There was no information given as to when the job would be done.

A town ordinance clearly states that WPA projects are under joint supervision of the Public Works Department and the WPA supervisor. Whom he intended to deceive is hard to tell, as the board knows, and so I, that his department has seen to it that all the work is carried out to some specification. To whom should I go? I have been deprived of its use for over two years. Possibly a colored man should not expect justice. It was my third complaint. If it is never done I expect to be forced to pay.

JAMES H. R. JOHNSON
Ed's Note: Commissioner Waters' answer to this is in the "Kivien" story elsewhere in this issue.

Blotter Jottings

Arthur Boehmer, 59 North Willow street, Monclair parked his car in Brighton avenue, Saturday night while he entered a night club nearby. When he came out, he discovered someone had jacked one of his front wheels on rocks and removed a new front wheel and tire valued at $4.

A buttermilk thief has on several occasions taken a bottle from the porch of Mrs. H. Enders, 126 Cedar Hill avenue, she told authorities Saturday.

The electrical and thunder storm Saturday night caused the police box, through which calls of officers are transmitted to headquarters, to go awry. It was out of adjustment all night and William Dunleavy of the Signal Department was called in Sunday to untangle the situation.

Two packages of waste paper were left by proprietors of a cleaning establishment at William street and Washington avenue in the doorway Monday night. Mischievous boys put a match to the bundles, causing considerable excitement and damage to the paint on the front door. Two show windows were cracked by the heat. Patrolman Gallagher booted the burning packages into a nearby gutter.

Ten-year-old Robert Gridley of 120 Rutgers street, suffered a leg fracture late Saturday afternoon when struck by an auto while crossing the intersection of Holmes street and Washington avenue. He was taken to the office of Dr. Samuel Goldberg by the driver of the auto, Frederick Miller, 11 Crescent drive, Passaic, and, after treatment, sent home.

Quick action by police and firemen in aiding a family physician Saturday night appeared to have saved the life of Frank Schweigard, 45, of 272 Washington avenue.

At 10 p.m., Schweigard, at home with his small son and daughter, suffered a heart attack. The children, frightened, summoned the doctor, who in turn called for help. Two oxygen tanks were applied for two hours and Schweigard was rushed at midnight to St. Barnabas Hospital, Newark.

The M. D. Says

HEALTH QUESTION: Is there a relationship between Christmas gifts and health?

There is often a definite relationship between Christmas gifts and health, particularly gifts to children. Children's toys and other gifts should be selected with due consideration given to whether they are safe for a child to play with.

A ball selected for a small child should be large enough so that the child can not put it into his mouth and swallow it. Dolls should be selected which have securely fastened heads or buttons for eyes rather than eyes which are merely glass heads on the end of sharp pins. Toys with sharp, cutting edges are to be avoided for very small children.

"Colonel" — Mayor's Wow Dog

Many Famous Dogs Owned By Residents Of Belleville

Mayor Williams' "Colonel" Has "Who's Who" Pedigree

Others With Fine Dogs

"Colonel," owned by Mayor and Mrs. William H. Williams, Rossmore place is a twenty-month old English bull dog, bred by the famous Charnister Kennels of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Trimpi, South Orange. The pedigree of "Colonel" reads like a page of America's Who's Who of English Bull Dogs. Fifteen champions' names appear in his pedigree. He is half-brother to "Handsome Dan, 3rd," famous Yale mascot. Mayor Williams, who gained considerable attention as a canine exhibitor, has turned to the dog show judging field, where many of the state's top-flight fanciers believe he is destined to become one of the outstanding officials in his specialty, bulldog breed. Saturday's Newark Kennel Club show was the second the Belleville expert judged. 250 dogs were entered.

The Mayor received his first test as a judge last May, when he was invited to officiate at the Atlantic City show. About sixty ribbons for various classes tell the story of Mayor Williams' success as a dog show exhibitor. For six years he showed dogs in various New England exhibits, including Boston, New Bedford, Lowell, Lenox, all in Massachusetts; Newport and Providence, R. I. Later he turned to showing cocker spaniels, continuing to garner many prizes.

Mayor Williams' interest in dogs goes back to 1914, when he purchased his first English bull with earnings saved while working in a New England mill. Since then he seldom has been without a dog.

Each year the Mayor sponsors a Christmas party for Belleville's children in the Capitol Theatre. Among the prizes are two pedigreed dogs. Mayor Williams again is going to present two dogs this year, when the fifth annual party is held December 30. Recorder Everett B. Smith and Mrs. William V. Irvine are assisting the Mayor in running the show.

And, speaking of dogs right here in Belleville there are owners of many famous ones. For instance, there is M. H. Kennell, owner of Kentop Kennels, 439 Union avenue, who has a string of Boston Bulldogs, known throughout the country, his champion dogs being consistent winners at Madison Square Garden shows and the Morris and Essex shows, the leading indoor and outdoor shows. One of his dogs is valued at $25,000, it is said.

Mrs. Charlotte Potis, 64 Hornblower avenue, has several special and variety breeds of Boston Terriers and William H. Jones, 146 Joram street, specializes in Daschunds, while Mrs. Paul Troeder, 384 Joram street, turns her fancy to Doberman Pinschers. Miss May Wilding, 460 Joram street, also specializes in Doberman Pinschers.

Other dog lovers, who have outstanding pedigreed dogs are: Milton Dobrin, Baldwin place, Kerry Blue Terrier; Anthony Morro, 107 Sandford avenue, English Bulldog; Ed Holweg, star fullback High School football team, Spitz; Mary Volpe, 901 Smallwood avenue, Samoyeds; George Barnett, Baldwin place, Cocker Spaniel; Thomas Striven, Prospect street, Boston Terriers; Philip Dettelbach, Hancox avenue, Cocker Spaniel; Mrs. Bert Woodhall, Berkeley avenue, Spitz; Henry Fallows, Rosewood place, Chow; Police Capt. Elmer Leighton, English Setter; James Smith, Belleville avenue, Beagle Hound; Ralph Smith, Little street, Pointers; William Flynn, Holmes street, German Pointer; Fred Burfield, 440 Joram street, Beagle Hounds and English Setters; Emanuel De Noia, DeWitt avenue, Pointer; Peter Koustas, Gless avenue, Scotch Terriers; Ed Slavin, star quarterback High School team, Beagle; Elmer Michael, Hanley, Dalmatian Hound (Coach Dog); George McLaren, Clearman place, Irish Setter, and Mrs. George A. Kelsall, Preston street, German Shepherd.

Meador Wright's PIQUANT POLITICS

The views expressed in this column are entirely those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Publishers or Editors of the Belleville News.

The action of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Harris last week in filing an individual petition for renomination for freeholder is said to have been prompted by fear that her committee assignment as chairman of Overbrook Hospital would be given to another. The petition was signed by Mrs. Harris' challenge to County Counsel Arthur T. Vanderbilt and other members of the board that she means to fight, both for committee assignments and renomination.

Mrs. Harris and Vanderbilt have been at each other's throats for the past ten of the eighteen years she has been a member and he its recognized leader. At intervals the feud has died down, only to break out later with renewed bitterness. Each time her term as freeholder expires, Mrs. Harris becomes apprehensive that she will not get Vanderbilt's endorsement for another nomination. Three years ago she was included on a compromise slate at the last minute and barely escaped defeat in the Roosevelt landslide.

Mrs. Harris is said to fear that Curtis R. Burnett, present finance chairman, will be named director next year instead of Ralph D. DeCamp, and that Freeholder Miele will be given the hospital assignment that she has held for a long time. Mrs. Everett Colby, according to this report, would also lose the chairmanship of the Essex Mountain Sanatorium at Verona. The common belief is that DeCamp will be renamed director, and that committee assignments will remain very much as they are. The prestige of the board of freeholders has never been higher than it is today, and any difficulties that may arise between Mrs. Harris and other members is but an exception that proves the general rule of harmony.

As 1938 draws to a close, it is of interest to review the significant happenings that have taken place, and the careers of the men who played a part in them. The outstanding figure in the political news of N-J Jersey during the past year has been Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City. He is the man of the year, but for reasons not very flattering to his political judgment. It was in the corresponding issue of this column last year that I questioned the political wisdom of Hague's challenge of the C.I.O. Today there can be no doubt that he made a serious error.

Having got the civil liberties bear by the tail, he felt that it was impractical to let go until he had demonstrated at least disciplinary control. This led to Norman Thomas being tossed head foremost into a Hudson River ferryboat under the plea of "protective custody." The rest is history.

It is my belief that feeling against Hague was responsible for a large portion of the majority of 112,000 that W. Warren Barbour won over William H. J. Ely. In view of the trend throughout the country, Ely would almost certainly have lost anyway. So on that score Hague has not yet been punished by the voters. Nor does the returns indicate any serious reversal in sentiment for the Democratic party throughout the state. Despite Barbour's impressive plurality, the average majority for candidates for the general assembly was only 38,811. This assembly vote is the best index of party strength. It was appointing to the Republican ticket indicates that there is long way yet to travel before the G.O.P. elephant is gratified in the clover fields of years ago when the assembly majority was 149,070.

DISCUSS BUILDING OPPOSITE LOCAL TOWN HALL

Proposition Places Byrnes' Lunch Wagon In Quandry

One of Belleville's busiest corners and most prominent—Washington avenue and Belleville avenue—may soon be the scene of building activity. Norman H. Cooper, attorney of Rossmore place, administrator of the Cooper estate, it is said, is contemplating erecting a group of stores at the southwest corner of the streets, where a gasoline service station is now located, north of Harry Byrnes' diner.

The Kieb Company, 917 Broad street, Newark, real estate brokers and managers, have written: "We are planning to erect a one-story building at the southwest corner of Washington and Belleville avenues, opposite the town hall. We are preparing leases for a food chain in a store, size 50 by 120, for a self service market to be opened in this building. We expect to have the corner store, approximately size 19 by 80."

Meanwhile Byrnes is in a quandary as regards the status of his lunchwagon, which is situated, it is said, on a forty-foot wide plot of land, one foot of the wagon extending over on the site where the proposed building would be erected. Byrnes has been requested to move the wagon, which would necessitate engagement of a steam shovel to excavate a high bank in the rear of the wagon. It is said an alternative is to cut off one foot from the wagon.

Byrnes has engaged Theodore Bellet, local attorney, who feels, it is said, that inasmuch as his client has paid the Cooper estate rent for ten years for the site the wagon occupies and has negotiated a ten-year lease, with eight years yet to run, that he is legally entitled to remain where he is. It is feared that removal of the wagon might damage it.

Byrnes also operates a liquor store in Washington avenue at William street, near which, it is reported other building activity is planned.

RAHMIN EFFENDI ADDRESSES GATHERING AT LOCAL SYNAGOGUE

The Jewish Community of Belleville was honored last Wednesday night by the presence of the Hon. Rahmin Effendi Sion, Baghdad, former official in the Port Directorate of Iraq, and distinguished leader of Oriental Jewry, as lecturer at the third evening lecture series on "Jews in Other Lands," sponsored by the Congregation A. A. A.

Rabbi Rubin R. Dobin, who is arranging the lectures, opened the meeting with a few remarks about the speaker. He then introduced Samuel J. Kogan, chairman, who, after explaining the position of Iraq in the modern world, presented Mr. Sion.

Mr. Sion first delivered a short history of the country. He said that Iraq is over 4,000 years old, and that it is mentioned in the Bible many times. He went on to say that Iraq has played an important part in the development of Jewish civilization, in fact the Babylonian Talmud was written in Baghdad. The Jewish Community of Iraq, Mr. Sion informed, stems from the Jewish Exiles who came to Iraq, then Babylonia, after the dispersion from Palestine by Nebuchadnezzar. The speaker himself is a descendant of a family which is in Baghdad for over fifteen centuries.

According to the speaker, there has been a renewed spirit in the country for the past decade. A strong movement is now going on to create a greater interest in Jewish as well as in general culture. The 130,000 Jews in the country occupy an important place in the social, economic and political life of the land. Mr. Sion also stated that ninety-five per cent of all the Jewish children receive an education in the schools.

He concluded with the observation that the future looks very bright for the Jewish community of Iraq, and that the people there will continue to serve as an example for the rest of the world, for in Iraq, Christian, Moslem and Jew live happily side by side.

Mr. Sion expects to return to his native land in February. He came to these shores to pursue higher studies at the Yeshiva College in New York City.

Mr. Kogan announced that the next lecture in the series will be held some time in January.

Mr. Freudberg will also conduct a stage band for such stage shows which will play the Shubert Theatre, and do not carry Radio Name Bands, which is the policy of the Shubert Theatre. The Shubert is reopening Saturday, December 24. The opening attraction is Ben Bernie and all his Lads, in person, heading a huge stage show featuring Dixie Dunbar of screen fame, and others.

"Is The Universe, Including Man, Evolved By Atomic Force?" is the Lesson-Sermon, subject for Sunday, December 18, in all Christian Science Churches and Congregations throughout the world. The Golden Text is: "Hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; I am he; I am the first, I also am the last. Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens." (Isaiah 48: 12, 13).
Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible: "All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made." (John 1:3).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes this passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "In the vast forever, in the Science and truth of being, the only facts are Spirit and its innumerable creations" (p.479).

PLAN OPERETTA AT REFORMED CHURCH HERE

To Present "True Santa Claus" On December 28

A Christmas operetta, "The True Santa Claus," will be presented in Belleville Reformed Church, December 28, at 8 o'clock under the direction of Miss Edna M. Baun, assisted by Mrs. Ruth Dunkinson at the piano. Leading parts will be played by Marion Watson, G. I. Belden and Fred Woodward. Miss Watson takes the part of Mollie a poor girl, who wants a doll for Christmas. Her sister had told her there is no Santa Claus. Mr. Woodward takes the part of a Professor "Big Wig," who gets into trouble with his Ma-in-laws, and Mr. Belden plays the poor old tramp on whom Mollie lavishes favors, in return getting the doll.

ISOLANTITE EXHIBIT GIVES IDEA OF CERAMICS MANUFACTURE

Items Are Now On Display At The Belleville Library

The exhibit now on display at the Belleville Public Library is that of Isolantite, Inc., manufacturers of ceramic products, located at 343 Cortlandt street. The company produces ceramic articles for use in the electrical communications and electronics industries.

Manufacturing was started in 1921, and has been in continuous operation since that time. Starting with a single building, it is now five times its original size.

The items range from very minute pieces to special switches weighing as much as 200 pounds. The display gives an idea of the process operations required in producing some of this work, from the raw material, as it is mined, to the finished part that is used by the trade. Descriptive photographs showing some of the many uses of this material are also shown.

A large proportion of the items produced by this company are made to customers' specifications, necessitating the manufacture of thousands of items running to millions of pieces annually. The standard line consists of radio insulators, coil form, vacuum tube bases, sockets, co-axial transmission line and oil burner ignition assemblies.

This exhibit follows one held recently in the library by the Westinghouse Base Plant of which

JEVRY OBSERVES HANUKAH RITES

Celebrate Traditional Feast
Of Lights Starting Tomorrow

The annual Chanukah Festival of the Religious School of Congregation A.A.A., will be one of the main events celebrating the traditional Feast of Lights which will be observed for a period of eight days beginning tomorrow evening. The festival, which is under the guidance of Rabbi Rubin R. Dobin will be held on Sunday afternoon, December 18, at 2 P. M. in the social hall of the synagogue, 317 Washington avenue.

According to the Jewish calendar, Chanukah falls on the twenty-fifth day of the Jewish month Kislev. It is celebrated in commemoration of the courageous campaign waged by the Maccabees against the overwhelming hordes of Antiochus Epiphanes when he sought to conquer Palestine in the year 165 B. C. Chanukah, also known as the Feast of Dedication, reminds the Jewish people of the purification and re-dedication of the Holy Temple three years after it was defiled by the Syrian general and king. Its observance was decreed by Judas Maccabees and the Jewish elders of that age, to bring to the Jewish people the courageous and victorious stand made by the Jewish armies against the tyrants of Greece and Syria. It is a constant reminder of the steadfastness and firmness so characteristic of the Jewish people.

The holiday is principally observed in the synagogue and in the home, by the lighting of Chanukah candles set in an eight-branched Menorah, with an additional holder for the "Shammos" or the servant candle. The custom is to light one candle the first night, two the second night, and so on till eight candles are lit on the eighth evening. The lighting is preceded by the chanting of appropriate blessings and the singing of the popular hymns: "Haneros Hallalu" and "Mo'oz Tsur."

Many interesting customs are observed during the holiday. The children receive Chanukah gifts. They play a game called "trenchel" a teetotum, with Hebrew lettering on the sides. It is a tradition to eat "latkes," small potato pancakes on the evenings of the holiday. The holiday spirit will prevail in all Jewish homes. The joyous spirit of the Festival will inspire many and will delight all. The pupils of the daily Religious School will light Chanukah candles every evening, and a Chanukah party will be given by them.

The Chanukah Festival scheduled for Sunday afternoon will start promptly at 2 P. M. The Sunday School faculty and the leaders of different youth groups of the synagogue are helping Rabbi Dobin stage the festival. They are: Miss Lorraine Housman, George Rader, Jack Levine, Miss Pearl Brown, of the Sunday School; and Miss Pauline Rosen-blum, Miss Harriet Lemell, Miss Ruth Tader, Leslie Biebelberg, leaders of the various youth groups.

This year's festival will surpass those that were given in previous years. Every class and club in the Religious School will be represented in the program. In addition to a group of holiday recitations and declamations, the Hadassah Buds, under the leadership of Miss Lemell will put on a Chanukah puppet and marionette show, which was entirely built, planned and conceived by the girls. The Progressive Judasans, under the guidance of Miss Rosenblum will present a novel number, and the Girls of Blue and White, with Miss Rader at its head, will give a short play. The Chanukah issue of "Hatikvah," the Religious School newspaper will be issued at the festival. The members of the Maccabean Boys Group, of which Leslie Biebelberg is leader, will act as ushers and take care of the stage.

After the program a special Chanukah buffet will be served to all those present. Mrs. Clara Weinglass is in charge of arrangements.

Burnett Issues Ruling For Sale Of Liquor Christmas and New Year's

No Special Permits For Revelry
"Ad Nauseam," He Says

"As regards Christmas Eve, as heretofore," says A. B. C. Commissioner D. Frederick Burnett, "no extension of hours will be approved after 3 a.m."

"Extensions on New Year's Eve will be approved, but, because the day comes on Sunday, only until 5 a.m. There is no reason why revelry should continue ad nauseam and until it affirmatively interferes with those who devote to worship their morning hours on Sunday. An extension to 5 a.m. allows reasonable latitude for conviviality on the few occasions New Year's falls on a holy day," he adds.

"If, therefore, extensions of hours are contemplated, make no provision for sales on Christmas ities concerning extension of hours.

"Last year Christmas and New Year's both fell on Saturday," says Mr. Burnett.

"As in the past, many municipalities adopted new regulations or amended existing ones, extending for these special occasions the hours during which retail licenses were permitted to sell alcoholic beverages, in order, as they deemed, to afford full expression of the holiday spirit."

"One such regulation came before me on appeal. Pearce vs. West Orange, Bulletin 220, Item 10. I willingly went along with the Board of Commissioners of West Orange in calling all wraps off on New Year's Eve, because that holiday is a time for celebration and merrymaking coincidental with the passing of the old year, the birth of the new, and the hope of better times which springs eternal. The regulation was disapproved, however, to the extent that it permitted sales on Christmas Eve after 3 a.m. Christmas, as distinguished from New Year's, is a holy day, a family day, a home day, 3 a.m. on Christmas Eve is plenty late enough."

Every practicing Physician has much for which to thank those Doctors and Scientists who perfected anaesthesia.

Ether, Chloroform and Gas have made it possible to abolish pain, save the patient's nerves and allow the Physician to perform a careful, pains-taking, thorough operation with the smallest amount of danger.

What a humane boon to the race anaesthesia has proven to be. Contrast the quick, clean, painless hospitalization of the operative case today, and the terrible ordeals of an amputation, operation or child-birth before anaesthesia.

Physicians are truly thankful for anaesthesia and what it has made possible in medical practice.

Thank your lucky star you live in this enlightened, Scientific age.

SPORTS

BEFORE YOUR EYES

By Joe Duval

The opening of the basketball season, which automatically makes other football activity seem like an interloper, has been looked forward to for quite some time in Belleville, and awaited with an eagerness seldom seen before a season starts. But it is reported that incidents in the High School and ordinary citizens in the town have had a common interest for the past month—just a mutual desire for a court warfare to get under way. For the prevailing impression seems to be that, despite the lack of what is usually termed "excitement material" among the court candidates, Al McBride has a crowd of husters under his wing this winter who will at least give the assembled crowd its money's worth of thrills and will win the majority of its games.

The underdogs are expected to cop tomorrow night's little fuss, because the varsity of any school almost always beats the alumni. Usually the former school players call the cream of past stars for their team and present a high-scoring outfit. But basketball, more than any other sport with the possible exception of tennis doubles, depends almost entirely on team play and the alumni seldom have sufficient time to get together on this important item. The school boys, on the other hand, have been playing as a unit for several months and have gotten used to each other. It will be the old story of five individuals vs. a five-way unit—and the unit will be favored.

THUMBNAILED SKETCH

Albert K. McBride is starting his twelfth year, as coach of the Blue and Gold basketball squads. Born in St. Clairsville, Ohio, Al played three years of varsity basketball, football and track at Mt. Union College, graduating in 1921. For three years after leaving Mt. Union he coached all sports at Ashtabula High School and played professional basketball with the Cleveland Rosenboms. He came to Belleville in the fall of '27 as basketball and baseball tutor, but shortly thereafter confined his activities to the winter sport. He teaches physical education at the High School in addition to his coaching.

Now's the time to fix up that model you made years ago or hurry up the one you are working on now. Of course, the model must be hand made; none of this commercialism, boys and girls. And you must give your entry at the time when you made the thing, because your entry will be classified according to your age when you were manufacturing your joy of your heart: under 13, 13 to 16, 17 to 21, over 21.

Hilltops-Iron Dukes Game Off

The football game originally scheduled for Thanksgiving between the Belleville Hilltops and the Nutley Iron Dukes and which was reported last week as having been postponed until last Saturday, has been cancelled due to the fact that the Hilltops will not be able to gather sufficient players for a Saturday game and Sunday contests are forbidden both at the Nutley Oval, where the game was to have been played, and at Clearman Field.

team) played five games recently and the opposing center was the same man for all five teams.

BANG! BANG! HERE COMES THE REDCOATS

Of course, they won't all be in red coats as they are told to be, but here they come anyway. Thousands of little boys and big boys with guns, traipsing over the countryside looking for bucks so they can fire their little shootin' irons. For tomorrow opens the deer season. Between then and next Wednesday night (but you'll have to stay home Sunday) an estimated 2,000 to 2,500 bucks will see their last day—as will several people on the other end of the gun, probably. It might be well for all hunters to read over the regulations set forth by the State Commission before they set forth. Naturally, as is usually the case, only the conscientious will bother to follow them, but read them anyway.

IN THE BOWLING SPOTLIGHT

Tops in alley excitement was hit last Friday when Wallace & Tiernan and Pittsburgh Plate Glass put on that titanic struggle—W&T to try to keep in its tie for first with R.C.A., Pittsburgh to pass the Watco boys and take over second spot. Both failed in their ultimate purpose, but what a whale of a time they had doing it. After splitting the first two games, Pitt's Caruso, Higgins, Grossman, Stout and Sawyer put some nice scores together to make 1020, their highest score of the year outside of the 1027 in the second game. W&T's Chlaupke, Rhodes, Walker, Skidmore and Klemz, whose previous high was 1005, smacked the pins for 1021, to win the match by a single pin! Matches like that take all the starch out of players and spectators alike. Jack McDougall came close to that devoutly-wished-for 300 last week, but fell short by eleven pins. This is, however, high for the North Newark alleys this year. Mike De Carlo and Bill Klemz did a little brother act in the Tavern League. Believe it or not, on the same night they each chalked up 203-182-211-596.

BELLBOYS OPEN TOMORROW NIGHT AGAINST ALUMNI

Blue And Gold Expected To Win First, But McBride Has Doubts About Paterson

Speed is being stressed, sharp-shooting eyes primed and wits sharpened at the High School in preparation for tomorrow night's basketball opening. The Alumni are going to furnish the opposition for Coach Al McBride's boys and a more dangerous scoring combination has seldom been assembled in these parts.

Manager-Coach Al Culkin has drawn upon practically all the basketball talent that has come and gone through the High School in order to put on the floor the strongest possible array of court guards.

On his squad he has placed Bob Malcolm, Bob Jackson, Frank Brown, Leo Culkin (now of Jersey City College), Jerry Lupton (U.S.A.), Joe Caskey (Newark U.), Bill Palmer (Dartmouth), Chet Sanok, Ray Smith, Ray Meehan, Walt Smith and Frank Caragher. Several others are on the "preferred" list should they be available tomorrow night. But those who have followed Bellboy court teams during the past few years know that this is a high-scoring crowd that will be hard to beat.

McBride is counting on superior team-work to put his charges on the long end of the score when the final whistle blows. He has picked a first squad (which, he emphatically points out, can be added or subtracted) but diplomatically refuses to name the starting line-up until game time.

BALDWIN DEFEATS ROYALS 23-17, TAKE SENIOR LOOP LEAD

Undeclared W. & T. Holds First In Manufacturers All Junior Games Postponed

Most of the present squad has moved up from last year's second team which went through a tough season with only an overtime loss to South Side to mar its record. The majority of the boys have had one or two years of experience. With the material he has on hand, McBride expects to better last year's varsity record of eleven wins and five losses.

Paterson Central Tuesday

Despite the fact that it has lost the great Gabe Mosca, Paterson Central, which comes to town Tuesday night, will be a mighty tough obstacle to overcome, in McBride's opinion. The teams from the "outlying territory" are always tough nuts to crack and this year's aggregation is no exception. The Junior Varsity fives of the two schools will play the preliminary game starting at 7:45 p.m.

Adolph Paul and Jack Clark, co-captains of the 1938 edition of hustling Bellboys, have had almost identical records on the court. For both, this is the second year on the varsity squad. Clark, however, was on the Jayvee team in his sophomore year, leaving him one up on his mate.

Vince Dundee Officials At St. Peter's Boxing Bouts

The athletic part of the men's smoker put on by St. Peter's Holy Name Society and the Belleville Council of the Knights of Columbus as their contribution to the St. Peter's centennial observation consisted of three very well-received boxing bouts. The first bout was a brother act with Ernie and Vito Ratner of the Silver Lake district of Belleville putting up a nice exhibition for three rounds. Freddie Polo, Belleville policeman, refereed the bout.

Pal Donohue, Belleville, and Joe Doyle, Woodside A. C., went through a slugfest that had the audience of more than 600 in

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE

All games scheduled for last week postponed until end of round. In the battle of the year as far as the young basketball season is concerned, Baldwin Brush smashed the opposition of the previously undefeated Royals, 23-17, and assumed complete domination of the first round of the Senior Recreation Basketball League.

By its win Baldwin clinched a constant uproar. Willie Skidmore, one of the state's leading flyweights was the third man in the ring.

Referee Vince Dundee, former middleweight champion, came in for his share of the body punching as Jimmy Bachelor, ex-feather champ as an amateur, and Charlie Thatcher, ex-bantam and feather amateur champ of New Jersey, put on a hilarious burlesque for three rounds. They were still slinging leather when the last "Time" had sounded and the lights went out.

Junior Pals Want Games

After holding their opponents scoreless for three-quarters of the game, the Belleville Junior Pals ended up by wallowing the Bloomfield Lyceum, 28-4, Tuesday night at Bloomfield. The Pals are seeking games with good junior fives. Write Tom Candura, 16 Washington street, Belleville.

Seek Basketball Games

The Casa Colombo All Stars, Millburn, a light senior basketball team, is desirous of booking home and home games with Belleville teams. Write to B. Yannotta, 310 Essex street, Millburn.

WARD TACKLES W.P.A. PROBLEMS

Conferred Monday Morning With Government Officials

Several means of alleviating Belleville's acute WPA projects situation were worked out at a conference Monday morning at 10 o'clock in the municipal building when the Town Commissioners sat with WPA officials to mull over various jobs that may lead to work for some 700 odd men who, otherwise, will be thrown on relief rolls during the winter.

For the last six months Director of Streets and Public Improvements Patrick A. Waters, who has thought up many projects to keep Belleville men employed during the last six years, has been warning his colleagues, he says, that the day of reckoning was near at hand, when the present 700, which at one time had reached a total of over 1,300 WPA workers, would have no more projects to turn toward. "Frankly I don't know what to do," he said.

Director of Parks and Public Property Louis A. Noll brought up the matter when he said he had a few projects in mind, but couldn't get any co-operation.

Waters Wants Co-operation

"Everyone here can get co-operation," replied Waters. "I have been doing this job single-handed for six years without any help. I have repeatedly asked for suggestions and have been glad to get them."

Noll said he had suggested painting buildings and otherwise making needed repairs and filling in the turf bog.

Mayor William H. Williams explained that the cost of filling in the turf bog would be more than the town could stand, because trucks would be standing idle much of the time while workmen loaded them by hand. Little aid for this type of project would be forthcoming from the Federal authorities, he added, explaining that due to the fact that Washington avenue is a state highway some help may be arranged to give local men work tearing up trolley tracks. The Mayor, Director Waters and Town Engineer Matthew Sheehan were in Trenton recently on this matter and their report was made Monday.

"I thought the projects we submitted to WPA officials, as adjusted by them just plain damn foolishness," said Waters, explaining that "to paint buildings two projects would be necessary. One project, called for washing walls and another for painting them. I thought that was crazy. A good painter with plenty of good paint could do the job. No private outfit would stand for such bunk, so why should we spend the taxpayers' money that way?"

Each commissioner had been requested by Mayor Williams to present details of projects Monday for consideration of the WPA officials. "If it takes all afternoon," Noll pointed out that seventy workers had been laid off last week and another 165 were on the way out.

"It's fortunate the weather has been so mild this fall or they might have been out of work sooner," said the Mayor.

Telephone Carols To Reach Four Corners Of Earth

The Telephone Carols, traditional Christmas program of songs in which telephone men and women join simultaneously in telephone buildings throughout New Jersey, will be heard in the four corners of the earth this year, the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company announces.

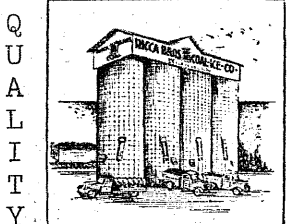

For several years the carols have been broadcast by Station WOR on the regular broadcast band, to permit families of telephone people and others to listen and join in. In addition this year WOR's short-wave station W2XJI will transmit the program to distant lands.

The carol program will be sung here in New Jersey at 12:45-1:00 p.m. Friday, December 23. A special chorus at telephone headquarters in Newark will be heard during the program in "Break Forth, O Beauteous Heavenly Light" from the Bach Christmas Oratorio.

The Music Box

by Al Vada

I hope everyone enjoyed reading the column recently. I have asked some other teachers and students the same question and here are their answers:
Question: What do you think of Swing?
Miss Wiedman: "It's a nuisance—always on the radio when I want soothing music."
Mr. P. A. Brennan: "Swing music has its place in the life of every individual, but I do think that it should be subordinate to the finer classics and semi-classics."
Adell Kleinmecht: "Swing is

Tommy Dorsey and Benny Goodman are leading in the poll for King of Swing in opinion of B.H.S. students.
Their standing on Tuesday was as follows:
Benny Goodman—25; Tommy Dorsey—25; Horace Heidt—20; Sammy Kaye—20; Larry Clinton—15; Paul Whiteman—15; Kay Kyser—10; Wayne King, Guy Lombardo, Ozzie Nelson, Artie Shaw and Richard Himber are tied for last place.
But, remember many more votes are coming in... I'm sure you'll all be surprised whom we crown "King of Swing." Look for finals in my column next week.

Local Youths Make Good In Music

Lillie Albert
Lillie Albert was born in Newark fifteen years ago. At the age of ten she took her first lessons on the violin from Isador Jannett of Newark. She soon joined the junior string orchestra of the Newark Y. M. H. A., and did much solo work with this group. When she moved to East Orange, she played violin with the East Orange High School orchestra, under the direction of Paul Herfurth. She was with them when they won first prize in the Eastern States Competition at Albany, New York, and she received a medal for her work in his contest.
At present she is taking lessons from Ben Levin, and playing with the Y. M. H. A. Symphonic orchestra, which will hold its annual concert soon under the direction of the noted composer and conductor, Mark Silver.
Miss Albert plays first violin in the Belleville High School orchestra and has appeared in a recent assembly program as a soloist.

What Makes A Jitterbug Work?

That's the next week's question in Al Vada's music box. If you have a slant on how a jitterbug works, get in touch with Al as soon as possible, he'll be glad to have your opinion. If you see him walking in the halls stop him, give him your slant on the question—his homeroom is the library!

JOHN WALSH: "Swing is just tops with me. Tommy Dorsey is tops especially with 'Alexander's Ragtime Band.'"
JERRY BREININGER: "Swing is the nuts! If you want to see Jitter Bugs jitter, just jitter down to jittering Belleville High!"
GAETANO TUORTO: "It's O. K.! Especially if you own a pair of football shoes!"

Hostess Club
The Hostess Club is studying etiquette. At the last meeting round-table was held and the faculty advisers, Miss Huff and Miss Carol, presented the proper forms of introduction and the correct responses.
Table favors for Thanksgiving were made at the meeting before. The members are now planning activities for Christmas.

Science Club
The Nucleus Science Club, sponsored by Norman Cotter, is delving into the mysteries of the bacteria world. The club aims for individual activities. The members have gone on hikes, visited the Newark Museum, and they hope to present a play on science soon. They have been learning the method of making slides and are a very enthusiastic group.

Chess Club
The high school Chess Club, advised by Norman Cotter, is participating in a chess tournament which begins December 8. Their first opponent will be Nutley.

for the sewer. This item includes interest. The attorney offered in exchange to give the town the right-of-way for the sewer, conceding that a check of records failed to disclose Belleville had ever obtained such right, when the sewer was constructed over twenty years ago, assessment for which was not levied until about eight years ago. Newark, the attorney added, had constructed a similar sewer through the land, but that city has its right-of-way on record. Director Waters said he doubted that any board twenty years ago would construct a sewer through private property without first obtaining a right-of-way or some similar agreement. As a result of his opinion, Keenan will delve into musty files to determine what actually transpired.
As per a request of the Essex County Park Commission, the board by resolution changed the wording of its former resolution to coincide with State statutes, dedicating lands north of Terry street as a public thoroughfare. This is in accordance with an agreement of the county to give Belleville a 150-foot right-of-way to the Passaic River where a municipal dock may be established. Mayor William H. Williams, in sponsoring the plan, felt Belleville is entitled to that much land of river frontage, inasmuch as the Park Commission has taken all the other available land for parkway.

Berkeley School Dance

The directors of The Berkeley Club, student organization of the Berkeley School of secretarial training, East Orange, announce tonight as the date for the annual Christmas dance to be held in conjunction with the club of the affiliate school, Berkeley-Llewellyn of New York.
The dance will take place in the jade room of the Waldorf Astoria, New York, with Harold Nagel and his Continental orchestra, now at the Hotel Pierre, New York, furnishing the music for dancing from 9:30 to 2.

CRAVEN AT WOOSTER

(Special to Belleville News)

Wooster, O., Dec. 16 — The Christmas vacation at the College of Wooster will begin at 5 p.m. today.
Included in Wooster's enrollment of 992 this semester is James Craven, 298 Union avenue, Belleville, N. J.
Before the Wooster recess, Wooster students heard the college choir of 110 voices sing Handel's "Messiah" for the Christmas vespers on Sunday, December 11.
Dr. Delbert G. Lean, head of Wooster's speech department read Dickens' "Christmas Carol" in the college chapel yesterday. This twenty-ninth Christmas season at which Dr. Lean has read the carol for Wooster students.

To Stamp Out Fire

The commission has voted to let a contract to open up the surface and extinguish the smoldering debris in a former dump east of Joralemon street at Hoover avenue, thus putting an end to an underground fire that has been burning off and on for ten years.
The area was formerly a dump for dismantled autos and industrial waste and now is covered with layers of ashes. Town Engineer Matthew Sheehan says that the autos form air pockets beneath the ground, allowing the waste to smolder. Repeated efforts to extinguish it from the surface have failed.
The work will include laying of 200 feet of thirty-inch concrete pipe to inclose a nearby stream, so that moving the debris will not interfere with the water's flow. The pipe will cost $600 and it is estimated the work of laying it and removing the autos and smoldering debris will cost a similar amount.
