LICENSE SOUGHT BY SILVER LAKE PACKAGE STORE

Routine Matters Occupy
Commissioners At Regular Meeting

Application for permission to operate a package liquor store at 5 Heckel street, in the Silver Lake section, was filed Tuesday night with the Town Commission by Mrs. Josephine Aquino through her attorney, Edward Abramson. The proposed site is on the Belleville-Newark-Bloomfield boundary line. Granting of the license would require an amendment to the existing liquor ordinance which restricts the number of licenses. While no definite action was taken members of the board intimated they would approve the application and instructed Abramson to file a notice of intention.

The board rejected the application of the Woodlawn Rod and Gun Club, also of Silver Lake, for a club license because the liquor ordinance makes no provision for this type license.

Offers totalling $6,100 for five tracts of town-owned property were approved by the board and an auction sale authorized. The sale probably will be held early next month. The property involved includes 295 Belmont avenue for which Mrs. Mary Ruzzo of 284 Belmont avenue offered $400; 29 Tremont avenue for which Peter Cantalupo of Newark offered $1,200; 25 to 31 Elmwood avenue, Owen Home Corp. of Passaic bid $2,400 and 219 Garden avenue for which the same company bid $1,100 and 80 Ralph street for which Stephen Sendezki offered $1,000.

Bids of $700 for one lot and $650 each for two lots in Fairway avenue were rejected by the board. On the advice of John Coogan, tax assessor the board decided to hold the Fairway avenue property to at least $20 a front foot.

Sale of 37-41 Berkley avenue to Robert Cacciarelli, 537 Roosevelt avenue, Newark for $1,350 was approved. At an auction sale on March 11 Cacciarelli bid $1,200 for the property but later agreed to pay an additional $150 sewer assessment against the land.

Woman's Club Circus

The Belleville Woman's Club was granted permission to hold a circus May 8.

The board adopted resolutions endorsing Harry Higgs, former chief clerk in the Department of Public Works and Frank J. Carragher, former Town Commissioner, both of whom died early this week. The board authorized that the Town Hall be draped in mourning and the flag flown at half staff.

The board approved, without objection a change of zone for the east side of Union avenue, near the Fawcett Memorial Presbyterian Church, to permit erection of a five-family apartment.

The Commission was notified by C. P. Malstrom, WPA branch manager, that 574 Belleville men are now employed on WPA projects. Of this number 347 are employed on local projects and 227 are working on out-of-town projects.

The board voted to reiterate its request to WPA officials for a list of names of all those working for the WPA. The list will be checked and undeserving persons will be replaced.

In connection with the relief and WPA question Mayor Williams announced receipt of a letter from Gene Kivlen, town Democratic chairman repeating his demand for an investigation of relief costs.

"I am not interested in Mr. Kivlen's personal or political opinion of any member of this board," Mayor Williams declared. "My offer to meet with him or any other citizen who can offer constructive criticism still stands."

Mayor Williams announced that in an effort to keep all expenditures down he had decided to withdraw an ordinance providing pay raises for three members of his department. The ordinance, introduced several months ago met with considerable opposition. Commissioner Patrick A. Waters, director of public works, announced that he will not make any appointment to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Harry Higgs. Waters said his department will try to manage on a reduced staff.

An ordinance changing Newark avenue, Delavan avenue and Cross street to Newark place, Delavan place and Cross place was adopted on final reading.

This was done to eliminate confusion caused by duplication of names of Newark city streets. The board unanimously agreed to ban camps for trailers enroute to the World's Fair this Summer on suggestion of Director of Public Safety William D. Clark.

Robbed In Newark

Sherman Haggerty, nineteen, 40 Walnut street, suffered facial lacerations over the weekend when he was held up, assaulted and robbed of $13.50 in front of 1087 Broad street, Newark, by a lone thug.

Belleville News Stimulated School Election Interest

Increase of Over 700 Voters
On No. 3 Improvement

Belleville voters, Tuesday night in the high school favored by a vote of 594 to 240 the Board of Education project to issue $89,000 worth of bonds for an addition to Public School No. 3 to include an auditorium, gymnasium, kindergarten and rifle range. Five votes were rejected.

Although the voters approved an $84,000 bond issue for the addition as a PWA project in September, opposition developed last week. The new vote was made necessary when the PWA failed to approve the project, following which it was submitted to the WPA.

The top floor of the school, including the auditorium, had been condemned by the State Department of Education as a fire trap. Immediately upon the opening of the polls at 7 o'clock it was evident by the influx of voters, many of whom live in No. 3 district, that a campaign had been waged in behalf of the addition. Before twenty-five minutes had elapsed 400 ballots were cast. Many teachers cast ballots.

During the week Belleville was in the throes of a campaign equally as exciting as any commission election.

The 839 votes indicate that when aroused, as to an issue, Belleville voters can be induced to turn out for school elections. On a somewhat similar project last September 120 voted, but evidently the Belleville News story last week brought results.

The Belleville News feels justly proud that over 700 more voters were on hand Tuesday night than in September due to the referendum story printed in this paper last Friday.

"Fine!" Belleville is getting on its toes. Let this school vote be the criterion for referendums to follow. It's a healthy sign.

The board rejected the application of the Woodlawn Rod and Gun Club, also of Silver Lake, for a club license because the liquor ordinance makes no provision for this type license.

Passes Away Here

Funeral Services Today
For Frank J. Carragher

Funeral services for Frank J. Carragher, former councilman and commissioner, who died Tuesday in his home, 22 Cortlandt street, will be held at St. Peter's Church this morning where a requiem mass will be said. Burial will be in St. Peter's Church Cemetery.

The former official who was seventy-two, had been ill for several months, but the cause of death was pneumonia which developed about two weeks ago.

Over one-quarter century Mr. Carragher, who was born in Belleville October 16, 1866, had been interested in politics, gaining the title of the "Fighting Commissioner" in late years. Back in 1912 he was elected councilman from the Second Ward. He repeated this in 1913 and 1914 when Belleville changed to commission form of government. In his first three years in office he was in charge of policemen and firemen and was responsible for the purchase of Belleville's first motor-driven fire apparatus.

During his second year in office—in 1913—his knowledge of the building "game" as he was wont to term it, resulted in his being named to the Building Committee for the present town hall. He was keenly interested in all municipal buildings and was in charge of William Street Firehouse.

Belleville Expects 15,000 To Parade Here June 18

Mayor Arranges First Big Program For The Centennial

Mayor William H. Williams today announces that in conjunction with the 100th anniversary of the establishment of Belleville as a separate community the Essex County American Flag Day celebration, sponsored by the Essex County Council, V.F.W., will be held here on Sunday, June 18.

Plans are being formulated to have the largest number of civic, fraternal and veteran organizations in line that has ever participated in a parade in Belleville.

The veterans expect 15,000 will take part. Provisions will be made to seat that number at Clearman Field where an Americanization program will be held.

Belleville business and manufacturing concerns will be asked to enter floats in the parade, in which it is expected there will be at least fifty bands.

Mayor Williams brought the affair to Belleville at a meeting Monday of the Flag Day Committee in Lt. Leslie J. Rummel Post Hall, 687 Bergen street, Newark. Introduced by Commander George W. Weston, Private George A. Younginger Post, this town, the Mayor convinced the committee that Belleville is the place for the celebration, although Newark officials made a determined bid for the parade and exercises.

The mayor told the 200 delegates, representing seventy organizations that Belleville would welcome them with open arms.

At the exercises at Clearman Field colors will be massed. Prominent national and local speakers will address the gathering.

Organizations that have signified their intention of participating are: Sons of the Union Veterans (Continued on Page 4)

Company officials and representatives of the Paint, Varnish, Shellac and Lacquer Workers' Union, an A. F. of L. affiliate, will arbitrate differences which led to a recent strike of employees at the L. Sonneborn Sons, Inc., paint and lubricant manufacturing plant, Hancock avenue.

The plant went back on a full operation basis Wednesday when twenty strikers took up where they left off on February 24.

Before the strike was called, the company gave employees on an hourly basis a wage increase of ten cents an hour, it was said. The thirty-one hourly workers who did not strike got the benefit of that increase, but those who struck returned to work at the former rate as a wage increase was one of the points in dispute.

The strikers asked also for a closed shop, better working conditions and vacations with pay. The company employs ninety-three persons. All the strikers were given back their jobs.

PLAN HEARING ON BUDGET TOMORROW AFTERNOON

More Paring Needed To Keep Under
4.74 Rate

The Town Commission will meet tomorrow afternoon for preliminary hearing on the municipal budget.

It is expected that some more paring of the departmental items may be done to keep the tax rate as low as last year's figure—4.44. At the present moment this seems an herculean task with $40,000 more provided for relief than last year, the necessity of a new piece of fire apparatus, requirements of the cash basis act and the addition of an employee in the Department of Parks and Public Property. As the budget now stands Belleville's rate is higher by some thirty points than last year—but it is reasonably sure this will be lowered.

Mayor William H. Williams intends to present a large chart on an easel at tomorrow's hearing at 2 p.m., showing the controllable and non-controllable items in the budget.

FRIDAY, APRIL 31, 1939

FRANK J. CARRAGHER

Frank J. Carragher, former councilman and commissioner, whose political activities go back for over one-quarter century, died Tuesday and will be buried today.

Thus sadly comes to an end the career of a man, whose friends loved him for his quaint, matter-of-fact, unaffected manner. Today they mourn that Belleville has lost the former official whose wit took off some of the sharp barbs he hurled at his colleagues — as often as not justified. Regardless of the manner in which he obtained the ends to which he was sincerely motivated he was friend of the common people — "the people's choice" was a slogan he loved and in which he believed, make no mistake about that.

That he was loved equally as well by the voters is proved in the votes always credited to his political campaigns. Frank, we call him that, because we liked him and, in turn, we were liked by him, has left Belleville. He always had a word and a helping hand, if possible, to give to someone less fortunate than himself. Oftentimes he was not as fortunate as those he helped, but it didn't matter. Underneath he had a heart as big as all outdoors and his passing will be mourned by his many friends in Belleville and elsewhere.

THE SCHOOL VOTE

Belleville voters — 839 of them — turned out Tuesday evening in the high school for a referendum on an $89,000 bond issue for an addition to No. 3 school to include an auditorium, gymnasium, kindergarten and rifle range—594 favored the measure with 240 opposed. Five ballots were rejected. In contrast to last September's vote when only 120 went to the polls on a somewhat similar project, this expression of opinion is gratifying, but still not as representative as it should be with 12,000 odd voters registered.

While the proportion in September was about one per cent, the vote this time grossed about seven per cent. However, those who voted in the majority want the addition and, accepting our American way of exercising the right of franchise, the addition should be built. Any who were opposed and neglected to vote should remain silent. Aside from a confusing situation, which developed or was developed, the campaign was waged on a high plane. There was no mud slinging nor any occasion for it. While we were opposed to spending any money at this time for anything except those things which were absolutely necessary, the vote must be accepted as it was recorded. We still sincerely believe that No. 3 School is entitled to the same improvements that are granted other schools, but we hold that an added gymnasium is not essential at this time nor is a rifle range, if the latter only cost ten cents.

We believe that fire-proofing is an essential and also the boiler installation. The auditorium could have been foregone for the time being, the excuse of activity work being nullified, as expressed by some educators, who say this method of teaching is being stressed less today. While activity method has its proponents there are equally as many who believe the pendulum should swing back to a modified teaching of the 3 R's.

One result of the election may cause all schools to be thrown open in subsequent elections, the state law providing that a single school may be used only where the total vote at the preceding election was less than 600. We urged just this last week and take reasonable pride in stimulating an interest in school matters. Such increased interest in public affairs should lead to better government.

EVEN OUR REFEREE IS BIASED

In other parts of the country there is an increasing demand for impartial solution of the railroad problem. It is widely recognized except in New Jersey, that unjust discrimination against other transportation mediums will react against public welfare. Elsewhere, it is felt the efforts of railroads to make motor carriers the scapegoat should not be swallowed without first giving all sides a chance to be heard.

Here in New Jersey, however, the controversy between the railroads and the trucks is being fought under a less sportsmanlike and less desirable set of rules. Much is heard at Trenton of the sorry plight of the railroads and our State Legislature has been lobbied into a sympathetic mood. If this sympathy embodied hope for any solution of basic railroad ailments, it would be welcome indeed, but there is no indication it will produce anything but taxation escape at the expense of other taxpayers. Meanwhile, these same railroad-sympathizing legislators offer only threats of increased taxes and regulation for the motor truck.

New Jersey railroad taxes, although less than those levied and collected without difficulty from motor trucks, are perennially tied up in litigation. In February the railroads offered the state $12,000,000 as a compromise for $34,000,000 of unpaid taxes, representing portions of levies dating back to 1932. This offer was for an amount a little more than collected annually from motor trucks through gasoline taxes alone. Although not accepting the railroads' a little over one-third payment offer, the Legislature has indicated its willingness to continue compromise negotiations and to consider permanent railroad tax reductions.

In contrast, New Jersey motor truck operators, whose 130,000 vehicles represent only thirteen per cent of total registrations, regularly pay approximately forty per cent of gasoline taxes and thirty per cent of motor vehicle department receipts, together with heavy municipal property taxes — in all a tax total well in excess of that levied against railroads in this state. But, instead of being offered compromises and tax reductions, the trucking industry is threatened with still more taxes.

If there is a lack of interest in New Jersey's railroad vs. truck fight, it is because it's too one-sided. Who wants to watch a bout in which one of the combatants is forced to fight not only an opponent with weighted gloves but a biased referee as well?

THE SEEING EYE FUND

Once again Belleville's citizens have demonstrated to the world at large their deep and abiding humanity, and the successful conclusion of the campaign to raise funds to provide Miss Mae Livingston, blind social editor of The Belleville News, with a "seeing eye" dog is just another evidence of the community's goodness of heart.

The women particularly, who worked hard and long to secure this fund, are to be congratulated and they, together with The Belleville News, believe that those who contributed will be interested in knowing in general how the fund was raised and disbursed.

Donations totaled $655.40 and together with bank interest of $2.07, amounted in all to $657.47. $300 of this was used as an outright donation to the Seeing Eye Institute, a non-profit organization. $150 additional was set aside to be paid by the Seeing Eye to Miss Livingston for work performed over the course of the next few months. Miss Livingston will in turn send this money to the Seeing Eye Fund where it will be used to make it possible for some other blind person to secure a trained "seeing eye" dog. In this way Miss Livingston has a definite part in the acquisition of this new partner of hers.

$100 was used to pay Miss Livingston's home expenses during her period of training when she had, perforce, to relinquish her normal sources of livelihood. $44.47 was used to provide certain necessities for Miss Livingston while in training; $14 to provide license and food for the dog to date, — and an additional $49 has been set aside to provide further food for the dog until such time as Miss Livingston's economic rehabilitation is complete and she can directly assume this responsibility herself.

Again the citizens of Belleville are to be congratulated.

EMPTY AGAIN!

THIS WEEK

by "Guardian"

The views expressed in this column are entirely those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Publishers or Editors of The Belleville News.

What a week!

The war in Spain is over and now comes the big job of pacification and reconstruction. Can General Franco measure up?

Premier Daladier says he doesn't know what Mussolini is talking about and in effect says to Italy, "If you want a foot of French ground, try and get it."

Britain increases her territorial army to 340,000 — a record peace time force.

Nazi boring-in tactics in Poland and Danzig follow the same pattern used in Czechoslovakia.

In the meantime, Colonel Hurban, Czechoslovakian Minister to the United States, continues to hold his Legation in Washington and refuses to surrender it to the German Charge d'Affairs.

Protestants in Germany, it is now proposed, will be controlled by Nazi regulations — further evidence of religious suppression.

Japan will avoid siding with any bloc in Europe and so informs the Dictators. The policy of Japan is to further the interests of Japan only.

A half billion dollar Army Bill was passed by the United States Senate to speed up armaments.

The Supreme Court rules that Federal employees must pay State income taxes and as a corollary, State employees must pay Federal income taxes.

What a week!

The following letter recently sent by a business acquaintance of ours, to one of the Legislators of the State of New Jersey, merits reproduction here:

"Dear Senator:

Because of your important connection with legislation in the State of New Jersey, I venture to express my views with reference to further legislation concerning business operations, employment and employee relations.

"I do not know whether you have any active connection with the operation of a business, but it is my job to be the operating executive of several corporations that are giving employment to hundreds of New Jersey citizens and I want to tell you that trying to keep these businesses going and trying to keep your employees at work, trying to meet the payrolls and all the taxes and at the same time conform to all of the regulations takes so much time that little opportunity remains for personal effort and energy and direction in trying to make the businesses grow and go so that further employment will be possible.

"If the current movement in Washington to 'lay off' business for a while could be reinforced by a similar attitude on the part of the State Legislature so that we, who have to operate businesses would not have to learn a new lesson every week or so and could have time to devote to the exploration of our businesses, the unemployment picture would become much more favorable and you would find that businessmen would have the courage to go ahead and try to conquer new fields so as to make more jobs. Certainly under the present situation, people are not disposed to risk capital when business is so hamstringing and restricted by legislation."

Sunny Palm Sunday.

Yours 'til next week,

CARE OF YOUR PETS

By

DR. CECIL L. GATES, D.V.M.
Belleville, N. J.

Choosing a Dog

Last week we talked about the appearance of the pup you're going to buy. Now let's consider the characteristics and peculiarities of his breed which will make him best adapted for your needs.

If your pet is to be entirely a house or an apartment dog, and exercised only on a leash, he should be small in stature, not for your convenience because of a limited amount of space, but from the dog's point of view and to keep him as healthy as possible without a great deal of exercise.

The dogs which are the most successful house pets from a physical standpoint, then, are small and probably short-haired, although this is a matter of taste. Among those dogs leading in popularity as house pets at the present time are the Cocker Spaniel, Boston Terrier, Wire Haired Terrier, Scottish Terrier (Scotty), and the Dachshund. Those whose homes and grounds afford an opportunity for a larger dog to stretch his legs will find that they can accommodate a German Shepherd, Collie, English or Irish Setter, or a Doberman Pinscher.

As a general rule the terriers are rugged little animals, inclined to be very active, and usually make good children's pets for this reason. Since they are ratters and inclined by nature to dig, they may need strict discipline in their "youth" to prevent unnecessary destruction of property! The toy breeds such as the Pekingese, Poodle, Chihuahua require the care their name implies. They are indeed "toys," being extremely small, delicate, and unable to withstand rough treatment and sudden changes in their physical surroundings. They are therefore more suitable as pets for mature people than for children. The hounds, sporting and hunting dogs are usually gentle and extremely affectionate; and among those dogs especially recommended for their guardian capabilities are the shepherd dogs (German Shepherd, Collie, etc.) the Great Dane, St. Bernard, Mastiff, etc.

There is a good deal that may be said, too, for the choice of an ordinary mongrel. This is particularly true if you are looking for a rough "n" ready pet for an active child. More often than not the crossbred inherits many of the good points of his ancestors and proves himself to be an intelligent and faithful companion.

"EAGLE" LECTURE WELL RECEIVED

Many Here Request
Return Visit By
Capt. Knight

A large and enthusiastic audience greeted Capt. C. W. R. Knight and the star of his motion picture lecture, "The live crowned eagle, 'Coronation,'" at the local high school last Friday. The lecture "Leopard of the Air" was equally popular with young and old and many have asked when the "Eagle Man" will be in Belleville again.

The Teachers' Association is grateful for the active support of many and wishes to let all the groups and individual citizens know that they feel this way.

The proceeds for the camp fund are substantial and the exact figure will be announced by Mrs. Mildred Clarke, chairman, at the earliest date possible. All of the available help will be used in determining the cases to be taken care of this summer.

The selection of Capt. Knight to bring this type of entertainment to Belleville proved to be a happy one. At school Number 8 the teachers reported that the pupils were still discussing the antics of the eagle on Monday and Edward Coughlin had any number ask him when the Captain was "going to return to town." Two of the active teachers, Misses Kathryn Conklin and Lillian Bechtold, have been invited to Capt. Knight's home in England. They contemplate a trip abroad. Miss Bechtold heard the lecture in Town Hall early this year and was instrumental in getting the association to sponsor the Eagle Man.

The plans for the rest of the year will be discussed at the monthly meeting of the board of governors to be held at School Number 8 Wednesday. The winner of the poster contest, conducted by Miss Helen Simpson will be announced then also. School Number 8 led in ticket sales and Mrs. Kathleen Smalley disposed of more than any other individual worker.

Symonds, president of the Nutley-Belleville Buick Company, is in charge. On the list of speakers are Mayor William H. Williams, Recorder Everett B. Smith, Wilbur C. Brooks, executive vice-president of the First National Bank; Director of Public Affairs Joseph King, Dr. George Kaden, William J. Sweeney, Edward H. Yerg, Mr. Symonds and Harvey B. Thompson.

Meador Wright's PIQUANT POLITICS

The views expressed in this column, are entirely those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Publishers or Editors of The Belleville News.

The strongly worded protest of Everett Colby Wednesday over the refusal of the Republican State Committee to censure the seven Republican Senators who voted to confirm the appointment of Frank Hague, Jr. to the Court of Errors and Appeals shows that the inner council of Clean Government does not intend that "get away" with his stand. Zink is going his own individual way, supporting most of the legislature sponsored by Clean Government. No doubt he hopes that the Hague matter will soon blow over.

But Colby, State Chairman Freeman, William H. Seeley and Dr. Lester H. Cleo—not to mention the Newark Evening News—do not intend that the matter shall blow over. Even though Zink's vote took the edge off the matter as a Clean Government campaign issue, Cleo and his associates perceive too much political value in the appointment to "permit it to drift into the limbo of forgotten things. Whether their decision is prompted partially by Zink, or whether the Belleville Senator just happens to be within the crossfire, is not clear. But the appointment and subsequent confirmation is not dead as a political issue. Much more will be heard about it.

Senator Zink from Essex shall "get away" with his stand. Zink is going his own individual way, supporting most of the legislature sponsored by Clean Government. No doubt he hopes that the Hague matter will soon blow over.

Speaking of relief, the present disclosures of laxity and corruption in a number of New Jersey municipalities bears out Senator Zink's conclusion that the whole relief structure needs overhauling. Corruption in the administration of relief is a dangerous game for politicians. Public opinion is at such a state of concern over the whole matter that juries are likely to reflect this opinion in bringing in verdicts. The ways of these particular transgressors will be particularly hard.

East Orange Protest

The mass protest in East Orange this week over a tentative increase of thirty-six points in the city's tax rate is causing political comment all over Essex County. More than 1,000 citizens tried to pack into the small council chamber. Finally, the councilmen heeded requests that the meeting be transferred to the high school. For two hours denunciation of the tax jump was house construction. When Washington Avenue Firehouse walls locked "wobbly" to him a few years back, he led a fight to reinforce the walls. He said that it was "a shame the way that building had been put up."

From 1914 when he was defeated in a commission election to the late office he dropped momentarily from politics — at least he said so—but he always had a command of the situation. In 1922 he placed sixth in a hectic campaign and found a seat in the commission two years later when Dr. George G. Yar-row resigned to go to Florida. The Department of Parks and Public Property was assigned to Mr. Carragher.

In 1926 and in 1930 he demonstrated his popularity with tremendous votes. In 1926 he was assigned to the Public Works Department, but ramifications developed and his colleagues stripped him of the job, giving him Parks and Public Property, which followed a bitter fight. In 1930 he was given the same department and left the political arena in 1934 when he was defeated in a campaign. The former commissioner told his friends he wanted to "run—but it cost too much money" in 1938.

The son of the late James and Elizabeth Carragher, who also were born in Belleville "Frank," as he was affectionately known to his constituents, had been in the building and carpentry business for fifty years. He was a skilled craftsman and his work here is represented today in over a dozen buildings in Belleville. He was also an expert cabinetmaker at which he was working in Newark during the blizzard of '88, when he was unable to get home for two days. An ardent lover of sports, he was seen at many such events here and could tell anecdotes of yesteryear about Belleville that were the envy of all listeners. He loved Belleville from the "bottom of his heart" and he was the wrath he would heap on any one who would belittle it—even though some of his own political skirmishes held the town in the limelight.

"For the People"

"I'm for the people," he would say. "I don't care what else they say about me. And I want everyone to get a square deal."

Among his many activities was the chairmanship of the Democratic Committee which also brought its anguish to him, as well as pleasure from the many differences of opinion. "I've got the records," he often told this writer, one of his close friends, and he would go to many drawers in which he kept all papers pertaining to town matters over a period of many years. "They can't fool me," he would add. "I've got it right here. Just a minute now." And amid that mass of documents he could almost lay his hands on what he wanted.

Built Camp Carragher

Camp Carragher along Second River was one of his accomplishments when his colleagues took away his duties. His dream, however, of a swimmin' pool along the Passaic River never materialized. When Camp Carragher started it was one of two such camps in the country for underprivileged children. The other was in Los Angeles. He battled the Erie Railroad bitter, culminating in the election of a committee of five to confer with the budget committee of the council.

It is hard to see how the tax rate can be cut very much unless there are wide salary reductions. No political body in Essex has had the courage yet to slash salaries, and I doubt that the East Orange government will take the lead. Since about three-fourths of the entire city budget goes for salaries in one form or another, including those of teachers, an average salary cut of ten percent for everybody would just about cancel the proposed tax increase. But trying to reduce the rate in any other way is futile. Such cuts as could be made would not amount to ten percent of the increase, and judging reserves would merely pile up a deficit for future years.

As I have repeatedly pointed out in this column, real estate is already taxed to the limit. Budgets must be kept at present or lower levels or there will be fiscal chaos. If a city like East Orange with an honest government and a relatively small relief load finds itself faced with a four per cent tax rate, it means a danger signal of the first order.

Relief Corruption

Speaking of relief, the present disclosures of laxity and corruption in a number of New Jersey municipalities bears out Senator Zink's conclusion that the whole relief structure needs overhauling. Corruption in the administration of relief is a dangerous game for politicians. Public opinion is at such a state of concern over the whole matter that juries are likely to reflect this opinion in bringing in verdicts. The ways of these particular transgressors will be particularly hard.

There are rumblings of a test move among Essex Republican leaders to line up support for Robert A. Taft at the next convention. I am not inclined to take these very seriously. The shrewd Arthur T. Vanderbilt is probably trying to find out what the public thinks. My guess is that the test will show sentiment in this section almost solid for Thomas E. Dewey. Vanderbilt likes both men, but he will want to be lined up with the winner.

for years on Cleveland Street Station and Greylock riders.

Mr. Carragher was a member of the Belleville Lodge of Elks, the Knights of Columbus, the Holy Name Society of St. Peter's Church and an honorary member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He leaves his wife, the former Anna Westlake; three sons, Joseph, John and Francis; a daughter, Katherine, all of Belleville; four brothers, Michael and Arthur of Belleville, James of Westfield and Henry of Irvington, and a sister, Mrs. Harry McCloskey of Newark. The Town Commission Tuesday night passed a resolution of condolence and the Town Hall was draped in mourning and the flag flown at half mast.

PLACES
My visits to the various shops in Belleville brought many facts home to me that I had never before realized.
One of the chief points of interest was the fact that the majority of the Belleville merchants spend at least one day a week in New York getting the lowdown on all the latest styles.
That is why I am amused
when I hear some one say that they are going here, there or some place else away from town so that they can get the latest styles.
They do not realize that they have the latest styles in everything they want and have them right at hand.
If it can be gotten, your Belleville merchant will get it for you. Remember: For everything you want, try Belleville first.

BELLEVILLE NEWS

SPORTS BELLEVILLE, N. J. FRIDAY, MARCH 31, 1939 SEVEN

HO HUM! Spring is here now and spring fever is still laying like a pall over the sports world. The doldrums are scheduled to last for another two weeks and then the wheels of sport will start to spin again at a great rate. The let-down is most noticeable in a small town like Belleville where there is nothing to keep this page going but the bowling leagues (in which the interest doesn't die until the cold-stove league gets finished thrashing out the races about the middle of June), press notices from the baseball teams and scattered last gasps of basketball, table tennis and the like.

Main topic of conversation among the alley enthusiasts is the handicap sweepstakes The Belleville News is backing May 5 and 6. After two weeks of scouting around lining up partners (with averages that are not too high) the entries are just now starting to roll in.

You know the old story: "Oh, well, there's plenty of time before April 22; no hurry." On April 20 it will be: "Oh, there's plenty of time; got two days yet." On April 22 it will be: "Gee, I gotta stop around to Ferrara's and give that entry to Doc. Hope I can find time." They'll do it every time! Ah, peace, it is wonderful.

Smattering from the Sports Front
Mayor Williams is a most gracious host as the guests from Nutley learned Thursday. He even lost practically everything he played just to make the evening complete. — none of the losses were by design, however. Fred Young is an all-around athlete. But there is no truth to the rumor that he has been offered several college scholarships.

The Belleville boys lost out in the elimination round for the state recreation table tennis title — and it was little wonder. The lighting in the school at Passaic was anything but conducive to top-notch playing if one was not used to playing in semi-darkness.

Belleville and Wallace & Tiernan had offered the facilities of the excellent W&T recreation room for the tournament but the application was turned down after several weeks' delay because "Passaic had its application in first." Result: five of the eight communities entered failed to show up for the matches; Passaic captured practically everything in sight.

'Twould seem that the midget drivers are a bit less proficient on the highway than on the speedway. After the meet at the Velodrome last fortnight Bill Schindler cracked up his sedan, Ernie Gesell turned over in his new Buick, Paul Russo had the front of his new Ford demolished.

The hawkers at the Drome are still a great annoyance to the fans despite numerous protestations to that effect and the other person there last year. They trot about screaming their wares at the top of their lungs with utter disregard for announcements or anything else.

"The remarkable time of peanuts, popcorn, candy just turned in by cigars and cigarettes is a new track ice cream and soda. The old record was held by hot dogs — red hot." There's a time for everything, and hawkers and announcers do not jibe, Jack.

Lee Lev — C. Leverich Brett to you — is still at it. The Giant Atom's latest exploit is instigation of the formation of the Dad Vail Intercollegiate Rowing Association, named after the beloved Harry "Dad" Vail, one-time rowing coach at Wisconsin. Rutgers, Manhattan, Boston U., Marietta, American International, Rollins, Dartmouth are already in the Association with Richmond, Washington & Lee and Williams expected to follow shortly.

Every year they'll have a CLIMAX race for the Vail Trophy presented by Penn Coach Rusty Callow. It has been won once by Marietta, twice by Rutgers so far. Rutgers will hold the next regatta on the Shrewsbury May 20. Lev has been elected chairman of the Vail Association.

Feudin' Halts With Young In Front

Nutley's Mayor Fred Young has definitely captured the political shuffleboard championship of Northeastern Essex County. He put the clincher on this completely off-the-record title by again trimming Belleville's Bill Williams in a return match at the Elks' Club Thursday. The score was 25-7.

Williams was far off form and, after his early lead collapsed, never had a chance. Most of the time his left was too strong and his right too powerful, with the result that the bit of scrap-iron often went sailing. Young played it safe and had little trouble.

Afterwards a duckpin match placed one of the mayors on either team, Williams with Harry Byrne and Young with Wally Masten. Again Nutley was victorious in three of the four games altho Williams won his personal duel with Young by the same margin.

Hal Mead and Henie Kurzman, Essex County shuffle champs, topped the Elks' best, Hank Waters and Johnny Mallack, 100-72 in a special match.

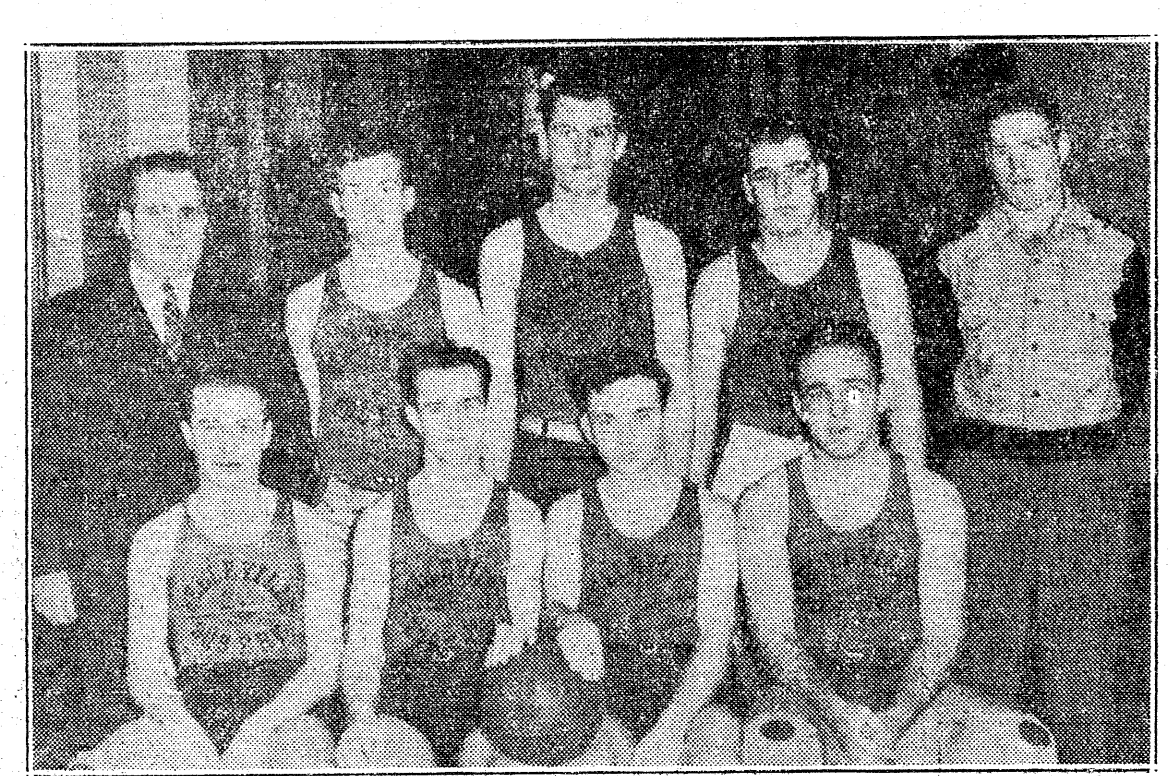

Another feature attraction, arranged by Leo Scanlan, saw two

The Rosery. Recreation Basketball Champions

The Belleville Rosery five won the Senior League title, turned back the challenge of Wallace & Tiernan, Industrial League winners, and represented Belleville in the state tourney. Front: Ray Mehan, Al Cuikin, Jim McCann, Andy Walker; back: Manager Vic Pompanio, Joe Groesch, Ray Shanan, Felix Clark, Trainer Ned Dunn.

Ah! Consolation

Breaking through for his first Velodrome victory of the year Sunday was Frankie Bailey, the Jersey ace who annexed the decision in the first consolation race. The popular New Brunswick driver stood off two spirited challenges in taking that win and he hopes to keep right on rolling in this next meet.

National Grain 32; Wallace & Tiernan 18

National Grain Yeast Corporation gained partial revenge for the two setbacks handed it by Wallace & Tiernan Company during the regular season by trimming the Watco boys in a special post-season game at the Friendly House Saturday 32-18.

The five Hartley rivals were selected as a result of eliminations at Elmers' last Monday. Thirty men competed. The main point of speculation now is: Which one of the five will the Congressman play blindfolded as advertised?

Another feature attraction Thursday at Elmers' will be the 100-pointer between Ed Debrick and Henry Mazor and Tony Bungalow and Jack Schlanek.

Bill Lister Lost To Gems; Elsey, McManus Acquired

Bill Lister, batting champion of the Emeralds, will be lost to the club, which is now the Pittsburgh Minors, for several weeks. It was learned this week Lister has been returned to the hospital suffering from the effects of an appendectomy last fall.

Two new faces appeared at practice last weekend. Bill Elsey, who pitched for Westinghouse in the Industrial League last year, and Dick McManus, Seton Hall College infielder, have been acquired by the ex-Gems.

The Pittmen will play several non-league games between April 16 and 30, when the loop season opens for them at Peit Jervis. Belleville clubs with home fields wishing to arrange games in April write Henry Lubben, 38 Lincoln avenue, Newark.

W&T Paddlers Win Ninth

Wallace & Tiernan's well-balanced table tennis team won its ninth straight victory Tuesday when it turned back the Holy Name Society of Our Lady of Czestochowa Church, Harrison, 6 matches to 3.

Members of the W&T team were Bob Edelman, Nick & Lou Candura, Myles Monaghan, George Orsulak, all of Belleville, and Tony Alcala, East Orange.

School Eight 38; St. Peter's 20

Gilbert Stanfield had a field day this week as school Number Eight trounced St. Peter's Parochial School 38-20. Stanfield dropped nine field goals thru the cords in his 18-panda scoring spree. Henry Candura, who tallied eight times himself, led the Eighters' defense.

Playing ironmen, the Pirates took the court in a second game and trimmed the Hoyts 24-13.

Bowling Sweeps Closing Date Is Only Three Weeks Away; Enthusiasm Running High

Entries To Top 200, Committee Expects, Leading For Early Returns

With only three weeks remaining before the closing date for entries for the 1939 Belleville News Handicap Bowling Sweepstakes, blanks are just starting to pour in.

The interest which greeted announcement of the Sweeps was and is tremendous. It is expected that the entry list will top 200.

It has taken the past fortnight, however, to iron out such things as doubles partners, auto license plates and whatnot. The plates were a considerable item in holding up the entries when it came to a choice between the entrance fee and the license.

Now that is past and it is expected that the only delay in getting in blanks will come from the lackadaisical source—those who always get in on things at the last minute.

The News Sweepstakes will be rolled at North Newark Bowling Academy, 2000 Avenue Avenue, on the Erie Railroad station, May 5 and 6. It has been made a handicap affair to permit every bowler who desires to enter an even chance to get into the prize money.

The entry blank contains three

PADDLE CHAMPS ARE ELIMINATED FROM STATE PLAY

Special to The Belleville News

Passaic, Mar. 27 — Hampered by the very poor lighting at the Passaic Memorial Junior High School the Belleville paddlers fared badly in the sectional eliminations for the Recreation Executive's Table Tennis Championship tonight.

All the major winners were from Passaic and were able to cash in on their familiarity with playing conditions there.

Bob Edelman, Belleville champion, dropped a 21-9, 21-14 decision to Passaic's Berenson while Nick Candura lost to Franklin, also of Passaic, 21-6, 21-9. Soja and Biela, Passaic, trimmed Edelman and Candura, 21-14, 21-15.

Mrs. Edelman defeated Miss De Castro, Nutley, 21-10, 21-15, after the latter had eliminated Eleanor Summerfield, Belleville champion.

Heyer Teams Take Trophies In Red Crown Sweeps

Cups were presented to two of Heyer Products' bowling fives Tuesday night by reason of their showing in the recent Brunswick Red Crown Sweepstakes. Each man on the teams received a trophy from John "Doc" Haycock, genial manager of the North Newark Bowling Academy.

Heyer Number 1 (Horton, Kinsey, Robertson, Barna, Woodhull) rolled a 2801 to take twenty-third in Class B. Heyer Number 2's 2496 won forty-third in Class C.

On the Number 2 team were Tom and Lou DeLuzurro, Rossi, Myers and Strutzel.

"Idiot's Delight" At Capitol in Belleville

Norma Shearer and Clark Gable score personal triumphs in "Idiot's Delight" which opens Sunday at the Capitol, Belleville, for a four-day engagement. The original story remains almost as it was on the stage.

The hoover and a vaudeville girl meet in Omaha, where they fall lightly in love and part. She is ambitious and presently finds herself in Europe as a money countess allied with a munitions agent. The American hoover, on tour, meets her again, and recognition is mutual, and gradually both recognizing real love. War looms and they are trapped in a border town. A bomb strikes the building in which they have taken refuge, and the impression is left that he saves her and they go on together in a partner act for life.

BUDGET REPORT

TOWN OF BELLEVILLE, N. J.

March 29, 1939

An informal Budget report (subject to certain estimates) comparative analysis, and explanation of various budget factors are respectfully submitted herewith to members of Board of Commissioners and Taxpayers.

Due to recent legal demands, the 1939 Budget has been arranged so all appropriation items are allocated to specific departments. Comparisons with 1938 data are available for analysis as the 1938 Budget figures have been arranged in conformity with the 1939 ruling of the Local Government Commission.

DEBT SERVICE

Debt service covers the annual demands for interest and payment on outstanding bonds issued for Town, School and Water Division.

Due to requirements of the Cash Basis Act — the unwillingness of certain bond holders in 1935 to refund their holdings beyond 1950 — the unwillingness of other bond holders to accept refunding bonds beyond 1944 because of bond holders' belief the Cash Basis Act might be substantially altered before 1944, an amortization schedule was established which has reduced our Town Debt over 1 1/4 million in 4 years, but which in view of economic conditions and Anticipated State and Federal actions warrant new considerations.

Recently, I advised our Board of Commissioners that it was my belief the Federal Government would gradually curtail W.P.A. contributions to municipalities, thereby increasing our direct relief costs — and — I further stated it was my belief the New Jersey Legislature would this year decrease State contributions to municipalities, again adding to our direct relief costs — both actions tending to cause heavier burdens to be placed on local taxpayers. With more authority with the present responsibility in the hands of local officials, I feel greater economy could be exercised over relief questions.

Confronted with these increasing costs, I deemed it proper to recommend a re-allocation of our Gross Town Debt, the major portion of which matures by 1950 — to a longer payment schedule, spreading the payments over to 1960. Accordingly, the Board of Commissioners has approved refunding ordinances re-allocating our Debt. The result of this approval is that the 1939 debt payments will be reduced by $95,000. This $95,000 is a decrease from the January 1, 1939 schedule, but 1939 schedule was $70,000 higher than 1938. Therefore, while $95,000 is eliminated from the 1939 debt demands, only a reduction of $25,000 is available on the 1938 basis — through this action.

With increasing relief demands placed already at $40,000 over 1938 Budget figures — plus $5,400 increase in Passaic Valley Sewer costs — plus down payment of $2,000 for new engine — plus $2,000 for replacement of police patrols, these increases exceed the benefits available to Taxpayers from the refunding program — but we are enabled to prevent a 42 point increase on these factors.

ANTICIPATED REVENUE

The Budget Act provides an estimate be made of the anticipated collection of Tax Title Liens — the legal name given to delinquent property taxes which have gone through the process of a tax sale. This item is a most difficult one to estimate, as the duty is placed on a municipal Finance Director of estimating how much taxes are going to be paid in the ensuing year by a property owner who is two or more years delinquent in tax and assessment payments.

Based on 1938 collection of Tax Title Liens, the sum of $33,500 may be used as Anticipated Revenue, but we must bear in mind we are actually estimating — and to eliminate a most hazardous item from our 1939 Budget and also succeeding budgets, I have recommended the elimination of this factor. To overcome the 15 point increase sustained by the elimination of $33,500 in the Anticipated Revenue Account, I believe sound economics warrant a re-scheduling of an equal sum from the 1939 debt total, thereby not creating any adverse effect on the 1939 budget.

This action has been approved by Chairman of the Local Government Commission providing bonds eliminated from 1939 schedule are re-allocated to a definite payment date, and definite arrangements have been made for such re-allocation.

TAX COLLECTIONS

1938 produced 76.86% of current taxes. Operating under the Cash Basis Act it is imperative that not only every economy be exercised in operating accounts, but it is equally imperative that current tax collections improve. Any decrease in tax collections will seriously increase the succeeding year's tax rate, as the overlay demands of the Cash Basis Act are based on the previous year's collections.

FORECLOSURE

A continuance of the policy of foreclosure action is necessary. Budget dollars are necessary to carry on foreclosure work and such budget dollars are visible budget items. If such budget dollars are not provided for foreclosure action, an invisible cost is sustained by the Taxpayers, in that a sum equal to 20% of the taxes charged against non-taxpaying property is paid as State and County taxes, and this 20% comes from taxpaying-taxpayers, therefore sound municipal financing warrants constant foreclosure action. Our State tax collection and foreclosure laws are highly favorable to delinquent taxpayers and inconsistent with sound municipal management. We are charged with the responsibility of operating on a Cash Basis and our State laws permit taxes and assessments to be delinquent for 8 to 17 months before tax sale can be held and with 24 months redemption period allowed delinquents, and 2 months to prepare and advertise a tax sale, and 3 months required to effect a foreclosure action, a municipal corporation is forced to wait 37 to 46 months for money on which public services have been delivered — and then in many cases, the municipality does not get dollars, but idle land or land and buildings in such condition the mortgage holder abandons his interest.

I cite this inefficient State law condition so taxpayers may make a comparison of a municipality with a modern business institution. Delinquent bills of a private corporation are collectible long before the property becomes depreciated or before additional expenses of 2 or 3 more years can accumulate.

Approximately 90% of the total budget is outside of the control of your Board of Commissioners. Your Board has no authority over the following items:

In rendering this informal report it is my desire to have our taxpayers acquainted with the difficulties of developing our budget when 90% of the gross costs are beyond the control of the local officials.

Numerous conferences have been held by your Mayor and Board of Commissioners in the study of maintaining essential services at the lowest dollar cost. On Saturday — tomorrow — at 2:00 P.M. at the Town Hall, an informal budget conference will be held and we will be glad to have our citizens attend. The Budget will be introduced on Tuesday evening — April 4th — and official public hearing as required by law will be held prior to adoption of Budget on April 25th. Date of hearing will be set at meeting April 4th.

Respectfully submitted,
BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS,
WM. H. WILLIAMS,
Mayor-Finance Director
