Belleville Represented at N.Y.U. Commencement

Belleville was represented yesterday morning at the 107th commencement exercises of New York University.

Local residents who received degrees follow: Howard R. Holmes, 479 Union avenue, Bachelor of Arts, Washington Square College; Mark Cochran, Jr., 460 Cortlandt street, Certificate in a specialized field, School of Commerce, Accounts and Finance, as of February 1939; Louise Ogur, 38 Crescent terrace, Bachelor of Science, School of Education.

Mr. Holmes, who graduated in 1935 from the local high school is the son of Howard A. Holmes. He will continue his studies in the Fall at N. Y. U., Majoring in law.

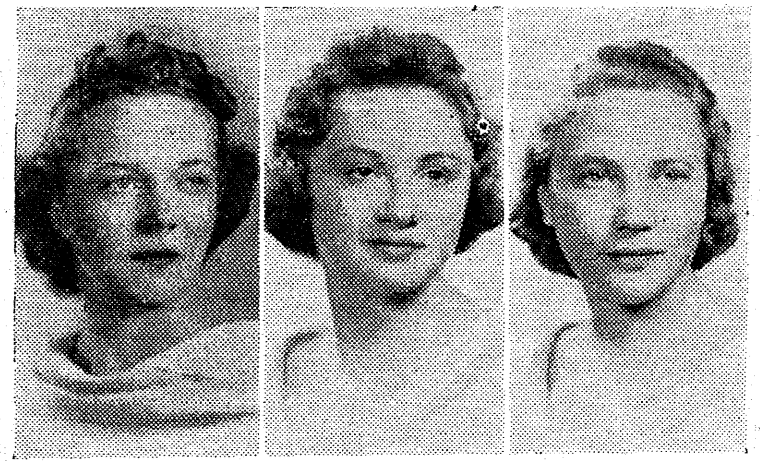

Cars Collide

When Miss Anna E. Wilson, 311 Stephens street, applied her brakes Monday on the automobile which she was driving south on Main street to permit another car to enter Main street from Belleville avenue, she didn't figure on getting bumped by another machine from the rear.

This, according to the police blotter is exactly what happened. A truck owned by Frank Ansetto, 288 Oraton street, Newark, and driven by Natale Chimento, seventeen, 30 Humbert street, Nutley, could not stop in time to avoid collision, say the authorities.

Theodore Schaeffer, thirty-nine, 50 Davonport street, Newark, who was riding on the right running board of the truck, was thrown to the pavement and struck by the right front wheel of the truck. He was taken to St. Mary's Hospital, Passaic.

NO INTEREST DROP AS YET IN TWO LOCAL BANKS

Several Suburban Institutions Announced Lower Rates Last Week

The First National Bank and the Peoples' National Bank & Trust Co., both of which pay interest on October 1, have taken no action as yet on the drop of interest on savings accounts to one per cent, although it is intimated such procedure will be followed on or before that date unless the "money market" changes. Seven suburban banks Thursday announced the drop in interest.

The three commercial members of the Montclair Clearing House Thursday posted notices their interest rates will be one per cent. They are the First National Bank & Trust Co., the Bank of Montclair and the Montclair Trust Co. The Bank of Nutley and the First National Bank of Nutley both changed their rates from 1 1/2 to one per cent the same day. The new rates will be effective July 1.

The Irvington Trust Co., which had been paying two per cent on deposits up to $1,000 and 1 1/2 per cent from $1,000 to $10,000, also made a similar reduction.

The executive committee of the Savings Investment & Trust Co. of the Oranges has ratified by the directors a reduction of interest on time deposits up to $1,000 from 1 1/2 per cent to one per cent.

HOFFMAN SAYS NEW CUSTOMERS, NOT JOKES, NEEDED

Nereid Club Members Disagree—Hear Same One Forty Times

When a person is able to get away with a joke on two or three occasions he is usually rated pretty good. Former Governor Harold G. Hoffman says "it isn't a new joke that's needed, but new customers."

In nine cases out of ten we would agree with Harold but not when it comes to Arthur Gresson, vice-president of the National State Bank, Newark, and his pals at the Nereid Boat Club.

For forty odd years Gresson has told the same joke at the Nereid annual dinners. This year rounded out the two-score record and the diners still laughed at the joke. Or did they? Well, at any rate, they laughed. The joke was told by request. The dinner was the sixtieth annual one. Fifty-seven members attended the dinner, the largest in the club's history. Ralph Smith, president, early turned the gavel over to C. Leverich Brett, chairman of the board of directors, who was toastmaster. John W. Maynard and Colonel Frederick C. Bull, both of Montclair, were the other speakers.

Injured

Injured with eleven others at 12:40 p.m. Friday when a Pennsylvania Railroad locomotive struck the rear of a Hudson & Manhattan tubes train near the Harrison station was Walter Higgins, Belleville, who was taken to St. Michael's Hospital, Newark, for medical attention.

Get Their Fish

Patrolmen Walter Drake, Joseph Nygard and Frank Lukowiak always nab what they go after — especially if it is fish. With Stanley Tracey, of the Tracey Motors Co., Tuesday they caught 140 croakers and weak fish at Fortescue, Delaware Bay.

C.C.C. Enrollment

There will be an enrollment for CCC during the early part of July, John J. Hewitt, overseer of the Municipal Welfare Department, announces.

James Small, Staff Member of Local Bank, Will Help Guard King and Queen Saturday

James Small, of 750 Washington avenue, member of the staff of the First National Bank, has been selected to be one of the British War Veterans who will form a Guard of Honor for the King and Queen of England when they visit the World's Fair on Saturday.

Mr. Small, a member of the British War Veterans of America, is one of the senior members of that organization in length of service. He was wounded four times in action, and has been awarded four service decorations.

Became Soldier In 1907

He joined the Highland Light Infantry in 1907, and after a short training period in Ireland and England, was transferred to India in 1910. From 1910 to 1914, he was engaged in frontier service in various parts of India, taking part in several skirmishes with native tribes. An interesting experience in India was his attendance at the coronation of King George as Emperor of India at Delhi in 1911.

Escaped Death

At the outbreak of the World War in 1914, he was transferred to France as a member of the Indian Expeditionary Forces, and was engaged in most of the important battles, including that of Ypres, where poison gas was introduced as an offensive weapon. At that time, Small, who was a sergeant, was fortunate enough to be one of three members of his company who escaped death as the result of the destruction of their trench by a German mine. He and his detail were on scouting duty when the explosion occurred. Of the eight hundred men of his regiment who took part in that action, five hundred sixty-five privates and fifteen officers were casualties.

He was transferred to Mesopotamia in 1916, and there took part in numerous engagements, one of which was an attempt to capture General Townsend, Commander-in-Chief of the British Forces in Mesopotamia, who had been surrounded by the Turks. Small relates the amusing incident of picking up Lawrence of Arabia on suspicion while on outpost duty; on another occasion, as the result of an excursion into forbidden territory, of being reprimanded by Victor McLaglen, who was then an army police marshal.

Complete Plans For Flag Day Celebration

LAST MEETING BY FEWSMITH MEN ON TUESDAY

Public Invited To Open Session At Local Church

Fewsmith Men's Club will meet in the final session of the current season Tuesday evening at 8:15 o'clock. Exceptional moving pictures will be shown after the usual business meeting by Alfred Bersak in charge of the Visual Education Department of an ice cream company.

As this is an open meeting, friends of the members and residents of the community are invited. The club meets in the clubroom of Fewsmith Memorial Church, corner Union avenue and Little street.

Fauntleroy Awoke, But It Wasn't By Alarm Clock

Gilbert Fauntleroy, colored, Newport News, Va., curled up on a trunk Saturday night at a carnival in Silver Lake and went to sleep, following an argument he had while working at a baseball stand.

About 4:30 Sunday morning, according to Fauntleroy, just as he was dreaming of sunny summer days to come, he was rudely awakened. In fact, to say rudely is putting it mildly. He says two young men with whom he had argued had attacked him with an iron pipe, striking him about the head. He was taken by the carnival folks to Columbus Hospital, Newark, where seven stitches were taken in wounds about the head.

Police Captain Robert Anderson says Fauntleroy knows his assailants and will come from Carlsbad where the carnival is now playing to make a complaint against them. Patrolmen Christiano and James Lee investigated the case.

Jailed

Myron Mianecski, twenty-six, 8 Hilton street, was sentenced to three months in the Essex County penitentiary following arraignment in Nutley Police Court Friday on a charge of loitering in an intoxicated condition.

The complaint was made by Mrs. Daisy Legion, colored, 43 Ernest street, Nutley, who told police Mianecski grabbed her arm when she went into her house Tuesday night.

Director Louis Noll Declares Bus Service "Highest Caliber"

Is Conducting Survey For Direct Service in All Directions

Director of Parks and Public Property Louis A. Noll, in charge of transportation, reports that a recent survey of the various bus lines serving Belleville has been completed and discloses that the town is receiving transportation facilities of the highest caliber. "The town is being served with transportation facilities to and from Paterson, Clifton, Passaic, Delawanna and Nutley by ten different routes, all of which give us continuous service in accordance with a prepared schedule. Transportation to and from Caldwell, Verona, Montclair, Glen Ridge and Bloomfield is afforded by three routes which are also operated by a prepared schedule. Three routes are in operation between Jersey City and Belleville and two routes between New York and Belleville," he says.

Commissioner Noll states that all of the lines operating through the town in accordance to schedules have complied to the schedules without exception. The director stated that a further study of the problems shown by the survey will lead to direct service to and from the town in all directions and that convenient service will be extended to the citizens to and from surrounding municipalities for a five-cent fare.

He further disclosed that at the present time he is endeavoring to obtain an extension of Public Service Route No. 40 which is now operating from Newark, through East Newark, Harrison, Kearny and Arlington to the Rutgers Street Bridge. The proposed extension will be across the Rutgers Street Bridge west in Rutgers street to Washington avenue, south in Washington avenue to the Second River Garage. The Commissioner stated that the survey disclosed a number of persons from Belleville are using this route and he feels that this is an important reason for such an extension.

The director is also taking steps for the institution of a new route which will afford direct service to and from Bloomfield center.

Committee Meets Monday To Iron Out All Details

Plans are rapidly nearing completion for the second annual Americanization parade, sponsored by the Essex County Council, Veterans of Foreign Wars, to be held Sunday afternoon, June 18, at 3 P.M. in conjunction with Belleville's centennial celebration. Final arrangements will be completed Monday night when the general committee will meet in the Town Hall at 8 o'clock.

COMMITTEE PLANS JUNE PROGRAM FOR SCOUT TROOP

Three Affairs Scheduled During the Month

Scout Troop Committee No. 383, which meets at Friendly House, 23 Frederick street, Silver Lake, has planned an interesting program for June.

The first part of this program will be on Friday, June 9, at 8 o'clock with a Parents and Adult Night.

The second feature will be held on Friday, June 16, at the same hour in the playground. This will be as follows: The Scouts will set up a regular camp scene. After camp activities they will roast frankfurters over campfires, and onlookers will be able to purchase the frankfurters from the boys.

The third and final part of this program will be held on Friday, June 23, in the meeting house, with the showing of a sound film, "Hearts of Humanity."

All interested in boys' work are heartily invited to attend by the committee which consists of Rev. B. Pascale, chairman; J. Falcone, J. Delisio, M. Renga, S. Russo, C. Decepoli and J. Martocchio.

The scoutmaster is P. Caruso, assisted by J. Don and J. Dandrea. J. Petrucci is secretary.

Sisterhood Lawn Party

DAVANZO-DUVA

Miss Joanne L. Duvu, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Duvu, 76 Harrison street, will become the bride of Anthony Davanzo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davanzo, Irvington, at a nuptial mass in St. Anthony's R. C. Church Saturday June 10, at 10 a.m. Rev. Gillick will perform the ceremony. Nuns will sing the hymns.

The bride will wear a gown of white mousseline de soie with a heart shaped neckline and a nineteenth century shoulder line, short puffed sleeves, a billowing skirt and a long court train. A tiara of orange blossoms will hold her tulle veil. She will carry a prayer book and Rosary Beads, small white gardenias and lilies of the valleys fastened to white sateen ribbon streaming from the book.

Miss Duvu's maid of honor will be her younger sister, Miss Bettina Duvu. She has chosen Mrs. Anthony Mascola, Newark, for her matron of honor. Her bridesmaids will be Miss Olga Radzinski, Newark, and Miss Grace Lewis, Bloomfield. Miss Duvu and Mrs. Mascola will wear gowns of delicate pink. Miss Radzinski and Miss Lewis' gowns will be pale blue.

The gowns will be on the same style as the bride's without the train. They will wear brim bonnets with the crowns made of fresh spring flowers, the brims made of the same material and color as the gowns. The maid of honor and the matron of honor will carry blue snapdragon and blue larkspur. The other attendants will carry pink snapdragons and pink larkspur.

The best man is to be Louis Ginnaro, Irvington.

The ushers are Anthony Dorso and Russel Conroy, Irvington and Joseph Duvu, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Duvu, mother of the bride, will wear a gown of print voile with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

After the ceremony there will be open house at the home of the bride. The bridal party plans to have dinner at Berkeley-Carteret, Asbury Park. After a motor trip south, the couple will have in an apartment at 48 Eton avenue, North Arlington.

THE GREAT DAY

When that great day comes and the gifts are on display, note how many electric appliances are numbered among them. There is a practical side to everything and it is a thoughtful friend who selects a gift which not only gives a service but will furnish that service for years to come. Electric toasters and coffee makers, electric kitchen helps and electric clocks are among our suggestions for wedding gifts. Why not look them over at our showrooms? Prices are moderate and payment terms are easy. Small carrying charge added if you pay by the month.

THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1939

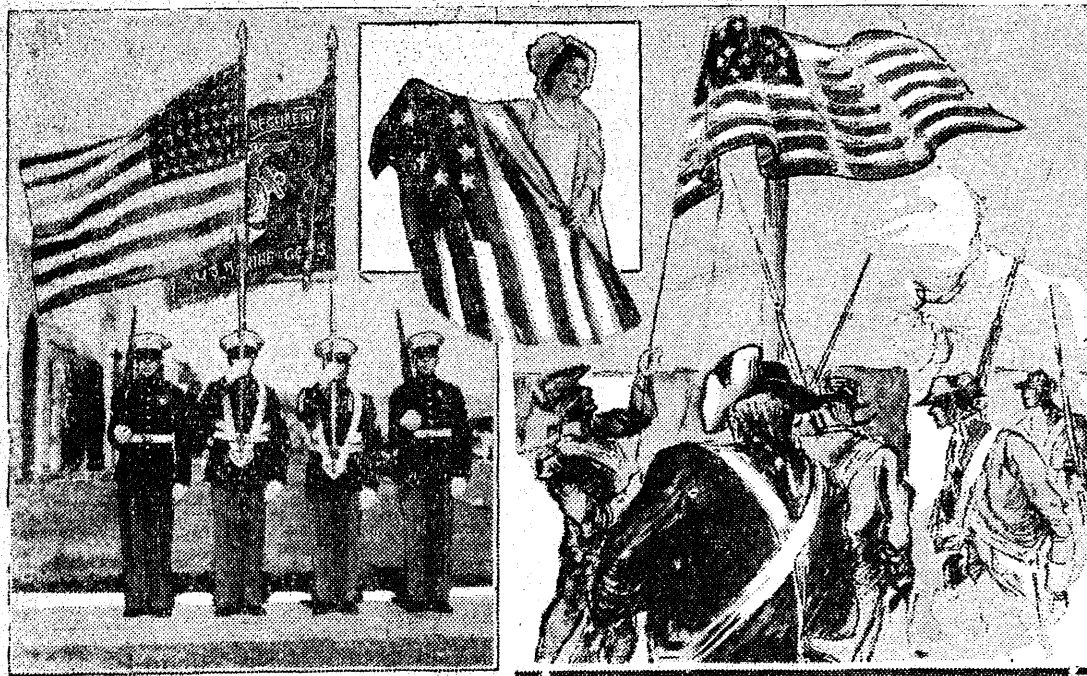

DUAL CELEBRATION

One week from Sunday—June 18, to be exact—Belleville will have a splendid opportunity to demonstrate its Americanization ideas and, at the same time, celebrate officially its centennial as a separate community. It is expected that some 15,000 veterans and seventy-five bands will participate in the Essex County Veterans' Council Flag Day observance, featuring a parade and ceremonies at Clearman Field. National speakers have been obtained, including Congressman Ben Jensen, Iowa, who will give the principal address. Governor A. Harry Moore and former Governor Harold G. Hoffman and other prominent state and county figures will have a place of honor on the speakers' platform.

With these elaborate plans well formulated, Belleville clearly will be faced with a problem of handling the crowds and traffic situation. Nutley police and Boy Scouts will assist. Police Chief George Spatz once again asks residents here to leave their automobiles at home, especially to keep them off side streets in case of fires or accidents so that official vehicles may have clear passage. Absolutely no cars will be permitted to park in Washington or Union avenues.

Belleville should turn out on this occasion as never before to demonstrate that it loves the grand old flag. It should make no difference that we turn out on Sunday. What more fitting day than to honor a flag that stands for all that is morally and spiritually right? What more fitting day than to give thanks to the Lord for giving us Belleville? It isn't that the day is set aside as a holiday or for merrymaking. It is to be used with all the solemnity and respect that the flag deserves and that this town under that flag can give it.

Old Glory Marches To New Milestone

Proud emblem of a liberty-loving people for 162 years, Old Glory celebrates a new birthday on June 14, U. S. Marines are shown (left displaying the National Flag and their regimental colors, and right) hoisting our flag over a captured stronghold at Derne, Tripoli, in 1805. Above: Betsy Ross, traditional maker of the first Stars and Stripes.

Beloved by the citizens of a united nation, the Stars and Stripes will pass another milestone on June 14, marking its long march through the years since its adoption by the Continental Congress in 1777.

We Americans may well be proud of our flag. It is the most beautiful of all national colors. Our flag has pointed the way to freedom to countless thousands. It stands for patriotism, loyalty and fidelity to the ideals of America.

There is a certain mystery surrounding its origin which has proved unsolvable because no one knows definitely who designed it. Flags bearing either stripes or stars existed before Old Glory. A well-established tradition points to Betsy Ross, a Quaker City seamstress, as the maker of the first Stars and Stripes.

Ghosts of Old Glory's ancestors haunt the shadows of early colonial history. Colonial flags bore pine trees, anchors, stripes, stars, rattlesnakes, beavers and other insignia in endless variety. Hosts of marching men as well as citizens, young and old, have looked up to the Star-Spangled Banner for more than eight score years, finding it a rallying point of patriotism, a symbol of our national unity. Save for occasional changes in the number of its stars or stripes, as authorized by Congress from time to time, it is much the same as it was in the beginning.

Floating from the lofty pinnacle of American idealism, our flag is an emblem of enduring hope. Like the famous Bartholdi Statue of Liberty it gives its assurance of justice and liberty to those who are Americans either by right of birth or adoption. It is the revered banner of an assemblage of flags bearing from every racial stock on earth.

Poets have sung of the flag; orators have eulogized it. Yet, to each of us it has its own definite meaning, because we measure our love of country and our love of flag with the same gauge. The two are inseparable.

In recent years it has been the custom to observe June 14 as Flag Day. On this, the flag's birthday, let us keep before us this pledge to the flag: "I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands; one Nation, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all."

SCOUTING

The government is now reported to be vicing with big industry in employing the "cream of the crop" of this June's college graduating classes. Each year big business offers opportunities to young men and women who have been outstanding in their studies.

Now, so the story goes, the various government agencies are sending men out to line up graduates to enter upon government careers. They will seek chemists, bacteriologists, statisticians, etc. Of course, the college men will welcome any chance to step into a government job. The "talent scouts" are sure to find plenty of available material.

VACATION AHEAD

Despite the amazing weather June brought us, the mind goes out to vacation time. It is almost upon us and time to think about it. Since it is the longest rest of the year for the working body, it should be thought about and planned ahead, not with a view to the most fun, but to the best way to relax. The sorriest person is the one who waits until the vacation is at hand and then dashes madly off, without reason, just anywhere. Now is the time to figure it out ahead to get the most enjoyment out of a vacation—that is if the company for which you work is generous enough to grant you one.

THE N.R.L.B. IN ACTION

There are many who are ready to defend the National Labor Relations Board, which administers the National Labor Relations Act, against the charge that the board is one-sided—favoring, in its deliberations, the case of the employee. These defenders assert that the charges against the board are always "generalities."

One witness appearing before the Senate committee on Education and Labor considering amendments to the National Labor Relations Act had one piece of testimony which certainly, however, cannot be considered "generalities." He was explaining the appearance of his company's lawyer before the board, before which the company had been summoned. The witness testified:

"... when he began his argument the Chairman of the Board asked two questions. The first one was, 'You had a strike, didn't you?' The answer was, 'Yes.' The next question was, 'The men are still out, are they not?' The answer was, 'Some of them.' The Chairman then said, 'Well, what else is there to this case?'"

It is doubtful that even the keenest defenders of the board could disprove such a remark as indicating bias. It would certainly likewise seem to prove the charge that the board proceeds on the assumption that strife must be the basis of employer-employee relations in the United States.

TWO STRIKES ON HIM BEFORE HE GOES TO BAT

THIS WEEK

by "Guardian"

The views expressed in this column are entirely those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Publishers or Editors of the Belleville News.

Another busy week in the news. Locally, of the most importance was Monday's decision of the Supreme Court of the United States denying that the Jersey City ordinance which required permits to hold public meetings is void, contrary to the Constitution—and sustaining the injunction issued by the lower Courts restraining Mayor Hague and the authorities of Jersey City from denying permits to hold public meetings to those groups which the Jersey City authorities desired not to have the "freedom of public assembly."

It is noted that two Justices of the Supreme Court dissented from this opinion and—though it will not make much difference—I too, dissent. If such an ordinance is used as a weapon of coercion and if its enforcement is genuinely an abridgment of the freedom of speech which is fundamental to us, then to that degree it should be changed.

But it—as I believe to have been the case—the Jersey City ordinance was but a proper exercise of the police power that is invested in every public body, and if permits for the requested meetings were denied in order to avoid physical conflict, riot and bloodshed, then, in my judgment, there should be provision in our laws for such an ordinance.

Presumably we are now going to see a series of meetings and counter-meetings in Jersey City with a lot of bather on both sides with no resultant good to anyone.

It is reported that Mayor Hague and his Commissioners are now going to pass an ordinance limiting the places in which public assemblies without permit may be held. That is a step in the right direction.

A third term for President Roosevelt?

"To be—or not to be, that is the question."

Friends of Vice President Garner permitted it to be announced on Sunday that Garner would be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for President in 1940 whether President Roosevelt wanted to run or not. On Tuesday the magazine "Look" came out with an article by Secretary Ickes—a member of the President's official cabinet—demanding that the President become a candidate for a third term and giving it as his opinion that it is essential that the experience of the President be retained by keeping him in office.

On Wednesday, Secretary Wallace—through some ardent folstars) should go clear to the head of the staff unless the flag is at half mast.

When the flag is displayed in any manner other than by being flown from the staff, it should be displayed either horizontally or vertically against a wall; the union should be uppermost and to the right, that is to the left of the observer.

When displayed over the middle of the street, between buildings, the flag should be suspended vertically with the union to the north, in an east-and-west street, or to the east in a north-and-south street.

When used on a speaker's platform, the flag should be displayed above and behind the speaker. It should never be used to cover the speaker's stand nor to drape in front of the platform.

When the flag is displayed in church, it should be on the congregation's right as they face the clergyman. If in the chancel, the flag should be placed on the clergyman's right as he faces the congregation.

When the flag is displayed in the home, it should be on the left of the entrance.

Our Atlantic City correspondent reports having seen Mrs. William P. Adams, Rossmore place, on the boardwalk. Mrs. Adams has been at Atlantic City since the Women's Club convention three weeks ago.

Miss Lillian M. Harris, Union avenue, was also on the boardwalk during the last week-end. John P. Bailey, secretary of the North Belleville Building & Loan Association, was attending the New Jersey Building & Loan League convention at Haddon Hall.

Did we mention before that Dr. Ernest C. Reock was recently elected to the presidency of the Essex County Dental Society?

Co-ed Party At Shore By Notre Dame Alumni

Edward F. Hargan, 178 DeWitt avenue, is on the Notre Dame Alumni Association of New Jersey committee which will hold a "co-ed day at the shore" June 17, when old grads, present students and friends will escort their girlfriends and wives to the Ves. and Casino, Long Beach.

The affair will be a welcome home party to the students from New Jersey now attending Notre Dame.

The program, which will begin at noon, includes pool and swimming, aquatic exhibitions by A.A.U. stars, dinner at 6:30 p.m.

TELLS FEDERATION OF WORK OF GIRL SCOUTS

Participating Agencies Will Continue Sessions In Fall

Belleville's Welfare Federation held its final business meeting of the season Tuesday evening at its offices, 338 Washington avenue. The sessions will resume activities the first Tuesday in September. Floyd F. Lagg, president, presided and introduced Mrs. Mae L. Holsen, director of the local Girl Scout organization, who announced that there are approximately 325 registered Girl Scouts and fourteen troops in Belleville; two Senior troops, ages from fourteen to eighteen years, eight intermediates, ten to fourteen years, and four Brownie Packs, seven to ten years.

The local council, which meets at the Belleville Elks' Clubhouse, consists of representatives from the social, religious, educational, business and civic groups. Mrs. Stanley S. Gibson is Commissioner; Mrs. Frank Ackerman and Mrs. Elmer Hyde, first and second deputy commissioners, and Mrs. George Gerard and Mrs. LeRoy Long, secretary and treasurer, respectively. Mrs. Frances Jones, head of the Girl Scout Council, is in charge of the Council as is Miss Frances Place, captain of Troops Nos. 3 and 4. Mrs. Walter Warrick is camp committee chairman.

Its functions are to sponsor and develop Girl Scouting, maintain high standards by providing a high type of leadership, adequate training for leaders, for camping and outdoor living and to cooperate with all social, health and recreational agencies. It also sponsors swimming, cooking and Red Cross first aid classes, and the "Cabin" at South Mountain reservation affords a great deal of outdoor enjoyment for the Scouts.

Mrs. Lester E. McCorkle, 134 Forest street, was named chairman of the house-to-house division of the Community Chest Drive by Walter G. Price, manager for the 1940 Campaign, which will be held in the Fall. Mrs. McCorkle was active in last year's campaign and is serving now as the executive secretary of the Welfare Federation. She will select twenty division captains to cover private residence and apartment areas, and a committee meeting will be held the latter part of this month to formulate the initial plans. Mrs. Alan D. Lundy will serve as committee secretary.

At the September meeting Mrs. Martha S. Herkins, head of the Silver Lake Community House, and Andrew Boylan, chairman of the Belleville Chapter American Red Cross, will review the activities of their organizations before the members of the Board of Trustees of the Federation. Both are participating agencies in the Community Chest.

Mrs. Earl H. Orr, 21 Myrtle avenue, was elected as a member of the Board of Trustees.

CLUB MEETING

The Clover Social Club will hold a meeting on Thursday, June 15, in the home of Mrs. Bodine, 17 Howard place.

The M. D. Says

Nearly everyone knows that pasteurization destroys germs in milk in some way but not everyone could describe the process of pasteurization.

When milk is pasteurized it is heated to 142 degrees Fahrenheit, held at that temperature for thirty minutes, and then very quickly cooled and bottled. It will be noted that the milk is not boiled.

Pasteurized milk looks and tastes the same as raw milk. Pasteurization destroys none of the fine food qualities of milk and renders it safe for human consumption.

Pasteurization, with other measures such as tuberculin testing of herds, has helped to reduce the incidence of diseases which can be transmitted through milk.

The program is being directed by Mrs. Lorena Clark assisted by committee chairman.

Jean Banks and Dorothy Carpenter will usher.

'PHONE COMPANY SHOWS BIG GAIN

Expect To Reach 2,146,985 Total Before Year Ends

Ever since 1904, when only about four million telephones were in use throughout the world, the number of telephones has grown on the average by just about one million instruments a year. Some years, notably the decade of the twenties, were marked by a world-wide telephone growth well in excess of a million sets, while the depression years from 1931 to 1933 showed losses.

At the beginning of 1937, however, the telephone industry had again caught up with the calendar, for there were then 37,008,084 telephones in service in the world; and during that year this total increased by 2,146,985 telephones, a greater net gain than that recorded in any previous year. Indications are that the world total of telephones will pass the forty-one million mark some time during 1939.

These figures have been compiled through world-wide surveys undertaken each year by the Chief Statistician of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and are based upon reports obtained from telephone companies and government departments in every country. Statistics covering the year 1937 have just been published in a pamphlet entitled "Telephone and Telegraph Statistics of the World, January 1, 1938."

At the beginning of 1938, there were slightly more than two billion people in the world and 39,245,069 telephones. The United States has only about one-seventh of the world's population, but very nearly one-half of the world's telephones. On January 1, 1938, there was in fact, a total of 19,453,401 telephones in this country, including some 8,500,000 "dial" operated instruments. The United States has 15.09 telephones for every 100 of the population, or twenty-five per cent more than the country next best developed from a telephone viewpoint, viz., New Zealand, with 11.91 in every 100 population.

In Europe, Denmark and Sweden lead in telephone development, with 11.25 and 11.75 telephones per 100 population, respectively. Next to the United States, Germany has the largest telephone system in the world, but her 3,623,697 telephones represent only 5.31 instruments per 100 population. Great Britain, including Northern Ireland, on January 1, 1938, had 3,029,456 telephones, equal to 6.41 per 100 population; and France had 1,552,618 or 3.70 per 100 population. Outside Europe, Canada had 1,322,794 telephones, or 11.90 per 100 population, and Japan had 1,304,693 or 1.82 per 100 population. The five last-named countries are the only countries outside the United States with more than a million telephones; but while in the aggregate they account for 27.61 per cent of the total number of telephones in the world, their average development is only 4.51 telephones per 100 population.

Some sixty per cent of the world's telephones are operated by private companies, including 4,309,464 privately operated telephones outside the United States. The remaining forty per cent are owned and operated by governmental authorities, most of them being in Europe where 87 per cent of the 12,269,230 telephones are government operated. It is of interest in this connection that the average telephone development of Europe is only 2.47 instruments per 100 population, or one-sixth of the development in the United States, the only large country that has always enjoyed private operation of all wire communication facilities. In order to equal our telephone development, the world outside the United States would have to install nearly 800 million additional telephones, or almost fifteen times as many as there now are.

New York City leads the world's cities in actual number of telephones and Washington, D. C., in development of the service relative to population. New York City on January 1, 1938, had 1,623,117 telephones, equivalent to 22.28 per cent of its population of 7,284,000. This is more telephones than there are in all of France; three times more, in fact, than there are on the whole continent of Asia, where half the world's population lives. Washington and San Francisco both have over 38 telephones for every 100 inhabitants. This is more than twice as many telephones in relation to the population than there are in any of Europe's large capital cities. Berlin, Paris and London had only 18.34, 15.29 and 17.18 telephones, respectively, for each 100 inhabitants.

This superiority of American cities is the more remarkable since telephone development abroad tends to be concentrated in the larger urban centers, to the relative detriment of the less densely populated areas. In the United States, however, communities with less than 50,000 inhabitants had on the average a telephone for every ten people, whereas in similar French, German or British communities there is only one telephone for from 22 to 45 people. Average American telephone development in smaller communities is, in fact, better than that of many large cities abroad, such as Amsterdam, Birmingham, Budapest, Hamburg, Prague, Rome, Tokyo, Vienna, etc., some of which have as much as two-thirds of all the telephones in their respective countries.

Today's Parent by ELLEN McLOUGHLIN Director, Children's Institute

Winning Obedience

Perhaps none of the viewpoints on child training has changed more in recent times than the matter of obedience.

It has always seemed the parent's job to enforce obedience—to give the orders for the child to follow, and to punish severely for any lapses in blind obedience. This is not only cruel but meaningless from a training standpoint. Might doesn't make right among civilized people.

The tendency to think that children have all the faults and parents none is a common error. Parents do not always view the justice of their demands from the angle of the youngsters. Do you expect too much? Does the child understand what you want? Are you consistent? Thoughtless mothers often overlook any wrong for the sake of momentary peace. Or another time they will punish a child for the slightest thing if the mood strikes them. Again, the same offense they will one day be severe, another day lenient. There is no way a child can be obedient to such treatment.

In nature, certain things stand out as the inevitable results of misconduct or neglect. When a child falls he suffers a pain which makes him more careful in the future. If he falls again he is hurt again. A slight accident brings him a slight pain, a more serious one a greater pain. No threats, but a just, reliable penalty to equal the error. These qualities make for obedience to nature. The same qualities practiced by parents make for obedience to parents. Many parents fail to get obedience because their manner is rough and domineering. Obedience is only good when it is won by friendly understanding, not commanded on a basis of authority. On the other hand, freedom to do anything at all is just as hopeless. Complete non-interference on the part of parents who let their children have their own way under all circumstances leaves the children selfish, little egotists, without any discipline, consideration for others or restraint. That is turning liberty into license. Such a child has little chance of success in a social group or community where the rights and privileges of others must be considered.

Obedience should be required, not to show our power over children, not to satisfy our vanity or ambition as parents, but to help the growth and adjustment of the child. Obedience is not an end in itself, but a means of helping the child in his dependent state. Later the control must shift from your authority to the child's inner voice of conscience. Hence an independent, self-reliant attitude should be encouraged and the spirit should not be weakened by blind obedience to arbitrary commands.

"GOD THE PRESERVER OF MAN" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 11.

The Golden Text is: "Thy righteousness is like the great mountains; thy judgments are a great deep: O Lord thou preservest man and beast." (Psalms 36:6).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear." (1 John 4:16, 18).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Stand porter at the door of thought. Admitting only such conclusions as you wish realized in bodily results, you will control yourself harmoniously. Rise in the strength of Spirit to resist all that is unlike good. God has made man capable of this, and nothing can vitiate the ability and power divinely bestowed on man." (pp. 392, 393).

Our North Newark - Forest Hill Neighbors

"Loco Weed" is Cause To Test Cows' Milk

A sample of milk from a herd of fifteen cows who have been grazing in a field of Marijuana (loco weed) in North Newark will be submitted by the health department to the city veterinarians for testing to determine if the milk was affected by the narcotic.

The field is one of twelve whose owners were warned Friday by Deputy Chief Sebald's squad to destroy the illegal weeds. Police gave the owners ten days to eliminate the marijuana. If it is still growing then, Sebald said, a poison chemical which sterilizes the ground for two years will be sprayed by fire engines and sprinkling cans.

Mrs. C. Alfred Stengel, Parker street, who has just moved to 569 Mt. Prospect avenue, will spend July in the Adirondacks and August at Spring Lake.

Leaving the middle of the month for their home at Lake Mohawk for the summer will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Johns, 375 Mt. Prospect avenue.

Mrs. James Agnew, North Augusta, Ga., has arrived at the home of Mr. Agnew's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert S. Agnew, 240 Woodside avenue, for the wedding June 30 of her sister-in-law, Miss Janet S. Agnew, to Fred H. Burgher, West Orange. Mr. Agnew will join his wife later in the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bannwart, 747 Clifton avenue, had as a week-end guest Mr. Bannwart's sister, Miss Emilie Bannwart, Boston, who is on her way home from a visit in Summit. Miss Bannwart also stopped for a few days on her way to Summit.

Mrs. Nicholas Albano, 223 Highland avenue, president of the Guild of St. James' Hospital, will head the reception committee for the annual spring luncheon and bridge Saturday at The Brook, Summit. More than 400 are expected. A feature will be a fashion promenade of garden clothes, displayed by members of the Junior Auxiliary. Those taking part will include Miss Alice Caulfield, president; the Misses Alice Albano, Gertrude Shea, Verna Nugent, Mary Dwyer, Marcella Murphy, Florence Gerlach, Marie Sonn, Peggy Jane McCallion, Margaret Dalton and Barbara Collins. Other juniors will serve as hostesses. Mrs. Fred Atkins, Maplewood, and Mrs. William A. Shea, Newark, are associate chairmen.

SUMMER'S COMING! Warm sun—deep shade—buzzing bees—long, lazy days inviting you to take it easy!

Gonna fall for that? Well, maybe—if that car in your driveway is just a run-of-mine job. But suppose it's a Buick—then what?

Then, good sir, you're in for an active summer. A summer of going places, seeing sights—and having some honest-to-goodness fun!

You'll boss around a brilliant Dynaflex straight-eight engine as thrilling to handle as a flyrod.

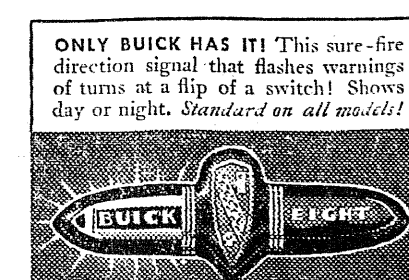

You'll go exploring over the little-traveled back trails—and soft springs of coiled steel will cradle every jolt and jar. You'll look out to the far horizons through windows wider, and bigger—there's as much as 412 square inches more space to make your outlook easier.

Yes, you'll pilot a carriage that's staunch and snug and firm beneath you—yet every nudge of your treadle foot gives instant-quick action that'll bring a grin of deep delight.

This far-ranging beauty is not only the car of the year for performance, but the value of the year. It's priced lower than a year ago—lower than you'd think to see it—lower even than some sixes!

And when you check all of the standard items that you're asked extra for elsewhere, you find that Buick costs less in the end even than some cars with lower advertised prices!

"Better buy Buick!"

Junior Woman's Club Ready For Surprise Of the Season

Will Present Broadway Stars At No. 10 School On June 16

The "you-could-have-knocked-me-over-with-a-feather" folks are saying that the play arranged by the Junior Woman's Club is the outstanding surprise of the season. This up-to-the-minute organization, instead of just putting on a play, has arranged to bring to Belleville a company of Broadway actors and actresses in the "Importance of Being Earnest" to be presented at School No. 10 on June 16.

Although the lights of New York's famous Great White Way can almost be seen from here on a clear night, the occasion of a Broadway acting company's coming to Belleville does not happen every day, and so it is no wonder that Mrs. Walter Mack and her enthusiastic club members anticipate a sell-out when the performance goes on.

The company is a brilliant one. Its members are all actors of splendid repute who have combined to bring the Broadway theatre into closer touch with the suburban audiences. Belleville playgoers will be quick to recognize the charm of this production, costumed gaily in the fashions of the late nineteenth century, and the merit of the players, many of whom will be familiar to them, having appeared in "Brother Rat," "The Children's Hour," "Our Town" and other Broadway successes.

Among the members of the cast will be Lynne Fisher, Charlotte Temple, Philip Truex and Spencer James. The choice of play which is a bright revival of a Broadway last winter—lends itself to a production designed to be of the highest box office appeal, completely entertaining to both the eyes and ears of its audience, full of amusing situations, brilliant dialogue and colorful costumes.

Mrs. Walter Mack, club president, is chairman of the ticket committee, assisted by the Misses Barbara Tate, Betty Shurts, Agnes Stewart, Dorothy L. Gardner, Mrs. J. H. Knapik, Mrs. Mack has appointed the following ushers: Misses Jeanne McClean, Natalie Ziegler, Madeline and Dorothy Prime and Emily Logan.

American Legion Auxiliary

Belleville Unit No. 105, American Legion Auxiliary, takes this means of thanking Miss Simpson, school art supervisor; Supervising Principal Wayne R. Farmer, teachers in the schools and pupils who participated in the Poppy poster contest. Merchants, who displayed the posters in store windows, are also thanked. The judging committee selected the following as winners: First Class, Earl Hathaway, high school; second, Walter Garvey, high school; and third, Donald Rief, School No. 1.

Mrs. Arthur Christie, chairman, says: "I deeply appreciate the kind cooperation of my committee and citizens of Belleville for their support in our successful poppy sales drive and the Belleville News for the publicity. The entire proceeds from the sale will be used for rehabilitation and welfare work."

Awards will be made to the winners in respective schools by Mrs. Christie. Honorable mention in the contest went to Jack Kraeutler, high school in Class 1 and to George Kimmmerle, Jr., No. 3 School; Marjorie Ebeli, No. 8; Peter Caruso, No. 1, and Robert Kane, No. 4, second class, and Edward Luhrs, No. 9; Domenic Mongrella, No. 2 and John Distasio, No. 7, third class.

Those who served with Mrs. Christie, are Mrs. William Maser, Mrs. Otto Breunlich and Mrs. Joseph Delaporte with Mrs. Joseph Huemer, president, assisting.

On Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Christie, 250 De Witt avenue, Mrs. Huemer attended the Junior Auxiliary meeting at which nominations and elections took place. Miss Virginia Ackerman is retiring president of the group. Later Mrs. Huemer represented Belleville Auxiliary at the Essex County convention meeting in Bloomfield Town Hall. Mrs. William Kant attends the centennial meeting in the town hall and Mrs. Huemer, Mrs. Charles Hoffman, Mrs. William Labaugh, Mrs. F. Gerard Fredericks, Mrs. Christie and Mrs. Edwin Ackerman attended.

rites Held For Catherine H. Dunn

Was Widow Of Late Patrolman James J. Dunn

A requiem Mass was held at 9 a.m. Saturday in St. Peter's Church for Mrs. Catherine Hanley Dunn, sixty-four, 6 Smith street, who died Wednesday in her home after a short illness. Burial was in St. Peter's Cemetery.

She was born in Brooklyn, but had lived more than forty years in Belleville. Her husband, the late James J. Dunn, was a policeman. She was a member of the Mt. Carmel Guild and the Roary Society of St. Peter's Church.

George Dunn leaves five sons, James J., clerk in the Belleville Revenue and Finance Department; Patrolman Thomas Daniel F. and Edward J., also Belleville, and Patrick J., Newark; six daughters, Mrs. Edward Norton, Mrs. John Flynn, Mrs. Joseph Lister, Mrs. William Licht, and the Misses Emily and Anna Rita, all Belleville, and eight grandchildren.

Children at No. 1 Win Awards for Posters

Two children at Public School No. 1 won prizes and four received honorable mention in the flower poster contest in Belleville schools. Peter Caruso was given first award and Dorothy Mackey, fourth. Those who received honorable mention are Harry Finkle, William Mackey, George Brown and Alice Malcolm.

Miss Viola Appel, director of art, Bermuda; George A. Swanson and Dr. Beebe, explorer, were the judges.

an Essex County meeting in the Montclair Y.M.C.A.

The auxiliary members were guests Tuesday evening at a dinner given by post members in Parillo's, Harrison street.

Saturday the Junior Auxiliary took part in a rally and picnic at South Mountain Reservation. Mrs. Marion Rawcliffe, Nutley, was in charge.

Essex County American Legion Auxiliary will hold its annual field day at Lyons Hospital Saturday. Mrs. Grover C. Ashby is in charge. The next business meeting will be held Monday in the Chateau, when election of officers will take place.

Any members desiring to make reservations for the convention dinner on Saturday, June 17, in the First Presbyterian Church, Bloomfield, should communicate with Mrs. Huemer, 179 Cedar Hill avenue, or telephone BElle 2-4047-J.

Two tickets for the Capitol Theatre go to Mrs. Albert Fitton, 103 Malone avenue, who gives us this delicious recipe for:

Raisin Bran Muffins
1 cup graham flour
1 cup bran
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup brown sugar
1 egg
1 cup milk
1/2 cup butter, melted
1/2 cup seeded raisins

Mix together first five ingredients. Beat egg slightly, add milk to egg. Then add to dry mixture. Add melted butter and raisins; mix quickly. Half fill greased muffin pans. Bake in hot oven at 425 degrees F. about thirty minutes. Makes twelve muffins.

Mrs. Joseph Fischer, 14 Wilson place, is also receiving two tickets to the Capitol Theatre for her this delicious recipe for:

Jellied Chicken and Vegetable Salad
2 tablespoons granulated gelatin
3 cups hot chicken broth or canned chicken soup
2 cups cooked vegetables (peas, string beans, carrots, asparagus, etc., may be used)
1/2 cup cold water or chicken broth
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup diced chicken meat
1 tablespoon chopped pickles
1 green pepper minced
lettuce

Soak gelatin in cold water or broth five minutes. Add hot broth and stir gelatin until dissolved, add salt and cool. Pour a thin layer of this mixture into a cold wet mould and let it stiffen slightly. Add some of the vegetable and chicken meat, more jelly, etc., continuing until all ingredients are used. Chill until firm, unmould on lettuce leaves and garnish with parsley or watercress and mayonnaise.

Religious School Plans Annual Public Examination

The Religious School of Congregation A. A. A. will hold its annual public examination on Wednesday evening, June 14, at 6:30 in the social hall of the Synagogue, 317 Washington avenue. Rabbi Rubin R. Dobin, head of the school, and Philip Lempert, chairman of the school board, will be in charge.

The school, which has been meeting regularly for the past ten months, has enjoyed a regular increase in attendance. The children have received a thorough grounding in the Hebrew language and literature, Bible and commentaries, Jewish customs and ceremonies and modern Jewish problems. The children have made notable progress in their work this year.

The public examination will mark the formal close of new work for this year, although classes will not close until a week later. An interesting program has been prepared for the evening. In addition to Mr. Lempert, the members of the school board are: Abraham Aitkins, Morris Berkowitz, Michael Smith, Saul Abramson, Louis Haft, Dr. Morris Rochlin, Mesdames Lillian Berkowitz, Bess Danner and Clara Weingass.

Activities of Belleville Lodge, 1123, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks

Whenever "Herb" Schmutz and "Charlie" Gebhardt, Jr., get together it is certain something is in the making as regards school matters. When "Herb" shakes his head "a mile-a-minute" and "Gebby" gesticulates, you can safely assume Belleville will have some improvement in its class rooms. Hard workers both of these Elks.

Then take Dr. "Bonecrusher" Donald S. Brown. He is always on hand at high school games to lend a helping hand to some disabled schoolboy in baseball, football, basketball and track. "Doc" always sees to it the Belleville lads are in the pink of condition.

If you ever want to see a butcher drop his tools, just walk into Ed Sadlock's Market and say something disparaging about Uncle Sam's Navy. Such an attack "gets" Ed right by the ears.

At the drop of a hat he will take you for a ride all around the world, stopping at various points, describing persons and habits in each port. If you pay strict attention to Ed, he will most certainly tell you about the woman who walked aboard a ship to the astonishment of all the sailors. Of course, when they checked up a sailor was missing. "What are we going to do this

Fishing Trip

Bill says, "We will start out with a nice fishing trip. After getting all the little ones and missing the big ones, we take a week off and then jump into a golf tournament. Now, here the boys will have to prove some of the wild assertions they have made at the club. Russell Sandford (the little 230-pound butcher boy) will enter providing the committee will allow him to sit on the green and putt-putt-putt the ball into the cup. After the tournament the club follows with an old-time outing. Here is where the brothers again become a bunch of youngsters (I hope). The sixty-yard dashes wind up three steps from the starting line and baseball games always end in ties.

With all this lined up, Bill certainly should keep the boys out in the open for a spell and what is better than jumping into these affairs to keep up the spirit?"

Let's go, boys, for some fun!

LOCAL WOMEN ARE NAMED AS OFFICERS IN NEWARK CHORUS

Mrs. Walter P. Sutton
First Woman President In 25 Years

The Newark Music Festival Chorus Wednesday evening at the Helen MacHugh Studio, Broadway, Newark, held a business meeting and election of officers. Mrs. Walter P. Sutton, Belleville, was unanimously elected president, as the first woman to hold this post in the twenty-five years the club has been in existence. She has been a member for twenty years and served as vice-president, financial secretary, treasurer and on the Advisory Board. She is the organist and choir leader of Bethany Lutheran Church which meets in Masonic Temple.

Vice-president is Mrs. Joseph H. Harrison, Jr., East Orange; financial secretary, Ubaldo U. Epelgrin, Newark; treasurer, David D. Krohn, Newark; secretary, Mrs. Anne G. Ward, Newark, who has served in this position for twenty-five years, the only one to hold this post since the Chorus has been in existence. George E. Hallett, East Orange, is chairman of the Advisory Board. There are five trustees, Mrs. John Alaton, Miss Marie Ford, John Simons, Newark; Miss Marjorie McGragory, Orange, and Mrs. Joseph L. Jordan, 25 Nulton street, Belleville. Mrs. Jordan is a member of Bethany choir.

Men and women interested in music and singing are cordially invited to join the group when it resumes activities in the fall. Altos and tenors are urged to join.
