GIRL RELEASED IN BAIL FOLLOWING FATAL CRASH

North Arlington Motorist Succumber Day After Accident

Miss Helen Brussel, twenty-five, 50 Milford avenue, Newark, has been released by Recorder Everett B. Smith in $1,000 bail for Grand Jury as a result of the death early Friday morning of Ernest Hecker, fifty-two, 17 Brandenburg place, North Arlington, who is reported by police to have been struck by an automobile driven Thursday night by Miss Brussel south in Washington avenue, near Belleville avenue.

According to the police blotter, Hecker stepped from in front of a car proceeding in the same direction as Miss Brussel and parallel with her car. Hecker was going from the west to east side of the street to obtain his own car which he had parked. He was struck, it is said, by the right front of Miss Brussel's machine and thrown to the pavement.

Hecker was taken by Patrolman Raymond Demgard and Fireman McKillop in the town ambulance to St. Michael's Hospital, where it was said he had a broken left leg and skull fracture. He succumbed in about twenty-four hours.

Another Crash

Following a head-on collision of an automobile driven by Vito Piagari, twenty-two, 12 Mt. Vernon street, Nutley, north in Franklin avenue near Joralemon street, Friday, and one driven south in the same street by Plamer A. Zangrilli, thirty-three, 319 North Seventh street, Newark, two persons were rushed to hospitals.

Miss Mary Piagari, fifty-two-year-old mother of the driver and owner of the car in which she was riding with her son, was rushed to Mountside Hospital by a passing motorist, Frank C. Boyle, 57 Center street. An unknown motorist rushed to the Essex County Hospital for Contagious Diseases with Daniel Gasparini, twenty-five, 156 Glenwood avenue, Bloomfield, an occupant of Zangrilli's car. Later Fireman McKillop took him in the town ambulance to St. Mary's Hospital, Passaic.

Two other occupants of Piagari's car, Rose Dante, forty-one, and Mrs. Josephine Amouré, thirty-seven, both 4110 Fifth avenue, Brooklyn, were not reported injured.

LUTHERANS PLAN TO BUILD NEW CHURCH HERE

Property Acquired On Hill Section For New Edifice

Bethany Evangelical Lutheran Church has purchased vacant property at the northeast corner of Joralemon and New streets, where a church edifice will be erected.

Rev. Willard H. Borchers, pastor, said an $18,000 to $20,000 building would be erected as soon as funds are available. Plans have not been approved, he said.

Dedication exercises for the newly acquired land will be held in mid-September with Lutheran officials present.

The property was purchased for $3,500 from Mary E. Mertz, represented by Lawrence Keenan of Belleville. William H. Blohm, Jr., of Jersey City represented the purchaser.

Members of the church serving on the property committee were Edwin Schuck, Alfred Oeschner, and Edward Reed.

Sunday services are now held in the Masonic Temple. Sunday school is held in the Belleville Recreation House.

Miss Catherine Donnelly Weds Francis J. Bolen

Announcement has been made of the wedding at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning in Sacred Heart Church, South Orange and Sandford avenues, Vailsburgh, of Miss Catherine Donnelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Donnelly, 79 Mountview place, Newark, and Francis J. Bolen, son of Mrs. Agnes Bolen, Orange.

Following a wedding trip the couple will reside in Belleville. Mr. Bolen has been with the Peoples National Bank & Trust Co., the last three years as assistant cashier. Last Wednesday officers and employees of the company presented Mr. Bolen with a radio.

Corresponded 20 Years; Finally Met

As a result of an odd incident which occurred twenty years ago when Mrs. Charles Feuerstein found the name of Mrs. Percy Thomas, East Auburn, Me., in a package of towels while in the employ of Hyman Solomon, who at that time had one of Belleville's leading stores, Mr. and Mrs. Feuerstein and daughter, Donna, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phahl, 491 Union avenue, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas.

The local folks toured the New England states. Mrs. Feuerstein had never met Mrs. Thomas but had corresponded regularly over the fifth-century period.

LARCENY CHARGED IN LYNDBURST TO LOCAL MAN

Police Found Him Pounding Away On Vending Machine

Charged with larceny, Lyndhurst police early Sunday arrested Charles G. Keir, twenty-six, 130 Cedar Hill avenue. Keir was taken into custody by Sergeant Wooby and Patrolman Schreckenstein of that town.

Authorities there said, he was apprehended while breaking open a vending machine which he had taken from a tavern operated by Mrs. Carrie Wooby at Park and Court avenues, Lyndhurst.

Police said Keir had taken $5 in change from the machine. He admitted, police said, breaking into the tavern of Mrs. Louise Mullen in River road near Court avenue and the office of a golf driving range in River road at Valley Brook avenue.

Wooby and Schreckenstein were patrolling River road in the police car at 5 A.M. Sunday when they heard hammering near the river bank. They found Keir.

GIRLS INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT IN NUTLEY

Local Man, It Is Said, Swerved To Avoid Head-On Crash

Swerving to avoid a head-on collision according to police, an automobile driven by George R. Ward, Jr., 90 Belmore street struck a parked car opposite 65 Washington avenue, Nutley.

Two girls, who were riding in the Ward car, Miss Marian Misner, nineteen, 135 Lakeside drive, and Miss Mildred Allston, eighteen, 103 Brookline avenue, both Nutley, were injured.

Misner was taken to St. Mary's Hospital, Passaic, with a broken arm, cut lip and loosened teeth. Miss Allston was treated at the hospital for bruises to the left hip and elbow and released.

The Ward car caused the one with which it collided, it is said, to roll south in Washington avenue a short distance across the thoroughfare into another parked car.

One Of Two Queen Termites In Country Found At Library

Belleville Is Accorded An Unique Place In "Bug" Life

Belleville Rotary Club yesterday at luncheon in the Forest Hill Field Club heard a talk on "Termites" by Alexander Goulard, Westfield, who, as a member of the firm of Goulard & Olena, Inc., New York, has charge of ridding the Belleville Library of the insects.

The library basement and main floor practically has been ruined by the termites and the town has ordered an $800 emergency appropriation to take care of the situation.

Mr. Goulard explained that there are three types of termites: workers, soldiers and fliers — and, like other insects, give notice of their presence so that precautionary measures may be taken to exterminate them.

The worker, with a sharp mandril that has been known to cut a path through a concrete block, is blind, and the soldier is half blind, he said. The fliers are hangers-on, so to speak, in the termite group, which holds a record for laying eggs among insects. While it is estimated conservatively by Mr. Goulard that 10,000 eggs per day may be laid, the record is 84,900 and, some authorities say, the average is 25,000.

"This beats the Japanese beetle a mile," he stated, explaining that forty Japanese beetles are the progeny of a hatching.

Find Queen Here
"Nests in which are found queen termites are very scarce," said the speaker. "In fact I know of only two having been found — one of these was in your own Belleville Library. We tried to keep it alive a few days, but found it impossible."

"Some people tell you there are various methods of getting after termites. There is no such thing as chemical treatment for them. Once they are located I would say that a thorough plan to get rid of them be followed."

Wood cannot be impregnated to stamp out the "bugs," he said, adding, "The best thing to do is remove the post, pillar or section that is found to support termites as one would a tooth that is beyond the stage of filling."

"The termite scare can be debunked. Termites can be controlled as potato bugs and mosquitoes. But the job must be according to plans of those who work with the problem, day in and day out. I have read books on the subject and find no particular fault with them, except that in some parts they are conflicting, confusing and contradictory. The best way to fight termites is through advice of someone who has studied a method to eliminate them with pick-axe and poisons."

Members of the club will be guests of John Weidmann on Wednesday, September 20, at his summer home at Highland Lake. Franklin J. Berry, a past service member of East Orange Rotary Club, last week spoke on "Service to Man," referring to an editorial in the last issue of the Rotarian Magazine on "Forty Plus Clubs Go To Town."

Midlet Races Off
There will be no midlet auto race meet at the Nutley Velodrome track until further notice. The meet scheduled at Nutley for last night was called off.

Queen Of Baby Parade

Over 200 youngsters took part in a crowded grandstand viewed the proceedings. Maureen is a pupil of the Margaret Sheehan School of Stage Dancing, Belleville. The little blonde with a group from the local school tap danced on May 2 at the New York World's Fair.

Watchman On Vacation; Vandals Enter School

Police are investigating the run-acking Friday night of Public School No. 7. Just how entry was made has not been determined. The police obtained several fingerprints which may result in the arrest of the intruder or intruders who caused considerable damage to the building.

Recently the Board of Education decided a janitor should be stationed at nights as a watchman at this school because of past breaks. However, this latest break occurred when the watchman was away — on vacation.

COUPLE ENCOUNTER ROUGH GOING AT SHARK RIVER

Coast Guard Helps Out Local Folks In Speedboat

Encountering rough going Sunday on a trip to Metedeconk in their thirty-two foot speedboat from Point Pleasant Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon W. Crowell, 589 Washington avenue, were towed into Manasquan Inlet by a Coast Guard boat from the inlet station as the Crowells were off Shark River.

The Crowells ran into difficulties when the high seas broke the glass windshield of their craft and partly filled the boat.

Crowell and his wife were taken from their boat to the Coast Guard craft after the Manasquan Inlet crew relieved a Shark River station crew which had earlier taken them in tow.

The transfer of the tow was made off Sea Girt. After the boat had been haled out the Crowells continued their trip by way of the Manasquan River and the Manasquan-Bay Head Canal.

FIXER OF JOBS MAY BE FIXED BY POLICE

After West Orange Fleecing, Man Checked Here

Local police are investigating the activities here of a man who obtained in West Orange $14 from a West Orange woman under false pretenses. It is said that besides West Orange the man operated in this town, Newton and Nutley, alleging he could obtain employment for persons if given money as part payment for a uniform needed on a bakery route.

The "fixer" activities came to light when Mrs. Sebastiano Pepe, 20 White street, West Orange gave the man $14 to make part payment to a tailor on a uniform for her son, Anthony, seventeen. Anthony accompanied the man by train to East Orange, where the stranger entered a telephone booth. On coming out, the man told the boy that he would call at the Pepe home for him the next day. He did not return. The $14 also disappeared. It is not known definitely just how many were fleeced here by this racket, but police have had such complaints.

HOME FROM COAST
Miss Etta Conry, Mrs. Robert Hertz and Miss Marjorie Owen, this town; Miss Helen Hertz, South Ryegate, Vt., and Miss Ruth Belanger, Manchester, N.H., have just returned from a five weeks' motor trip to the West Coast. En route they visited the Black Hills, Mt. Rushmore Memorial, Salt Lake, Yellowstone Park, Yosemite National Park, San Francisco, Hollywood, Catalina, Sequoia National Park, Boulder Dam, Zion and Boyce National Parks, Grand Canyon and Petrified Forest.

DISPLAY "WHATZIT" AT WORLD'S FAIR

Strange Rat-Cat Is Owned By Local Man

Belleville's "Whatzit" — the strange rat-cat, that earned its publicity wings in the Belleville News two weeks ago — has crashed the World's Fair where it promenade in John Hix's "Strange As It Seems" booth.

Mrs. Carmen Dellegro, 102 Harrison street, owns "Whatzit," who has a somewhat more dignified name now, "Chat."

The animal, which bears physical characteristics of both cat and rat, was one of five kittens born two years ago by an ordinary tabby, twelve years old. The others were normal. It is about the size of the usual cat, slightly heavier and more muscular. It has a pink nose unlike that of a cat, and eyes that change periodically from yellow to gray.

Whiskers adorn its face, which is shaped like a cat's. Its hair, like that of a feline, is grayish-black over part of its back, but the hindquarters have no hair but a sleek gray hide instead. The tail is rodent-like. There are only four toes on each foot, and the animal sits rodent fashion, with paws beneath its belly in a sort of crouch.

"Chat" baffles veterinarians, not only because it seems to belong to both feline and rodent families, but because it has physical characteristics common to both male and female sexes.

Although thoroughly domesticated, "Chat" is antagonistic toward other members of the feline family. And were to the erring cat who thinks "Chat's" food dish in the back yard is open to the community. One cat thought so the other day and met a quick death. On the other hand, "Chat" is friendly with humans. "Chat" does not arch his back when frightened. Instead he crouches calmly waiting for his enemy to approach within striking distance. He never runs across an open field, but like his rodent relative, stalks along beside a wall.

Favorite food is cheese, with crunchy food-like potato chips and toast following. "Chat" is lukewarm toward milk, will drink no water and dislikes the feline delicacy, fish.

"Chat" seldom utters a sound, and when he does it seems to be a combination of both meow and squeal.

Little do we realize what a wonderful country we live in. Now take for instance how Bob Gordon enjoys himself with a vacation in Florida during February. He comes home brown as a chestnut while Frank Van Nortwick goes north during July and likewise comes home tanned. So there you are — North or South — Winter or Summer — same result.

Exalted Ruler Em Kastner, Leading Knight Wally Masten and Philly Hargreave are on vacation, so get your car muffs out, get back and tell you about the mountains, Maine and Ocean Grove, you will need 'em.

Ran into Jack Travers the other day. He hasn't changed one bit. He inquired about the boys and said he was going to drop in shortly to try out their curves. Told him we had a couple of rookies who would soon day become champs with a little polish and who could polish them up better than Jack?

When you mention Jack your mind automatically runs into another popular "Jack" — Garrison, or "Garry," if you will. True, "Garry" does not get around as he did, but his excuse is better than an alibi. When "Garry" finishes business at his tavern on how is it accomplished?

Ask your friends who are home owners. Usually the answer is the same.

"We saved in the bank for the down payment and then we kept right on saving until the mortgage was paid."

It's an old plan and a good one. Present day mortgages make it easier to carry the home, but you still must have the down payment. A First National savings account will help you to accumulate a fund for that purpose.

ANOTHER RACE CAR FATALITY

Another driver of midget auto race cars — Carl Hattel — was killed Saturday night at the aptly-named Devil's Dishpan in Nutley. Once again the hue and cry goes up that the law will step in if the races continue on the public nuisance basis.

The races twice this year have been halted by the Nutley Town Commission. Each time operators have obtained a stay from the Supreme Court prohibiting the town from interfering, pending a hearing in the October term of court. This latest fatality is the third such at Nutley. Henry Guerand, veteran driver, was decapitated at the track April 2. It was his death which prompted a presentment by the Grand Jury, which demanded the Town Commission to close the track. Charley Heliker, Long Branch driver, had been killed in a collision October 9, 1938. There have been several other accidents of a less serious nature at the track.

The Town Commission complied, but operators obtained a writ of certiorari from Supreme Court Justice Parker. The court granted a stay, holding the permit was revoked without a hearing. The Commission held a hearing and revoked the license a second time, but Edward R. McGlynn, counsel for the operators, obtained a second writ from Supreme Court Justice Parker.

McGlynn contended the town had not revoked the license in accordance with an ordinance which provides reasons for revoking a permit must be assigned. He contended also the track had not been given a proper hearing before the second revocation.

Just how long this killing business will be permitted, law or no law, is a question. Many Nutley people, as well as residents of this town, look upon the racing as some would a bull fight. Engineers' and experts' opinion to the contrary, shocking fatalities occur at the track. Will the end of what is classed as a public nuisance come now, or must those, who feel the races are out of order, wait until all the drivers have experienced the fate of the three who were killed?

The Nutley commissioners, who favored the races after the Guerand death when taxpayers there objected, will have a lot of explaining to do as a result of this latest fatality.

It is simply amazing how public officials lay themselves open to criticism in matters that have a clear cut path in the interest of taxpayers. Certainly the fatalities at the Nutley track have not enhanced the value in that town of anyone's property or lessened the strain on nerves.

ANNEXATION PROPAGANDA

Belleville should play no part at the present time in consolidation of Essex County municipalities. This, it is said, will be discussed at a symposium sponsored by the Newark Real Estate Board early in October.

For many years this bugaboo has crept into the picture of Essex life, each time the suburbs loudly protesting.

Now it is suggested that a plan include annexation of Irvington by Newark, consolidation of the Caldwell and merger of Essex and Maplewood. It is said that the change-Maplewood case seems to be a possibility.

As yet of course, no one is coming from Irvington, who, perhaps, are not so much out for is as for those who would be the victims of some estate plan, may say, may save the town from being presented, for anyone's guess in this respect is as good as the other's.

There is no particular urge to say that consolidation in certain quarters might not be the thing. In some respects we are inclined to think it worthy of study.

But, Newark has a pretty soiled skirt of its own through investigation, indictment and trial of city officials. Where that city gets off, urging that these good, little home towns of yours and mine, where we are close enough to officialdom to pick it apart, join up with the big bad wolf south of our boundary, is beyond our ken.

No doubt there will be public resentment in all suburbs that will rock Newark. The suburbs have not wanted in the past any part of Newark.

With all the headaches attendant upon a small town, municipalities in such category will put up a strenuous battle before Newark gets them in its clutches. "We wouldn't have much chance telling an official of a big metropolitan city what we thought of him, but the way it is now—that's different," say many.

Consolidate with Newark and the suburbs would be farther from their seat of government than John Q. Public is from Washington.

WHY WE SHOULD VOTE "NO" ON THE $21,000,000 RELIEF BOND ISSUE

Critical examination of the Legislature's plan to issue $21,000,000 in bonds to get relief funds brings to light some interesting points.

To begin with, the Legislature does not, in itself, have the authority to issue the bonds. All the law-making body has done is to provide for submission of the question to the people at a general election. Unless the voters ratify the act, it cannot become law.

It is understood that powerful political machines will support the bond issue because they are anxious to remove the question of relief financing from the election campaigns of 1940. Ordinarily, the "machine vote" is a powerful factor to contend with, especially in an off-year election.

Despite this, even the "machine vote" may not be enough to over-ride the growing public sentiment against bond issues for current operating costs such as relief. Among the rank and file of taxpayers in the state — those who must pay the bills for the cost of government — there is increasing opposition to floating new bond issues.

Taxpayers are now so well informed about affairs of government that they know bond issues for relief are an easy way out of a perplexing problem for the politicians. They know, too, that a bond issue is only the beginning of the headaches for the taxpayers.

Those who are eager to put across the bond issue can be expected to raise the hue and cry that relief cannot be financed unless the bond issue is ratified. Perhaps they will paint a pitiful picture of misery and suffering that will come about if the bonds are not issued, and play upon the taxpayers' sympathy to secure approval.

Reliefers need not suffer if the bonds are rejected by the voters. Money has been available for relief purposes, and is still available if the political schemers will abandon their selfish motives and consider the welfare of the whole public.

To finance relief from current revenues may not be the most painless thing in the world to do. It means some sacrifices. It means that we may have to curtail some of our new highway construction. It means scraping together all the funds that are available for relief. But once the bill is paid it is finished, and costs are kept down to the minimum.

But if we pay for relief by issuing bonds, not only must we repay the debt, but interest and other charges as well.

Bonds should be issued only for capital expenditures. Even then they should be issued only when the capital improvement is shown conclusively to be a worth while and necessary investment. They should never be issued to finance present operating costs, as the $21,000,000 relief bond issue is intended to do.

The people have not authorized a state bond issue for any purpose since 1934. Since that time interest and principal payments have been reduced gradually. Tables compiled by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association show that further and tremendous savings in debt service costs will be made if we avoid new bond issues. In five years, principal and interest payments will be reduced by more than $9,000,000. While we are on the happy road to recovery from the heavy burden placed upon us by previous bond issues, why should we, the taxpayers, put our heads in the noose for further tax strangulation?

THE LITTLE HELPER

Meador Wright's PIQUANT POLITICS

The views expressed in this column, are entirely those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Publishers or Editors of the Belleville News.

With this year's primary contests almost devoid of interest, public attention is being centered more and more on those of next Spring.

In these primaries which will be held in May, there will be nominated two United States senatorial candidates, two candidates for governor and delegates to both national conventions as well as the usual run of local and county candidates. Events of the next few months may make the contests for delegates of more interest than the others, but just now the Republican gubernatorial fight looms largest in the public mind.

The practical certainty that Harold G. Hoffman will seek another term is the basic factor in this unusual public interest. No other governor in the recent history of New Jersey has aroused so much controversy. The loyalty of his followers is matched by an equal determination on the part of his opponents. Next year's Republican primary no less than the general election will be decided upon negative issues.

Friends vs. Enemies

In the primary it will be a contest not between the followers of Hoffman and those of other Republicans seeking the nomination, but a contest between the friends and enemies of Hoffman. The personality of the Democratic candidate will likewise be submerged in the general election. Here it will be between Mayor Hague's followers and his enemies.

The antagonism that exists towards both Hague and Hoffman has a distinct bearing on the candidate which the anti-Hoffman group will select. The correct strategy for this faction would seem to be the selection of a man who can best capitalize this antagonism to Hague and Hoffman. What is required is not a man who can gather support from various factions and sections. On the contrary, he should be a man who can best dramatize the issue that fate will have cast on his lap. He doesn't need to formulate a policy in the usual manner. The public will expect one thing and one thing only of him. That will be to fight both Hagueism and Hoffmanism to the last ditch, both during the campaigns and after they are won — if they are.

Hendrickson and Clee

Right now the two leading candidates to oppose Hoffman are Senator Hendrickson and Dr. Lester H. Clee. Powerful forces within the Clean Government group in Essex are trying to swing the balance in favor of Hendrickson. They argue that Clee has lost much of the popularity he once had with Essex voters, that he is a twice-defeated candidate — once for the governorship against A. Harry Moore and more recently in the horse racing referendum — and that he lacks the tact and flexibility to oppose Hague successfully even should he finally win the governorship.

Hendrickson they claim would have the support of the powerful Albright machine in South Jersey, that he has very few enemies and could be sold as effectively to independent-minded voters of Essex and other sections of North Jersey as Dr. Clee. The public doesn't want a minister to be governor, they say, and point to Clee's career so far as evidence that politics and the ministry do not mix successfully.

Arguments Are Weak

Without arguing that Clee would make a more successful governor than Hendrickson, or vice versa, it seems to me that these arguments do not stand up as far as defeating Hague and Hoffman are concerned. Clee more than anyone else in New Jersey would have the confidence of the public in the sincerity of his opposition to Hoffman. Clee entered the legislature at the same time that Hoffman became governor, and was immediately elected speaker of the assembly. The next year he became senator and served one year beyond Hoffman's term as governor.

During this period he opposed Hoffman at every turn, and later as the Republican candidate for governor he led the most spirited fight against Hague that had been conducted up to that time. Defeated by a margin of only three percent of the total vote, he was speedily to see the whole country take up the hue and cry against Hague that he had pioneered. This came about by reason of the Jersey City mayor's stupid policy of dealing with labor leaders and other opponents in extra-legal fashion — typified by the throwing of Norman Thomas head foremost into a ferryboat when he dared to speak in a public park when a permit had been denied him.

Hagueism immediately became a national issue, and very few men in the country's history have received the invective that has been poured on the head of the State's Democratic boss. Clee did not initiate this anti-Hague campaigning. But more than any other man in the state, he is in a position to profit the most politically from it, and probably the best equipped to dramatize the issue to the public. This in my judgment, is a greater factor in his availability than anything that can be cited for Hendrickson.

NEW JERSEY TODAY

Among the Fair-bound tourists coming into the State from the West and North over Route 28, which we previously described in another article, there will, no doubt, be hundreds who will be anxious to visit Flemington.

A left turn from Route 28 near Clinton and ten miles south over Route 30 will bring the motorist to this peaceful little town which for a period of a few weeks not so long ago held the spotlight of the entire world. The scene of one of the most famous murder trials in all history, the Flemington of today is a far cry from the bustling, excited, at times almost hysterical, community that brought star reporters from all over this country and from over the seas.

The little old Court House, built in 1828 and scene of the Hauptmann trial, is on Main street. There are other trials going on now, but today there is plenty of room in this small court room, whose walls were almost bulging with the number of people crowded into it. Admission those days was by ticket only and, needless to say, tickets were at a premium.

Across the street from the Court House is the hotel where world-famous news commentators set up their apparatus in the corridors and sent out the news that the world eagerly awaited.

Among the items of another nature the tourist will find of interest is a visit to the showroom of the Fulper Pottery Company on Main street. The products of this company are noted for their beauty and color. The showroom is open daily, including Sundays.

In the old cemetery on Bonnell street there is a monument to an Indian chief and we are told that this is the only one in the State erected to a redskin by his fellow white men.

Leaving Flemington, the tourist may return to Route 28 by traveling thirteen miles over Route 29 to Somerville, a ride through a rolling rural countryside that should prove most enjoyable.

Cafeteria Plans

The cafeteria will be operated in the same manner as the last school term. All students will be required to eat at home or in the school cafeteria. Those students who eat at home will be excused from school between 11:30 and 1:30 p.m.

All students in Belleville High School are invited to bring their lunches from home and eat in the school cafeteria. They are privileged to buy as much or as little as they wish. On sunny days any student is privileged to change his or her plans and bring lunch from home or buy lunch in the cafeteria.

There will be five buses leaving Belleville Lake at 8:10 a.m. and 8:15 a.m. having done at 8:10 a.m. to accommodate those students who are transported within the school district. Buses will leave these points as late as possible for the convenience of the students. Punctuality in being at the starting points is requested of all students.

The school session will be from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. There is an extra period from 2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. for those pupils who have responsibility taken in the job of satisfactorily completing their assignments and responsibilities within the prescribed limitation of the school session, or for various reasons need extra help.

A careful notation of your homework location and promptness in getting to your homeroom on the last day of school will greatly facilitate the smooth operation of the first day," concludes Mr. Kittle.

We sincerely invite parents to come with the superintendent, principals or teachers concerning any problem which may arise in connection with their children. We shall be happy to serve in every possible way in the interest of children," reads a school bulletin.

"The job of the Public School is to help young people make the most of their potentialities, to help them adjust themselves to the needs of a changing world and to help them prepare for effective American citizenship. The School accepts this obligation without the cooperation of the home its effectiveness would be greatly handicapped. Through conferences with uninvited parents and through our career-decision Association our work during the past eight years has been made increasingly delightful and effective. The School Year 1939-1940 holds out a challenge, to parents and teachers alike, for advancement over the past in service to be rendered for the welfare of the young people of Belleville," explains Mr. Farmer.

Piano Studio Starts Another Season

The re-opening of the Margaret D. Akers Piano Studio, 44 Union avenue, takes place Tuesday, September 5. The contest for perfect attendance begins then and ends in June.

The Young Musicians Club will resume meetings at an early date as many plans are in order for the coming season. A recital will be held some time in the fall, plans for which are now under way. The time and place will be announced later.

Highest award this year went to Ann Kelsall for musicianship and perfect attendance. Ann also gave a very fine performance at her recital at the close of the season. She delighted her audience by playing six solos, entirely from memory, displaying good technique and expression. She then showed splendid ability at teamwork when she played two piano numbers with Mrs. Akers at the second piano.

Awards for perfect attendance went to Shirley Korn and Howard Box. Honorable mention went to Frances Whynates, a promising eight-year-old student, who has maintained a high scholastic standing all through the term.

Boost For Cops

Editor, Belleville News:

A few weeks ago, I had the misfortune to become involved in an automobile accident in Belleville and wish to express my appreciation to the Police Department of your town for its prompt, efficient ambulance service, as well as every possible courtesy and assistance.

Particularly do I wish to thank Chanceman Zoller, Lieutenant Knoch Smith and Patrolman Dunn.

The commissioners and the people of Belleville should be proud of their guardians, for as the oft-quoted bard has it they "make assurance double sure" — and with little credit indeed from the average citizen.

The M. D. Says

Health Question: Why is eating shortly before swimming considered unwise?

Blood is normally concentrated in the digestive organs during the process of digestion. If brisk exercise in any form is taken shortly after eating heartily, part of the blood supply which should be used in digestion is diverted to the muscles.

The diversion is incomplete. Neither the muscles nor the digestive organs are adequately supplied with blood. Swimming immediately after eating thus taxes the muscles beyond their normal capacity. Cramps may result. For this reason it is well to allow a two-hour period to intervene between eating and swimming.

Snoop's Snoops

Samuel H. Dickson, 132 Overlook avenue, is retiring after forty years as an engineer on the Erie Railroad. We had a talk with "Sam" during the past week. He stated he was going to spend the rest of his days traveling. Can you imagine, after working forty years on a railroad he is going to take his vacation traveling by train to parts he has never seen. Lots of luck, "Sam."

From an underground source, it is learned that there is a movement on foot to organize an adult band in town and that it will be sponsored by Mayor Williams. The place of meeting has not as yet been decided, but our informant states that the nucleus of a very good band has already been rounded up.

Our informant also stated that Commissioner Lou Noll is at the present time clocking all buses and Public Service trackless buses with the idea of extending to Big Tree Car barn an independent bus line from the City of Newark so that Belleville will finally get that long sought after five-cent fare. We certainly wish you luck, Lou. This movement has been started and tried by many in the past ten or twelve years, but none have been successful, as yet.

Town seemed deserted last Thursday. Of course almost everyone was on the excursion sponsored by St. Peter's Catholic Church to Roton Point. From all indications, everyone had a swell day.

We thought this was a good one: In Washington avenue in the neighborhood of Little street was a restaurant. Recently business was rather slow, so one evening the proprietor, "Tim" Gardi, and some of his pals closed up the restaurant and took a bus to Newark to get something to eat.

Work at the "bog" is progressing very, very slowly. We had a hope that the High School team might play their football games there this year, but with the progress being made at the present time it will be lucky if they will be able to play their baseball games there next spring. However, the field itself looks fine and it is going to be an ideal sport center.

We have been nosing around and do not think that the change of date for Thanksgiving Day as declared by President Roosevelt is going to have any serious effect on the Belleville High School football schedule. From what we can gather, Belleville H. S. is scheduled to play South Side at Cleaman Field on Thanksgiving Day, which will be November 23 instead of 30, and Saturday, November 25, has always been an open date. It will mean that Belleville's season will close early and that it will have played a game on Saturday, November 18, and another within five days. This can perhaps be changed another year, but should not make any serious trouble in the schedule this year.

Joseph Duval, sports editor of this paper, spent the weekend in Chicago. "Joe" was rather reluctant to state whether he went there by train or plane, but after considerable prompting we discovered that Joe had taken a sleeper out Wednesday night and returned early Monday morning. His mission was one of good will, in that he acted as best man at his brother's wedding, which took place Saturday morning in the suburbs of Chicago.

"Art" Ackerman in the Department of Revenue and Finance may be seen each morning at Harry Byrnes' lunch wagon, Belleville avenue at Washington, dunking a coffee ring. The "Missus" must be on vacation.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH
"Max" is the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.
The Golden Text is: "God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him."
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace."
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God is the creator of man, and the divine Principle of man remaining perfect, the divine idea or reflection, man, remains perfect. Man is the expression of God's being. If there ever was a moment when man did not express the divine perfection, then there was a moment when man did not express God, and consequently a time when Deity was unexpressed — that is, without entity."

Products Co., Inc., Building Ground Breaking For Heyer

Mayor William H. Williams and Heyer officials at ground breaking of new Heyer Products Co., Inc., building at Cortlandt and Little streets. First two official shovelfuls of earth came forth on chrome-plated shovels.

Some of those in the picture, besides the Mayor, are Benjamin F. W. Heyer, president; James and Salvé Bonano, contractors for the Cortlandt and Little Realty Corporation; Chief Engineer Westover; H. M. Vandervoort, Heyer treasurer and manager; Bert Woodhall, plant superintendent, and real estate operators who consummated the deal, K. B. C. Smith, Englewood, architect. The new unit will cost $150,000. About 250 will be employed.

The company now has offices and factory space at 740 Washington avenue. It is expected the new unit of 44,000 square feet will be ready for occupancy by the middle of November. ## WPA Layoff Leaves Recreation Department Short-handed

No provision has been made as yet for filling the vacancies in the recreation and playground departments which will be caused by the WPA layoff today, a spokesman for the Recreation Department said yesterday.

Five WPA workers who have been in charge of the Belleville playgrounds and have been assisting at the Recreation House are to be dismissed today under the WPA 18-month rule.

No substitutes have been put on the rolls as yet, it is said, nor has it been officially announced whether or not the present workers will be rehired at the end of the month's layoff.

Sheridans Win At Playground

This was the Sheridans' week at No. One Playground. Dorothy Sheridan, ten, 228 Cortlandt street, was crowned champion in the jacks tournament.

Then her brother James, fourteen, took the boys' horseshoe title to complete the Sheridan conquest. James defeated Thomas Higgins, thirteen, 122 Stephen street, in the finals.
The men's singles and doubles are still under fire. The winners of these, together with young Sheridan, will meet the horseshoe champions of the Recreation House in a special match, probably early next week.

Thoughts while strolling: This Age of Chisely has many ramifications. . . You find stragglers in hotels grafting the hostelry's stationery. . . You find them occupying the most comfortable chairs in the lounge. . . They frequently have telephone operators and bellhops paging them, and they pounce upon newspapers and magazines left by guests. . . As likely as not they will take a restful snooze, but when they awake they are pretty sure to get the word to scramble. . . Always fascinating to me is to see those huge glass-lined milk tanks — as vast as freight cars — slipping through traffic on their jaunts with fresh milk for vacationists at the shore. . . For when you realize it the supply in those great motorized containers are carrying milk that left

Make Your Lamb Brown and Tender

LAMB is one of the most practical of meats, for it is delicious when roasted, broiled, panbroiled, braised or stewed. For well-browned and tender lamb, carefully follow the time and temperature directions in the recipes. The "simmer" burner control on the gas range is a great aid in braising and stewing which requires cooking the meat a long time at a very low temperature.

Fresh mint, from the garden, will make tasty mint sauce or mint jelly to serve with either hot or cold lamb.

Lamb Neck Slices with Apples
Two pounds of lamb neck slices. Flour each piece and brown each slice in hot bacon fat, place in a buttered baking dish. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Cover with sliced tart apples and bake at 350 degrees for one hour or until tender.

1 onion
1/2 tsp. pepper
Beat egg, add milk and combine with other ingredients and pack into an eight inch ring mold that has been greased. Bake for one hour at 350 degrees. Turn onto a plate, serve with Caper Sauce. Serves eight.

Drake Schools Find Positions For Graduates Are Excellent

Dr. William C. Cope Pressed For Trained Men And Women

Positions for graduates with the Drake Schools have been excellent. For months in the immediate vicinity there has been an average of fifteen to twenty calls a week for young men and young women, and throughout the metropolitan area the position calls have been consistently good.

Most of the positions offer excellent opportunities. Business men and business concerns today are demanding better trained and better qualified young men and young women than ever before.

Dr. William C. Cope, president, Drake Colleges of New Jersey states his institutions have been hard-pressed for several weeks for enough thoroughly-qualified young men and young women to fill the strong demand for Drake trained office help.

Dr. Cope has found that the modern business school must have equipment, complete and up-to-date in every detail such as is found in the modern up-to-date business office. Those students who pass through the Drake Model Office where they are taught to handle actual business transactions and to prepare letters, etc., that go into the daily mail are required to measure up to a standard of grading based upon mailability.

Each Drake student immediately prior to graduation is carefully interviewed, advised and counseled with by Dr. Cope or the manager in charge, in order that he or she may be prepared or conditioned for business. The student is privileged to ask any question he wishes that has a bearing upon a successful business career. The student is also interrogated as to his own philosophy or understanding of business transactions and business responsibilities.

The student must prepare a transcript or thesis before being approved for graduation that emphasizes the attributes, characteristics and adjustments necessary for a successful business career.

Dr. Cope is finding that the prospects and enrollments for the summer and the fall are stronger than they have been in the last two years.

Dr. Cope states there would be a severe shortage of skillfully trained secretaries and office assistants if business should take a sudden upturn which he believes is likely to transpire at any time. Production is certain to speed up as soon as private capital begins to flow. A little encouragement will bring private capital into play without doubt.

SPITZ OUTLINES VIEWS ON POST OF SURROGATE

Irvington Attorney Would Not Perpetuate Anyone In That Job

Richard Spitz, who is a candidate for Essex County Surrogate, in opening his campaign before the Republican Club of Irvington, said, "I pledge to the people of Essex County that I shall not seek re-election to the important post as Surrogate. I am absolutely against perpetuating a man in any one office against established tradition and precedent. Progress in government must be contributed by many men and current approaches to situations, otherwise our governmental institutions inherit senility instead of the fresh views of forward looking public servants."

"I have spoken with a great many people. It is their view that men like former Surrogates Whinnery, Isherwood and Fied G. Stickle, Jr., have each built up and contributed much to making the Surrogate's office a progressive governmental institution. These and other people observe that precedent establishing a five-year single term for that office, is plenty long enough to do something constructive. The cumulative effort of such men, as mentioned, who have served the people of Essex County as their Surrogate, is reflected even today. "I do not say this in derogation of the present Surrogate, for I have known him a great many years. This is not a difference of our long standing friendship, but one as to whether a progressive tradition should be broken to give him further opportunity for tenure in office. The principles of progressive government affirm the open position that I take on this important subject. The Republican Party cannot break a sound tradition and a constructive principle of good government relating to the Surrogate's post."

MOTOR PACE BACK AT NUTLEY 'DROME ON SUNDAY

"Stop Shipman" Cry Of More Than Thirty Pros

More than thirty professional sprinters will be out to stop George Shipman, the Brooklyn speed king, when the third in the series for pro sprint championship now held by Albert Selinger, is run at the Nutley Velodrome Sunday night.

The Brooklyn dasher has been having everything his own way in the first two races, winning both to earn a point total of ten. His nearest competitors are Champion Slinger and Angelo De Bacco, both with three tallies. Mathias Engel and Danny Espinoza have two each, while Tom Saetta and Ewald Wissel have a point each.

The race for the amateur title finds Edward Rupprecht, Jr. leading with five points over Lloyd Thomas, three; Buster Logan, two and Ray Blum, son of Nutley Public Safety Commissioner Joe Blum, with one point. The pro trial event will be over the four-sevenths mile distance, while the simon pures will race at three-sevenths of a mile.

A third championship grind will be the national motorpaced race, fifth in the series to decide the 1940 kingpin. The distance will be thirty miles with the present standing reading: Mike De Filippo and Gerard Debaets, 12 points each; Tino Reboli, 10; Sal Barone 5, and Henry O'Brien 4.

An added feature will be an amateur paced race with Clark Albey, Pete Del Vecchio and Marco Dellasandro of Philadelphia taking part. Albey and Del Vecchio made their bow behind the motors last week, while the Philly youth makes his initial start this week.

It is also the management's intention to put on a five-mile point match race, European style, rivals to be selected today.

Announce Features For Great Allentown Fair

Lucky Teter and his Hell Drivers, the world-renowned aggregation of automobile and motorcycle stunt stars, will unleash their new 1939 version of automobile fury at the Great Allentown Fair on Friday, September 22.

For two solid hours Teter, the world's champion daredevil, and his brilliant supporting cast of star stunt men will smash, crash, race and stunt stock model automobiles and motorcycles, reeling off twenty-eight breath-taking thrills in rapid-fire succession.

More daring than ever before, Teter himself will contribute the outstanding feats. Heading his list of events is his celebrated car jump, in which he will try to jump a regulation stock model sedan clear over the tops of a long string of parked automobiles and then attempt to bring his car safely back to the ground.

A spectacular, mid-air automobile crash through a huge flaming timber barrier is also included among the breath-taking stunts he himself will offer. Besides the many feats he will attempt, Teter is scheduled to give a demonstration of Hell Driving, which embraces such daring and intricate driving maneuvers as ski jumps, reverse spins, wing-overs and barrel rolls.

His Hell Drivers, who represent the cream of the nation's crop of professional stunters, will provide many of the thrills. Ken Arnold and Abie Daniels will deliberately crash two stock sedans head-on, remaining inside of the machines as they collide with earth-wracking impact.

Dale O'Brien, young 138-pound strongman, will permit a three-ton transport truck to be driven across his unprotected body in a feat of strength and daring, while daredevil Dillon will attempt his celebrated blindfolded motorcycle jump through a ring of fire.

Outstanding Capitol Shows

The Capitol Theatre management announces that for the new show season, now under way, they have booked an array of outstanding productions. The greatest stars, the greatest stories, produced by the greatest directors is the screen entertainment meant for the coming season.

Booked for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, September 3, 4 and 5 is the most unusual and memorable motion picture ever produced. "On Borrowed Time" is full of heart-warming laughter, homely drama, gripping suspense and inspiring imagery. With a cast of superb actors, headed by Lionel Barrymore, this simple story of an old grandfather who desperately fights death to prevent the young grandson he adores from falling into the clutches of an unscrupulous aunt, takes on all the attributes of a screen classic. Barrymore was never finer as the lovable, outspoken Gramp.

The elegant cast includes Sir Cedric Hardwicke as the mysterious stranger. Bobs Watson, embodies all the charm and zest of childhood in his role as the grandson; Beulah Bondi as Granny, Una Merkel as the warmly human maid; Henry Travers as Dr. Evans; Grant Mitchell, Nat Pendleton, Charles Waldron and Philip Terry.

On the same program Mary Boland and Charlie Ruggles are teamed again in "Night Work," a comedy about the hilarious doings of the "Fitch" family. Monday, Labor Day, the theatre will have continuous performances.

Starting Wednesday, September 6, for a four-day run the program consists of the lucky seventh Harry hit "Andy Hardy Gets Spring Fever," starring Mickey Rooney, Lewis Stone, Cecilia Parker, and Pay Holden. On the same program with "Zenobia," starring Oliver Hardy, Harry Langdon, Billie Burke and Alice Brady.
