

HIGH SCHOOL WILL GRADUATE 290 ON JUNE 19

Candlelight Ceremony Will Be
New Innovation; To Hold
It At Clearman

A candlelight ceremony will be the only innovation when the high school holds its forty-third annual commencement. The remainder of the program is steeped in tradition and will be unchanged. This was indicated Monday when the committee in charge of arrangements announced the order of events for the ceremonies, which will take place at Clearman Field the evening of June 19. In case of rain the exercises will be held on the first clear night thereafter.

Hugh D. Kittle, principal of the school, said yesterday that he expects the number of graduates in the Class of '40 to be about 290. This is slightly less than last year's all-time high of 307. Salutatorian, valedictorian and two other student speakers will be chosen about June 10. Harold Dufford is chairman of the committee on arrangements, which also includes Miss Alma Gray, Miss Elsie Sanford, L. Howard Fox and Paul Jones, all of the high school faculty.

The program will open with an overture and procession by the school orchestra. The senior class will participate in the opening exercises, which will include call to the colors, salute to the flag, recitation of the school creed, a reading from the Bible and recitation of the Lord's Prayer.

Stanley Litts, class president, will make a presentation to be accepted by Wayne R. Parmer, supervising principal of schools. Robert Plenge, vice-president of the seniors, will officiate in the mantle ceremony in which the robes of office will be placed on the shoulders of Howard Wilson, president of the junior class.

After selections by the senior choir, Kittle will introduce the class and Herbert C. Schmutz, president of the Board of Education, will present the diplomas. Carol Carswell will play a clarinet solo and the exercises will close with the candlelight ceremony.

Safety for graduation exercises in the grade schools were approved Monday night by the Board of Education. They are: June 17—Schools No. 3 and 4. June 18—Schools No. 1, 5, 8 and 10. June 19—School No. 4. June 20—School No. 9.

The Henry Vreeland Woman's Relief Corps will conduct a Memorial Day service on Sunday at Christ Episcopal Church. On Wednesday they will place a wreath at the memorial tree at School Number 2 in tribute to William Smith, a student of that school, who died in the last World War. The Relief Corps will participate with other patriotic organizations on Memorial Day when they will add their tribute to the wreaths placed at Victory Monument before the start of the parade in the morning. They will join the parade and march with it.

Weinstein of 2 May street as a memorial to their six-year-old son, a student at the school, who was killed last year by a falling flower box.

Complete Details Tonight For Frederick Benefit

Will Be Held Wednesday Night At Elks Club; Elmer Hyde, Fund Chairman, Makes An Appeal For Support of Townspeople

Final arrangements for the dance to be held Wednesday night at the Elks Club for the benefit of the family of the late Frank A. Frederick will be made at the meeting of the committee to that night at St. Peter's Hall. Three orchestras will provide continuous dance music. A program of entertainment is also scheduled for that night. It is possible that a concert by the band of the Irvington Council, Jr. O.U.A.M., under the direction of Henry C. Stephan of the Stephan Institute of Music, of 310 Washington avenue, will be given before the dance.

Organizations and individuals from every part of Belleville and many from outside the town have flocked to the Frederick cause. More than twenty fraternal and civic organizations are participating in the drive. Frederick was killed several weeks ago by bandits during a holdup here.

The Wilson, Hollywood Club and Al Price orchestras have volunteered their services. Two will alternate in the main ballroom of the club and the third will play in the cocktail lounge.

The card party which will be held in St. Peter's Hall Monday night is nearly sold out, according to the committee in charge of arrangements. More than a hundred tables are expected to be in play.

Elmer S. Hyde, chairman of the committee, this week issued the following to the people of Belleville:

"If you don't care, others will suffer. To maintain a community spirit of which all can be justly proud, it is necessary for those who are able, to lend a helping hand to our less fortunate neighbors. Now is the time to exemplify that spirit.

"A short while ago our entire community was shocked when we heard of the death of Frank A. Frederick through an assassin's bullet, and still more so when it was learned that his family, consisting of his wife and eight little children were left penniless. His income from the little lunch wagon which he operated during his lifetime was barely sufficient to provide the necessities of life for his family and made it impossible for him to accumulate any savings. He carried no life insurance and upon his death this family was rendered totally destitute.

"Civic and religious organizations, without regard to creed or color, immediately took up the burden of this little group and are endeavoring to obtain sufficient funds by voluntary contributions to permit this family to carry on and to alleviate the sad plight in which they find themselves. It is in that spirit of cooperation in a worthy cause that I am addressing you and making a plea for your help."

League and Turf Bog Get Started Together

The Church-Recreation Softball League and the Turf Bog opened their eyes in a new world at the same time Monday afternoon. For the league it was the first game of the first season. For the Bog, or the Belleville Municipal Athletic Field, it was the first sport of any kind on the partly-completed thirty-acre plant. Rev. Dr. O. Bell Close of Fawcett Memorial Presbyterian Church threw out the first ball with Rev. Mr. Edgar Compton of Wesley Methodist Church behind the plate. Commissioner Louis A. Noll, head of the Recreation Department, took a healthy swing for a called strike. In the first game Fawcett slaughtered Wesley 16-3.

R. C. CAMPAIGN GOING WELL

Chapter Reports Favorably on Its War Relief Drive For $3,000

The local chapter of the American Red Cross reports that an excellent job is being done by the volunteer workers who are endeavoring to raise the quota which is Belleville's part in the national drive for $10,000,000. B. Thomas Aitken and Russell Rose, contacting the manufacturers in the town, have met with strong cooperation.

William J. Horgan, publicity chairman, has issued a statement in contradiction to the impression which some people have voiced that all countries are not benefiting equally from Red Cross funds. Such unfair propaganda is absolutely untrue, he states, and the actual fact is that Germany, Russia and Japan have been offered assistance by President Roosevelt and by Red Cross National Chairman, Norman H. Davis. The offers have been declined, these countries claiming that they can take care of their own needs. Should they desire help in the future they will receive it, under the organization's general proviso that emergency help is extended to all regardless of race, color or creed.

Schmutz to Represent Board At State Convention

School Board President Herbert C. Schmutz will represent the Belleville educators at the convention of the State Federation of District Boards of Education to be held June 7 in Trenton. The board will attend in a body the dedication of the new Bloomfield Junior High School on June 10.

S. S. KENWORTHY'S SUDDEN DEATH SHOCKS STATE

Many Join In Mourning Loss
Of Town's Former Chief
Executive At 51

State and municipal officials joined this week in paying tribute to Samuel S. Kenworthy of 27 Laverne street, executive secretary of the New Jersey State League of Municipalities and former mayor of this town, who died suddenly on Friday night in Trenton. Long active in public life he had served as a member of the State Assembly in 1924 and as a Mayor of Belleville from 1926 to 1934. He was elected president of the New Jersey State League of Municipalities in 1930 and became its secretary two years later.

Mr. Kenworthy died during the night in the business apartment he maintained in Trenton. Death was attributed to a heart attack. Rev. Peter Deckenbach, pastor of Christ Episcopal Church, officiated at services at the Sayre Funeral Home Tuesday afternoon. Mayor Williams, Commissioners Clark, King, Noll and Waters and Town Treasurer Sayre were pallbearers. The funeral procession passed briefly at Town Hall before proceeding to Glendale Cemetery, Bloomfield, for the interment. Mr. Kenworthy was one of the most colorful and well-known figures in the New Jersey political scene. He was active in many divergent fields—athletics, journalism, the theatre, real estate, insurance and politics. Since January he had written a weekly column for "The Business of Government" was written the day before his death.

Born In Newark

He was born in Newark April 10, 1889 but was brought up in Denver, Colo. While in the west he served as assistant sports editor of The Rocky Mountain News and worked there with Damon Runyon. About that time he also became interested in theatrical work and tramped for several years with a stock company all over the country. Athletics also claimed him there and he managed several baseball teams. At the age of nineteen he returned to the east.

Four years later he moved to Belleville and lived here up to the time of his death. His widow, Mrs. Mary J. Kenworthy, and his son, Robert M. Kenworthy, live at the Laverne street address. He also leaves a brother, Millburn, of Moscow, Ida.

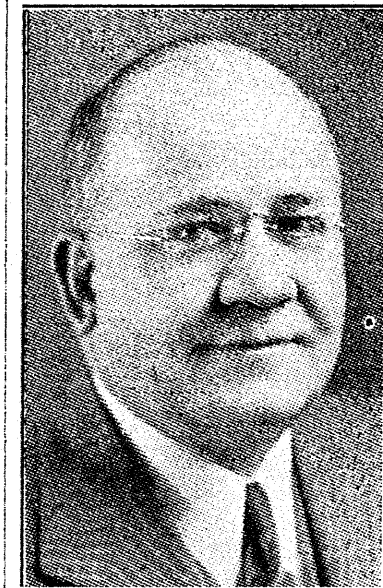

For five years he carried on a real estate and insurance business with offices at 388 Washington avenue. In 1926 he became Mayor of Belleville and held this office until 1934. He did not run for re-election that year for in 1930 he had been elected president of the League. When he was in Trenton on business he lived in an apartment at 429 Cuyler avenue.

Headed Board of Trade

For five years he was president of the Belleville Board of Trade and of the Clover Building & Loan Association. He was a member of the Lions Club, of the I.O.O.F., Jr. O.U.A.M., Elks Club, P.O.S. of A., D. of A. and the Men's Club of Christ Episcopal Church. He had also served as vice-chairman of the Second River Joint Meeting and as chairman of the Essex County Mayor's Committee.

MANY TRIBUTES PAID LEADER

State And Municipal Officials Express Feeling On Death of Kenworthy

The state joined with Belleville in bowing its head in sorrow at the passing of Samuel S. Kenworthy last weekend and officials and dignitaries from Sandy Hook to Cape May chorused in tribute to the vibrant personality and executive ability of the former mayor. Among the statements made this week by those who knew him in business and society were the following:

Mayor William H. Williams: "The passing of former Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy was a great shock to all of us. He was one of the best qualified men of New Jersey to discuss municipal, county and state legislation. During his ten years as executive secretary of the New Jersey League of Municipalities he contributed greatly through his league action, by his public speaking throughout the state and through his written articles to a better understanding of legislative processes and the needs of sound laws for better governmental control. "His many friends in public positions will miss the cooperation which his broad training and energy afforded us in studying many public questions. We who enjoyed his personal friendship (Continued On Page Three)

Board Denies That Offer Of Meeting Was Made

The much-discussed closing of Clearman Field during the summer months has been abandoned. The field will be kept open and applications will be received for its use. This was decided Monday night when the Board of Education accepted the recommendation of Walter Gilby, chairman of the buildings and grounds committee. It was Gilby who, at the April meeting of the board, recommended that the field be closed for repairs immediately after the high school baseball season.

The board discussed other recreational facilities in the town and accused the Recreation Department of insincerity when the latter complained that there were no playgrounds and baseball fields available. Members of the board also flatly denied that Mayor Williams and Commissioner Noll had requested a conference on the Clearman situation.

Gilby pointed out that the sole reason for deciding to keep the field open is that it is now too late to plant a new lawn there. He and other members of the board intimated that the storm of protest over its closing had nothing to do with their latest decision. The board voted to take over as much as possible and open it to baseball teams for the summer.

The Recreation Department came in for criticism when Gilby charged that the department had requested permission to use School No. 1 playground during Easter week and from April 17 on through the summer but that the grounds had been kept locked every evening. Board President Herbert C. Schmutz revealed that the Recreation Department has indicated that it will not be able to take over active supervision of the playground for another two weeks.

Questions Sincerity

"I wonder if the complaints of lack of grounds are sincere," he said, "for here we have given permission and they have kept it closed. There is no supervised play there." He said that swings had been put up in School No. 2 playground but that they are not being used. "They complain of lack of grounds but there is no sincerity in the complaint."

James M. Lynch then denied that the board had been requested to confer on the Clearman problem. "I have here a clipping from The Belleville News," he said, "which states that Mayor Williams and Commissioner Noll would attempt to confer with the board about Clearman Field. I know of no attempted conference."

"The Board of Education was not requested to sit down at a conference," said Schmutz. "The board would have been willing to meet whenever it was called, but it was not called." Lynch stated that the board was never asked to discuss the problem.

Noll Says Call Was Made

Noll, when asked to comment Tuesday, reiterated his previous statement that he and the Mayor "got nowhere" when they asked for the conference. "The request was made by telephone by Mayor Williams in my presence to Mr. Daniels, clerk of the Board of Education, to notify the board and call a week later. I got in touch with the Mayor to see if he had

Two Children Are Injured Slightly By Autos

Two children struck by automobiles in different parts of the town within an hour of the other last week escaped without serious injury. Jerry Asti, eleven, of 21 Naples street ran out from the curb near his home and into the side of a car operated by Theodore Serritella, twenty-three, of 108 Franklin street. Serritella took him to Columbus Hospital where he was said to be uninjured.

An hour later Gladys Van Orden, twenty-five, of 70 Gless avenue started her car, which had been parked in front of her home, when she "heard a noise." She found she had collided with Martin Jeffers, three, of 69 Gless avenue. The boy was taken to St. Barnabas Hospital where he was treated for a broken arm and lacerations of the scalp. He was held for observation.

Belleville was when he addressed the Woman's Club last January 8. The honorary pallbearers were Earl D. Mallory of Chicago, executive director of the American Municipal Association; Walter B. Woolley, treasurer of Woodbury and first vice-president of the New Jersey League of Municipalities; William A. Miller of Clifton, president of the League; Charles D. Anderson of Pennington, assistant commissioner of education of New Jersey; Mayor William J. Tonkin of Ridgewood; Arthur Mudd of West Orange, executive director of the Financial Assistance Committee and Charles H. Elliott, state commissioner of education.

Among the dignitaries from other municipalities who attended the services were Mayor James A. Clark of Elizabeth; Walter R. Darby, commissioner of local government; Dr. John F. Sly, professor of politics at Princeton University; Mayor Thomas Kennedy of Passaic; Mayor David H. Slayback of Verona; Former Mayor Frederick H. Young of Nutley, and Mayor Orvid C. Bianchi of West Orange. Representing Mayor Ellenstein of Newark were William L. Fox, corporation counsel James F. X. O'Brien and assistant corporation counsel Thomas M. Kane.

have lost both a friend and good counselor."

Commissioner Joseph King: "The state of New Jersey, through the passing of Samuel S. Kenworthy, has lost a good and energetic public official. Having represented the League of Municipalities as secretary, he ably guarded their interests. Not only will his loss be felt by the several municipalities which he served, but also by the many public officials with whom he came in contact in Trenton."

State Senator Homer C. Zink: "As Secretary of the State League of Municipalities, Samuel Kenworthy gave close attention to the relationship between municipalities and the State. He was recognized as being unusually well informed on this subject."

"He knew everybody at Trenton and his contacts were very useful to him in his position. He was a tireless worker and probably contributed to his untimely death by his devotion to his work. He will be greatly missed throughout the State."

James Gibson, vice-president National Musical String Company, New Brunswick: "I served for a number of years with Mr. Kenworthy on the Board of Trade as well as the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Belleville and knew him to be a close student of municipal affairs. This together with his experience in the town government eminently fitted him for the position he held with the State League of Municipalities. I think that his knowledge and practical application was nowhere better expressed than in the columns he wrote for your newspaper. Both the town and the state have lost a valuable asset since this is the type of man that is needed in local and state government even more than in federal government positions."

Commissioner Patrick A. Waters: "The sudden and untimely death of Sam Kenworthy comes to me, as I know it does to all his friends and acquaintances, as a shock. His death will be felt not only by his friends but very definitely by all the people of the state of New Jersey, whom he served so well as secretary of the League of Municipalities and I know they will have no easy task in replacing him. I personally will miss him immeasurably."

Harry Machette, Belleville Republican Chairman: "I worked with Mr. Kenworthy in the Assembly and always found him very much interested in the League. He was a good Republican and a good citizen."

Commissioner William D. Clark: "Sam was a real fellow. I was very much attached to him. The man was very clever and would really have gone places but for his untimely death. This is evidenced by his rise from his beginning in politics here. It is a shame that he was cut off so suddenly. I deeply regret his passing."

City Manager William A. Miller of Clifton, president of League of Municipalities: "In the death of Samuel S. Kenworthy, the people of the municipalities of this State have lost a man who understood their problems and fought for their rights. Mr. Kenworthy was a lovable character as well as a very efficient executive. Personally, I have lost a very close and dear friend."

As president of the State League of Municipalities, I have lost the best executive secretary of any league of municipalities in the United States. On behalf of the officers and members of the league, I extend sincere sympathies to members of the family."

row at the death of Mr. Samuel S. Kenworthy, former Mayor of Belleville and for the past seven years secretary of the New Jersey League of Municipalities.

Town Treasurer T. Russell Sergeant: "New Jersey officialdom as well as the citizens of Belleville in the passing of Sam Kenworthy have lost a sincere and true friend. I know of no one individual who has done so much or worked as hard as he has for the various municipalities. Personally I feel the loss of a friend with whom I have had the pleasure of working for the past ten years."

Commissioner Louis A. Noll: "I deeply regret the passing of Samuel S. Kenworthy. Through my association with him at the Lions Club during the past ten years and as a neighbor for the past fifteen years, I have always found him to be an outstanding citizen and a credit to the Town of Belleville and the State of New Jersey."

Three persons were injured, none seriously, in a two-car collision at the intersection of Joralemon street and Mertz avenue Sunday night. There's One you can't pass by!

They're rolling out fast... and your Buick dealer keeps them rolling by making swell "deals"

ENTICING are the offerings flagging your eye from behind the plate glass along Automobile Row—how in the world can a poor mortal pick the best of the bunch?

You can't try them all, it's plain. But there's one thing you can do that makes a lot of sense. Just give yourself a yardstick to start with.

Take the car that all the talk's about. Give yourself something to go on by trying a Buick first.

Of course, it may be tough on the next fellow once you've sampled Buick's swift and thrifty Dynaflex straight-eight—no other engine made is balanced after assembly to slack-as-watchwork smoothness.

And stout, soft coil springs all around, especially when combined with ride-steadying torque-tube drive, may spoil you entirely for any other kind of ride.

Again, there are things like recoil-mounted Knee-Action, pressure-sealed cooling systems, Two-Way Direction Signals with automatic cut-off and so on that you simply can't find elsewhere.

But it isn't only Buick's six-dozen new features that make this the car you can't pass by—it's also the price.

That puts a really great car within your reach. It buys not only a lot of exclusives and extras, but gives you more of the basic things, such as power and size and deep-rooted sturdiness—a longer car and the sturdiest frame at the money.

Current prices† start at $895★ for the business coupe, delivered at Flint, Mich.—transportation based on rail rates, state and local taxes (if any), and optional equipment and accessories extra.

That adds up to delivered prices that will open your eyes wide—so why not ask your Buick dealer for the whole story and a free demonstration?

One Who Had Contributed Much

In the death of Samuel S. Kenworthy this state has lost one who had contributed much to the cause. His sudden passing is mourned not only by those who knew and respected him in this town but by his many friends and associates throughout New Jersey. His departure from this world at an age when most men still have much to give is hard to understand, but of him it may be said that he had given much which will remain as a memorial to his efforts and accomplishments.

A more able and capable champion for the municipalities would be difficult to find. His years of association with public life as an Assemblyman, chief executive of Belleville and as executive secretary of the New Jersey State League of Municipalities had enabled him to gain firsthand information of the problems and ills of this state.

Perhaps the present important position of the State League of Municipalities in this state is a tribute to his untiring, ceaseless efforts. Through his work he had brought about a better understanding and relationship among the chief executives and governing officials of many municipalities. A good writer, he had put this ability to excellent use in editing the monthly publication, The State League of Municipalities, a digest of affairs pertaining to communities which could be found on the desk of many a town executive.

Mr. Kenworthy had done much to explain the mysteries of government and laws to the laymen through articles which appeared in many weekly publications. We took a special pride in the place which he held on our editorial page with his column, "This Business of Government." His fine interpretation of state affairs and problems affecting the municipalities and the taxpayers' pocketbooks was a valuable addition to this newspaper and will be missed.

Belleville particularly mourns his passing because of the close affiliation that he had had with this community as its mayor for two terms. The same diligent effort which characterized his association with the State League of Municipalities in recent years marked the period during which he served as an administrator of local government.

Sam Kenworthy has left but he leaves for our memories a record that is a tribute to an official who placed public good before personal gains.

The Railroads' Installment Plan

Many changes have been made by the railroads during the past year to regain the public's business which they have lost to the buses, automobiles and other means of travel. New and faster trains have been added. The services offered on them have been increased. The latest innovation is the installment plan of purchasing tickets for travel to various parts of the country.

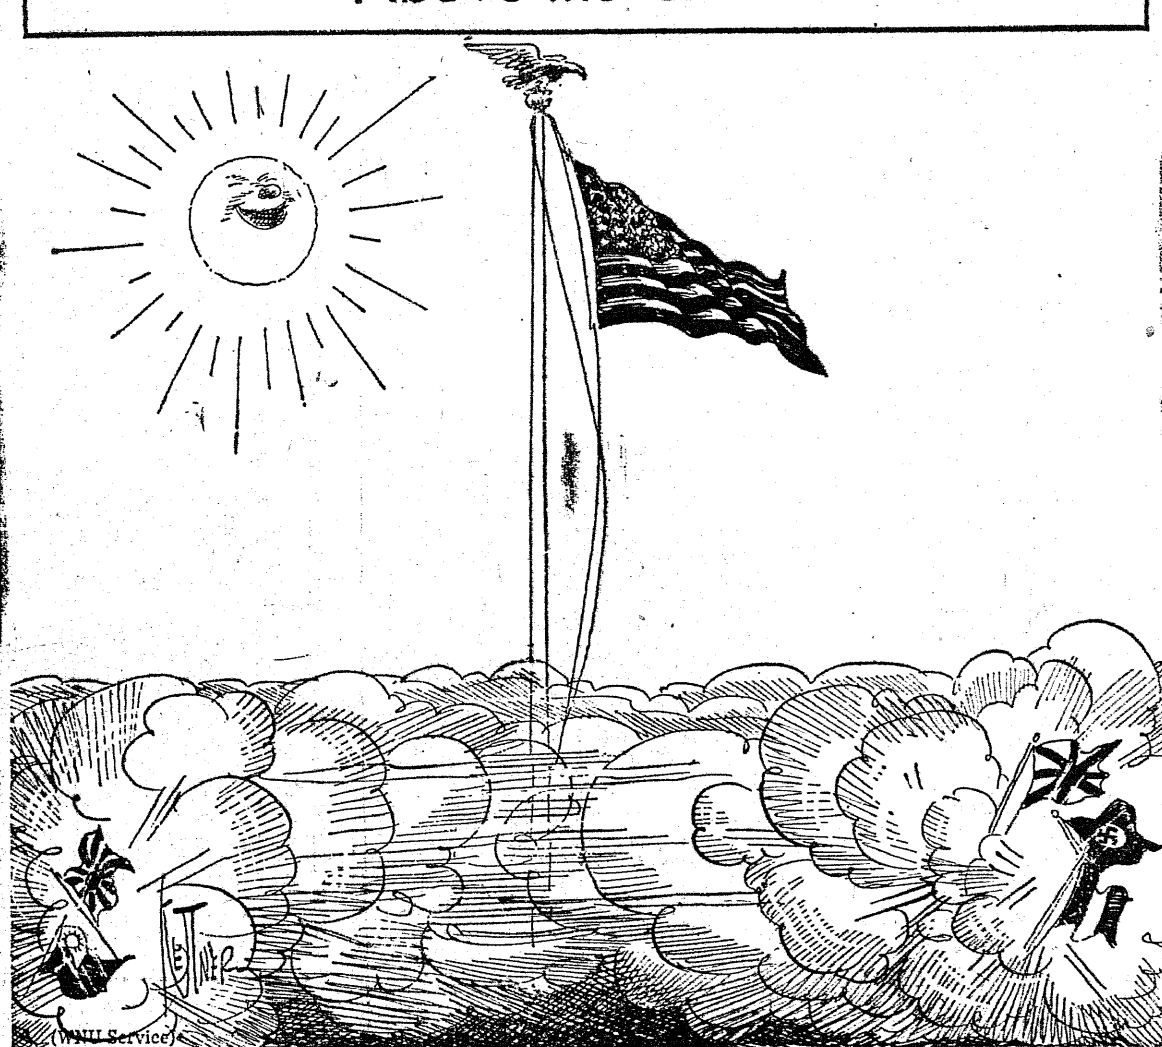

This is in line with the nation-wide "Travel America" campaign which is being carried on by hotel, tourist and other promotional agencies. The railroads are following in the footsteps of one of the steamship companies which during the winter announced that people could take the trip first and worry about paying for it later.

Poppies Are Sad Reminders

During the coming week veterans' organizations throughout the nation will be soliciting the public to purchase poppies. These little flowers tell the story of the horror of the last war and the suffering it brought to hundreds of thousands. For the sale of the poppies produces the money with which permanently hospitalized or injured veterans and their families are aided.

us are on edge because of European events. How, when they know of the tragedy and sadness of the last slaughter, can nations return to battle in what is apparently a more vicious, bloody conquest for power and supremacy? Do your bit to help the work of the veterans' organizations by purchasing a poppy during the week. But do it with the hope and the prayer that we will not have to provide millions more to care for the victims of another war.

Guess The Colonel Was Right

The present state of affairs in the European war forces us to cast aside personal preferences and look the facts in the face. Whether it is superior military skill or better mechanized war power, Germany, by the Allies' own admission, has made tremendous headway during the past two weeks in its campaign to gobble up as much of Europe as possible. It goes against the grain to accept the facts and we cannot help but think of the abuse that was heaped upon Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh some months ago when he told people in this country that the German air force was superior to the combined forces of France, Great Britain, Czechoslovakia and Russia.

From reports coming to this country, the Colonel apparently knew what he was talking about. However, few believed him. Abuse was heaped upon him by the newspapers, commentators on the radio and public platforms and by government officials. He was just a flyer who had overstepped the bounds by trying to be an aeronautical analyst. Now, Lindbergh can sit back and say, "Well, I told you so." Much of the Nazis' success to date has been their superior air power and until the Allies can combat that force, Germany will probably have the upper hand.

We do not agree with Lindbergh on all of his opinions about this country's defensive power or the program that should be pursued. He is an isolationist and as such comes in for plenty of criticism. But, based on the proof of the assertion he made nearly two years ago, in the face of a tremendous amount of public criticism, we think it well for those who are planning to spend millions for aerial defense to listen to what the Colonel has to say.

Whether it be a war, flood, hurricane or mine disaster or any one of the other numerous disasters, there is always one organization that stands ready to aid all regardless of race, color or creed—that is the American Red Cross. Support the local chapter in its campaign for funds by contributing your bit.

ESSEX COUNTY POLITICS

The views expressed in this column are entirely those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Publishers or Editors of the Belleville News.

by Meador Wright

The nomination of Robert C. Hendrickson is one of the most significant political vents in the recent history of New Jersey. It practically eliminates Harold G. Hoffman as a factor in the Republican party here. He may try for the Senate in 1942, when William H. Smathers' term is up. His followers will talk about electing him governor again. But any success he may have will belong to a new political era. The present one is ended. Hoffman has tried his hardest and lost. It is his first political defeat after ten or more successive victories. The legend of invincibility is destroyed. Future campaigns must be conducted under this new handicap. The past one developed into a race between his friends and his enemies. The enemies were more numerous. In 1942 the present disparity is not likely to be lessened.

On the other hand, when the vote of Tuesday is analyzed in the light of the tense feeling of Americans everywhere due to the European War it may be found that Hoffman's German name hurt him considerably. If this should be so, the handicap would be only temporary.

The nomination of Hendrickson was far from good news to Charles Edison. It eliminates the issue upon which he had the best chance of being elected governor. Hendrickson is not a strong candidate but he will get the normal vote of his party in most sections of the state. The Edison-Hendrickson contest will settle down to a contest between the Republican and Democratic parties.

There is not likely to be more than 20,000 votes between their relative party standings. Or this will be the case unless many of the Hoffman bitter-enders deliberately decide to throw the election to Edison. The Hoffman showing in Hudson indicates the Hague machine gave him no help whatsoever. It is possible that the Hague strategists with their uncanny insight into the psychology of voters figured that Hoffman malcontents would be more valuable in November than independent-minded voters in case he were nominated. This remains to be seen. Revenge is one of the strongest motives in the human mind. Hoffman may decide to have it in November with a vengeance.

The defeat of the Clean Government freeholder candidates represents the queerest upset in the history of Essex County politics. Part of this confusion came from the word "freeholder." The average voter is likely to think of a freeholder as an official not much different from a justice of the peace. Tuesday this voter was completely confused.

The voting machine ballot was a monstrosity. Even so, voters should have been educated to seek out these candidates. Somebody was asleep on the job. The defeat of Naughtright was not quite so accidental in my judgment. Stickle would have ran him a very close race, even had the ballot machine position not been a factor. Position, however, was responsible for the two-to-one majority. A way of vindicating the voting machine, Naughtright is scheduled to be the Clean Government candidate for Republican County Chairman when the committees meet Tuesday. This means that Clean Government has a fair chance of losing if the Franklin forces have made much gain in committee strength. They probably have not, hence Naughtright will probably be re-elected.

It is not clear yet how James J. McMahon will fare. Nothing significant came out of the election except that the vote was light.

MUSICAL SILHOUETTES

A Musical Commentary by Leon Carson

CCCXXX

The music of a people is not the music they listen to but the music they make for themselves.

—Charles Louis Seeger.

Goal Attained:

Upon receipt of a $50,000 grant from the Carnegie Corporation of New York, the Metropolitan Opera Association has arrived at the successful completion of its campaign for $1,000,000. This will, among other things, enable the Association to buy the Opera House building and property originally controlled by the box owners.

The contributions have poured in from every part of the United States and from every walk of life. This response indicates the intense, growing interest in opera, and also the realization on the part of the masses that the discontinuance of the Metropolitan's activities would prove nothing short of a calamity. On the other hand, it also places a heavy responsibility upon the institution's executive and artistic heads. With this definitely expressed confidence on the part of the public in mind, an increasingly high standard of artistic endeavor, both vocal and otherwise, must be created and maintained. The financial campaign has been successful, — and so must the future performances.

Many changes to the old Opera House, both behind the scenes and in front will undoubtedly be made. They should be. One in particular should be the revision of the present arctic blasts of air, ludicrously named an "air conditioning system." Personally speaking, this last winter we caught such a cold from this defective and awe-inspiring wind-system that the cost of its cure easily outran the price of our two perfectly good orchestra subscription seats.

Sold Out:

Certainly prosperity prevails in some quarters. It is announced that the entire subscription list of the Town Hall (N.Y.) Endowment Series for next season is already sold out.

Further, the demand for tickets has been so great that Josef Hofmann, world celebrated pianist, has consented to break a rule of long standing and permit auditors to be seated on the stage during his recital which opens the series.

The 1940-41 musical season in New York apparently is going to get off to a flying start.

Galli:

Many of us will remember the beautiful Rosina Galli who was premier danseuse of the Metropolitan Opera from 1914 to 1935. Since 1930 she was the wife of Giulio Gatti-Casazza, former general manager of the Metropolitan. Miss Galli died in Milan on April 30. The cause was pneumonia. She was only forty-four years old at the time of her passing.

Perhaps her most striking creation during her years as a dancer was the miming of the Queen of Sheema in Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Le Coq d'Or," first given in America at the Metropolitan on March 6, 1918.

Humorously Speaking:

From current "Musical America" we cull this excerpt: "And the candor of some conductor-pianists!"

"The following is a direct quote from Reginald Stewart, who guides the destinies of the Toronto Promenade Symphony Orchestra, and when not thus occupied gives keyboard recitals, one of which was a recent event in New York's Town Hall. The quote:

"During my recent tour in the United States I played the Ravel 'Jeux d'eau.' At one concert I took the occasion to mention to the audience that this was music quite different from anything I had played before — music in which the composer described the voices of nature — the fountains playing in a garden and the leaves rustling in the trees — impressionistic, atmospheric music. After I had finished playing, a woman came up to me and said: 'Oh, Mr. Stewart, I enjoyed your playing so much— You know, it was so atmospheric that some of the notes smelled!'"

Templars Wallop Kards 16-9 In Real Slugfest

The Templars rallied in the last three innings, changed the complexion of the score of 1-7 against them and beat the Kearny Cardinals 16-9 on Kearny Field Sunday. The Kards built up an early lead which was diminished somewhat by the Templars' four-run rally in the fifth and disappeared altogether in a nine-run onslaught staged by the Belleville nine in the sixth. Fratella and Corina had three hits apiece to lead the way, the latter including a four-bagger in his trio. Templars' r h e Cardinals r h e

Cards Hitting Power Helps

Three consecutive hits and an outfield fly gave the Cardinals two runs in the tenth inning and enabled them to beat St. Michael's A. C. of Newark 6-4 at Branch Brook Park Saturday afternoon. Four hits were all the St. Michael's batters could garner off the deliveries of Lew Evans, who tallied his third win of the year. In the meantime the Belleville boys smashed out thirteen hits. Jim Craven, with a double and two singles, led the Cardinal onslaught. Cardinals r h e St. Michael's r h e

Bellboy Nine Loses One Then Wins Two

The Bellboys raised their baseball average to .500 during the past week by winning their fifth and sixth games and dropping their sixth decision in twelve starts. The week was marked by almost absolute pitching impotence and sloppiness afield, another of real slugging power and a twirling masterpiece. Today finds them in the midst of the longest home stay of the year.

SOFTBALL TEAMS WILL DISCUSS TOURNAMENT PLANS

Meeting on Town Championship Night at Recreation House; Rules Listed

The committee in charge of arrangements for the 1940 town senior softball championship tournament today announced the rules of competition and issued an invitation to representatives of every senior softball team in Belleville to attend the organization meeting of the tournament. The meeting will be held tonight in the Recreation House at 8.

The committee explained that tonight's meeting will not definitely obligate any team to enter the tournament. The main purpose is to accept entries and to explain all the rules of the contest.

The champion will be picked in an elimination tournament in which the future of each team will be decided on a single game. It is miss and out. The tournament will be played on the Turf Bog and will start July 20. Entries may be made up to June 15. The winner of the competition will meet the champion of Nutley in a two-out-of-three series and will represent Belleville in the state tournament.

Rules

1. All teams must use the official entry blank. A complete roster of the team must accompany the blank. First names and addresses must be used.

2. No more than eighteen playing members and one manager may be listed for any team. All must be residents of Belleville or in the case of industrial teams, full-time employees in a Belleville firm.

3. Entry must be made, together with full entrance fee, no later than June 15 or postmarked before midnight of June 14. No changes in roster will be permitted after June 30, 1940.

4. There will be an entrance fee of three dollars ($3.00) per team.

5. Players may not be entered on the rosters of more than one team.

6. All games will be seven innings in length and will be played Saturday and Sunday afternoon beginning July 20. One forfeit will eliminate a team. Teams not present with at least ten players fifteen minutes after game time, will automatically forfeit to the team which is present. No substitutions will be permitted outside of the team roster.

7. Teams will supply all their own equipment, including bats and balls, in all games through the semifinals of the tournament.

8. All entries agree to abide by the decisions of the committee in matters of general policy and by the decisions of the officials during the games.

9. All games will be played on the Belleville Municipal Athletic Field. Each round will consist of one game and the series with the champions of Nutley will consist of two out of three and will be played Labor Day weekend.

10. Play will follow the rules of the New Jersey Softball Association.

11. The Belleville News Corporation is in no way responsible for any personal injury which may be incurred during the tournament or the Belleville-Nutley series.

CARDINALS RAP TRIANGLES 8-5

Don Richards Holds Losers to Eight Hits; Cortese Leads Attack

The Cardinals and the Triangles went forth on Capitol Field Sunday afternoon to settle the question of supremacy. As usual, it is not settled to the satisfaction of all, for neither will admit that the other has the better team.

The Cards' Don Richards set the Triangles down with eight hits and beat them 8-5 for his second decision of the current campaign. The Triangles started off with a run in the first frame on three successive hits. The Redbirds scored once in each of the second and third stanzas but the tri-corners tied it up in the fourth.

The Cardinals went to work on Lou Long in the next three innings and tallied six runs to take a commanding lead. The Triangles came to life in the eighth with a three-run rally. Lou Fantacone held the Cards in check in the last two frames but the damage had already been done.

Norm Cortese, with a double and a pair of singles, led the Cardinal offensive, followed closely by Charlie Phillips with a double and a single. Emmett Ryder and Tom Marshall garnered four of the Triangles' eight base knocks. A long triple by Ryder in the eighth was the best hit of the day.

ORANGE DUMPS TRACKMEN

Blue and Gold Bows by Lopsided Score of 63-27 At Brookdale

The injury-riddled track squad wearing the Blue and Gold was no match for West Orange Tuesday afternoon at Brookdale Park and the Orangemen won the meet by a lopsided 63-27 score. Four grade "A" cindersmen are on the sidelines and the absence of Walley Elliott in the hurdles, George Baldwin in the longer distances, Ed Gorman in the sprints and John Higgins in the pole vault and high jump lost the Bellboys many valuable points in these events.

Belleville could gain only two firsts and a tie for first in the ten events. The Zebras were shut out of the low hurdles, although they returned in kind in the shot put. In five of the events they could garner only a third. Al Richardson led the West Orangemen with victories in the low hurdles, century and broad jump. The Orangemen had two other double winners.

BARNETT BACK

Pitcher Scheduled to Return to Action After Illness

Bernie Barnett is expected to report back in uniform in ten days to two weeks following his hospitalization with blood poisoning, according to word received here yesterday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Barnett, Jr., of 11 Baldwin place. Young Barnett is beginning his second year with the Akron club of the Middle Atlantic League.

In his inaugural assignment on the mound at Charleston, S. C., he suddenly blew up in the ninth and four unearned runs came across the plate. He was charged with his first defeat. He had been slated to pitch the home opener in Akron, but examination of a blister on his heel showed it badly infected. He has been under medical care since then but was released from the hospital last weekend.

The Woman's Desk

by PEGGY PATTERSON

The interests of children are known to fluctuate with the passing years and the order in which subjects are presented to them in their schoolwork. These natural causes make them devotees at one period of nothing but active sports, at another time they have withdrawn into secluded contemplation of some technical subject; and the same boy who formerly collided violently with anyone who barred his progress to the ball field may suddenly become the one who labors patiently in the basement with model airplanes and looks at you witheringly when you suggest a little exercise.

This trait gives the youngster one advantage over his elders when it comes to a trip to the World's Fair. If you will question him or her, beforehand you will undoubtedly find a limited number of things which he really wants to see. Plan his day at the Fair to include a thorough and leisurely inspection of the exhibits which really will enthrall him. Do not attempt to cram into the day too much general background. If you make every symbol in the form of a building or statue the subject of an historical summary he will only become bored and weary. Pass without too much talking from one scheduled exhibit to another. The general outlay will not be lost on him. But this is his opportunity to see in extravagant detail the things about which he longs to know the most.

Hardly anyone who has observed a child closely needs to be told that the subject dearest to his heart is the one which he publicizes the least. You, as his parent, may not even know the things that appeal to him most. When you are finding out tactfully what he wants to investigate, be careful not to show surprise at his choices. Accept them casually, conduct him to them and be fairly silent observer. He will appreciate it if you do not try to improvise out of what may be a child's knowledge. Let him understand what he can without interference and if he insists on instructing you in the way home, be glad for he is only putting into practice the instinctive law that you have never truly learned a thing until you have taught it to someone else.

A department of public education has been established at the World's Fair which will help you on a trip for your child's pleasure and education according to the age or her age. We would like to see you willing to waver, however, at a few children will need to have this plan drawn for them if little pains are taken before and to let them outline their own plan.

It is readily admitted that the correct staying young does not lie in the hands of the cosmetic or the manufacturer of fancy clothes. It is more in the ability of the women to keep her self for living; for youthfulness is rather in the voice and eyes than in the complexion and waistline. Like everything else worth having this wonderful characteristic must be planned, worked for and zealously hoarded. The young heart at seventy or eighty have suddenly recaptured their joy of living; they have never let go it.

The strongest force against the normal instinct to be happy seems to be the insistent routine that is demanded of the woman who maintains a home and raises a family. The same is true of a woman who holds an important position. At first she is keenly aware that she desires periodic rests from her routine, outside interests call her and she attempts to meet their demands. Gradually, however, she comes to hear a call and right there she does herself and all dependent on her grave injustice. For unless one elects to be the insistent routine of the life outside of her particular sphere her youth surely is lost to her.

The most unbeatable insurance that a woman takes into the future is her talent or her hobbies. Regardless of what they are they are often more valuable for the personal contacts they carry with them than they are for their intrinsic worth. Authorities point to us that the really satisfactory talents and hobbies are not those which are adopted in old but those which are entered into in youth and middle age and tried along, even sketched, through the years when life makes most strenuous demands. Do then give up your reading or music or whatever other occupation was your first love. And solve to add a new craft or hobby to your accomplishments every birthday. Do not accept opinions of others on public affairs. Dig for your own interpretation after conscientiously digging about them daily, or at least as frequently as you can. These things faithfully, says a psychologist, and you may be easily surprised to discover the day that you are not only young in heart but growing even younger.

Quite Tricky

Of all the play frocks this is the most becoming to any type of figure. Note the flaring pockets and trim waistline in this pique pinafore. In pure white over a pin striped shirt and short combination it is most attractive.

Mrs. G. E. Stickle of Walnut street, is chairman of the "Choose Your Own Game Party" to be held tomorrow evening at Public School No. 10 under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association. Refreshments will be served.

Contest Recipes

Send your favorite and reliable recipes to our contest. Prizes will be awarded weekly. Each winner will receive two guest passes to the Kent Theatre. The features starting Sunday are "Too Many Husbands," and "The Man From Dakota."

A typographical error in one of last week's recipes has caused us a great deal of concern. We trust that it has not inconvenienced any of you. In the recipe for Sugar Cookies, the item two cups of flour, to be added at the last after all other ingredients have been well mixed, was omitted. Be sure to correct your copy of this recipe.

From Mrs. Nellie Predmore of Wilber street we have received a recipe this week which we know you will enjoy using many times this summer. For that one tasty, hot dish which is invaluable, to summer meals, and as an ideal main course in meals cooked out of doors, she suggests:

Broiled Frankfurters

6 large frankfurters
6 tablespoons mustard
4 dill pickles
½ pound bacon cut in strips

Parboil frankfurters. Split and spread with mustard. In each place a slice of pickle, close and roll with a bacon strip. Fasten with a toothpick. Place in the center of broiler pan and broil until bacon is brown. Broiled vegetables, such as tomatoes dipped in cracker crumbs, can be served with these and will make one cooking operation. Or the frankfurters are an ideal accompaniment to cold vegetable salads.

A suggestion for a dainty dessert after one of these meals is also supplied by Mrs. Predmore. It is a simple and inexpensive version of:

Orange Pudding

1 cup sugar
1 tablespoon flour
1 egg, well beaten
1 cup water
3 medium sized oranges
1 cup whipping cream

Cook sugar, flour, egg and water until the consistency of custard. When cool add the oranges which have been cut in small pieces. Fold in whipping cream which has been beaten stiff. Pile in sherbert glasses and chill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fredericks and daughter Barbara Joan of Montgomery place were guests at a birthday dinner celebration Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Benson of Bloomfield formerly of this town.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lanza of Brighton avenue were weekend guests of their son-in-law and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Delymphyre of Lorenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Long of Wallace street were dinner hosts Monday evening to friends from Union.

Your Wardrobe Will Lead the Style Hit Parade If You Follow These Suggested Summery Items

Among the things you mustn't miss as you prepare your summer wardrobe for vacation periods away from home or, perhaps more to the purpose, for making yourself as attractive as possible during a summer at home are:

The bolts of cotton chambray in exquisite stripes and paper-thin English broadcloth in gentle gray, violet, tan, blue and pink from which you can make inexpensively your own dresses or play suits. . . .

The big ball jewelry which you will love to wear with your simple white dresses; the newest are sat in striped like candy. And the rich pink and blue pearls ranging from tiny seeds to crusty big baubles. . . .

The stitched white turban which has returned in new smart versions and is still the answer to many summer costumes. Also, for casual wear, stitched pique turbans in peppermint stripes. . . .

The sturdy and elegant looking corduroy slacks suits for harder sports wear in natural and cocoa shades. . . .

The sheer cotton night dresses which are the coolest solution to scorching nights and are simple to care for such as pin-checked batiste trimmed very lightly with lace. . . .

The inexpensive pastel flannel sports coat which goes successfully over almost any type of summer dress and has a smart matching hat. . . .

The seersucker dresses for morning which do not need ironing and yet have been made so attractive in shepherd checks, plaids, cluster stripes or snow-flaked with stars. . . .

Looks Cool And Classy

Cotton gabardine makes this outfit durable as well as cool for sailing, fishing or any of the harder sports. The slacks without the jacket will be very useful all summer with fresh, tailored shirts.

Outdoor Dining Will Call for California And Contemporary American China in Solid Colors

Typical service for the out-of-door meals that we have been urging you to serve this summer is the California and contemporary American china in solid colors. Most of this ware is rather heavy and designed in bold, square lines. Covered casseroles with stubby handles are excellent for keeping hot dishes piping and come in individual sizes as well as the large ones. The pitchers shown with these sets are man-sized with comfortable handles and no-drip pouring surfaces. Although brilliant yellow, aqua, rose and blue are popular, we like the new soft green and oyster beige china. These are perfect complements for much of the wrought iron dining furniture designed for lawns and terraces and executed in green as well as white.

Salad bowl sets are just made for outdoor service and certainly add zest to that part of the meal we most enjoy in hot weather. Large bowls, sometimes footed, with accompanying fork and spoon make a perfect centerpiece when attractively filled and the miniature bowls nesting around the table are appealing to everyone. Precious woods like walnut or mahogany are beautiful and the less expensive bowls, many of which are hand painted on the outside are equally nice.

In addition to your more formal outdoor meals there will be numerous occasions when you can give individual members of your family a treat by serving them meals on a tray which they can carry to any favorite spot. Buffet trays in sets of half a dozen or more are very popular for this purpose. Made of stained wood, they are smooth and feather weight. A raised flange prevents things from slipping off. They accommodate nicely a medium sized plate plus cup and saucer or glass with silver and napkin. Some more elaborate trays are fitted with coasters for glasses and salt and pepper sets. Many of them are lined with cork to prevent damage from moisture.

For beverages or general use we most admire mirror trays, round and roomy with metal guard rails and firm handles. Special baskets for eight or more glasses are convenient and safe for carrying without spilling. These are white metal fitted with flowered glasses. Hand painted flowers are only surpassed in popularity by the hand painted fruits with which glasses are decorated; brilliant oranges, red plums or cool blue grapes make them enticing and the content more interesting. Solid color glassware is still good and lovely.

est of all, in our opinion, is frosted glass with bands of gold. The pitcher matching a set like this which we saw had a clear column of glass for a handle and was most effective.

CCCer Goes for Washington

Stephen Street Boy Writes About Trip West And Camp In Which He Is Stationed; Thinks Spokane Is Much Cleaner Than New York City

"I have been very fortunate to be sent to the state of Washington. The camp in which I am located is situated in the majestic Cascade Mountains, which however are not a part of the Rockies. The place here is very beautiful and there are mountains and tall trees galore."

This was the impression of his first few weeks in the CCC camp at Carlton, Washington, of Salvatore DiBartolo of 231 Stephen street. He wrote the story of his trip west in a letter received last week by Miss Jane Donnelly of 71 Van Houten place, a member of the Municipal Welfare Board. DiBartolo was a member of the party of 'thirty-four Belleville boys who went to camp in April.

"After a stay of about a week in Camp Dix," he said, "I started west to Washington. The railroad took us through the smoke state of Pennsylvania, the tranquil farmlands of Ohio, the still, peaceful state of Indiana and what we saw of Illinois appeared very quiet. Then we got a thrill when we saw St. Louis. There on the Mississippi I saw a beautiful showboat for the first time. It was a streamlined affair and was silver in color; it looked like a boat that one sees in the Buck Rogers comic strip . . .

500 Times Cleaner
"Then we set out across the wheat plains of Iowa. When we arrived in Montana we noticed a decided change in weather and elevation. Then it dawned on us that we had gotten to the first part of the Rockies. The same day we got up as high as seven thousand feet and it began to snow. Some of my friends were let off here in Montana. Then we continued on our way across the Rockies in Idaho and arrived in Spokane, Wash. To me it appeared as a model of New York. The only thing is it was five hundred times better and cleaner than New York. The next morning we arrived at our destination."

"The barracks where we live are surprisingly comfortable although they can never take the place of home. On the exterior they appear very rustic because they are made of natural pine-wood and are painted with a transparent stain. Inside the ceiling is white and the walls are of a soft cream color. The beds are iron army cots. The place is very sanitary. We have the facilities of a first aid hospital, a library, educational building, radio shop and woodcraft shop, not to mention several other things."

his office to do some typing and clerical work for him. He evidently liked my work because I now have a steady job in the Army office. There is a great deal of work in this office and I am glad because it is giving me the experience I need. When I get home I shall do my best to get a good job something like this one."

PRESENT PASTOR WITH PLAQUE
Bronze Name Plate Will Be Placed on Facade of Fewsmith Edifice

A tribute was paid to Dr. O. Bell Close, pastor of Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church, Sunday evening when a plaque was presented to him by the All-Youth Committee at its monthly supper, as a testimony of the "affection and respect held for him by the young people of the church."

The plaque, long wanted by the pastor as a name plate for the facade of the building, was the first goal achieved by the A-Y Committee which organized last February. It is cast in heavy virgin bronze and bears the inscription "Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church."

Announcement was made by Dr. Close that the memorial would be dedicated in the regular Sunday morning service when it will be presented to the Board of Trustees for installation. The Board of Deacons will have charge of arranging the special program.

Where Quality and Accuracy Prevail

THE FORD WAY OF DOING BUSINESS

The Ford Motor Company was founded by a working-man for working-men. Its present officers began as employees of the Company. It was the first company to pay a minimum wage, beginning in 1914, at the then astounding figure of $5 a day. That was double the prevailing wage of the time. The Ford minimum is now $6 a day for all employees engaged in production work. And from that, the wages rise to $10.80 a day, with the average wage $7.25, exclusive of salaried employees.

The Ford Motor Company was the first large company to establish the 8-hour day—also in 1914. And the 40-hour week was inaugurated by the Ford Motor Company in 1926, years before any such laws existed.

The Ford Motor Company employs men without regard to race, creed or color. It is common knowledge that working conditions in the Ford shops are the best that science and constant care can make them. A square deal, a just wage and stabilized employment for a large proportion of our employees—and as fully stabilized for all as conditions will permit—enable our men to retain their personal independence.

In consequence of these policies the Ford Motor Company has one of the finest bodies of employees in the world. The larger proportion are mature men of long service with the Company—sober, decent family men. Hundreds of them have been with the Company for more than 25 years—thousands for more than 15 years. Their health record, home ownership and citizenship records are good.

All this is reflected in Ford products, whether cars, trucks or tractors. The work is honestly done. Materials are the best that can be made or procured. Less profit to the Company and more value to the customer is known throughout the motoring world as "Ford's way of doing business."

Ford Motor Company was the first to make a motor car within the means of the average family—quitting the manufacture of what was then the largest selling model in the world to do so. Its chosen field in all the 30 years since that time has been the average American family—for which it has consistently provided car facilities which formerly only the wealthy could buy.

It is the policy of the Ford Motor Company to share the benefits of advanced methods and management with workers and public alike. Increased wages and employment over a period of many years have resulted in

A 300 per cent increase in the built-in value of the Ford car and a 75 per cent reduction in its price.
